The stories in this second series of L. A. Hill's widely known Stories for Reproduction are all new. Each story is followed not only by comprehension questions but also by a variety of other exercises.

Introductory Stories for Reproduction 2 contains 30 stories, each about 150 words long with a page of exercises opposite each story. Vocabulary is restricted to L. A. Hill's 750-headword level, and the grammatical structures are also strictly controlled. A word list is included at the end of the book.

The four books in the series are:
Introductory Stories for Reproduction 2 (750-headword level)
Elementary Stories for Reproduction 2 (1000-headword level)
Intermediate Stories for Reproduction 2 (1800-headword level)
Advanced Stories for Reproduction 2 (2075-headword level)

L. A. Hill

INTRODUCTORY STORIES FOR REPRODUCTION

2

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
Mrs. Jones wanted a picture for her living-room. She took the bus and went to town. She looked for a picture shop, and after a few minutes she found one. There were some pictures in the window, but she did not like them very much.

She went into the shop and looked at some other pictures. She liked some of those more. There was a picture of a young girl, and Mrs. Jones liked it very much. She went to the shopkeeper and said, 'How much do you want for this picture?'

The shopkeeper turned the picture round. He looked at the back of it and then said, ‘Thirteen pounds.’

‘Thirty pounds?’ Mrs. Jones said. ‘That’s very expensive. I’m going to offer you twenty pounds for it.’

‘I said, “Thirteen pounds”, not “Thirty pounds”,’ the man answered.

‘Thirteen?’ Mrs. Jones said. ‘Then I’m going to offer you nine pounds for it.’

Words not in the 750: offer (v.), shopkeeper

A. Answer these questions.
   1. Why did Mrs. Jones go to town?
   2. Which picture did she like most?
   3. What did she say to the shopkeeper?
   4. What did he say to Mrs. Jones?
   5. What did she answer?

B. Which words in the story on page 4 mean the opposite of:
   1. cheap
   2. front
   3. less
   4. little
   5. lot of
   6. old

C. Put the number of the correct sentence under the correct picture.

1. He looked behind the picture and then said, ‘Thirteen pounds.’
2. Mrs. Jones did not have a picture in her living-room.
3. She found a picture of a young girl.
4. She looked for a picture shop.
5. She said to the shopkeeper, ‘How much is this?’
6. She went into the shop.
7. She went to town by bus.
8. Then she found one.
Mary worked in an office in London, and she usually went out and had lunch in a restaurant. She liked foreign food and often looked in the newspaper for the names of new restaurants, because she enjoyed going to them and eating new things. Sometimes she said, 'I don’t like this restaurant. I’m not going to come here again'; but often she said, 'I like this one. I’m going to have my lunch here often.'

One day she saw the name of a new Greek restaurant in her newspaper, and she went there for lunch. It was very small, but it was clean and nice, and the food was good.

But then Mary found something hard in her mouth. She took it out. It was a button.

'Look here, waiter!' she said. 'I’ve found this button in my food.'

'Thank you, thank you!' the waiter answered happily. 'I looked everywhere for it.'

A. Answer these questions.
1. What food did Mary like?
2. Where did she go one day?
3. What did she find in her mouth?
4. What did she say then?
5. What did the waiter answer?

Words not in the 750: restaurant, thank you, waiter

B. Which of the answers to these questions are correct? Write the correct answers down.
1. Did Mary always go to the same restaurant?
   a. No, she didn’t.
   b. Yes, she did.
2. Did she go back to a restaurant after the first time?
   a. No, never.
   b. Yes, always.
   c. Yes, often.
3. Where did she find the names of new restaurants?
   a. In a big city.
   b. In a newspaper.
4. What did she find in her mouth one day?
   a. A waiter's button.
   b. Some hard food.
5. Was the waiter happy, or angry?
   a. He was angry.
   b. He was happy.

C. Write this story. Put one word in each empty space.

This is Mary’s brother. His . . . is George. He lives in the . . . of Chicago and works in a small Greek . . . there. He is a . . . A lot of people come and have . . . there, because the . . . is good. Look at that man. He is . . . some meat and reading his . . . He comes to this restaurant, because he works in an . . . quite near here.
Peter was ten, and his sister Jane was eight. They lived in the country ten kilometres from Cardiff.

One day they saw a picture of a circus in the newspaper, and Jane said to her mother, 'There's going to be a circus in Cardiff next week. Please take us there.'

The children's mother bought tickets, and on Saturday evening Peter and Jane and their parents went to the circus.

The tent was full of people, and after a quarter of an hour, the circus began.

A beautiful young girl came in. She put a cake in her mouth, and then a big lion came and took the cake out of her mouth.

A man in a red coat shouted to the people, 'Who's going to do the same for £100?'

Nobody answered. But then a funny man stood up and said, 'All right... but first take the lion away!'

A. Answer these questions.
   1. Where did the children and their parents go on Saturday evening?
   2. What did the beautiful girl do?
   3. What did the lion do?

   Words not in the 750: circus, please

4. What did the man in a red coat say then?
5. And what did the funny man say?

B. Which of the words in the story on page 8 mean:
   1. before that
   2. men, women and children
   3. said very loudly
   4. the one after this one
   5. very pretty

C. Find the right sentence for each picture. Write it down.

   ![Picture 1]
   ![Picture 2]
   ![Picture 3]
   ![Picture 4]
Ann Grimes had a small car, and she drove a lot in town, because she went to work by car every morning and came home by car too, and she did her shopping with her car on Saturdays.

But she very seldom went out into the country in it, because she did not have much time.

Then one Sunday morning last August she said to herself, 'It's a beautiful day, and it's hot in town. I'm going to drive out into the country and have a picnic in a quiet field there.'

She drove twenty kilometres, and then she came to a small country road. She looked at it and said to herself, 'This road's very steep, isn't it?' She stopped in front of a house and asked a man, 'Is this road dangerous?'

'No,' the man answered, 'it isn't dangerous up here. They always crash down at the bottom.'

Words not in the 750: crash (v.), dangerous, steep

---

A. Answer these questions.
1. What did Ann say to herself one Sunday morning?
2. What did she come to after twenty kilometres?
3. What did she say to herself there?
4. What did she ask a man?
5. What did he answer?

