INTRODUCTION

1 What is the Common European Framework?

The Common European Framework (CEF) seeks to standardise the description and assessment of levels achieved in different languages across Europe.

A1: This is the first level described by the CEF and it refers to students in their first year or two of studying English. This can otherwise be referred to as Elementary.

A2: This is the second level which is usually reached by students who have been studying English for up to three years. This can otherwise be referred to as Pre-Intermediate.

‘Can-do’ checklist
The Can-do checklist at the end of each unit tells the teacher and students what particular aspects of language the unit has practised. They are called ‘can-do statements’, as they concentrate on the language learners can successfully use in English, and are directly linked to the CEF descriptors for these levels. The contents page of this book summarises the functional language practised.

2 Why should I use this book?

It is a rich resource of lively, photocopyable materials for use with secondary-school students who have been studying English for one to three years.

This book is perfect for teachers looking for interesting skills work to complement a course book.

• The topics are fun and engaging for teenagers.
• Each unit is carefully staged to be both entertaining and achievable.
• Each unit presents and practises a wide range of new vocabulary.
• Each unit provides REAL language practice, linked to the CEF descriptors.
• Each unit provides practice in writing and speaking, and reading or listening.
• Each unit takes between 45-60 minutes of class time.

3 How do I use this book?

This shows that the unit is reading based.

This shows that the unit is listening based. This example indicates that the listening is the second in unit 12.

The book is divided into two sections. Units 1-20 are suitable for students at A1 level and units 21-40 are for students at A2 level. The first ten units in each section have a reading input and the second ten have a listening input.

Within the sections, the units gradually become more difficult. (The grading of the units is a guide.) You may wish to use the more difficult units to stretch your students or easier units for less advanced classes.

The Teachers’ Notes, at the end of the book, give ideas on how to stage the lessons. There are also some suggestions for extra activities, keys to the exercises and transcripts for the listening items.

Select activities to give extra practice for language presented in your course book or simply for fun! Choose the appropriate units for your class from the contents page where you can find information about level, topic and language items practised.

Writing activities can be used for homework, or done in class, at your discretion.
1 LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT

1 Read this poem. Do you like it?
‘L’ is for your Lips
‘O’ is for Only you
‘V’ is for Very special
‘E’ is for Everyday I think of you.

2 There is a new website called Findlove.com.
Read about these people and match them to the pictures.

A. Hi! I’m Rachel. I’m thirteen years old and I’m blonde with blue eyes. I live in London. I’m not very tall but I’m quite slim. I’m a student and I study English. I want to be an English teacher. I love Italian food and films. My favourite actor is Johnny Depp! I don’t like boy bands.

B. I’m Mandy. I’m sixteen and a half and I have red hair and green eyes. I live with my parents in Birmingham. I work in a clothes shop on Saturdays. In the evening I like going dancing. I really love music. I have a lot of CDs and sometimes I sing with my friends! I hate going to the gym!

C. Bonjour! My name’s Jacques and I’m French. I’m sixteen and I play the guitar in a band with my friends. I go to Arles Music Academy! I have long dark hair and green eyes. I’m into music and dancing and of course I love fashion! I really don’t like football.

D. My name’s Mike. I’m fourteen and I’m in third year at secondary school. I have dark hair and blue eyes. I live very near Dublin. I’m tall and slim. I like skateboarding and the cinema. I’m learning French and Italian. I don’t like other sports very much.

Choose A, B, C or D.
1 Who has dark hair? ...........
2 Who has green eyes? ...........
3 Who likes music a lot? ...........
4 Who likes Johnny Depp? ...........
5 Who likes languages? ...........

5 Unjumble these words from the text. Then match them with their meanings.

1. He's tequi slim.
   - quite
   - a) school.
2. I'm not toni it.
   - not very fat
3. I lay real love it.
   - c) I don't like it.
4. Music dacayem
   - d) I like a lot.

6 What are you into? Write three sentences.

What are you not into? Write three sentences.

7 Speaking. Look at this information about two more people. You and your partner are Jenny and Mark. Ask your partner questions.

8 Writing. Work with a partner and write a website entry for a new person: funny or serious! Then read out your entries to the class. Who makes the best pairs?

OR

Write an entry for someone in your class. Don’t put the name on it. The class must guess who it is.

9 Silent dictation: Now, choose a website entry from exercise 1 and dictate it to your partner. BUT you must not speak! Your partner must not look at the exercise! You can only use your lips! Can you do it?

Can-do checklist

☐ I can understand simple information.
☐ I can understand simple descriptions of people.
☐ I can ask and answer questions about myself and other people.
☐ I can write simple phrases about myself and other people.
2 LET'S PARTY!

1 Talk about these questions.
   1 Do you like parties?
   2 What sort of parties do you like?
   3 When do your friends have parties?

2 Here are invitations to three different parties. Read and match them to the pictures.

3 Read the invitations again and circle the correct answers.
   1 The English party is at school / at Mandy's house.
   2 Tom's mother / father is cooking.
   3 Tom's party will be inside / outside.
   4 Helen's parents will be in / out.
   5 Helen's party is for her birthday / her sister's birthday.
   6 They will / won't speak English at Sue and Mary's party.
4. Where will you see these things? Put a tick (✓), a cross (✗) or write 'probably' in the boxes.

5. Ask your partner about each party.
1. What food will they eat at Tom's / Sue's / Helen's party?
2. What clothes will they wear?
3. What things will they do?

6. Complete these sentences with words from the invitations.
1. I'm ................. a party ........ Wednesday.
2. It will be ........ 9 o'clock .......... my house.
3. ................. you like to come?
4. Please ........ me know ASAP.
5. Phone me ........ 0972 561324.

7. Speaking. Look at these answers:
   a) Thanks. I'd love to come.
   b) Sorry. I can't make it.

   Invite your partner to the parties below. Use the expressions in exercise 6. Your partner can accept or refuse. How quickly you can do ALL the invitations – correctly? Now change over!

8. Writing. Work with a partner and think of your own special party. Write the invitation and decorate it.

Can-do checklist
☐ I can understand dates, numbers and times.
☐ I can make basic invitations.
☐ I can accept and/or refuse invitations politely.
☐ I can write simple invitations.

4 Read this short article. What can Martina do really well?

The Ugly Competition

Every year, in Marston village, there is an important competition. Today is the day of 'The Ugly Competition'. People come from all over the world and try to make the ugliest face. The winner last year was Martina Bates and she made a really horrible face! Martina says that she practises a lot. Sometimes people think she's rude but she's only practising! Martina learned to make faces when she was five years old. She wanted to frighten her sister. In England they say, 'If the wind changes and you are making a face, your face will stay the same for ever.' I hope it's not windy this afternoon!

5 Now correct the underlined words.

1 The competition is in a different place each year. ..........................................................

2 People make beautiful faces. ..........................................................

3 Martina learned to make faces when she was ten. ..........................................................

4 Martina doesn't practise much. ..........................................................

5 If the wind stops, your face will stay the same. ..........................................................

6 Find words in the text that mean:

1 a small town .............................................. 4 to scare ..............................................

2 not beautiful ............................................. 5 kind of weather when the air moves a lot

3 not polite ................................................. ..........................................................

7 Can you make ugly faces? Have a 'Ugly Competition' in your class.

8 Writing. Here is another strange competition: 'Can you eat six burgers in two minutes?'
With a partner, think of 4 more 'Can you' competitions!

9 Speaking. Here are some more 'Can You' questions. Ask your partner.

1 Can you say 'Hello' in four languages?
2 Can you make the noise of a police car?
3 Can you sing a song in English?

4 Can you touch your nose with your foot?
5 Can you name three famous English footballers?
6 Can you say English words for one minute?

Can-do checklist

☐ I can ask and answer questions about ability.
☐ I can understand a short, simple article.
☐ I know the parts of the body.
7 FAB PHONES

1 How many words can you make from the letters in ‘MOBILE PHONES’?

2 Match these words to the pictures.

   e-mail  photos  games  ringtones  video  alarm

3 Read these e-mails and circle the right answer.

   1 Penny asks Ben about
   2 Ben tells Penny to get a ringtone from 3 Penny got the phone from

   a) videos.  b) alarms.  c) ringtones.
   a) a friend.  b) a magazine.  c) the internet.
   a) her sister.  b) her parents.  c) a friend.

