Oxford American Dictionary

Heald Colleges Edition

THE MOST AUTHORITATIVE PAPERBOUND DICTIONARY OF AMERICAN USAGE
The New, Recommended

Oxford American Dictionary

From "one of the language's most respected arbiters"

Time

The Oxford dictionaries, based on the work of writers and scholars over hundreds of years, are renowned for setting the highest standards in our changing language. The completely original Oxford American stands as the ultimate American authority on proper writing and speaking.

In addition to concise definitions, preferred spellings, and the newest pronunciation system, the Oxford American features hundreds of examples showing how words should be used, or not used—with cross-references to other words that are confusingly close in meaning.

Created under the direction of preeminent American lexicographers Stuart Berg Flexner, Eugene Ehrlich, and Gorton Carruth, and reviewed by British lexicographer Joyce M. Hawkins, the Oxford American Dictionary is regarded as the finest source of positive guidance in the precise, effective use of our language. It is enthusiastically approved by educators and language authorities as a tool for avoiding the sloppy mistakes that increasingly contaminate our daily communications.

"A MOST REMARKABLE DICTIONARY... The provenance of the Oxford American is far more diverse than its competitors."

The New York Times Book Review
Avon Books are available at special quantity discounts for bulk purchases for sales promotions, premiums, fund raising or educational use. Special books, or book excerpts, can also be created to fit specific needs.

For details write or telephone the office of the Director of Special Markets, Avon Books, Dept. FP, 1350 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10019, 1-800-238-0658.
This new member of the Oxford family of dictionaries has been prepared especially for those who need a compact, up-to-date guide to American English. It contains words and phrases likely to be met in reading and everyday life, including a number of slang, informal, and technical words and phrases. Names of states of the United States are included, as well as state capitals, terms used to designate the people of each state, and names of the provinces of Canada. Names of the countries of the world, including those not yet well-known, are also given, as are names of the capital cities and the terms used to designate the people of each country.

We take this opportunity to express our gratitude to members of the Oxford Dictionary Department of the Oxford University Press for assistance of various kinds, particularly to Dr. John B. Sykes, Editor of the Concise Oxford Dictionary, Sixth Edition, and to Dr. Robert Burchfield, Chief Editor of the Oxford English dictionaries. We are grateful as well to members of the staff of Oxford University Press in New York, most particularly to Marjorie Mueller, Janice Lorimer, and Cecelia Carollo, for help in all stages of our work.

We wish also to express our gratitude to the many members of The Hudson Group dictionary staff who worked on the Oxford American Dictionary. In particular we wish to thank senior staff members: Ernest S. Hildebrand, Jr., Margaret Huffman, Felice Levy, Lawrence T. Lorimer, and Gloria Solomon; associate staff members: Pamela Dupuis, Mary Egner, Richard Ehrlich, Raymond V. Hand, Jr., Joan Lizzio, David H. Scott, and Katherine G. Scott; and assistant staff members: Lee Jayne Ackerman, Christopher Carruth, Hayden Carruth, Cynthia Crippen, Peggy Daly, Patricia Farewell, Sandi Frank, Mary Mattimore, Sheila McCaffrey, and Mary Racette.

Introduction

Spelling

Some words have two or more acceptable spellings in common use, but few variant spellings are given in this dictionary. The aim is not to dictate the use of a particular spelling but to offer a standard form to those who seek one. When two spellings are equally common, the preferred one is given first.

Many spellings commonly used in Canada, such as centre, cheque, colour, and programme, are not included in this dictionary.

Syllabication

Entry words of more than one syllable are shown with syllables separated by a center dot:

fac·sim·i·le

The center dots show the possible division of a word in writing, typing, or printing. Entry words that are normally hyphenated do not have a center dot where the hyphen occurs. A stress mark appears in place of a center dot after a stressed syllable in a word listed within an entry when its pronunciation clearly resembles that of the word at the head of that entry:

ice'skat·er n.

Word Forms

Plurals of nouns, comparatives in -er and superlatives in -est of adjectives and adverbs, and inflected forms of verbs are given when they are irregular or when there might be uncertainty about the spelling. Where only two verb forms are given:

\[
\text{admit (ad-mit) v. (ad-mit-ted, ad-mit-ting)}
\]

the first form is both the past tense (he admitted it) and the past participle (it was admitted). When three forms are given:

\[
\text{come (kum) v. (came, come, com-ing)}
\]
\[
\text{freeze (freez) v. (froze, fro*zen, freez-ing)}
\]

the first is the past tense (he came; it froze) and the second is the past participle (he had come; it had frozen).

For certain inflected verb forms, such as traveled and traveling, some newspapers, journals, and books will use travelled and travelling. Such variant spellings are not given here.

When an entry word, such as label (lay-bel) n., occurs unchanged as a second part of speech, such as label v., the word is given the second or subsequent times without pronunciation or stress.

Symbols

The symbol ▷ introduces usage notes, comments on the meanings of words that are often confused (such as gourmand and gourmet), grammatical points (such as whether data and media are singular or plural), and information about the origins of words and phrases (such as fifth column and sour grapes). The symbol ▷ is also used to indicate that an entry is to be treated as a foreign word:

\[
\text{ibid. abbr. ibidem, = in the same book or passage etc. ▷ Latin.}
\]

The symbol □ introduces phrases employing the entry word (such as gain ground and gain time after the definition of gain).

Usage Labels

Certain entries in this dictionary carry usage labels. One of these labels, contemptuous, indicates that use of the entry word implies contempt. Where an entry word (or one of its meanings) is labeled informal, the word (or the word in one of its meanings) is used in everyday speech but should not be used when speaking or writing formally.

sleazy (slee-zee) adj. (zil·er, zil·est) (informal) dirty and slovenly.

The label old use indicates that the entry word (or one of its meanings) is no longer appropriate in current speech or writing. The label slang indicates that the entry word (or one of its meanings) is to be avoided except in extremely informal circumstances.

Proprietary Names

Entries known to be trademarks or proprietary names are so designated in this dictionary. The presence or absence of such designations should not be regarded as affecting the validity of any trademark or proprietary name.

Pronunciation

Pronunciation is shown in parentheses just after the entry word. Syllables are separated by hyphens in pronunciations, and syllables spoken with the most stress are shown in boldface type:

cease·less (sees·lis) adj.
cloak-and-dag·ger (klohk·ān·dag·ēr)

Only one pronunciation is generally given. When two pronunciations are equally common, the preferred one is given first:

ha·rass (hā·rass, har·ās) v.

Only the stress is shown for a word listed within an entry when its pronunciation closely resembles that of the word at the head of the entry. In such cases syllables are separated by center dots, and the stressed syllable is followed by a stress mark:

comˈpe·tent·ly adv.

Words of one syllable are shown unstressed:

vie (vi)

Pronunciation Key

- a as in act, bat, marry
- ā as in ago, suitable, metal
- ah as in father, calm
- ahr as in arm, cart, bar
- air as in air, dare, scary
- aw as in all, walk, saw
- ay as in age, came, say
- b as in boy, habit, rib
- ch as in chin, teacher, beach
- d as in dog, ladder, head
- e as in egg, bed, merry
- ē as in taken, nickel, lawyer
- ee as in eat, meat, see, key
- eer as in ear, beer, tier
- f as in fat, effort, puff
- g as in get, wagon, big
- h as in hat, ahead
- hw as in wheat, nowhere
- i as in if, give, mirror
- ī as in pencil, credible
- i as in ice, bite, fire, spy
- j as in jam, magic, edge
- k as in king, token, back
- l as in leg, alley, tell
- m as in me, common, him
- n as in no, manner, tan
- ng as in bring, singer, thank
- o as in odd, box, hot
- ō as in official, lemon, ardor
- oh as in oat, bone, sew
- ohr as in board, four, hoarse, adore
- oi as in oil, join, toy
- oo as in ooze, soon, too, rule
- oor as in poor, tour, sure
- or as in bored, for, horse, adorn
- ow as in out, mouse, now
- p as in pin, caper, cap
- r as in red, carry, near
- s as in sit, lesson, nice, cellar
- sh as in she, ashen, rush
- t as in top, butter, hit
- th as in thin, method, path
- th as in this, mother, breathe
- u as in up, cut, come
- ū as in suppose, circus, feature
- ur as in her, fir, burn, hurry
- uu as in book, full, woman
- v as in van, river, give
- w as in will, awoke, quick
- y as in yes, you
- z as in zebra, lazy, tease
- zh as in vision, pleasure

Abbreviations

For the reader’s convenience, few abbreviations are used in this dictionary. The following abbreviations are used throughout:
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>abbr.</th>
<th>abbreviation</th>
<th>n. fem.</th>
<th>feminine noun</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>adj.</td>
<td>adjective</td>
<td>n. pl.</td>
<td>plural noun</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>adv.</td>
<td>adverb</td>
<td>n. sing.</td>
<td>singular noun</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>comb. form</td>
<td>combining form</td>
<td>pl.</td>
<td>plural</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>conj.</td>
<td>conjunction</td>
<td>poss.</td>
<td>possessive</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>fem.</td>
<td>feminine</td>
<td>pr.</td>
<td>pronounced</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>interj.</td>
<td>interjection</td>
<td>prep.</td>
<td>preposition</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>n.</td>
<td>noun</td>
<td>v.</td>
<td>verb</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Abbreviations in general use (such as ft., R.C.Ch., and etc.) are defined in the dictionary itself.
Publisher’s Note

From OED to OAD

To trace the ancestry of this latest Oxford dictionary, one must go back to a little town in southeast Scotland where James Murray was born on February 7, 1837. The son and grandson of tailors, he worked first as a schoolteacher and bank clerk before going on to become one of the greatest lexicographers of all time, the chief editor of the most famous of all dictionaries.

Murray demonstrated a remarkable mind from his earliest days, including an extraordinary capacity for learning languages. He knew the English alphabet by the age of eighteen months, and by the time he was seven he had begun, by comparing various editions of the Bible, to learn Greek, Latin, Hebrew, and Chinese. His insatiable hunger for knowledge led him to lifetime interests in geology and botany, and he identified, classified, and analyzed similarities and differences in rocks and plants with passionate exactitude. He simply never stopped learning, as he described in a letter to his son:

I employed all my leisure time . . . in learning everything that I could, learning as far as I could something about everything that I did not know, while also trying to learn everything that could be known about some things. . . .

Murray became a schoolteacher in 1854, when he was seventeen. From 1870 until 1885 he taught at Mill Hill School, near London. During this time he gained a reputation as a natural scientist and also became a leading scholar of philology, publishing pioneering papers on English dialects and on comparative and historical philology. He received an honorary LL.D from Edinburgh in 1874, entitling him to wear a cap and gown, which became his daily dress for the rest of his life. He also received honorary degrees from Cape Town, Dublin, and numerous other universities, including Oxford.

In 1857 the English Philological Society had come to a decision that was to prove fateful for Murray. The Society decided that all existing English dictionaries were incomplete and deficient and that the entire English language from Anglo-Saxon times onward must be reexamined. Using volunteer readers, the Society then plunged headlong into an erratic, often frenetic, twenty-two-year period of scouring ancient manuscripts as well as books and other publications from all periods. It amassed a somewhat disorganized collection of 4x6 inch slips, weighing almost two tons, on each of which were recorded one word and a citation. In time the Society, realizing that it was better suited to collecting material than to organizing and editing a dictionary, initiated negotiations with the Oxford University Press to take over the ever expanding, ever more complex project.

In 1878 Murray became president of the Philological Society and the following year, with much trepidation, signed a contract for the Society with the Delegates of the Oxford University Press to compile and edit a dictionary, then called A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles. The agreement was for a four-volume, 6400-page work to be completed in ten years, in 1889. It had been estimated that the editorial costs would be £6500. Murray soon came to regard the vast treasure of slips collected over the twenty-two-year period as only the nucleus of the work to come. He first had a Scriptorium built for him to work in and to house the citation files and then set about recruiting some 1300 readers throughout the English-speaking world to search out new words and citations systematically. Francis March, then one of America’s leading philologists and historical grammarians, was chosen to direct the American readers. Other Americans, such as Fitzedward Hall, who had spent sixteen years teaching Sanskrit and English in India before moving to London and taking a professorship at King’s College, were also major contribu-Thus, almost from the start, American sources have been included in the Oxford citation files, and American scholars have contributed their experience and knowledge.

Murray's dedication to the Dictionary was equaled only by his desire for perfection. He often labored eighty to ninety hours a week, initially with only a handful of helpers, which included members of his family. Before long more than a thousand citation slips were arriving daily at the Scriptorium. Moreover, he sent out each day between thirty and forty of his own handwritten letters to contributors and specialists, asking for specific citations, verification, advice, and additional research. He wrote many letters of encouragement and thanks to contributors, inquiring about their health and, eventually, as various sections of the Dictionary began to appear, apologizing to some for not including all their citations in the published work. This taxing correspondence was in addition to his own research on each entry of the Dictionary, the writing of definitions and, later, the editing, proofreading, and rewriting of the typeset galleys. The last was no small task, as his have the reputation of being the most heavily corrected proofs ever known. Some of the corrections derived from the citations and additional research that continued to pour in after entries were completed, but many others from Murray's insistence that not until he saw material in print could he determine the correct order of the definitions and the best choice of citations.

In 1884 the first 352 pages of the Dictionary, A-Ant, were published: half the number of years scheduled for the entire work had yielded the first half of the letter A. The Delegates of the Press felt deep concern over the slow progress and made their concern known to Murray. It was agreed that the work might be speeded by appointing additional editors and moving the Dictionary staff to the vicinity of the Press. In 1885, therefore, Murray relinquished his teaching position at Mill Hill School and moved, with his family and his files, to Oxford.

In Murray's garden at Sunnyside, on Banbury Road in Oxford, a new Scriptorium was built; it had to be sunk rather deep in the ground in order to preserve his next-door neighbor's view. The University provided Murray with a staff of eight assistants and asked him to finish the project at the rate of 704 pages a year. In 1887 Henry Bradley was appointed as a second editor with his own staff of assistants. Although Anta-Battening was published in 1885, Battenlie-Bozzom in 1887, and the final section of B in 1888, the actual rate of accomplishment at Oxford did not increase noticeably. The first nine years had produced only the first volume of a work that was ultimately to consist of twelve volumes.

The years of hard work went on. By the last half of the 1890s, the almost yearly crises and recriminations over the time spent on the Dictionary came to an end. By then it was realized that it was not Murray and his staff who were causing the delay but the complexities and perversities of the English language.

William Craigie, a Scotsman like Murray, joined the Dictionary team in 1897 and worked under Murray for four years before becoming a full editor and assuming responsibility for the letter Q. In 1914 C. T. Onions, who had been an assistant since 1895, became a full editor, and his article on super- and its compounds, rivaling Bradley's 23-page article on set and proclaimed a masterpiece, was to be the longest article in the Dictionary. Murray recognized the brilliance of Bradley and Craigie and accepted the two men, yet he was never convinced that anyone else had his complete dedication to the work or his knack of writing definitions. With eighteen assistants, Bradley, Craigie, Onions, and Murray together completed anywhere from fifteen to fifty final pages a month. Murray usually produced two or three times as many pages as the others, whose time was limited by teaching and other editing tasks.

In 1897 the Vice-Chancellor of Oxford, marking the completion of Volume III (dedicated to Queen Victoria), gave a dinner in honor of Murray, and at this time several University officials expressed the widespread conviction that, although the project would always be a drain on Oxford’s finances, it was already a national asset. Murray, perhaps incautiously warming to their enthusiasm, predicted that the Dictionary would be completed by 1908, which proved to be just twenty years short of the mark. But the Dictionary was already developing into much more than a national asset of England. Around the world each new installment was eagerly awaited by scholars and word lovers. The parts already issued were becoming the final authority on the English language in law courts, government bureaus, scholarly debates, newspaper offices, and publishing houses.

Murray was knighted in 1908. In 1908, too, while watching Murray ride his tricycle through the streets of Oxford, the famous physician Sir William Osler told a friend: “The University pays me my salary to keep that old man alive till his 80th birthday in 1917 when the Dictionary will be finished.” Indeed, Murray was now promising that the Dictionary would be finished on his eightieth birthday, and some of his visitors and correspondents had taken to wishing him well with “May you live to see Zymotic” (the last word in the Dictionary actually turned out to be Zyxt).

