What the Book Is About

This book teaches you vocabulary that will help you when you take the TOEIC (Test of English for International Communication). The TOEIC measures the English proficiency of people working in international business or planning to use English to communicate with others. Although the exam does not specifically test specialized vocabulary, the items on the exam are in specialized contexts.

This book will help you understand specialized contexts that are often used on the TOEIC. Each chapter focuses on a particular context that has appeared on the TOEIC. The contexts are specialized, but the words are not. The words are general vocabulary. They can be used in many contexts. You will learn these words in contexts that are used on the TOEIC.

How to Use This Book

This book contains 50 lessons, and each lesson introduces you to 12 new words in a specific context. If you study one lesson every day, in 50 days you can learn 600 new words. You will practice these words by doing exercises that look just like the questions on the TOEIC.

Word List

On the first page of each lesson, you will see a list of 12 words. For each word you will see the definition of the word and two sentences using the word in context.

This page

• Introduces you to the words for the lesson
• Shows you the words in context
• Serves as a reference anytime you need to check the meaning of a word

Vocabulary in Context

Next you will see a paragraph called Vocabulary in Context. You will have the opportunity to see and use the words for the lesson in context.

• Complete the paragraph using words from the word list.
• Read the paragraph over to see all the words for that lesson used in context.
• Return to the paragraph as often as you like to reinforce the meanings of the words.

Word Families

On this page, you will see the verb, noun, adjective, and adverb forms of six words selected from the word list.

Example

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>verb</th>
<th>popularize</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>noun</td>
<td>popularity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>adjective</td>
<td>popular</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

You will also see sentences using these words in context.

On this page, you will

• Learn more words
• Learn to recognize words in their different forms
• Learn about word endings that change words into nouns, verbs, adjectives, and adverbs
Listening Comprehension

In this section, you will practice the words for the lesson by doing exercises that are just like the listening questions on the TOEIC.

Part 1—You will see a photo. You will choose the statement that best describes the photo.
Part 2—You will listen to a question or statement and choose the best response.
Part 3—You will listen to a conversation and answer three questions about it.
Part 4—You will listen to a talk and answer three questions about it.

You will practice the words for the lesson in context because the questions, conversation, and talk all use words from the word list for each lesson. You will also practice listening skills and test-taking skills that you will need when you take the TOEIC.

Reading Comprehension

In this section, you will practice the words for the lesson by doing exercises that are just like the reading questions on the TOEIC.

Part 5—You will choose the best word to complete each sentence.
Part 6—You will read a paragraph and choose words to complete it.
Part 7—You will read a passage, or two related passages, and answer comprehension questions.

You will practice the words for the lesson in context because the reading passages all use words from the word list for each lesson. You will also practice reading skills and test-taking skills that you will need when you take the TOEIC.

Strategies to Improve Your Vocabulary

One of the best ways to improve your vocabulary is to read, and read often. When you read, you

- See words in context
- Expose yourself to new words

The more you read, the more words you will see. The more words you see, the more you will learn. Reading can be a very enjoyable experience, so make sure you read things that are interesting to you. Then you will have fun, improve your vocabulary, and build skills you will need for the TOEIC, all at once. When you read, there are several strategies you can use to improve your vocabulary.

1. Analyze Word Parts

Words can be made of roots, prefixes (before the root), and suffixes (after the root).

Example

re (prefix) + circula (root) + tion (suffix) = recirculation

In English, many of these roots, prefixes, and suffixes come from Greek and Latin words. Learning the meanings of different roots, prefixes, and suffixes will help you increase your vocabulary.

Example

re means again reunite bring together again reconsider think about again
retrain train again

This book will expose you to many words that use common roots, prefixes, and suffixes.
2. Recognize Grammatical Forms

Some suffixes tell you whether a word is a noun, a verb, an adjective, or an adverb. You can learn to recognize these different suffixes. They will help you understand the meanings of new words.

Examples

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Nouns</th>
<th>Adjectives</th>
<th>Verbs</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>-tion competition</td>
<td>-y easy</td>
<td>-ize memorize</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-ance deliverance</td>
<td>-ous mountainous</td>
<td>-ate refrigerate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-ence independence</td>
<td>-able capable</td>
<td>-en lengthen</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-ment government</td>
<td>-al musical</td>
<td>-or inspector</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-ism Buddhism</td>
<td>-ic athletic</td>
<td>-ee attendee</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-ship friendship</td>
<td>-ful beautiful</td>
<td>- Adverbs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-ity community</td>
<td>-less careless</td>
<td>-ly quickly</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

In this book, you will see many examples of words with these suffixes.

3. Recognize Word Families

Just like brothers and sisters in the same family, words can be related, too. One word can become a noun, a verb, an adjective, or an adverb by changing its suffix.

Example

depend (verb) dependence (noun) dependable (adjective)
dependably (adverb)

These four words together make up a word family. The meaning of each word is similar to the others, but each one has a different grammatical form. How can knowing about word families help you?

- You will learn more words. When you find a new word, look in the dictionary to find other members of the same word family.
- You will understand new words. Look carefully at a new word. It might be related to a word you already know.

You will see many examples of word families in this book.

4. Make Your Own Word Journal

When you read, you will come across many new words, and you will need an organized way to record them.

- Use a special notebook just for recording your new words.
- Make a new page each day or each time you read a new article or story.
- For each new word, write the word, a synonym, a definition, the original sentence where you found the word, and then make up your own sentence using the word.
- Every day, review the pages from the previous days.
- Photocopy the chart below to make the pages for your word journal.

5. Keep a Daily Reading Log

It is important to read something in English every day, aside from class assignments. It is important to read things that are interesting to you. You will get more out of the experience this way. It is also important to read many different kinds of things. This keeps you from getting bored, and, more important, it helps you learn a wider variety of vocabulary.

- Read for 20–30 minutes each day.
- Read things that are interesting to you.
- Read on a variety of topics.
- Read books, magazines, newspapers, and web pages.

The following steps will help you read in a way that will improve your vocabulary:

1. Read without stopping. Do not stop to look up unknown words. You can understand the general idea of a passage without understanding every word.

2. Underline or highlight unknown words, or write them on a separate piece of paper.

3. Guess the meaning of unknown words. Use the context and your knowledge of prefixes and suffixes and word families to do this.

4. Choose five key words and write them in your reading log. These should be unknown words that are important for understanding the meaning of the passage.

5. Look up the five key words in your dictionary.

6. Write a one-paragraph summary of the passage. Try to use the five key words in your summary.

Strategies to Practice Your Vocabulary

The more you use your new vocabulary words, the better you will remember them. There are a number of things you can do to practice and review new vocabulary words.

1. Review Every Day

Every time you sit down to work with this book, you should look over the words from the previous lesson. Do the same every time you work with your Word Journal or Daily Reading Log.

- Review words from previous lessons
- Note words that you are unsure of
- Include these words in the following suggested practice activities

2. Read Out Loud

Saying your vocabulary words out loud is another way to reinforce them. You can read word lists out loud, and you can also read the passages that contain your vocabulary words. You can read out loud

- The word lists from each lesson in this book
- The Vocabulary in Context paragraphs in this book
- The passages you read for your Daily Reading Log
- The word lists in your Word Journal

3. Categorize Words

Make a list of words that you want to review. Be sure to include the words that have given you difficulty. Divide the words into categories. For example, you could make a list of things you have or do at home, things you have or do at an office, things you see or do at a store. Any one word might appear in more than one category.

- Choose a list of words to review
- Divide the list into categories
- Use the words from each category to write a paragraph
- Using the same words, think of new categories and make new lists

4. Associate Words

Choose a word from your list of words to review and list words you associate with it.

Part 7 Reading Comprehension

Questions 19–23 refer to the following report.

Catherine Cosmetics Company
Sales Department Meeting Report
March 29, 20—

We reviewed the sales figures for the past quarter. We are currently experiencing a significant drop in sales in our hair care products. This has been going on since the beginning of the year when we introduced the improved version of our top-selling hair care line, Catherine’s Curls. Our advertising has not been successful in convincing more consumers to buy these products. We know there is a market for products such as these manufactured with 100% natural ingredients and no testing on animals. In fact, our competitors are doing quite well in this area and have been for a number of years. We know from our research that the popularity of all-natural cosmetic products is more than just a passing fad, and this is why we decided to branch out into this area. We have carefully compared our products to those of our three largest competitors. We have looked at product ingredients, packaging, target consumers, pricing, and sales strategies. Our product is similar, or even better, in all ways but one. Our packaging is significantly less eye-catching than that of our competitors, and it does not convey the important aspects of the products to the consumer, that is, that these products are entirely made with natural ingredients. Therefore, in order to attract more customers, we recommend employing a new designer to create better packaging for the Catherine’s Curls line of products.

19. When did the sales department have a meeting?
   (A) At the beginning of the year.
   (B) In March.
   (C) A quarter of a year ago.
   (D) At the end of last year.

20. Which of the following might be part of the Catherine’s Curls line of products?
   (A) Shampoo.
   (B) Hand lotion.
   (C) Nail polish.
   (D) Lipstick.

21. According to the report, why are fewer people buying Catherine’s Curls products?
   (A) The prices are too high.
   (B) The ingredients aren’t natural.
   (C) The packages aren’t attractive.
   (D) The type of product is not popular.

22. The word market in line 5 is closest in meaning to Questions 19–23 refer to the following two letters.

Kitchen Electronics, Inc.

October 12, 20—

Mrs. Sophie Bordeaux
118 Montrose Street
Stoneybrook, MI

Dear Mrs. Bordeaux,

We received the defective toaster which you returned to us asking for a full refund under the terms of the one-year warranty. Unfortunately, the warranty on the toaster expired a month ago. The terms of the warranty do not cover your product once it has expired. Consequently, we will not be able to send you a refund. However, we will be able to send you a refurbished toaster of the same model in exchange for the defective one if you desire. Please let us know if such an arrangement would be satisfactory to you.

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions. We appreciate your business.

Sincerely,

Matthew Bodine
Customer Service Manager

Victoria Springs, AL

Dear Mr. Bodine,

I have received your letter offering to send me a refurbished toaster in place of my defective one. I had not realized that my warranty had already expired. After considering the matter, I have decided to accept the refurbished toaster. Your company has a good reputation, and I frequently use your products. In fact, this is the first time I have ever had a problem with anything I have purchased from you. Therefore, I am sure that the refurbished toaster will work as well as a brand new one. However, I would like to be assured that the refurbished toaster will be protected by a warranty the same as a new toaster would be. If this is the case, then please send me the toaster as soon as possible. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Sophie Bordeaux

When developing a plan for a new business, the entrepreneur quite naturally wants to eliminate all risk. While it is impossible to avoid some risk, the goal is to minimize it as much as possible. How can we do this? Thorough research and careful planning are the keys. There are two parts to good research. First, you must demonstrate that there is a need for the product or service you plan to offer. Are there enough people out there who would be willing to pay for it? Second, you must look at your competition. What do you have to offer that your competitors do not? Is your product or service of better quality in some way? Is it cheaper or more easily available? Is there a niche in the market that your competitors are not addressing? If what you have to offer is identical to what your competitors are offering, your business is not likely to be successful. These are some things to consider when evaluating how well you can measure up against the competition. Once you have evaluated a need for your product or service and determined how yours will be different from your competitors’, you are ready to begin the next part of your plan—financing.

19. What is this article mostly about?
   (A) Financing new businesses.
   (B) How to price products.

   (A) We should try to reduce it.
   (B) We must avoid it.
   (C) We can eliminate it with careful planning.
   (D) It is the key to success.

21. According to the article, what can lead to the failure of a new business?
   (A) Offering a cheaper product.
   (B) Selling the exact same product as the competitors sell.
   (C) Selling only to a niche in the market.
   (D) Offering only services and not products.

Part 7 Reading Comprehension

Questions 19–23 refer to the following two e-mails.

To: Max Sullivan
From: Martha Reynolds
Subj: Conference

Max,

I have been working on the arrangements for our upcoming conference. I’ve looked into the City Convention Center, and I think it is the most convenient location. It is close to public transportation and hotels. The accommodations are also excellent. The rooms are large, and we can reserve up to ten meeting rooms. However, the price is almost 50% more than we agreed we could spend. The other choice is the Mayfield Hotel. Many associations hold their conventions there. It is a nice place, and the price is reasonable. However, it is not close to the subway. Also, it is much smaller than the Convention Center. I think we could only get three meeting rooms. Would that be enough? Please get in touch with me today to let me know what you think. I need to reserve a place soon.

Martha

To: Martha Reynolds
From: Max Sullivan
Subj: Re: Conference

Martha,

In regard to selecting a location for the conference, I think the Convention Center is better than the Mayfield Hotel. The hotel is much too small. Remember, we plan to hold at least five sessions at a time. We couldn’t do that at the hotel. We expect more people to take part in the convention this year, so it is important to have a space that can accommodate everyone. About the price, I think we can rearrange the budget a bit in order to be able to pay for it. So go ahead and reserve the space at the Convention Center.

Max

Part 7  Reading Comprehension

Questions 19–23 refer to the following note.

Jim,

I have decided to get a new computer for my home office, and I need your advice to help me select the right one. I have allocated a certain amount of money from my budget for this. I think it is enough for a completely new system including computer, monitor, printer, and scanner. I would like to continue using the software I already use, so I need a system that is compatible with my current system and software. However, I think I should get a different brand. I have had nothing but trouble with the computer I have now. It often shuts down without warning, and sometimes I can’t access my files. I haven’t been able to figure out the reason for these problems, and no one has been able to fix it for me.

I plan to go to some stores this Saturday and Sunday to search for my new computer. Would you be able to go with me? If not, I’ll call you before the weekend to get your advice. I have a big project coming up next month, so I would like to get my new computer up and running soon. Let me know if you can help me this weekend.

Janet

19. What does Janet want Jim to help her with?
   (A) Finding money to buy a computer.
   (B) Accessing her files.
   (C) Choosing a new computer.
   (D) Repairing her computer.

20. What does Janet plan to do this weekend?
   (A) Call Jim.
   (B) Go on a date with Jim.
   (C) Look for a new computer.
   (D) Figure out the reason for her problems.

21. When will Janet’s big project begin?
   (A) Saturday.
   (B) Sunday.
   (C) Before the weekend.
   (D) Next month.

Part 7 Reading Comprehension
Questions 19–23 refer to the following two letters.

Business Kitchens, Inc.
April 19, 20—

Dear Mr. Conner,

I am writing to follow up on our conversation of last Monday. You said you were looking for a new provider for kitchen supplies for your office, and that your particular need at this time was for a large-capacity coffeemaker. I have looked through the coffeemakers we have available, and believe I have found the best one to suit your needs. The primary advantage of the 300X Office Coffeemaker is that it reduces mess. The coffeemaker is filled with water daily. Then, to make a cup of coffee, the user simply inserts a premade package of coffee into the machine and presses the "on" button. The coffee is ready in one minute. There are no pots to clean or filters to change. The machine can make tea and other hot drinks as well. The 300X is also the most durable machine on the market.

I am enclosing a description of the machine and price information. We can also deliver refills of coffee and tea to you on a weekly or monthly basis. In addition, we stock other kitchen appliances such as microwave ovens and office-sized refrigerators. Please let me know if you are interested in purchasing such items.

