4 We use the Present Continuous:

Present Simple or Present Continuous

Compare the Present Simple and the Present Continuous:

1 We use the Present Simple to talk about facts (things which are true at any time):
   Anna speaks good Spanish.
   Journalists write newspaper articles.
   I come from Norway. (= I am Norwegian).

2 We use the Present Simple for situations that exist over a long time, and for actions that are repeated (e.g. people’s habits, or events on a timetable):
   Mike works for an advertising company.
   He lives in Paris. (= His home is in Paris.)

3 We use the Present Simple with thinking and feeling verbs (e.g. know, forget, notice, understand, recognise, remember, like, love, hate, want, prefer, need):
   I don’t know which train to catch.

4 We use have in the Present Simple to talk about possession:
   I have a new car.

We use think in the Present Simple to express opinions:
   I think she’s interesting.

We use the Present Continuous to talk about actions in progress at the time of speaking:
   Anna’s busy. She’s speaking on the phone.
   What are you writing? ~ A letter to Jane.
   Look! The bus is coming.

We use the Present Continuous for things that continue for a limited period of time around now (e.g. holidays, visits, temporary jobs, school or university courses):
   John is working in the USA for six months.
   He’s living in New York.

We do not usually use the Present Continuous with thinking and feeling verbs:
   Not I’m knowing someone who lives in Venice.

We use have and think in the Present Continuous to talk about actions:
   I’m having fun.
   He can’t come, he’s having dinner at the moment.
   I am thinking about my work.

C Write the sentences using the Present Simple or the Present Continuous.

(Usually she/work/at the office, but this week she/work/at home)

Usually she works at the office, but this week she’s working at home.

1 (You/not/eat/very much at the moment. Are you ill?)

2 (She/know/three words in Italian!)

5 (you/watch/the television at the moment?)

6 (I/not/remember/the name of the hotel.)

7 (She/speak/three languages.)

8 (The sun/shine/. It’s a beautiful day!)
These are imperatives:

We use the imperative like this:
Come in! Have a cup of tea.
Turn left at the post office.
Don’t touch! It’s hot.

Note that sometimes the imperative is one word, but often we give more information:
Help! Help me! Help me with my suitcase.

We can say please after an imperative to be more polite:
Help me with my suitcase, please.
Hurry up, please. We’re late.
Come here, please.
Listen to me, please.

We form the negative like this:
Don’t be late.
Don’t forget your books! Don’t wait for me.

We normally use the short form Don’t.

We use the imperative:

- to give instructions:
  Turn right at the corner.
  Don’t forget your passport.

- to give warnings:
  Look out! There’s a car coming.
  Be careful! That box is very heavy.

- to give advice:
  Have a rest. You look tired.
  Take a coat. It’s cold today.
  Don’t see that film. It’s terrible!

- to ask people to do things:
  Come in please, and sit down.
  Listen to this song. It’s wonderful.
  Pass the butter, please.

- to make offers:
  Have another orange juice.
  Make yourself a cup of coffee.

- to ‘wish’ things:
  Have a good trip! Have a nice holiday!

   We form questions with did and the infinitive (e.g. watch):
   - Did you watch the film?

Past Continuous

1 We form the Past Continuous like this:

POSITIVE
I/He/She/It was waiting.
You/We/They were waiting.

NEGATIVE
I/He/She/It was not waiting.
You/We/They were not waiting.

QUESTIONS
Was I/he/she/it waiting?
Were you/we/they waiting?

(For rules on the spelling of -ing forms (e.g. waiting), see Appendix 2 on page 243.)

2 Look at this example:
A: What were you doing at seven o'clock last night?
B: I was driving home from work.

| 6.30 | 7.00 | 7.15 |

I was living in Japan in 2001. (I lived there from 1999 to 2003.)

We use the Past Continuous for an action or situation that was in progress at a particular time in the past (e.g. at seven p.m., in 2001).

3 Now look at this:
When I walked into the room, Ann was writing postcards and Keith was reading.

We use the Past Simple (walked) for a completed action. We use the Past Continuous (was writing) for an action in progress in the past.

4 We can use when or while before the Past Continuous:
I met her when/while we were working for the same company. (when = during the time)

We can only use when (not while) before the Past Simple:
When I met her, we were working for the same company. (when = at the time)

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I/you have arrived</td>
<td>I’ve arrived</td>

<td>I/you have not arrived</td>
<td>haven’t</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>he/she/it has not arrived</td>

<tr>
<td>we/you/they have not arrived</td>
<td>haven’t</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Has he/she/it arrived?
Have we/you/they arrived?

2 Regular past participles end in -ed or -d:

played travelled arrived washed

(For more regular past participles see Appendix 2, page 243.)

Many past participles are irregular:

buy → bought   go → gone make → made

(For irregular past participles see Appendix 3, page 244.)

3 We use the Present Perfect:

- to talk about recent actions:

At 18.00, Anne arrived home.
At 18.01, we can say:
Anne has arrived home.

From 18.30 to 19.00, Anne ate her dinner.
At 19.01, we can say:
She’s eaten her dinner.

- to talk about our lives:

I’ve sailed across the Atlantic.
I’ve seen gorillas in Africa.
I haven’t danced the Flamenco.

4 When we ask people about their lives, we often use ever (= at any time):

Have you ever been to Australia?

When people talk about their lives, they sometimes use never (= not at any time):

I’ve never learnt French.

Note that ever and never come before the past participle.

14 Present Perfect (2)

1 We use the Present Perfect to talk about something that happened in the past, but we do not say exactly when it happened:
   I've seen this film before. (= before now)

   He has never worked in a factory.

2 We can use the Present Perfect with for and since, to talk about situations or actions in a period of time from the past until now. We use for with a period of time (e.g. three months), and since with a point in time (e.g. Tuesday):

(= She left a short time ago.)

(= I started it a short time before now.)

2 Look at this example with already:

We use already with the Present Perfect to emphasize that something happened before now, or before it was expected to happen. We use already like this:

I’ve already heard that story.

Here is another example:

Nicola: Is Sarah going to phone you later?
Robert: No. She’s (= She has) already phoned me.

(~ The post has not arrived, but it probably will arrive.)
I haven’t finished this work yet.
(= I haven’t finished this work, but I will finish it.)

(= Perhaps you have not paid the bill, but you are going to pay it soon.)
Has it stopped raining yet?
(= Perhaps it has not stopped raining, but it will stop raining soon.)

   I met John at four o'clock.
   When did Jane go to India? ~ In June.

   Peter: Have you ever played this game before?
   Maria: Yes, I played it once when I was in England.
   Peter: Did you win?
   Maria: No, I lost.

We use the Present Perfect to talk about the past, but not about when things happened:

   I’ve met John’s girlfriend. She’s nice.
   Have you ever been to India? ~ Yes, I have.
   I have never bought a new car.

We use the Present Perfect for situations or actions during a period of time from the past to now:

   He has worked here for two years.
   (He still works here.)

   We’ve lived in this flat since we got married.
   (We still live in it.)

1 We use the Present Perfect Simple (have painted) to talk about a past activity that is now completed:
   We’ve painted the rooms. (= The rooms are now painted.)
   Anna’s mended her bike. (= She can ride it now.)

   We still have three rooms to paint.
   Anna’s hands are dirty because she’s been mending her bike.

2 We use the Present Perfect Simple to ask and answer How many? and How much?:
   A: How many rooms have you painted?
   B: We’ve painted three of them.

We usually use the Present Perfect Continuous to ask How long?, and with since and for:
   I have been travelling for six months.

   Tony has had an accident on his bike.
   ► with verbs of thinking (e.g. know, decide, forget, notice):
   I’m sorry. I’ve forgotten your name.
   ► to talk about the last time that something happened:
   I haven’t eaten meat for two years.
   (= I last ate meat two years ago.)

Note that we can use the Present Perfect Simple or the Continuous with work, teach, and live, with no difference in meaning:
   I have taught here for two years.
   Or I have been teaching here for two years.

Practice

A Write out the sentences in brackets ( ). Use the Present Perfect Simple (e.g. I have done).

   ► He’s late again. (How many times/he/arrive/late this month?)
   How many times has he arrived late this month?

   1 What a good week! (We/sell/much more than we expected.)

   2 (How much money/you/spend/this week?)

   3 (How many people/Jane/invite/to her party?)

Now use the Present Perfect Continuous (I have been doing).

   4 It’s still raining. (It/rain/for hours.)

   5 That noise is awful. (They/drill/holes in the wall all morning.)

   6 Are you still here? (How long/you/sit/here?)
B  Five friends have just finished some jobs. Look at the table.

C  Put the verbs in brackets ( ) into the gaps in the right form. Use the Present Perfect Simple or the Present Perfect Continuous.

We form the Past Perfect with had and the past participle of a verb (e.g. started, taken):

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>FULL FORM</th>
<th>SHORT FORM</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I/You/He/She/It/We/They had started</td>
<td>'d started</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

I had taken it. Or I'd taken it.
They had not started. Or They hadn't started.

2 Look at this:

A year ago:
Jenny is flying to Rome. She thinks, 'I have never been on a plane before now.'

Now:
Jenny flew to Rome last year. She had never been on a plane before that.

When we talk about an event or situation in past time we use the Past Simple (e.g. flew); if we talk about an event before that time, we use the Past Perfect (e.g. had been). Here is another example:

Last Saturday at the cinema:
Mary: We don't need to queue because I've already bought the tickets.

Now, talking about last Saturday:
Mary: We didn't need to queue because I had already bought the tickets.

Note that we can use never and already before the past participle (e.g. been, bought).

3 If we talk about a series of past events in order, we use the Past Simple:
A: I saw a beautiful bird in my garden.
B: I went to get my camera.
C: The bird flew away.
D: I returned with my camera.

past A B C D now

We need the Past Perfect to make it clear that one of the events is not in order:
D: I returned with my camera.
C: The bird had already flown away.
(The bird had gone before I returned.)

Also, compare these sentences using when:

Past Simple: When I returned with my camera, the bird flew away. (It went after I returned.)
Past Perfect: When I returned with my camera, the bird had flown away. (It went before I returned.)

4 The Past Perfect is used in reported speech:
'I have suffered from asthma for many years.' She told the doctor that she had suffered from asthma for many years.
(For more on reported speech, see Units 100-102.)

Practice

1 Last summer Mary won a gold medal for the third time.
   She had already won two gold medals before that.

2 Last summer Ken visited Scotland for the first time.
   He had never visited Scotland before that.

3 Last weekend Tom rode a horse for the first time.

   He had never run in a marathon before that.

5 Last summer Tony played tennis at Wimbledon for the fifth time. He ............................................................... before that.

6 Last year Jean wrote her third novel. She ............................................................... before that.

B In each case you have two events in the order in which they took place. Write the information in one sentence using the words in brackets ( ).

C Use the Past Perfect to complete the sentences.

Pam said that she ............................................................... .

1 Fred said, ‘Jack has just gone out.’
Fred told us that Jack ............................................................... .

1 We can use the Present Simple to talk about present situations or habits:
   - situations:
     My sister works as a translator.
     Andrew lives in London.
   - habits:
     Peter usually wears jeans.
     I often eat a sandwich for lunch.
     Mike doesn’t smoke anymore.
     Does John drive to work every day?

2 Look at these sentences with the Past Simple:
   - situation:
     Henry lived in France for many years.
   - habit:
     When I was young, I ran three miles every day.

The verbs are in the Past Simple and the sentences are about past situations or habits.

3 Look at these sentences with used to:
   Jill used to live in Ireland.
   Many people used to make their own bread.
   My husband used to work at home.

We use used to to talk about a past situation or habit that continued for months or years, and to emphasize that the situation today is different:
   Jill doesn’t live in Ireland now.
   Nowadays people usually buy bread from a shop.
   My husband doesn’t work at home now.

Compare the Past Simple and used to:
   - Past Simple:
     When he was young, he ran three miles every day. (He may or may not run three miles every day now.)
   - used to:
     When I was young, I used to run three miles every day. I don’t do that now. (I don’t run three miles every day now.)

We make negative sentences and questions with did + used to:
   Sue didn’t use to like black coffee.
   Paul didn’t use to smoke a pipe.
   Did Alan use to cycle to school?
   Did your parents use to read to you?

4 We do not use use to for present situations or habits; we use the Present Simple:
   Ann sings in a band. (NOT Ann uses to sing in a band.)
   Joe doesn’t cycle to school. (NOT ... doesn’t use to cycle...)

I'll answer it.

Here is another example:

A: Does anyone want to come with me tonight?
B: Yes, I'll come.

5 We use Shall I ...? or Shall ... when we want to do things for other people:

Will or be going to Compare will and be going to:

1 We use will with an infinitive (do, go, be, arrive, etc.):

INFINITIVE
John will arrive tomorrow.

2 We use will for actions that we decide to do now, at the moment of speaking:

past
I like this coat. I think I'll buy it.
now
A: What would you like to eat?
now
B: I'll have a pizza, please.

We can use will for offers and promises:

I'll carry your case for you. (offer)
I won't forget your birthday again. (promise)

3 We use will to talk about things that we think or believe will happen in the future:

I'm sure you'll enjoy the film.
I'm sure it won't rain tomorrow. It'll be another beautiful, sunny day.

We use be going with to + infinitive (to do, to be, to rain, etc.):

to + INFINITIVE
It's going to rain soon.
My friends are going to come tonight.
It isn't going to rain today.
What are you going to do on Sunday?

We use be going to for actions that we have decided to do before we speak:

data
I'm going to clean my room this afternoon.
(now)
(decision)
I decided to clean it this morning.

We can ask questions about people's plans:
Are you going to take the three o'clock train?
(= Have you decided to take the three o'clock train?)

We use be going to for something that we expect to happen, because the situation now indicates that it is going to happen:
He's running towards the goal, and he's going to score.

Practice

Present Continuous for the future

1 Look at these examples:
   I'm flying home tomorrow.
   He's starting a new job on Monday.
   Tony and Ann are coming at the weekend.

In each example, we are using the Present Continuous (see Units 5 and 6), but we are talking about the future, not the present.

2 Look at this example:

   You bought a plane ticket last week.
   You can now say:
   I'm flying home next week.

   \begin{array}{ccc}
   \text{past} & \text{now} & \text{future} \\
   \text{last week} & \text{now} & \text{next week} \end{array}

We use the Present Continuous to talk about things we have arranged in the past to do in the future.

Here are some more examples:

   A bank wrote to Steven and asked him to start work next week.
   We can now say:
   He's starting a new job next week.

   John said to Tony and Ann:
   Would you like to come for dinner on Sunday?
   Tony and Ann said: Yes.
   John now says:
   Tony and Ann are coming on Sunday.

3 The important part of a Present Continuous for the future sentence is often a time or day (e.g. next week, in July, tomorrow, on Sunday):

   PRESENT: I'm leaving now.
   FUTURE: I'm leaving tomorrow.
   PRESENT: We're having a party at the moment. Can I phone you tomorrow?
   FUTURE: We're having a party in July.

4 We do not use the Present Continuous for future events that we cannot arrange or have not arranged:

   NOT The sun is shining tomorrow.
   (The sun will shine ...)
   NOT The Irish team are winning next week.
   (The Irish team will win next week.)

Practice

A Look at the past events in brackets ( ), and then write sentences using the words in the box. Use short forms of the Present Continuous for the future.

   I/eat/in a new restaurant tonight
   I/fly/to Florida in August
   I/go/to a concert next Tuesday
   I/go/to the doctor tomorrow
   I/study/English in London in May
   I/see/Mary this weekend

   (You paid for an English course in London yesterday.)
   I'm studying English in London in May.

1 (You booked a table at a new restaurant last week.)

2 (You bought a ticket for a concert last month.)

3 (You telephoned your doctor this morning.)
4 (You paid for a holiday at a travel agent’s last week.)

5 (You talked to Mary on the phone this morning.)

B Mark is an explorer. Look at the things he has arranged to do. Match the pictures with the words in the box. Write sentences about what he is doing next year, using the Present Continuous. Say when he is doing each thing.

he/drive/across the Sahara he/walk/across the Antarctic he/run/across/Africa
he/fly/over the Amazon
he/climb/Mount Everest
he/sail/across the Pacific

JANUARY  MARCH  MAY

JULY  SEPTEMBER  NOVEMBER

- He is running across Africa in January.
- ..........................................................
- ..........................................................
- ..........................................................
- ..........................................................
- ..........................................................

C Finish these dialogues using the Present Continuous for the future, and the words in brackets ( ). Use short forms where possible.

- Steve: Are you doing (you/do) anything this weekend?
  Lynn: I’m seeing (I/see) a film on Sunday. Do you want to come?
1 Pete: Jane, Joe and Sally (come) to my house on Friday night. Mark: (you/have) a party?
  Pete: No, we aren’t. (We/play) cards. Would you like to come?
2 David: (I/fly) to New York on Sunday.
  Chris: (you/see) John there?
  David: Yes, (we/meet) at the airport.
3 Philip: Mary and I (drive) to Scotland next Wednesday.
  Mike: (you/stay) in Edinburgh?
  Philip: No. (we/visit) my mother in Aberdeen.
4 Paul: (I/start) a new job on Monday.
  Clive: Really? What is it?
  Paul: (I/sell) cars. Do you need a new car?
25 Present tense: when, before, after, until, etc.

1. Look at this sentence:

   When the programme ends, I'll do the washing-up.

   To talk about an event in the future, we usually use the Present Simple (e.g. ends) after when, before, after, until and as soon as. We do not use will:

   I'm going to finish this work before I go.
   (not... before I will go.)

   Wait here until I get back.
   I'll phone you as soon as I arrive.

2. We can use when + Present Simple to refer to a time when something will happen:

   I'll buy an ice-cream when I'm in the newsagent's.

   When you see her, give her my message.

   We use until + Present Simple to mean from now to a time in the future:

   We'll sit outside until it gets dark. (= We'll sit outside from now to when it gets dark.)

   We use as soon as + Present Simple with the meaning ‘immediately after’:

   They'll start playing as soon as it stops raining. (= They will start playing immediately after the rain stops.)

