Puppy
Just born

I am one day old.
I cannot see or hear,
but I can smell.
I smell my mother and crawl to her.
She feeds me with her milk.

This is me!
I am nine days old. I sleep snuggled up warm and close to my brothers and sisters.

Asleep in a heap
I open my eyes but everything is a blur. I soon fall asleep again.
Feeding time

I am two weeks old.
I am dreaming of milk, and I whimper and sniff.
I wake up.
Where is everyone?

Oh no!
They are feeding already.

I climb over Mom
and push in too.
I am three weeks old and I am growing fast. I can see and hear and walk very well.
I am three weeks old and I am growing fast. I can see and hear and walk very well. Off I go to explore on my own. Everything I find is new and interesting.
Playing with Dad

I am four weeks old and I have my own bowl of food. Dad is licking it clean.
Come on, Dad.
Play with me!

Oh good, now he is ready to play.
I am six weeks old and I am much bigger now. I love to play with my toy rabbit.

My sister wants to play with me.

But she has sharp teeth, so I push her away.
Hey! Now she is going off with my rabbit!
I am eight weeks old, and I am wearing my new collar and leash.
My brother is trying to take me for a walk, but I don’t want to go.

My sisters are playing tug-of-war with a leash.

My brother is trying to take me for a walk, but I don’t want to go.