B. Put at, in, or on in each empty space in these sentences:
1. Ann lived... a town.
2. She did her shopping... Saturdays.
3. She did it... the morning.
4. She went out into the country... Sunday morning.
5. She left her house... nine o'clock.
6. She said, 'I'm going to have a picnic... a field.'
7. She stopped her car... the gate of a small house.
8. The road was dangerous... the bottom.

C. Write this story. Choose the correct words.

Ann never drives [dangerous, dangerously]. She came to a [dangerous, dangerously] road yesterday, and drove down it very [slow, slowly].

Then she found a [quiet, quietly] field, and crossed it [quiet, quietly].

There was a [beautiful, beautifully] river on the other side. Ann can

[beautiful, beautifully], and she sat down at the side of the river and began to draw a picture.

Paul Robinson liked fishing very much. In the summer he went out fishing every evening, and in the winter he fished on Saturdays and Sundays. His wife Joan did not see him very much.

Then one day last summer Paul said to her, 'I'm going to have two weeks' holiday this year, and we're going to go to Scotland and fish there.'

'And what am I going to do?' said Joan.

'You're going to fish with me,' Paul answered.

They went to Scotland and fished there for two weeks. Then they came home, and Joan talked to her neighbour, Mrs. Andrews, about her fishing trip with her husband.

'I did everything wrong on the trip,' she said to her. 'I talked loudly in the boat and the fish were afraid. I put the wrong things on my hook, I pulled my line in very quickly ... and I caught a lot more fish than Paul did.'
Mrs. Davis lived near the sea, in Yarmouth, and went to the same fish shop there for twenty-five years. She always bought beautiful, fresh fish from that shop, but then she and her husband went to London and lived there. She wrote to her friends, 'I'm not going to find nice, fresh fish in the London shops. They lie there for days and weeks.'

There was a fish shop near her house, and she went and bought her fish there for two or three weeks, but she did not like them very much. Then last Wednesday, she went into the shop and looked at all the fish there.

'These ones aren't fresh,' she said to the shopkeeper. 'Look at them!'

The shopkeeper came and looked. Then he said angrily, 'That's your fault, not mine. These same fish were here in this shop last Friday, but you didn't buy them then, did you?'

A. Answer these questions.

1. What did Mrs. Davis write to her friends?

Words not in the 750: fault, fresh, shopkeeper

2. Where did she buy her fish for two or three weeks?
3. What did she do last Wednesday?
4. What did she say to the shopkeeper?
5. What did he answer?

B. Do this puzzle.

Across:
1. Mrs. Davis went into the fish shop last.....
6. Mrs. Davis lived ..... London.
7. Most trees have these.
9. We have this on our heads.
10. The shopkeeper isn't very nice.....?
11. Mr. Davis was Mrs. Davis's.....
14. It's Monday today, so tomorrow is.....

Down:
1. Which fish do you want? Take.....one you like.
2. 'What.....you want?' the shopkeeper asked.
3. 'Do you.....have fresh fish in this shop?' Mrs. Davis said.
4. Mrs....wanted to buy fresh fish.
5. Today is Monday, so.....was Sunday.
8. There was always a lot of fresh.....in Yarmouth.
12. Mrs. Davis did not.....any fresh fish in the shop on Wednesday.
13. Mr......Mrs. Davis live in London now.

C. Draw lines from the words on the left to the right words on the right. Then write the five sentences.

1. Mrs. Davis       a. bought fish from a shop in Yarmouth.
2. Mrs. Davis       b. did not have fresh fish.
3. The fish in Yarmouth     c. said, 'That's your fault.'
4. The fish shop in London d. was Mrs. Davis's husband.
5. The shopkeeper in London e. were very fresh.
Helen was eight years old, and one day one of her teeth began hurting. She cried in her class at school, and her teacher said kindly, 'Why are you crying, Helen?'

'Because one of my teeth hurts,' answered Helen.

'Speak to your mother about it,' said the teacher, 'and then go and see the dentist.'

That afternoon Helen spoke to her mother about her tooth, and her mother took her to the dentist a few days later. The dentist looked at the tooth and then he said to Helen, 'It's very bad. I'm going to take it out, and then you're going to get a nice, new tooth next year.' He pulled the tooth out.

The next day Helen's teacher asked her about the tooth. She said to her, 'Does it still hurt, Helen?'

'I don't know,' Helen answered.

'Why don't you know?' the teacher said.

'Because the dentist's got it,' Helen answered.

A. Answer these questions.

1. What did the dentist do to Helen?
2. What did her teacher ask the next day?
3. What did Helen answer?
4. What did the teacher ask then?
5. And what did Helen answer?

Words not in the 750: know, still (adv.)

B. Which words in the story on page 16 mean the opposite of:

1. bring
2. earlier
3. good
4. laughed
5. morning
6. nastily
7. old
8. stopped

C. Put the number of the correct sentence under the correct picture.

1. Helen began to cry in her class.
2. Helen showed her her bad tooth.
3. Helen's mother took her to the dentist.
4. Her teacher said, 'Why are you crying, Helen?'
5. He said to Helen, 'Look at it. It's quite bad.'
6. The dentist looked in her mouth.
7. Then Helen went home with her mother.
8. Then he pulled the bad tooth out.
Mrs. Stephens lived in a small village, and she had five children. She always had a lot of work. The children went to different schools, and Mrs. Stephens took them there in the morning in her car. Then she bought food at the village shop, and then she went home and cleaned the house, washed the clothes and made cakes or other things.

In the afternoon she drove back to the children’s schools and brought them home, and then she cooked their evening meal. Every evening she was very tired.

One morning she was in the village shop, and she saw a small notice there. It said, ‘I do cleaning for £1.50 an hour. Telephone Miss Joan Brown, 7508.’

Mrs. Stephens looked around the shop. ‘Nobody’s looking,’ she said. ‘That’s good.’

Then she took her pen out of her bag and wrote under the notice, ‘I do cleaning for nothing. Don’t telephone me!’