Murray did not live to see the dictionary completed. Having spent the last thirty-six years of his life on the project, he died after finishing Trink-Turndown in July 1915, two years short of his eightieth birthday. Much still remained to be done by Bradley, Craigie, and Onions, but Murray died knowing that the work would be completed and that it could never be—and would never need to be—done again. The Oxford English Dictionary, as it was eventually named, was finished in 1928. H. L. Mencken had written that spies at Oxford told him the University would celebrate with “boxing matches between the dons . . . and a series of medieval drinking bouts,” but the project had taken so long and already become so famous that only a modest celebration was held. The completed work, bound in twelve large volumes, contained 15,487 pages defining every known meaning of 414,825 words with 1,827,306 supporting and illustrative quotations from Anglo-Saxon times into the twentieth century. The historical record of every meaning, change of meaning, use, spelling, and grammatical form was given for each entry from its first appearance in the written language. The 178 miles of typeset material were completed seventy years after the Dictionary’s inception and forty-four years after the first part of A had been published. No dictionary in any language has approached it in thoroughness, authority, and wealth of linguistic information. It was considered by many to be the greatest scholarly achievement of all time—and it still is.

When the final twelve-volume set was published, Oxford announced that a Supplement was in progress. That first Supplement, edited by Craigie and Onions, was published in 1933. The Compact Edition of the Oxford English Dictionary, which first appeared in 1971, comprises the twelve volumes plus this 1933 Supplement, reproduced micrographically in two volumes and boxed with a magnifying glass. The 1933 Supplement made it clear that constant growth and change in the living English language call for periodic publication of new supplements. Work continues today on “the longest running serial” in the English-speaking world. Under the direction of Dr. Robert Burchfield, the present Oxford dictionary staff of twenty editors and ten researchers—still using readers and advisers from around the world in special subject areas—is at work on a new Supplement.

Burchfield, like Murray before him, is “the man who came to dinner” at Oxford and never left. A New Zealander, he arrived at Oxford as a Rhodes scholar, stayed on to lecture on the English language, and was led into lexicography by C. T. Onions. He was appointed editor of A Supplement to the Oxford English Dictionary in 1957 and was made Chief Editor of the Oxford English dictionaries in 1971. Following in Murray’s footsteps in more ways than one, in 1957 Burchfield thought that the new Supplement would be a one-volume project requiring seven years to complete. Volume I, A-G, of this new Supplement was published in 1972 and Volume II, H-N, in 1976. In 1980, he and his staff are editing and reading proofs for Volume III, O-Scz. His Supplement is growing into four volumes.

Long before the original twelve-volume OED was completed, Oxford lexicographers began to compile shorter dictionaries based on it and using its resources and methods. It was the Fowlers who set the pattern for these shorter Oxford dictionaries. The brothers’ association with the Press began shortly after the turn of the century, when they undertook a four-volume translation of the second-century Greek satirist Lucian. Their translation was so meticulous and tasteful that the New York Times came to the conclusion that they were women. They were, in fact, grave, modest, and hard-working brothers, Henry W. born in 1858 and Frank G., twelve years his junior. After graduating from Oxford, Henry spent seventeen years as a schoolteacher before deciding to work as a journalist in London. He later left London to join Frank in Guernsey, an island in the English Channel, where the brothers built granite cottages and began their translation of Lucian.

In 1906 the Fowler brothers published The King’s English, offering a set of marvelously inflexible rules to be followed and setting forth common blunders and “literary blemishes” to be avoided. Henry described it as “a sort of English composition manual from the negative point of view.” The book had an added benefit: it provided the answer to Oxford’s question of who would compile a “short dictionary” from the as yet only 70 percent completed OED. The reclusive Fowlers never met Murray, they did not visit Oxford, and no one from Oxford went to Guernsey. They finished the Concise Oxford Dictionary in 1911, the work having taken just five years—as they said it would.

When World War I broke out, fifty-seven-year-old Henry and forty-five-year-old Frank decided they were needed at the front. Lying about their ages, they enlisted in the British army and were dismayed when they were assigned to menial work rather than battle duty. Henry was discharged in 1916—fit and hearty—but Frank died of consumption in 1918 while still in the service. Henry returned to Guernsey and finished another dictionary based on the OED, The Pocket Oxford Dictionary, one size smaller than the Concise, which had been begun by Frank in 1911. It was published in 1924 and bore the names of both Henry and Frank Fowler. At the same time Henry continued writing the extraordinary Modern English Usage, which he had begun in 1911, a book in which every major hazard of English usage was pointed out for the edification and delight of writers for generations to come. In 1926, its first year of publication, it was reprinted four times in England, and sold over 50,000 copies in the United States. Fowler said he wrote it with “a cheerful attitude of infallibility.” His now-famous warnings about vogue words and genteeelisms are classic and, like most of the book’s basic content, valid today.

The Fowlers were the first to use the OED to compile small Oxford dictionaries, and many other dictionaries have followed. All such Oxford dictionaries rely, of course, on the authority, standards, and scholarship created by the OED and maintained in its Supplements. The Oxford American Dictionary (OAD) differs from the others in that it is the first to use American lexicographers and editors. Although American and British English share a vast vocabulary, each has its own words, phrases, meanings, spellings, pronunciations, and forms. It was obvious, therefore, that an American staff was needed for the Oxford American Dictionary. With the help and advice of the Oxford dictionary staff in England, Oxford University Press in New York assembled an American staff under Eugene Ehrlich, Stuart Berg Flexner, and Gorton Carruth. Ehrlich is a member of the Department of English and Comparative Literature, Columbia University, and an authority on American usage. Flexner is a distinguished lexicographer and author, and Carruth is a well-known editor of reference books. All entries were chosen, compiled, spelled, syllabicated, and given pronunciation by this American staff, which worked closely with Joyce Hawkins, a member of the Oxford dictionary staff in England and editor of the Oxford Paperback Dictionary, which formed the basis of the present work. John Sykes, editor of the Sixth Edition of the Concise Oxford Dictionary, and Robert Burchfield also gave generously of their experience and advice. The Oxford American Dictionary is thus true to the American language as well as to the Oxford dictionary tradition and standards. It is worth pointing out that the American editors followed the Fowlers' example in completing their manuscript on time and, to a degree, they have emulated Fowler's "cheerful attitude of infallibility" in matters of usage. They also were true to Murray's tradition in that they compiled a dictionary somewhat longer than originally planned.

Like the shorter Oxford dictionaries in England, this Oxford American Dictionary is not intended to be comprehensive or to be a substitute for an encyclopedia or larger dictionary. It has been compiled for everyday use in home, school, office, and library. It emphasizes concise and precise definitions presented in a straightforward way. It does not use synonyms to define words unless they help distinguish shades of meaning. It supplies the most common current meanings, spellings, and pronunciations. All spellings and pronunciations are American unless otherwise labeled. As a special feature, a new pronunciation system is employed that is simpler and easier to use than systems used in previous American dictionaries. It enables readers, no matter what their regional speech patterns, to pronounce words without difficulty.

Another feature of this dictionary is that it makes a particular point of indicating correct American usage. For speakers and writers, therefore, who want a dictionary that distinguishes between good and bad English, the Oxford American Dictionary sets high, somewhat conservative standards in usage. Many sample sentences are provided which serve as guides to usage while illuminating meanings. Usage labels and more than six hundred usage notes indicate the linguistic and social appropriateness of various words and phrases. (See, for example, the entries for data, hopefully, and loan.) These usage labels and notes reflect analysis of the current language tempered by linguistic experience and sensibility. For these reasons, Oxford University Press is confident the OAD, compiled by Americans for Americans and for students of the American language all over the world, will supply the precise information most needed by the user.
A, a (ay) (pl. As, A's, a's) 1. the first letter of the alphabet. 2. A, a grade rating for excellent school work. □ A one, A1, (informal) in perfect condition; first-rate. from A to Z, from beginning to end.

a adj. (called the indefinite article) 1. one person or thing but not any specific one, I need a knife. 2. per, we pay $150 a week; twice a day. △ See an.

a-back (ā-bāk) adv. taken aback, disconcerted.

ab-a-cus (ab-ā-kūs) n. (pl. -cus'es, -cil, pr. -s) a frame containing parallel rods with beads that slide up and down, used for counting.

a-ban-don (ā-ban-dōn) v. 1. to go away from (a person or thing or place) without intending to return; abandon ship, leave a sinking ship. 2. to give up, to cease work on, abandon hope; abandon the attempt. 3. to yield completely to an emotion or impulse, abandoned himself to despair. abandon n. careless freedom of manner. a-ban'don-ment n.

a-ban-doned (ā-ban-dōnd) adj. (of behavior) showing abandon, lacking restraint, depraved.

a-base (ā-bays) v. (a-based, a-bas-ing) to humiliate, to degrade. a-base' ment n.

a-bash (ā-bash) v. to embarrass, to confound.

a-bashed (ā-bašt) adj. embarrassed or ashamed. a-bash'ed-ly adv.

a-bate (ā-bayt) v. (a-bat-ed, a-bat-ing) 1. to make or become less. 2. (legal) to end, abate the nuisance. 3. to die down, reduce, the storm abated. a-bate' ment n.

ab-at-toir (ab-ā-twahr) n. a slaughterhouse.

ab-bess (ab-ēs) n. a woman who is head of an abbey of nuns.

ab-bey (ab-ce) n. (pl. -beys) 1. a building occupied by monks or nuns living as a community. 2. the community itself. 3. the church of an abbey.

ab-bot (ab-bōt) n. a man who is head of an abbey of monks.

abbr., abbrev. abbr. 1. abbreviated. 2. abbreviation.

ab-bre-vi-ate (ā-bre-vi-ayt) v. (ab-bre-vi-at-ed, ab-bre-vi-at-ing) to shorten (especially a word or title).

ab-bre-vi-a-tion (ā-bre-vi-ay-shōn) n. 1. abbreviating, being abbreviated. 2. a shortened form of a word or title.

ABC (ay-bee-see) n. (pl. ABC's, ABCs) 1. the alphabet. 2. ABC's. ABC's, the elementary facts of a subject, the ABC's of carpentry.

ab-di-cate (ab-di-kayt) v. (ab-di-cat-ed, ab-di-cat-ing) to resign from a throne or other high office. ab-di-ca-tion (ab-di-kay-shōn) n.

ab-do-men (ab-dō-men) n. 1. the part of the body below the chest and diaphragm, containing most of the digestive organs. 2. the hindmost section of the body of an insect, spider, or crustacean, head, thorax, and abdomen.

ab-dom-i-nal (ab-dom-i-nal) adj. ab-dom'i-nal-ly adv.

ab-duct (ab-dukt) v. to carry off (a person) illegally by force or fraud. ab-duc-tion (ab-duk-shōn) n. ab-duc'tor n.

Ab-er-deen Angus (ab-er-deen an-gūs) a Scottish breed of black hornless cattle.

ab-er-rant (ā-ber-ānt) adj. deviating from what is normal or from a standard. ab-er-rance (ā-ber-āns) n. ab-er-ran-cy (ā-ber-ān-se) n.

ab-er-ra-tion (ab-ē-ray-shōn) n. 1. a deviation from what is normal. 2. a mental or moral lapse. 3. a distortion, as of an image produced through an imperfect lens.

a-bet (ā-bet) v. (a-bet-ted, a-bet-ting) to encourage or assist in committing an offense. a-bet'tor n. a-bet'ter n. a-bet'ment n.

a-bey-ance (ā-bay-āns) n. in abeyance, (of a right or rule or problem etc.) suspended for a time.

ab-hor (ab-hōr) v. (ab-horred, ab-hor-ring) to detest.

ab-hor-rent (ab-hōr-ēnt) adj. detestable. ab-hor'rence n.
a·bide (ā-bid) v. (a·bode pr. ā-bohd, or a·bid·ed, a·bid·ing) 1. (old use) to remain, to dwell. 2. to bear, to endure, can't abide complainers. □ abide by, to act in accordance with; abide by a promise, keep it; abide by the consequences, accept them.

a·bid·ing (ā-brid-ing) adj. long-lasting, permanent. a·bid·ing·ly adv.

Ab·i·djan (ab-i-jahn) the capital of the Ivory Coast.

a·bil·i·ty (a-bil-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. the quality that makes something or a person act, be possible, or have power to do something. 2. cleverness, talent.

ab·ject (ab-jekt, ab-ject) adj. wretched, miserable, destitute of all property, respect, or personal dignity; without resources. ab·ject·ly adv. ab·ject·ness n. ab·ject·ion (ab-jeck-shn) n.

ab·jure (ab-joor) v. (ab-jured, ab-jur·ing) to renounce under oath. ab·ju·ra·tion (ab-jū-ray-shn) n. □ Do not confuse abjure with adjure.

abl. abbr. ablativ.

ab·la·tive (ab-la-tiv) adj. of the ablative case. Latin and other languages have cases corresponding to ablative; in Latin the ablative denotes an instrument, place, time, direction, purpose, etc. ab·la·tive adj. ab·la·tive·ly adv.

ab·la·tion (a-bla-tshn) n. pl. ablutions (a-blo-shonz) n. ablutions are acts of cleansing oneself.

a·blum (a-blum) abbr. antiballistic missile.

ab·ne·gate (ab-nē-gayt) v. (ab-ne·gat·ed, ab·ne·gat·ing) 1. to deny oneself (something). 2. to renounce (a right or belief).

ab·ne·ga·tion (ab-nē-gā-shn) n. renunciation, renunciation of belief, right, or responsibility.

ab·nor·mal (ab-nōr-māl) adj. ab·nor·mal·i·ty (ab-nōr-mal-i-te) n.

a·board (ā-bōrd) adv. & prep. on or into a ship, aircraft, or train.

a·bode1 see abide.

a·bode2 (ā-bōd) n. a dwelling place.

a·bol·ish (ā-bōl·ish) v. to put an end to, abolish slavery. a·bo·li·tion (a-bō-li-shon) n.

a·bo·li·tion·ism (ab-ō-lish-ō-niz-em) n. a movement against slavery.

ab·o·li·tion·ist (ab-ō-lish-ō-nist) n. (sometimes Abolitionist) a person who advocates abolition, especially of slavery of blacks in the U.S. in the 19th century.

A·bomb (ay-bom) n. an atomic bomb.

a·bom·i·na·ble (ā-bom-i-nā-bel) adj. 1. detestable, loathsome. 2. very bad or unpleasant, abominable weather.

Ab·omina·ble Snowman, a large manlike or bearlike animal said to exist in the Himalayas, a yeti.

a·bom·i·na·tion (ā-bom-i-nā-shn) n. 1. loathing. 2. something loathed.

ab·o·rig·i·nal (ab-ō-rig-i-nal) n. inhabitant or descendant of any pre-European indigenous population of Australia.

ab·o·rig·i·ne (ab-ō-rig-i-ne) n. one of the earliest known inhabitants of a continent or country.

a·bor·tion (ā-bor-shn) n. 1. the expulsion (either spontaneous or induced) of a fetus from the womb before it is able to survive, especially in the first twenty-eight weeks of pregnancy. 2. the fetus so aborted.

a·bor·tion·ist (ā-bor-shō-nist) n. a person who induces abortions.

a·bor·tive (ā-bor-tiv) adj. 1. producing abortion. 2. unsuccessful, abortive attempt. a·bor·tive·ly adv. a·bor·tive·ness n.

a·bound (ā-bōnd) v. 1. to be plentiful, fish abound in the river. 2. to have in great quantities, the river abounds in fish.

a·bout·face (a·bawt-fays) n. a complete reversal of previous actions or opinions.

a·bove (ā-buv) adv. 1. at or to a higher point. 2. earlier in a book or article, mentioned above. above prep. 1. over, higher than, more than. 2. upstream from.
beyond the level or reach of, she is above suspicion. 4. more important than, this above all.

a·bo·ve·board (ə-bəv·bohrd) adj. & adv. without deception or concealment, done honorably.

ab·ra·ca·d·ab·ra (ə-brə-kə-də-brə) n. 1. a supposedly magic formula or spell. 2. gibberish.

a·brade (ə-brād) v. (a-brād·ed, a-brād·ing) to scrape or wear away by rubbing. a·bra·sion (ə-brā-shən) n.

a·bra·sive (ə-brā-siv) adj. 1. causing abrasion. 2. harsh, causing angry feelings, an abrasive personality. abrasive n. a substance used for grinding or polishing surfaces. a·bra·sive·ly adv. a·bra·sive·ness n.

a·bre·ast (ə-brest) adv. 1. side by side and facing the same way. 2. keeping up, not behind, keep abreast of modern developments.

a·bridge (ə-brıdʒ) v. (a-brıdged, a-brıd·ging) to shorten by using fewer words, an abridged version of the novel. a·brıdgment n.

a·bro·ad (ə-braʊd) adv. 1. away from one's own country. 2. far and wide, everywhere, scattered the seeds abroad. 3. out and about, the rumor has been abroad for many days.

a·bro·ga·tive (ə-brō-gə-tiv) adj. & n. 1. to cancel or repeal, abrogate a law. a·bro·ga·tion (ə-brō-gə-shən) n. □ Do not confuse abrogate with abrogate.