Hi Ben!
I’ve got a brilliant new mobile! I got it for my birthday from Mum and Dad. It’s wicked! It’s the new Nokia and I can take photos and videos with it. It’s got quick texting so I can text you really fast now. It’s also got a lot of games and I can e-mail from it too. I want a funky ringtone. Any suggestions?

Love Penny xxx

Dear Penny,
Lucky you! My phone is really old. It hasn’t got video, photos or quick texting. It takes so long to send messages. My ringtone is boring too. I’d love a new Nokia. Why don’t you get a ringtone from the net? You can get pop, R&B, classics, etc. and you can change your ringtone every day! How about a photo of me on your screen?! You can take a photo with your phone this evening! CUL8R.

Ben.
4) In the e-mails, find words which mean:

1) wonderful
2) lots of
3) cool
4) also
5) See you later
6) I'd like

5) Talk about these questions with your partner.

1) What is your favourite ringtone?
2) What is your favourite game?
3) What is your favourite colour for a phone?
4) Which is most useful for you?
   a) quick texting  b) video  c) photos  d) e-mail

6) Look at the e-mails again and complete.

Penny asks Ben for suggestions.
She says: ........................................?

Ben gives suggestions like this:
Why ......................................? How................ a photo...?

7) Your Mum wants to buy a new mobile. Use the ideas in boxes A and B to complete the sentences.

A.
  silver
  a new Nokia
  a contract
  the new Eminem song

B.
  It's a cool colour.
  It's funky.
  It's a wicked phone.
  It's much cheaper.

2) Read about Harry Potter and check your answers to exercise 1.

The Most Famous Boy in the World

Harry Potter is perhaps the most famous boy in the world. We can read about his life in books or watch his adventures in films. Millions of people saw the third film “Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban” and there will be more films in the next years. The writer, J K Rowling, first wrote about Harry in the book, “Harry Potter and the Philosopher’s Stone”. Harry is a wizard and he studies at a special school called Hogwarts with his two friends, Hermione and Ron. He can do magic and has a lot of fights with his enemy, Voldemort. The headmaster of the school, Dumbledore, is a powerful old wizard and a good friend to Harry. He also has another good friend, Hagrid who is a giant. When Harry wants to send a message he uses his owl, Hedwig. Harry is getting older now. What do you think he is going to do next?

3) Here is a magic trick for you to do. First, label these things in the pictures.

- vinegar
- tie a knot
- chicken bone
- bowl
- 3 hours
- 24 hours

4. Are any teen magazines popular both with boys AND girls? Which?

2. Read the competition and e-mail quickly. Would Karen prefer a magazine for boys or girls or both?

Teen Mag Competition

Can you help us plan a new magazine for teenagers? We're looking for new ideas. We want a magazine that is right for YOU with things that EVERYONE wants to read. Shall we have fashion articles, horoscopes, interviews with celebrities? If YOU have some good ideas fill in this form and send it to us at mylookpub.com by 1st November. The winners will get 8 hours' free shopping!

This site is fictional.

Hi Hazel,

There's a great competition on mylookpub.com/teenmag. Look at it quick!
Why don't we enter? The prize is fantastic! Most of the mags today are rubbish and I'm sure we have better ideas. I think they should have things that both boys and girls want to read, like joke pages and posters and personality quizzes — everybody likes those. Perhaps we could have some interviews with football stars and a free gift or something to collect like stickers or film reviews. There could also be competitions and the winners can meet celebs... I know, let's suggest the winner spends a day with Brad Pitt or Angelina Jolie!! Can you imagine? I've got lots of ideas and I'm sure you have too. What do you think? Shall we give it a try?

25 GIVE YOUR ROOM A MAKEOVER

1 Talk with a partner about these questions.
   1 Do you like your bedroom?
   2 What do you like/not like about it?
   3 A ‘makeover’ is when a designer changes everything. There are some TV programmes about this. Would you like a designer to change your bedroom?

2 Read the first paragraph about a TV competition and answer the questions.
   1 Who are the designers?
   2 What’s the name of the TV programme?
   3 What can people win?

MAKEOVER OFFER
Would you like to change your room?
Is it too light or too dark?
Is it too pretty or too young?
Is the furniture old and boring?
Designers Karen and Matt Tipple from the TV programme ‘Makeover Magic’ can makeover YOUR room!
Just fill in this entry form online and the best entry will win a makeover for their bedroom.
So don’t wait! Fill it in now!

Entry Form
Name: Jane Markham   Age: 14   Address: 16, Blackthorn Road, Dorchester.
Short description of the room: It’s a small room with one bed, a table and a wardrobe. There are long curtains and a carpet. There are two lamps and a ceiling light.
Why does your room need a makeover?: My parents decorated my room when I was younger and I liked Disney cartoons. There are cartoons on the wallpaper and the bedcover! The curtains are pink! The carpet is yellow and is a bit dirty now and the lamps have roses on them – because my mum likes flowers! It’s a very childish room and I’d like to change everything. Can you help me? I’d love a more grown-up bedroom!

3 Now read the Entry Form and tick the things Jane would like to change in her bedroom.
   chair  table  shelves  rug  carpet  bed  bedcover  curtains  wallpaper  lamps  light  mirror  pictures

4 Read the text again. Then cover it and see how many adjectives you can remember.

Look again and check. Add any that you forgot.
5. Read this e-mail from Jane two weeks later. Does she like her new bedroom?

I've got some terrible news! I won a competition for a bedroom makeover and they did it yesterday and today. I went out so that I couldn't see what they were doing. When I came back I nearly cried. It looks awful! They painted the walls bright orange and changed the curtains. Now they’re dark green! It makes me feel sick! The carpet is a miserable grey and the bedcover is baby blue. The lamps are turquoise with orange spots. There are some stupid pictures of old film stars on the wall and the furniture is all white. I hate it. I prefer my old Disney cartoons!

Do you like painting?

Bartonby
Visitors to the village of Bartonby in Dorset come for one reason. They don't come to see the lovely old houses by the river. They don't come for the famous Bartonby Biscuits. They don't come to buy the beautiful gifts in the shops. They come because Bartonby has another name. "The village of the Dead"! Bartonby has had more accidents, disasters and deaths than any other village in England and people say that many ghosts walk through the streets. Scientists come to do their tests and tourists come to go on the famous "Ghost Walk".

DON'T BE LATE FOR A DATE WITH THE DEAD!

Bartonby Ghost Walk
Start: 9.00 pm. Meet at the old bridge in Newton Road.
Finish: 2.00 am. at Manor House.

Route
We walk along Newton Road and down Frost Lane where three teenagers had a terrible motorbike accident forty years ago. You can hear the bikes very easily.
Our second stop is St. Martin's church at the end of Tanners Lane. A man killed his fiancée the night before the wedding and she is still trying to get into the church. We will see her white dress and hear her sad cries.
For our third stop we take a boat along the river Sarne to Bowen's Bridge. Under this bridge five escaped prisoners died. The police shot them and they fell into the water. The water is red.
Our last stop is ten minutes down the river. There was a terrible flood in 1570 and the bones of 150 people who died are still at the bottom of the river. The police try again and again to take them out but the bones move to different places. They want to stay. We may see them move tonight. Bring warm clothes, comfortable shoes, a camcorder.

6) What are the past tenses of these verbs?
1. kill .......... 2. escape ............ 3. shoot ............ 4. fall ............. 5. die ............

7) Read again and answer these questions.

Competitions

Cringe Competition

Here are the entries for this week's competition. Choose the best and text us the name of your favourite.

A From: Gemma
Once I was in the car with my little sister. She was asleep on my knees. Well, I thought she was asleep. She wasn't. She was undoing all the buttons on my shirt! When I got out of the car my shirt was open! All my friends were watching. I was SO embarrassed!