A. Answer these questions.

1. Why did Mrs. Stephens always have a lot of work?
2. What did she see in the village shop one morning?

Words not in the 750: notice (n.), thing

B. Which of the answers to these questions are right? Write the correct answers down.

1. Did Mrs. Stephens work hard?
   a. No, she didn’t.
   b. Yes, she did.

2. Who took the children to school?
   a. Mr. Stephens.
   b. Mrs. Stephens.

3. Who cleaned Mrs. Stephens’s house?
   a. Miss Joan Brown.
   b. Mrs. Stephens.

4. What did Miss Brown want?
   a. Work.
   b. A telephone.

5. How much money did Mrs. Stephens get for cleaning?
   a. Nothing.
   b. £1.50 an hour.

C. Write this story, but do not put pictures. Put words.

One day Mrs. Stephens went to the in the town. She bought a and some . Then she bought a for her tea, but the was . After that, Mrs. Stephens bought a nice for one of her daughters, and a for the other, and a and some for the boys.
In hot, sunny countries, a lot of people like eating their meals in the fresh air. During the day, they eat under trees or big umbrellas, because the sun is usually very strong, but in the evening they eat under the moon and the stars.

People do this a lot in Italy. The restaurants put tables in a garden or in the street, and most people eat there and not in the restaurants.

Renato was an Italian. He came to London and bought a restaurant there. Then he said, ‘I’m going to put some of my tables in the street here too.’ But it rains a lot in England.

Mr. Jenkins went to Renato’s restaurant one day, and in the evening he said to his wife, ‘I had lunch at that new Italian restaurant today, and it rained all the time. Drinking my soup took twenty-five minutes.’

A. Answer these questions.

1. Where do people like eating in the fresh air?
2. What did Renato say?

Words not in the 750: fresh, restaurant, soup

B. Which words in the story on page 20 mean:

1. most of the time
2. clean
3. men, women and children
4. midday meal
5. more than half of the

C. Find the right sentence for each picture. Write it down.

1. a. These boys ate their fish.
   b. These boys hate their fish.

2. a. These boys ate their fish.
   b. These boys hate their fish.

3. a. Two ears
   b. Two years

4. a. Two ears.
   b. Two years.

5. a. That bus is very fast, but this one takes hours.
   b. That bus is very fast, but this one takes ours.

6. a. That bus takes the other team, and this one takes hours.
   b. That bus takes the other team, and this one takes ours.
Mac had a very old car. It was rusty and dirty, but its engine worked most of the time. One day he took his old car out of the garage and said to his wife, ‘I’m going to drive to Bournemouth and do some shopping.’

He came to a quiet road after a few kilometres, but then his car stopped. Mac got out, opened the bonnet of the car and looked at the engine, but he did not find anything wrong with it.

His head was under the bonnet for quite a long time. Then a young man ran to the car and began pulling one of the red lights off the back of it.

Mac put his head up, looked at the young man and shouted, ‘What are you doing there?’

The young man answered, ‘You can steal the pieces at the front. I’m going to take the ones at the back.’

---

A. Answer these questions.
1. What did Mac’s car do on a quiet road?
2. What did Mac do then?
3. What did a young man do?
4. What did Mac shout?
5. And what did the young man answer?

B. Put a few or a little in each empty space in these sentences.
1. Mac drove ... kilometres. Then his car stopped.
2. He had ... money in his pocket for a bus.
3. He waited for ... minutes. Then a bus came.
4. It was ... slower than his car, but he got to a garage.
5. The man in the garage said to him, 'Wait ...'
6. Then he drove him back to his car with ... things in a bag.
7. He did ... work on the car, and then the engine began running.
8. Mac gave the man ... pounds and then drove on to Bournemouth.

C. Write these sentences. Choose the correct words.

1. This man is [doing/making] some work.

2. He is [doing/making] a wall, but he has [done/made] a mistake.

What is he going to [do/make] about it?

3. Now the other man is [doing/making] a fire, and his wife is going to [do/make] some tea on it.

4. What are they [doing/making] now? They are drinking their tea, and their small son is [doing/making] his homework.
George was an American. He went to Britain last summer, and he visited some of his British friends there. Two of them were Mr. and Mrs. Andrews. They lived near Edinburgh, and George stayed in their house for a week and enjoyed it very much.

On his last evening with the Andrews, George said to them, 'My aeroplane to New York leaves very early tomorrow morning. I'm going to get up at five o'clock and make my breakfast. Please don't come down.'

He said goodbye to his good friends that evening and came down to the kitchen in the morning and looked at the table. There was a photograph of Mrs. Andrews on it in front of her chair, and a photograph of Mr. Andrews in front of his chair.

George laughed happily and said, 'That's very good. I'm not going to eat my breakfast alone this morning!'

A. Answer these questions.
1. Why did Mr. and Mrs. Andrews not have breakfast with George on his last morning?
2. Why did he get up at five o'clock?
3. Who made the breakfast that day?

4. What did he find on the table in the kitchen?
5. What did he say then?

B. Which of these sentences are true? Write the correct ones down.
1. George was a visitor to America.
2. George was a visitor to Britain.
3. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews were his host and hostess.
4. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews were his guests.
5. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews drove him to the airport.
6. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews stayed at home, and George went to the airport.
7. There were photographs of George on the table in the kitchen.
8. There were photographs of Mr. and Mrs. Andrews on the table in the kitchen.
9. George ate his breakfast with the photographs that morning.
10. George ate his breakfast with Mr. and Mrs. Andrews that morning.

C. Write this story, but do not put pictures. Put words.

George went to London too. He visited the of London, and London , and he went to the and to a . One day he went to the , and another day he went round a car . Then he went to a big match. He had a good match. He had a good of London, but sometimes he asked a the way somewhere. He liked the very much.
Mrs. Black had two coal fires in her house, and she always bought her coal from Mr. Matthews. He sold her good coal. There was never much dust in it.

But Mr. Matthews was old, and after a few years he stopped working in his coalyard, and his son Freddie began selling coal to Mrs. Black. He brought two sacks of coal to her house in his truck one day, and Mrs. Black said to him, 'Your father always sold me good coal. There was never much dust in the sacks.'

'I do that too,' young Mr. Matthews said.

A few months later he brought Mrs. Black another two sacks of coal and said to her, 'Did you find any dust in the last sacks of coal?'

'No, I didn't find dust in the sacks of coal,' answered Mrs. Black. 'I found some pieces of coal in the sacks of dust!'

A. Answer these questions.

1. What did Mrs. Black say to Freddie?
2. What did the young man answer?
3. What did he do a few months later?
4. What did he ask Mrs. Black?
5. What did she answer?