Sincerely,
Laura Baker
Sales Manager

Johnson Research Affiliates
April 26, 20—

Dear Ms. Baker,

Thank you for the information on the 300X Office Coffeemaker. I think it will meet our needs for large-capacity coffeemakers at an affordable price. Our office is large, so I would like to order two at this time. I don't think we will need the regular deliveries of coffee and tea. Our need for these varies so much from week to week that it is better to order them on an as-needed basis. My assistant is good at staying on top of these things, so we don't have to worry about running out. Currently we don't have a need for ovens or refrigerators although we may in the near future. I will keep you informed. Meanwhile, we will send you a purchase order for the coffeemakers. Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,
Matthew Conner
Office Manager

When you bring in a new employee, it is important to make sure that he or she understands the usual office procedures as well as the codes of behavior. These things should be outlined clearly in the employee handbook. New employees should understand that they are expected to do more than just glimpse at the handbook and then hide it in a drawer. A thorough reading of it will help them understand many things they need to know about the workplace culture. Employees also appreciate verbal reinforcement. Supervisors should let them know when they have completed a job well, or if they are bending the rules too far. More experienced coworkers can be asked to support new employees while they are getting used to their new positions and explain procedures to them, but ultimately it is the supervisor’s responsibility to make sure that the normal office practices are carried out. When everyone understands what is expected, then the office procedures run more smoothly. In fact, it is not a bad idea to review the codes and procedures with the entire staff from time to time. This can be done on a regular basis at staff meetings, or it can be part of a training session.

19. What should new employees do with the handbook?
   (A) Read it quickly.
   (B) Study it completely.
   (C) Hide it in a drawer.
   (D) Share it with coworkers.

20. What should the supervisor do when an employee breaks a rule?
   (A) Punish her.
   (B) Fire her.
   (C) Tell her.
   (D) Retrain her.

21. How can experienced coworkers help new employees?
   (A) By writing a new handbook.
   (B) By explaining office procedures.
   (C) By inviting them to staff meetings.
   (D) By telling the supervisor when a rule has been broken.

Part 7 Reading Comprehension

Questions 19–23 refer to the following two e-mails.

To: mary@acme.com
From: fred@acme.com
Subject: software training

Mary,

As you know, we have decided to replace our old software with a new program that will facilitate our work better. Although the new software is not technically difficult to use, it is significantly different from our old software. The entire staff will need to be trained to use it. Of course, not everyone can attend a training session together, because we need some staff members to be in the office at all times. The trainer suggests that each person attend one training session and one follow-up session. The sessions will last three to four hours each. The trainer can be here once a week. Please develop a training schedule so that everyone can be trained over the next two months. Thank you.

Fred

To: fred@acme.com
From: mary@acme.com
Subject: re: software training

Fred,

I have written up a schedule that will facilitate the training process. There will be eight weekly training sessions all together. Since we have four departments, the easiest way is to send one person from each department to each training session during the first month. Of course it will be a different person each week. We can repeat the process during the second month for the follow up sessions. This way everyone will have a chance to develop their skills on the new software. I am attaching a copy of the schedule. Please let me know what you think.

Mary

19. What is true about the new software?
   (A) It's difficult to use.
   (B) It's very different from the old software.
   (C) It requires many months of training.
   (D) It's very expensive.

20. Which staff members will be trained to use the new software?
   (A) Just one from each department.
   (B) Fred and Mary only.
   (C) Only four of them.
   (D) All of them.

21. How many training sessions will each person attend?
   (A) One.
   (B) Two.
   (C) Four.
   (D) Eight.

Part 7 Reading Comprehension

Questions 19–23 refer to the following two e-mail messages.

To: Marjorie Morgan
From: Bill Smithers
Subject: Recruiting

Marjorie,

We need to start looking at recruiting some new staff members over the summer. Our company has gotten lots of new contracts recently. We have abundant work and need to take on two or three new employees to help with it. We should advertise the positions as entry-level with room for promotion. We should choose the job candidates carefully as I don’t want to have to end up firing anyone who turns out to be a bad match. I would like the new staff members to start working by June 10. Therefore, we should ask interested candidates to submit their applications before the end of April so that we can start interviewing in early May. Please come up with a recruiting plan and let me know. Thanks.

Bill.

To: Bill Smithers
From: Marjorie Morgan
Subject: re: Recruiting
Attachment: ad draft

Bill,

Here is my plan for recruiting new staff members for this summer. I will place ads in our local newspapers, in two major national papers, and on the major web sites by April 1. The deadline for submission of applications will be April 30. We will start interviews on May 8. In the ads I will carefully outline the qualifications we are looking for. I am attaching a draft of the ad. Please look it over and send me your comments. I want to make sure it contains all the details you want.

Marjorie

Matilda Moreno,
Human Resources Director
Milestone Marketing, Inc.
1476 Honeycutt Avenue
Riverdale

Dear Ms. Moreno,

I am writing in response to your ad in last Sunday's newspaper. I am interested in applying for the marketing research assistant position. I have the background and abilities you are looking for. I have recently graduated from a four-year university program with a degree in Marketing. My work experience includes three months working as an intern for a local marketing firm, so I have on-the-job marketing experience in addition to my university training. I have also worked for the past two years as a part-time office manager while going to school. My experience at this job allowed me to develop important managerial and organizational skills.

I currently live in Deerfield but am interested in relocating to Riverdale. I will be visiting Riverdale during the first week of next month and am ready to come in for an interview any time during that week.

I am enclosing my résumé and three letters of reference. Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or need further information. I believe I am a good match for your company, and I am confident that I can do the job. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Samuel Rutherford

Memo

To: All new hires
From: Edwin Mallory, Human Resources Director
Re: Training session

All new hires are required to attend a training session which will take place on Friday, October 12 from 9:30 A.M. until 3:30 P.M. The session will be conducted in Meeting Room 3, and lunch will be provided. During the session you will get an overview of company policies and procedures. You will also be updated on changes in the benefits package and learn about professional development opportunities you will be required to participate in so that you can keep up with changes in your field. Attendance at this training is mandatory for everyone hired since June of this year. There will be no excuses.

To: Edwin Mallory
From: Amelia Foote
Subject: Training session

Dear Mr. Mallory,

I just learned from your memo that I will be required to attend the training session on October 12. Unfortunately, I had already planned to be out of the office that week attending my niece's wedding. My supervisor has given me permission to take that time off, and I have already purchased my plane tickets. I didn't know about the date of the training session when I set up these plans, and it will be very difficult to change them now. My mentor suggested that I ask you for permission to miss this training session. I am willing to attend the next session instead. I hope you don't reject this offer. It is very important to me to be able to attend this family event. Thank you.

Amelia Foote

19. How long will the training session last?
   (A) Three hours.
   (B) Six hours.
   (C) Nine hours.
   (D) Twelve hours.

20. Who must attend the training session?
   (A) All company employees.
   (B) Only members of the Human Resources Department.
   (C) Mentors and supervisors.
   (D) All new hires.

21. Why doesn't Amelia Foote want to attend the training session?
   (A) She has an important family event.
   (B) She thinks it won't be useful.
   (C) She believes the next session will be better.
   (D) She doesn't have permission from her supervisor.

To: James Porter
From: Helene Bourassa
Subject: Re: Benefits questions

Dear James,

I will try to clarify for you your questions about retirement benefits.

Time of retirement: The time at which an employee can retire is calculated on the basis of age and number of years of service to the company. An employee of the company can retire with full benefits at age 55 if he or she has worked a minimum of 30 years for the company. Employees can retire at age 60 or above with 25 years of service to the company. Since you are younger than 60 years old and have worked for the company for 22 years, you won’t be eligible to retire for another few years.

Benefits for your spouse: I know this is a delicate matter, but it is important to know about. If you die before your spouse, she will continue to receive full retirement benefits for the rest of her life.

Health insurance: Retirees are eligible to receive health insurance. There are several packages to choose from, and I will send you brochures about them. Your spouse will also be eligible for health coverage when you retire. If you happen to have any dependent children under the age of 21 and living at home, they, too, will be eligible for health coverage.

I hope this answers your questions. Please don’t hesitate to contact me if you need any further information.

Helene

Questions 19–23 refer to the following memo and e-mail message.

| To:       | All company staff |
| From:     | Claude Dubois, Personnel Manager |
| Re:       | Annual Awards Ceremony |

It is time to start getting ready for the company’s annual awards ceremony. It will take place at the Merrimack Hotel on Friday, November 10. Up to 15 staff members will receive awards from the company president that evening. We look to you, our company staff, to help us select deserving award recipients. Please send in your nominations for colleagues who you think merit the recognition of an award. Obviously, we would like to see names of people who have contributed more than average to the company. Send me your nominations by e-mail before October 15 so that we can have the list finalized before November 5. Thank you.

| From:                   | marilyn_freeland@starco.com |
| Subject:                | nomination |

Hi Claude,

I would like to nominate my coworker, Janet McGhee, assistant manager of the research department, for an award. Her dedication to her job is far above average. She always works long hours to make sure she gets her job done. If she is working on an important project, she will come into the office on weekends if she thinks it’s necessary to completing her job on time. The rest of us in the department always look to Janet as an example of how to get a job done right. If anyone deserves the recognition of an award for loyalty and dedication, it’s Janet. I hope you will consider her as an award recipient.

Thank you.

Marilyn

    (D) comfortably
Designing retail space takes careful planning. Attention should be paid to what research tells us about consumer behavior. Stores must be designed with the comfort of shoppers in mind. The aisles should be wide enough to allow shoppers to move through them comfortably. Items should be placed where they can be easily seen by shoppers. Nothing should be put on high shelves where it cannot be reached. Pleasant lighting and music also contribute to the comfort and good feeling of shoppers. Shoppers who feel happy and relaxed will make more purchases.

When organizing the merchandise in a store, the trends of each season should be kept in mind. Picnic and beach equipment should be prominently displayed in the summer, for example, while warm clothing should be featured in the winter. Then, shoppers will return to the store because they will see it as a place that provides what they need.

There should be plenty of checkout aisles so that long lines are avoided. Many people cannot bear long waits, and long checkout lines scare shoppers away from stores. Many stores are now using self-service checkout aisles, although they have not yet been completely accepted by shoppers. They are often confusing to use, and many shoppers find them impersonal. The old-fashioned human cashier is still popular in most retail outlets. Therefore, it is still considered mandatory for stores to have at least some full-service checkout lines manned by cashiers.

When a store is properly designed, shoppers have a pleasant experience and will want to return. This helps the bottom line of the store owner which is, of course, increased sales.

19. According to the article, which shoppers buy more?
(A) Those who have more money.
(B) Those who can reach high shelves.
(C) Those who feel comfortable in the store.
(D) Those who shop in the summer.

20. What does the article say about self-service checkout aisles?
(A) They are popular everywhere.
(B) They aren't always easy to use.
(C) They are personal.
(D) They are mandatory.

21. According to the article, what is the most important thing for a store owner?
(A) More sales.
(B) Lighting and music.
(C) Pleasant cashiers.
(D) Wide aisles.

22. The word behavior in line 2 is closest in meaning to

Dear Business Owner,

The Supply Closet, Inc., is a new office supply store in your neighborhood. We opened last month right across the street from the post office. We are your local source for quality office supplies, including all office stationery, packing materials, folders, pens, note pads, and more. We provide you with the everyday items you need to keep your business functioning smoothly. In order to introduce ourselves to you, we are enclosing a coupon for 20 percent off your entire purchase during your first visit to the Supply Closet. Please visit us soon.

Sincerely yours,

Martha and Bill Heywood
Owners

Coupon expires June 30.

Memo

To: Gisela Freeman
From: James Riley
Re: New supply store

Please see the attached letter from the Supply Closet, Inc. I think we should try them out. I know we maintain an account with the Riverdale Supply Company, but I am not completely satisfied with them as a source for supplies. I would like to find a supplier with more diverse merchandise. I'd like you to visit the Supply Closet sometime this week and purchase some stationery. We need to do a big mailing at the beginning of May, so we'll need some manila envelopes and letter paper. You can use the coupon that came with the letter. Look at the items they have for sale and see how it compares with the Riverdale Supply Company. If it looks like they're a better source for supplies, we can start ordering from them regularly. Thank you.

19. When did the Supply Closet open?
   (A) March.
   (B) April.
   (C) May.
   (D) June.

20. What can a customer get during his first visit to the store?
   (A) A free pen.
   (B) An introduction.
   (C) A discount.
   (D) A stamp.

21. Why doesn’t James Riley like the Riverdale Supply Company?
   (A) It’s too near the post office.
   (B) It doesn’t function smoothly.
   (C) It’s far from the neighborhood.
   (D) It doesn’t have a variety of merchandise.

22. The word smoothly in line 8 of the letter is closest in meaning to Questions 19–23 refer to the following letter.

April 15

Customer Service Department
Fleetwood Fashions
21986 North Featherstone Avenue
Hiawatha, MN

Dear Customer Service,

I am writing about an order I made from the Fleetwood Fashions catalog over a month ago, which I have not yet received. When I called to order two new purses and several spring shirts, the customer service representative assured me that there was sufficient inventory on hand to fulfill the order. He told me that it would be shipped before the end of the week and that I would receive it within ten days. When I still had not received the shipment after 14 days, I called the company. The customer service representative checked the ordering information on the computer, and we discovered that my address had not been accurately recorded. He promised to reshlep the order with my correct address and told me I would receive it within ten days. That was over two weeks ago, and I still have not received the shipment. I cannot understand this. Perhaps the carrier that you use is not reliable. In any case, I am tired of waiting for my order and would like to cancel it. I am not sure whether I will make an order from your company again. This is unfortunate since it is one of the few places that carry dresses and shoes in my size and at a reasonable price. However, this is the second time I have had a problem with an order, and I don’t want this to happen again. Please cancel my order #20857631. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Lucinda Walker

In a retail business, inventory has multiple meanings. Inventory means all the goods that a company has on hand or available to it in a warehouse. Inventory also means the process by which the business (1) _______________ the number of goods. An accurate account of the inventory available is (2) _______________. The amount of stock is a (3) _______________ because it is already owned by the business.

Taking an inventory is a physical count of the inventory holdings. Today, almost every business keeps a (4) _______________ inventory count by having its sales records tied by computer to its inventory. When a customer makes a purchase, the computer system tied to the register (5) _______________ the purchase from the inventory records. If a customer makes a return or an exchange, the inventory numbers will be (6) _______________ by the computer (7) _______________. That’s often why (8) _______________ the bar code is so important in stores. If merchandise is broken or damaged in the stockroom or on the sales floor, the manager will ask the sales and stock help to change the stock holdings to (9) _______________ the loss.

As good as the computer records may be, they are just an estimate. At least once a year, most businesses do an actual physical count of the inventory. This process can be (10) _______________ but it is necessary as there are always (11) _______________ between what the computer says you own and what your physical count says. Often stores close for a day, or at least close early, so that staff can perform the inventory without (12) _______________.

Part 7 Reading Comprehension

Questions 19–23 refer to the following memo.

To: All store staff
From: Bill Jones, manager
Re: Next week

This is a reminder that we will be closing the store for two days at the end of next week, Friday and Saturday, for inventory. This is a long and tedious job, and we will need the assistance of each and every one of you to get it done. Therefore, no vacation days will be granted during that time. During the inventory process, we will verify the numbers in our computer files, clear up any discrepancies we may find, and adjust our records as necessary. We need to make sure that our records accurately reflect the stock that we actually have on hand. When you report to work on Thursday, your supervisor will give you your assignment. Some of you will be required to work in the stockroom taking a physical count, and others will be asked to work in the office entering data on the computers. We won’t reopen the store until the following Tuesday since Monday is a national holiday. I hope that will give you a chance to rest up a bit after the big job. Thank you in advance for your assistance with this crucial work.

19. Why will the store close next week?
   (A) Everyone will be on vacation.
   (B) They need to count their stock.
   (C) The staff members need a rest.
   (D) There will be a computer training session.

20. Who will give the assignments?

Augusta, MD

Dear Customer Service Office,

I am a new customer at your bank. I opened an account with you last month, and I have recently received my first monthly statement. I find that there is a service charge on three of the checks that I wrote. I understood that this account had free checking, so I was surprised to see this charge. Perhaps it is a mistake. I am enclosing a copy of the statement. Please clarify this matter for me. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Marvin Gardner

August 3, 20-

Marvin Gardner
145 Merrywood Lane
Augusta, MD

Dear Mr. Gardner,

We recently received your letter asking about charges to your account. While it is true that your account has free checking, some restrictions apply. You may write five checks a month free of charge. After that, you must maintain a minimum average balance of $600 in your account in order to continue with free checking. Since your average account balance last month was only $435, you were entitled to only five free checks. A service charge was applied to the checks you wrote beyond that minimum. I hope this explanation is satisfactory to you.