3. We use when + Present Perfect (e.g. I have done) to talk about an action that must, or will, happen before the next action can happen:

   When I've found a job, I'll look for a place to live. (= First I will find a job; then I will look for a place to live.)

4. With after we can use either the Present Simple or the Present Perfect with no difference in meaning:

   After she takes/has taken the course, she'll be a qualified teacher. (= When she has done her course, she'll be a qualified teacher.)

Practice

A Complete the sentences by putting when, before, after, as soon as or until into the gaps. Sometimes more than one answer is possible.

2. I'm going to keep working ............... I finish this.
3. Remember to buy some stamps ............... you're in the post office.
4. ............... I speak to him on the phone tonight, I'll ask him.
5. We can go for a meal ............... we've seen the film.
6. I'll keep looking for it ............... I find it.
7. I'll wait for them ............... it gets dark, and then I'll leave.
8. ............... I've found the information, I'll phone you.
9. We'll wait ............... it stops raining, and then we'll go out.
10. ............... you see John, give him my regards.
11. Put in your application ............... the closing date arrives.
12. You shouldn't wait. You should reply ............... you receive the invitation.
13. Book a table ............... you go to the restaurant. It's often full.
B Complete the dialogues, using the Present Simple or will forms of the verbs in brackets ( ). Sometimes you do not need to change the word in brackets.

1 A: Could you post this letter for me today, please?
   B: Yes, I’ll do (do) it when I go (go) to the shops.

2 A: I might be late tonight.
   B: OK. I (wait) until you arrive (arrive).

   B: I see you before you go (go), won’t I?

   B: No, but I phone (phone) you as soon as I know (know) what I’m going to do.

5 A: Have you done that homework yet?
   B: No, not yet. I do (do) it when I have (have) enough time.

C Complete the sentences using the Present Perfect or will forms of the verbs in brackets ( ).

2 I pay (pay) the bill when I have borrowed some money from somebody.
3 When I’ve found a car that I want to buy, I ask (ask) my bank to lend me the money to buy it.

8 When you finish (finish) your work, you can go home.
9 She is pleased (be pleased) when she hears the news.
10 Let’s go for a walk after we have (have) dinner.
Future

1 We can talk about future time with different verb forms, for example:
   - will: I’ll come with you.
   - be going to: He’s going to come with us.
   - Present Continuous:
     We’re coming tomorrow.
   - Present Simple:
     When he arrives, we’ll have dinner.

2 When we talk about events in the future that we expect to happen but that are not in our control, we can use will or be going to:
   Ann will be (or is going to be) 12 next week.
   We won’t see (or aren’t going to see) those birds again until next spring.
   Will they finish (or Are they going to finish) the building soon?

3 When we talk about events in the future that are in our control (i.e. we can decide what will happen), we use will differently from be going to. We use will at the time we decide what to do; we use be going to after we have decided what to do. Look at these examples:
   John: Can somebody help me, please?
   Helen: Yes, I’ll help you.
   (Here Helen decided after John asked.)

   Now compare:
   Carol: John needs some help.
   Helen: I know. I’m going to help him.
   (Here Helen had decided before Carol spoke.)

4 Look at these examples:
   If it rains, they’ll stay (or they’re going to stay) at home.
   We’ll have (or we’re going to have) lunch after the programme finishes.

   When a sentence has two parts that refer to the future, we use the Present Simple after if, when, before, after, as soon as and until, and in the other part of the sentence we use will or be going to:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>When/after etc.</th>
<th>SIMPLE</th>
<th>will/</th>
<th>PRESENT</th>
<th>be going to</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>After it finishes</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>we’ll have lunch.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

5 We use the Present Continuous to talk about a future arrangement that we have made with someone else:
   A: Can you come and see us this evening?
   B: I can’t. I’m playing squash with Sam.

   Peter can’t come to the cinema with us tonight because he’s meeting Jane for dinner.

Practice

Tom: Hi Liz. Do you want some tea or coffee after your journey?
Liz: Thanks. I’ll (✓) have a tea.
Tom: I’m going to (✓) carry your bag – you look tired. We’ll (1) go to that café, over there. Here we are. So, welcome back to England. How was Holland?

Tom: Good. I’m sure he’ll (4) give you what you want. Now, would you like something to eat?
Liz: Um, yes. I’m going to (5)................. have a sandwich. Thanks. What about you?

the Mexican restaurant in Leicester Square. I’ll (6)................ take Jill. What are you going to do this evening?
Liz: I haven’t thought about it. I’ll (7)................. probably cook something. Oh, and I must ring Dad. Did you remember that it’s his birthday tomorrow?
Tom: Yes, I remembered. He’ll (8)................. be fifty. Promise me you’ll relax a bit?
Liz: Sure.
Tom: OK. I’ll (9)................ get you a taxi. Call me tomorrow. You won’t (10).................

D Jane is telling her classmates what will happen when they arrive at the school’s mountain centre in Scotland. Cross out the word will or the form ‘ll, if they are wrong.

‘You’ll meet Tim, one of the team of guides, as soon as you will arrive at the centre. He’ll show you where to eat and sleep. Tim will check your bags when you will get up, to make sure you’re ready for the day. It’s important to have food and drink and an extra pullover. Before you’ll start walking, Tim will make sure you have your own map, in case you get lost. It’s a fantastic place to go walking. You’ll be able to see the sea after you will get to the top of the mountain! But it can become cold very quickly. You’ll have to listen to Tim until you’ll know the right thing to do if the weather changes suddenly. Don’t worry, though. You’ll have a good time. You’ll enjoy the views as soon as you will get there!’

Karen: Don’t order too much food, Tom. (5) I’m playing/I’ll play in a volleyball match on the beach this evening. It’s not a serious game, but there is an interesting prize.

28 Word order: subject, verb, object

1 In English, the order of words in a statement is subject + verb + object:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>SUBJECT + VERB</th>
<th>+ OBJECT</th>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I</td>

<tr>

<td>TV.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She</td>

</tr>
<tr>

<td>a cup of coffee.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2 Some verbs (e.g. go) do not have an object:
- Steven has gone.
- The train didn’t arrive.
- Ann and Tom are swimming.

Some verbs (e.g. like) always need an object:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>SUBJECT + VERB</th>
<th>+ OBJECT</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I</td>
<td>like</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She</td>
<td>music.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She</td>
<td>wants</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She</td>
<td>a drink.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3 After the verb be, we can use an object or an adjective:
- She is a doctor.
- Mary is tired.

We can also put adjectives after the verbs look, seem and feel (see Unit 65):
- Mary looks tired.

4 Now look at this example:

John gave Mary an apple.
John gave her an apple.

After some verbs (e.g. give, send, bring), we can talk about a person (Mary, her) and an object:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>VERB</th>
<th>PERSON</th>
<th>OBJECT</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>He</td>
<td>sent</td>
<td>Jane</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ann</td>
<td>made</td>
<td>Tom</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ann</td>
<td>brought</td>
<td>him</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>He</td>
<td>left</td>
<td>them</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She</td>
<td>wrote</td>
<td>him</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

5 We usually put information about times or places at the end of the sentence:
- I had a holiday in Spain.
- They gave their son a watch yesterday.

‘Yes/no’ questions

1 Here are some ‘yes/no’ questions:

   Are you hungry?
   Shall I answer the phone?
   Did you enjoy the film?

We call them ‘yes/no’ questions because the answer is either ‘yes’ or ‘no’:
   Are you hungry?    Yes, I am.
   No, I’m not.

2 We form ‘yes/no’ questions like this:

   ► We put the verb be before the subject:

   be + subject
   Are they busy?
   Is he ready?
   Was she here?

   ► Or, we put an auxiliary verb (be, have, will, shall, can, may, etc.) before the subject:

   auxiliary + subject + verb
   Is Mark leaving?
   Have they gone?
   Will they win?
   Can you sing?

(For auxiliary verbs, see Unit 27.)

3 Here are all the forms of do questions:

   present simple
   Do I / you / we / they work?
   Does he / she / it work?

   past simple
   Did I / he / she / it / you / we / they work?

   With Present Simple verbs, we put do or does before the subject:

   do + subject + verb
   Does she work in Paris?
   Do they live in New York?
   Do you play tennis?
   Does he like ice-cream?

Note that we say:
   Does she play tennis?
   (not Does she plays tennis?)

   With Past Simple verbs, we put did before the subject:

   did + subject + verb
   Did she visit Paris?
   Did he go to Spain?

Practice

Where, when, why, how

1 Where, when, why, and how are question words. We use them like this:

- Where
  We use where to ask about places:

  Where is Mike? – He's at home.

- When
  We use when to ask about times and dates:

  When will you phone? – At six o'clock.

- Why
  We use why to ask about the reason for something:

  Why is Mary taking a taxi? – Because her car isn't working.

- How
  We use how to ask 'in what way?':

  How did he get to Brighton? – He went by train.

We also use how to ask about people's health or happiness:

Hello. How are you? – I'm fine, thanks.

2 We form questions with where, when, why and how like this:

- In questions with be, we put the subject after be:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>be + subject</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Why is Paul angry?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Where are they?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Why is he here?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- In questions with an auxiliary verb (will, is, are, can, must, etc.), we put the subject after the auxiliary verb:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb + subject + verb</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Why are they leaving?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>How will she get there?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>When will you phone?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(For auxiliary verbs, see Unit 27.)

- In questions with a Present Simple or Past Simple verb, we put a form of do before the subject:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>do + subject + verb</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Where does she live?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Why did you phone the police?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Where did he live?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

How long/far/often . . .?

1 We use How long . . .? to ask about a period of time:
   How long have you been waiting? ~ About twenty minutes.

   We use from . . . to or from . . . until to talk about a period of time:
   She was a student from 1995 to 2000.
   Tomorrow I’m working from 8.30 until 6.

2 We use How far . . .? to ask about the distance from one place to another. We can use from How far is it from Amsterdam to Paris? ~ 475 kilometres.

   How far are the shops from here? ~ Not far.

   How much bread is there in the cupboard?
   How much work have you done today?

6 We use How many . . .? with a plural noun to ask about numbers:

7 We use How old . . .? to ask about someone’s age:

   I am 19, or: 19. (Not I have 19.)

   We can also say: I’m 19 years old. But we cannot say: I’m 19 years.

33 What ... like?

1 Look at this question and answer:
   A: What’s Julie like?
   B: She’s very pretty and she’s very kind, but she’s not very clever.

We use What ... like? to ask about a person’s physical appearance (tall, short, pretty, etc.) or character (interesting, boring, friendly, unfriendly, etc).

We can also use What ... like? to ask about places, books, films and events (e.g. a party, a football match):
   A: What’s Rio de Janeiro like?
   B: Well, the beaches are wonderful but the traffic is awful.

We can also use like with taste, feel, sound, and smell:
   A: What does that taste like?
   B: It tastes like cheese.

   A: What is this material?
   B: I don’t know. It looks like wool but it feels like cotton.

3 We can also use like, with the question word Who and in statements, to mean ‘similar to’:
   A: Who’s Julie like – her father or her mother?
   B: She’s like her mother. (= She is similar to her mother.)
   Rio de Janeiro is like Buenos Aires. (= Rio is similar to Buenos Aires.)

4 The word like in What’s she like? is a preposition; it is not the verb like. Here is an example of like used as a verb:
   A: What music does Julie like?
   B: She likes rock music.

5 We usually use How?, not What ... like?, when we ask about someone’s health or temporary state:
   A: How’s your brother today?
   B: He’s feeling much better.
   A: How was your boss today?
   B: He was very friendly today!

34 Who and what: subject and object

1. Compare these examples:

   ![Image of a cartoon with two characters, one saying, "Who told you?" and the other saying, "Ann: Who told you? Mary: James told me."]

   Ann: Who told you?
   Mary: James told me.

   This is a subject question.

   ![Image of a cartoon with a character saying, "Who did you tell?" and another character saying, "Ann: Who did you tell? Mary: I told Bill."]

   Ann: Who did you tell?
   Mary: I told Bill.

   This is an object question.

2. Compare subject and object questions with who:

   In the sentence Who told you? Who is the subject. Here is another example:

   ![Image with text: "Who wrote Hamlet? (= Somebody wrote Hamlet. Who?)"
   Ann: Who wrote Hamlet?
   Mary: Shakespeare wrote Hamlet.

   When who is the subject, the order of the words is the same as in a statement:

   ![Image with text: "Who is going to come with me? Who lives in that old house? Who wants some more coffee?"
   Subject and Object Questions with "Who"

   Subject:
   - Who is going to come with me?
   - Who lives in that old house?
   - Who wants some more coffee?

   Object:
   - Who did you invite?

   Ann: What is in this dish?
   Mary: Something is in it. What?

   ![Image with text: "What did you buy at the shops? (= You bought something. What?)"
   Ann: What did you buy at the shops?
   Mary: You bought something. What?

Whose is this? ~ It’s John’s.

1 ’s and ’
We use the apostrophe (’) to talk about possession:
This is Mike’s house. (= The house belongs to Mike.)

Here are the rules:
► Singular noun (e.g. Mary) + ’s:
   Where is Tom’s bike?
► Irregular plural noun (e.g. men) + ’s:
   Have you got the children’s books?
► Regular plural noun (e.g. teachers) + ’:
   We have eight children. This is the boys’ bedroom, and this is the girls’ bedroom.

2 We use the apostrophe for people, but not normally for things. We use of for things:
The boys’ room. (not The room of the boys.)
The end of the film. (not The film’s end.)

We say:
I’m going to the newsagent’s, the baker’s, the butcher’s …
because we mean ‘the newsagent’s shop/the baker’s shop/the butcher’s shop’.

3 We use whose to ask about possession:

A: Whose car is that? (= Who does that car belong to?)
B: It’s John’s. (= It belongs to John.)

A: Whose shoes are those?
B: They’re mine. (= They belong to me.)

The word whose does not change:
Whose book is that?
Whose books are those?

We often use this, that, these and those (see Unit 52 in our questions. We often use mine, yours, his, etc. (see Unit 57) in our answers:

Whose watch is that? ~ It’s Steven’s.
              ~ It’s his.

(We don’t need to say: It’s Steven’s watch.)

4 Whose sounds the same as who’s but it is different in meaning:
    Whose coat is this? (= Who does this coat belong to?)
    Who’s coming? (= Who is coming?)
    Who’s finished? (= Who has finished?)

Practice

A Complete these questions and answers. Use Whose and the words in brackets () in each question. Use It’s or They’re in each answer.

C Put the names of shops in the gaps in this conversation. Use the words in the box, as in the example.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>fishmonger</th>
<th>chemist</th>
<th>hairdresser</th>
<th>tobacconist</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>greengrocer</td>
<td>butcher</td>
<td>newsagent</td>
<td>baker</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Mike: Have we got everything we need for the weekend?
Anne: I hope so. I went to the (fishmonger) for some bread. Then I went to the bank.
   After that, I bought some apples at the (chemist) , and some cough medicine at the (hairdresser) .
Mike: Did you get any meat?
Anne: Yes. I went to the (greengrocer) and bought some beef. I also got some fish at the (butcher) . What did you get?
Mike: Well, I had a cup of coffee and a piece of cake, and then I bought a newspaper at the (newsagent) . Then I went to the (tobacconist) for some cigars.
Anne: Did you get any milk or sugar or tea?
Mike: No, I'm sorry. I forgot. But I did go to the (baker) for a haircut. Do you like it?

D Put Who's or Whose in the gaps in these sentences.

- Who's finished their homework?
- Whose flat are you staying in?
- 1 going to the cinema tonight?
- 2 watch is that.
- 3 got an answer to question number three?
- 4 playing football in the park on Sunday?
- 5 house is near to the railway station?
- 6 bags are these?
- 7 chair is that?
- 8 been to France this year?
1 A question tag is a short question (e.g. isn’t it?, haven’t we?) that we can add at the end of a statement:

  Henry: We’ve met before, haven’t we?
  Jeff: Yes, we have.

2 Look at this part of a conversation:

  Anna: Sandra is Swiss.
  David: No, she’s French, isn’t she?
  (= I thought she was French, but am I wrong?)

When tag questions really are questions, like David’s, the voice goes up at the end.

But when tag questions are not really questions, the voice goes down at the end:

  That was a boring programme, wasn’t it?
  (= I think that was a boring programme.)

3 Note that the verb we use in the tag depends on the verb used in the statement:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>VERB</th>
<th>TAG</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>be</td>
<td>You’re French, aren’t you?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>verb</td>
<td>He plays golf, doesn’t he?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>auxiliary verb</td>
<td>It has arrived, hasn’t it?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Thus, most verbs use do/does, while be and auxiliary verbs use the same verb in the question tag.

4 A positive statement has a negative tag:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>POSITIVE</th>
<th>+ NEGATIVE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I’m right,</td>
<td>aren’t I?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(not am’t I?)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You’re 18,</td>
<td>aren’t you?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>They’re getting tired,</td>
<td>weren’t they?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>They were friendly,</td>
<td>weren’t they?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>He lives in France,</td>
<td>doesn’t he?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You speak Spanish,</td>
<td>don’t you?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You passed your exams,</td>
<td>didn’t you?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She has left,</td>
<td>hasn’t she?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You can drive,</td>
<td>can’t you?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The bus will come soon,</td>
<td>won’t it?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

5 A negative statement has a positive tag:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NEGATIVE</th>
<th>+ POSITIVE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>It isn’t very cheap,</td>
<td>is it?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>We aren’t going to be late,</td>
<td>are we?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She wasn’t angry,</td>
<td>was she?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You don’t like this,</td>
<td>do you?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She didn’t win,</td>
<td>did she?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She hasn’t visited Ireland,</td>
<td>has she?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She can’t drive,</td>
<td>can she?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>It won’t rain today,</td>
<td>will it?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Short answers

1 Look at this example:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>QUESTION</th>
<th>SHORT ANSWER</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Is he at work?</td>
<td>~ Yes, he is.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Can I come?</td>
<td>~ No, you can't.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Do you like it?</td>
<td>~ Yes, I do.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Does she live here?</td>
<td>~ No, she doesn't.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

We call these 'short answers' because they are not 'full' answers:

Is she sick?
  - Yes, she is sick. (full answer)
  - Yes, she is. (short answer)

We use short answers to reply to 'yes/no' questions (see Unit 29):

Are you coming?
  - Yes, I am.
  - No, I'm not.