B From: James
I was at the cinema with a mate and the couple in front of us were kissing. We dropped popcorn on their heads! The woman turned round and it was my teacher! I nearly died!

C From: Mike
I really cringed was when I was taking a test at school. In the middle of the test my mum walked in and gave the teacher my lunch box. I'd left it at home. Cringey!

D From: Josie
Once I went to a party and I thought that I looked fantastic. I put on false eyelashes and wore my best dress. At the party I was playing with a balloon and it burst in my face. Later everyone was laughing and when I looked in the mirror I saw my eyelashes were on my cheeks! I went so red!
3 Read the magazine article again and answer these questions.
1 Whose ‘cringe’ happened at school? ........................................

28 APOLOGIES.COM

1. There is a new website called Apologies.com. What do you think you can find on this site?
   a) advice on how to apologise
   b) people saying sorry for different things.

   Read the first paragraph and check your answer.

2. Match the words with the pictures.
   1 glue  2 a date  3 a contact lens  4 sick  5 a smell  6 a wimp

   [Matching images of a glue bottle, date, contact lens, sick person, smell, and wimp]

3. Read the apologies on the website. Then answer the questions below.

   APOLOGIES

   This is a new website where people can say sorry online. Some people apologise for things that happened yesterday and some people apologise for things that happened a long time ago. It is very popular because a lot of people do not like to say sorry face to face.

   Rosie: I'm so sorry I missed our date right but I dropped my contact lens down the toilet and it took ages to get it out. I couldn't see so I couldn't find my glasses or my mobile phone. Sorry, Stuart.

   Mike: I want to apologise. You know that terrible smell in the living room yesterday? I said it was you. I'm really sorry. It was me, John.

   Granddad Bob: I want to say sorry because I did something terrible in your garden when I was six. I cut the heads off all your flowers and said it was the dog, Karen.

   Jen: I need to apologise for something when we were at school in the first year. It was me who put glue in your sandwiches. Sorry, Marle.

   Peter: I'm really sorry. I feel awful. You know I cooked you spaghetti Bolognese last weekend? Well, I didn't have any meat and I put cat food in it. You were so sick. Forgive me, Beth.

   Mark: I apologise for calling you a wimp. You're not. You're very brave and I love you very much. Anna.

   [This site is fictional.]

   1 Who made someone ill? ..............................
   2 Who has bad eyesight? .................................
   3 Who played a bad joke on a friend? ..............
   4 Who said something bad to a friend? ............
   5 Who did something wrong and said it was someone else? ........
   6 Who do you think is not telling the truth? ..........
4 Collocations. Match these words with a line. Then check in the text.

- Miss
- Apologise
- Cut
- Took
- Drop

- a) ages
- b) a contact lens
- c) for something
- d) a date
- e) something off

Write sentences using these collocations.

I missed my date with Peter last night.

5 Read the text again and complete these phrases.

1 I’m r _ _ _ _ sorry.
2 I f _ _ _ _ awful.
3 I want to s _ _ sorry.
4 I want to a _ _ _ _ _ _
5 I’m s _ sorry.
6 F _ _ _ _ me.
7 I apologise f _ _ calling you a wimp.
8 I n _ _ to apologise for something.

6 We can answer an apology in different ways. Practice saying them.

That’s OK. All right. No problem. Don’t worry. That’s terrible! No, I won’t forgive you!

7 Writing. Choose one or two of these apologies from the website.
Work with a partner and finish them.

1 Mum: I’m really sorry. Yesterday .................................................................
2 Dear Teacher. I want to apologise. You know ..............................................
3 Fran. About last Monday. I’m so sorry I .....................................................
4 Mrs. Reeves. I apologise for saying ...........................................................
5 Granny. I want to say sorry because when I was six I ................................

1 ........................................ verb: ........................................
2 ........................................ verb: ........................................
3 ........................................ verb: ........................................
4 ........................................ verb: ........................................
5 ........................................ verb: ........................................

2 Match these questions with the pictures. Then ask your partner the questions.

Have you ever ...
1 looked at someone in front of you and they turned round?
2 worn the same clothes as your friend?
3 thought about someone and then they immediately phoned you?
4 had the same thought or idea as your friend at the same time?
5 seen a cat or dog who goes to the door just before their owner arrives?
6 had a dream about something and it happened later?

3 Read this article and tick the pictures above which are mentioned.

'Do you know what I’m thinking?'

Some people think we have an extra sense: telepathy. Telepathy means knowing what other people are thinking and sending thoughts to other people. People with this sense are very special, or are they? Sometimes we know if someone is looking at us. We also often know who is calling us before the phone rings. Animals know these things too. In fact they're very good at it! In Yorkshire there is a parrot who says the name of the person who is calling before they answer the phone! Some people even have dreams that tell them what is going to happen. Scientists say that this extra sense is a normal use of our brain and a long time ago we used it to know when we were in danger.

So, what do you believe? Can we communicate by telepathy?
4) Read the article again. True or false?

1. All people believe that we have an extra sense. T/F
2. Animals don’t have an extra sense. T/F
3. Only special people have this sense. T/F
4. A child in Yorkshire can say the name of the person who phones. T/F
5. Dreams can tell us things that are going to happen. T/F
6. A long time ago this sixth sense told us when we were in danger. T/F

5) Cover the article with a piece of paper. Now complete the sentences.

1. Some people think we have an _____________ sense.
2. People with this sense _____________ are very special.
3. Sometimes we _____________ if people are looking at us.
4. We used this sense to know when we were in _____________.
5. What do YOU _____________?

6) Speaking. Can YOU send your thoughts? Work in groups of three. Take turns to be students A, B and C and try these activities. A reads an activity. Students B and C do NOT read it. A explains to B and C what to do. Only speak in English!

Activity 1
1. B, cover your eyes with your hands or close them.
2. C, don’t look at B. Then look at him/her.
3. B, say when you ‘sense’ C is looking at you.

Activity 2
1. B, take a piece of paper.
2. C, choose a shape. Don’t tell B. Think about it and ‘send’ the symbol to B.
3. B, draw the shape you think he has chosen on the paper.

Activity 3

   2 When I move to California. I hope we don’t ........................................ touch.
   3 People often ........................................ touch when they leave school.
   4 I would like to ........................................ touch with my old teacher.

5 With your partner play ‘Hangman’ with words from exercise 1 and the e-mails.

6 To make promises we say:
   Helmut: "Lucy, I will e-mail you."

   To talk about the promises later we say:
   Helmut said he would e-mail Lucy.

   To talk about broken promises we can say:
   Helmut said he would e-mail Lucy but he didn’t.

   Underline more broken promises in the e-mails.

   Here are some responses.
   I’m sorry, I completely forgot.
   Did I? I don’t remember.
   I’ll do it now.
   Sorry, but I was lying!

7 Speaking. With your partner make dialogues with these promises.
   1 phone me last night
   2 record a film for me
   3 meet me at the station
   4 buy me a cake at the supermarket
   5 introduce me to your new friend

TEACHER’S NOTES AND TRANSCRIPTS

Unit 1
1 Talk about the title of the unit. The students read the poem. As a whole class or in pairs, they invent another ‘Love’ poem.
2 Encourage the students only to scan to match the pictures with the texts.
Key: 1 C 2 D 3 A 4 B
3 Again students scan to answer the questions.
Key: 1 C & D 2 B 3 & C 4 A 5 A & D 6 B 7 A 8 B 9 A 10 C
4 Students read again. Ask them for an explanation for their choice and teach ‘both’, if necessary.
Key: A & D: they are both interested in Italian and the cinema. B & C: they both like music and dancing.
5 Students unjumble and match.
Key: 1 quite - b 2 into - c 3 really - d 4 academy - a
6 Give them some more examples of things you are and aren’t into. Explain that any verbs go in the gerund. (I’m into dancing.) Encourage students to use other items from previous exercises. Ask for examples with the verbs ‘love’ and ‘hate’.
7 Pre-teach ‘plump’. Write the categories (age, home, hair, etc.) on the board and elicit the correct questions orally or in writing. Alternatively, write the questions on the board and then throw out a few set words from each. The students do the role-play.
8 Students can follow the categories in ex. 7 to write their website entry. Monitor the activity and select some to be read aloud. The funnier the better. This could be set as homework.
9 Give the silent dictation a chance. If it’s too difficult – let them speak! Students self-check.