Let me take this opportunity to make sure that you are aware of other services you can get with your account. You can arrange to have your monthly utility bills deducted from your account. You are also eligible to borrow small amounts of money from the bank at a low interest rate. If you are interested in these or any other services, please visit us at the bank, and an officer will be happy to explain all the details to you. Thank you for being a National Bank of Augusta customer.

Sincerely,

Eloise Lockwood
Customer Service Officer

19. Why did Mr. Gardner write this letter?
   (A) To pay his monthly utility bills.
   (B) To find out about borrowing money.
   (C) To ask a question about his monthly statement.
   (D) To order some free checks.

20. When did he open an account at the National Bank of Augusta?
   (A) May.
   (B) June.

Buzzi Accountants
128 Waterford Drive
New Hanover, VA

Dear Ms. Buzzi,

I have just found out that my tax records will be audited by the government. I would like to hire someone from your firm to help me prepare for this. I run a small editing business which I started five years ago. I initially took out a loan from the bank to get my business started. My business has always been profitable, and I was able to repay the loan quickly. As of now, my business has no outstanding debts. My staff is quite small. I started out with one assistant, who is still with me. As I built up my client list, I hired a second assistant, who is also still working for me. Thus, I have not had a problem with staff turnover. In short, you can see that my business and financial situation are quite stable.

I have always prepared my taxes carefully, and I keep thorough records. I imagine that this audit will be fairly routine. However, I want to be sure that I am correctly prepared for it, and I feel that hiring an accountant is the best route to take. Please call me so that we can discuss the matter. I can be reached at my office Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. One of my assistants is also usually in the office on Tuesdays and Thursdays and the occasional Saturday and will take messages for me.

I look forward to speaking with you.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Stein

19. Why does Mr. Stein want to hire an accountant?
   (A) To prepare his taxes.
   (B) To help with an audit.
   (C) To get him out of debt.
   (D) To help him stabilize his finances.

20. How many people work for Mr. Stein?
   (A) One.
   (B) Two.
   (C) Three.
   (D) Four.

21. When is Mr. Stein in his office?
   (A) Monday through Friday.
   (B) Tuesday and Thursday.
   (C) Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.
   (D) On occasional Saturdays.

Investment is a common, everyday occurrence. Companies (1) __________ time and money in finding and training their employees. Employees invest in their own training and education.

Financial investment takes place at a corporate level and at an individual level. Whether an individual or a company, a decision must be made on the percentage of (2) __________ to have invested and the percentage to have in cash.

To avoid making stupid decisions, many people use financial advisors. Financial advisors help individuals and corporations make (3) __________ investment decisions. What kind of portfolio should be maintained? What should be in this (4) __________

At what point should an investor pull back or (5) __________ of the market? What kind of (6) __________ should the investor realistically expect? How much risk can an investor take (both emotionally and financially)? Investors who are (7) __________ for the (8) __________ can more easily weather the ups and downs of a market. As one analyst commented, “If you’re staying awake at night thinking about the stock market, you probably have too much invested.”

Many employees have retirement plans at work. They decide what level of contribution to make to a certain (9) __________.

These decisions and large company decisions depend to a large degree on (10) __________. Is the decision maker (11) __________ or (12) __________? That attitude often depends on the age of the investor or on the stage and the needs of the business.

Part 6 Text Completion

Many people try to save money by acting as their own investment advisors. This is not usually considered to be a wise choice. In the long term, it can actually end up costing the investor more money because of poor investment decisions. A professional investment advisor understands investment options more thoroughly than the layperson ever could. A good investment advisor becomes familiar with her clients’ ______ toward investing and gives advice accordingly. The advisor makes certain recommendations to clients who are conservative investors and makes different recommendations to clients who prefer to invest more _______. The best way to create a strong investment ________ that matches your needs and preferred investing strategy is to work with a professional investment advisor.

Hi Amelia,

I wondered if you would give me the name of your investment advisor. My business is doing very well this year. In fact, I am now making a lot more money than I did when I had a job with a salary. I would prefer to invest my profits in the stock market as I'm sure I would earn more money that way than just letting it earn interest in a bank account. Of course, I want to invest wisely, so I am looking for professional advice. You know I tend to have a conservative attitude toward money, and I hope your advisor can help me make some safe investments. Please get back to me soon as I'd like to get started on this before the end of the month. Thanks.

Peter

Hi Peter,

I would be happy to help you out. As a matter of fact, I just talked with my investment advisor this morning, and she mentioned that she is looking for more clients. Her name is Susannah Oliveros. I have been working with her for several years and have always been satisfied. I have gotten good returns on the investments I have made with her. I will call you this afternoon, and we can discuss all the details then. I will also give you her phone number so you can call her tomorrow. I know you will like her.

Amelia

WORDS IN CONTEXT

Read the following passage and write the words in the blanks below.

Every year, my wife gathers all of our pay stubs and expense reports and (1) calculate to fill out our tax forms. She tries to finish them in March, well before the April 15th (2) deadline.

It’s a time-consuming process. There are receipts to find, records to organize, and forms to (3) file. When we first got married, we (4) joint prepare separate returns. But now she marks me as her (5) joint prepare and files the (6) joint prepare return. It saves us money and saves me time!

My wife is very proud of her accuracy. The government has never sent the forms back with corrections. For several years now, we have received a (7) refund. But this year, she (8) refund the numbers over and over again and found we had not paid enough taxes throughout the year. She didn’t want to (9) refund any money. Finally, she (10) refund and sent in our check. Actually, it was my fault. I had changed jobs and didn’t ask my employer to (11) refund enough money from my paychecks. I’m just glad we found and corrected the mistake before we got (12) refund.

Part 7 Reading Comprehension

Questions 19–23 refer to the following letter.

April 1, 20—

Mr. Roger Earnshaw
2943 Northern Boulevard
New Orange, NH

Dear Mr. Earnshaw,

Enclosed are your completed tax forms, which I have prepared for you at your request. I am sorry to report that you will not receive the $500 refund that you expected. Instead, my calculations show that you owe $450 in taxes, as well as an additional penalty of $45 for underpayment of taxes. The reason for this is that you and your spouse have chosen not to file your taxes jointly this year. You may want to reconsider this for the future since, as you can see, it is more costly for married couples to file separately. If you and your spouse wish to continue to file separately, you may want to ask your employer to withhold a greater amount from your paychecks so that you don’t end up owing money again next year. This will be even more important if you get the salary increase that you have been hoping for.

Write out a check for the taxes that you still owe and the penalty and mail it together with your tax forms before the April 15 deadline. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Kathleen O’Hara
CPA

WORDS IN CONTEXT

Read the following passage and write the words in the blanks below.

A business budget focuses on future profits and future capital requirements. A budget can help the business owner determine the amount of profit the business is expected to make, the amount of sales it will take to reach a goal, and what (1) _____________ of expenses are attached to those sales. A business establishes a (2) _____________, a goal to work toward. A business (3) _____________ the sales that will be needed to reach this target.

Projecting or planning ahead is part of (4) _____________ business planning. When creating a (5) _____________ income statement, a business owner tries to determine how to reach the (6) _____________ target. The annual profit must be sufficient to (7) _____________ the owner a return for his or her time spent operating the business, plus a return on the investment. The owner’s target income is the sum of a reasonable salary for the time spent running the business and a normal return on the amount invested in the firm.

After projecting the income needed, the business owner has to (8) _____________ the target profit into a net sales figure for the forecasted period. The owner has to determine whether this sales volume is (9) _____________ . One useful technique is to break down the required annual sales into a daily sales figure to get a better (10) _____________ of the sales required to yield the annual profit.

At this stage in the financial plan, the owner should create a (11) _____________ picture of the firm’s expected operating expenses. Many books and business organizations give (12) _____________ operating statistics data, based on a percentage of net sales. The business’s accountant can help you assign dollar values to anticipated expenses.

Developing a projected income statement is an important part of any financial plan, as the process forces the business owner to examine the firm’s future profitability.

18. (A) desire  (B) desires  (C) will desire  (D) have desired
Do you have a sound financial plan for your small business? You should. The majority of small businesses fail during the first five years, typically because they have not made realistic financial plans. A new business owner may start out with the necessary funds, a qualified staff, and office space and equipment. These things may not save the business from disaster, however, if the business owner hasn't set realistic targets and made plans to reach them. Everyone who contemplates starting a new business should sit down and write out all the details of a financial plan before doing anything else.

To: Shirley Haines
From: Matthew Rockwell
Subject: Financial planning
Attach: Financial Plans for Small Businesses

Shirley,

Have you seen the attached article on financial planning? It appeared in this week's issue of Small Business Owner magazine. It has given me a new perspective on things. I can't believe we have already been running our business for six months, but we still haven't sat down together to write out a financial plan. Overall, I believe our business is doing well, and we certainly have enough clients. But, I now understand that our future success depends on having a good financial plan. We need to project our earnings for the next year and set financial targets. We should get to work on this right away. Can we meet tomorrow afternoon? Three o'clock is a good time for me. Let me know soon.

Matthew

Questions 19–23 refer to the following memo.

Memo

To: All office staff
From: P. Windermere, Office Manager
Re: Parking situation

As you may be aware, starting next week, the parking garage will be closed for repairs to the upper level due to damage caused by the heavy rains last month. There will be no parking allowed on any level of the garage while the repairs are taking place, as parked cars may hamper the work. Cars parked in the garage will be towed at the owner’s expense. While the garage is closed, you may opt to park on the street or in the lot adjacent to the building. Remember that it is a private lot and a fee will be charged. I realize that the parking options will be limited, and I am open to any suggestions for solutions to this parking situation that any of you may have. Unfortunately, the repair work will take more than a few weeks. We cannot expect the garage to open again until two months from now. In the meantime, I thank you for your cooperation.

19. Why will the garage be closed?
   (A) It needs repairs.
   (B) The fees are too high.
   (C) Its parking options are limited.
   (D) Street parking is better.

20. What will happen to cars that are parked in the garage?
   (A) They will be charged a fee.
   (B) They will be repaired.
   (C) They will be towed.
   (D) They will be used for work.

21. When will the garage reopen?
   (A) In a week.
   (B) In just a few weeks.
   (C) In a month.
   (D) In two months.

To: Cynthia Weinstein
From: Samuel Lyon
Subject: Yesterday's meeting

Hello Cynthia,

We all missed you at yesterday’s meeting. We were concerned that a medical emergency prevented your attendance but are glad to know that you are all right now. The meeting went well, and we were able to adhere to the agenda for the most part. There was only one small change. Jean gave his presentation on finance right after Robert since he had to leave early. Your secretary faxed a copy of your report to me, and I read it in your place. There were a few questions which will be submitted to you by e-mail. The meeting was not lengthy at all. In fact, even though we had scheduled three hours for the entire meeting, we actually concluded half an hour earlier than that. You see how efficient we have become. A copy of the meeting minutes will be faxed to you before 5:00 today. I hope to speak with you soon.

Samuel

Customer Service Department
Flexco Women's Clothing
234502 Anthony Place
Woodston, NY 12229

Dear Customer Service,

I am writing to express my extreme dissatisfaction with a recent purchase of a Flexco garment. Last week I went to our local department store to buy a gift for my wife. I chose a very handsome Flexco raincoat and gave it to my wife on her birthday last Saturday. She was pleased with the gift and wore it yesterday because we had a big rainstorm. We were both surprised to find out that the raincoat is not water repellant at all. My wife returned from her walk very, very wet. In addition, the fabric of the coat became wrinkled in the rain. I bought the Flexco raincoat for my wife because Flexco is one of her favorite brands. She already owns several Flexco dresses, skirts, and blouses. We never expected to be disappointed by a Flexco product.

I took the raincoat back to the store this morning. The manager there said that he did not see any defects in the coat, but he offered me a different coat in exchange. Since I understand that Flexco guarantees a complete refund on all its products, I did not accept the manager's offer. I hope that Flexco will stand by its guarantee. I am returning the raincoat with this letter, together with the receipt from the department store, and hope to receive a complete refund before the end of the month. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Thomas Jamison

Part 7 Reading Comprehension

Questions 19–23 refer to the following e-mail message.

To: Ted Van Dorn
From: Bernadette Riley
Subject: Office space
Date: April 10

Ted,

I have found the solution to our office problems. I know that you have been wanting to get out of the neighborhood where our office is currently located, but that you have been apprehensive about the cost of renting in a better neighborhood. I have found an office downtown that I am sure we can afford. It is a bit smaller than our current space, but I think it will be big enough. The best part is, the rent is the same as we are paying now. This is due to the fact that the office is not in excellent condition. However, I think it will be easy for us to paint it and make a few small repairs. The space will be available for occupancy on the fifteenth of next month. We have the option of signing a one- or two-year lease, so we won’t have to lock ourselves into a long-term contract. However, in order to get the low rent, we have to sign by the thirtieth of this month. If you are interested in this, I can arrange for you to see the space this weekend. Let me know as soon as possible.

Bern

The Mountain View Restaurant is a charming dinner location that just opened up in Falls Village. The menu provides an interesting mix of both meat and vegetarian entrées. The chef, who trained in Paris, has introduced some exotic dishes such as Octopus Soufflé and Three Tuber Salad. For the less daring diner, the menu also abounds in such familiar choices as Baked Chicken and Pepper Crusted Steak. Whether you choose to rely on a familiar dish or decide to experiment with something exotic, you are sure to be delighted with your meal. All the selections I tasted were delicious, and the prices are quite reasonable. Don't forget to leave room for dessert. I especially suggest the chocolate cake. It's the best in town. Unfortunately, the charm of the menu selections is not matched by the charm of the décor. It is rather drab and uninspiring. If you visit the inn on a weekend evening, arrive by 6:00 since the restaurant does not take reservations, and it is difficult to get a table after 7:00 unless you are willing to wait half an hour or more.

19. What is the reviewer's opinion of the restaurant?
(A) The prices are too high.
(B) The food is very good.
(C) The décor is exotic.
(D) The menu is boring.

20. What does the reviewer recommend ordering?
(A) Octopus soufflé.

Memo

To: All department staff
From: J. Holtzman, Manager
Re: Ordering Lunch

It has long been the practice in this department to order lunch to be served during department meetings. While this is a custom we all enjoy, it has become a _________ on our budget. Therefore, I have developed the following guidelines for ordering meeting lunches.

- We cannot afford to constantly order elegant lunches. Please limit your orders to common, everyday lunch choices such as sandwiches and salads.
- There are many restaurants in the area that offer take-out lunches. I will _________ the choices down to three or four places that have reasonable prices, then let you know which they are. Please order only from the restaurants on the approved list.
- We will no longer pay for delivery. All lunch orders must be _________ up in person.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

At the Broad Street Eatery, we offer a tempting range of soups, sandwiches, and salads for the discerning eater.

We specialize in take-out orders. Call ahead for pick up.

We also offer free delivery on all orders over $30. (There is a 10 percent delivery charge on smaller orders.)

To: Molly Anderson
From: Jerry Pinsky
Subject: New restaurant

Hi Molly,

Have you heard about the Broad Street Eatery? It’s that new place that opened up last month just around the corner. I think we should order the lunch for Friday’s meeting from there. Some of the menu choices look quite elegant and I’m sure will impress our clients. Best of all, the prices are quite reasonable. I’ll send you a list later of what I want you to order. Since the order will be large, I think you should call it in the day before the meeting. I’m sure we’ll qualify for the free delivery, so you won’t have to worry about picking it up. That will lighten your burden a bit. Thanks for your help with this.