2 We form short answers by not using the main verb from the question:

Have they gone? ~ Yes, they have gone.
Did he go to Paris? ~ Yes, he did go.
Is she waiting? ~ Yes, she is waiting.

When the main verb is be, we use be:

Are you tired? ~ Yes, I am.

When we answer No, we use a negative verb:

Will they win? ~ No, they won't.
Did Paul come? ~ No, he didn't.
Are you cold? ~ No, I'm not.

We never use positive short forms in short answers:

Are you tired? ~ Yes, I am. (not Yes, I'm)
Is he happy? ~ Yes, he is. (not Yes, he's)

3 We can also use short answers to reply 'yes' or 'no' to statements:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>STATEMENT</th>
<th>REPLY</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>He's working hard.</td>
<td>~ Yes, he is.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She's at work.</td>
<td>~ No, she isn't.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She loves films.</td>
<td>~ Yes, she does.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Note that with Present Simple or Past Simple verbs, we use do, does or did in the reply:

She loves films. ~ Yes, she does.
He liked the book. ~ Yes, he did.

4 When we write, we normally put a 'comma' (,) after Yes or No in short answers:

He lives in London. ~ No, he doesn't.
B Write the correct answers to the questions. Use the phrases in the box.

<table>
<thead>

   I'm tired. ~ I am too.
   We've got a small flat. ~ We have too.
   I work in an office. ~ I do too.
   Bill enjoyed the film and I did too.

   I don't like this place. ~ Neither do I.
   I didn't see that play. ~ Neither did I.

Must, mustn’t

1 We use must with an infinitive (do, go, work, etc.):
   You must work harder.

Don’t use to before the infinitive:
   NOT You must to work harder.

The form of must is the same for all persons:
   I/you/he/she/it/we/they must leave soon.

2 We use must in rules, to say that an action is necessary:
   All visitors must go to reception when they arrive.

We use You must ... to give somebody an order:
   Your work is poor – you must try harder.
   You must finish this work tomorrow.

We use I/We must ... to say that we think it is necessary or important that we do something:
   I’m getting tired. I must go home now.
   We must get a new car soon.

3 We also use You must ... to strongly recommend or offer something:
   You must read this book; it’s fantastic!
   You must come for lunch at our house.

4 The negative form of must is mustn’t or must not:
   You mustn’t park here – it’s not allowed.
   NOT You mustn’t to park here.

5 We use You mustn’t ... (or You must not) to say that it is necessary that somebody does NOT do something:
   You mustn’t smoke in here.
   You mustn’t make this mistake again.

We use I/We mustn’t ... (or must not) to say that we think it is necessary that we do NOT do something:
   I mustn’t forget her birthday again.
   We mustn’t be late for the meeting.

6 Notice that we can use must and mustn’t (not will must) to talk about the future:
   I must phone Harry tomorrow.
   (NOT I will must phone ...)

To talk about what was necessary in the past, we cannot use must; we use a form of have to (see Unit 42).

We don’t generally use must in a question form. We use have to (see Unit 42).

Practice

Have to

1 The Present Simple forms of have to are:

POSITIVE and NEGATIVE

I/you/we/they {have don’t have has doesn’t have} to go.

QUESTIONS

Do I/you/we/they have to go?

Does he/she/it have to go?

2 We use have to to talk about things that are necessary because of rules that other people oblige us to follow:

- My brother has to travel a lot in his job. (It is required by his employer.)
- We have to pay the rent every month. (It is required by the landlord.)

To talk about things that WE think are necessary, we usually use must (see Unit 43).

3 We also use have to for things that are necessary because of the circumstances:

- I have to get a bus to school. (It is the only way I can travel there.)
- She has to live on a small income. (She only receives a small amount of money to pay for what she needs.)

4 We use don’t have to to say that something is NOT necessary.

We don’t have to hurry; we’re early.

(= It’s not necessary to hurry. We have plenty of time.)

I don’t have to get up early on Sunday.

(1 can stay in bed if I want.)

5 We can use have got to with the same meaning as have to to talk about something that is necessary at one particular time (but not in general):

- I have to/I’ve got to make a phone call now.
- You don’t have to/haven’t got to do this immediately.

6 The past form of have to is had to:

- I had to do a lot of work yesterday.

(See Unit 48.)

7 The future form of have to is will have to:

- He’ll have to look for another job.
- We won’t have to get tickets in advance.
- Will they have to get visas?

Note that we cannot use have got to in past or future forms:

- Yesterday I had to work hard. (NOT I had got to work hard.)

8 We can use the Present Simple of have to to talk about the future:

- I have to do some shopping tomorrow.
- Do you have to work next weekend?

1 We use must when the speaker thinks it is necessary or important to do an action:

   You must go. (= It is important that you go.)

We make negatives, questions and short answers like this:

   You mustn't go.
   Must you go? ~ Yes, I must.

2 We use have to to talk about an action that is necessary because of rules or laws, or because someone obliges us to do it:

   Doctors sometimes have to work on Sunday.
   (It is in the rules of their work.)

We make negatives, questions and short answers with a form of do:

   Teachers don't have to work on Sunday.
   Do you have to work today? ~ No, I don't.

3 POSITIVE

   In positive sentences we can often use must and have to with little difference in meaning, because many things are important both because we think so and because there are rules:

   You must work hard in order to succeed
   (or ... you have to work ...).

4 NEGATIVE

   Note the difference in meaning between mustn't and don't have to.

   In negative sentences we often use mustn't to say that something is against the rules, or against the law:

   You mustn't smoke on buses. (Smoking is against the rules.)
   In football you mustn't touch the ball with your hands. (Touching the ball is against the rules.)

   We use don't have to to say that people are not obliged to do something:

   In Britain, people don't have to carry a passport with them. (= People are not obliged to carry one.)
   Nowadays pupils do not have to learn Latin at school. (= They are not obliged to learn it.)

5 QUESTIONS

   In questions we usually use do/does ... have to (not must) to ask if something is obligatory or important:

   Does Michael have to get up early tomorrow?
   Do we have to wait here?

---

Practice

A The Stanton Squash Club has decided that it is important for all club members to do these things:

- wear sports shoes and clean clothes
- have a shower
- pay before you play
- finish on time

But these things are not allowed:

- disturb other players
- eat or drink outside the bar
- take club balls home

Put have to, don't have to or mustn't in the gaps.

- You don't have to wear white clothes, but you have to wear sports shoes.
- You mustn't disturb other players, but you don't have to be silent.
1 You ...... finish on time, but you ...... start on time.
2 You ...... play with club balls, but if you do, you ...... take them home.

Bob: Why (6) ................. have to move, by the way?
Mark: She said that I (7) ................. tell you because she wants to tell you herself, when she sees you tomorrow.
1 We use must, can’t, may and could with an infinitive (e.g. be, go, come, earn):

\text{They must earn a lot.}

2 CERTAINTY

She must be rich.

Look at this example with must: Jane got top marks in her exams. She must be very clever.

(= From what we know, we can be certain that Jane is very clever.)

We use must to say we are certain:

The Greens have two houses and two cars.

They must earn a lot of money.

(= We can be sure that the Greens earn a lot of money.)

A: There’s someone outside in an orange car.

B: It must be Susan. She’s the only person I know with an orange car.

3 IMPOSSIBILITY

She can’t be poor.

Look at this example with can’t:

Mark studied hard for his exams, but he got poor marks; he can’t be very clever.

(= From what we know, we can guess that Mark is not very clever.)

We use can’t to talk about impossibility:

The Browns both have part-time jobs; they can’t earn much money. (= We can guess that the Browns do not earn a lot of money.)

A: There’s someone at the door. I think it’s Bill.

B: It can’t be Bill. He’s in Australia.

4 POSSIBILITY

She (may might could) be in the garden.

Look at this example with may:

A: Eve’s not in her room. Where is she?

B: She may be in the garden. (= From what we know, perhaps she is in the garden.)

We use may, might and could for something that is possible but not certain, now or in the future:

My sister might come tomorrow. (= From what we know, perhaps she will come.)

Now look at this example with may not:

A: I’ve phoned Jill, but there’s no answer.
B: She may not be at home. (or She might not be ...) (= Perhaps she is not at home.)

Could not is not possible here.

45 Should, shouldn’t

1 We use should with an infinitive (do, go, etc.):

I should do some work tonight.

The form of should is the same for all persons:

I/you/he/she/it/we/they should go.

2 The negative form is shouldn’t:

You shouldn’t sit in the sun all day.
They shouldn’t spend so much money.

3 We use I should or we should to say what is a good thing for us to do:

I should go home. It’s midnight.
We should invite them for a meal.

We use I or we shouldn’t to say that something is a bad thing for us to do:

I shouldn’t spend so much money.

We use you should/shouldn’t to give advice:

You should look for a better job.
You shouldn’t drive so fast.

Should is not as strong as must or have to.

Compare:

You should eat more fruit. (It’s a good idea.)
You must eat more fruit,’ said the doctor. (It’s very important.)

4 We use the question form should I/we ...? to ask for advice:

What should I say to Helen?
I need a new passport. Where should I go?

5 We can say I think we should, I don’t think you should, etc. to give an opinion:

I think we should get a new car.
I don’t think you should believe everything he says.

We do not usually say:

I think you shouldn’t ...

6 We can use do you think I should ...? to ask for advice:

He hasn’t replied to my email. Do you think I should phone him?
What do you think I should give Tom for his birthday?

Brian: (I want to buy a motorbike. What you think I do?)
   (I want to buy a motorbike. What do you think I should do?)

   (8) .........................................................................................
We use should, ought to and had better with an infinitive (e.g. be, go, ask, wait):

INFINITIVE

I should
You ought to
We had better go.

ask.

wait.

We use both should and ought to to ask for or to give advice, to say what is the correct or best thing to do:

A: I've got toothache. What should I do?
   (= What is the best thing for me to do?)
B: You should go to the dentist's.
   (= The best thing for you to do is to go to the dentist's.)

When we are talking about a duty or a law, we usually use ought to:

A: I saw a robbery. What should I do?
B: You ought to report it to the police.
   (= It is a person's duty to report it.)

On the other hand, when we are giving a personal opinion, we usually use should:

B: I think you should forget about it.

We use should much more than ought to in negatives and questions:

I shouldn't go. (Or ought not to go.)

Should I go? (Or Ought I to go?)

We can also use had better to give advice, to say what is the best thing to do:

There'll be a lot of traffic tomorrow. We had (or We'd) better leave early.
I had (or I'd) better ask the doctor about the pain in my stomach.

Note that had is a past form, but it does not refer to past time here; we use it to talk about present or future time.

We only use had better to give advice about a particular thing; when we give general advice, we use should or ought to:

When people are in trouble, they should go to the police. (Not ... they had better go to the police.)

The negative is had better not:

They had better not be late.

  B: (You should go and lie down.) You’d better go and lie down.............

1 A: The children want to play in the kitchen.

3 A: I’m going to go to bed now. We have to get up very early tomorrow.
   B: (Yes, I should go to bed early too.) Yes, .............................................

C Complete the second part of the dialogue using the correct form of the word in brackets ( ). Put to or not in the correct place if necessary.

- A: Should Henry stay in bed?
  B: No, the doctor said he shouldn’t........ (should) stay in bed.

1 A: Can we move that cupboard?

5 A: Can they come before dinner?
   B: No, we haven’t got enough food, so they ................... (had better) come after dinner.
1. We use the verb need to talk about things that we must do. We use to + infinitive (e.g. to do, to go) after need:

   \text{I need to go to the dentist's.}

   After he/she/it we use needs:

   \text{Mary/She needs to buy some white paint.}

   We make negatives, questions and short answers with a form of do:

   \begin{align*}
   \text{You don't need to go to the doctor's.} \\
   \text{Mary doesn't need to buy any green paint.}
   \end{align*}
   \]

   A: Do you need to go to the dentist’s?
   B: Yes, I do./No, I don’t.

   A: Does Mary need to buy any brushes?
   B: Yes, she does./No, she doesn’t.

2. We can also use need to talk about things that we must get. Here we use an object after need:

   \begin{align*}
   \text{Mary needs some white paint.} \\
   \text{I don't need a new car.} \\
   \text{Does Peter need any help?}
   \end{align*}
   \]

3. To talk about what we do not need to do, we can use needn’t. We use an infinitive (e.g. go, buy) after needn’t. Needn’t has the same meaning as don’t/doesn’t need to:

   \begin{align*}
   \text{You needn't go to the shops. We have enough food.} \\
   \text{(or You don't need to go to the shops.)} \\
   \text{Mary needn't buy any paint.} \\
   \text{(or Mary doesn't need to buy any paint.)}
   \end{align*}

   We cannot use needn’t before an object (e.g. your coat); we must use don’t need:

   \begin{align*}
   \text{You don't need your coat. It's not cold outside.} \\ \text{(NOT You needn't your coat.)} \end{align*}

4. We can use needed to for past time:

   \begin{align*}
   \text{They needed to clean everything before they started to paint.}
   \end{align*}
   \]

   The negative past simple form is didn’t need to.

   \begin{align*}
   \text{The room wasn't dirty so they didn't need to clean it before they started to paint it.} \\
   \text{ (= It was not necessary to clean the room so we didn’t clean it.)} \end{align*}

   We use needn’t have + past participle to talk about something that was done although it wasn’t necessary:

   \begin{align*}
   \text{We needn't have lit the fire, because it was a warm evening.} \\
   \text{ (= We lit the fire, but it was not necessary to light it.)}
   \end{align*}

   \begin{align*}
   \text{You needn't have bought any bread, Jim.} \\
   \text{There is plenty in the cupboard.} \\
   \text{ (= You bought some bread, but it was not necessary.)} \end{align*}
   \]

---

Practice

A. From the statements in brackets ( ), make a question and a short answer, like those in the examples.

1. (Tom needs to take some warm clothes.) Does Tom need to take some warm clothes? ~ Yes, he does
2. (She doesn’t need to study hard.) Does she need to study hard? ~ No, she doesn’t

5. (John doesn’t need to leave before lunch.) Does John need to leave? ~ No, he doesn’t
6. (They need to check the train times.) Do they need to check the train times? ~ Yes, they do
B Change each sentence in brackets ( ) into a negative sentence with needn’t, where possible. If not possible, write a negative sentence with doesn’t/don’t need.

- (Jane needs to pay Jim today.) Jane needn’t pay Jim today.
- (The car needs new tyres.) The car doesn’t need new tyres.
- (We need a lot of red paper.)
- (Mark needs to get everything ready today.)
- (Mary needs to leave at six o’clock.)
- (Ann needs a new bag.)

C When there are exams or competitions at Brightside School, the school provides certain things for all the students, but there are other things that the school does not provide. Look at the table.

D Rewrite the sentences using didn’t need or needn’t have + the correct form.

- The programmes didn’t cost us anything. We didn’t pay for them.
  We didn’t have to pay for the programmes.
- You took your umbrella yesterday but it didn’t rain.
  You needn’t have taken your umbrella yesterday.

  You didn’t need to work during the weekend.
- I didn’t take my passport with me because an identity card was enough.
  I didn’t need to take my passport with me.
Had to do/go, should have done/gone

1. Look at this example:

Jane had to wait an hour for a bus.

_Had to wait_ means that Jane waited because no bus came for an hour.

We use _had to_ to talk about something that someone did because it was necessary.

If someone did not do something because it was not necessary, we use _didn't have to:_

*I didn't have to work last Saturday._ (= I didn't work because it was not necessary.)

The question form is _did ... have to:_

Did you have to work last Saturday?

2. Now consider this situation:

Pam's job includes working on Saturday. Last Saturday she was ill, so she didn't work:

_Pam should have gone to work last Saturday, but she was ill. So she stayed at home._

We use _should have_ (done/gone, etc.) to say that something which did not happen was the correct or best action. We can also use _should have_ to criticize someone. Look at this example:

Peter, a farm worker, didn't close a gate, and the cows got into the wrong field:

_Peter should have closed the gate._

We use _shouldn't have_ (done/gone, etc.) to say that something which did happen was not the correct action:

_I shouldn't have got angry with Jane._

(= I got angry with Jane, but it was not a good thing to do.)

_Peter shouldn't have left the gate open._

51 Plural nouns; one and ones

1 We normally form plural nouns by adding -s:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>SINGULAR</th>
<th>PLURAL</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>a cup</td>
<td>some cups</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>one student</td>
<td>three students</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>the cat</td>
<td>the cats</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2 one and ones
Sometimes we use one instead of repeating a singular noun:

I'm going to buy a drink. Would you like one? Our house is the one with the red door.

Or, we use ones instead of a plural noun:

Shall I buy the red apples or the green ones?

These biscuits are cheaper than those ones.

3 We often use Which one ...? and Which ones ...? in questions:

Shop assistant: Which one would you like, the black dress or the pink one?
Mary: I'd like the black one, please.

4 But we form some plural nouns differently:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>SINGULAR</th>
<th>plural</th>
</tr>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>man</td>
<td>men</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>woman</td>
<td>women</td>

   That was easy! (That = the homework)

   Mike meets his mother at the station. He picks up her suitcases, and he says:
   These are heavy! (These = the cases)

   [Picture of a student looking at a painting, labeled "HERE"]
   [Picture of a student looking at balloons in the air, labeled "THERE"]

4 Things which are happening now are near to us in time, so we use this and these:
   John (at a concert):
   Some of these songs are beautiful.

   Things which are finished are not near to us, so we use that or those:
   John (after leaving the concert):
   Some of those songs were beautiful.

   We call these nouns countable nouns, because we can count them:

<th>PLURAL</th>

<td>the house the houses</td>

   - water  bread  petrol
   - golf  tennis  rain

   We call these uncountable nouns, because we cannot count them.

   Look at this picture:

   We do not use a or one, two, three, etc. before uncountable nouns, but we can use some or the:

   - a: We need to buy bread and sugar.
   - some: Let's stop the car. We need some petrol.
   - the: Look at the rain!