a·bru·pt (ə-brup·t) adj. 1. sudden, come to an abrupt stop. 2. disconnected, not smooth, short abrupt sentences. 3. curt. 4. (of a slope) very steep. a·bru·pt·ly adv. a·bru·pt·ness n.

ab·ses·sion (ə-bəs·sən·shən) n. a collection of pus formed in the body. ab·ses·sioned adj.

ab·sci·sa (ə-bəs·sə·sə) n. (pl. -ab·sci·sa, -ab·sci·sae, pr. -ab·sci·see) 1. the part of a line between a fixed point on it and the ordinate drawn to it from any other point. 2. a coordinate measured parallel to the x-axis (horizontal axis).

ab·scend (ə-bəskənd) v. to go away secretly, especially after wrongdoing. ab·scend·er n.

ab·sen·ce (ə-bəsəns) n. 1. being away, the period of this. 2. lack, nonexistence, in the absence of proof. 3. inattention, absence of mind.

ab·sent (ə-bəsent) adj. 1. not present, absent from school. 2. nonexistent, lacking. 3. with one's mind on other things, stared in an absent way. absent (ə-bəsent) v. to stay away, absented himself from the meeting. ab·sent·ly adv.

ab·sen·tee (ə-bəsen·tee) n. a person who is absent from work etc. □ absen·tee ballot, a ballot cast by mail by a voter away from his or her usual voting place. absen·tee landlord, one who seldom visits the premises he lets.

ab·sent·mind·ed (ə-bəsent·mənd·id) adj. with one's mind on other things, forgetful.

ab·sin·the, ab·sinth (ə-bəsinθ) n. a green liqueur made from brandy with wormwood and other herbs.

ab·so·lute (ə-bəsə-lūt) adj. 1. complete, absolute silence. 2. unrestricted, absolute power. 3. independent, not relative, there is no absolute standard for beauty. 4. (informal) utter, out-and-out, it's an absolute shame. □ absolute pitch, ability to recognize or reproduce the pitch of notes in music; the pitch of a note defined scientifically in terms of vibrations per second.

ab·so·lute·ly (ə-bəsə-lūt·lee) adv. 1. completely. 2. without restrictions, unconditionally. 3. actually, it absolutely exploded. 4. (informal) quite so, yes.

ab·so·lu·tion (ə-bəsə-lu·shən) n. a priest's formal declaration of the forgiveness of penitents' sins.

ab·so·lu·tism (ə-bəsə-lu·tiz·əm) n. the principle of absolute government, despotism. ab·so·lu·tist n.

ab·sol·ve (ə-bəsəlv) v. (ab·sol·ved, ab·sol·ving) 1. to clear of blame or guilt. 2. to give absolution to (a person). 3. to free from an obligation.

ab·sorb (ə-bəsərb) v. 1. to take in, to combine or merge into itself or oneself, absorb fluid, food, knowledge; the large firm absorbed the smaller ones, gained control of them and incorporated them into its operations. 2. to bear the brunt of, to reduce the effect of, buffers absorbed most of the shock. 3. to occupy or hold the attention or interest of, his work absorbs him completely; an absorbing book. ab·sor·ber n. ab·sorp·tion (ə-bəsərp·shən) n. ab·sorp·tive (ə-bəsərp·tiv) adj. ab·sor·ping·ly adj. ab·sor·ping·ly adv. □ Do not confuse absorb with adsorb.

ab·sorb·a·ble (ə-bəsərb·əbəl) adj. able to be absorbed.

ab·sorb·ent (ə-bəsərb·ənt) adj. able to absorb moisture etc., absorbent cotton. ab·sorb·en·cy n. □ Do not confuse absorbent with adsorbent.

ab·stain (ə-bəstən) v. 1. to keep oneself from some action or indulgence, especially from drinking alcohol. 2. to refrain from using one's vote. ab·stain·er n. ab·sten·tion (ə-bəsten·shən) n.

ab·ste·mi·ous (ə-bəstə·mi·əs) adj. sparse ing in one’s taking of food and drink, not self-indulgent. ▷ An abstemious person does not abstain entirely. ab-stem'i-ous-ly adj. ab-stem'i-ous-ness n.
ab-sti-nence (ab-sti-nens) n. abstaining, especially from food or alcohol. ab-sti-nent adj.
ab-stract (ab-strakt) adj. 1. having no material existence. 2. theoretical rather than practical. abstract n. 1. an abstract quality or idea. 2. a summary. 3. an example of abstract art. abstract (ab-strakt) v. 1. to take out, to separate, to remove. 2. to make a written summary. ab-stract'ly adv. ab-stract'ness n. ab-stract'er n. □ abstract art, art that does not represent things pictorially but expresses the artist’s ideas or sensations.
abstract expressionism, a form of abstract art in which paint is applied by spontaneous or random action of the artist. In the abstract, regarded theoretically, he favors economy in the abstract but refuses to economize. ab-stract'ed (ab-strakt-tid) adj. with one’s mind on other things, not paying attention. ab-stract'ed'ly adv. ab-stract'ed'ness n.
ab-strac-tion (ab-strak-shdn) n. 1. abstracting, removing. 2. an abstract idea. 3. abstractedness. 4. an example of abstract art.
ab-struse (ab-stroos) adj. hard to understand, profound. ab-struse'ly adv. ab-struse'ness n.
ab-sur'd (ab-surd) adj. 1. not in accordance with common sense, very unsuitable. 2. ridiculous, foolish. ab-sur'd'ly adv. ab-sur'd'ly adv. (pl. -ties).
A·bu Dha·bi (ah-boo dah-bee) the capital of the federation of United Arab Emirates.
a·bun·dance (ä-bun-dåns) n. a quantity that is more than enough, plenty.
a·bun·dant (ä-bun-dånt) adj. 1. more than enough, plentiful. 2. having plenty of something, rich, a land abundant in minerals. a·bun·dant'ly adv.
ab·use (ä-byooz) n. 1. a misuse. 2. an unjust or corrupt practice. 3. abusive words, insults. abuse (ä-byooz) v. (a·bused, a·bus·ing) 1. to make a bad or wrong use of, abuse one’s authority. 2. to treat badly. 3. to attack in words, to utter insults to or about.
a·bu·sive (ä-byoo-siv) adj. insulting, criticizing harshly or angrily. a·bu·sive·ly adv. a·bu·sive·ness n.
a·but (ä-but) v. (a·but·ted, a·but·ting) to have a common boundary, to end or lean against, their land abuts on ours.
a·but·ment (ä-but·mənt) n. a support from which an arch or vault etc. springs, and which receives the lateral thrust.
a·by·s·mal (ä·biz·mal) adj. 1. extreme, abysmal ignorance. 2. (informal) extremely bad, their taste is abysmal.
a·by·s·mal·ly adv.
a·byss (ä-bis) n. a hole so deep that it appears bottomless.
Ac symbol actinium.
Ac, A.C., ac, a.c. abbr. alternating current.
A/C, a/c, ac abbr. 1. account. 2. account current.
a·ca·cla (ä·kə-kələ) n. 1. a tree or shrub from which gum arabic is obtained. 2. a related tree (the false acacia or locust tree) grown for ornament.
acad. abbr. 1. academic. 2. academy.
ac·a·dem·ic (ak·ə·dem·ik) adj. 1. of a school, college, or university. 2. scholarly as opposed to technical or practical, academic subjects. 3. of theoretical interest only, with no practical application. a·ca·dem·ic n. an academic person.
ac·a·dem·i·cal·ly adv.
a·cad·e·mi·clan (ä-kəd·ə-mi·klən) n. a member of an academy.
a·cad·e·my (ä·kə-də·mi) n. 1. a school, especially for specialized training. 2. Academy, a society of scholars or artists.
a·can·thus (ä·kan·thəs) n. 1. a herbaceous plant with large prickly leaves. 2. a decoration resembling such leaves, in Greek architecture.
a·cap·pel·la (ah kə-pel·ə) (of choral music) unaccompanied. ▷ Italian, = in church style.
acc. abbr. 1. account. 2. accusative.
ac·cede (ak·seed) v. (ac·ced·ed, ac·ced·ing) 1. to take office, to become monarch, she acceded to the throne twenty-six years ago. 2. to agree to what is proposed, please accede to our request. ▷ Do not confuse accede with exceed.
ac·cel·er·ate (ak·sel·ə·rayt) v. (ac·cel·er·at·ed, ac·cel·er·at·ing) 1. to cause to move faster or happen earlier, to increase the speed of a motor vehicle. 2. to become faster, to move or happen more quickly. a·cel·er·a·tion (ak·sel·ə·ray·shən) n.
a·cel·er·a·tor (ak·sel·ə·ray·tər) n. 1. a device for increasing speed, a pedal controlling the throttle in a motor vehicle. 2. an apparatus using electric and magnetic fields to give high velocities to free electrons or other atomic particles.
a·cent (ak·sent) n. 1. emphasis on a syllable or word. 2. a mark indicating such emphasis or the quality of a vowel sound. 3. a national, local, or individual way of pronouncing words. 4. the emphasis given to something, the accent is on quality. accent (ak-sent, ak-sent) v. 1. to pronounce with an accent. 2. to emphasize. ac-cen-tu-al (ak-sen-choo-al) adj.

ac-cen-tu-ate (ak-sen-choo-ayt) v. ac-cen-tu-ate-ed, ac-cen-tu-ate-ing to emphasis. ac-cen-tu-a-tion (ak-sen-choo-ay-shon) n.

ac-cpt (ak-sept) v. 1. to take (a thing offered) willingly, to say yes to an offer or invitation. 2. to undertake (a responsibility); we accept liability for the accident, agree that we are legally responsible. 3. to treat as welcome, they were never really accepted by their neighbors. 4. to be willing to agree to, we accept the proposed changes. 5. to take as true, we do not accept your conclusions. ac-cpt’or n. □ Do not confuse accept with except.

ac-cpt’a-ble (ak-sep-tä-bël) adj. 1. worth accepting. 2. tolerable, an acceptable risk. ac-cpt’a-bly adv. ac-cpt’a-bil’ty (ak-sep-tä-bil’tee) n.

ac-cpt’ance (ak-sep-täns) n. 1. the act of accepting. 2. an agreement to pay a bill, a bill so accepted.

ac-ces (ak-ses) n. 1. a way in, a means of approaching or entering, the window provided easy access. 2. the right or opportunity of reaching or using, students need access to books. 3. an attack of emotion, an access of tears. □ Do not confuse access with excess.

ac-ces’si-ble (ak-ses-së-bël) adj. able to be reached or used. ac-ces’si-bly adv. ac-ces’si-bil’ty (ak-ses-së-bil’tee) n.

ac-ces’sion (ak-sesh’ön) n. 1. reaching a rank or position, the monarch’s accession to the throne. 2. an addition, being added, recent museum accessions.

ac-ces’sory (ak-ses-sö-ree) adj. additional, extra. accessory n. 1. a thing that is extra, useful, or decorative but not essential, a minor fitting or attachment. 2. a person who helps another in a crime.

ac-ci-dent (ak-sid-ënt) n. 1. an unexpected or undesirable event, especially one causing injury or damage. 2. chance, fortune, we met by accident.

ac-ci-den’tal (ak-si-den-tal) adj. happening by accident. accidental n. a sign attached to a single note in music, showing temporary departure from the key signature. ac-ci-den’tal’ly adv.

ac-claim (ä-klaym) v. to welcome with shouts of approval, to applaud enthusiastically. acclaim n. a shout of welcome, applause. ac-cla-ma-tion (ak-lä-mä-yeshon) n. □ Do not confuse acclamation with acclimation.

ac-cli-mate (ak-il-mayt, ä-kli-mit) v. (ac-cli-mat-ed, ac-cli-mat-ing) to get used to a new climate or new conditions. ac-cli-ma-tion (ak-II-may-shon) n. □ Do not confuse acclimation with acclamation.

ac-cli-ma-tize (ä-kli-mä-tiz) v. (ac-cli-ma-tized, ac-cli-ma-tiz-ing) to acclimate. ac-cli-ma-ti-zation (ä-kli-mä-ti-zay-shon) n.

ac-co-lade (ak-ö-layd) n. 1. a ceremonial tap on the shoulder with the flat of a sword, given to mark the conferring of knighthood. 2. praise, approval.

ac-com’mo-date (ä-kom-ö-dayt) v. (ac-com’mo-dat-ed, ac-com’mo-dat-ing) 1. to provide or supply. 2. to provide lodging or room for. 3. to adapt, to make harmonize, I will accommodate my plans to yours.

ac-com’mo-dat’ing (ä-kom-ö-day ting) adj. willing to do as one is asked.

ac-com’mo-da’tion (ä-kom-ö-day-shon) n. 1. the process of accommodating or adapting. 2. accommodations, lodgings, living premises.

ac-com’pa-ni-ment (ä-kum-pä-nënt) n. 1. an accompanying thing. 2. an instrumental part supporting a solo instrument, a voice, or a choir.

ac-com’pa-nil’st (ä-kum-pä-nilst) n. a person who plays a musical accompaniment.

ac-com’pa-ny (ä-kum-pä-ne) v. (ac-com’pa-nil’ed, ac-com’pa-nil’ing) 1. to go with, to travel with as a companion or helper. 2. to be present with, the fever was accompanied by delirium. 3. to provide in addition. 4. to play a musical accompaniment to.

ac-com’plish (ä-kum-plish) n. a partner in wrongdoing.

ac-com’plish’er n.

ac-com’plish’ed (ä-kum-plishëd) adj. skilled, having many accomplishments.

ac-com’plish’ment (ä-kum-plish-mënt) n. 1. accomplishing. 2. skill in a social or domestic art.

ac-cord (ä-kord) n. consent, agreement. accord v. 1. to be in harmony or consistent. 2. to give or grant, he was accorded this privilege. ac-cord’ant adj. □ of one’s own accord, without being asked or compelled. □ with one accord, all agreeing.

ac-cord’ance (ä-kor-däns) n. agreement, conformity.

ac-cord’ing (ä-kor-ding) adv. according as, in proportion as, in a manner that depends on, was praised or blamed according as her work was good or bad. ac-cord’ing to, as stated by or in, according to the Bible; in a manner consistent with or in proportion to, grouped according to size.

ac·cord·ing·ly (ə-kɔr-dıŋ-lee) adv. 1. according to what is known or stated, find out the facts and act accordingly. 2. therefore.

ac·cor·di·on (ə-kɔr-di-ən) n. a portable musical instrument with bellows, keys, and metal reeds. accordion adj. folding like a bellows.

ac·cost (ə-kɔst) v. 1. to approach and speak to. 2. (of a prostitute) to solicit.

ac·count (ə-kənt) n. 1. a statement of money paid or owed for goods or services. 2. a credit arrangement with a bank or business firm. 3. importance, that is of no account. 4. a description, a report. account v. to regard as, a person is accounted innocent until proved guilty. [account book], a book for keeping accounts in. account executive, a person in a business who is responsible for overseeing a client's account. account for, to give a reckoning of (money received); to explain the cause of; to be the explanation of. account payable, (in bookkeeping) a liability to a creditor. account receivable, (in bookkeeping) a claim against a debtor. by all accounts, according to what everyone says. give a good account of oneself, to perform well. keep accounts, to keep a systematic record of money spent and received. on account, as an interim payment, here is $10 on account; debited to be paid for later, bought it on account. on account of, because of. on no account, under no circumstances, never. one's own account, for one's own purposes and at one's own risk. take into account, to make allowances for.

ac·count·a·ble (ə-kɔntə-bəl) adj. 1. obliged to give a reckoning or explanation for one's actions etc., responsible. 2. able to be explained. account·a·bil·i·ty (ə-kɔntə-bəl-i-ti) n.

ac·count·ant (ə-kənt·ənt) n. a person whose profession is to audit and maintain business accounts and to file tax returns.

ac·count·an·cy n.

ac·count·ing (ə-kənt·əŋ) n. the process of keeping and verifying accounts.

ac·cou·tre·ments (ə-kə-trə-mənts) n. pl. equipment, a soldier's outfit other than weapons and clothes.