Words not in the 750: coalyard, sack

B. Do this puzzle.

Across:

6. Mr. Matthews brought Mrs. Black two ... (three words)
7. Stop! The lights are ...
8. Mrs. Black ... about old Mr. Matthews in her newspaper one day.
9. This is coal ... colour is black.
10. Young Mr. Matthews's first name.
12. Mother's mother.

Down:

1. 'Did Mrs. Black have any children?' 'Yes, she had one son and two ...'
3. Mrs. Black has more fires in winter than in summer, because it is ... in winter.
4. Got a goal in football.
5. We buy newspapers every day, but we buy ... once a week or once a month.
11. 'Has Mrs. Black got ... coal in her sacks of dust?' 'Yes, she has some.'
13. Mrs. Black said, 'Please bring ... two more sacks of coal next month.'
14. 'It's late. Go ... bed.'

C. Draw lines from the words on the left to the correct words on the right. Then write the four sentences.

1. Mrs. Black a. always sold Mrs. Black good coal.
2. Old Mr. Matthews b. bought coal from Mr. Matthews.
3. The sacks of coal c. sold Mrs. Black a lot of coal dust.
4. Young Mr. Matthews d. had coal and dust in them.
Mr. Gray went to work by train every day and he always walked from the station to his office. It was about one kilometre, and he never went by bus, because he enjoyed walking fast. It sometimes rained or snowed, but then Mr. Gray put his umbrella up, turned the collar of his coat up, and walked fast.

There was always a poor man at the side of a narrow street near Mr. Gray's office. He had one leg, and he sold matches in the street. A box of them cost 20p. Mr. Gray always smiled at the poor man and said, 'Good morning.' Then he gave him 20p and did not take any of his matches, because he did not smoke.

One day Mr. Gray gave the poor man his 20p and began walking on, but the man shouted after him, 'Sir, the matches cost 25p now!'

A. Answer these questions.
1. Who did Mr. Gray always see in the street?
2. What did Mr. Gray always say and do?
3. Did he take any matches?
4. Why?

B. Which words in the story on page 28 mean the opposite of:
1. bought
2. give
3. never
4. night
5. rich
6. said very quietly
7. slowly
8. wide

C. Put the number of the correct sentence under the correct picture.

1. The poor man said, 'They cost 25p now!'
2. He gave 20p to the poor man.
3. He got out in London.
4. He sold matches there every day.
5. It was snowing, but he walked to his office.
6. Mr. Gray got on his train.
7. Then he walked on.
8. There was a poor man in the street.
Neil was five years old, and he had no brothers or sisters. He lived with his parents in the country, and there were no neighbours near his house.

One Saturday Neil's Uncle Fred came and visited them. He had lunch with Neil and his parents, and then Neil's mother went into the kitchen and washed the dishes, and his father went out and washed the car.

'Stay here and talk to Uncle Fred,' Neil's father said to him.

'And show him your toys,' his mother said.

Neil showed his uncle his toys and they talked for half an hour in the living-room. Then Neil said to his uncle, 'I'm going to go out and play with God in the garden now.'

His uncle was surprised. 'How do you play with God, Neil?' he asked him.

'It's easy,' Neil answered. 'I throw the ball up, and then God throws it back down to me.'

Words not in the 750: God, surprised

A. Answer these questions.
1. Who had lunch with Neil and his parents one day?
2. What did Neil and his uncle do in the living-room?
3. What did Neil say then?
4. What did Uncle Fred ask Neil?
5. And what did Neil answer?

B. Which of the answers to these questions are correct? Write the correct answers down.
1. How many children did Neil's parents have?
   a. More than one.
   b. One.
2. How many people lived near Neil's house?
   a. A few.
   b. A lot.
   c. None.
3. What did Neil's father do after lunch?
   a. He cleaned his car.
   b. He sat in the living-room and talked to Uncle Fred.
4. What did Neil do after lunch?
   a. He stayed in the living-room and talked to Uncle Fred.
   b. He went into the kitchen and washed the dishes with his mother.
5. How did Neil play with God?
   a. He hit his ball and then ran and got it.
   b. He threw his ball up and then caught it.

C. Write this story. Put one word in each empty space. All the correct words are in the story on page 30.

Joan Brown is a small girl. Her ... are Mr. George Brown and his wife Dorothy. They live in a nice ... in the ... and their ... on both sides have children. Joan is going to ... with them this afternoon, but first she is washing the ... with her mother in their small ... Joan has a lot of ... , but she likes playing ball with her friends in her ... the best of all. They ... it to each other and catch it.
George and Jack were friends and neighbours. They were both policemen, and they sometimes went out together in a police car and drove around in town for a few hours.

One evening they got into the car at the police station and drove around from eight o’clock to midnight. First the town was quite quiet, but then, at half past eleven, there were a few drunk people in the streets.

George stopped the car, and Jack went to them and said, ‘Go home.’

Then there was another drunk man. George said to Jack, ‘Look, Jack. That man’s going round and round a tree, and he’s knocking at it all the time.’

He stopped the car, and Jack got out and went to the man. ‘Go home,’ he said to him.

The drunk man stopped, looked at Jack for a few seconds and then answered, ‘Don’t be stupid! There’s a wall right round me.’

A. Answer these questions.
1. What did George and Jack do one evening?
2. Who did they see in the streets at half past eleven?

B. Which of the words in the story on page 32 mean:
1. about
2. in the beginning
3. to your house
4. twelve o’clock at night
5. with each other

C. Find the right sentence for each picture. Write it down.

1. a. This man is knocking a nail into a tree.
b. This man is knocking a tree down.
c. This man is knocking a nail into a tree.

2. a. This man is knocking a nail into a tree.
b. This man is knocking a tree down.
c. This man is knocking a tree down.

3. a. This man is knocking a nail into a tree.
b. This man is knocking a tree down.
c. This man is knocking a tree down.

4. a. This man has drunk some water.
b. This man is drinking.
c. This man is drunk.

5. a. This man has drunk some water.
b. This man is drinking.
c. This man is drunk.

6. a. This man has drunk some water.
b. This man is drinking.
c. This man is drunk.
Mr. and Mrs. Richards were young, and they loved dancing and loud music, but they did not have very much money. They lived in a small flat and had a small stereo. They listened to it every evening and all the time on Saturdays and Sundays.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards both worked hard in a shop, and after a year they had quite a lot of money. Then they went out and bought a big, new stereo. It played music much more loudly than the old one. Mr. and Mrs. Richards sometimes played music very loudly at night and danced in their living-room for hours.