9 Can I have a ................. of milk in ................. fridge.
10 There are ................. hairs in ................. bath. Both are long and blond.
A, some, any, no

1 Look at these pictures:

a pen some pens some food no food

2 We use a with singular countable nouns (e.g. pen, car, friend):
   I bought a pen yesterday.
   Do you have a car?
   He doesn’t have a friend.

(For countable and uncountable nouns, see Unit 53.)

3 We use some or any with plural countable nouns (pens, friends, books):
   I bought some new pens yesterday.
   John doesn’t have any friends.
   Do you have any books about Africa?

4 We use some or any with uncountable nouns (e.g. money, information, advice, news, music, coffee, milk, toast, bread, food, water, snow):
   I haven’t got any money.
   Did the teacher give you any advice?
   I would like some coffee, please.

5 Positive
   We normally use some in positive sentences:
   She took some photos.
   I’d like some information, please.
   But we sometimes use any like this:
   You can leave at any time. (= It doesn’t matter when you leave.)
   Take any book. (= It doesn’t matter which book you take.)

6 Negative
   We usually use any in negative sentences:
   I didn’t see any good films last year.
   We haven’t got any food.
   We sometimes use no, instead of not ... any:
   I’m sorry, there are no buses to the museum.
   The shops are shut, and we’ve got no food.

7 Questions
   We use any in questions:
   Do you speak any Russian?
   But we use some in requests:
   Can you give me some information?
   We also use some when we offer something:
   Would you like some coffee?

1 Look at this:

SUBJECT + VERB + OBJECT

Mary saw Peter and Paul.
She saw them.

Note that we can use she (subject pronoun) instead of Mary, and them (object pronoun) instead of Peter and Paul.

2 Here are the subject and object pronouns:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>SUBJECT</th>
<th>OBJECT</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Singular</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1 I</td>
<td>9 me</td>

<tr>
<td>2 you</td>
<td>10 you</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3 he</td>
<td>11 him</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4 she</td>
<td>12 her</td>

<tr>
<td>5 it</td>

<td>14 us</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7 you</td>
<td>15 you</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8 they</td>
<td>16 them</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

We must always have a subject in English: They are coming. (NOT Are coming.)

3 Look at the subject and object pronouns (1-16) in this conversation:

A: I (1) saw Sheila yesterday, but she (4) didn’t see me (9).

B: Are you (2) going to see her (12) tomorrow?
A: No, I’m meeting Steve. We (6) ’re playing golf.
B: You (7) ’re both beginners! It (5) isn’t an easy game. I played it (13) last year and I was terrible!
A: Why don’t you come with us (14)? We can help you (10).
B: I would like to play with you (15) both tomorrow, but my brother is leaving in the afternoon. He (3) is catching the two o’clock train, and we’re taking him (11) to the station. He’s spending a month with our aunt and uncle. They (8) live in Scotland. I stayed with them (16) last year.

4 We use it for things and for the weather, time, days, dates, distances, and for animals: I’m studying economics. It’s a difficult subject.
It’s hot today.
It’s four o’clock.
It’s Tuesday. It’s the third of April.
It’s 200 miles to York.
Look at that bird! It’s eating the bread.

---

Practice

A Write these sentences using subject and object pronouns instead of the underlined words.

1 John and I saw Peter yesterday. He bought John and me a cup of coffee.
   We saw Peter yesterday. He bought us a cup of coffee.

2 David and Mike are arriving today. I’m meeting David and Mike at the station.

3 John and I saw a film called The Tiger yesterday. Have you seen The Tiger?

4 Come to the swimming pool with Joanna and me. Joanna and I are leaving now.

5 George and Jane are meeting Paul today. Paul is having lunch with George and Jane.

6 There’s Jack! Jack’s got a heavy suitcase. Shall we help Jack?
B Look at the pictures and put pronouns in the gaps.

1. I saw _, but he didn’t see _.
2. She saw _, but I didn’t see _.
3. It saw _, but we didn’t see _.
4. We saw _, but they didn’t see _.
5. They saw _, but I didn’t see _.

C James is talking about himself and his family. Put subject pronouns (I, you, etc.) in the gaps.

Hi! (1) ______________ am James and (2) ______________ live in Australia. I’ve got two brothers. (3) ______________ are called Pete and Mike. My mother works at the hospital. (4) ______________ is a doctor. My father works in a sports shop. (5) ______________ works very hard. The shop makes a lot of money, and (6) ______________ is always full of people.

Now put object pronouns (me, you, etc.) in the gaps.

On Saturdays I work for my father. I help (7) ______________ in the shop, and he gives (8) ______________ some money. On Sundays we go to the beach. We have two dogs, and we take (9) ______________ with us. We also take a ball and they play with (10) ______________ on the beach while we swim in the sea.

Now put subject or object pronouns in the gaps.

At the moment I’m at university. I’m studying business. (11) ______________ is an interesting subject. Two of my schoolfriends are at university with (12) ______________. Our teachers are good but (13) ______________ give (14) ______________ a lot of work to do. Next week (15) ______________ are all taking our first exams. I want to get good marks in (16) ______________.
1 Look at these sentences:

There is a big market near the river; it is very good for fruit and meat.

There are two buses on Sunday; they both go to the station.

We use there is/are when we talk about something for the first time in a conversation, and when we say where it is or when it is. We do not use there to talk about the same thing again; we use singular it (here meaning 'the big market') or plural they (here meaning 'the two buses'). Here are some more examples:

There are two schools here; they are both new.

There's a good programme on Sunday; it gives all the sports news.

2 We use there with different forms of be:

There weren't any CDs thirty years ago.

A: Have there been any problems this year?
B: Yes, there have.

There used to be a park here. (= There was a park here but it isn't here now.)

There may be some eggs in the fridge. (= It is possible that there are some eggs ...)

3 We also use there is/are etc. to talk about the number of people or things in a place. Look at these questions and answers:

A: How many people were there at your party?
B: There were about twelve.

(Not We were about twelve.)

A: Are there many restaurants here?
B: Yes, there must be ten or more.

(Not They must be ten.)

We can use of us, of them, etc. after the number:

There were about twelve of us.

4 For the weather, we use it with a verb or adjective, but there with a noun:

- it + verb: It rained/snowed a lot last winter.
- it + adjective: It was foggy/sunny/windy/cloudy.
- there + noun: There was a lot of fog/cloud.

5 Notice these examples with it takes:

It takes seven years to become a doctor.

A: How long does it take to make bread?
B: It takes several hours (to make bread).

These sentences describe the time that is necessary to do something.

Much, many; how much/many; more

1 Look at these examples with much and many:

We use much and many to talk about quantity.

We normally use much and many in negative sentences:

A: I’m so hungry.
B: I’m sorry, I don’t have much food in the house. Shall we go out to a restaurant?
I haven’t bought many CDs this year.

We also use much and many in questions:

Do many tourists come here?
Is there much snow in the mountains?

We can use how much and how many in questions:

How much luggage have you got?
How many times have you been to London?

2 We also use more to talk about quantity:

John did two exams yesterday and he is doing two more exams today.
We have some food, but we will need more food for the party tonight.
Shall we go to the shops?

We often say some more or any more:

A: Would you like some more toast?
B: No, thanks. I don’t want any more. But could I have some more orange juice?

3 We use:

- much with uncountable nouns:
  much food  much luggage  much snow  much time  much money

- many with plural nouns:

1 We use every and each to talk about all people or things in a group or series. In many contexts, both every and each are correct:
   The letter has been sent to every/each member of staff.
   We checked every/each item before we sent it.

We use every/each + singular noun + singular verb:
   Every/Each student has to fill in this form.

We can use each (but not every) + of + the/possessive + plural noun:
   I put each of the documents into the correct place.

We can use each (but not every) on its own as a subject or between a subject and a main verb:
   Tickets are now available and each costs the same.
   Tickets (will) each cost the same.

2 Sometimes we can only use every; at other times we can only use each. We use every to talk about a group or series of people or things in general, with the meaning ‘all of them’:
   Every ticket had been sold.

We use each to talk about all individual things or people in a group or series:
   Each ticket costs £20.

3 We use one + of + the/possessive + plural noun to talk about one person or thing when there are several or many:
   One of the students in my class was off sick today.
   He is staying with one of his relatives.

We can use one + singular noun:
   One flight leaves at five p.m. and the other is at nine.

We can use one + singular verb:
   There are two flights. One leaves at five p.m. and the other leaves at nine.
   (See also Unit 51.)

4 We use another + singular noun with the meanings ‘one more’ or ‘a different one’:
   Would you like another drink?
   Let’s go to another restaurant for a change.

Notice that we do not use another with one and a singular noun (not another one drink).

Notice also that we do not use another with a plural noun (not I met another people).

5 We use the/possessive/quantifier + other + plural noun with the meanings ‘different ones’ or ‘ones that have not been mentioned’:
   The other hotels were more expensive.
   Ray agreed with me but my other friends said I was wrong.
   For all other enquiries, phone this number.

We use the/possessive + other + singular noun with the meaning ‘the one that has not already been mentioned’:
   One of his sisters lives in France and his/the other sister lives in Australia.

We use the other (one) to talk about a person or thing that has not already been mentioned:
   He’s got two homes – one is in London and the other (one) is in Florida.

6 We use others with the meaning ‘other people or things’:
   Some people like sport and others aren’t interested in it at all.

We use the others with the meaning ‘the other people or things (in a set or group)’:

Adjectives (order)

1 We use adjectives to describe people and things. Here are some examples: old    small    friendly    rich    cheap

Look at these sentences:
I've bought an old table for my kitchen.
My home town is small and friendly.
We had lunch in a cheap restaurant.

2 The form of adjectives never changes:
   a rich man    a rich woman    two rich men

3 We put an adjective before a noun:

   ADJECTIVE + NOUN
   I saw a    beautiful    cat.

We put an adjective after be:

   be + ADJECTIVE
   They are    hungry.

We sometimes use these verbs instead of be:
look    feel    taste    smell    sound

Here are some examples:
She looks happy.
This cheese tastes wonderful.
I feel cold.

4 When we use two adjectives before a noun, we put in a comma (,):
   He's a nice, old man.

When we use two adjectives without a noun, we use and:
   You look tired and hungry.

5 When we use more than one adjective, there is a general guide to the correct order:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>SIZE + AGE + COLOUR + NATIONALITY + MATERIAL</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>a new, green, bag</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a big, French, house</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a small, wooden, table</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

We often use ‘materials’ as adjectives:
   a cotton shirt    a silver ring    a plastic bag

6 Here are some common ‘nationality’ adjectives:
   American    German    Portuguese
   Australian    Greek    Russian Chinese    Indian    Turkish Dutch    Italian    South African English    Japanese    Spanish

Craig: What sort of films do you like?
Liz: When I go to the cinema, I like to be entertained.
Craig: And what sort of films do you find interesting?
Liz: Well, I like films that tell a good story. And I mean a story that you can follow, not the sort that goes backwards and forwards in time. I find those very confusing. And I'm conviced when I watch a horror film. I usually close my eyes when the horror starts.
Craig: Yes, but if the story is too simple, surely you get disappointed because you know exactly what's going to happen.
Liz: I don't mean that. If something is intelligible, it's not necessarily entertaining. Often good stories have events or endings - things that you can't possibly know at the beginning.
Craig: For me the most important thing is that the actors must be convincing so that you really believe that they are the person they are acting.

Craig: If that's true, I imagine that you are surprised most of the time because, well, for example, Harrison Ford is always Harrison Ford. I'm never disappointed that he's somebody else.
Liz: Yes, but it's often not important in his films because they're escapist - if you're feeling tense about work or something, you have a good laugh and you come out feeling happy with the world.
Craig: I'm surprised that you like his films. Although the special effects are good, the story is always terribly simple.
Liz: He's not my favourite, but his films are not bad.

Comparison: (not) as . . . as

1 We use as + adjective + as (e.g. as old as) to say that two things or people are the same in some way:

The chair is as expensive as the table.
You’re as old as me. (= We are the same age.)

Note that we say as me/as him/as her/as us/as them, and not as I/as he/as she, etc:
She’s as strong as him. (not ... as-he.)

Comparative adjectives

1 Look at the way we compare things:

The Plaza Hotel is cheaper than the Excelsior.
The Excelsior Hotel is bigger than the Plaza.
The Excelsior is more expensive than the Plaza.
The Plaza Hotel is smaller than the Excelsior.

2 Cheaper and more expensive are comparative adjectives. We form them like this:

▶ short adjectives (one syllable):

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ADJECTIVE</th>
<th>COMPARATIVE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>old</td>
<td>older</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>long</td>
<td>longer</td>
</tr>

<td>nice</td>
<td>nicer</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>new</td>
<td>newer</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>slow</td>
<td>slower</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>fat</td>
<td>fatter</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>hot</td>
<td>hotter</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>big</td>
<td>bigger</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

▶ long adjectives (two syllables or more):

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ADJECTIVE</th>
<th>COMPARATIVE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>famous</td>
<td>more famous</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>difficult</td>
<td>more difficult</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>careful</td>
<td>more careful</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>expensive</td>
<td>more expensive</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

▶ adjectives ending with -y:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ADJECTIVE</th>
<th>COMPARATIVE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>happy</td>
<td>happier</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>hungry</td>
<td>hungrier</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

▶ irregular adjectives:

<table>

<tr>
<td>good</td>

</tr>
<tr>

</tbody>
</table>

(For more information, see Appendix 4, page 245)

3 To compare things, we use a comparative adjective + than:

Tom is richer than Paul.
Paris is more beautiful than London.
My new car is better than my old one.

Practice

A Write the comparative form of these adjectives.

▶ cold  colder
B Write comparative sentences about the pictures using than and the words in brackets ( ). Use the Present Simple.

1. Tom is taller than Sam.
2. (be/cold)...
3. (be/hungry)...
4. (be/small)...
5. (be/happy)...
6. (be/young)...
7. (be/rich)...
8. (be/friendly)...

C Look at the information about two boats, the Queen Anne and the King John.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>BOATS</th>
<th>LENGTH</th>
<th>AREA</th>
<th>TOP SPEED</th>
<th>YEAR MADE</th>
<th>PRICE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Queen Anne</td>
<td>14 m</td>
<td>40 metres²</td>
<td>35 knots</td>
<td>2005</td>
<td>£9,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>King John</td>
<td>9 m</td>
<td>23 metres²</td>
<td>30 knots</td>
<td>1997</td>
<td>£3,500</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Now put words from the box in the sentences.

King John (x2) bigger slower is than Queen Anne (x2) longer expensive more

1. The Queen Anne is bigger than the King John.
2. The King John is smaller ............ than the Queen Anne.
3. The Queen Anne is ............... modern than the King John.
4. The ............... is older than the ............... .
5. The Queen Anne is more ............ than the King John.
6. The King John is ............... than the Queen Anne.
7. The ............... is cheaper than the ............... .
8. The Queen Anne is ............... than the King John.
Superlative adjectives

1. We use superlatives in the following way:

- The most expensive seats are at the front of the theatre.
- The cheapest seats are at the back.
- The least expensive seats are at the back.
- He is the worst player in the team.
- It was the happiest day of their lives.

We can use the superlative without a noun:
- The seats at the back are the cheapest.

2. Look at these tables:

- short adjectives (one syllable):

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ADJECTIVE</th>
<th>SUPERLATIVE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>warm</td>
<td>the warmest</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>tall</td>
<td>the tallest</td>

<tr>
<td>low</td>
<td>the lowest</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>big</td>
<td>the biggest</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>hot</td>
<td>the hottest</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>wet</td>
<td>the wettest</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- long adjectives (two syllables or more):

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ADJECTIVE</th>
<th>SUPERLATIVE</th>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>famous</td>
<td>the most/least famous</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>difficult</td>
<td>the most/least difficult</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>careful</td>
<td>the most/least careful</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>expensive</td>
<td>the most/least expensive</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- adjectives ending with -y:

  easy    the easiest happy   the happiest

- irregular adjectives:

  good     the best bad      the worst

(For more details see Appendix 4, page 245.)

3. We usually use the before the superlative:

- London is the biggest city in England.
- The Taj Mahal is the most beautiful building in the world.

Note that we use in (not of) for places after the superlative:

- ... the richest man in Europe. (not ... of Europe.)

We do not always use a noun after a superlative adjective:

- George and Mary have three children. Mike is the oldest.
- A: Which table did you buy?
- B: The most expensive.

4. We often use the Present Perfect with ever after the superlative:

- That was the best film I've ever seen.
- A: How was your holiday?
- B: Fantastic! Iceland is the most beautiful country I've ever visited.

Practice

A. Put the words in brackets ( ) in the right order to make sentences.

5 (painting – The Mona Lisa – the – famous – in – is – most – the world – .)

6 (the – Europe – mountain – in – highest – Mont Blanc – is – .)

B Complete the sentences using the superlative form of the adjective in brackets ( ):

1 We stayed in ................. (bad) hotel in the whole city.

3 What is ...................... (tall) building in the world?

<table>

<td>72 knots</td>
<td>£23,000</td>

1 (long) The Queen Anne is the longest boat.
2 (short) ......................................................... boat.
3 (fast) ......................................................... boat.
4 (slow) ......................................................... boat.
5 (expensive) The Red Devil is .................................. boat.
6 (expensive) The Jolly Jim is .................................. boat.

D Use the words in brackets ( ) to write sentences. Use the + superlative, and the Present Perfect + ever.

1 (It's/cold/place/l/visit) ........................................... It's the coldest place I've ever visited.
2 (It's/big/ship/l/see) ...................................................

Adverbs (1): adjectives and adverbs

1. Here are some adjectives and adverbs:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ADJECTIVE</th>
<th>ADVERB</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>quick</td>
<td>quickly</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>careful</td>
<td>carefully</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>easy</td>
<td>easily</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. Compare adverbs and adjectives:

ADVERBS
We use adverbs to describe how someone or something does an action:

- Peter plays the violin beautifully.
- Beautifully describes how Peter plays.

ADJECTIVES
We use adjectives to describe people or things. We use adjectives before nouns, or after be/seem/get:

- Look at that beautiful violin!
- That violin is beautiful.