To: Prisca Haines
From: Peter Richards
Subject: Event room
Date: September 22

Dear Ms. Haines,

I saw the ad for event rooms at the Starlight Hotel in the Weston Daily News of September 20th. I am coordinating our company's annual awards banquet, which will be held on the 18th of next month. We would like to stage a simple but elegant affair. We don't expect more than about 75–85 guests. We would like to have a dinner followed by speeches and presentations of awards. Other than that, we don't plan to have any special entertainment. I would like to discuss the menu with you. Ideally, we would like to provide our guests with a choice of a meat entrée and a vegetarian entrée. I would like to know if your hotel kitchen can provide that, and which dishes you would specifically recommend.

Please call me before the weekend to discuss planning this event. I can be reached at 953-0855. Thank you.

Peter Richards

Questions 19–23 refer to the following two e-mail messages.

To: Mark Wallaby
From: Belinda Tuttle
Subject: Re: Amazon Tours

Dear Mr. Wallaby,

Thank you for the information on trips to the Amazon. Unfortunately, I cannot change the dates of my vacation because of my work situation. The end of the year is a very busy time for accountants, and I will have a lot of work to deal with as soon as I return from my trip. On the other hand, I don't really need to economize, so I am flexible about the expense. The exact destinations don't really matter either. I will be happy just to visit that part of the world. So please keep looking and let me know what you find. Thank you for your efforts.

Belinda Tuttle

Gisela Fried
Springflower Radford Hotel
2857 King Street
Hartsdale, WI

Dear Ms. Fried,

I am writing to let you know of the excellent service I received from your staff during my recent stay at the Springflower Radford Hotel. Although I had made an advance reservation for my stay, I had forgotten to confirm it. Thus, when I checked in at the hotel, there were no rooms available of the type I had wanted. Your kind and professional staff immediately found another, more luxurious room for me. Although it was more expensive than the room I had reserved, they charged me the rate I had originally been quoted.

The excellent service continued throughout my stay and, indeed, exceeded my expectations. For example, the housekeeper cheerfully arrived to clean my room at 10:00 one evening after I had had problems with the bathtub overflowing. The staff at the front desk were always ready to answer my questions and were very helpful in assisting me to find my way around the city. All in all, my stay at the hotel was a very pleasant experience. I will certainly recommend this hotel to any of my friends who plan a visit to Hartsdale in the future.

Sincerely,

Andrew Wyatt

Dear Mr. Wyatt,

Thank you very much for your letter of June 10 notifying me of the fine service you received during your stay at the Springflower Radford Hotel. I am pleased to know that you had such a good experience as our guest. We at the Radford Hotel chain pride ourselves on the high quality of our service. As the hotel manager, I sometimes hear complaints about my staff, but it is just as important for me to hear about the fine work that they do.

I am enclosing a coupon for the hotel restaurant so that the next time you stay with us, you can enjoy a meal free of charge at the Springflower Restaurant.

Sincerely,

Gisela Fried

Will your next trip involve a rental car? With a little careful planning, you can prevent some common headaches. If your travel plans coincide with a holiday, you need to plan well ahead of time. Car rental agencies are very busy at such times, and you won't be guaranteed a car unless you make your reservation well in advance. Contact the car rental agency and specify the kind of car you want and the dates you will need it. It's a good idea to call the agency again shortly before you begin your trip to confirm your reservation. This is the best way to avoid disappointment.

Another common problem that car renters face is extra charges. Some agencies add charges for options without letting the renter know about them. Sometimes renters aren't aware of this until they receive their credit card bill. Read the contract carefully before you sign it to make sure that you are paying only for what you requested. And don't be tempted to pay for things you don't need. It might be fun to drive a large, luxury car, but if you are traveling alone and are on a budget, it probably isn't worth paying for such a car.

Part 7 Reading Comprehension

Questions 19–23 refer to the following movie review and e-mail message.

The newly released romantic comedy, West Wind, opens this week at the State Street Cinema. The combination of a great script with superb acting talent results in a movie that you won’t soon forget. The show is entertaining from start to finish, and you’ll still be laughing when you leave the theater. If you’ve been bored to tears by movies recently, don’t give up on the cinema yet. Give West Wind a try. You’re sure to love it.

West Wind continues at the State Street Cinema through next week with shows at 5:15, 7:00, and 9:15 nightly.

To: Madeline Wrightwood
From: Dan Green
Subject: Let’s go to the movies

Hi Maddy,

Did you see the review in today’s paper of West Wind? I think it’s worth seeing. I don’t usually go for romances, but you know how I love comedies, and the description of this one sounds really good. There’s also an action movie playing next door, but I know you don’t like that kind of movie, and I don’t really, either.

I can’t leave work before 5:15, so we should go to the second show. I’d like to invite you to have dinner afterwards. I can make reservations at that restaurant you like for 9:00. We should make it there by then easily. Since we’ll each be coming from work, we’ll have to arrive at the theater separately. If you get there first, would you mind getting the tickets? Thanks. See you tonight.

Dan

19. What is the reviewer’s opinion of the movie?
(A) It’s sad.
(B) It’s boring.
(C) It’s funny.

Hi Jack,

I just saw that play that opened recently at the City Theater. You really ought to see it, too. I know you would enjoy the experience. The play combines ________ from both comedy and drama, so it's funny, but it also has an important message. Some people say this play is boring because there isn't a lot of action, but I think the ________ is very creative. The actors say some really funny lines. The whole performance is superb; you can tell that the actors rehearsed a long time before the play opened. You should call the theater today to get a ticket because they will probably sell ________ soon. Let me know how you like the play.

Part 7 Reading Comprehension

Questions 19–23 refer to the following theater review.

Audiences have waited a long time for the opening of the play Dusk to Dawn at the City Theater. Unfortunately, the long wait only adds to the disappointment of seeing a mediocre play. It is an uncomfortable experience from start to finish. The action is slow and the dialogue boring. The performance by most of the cast is awkward and, on the night I attended at least, many of the actors forgot their lines. They obviously did not rehearse enough before opening night. The plot is trite. Theatergoers had been told to expect a fresh approach to the age-old boy-meets-girl romance story. Instead, we get a story that is dull enough to drive one to tears. Although the play is relatively short—under two hours—the performance is so tedious it seems to drag on for three or four hours. The audience made an audible sigh of relief when the final curtain dropped. Rather than the predicted sold-out performances, I expect that the play will close very shortly. Unfortunately, the producers invested a lot of money in this play, which they are not likely to get back. My advice to would-be theatergoers: spend the weekend at the movies instead.

19. What is the reviewer’s opinion of the play?
   (A) It’s very sad.
   (B) It’s boring.
   (C) It’s too short.
   (D) It’s romantic.

20. How long is the play?
   (A) Less than two hours.
   (B) Exactly two hours.
   (C) Three hours.
   (D) Four hours.

21. What does the reviewer predict about the play?
   (A) The performances will be sold out.
   (B) The producers will make a lot of money.
   (C) The play will be made into a movie.
   (D) The play will close in a short time.

22. The word experience in line 5 is closest in meaning to

Part 7 Reading Comprehension

Questions 19–23 refer to the following review and e-mail message.

We were fortunate to have internationally acclaimed violinist Maria Rogoff play at Symphony Hall last Saturday night. Ms. Rogoff appears to have been born with a musical instinct. She played her violin quite naturally, as if it were an old friend. The selection of pieces she played was superb. She favored lively, interesting pieces that kept the audience enthralled during the entire performance. All in all, it was a thoroughly enjoyable and relaxing evening. Music lovers everywhere are urged to hear Ms. Rogoff play anytime there is an opportunity.

To: Polly Andrews
From: Gus Hall
Subject: Concert

Hi Polly,

Did you see the review of Maria Rogoff’s concert in the Sunday paper? Can you believe they gave her such a good review? I didn’t agree at all with what the reviewer said about her selection of pieces. In fact, I thought quite the opposite. And she made several mistakes in her playing. Did you notice? Oh, well. I prefer cello music anyhow. It is much more to my taste. Maybe that’s the real reason I didn’t enjoy the concert. By the way, there is another concert this Friday. A pianist will be playing at Symphony Hall. Do you want to go? I am pretty sure there are still tickets available. I think there is a performance on Thursday, too, but I have a meeting that night. Let me know if you can make it, and I’ll order the tickets.

Gus

Part 7 Reading Comprehension

Questions 19–23 refer to the following brochure.

Most visitors to our city spend time visiting some of the many museums that we are famous for. The City Art Museum, Museum of History, National University Museum of Scientific Research, and the Hall of Presidents are among the most popular destinations for museumgoers. The National Transportation Museum, currently undergoing renovations, is scheduled to reopen next year with a larger number of exhibits and extended hours.

Visitors to the City Art Museum can admire the collection of paintings by local artists as well as famous art works from around the world. The museum’s collection covers a wide spectrum of artists and styles, and critics have called it one of the most significant in the world. Art classes offered at the museum provide both the serious and the casual student of art with opportunities to explore the world of artistic expression. The Museum of History features rotating exhibits focusing on various aspects of our nation’s history, and a permanent collection of portraits of our nation’s presidents. This summer’s special exhibit focuses on the history of fashion. The National University Museum of Scientific Research specializes in exhibits on research undertaken at the university. It also features a special hands-on exhibit for children.

All museums have the same entrance price: $10 for adults and $5 for children. A special $35 weekly pass, available at any museum, allows the holder entrance to all city museums for a week. This pass is especially recommended to visitors from out of town as it provides the opportunity to visit all the museums at leisure.

19. Who is this brochure for?

Part 7 Reading Comprehension

Questions 19–23 refer to the following two letters.

April 12, 20—
Michelle Richards
News Story Weekly
346 Howard Avenue
White River, NH

Dear Ms. Richards,

I am a journalist and an avid reader of News Story Weekly. It has long been my dream to write for your magazine. I graduated from National University a year ago with a degree in journalism. For the past six months I have been working as an investigative reporter for the Bluefield Daily, my hometown newspaper. This newspaper is disseminated throughout the state. I work on assignments involving local politics.

In my opinion, News Story Weekly is the top news magazine in the country. It has had a great impact on my life. I started reading it at an early age, and it inspired me to pursue a career as a reporter. If there is a position available for a reporter at News Story Weekly, I would be interested in applying for it. I believe that my educational background and work experience qualify me for such a position. I am enclosing several of my articles that appeared in the Bluefield Daily as writing samples. I have letters of reference available if you need them. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Mark Conway

April 19, 20—
Mark Conway

Dear Mr. Conway,

Thank you for your letter of April 12 inquiring about a position as a reporter. We are constantly looking for reporters to work for our magazine, and we currently have an opening for a reporter to cover regional news. You seem to be well-qualified, and we would welcome your application. I would need to see your reference letters as well as a resume. The closing date for this position is May 15. We will make our choice after that date and let you know what we decide by the first of June. Thank you for your interest in News Story Weekly.

Sincerely,

Michelle Richards

Part 7 Reading Comprehension

Questions 19–23 refer to the following article.

Caring for Your Health

Your health is one of your most valuable assets, so caring for it properly is very important. Regular visits to the doctor can help prevent any health problems from becoming serious. You should visit your doctor annually if you are in good health. If you have certain health conditions or if your doctor recommends it, you may need more frequent appointments.

It is important to have a doctor you can trust. The best way to find one is to get a recommendation from a trustworthy person such as a friend or relative. Call to make an appointment several weeks or even a month ahead of time. When you call, you can also ask a few questions about the doctor's background, such as which university he got his degree from and how long he has been practicing in the area. You will also want to find out which hospital the doctor is affiliated with. When you arrive for your appointment, make sure you bring a copy of your medical records with you.

When you meet with the doctor, you will want to ask him what his approach to treatment is and what diagnostic tools he uses. This way you can find out something about his skills, as well as whether or not he is a person you can talk to and feel comfortable with. Also, take a look around the office. Is it comfortable and organized? Do the instruments look clean and well-maintained?

If your appointment goes well and you feel comfortable with the doctor, then don’t forget to make an appointment for your next physical before you leave the office. If you have any doubts, look around for another doctor. Having a good doctor is an essential part of your health care plan.

Peter,

Take a look at the attached ad. I think we should order a few things. I like the lighted mirrors and probably could use five or six sets, but maybe it’s better to spend no more than $300 on them for now, so I can see how well they work first. We probably need the upgrade for the record keeping software, too. It will help you stay caught up with the patient records. I think we could do without those CDs, though, don’t you? We do better with the radio. You might as well go ahead and order paper, envelopes, and anything else you need for the front office at the same time.

Thanks,

Barbara

Part 7 Reading Comprehension

Questions 19–23 refer to the following two e-mail messages.

To: Annabelle Pope
From: Henry Rice
Subject: Surgery

Hi Annabelle,

I was wondering if you could help me out with something. My doctor has recommended that I get knee replacement surgery. I am trying to identify the best hospital for this sort of procedure. My doctor says she usually recommends City Hospital, but I have heard that Upstate Hospital specializes in this kind of surgery. You had a similar procedure last year, didn’t you? I think you broke your knee, or was it your elbow? Which hospital did you go to? Were you satisfied with the results of your treatment, and were you well cared for by the staff? I would appreciate the benefit of your advice. I need to make a decision soon since my doctor thinks this should be done before another month goes by. Thanks.

Henry

To: Henry Rice
From: Annabelle Pope
Subject: Re: Surgery

Hi Henry,

I am sorry you need surgery, but I am sure you will feel it is worth it. I had my procedure done at Upstate Hospital, and I would recommend that place to anyone. The procedure I had was similar to yours, except it was my hip, not my knee. My surgeon was excellent, and I received good care from all the staff. The mission of the hospital is to provide the highest level of care possible, and the entire staff works hard to fulfill that mission. I was originally told that I would need to be in the hospital for a week, but when it became clear that I wouldn’t be recovered enough by that time, the doctor didn’t hesitate to keep me there for an extra three days. They wouldn’t permit me to go home until they were sure I was ready. I really think Upstate is the best hospital for your surgery. Let me know when it is scheduled, and I will visit you there.

Part 7 Reading Comprehension

Questions 19–23 refer to the following article.

Many people don’t realize that their pharmacist is an important member of their health care team. If you always fill you prescriptions at the same pharmacy, then you will have a pharmacist who is familiar with your medical issues and can detect any possible problems with your medications. In fact, it is a good idea to volunteer information about medications you are already taking when you visit a new pharmacist. Then, she can add this information to your records and have a complete file of information. She can monitor the drugs you are taking and let you know of any potential interactions or harmful side effects.

If cost is an issue for you, your pharmacist can help. Ask her if there are any less expensive brands of your medication available. Or, you can request that she fill only half the prescription, to give you a chance to try out the medication before paying for the entire amount. You can also ask your doctor for a few free samples. Once you have ascertained that the prescribed medication is working for you, you can go ahead and ask your pharmacist to fill the prescription for you. When you pick up your prescription, don’t forget to ask the pharmacist to explain to you how to take it if you have any doubts. She can also supply you with written instructions.

Your pharmacist can provide you with important support, but there is a limit to what she can do. If you suspect that you have a problem that requires medical attention, you should always consult your doctor right away.

19. What is the purpose of this article?
   (A) To explain the role of a pharmacist.
   (B) To help select medications.

Tapescript for the Listening Comprehension Exercises

LESSON 1

(A) The signers are having a party.
(B) The men are signing an agreement.
(C) The provisions are in the cabinet.
(D) The cancelled flight is on the tarmac.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
You were engaged when you bought the car, right?
(A) Yes, it's in the cage by the cart.
(B) No, my fiancé can't drive.
(C) We bought the car in March.

Number 3.
Haven't you resolved that problem yet?
(A) We're working on it.
(B) We have both letters.
(C) You have my assurance.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] Do you think we will ever resolve our difficulties with the computer company? They keep charging us for extra services that they haven't provided.

[W] They've assured me several times that they will correct our bills, but they haven't done it yet.

[M] Last month they charged us for repair services that we never ordered. Maybe we should cancel their services now and find another provider.