Ac·cra (ə-krah) the capital of Ghana.

ac·cred·it·ed (ə-kred-ət-id) adj. 1. officially recognized, the school is fully accredited. 2. generally recognized or believed. 3. certified as being of a prescribed quality.

ac·cre·tes (ə-kret-es) v. ac·cre·ting, 1. to grow by addition of foreign material or by natural growth. 2. to grow together, into one.

ac·cre·tion (ə-kri-shən) n. 1. a growth or increase by means of gradual additions. 2. the growing of separate things into one.

ac·cre·tive (ə-kret-ə-tiv) adj. as accretion, accretive, to come as a natural increase or advantage, to accumulate, interest accrues on a savings account. ac·cre·tive n.

ac·cul·tu·ra·tion (ə-kul-chə-ray-shən) n. process of adapting to a different culture.

ac·cu·mu·late (ə-kə-myoo-ə-lat) v. ac·cu·mu·lat·ing 1. to acquire an increasing quantity of. 2. to increase in quantity or amount. ac·cu·mu·la·tion (ə-kə-myoo-ə-lə-shən) n.

ac·cu·rate (ə-kə-rət) adj. 1. free from error, conforming exactly to a standard or to truth. 2. careful and exact, showing precision, an accurate mind. ac·cu·rate·ly adv. ac·cu·ra·cy n. ac·cu·rate·ness n.

ac·cus·ed (ə-kə-səd) adj. 1. under a curse. 2. (informal) detestable, hateful.

ac·cus·a·tion (ə-kə-zə-shən) n. 1. accusing, being accused. 2. a statement accusing a person of a fault, crime, or wrongdoing.

ac·cus·a·tive (ə-kə-zə-tiv) adj. of the case denoting the object of a verb or preposition. accusative n. 1. the accusative or objective case. 2. a word in this case, as him in we saw him.

ac·cus·es (ə-kə-zəz) v. ac·cus·ing, to state that one lays blame for a fault, crime, or wrongdoing etc. upon (a named person). ac·cus·es·er n. ac·cus·es·ing·ly adv. the accused, the person accused in a criminal court case.

ac·cus·es·ing (ə-kə-zə-ting) v. to make or become used to.

ac·cus·es·ed (ə-kə-zə-təd) adj. usual, customary, in his accustomed seat.

ace (a-s) n. 1. a playing card with one pip. 2. a fighter pilot who has shot down five or more enemy planes, a person who excels at something. 3. a tennis serve that one's opponent cannot return. ace v. (aced, ac·ing) to score an ace. have an ace up one's sleeve, to have something effective kept secretly in reserve. play one's ace, to use one's best resource. within an ace of, on the verge of, was within an ace of collapse.

ac•er•bate (as-er-bayt) v. (ac•er•bat•ed, ac•er•bat•ing) 1. to make sour or bitter. 2. to make angry.

a•cer•bi•ty (a-see-tik) n. 1. a compound derived from acetic acid. 2. a fabric made from cellulose acetate.

a•ce•tic (a-see-tik) adj. of vinegar.

acet•ic acid, the acid that gives vinegar its characteristic taste and smell.

ac•e•tate (ak-mee) n. 1. any chemical compound of the corresponding acid.

ache (ayk) v. (ached, aching) 1. to suffer a dull continuous physical or mental pain. 2. to yearn. ache n. a dull continuous pain.

ache (ayk) v. (ache, ache, aching) 1. to suffer a dull continuous physical or mental pain. 2. to yearn. ache n. a dull continuous pain.

ACHE (A-CHIl-LES) n. 1. a condition of the heel which makes the foot painful.

ach•ieve (ak-kiuv) v. (ach•ieved, a-ch•ieved) to make or become acid.

ach•ievable (a-cheev-v-able) adj. able to be achieved.

ach•ieve (a-cheev) v. (ach•ieved, a-ch•ieved) to accomplish, to gain or reach by effort, we accomplished our goal at last.

ach•iev•ment (a-cheev-mont) n. a unique or valuable accomplishment.

A•chil•les (A-kil-eez) tendon a tendon in the heel by which calf muscles extend the foot.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sounding better, acid remarks.

ac•id•ic (ak-sid-ik) adj. 1. sharp tasting, sour. 2. looking or sound improve the quality of acid.
acre / actor

acre (ay-kér) n. 1. a measure of land, 4840 sq. yds. 2. a stretch of land, broad acres.

acre-age (ay-kèr-ij) n. 1. the total number of acres. 2. a large land holding.

acrid (ak-ríd) adj. 1. having a bitter smell or taste. 2. bitter in temper or manner.

acrid-ness n. a. crl'-t-ty (ak-ridd-tee) n.

acril-lic n. a. moh-ee (ak-rill-moh-niluus) adj. acril-mo-nilous-ly adv.

acro-bat (ak-ro-bat) n. a performer of spectacular gymnastic feats. acro-bat-ic (ak-ro-bat-ik) adj. acro-bat-ic-al-ly adv.

acro-bat-ics (ak-ro-bat-iks) n. 1. the doing of acrobatic feats, acrobatics is fun to watch. 2. these feats.

acrobatic (ak-ridd-ik) adj. or acrobatic-ly adv.

acro-nym (ak-ro-nim) n. a word formed from the initial letters of other words, as NATO, radar.

acro-pho-bi-a (ak-ro-foh-bi-á) n. an abnormal fear of being at a great height.

acrop-o-lysis (a-krop-o-losis) n. the citadel or upper fortified part of an ancient Greek city. □ the Acropolis, that of Athens.

a-cross (a-kraws) adv. & prep. 1. from one side of a thing to the other. 2. to or on the other side of. 3. so as to be understood or accepted, got his points across to the audience. 4. so as to form a cross or intersect, laid across each other.

The word acrost does not exist in good English.

across-the-board (a-krawsthe-bord) adj. 1. (of a racing bet) wagering in equal amounts to win, place, and show. 2. applying to all members or groups, across-the-board cost-of-living increase.

acros-tic (a-krawstik) n. a word puzzle or poem in which the first or last letters of each line form a word or words.

acro-stic adj. a-cros-til-cal-ly adv.

acryl-ic (a-kril-ik) adj. of a synthetic material made from an organic acid. acrylic n. an acrylic fiber, plastic, or resin.

act (akt) n. 1. something done. 2. the process of doing something, caught in the act. 3. a decree, statute, or law. 4. one of the main divisions of a play. 5. one of a series of short performances in a program, a circus act. 6. (informal) a pose or pretense, put on an act.

act v. 1. to perform actions, to behave, you acted wisely. 2. to do what is required, to function, act as umpire. 3. to have an effect on, acid acts on metal. 4. to portray by actions, to perform a part in a play etc. □ act of God, the operation of uncontrollable natural forces. Acts of the Apostles, a book of the New Testament relating the early history of the Christian Church and dealing largely with the lives and work of the Apostles Peter and Paul, traditionally ascribed to St. Luke. act the fool, to behave in a ridiculous manner. act up, to misbehave, to function improperly, (of an illness) to recur.

ACTH abbr. adrenocorticotropic hormone.

act-ing (ak-ting) adj. serving temporarily, especially as a substitute, the acting president of the group.

actin-ium (ak-tin-i-um) n. a radioactive metallic chemical element.

action (ak-shén) n. 1. the process of doing something, the exertion of energy or influence, go into action; the action of acid on metal, the way it affects metal. 2. a thing done, generous actions. 3. a series of events in a story or play, the action is set in Spain. 4. a way or manner of moving or functioning, the mechanism of an instrument. 5. a lawsuit. 6. a battle, killed in action. 7. actions, conduct.

□ action painting, abstract painting using spontaneous techniques of applying paint to the canvas, as dribbling or spattering. out of action, not working. take action, to do something in response to what has happened.

action-able (ak-sho-nab) adj. giving cause for a lawsuit.

acti-vate (ak-tl-vat) v. (acti-vat-ed, ac-tl-vat-ing) 1. to make active. 2. to treat (charcoal etc.) so as to improve adsorptive properties. 3. to aerate (sewage) to hasten decomposition. 4. to call (a military unit etc.) to active duty. ac-ti-va-tor n. ac-ti-va-tion (ak-tl-vat-shon) n. □ Note the differences between activate and actuate.

active (ak-tiv) adj. 1. moving about, characterized by energetic action. 2. taking part in activities. 3. functioning, in operation; an active volcano, one that erupts occasionally. 4. having an effect, the active ingredients. active n. the form of a verb used when the subject of the sentence is the doer of the action, as saw in we saw him. ac-tiv-ly adv. ac-tive-ness n. □ active service, full-time service in the armed forces.

acti-ist (ak-tl-vist) n. a person who follows a policy of vigorous action, especially in politics.

acti-ty (ak-tl-t) n. (pl. -ties) 1. being active, the exertion of energy. 2. energetic action, being busy. 3. actions, occupations, outdoor activities.

act-tor (ak-tor) n. a performer in a stage loped or package). 2. to make a speech to. 3. to direct a remark or written statement to. 4. to use a particular word or words in speaking or writing to, how to address a bishop. 5. to apply (oneself) to a task or problem. 6. to take aim at (the ball) in golf. □forms of address, words (as Mr., Sir, Your Majesty) used in addressing a person.

ad•dress•ee (ad-re-se) n. a person to whom a letter etc. is addressed.

ad•duce (á-dooz) v. (ad•duced, ad•duc•ing) to offer as an example, reason, or proof.

-ade suffix used to form nouns meaning act, action, as in blockade; product, especially a sweet drink, as in orangeade.

A•den (ah-dén) the capital of the Democratic Republic of Yemen.

ad•e•noids (ad-é-noidz) n. pl. enlarged spongy tissue between the back of the nose and the throat, often hindering breathing. ad•e•nol•dal (ad-é-nol-dál) adj.

ad•e•pt (á-dept) adj. very skillful. adept (ad•ept) n. a person who is very skillful, an adept at billiards. a•dept•ly adv. a•dept•ness n.

ad•e•quate (ad-é-kwit) adj. 1. sufficient, satisfactory. 2. passable but not outstandingly good. ad•e•quate•ly adv.

ad•e•qua•cy (ad-é-kwa-see) n.

ad•e•ree (ad-her•er) n. to stick when glued or by suction or as if by these. 2. to remain faithful, to continue to give one's support (to a person or cause). 3. to keep to and not alter, we adhered to our plan.

ad•e•rent (ad-her•ent) adj. sticking, adhering. adherent n. a supporter of a party or doctrine. ad•e•rent•ly adv.

ad•he•sion (ad-hee-zhón) n. 1. adhering. 2. the growing together of normally separate tissues of the body as a result of inflammation or injury, tissue growing in this way.

ad•he•sive (ad-hee-siv) adj. causing things to adhere, sticky. adhesives n. an adhesive substance. ad•he•sive•ness n. □adhesive tape, a strip of cloth, paper, or transparent material coated with adhesive, used for covering wounds, fastening packages, etc.

ad hoc (ad hok) for a specific purpose, an ad hoc committee. △Latin, = for this.

a•dieu (á-dyoo) interj. & n. (pl. -dieus, -dieux, pr. -dyooz) goodbye.

ad in•fi•ni•tum (ad-in-fi-ni-tüm) without limit, forever. △Latin, = to infinity.

a•li•os (ad-i-ohs) interj. goodbye.

a•li•pose (ad-i-pohs) adj. of animal fat, fatty. a•li•pos•i•ty (ad-i-pos-i-tee) n. adj. abbr. 1. adjective. 2. adjutant.

ad•ja•cent (á-jay-sent) adj. lying near, adjoining.

ad•jec•tive (aj-ik-tiv) n. a word added to a noun to describe a quality or modify a meaning, as old, tall, Swedish, my, this.

ad•jec•ti•val (aj-ik-tiv-ál) adj. ad•jec•ti•v•ly adv.

ad•join (á-join) v. to be next or nearest to. △Do not confuse adjoin with adjourn.

ad•join•ing (á-joil-ning) adj. 1. touching or joining at a point or line. 2. connected by a shared door or doorway, adjoining rooms.

ad•journ (á-jurn) v. 1. to postpone, to break off temporarily. 2. to break off and go elsewhere, let's adjourn to the bar. ad•journ•ment n. △Do not confuse adjourn with adjoin.

ad•judge (á-juj) v. (ad•judged, ad•judg•ing) 1. to decide or award judicially, he was adjudged to be guilty. 2. to act as judge. 3. to deem to be.

ad•ju•di•cate (á-jooj-di-kayt) v. (ad•ju•di•cat•ed, ad•ju•di•cat•ing) 1. to act as judge in a court, tribunal, or competition. 2. to judge and pronounce a decision upon, to settle judicially.

ad•junct (aj-ungkt) n. something or someone added or attached but subordinate.

adjunct adj. serving in this manner, an adjunct professor.

ad•jure (á-joor) v. (ad•jured, ad•jur•ing) to command or urge solemnly, I adjure you to tell the truth. ad•ju•ra•tion (aj-ü-ray-shón) n. △Do not confuse adjure with abjure.

ad•just (á-just) v. 1. to arrange, to put into the proper position. 2. to alter by a small amount so as to fit or be right for use., the brakes need adjusting. 3. to be able to be adjusted. 4. to adapt or adapt oneself to new circumstances, had difficulty in adjusting to college. 5. to assess (loss or damages). ad•just•er n. ad•just•or n. ad•just•ment n.

ad•just•a•ble (á-just•a•bel) adj. able to be adjusted.

ad•ju•tant (aj-ú-tant) n. an army officer assisting a superior officer with administrative work.

ad lb (ad lib) (informal) words, gestures, etc. spoken impromptu. △From the Latin ad libitum, according to pleasure.

ad•lib (ad-libbed, ad-lib•bing) (informal) to speak impromptu, to improvise remarks or actions. ad•lib adj. (informal) said or done impromptu, his remarks were entirely ad-lib.

adm. abbr. 1. administrative. 2. administration.

Adm. abbr. Admiral.

ad•man (ad-man) n. (pl. ad•men, pr. ad•men) (slang) a person who writes, soliciits, or places advertisements to earn his livelihood.

ad·min·is·ter (ad-min-i-stər) v. 1. to manage the business affairs of, to be an administrator. 2. to give or hand out formally, to provide, administer justice; administer the oath of office, hear the person swear it officially. ▷ See the note under minister.

ad·min·is·trate (ad-min-i-strät) v. (ad·min·is·trat·ed, ad·min·is·trat·ing) to act as administrator of. ▷ Careful writers prefer administer.

ad·min·is·tra·tion (ad-min-i-strä-shon) n. 1. administration. 2. the management of public or business affairs. 3. a governing group under a president, governor, etc., its period of office.

ad·min·is·tra·tive (ad-min-i-strä-tiv) adj. of or involving administration. ad·min·is·tra·tive·ly adv.

ad·mi·ral (ad-mi-rəl) n. a naval officer of high rank, commander of a fleet or squadron; fleet admiral, admiral, vice admiral, rear admiral, the four grades of such officers.

ad·mi·ral·ty (ad-mi-rəl-tee) n. 1. the office and jurisdiction of an admiral. 2. a court of law dealing with maritime matters. admiralty adj. of or dealing with admiralty law.

ad·mi·re (ad-mir) v. (ad·mired, ad·mir·ing) 1. to regard with pleasure or satisfaction, to think highly of. 2. to express admiration of. ad·mir·er n. ad·mir·ing·ly adv. ad·mir·a·tion (ad-mir-a-shon) n.

ad·mis·si·ble (ad-mis-sə-bəl) adj. capable of being admitted or allowed. ad·mis·si·bil·i·ty adv. ad·mis·si·bil·i·ty·ty (ad-mis-sə-bil-i-tee) n.

ad·mis·sion (ad-mish-ən) n. 1. admitting, being admitted. 2. a statement admitting something, a confession, an admission of guilt. 3. acknowledgment of a fact, granting of an argument. 4. a fee paid to enter a place.

ad·mit (ad-mit) v. (ad·mit·ted, ad·mit·ting) 1. to allow to enter. 2. to accept into a school as a pupil, into a hospital as a patient, etc. 3. to accept as true or valid. 4. to state reluctantly, we admit that the task is difficult. 5. to leave room for, the plan does not admit of improvement. ad·mit·tance n.

ad·mit·ted·ly (ad-mit·id·lee) adv. as an acknowledged fact.

ad·mix·ture (ad-miks-chər) n. 1. something added as an ingredient. 2. a mixture.

ad·mon·ish (ad-mon·ish) v. 1. to advise or urge seriously. 2. to reprove mildly but firmly. ad·mon·i·to·ry (ad-mon·i-tohr·ee) adj. ad·mo·ni·tion (ad-mö-nish·ən) n.

ad nau·se·a (ad naw-zə-ə) to a sickening extent. ▷ Latin.

a·do (ə-dəd) n. fuss, trouble, excitement.

a·do·be (ə-dəb·ə) n. 1. sun-dried clay used for building etc. 2. a house made of such clay bricks.

ad·o·les·cent (ad-ə-ləs·ənt) adj. between childhood and maturity. ad·o·les·cence n.