Unit 2
1 Use questions for pairwork or class discussion. Elicit feedback.
2 Students read and match.
Key: A 3 B 1 C 2
3 Key: 1 at school 2 father 3 outside 4 out 5 her birthday 6 will
4 The students complete the chart. Elicit a description of each picture to pre-teach or revise key vocabulary related to parties: clothes, food and activities.

5 The students talk about the questions. For practise of future tense, insist on complete sentences in the answers.
6 Explain that ASAP means ‘as soon as possible’ and is read as 4 letters, not a word.
Key: 1 having on 2 at 3 Would 4 let 5 on
If necessary, give more controlled practice by asking for correct prepositions with a series of words, e.g. Monday?
- On Monday: 9 o’clock? – At 9 o’clock; etc.
Remind students we read phone numbers by number (1256 = one, two, five, six, NOT twelve, fifty-six).
7 The students do the task in pairs, changing after the first student has given all the invitations. The idea is for them to get faster and faster – if appropriate, it can be done as a game to see which pairs finish first.
8 The students work together and write the invitation. Encourage creativity and humour! Let volunteers read out their invitations to the class.

Unit 3
1 The students look for the words and talk about the questions.
Key: cat, rabbit, mouse, fish, dog.
2 Elicit the concept of a ‘Lost’ notice and ideas about what sort of information would be on it.
Key: Nick’s
3 Key: 1 female - B 2 friendly - E 3 hairy - D 4 sunbathing - A 5 dangerous - C
4 The students work individually and check in pairs. Make sure they understand the question prompts as they need them for the next activity.
Key: 1 Mitsy 2 spider (tarantula) 3 6 months 4 12 cm
5 brown 6 small mice 7 sleeping in bed
8 in the garden 9 Nick 10 1566 33461
5 Half the class are A and half are B. The students complete the questions - they are the same for both A and B. Check with the whole class before letting them do the second part of the activity. In pairs, they answer and using the information in brackets on their cards.
Key: What’s the animal’s name? What type of animal is it? How old is it? How long is it? What colour is it? What kind of food does it like/eat? What does it like? Where did you see it last? What is its owner’s name? What is your telephone number?
6 Explain and demonstrate any unknown adjectives. Reinforce and practise the vocabulary by asking the students to think of one of the words and miming it for their partner, or the whole class.
Key: noisy - quiet, big - small, shy - friendly, heavy - light, dangerous - safe, fast - slow
7 The students can choose more than one adjective for each animal. Let them check answers in pairs or small groups.
8 Key: hairy Tuesday tortoise dangerous quiet parrot friendly
9 Students write a notice. This could be set as homework.
10 Based on the information in their notices and the questions in exercise 5, the students ask and answer.

UNIT 4
1 Discuss as a class. Ask the questions given and others that come up naturally.
2 The students think of names for the clubs based on the pictures. Write acceptable answers on the board.
Possible key: 1 Art / Painting Club 2 Magic Club / Harry
Potter Club  3 Animal lovers Club / Pet Club  4 Cinema / Film / Video Club  5 Dance Club  6 Cooking Club
3 In pairs, they make predictions, ticking the boxes.
4 The students read and check their predictions.
Key: play games, do quizzes
5 The students read again and answer.
Key: 1 on Mondays, after school  2 in Room 10  3 10  4 talk, play games, learn magic tricks, do quizzes and competitions 5 sign your name  6 Kathy Barnes
6 The students write 'positive' or 'negative' under each adjective. Elicit meanings. To give them further practice, ask 'What do you think of The Beatles / the film 'The Matrix' / school', etc.?
Key: a positive  b negative  c positive  d positive  e negative  f positive
7 The students give their opinion using the adjectives.
8 The students think of some information for an imaginary club.
9 They ask and answer questions. Remind them they can use the questions in exercise 5 to help them.
10 Students write a notice about their club. They can decorate it if they like. Display them on the walls for the class to read. Vote on the most interesting / popular / boring club.

Unit 5
1 Introduce the topic by asking 'Do you like wearing T-shirts? When do you wear them more, summer or winter? When would you not wear them, etc.? The students label the pictures, using dictionaries if necessary.
Key: a plain  b baggy  c designer  d funny  e tight  f fancy
2 The students read the questionnaire, writing their answers in column 1. Help with vocabulary.
3 The students ask and answer. Elicit feedback informally, or collate the results on the board. Pay particular attention to any interesting slogans that come up.
4 Students guess or tell you the meaning of 'slogan'.
Key: b
5 Ask the students if they ever buy things on the internet. Focus on the reading task and the questions.
Key: 1 F 2 F 3 T 4 F 5 T 6 F 7 F
6 The students match the slogans and pictures. Explain any expressions they don't understand, e.g., 'Bad Hair Day'. Tell them that 'Red lorry, yellow lorry' is a tongue twister.
Key: 1 c 2 d 3 a 4 b 5 e 6 f
7 Key: 1 d 2 e 3 f 4 c 5 a 6 b
8 Encourage the students to use expressions and vocabulary from the unit. Set an approximate number of words.
9 The students design a T-shirt. Then they describe it (without showing it) to their group who guesses who the T-shirt is for.

UNIT 6
1 Talk about the picture or show the students something odd you can do.
2 In pairs, or small groups, they sort out the words. Revise body parts if necessary.
Key: A: move lift put write read stand touch
B: tongue head toes mouth thumb wrist nose ears hands eyebrows
3 Key: 1 i 2 e 3 h 4 g 5 a 6 c 7 f 8 b 9 d
4 Key: Martina can make horrible faces.
5 Key: 1 Marston 2 ugly 3 five 4 practises a lot 5 changes
6 Key: 1 village 2 ugly 3 rude 4 to frighten 5 windy
7 Allow a few minutes for a class competition. Encourage responses such as, 'he's the ugliest. She's making the worst face,' etc.
8 The students use their imaginations. Ask each group to tell you the funniest one or two.
9 The final quiz is for fun. The fastest pair wins.

UNIT 7
1 Focus on the title. Say enthusiastically, 'Mobiles are fab'. Ask if 'fab' is positive or negative (positive) and what it means (fabulous). In teams or individually, the students make words with the letters.
Possible key: bones, mole, mile, oil, hen, pen, men, lips, smile, nose, mop, hop, mole, hole, pole, she, ship, shop, shone, spoon, moon, pool, spool
2 The students do the matching. Talk about what you can do with each option.
Key: a ringtones 2 photos 3 games 4 alarm 5 video 6 e-mail
3 Key: 1 c 2 c 3 b
4 The students read the texts again to find the words.
Key: a brilliant  b wicked  2 a lot of 3 funky 4 too  5 CULBR 6 I'd love
5 Encourage the students to talk about the questions. If some students don't have mobiles, they can imagine!
6 Point out the grammar of suggestions as you go along.
Key: Any suggestions? Why don't you (+ infinitive)? How about (+ gerund or noun)?
7 Go through the expressions in the boxes explaining any vocabulary. The students make suggestions using expressions from both boxes for each.
Key: 1 How about a new Nokia. It's a wicked phone. 2 Why don't you have/get/choose silver? It's a cool colour. 3 Why don't you get a contract. It's much cheaper. 4 What about the new Eminem song. It's funky.
8 The students can do the writing in class or for homework. Remind them to use expressions from the unit.
9 The students talk about their mum's mobile, changing some information.