[W] No, we signed an agreement to use their services for only a year. There's just two months left on that contract, then we can sign with a different company.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

The last provision in the contract states that if either party determines it is in his best interest to cancel the contract, he is obligated to inform the other immediately of his intention. If you both agree, we can specify that the canceling party must communicate his intent at least thirty days prior to cancellation. All the rest seems to be in order. I can have my assistant write up the agreement and have it ready for the two of you to sign at the end of the week.

(A) The clerk is competing with others.
(B) The shoppers are comparing prices.
(C) The man is not attracting a crowd.
(D) The consumer is convincing the sales person.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Aren't pop-up ads on the Internet just a fad?
(A) No, they're here to stay.
(B) I put up with a lot.
(C) She's not fat.

Number 3.
Was the customer satisfied with our work?
(A) Satisfaction is guaranteed.
(B) Very.
(C) I found a new customer today.
Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[W] With a new store opening across the street, we'll have to work harder to compete in our market. We need to attract more customers to our store and our products.

[M] Perhaps our ads could show some of our satisfied customers and have them talk about their experiences shopping with us. Ads like that are often persuasive.

[W] What an inspired idea. Let's get to work on it right away. I'll call a photographer to come over and shoot pictures of people shopping in our store.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

To attract new customers, we must first convince them that we offer something worthwhile. We need to inspire them to try our services, just once, so that they can make their own comparison. Their experience will persuade them that we are better than the competition. But what is it that we offer that makes us unique? What do you think we offer that the competition does not? We will discuss these questions during our workshop this afternoon, but our task doesn't stop there. When you go home tonight, I want each of you to think about how you can best promote our company's products, so that when you meet with our store clients you give us the best representation possible.

(A) They're considering purchasing the bag.
(B) They're protecting their dog.
(C) They're covering the carpet.
(D) They're checking the expiration date.

Part 2: Question—Response

Number 2.
When does the warranty expire?
(A) I always check the warranty.
(B) Three years from date of purchase.
(C) That's the implication.

Number 3.
What are the consequences of not registering your purchase?
(A) If you don't register, you won't receive any recall notices.
(B) Consequently, we quit the company.
(C) Our company purchased more this year than last.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] Your car comes with a basic one-year, thirty-thousand-mile warranty, but you might want to consider purchasing a two-year, sixty-thousand-mile extended warranty. Both guarantee full protection as long as you have the car serviced by an approved mechanic.

[W] What are the consequences if I choose not to use an approved mechanic?

[M] The terms of the warranty require you to choose a mechanic from our approved list in order to be covered.

[W] Then I'll use an approved mechanic for now, but I won't purchase the extended warranty. Then I can use my own mechanic when the basic warranty expires.
Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

We frequently receive items that are still under warranty, but we don’t automatically repair them. Don’t forget: a warranty is only valid if the product has been used according to the manufacturer’s directions. Oftentimes a buyer will drop a machine or use it for something other than what it’s intended for. Consequently, they’re not covered. A common characteristic of this type of return is that it’s cracked or smashed, or shows an unusual pattern of wear. Remember, we promise our customers that all our products will operate smoothly every time when handled according to the directions enclosed in each package. All defective products returned within thirty days of purchase will get a complete refund. Products returned after that time are sent to us for repair.

(A) The managers are planning a strategy.
(B) The president is dressing for dinner.
(C) The primary shape is round.
(D) The demonstrators are avoiding the meeting.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Have you addressed the cost of infrastructure in your business plan?
(A) Those costs are all factored in.
(B) No, we can’t dress so casually.
(C) These structures are higher than we had planned.

Number 3.
In what ways has the restaurant grown or developed?
(A) Its own vegetables in the back gardens.
(B) It’s now a national chain.
(C) It is taller and stronger.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[W] Alexa is developing a business plan. I told her you might be able to help her with the market research.

[M] I’d be happy to offer to help with that. I’m very proud of her. Going into business for yourself can be risky but very rewarding.

[W] I know she is very serious about careful planning to avoid making obvious mistakes.

[M] Yes, she has the right approach. The most important strategy for success is to start with a sound business plan.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Now let’s turn to page seventeen of the business plan. This section addresses our strategy for long-term development of the company. In order to minimize risk over the long haul, we hope to grow only as quickly as the company can support. In other words, we want to avoid more borrowing so that the primary funding for growth comes from profits. We believe that this is the best way to develop a strong company that will not be seriously harmed by temporary downturns in the market. On page eighteen you will see our evaluation method outlined. The first phase of the evaluation of our business plan is set to begin early next year.

(A) The attendees are registering at the desk.
(B) The organizers are selecting a podium.
(C) The banquet room is overcrowded.
(D) The participants are attending a session.
Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
How many will attend the conference?
(A) On Thursday.
(B) At least one hundred folks.
(C) We’ve made the arrangements.

Number 3.
Was the room overcrowded?
(A) No, the crowd waited.
(B) That, and hot, too.
(C) The room was number two hundred twelve.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] Has the committee selected a site for our conference next year?

[W] Not yet. It’s difficult to find a site that can accommodate a group of our size. We don’t want our sessions to be overcrowded.

[M] That’s true. And if our projections are correct, we can expect around 500 people to attend. But we need to have a site selected by the end of next month.

[W] We have some possibilities in mind. We’ll know soon if any of them will work out.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

All conference facilities need to provide reasonable accommodation for people with disabilities. Disabled individuals need to be able to take part in every session that is being offered. In case a session is held in an off-site location, we are not responsible for providing accommodation. But for any event held at our facility, we need to make the necessary arrangements for disabled participants. Most areas of our facility are handicapped accessible, but in some situations we need to make further accommodations. For example, conference planners are asked to get in touch with us ahead of time if any attendees will require special interpreters for the hearing impaired. To facilitate this, conference planners usually ask attendees to request interpreters at the time that they register for the conference.

(A) The computers are in the display window.
(B) The duplicate photos are on the table.
(C) The computers are shut down.
(D) The programs are deleted.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Have you shut down your computer yet?
(A) It’s still on.
(B) I just got my computer last week.
(C) Here’s the showdown.

Number 3.
Do you want to duplicate it, or delete it?
(A) Oh, I definitely need a copy.
(B) I’ll do it double time.
(C) Deleted files go into the recycle bin.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] I can’t figure this out. When I tried to access my e-mail program, the monitor went black.

[W] It sounds like there’s a problem with the display.

[M] Let me shut down the computer and then try one more time.

[W] If that fails to work, you should call in a repairperson right away. You shouldn’t ignore a problem like this.
Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

I strongly urge you to read the manual before attempting to run this software program. You may be tempted to ignore this advice. But I'm warning you all: it is not likely that you will be able to figure out this program on your own. This is especially important for owners of our competitors' products that aren't compatible with this program. Your computer could crash or shut down without warning. In fact, when you start working with this program, make sure you have duplicate files so, in case of system failure, you will not lose your work. Remember, if your system fails, all your files could be deleted. But if you have duplicated the files onto a CD, you will have no trouble accessing them when you need them.

(A) He's using the computer keyboard.
(B) He's reducing the size of his office.
(C) He's stocking the supplies.
(D) He's signing his initials on his desk.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Do you think we can afford the additional support?
(A) Office morale seems fine.
(B) It's already in the budget.
(C) They're in stock.

Number 3.
Who's in charge of the fax machine?
(A) It has twice the capacity.
(B) The warranty has expired.
(C) The office manager stays on top of it.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] As part of the company's cost-saving initiative, we must have approval on all new purchases.

[W] Who will be in charge of approvals?

[M] Each of the department heads has been asked to stay on top of purchases. All purchase orders will have to be signed by one of them.

[W] Well, that's annoying. I just can't see it as a good idea. It adds one more step to the ordering process and could cause delays.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

We have had a few problems with ordering these units on an as-needed basis. The first problem is that nobody seems to take the initiative to place the order with the provider. That's because when they're ordering just one recorder, they feel it isn't worth their time. So even though their need is recurring, they don't feel that the effort is justified. Here's where a more aggressive provider could help us out, by anticipating our needs and staying on top of them. In fact, I have looked into the matter and discovered a provider that could meet this need. It's the John Able and Sons Company. I don't know if any of you are familiar with them. Their products are quite affordable. I suggest we look into making our orders from this company in the future.

(A) The crew is cleaning the glass.
(B) The workers are not dressed casually.
(C) The golfers are practicing their game.
(D) The waiters are bringing in food.
Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Can young workers really appreciate what it meant to publish a book before computers were around?
(A) They are thankful.
(B) Our youngest employee is a published author.
(C) Of course they can't.

Number 3.
What is silicon made of?
(A) The sale is still on.
(B) We’re out of intercons.
(C) Sand.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] I appreciate the fact that you have taken time out of your schedule to come and talk to me.

[W] I want to make sure that you understand the practices of the company.

[M] It seems difficult for other employees to give me a verbal explanation of the practices, although they definitely are familiar with them.

[W] Everything is outlined in writing in the Employee Handbook. You can look through that later to reinforce what we will talk about today.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

This training is designed to reinforce and strengthen your current computer skills. We really don’t have the time to introduce these programs from the start, and we’ll only have limited time for practice today. What we want to do is verbally cover the main functions of the program and make sure that you’re all exposed to some of the features of the newer version. So, at least you’ll get a glimpse of what the newer version of the program has to offer. OK, let’s get started. I promised to finish before noon, when lunch will be served for everyone in the board room.

(A) The calculators are stored in the closet.
(B) The computers are linked by a network.
(C) The technician is replacing a part.
(D) The worker is reading the software manual.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
How long will it take to replace the hard drive?
(A) Hard drives are expensive.
(B) Our technicians have the skills, don’t worry.
(C) A few hours.

Number 3.
Can you understand the technical section?
(A) That’s good advice, thanks.
(B) I hope so—I’m the technician.
(C) On page thirteen.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[W] Unfortunately, I don’t have the skills to retrieve this file, and I really need it. I was counting on using it to complete my project proposal.

[M] Maybe I can help you out. I’m new at this too, but I do know a few things. Are your files stored on the network?

[W] No, they’re stored on the company ftp site.

[M] Yes, there’s a special process you have to use, but I’m not sure I can figure it out. You’d better ask someone in the IT department to help you.
Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Downloading software is a simple process. You can download a file from a remote server, or you can simply download it from the company network. Once you’ve done it, you’ll see how easy the process is. It really takes no technical skills and, indeed, everyday folks do it every day. Today we are going to practice downloading software from a web site. To facilitate the process, I have outlined the steps here on this chart. If you get lost, just look up here and follow the steps. Technically speaking, this is a very simple process. Now, you all have your computers turned on and connected to the Internet, right? Then the next thing you’ll do is type in the following web address.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] I have the documents for tomorrow’s meeting all ready. I proofed them last night and copied them this morning. Now all I need is your help in assembling them.

[W] You should have asked me beforehand. I’m too busy to do it now.

[M] I mentioned to you that I would need your help today. These have to be finished before the end of the afternoon.

[W] I’m sorry, but I don’t remember your mentioning it. Why don’t you ask my assistant to help you with the folding and stapling?

LESSON 10

(A) He’s assembling a car.
(B) He’s folding the newspaper in half.
(C) He’s reviewing his correspondence.
(D) He’s petitioning for a raise.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Did you send the letter by registered mail?
(A) Registration fees are paid in advance.
(B) Yes, and I sent it express.
(C) Nobody revised it.

Number 3.
Have you ever worked in assembly before?
(A) The workers assembled outside.
(B) I worked in layout and design.
(C) I used to assemble electronic cards.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Tired of waiting in line? Try our new express, self-service Courier Center. You can purchase stamps, weigh parcels, look up ZIP codes, even send registered mail. The Courier Center is located in the lobby at the Fourth Street entrance. It’s open from six A.M. until eight P.M. daily. Closed Sunday. Postal staff are always on hand to show you how to use the services. Mention this announcement to them and receive a free city-wide ZIP code directory.

(A) The job profile is posted on the board.
(B) The qualifications are listed on the wall.
(C) The harvest this season is abundant.
(D) The candidate is checking the job listings in the newspaper.
Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Which candidate mentioned her father's fish boat?
(A) The first one.
(B) She fishes for a living.
(C) Her father sells oats.

Number 3.
What recent accomplishment are you most proud of?
(A) I need to resend this package.
(B) I won the employee-of-the-month award in May.
(C) I found it most time-consuming.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] Have you come up with any ideas for finishing your job search?

[W] It's been very time-consuming and draining, but I think it's finally coming to an end. And it's about time, too. I've been at this for five months now.

[M] Does this mean that you've found the job that's the perfect match?

[W] Maybe. I'm very hopeful about a position I interviewed for yesterday. I know I have all the qualifications.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Candidates are asked to submit a current résumé and letter of interest. Your résumé should list your qualifications for the job you are applying for. It should also list specific accomplishments in past jobs or in school. Your letter of interest should also outline your long-term career goals. If you bring together a picture of your past, your current goals, and your future, your profile will be more cohesive to our hirers. We are currently recruiting for entry-level positions in our accounting department. Salaries are competitive and commensurate with experience.

(A) The applicant is called in for an interview.
(B) The expert is putting on his coat.
(C) The sick cat is hiding its weakness.
(D) The room is ready for a party.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Can I mail in this application?
(A) Yes, the address is on the last page.
(B) It's not applicable.
(C) It doesn't apply here.

Number 3.
Are you ready for the written test?
(A) The test is administered by computer.
(B) My score was sent in the mail.
(C) Not quite, I don't have a pencil.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[W] Do you remember the first time I applied for a job? I had absolutely no confidence in myself.

[M] And look where you are now—a widely respected expert in the field of computer networks.

[W] Isn't it interesting how we change and grow. I was hesitant to go on my first job interview because I didn't think I could present myself well. I was sure no one would hire me.

[M] And now you're asked to speak at conferences all over the country. In fact, I'd like to ask you to help me out with planning a workshop I have to give next week.
Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Thank you for calling the Salvo Human Resources Department Job Hotline.

Salvo is currently looking to hire people with a background in Asian Languages as well as software design. To hear about this special opportunity, press one. To listen to job descriptions for all of our current job openings, press two. To request an application, press three. To follow up on your application status, press four. To learn the location of a Salvo Employment Presentation in a city near you, press five. Please have a pen and paper by the phone and be ready to record the relevant information.

(A) The conductor is signaling the train.
(B) The trainer is conducting a session.
(C) The applicant is setting up an interview.
(D) The employees are rejecting the contract.

Part 2: Question-Response

Number 2.

You don't think this will generate a lot of extra paperwork, do you?

(A) No. In fact, I think it will reduce paperwork.
(B) Yes, the papers have arrived.
(C) I already turned on the generator.

Number 3.

Do you think that Lena looks up to Virginia?

(A) Lena's application was rejected.
(B) Virginia was her mentor, so it's natural that she would.
(C) The team will update us on Thursday.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] How has the week of training gone so far? I've been concerned that the group is too big.

[W] We do have a large group of trainees, but we've been able to stay on track and get a lot accomplished.

[M] Everyone is commenting on the amount of excitement that your program has generated.

[W] Yes, we're quite pleased with our success so far. Well, I have to get going. I need to set up the meeting room for this afternoon's session. See you later.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Welcome to our first annual mentors training program. You have been selected by your coworkers for this program because they look up to you. And that's an honor. So congratulations to all of you for being here. Today we're going to start by generating a list of characteristics that make a successful mentor. I'd like you all to take a few minutes to think back to a mentor you've known or worked with. What made that person a good mentor? In order to stay on track with our schedule, we'll take no more than five minutes for this first activity. So, please begin listing your ideas now, and when I say stop it will be time to share with the group.

(A) The woman is raising her salary.
(B) The workers are negotiating their pay.
(C) The retiree is being honored.
(D) The lunch hour is flexible.
Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.

Who is eligible to participate in the retirement plan?
(A) She has already retired.
(B) Employees who've been with us for at least three months.
(C) You need to be aware of these benefits.

Number 3.

When will I get a raise?
(A) Your first salary review will be in six months.
(B) Lift it a little bit higher, please.
(C) Usually four to six percent of your current salary.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] We can't seem to make ends meet with my hourly wage.