A·do·nis (ə-də-nis) n. a handsome young man. ▷ Named after a beautiful youth in mythology, loved by Venus.

a·dop·t (ə-dəp) v. 1. to take into one's family as a relation, especially as one's child with legal guardianship. 2. to take and use as one's own, adopted this name or custom. 3. to approve or accept (a report or financial accounts). a·dop·tion (ə-dəp·shən) n. ▷ Do not confuse adopt with adapt.

a·dop·tive (ə-dəp·tiv) adj. related to adoption, adoptive parents.

a·do·ra·ble (ə-dər·ə-bəl) adj. 1. very lovable. 2. (informal) delightful. a·do·ra·bly adv.

a·do·re (ə-dər) v. (a·do·red, a·do·ring) 1. to love deeply. 2. to worship as divine. 3. (informal) to like very much. a·do·rer n. ad·o·ra·tion (ad-ə-ray·shən) n.

a·dorn (ə·dorn) v. 1. to decorate with ornaments. 2. to be an ornament to. a·dorn·ment n.

a·dre·nal (ə·druhl) adj. close to the kidneys. adren al n. one of the adrenal glands, ductless glands on top of the kidneys, secreting adrenaline.

a·dren·a·line (ə·druhl·ə-lin) n. a hormone that stimulates the nervous system, secreted by a part of the adrenal glands or prepared synthetically.

a·dren·o·cor·ti·co·trop·ic (ə·druhl·ə-nə-kor·ti·kə-trop·ik) hormone n. a hormone (ACTH) of the pituitary gland that stimulates the adrenal cortex.

a·dri·at·ic (ə·druhl·ə-tik) adj. of the Adriatic Sea, between Italy and Yugoslavia. Adriatic n. the Adriatic Sea.

a·drift (ə·drift) adj. & adv. 1. drifting. 2. (informal) without purpose or guidance. a·droll (ə·drohl) adj. skillful, ingenious. a·droll·ly adv. a·droll·ness n.
ad-sorb (ad-sorb) v. to hold molecules of a gas or liquid to the surface of a (usually) solid material. ad-sorp-tive (ad-sorp-tiv) adj. ad-sorp-tion (ad-sorp-shon) n. □ Do not confuse adsorb with absorb.

ad·sor·bent (ad-sor-bent) adj. producing adsorption. adsorbent n. an adsorbent substance. □ Do not confuse adsorbent with absorbent.

ad·u·la·tion (aj-ú-lay-shon) n. excessive flattery. ad·u·la·to·ry (aj-ú-lá-tohr-ce) adj.

a·dult (a-dult) adj. grown to full size or strength, mature. adult n. an adult person. a·dult'hood n.

da·dul·ter·ant (a-dul-té-rant) n. a substance added in adulterating something.

da·dul·ter·ate (a-dul-té-rayt) v. (a·dul·ter·ated, a·dul·ter·at·ing) to make impure or poorer in quality by adding another substance, especially an inferior one. a·dul·ter·a·tion (a-dul-té-ray-shon) n.

da·dul·ter·er (a-dul-té-rér) n. a person who commits adultery. a·dul·ter·ess (a-dul-té-ris) n. fem.

da·dul·ter·y (a-dul-té-ree) n. the act of voluntary sexual intercourse by a married person with someone other than his or her own spouse. a·dul·ter·ous adj.

adv. a·dvor·bi·al·ly adv. Do not confuse adversive with adverse.

ad va·lo·rem (ad va-lor·em) (of taxes) in proportion to estimated value of goods. □ Latin.

ad·vance (ad-vans) v. (ad·vanc·ed, ad·vanc·ing) 1. to move or put forward, to make progress. 2. to help the progress of, advance someone's interests. 3. to bring forward or make, advance a suggestion. 4. to bring (an event) to an earlier date. 5. to lend (money), to pay before a due date, advance her a month's salary. 6. to promote in rank. advance n. 1. a forward movement, progress. 2. an increase in price or amount. 3. a loan, payment beforehand. 4. advances, attempts to establish a friendly relationship. advance adj. going before others, done or provided in advance, the advance party. ad·vance'ment n. □ In advance, ahead in time or place, she paid well in advance.

ad·vanc·ed (ad-vanست) adj. 1. far on in progress or in life, an advanced age. 2. not elementary, advanced studies. 3. (of ideas etc.) new and not yet generally accepted.

ad·van·tage (ad-va-nij) n. 1. a favorable condition or circumstance. 2. benefit, profit; the treaty is to their advantage, benefits them; turn it to your advantage, use it profitably. 3. the next point won after deuce in tennis. □ take advantage of, to make use of; to exploit. to advantage, making a good effect, the painting shows to advantage here. □ Do not confuse advantage with vantage.

ad·van·ta·geous (ad-vân-taj-ýús) adj. profitable, beneficial. ad·van·ta·geous·ly adv.

Ad·vent (ad-vent) n. 1. the coming of Christ. 2. the season (with four Sundays) before Christmas Day. 3. advent, the arrival of an important person, event, or development.

ad·ven·ti·tious (ad-ven-tish-ýús) adj. 1. accidental, casual. 2. occurring in an unusual position, sporadic. ad·ven·ti·tious·ly adv. ad·ven·ti·tious·ness n.

ad·ven·ture (ad-ven-chur) n. 1. an exciting or dangerous experience. 2. willingness to take risks, the spirit of adventure. ad·ven·tur·ous adj. ad·ven·tur·ous·ly adv. ad·ven·ture·some adj.

ad·ven·tur·er (ad-ven-chur-er) n. 1. a person who seeks adventures. 2. a person who is ready to make gains for himself by risky or unscrupulous methods. ad·ven·tur·ess (ad-ven-chur-ess) n. fem.

ad·verb (ad-verb) n. a word that qualifies a verb, adjective, or other adverb and indicates how, when, or where, as gently, fully, soon. ad·ver·bi·al adj. ad·ver·bi·al·ly adv.

ad·ver·sar·y (ad-ver-sar·ee) n. (pl. -sars·es) an opponent, an enemy.

ad·verse (ad-vers) adj. 1. unfavorable, an adverse report. 2. bringing misfortune or harm, the drug has no adverse effects. ad·verse'ly adv. □ Do not confuse adverse with averse.

ad·ver·si·ty (ad-ver-si·tee) n. (pl. -ties) misfortune, trouble.

ad·ver·tise (ad-ver-trz) v. (ad·ver·tis·ed, ad·ver·tis·ing) 1. to make generally or publicly known, advertise a meeting. 2. to call public attention to in order to encourage people to buy or use something, advertise soap. 3. to issue a public notice seeking to buy or obtain something, advertise for a secretary. ad·ver·tis·er n.

ad·ver·tis·ment (ad-ver-trz-ment, -vur-trz-ment) n. 1. the process of advertising. 2. a public notice or broadcast announcing or advertising something.

ad·ver·tis·ing (ad-ver-trz-ing) n. 1. the process by which something is advertised. 2. advertisements. 3. the business that prepares and disseminates advertisements.

ad·vice (ad-vids) n. 1. an opinion given about what to do or how to behave. 2. a piece of information, we received advice that the goods had been shipped. □ Do not confuse advice with advise.

ad·vis·a·ble (ad-vi-zā-bēl) adj. worth recommending as a course of action. ad·vis·a·bil·i·ty (ad-vi-zā-bil-i-te) n.

ad·vise (ad-viz) v. (ad·vis·ed, ad·vis·ing) 1. to give advice to, to recommend. 2. to inform, to notify. ad·vis·er n. ad·vis·or n. ▷ Do not confuse advise with advice.

ad·vis·ed (ad-vizd) adj. deliberate, considered. ad·vis·ed·ly (ad-vi-zed-lee) adv.

ad·vi·so·ry (ad-vee-so-ri) adj. giving advice, having the power to advise, an advisory committee.

a·vo·ca·cy (a-vó-kā-see) n. 1. the advocating of a policy etc. 2. the function of an advocate.

a·vo·cate (a-vó-kayt) v. (a·vo·cat·ed, a·vo·cat·ing) to recommend, to be in favor of, I advocate caution. advocate (a-vó-kit) n. 1. a person who advocates a policy, an advocate of reform. 2. a person who pleads on behalf of another. a·vo·ca·tion (a-vó-kay-shōn) n.

advt. abbr. advertisement.

ad·ze, ad·ze (adz) n. a kind of ax with a blade at right angles to the handle, used for trimming or shaping wood.

 Ae·ge·an (i-jee-ahn) adj. of the Aegean Sea, between Greece and Turkey. Ae·ge·an n. the Aegean Sea.

ae·gls (e-jis) n. protection, sponsorship, under the aegis of the Humane Society.

ae·o·li·an (i-o-li-ahn) n. a harp a stringed instrument producing musical sounds as the wind passes across it.

ae·on see eon.

a·er·ate (air·a-t) v. (a·er·at·ed, a·er·at·ing) 1. to expose to the chemical action of air. 2. to supply (the blood) with oxygen by respiration. 3. to add carbon dioxide to (a liquid) under pressure. a·er·a·tor n. a·er·a·tion (air-a-shōn) n.

a·er·i·al (air-i-āl) adj. 1. of or like air. 2. existing in the air, suspended overhead, an aerial railway. 3. by or from aircraft, aerial bombardment. a·er·ial n. an antenna.

a·er·i·al·ist (air-i-ā-list) n. a performer on a high wire or trapeze.

a·er·le (air·el) n. 1. the nest of a bird that builds high up, especially of an eagle or other bird of prey. 2. a residence perched high on a mountain.

a·er·o·bat·ics (air·o·bat·iks) n. 1. spectacular feats of flying aircraft, especially for display, the aerobatics were breathtaking. 2. the performance of such feats, aerobatics is not for me. a·er·o·bat·ic adj.

a·er·o·dy·nam·ics (air·oh-dí·nam·iks) n. interaction between airflow and the movement of solid bodies (as aircraft, bullets) through air. a·er·o·dy·nam·ic adj.

a·er·o·naut (air·o·naut) n. the navigator or pilot of a balloon or other lighter-than-air craft.

a·er·o·nau·tics (air·o·naut·iks) n. the scientific study of the flight of aircraft.

a·er·o·plane (air·o·playn) n. (chiefly Brit·ish) an airplane.

a·er·o·sol (air·o·sōl) n. a substance sealed in a container under pressure, with a device for releasing it as a fine spray.

a·er·o·space (air·o·spays) n. 1. Earth's atmosphere and space beyond it. 2. the technology of aviation in this region.

a·er·o·space·adj. concerned with missiles, satellites, vehicles, etc. for operation in aerospace, aerospace industry.

aes·thete (es-theet) n. a person who has or claims to have great understanding and appreciation of what is beautiful, especially in the arts.

aes·thet·ic (es-thet·ik) adj. 1. belonging to the appreciation of beauty, the aesthetic standards of the times. 2. having or showing such appreciation. 3. artistic, tasteful. aes·thet·i·cal·ly adv.

aes·thet·ics (es-thet·iks) n. a branch of philosophy dealing with the principles of beauty in art.

AF abbr. 1. Air Force. 2. audio frequency.

a·far (ă-fahr) adv. far off, far away.

AFB abbr. Air Force Base.

a·fa·ble (af·a·bel) adj. polite and friendly. a·fa·bly adv. a·fa·bil·i·ty (af·a·bil·i-te) n.

a·fa·ir (a·fa·ir) n. 1. a thing done or to be done, a matter, a concern. 2. public or private business, current affairs; put your affairs in order. 3. (informal) an event, a thing, this camera is a complicated affair. 4. a temporary romantic or sexual relationship.

a·fect (a·fekt) v. 1. to pretend to have or feel or be, she affected ignorance. 2. to like and make a display of using or wearing, he affects velvet jackets. 3. to produce an effect on, (of a disease) to attack or infect, his lungs are affected. ▷ The words affect and effect have totally different meanings and should not be confused.

a·flec·ta·tion (a·fek·tay-shōn) n. behavior that is put on for display and is not natural or genuine, pretense. ▷ Do not confuse affectation with affection.

a·fect·ed (a·fek·tid) adj. 1. full of affection. 2. pretended. 3. impaired, as by disease, the affected organs. a·fect·ed·ly adv.

a·fect·ing (a·fek·ting) adj. having an effect upon one's emotions, an affecting appeal. af-fect-ing-ly adv.

af-fec-tion (ä-fek-shôn) n. 1. love, a liking. 2. a disease or diseased condition. △ Do not confuse affection with affectation.

af-fec-tion-ate (ä-fek-shô-nit) adj. showing affection, loving. af-fec-tion-a-tely adv.

af-fi-ance (ä-frâns) v. (af-fi-ânced, af-fi-ân-cing) to engage to be married, to betroth.

af-fi-da-vit (af-i-day-vit) n. a written statement for use as legal evidence, sworn on oath to be true.

af-fi-â-tâ-té (ä-fil-i-ät-é, af-fi-lâ-té, af-fi-lát-ing) v. (af-fi-lâ-té-ing) to connect as a subordinate member or branch, the club is affiliated with a national society. affiliate (ä-fil-i-it) n. a person, group, business, etc. that is affiliated. af-fi-lâ-tâ-tion (ä-fil-i-ay-shôn) n.

af-fi-ni-ty (ä-fi-nî-ty) n. 1. a relationship (especially by marriage) other than a blood relationship. 2. a similarity, close resemblance or connection, affinities between different languages. 3. a strong natural liking or attraction. 4. the tendency of certain substances to combine with others.

af-firm (ä-fûrm) v. 1. to assert, to state as a fact. 2. to uphold (a judgment). 3. to declare by affirmation.

af-fir-mâ-tion (ä-fûr-may-shôn) n. 1. affirming. 2. a solemn declaration made instead of an oath by a person who has conscientious objections to swearing an oath or who has no religion.

af-fir-mâ-tive (ä-fûr-mâ-tîv) adj. affirming, agreeing; an affirmative reply, answering "yes." affirmative n. an affirmative word or statement, the answer is in the affirmative. af-fir-mâ-tive-ly adv.

af-fit (ä-fîks) v. 1. to stick on, to attach. 2. to add in writing, affix your signature. af-fitâ (af-iks) n. 1. appendage, addition. 2. a prefix or suffix.

af-flict (ä-flîkt) v. to distress physically or mentally; he is afflicted with rheumatism, suffers from it. af-flic-cive adj.

af-flic-tion (ä-flîk-shôn) n. 1. pain, distress, misery. 2. something that causes this.

af-flu-ent (ä-loo-ânt) adj. rich; the affluent society, in which most people are relatively wealthy. af-flu-ent-ly adv. af-flu-en-ce n.

af-for-d (ä-fôrd) v. 1. to have enough money, means, or time for a specified purpose, we can afford to pay fifty dollars. 2. to be in a position to do something, we can afford to be critical. 3. to provide, her diary affords no information.

af-for-est-a-tion (ä-for-i-sta-shôn) n. planting with trees to form a forest.

af-fray (ä-frây) n. a breach of the peace by fighting or rioting in public.

af-fright (ä-frît) v. (old use) to frighten.

af-front (ä-frûnt) v. to insult deliberately, to offend or embarrass. affront n. a deliberate insult or show of disrespect.

Af-gan (af-gan) n. 1. a native of Afghanistan. 2. the language spoken there, Pushtu. 3. afghan, a blanket or shawl of knitted or crocheted wool. □ Afghan hound, a dog of a breed with long silky hair.

Af-gan-i-stan (af-gan-i-stân) a country in southwest Asia.

Af-fil-i-câ-tion (ä-fil-i-â-tsâm) n. 1. a combination of people, businesses, etc. that have a common interest or purpose, the AFL-CIO combines people and businesses for the common good. 2. a tendency to combine with others.

Af-fil-i-câ-tiv (ä-fil-i-â-tîv) adj. combining, being united, interested in a common cause or purpose, af-fil-i-câ-tiv-ly adv.

Af-fil-i-â-tion-ate (ä-fil-i-â-tâ-té) v. (ä-fil-i-â-tâ-té-ing) to combine as a subordinate member or branch, the club is affiliated with a national society. af-fil-i-â-tion-ate-ly adv.

Af-fil-i-â-tion-ate-ly adv. combining, being united, interested in a common cause or purpose.

Af-flu-ent (ä-flû-ânt) adj. rich; the affluent society, in which most people are relatively wealthy. af-flu-ent-ly adv. af-flu-en-ce n.

Af-for-d (ä-for-d) v. 1. to have enough money, means, or time for a specified purpose, we can afford to pay fifty dollars. 2. to be in a position to do something, we can afford to be critical. 3. to provide, her diary affords no information.

Af-for-est-a-tion (ä-for-i-sta-shôn) n. planting with trees to form a forest.

Af-fray (ä-frây) n. a breach of the peace by fighting or rioting in public.

Af-fright (ä-frît) v. (old use) to frighten.

Af-fron (ä-frûnt) v. to insult deliberately, to offend or embarrass. affront n. a deliberate insult or show of disrespect.

