The spoken test is scored out of 25 points in total at all levels. Please see the Guide to PTE General at this level for further information.

Please note: The design of the practice tests is not identical to actual PTE General tests.
INSTRUCTIONS FOR INTERLOCUTORS

[Start the test with the following]

Good morning/afternoon. My name’s ___________________

Could you tell me your name, please?

[Begin test]
SECTION 10 (1.5 minutes)

[Put one of the main prompts to the test taker and allow them to speak continuously for up to 1 minute. Use the related follow-up prompts to encourage them to continue talking]

Now I’d like you to speak on your own for about 1 minute.

Main prompt 1: • Tell me about a person in your family who is important in your life.

Follow-up prompts: • What interests do your family members have?
• How much influence do your parents have on your choice of job?
• How important is it to spend time with your family nowadays?
• Give me an example of the problems that may occur between family members.

Main prompt 2: • Do you enjoy travelling? Why/Why not?

Follow-up prompts • Which form of transport would you not use? Why?
• Tell me about a recent trip you made.
• How important is it to experience other cultures by travelling?
• Which city would you like to visit most? Why?

Main prompt 3: • What are the most popular sports for young people in your country?

Follow-up prompts • What sort of activity do you do to keep fit?
• Tell me about the last time you played a team sport.
• How important is it to be active? Why?
• What types of sports are good to watch? Why?

Main prompt 4: • What type of music do you enjoy listening to?

Follow-up prompts • Give me an example of music you don’t like.
• When do you listen to music?
• Where do you go to enjoy music?
• Why do you think some music is popular for many years after it was created?
Now, we are going to discuss something together. The question is: “Should communities continue to celebrate traditional festivals or replace them with more modern ones?”
What do you think?

[Use the following arguments as appropriate to take an opposing view to that of the test taker]

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>For celebrating traditional festivals</th>
<th>Against traditional festivals</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>• They’re important as they help us remember our history.</td>
<td>• We need to be realistic - our culture is changing all the time.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Communities need things to focus on and bring people together.</td>
<td>• It’s not right to stay stuck in the past.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• In a changing world it’s important to maintain traditions.</td>
<td>• Children will only be interested in festivals if they are modern.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Festivals are fun - why change them?</td>
<td>• Our societies are becoming multicultural and festivals should reflect this.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Now, here are two pictures showing two technological developments. Please tell me what you can see in the pictures.

[Hand the pictures to the test taker]

[Allow the test taker to speak for about 1 minute, then put this secondary prompt]

Which of these would it be most difficult for you to live without? Why?

[Retrieve the pictures]
Now we are going to take part in a role play. Here is a card with the situation on it.
[Hand the card to the test taker]
[Allow up to 15 seconds to study the card]

Test taker's card

The situation: You are in a shop. You bought an expensive computer from this shop and when you opened the box the screen was smashed. The examiner is the shop assistant.

Your goal: You want to get your money back (not a replacement)

Interlocutor's script

You are in a shop. You bought an expensive computer from this shop and when you opened the box the screen was smashed. I am the shop assistant.
Alright? You start.

• Hello, how can I help you?
• Are you sure it wasn’t damaged after you left the shop?
• OK, I’ll ask my manager to give you a replacement computer.
• I’m sure he will give you a refund instead.

[Retrieve the card]
Thank you. That is the end of the test.