UNIT 8
1 The students work in pairs or small groups. Don't check the answers yet.
2 The students read and check the answers.
Key: 3 a) Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone b) Voldemort c) Hogwarts d) Dumbledore e) Ron, Hermione f) J. K. Rowling g) Hagrid h) Hedwig
3 Elicit the meaning of 'magic trick'. Perhaps demonstrate one you know! The students label the pictures.
Key: 1 vinegar  2 chicken bone  3 24 hours  4 bowl  5 tie a knot  6 3 hours
4 The students order the instructions by matching them to the pictures in exercise 3.
Key: a 3  b 1  c 4  d 6  e 2  f 5
Practise pronunciation by repeating the instructions.
5 The students read the sentences and learn the words, which help them with the next task. Do more work on them if necessary: multiplying and adding numbers, naming the cards in a pack, etc.
6 For Trick 2, Student A will need an envelope and pieces of paper - or they can write the number on a piece of paper and fold it. For Trick 3, Student B will need ten cards. Ace/joker and numbers 2 - 10. If necessary, they can make their own cards from paper.
The students read their tricks at least twice so they are able to explain the instructions to each other, if possible, without looking. Their partner has to follow the instructions and do the trick.

7 The students write the instructions in class or at home.

UNIT 9
1 Ask the students if they like theme parks and which ones they know. Then ask them to look at the key and find each place on the map.
2 Key: 1 Dragon Mountain 2 Thunder River 3 restaurant 4 Loveboat 5 Vampire Run 6 Mini Railway 7 every half hour 8 8 9 9 8 p.m. 10 11 a.m.
3 Focus on vocabulary.
   Key: 1 awesome, wicked 2 gift shop 3 scary 4 lake 5 ghost 6 spaceship 7 dragon 8 thunder
   4 Key: 1 Yeş 2 No 3 Thunder River 4 Thunder River 5 Before 6 Sue's 7 Meg 8 The mini railway 9 9 p.m.
5 The students practice giving each other simple directions using the map.
6 The students ‘chat’ by passing the paper back and forth to each other. Remind them to use the language seen in the unit and NOT to communicate verbally.

UNIT 10
1 Ask the students what programmes they watch on Saturday mornings. They do the matching. Elicit examples of these programmes.
   Key: 1 news 2 fashion 3 interviews 4 competitions 5 cookery
2 Check the students can express the time correctly.
   Key: 1 10.45 2 11.00 3 11.15 4 12.45 5 11.30 6 9.30 7 12.15 8 12.00
3 Key: 1 Teen Drama 2 Teen Soap 3 Party Food 4 Storytime 5 Sports News 6 Fashion Extra 7 Teen Problems 8 Quiztime 9 Interviews 10 Pop Band 11 Kids News 12 Cartoons
4 Key: 1 Emma and Hannah 2 Jane Markham 3 Monkton High 4 Andrew Parker
5 Key: 1 T 2 F 3 F 4 T 5 F 6 F
6 Elicit examples and responses round the class before the students do this in pairs. Remind them to use the -ing form of the verb. (I love watching TV)
7 Help the students with vocabulary as necessary. Make sure they really try to do the second part in English.
8 This can be done as homework or in class. To make it more interesting, tell the students not to say the name of their friend and to read out the paragraph for the others to guess who they are talking about.

UNIT 11
1 The students can work in pairs or small groups. Those with the most correct answers win.
   Possible key: 1 pyjamas, night dress, underwear 2 belt 3 shoes, trainers, boots, slippers, socks 4 suit, shirt, tie 5 dress, skirt, T-shirt, bikini, swim suit, shorts 6 earrings, necklace, ring
2 The students discuss the questions. Help with vocabulary.
3 Refer them to the cartoon and check they understand a ‘clothes crisis’ is when you don’t know what to wear. Play recording 11.1.
   Key: They are both having a crisis. Tick 1, 2, 3, 7, 8, 9, 10
   Tapescript 11.1:
   Jane: Hi – it’s me.
   Frank: Hi there. How are you doing?
   Jane: I have a problem!
   Frank: And...
   Jane: Are you going to the party tonight?
   Frank: Yes. You’re coming, aren’t you?
   Jane: Well...
   Frank: Oh – you’ll love it!
   Jane: Frank – I’m having a clothes CRISIS!
   Frank: Why don’t you wear your new white trousers and the pink top? They’re great.
   Jane: I sat on a tomato sandwich in my white trousers and the dog ate my pink top.
   Frank: Oh! Your blue dress is cool. Wear that!
   Jane: I feel fat today.
   Frank: Well how about the black top with your white skirt.
   Jane: I always wear that. What are you wearing?
   Frank: I’m having a clothes crisis too.
   Jane: Why don’t you wear the silver shirt and black trousers?
   Frank: The shirt’s dirty and Emma, my darling little sister, painted a green tree on the trousers. I really have NOTHING to wear!
   Jane: I’ve got an idea. Why don’t we forget the party and go shopping for clothes instead!
   Jane: Cool. Let’s do that!
   4 Key: 1 J 2 F 3 J 4 J 5 F 6 J 7 F
   5 Key: 1 tomato sandwich 2 cool 3 fat 4 green tree 5 clothes
6 Ask ‘How do you make suggestions?’ Tell the students to circle ‘Why don’t you’ and ‘How about’ in the examples. Then they practise in pairs, reading different combinations. Ensure correct intonation.
7 The students make suggestions using the ideas in the pictures.
   Possible key: 1 Why don’t you wear make-up? 2 Why don’t you take a taxi? 3 Why don’t you wear a hat? 4 Why don’t you wear a baggy T-shirt? 5 Why don’t you use cooking oil?
8 In pairs or small groups, the students make as many suggestions and responses as they can. Reward the ‘winning’ group in some way to encourage and motivate.
9 The text message can be done in class or at home.

UNIT 12
1 The students talk about the questions. Elicit a list and put it on the board.
2 Play recording 12.1.
   Key: The following were mentioned: clothes, music, boyfriend, friends, make-up, mobile phones, computer games, films
   Tapescript: 12.1:
   Debbie: Hi Bev. Everything OK?
   Bev: No, it isn’t!
   Debbie: Why, what’s up?
   Bev: It’s my Mum.
   Debbie: Not again!
   Bev: I’m going crazy!
   Debbie: What is it now?
   Bev: She hates my clothes. Because they’re black.
   Debbie: Mum’s always hate our clothes!
   Bev: And she hates my music. She says it’s too loud.
   Debbie: Well, you do like loud music.
   Bev: Thank you! She also hates my boyfriend. She says he’s too old for me.
   Debbie: How old is he?
   Bev: A year older than me!
   Debbie: Ah!
   Bev: She hates my friends too. She thinks they go out all the time and don’t do their homework.
Debbie: But... we're very nice!
Bex: She hates my make-up – it's too heavy. She hates my mobile phone, my computer games, my films......
Debbie: OK! OK! Enough!

3 The students listen again to fill in more detail. Check they understand 'too'.
Key: 1 They're black. 2 It's too loud. 3 He's too old. 4 They don't do their homework. 5 It's too heavy. (Explain this collocation.)
4 Explain 'should' if necessary. Don't check the answers yet.
5 Play recording 12.2. The students listen and check, then repeat.
Key: See tapescript.
Tapescript: 12.2
1 You should wear different colours.
2 You should listen to quieter music.
3 You should find a younger boyfriend.
4 You shouldn't wear make-up to school.
5 You should go out with different friends.
6 You shouldn't play games on the computer.

6 Play recording 12.3. The students write A-E. Afterwards, ask them if they think this is good advice.
Key: 1 D 2 A 3 E 4 B 5 C
Tapescript: 12.3
A You should tell her you wear that colour because it doesn't look dirty.
B You should tell her you have to phone her in an emergency.
C You should tell her you wear it to look as pretty as she does.
D You should tell her your father is very rich!
E You should tell her they help old people at the weekends.

7 Read the example and model the dialogue with a good student. Then ask them to complete the first box with more ideas and practise similar dialogues in pairs.
8 Check they understand the vocabulary.
Key: 1 d 2 b 3 c 4 e 5 a 6 f
9 Point out the infinitive and negative infinitive forms. Elicit ideas orally before asking the class to work in pairs.
10 The students can write the dialogue in class or at home. Feedback the funniest answers.