3. We form most regular adverbs by adding -ly to the adjective:

- slow → slowly
  - The whole team played very badly.
- bad → badly
  - We solved the problem easily.

If an adjective ends with -y, the adverb ends with -ily:

- happy → happily
  - The party was happily finished.
- easy → easily
  - They finished the work easily.

If an adjective ends with -ble, the adverb ends in -bly:

- comfortable → comfortably
  - The hotel is comfortably furnished.

4. Some adverbs are irregular; they do not end with -ly:

- good → well
  - He’s a good guitar player.
  - He plays the guitar well.

Fast and hard are both adjectives and adverbs:

- fast → fast
  - Maria is a fast learner.
- hard → hard
  - James is a hard worker.

5. We form the comparative of regular adverbs with more or less:

- carefully → more/less carefully
  - You should do your work more carefully.
  - She does her work less carefully than other people.

The comparative of well is better:

- She speaks Arabic better than me.

The comparatives of fast and hard are faster and harder:

- Could you walk faster? We’re in a hurry.
  - You will have to work harder in future.

6. We form the superlative of regular adverbs with the most/least:

- more efficiently → the most efficiently
  - In the office, Alan does his work the most efficiently and Sally does her work the least efficiently.

The superlative of well is the best and the superlative of badly is the worst:

- Which member of the team played the best and who played the worst?

The superlatives of fast and hard are the fastest and the hardest:

- They decided to find out who could run the fastest.
- Who works the hardest in your class?

Adverbs (2): adverbs of frequency

1. Look at how often Jane does things in a year:
   - She has a cup of tea at breakfast: 365
   - She goes to the cinema: 10
   - She walks to work: 0
   - She goes swimming: 52
   - She goes on holiday: 2

   - She sometimes goes to the cinema.
   - She never walks to work.
   - She goes swimming every week.
   - She goes on holiday twice a year.

2. We use these adverbs to talk about how often we do things:
   - always, usually, normally, often
   - sometimes, rarely, hardly ever, never

   We put always, usually, etc. after be or an auxiliary (e.g. have, must):
   - He is always late.
   - I've often been to Spain for my holidays.
   - You must never swim after a big meal.

   But we put always etc. before main verbs:
   - I usually walk to work.
   - She hardly ever drinks coffee.

3. We can compare the meaning of these adverbs like this:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Percentage</th>
<th>Adverb</th>
<th>Frequency</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>0%</td>
<td>never</td>
<td>100%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5%</td>
<td>hardly ever</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>10%</td>
<td>rarely</td>
<td>80%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>30%</td>
<td>sometimes</td>
<td>70%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>50%</td>
<td>often</td>
<td>50%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(We usually say the word often without pronouncing the letter t.)

4. If we want to say exactly how often we do things, we use these expressions:
   - every ... once a ... twice/two times a ... three times a ... four times a ...

   We put these expressions at the end of sentences. Here are some examples:
   - I run round the park every day.
   - I play tennis once a week.
   - She drinks coffee three times a day.

Adverbs (3): place, direction, sequence

1 We use here with the meaning ‘in or to this place/the place where the speaker is’:

I’ve been living here for three years.
Come here, I want to speak to you.

We use there with the meaning ‘in or to that place/another place, away from where the speaker is’:

Stay there, I’ll come and get you.
Go and stand there, I’ll take a picture of you.

We also use there with the meaning ‘in or to a place previously mentioned’:

I lived in France for a year and I made a lot of friends while I was there.

We often use over here and over there when we are speaking informally:

Come over here and sit down.

2 Some common adverbs describing a place or a movement in a particular direction are:

- abroad (= in/to another country)
- ahead, away, back, downstairs/upstairs, in/out, inside/outside (= in or out of a building)
- nearby, forward(s)/backward(s)/sideways

Mary is abroad but she’s coming back soon.
She ran downstairs and opened the front door.
He walked out, saying that he couldn’t stay.
The queue slowly moved forward(s).

Notice that we use out with the meaning ‘not at home/work etc. for part of a day or a day’ and away with the meaning ‘not at home/work etc. for more than a day’:

Mr Butler is out at the moment. He’ll be back at around twelve o’clock.
Mr Butler is away this week. He’s at a three-day conference.

3 We often use these adverbial phrases when giving someone directions to a place:

- straight on/ahead, turn left/right, on the left/right (to say where something is), to the left/right (for movement), as far as

  Go straight on. When you come to the traffic lights, turn right. The first road on the left is the one you want.

4 When we talk about a number of actions or events that happen one after the other, we can indicate the order with these adverbs and adverbial phrases:

- first(ly)/first of all, second(ly), third(ly), etc, last(ly), finally

Instead of using secondly, thirdly, etc., we often use these adverbs and adverbial phrases to link actions or events in a sequence:

- then, next, afterwards, after that

  To make this dish, firstly you chop some tomatoes, then you get some garlic ...
  First of all I went to Paris, after that I spent some time in Switzerland, then I travelled round Germany and finally I went to Holland.

1 It was cold. It was very cold.

We can use an adverb (e.g. very) before an adjective (e.g. cold) to make the adjective stronger. Some common adverbs we use in this way are:

- very
- extremely
- really

We felt _very_ tired after the trip.
I felt _extremely_ nervous before the exam.
I’m _really_ angry with you. (= very angry)

We can also make an adjective weaker with these adverbs:

- fairly
- quite
- rather

Our _car_ is _fairly_ old. (= It’s old, but it isn’t very old.)
The meal was _quite_ nice. (= It was nice but not wonderful.)
It was _rather_ late when we finally arrived. (= It was late but not very late.)

2 When we use two adjectives together, we order them like this:

- We use ‘opinion’ adjectives (e.g. wonderful, nice, pleasant, strange) before any other adjective (e.g. new):

  - wonderful
  - lovely
  - beautiful
  - horrible
  - new product
  - little day
  - green cottage
  - amber shirt

- We use ‘size’ adjectives (e.g. big, tall) before an adjective that gives other information, for example its age (new, old), its colour, its shape (thin, round):

  - big
  - tall
  - small
  - black cloud
  - round stone

3 We can use two nouns together. The first noun is like an adjective and gives information about the second noun:

Position of adverbs in a sentence

1 There are four possible positions for adverbs:
   ▶ before the subject:
     Sometimes she gets very tired.
   ▶ between the subject and the verb:
     I sometimes read biographies.
   ▶ between a modal or auxiliary and the main verb:
     I can sometimes play this game very well.
   ▶ at the end of a clause or sentence:
     He makes me angry sometimes.

However, not all adverbs can go in all four positions.

2 We use adverbs of certainty (probably, certainly, definitely) in these positions:
   ▶ between the subject and a positive verb:
     Jane probably knows the answer.
   ▶ after a positive auxiliary/modal:
     They’ll probably win.
   ▶ before a negative auxiliary/modal:
     Jane probably doesn’t know the answer.
     They probably won’t win.

3 We use adverbs of completeness (almost, nearly, etc.) in these positions:
   ▶ between the subject and the verb:
     He almost died.
   ▶ after an auxiliary/modal:
     I’ve nearly finished.

4 We use some adverbs that emphasize a statement (even, just (= simply), only, also) in these positions:
   ▶ between the subject and the verb:
     She was rude and she even laughed at me.
     I don’t know why, I just like jazz.
   ▶ after an auxiliary/modal:
     I can’t even understand a word.
     I’m only joking.

   Notice that we use just before a negative modal or auxiliary:
     I just don’t understand why it happened.

5 Note that all these adverbs go after be:
   She is probably at work now.
   For the positions of adverbs related to time (just, already, yet) see Unit 15.

6 We use too and either at the end of a sentence. We use too after two positive verbs and either after two negative verbs:
   George earns a lot and he spends a lot too.
   I don’t like dogs and I’m not keen on cats either. (See also Unit 103.)

7 We usually use adverbs of manner (those that describe how something is done, e.g. well, badly, quickly, carefully) in these positions:
   ▶ after the verb:
     Please drive carefully.
   ▶ after an object:
     I read the letter carefully.

8 We use adverbial phrases of time (e.g. in the morning, last Saturday, during the holidays) at the beginning or end of a sentence or clause:
   Last Saturday I had a great time.
   I had a great time last Saturday.

   We usually use other adverbial phrases (e.g. those describing place or manner) after the object:
   He put his suitcase on the floor.
   She opened the letters with a knife.

9 When there is more than one adverb or adverbial phrase in a sentence, we normally use them in this order:
   manner → place → time
   He was working hard in his office last night.

4 We do not usually use a preposition after these verbs:

phone/ring:He phoned/rang me last night.* (not He phoned/rang me to…) discuss: We often discuss sport. (not … discuss about sport.)
answer: She didn’t answer me. (not … answer to me.)

Terry: What does the company make?

Make, do, have, get

1 There are many phrases in which a particular verb is used together with a particular noun, for example:
   - make a cup of coffee
   - do some work
   - have breakfast

2 We often use make in sentences about producing or creating something:
   - They made a fire in the woods.

3 We also use make in these phrases:
   - Excuse me. I have to make a phone call.

4 We often use do in sentences about working, or about doing particular jobs:
   - Have you done your homework?
   - He offered to do the washing-up.
   - We’re going to do some shopping.
   - I haven’t done much work today.

5 We use have + noun to describe activities:
   - I’m going to have a shower in the morning.
   - We usually have lunch at about 1 o’clock.
   - I’m having fish for dinner tonight.
   - I had a swim in the sea this morning.

6 We use get with adjectives that describe feelings, to say that we begin to have the feeling:
   - I’m getting tired now. I need a rest.
   - They’re late and I’m getting worried.
   - I got angry and shouted at them.

7 We use get in some phrases that describe a change of situation:

   - It’s getting cold. (= It’s becoming cold.)
   - Jane was very ill, but she’s getting better.
   - They got married three years ago.

1. We can use many verbs together with another word to form 'phrasal verbs', e.g. put on, get up.

   The same verb can go with several different words to form phrasal verbs with different meanings, e.g. put away, put on, put through.

   The meaning of a phrasal verb is not always clear from the two parts. For example, put through means connect (= make a telephone connection). You should check the meaning of phrasal verbs in a dictionary.

2. Grammatically, there are three types of phrasal verb.
   - One type consists of verb + adverb and they have an object, e.g.:
     She put on the hat.
     She put the hat on.

   Some common verbs of this type are: bring up, calm down, cross out, fill in, find out, give in, give out, look up, pick up, point out, pull off, put away, put through, take off, try on, turn off, work out

   The second type of phrasal verb consists of verb + adverb but there is no object, e.g.:
   I usually get up at seven o'clock.

   Some common verbs of this type are: break down, check in, get off, get up, go on, go out, hang about, look out, set off, show up, stay up, take off, turn out, turn up

   The third type consists of verb + adverb + preposition and they have an object, e.g.:
   We're looking forward to your news.

   Some common verbs of this type are: do away with, face up to, run out of, look up to

(See also Unit 88.)

D Complete the following story by choosing the second word of each phrasal verb. Use a dictionary to check the meanings

We were looking forward (1) to/on our holiday but the night before we were going to leave we stayed (2) down/up talking until about three o’clock. We didn’t hear the alarm clock so we got (3) up/in late and we were late getting to the airport. When we went to check (4) in/up, we were lucky because some passengers hadn’t shown (5) up/out so there were still some seats left. When we got on the plane, Tim was a bit nervous because he hadn’t flown before but I gave him a pill and that calmed him (6) down/out. The cabin crew told us to turn (7) in/off our mobiles. Then the lights went (8) up/off and Tim thought something was wrong but I pointed (9) out/up that they always do that before the plane takes (10) out/off. When we got to Rome we went to pick (11) up/off our cases. Mine was one of the first to come out, but Tim’s didn’t appear. We hung (12) about/up for a long time but it didn’t turn (13) out/up. We went to an office to report it and Tim had to fill (14) in/on all his details on a form. After several phone calls it turned (15) out/up that Tim’s case was in Athens. Luckily we got it back that same evening. As soon as it arrived, Tim pulled (16) in/on a clean shirt and trousers. We were just in time to go and have dinner.
Phrasal verbs (2): separability

1 Grammatically, phrasal verbs fall into three* groups. Some phrasal verbs can belong to different groups (see Unit 87), sometimes with different meanings. For example, clear up:
   "Who's going to clear up the mess?"
   (= remove)
   "The weather soon cleared up."
   (= improved)

2 Verbs in the first group consist of verb + adverb and they have an object. When the object is a noun, there are two possible positions, e.g.:
   "Tim cleared up the mess."
   "Tim cleared the mess up."

   However, when the object is a pronoun, it goes between the two parts of the verb, e.g.:
   "Tim cleared it up." (NOT: Tim cleared up it.)

   Some common verbs in this group are:
   break off, carry on, draw out, get off, give up, knock down, lay off, let out, make up, pay in, put on, rub out, set up, shut down, sort out

3 Verbs in the second group consist of verb + adverb but there is no object, e.g.:
   "Where did you grow up?"

   Some common verbs in this group are:
   call in, come about, cut down, drop in, go on, hang on, look out, stay in 4 Verbs in the third group consist of verb + adverb + preposition and they have an object, e.g.:

   "I can't put up with all this noise."

   Some common verbs in this group are:
   do away with, face up to, get away with, put up with

* Some people also classify prepositional verbs (Unit 83) as phrasal verbs.

\text{Glass is made from sand.}

POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE

This programme is shown on TV every Thursday.

These computers aren't produced any more.

3 Look at these sentences:

ACTIVE: They sell OBJECT cold drinks here.

PASSIVE: Cold drinks are sold here.

Notice that the object in the active sentence (cold drinks) is the same as the subject in the passive sentence. We use the passive when it is not important who does the action, or when we don't know who does it:

These cars are made in Japan. (We don't need to say ... by Japanese workers.)

This castle was built in the twelfth century. (We don't know who built it.)

4 Now look at these examples:

(i) Alfred Hitchcock was a great film-maker. He directed this film in 1956.

(ii) This is a wonderful film. It was directed by Alfred Hitchcock.

In (ii) we use the passive because we have been talking about something (the film), and not the person who did it (Hitchcock). We use by to say who does, or did, the action:

This film was directed by Hitchcock.

I'd like (= I would like) to get a better job.

We use like + -ing (e.g. like listening, like working) to talk about things that we enjoy doing. We use would like to to say that we want to do something:

Do you like playing cards?

In offers and requests it is more polite to say would like than want:

Would you like to come for dinner? (offer)

3 We use go + -ing for sports and hobbies that we go out to do, and with shopping:

We often go skiing in the winter.
Let's go swimming this afternoon.
She goes dancing at weekends.
I'm going shopping this afternoon.

4 We can use the -ing form of a verb as the subject of a sentence to talk about activities:

In sentences like this, we can use a noun, adverb or prepositional phrase after the -ing form:

1 Look at this:

If + PRESENT SIMPLE + PRESENT SIMPLE
If I eat too much, I feel bad.

("Every time I eat too much, I feel bad.
We use this structure (if + Present Simple + Present Simple) for facts that are generally true. This structure is called the Zero Conditional:
If I don’t get enough sleep, I feel tired.
("Every time I don’t get enough sleep, I feel tired.
If you want to become a doctor, you have to study hard. ("Anyone who wants to become a doctor has to study hard.

2 We can say the same thing by reversing the two parts of the sentence:

PRESENT SIMPLE + if + PRESENT SIMPLE
I feel bad if I eat too much.

Note that we do not use a comma (,) before if.

3 Now look at this:

If + PRESENT SIMPLE + WILL/WON’T
If I’m late, she’ll be angry.

("Perhaps I will be late; then she’ll be angry.
We use this structure (if + Present Simple + will/won’t) to talk about things that may happen in the future. The verb after if is Present Simple, but we use it for a possible future action or situation; we use will/won’t + verb for the result. This structure is called the First Conditional:
If we don’t hurry, we won’t finish.

4 We can reverse the order:
She’ll be angry if I’m late.
We won’t finish if we don’t hurry.

5 We do not use will/won’t after if:
NOT If I will be late, she’ll be angry.

Practice

A Put these facts about various types of people into sentences with if + Present Simple + Present Simple. Make you the subject of both parts of the sentence.

Complete these sentences with if + Present Simple + will/won't, using the words in brackets ( ). Sometimes you do not need to change the words in brackets.

3. If she posts the letter now, we will receive it tomorrow.
4. I will go to their party if they arrive late again.

Complete the dialogues with the Present Simple or will/won't forms of the words in brackets ( ). Sometimes you do not need to change the words in brackets.

A: We must be at the airport at two o'clock.

Look at this sentence:

If Charlie Chaplin was alive today, he would be over 100 years old.

Of course, Chaplin isn’t alive today. The sentence imagines something that is not true. The verb after if is Past Simple, but it refers to the present. This structure is called the Second Conditional:

If + PAST SIMPLE  + would (or ’d)
If he worked harder, he would do better.

Another example is someone who doesn’t have enough money to buy a new car and says:

I’d buy a new car if I had enough money.

Note that we do not use a comma (,) before if.

We can use the same type of sentence to talk about the future:

If + PAST SIMPLE  + would (or’d)
If I won a lot of money, I’d buy a big house.

This sentence describes an unlikely future situation: it is unlikely that I will win a lot of money.

We can use wish to say that we want something to be different from how it is now. Note that the verb after wish is past (e.g. could, was, had):

I wish (that) Chaplin was still alive.
Mary wishes she had enough money for a new dress.
I wish I was very rich.

After if and after wish, we sometimes use I/he/she/it with were:

If he were (or was) alive today, …
I wish Charlie Chaplin were (or was) still alive.

Notice also the expression if I were you, when you give someone advice:

If I were you, I’d go to the police.
(not If I was you, …)

5 Pam would definitely learn French if ………….. (she/get) a job in France.

It is unlikely that astronauts will visit Mars.
It is unlikely that governments will stop buying guns.
It is unlikely that doctors will find a cure for cancer.

Now use the predictions in the box to complete these sentences.

- 1 If ........................................................................... , the Irish would be very happy.
- 2 If ........................................................................... , this terrible disease would disappear.
- 3 If ........................................................................... , the popular music industry would disappear.