Then one day Mrs. Richards met one of their neighbours on the stairs and said to her, ‘We’ve got a beautiful new stereo now. Come to our flat and listen to it this evening.’

‘No,’ the neighbour answered, ‘come to our flat and listen to it there!’

A. Answer these questions.
1. How did Mr. and Mrs. Richards get quite a lot of money?
2. What did they buy?
3. Who did Mrs. Richards meet on the stairs?
4. What did she say to her?
5. And what did the neighbour answer?

B. Put one of these words in each empty space in these sentences:

our, ours, us, we, you, your, yours

1. Mrs. Richards said, ‘... have a new stereo.’
2. Then she said, ‘Come and listen to it in ... flat.’
3. ‘No, come and listen to it in ...!’ her neighbour answered.
4. ‘Come and visit ... this evening.’
5. ‘Have ... got a stereo too?’ Mrs. Richards asked.
6. ‘No, we listen to ..., but not in ... flat.’

C. Write this story, but do not put pictures. Put words.

George loves It is his hobby. He listens to it his , but he wants a big, new too.
He loves listening to good

This is George’s Eliza. She is an She paints beautiful . She also makes of animals and sells them. George has brought his and is taking a of some of them now.

Words not in the 750: flat (n.), stereo
George never liked work very much. At school he was always at the bottom of his class. Then he went and worked in an office, but he did not do much work there.

There were big windows in the office, and there was a street below them. There were always a lot of people and cars and buses in the street, and George liked sitting at his desk and looking at them.

George had a friend. His name was Peter, and he worked in the same office, but he was very different from George. He worked very hard.

Last Tuesday George stood at one of the windows of the office for a long time. Then he said to his friend Peter, "There's a very lazy man in the street. He began digging a hole this morning, but he hasn't done any work for half an hour."

A. Answer these questions.
1. Who was Peter?
2. How was he different from George?
3. What did George do for half an hour last Tuesday?
4. What did he say to Peter then?
5. Who were the lazy people?

B. Which of these sentences are true? Write the correct ones down.
1. George was a lazy man.
2. George always worked very hard.
3. George cleaned the windows in an office.
4. George worked at a desk in an office.
5. George looked at the people and cars in the street from his office window.
6. George went to the other side of the street and looked at the people and cars from there.
7. Peter worked in the street in front of the office.
8. Peter and George worked in the same office.
9. The man in the street was as lazy as Peter.
10. The man in the street was as lazy as George.

C. Write this story. Put one of these words in each empty space:

all, both, neither, none

George has two brothers. ... of his brothers likes hard work: ... of them are very lazy. But Peter has three sisters too, and ... of them work hard and enjoy it. ... of them is lazy. They had a lot of work yesterday. They worked very hard and finished ... of it before 6 p.m. They left ... of it for the next day.
Tim Jackson was a rich young man. He liked girls very much and often went out to dinner with them.

He usually went to the same restaurant, but the waiters there did not like him very much, because he did not give them good tips, and because he always asked them difficult questions and then gave them the answers. Then the girls laughed and said, 'You are clever, Tim!' and Tim was happy.

One day he took a beautiful girl to the restaurant. Her name was Susan. Tim said to her, 'What are you going to eat, Susan?'

She looked at everything and then said, 'Those fish look good, don't they?'

Tim looked at them and said, 'Yes, they do. I know a lot about fish.' Then he turned to the waiter and said, 'Waiter, these fish are French, aren't they?'

'I don't know,' answered the waiter. 'They haven't spoken to me.'

A. Answer these questions.
   1. What did Tim ask Susan in the restaurant?
   2. What did Susan say to Tim?
   3. And what did he answer?
   4. What did he say to the waiter?
   5. And what did the waiter answer?

Words not in the 750: know, tip(n.), waiter

B. Do this puzzle.
Across:
1. Tim often had his lunch in ....
7. This waiter is ... his tips.
8. 'Are you our waiter?'
   'Yes, I ...!
9. 1.
10. Tim gets up at 7.00, and Susan at 7.30. Tim gets up ... than Susan.
11. This man is very ....
12. The young man's name was ... Jackson.
13. People usually eat their meals in their .......

Down:
1. Tim has more money than his friends. He is ... than they are.
2. Tim left school a few years ago, and then he was a ... at a university.
3. Between midday and the evening.
4. Tim is ... now.
5. ... fish speak French.
6. Not often.
8. There are 60 minutes in ... hour.
9. 'Do you want meat, ... fish?'
12. Susan ate some fish, and Tim ate some fish ....

C. Draw lines from the words on the left to the correct words on the right. Then write the five sentences.
1. Susan       a. liked Tim because he did not give good tips.
2. None of the waiters b. never said anything.
3. One of the waiters c. often went out to dinner with girls.
4. The fish     d. said, 'I don't know.'
5. Tim         e. was a beautiful girl.
It was a very hot day in the middle of summer, and there were no trees along the street. Mr. Brown closed his shop at half past five, went out into the street and began walking to his bus. He was very fat. The sun shone straight down the street, and in a few minutes Mr. Brown was very hot.

A small boy came out of another shop in the street and followed Mr. Brown. He stayed very near him all the time, and he kicked the heels of Mr. Brown’s shoes several times. Mr. Brown looked at him angrily each time.

After the third time, Mr. Brown stopped, turned round and said to the small boy, ‘What are you doing? Stop following me like that! You’re going to hurt my heels.’

‘Please don’t stop me!’ the small boy said. ‘It’s very hot today, and there isn’t any shade anywhere else in the street!’

A. Answer these questions.

1. Why was Mr. Brown very hot in the street?
2. Who came out of another shop?

Words not in the 750: heel, please, shade (n.)

B. Which words in the story on page 40 mean the opposite of:
1. cold
2. far from
3. big
4. thin
5. sun
6. winter

C. Put the number of the correct sentence under the correct picture.

1. A small boy came out of another shop.
2. He began walking to his bus.
3. He followed Mr. Brown.
4. He kicked Mr. Brown’s heels.
5. He went out into the street.
6. Mr. Brown closed his shop.
7. Mr. Brown stopped and spoke to him angrily.
8. There were no trees in the street.
Harry has always loved aeroplanes. When he was younger, he said, 'I'm going to go into the Air Force,' but his eyes were not very good, and he did not get in.