UNIT 13
1 Play the game in two, or more groups. Insist they repeat the complete sentence.
2 Check they understand and learn this vocabulary.
Key: 1 filling 2 brown bread 3 baguette 4 mayonnaise 5 roll 6 lettuce
3 Play recording 13.1. The students don't look at the page but listen and choose something from the menu which they then tell their partner about.
Tapescript: 13.1
Mark: This menu looks good and the prices are OK too, I'll read it to you and we can choose what to order. There are different sorts of bread. You can choose from white or brown bread. Then there's a baguette or a roll. There are lots of fillings. You can have cheese – I know you like that, cheese, bacon, or ham. Yuck – I hate ham. Then we can have some salad, that's lettuce and tomato. My dad always calls lettuce "rabbit food"! And with that you can choose mayonnaise – yum – or tomato sauce. That's not very exciting, is it? The prices are quite good. A baguette is £2.50. I think I might get that – it's big and I'm hungry! A roll or a sandwich is just £1.80. All the drinks are 90p. You can have orange juice, cola, mineral water, coffee or tea. So, what do you think? I'm going to have a baguette with bacon and cheese, lettuce and tomato sauce. Oh, and a cola too. What about you?
4 The students listen again and complete the menu.
Key: 1 brown 2 cheese 3 ham 4 tomato 5 £1.80 6 roll 7 orange 8 tea
5 Key: 1 mineral water 2 tomato 3 baguette 4 filling 5 roll
6 Write 'fillings', 'both' and 'salads' on the board. Elicit and write up the resulting list. Elicit and write up more ideas.
Key: blue cheese - B egg mayonnaise - F tuna - B corn - F roast beef - F salami - F
7 The students first practise the expressions. Then they work in pairs discussing their orders.
8 The students read and order the instructions. Play recording 13.2 for them to check, and then repeat. Insist on good pronunciation.
Key: See tapescript.
Tapescript: 13.2
1 Take two slices of bread.
2 Butter them.
3 Put some lettuce on the first slice.
4 Put some chicken on top of this.
5 Finally, add the mayonnaise.
6 Put the second slice on top.
7 Cut it in half.
8 Eat it!

9 Encourage the students to be as creative as possible with their sandwiches! If possible, ask them to bring in a strange sandwich for the next lesson and choose the best/most interesting/most unusual. If this is not possible, get the students to vote on the ideas in class.

UNIT 14
1 The students read the definition and answer the questions. Ensure they have a good idea of what a fete is. Direct them to the photo and ask a few questions. For example, 'Are they inside or outside? Is it busy? Why not?'
2 After doing the exercise, ask the students to turn over the page while you read the definitions again to see if they can remember the answer.
Key: 1 fortune teller 2 music 3 stalls 4 games 5 food 6 races
3 Read through the questions with the class before playing recording 14.1.
Key: 1 c 2 b 3 a 4 a 5 c 6 b 7 b
Tapescript: 14.1
Good afternoon everyone. I'm Mr. Granger, the Headteacher and I want to welcome you to St. Anne's school fete. It's a lovely sunny day and there's lots to do. Remember – we want to get £1,000 to buy new books for the school library. So, spend a lot please!
At 1 o'clock we have some fun races. For the TEACHERS! And at 2 o'clock there is a singing competition. Perhaps we can find the next Britney Spears or Robbie Williams!
We have a lot of fun games for you too. In one game you can throw water at me. I know the students are going to like that!
There are lots of stalls where you can buy food - cakes, burgers, sandwiches. There are also stalls which sell books, CDs and a lot of other things. AND we have Madame Zeta. She can tell you about your future! We are going to have good music all afternoon so ... spend your money and have a good time. Thank you for coming!
4 Model the dialogue for the students. They practise it in pairs a few times. Pay particular attention to correct word stress.
5 The students practise the same type of dialogue as in exercise 4 with the information on their cards.
6 Key: In order: sack race egg and spoon race three-legged race find the duck
7 Play recording 14.2. The students listen and write the name of the race.
UNIT 15
1 Give the students a few minutes to do this, then correct with the class. This is key vocabulary.

Key: 1 fast 2 a pub 3 a place name 4 a partner 5 a cheat 6 a castle 7 cool 8 twenty Secret word: fun rally
2 The students discuss the questions.
3 Play recording 15.1. The students answer the questions.
Key: 1 b 2 a 3 c 4 b 5 c

Tapescript: 15.1
Nick: Hi! It’s me.
Jenna: Hi you! How are things?
N: Fantastic!
J: Really?
N: Yeah, I’m going on a car rally on Sunday.
J: Wow! Cool!
N: Would you like to be my partner?
J: Really?! Of course – I'd love to. What do we have to do?
N: Well, there are twenty cars and we start at different times. They give us a camera and we have to take photos of different things and drive fast to London.
J: What sort of different things?
N: A photo of a pub, a photo of a football stadium, an unusual place name, a yellow car, a castle, a boat – things like that.
J: Great!
N: And we have to buy some things too, like baked beans, a postcard with a beach on it, something with our name on. There are lots of things to do. And we have to arrive in London first!
J: We can do it. Your car is so fast. We can win. No problem.
N: We can if we take a lot of the photos before we start!
J: You big cheat!
4 Key: Tick: 2/5/9/10
5 Key: Take photos, football stadium, place name, baked beans. Go on a rally.
6 The students do the quiz in pairs or small groups. The fastest pair or group wins.
7 Remind the students of ‘have to’ + infinitive and point out the use of ‘do’ in the question form. Play recording 15.2. The students listen and repeat.

Tapescript: 15.2 As on page in exercise 4.
8 The students prepare their questions from the prompts. Check orally. They do the role play, choosing the correct answer from the information on their cards.
9 The students generate ideas in pairs. Then they write their ideas as rules.

UNIT 16
1 Individually or as a whole class, introduce the topic with the questions.
2 The students do the exercise, first without the words in the box and then with them. Explain any new vocabulary. Ask them to name any 'Bond Girls' they know of. Ask them what a robot can do.

Key: 1 spy 2 a comedy 3 007 4 a robot 5 Bond girls 6 a gadget
3 Play recording 16.1. The students listen for gist and tell you if they would like to see this film.

Tapescript: 16.1
The new James Bond film starts on Saturday. This is NOT a normal James Bond film. This new film is a comedy! You must see it. Will Smith is James Bond, the famous spy and Oprah Winfrey is the gorgeous Bond Girl! There is also a Bond Baby – Johnny Depp! The story is exciting. There is a plan to kill the President. Can 007 stop it? James Bond has a lot of new gadgets. There is a mobile phone that tells him what to do. There is also an incredible robot called 'Fred' who helps him. Of course James Bond has a special car – this time it is a pretty pink mini! The film is very funny and the actors are excellent. Don't miss it. In local cinemas from next Saturday, at 7.30 and 10.00 pm.
4 The students listen again for specific information.

Key: 1 Saturday 2 Will Smith 3 Bond girl 4 Johnny Depp 5 President 6 robot 7 mini 8.30, 10.00pm
5 Check the students understand adjectives on the 'cards'. Divide the class into A and B. They listen again and complete ONLY their card.
6 In pairs, they ask and answer to complete the other card. Elicit other possible nouns for each adjective, encouraging noun phrases: article + adjective + noun.

Key: A: 1 film 2 story 3 robot 4 car 5 film B: 1 spy 2 Bond Girl 3 gadgets 4 pink mini 5 actors
7 Read through the recommendations and reasons and check vocabulary. Play recording 16.2. The students listen and match and then listen and repeat. Point out that the reasons could be matched differently.

Key: See tapescript.

Tapescript: 16.2
You must see it. It's really exciting!
Don't miss it. It's very funny!
You'll love it. It's brilliant.
Don't see it! It's terrible.
You won't like it. It's so boring.
Don't go. It's really bad!
8 The students practise making recommendations.
9 The students work in pairs to invent a new film (as in the poster) completing the notes. In class or as homework, they write their review. They could also/alternatively design an informative film poster.
10 The students read the reviews to the class or in groups. Ask them to vote on the best / funniest / craziest film.

UNIT 17
1 Ask if they listen to the radio. Explain the meaning of ‘radio advert’. The pair with the most correct words wins.