Af-gan (af-gan) n. 1. a native of Afghanistan. 2. the language spoken there, Pushtu. 3. afghan, a blanket or shawl of knitted or crocheted wool. □ Afghan hound, a dog of a breed with long silky hair.

Af-gan-i-stan (af-gan-i-stân) a country in southwest Asia.

Af-fil-i-câ-tion (ä-fil-i-â-tsâm) n. 1. a combination of people, businesses, etc. that have a common interest or purpose, the AFL-CIO combines people and businesses for the common good. 2. a tendency to combine with others.

Af-fil-i-câ-tiv (ä-fil-i-â-tîv) adj. combining, being united, interested in a common cause or purpose, af-fil-i-câ-tiv-ly adv.

Af-fil-i-â-tion-ate (ä-fil-i-â-tâ-té) v. (ä-fil-i-â-tâ-té-ing) to combine as a subordinate member or branch, the club is affiliated with a national society. af-fil-i-â-tion-ate-ly adv.

Af-flu-ent (ä-flû-ânt) adj. rich; the affluent society, in which most people are relatively wealthy. af-flu-ent-ly adv. af-flu-en-ce n.

Af-for-d (ä-for-d) v. 1. to have enough money, means, or time for a specified purpose, we can afford to pay fifty dollars. 2. to be in a position to do something, we can afford to be critical. 3. to provide, her diary affords no information.

Af-for-est-a-tion (ä-for-i-sta-shôn) n. planting with trees to form a forest.

Af-fray (ä-frây) n. a breach of the peace by fighting or rioting in public.

Af-fright (ä-frît) v. (old use) to frighten.

Af-fron (ä-frûnt) v. to insult deliberately, to offend or embarrass. affront n. a deliberate insult or show of disrespect.

Af-gan (af-gan) n. 1. a native of Afghanistan. 2. the language spoken there, Pushtu. 3. afghan, a blanket or shawl of knitted or crocheted wool. □ Afghan hound, a dog of a breed with long silky hair.

Af-gan-i-stan (af-gan-i-stân) a country in southwest Asia.

Af-fil-i-câ-tion (ä-fil-i-â-tsâm) n. 1. a combination of people, businesses, etc. that have a common interest or purpose, the AFL-CIO combines people and businesses for the common good. 2. a tendency to combine with others.

Af-fil-i-câ-tiv (ä-fil-i-â-tîv) adj. combining, being united, interested in a common cause or purpose, af-fil-i-câ-tiv-ly adv.

Af-fil-i-â-tion-ate (ä-fil-i-â-tâ-té) v. (ä-fil-i-â-tâ-té-ing) to combine as a subordinate member or branch, the club is affiliated with a national society. af-fil-i-â-tion-ate-ly adv.

Af-flu-ent (ä-flû-ânt) adj. rich; the affluent society, in which most people are relatively wealthy. af-flu-ent-ly adv. af-flu-en-ce n.
son. African violet, an East African plant with purple, pink, or white flowers, grown as a house plant.

Afr-ī-kaans (af-ri-kahns) n. A language developed from Dutch, used in South Africa.

Afro-prefix African; Afro-American, of Africa and America, especially of American blacks.

aft (aft) adv. In near, or toward the stern of a ship or the tail of an aircraft.

after (af-tér) prep. 1. Behind in place or order. 2. At a later time than. 3. In pursuit or search of. Run after him. 4. About, concerning, look after your own affairs. 5. In imitation of, painted after the manner of Picasso; named after a person, given this person’s Christian name in honor of him. After adv. 1. Behind, Jill came tumbling after. 2. Later, twenty years after. After conj. At or in a time later than, they came after I left. After adj. 1. Later, following, in after years. 2. Nearest the stern in a boat, the after cabins.

afterbirth (af-tér-burth) n. The placenta and fetal membrane discharged from the womb after childbirth.

afterburner (af-tér-bur-ner) n. 1. A device for increasing jet-engine thrust by burning extra fuel through use of hot exhaust gases. 2. A device for burning undesirable exhaust fumes.

aftercare (af-tér-kair) n. Further care or treatment of a patient after discharge from a hospital.

afterdeck (af-tér-dek) n. The back part of the deck of a ship.

after-effect (af-tér-i-fekt) n. An effect that arises or persists after its cause has gone.

afterglow (af-tér-gloh) n. 1. A glow in the west after sunset. 2. A pleasant remembrance.

afterlife (af-tér-lif) n. Life after death.

aftermath (af-tér-math) n. Consequences, aftereffects, the aftermath of war.

afternoon (af-tér-noon) n. The time from noon to about 6 P.M. or sunset (if this is earlier).

after-shave (af-tér-shayv) n. A lotion for use after shaving.

after-taste (af-tér-tayst) n. A taste remaining or recurring after eating or drinking something.

afterthought (af-tér-thawt) n. Something thought of or added later.

afterward (af-tér-wārd), afterwards (af-tér-wārdz) adv. At a later time.

Ag symbol silver.

again (a-gen) adv. 1. Another time, once more, try again. 2. As before, to or in the original place or condition, you’ll soon be well again. 3. Furthermore, besides. 4. On the other hand, I might, and again I might not.

against (a-genz) prep. 1. In opposition to; his age is against him, is a disadvantage to him. 2. In contrast to, against a dark background. 3. In preparation for, as defense from, settlers built a fort against Indian raids. 4. Opposite, so as to cancel or lessen, advances to be charged against royalties. 5. Into collision or contact with, lean against the wall.

A-ga Khan (ah-gā kahn) The spiritual leader of Ismaili Muslims.

agape (a-gayp) adj. Gaping, open-mouthed.

agar (ah-gahr) n. A gelatinous substance obtained from various seaweeds and used as a laxative and as a solidifying agent in culture media for bacteria etc.

age (ayj) n. 1. The length of time a person has lived or a thing has existed. 2. The later part of life, old age. 3. A historical period, a time with special characteristics or events, the Elizabethan Age; the atomic age. 4. (informal) A very long time, it was ages before he came. Age v. Aged, a-ging or age-ing 1. To grow old, to show signs of age. 2. To become mature, heavy wines age slowly. 3. To cause to become old, worry aged him rapidly. 4. To allow to mature. Act your age, (informal) Behave more sensibly.

age group, people who are all of approximately the same age. Age limit, an age fixed as a limit for people taking part in an activity. Age of consent, the age at which a person’s consent is legally valid. Of age, having reached the age at which one has an adult’s legal rights and obligations. Under age, not yet of age.

age suffix used to form nouns meaning aggregate or number of, as in acreage; function or condition, as in bondage; action, as in breakage; place, abode, as in orphanage; product of action, as in wreckage.

aged (ayjed) adj. 1. Of the age of, aged ten. 2. (pr. ay-jid) Very old, an aged man.

ageism (ay-jiz-em) n. Discrimination against the elderly or middle aged.

age-less (aj-lis) adj. not growing or appearing old.

a-gen-cy (ay-jen-see) n. (pl. -cies) 1. the business or place of business of an agent, a travel agency. 2. the means of action through which something is done.

a-gen-da (ä-jen-da) n. (pl. -das) 1. a program of items of business to be dealt with at a meeting. 2. a list of things to be done, appointments, etc.

a-ment (ay-jént) n. 1. a person who does something or instigates some activity. 2. one who acts on behalf of another, write to our agents in Rome. 3. something that produces an effect or change, yeast is the active agent. 4. a secret agent (see secret).

a-gent pro-vo-ca-tur (a-zhahn pró-vok-á-tur) (pl. a-gents pro-vo-ca-tures, pr. a-zhahn pró-vok-á-tur) a person employed to detect suspected offenders by tempting them to do something illegal openly.

age-old (ayj-ohld) adj. having existed for a very long time.

a-er-a-tum (aj-ér-ray-tüm) n. a low-growing daisylike plant with soft blue or white flowers.

glom-er-ate (a-glom-ér-rayt) v. (ag-glom-er-at-ed, ag-glom-er-at-ing) to collect or become collected into a mass. agglomerate (a-glom-ér-rit) n. something composed of clustered fragments.

glom-er-a-tion (a-glom-éray-shon) n.

glu-ti-na-tion (ä-gloo-ti-nay-shon) n. sticking or fusing together.

gran-dize (ä-gran-diz) v. (ag-gran-dized, ag-gran-diz-ing) 1. to increase the power, rank, wealth, etc., of. 2. to exaggerate.

gran-diz-ment (ä-gran-diz-mént) n.

gra-vate (agrá-vayt) v. (ag-gravat-ed, ag-gravat-ing) 1. to make worse or more serious. 2. (informal) to annoy. gravation (agrá-vay-shon) n. Careful writers and speakers do not use aggravate in its second sense. Problems are aggravated. People are irritated or annoyed.

gre-gate (agré-git) adj. combined, total, the aggregate amount. aggregate n. 1. a total, a mass or amount brought together, in the aggregate, as a whole, collectively. 2. hard substances (sand, gravel, broken stone, etc.) mixed with cement to make concrete.

ag-gate (agré-gat) v. (ag-gate-ed, ag-gate-ing) to collect or form into an aggregate, to unite. aggregation (ag-ré-gay-shon) n.
gress-sion (a-gresh-ón) n. 1. the act of making an unprovoked attack. 2. a hostile action, hostile behavior.

gres-sive (ä-gres-iv) adj. 1. apt to make attacks, showing aggression. 2. self-assertive, forceful, an aggressive salesman. gres-sive-ly adv. gres-sive-ness n.

gress-sor (a-gress-ör) n. a person or country that attacks first or begins hostilities.

grieve (ä-greev) v. (ag-grieved, ag-grieve-ing) 1. to grieve, to distress. 2. to oppress, to treat unfairly.

gha-st (a-gast) adj. filled with consternation.

il (aj-il) adj. nimble, quick-moving.

glie-ly adv. a-gli-ty (a-jil-tee) n.
tate (a-jay-tayt) v. (a-aglit-ed, a-aglit-ing) 1. to shake or move briskly. 2. to disturb, to cause anxiety to. 3. to stir up public interest or concern. a-ta-tor n. a-aglit-ion (a-jay-tay-shon) n.

lit-prop (a-jit-prop) n. 1. the system of Russian Communist propaganda. 2. this propaganda.

gleam (a-gleem) adj. gleaming.

glit-ter (a-glit-er) adj. glittering, sparkling.

glow (a-glo) adv. in the past.

gog (a-gog) adj. eager, expectant.

go-go (a-gog-goh) see go-go.

o-nize (ag-niz) v. (ag-nized, ag-o-nized) 1. to cause agony, to pain greatly; agonized shrieks, expressing agony. 2. to suffer agony, to worry intensely, agonizing over his mistakes.

o-niz-ing-ly adv.

o-ny (ag-ni) n. (pl. -nies) extreme mental or physical suffering.

o-pho-bl-a (ag-o-foh-bi-ä) n. an abnormal fear of crossing open spaces.

o-pho-bic (ag-o-foh-bik) n. a person who suffers from agoraphobia.

agr. abbr. 1. agricultural. 2. agriculture.

ar-l-an (a-grair-än) adj. of landed property or cultivated land.

ar-l-an-ism (a-grair-i-änz-ëm) n. a movement advocating redistribution of landed property.

gree (ä-gree) v. (agreed, a-gree-ing) 1. to consent, to say that one is willing. I will agree to that. 2. to hold or reach a similar opinion, I agree with you. 3. to get on well together. 4. to be consistent, to harmonize, your story agrees with what I've heard already. 5.
agreeable / air cavalry to suit a person’s health or digestion, cucumbers don’t agree with me. 6. to correspond in grammatical case, number, gender, or person, the pronoun “she” agrees with the noun “woman”; “he” agrees with “man.” □agree to disagree, to agree to cease trying to convince one another.

a-gree-a-ble (a-gree-a-bel) adj. 1. pleasing, giving, giving pleasure, an agreeable voice. 2. willing to agree, we’ll go if you are agreeable. a-gree’a-ble adv.
a-gree’a-ble-ness n.
a-gree-ment (a-gree-mant) n. 1. agreeing. 2. harmony in opinion or feeling. 3. an arrangement agreed upon between people, a document stating such an arrangement.

ag·ri·cul·ture (ag·ri·kul·chər) n. the science or practice of cultivating land on a large scale, farming. ag·ri·cul·tur·al (ag·ri·kul·chər·əl) adj. ag·ri·cul·tur·al·ly adv. a-gri·cul·tur·al·ist n. a-gri·cul·tur·al·is·tism n.

g·ron·o·my (g·ron·o·mee) n. the science of soil management and crop production. a-gron·o·mist n.

a·ground (a·grownd) adj. & adv. upon or touching the bottom in shallow water, the ship ran aground.

g·ue (gy·go·o) n. 1. malarial fever. 2. a shivering fit.

ah (ah) interj. an exclamation of surprise, pity, admiration, etc.

ah (ah-hah) interj. an exclamation of surprise, triumph, or mockery.

a-head (a·hed) adv. farther forward in space or time; plan ahead, plan for the future; full speed ahead!, go forward at full speed. a-head of, farther advanced than; surpassing, more than.

a·hem (a·hem) interj. the noise made when clearing one’s throat, used to call attention or express doubt.

a·ho·y (a·hol) interj. a cry used by seamen to call attention.

aid (ay·d) v. to help. aid n. 1. help. 2. something that helps, a hearing aid.

AID abbr. Agency for International Development.

a•ilde (ay·d) n. 1. an aide-de-camp. 2. an assistant.

aide-de-camp (ay·dē·kamp) n. (pl. aildes-de-camp, pr. aildz·dē·kamp) a naval or military officer acting as an assistant to a senior officer.

a-l·gre·t·te (ay·gret·t) n. 1. an ornamental tuft of upright plumes, especially from the long white tail feathers of an egret. 2. a spray of gems etc.

ail (ail) v. to make ill or uneasy, what ails him?

al·lan·thus (ay·lan·thuhs) n. a tree with pointed pinnate leaflets and a disagreeable odor.

al·le·ron (ay·lē·rōn) n. a hinged flap on an airplane wing, used to control balance.

al·ling (ay·ling) adj. unwell, in poor condition.

al·ment (ay·lment) n. a bodily disorder, a slight illness.

a·m· (a·m) v. 1. to point or send toward a target, to direct (a blow, missile, remark, etc.) toward a specified object or goal. 2. to attempt, to try, we aim to please. a-m n. 1. the act of aiming a weapon or missile at a target; take aim, aim a weapon. 2. purpose, intention; what is his aim?, what does he want to achieve?

a·less (ay·lis·lis) adj. without a purpose.

a·less·ly adv. a·less·ness n.

ain’t (a·nt) = am not, is not, are not, has not, have not. □This word is avoided in standard speech except in humorous use, as in she ain’t what she used to be.

A·nu· (n·oo) n. (pl. n·us, n·u) 1. a Cauca- soid people in Japan and the U.S.S.R. with hairy bodies. 2. a member of this people. 3. their language.

air (air) n. 1. the mixture of gases surrounding Earth and breathed by all land animals and plants. 2. Earth’s atmosphere, open space in this. 3. Earth’s atmosphere as the place where aircraft operate. 4. a light wind. 5. an impression given, an air of mystery. 6. an impressive manner, he does things with such an air. 7. a melody, a tune. air v. 1. to expose to the air, to ventilate (a room etc.) so as to cool or freshen it. 2. to put (clothes etc.) into a warm place to finish drying. 3. to express publicly, air one’s opinions. □by air, in or by aircraft. in the air, current, exerting an influence, dissatisfaction is in the air; uncertain, these plans are still in the air. on the air, broadcast or broadcasting by radio or television. put on airs, to behave in an affected haughty manner.

air bag a safety device that fills with air to protect automobile passengers in a collision.

air·borne (air·bohrn) adj. 1. transported by the air, airborne pollen. 2. in flight after taking off, no smoking until the plane is airborne. 3. transported by aircraft, airborne troops.

air brake 1. a brake worked by air pressure. 2. a movable flap to reduce the speed of an aircraft.

air·brush (air·brush) n. a fine spray for paint used in commercial art and for retouching photographs.

air cavalry airborne troops.
air-con-dioned (air-kon-dish-ond) adj. having the air in a room or building etc. brought to the required humidity and temperature.

air-conditioning a system controlling humidity and temperature.

air-craft (air-kraft) n. 1. a machine or structure capable of flight in the air and regarded as a vehicle or carrier. 2. such craft collectively, including airplanes, gliders, and helicopters. *aircraft carrier, a ship that carries and acts as a base for airplanes.

air-crew (air-kroo) n. the crew of an aircraft.

air-drop (air-drop) n. dropping material or personnel by parachute from an aircraft.