D Imagine how life nowadays could be better. Complete the sentences using the words in brackets ( ), and any other words you need.

  (more, less) If people did more exercise ................... , there would be less ................. heart disease

- 6 People haven't got enough time to cook, so they eat a lot of 'fast food'.
  (more, less) If people ...................................................... , they ............................. .
1. Look at this sentence:
   If Charlie Chaplin had died in 1989, he would have been 100 years old.

   Chaplin did not in fact die in 1989. He died before he was 100 years old. The sentence imagines something that did not happen in the past. This structure is called the Third Conditional:

   If + past perfect + would have (or 'd have) + past participle

   If he had tried harder, he would have won.

   Here is another example:

   If Jane had come on her usual train, I would have seen her. (She didn't come on her usual train, so I didn't see her.)

   Notice how we can also use the negative forms wouldn't have and hadn't:

   John F. Kennedy wouldn't have died in 1963 if he hadn't gone to Dallas. (Kennedy died in 1963 because he went to Dallas, but this sentence imagines the opposite.)

   I would have phoned you if I hadn't lost your phone number. (I didn't phone you because I lost your phone number.)

   I wouldn't have gone to the museum if I had known it was shut. (I went to the museum because I didn't know it was shut.)

2. We can use wish + had done to talk about the past when we are sorry that something didn't happen, and we imagine that it did:

   He wishes he had studied harder at school. (He didn't study hard, and now he's sorry about it.)

   I woke up very late this morning. I wish I had gone to bed earlier last night.

   We can use a negative form (wish ... hadn't done) to say that we are sorry that something did happen:

   Many people wish that John F. Kennedy hadn't gone to Dallas. (Many people are sorry that John F. Kennedy went to Dallas.)

Practice

A. Read this story about Ellen.

In May 1992 Ellen lost her job in London. She didn't have much money in the bank, so she was very worried. She looked in the newspapers and she saw an advertisement for a job as a translator from German into English. She didn't speak German very well, so she didn't apply for it. In June, she heard about some teaching jobs abroad because a friend phoned to tell her about them. She phoned the company, and they asked her to go for an interview with the director. Ellen thought the interview went badly, but in fact the director was happy with the interview and offered Ellen a job in Spain. However, Ellen couldn't start at once because she didn't know any Spanish. She took a course to learn the language. She was good at languages and she made rapid progress. So, by September she had a new job, and she still had a little money left in the bank.

Now write sentences using the words in brackets ( ).

- (If Ellen/have/a lot of money in the bank, she/not/be/so worried.)

  If Ellen had had a lot of money in the bank, she wouldn't have been so worried.

- (If she/not/look/in the newspapers, she/not/see/the advertisement.)

  If she hadn't looked in the newspapers, she wouldn't have seen the advertisement.
1 (If she/speak/German very well, she/apply/for the job.)

2 (If her friend/not/phone, she/not/hear/about the teaching jobs.)

3 (If she/not/contact/the company, they/not/ask/her to go for an interview.)

4 (If the interview/go/badly, the director/not/offer/Ellen a job.)

6 (If she/not/be/good at languages, she/not/make/rapid progress.)

Antonio: I feel old and useless.
Sally: You're OK. Don't worry so much.
Antonio: If I (was) ... (be) in a different job, I might be happier.
Sally: You always talk like this if you (be) tired.

103 And, but, so, both … and, either, etc.

1 We use and and both … and to link two similar ideas in one sentence:

She is tired. She is hungry.

She is tired and hungry.
She is both tired and hungry.

We found both our tickets and our money.

2 We use but to contrast two different ideas:

He swims. He doesn’t play tennis.

He swims, but he doesn’t play tennis.
I live in Bristol, but I work in London.

3 We use so to talk about the result of something (see Unit 104); it links two actions (= and therefore …)

Situation:
I’m tired.

Result:
I’m going to bed.

I’m tired, so I’m going to bed.
They were late, so they missed the train.

4 We use or and either … or to talk about two possibilities:

Possibility A:
She’s French.

Possibility B:
She’s Swiss.

She’s French or Swiss.
She’s either French or Swiss.

That man is either a footballer or an actor.
I never work all day. I work either in the morning or in the afternoon.

5 We use neither … nor to put two negative statements together:

Peter didn’t come. Joan didn’t come.
Neither Peter nor Joan came.

The verb form (came) is positive, because neither … nor makes the sentence negative:

NOT Neither Peter nor Joan didn’t come.

6 We can also use both, either and neither like this:

both either neither
{ of } { the my his these } PLURAL NOUN

PLURAL VERB

Both of these suitcases are heavy.
I haven’t seen either of the films.

Neither of his sisters was/were there.

REASON because he's got the flu.
Jack is in bed because he's got the flu.
We couldn’t go out because the weather was terrible.
I took a taxi because I was in a hurry.

We use because of with a noun (e.g. flu, weather, noise):

REASON because of his flu.
Jack's in bed because of his flu.
We couldn't go out because of the storm.
I couldn't sleep because of the noise.

2 We use in case when the reason is something that might happen:

I’m taking an umbrella in case it rains.
(= I’m taking an umbrella because it might rain.)

(= … because he might want to come with us.)

3 We use so to talk about the result of something:

RESULT so I took a taxi.
I was in a hurry so I took a taxi.
Jack has got the flu so he’s in bed.
The weather was terrible so we couldn’t go out.
My neighbours were having a party and making a lot of noise so I couldn’t sleep.

4 We use so that to talk about the purpose of an action:

PURPOSE so that I would arrive on time.

I listen to the news in the morning so that I know what's happening in the world.
Tom goes jogging every day so that he'll stay fit.
I took a taxi so that my friends would not have to wait for me.

4. A: Why are you here?
   B: I'm here for have a medical examination.

   A: Well, since you're here, so we can check your teeth as well.
1 We can use because, since and as to express a reason for something. Normally we use because when the reason has not been mentioned previously; the reason usually comes in second place:

   We stayed at home because Tom was ill.

If the conversation has already mentioned that Tom was ill, we normally express the reason with since or as; the reason usually comes in first place:

   Tom wasn't feeling well. Since / As Tom was ill, we stayed at home.

2 We can use for to express purpose or reason with different structures. We can use it with a noun to express a purpose:

   I went to the shops for some cheese.
   We stopped for a drink.

3 When the action and the purpose involve different people, we express this with for and a noun or pronoun followed by the infinitive with to:

   We stopped for the children to have a drink.
   I waited for him to finish his homework.

4 We can use for with a noun or an -ing form to give the reason for a reaction:

   The teacher sent Jill home for cheating.
   My cousin was arrested for robbery.

   Johnson is in prison for dangerous driving.
   Sam won a medal for saving a young boy.

Here the reason happens before the reaction.

5 You will sometimes see for used in a way similar to because:

   Diane was pleased to receive the books, for she was fond of reading.

However, this is not common and you can always use because in these cases.

6 We can also use prepositions due to and owing to with a noun to express a reason:

   Many people arrived late due to / owing to the heavy rain.
   Due to / Owing to the road repairs, we had to take a different route.

If we use these prepositions with a clause, we have to include the fact that:

   The concert was cancelled due to / owing to the fact that the pianist had appendicitis.

Note that we can use noun + be + due to + noun:

   The delay was due to fog.

We cannot use owing to in this way:

   Not The delay was owing to fog.

Here the reason happens before the action or fact.

choosing the correct option in each case.

Mr Long is a careless driver. In fact he has a reputation as a dangerous driver (►) because/owing to the police have fined him three times (1) because/for speeding. (2) Due to/Since he drives carelessly, his wife usually drives the family car, especially when the children are with them. The children often feel sick in the car (3) due to the fact that/owing to they are not good travellers, and when this happens Mrs Long has to stop the car (4) for/as them to have a break. Some people take pills for travel sickness, of course, but Mrs Long doesn't like the idea (5) because/due to she thinks the children will get addicted. One hot summer's day the family were on their way to visit Mrs Long's mother (6) owing to the fact/owing to it was her birthday.
(7) Since/For it was a special day the children were wearing their best clothes, so it was obviously a bad day (8) for/because them to get dirty. Very soon the children were feeling sick, probably due (9) to/for the heat, so Mrs Long stopped the car several times (10) for/since them to get out and have a drink. When they finally arrived, grandmother said, 'You're a bit late but I suppose that's (11) due to/owing to the traffic.' 'Not really,' said Mrs Green. 'The journey took longer than usual (12) because/owing to the heat and we had to stop several times (13) to/for a break.'
At their grandmother's the children soon felt better and they had a great afternoon.
After lunch they went for long walk with Grandma's dog, Queenie. On the way home they were tired and fell asleep straightaway in the car.
1 We can contrast two ideas or situations within a sentence with although:
   Although the weather was very cold, we decided to go for a walk.
The government passed the new law although many people opposed it.
Informally we can use though in the same way:
   Though the weather was very cold, we decided to go for a walk.
The government passed the new law though many people opposed it.
While is not possible here.

2 We can use while to contrast two aspects of the same thing or two similar things within a sentence:
   While I agree with the idea, I don’t think it’s very practical.
   Some of my friends have found work while others are still unemployed.
(Al)though is also possible here.

3 When the contrast is expressed in a separate sentence, we use however:
   The government passed the new law.
   However, many people were against it.

I agree with the idea. I don’t think it’s very practical, however.
We use a comma to separate however from the rest of the sentence.
Though can also go at the end of a separate sentence:
   I agree with the idea. I don’t think it’s very practical, though.
Although is not possible here.

4 We can use prepositions in spite of and despite with a noun (but not usually a personal pronoun) to express concession or contrast:
   In spite of / Despite the cold weather, we decided to go for a walk.
The government passed the new law in spite of / despite the opposition.
If we use these prepositions with a clause, we have to include the fact that, e.g.:
The government passed the new law in spite of / despite the fact that many people were against it.

Practice

B Complete this speech about drugs by putting in although, despite, however or while. In some cases there is more than one possibility.

   Ladies and gentlemen. Today I want to explain why I think drugs should be legalized. Many people think that all drugs are illegal. (1)_______________, the legal situation is different in different countries. For example, (2)_______________ coca leaves are legal in some parts of South America, they are banned in the USA and many other countries. But even in the USA and Europe, it is not true that all drugs are illegal. (3)_______________ tobacco and alcohol are seriously addictive, they are a regular aspect of most social gatherings in our countries. Not everybody who smokes tobacco or drinks alcohol is an addict, of course. Many regular smokers would like to cut down or stop, (4)_______________ and in fact many have tried several times. (4)_______________ their many attempts, they continue smoking, precisely because nicotine is so addictive. Anyway, what are the disadvantages of the illegal drugs remaining illegal? In the first place, illegality means that there is no quality control to protect the consumer. People think they are buying cocaine, for example, (5)_______________ the substance is perhaps mixed with dust or even poisonous powders. Also drugs on the street are fairly expensive so (6)_______________ consumers might not have a job, they need their drugs and this quickly leads to stealing and prostitution in order to pay for them. Second, the drug industry generates enormous quantities of money, enough money to corrupt many police officers and politicians. We like to think that our authorities control crime. The reality, (7)_______________, is that in some countries crime controls the authorities. Ladies and gentleman, (8)_______________ you may not like drugs, as long as drugs are illegal, they are outside democratic control.

C Later two people discuss the talk about drugs. Use each expression from the box only to complete the dialogue.

   although although despite however in spite of the fact that though

   Tony: What did you think of the talk?
   Pam: I don’t agree with her (1)_______________. I have to accept that her talk was clever. It’s true that the present situation isn’t perfect. (1)_______________, if they legalize drugs, things will be much worse.
   Tony: Oh, I don’t know. Society seems to manage all right with tobacco and alcohol (2)_______________ they’re perfectly legal.
   Pam: You make it sound as if they’re harmless. I think it’s truer to say that society functions (3)_______________ they’re legal because they cause problems for a lot of people.
   Tony: A few people misuse them. Most people use them sensibly, (4)_______________.
   Pam: It doesn’t make sense to say that you can smoke sensibly. That’s why there are health warnings on the packets. People are stupid enough to smoke (5)_______________ all the warnings.
Relative clauses (1)

1 If we use a sentence like:
   The police have found the boy.

   it may not be clear which boy.
   We can make it clear like this:
   The police have found the boy who disappeared last week.

   Who links the relative clause (who disappeared last week) to the main clause
   (The police have found the boy).

2 When we talk about people, we use that or who:
   I talked to the girl that (or who) won the race.

   When we talk about things or animals, we use that or which:
   I like the car that (or which) won the race.

3 That, who or which can be the subject of the relative clause, like this:

   I talked to the girl
   That is the dog
   [SUBJECT who won.
   The girl that attacked me.
   The dog]

4 That, who or which can be the object of the relative clause, like this:

   The card which Ken sent was nice.
   The man that I saw was very rude.

   There is no other pronoun (e.g. him, them):
   NOT The man I saw him was very rude.

   When that, who or which is the object of the relative clause (e.g. The card which Ken sent),
   we can leave them out:
   The card Ken sent was nice.
   The man I saw was very rude.

5 Now look at this sentence with whose:
   Susan is the woman whose husband is an actor. (= Susan’s husband is an actor.)

   We use whose in place of his, her, their, etc.
   We only use it with people, countries and organizations, not things. It has a possessive meaning. Here is another example:
   The man whose dog bit me didn’t apologize.
   (= The man didn’t apologize. His dog bit me.)

1 In informal English, in defining relative clauses, when who, that or which is the object of the verb, it can be omitted:
   The name of the woman I interviewed was Mrs Norris.
   The car they bought was quite expensive.
Notice that there is no pronoun in the relative clause:
   The name of the woman I interviewed her was Mrs Norris.
   The car they bought it was quite expensive.

2 When the verb has a preposition, in formal English the preposition goes with whom or which:
   That is the young man to whom I spoke.
   The job for which she's applied is in Paris.

   Informally, we can omit the relative word and then the preposition goes at the end of the relative clause:
   That is the young man I spoke to.
   The job she's applied for is in Paris.

3 Informally, we often omit the relative word when after day, year, etc.:
   That was the year I finished university.

Relative clauses (3)

1 Look at these two sentences:

London has over 6 million inhabitants.
London, which is the capital of Britain, has over 6 million inhabitants.

The clause which is the capital of Britain gives us more information about London, but we do not need this information to define London. We can understand the first sentence without this extra information. which is the capital of Britain is a non-defining relative clause. It has commas (,) to separate it from the rest of the sentence.

2 For things or animals, we use which (but not that) in non-defining relative clauses:
Fred sold his computer, which he no longer needed, to his cousin. (not ... that he no longer needed ...)
In the summer we stay in my uncle's house, which is near the sea.

3 For people, we use who (but not that) in non-defining relative clauses. We use who when it is the subject of the relative clause:

Elvis Presley, who died in 1977, earned millions of dollars.
(Presley died in 1977.)

We use who (or sometimes whom) when it is the object of the relative clause:

My boss, who (or whom) I last saw before Christmas, is very ill.
(I last saw my boss before Christmas.)

4 We use whose to mean 'his', 'her', or 'their':
Marilyn Monroe, whose real name was Norma Jean, was born in Los Angeles.
(Her real name was Norma Jean.)

5 We can also use which (but not that) to refer to a whole fact:
Ann did not want to marry Tom, which surprised everybody.

Here, which refers to the fact that Ann did not want to marry Tom.

B This is the first of two articles from a holiday magazine. Cross out the wrong words.

Beach, City or Lake?

(2) Although/Since most British holidaymakers traditionally go to the seaside for their holidays, lakes and mountains are also popular places for people to relax and enjoy themselves. (2) While/However, a lake holiday usually costs more than a beach holiday because the local hotels and restaurants are more expensive.

(3) Since/Although most people think very carefully about prices, the beach is still the top location for a one-week or two-week holiday. (5) While/However you may not think of a city as a place for relaxing, many people enjoy a short break or a long weekend in Paris or Beijing or Rio De Janeiro.

(6) Although/In spite of the noise and the traffic, tourists love going to big cities and seeing the art galleries, museums, shops and nightlife. (7) However/Although they are expensive, big cities all over the world welcome millions of visitors every year.
C Joe and Miriam have been invited to a neighbour's wedding. Cross out the underlined words if it is possible.

Joe: What would you like to drink?
Miriam: Something (►) that I can drink slowly, I think. Joe, can you see the man (►) who is drinking orange juice? Is he the man (1) who repaired our roof in the summer?
Miriam: I think so. The day (2) when he came to our house was your birthday, wasn't it?
Joe: That's right. But the work (3) that he did wasn't very good, was it?
Miriam: No, it wasn't. Do you know the woman (4) who is eating a piece of cake by the window?
Joe: Yes. I'm sure she's the woman (5) whose dog bit my leg a month ago.
Miriam: Oh dear. Is there anyone here (6) that you want to talk to?
Joe: I'd like to find the man (7) that turns on the radio in his garden at six in the morning!
Miriam: Joe! Try to be friendly. The young housewife (8) that I met in the street yesterday was really nice.
Joe: Yes, but did you think about the reason (9) why she was nice? She wanted to borrow two of our chairs.

Appendix 1: Nouns

1 Plural nouns

1 We usually add -s to a noun to form the plural:
   a book → some books one kilo → ten kilos radio → radios shop → shops tyre → tyres

2 After -s, -ss, -sh, -ch and -x we add -es:
   bus → buses dress → dresses glass → glasses dish → dishes wish → wishes beach → beaches watch → watches box → boxes

3 When a noun ends in a consonant* + -y, the y changes to -ies:
   city → cities family → families lorry → lorries story → stories

We do not change y after a vowel*:
   day → days journey → journeys

4 Nouns ending in -f or -fe have the plural -ves:
   leaf → leaves life → lives shelf → shelves thief → thieves

5 A few nouns ending in -o have -es:
   potato → potatoes tomato → tomatoes hero → heroes

But most have -s:
   discos kilos photos pianos radios stereos studios zoos

6 Some nouns have irregular plurals:
   man → men woman → women child → children foot → feet mouse → mice sheep → sheep fish → fish person → people tooth → teeth

2 Uncountable nouns

1 Here is a list of common uncountable nouns:
   ice water rain snow heat noise cotton glass petrol money luggage information work homework advice news milk butter bread cheese tea coffee sugar meat marmalade toast

2 Uncountable nouns do not have a plural form:
   petrol (NOT petrols) bread (NOT breads)

3 We do not use a/an with uncountable nouns, but we can use some/any, the, much (NOT many), such and my/your/his, etc.:
   I always have toast and marmalade for breakfast.
   I'd like some tea, please.
   Look at the snow outside.
   How much luggage have you got?
   We've had such wonderful news.