Possible key: dad, sad, drive, drove, star, art, river, eat, seat, ear, sea, did, dead, vest, rest, side, ride, tide, sit, sat, set, vet, etc.

5 Focus on the use of 'because'. The students complete the sentences.
Key: 1 Hogwarts’ School 2 choose a present 3 laugh 4 come
6 The students order the questions. Then encourage them to change one word to ask about something different. Elicit examples.
Key: 1 Would you like a different kind of car? 2 Do you want to make your friends happy? 3 Are you looking for a birthday present for your dad?
7 Key: 1 tea 2 present 3 joke 4 trick 5 on-line 6 website 7 activity 8 holiday 9 film 10 herbs
8 The students dictate an advert to each other. Make sure they do not read from their partner's text.
9 Encourage the students to make the adverts fun and to include questions, exclamations and information.
10 Record the best adverts for the class to listen to. If they have the facilities, the students could record themselves for homework. Alternatively, they could read out their adverts and have a class vote.

UNIT 18
1 Focus on the title of the unit and explain it means 'I really want to hear what you have to say'. The students work in groups of six to do the questionnaire. Elicit any interesting or surprising findings.
2 Play recording 18.1. The students listen and match the messages to the people.
Key: 1 friend 2 mechanical voice 3 grandparent 4 child 5 teacher
Tapescript: 18.1
1 It's Jane. How are you doing?

Key: 1 e 2 d 3 a 4 b 5 c
2 Pre-teach 'would you'. The students work in groups and ask the questions. Collate the results on the board by asking the whole class to raise their hands. Drill / practise the new vocabulary from exercises 1 and 2.
3 Ask the students if they have seen a similar reality show on TV. Ask the students to predict the answers before listening. Play recording 19.1.
Key: a, d, e
Tapescript: 19.1
Presenter: So, Peter, was it very difficult?
Peter: VERY difficult. I usually live in a comfortable house. I cook the food I like. I drive my car to work. There is nothing dangerous in my life! In the jungle everything was different!
Presenter: What was MOST difficult for you?
Peter: Well, I slept in the open air. There were insects in my bed. That was horrible. I didn't sleep well. Then, there was the food! We caught snakes and small animals and cooked them. It was terrible. But we were hungry so we ate them.
Presenter: YUK!
Peter: And because it was a television programme, we did some difficult tests.
Presenter: I saw one of these tests. You put your head in a box with a lot of big spiders!
Peter: Yes, that was scary! Julie, my friend, ate some horrible things that were alive – ants and worms. She hated that!
Presenter: Me too!
Peter: I also walked in a river with some crocodiles. And there was another test – I had insects inside my clothes!
Presenter: I'm glad you're still alive!
Peter: Me too!
UNIT 20

Key: Jenny is waiting outside the phone shop.

Tapescript: 31.1
Maria: Hi Jenny, I’m at the main entrance. Where are you?
Jenny: Hi, I’m outside ‘Good Connections’.
Maria: Where’s that? I’ve never been to this shopping centre before, it’s huge!
Jenny: It’s on the first floor, come in the main entrance and walk past the big supermarket on your right. Go up to the fountain in the middle.
Maria: OK, yes, I can see the fountain. It’s beautiful.
Jenny: Yeah. The water’s different colours.
Maria: So, where next?
Jenny: Go right at the fountain and take the escalator up to the first floor. Turn left and then turn left again at the statue. Go straight on – you go past Browser’s book shop on the right. Next to that there’s Mary’s Health Foods.
Maria: My mum often goes there.
Jenny: They sell horrible food, don’t they? Well, turn right at Starbucks’ Café, I’m outside ‘Good Connections’, the new phone shop, on the left.
Maria: Yes, I can see you. You’re wearing your yellow top. (pause) Good directions! There are a lot of clothes shops here.
Jenny: Yes! I hope you’ve got a lot of money. We’re going to spend, spend, spend!

5 Remind them to use logic as well as memory. Play the recording again for them to check.

   Key: 1 Horace Hump — giant husband 2 Hannah Hump — wife 3 Big Bob — brother to Horace, teacher 4 Mad Monica — cook, cleaner 5 The mushroom people — villagers workers

Part 1

Once upon a time there was an ugly old giant called Horace Hump who was very rich. He was fat and had a very red face because he was always angry and shouting at people. He lived in a dark house in a deep, dark forest and he hated sunlight and happy people. That was all right because sunlight and happy people hated him too.

Horace had a little wife called Hannah. She was a round, happy person. She liked sunlight and flowers but she hated Horace because he was horrible to everyone.

Horace also had a brother who lived with him and Hannah in Hump House. He was called Big Bob. He was also fat like Horace but he was very kind and gentle. He liked Hannah and felt sorry for her.

He hated Horace.

There was one more giant who lived at Hump House. This was Mad Monica, the cook and cleaner. She was strange. She was very thin and strong and cooked good dinners but she never spoke. Horace was horrible to her too. Mad Monica hated Horace because he often said that Hump House was too dirty.

Horace was very rich and he had everything he wanted. But there was one thing he loved more than anything. Mushrooms. Big mushrooms, small mushrooms, white, brown or black mushrooms. He loved all of them. But Horace had a problem. The best mushrooms grew in small, dark places under the ground and giants were too big to go there. So, Horace paid the people of the village to find the mushrooms for him. He only paid them a little money but they worked because they were very, very poor. They also hated Horace Hump.

5. The students listen again and add more information.
   Key: 1 horrible little, fat, red face, angry 2 round, happy 3 tall, fat, friendly kind 4 strong, quiet thin, strange

6. The students choose the correct answers. More than one may be correct.

PART 2

One day the mushroom people were in a room at Hump House with Bob. He was telling them about good and bad mushrooms. He had a big board with pictures of mushrooms that were dangerous to eat. Horace didn’t want the mushroom people to give him bad mushrooms! On the board was a picture of an old, brown, and white mushroom. Under it were the words, “Killer mushroom.” Suddenly they heard an enormous crash outside, the ground shook and the room went dark. Everyone ran to the window and looked out. There were strange, new dark hills in the garden. They were outside and looked carefully. No, they weren’t hills. It was Horace Hump lying on his back. His stomach was too big and he hid the sun. He wasn’t asleep. He wasn’t resting. Horace Hump was dead.

9 Go through the questions with the class and encourage at least four or five answers per question. Then they decide on their version and write the ending.

10 The students work in pairs or groups and tell the whole story if they can, or easier, only their ending.

UNIT 37

1 Encourage discussion about exercise and keeping fit.

2 Play recording 37.1. The students listen and tick.

Key: Tick pictures a, b, c

Tapescript: 37.1

Good morning. Class, ... Na, I am NOT Mrs. Carson. Mrs. Carson is not very well today. No, Paul, she didn’t fall out of a helicopter — she’s got a cold. I’m Wendy, a student teacher, and I’m going to do some exercises with you today. Yes! I’m eighteen. Peter? Thank you, but I’ve got a girlfriend. Yes, he’s bigger than you. I like your hair too. Paul? Any more questions? Yes, Mary, ... No, you can’t. You can go to the toilet later.

Now, we’re going to do some stretching. We’re going to jump up and down. Can you do that? Good. Up and down, up and down. Penny, stop kissing Peter — he doesn’t like it. No, Mark, I don’t like it either. Now, we can jump and kick. Stretch those legs. Good! No Martin, don’t kick the person in front of you. That’s not it. Not like ... No, no, no ... STOP THAT!

OK, no more kicking. We’ll do some more jumping — you do that very well. Again, Arms up and legs out! Legs in, arms down, jump. One and two and ... Like trees! Lots of trees in the forest. No, James, it’s raining in the forest. Ah ... Mary — does anybody else want to go ... to the ... toilet?

3 The students listen again and correct the sentences. Practise stressing the correct words with the students.

Key: 1 Wendy is eighteen. 2 Mrs. Carson is cold.