Then he said, 'I'm going to buy a small aeroplane, and I'm going to have flying lessons,' but small aeroplanes and flying lessons are very expensive, and Harry did not have much money.

But last year Harry found a new skydiver's club near his home. The lessons did not cost very much, and Harry began going to the club every Saturday and Sunday and having lessons. Now he is a good skydiver.

Last week an old lady said to him, 'You're a very brave young man. How do you jump out of an aeroplane like that?'

'I'm not brave,' Harry said and he smiled. 'I'm in the aeroplane, and I say to myself, 'It's going to crash in a few seconds!' Then I'm very afraid, and I jump out quickly.'

Words not in the 750: crash (v.), skydiver

A. Answer these questions.
   1. What did Harry do at the club?
   2. What is he now?
   3. What did a woman ask him last week?
   4. What does Harry always say to himself in an aeroplane?
   5. What does he do then? Why?

B. Which of the answers to these questions are correct?
   Write the correct answers.
   1. Did Harry go into the Air Force?
      a. No, because he was afraid.
      b. No, because his eyes are not very good.
      c. Yes.
   2. Did he buy a small aeroplane?
      a. No, because he is not a rich man.
      b. No, because his eyes are not very good.
      c. Yes.
   3. Did he have lessons at the skydivers' club?
      a. No, because they were on Saturdays and Sundays.
      b. No, because they were very expensive.
      c. Yes.
   4. Why does he jump out of the aeroplane quickly?
      a. Because he is afraid.
      b. Because he is brave.

C. Write this story. Put one word in each empty space. All the correct words are in the story on page 42.

When David was a boy, his hobby was making model .... He was not rich, but making them was not very .... He enjoyed .... his models in a field near his house. They went up into the .... like big aeroplanes, and sometimes they fell and hit the ground with a big .... When he was older, he found a flying .... near his home, and he had some .... there. Sometimes the wind threw the small aeroplane around, but he was never .... because he was a .... young man. Once he nearly crashed, and his teacher said, '....', but he did not, and the aeroplane came down quite well.
Jill was four years old. She was a clever child, but she was not very pretty. She went to school every day, and she loved her lessons. She was always at the top of her class, and she learnt to read and write very quickly.

One day her mother said to her, ‘Aunt Kathy and Aunt Judy are going to visit us tomorrow. They live in Canada, and you haven’t met them, because they very seldom come to England. They’re going to have lunch with us.’

The aunts arrived at twelve o’clock the next day, and Jill’s mother gave them some coffee. Then she said, ‘I’m going to make lunch now,’ and went into the kitchen. Jill stayed in the living-room with her aunts.

Aunt Kathy looked at Jill and then said to Aunt Judy quietly, ‘She isn’t very p-r-e-t-t-y, is she?’

‘No,’ said Jill quickly, ‘but I’m very c-l-e-v-e-r.’

A. Answer these questions.
   1. What did Jill’s mother say to her one day?
   2. When did the aunts arrive?
   3. What did Jill’s mother give them?
   4. What did Aunt Kathy say about Jill?
   5. And what did Jill answer?

B. Which of the words in the story on page 44 mean:
   1. beautiful
   2. fast
   3. come and see
   4. liked very much
   5. mother’s or father’s sister

C. Find the right sentence for each picture. Write it down.

   1. a. Jill is sitting on a table.
      b. Jill is sitting on a chair.

   2. a. Jill is sitting at a desk.
      b. Jill is sitting at a table.

   3. a. Jill is sitting at a desk.
      b. Jill is sitting at a table.

   4. a. Jill’s books are on a cupboard.
      b. Jill’s books are in a cupboard.

   5. a. Jill’s books are on a cupboard.
      b. Jill’s books are in a cupboard.
Mrs. Grace was forty. One day she said to her husband, ‘I weighed myself this morning. I weigh seventy kilos.’

‘Is that bad?’ answered Mr. Grace.

‘Yes, it is.’ Mrs. Grace said. ‘It’s very bad. Each week I’m heavier now. I’m going to eat less, and I’m going to have a walk every day.’

The next morning she put her coat on and began walking, but during her walk it rained, and the rain went through her coat.

That evening she said to her husband, ‘I want a good coat for my walks. I’m going to go to the shops tomorrow, and I’m going to buy one.’

The next morning she went into a shop and looked at some coats with the salesgirl. She liked a seal coat very much.

‘This seal coat’s nice,’ she said to the salesgirl, ‘but does the rain come through it?’

The salesgirl smiled and answered, ‘Have you ever seen a seal with an umbrella?’

Words not in the 750: salesgirl, seal[n.]

A. Answer these questions.
   1. What did the rain do during Mrs. Grace’s first walk?
   2. What did she say to her husband that evening?
   3. What did she do the next morning?
   4. What did she say to the salesgirl?
   5. What did the salesgirl answer?

B. Put one of these in each empty space in the sentences:
   drives, has, is driving, is having, is putting, puts

   Mrs. Grace ... her husband to the station now.
   She ... him there every day.

   Mrs. Grace ... her coat on now. She always ... it on before a walk.

   Mrs. Grace ... for a walk now. She ... for a walk every morning.

C. Write this story. Put one of these words in each empty space:
   angry, clothes, club, dance, fat, put, said, sizes, thin, went

   Why do some girls not eat much? Because they like being ... and not .... Last autumn, Mrs. Grace’s daughter ate a lot, and then she took some of her ... out of her cupboard and said, ‘I’m going to ... this dress on now,’ but it did not go over her head. Then she was ... and ... , ‘I’m going to go to a ... at the young people’s ... tonight, and I haven’t got a dress!’ Then she ... to a shop. They had dresses of lots of different .... She bought one and then she said, ‘I’m not going to eat anything for a week—after the dance!’
Ted worked in a factory, but he was not very good, and he lost his job one day. His wife looked in the newspaper and said, 'One of the banks wants a guard.'

'I'm going to go there tomorrow,' Ted said, 'and I'm going to ask for that job. It's quite an easy one, and I'm quite strong.'

The next morning he went to the bank at half past nine and said, 'I want that job here. The guard's job.'

A man gave him a piece of paper. There were a lot of questions on it. 'Write your answers under the questions,' the man said to Ted.

One of the questions was, 'Have you ever been in prison?'

Ted smiled happily and wrote 'No' under this question.