4 Some nouns can be countable or uncountable:
   I heard a noise from downstairs.
   (countable)
   I can't sleep. The neighbours are making so much noise.
   (uncountable)

Appendix 2: Regular verbs

1 Present Simple

1 Add an -s to make the he/she/it form of most Present Simple verbs:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>he/she/it</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I/we</td>
<td>he/she/it</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>you</td>
<td>leaves</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>they</td>
<td>makes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>leave</td>
<td>says</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>make</td>
<td>works</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>say</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>work</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2 After -ss, -sh, -ch, -o or -x (e.g. finish, go), we add -es:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I/we</td>
<td>he/she/it</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>catch</td>
<td>catches</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>finish</td>
<td>finishes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>pass</td>
<td>passes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>teach</td>
<td>teaches</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>do</td>
<td>does</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>go</td>
<td>goes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>mix</td>
<td>mixes</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3 When a verb ends in a consonant* + -y, the y changes to -ies:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I/we</td>
<td>he/she/it</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>fly</td>
<td>flies</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>try</td>
<td>tries</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>carry</td>
<td>carries</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>study</td>
<td>studies</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2 The -ing form

1 For most verbs we add -ing:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ask</td>
<td>asking</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>go</td>
<td>going</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2 For verbs ending with a consonant + -e, we normally leave out e when we add -ing:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>hope</td>
<td>hoping</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>live</td>
<td>living</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>take</td>
<td>taking</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

But we keep a double e before -ing:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>see</td>
<td>seeing</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>agree</td>
<td>agreeing</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3 When a verb ends in -ie, it changes to y when we add -ing:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>die</td>
<td>dying</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>lie</td>
<td>lying</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

But y does not change:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>hurry</td>
<td>hurrying</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

4 When a word ends with one vowel* and one consonant (e.g. run, swim, jog), we double the final consonant:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>get</td>
<td>getting</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>run</td>
<td>running</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>jog</td>
<td>jogging</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>swim</td>
<td>swimming</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

But note that we do not double the consonant:

* when it is y, w or x (e.g. stay)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>buy</td>
<td>buying</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>draw</td>
<td>drawing</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>fax</td>
<td>faxing</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>stay</td>
<td>staying</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

* when the final syllable* is not stressed

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>listen</td>
<td>listening</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>visit</td>
<td>visiting</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>wonder</td>
<td>wondering</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Note however that in British English I is usually doubled, even if the syllable is unstressed (e.g. travel):

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>cancel</td>
<td>cancelling</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>travel</td>
<td>travelling</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3 The past tense and past participles

1 Most verbs have -ed in the past tense; most past participles also end in -ed:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>form</th>
<th>form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>happen</td>
<td>happened</td>
<td>happened</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>work</td>
<td>worked</td>
<td>worked</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2 If the verb ends in -e, we add d:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>live</td>
<td>lived</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>phone</td>
<td>phoned</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3 When a verb ends in a consonant + -y, the y changes to -ied:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>study</td>
<td>studied</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>try</td>
<td>tried</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

4 When a word ends with one vowel and one consonant (e.g. stop), we double the final consonant:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>grab</td>
<td>grabbed</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>plan</td>
<td>planned</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>stop</td>
<td>stopped</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

But note that we do not double the consonant:

* when it is y, w or x (e.g. enjoy)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>allow</td>
<td>allowed</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>enjoy</td>
<td>enjoyed</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

* when the final syllable is not stressed

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>open</td>
<td>opened</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>listen</td>
<td>listened</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>discover</td>
<td>discovered</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Note however that in British English I is usually doubled, even if the syllable is unstressed (e.g. travel):

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>cancel</td>
<td>cancelled</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>travel</td>
<td>travelled</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Appendix 4: Adjectives and adverbs

1 Comparatives and superlatives

1 We form the comparative and superlative of short adjectives (adjectives with one syllable*) with -er and -est:
   cheap → cheaper, the cheapest long → longer, the longest warm → warmer, the warmest

2 If the adjective ends in -e, we add r and st:
   late → later, the latest nice → nicer, the nicest

3 When a one-syllable adjective ends with one vowel* and one consonant* (e.g. big), we double the final consonant:
   big → bigger, the biggest hot → hotter, the hottest wet → wetter, the wettest

Note that we do not double w:
   few → fewer, the fewest

4 We put more/the most before adjectives of two or more syllables:
   beautiful → more beautiful, the most beautiful expensive → more expensive, the most expensive polluted → more polluted, the most polluted

5 When an adjective ends in a consonant + -y (e.g. happy), the y changes to -ier or -iest:
   dirty → dirtier, the dirtiest easy → easier, the easiest happy → happier, the happiest lucky → luckier, the luckiest

6 Some adjectives have irregular comparative and superlative forms:
   good → better, the best
   bad → worse, the worst far → farther, the farthest little → less, the least

7 Be careful to use fewer with plural nouns (e.g. shops), and less with uncountable nouns (e.g. money):
   There are fewer shops in the centre of town than there used to be.
   John earns less money than Mary.

2 Adverbs

1 We form most adverbs by adding ly to an adjective:
   polite → politely
   quick → quickly
   slow → slowly

2 When an adjective ends in a consonant + -y, the y changes to -ily:
   easy → easily
   happy → happily
   lucky → luckily

3 When an adjective ends in a consonant + -le, the e changes to -y:
   probable → probably remarkable → remarkably

4 Some adverbs are irregular:
   good → well
   fast → fast hard → hard late → late

Verb + -ing; like and would like

1. Look at this example:

   I like listening to music.

   (For details on -ing forms, see Appendix 2 on page 243.)

   We can use certain verbs (e.g. like) with an -ing form:

   like enjoy love keep finish stop mind hate + -ing FORM

   She doesn’t like cooking.
   Do you enjoy driving?
   They love living in a village.
   He keeps saying the same things.
   (= He says the same things many times.)
   Have you finished eating?
   Suddenly she stopped talking.
   I don’t mind waiting.
   She hates using a drill.

2. Compare this pair of sentences:

   I like working here. (= I enjoy my job here.)
   I’d like (= I would like) to get a better job.
   (= I want to get a better job.)

   We use like + -ing (e.g. like listening, like working) to talk about things that we enjoy doing. We use would like to to say that we want to do something:

   She likes painting pictures. (= She enjoys painting pictures.)

   She would like to be an artist.
   (= She wants to be an artist.)
   I like going to the theatre.
   (= I enjoy going to the theatre.)
   I’d like to go to the theatre tonight.
   (= I want to go to the theatre tonight.)
   Do you like playing cards?
   (= Do you enjoy playing cards?)
   Would you like to play cards now?
   (= Do you want to play now?)

   In offers and requests it is more polite to say would like than want:

   Would you like to come for dinner? (offer)
   I’d like to leave work early, please. (request)

3. We use go + -ing for sports and hobbies that we go out to do, and with shopping:

   We often go skiing in the winter.
   Let’s go swimming this afternoon.
   She goes dancing at weekends.
   I’m going shopping this afternoon.

4. We can use the -ing form of a verb as the subject of a sentence to talk about activities:

   Swimming is a healthy activity.

   In sentences like this, we can use a noun, adverb or prepositional phrase after the -ing form:

   Riding motorbikes can be dangerous.
   Exercising regularly is good for you.
   Dancing to this kind of music can be difficult.

Purpose: for …ing

1 Look at this dialogue:
   A: What's this machine for?
   B: It's for cutting cloth.

   The question What is it for? asks about the purpose of something (what we use something for). When we describe the purpose of a thing, we use for + -ing.

   Here are some more examples:
   This is an instrument for measuring wind speed.
   This tool is used for making holes.

2 Now look at this dialogue:
   A: What does he need my camera for?
      (= Why does he need my camera?)
   B: He needs it for his work. (= His work is the reason why he needs the camera.)

   The question What ... for? asks about purpose.
   To talk about someone's purpose, we can use for + noun. Here are some more examples:
   A: What did he go to the shops for?
   B: He went to the shops for some fruit.
      (= He wanted to buy some fruit.)

I buy the newspaper for the sports news.

Verb + object (+ to) + infinitive

1 Look at these examples:

Carol said to Bob:
‘Make some coffee, please.’
We can say:
Carol asked Bob to make some coffee.

Ann said to Rose:
‘Can you come to my party, Rose?’
We can say:
Ann invited Rose to come to her party.

Tom thinks Chris should see a doctor.
He can say:
I’ll persuade Chris to go to the doctor’s.

The structure is:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>VERB</th>
<th>OBJECT</th>
<th>to</th>
<th>INFINITIVE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>She asked</td>
<td>fill</td>
<td>to</td>
<td>wait</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She asked</td>
<td>her</td>
<td>to</td>
<td>wait</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

We use these verbs in this structure:

tell, force, teach help, allow, would like ask, invite, encourage want, forbid, persuade advise, remind

2 Note that the first verb can change its tense but the second verb is always to + infinitive (to make):

She is asking Bob
She will ask Bob
She has asked Bob

Note that if we use a pronoun, we use me, him, her, it, us, you, them (object pronoun after the verb):

Carol asked him to make some coffee.

3 Now look at these two sentences:

The teacher let Jane leave school early.
I made him tell the truth.

Let here means ‘allow’, and make means ‘force’ or ‘order’. Make and let are followed by an infinitive (without to):

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>VERB</th>
<th>OBJECT</th>
<th>INFINITIVE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>She</td>
<td>let</td>
<td>Jane</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She</td>
<td>let</td>
<td>Jane</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Feel, hear, see and watch can also be followed by an infinitive (without to):

I heard your sister shout ‘Fire!’

Tom saw a car come round the corner.

1 Look at this:

If + Present Simple + Present Simple

If I eat too much, I feel bad.

(= Every time I eat too much, I feel bad.)

We use this structure (if + Present Simple + Present Simple) for facts that are generally true. This structure is called the Zero Conditional:

If I don’t get enough sleep, I feel tired.

(= Every time I don’t get enough sleep, I feel tired.)

If you want to become a doctor, you have to study hard. (= Anyone who wants to become a doctor has to study hard.)

2 We can say the same thing by reversing the two parts of the sentence:

Present Simple + if + Present Simple

I feel bad if I eat too much.

Note that we do not use a comma (,) before if.

3 Now look at this:

If + Present Simple + will/won’t

If I’m late, she’ll be angry.

(= Perhaps I will be late; then she’ll be angry.)

We use this structure (if + Present Simple + will/won’t) to talk about things that may happen in the future. The verb after if is Present Simple, but we use it for a possible future action or situation; we use will/won’t + verb for the result. This structure is called the First Conditional:

FUTURE POSSIBILITY + RESULT

If we don’t hurry, we won’t finish.

4 We can reverse the order:

She’ll be angry if I’m late.
We won’t finish if we don’t hurry.

5 We do not use will/won’t after if:

NOT IF I will be late, she’ll be angry.

---

Practice

A

Put these facts about various types of people into sentences with if + Present Simple + Present Simple. Make you the subject of both parts of the sentence.

- Doctors treat people who are ill.

  If you’re a doctor, you treat people who are ill.

1 Vegetarians don’t eat meat.
   If you’re a vegetarian, you don’t eat meat.

2 People who live in a hot country don’t like cold weather.
   If you live in a hot country, you don’t like cold weather.

3 Teachers have to work very hard.
   If you’re a teacher, you have to work very hard.

4 People who do a lot of exercise stay fit and healthy.
   If you do a lot of exercise, you stay fit and healthy.

5 Mechanics understand engines.
   If you’re a mechanic, you understand engines.

6 People who read newspapers know what’s happening in the world.
   If you read newspapers, you know what’s happening in the world.
B Complete these sentences with if + Present Simple + will/won't, using the words in brackets ( ). Sometimes you do not need to change the words in brackets.

1 If it rains, we won't go out.
2 If the weather is nice tomorrow, we will drive to the coast.
3 (she/post) the letter now, (they/receive) it tomorrow.
4 (Fiona/be) angry if (John/arrive) late again.
5 (I/go) to their party if (I/have) enough time.
6 (you/learn) a lot if (you/take) this course.
7 (I/get) a ticket, (I/go) to the concert.

10 (I/go) to the doctor's if (I/not/feel) better tomorrow.
11 (they/win) this game, (they/be) the champions.

C Complete the dialogues with the Present Simple or will/won't forms of the words in brackets ( ). Sometimes you do not need to change the words in brackets.

1 A: We must be at the airport at two o'clock.
   B: Well, if we take (we/take) a taxi at one o'clock, we won't be (we/not/be) late.
2 A: I'd like a newspaper.
   B: Well, (I/buy) one for you if (I/go) to the shop later.

6 A: Could I have some information about this year's concerts, please?
   B: Yes, if (you/fill in) this form, (I/send) it to you in the post.
Second Conditional

1 Look at this sentence:

If Charlie Chaplin was alive today, he would be over 100 years old.

Of course, Chaplin isn't alive today. The sentence imagines something that is not true. The verb after if is Past Simple, but it refers to the present. This structure is called the Second Conditional:

If + Past Simple + would (or 'd)
If he worked harder, he would do better.

Another example is someone who doesn't have enough money to buy a new car and says:

I'd buy a new car if I had enough money.

Note that we do not use a comma (,) before if.

2 We can use the same type of sentence to talk about the future:

If + Past Simple + would (or ’d)
If I won a lot of money, I'd buy a big house.

This sentence describes an unlikely future situation: it is unlikely that I will win a lot of money.

3 We can use wish to say that we want something to be different from how it is now. Note that the verb after wish is past (e.g. could, was, had):

I wish (that) Chaplin was still alive.
Mary wishes she had enough money for a new dress.
I wish I was very rich.

4 After if and after wish, we sometimes use I/he/she/it with were:

If he were (or was) alive today, …
I wish Charlie Chaplin were (or was) still alive.

Notice also the expression if I were you, when you give someone advice:

If I were you, I'd go to the police.
(not if I was you, …)

1 Look at this sentence:
If Charlie Chaplin had died in 1989, he would have been 100 years old.

Chaplin did not in fact die in 1989. He died before he was 100 years old. The sentence imagines something that did not happen in the past. This structure is called the Third Conditional:

If + past perfect + would have (or ’d have) + past participle
If he had tried harder, he would have won.

Here is another example:
If Jane had come on her usual train, I would have seen her. (She didn’t come on her usual train, so I didn’t see her.)

Notice how we can also use the negative forms wouldn’t have and hadn’t:
John F. Kennedy wouldn’t have died in 1963 if he hadn’t gone to Dallas. (Kennedy died in 1963 because he went to Dallas, but this sentence imagines the opposite.)
I would have phoned you if I hadn’t lost your phone number. (I didn’t phone you because I lost your phone number.)
I wouldn’t have gone to the museum if I had known it was shut. (I went to the museum because I didn’t know it was shut.)

2 We can use wish + had done to talk about the past when we are sorry that something didn’t happen, and we imagine that it did:

He wishes he had studied harder at school. (He didn’t study hard, and now he’s sorry about it.)
I woke up very late this morning. I wish I had gone to bed earlier last night.

We can use a negative form (wish ... hadn’t done) to say that we are sorry that something did happen:
Many people wish that John F. Kennedy hadn’t gone to Dallas. (Many people are sorry that John F. Kennedy went to Dallas.)

Practice

A Read this story about Ellen.

In May 1992 Ellen lost her job in London. She didn’t have much money in the bank, so she was very worried. She looked in the newspapers and she saw an advertisement for a job as a translator from German into English. She didn’t speak German very well, so she didn’t apply for it. In June, she heard about some teaching jobs abroad because a friend phoned to tell her about them. She phoned the company, and they asked her to go for an interview with the director. Ellen thought the interview went badly, but in fact the director was happy with the interview and offered Ellen a job in Spain. However, Ellen couldn’t start at once because she didn’t know any Spanish. She took a course to learn the language. She was good at languages and she made rapid progress. So, by September she had a new job, and she still had a little money left in the bank.

Now write sentences using the words in brackets ( ).

And, but, so, both ... and, either, etc.

1 We use and and both ... and to link two similar ideas in one sentence:
   She is tired. She is hungry.
   She is tired and hungry.
   She is both tired and hungry.

   We found both our tickets and our money.

2 We use but to contrast two different ideas:
   He swims. He doesn't play tennis.
   He swims, but he doesn't play tennis.
   I live in Bristol, but I work in London.

3 We use so to talk about the result of something (see Unit 104); it links two actions (= and therefore ...)

   SITUATION:  RESULT:
   I'm tired. I'm going to bed.
   I'm tired, so I'm going to bed.
   They were late, so they missed the train.

4 We use or and either ... or to talk about two possibilities:

5 We use neither ... nor to put two negative statements together:

   Peter didn't come. Joan didn't come.
   Neither Peter nor Joan came.

   The verb form (came) is positive, because neither ... nor makes the sentence negative:
   NOT Neither Peter nor Joan didn't come.

6 We can also use both, either and neither like this:

   both either neither

   of

1 We use because to give the reason for something:

Jack is in bed because he's got the flu.
We couldn't go out because the weather was terrible.
I took a taxi because I was in a hurry.

We use because of with a noun (e.g. flu, weather, noise):

Jack's in bed because of his flu.
We couldn't go out because of the storm.
I couldn't sleep because of the noise.

2 We use in case when the reason is something that might happen:

I listen to the news in the morning so that I know what's happening in the world.
Tom goes jogging every day so that he'll stay fit.
I took a taxi so that my friends would not have to wait for me.

A: Why are they tired?  ✓..................
B: Because that their long journey. of ..................
1 I can't come tomorrow, so that I came today ................