Air
dale (air-dayl) n. a large rough-coated terrier.

air-field (air-field) n. an area of open level ground equipped with hangars and runways for aircraft.

air-foil (air-foil) n. any or all of the lift-producing surfaces of an aircraft, as wings, ailerons, fins, etc.

air force the branch of the armed forces that uses aircraft in fighting.

air-frame (air-fraym) n. the body of an aircraft as distinct from its engine(s).

air-freight (air-frayt) n. freight carried by aircraft.

air-gun (air-gun) n. a gun in which compressed air propels the missile.

air-ing (air-ing) n. 1. exposing to air or to a drying heat. 2. clothes being aired.

air lane a regular route of travel for aircraft.

air-less (air-lis) adj. 1. stuffy. 2. without a breeze, calm and still. air‘less-ness n.

air-lift (air-lift) n. large-scale transport of troops or supplies by aircraft, especially in an emergency. airlift v. to transport in this way.

air-line (air-lin) n. a regular service of air transport for public use, a company providing this.

air-lin-er (air-li-něr) n. a large passenger airplane.

air-lock (air-lok) n. 1. a stoppage of the flow in a pump or pipe, caused by an air bubble. 2. a compartment with an airtight door at each end, providing access to a pressurized chamber.

air-mail (air-mayl) n. mail carried by aircraft.

air-man (air-măn) n. (pl. -men, pr. -měn) 1. an enlisted man in the U.S. air force below the rank of sergeant. 2. an aviator.

air mass a large block of air with uniform temperature and humidity across a horizontal section.

air mattress an inflatable pad used as a mattress.

air-mile (air-mil) n. 6076 feet or 1852 kilometers.

air-mind-ed (air-mim-did) adj. interested in aviation.

air-mo-bile (air-moh-bil) adj. (used especially of military troops and equipment) able to be transported by air.

air-plane (air-playn) n. a mechanically driven heavier-than-air aircraft with wings.

air pocket a local condition of the atmosphere, as a down current or sudden change of wind velocity, that causes aircraft to lose altitude suddenly.

air police air force police.

air-port (air-port) n. an airfield with facilities for passengers and goods.

air raid an attack by aircraft.

air-ship (air-ship) n. an aircraft that is lighter than air.

air-sick (air-sik) adj. nauseated because of the motion of an aircraft.

air-space (air-spays) n. 1. space containing air. 2. air lying over a particular territory and considered subject to its jurisdiction. 3. the space above a building.

air-speed (air-speed) n. speed of aircraft in relation to the air, as distinct from ground speed.

air-strip (air-strip) n. a strip of ground prepared for aircraft to land and take off.

air-tight (air-tìt) adj. not allowing air to enter or escape.

air-to-air (air-tó-air) adj. released from one aircraft and directed toward another.

air travel travel by aircraft.

air-wave (air-way) n. the medium for transmission of radio and television signals.

air-way (air-way) n. 1. a ventilating passage in a mine. 2. an air lane.

air-wor-thy (air-wur-thee) adj. (of an aircraft) fit to fly. air‘worth-y ness n.

air-*y (air-*e) adj. (air-*er, air-*est) 1. well-ventilated. 2. light as air. 3. careless and lighthearted, an airy manner. air‘ly adv. air‘ly ness n.

caisle (il) n. 1. a side part of a church. 2. a passage between sections of seats.

a\-jar (a-jahr) adj. & adv. slightly open.

AK abbr. Alaska.

AKC abbr. American Kennel Club.

akim\-bo (ak-im-boh) adv. with hands on hips and elbows pointed outward.

ak-in (ak-in) adj. related, similar, a feeling akin to envy.

Al symbol aluminum.

-al suffix used to form adjectives, as in central, tropical.
-al² suffix used to form nouns, as in rival, arrival.

Ala. abbr. Alabama.
Al·a·bam·a (al-ā-bam-ā) a state of the U.S. Al·a·bam·i·an adj. & n. Al·a·bam·an adj. & n.
Al·a·bas·ter (al-ā-bas-tēr) n. a translucent, usually white, form of gypsum, often carved into ornaments.
à la carte (al ā ka hār) (of a restaurant meal) ordered as separate items from a menu, with a separate price for each item on the menu (as opposed to a fixed price for an entire meal).
à·lac·ri·ty (ā-lak ri tee) n. prompt and eager readiness à la king (al ā king) prepared in a cream sauce with green pepper, pimento, etc.
à la mode (al ā mōd) 1. in the fashion, fashionable. 2. (of pie, etc.) served with ice cream on top. 3. (of beef) braised.
à·larm (ā-lahrm) n. 1. a warning sound or signal, an apparatus giving this. 2. an alarm clock. 3. fear caused by expectation of danger. alarm v. to arouse to a sense of danger, to frighten. □alarm clock, a clock with a device that rings or buzzes at a set time.
à·larm·ist (ā-lahr-mist) n. a person who raises unnecessary or excessive alarm.
à·las (ā-las) interj. an exclamation of sorrow.
Alas. abbr. Alaska.
A·las·kan (ā-las kān) adj. & n. □baked Alaska, a baked dessert containing ice cream between sponge cake and merinque covering.
alb (alb) n. a white robe reaching to the feet, worn by some Christian priests at church ceremonies.
al·ba·core (al-bā kōr) n. a large species of fish of the east and west coasts of North America, allied to tuna.
Al·ba·ni·a (al-bā-nē ā) a country between Greece and Yugoslavia. Al·ba·ni·an adj. & n.
Al·ba·ny (awl-bā ne ē) the capital of New York.
al·ba·tross (al-bā trōs) n. a long-winged seabird related to the petrel.
al·be·it (awl-bee it) conj. though.
Al·ber·ta (al bār tā) a province of Canada.
al·bi·no (al-bī nō) n. (pl. -nos) a person or animal with no coloring pigment in the skin and hair (which are white) and the eyes (which are pink). al·bi·nism (al-bī nīz ēm) n.
al·bum (al-būm) n. 1. a book in which a collection of autographs, photographs, postage stamps, etc. can be kept. 2. a set of phonograph records, a holder for these. 3. a long-playing record with several items by the same performer(s). al·bu·men (al byōo mēn) n. 1. white of egg. 2. albumin.
al·bu·min (al byōo mīn) n. any of a class of water-soluble proteins, including the main constituent of white of egg.
al·bu·ml·ous (al byōo mlōs) adj. of or like albumin.
al·che·my (al kē mee) n. a medieval form of chemistry, the chief aim of which was to discover how to turn ordinary metals into gold. al'che·mist n.
al·co·hol (al kō haw l) 1. a colorless inflammable liquid, the intoxicant present in wine, beer, whiskey, etc. 2. any liquor containing this. 3. a chemical compound of this type.
al·co·hol·ic (al kō hol ik) adj. 1. of or containing alcohol. 2. caused by drinking alcohol. alcoh·o·lic n. a person suffering from alcoholism.
al·co·hol·ism (al kō haw l iz ēm) n. a diseased condition caused by continual heavy drinking of alcohol.
al·cove (al kōv) n. 1. a recess in a wall, a hollowed-out part or space. 2. a recess forming an extension of a room.
al·der (awl dēr) n. a tree of the birch family, usually growing in marshy places.
al·der·man (awl dēr mān) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mēn) a member of the municipal governing body in some U.S. towns and cities.
ale (ayl) n. liquor made from an infusion of malt by fermentation, flavored with hops etc., similar to but stronger and more bitter than beer.
al·e·house (ayl hōw s) n. a place in which ale is retailed and served.
al·ert (ā lurt) adj. watchful, observant. alert n. 1. a state of watchfulness or readiness. 2. a warning of danger, notice to stand ready. 3. the period during which an alert is in effect. alert v. 1. to make alert. 2. to warn of danger. a·lert·ly adv.
a·lert·ness (ā lurt nēs) n. on the alert, on the lookout, watchful.
al·e·wife (ayl wīf) n. (pl. -wives, pr. -wīvz) a fish of North American Atlantic waters, allied to the herring.
al·ex·an·drine (al ig zan drīn) n. a line of six iambic feet, or twelve syllables, the French heroic verse. alexandrine adj. of or in alexandrines.
al·fai·fa (al fā fā) n. a leguminous plant with clover-like leaves and bluish-purple flowers, used for fodder.
al·fres·co (al fres kō) adj. & adv. in the open air, lunched alfresco; an alfresco lunch.
al·g. abbr. algebra.
Algiers (al-gīr) n. (pl. al-giers) the capital of Algeria.

algae (al-gā) n. (pl. al-gae, pr. al-jee) a water plant with no true stems or leaves.

algorithm (al-go-rithm) n. a branch of mathematics in which letters and symbols are used to represent quantities. adj. al-go-rith-mic (al-go-rith-mik) or al-go-rith-mical (al-go-rith-mik-al) adv.

Algeria (al-jeer-ə) n. a country in North Africa. adj. & n.

 alkaline (al-kā-lin) adj. one of a class of substances (as caustic soda, potash, and ammonia) that neutralize and are neutralized by acids, and form caustic or corrosive solutions in water.

Algonquin (al-gon-kwin) n. a member of a group of Algonquin-speaking tribes.

algorithm (al-gō-rithm) n. a process or rules for calculating something, especially by machine.

aliases (ay-ly-ās) n. (pl. -as-es) a false name, an assumed name, Brown had several aliases. alias adv. also called, John Brown, alias Peter Harrison, alias James Finch.

alien (awl-ā-mer-i-kan) adj. 1. foreign, not one’s own, unfamiliar, alien customs. 2. of a different nature, contrary, cruelty is alien to her nature.

alleged (ahl-je-rid) adj. 1. Evidence that an accused person was elsewhere when the crime was committed. 2. (informal) an excuse, an answer to an accusation. alibi v. (al-i-bled, al-i-bl-ing) to provide or offer an alibi for. □ Careful writers avoid use of alibi when only an excuse is intended.

alibi (ahl-i-bë) n. a person who is not a citizen of the country in which he is living. alien adj. 1. foreign, not one’s own, unfamiliar, alien customs. 2. of a different nature, contrary, cruelty is alien to her nature.

alienate (ahl-i-nät) v. (ahl-i-nät-ed,ahl-i-nät-ing) to cause to become unfriendly or hostile. alienation (ahl-i-nä-shun) n.

all (awl) adj. the whole amount or number or extent of, waited all day; beyond all doubt, beyond any doubt whatever. all n. all men, the whole, every one, everything. all pronoun all persons concerned, everything, all are agreed; all is lost. all adv. entirely, quite, dressed all in white; an all-powerful dictator; ran all the faster, even faster. □ all but, very little short of, it’s all but impossible. all clear, a signal that a danger is over. all for, (informal) much in favor of. all in, (informal) exhausted. all in all, all things considered, as a whole. all one to, the all the same to; a matter of indifference to.

all out, using all possible strength, energy, or speed. all over, in or on all parts of, clothes were scattered all over the room; that’s Jones all over, that is what one would expect of him. all set, (informal) ready to start. all there, (informal) mentally alert. all the same, in spite of this; making no difference. be all eyes or ears, to be watching or listening intently. on all fours, crawling on hands and knees. not all there, (informal) mentally deficient.

Al-lah (ahl-a) the Muslim name of God.

all-American (awl-ā-mer-i-kän) adj. typically American, chosen as best in any U.S. sport. all-American n. all American player.

all-around (awl-ā-round) = all-round.

allay (ahl-le) v. to calm, to put at rest, to allay suspicion.

all-against (ahl-ā-gy-shun) n. a statement made without proof.

all-spice (ahl-spis) n. a plant of the genus Pimenta, with aromatic brown pods used in food.

allowance (ahl-län) n. a grant, a payment allowed in excess.

alga (ahl-gä) n. any of a large group of nitrogenous organic substances of vegetable origin having basic or alkaline properties, many of which (as morphone, strychnine, cocaine) are being used as drugs.
to prove, alleging that he was innocent; the alleged culprit, the person said to be the culprit.

al·leg·ed·ly (a-lej-ld-id-lee) adv. according to allegation.

Al·le·ge·nies (al-ëg-neez) n. pl. the Allegheny Mountains, part of the Appalachian.

al·le·gli·ance (a-lëg-li-jäns) n. loyalty owed to one's country, loyalty or support of a person or cause.

al·le·go·ry (al-ë-go ré) n. (pl. -gies) a story or description in which the characters and events symbolize some deeper underlying meaning. al·le·go·ric (al·ë-gôr ik) adj. al·le·go·ric·al adj. al·le·go·ric·al·ly adv.

al·le·gro (al-ëg-roh) adv. (in music) fast and lively. allegro n. (pl. -gres) a passage to be played in this way.

al·le·lu·ia (al-ë-loo-ya) interj. & n. = halo elu·jah.

al·ler·gen (al-ër-jen) n. a substance causing an allergic reaction. al·ler·gen·ic (al-ër-jen-ik) adj.

al·ler·gy (al·ër·jë) n. 1. an allergic reaction. 2. caused by an allergen, an allergic reaction. 3. (informal) having a strong dislike, allergic to hard work.

al·ler·gist (al·ër·jist) n. a specialist in treating allergies.

al·ler·gy (al-ër·jee) n. (pl. -gles) a condition producing an unfavorable reaction to certain foods, pollens, etc.

al·le·vi·ate (al-ë-vë-ät) v. (al·ë·vi·at-ed, al·ë·vi·at·ing) to lessen, to make less severe, to alleviate pain. al·le·vi·a·tion (al-ë-vì-ay-shen) n.

al·ley (al-ë) n. (pl. -leys) 1. a narrow passage or street between or behind houses or other buildings. 2. a long enclosure for games such as bowling.

al·ley·cat, a homeless city cat. □ Do not confuse alley with ally.

al·ley·way (al·ë-way) n. a narrow passageway.

al·li·ance (a-lë-ans) n. a union or association formed for mutual benefit, especially of countries by treaty or families by marriage.

al·lied (a·lid) adj. 1. of forces or countries in alliance. 2. of the same general kind, similar, bronchitis and allied illnesses.

al·li·ga·tor (al·ë-gë-tor) n. a reptile of the crocodile family, found especially in the rivers of tropical America and China.

al·li·ment, avocado.

al·lit·er·a·tion (a-lit·ë-ray-shen) n. the occurrence of the same letter or sound at the beginning of several words in succession, sing a song of sixpence. al·lit·er·a·tive (a-lit·ë-ray-tiv) adj.

al·lo·cate (al-ë-kat) v. (al·lo·cat·ed, al·lo·cat·ing) to allot. al·lo·ca·tor n. al·lo·ca·tion (al-ë-kä-tion) n.

al·lot (al·ët) v. (al·lot·ted, al·lot·ting) to distribute officially, to give as a share of things available or tasks to be done.

al·lot·ment (al·lot·ment) n. 1. allotting. 2. a share allotted.

al·low (a·low) v. 1. to permit; dogs are not allowed in the park, may not enter. 2. to permit to have, to give a limited quantity or sum, the court allowed her $20,000 damages. 3. to add or deduct in estimating, allow ten percent for inflation; allow for shrinkage, provide for this when estimating. 4. to agree that something is true or acceptable, to admit, he allowed he had been absent without a good reason; the insurance company allowed the claim. □ Careful writers use allow in the sense of "raise no objection." They use permit in the sense of "grant permission" or "grant consent."

al·low·a·ble (al·low·a·bl) adj. able to be allowed. al·low·a·bil·ly adv.

al·low·ance (al·low·ans) n. 1. allowing. 2. an amount or sum allowed. □ make allowances for, to be lenient toward; to be an excuse for.

al·loy (al·oi) n. 1. a metal formed of a mixture of metals or of metal and another substance. 2. an inferior metal mixed with one of greater value. alloy (al·oi) v. 1. to mix with metal(s) of lower value. 2. to weaken or spoil by adding something that reduces value or pleasure.

al·lit (a·lit) n. 1. as desired, satisfactorily. 2. in good condition, safe and sound. 3. yes, I consent.

al·round (al·round) adj. general, not specialized; a good all-round athlete, good at various sports.

Al·vil·i·ance (a·vil·i·ans) n. the day when the church remembers a person who has died.

All Saints' Day (awl saynts) day a Christian feast observed November 1 in honor of all the saints.

All Souls' Day (awl sohlz) day a day of prayer observed on November 2 for the souls of departed Christians.

al·spice (awl·spis) n. spice made from berries combining the flavors of cinnamon, nutmeg, and cloves.

al·tar (al·ta·r) adj. with or featuring star performers.

al·time (awl·tim) adj. unsurpassed, an all-time record.

al·ude (a·lood) v. (al·lud·ed, al·lud·ing) to refer casually or indirectly in speaking or writing, she alluded once again to my indecisiveness. See the note under allusion.

Al-lure (á-loor) v. (al-lured, al-lur-ing) to entice, to attract. allure n. attractiveness. al-lure'ment n.

Al-lur-ing (á-loor-ing) adj. attractive, charming.