Then he looked at the next question. It was 'Why?'

He thought for a long time and then he wrote, 'Because the police have never caught me.'

\textit{Words not in the 750:} guard (n.), job, police, prison

A. Answer these questions.

1. What did the man at the bank do, and what did he say to Ted?
2. What was one question on the piece of paper?
3. What did Ted answer?
4. What was the next question?
5. And what was Ted's answer?

B. Which of these sentences are true? Write the correct ones down.

1. Ted worked very well in the factory.
2. Ted did not work well in the factory.
3. He lost his job, and then he went to another factory and asked for work.
4. He lost his job, and then he went to a bank and asked for work.
5. He wanted a guard's job.
6. He wanted a bank clerk's job.
7. Ted was never in prison.
8. Ted was in prison once.
10. The police never caught him.

C. How is the first picture different from the second one? Use these words and finish the sentences:

\begin{tabular}{ccc}
\textit{raining, shining, waiting, wearing} & In A, & In B, \\ \end{tabular}

1.
2.
3.

\textit{Words not in the 750:} guard (n.), job, police, prison
Ken was fifty, and his wife Liz was forty-eight. They had a very old car.

Last Friday, Ken said to Liz, 'I've got some work in Boxbury. Come with me and do your shopping there.'

Liz was very happy, because her husband very seldom took her out, and she usually shopped in their small village.

Ken drove their old car to the River Dee. There was a ferry there, and cars and trucks crossed on it to the other side. It was the shortest way to Boxbury.

The ferryman came to Ken and said, 'A pound for the car and twenty-five for the passenger.' Ken answered, 'Take the car for a pound, but I'm not going to sell my wife for less than fifty pence.'

Liz was even happier, because she didn't want to do her shopping in Boxbury.

A. Answer these questions.

1. What did Ken say to his wife last Friday?
2. Why was she happy then?
3. Where did Ken drive first?
4. What did Ken drive to?
5. And what did Ken answer?

B. Do this puzzle.

Across:

1. Boxbury
2. Asked Ken for £1.25
3. Cost one pound for car
4. Our house is ten kilometres... a ferry
5. 'I'm going to... shopping,' Liz said
6. We don't... your car because it's old
7. Liz does not cook with electricity or gas
8. The ferry crossed this river
9. 'The ferry crossed this river,' the man in the fish shop...
10. Our house is ten kilometres... the south of Boxbury

Down:

1. Fathers, mothers, sons and daughters
2. How much does this cost, Liz?
3. The old car...
4. Ken and Liz crossed the river... a ferry
5. The ferryman was on the other side of the river
6. Cost one pound for car
7. Somebody said, 'I bought... minutes'
8. Each... on the ferry
9. 'I'm going to... shopping,' Liz said
10. 'I'm going to... shopping,' Liz said

C. Draw lines from the words on the left to the correct words on the right. Then write the five sentences.
Mr. Brown had a beautiful shop. He sold sweets, and a lot of children came and bought them after school, but some of them looked into the window of the shop first, and put their fingers on the glass, and Mr. Brown did not like dirty windows.

Then last week he made a big notice. On it he wrote, ‘Children! Do not put your fingers on this glass! It is dangerous!’ And then he put it up in the window of his shop.

The shop on Mr. Brown’s left was a shoe shop, and his friend, Tom Jones, worked there. Tom saw the notice and was surprised. He went into Mr. Brown’s shop and said to him, ‘Why is the glass in your shop window dangerous, Alf? What does it do to the children?’

Mr. Brown smiled. ‘The glass doesn’t do anything to the children, Tom,’ was his answer, ‘but I give them a hard smack.’

A. Answer these questions.
1. What did Mr. Brown sell in his shop?
2. What did some of the children do?
3. What did Mr. Brown write on his notice?
4. What did Tom ask Mr. Brown?

Words not in the 750: notice (n.), smack (n.)

B. Which of the words in the story on page 52 mean the opposite of:
1. before
2. clean
3. out of
4. question
5. right
6. soft
7. take
8. ugly

C. Put the number of the correct sentence under the correct picture.

1. He looked at the notice.
2. His friend Tom came out of the next shop.
3. Mr. Brown answered, ‘It isn’t.’
4. Mr. Brown cleaned his shop window.
5. Mr. Brown was angry and smacked them.
6. Some children put their fingers on it.
7. Then he put a notice in his window.
8. Then he said to Mr. Brown, ‘Why is the glass dangerous?’
Dick Leonard was the captain of a small ship, the ‘London Flower’. Sometimes it took engines from one port to another, sometimes it took furniture, and sometimes it took other things. But sometimes there was no work for it, and the ship was empty. Then Captain Leonard was not happy, because he loved being busy, and he loved going from one port to another all the time.

But the other men on the ship were lazy. They did not like work much. They liked sitting and doing nothing.

One day Captain Leonard did not see two of them for a long time. He looked for them. He opened a door and shouted down some stairs, ‘Who’s there?’

‘William, Captain,’ was the answer.

‘What are you doing there, William?’ the captain asked.

‘Nothing, Captain,’ William answered.

‘Is Tom there?’ the captain shouted then.

‘Yes, he is,’ was the answer.

‘What’s he doing?’ the captain asked.

‘He’s helping me, Captain,’ William answered.

A. Answer these questions.

1. What were the first question and answer?
2. What were the second question and answer?
3. What were the third question and answer?

Words not in the 750: busy, help (v.)

4. What was Captain Leonard’s last question?
5. And what was William’s answer?

B. Which of the answers to these questions are correct?
Write the correct answers.

1. Did Dick Leonard enjoy being a captain?
   a. No, he didn’t.
   b. Yes, a little.
   c. Yes, very much.

2. Did the other men on the ship like hard work?
   a. No, they did not.
   b. Yes, they liked it a little.
   c. Yes, they liked it very much.

3. Was William busy?
   a. No, he was not.
   b. Yes, he was.

4. Where was Tom?
   a. He was with the captain.
   b. He was with William.

5. Was Tom busy?
   a. No, he was not.
   b. Yes, he was.

C. Write this story. Put one word in each empty space. All the correct words are in the story on page 54.

Dick Leonard’s friend Joe is a ... too. His ... is the ‘Brighton Flower’. It is not doing any voyages now, because its ... have broken. It is in a small ... in the south of England. Joe enjoys doing nothing, because he is a ... man. He does not like hard ... much. Some men are working on the ship’s engines, and they are always very .... They are running up and down the ... now, but Joe is not ... them. He is looking at his glass. It is ..., and he is saying, ‘I’m going to get another drink now!’
Mr. Hughes lived twenty kilometres from London, and his office was in the City. He went to work by train and bus at 8.00 in the morning and got home at 7.30 in the evening.