3 Julie had to go to the shops so she needed something for lunch. ..............
4 A: Why are you here? ................
   B: I'm here for have a medical examination. ........
   A: Well, since you're here, so we can check your teeth as well. ............
Since, as, for

1 We can use because, since and as to express a reason for something. Normally we use because when the reason has not been mentioned previously; the reason usually comes in second place:
   We stayed at home because Tom was ill.
If the conversation has already mentioned that Tom was ill, we normally express the reason with since or as; the reason usually comes in first place:
   Tom wasn’t feeling well. Since / As Tom was ill, we stayed at home.

2 We can use for to express purpose or reason with different structures. We can use it with a noun to express a purpose:
   I went to the shops for some cheese.
   We stopped for a drink.

3 When the action and the purpose involve different people, we express this with for and a noun or pronoun followed by the infinitive with to:
   We stopped for the children to have a drink.
   I waited for him to finish his homework.

4 We can use for with a noun or an -ing form to give the reason for a reaction:
   The teacher sent Jill home for cheating.
   My cousin was arrested for robbery.

   Johnson is in prison for dangerous driving.
   Sam won a medal for saving a young boy.

   Here the reason happens before the reaction.

5 You will sometimes see for used in a way similar to because:
   Diane was pleased to receive the books, for she was fond of reading.

   However, this is not common and you can always use because in these cases.

6 We can also use prepositions due to and owing to with a noun to express a reason:
   Many people arrived late due to / owing to the heavy rain.
   Due to / Owing to the road repairs, we had to take a different route.

   If we use these prepositions with a clause, we have to include the fact that:
   The concert was cancelled due to / owing to the fact that the pianist had appendicitis.

   Note that we can use noun + be + due to + noun:
   The delay was due to fog.

   We cannot use owing to in this way:
   not The delay was owing to fog.

   Here the reason happens before the action or fact.

C Here is a story about a day out for the Long family. Complete the story by choosing the correct option in each case.

Mr Long is a careless driver. In fact he has a reputation as a dangerous driver (1) because/owing to the police have fined him three times (2) because/for speeding. (3) Due to/Since he drives carelessly, his wife usually drives the family car, especially when the children are with them. The children often feel sick in the car (4) due to the fact that/owing to they are not good travellers, and when this happens Mrs Long has to stop the car (5) for/as them to have a break. Some people take pills for travel sickness, of course, but Mrs Long doesn't like the idea (6) because/due to she thinks the children will get addicted. One hot summer's day the family were on their way to visit Mrs Long's mother (7) owing to the fact that/owing to it was her birthday.
(8) Since/For it was a special day the children were wearing their best clothes, so it was obviously a bad day (9) for/because them to get dirty. Very soon the children were feeling sick, probably due (10) to/for the heat, so Mrs Long stopped the car several times (11) for/since them to get out and have a drink. When they finally arrived, grandmother said, 'You're a bit late but I suppose that's (12) due to/owing to the traffic.' 'Not really,' said Mrs Green. 'The journey took longer than usual because/owing to the heat and we had to stop several times (13) to/for a break.' At their grandmother's the children soon felt better and they had a great afternoon. After lunch they went for long walk with Grandma's dog, Queenie. On the way home they were tired and fell asleep straightaway in the car.
1 We can contrast two ideas or situations within a sentence with although:

Although the weather was very cold, we decided to go for a walk.
The government passed the new law although many people opposed it.

Informally we can use though in the same way:

Though the weather was very cold, we decided to go for a walk.
The government passed the new law though many people opposed it.

While is not possible here.

2 We can use while to contrast two aspects of the same thing or two similar things within a sentence:

While I agree with the idea, I don't think it's very practical.
Some of my friends have found work while others are still unemployed.

(Al)though is also possible here.

3 When the contrast is expressed in a separate sentence, we use however:

The government passed the new law.
However, many people were against it.

I agree with the idea. I don't think it's very practical, however.

We use a comma to separate however from the rest of the sentence.

Though can also go at the end of a separate sentence:

I agree with the idea. I don't think it's very practical, though.

Although is not possible here.

4 We can use prepositions in spite of and despite with a noun (but not usually a personal pronoun) to express concession or contrast:

In spite of / Despite the cold weather, we decided to go for a walk.
The government passed the new law in spite of / despite the opposition.

If we use these prepositions with a clause, we have to include the fact that, e.g.:

The government passed the new law in spite of / despite the fact that many people were against it.

B Complete this speech about drugs by putting in although, despite, however or while. In some cases there is more than one possibility.

Ladies and gentlemen. Today I want to explain why I think drugs should be legalized. Many people think that all drugs are illegal. (►) However................, the legal situation is different in different countries. For example, (1)......................... coca leaves are legal in some parts of South America, they are banned in the USA and many other countries. But even in the USA and Europe, it is not true that all drugs are illegal. (2)......................... tobacco and alcohol are seriously addictive, they are a regular aspect of most social gatherings in our countries. Not everybody who smokes tobacco or drinks alcohol is an addict, of course. Many regular smokers would like to cut down or stop, (3).............................. and in fact many have tried several times. (4)............................... their many attempts, they continue smoking, precisely because nicotine is so addictive. Anyway, what are the disadvantages of the illegal drugs remaining illegal? In the first place, illegality means that there is no quality control to protect the consumer. People think they are buying cocaine, for example, (5).............................. the substance is perhaps mixed with dust or even poisonous powders. Also drugs on the street are fairly expensive so (6).............................. consumers might not have a job, they need their drugs and this quickly leads to stealing and prostitution in order to pay for them. Second, the drug industry generates enormous quantities of money, enough money to corrupt many police officers and politicians. We like to think that our authorities control crime. The reality, (7).............................., is that in some countries crime controls the authorities. Ladies and gentleman, (8).............................. you may not like drugs, as long as drugs are illegal, they are outside democratic control.

C Later two people discuss the talk about drugs. Use each expression from the box once only to complete the dialogue.

| although | although | despite | however | in spite of the fact that | though |

Tony: What did you think of the talk?
Pam: I don't agree with her (►) although.................. I have to accept that her talk was clever. It's true that the present situation isn't perfect. (1)..........................., if they legalize drugs, things will be much worse.

Tony: Oh, I don't know. Society seems to manage all right with tobacco and alcohol (2)............................. they're perfectly legal.
Pam: You make it sound as if they're harmless. I think it's truer to say that society functions (3)............................. they're legal because they cause problems for a lot of people.

Tony: A few people misuse them. Most people use them sensibly, (4).............................
Pam: It doesn't make sense to say that you can smoke sensibly. That's why there are health warnings on the packets. People are stupid enough to smoke (5).............................. all the warnings.
Relative clauses (1)

1. If we use a sentence like:
   The police have found the boy.
   it may not be clear which boy.
   We can make it clear like this:
   The police have found the boy who disappeared last week.
   Who links the relative clause (who disappeared last week) to the main clause
   (The police have found the boy).

2. When we talk about people, we use that or who:
   I talked to the girl that (or who) won the race.
   When we talk about things or animals, we use that or which:
   I like the car that (or which) won the race.

3. That, who or which can be the subject of the relative clause, like this:
   I talked to the girl that won.
   That is the dog that attacked me.
   There is no other pronoun (e.g. it, they):
   NOT That is the dog that it attacked me.

4. That, who or which can be the object of the relative clause, like this:
   OBJECT
   The card which Ken sent was nice.
   Ken sent the card.
   The man that I saw was very rude.
   I saw the man.
   There is no other pronoun (e.g. him, them):
   NOT The man I saw him was very rude.

   When that, who or which is the object of the relative clause (e.g. The card which Ken sent),
   we can leave them out:
   The card Ken sent was nice.
   The man I saw was very rude.

5. Now look at this sentence with whose:
   Susan is the woman whose husband is an actor.
   (= Susan’s husband is an actor.)
   We use whose in place of his, her, their, etc.
   We only use it with people, countries and organizations, not things. It has a possessive meaning. Here is another example:
   The man whose dog bit me didn’t apologize.
   (= The man didn’t apologize. His dog bit me.)

Practice

Relative clauses (2)

1 In informal English, in defining relative clauses, when who, that or which is the object of the verb, it can be omitted:
   The name of the woman I interviewed was Mrs Norris.
The car they bought was quite expensive.

Notice that there is no pronoun in the relative clause:
   The name of the woman I interviewed was Mrs Norris.
The car they bought was quite expensive.

2 When the verb has a preposition, in formal English the preposition goes with whom or which:
   That is the young man to whom I spoke.
The job for which she’s applied is in Paris.

Informally, we can omit the relative word and then the preposition goes at the end of the relative clause:
   That is the young man I spoke to.
The job she’s applied for is in Paris.

3 Informally, we often omit the relative word when after day, year, etc.:
   That was the year I finished university.

We often omit the relative word where after place, somewhere, etc.:

We often omit the relative word why after reason:

109 Relative clauses (3)

1 Look at these two sentences:

London has over 6 million inhabitants.
London, which is the capital of Britain, has over 6 million inhabitants.

The clause which is the capital of Britain gives us more information about London, but we do not need this information to define London. We can understand the first sentence without this extra information. which is the capital of Britain is a non-defining relative clause. It has commas (,) to separate it from the rest of the sentence.

2 For things or animals, we use which (but not that) in non-defining relative clauses:
Fred sold his computer, which he no longer needed, to his cousin. (NOT ... that he no longer needed...)
In the summer we stay in my uncle’s house, which is near the sea.

3 For people, we use who (but not that) in non-defining relative clauses. We use who when it is the subject of the relative clause:

Elvis Presley, who died in 1977, earned millions of dollars. (Presley died in 1977.)

We use who (or sometimes whom) when it is the object of the relative clause:

My boss, who (or whom) I last saw before Christmas, is very ill. (I last saw my boss before Christmas.)

4 We use whose to mean ‘his’, ‘her’, or ‘their’:
Marilyn Monroe, whose real name was Norma Jean, was born in Los Angeles. (Her real name was Norma Jean.)

5 We can also use which (but not that) to refer to a whole fact:
Ann did not want to marry Tom, which surprised everybody.

Here, which refers to the fact that Ann did not want to marry Tom.

2 Uncountable nouns do not have a plural form:
   - petrol (not petrols)
   - bread (not breads)

3 We do not use a/an with uncountable nouns, but we can use some/any, the, much (not many), such and my/your/his, etc.:
   - I always have toast and marmalade for breakfast.
   - I'd like some tea, please.
   - Look at the snow outside.
   - How much luggage have you got?
   - We've had such wonderful news.

4 Some nouns can be countable or uncountable:

Appendix 2: Regular verbs

1 Present Simple

1 Add an -s to make the he/she/it form of most Present Simple verbs:
   I/you/we/they  he/she/it leave         leaves make          makes say           says work          works

2 After -ss, -sh, -ch, -o or -x (e.g. finish, go), we add -es:
   I/you/we/they  he/she/it catch         catches finish        finishes pass          passes teach         teaches do            does go            goes mix           mixes

3 When a verb ends in a consonant* + -y, the y changes to -ies:
   I/you/we/they  he/she/it fly           flies try           tries carry         carries study         studies

2 The -ing form

1 For most verbs we add -ing:
   ask → asking    go → going

2 For verbs ending with a consonant + -e, we normally leave out e when we add -ing:
   hope → hoping   live → living take → taking
But we keep a double e before -ing:
   see → seeing    agree → agreeing

3 When a verb ends in -ie, it changes to y when we add -ing:
   die → dying     lie → lying
But y does not change:
   hurry → hurrying

4 When a word ends with one vowel* and one consonant (e.g. run, swim, jog), we double the final consonant:
   get → getting   jog → jogging run → running   swim → swimming
But note that we do not double the consonant:
   * when it is y, w or x (e.g. stay) buy → buying    draw → drawing fax → faxing    stay → staying
   * when the final syllable* is not stressed listen → listening visit → visiting wonder → wondering
Note however that in British English I is usually doubled, even if the syllable is unstressed (e.g. travel):
   cancel → cancelling travel → travelling

3 The past tense and past participles

1 Most verbs have -ed in the past tense; most past participles also end in -ed:
   INFINITIVE    PAST TENSE    PAST/PASSIVE happen        happened       happened work          worked          worked

2 If the verb ends in -e, we add d:
   live → lived    phone → phoned

3 When a verb ends in a consonant + -y, the y changes to -ied:
   study → studied  try → tried

4 When a word ends with one vowel and one consonant (e.g. stop), we double the final consonant:
   grab → grabbed  plan → planned stop → stopped
But note that we do not double the consonant:
   * when it is y, w or x (e.g. enjoy) allow → allowed  enjoy → enjoyed
   * when the final syllable is not stressed open → opened    listen → listened discover → discovered
Note however that in British English I is usually doubled, even if the syllable is unstressed (e.g. travel):
   cancel → cancelled  travel → travelled

Appendix 4: Adjectives and adverbs

1 Comparatives and superlatives

1 We form the comparative and superlative of short adjectives (adjectives with one syllable*) with -er and -est:
   cheap → cheaper, the cheapest long → longer, the longest warm → warmer, the warmest

2 If the adjective ends in -e, we add r and st:
   late → later, the latest
   nice → nicer, the nicest

3 When a one-syllable adjective ends with one vowel* and one consonant* (e.g. big), we double the final consonant:
   big → bigger, the biggest hot → hotter, the hottest wet → wetter, the wettest

   Note that we do not double w:
   few → fewer, the fewest

4 We put more/the most before adjectives of two or more syllables:
   beautiful → more beautiful, the most beautiful expensive → more expensive, the most expensive polluted → more polluted, the most polluted

5 When an adjective ends in a consonant + -y (e.g. happy), the y changes to -ier or -iest:
   dirty → dirtier, the dirtiest easy → easier, the easiest happy → happier, the happiest lucky → luckier, the luckiest

6 Some adjectives have irregular comparative and superlative forms:
   good → better, the best
   bad → worse, the worst far → farther, the farthest
   little → less, the least

7 Be careful to use fewer with plural nouns (e.g. shops), and less with uncountable nouns (e.g. money):
   There are fewer shops in the centre of town than there used to be.
   John earns less money than Mary.

2 Adverbs

1 We form most adverbs by adding ly to an adjective:
   polite → politely
   quick → quickly
   slow → slowly

2 When an adjective ends in a consonant + -y, the y changes to -ily:
   easy → easily
   lucky → luckily
   happy → happily

3 When an adjective ends in a consonant + -le, the e changes to -y:
   probable → probably remarkable → remarkably

4 Some adverbs are irregular:
   good → well
   fast → fast hard → hard late → late

Introduction

The Oxford Practice Grammar is a series of three books, each written at the right level for you at each stage in your study of English. The series is intended for your use either in a classroom or when working independently in your own time.

The books are divided into units, each of which covers an important grammar topic. Each unit starts with an explanation of the grammar and this is followed by a set of practice exercises. Tests at the end of each unit or section of units give the opportunity for more practice and enable you to assess how much you have learned. Answers to the exercises and the tests are given at the back of the book.

You may want to choose the order in which you study the grammar topics, perhaps going first to those giving you problems. (Topics are listed in the Contents page at the front of each book and in the Index at the back.) Alternatively you may choose to start at the beginning of each book and work through to the end.

An interactive CD-ROM is included at each of the three levels, offering alternative ways to practise. You can recognize and correct written mistakes, and you can also take part in spoken dialogues; you can record and listen to your own voice and learn to speak more naturally.

Exam practice

The first level in the series is Oxford Practice Grammar – Basic. This is suitable for elementary to pre-intermediate learners, and those working for the PET exam. The second is Oxford Practice Grammar – Intermediate, for students who are no longer beginners but are not yet advanced in their use of English. It is suitable for those studying for the Cambridge FCE. Oxford Practice Grammar – Advanced is for those who have progressed beyond the intermediate level and who wish to increase their knowledge of English grammar and become more confident when using it. It helps students prepare for CAE, CPE, TOEFL, IELTS, and other advanced-level exams.

The Oxford Practice Grammar – Basic is written for elementary to pre-intermediate students of English.

Grammar topics are explained simply and clearly and you are given lots of opportunity to practise.

Each new topic is presented on a left-hand page and the practice section follows on the same page or the facing page. You can therefore look across to the explanation while you are working through the exercises.

Appendices at the back of the book summarize how to form plurals of nouns, verb endings, comparative forms of adjectives, and adverbs. They also include a table of irregular verbs.

An exit test provides an opportunity for more practice, and prepares you for Oxford Practice Grammar – Intermediate.

There is an interactive Oxford Practice Grammar website at www.oup.com/elt/practicegrammar.

Key to symbols

The symbol / (oblique stroke) between two words means that either word is possible. We put does before he/she/it means that We put does before he, We put does before she and We put does before it are all possible. In exercise questions this symbol is also used to separate words or phrases which are possible answers.

Brackets ( ) around a word or phrase in the middle of a sentence mean that it can be left out. She said (that) she lived in a small flat means that there are two possible sentences: She said that she lived in a small flat and She said she lived in a small flat.

The symbol ~ means that there is a change of speaker. In the example When did Jane go to India? ~ In June, the question and answer are spoken by different people.

The symbol ▶ in an exercise indicates that a sample answer is given.
Oxford Practice Grammar

- Short explanations are easy to understand.
- 100s of practice activities build your confidence.
- Regular progress tests show what you know – and what needs more practice.
- The exit test prepares you for Oxford Practice Grammar – Intermediate.
- The Practice-Plus CD-ROM gives you interactive exercises and tests.

Oxford Practice Grammar – Basic covers the grammar you need to pass the PET exam

Practice-Plus CD-ROM – you’ll find it inside this book!
This is the only grammar CD-ROM with interactive ‘find and correct the mistake’ exercises, to help you notice and correct your own mistakes. Do the exercises and the multiple-choice tests to check your progress. Record and listen to your voice and learn to speak more naturally.

The Oxford Practice Grammar three-level series – Basic, Intermediate, and Advanced – gives you the explanations and practice that are right for your level of English. Basic gives you lots of practice and clear, short explanations; Intermediate gives you more detail, balanced with extended practice; Advanced gives you challenging practice activities and in-depth explanations. Revision units and tests help you focus on the grammar that needs more practice.

Use Oxford Practice Grammar either at home or in class and be more confident about grammar.