[W] I think it's time for you to ask for a raise.

[M] I don't want to ask for too much compensation. I'm getting health insurance, after all, and I've only been working there for six months.

[W] But, you've been working hard. You should get regular wage increases. You deserve it. You deserve paid vacation and life insurance, too.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Please open your Employee Handbook to page seven. This section deals with your salary and salary increases. You will have an annual salary review. The average raise is 4.2 percent a year, just above the cost of living. Also, be aware that not all employees get a raise. Compensation is based solely on performance and your contribution to the company, and, sure enough, each year we find that some employees are not eligible for a raise. We have a clearly outlined review process in place, which your supervisor will go over with you. Let's take a look at benefits. Each employee gets ten days of paid vacation a year in addition to major national holidays. You also get five days of sick leave annually.

(A) The librarian is dedicating her novel to her boss.
(B) The promoter is putting away a book.
(C) The employee is receiving a book as an award.
(D) The manager is recognizing his old workers.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.

Has she proven her loyalty?
(A) She's been with us for forty-seven years.
(B) Loyalty deserves praise.
(C) No, she hasn't completed it.

Number 3.

Where is the dedication ceremony going to be held?
(A) The ceremony was full of fanfare.
(B) Nobody questions her dedication.
(C) At the flag pole, in the parking lot.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] I'm looking forward to the awards ceremony tonight.

[W] So am I. I hope Darrell finally gets some recognition for all the work that he has done.

[M] He certainly has been very productive in the last few months.

[W] He has always been a hard worker. His dedication to his job is impressive, and he is certainly one of the company's most loyal employees.
Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Everyone enjoys receiving recognition for the work that they do. Today, we will honor two employees who have been working for the company ever since we opened our doors in 1985. Their loyalty to the company is an honor for us. No value can be placed on these employees; they are priceless to us. Since they began working with us, they have been promoted to ever higher positions, not because of their connections or degrees, but because of the contributions they have made to the company. In other words, they have been promoted for their merit. These high achievers are a credit to our company, and I am very pleased to be able to honor them here tonight. Mr. Louis Boltaro and Ms. Gina Minot, please come up to the front to receive your awards.

A) They're putting the merchandise on the shelves.
B) They're pushing their cart to the check-out.
C) They're examining the items for sale.
D) They're behaving in an unusual way.

Part 2: Question-Response

Number 2.

I'll go wait in the checkout line.

A) Check this out, it's really fancy.
B) I'll be there in a minute.
C) You always find good bargains.

Number 3.

Which items are you returning?

A) The computer itemizes them.
B) All of them.
C) I'll come back.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] In my psychology class we're studying consumer behavior. I've just spent three weeks watching what people buy.

[W] I'm sure you found that people hunt for bargains to save money. Economics is what drives people.

[M] Actually, shoppers report that they buy the brands they know best and feel most comfortable with, regardless of price.

[W] Well, now, that's interesting. I suppose all that marketing of brand names is really worthwhile for the manufacturers.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Attention shoppers. If you're looking for a true bargain, visit aisle seven for our sale on winter boots. All footwear is marked ten to forty percent off, this week only. At these prices, items won't last long, so hurry and save now. While you're at it, why not explore our other winter merchandise? We have coats, scarves, hats, and lots of other items to keep you toasty warm and comfortable during the chilly winter weather. When you're in the checkout aisle, don't forget to ask for a frequent shopper card. Every time you visit the store and make a purchase, your card is marked. After ten visits, you will be eligible for a free gift! This is our way of saying, "Thank you for shopping with us."

A) She's obtaining supplies from the cabinet.
B) She's polishing her desk smoothly.
C) She's using office stationery for her correspondence.
D) She's buying quality toys.
Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Is an order form essential?
(A) The essence is in there.
(B) You can order twenty-four hours a day.
(C) It's a prerequisite for all orders.

Number 3.
What is the function of this stamp?
(A) You need to obtain a signature.
(B) We need a one-dollar stamp.
(C) It shows that the order has been received.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] Do you know of a wholesale source for glassware?

[W] As a matter of fact, I know of a supplier who sells better-quality wine glasses. It's a new enterprise called Crystal Company.

[M] I'm actually looking for a diverse range of glassware, but I can check their website to find out about their product line.

[W] That's a good idea. Phone me to let me know what you find out. I'll be out the rest of today, but we can talk over the weekend.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

As you all know, we had a little slip up in our order with Margatel last week. Now, Margatel is one of our biggest clients. They order more than fifty thousand dollars worth of stationery alone each year. It is essential that we maintain a smooth relationship with Margatel, or some of us may end up out on the street. So let's see if we can find the source of this mix-up, and then we'll go about setting it straight. First, according to our records, Carla, you took the order on January nineteenth for forty boxes of business envelopes and thirty boxes of manila envelopes. Is this correct? And the order was supposed to be shipped out on the twenty-first.

(A) The goods are scanned in the catalog.
(B) The supplies are being counted by hand.
(C) The trucks are loading at the shipping dock.
(D) The carriers are using bicycles for deliveries.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Are these numbers accurate?
(A) They've been checked and double-checked.
(B) The numbers were written down.
(C) The spillage was minimal.

Number 3.
How many items are listed in the catalog?
(A) About three hundred fifty.
(B) It is sufficiently clear.
(C) To fulfill customer's wishes.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] We are completely out of packing supplies and cannot prepare anymore boxes today.

[W] It's your job to make certain that you have enough packing materials to fulfill orders. Remember, those boxes have to be addressed and shipped out before the end of the week.

[M] I thought we had enough boxes on hand, but I was wrong. Anyhow, I can pick up some more tomorrow.

[W] As long as they're ready to send by Friday.
Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

A quick review of our catalog shows the variety and quality of the merchandise we carry, but it does nothing to draw attention to our competitive pricing. Competitive pricing is integral to our success. Customers want to minimize costs and maximize value. Remember our motto: we supply the best, you pay the least. In the future, our catalogs will reflect this motto by comparing our prices with those of our competitors. For selected items throughout the catalog, we will show the prices charged by competitors for the same or similar items. Some people may question this information, but it is guaranteed to be as accurate as possible. We will rely on careful research to obtain the pricing information we publish. Remember, honesty is the best policy. This information on competitors' pricing will first appear in next winter's catalog, available in January.

   (A) She's looking over the orders.
   (B) She's talking to the customers.
   (C) She's ordering more paper by phone.
   (D) She's asking a clerk for a discount.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Why were there so many mistakes in yesterday's orders?
   (A) We had two temps working here.
   (B) Seven mistakes.
   (C) Because we improved our system.

Number 3.
How much was the discount?
   (A) I've compiled the data.
   (B) They placed the order.
   (C) Fifteen percent.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] I've compiled a list of office supplies we need to order immediately. The order should go out as soon as possible as these are essential items.

[W] Don't worry. I'll deal with it promptly.

[M] Please check the supply room before you send out the order, just to be sure I didn't make any mistakes. And when you receive the invoice, check it over carefully to make sure all the charges are accurate.

[W] Relax. I'll take care of everything efficiently. I'll check the supply closet today and send the order out first thing tomorrow, and I'll make sure all the charges on the invoice are right.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

According to the terms of payment, a customer is eligible for a discount only if the entire invoice is paid upon completion of service. Up-front payment is much more efficient because we don't have to bill the customer. Also, as soon as we receive payment, it becomes capital. We estimate that up-front payments save us about fifteen percent for each project. This is a significant amount of money for the company. Therefore, it is greatly to our advantage to encourage up-front payment as much as we possibly can.

   (A) He's verifying the number of items in stock.
   (B) He's adjusting the height of the ladder.
   (C) He's disturbing the order of the shelves.
   (D) He's scanning the goods by computer.
Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.

Shall we set it to be done automatically, or shall we do them all by hand?
(A) Automatically.
(B) They were hand delivered.
(C) Set it on the counter, please.

Number 3.

Would you be able to verify these facts?
(A) It's a fair price.
(B) No, the fax was only three pages.
(C) I got them all from the newspaper article.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] Even though the computer says we have five of these bedspreads left, I'd like you to go to the stockroom and verify that for me.

[W] If the computer says we have five, why would there be any discrepancy?

[M] Sometimes there are adjustments to the inventory. I don’t want to tell this customer that we have a bedspread if we are out of stock.

[W] All right. I’ll check the stockroom myself and let you know right away.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

We verify the computer’s count with a physical inventory every year in January. It’s a tedious process, but it’s crucial to keeping our records straight. Even the physical counting leaves us with some discrepancies, but we feel that it more closely reflects our numbers. The physical count also puts us two steps closer to figuring out any huge discrepancies. Remember, in the long run any discrepancy is a liability. So, although we have to close everything down and stop running the business for the three days that it takes to complete the inventory, it is well worth the effort that it takes.

(A) She’s balancing a cup on his head.
(B) She’s accepting a gift from him.
(C) She’s borrowing money from a friend.
(D) She’s going to make a transaction at an ATM.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.

How much money did you take out of your bank account?
(A) I took out only 100 dollars.
(B) That accountant charges a lot for his services.
(C) Yes, I took the money to the bank.

Number 3.

What do you want to borrow so much money for?
(A) It didn’t cost so much money.
(B) I earned all that money myself.
(C) I want to buy a car.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[W] Since you have an account with this bank, all we require in order to cash your check is a photo ID. Your driver’s license would do.

[M] I’ve lost my driver’s license, but my signature is on file. Is that enough?

[W] I’m sorry, but we have to be cautious. We can only accept a photo ID for transactions like this. You could, however, deposit the check in your account. It would take just seven business days to clear, then the funds would be available to you.

[M] All right, then, I’ll do that. Then I’ll go downtown and get a new driver’s license.
Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

To qualify for a mortgage, you have to be able to make a down payment of ten percent. You also have to show that you have been at your current job for at least one year and at your current address for three or more years. It's also a good idea to have some extra money in a savings account. Your account balance should be equivalent to about three months of your normal take-home salary. All these things assure the lender that you will be able to make your monthly mortgage payments.

(A) The auditor is looking over the books.
(B) Snow is accumulating on the ground.
(C) The employee turnover is high.
(D) She is meeting her clients in her office.

Part 2: Question–Response

Do you have any outstanding debts?
(A) Yes, I understand all about debts.
(B) Yes, I still owe money on my car.
(C) Yes, he's a very upstanding citizen.

Number 3.

What assets do you have?
(A) I own my house and I have some money in the bank.
(B) I felt quite upset by the news.
(C) I don't have an assistant.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[W] I have a one o'clock appointment with a client today. I should be back at the office before five.

[M] Is this the client you are trying to save from all his debt?

[W] That's the one! How he accumulated so much debt, I'll never understand. I've worked out a budget for him for the coming year and plan to present it to him this afternoon.

[M] Good luck! I know you've put a good deal of work into that, and I hope your client finds it acceptable.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

The most important factor in making your accounting firm profitable is to build up a solid list of clients. You want your clients to continue bringing their accounting business to you year after year and to avoid the problem of client turnover. Also, keep in mind that charging higher fees does not mean that you will make more money. If your clients feel that your fees are fair, they will recommend your services to their friends and colleagues. Finally, never forget what your most valuable asset is. It's easy to spend money on office equipment and rental fees for your space, but these are not the things that attract clients. It is important to make sure you have a team of excellent accountants on your staff. A qualified staff is the most valuable asset any accounting firm can have.

(A) The brokers are bidding aggressively.
(B) He's returning the products to the storeroom.
(C) The supplies are out of stock.
(D) He's making a phone call.
Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.

Who can give me advice about my portfolio?
(A) My stockbroker can help you with your investments.
(B) It’s a very nice portfolio.
(C) I think you made a wise choice.

Number 3.

Will I get a good return on this investment?
(A) Please return it to me when you’ve finished.
(B) I’m sorry, we don’t accept returns.
(C) You should earn at least a fifteen percent return.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] In order to minimize risk, investors should maintain a diverse portfolio by putting their money in various industry investments.

[W] You mean we should invest in natural resources as well as in manufacturing industries?

[M] Perhaps. Unless you are very aggressive, you don’t want to put all your eggs in one basket. In fact, I have made close to a million dollars in the past ten years by following the strategy of maintaining a diverse portfolio.

[W] That’s quite impressive. You know, I was thinking of pulling all my money out of the stock market, but now I think I’ll stay in and follow your advice.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Have you thought about how you will fund your children’s college education? Don’t wait until they are in high school. The time to begin saving is when your children are still small. A good way to start is by investing some of your income in the stock market. You will get a good return on your money there. The best strategy is to commit a certain amount of your monthly income to your stock investments. Even after just two or three years, you should start to see your investment grow. By the time your children are ready for college, you’ll be ready to pay for it.

(A) She’s filling out a form.
(B) She’s preparing dinner.
(C) She’s filing her nails.
(D) She’s calculating the total.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.

How much do I owe?
(A) About 125 dollars.
(B) I own two cars.
(C) I paid what I owed.

Number 3.

When do I have to file my income taxes?
(A) It’s only about a mile from here.
(B) We received an incoming fax.
(C) The deadline is April 15th.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] I’m no good with numbers, so my spouse usually files our taxes. She does all the calculations and fills out the forms.

[W] You’re lucky, then. I usually have to pay an accountant to prepare my taxes, and even then I sometimes miss the deadline.

[M] I did that once. Last year was the one time I filed our taxes, but I did it two months after the deadline and had to pay a huge penalty.

[W] Yes, the penalty is ten percent of what you owe, isn’t it? I guess that’s why your spouse is the one who usually files your taxes.
Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

You will be getting a refund check of four hundred sixty dollars, and you can expect to receive it in eight to ten weeks. While I know that it's nice to get a refund check, I always tell my clients that it's better for your finances to avoid overpaying taxes in the first place. If you'd like, I can do some calculations which will show exactly how much you should ask your employer to withhold from your check in the future, and I'd only charge a small fee for this service.

   (A) This orchard yields a lot of fruit.
   (B) The weather reporter is making a forecast.
   (C) The crew is making the drive level.
   (D) The arrow hit its target.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.

What is our projected income for next year?
   (A) We expect several projects to come in.
   (B) It can't be protected.
   (C) It'll probably be slightly higher than this year.

Number 3.

Is this an accurate translation of the statement?
   (A) Yes, the translator did an excellent job.
   (B) No, we don't need eight translators.
   (C) The transportation in this area is not adequate.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[W] I'm developing a projected financial statement for my business. I'll use it to see what kind of profits I can expect to yield this year.

[M] That's great. It'll also help you forecast periods where you might have financial problems.

[W] Yes, I'm sure it will be worth the effort for several reasons. I hope to have it finished soon—by the end of this week, in fact.

[M] I'm sure you'll have no problem with that. If you like, I can look over the details when it's finished and check your calculations and make any necessary corrections.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Many small businesses fail because of poor financial advice. Remember, a small business is no different from a large company in that financial planning is the key to success. Therefore, creating a projected financial statement is the first and most important step one should take when starting up a small business. It is realistic to expect your small business to become profitable during its first five years, but typically not during the first year. With this in mind, you can set reasonable targets and project expenses for the first year or two of your business. This will help you know what funds you need to raise in order to get and keep your business going.

   (A) They're scrutinizing the drawings.
   (B) They're moving up the ladder.
   (C) They're concentrating on the pathway.
   (D) They're working in the street.
Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.

Where is your new office?
(A) It's adjacent to the lobby.
(B) I moved up to a new position.
(C) I'm open to it.

Number 3.

Is your boss open to new ideas?
(A) Yes, I like to keep the window open.
(B) Yes, it opens early every day.
(C) Yes, she always listens to my proposals.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] I hear the remodeling of the office lobby will start soon. I hope the new lobby ends up more conducive to conversation than our current lobby is.

[W] I've spent a lot of time scrutinizing the plans for the new lobby, and I'm quite pleased. I think it will be everything you hope for.

[M] Good. And I hope the remodeling work doesn't take too long. I am afraid it will be disruptive to our business.