It rains rather a lot in England, and Mr. Hughes usually took an umbrella with him to London, but he often lost umbrellas. He lost them in buses, in trains and in shops. His wife often said to him, 'Umbrellas are expensive, David, and you buy one every week. Bring this one home this evening!'

One evening Mr. Hughes saw an umbrella in his train. 'Today I'm not going to lose my umbrella,' he said happily, and he took the umbrella, got out of the train at his station and brought the umbrella home.

His wife saw it and began laughing. 'But, David,' she said, 'you didn't take an umbrella with you this morning. That one isn't yours!'

A. Answer these questions.
   1. What did Mr. Hughes often do with umbrellas?
   2. What did his wife say?
   3. What did he see in his train one evening?
   4. What did he say and do?

B. Which of the words in the story on page 56 mean:
   1. between afternoon and night
   2. costing a lot of money
   3. each
   4. many times
   5. to his house

C. Find the right sentence for each picture and write it down.

   1. a. Mr. Hughes's umbrella is in his hand.
      b. Mr. Hughes's umbrella is on his arm.

   2. a. Mr. Hughes's umbrella is in his hand.
      b. Mr. Hughes's umbrella is on his arm.

   3. a. There is a fly on Mr. Hughes's foot.
      b. There is a fly on Mr. Hughes's leg.

   4. a. Now it is on his foot.
      b. Now it is on his leg.

   5. a. Mr. Hughes is looking at a clock.
      b. Mr. Hughes is looking at a watch.

   6. a. Mr. Hughes is looking at a clock.
      b. Mr. Hughes is looking at a watch.
Edward was at school. He was sixteen, and he lived with his mother and father near London. Then he left school and worked in a factory for a year, and then in August he said to his parents, 'I'm going to have a nice holiday in the country now, and I'm going to go there alone.'

He did not have much money, but he found the name of a small, cheap hotel, and he went there by train and bus. His room in the hotel was very small, but it was clean, and Edward was happy, because he was alone.

The first evening, he went down to the dining-room of the hotel at dinner time and sat down at a small table. The young waitress brought him a plate, and Edward looked at it. Then he said to the girl, 'Waitress, this plate's wet!'

'That's your soup,' the girl answered.

Words not in the 750: soup, waitress

A. Answer these questions.
1. Why did Edward go to a cheap hotel?
2. Where did he have dinner the first evening?
3. What did the young waitress bring him?
4. What did he say to her?
5. And what did she answer?

B. Put a, an, or the in each empty space in these sentences.
1. Edward looked for ... cheap hotel and found one.
2. ... name of ... hotel was ... Apollo.
3. ... first evening, Edward went into ... dining-room of ... hotel. There was ... young waitress there.
4. ... waitress brought Edward ... plate.
5. ... plate was wet. That was Edward's soup.
6. Then Edward had ... piece of meat.
7. And then he had ... apple.
8. ... apple was nice.
9. Next morning, Edward sat in ... sun and read ... book.
10. ... book was about ... City of New York.

C. Write this story, but do not put pictures. Put words.

Edward's father spent a week in a big ... It had a ... and he had a nice room with a ... and a ... The ... was nice but small. On the first evening, he had ... for dinner, and on the second evening, ...
Jack was five years old. His small friends had cats and dogs in their houses, but Jack’s parents did not have any animals.

Then one day Jack said to his mother, ‘I want a cat, Mummy.’

His mother did not say ‘Yes’ or ‘No’. First, she wanted to talk to her husband.

That evening she said to her husband, ‘Joe, all Jack’s friends have got dogs or cats, and we have no animals. Now Jack wants one.’

‘A cat’s easier than a dog, Helen,’ her husband answered.

‘Our neighbours’ cat’s going to have kittens,’ Helen said. ‘They aren’t going to want them all.’

‘Good,’ answered Joe. ‘Ask them for one.’

A few days later, the neighbour’s cat had four kittens, and after a few weeks, the neighbours gave one to Jack’s mother.

But then Jack pulled the kitten’s tail, and his mother said to him, ‘Don’t pull the kitten’s tail, Jack!’

Jack answered, ‘I’m not pulling it, Mummy. I’m holding it, and the kitten’s pulling.’

Words not in the 750: kitten, Mummy
Joe Smith sold his house and bought a new one. He put all his furniture in a truck and drove to the new house. There he drove the truck into the garage and took the furniture out. Then the truck was empty, and Joe looked at it.

'The truck's higher now, because it's empty,' he said to himself. 'It isn't going to get out of the garage again.' He began driving it out very slowly, but it hit the top of the door.

Joe said, 'What am I going to do now?' But then he went to all his new neighbours and said, 'Please come and sit in my truck.'

They were surprised, but they went and sat in the truck. It was heavy now, and Joe drove it out of the garage easily.

The neighbours were happy, and Joe was happy too.

'Now all of us are friends!' he said.

Words not in the 750: please, surprised.

A. Answer these questions.
1. Why did the truck hit the top of the door?
2. What did Joe say to his neighbours then?
3. And what did they do?
4. Why did the truck not hit the top of the door now?
5. What did Joe say then?

B. Do this puzzle.
Across:
5. Joe took his ... to his new house in a truck.
6. [Image of bicycles]
8. There is ... furniture in Joe's truck now.
9. This ship's officer is a ... .
12. These are ....

Down:
1. [Image of a truck]
2. Joe's neighbours sat ... his truck.
3. Jimmy is the ..., dirtiest boy in school!
4. The lights are ... now. Go!
5. Joe Smith is the ... of Fred and Alice Smith.
10. ... round and look behind you.
11. Joe's ... house was not far from his old one.

C. Draw lines from the words on the left to the correct words on the right. Then write the five sentences.
1. Joe a. hit the top of the door.
2. Joe's furniture b. stopped the truck getting out.
3. Joe's neighbours c. took his furniture to his new house.
4. The top of the door d. was in the truck with Joe.
5. The truck e. were very heavy.