3 Wendy has a boyfriend. 4 Mary wants to go to the toilet. 5 Penny is kissing Peter. 6 Martin is kissing another child.

4 Play the recording again and pause where the children interrupt so the students can work out what was asked.

Key: 1 a 2 b 3 c 4 d 5 e 6 f 7 g

5 Ask one student to come out to the front and demonstrate the verbs. Then the students work out the opposites. Give them time to study them for a few minutes. Check by saying one and asking them to tell you the opposite or do it.

Key: stand — lie down / sit up; bend your knees — stretch your legs; lift your arms — lower your arms; jump has no opposite.

6 The students write the instructions in a logical order. Check vocabulary.

Key: Exercise 1: c, d, e, f, b, a

Exercise 2: c, a, b, d Exercise 3: f, a, e, c, b, d

7 The students find the words.

Key: jump / stand / stretch / sit up / lie down / bend / kick / lift / lower

8 The students write their own exercise.

9 If there is space, the students tell their partner what to do, or one student can come to the front and the students tell him/her. Alternatively, the listening student can draw a sketch of the exercise their partner describes.

UNIT 38

1 The students think of celebrity names in pairs or individually and then compare with each other.

2 Talk about the questions in pairs or as a whole class.

Key: 1 c

3 The students work in pairs. Then elicit feedback from the whole class.

4 Play recording 38.1. The students listen and tick the items they hear.

Key: singing, cosmetic surgery, school uniform, marriage

Tapescript: 38.1

Presenter: Hi everyone! Welcome to Celebrity Phone-in — where you ask the questions. Today’s celebrity is very famous. You all know her. It’s the USA’s top pop princess — Britney Spears. Unfortunately Britney can’t be with us but here is Darlene Phillips to tell us why.

Darlene: I’m so sorry that Britney can’t be here today. She’s filming her new video. I’m her best friend and she asked me to come here and answer your questions about her. I know her very well — better than her mother!

Presenter: Thank you for coming Darlene. Here is the first question. Hello Jackie from Oxford.

Jackie: Hi Darlene, my question is — how many times has Britney got married?

Darlene: Now that’s a difficult question. She often goes away for a few days and we don’t know where she is. Then she comes back married! So — it might be any number! Only Britney knows — and the husbands, of course!

Presenter: Fine. So we don’t know if Britney is a Miss or a Mrs. at the moment! And our second question is from Grace in Southport. Hi Grace.

Grace: Hi! Darlene, did Britney have cosmetic surgery when she was younger?

Darlene: Grace, dear, EVERYONE in the music business has had cosmetic surgery!

Presenter: OK. And our third question is from Kate in London. A nice, easy question Kate.

Kate: Darlene, what do you think? Is Britney famous for her singing or her looks?

Darlene: Well now, you and I both know that Britney’s singing is NOT fantastic. But she is a looker! And, that school uniform really helped her!

Presenter: Well thank you Darlene. I’m sorry but we have to stop here. And now — one of Britney’s famous songs......

5 Listen again and answer.

Key: 1 b 2 c 3 b 4 c 5 a

6 Discuss with the whole class ideas such as loyalty to friends, discretion, etc.

7 The students order the words to make questions. Then they listen again and check. Practise pronunciation and intonation with them.

Key: 1 How many times has Britney got married? 2 Did Britney have cosmetic surgery when she was younger? 3 Is Britney famous because of her singing or her looks?

8 Make this a competition. The first student to finish wins.

Key: 1 celebrity 2 princess 3 video 4 best 5 than 6 question 7 many 8 husband 9 Southport 10 cosmetic 11 easy 12 uniform 13 sorry

Hidden word: Britney Spears

9 The students work in pairs and write questions and answers.

10 The students do a rotating role play: they stand in two lines facing each other (or various groups of two lines).
The students on the right ask and those on the left answer. After one minute, tell half the class to move up one person and to continue with the next question. When about half the class have finished, they swap roles. Have some feedback at the end about who was the most interesting celebrity.

UNIT 39
1 The students talk about the questions as a lead in. Explain the idea of ‘swapping roles’ and get their reactions. Elicit what subjects might be appropriate and put them on the board.
2 Play recording 39.1. After listening, go through the list on the board to see which things coincided.

Tapescript: 39.1
Interviewer: I see Mr Thomas, what is this plan?
Mr Thomas: Well, for one week some students in our school are going to teach some of the teachers.
Interviewer: Interesting! What subjects are they going to teach?
Mr Thomas: There are going to be four subjects, Janice Peters is going to teach fashion, Janice is going to teach fashion, she's going to teach us how to customise our clothes and look more fashionable. We will use colours, prints, jewellery, hats and many more things. Then, Mark Johns is a young DJ and he will teach DJing, he will teach us how to “scratch”. Maria Evans is going to teach modern dance and she tells me she will teach us things like how to spin. Finally, there's Joel Farmer and he's a wonderful skateboarder. He's going to teach us to do “board slides”.
Interviewer: Wow! Different from the normal school day! Difficult too.
Mr Thomas: Yes, it's not going to be easy. But it will be good fun and it will be interesting for the students and teachers!
Interviewer: Is there a test for the teachers at the end of the week?
Mr Thomas: No, but there will be a show on the last day.
Interviewer: Tell us more about that after this next record...

3 The students match the words to the pictures.
Key: a) customise b) spin c) scratch d) board slide

4 The students listen again and match up the items. They check in pairs, using the model. Then talk about the different activities with the class Ask, “What can you do to customise your clothes?” “Where can you do board slides?”

Key: Janice Peters - fashion - customise clothes; Mark Johns - DJing - scratch; Maria Evans - modern dance - spin; Joel Farmer - skateboarding - do board slides

5 Ask what will happen on the last day.
Key: b

6 The students write the past tenses. Then play recording 39.2. They listen and tick.
Key: I was/were 2 listened 3 fell 4 thought 5 learned 6 practised 7 broke 8 told Tick numbers: 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7.

Tapescript: 39.2
Maria: It was a cool week, it was hard work for us and the teachers. They listened very well, I think they are better students than we are! They learned lots of new dance moves and they practised at home! I liked teaching, I think I'll be a teacher when I finish school.
Joel: It was so difficult. The teachers didn't listen. They fell off the skateboards and Mr. Manners broke his leg. I don't think I'll be a teacher. You tell people again and again what to do and they don't listen.

7 Play the recording again. They answer true or false for each person.
Key: 1 T T 2 T F 3 T F 4 F T 5 T F

8 The students complete the crossword.
Key: 1 customise 2 leg 3 board 4 colours 5 fashion 6 fell 7 scratch Vertical word: teacher

9 The students talk about free time activities using the model to help them. Put a list of the activities they do on the board – the students choose from these when planning their own day.

10 The students write following the model.

UNIT 40
1 The students talk about food and cooking.

2 1 melted cheese 2 grill 3 salt and pepper 4 sauce 5 wooden spoon 6 ham 7 a slice of bread 8 scrambled eggs 9 a frying pan

3 Play recording 40.1. The students tick the things mentioned.
Key: slice of bread, ham, sauce, grill

Tapescript:
Good morning, kids! A lovely Saturday morning and we have a lot of ideas about food for you today! Are you going to have a party tonight? Are some mates coming to watch a DVD? What can you give them to eat? Well – the answer is here. Easy to make and delicious to eat. Get a pencil and paper. Here’s the recipe for Welsh Rarebit.
For each person you will need two slices of bread, two slices of ham, a large piece of cheese, a little milk and some brown sauce.
First toast one side of the bread under the grill. Grate the cheese and mix it with a little milk. Then put the ham on the untoasted side. Cover this with the cheese and a little brown sauce. Put this under the grill again until the cheese melts.

4 Play the recording again. The students complete the text.
Key: See tapescript.

5 The students match. Help them with mime to understand the words. Do further practise also with mime. Elicit more collocations for each verb.
Key: 1 c 2 g 3 a 4 f 5 b 6 d 7 e 8 h

6 The students do the information gap activity in pairs. If necessary, help with the question forms first. Alternatively, this activity can be done as a pair dictation.

7 The students write their own recipe in class or for homework. You can make a class recipe book.