[W] It shouldn't take more than a few weeks. It will be finished by the middle of next month.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

The design of an office can contribute a great deal to employee productivity. It is important to plan your office space so that it is conducive to collaboration, yet at the same time allows staff members to concentrate on their work. Many companies opt for a design that includes several smaller offices adjacent to a lobby rather than one large one, as they find the level of activity in an open office is often disruptive to work. At the same time, it is also important to include at least one larger work room so that staff members can work collaboratively. Such spaces would be used for meetings, team work on projects, and the like.

(A) The periodicals are on the stand.
(B) The cars are going ahead.
(C) The waste basket is under the table.
(D) The meeting is adhering to an agenda.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.

Do your staff members meet periodically?
(A) They read several newspapers and magazines.
(B) I haven't seen him for quite a long period.
(C) We have a meeting every Friday.

Number 3.

How did the meeting go?
(A) It was right after lunch.
(B) It was in the boardroom.
(C) It was a real waste of time.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] That meeting was such a waste of time.

[W] You're right. It was too lengthy, and we didn't accomplish anything.

[M] We were in there for three hours, and no one even brought up the most important matters on the agenda. Next time there's one of these meetings, remind me not to attend it.

[W] I'm with you. I don't plan to go to another one of these meetings, either.
Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

In order to keep everyone from feeling that this meeting is a waste of time, I've developed the following guidelines. Please adhere to them. One: Please discuss only the items on the agenda. This is not the time to bring up irrelevant or personal matters. Two: Please do not make unnecessarily lengthy speeches. Make your point as quickly and clearly as possible. Three: My goal is to conclude this meeting by four thirty. We will be able to do this if we all follow the guidelines. Thank you for your cooperation.

(A) She's trying on a new garment.
(B) She's taking back damaged goods to the store.
(C) She's inspecting the products for defects.
(D) She's throwing out her uniform.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Which brand is better?
(A) I love the music that band plays.
(B) Most of our customers prefer this one.
(C) No, I don't understand this letter.

Number 3.
Is this coat water repellent?
(A) Yes, this water tastes excellent.
(B) Yes, it will keep you very dry.
(C) Yes, you can wash it with soap and water.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] What does the company do with garments that have defects in them?

[W] If the defects aren't too bad, we change the brand name and sell them in discount stores. You can find our skirts all over the country under different names.

[M] That's certainly more profitable than throwing them away. Do many of your garments end up that way?

[W] We find that about fifteen percent of them end up with defects. We sell our skirts at all the better women's clothing stores, so they have to conform to high standards.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

We assure you that all our products go through strict quality control. All defective products are thrown out before they leave the factory. You can be sure that all our products that reach the store have been thoroughly inspected to make sure they conform to our high quality standards. If for any reason, however, you perceive a defect in one of our products or are not completely satisfied with it, for any reason at all, you can take it back to the store for a one hundred percent refund, no questions asked.

(A) She's ascertaining the time of the flight.
(B) She's examining the contents of the test tube.
(C) She's experimenting with a new way home.
(D) She's solving a crossword puzzle.
Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
How long have you worked as a supervisor?
  (A) I like it very much.
  (B) He doesn’t have an advisor.
  (C) For almost a decade.

Number 3.
What kind of responsibilities does Jim have at his new job?
  (A) He supervises the entire department.
  (B) He’s a fairly responsive person.
  (C) He’s responding very well.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[W] We need to examine the data for our Binky doll sales before we decide how to modify it.

[M] Several companies have successfully experimented with modifications such as bright colors and noisemakers.

[W] Consumers today are anxious about inflation so our next modification should be to make the doll cheaper. I think if we lower the price by fifteen percent, we can increase sales by thirty percent or more.

[M] Maybe so, but you can’t just assume those figures. You need to do some systematic price and sales research first.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

This product has been on the market for over two decades, and it continues to sell well. Researchers aren’t sure of the reason for this. They have examined hundreds of pages of market data but haven’t ascertained an exact reason for the product’s popularity. Is it the low price or the wide availability? Perhaps it is the consumers’ familiarity with it. Researchers don’t know which factors are responsible, but consumers continue to buy the product as it enters its twenty-second year on the market. In fact, it is the most popular product of its kind for teenagers, and far outsells similar products aimed at men, women, and children.

  (A) The woman is apprehensive about signing the lease.
  (B) The couple is due to arrive any minute.
  (C) The man is trying to get out of the building.
  (D) The occupancy rate for this room is 450.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Who are the occupants on the second floor?
  (A) They’ll take occupancy next week.
  (B) Two lawyer’s offices.
  (C) No, we only occupy the first floor.

Number 3.
Is the building in good condition?
  (A) Yes, the landlord keeps it in good repair.
  (B) Yes, it’s near all the bus routes.
  (C) Yes, all the tenants are very nice.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] I understand that we may be able to get out of this unfortunate circumstance.

[W] Yes, under certain conditions a clause in your contract may not be valid.

[M] I’ll pay you whatever it takes to get us out of this legally. I don’t want to be subjected to any lawsuit.

[W] You don’t need to be apprehensive about that. Due to the poorly written clause, you have the option to get out of the contract if you decide to do so by the end of the month.
Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Before you sign a lease on a space for your business, make sure you have chosen the best location. Look for the indicators of a neighborhood that is good for business. Are there other, successful businesses occupying spaces nearby? Is there access to public transportation? Is the area attractive to customers and clients? If the conditions don’t look right for your business, look into other options. Don’t lock yourself into a long-term lease on a space that isn’t right for you. Once you have found the best space for your business, then you can look at signing a long-term lease. Rental rates often fluctuate. If you sign a lease for five years, then you are guaranteed a rent you can afford.

(A) They’re relying on the waiter’s suggestions.
(B) They’re guiding the man through the mall.
(C) They’re arriving at an empty restaurant.
(D) They’re securing the cloth to the table.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.

How can I secure reservations at such a popular restaurant?

(A) Call early in the day.
(B) You can feel secure at that restaurant.
(C) I can recommend a popular restaurant.

Number 3.

How can I choose a good restaurant?

(A) Look in the restaurant guide.
(B) I never refuse food at a restaurant.
(C) Yes, it’s a very good restaurant.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

/[W] The woman who writes the weekly restaurant reviews for the local newspaper has published a guide to local restaurants.

/[M] That won’t be too helpful. I don’t think the same food appeals to her as appeals to me.

/[W] I know what you mean. There’s a lot of subjectivity in reviewing restaurants.

/[M] Yes, I usually don’t bother reading the reviews. I often eat out on weekends, but I rely on my coworkers to suggest good places to eat. They’re familiar with a lot of the restaurants in the city.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Good afternoon. I am calling from the Patio Terrace Restaurant about your request for a reservation. I have secured a reservation for you at 8:30 P.M. tomorrow evening. Please arrive on time. We have a bar where you can enjoy appetizers and mixed drinks before dinner. If that idea appeals to you, I suggest arriving at seven thirty or eight o’clock. We have a parking lot in back for the exclusive use of our customers. Are you familiar with our location, or will you need directions?

(A) The chef is adding ingredients to his list.
(B) The patron is waiting to be served.
(C) The forecaster is making a prediction.
(D) The judge is consulting with the lawyers.
Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
What kinds of flavors does the chef use?
(A) I don’t like this kind of food.
(B) She uses a blend of Asian spices.
(C) Yes, the food is very flavorful.

Number 3.
Can you judge a restaurant just by looking at the menu?
(A) No, the judge didn’t like that restaurant.
(B) No, I haven’t looked at the menu yet.
(C) No, I think you have to eat there first.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] This restaurant reminds me of the one we visited on vacation last year. I think they use many of the same ingredients in the dishes.

[W] You’re right. The flavor of the dishes is similar. The food here is really quite tasty.

[M] It’s fantastic. Let’s not forget where this restaurant is so we can come back again and try some more dishes.

[W] This place just opened up last week, I think, but the food is so delicious I predict that it will have a lot of patrons very soon.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

I’m sorry for the delay. I’m sure you thought I’d forgotten your order. The problem is, we have a new assistant chef, and he’s mixed up everything in the kitchen. It will take a while longer for your meal to be ready, but we want to keep all our patrons happy so I’d be happy to bring you some free appetizers while you wait. It won’t be too much longer. Your food should be on the table in about fifteen minutes or so. And I predict that when you finally get your meal, you’ll judge that our chef’s cooking is worth the wait.

(A) The customer is settling the bill.
(B) The waiter is picking up the glass.
(C) The individual is ordering his lunch.
(D) The patron is making a list.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Does your restaurant have free delivery?
(A) Yes, deliveries are free on orders of ten dollars or more.
(B) Yes, we charge a fee for that service.
(C) Yes, we make deliveries after three.

Number 3.
Would you like that order delivered, or will you pick it up?
(A) Yes, please pick it up.
(B) I’ll pick it up in half an hour.
(C) Pick up after yourself.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] Will you please arrange for an elegant lunch to be delivered to the office during the regional manager’s visit?

[W] That’s such an annoying burden. It always falls to me to arrange these things. Why don’t you just go to a restaurant?

[M] I need to show our impressive sales data during lunch and can’t show slides at a restaurant.

[W] All right, then. I’ll call the restaurant soon, and I’ll ask for the lunch to be delivered by one o’clock. I suppose you’ll want it served in the conference room.
Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Don’t settle for uninteresting food and slow service. Order your next lunch from the Parkside Café, where speedy service is guaranteed. We’re here to meet the needs of busy business people like you, and ordering from us is so easy. Simply make your selection from our list of made-to-order sandwiches and salads, then call in your order, and it will be ready to be picked up in ten minutes, guaranteed. Or have your meal delivered directly to your office. Our delivery fee is just fifteen percent of the price of your order. We handle both individual and group orders.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[W] There’s been a large influx of new chefs recently. And they’re all demanding high salaries.

[M] Good chefs manage to draw customers into restaurants, so they’re worth the salaries they’re paid.

[W] Yes, the good ones are. For a skilled, professional chef, cooking can be quite a profitable career.

[M] I suppose you’re right, though I can’t see becoming a chef myself. I have no interest in practicing the culinary arts. But I do enjoy the results of a good chef’s work. Let’s plan to eat out more often.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Are you trying to decide on a profession? Don’t forget to consider a career in the culinary arts. Many people find professional cooking to be an excellent outlet for their creativity. It’s a demanding but exciting career with numerous opportunities. It is important to become well-trained in this profession. Don’t be fooled into thinking that an apprenticeship is enough. People who plan to become chefs should enroll in an accredited culinary school. There they will learn the methods used by the best restaurants all around the world. Graduates of culinary schools become chefs, caterers, cooking instructors, and more. Join the many creative people who have been drawn to the cooking profession. You’ll never be bored!

(A) The chef is instructing the apprentices.
(B) The professionals are chopping the food.
(C) The customers are demanding menus.
(D) The designers are incorporating fish motifs into the décor.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.

How did you decide to enter the cooking profession?
(A) Yes, I’m still looking for a profession.
(B) The kitchen door is to your right.
(C) I’ve always wanted to work in a restaurant.

Number 3.

How do you plan to draw new customers to the restaurant?
(A) Yes, I’m accustomed to eating here.
(B) We will expand the menu and offer new specials.
(C) We saw several new customers there.

LESSON 35

(A) The exact number of guests is ten.
(B) The location is ideal for a playground.
(C) The regulations limit parking at night.
(D) The banquet is staged in the ballroom.
Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Can you give me a general idea of the number of guests you expect?
(A) That's the ideal number.
(B) About 150 people will attend.
(C) Generally, I have good expectations.

Number 3.
How much lead time will we need?
(A) The event should last about three or four hours.
(B) I was the leader last time.
(C) The hall has to be reserved a month in advance.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] I've found the ideal site for our wedding reception. The dimensions are just right, and the manager will assist us with coordinating all the details.

[M] It's at the Berkshire Country Club. It's exactly what we wanted, and there's plenty of parking. I want you to see it right away because we have to sign the contract before the end of the week.

[W] That won't be hard. I'm free all day. Let's go look at it now.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

I am coordinating the plans for our next big event, the year-end office party. Tom is assisting me, and we have already had several meetings. The event isn't until next month, so we've given ourselves plenty of lead time. Right now we're looking for a site that is in close proximity to the office and isn't too small to stage our event. You all know that the event is informal and that there won't be any ceremony or speeches. However, we will need to have more than just a general idea of how many will attend. We'll need an exact count by the end of the week, so please let us know soon if you plan to attend.

(A) The passengers are waiting for an announcement.
(B) The travel agents are issuing the tickets.
(C) The travelers are claiming their bags.
(D) The flight crew is boarding the plane.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
When does the train depart?
(A) In fifteen minutes.
(B) From Gate fifteen.
(C) In another part of the station.

Number 3.
Will a meal be served during the flight?
(A) Yes, I reserved your flight.
(B) No, just beverages and a snack.
(C) Their service is all right.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[W] Would you care for another beverage?

[M] Is there time? According to my itinerary, we should be landing soon.

[W] You must have missed the announcement. We've been delayed and won't be landing for another hour.

[M] An hour? But I was supposed to be ready to board my connecting flight by three o'clock. I'll never make it on time. Now I'll have to change my whole itinerary.
Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Welcome to flight one fifteen. We will begin embarkation in five minutes. Please have a valid passport and ticket ready to show the flight attendant as you board. The itinerary for our trip today includes a thirty-minute stop in Chicago before we continue on to Los Angeles. We are scheduled for takeoff in twenty minutes, and since the captain has announced that he expects no delays in our trip, we should be departing on time. Please remember that once you are on board the plane, use of cell phones is prohibited until after we have taken off. We will begin our beverage service soon after takeoff, and lunch will be served later on. Have a pleasant flight.

PART 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] The airfares to Australia are quite expensive, and I know you need to economize. Let me see what I can do to get you a better airfare.

[M] I understand your situation. Now, if you are willing to change your destination and fly into Melbourne rather than Sydney, that would save you some money. And if you extend your trip by just two days, I think I can work out a really good fare for you.

[W] Fine, fine. The only important thing is that I need to arrive by next Sunday.

(A) The airline system is on strike.
(B) The tourists are looking for an excursion ticket.
(C) The passengers are arriving at their destination.
(D) The expensive business class section is not crowded.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
How can we keep expenses down?
(A) You're right, it's too expensive to keep.
(B) We can use the elevator.
(C) We can fly in economy class.

Number 3.
How long can you extend your stay?
(A) It's a long way away.
(B) I can't spend any more money.
(C) I can stay three more days.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Thank you for calling Travel Time Travel Agency, your place for economically-priced airline tickets. If your destination is within this country, press one. If your destination is in another country, press two. If you would like to make hotel reservations or travel arrangements other than purchasing airline tickets, press three. We're sorry, information on special excursion rates is not currently available because our computer system is down. Please call back later to find out if the situation has changed.

(A) They're checking the directory.
(B) They're paying their fare.
(C) They're promptly boarding the train.
(D) They're using the remainder of their ticket.

(A) The guests are checking into the hotel.
(B) The housekeeper is cleaning the room.
(C) This room has been serviced and is ready for occupancy.
(D) The reservations agent is quoting a high rate.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
What rate do you charge for a double room?
(A) Yes, you could change to a double room.
(B) It costs eighty-five dollars a night.
(C) This hotel has great rooms.

Number 3.
What time should we check in?
(A) Before nine o’clock.
(B) We only take credit cards.
(C) At the registration desk.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[W] According to the directory, the next train to New York leaves at ten. Do you think it’ll leave punctually?

[M] I think so. The trains have to operate on time or people won’t want to ride them. I see here that the ten o’clock train arrives in New York at 1:30. That’s a relatively short trip.

[W] But it’s long enough for me to get hungry. Let’s buy some snacks now so we’ll have something to eat on the trip.

[M] There’s no time. It’s almost ten now, and we have to buy our tickets before we get on the train, or we’ll pay a higher fare on board.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

People often ask if the higher fares charged on the new high-speed trains are offset by the savings in time. The answer is yes. In fact, the duration of a high-speed train trip in some cases is not much more than a plane trip, and the fare is always cheaper than a plane ticket. Unfortunately, these trains operate out of far fewer cities than do planes and the traditional slower trains. On the other hand, all tickets on high-speed trains are first class. This means that your fare entitles you to a deluxe ride in a comfortable seat from which you can enjoy the scenery as it moves past your window. Unlike first-class plane tickets, however, meals are not usually included in the price of your train ticket. You have to pay extra for food.
Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[W] Would you like collision insurance on your rental car? It's optional, though we do recommend it.

[M] I doubt that we'll have an accident, but I'd feel less nervous with the insurance.

[W] No one ever intends to have an accident, of course, but most customers opt for the insurance when they rent from us. Let me just check the price . . . . OK, the cost of insurance for this car is just thirty dollars.

[M] Fine. Here's my credit card. You can charge everything on that.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

If you are traveling to another country and intend to rent a car while there, there are several things to do before you leave. First, get an international driver's license. Then contact your local car rental agency to find out if they have offices abroad. If so, you can arrange to rent your car through them and avoid the confusion of signing a contract in a foreign language. This way, when you arrive and pick up your car, you won't be disappointed. It is tempting when you pick up your rental car to jump right in and drive away. Don't do this. First, check the car carefully for signs of damage. If you see any, point them out to the agent. You don't want to have to pay for damage that you didn't cause.

(A) He's disappointed in the movie.
(B) He's showing his driver's license.
(C) He's contacting the agency to rent a car.
(D) He's tempted to have more cake.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Is collision insurance optional with a rental car?
(A) No, we haven't yet made a decision.
(B) Yes, but we recommend you get it.
(C) We hope to rent a luxury car.

Number 3.
How many car rental agencies have you contacted?
(A) We asked for a compact car.
(B) I've only called two or three.
(C) Each agency has its own contract.

LESSON 41

(A) There are four separate movie posters on the wall.
(B) The film description is read to the moviegoers.
(C) The pedestrians are being entertained.
(D) The fans are continuing to buy tickets.
Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
When will the movie be released?
(A) It'll be reviewed in next Friday's paper.
(B) It'll be over in about 30 minutes.
(C) It'll be in theaters next month.

Number 3.
How would you describe that movie?
(A) It was the most romantic film I've ever seen.
(B) I'd move it over here.
(C) We decided it together.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[W] Sam Peterson is one of my favorite actors. I thought his latest movie was even more entertaining than his previous ones. It's easy to see how he's been influenced by situation comedies on television.

[M] He certainly has developed a broader range of styles over the past two years.

[W] Yes, though I prefer him in his recent comedies more than in his earlier movies. I guess I just like comedy movies more than dramas or mysteries. I like to laugh.

[M] I think he's brilliant in all his movies, and I have no doubt that his success will continue. He's already made three movies this year, and another will be released before the end of this month.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

On next week's show we'll interview a big name in the entertainment industry, Maria Moreno. Ms. Moreno's combined beauty and talent have made her popular everywhere. She's attained worldwide fame over the last several years through her outstanding performances in several hit movies. Her impressive acting abilities range from the comedic to the dramatic. Ms. Moreno will describe for us her latest movie, which has recently finished production and will be released next month. We'll also talk about the directors and fellow actors who have influenced her career.

(A) The dancer is rehearsing for a performance.
(B) The audience is entering the theater.
(C) The reviewer is watching the action.
(D) The actor is approaching the musician.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Do you think tickets will sell out quickly?
(A) Yes, they'll sell them at the box office.
(B) Yes, it's a very popular play.
(C) Yes, I'll tell them about the tickets.

Number 3.
How long did the performance last?
(A) No, it was first.
(B) It was very well-done.
(C) About an hour and a half.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] Did you read the review of the new musical comedy in yesterday's paper?

[W] Yes, it sounds great, doesn't it? They say the charming dialogue among the characters is very funny. Would you like to see it?

[M] Yes, but I've heard the tickets are sold out for the entire five-week run. I can't believe it.

[W] Well, that often occurs when a play is really great. And, I have a surprise for you. I already got tickets. I called the theater last Friday and got them. We're going to see the Sunday afternoon performance.
Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Audiences can't stop talking about the Shakespeare Theater's production of Romeo and Juliet. Reviewers have praised the director's creative new approach to this timeless story. Shouldn't you see it for yourself? Performances are at eight o'clock Thursday through Sunday evenings and at two o'clock on Saturday and Sunday afternoons. Order your tickets by e-mail: tickets@shakespear.org. Call 656-9025 for prices and other information, or visit our web site at www.shakespeare.org to read play reviews. Tickets are expected to sell out quickly, so order yours today. See Romeo and Juliet and experience the magic of live theater.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] I look for the music I favor at the store, but they were out of stock. Everything available was pretty uninteresting. With all the disparate music out there, I can't believe that all they had was the same old boring stuff.

[W] I guess your tastes just don't match those of the majority of the people. That must be why you never listen to the radio.

[M] You're right. But, look, I really need to get a CD today. It's for a birthday present for a classmate and the party's tonight.

[W] Relax. I know another music store downtown that you can go to. They have a broad range of music there.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Welcome to the Music Appreciation class. I know you are all here to broaden your tastes in music and to discover which types of music you prefer most. We'll do that by looking at several categories of music and disparate composers' styles. We'll also look at the development of musical instruments throughout history. The textbook for this class is available at the college bookstore, and I urge you to buy it and start reading it right away. At the end of the semester, we'll have the opportunity to attend a concert of the City Symphony Orchestra. Unfortunately, I am not able to obtain free tickets for you, but I can get them at a twenty-five percent discount so you'll only have to pay thirty dollars each. Please let me know before you leave class today whether or not you are interested in this opportunity.

(A) The critic is tasting the new dish.
(B) The fans are urging the team to win.
(C) The nurse is recommending relaxation.
(D) The orchestra is playing the conductor's favorite music.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.

Is there a reason that you don't like opera?
(A) Yes, I find it really boring.
(B) The opera season begins in December.
(C) No, I don't.

Number 3.

What are your musical preferences?
(A) The musical instruments are in the next room.
(B) The library has a good reference collection.
(C) I like jazz and classical music.

Lesson 44

(A) The secretary is keeping a schedule.
(B) The artist is expressing himself by drawing.
(C) The carpenter is working leisurely.
(D) The critic is admiring her collection.
Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Which artist do you admire most?
(A) Painting is the hardest to do.
(B) We hired a photographer.
(C) Picasso is my favorite.

Number 3.
Have you seen the museum's sculpture collection?
(A) Yes, your coats are over there.
(B) Yes, I can give you directions to the museum.
(C) Yes, they have some amazing pieces of sculpture.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] Art historians say that this painting is a significant contribution to the field. Do you like it?

[W] I have to admit that art history was never my strong subject, so I'm not sure what my opinion's worth. I can say that I'm drawn to the painting, but I'm never sure I can tell what abstract art is trying to express.

[M] Neither can I, but I still think it's a beautiful painting. I admire the use of color.

[W] Well, yes. Fortunately, the museum's collection covers a wide spectrum of styles. They've acquired some really interesting pieces. It's certainly worth the price of admission.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Thank you for calling the National Museum of Art. Our collection of newly acquired paintings is on view this month in the main gallery. Also opening this month is a special exhibit of prints entitled "Clothing Fashions of the Early Twentieth Century." Next month begins our winter lecture series. The series this year includes specialists in African sculpture, nineteenth-century painting, and several well-known art critics. To hear the lecture series schedule, press one. To hear the schedule of guided tours, press two. To speak with an operator, please stay on the line.

LESSON 45

(A) The magazine reader is subscribing to a journal.
(B) The newspaper journalist is choosing a story.
(C) The TV reporter is covering an assignment.
(D) The e-columnist is adding a link online.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Why do you subscribe to that newspaper?
(A) I decided to buy the newspaper.
(B) Yes, I write for that newspaper.
(C) Because it's the best newspaper around.

Number 3.
Who did you assign that story to?
(A) I gave the assignment to Mr. Lee.
(B) I've already signed the papers.
(C) I didn't see the signs.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] Would you choose to work for television instead of a newspaper?

[W] Never! Newspapers can cover a story much more thoroughly than television news shows can.

[M] That's certainly a decisive answer. But I suppose your thirteen years as an investigative reporter for a newspaper gives you the authority to answer the question.

[W] Yes. It's clear that newspapers can offer in-depth news in ways that television just can't. It's important for you, as a journalism student, to understand that.
Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Coming up next on the six o’clock news we’ll bring you in-depth coverage of the investigation into the fraud allegedly committed by the president of the National Industrial Company over the past twelve months. We’ll have commentary on whether or not the president’s alleged actions constitute a crime that should be prosecuted in court, then we’ll look at the impact this controversy could have on our national economy. Remember, you heard it first on the Channel Five Six O’clock News, your link to what’s happening in the world. The news tonight will be reported by James Smith, substituting for Mary Milo who is away on a special assignment.

(A) He’s diagnosing a patient.
(B) He’s making an appointment to play golf.
(C) He’s recommending a restaurant.
(D) He’s playing a musical instrument.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
What is the most effective way to prevent heart disease?
(A) Yes, I feel at ease.
(B) He was born with a heart defect.
(C) Diet and exercise are the best way.

Number 3.
What is that instrument for?
(A) No, I only use three instruments.
(B) It’s for listening to your heart.
(C) Yes, I used it before.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[W] I’m recommending that you see a specialist at the university hospital for another test.

[M] That sounds serious. Am I OK?

[W] Don’t worry. I often refer patients to specialists who have more experience than I do with the latest diagnostic methods. But you should make your appointment soon, before the end of this month, if possible.

[M] I’ll call today. You’ll give me a copy of my medical record to take with me, won’t you, Doctor?

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Dr. Sato’s office has an opening for an experienced office manager. Responsibilities include keeping track of the doctor’s appointments, managing patients’ medical and insurance records, and overseeing the work of two office assistants who answer the phones and make appointments. The successful candidate will be an effective organizer and have a serious attitude. Previous experience in a doctor’s office is required. Benefits include competitive salary and three weeks vacation annually. Please send a résumé and two letters of recommendation to Dr. Sato before the first of next month.

(A) The neighbors are catching up on the news.
(B) The dental technician is restoring the whiteness to his teeth.
(C) The plumber checks the drains regularly.
(D) The dietician is encouraging good eating habits.
Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Can you restore my broken tooth?
(A) No, I can't.
(B) Yes, the store is open tonight.
(C) Yes, I can fix it.

Number 3.
Can you adjust the position of the chair?
(A) I can change it if you're uncomfortable.
(B) The chair belongs to me.
(C) I think the air feels fine.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[W] A quick overview of your dental records shows that there is cause for concern. You need to make more regular dental appointments if you want to have a healthy mouth.

[M] I don't care about cavities. I just want you to restore the shine to my teeth.

[W] Then I encourage you to kick the habits of smoking and drinking coffee. They both dull the teeth. We can also schedule an appointment for a special cleaning to whiten your teeth.

[M] That's a good idea. I'd like to do it as soon as possible. Can we do it next week?

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

Would you like to illuminate the room with your smile? It can be done. Most people aren't aware of how easy and inexpensive it is to restore the whiteness to your teeth. Our product can be used at home without the need to visit the dentist. Just apply the product to your teeth every night after your regular tooth brushing. It's that simple. Maintain your usual cleaning habits, and after just a few days, your teeth will start to look whiter. Unlike similar products, ours is guaranteed not to irritate sensitive gums. Why wait? Visit our web site at www.whitetooth.com and order your supply today. You'll see why our company has the highest sales of all dental product companies in the nation.

(A) Specialized personnel give a CAT scan.
(B) The woman is signing a health insurance policy.
(C) The pay clerk is preparing the salary checks.
(D) Administrators emphasize the importance of rest.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Will my insurance policy cover my elective surgery?
(A) Yes, it covers emergencies.
(B) You can select any surgeon on the list.
(C) No, you have to pay for that yourself.

Number 3.
Who was in charge of choosing an insurance policy for our company?
(A) It's charged against your monthly salary.
(B) The Director of Personnel chose it.
(C) We can't make any changes.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[M] Does the health plan allow me to see a specialist immediately, or do I have to see my primary care provider first?

[W] If you go without your primary provider's referral, you will incur a higher percentage of the total cost.

[M] Then I would pay an increased portion of the bill. But if I go through my primary care provider first, it will take a lot longer to get to the specialist because the sooner I can get an appointment with the primary care provider is three weeks from now.

[W] I still think it's your best alternative. If you follow the usual procedure and see your primary care provider first, you'll save yourself a lot of headaches as well as money.
Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

In response to the concerns many of our personnel have expressed about the cost of our current health plan, we have decided to make an alternative plan available to anyone who is interested. This plan offers fewer benefits, but those who opt for it will incur fewer costs. I would like to emphasize that even though we have chosen this alternative to help people save money, it is available to everyone regardless of what your salary is or how long you have worked at the company. We have spent several months searching for an alternative health insurance policy, and I am happy to say we have finally found one that will suit our needs in all aspects. If you are interested in switching to the new plan, please let Human Resources know within the next two weeks. The new policy will go into effect at the beginning of next year.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[W] I'm not at all happy with the care my husband received here. Is there someone designated to handle complaints?

[M] Our mission is to deliver complete satisfaction. What is your problem?

[W] The hospital identified my husband incorrectly in the computer system, and now all his records are mixed up. They almost gave him the wrong medication twice, and now they want to charge us for surgery when he only came in for some tests.

[M] If you will permit me to take a look at your statement... Yes, I think I see what the problem is. Exactly how is your husband's name spelled?

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

I've gotten the lab results from the tests we did last week and, as I expected, you'll have to be admitted to the hospital for surgery. I've already sent the form to the insurance company. It's not unusual for it to take seven or eight days to receive their authorization, so I'd like to schedule the procedure for ten days from now. You should expect a hospital stay of two or three days. I'll prepare the pertinent paperwork for you to give to the admitting nurse.

(A) The escort's leading the group.
(B) The guard's authorizing the visitors.
(C) The musician's following the procedures.
(D) The physician's identifying the medicine.

Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.

When will I be permitted to go home?

(A) Because you're in good health now.
(B) You'll be admitted to the hospital next week.
(C) You can leave tomorrow morning.

Number 3.

When will I find out my test results?

(A) Some time next week.
(B) They look very good.
(C) I found them in the drawer.

LESSON 50

(A) The consultant is greeting the doctor.
(B) The volunteers are cleaning the shelves.
(C) The pharmacist is checking the samples.
(D) The patient is limiting his activity.
Part 2: Question–Response

Number 2.
Is there a limited number of refills I can have on this prescription?
(A) Yes, I can fill it before three o'clock.
(B) Yes, you can have this prescription.
(C) Yes, you only get two.

Number 3.
What are the potential side effects of this medication?
(A) It's one of the most effective medications I've seen.
(B) It can cause sleepiness in some people.
(C) No, it isn't essential.

Part 3: Conversation

Numbers 4 through 6 relate to the following conversation.

[W] These pills should control your backache. You should detect improvement within two days.

[W] Just because a certain pill worked for a relative or friend doesn't mean it'll work for you. Everybody is different, and there are different factors that determine how a medication will work. I can't just hand out the same pills to everyone.

[M] No, I guess that wouldn't make sense. OK, I'll try these samples, and if they work, I'll go ahead and fill the prescription you wrote.

Part 4: Talk

Questions 7 through 9 relate to the following recording.

The medication I'd like to prescribe for you is one of the most effective drugs for controlling sleeping problems and should also help alleviate your headaches. It's very convenient to use. You just take it once a day, about thirty minutes before you go to bed. I'll give you a few free samples to try out. Call me in four or five days to let me know how it's working. But I'm sure you'll be happy with it and want to fill the prescription. The only potential side effect it has is stomachaches, and it shouldn't have any interactions with your other medications. There's also no limit to the length of time you can use it. You can just keep on taking it as long as you feel a need.