Al-lu-sion (á-lu-zhón) n. 1. a passing or indirect reference to (something). 2. a reference to (something). Careful writers use allusion only when they do not name the thing to which they allude. When they do name it, they use reference.

Al-lu-sive (á-loo-siv) adj. containing allusions. al-lu'sive-ly adv. al-lu'sive-ness n.

Al-lu-vi-al (á-loo-vi-ál) adj. made of soil and sand left by rivers or floods.

Al-ly (á-li) n. (pl. -lies) 1. a country in alliance with another. 2. a person who cooperates with another in some project.

Al-ly (á-li) v. (al-lied, al-ly-ing) to form an alliance. the Allies, the U.S., France, Great Britain, Russia, etc., united against the Central Powers in World War I and against the Axis Powers in World War II. Do not confuse ally with alley.

-Al-ly suffix used to form adverbs from adjectives, as in finally, centrally.

Al-manack (al-mah-kak) n. 1. an annual publication containing a calendar with times of sunrise and sunset, astronomical data, and other information. 2. a yearbook of sport, theater, etc. The older spelling almanack is seen in some publications, as in Poor Richard's Almanack.

Al-might-y (awl-might-ee) adj. 1. all-powerful; the Almighty, God. 2. (informal) very great, an almighty nuisance.

Almond (ah-mond, am-ond) n. 1. the kernel of the fruit of a tree related to the peach. 2. this tree. Almond paste, edible paste made from ground almonds.

Almond-eyed (ah-mond-sided, am-ond-sided) adj. having eyes that appear to narrow and slant upward at the outer corners.

Al-mon-der (al-mond-er, ah-) n. an official distributor of almonds, as for a monastery or royal person.

Al-most (awl-moest) adv. all but, as the nearest thing to.

Alms (ahmz) n. pl. money and gifts given to the poor.

Al-oes (al-oh) n. a plant with thick sharp-pointed leaves and bitter juice. 2. (often aloes) this juice, used in medicine.

Al-loft (ah-lawft) adv. high up, up in the air, in the upper parts of a ship's rigging.

Al-lo-ha (al-lo-hah) interj. greetings, farewell.

Al-one (al-ohn) adj. not with others, without the company or help of others or other things. alone adv. only, exclusively, you alone can help me.

Al-long (al-wang) adv. 1. through part or the whole of a thing's length. 2. in company with oneself, in addition, brought my sister along; I'll be along soon, will come and join you. 3. onward, into a more advanced state, push it along; it is coming along nicely. along prep. close to or parallel with the length of something, arranged along the wall.

All along, all the time, from the beginning.

Al-long-side (al-lawng-srd) adv. close to the side of a ship, pier, or wharf. along-side prep. beside. Do not use of after alongside. Her car stands alongside ours.

Al-loof (al-loof) adv. apart; keep or hold aloof from, deliberately take no part in. aloof adj. unconcerned, cool and remote in character, not friendly. a-loof'ly adv. a-loof'ness n.

Al-loud (al-lould) adj. in a voice loud enough to be heard, not silently or in a whisper.

Alp (alp) n. a high mountain. the Alpes, high mountains in Switzerland and adjacent countries.

Al-pa-ca (al-pak-à) n. 1. a kind of llama with long woolly hair. 2. a fabric made from this hair, with or without other fibers.

Al-pha (al-fa) n. 1. the first letter of the Greek alphabet (A). 2. Alpha, the chief star in a constellation.

Al-pha-bet (al-fa-bet) n. 1. the letters used in writing a language. 2. a list of these in a set order. 3. symbols or signs indicating letters but not written, the Morse alphabet.

Al-pha-bet-i-cal (al-fa-bet-ik) adj. in the order of the letters of the alphabet.

Al-pha-bet-ic (al-fa-bet-ik) adj. containing both alphabetical and numerical symbols (used in computer technology etc.).

Alpha particle the first of three types of radiation emitted by radioactive substances, consisting of positively charged particles.

Alpha ray an alpha particle, originally regarded as a ray.

Alpha rhythm the most common type of wave-form exhibited by the adult cerebral cortex, averaging eight to twelve smooth oscillations a second in adults at rest.

alpha wave alpha rhythm.

al-*pine (al-pin) adj. 1. of high mountains, growing on these. 2. Alpine, of the Alps. alpine n. a plant suited to mountain regions.

al-*ready (awl-red-ee) adv. 1. before this time, had already gone. 2. as early as this, is he back already? □ Do not confuse already with all ready, as in they were all ready (prepared) to go.

al-*right (awl-rtxt) adv. an incorrect form of all right.

al-*so (awl-soh) adv. in addition, besides.

al-*so-ran (awl-soh-ran) n. 1. a horse or dog not among the first three to finish in a race. 2. a person who fails to win a race, contest, etc.

alt. abbr. altitude.

al-*tar (awl-tår) n. 1. the table on which bread and wine are consecrated in the Communion service. 2. any structure on which offerings are made to a god.

al-*tar-piece (awl-tår-pees) n. a painting or sculpture above the back of an altar.

al-*ter (awl-tër) v. to make or become different, to change in character, position, etc.; alter a garment, resew it in a different style or size. al-*ter-a-*ble adj. al-*ter-a-*bly adv. al-*ter-a-*tion (awl-tår-ray-sh6n) n.

al-*ter-ca-*tion (awl-tår-kay-sh6n) n. a noisy dispute or quarrel.

al-*ter e-*go (awl-tër ee-goh) one's other self, an intimate friend.

al-*ter-na-*tive (awl-tår-nä-tiv) adj. happening or following in turns, first one and then the other; on alternate days, every second day. al-*ter-na-*tive-*ly adv. □ Do not confuse alternate with alternative.

al-*ter-na-*tion (awl-tår-na-*sh6n) n. □ alternating current, electric current that reverses its direction at regular intervals.

al-*ter-na-*tive (awl-tår-nä-tiv) adj. available in place of something else. al-*ter-na-*tive-*ly adv. □ Do not confuse alternative with alternate.

al-*ter-na-*tor (awl-tår-nä-tör) n. an electric generator producing alternating current.

al-*though, al-*tho (awl-thoh) conj. even though, in spite of the fact that. □ Careful writers do not use altho.

al-*tim-e-*ter (awl-tim-ë-ter) n. an instrument used especially in aircraft for showing altitude above sea level.

al-*ti-*tude (al-ti-tood) n. 1. the height above sea level. 2. the distance of a star etc. above the horizon, measured as an angle.

al-*to (al-toh) n. (pl. -tos) 1. the lowest female singing voice. 2. a contralto. 3. a singer with such a voice, a part written for it. 4. a musical instrument with the second highest pitch in its group, alto saxophone.

al-*to-*geth-*er (awl-tô-geh-ther) adv. 1. entirely, totally. 2. on the whole. □ In the altogether, (informal) nude. □ Do not confuse altogether with all together, as in we were all together (reunited) again.

al-*tru-is-*tic (al-troo-is-tik) adj. al-*truis-ti-cal-ly adv.

al-*truis-*tic (al-troo-ist) n. an unselfish person.

al-*um (al-ûm) n. a white mineral salt used in medicine and in dyeing.

al-*umn-*um (al-yûn-i-ûm) n. (British) aluminum.

a-*lu-mi-*nize (ä-loo-mi-niz) v. (a-*lu-mi-nized, a-*lu-mi-niz-ing) to coat with aluminum.

a-*lu-mi-*num (ä-loo-mi-nûm) n. a lightweight silvery metal used either pure or as an alloy for making utensils or fittings where lightness is an advantage.

a-*lum-*na (ä-lum-nä) n. (pl. -nae, pr.

-ne) a female former student of a school or college.

a-*lum-*nis (ä-lum-nis) n. (pl. -ni, pr.

-mi) a male former student of a school or college.

al-*ways (awl-wayz) adv. 1. at all times, on all occasions, forever. 2. whatever the circumstances, at any time, you can always change your plans. 3. repeatedly, he is always complaining.

am (am) see be.

Am symbol amercium.

AM abbr. amplitude modulation.

a.m. abbr. ante meridiem.

A.M. abbr. 1. ante meridiem. 2. Master of Arts.

a-mah (ah-mah) n. (in the Orient) a nursemaid.

a-*mal-*gam (ä-mal-g âm) n. 1. an alloy of mercury and another metal. 2. any soft pliable mixture.

a-*mal-*ga-*mate (ä-mal-g âm-ät) v. (amal-g âmat-ed, a-mal-g âmat-ing) to mix, to combine. a-*mal-*ga-*ma-*tion (ä-mal-g âm-ma-tyshûn) n.

a-*man-u-en-*sis (ä-mân-yoo-ensis) n. (pl.

-ses, pr. -seez) a person who writes from dictation or copies manuscripts, a literary assistant.

am·a·ranth (am·a-ranth) n. 1. an imaginary unfading flower. 2. pigweed, tumbleweed, etc. 3. a purple color.

am·a·ry·lis (am·a-ri·lis) n. a lilylike plant growing from a bulb.

a·mass (ā-mas) v. to heap up, to collect, amassed a large fortune.

am·a·to·ry (am·a·to·ry) adj. able to involve a lover, lovemaking, or expressions of love.

a·maze (ā·mayz) v. (a·mazed, a·mazing) to overwhelm with wonder. a·mazing·ly adv. a·maze·ment n.

am·a·zon (am·a-zon) n. a tall and strong or athletic woman. am·a·zo·ni·an (am·a-zőh-ni·än) adj. & The Amazons were a race of female warriors in Greek mythology.

am·bas·sa·dor (am·bas·sa·dör) n. 1. a diplomat sent by one country as a permanent representative or on a special mission to another. 2. an official messenger.

am·bas·sa·do·ri·al (am·bas·sa·dör-i·äl) adj.

am·ber (am·ber) n. 1. a hard, clear yellowish-brown resin used for making ornaments. 2. a yellow traffic light shown as a cautionary signal alone or between red (= stop) and green (= go). amber adj. 1. made of amber. 2. colored like amber.

am·ber·gris (am·ber·gris) n. a waxylike substance found floating in tropical seas and present in the intestines of sperm whales, used as a fixative in perfumes.

am·bi·dex·tri·ous (am·bi·dek·strüs) adj. able to use either hand equally well. am·bi·dex·tros·ly adv.

am·bi·ence, am·bi·ance (am·bi·äns) n. environment, surroundings.

am·bi·ent (am·bi·ént) adj. surrounding.

am·bi·gu·ous (am·bi·gu·üs) adj. having two or more possible meanings. 2. doubtful, uncertain. am·bi·gu·ous·ly adv. am·bi·gu·i·ty (am·bi·gu·i·te) n. □ Do not confuse ambivalent with ambiguous.

am·bi·tion (am·bi·shon) n. 1. a strong desire to achieve something. 2. the object of this.

am·bi·tious (am·bi·šus) adj. full of ambition. am·bi·tious·ly adv.

am·bi·lent (am·bi·lënt) adj. with mixed feelings toward a certain object or situation. am·bi·lent·ly adv.

am·bi·lence n. □ Do not confuse ambivalent with ambiguous.

am·bl·e (am·bël) v. (am·bled, am·bl·ing) to walk at a slow easy pace. am·ble n. a slow easy pace.

am·bro·s·ia (am·bro·zhë-ä) n. something delicious. am·bro·s·i·al adj.

am·bu·lance (am·byü-äns) n. a vehicle equipped to carry sick or injured people.

am·bu·la·to·ry (am·byü-ä-ló-tör-ë) adj. able to walk about.

am·bus·cade (am·byüs·kad) n. an ambush. am·bus·cade v. (am·bus·cad·ed, am·bus·cad·ing) to ambush.

am·bus·h (am·byush) n. 1. the placing of troops etc. in a concealed position to make a surprise attack on an enemy or a victim who has approached. 2. such an attack. am·bus·h v. to lie in wait for, to attack from an ambush.

am·mel·lo·rate (ä·meel·lo·rát) v. (a·mel·lo·rat·ed, a·mel·lo·rat·ing) to make or become better. a·mel·lo·ra·tion (ä·meel·lo·rá·shon) n.

am·en (ah·men) interj. an expression of assent.

am·ne·be·le (ä·mëne·bé·lë, a·men·ä-) adj. 1. answerable, subject to some authority or rule. 2. willing to be guided or controlled by some influence, she is not amenable to discipline.

am·end (ä·mend) v. to correct an error in, to make minor alterations in, they amended the agreement. □ Do not confuse amend with emend.) □ make amends, to compensate or make up for something, brought a gift to make amends for his lateness.

am·end·ment (ä·mend·mënt) n. 1. the process of amending something. 2. an addition to or correction of a document, bill, or law.

am·en·i·ty (ä·men·i·tee, a·mee·në) n. (pl. -ties) n. 1. the pleasantness of a place or circumstance. 2. a feature of a place etc. that makes life there easy or pleasant. 3. amenities, conventions observed in polite social intercourse.

Am·er·i·ca (ä·mer·i·kä) 1. a continent of the western hemisphere (also called the Americas) consisting of the two great land masses, North America and South America, joined by the narrow isthmus of Central America. 2. the U.S.

Am·er·i·can (ä·mer·i·kän) adj. 1. of the continent of America. 2. of the U.S.

Am·er·i·can adj. n. 1. a native of America. 2. a citizen of the U.S. 3. (also American English) the English language as spoken in the U.S. □ American Indian, see Indian. American Legion, an organization of veterans of U.S. wars, founded in 1919. American plan, the system of charging for a hotel room and service with inclusion of meals. American Revolution, the war between the thirteen American colonies and Great Britain (1775–1783) in which the colonies gained their independence.

A·mer·i·ca·na (ä·mer-i-kan·ä) n. pl. books, memorabilia, etc. relating to America, especially to U.S. history.

A·mer·i·can·ism (ä·mer-i-kan·iz·əm) n. a custom, belief, trait, phrase, etc. originating in the United States or peculiar to it.

A·mer·i·can·ize (ä·mer-i-kan·ız) v. (A·mer·i·can·ized, A·mer·i·can·iz·ing) 1. to make or become American in character. 2. to naturalize as an American. A·mer·i·can·i·za·tion (ä·mer-i-kan·i·za·shən) n.

A·mer·i·li·um (ä·mer·i·li·üm) n. a metallic radioactive element.

A·mer·i·li·nd (ä·mer·i·lind) n. an American Indian or Eskimo.

A·me·thyst (ä·me·thist) n. a precious stone, purple or violet quartz.

A·mi·a·ble (ay·mi·a·bēl) adj. feeling and inspiring friendliness, good-tempered.

A·mi·a·bly adv. A·mi·a·bl·i·ty (ay·mi·a·bl·i·tē) n.

A·mi·cable (am-i·kā·bēl) adj. friendly.

A·mi·c·a·by adv.

A·mid (ä·mid) prep. amid. In the middle of, among, or amidst.

A·mid·ships (ä·mid·ships) adv. in the middle of a ship.

A·mi·no (ä·mē·no·hē) n. organic acid found in proteins.

A·mis (ä·mis) adj. wrong, out of order, something is amiss. A·mis·sy adv. wrongly, faultily; don't take his criticism amiss, don't be offended by it.

A·mi·ty (am·i·tē) n. friendship, friendly relations.

A·man (ah·mahn) the capital of Jordan.

A·me·ter (am·ee·tər) n. an instrument that measures electric current, usually in amperes.

A·mo (am·o) n. (informal) ammunition.

A·mo·ni·a (ä·mohn-yā) n. 1. a colorless gas of nitrogen and hydrogen with a strong smell. 2. (also ammonia) water, a solution of this in water.

A·mo·ni·tion (am·yū-nish·ōn) n. 1. projectiles (bullets, shells, grenades, etc.) and their propellants. 2. facts and reasoning used to prove a point in an argument.

A·nem·ia (am·nee·zhā) n. loss of memory.
am·phi·bi·an (am-fib-i-an) n. 1. an animal able to live both on land and in water (as a frog). 2. an aircraft that can take off from and land on both land and water. 3. a vehicle that can move on both land and water.

am·phi·bi·ous (am-fib-i-ús) adj. 1. living or operating both on land and in water. 2. involving both sea and land forces, amphibious attack.

am·phi·the·a·ter (am-fí-the-à-tér) n. 1. an oval or circular building with tiers of seats surrounding an open central arena. (†This is not the same as a Greek or Roman theater, which is semicircular.) 2. a large room with raised tiers of seats around a central stage for viewing performances, demonstrations, and the like.

am·phi·rā (am-fô-rā) n. (pl. -ræ, pr. -ree, -ras) a Greek or Roman two-handled vase.

am·ple (am-pêl) adj. (-pler, -plest) 1. plentiful, quite enough, ample evidence. 2. large, of generous proportions. am'ply adv.

am·pli·fl·er (am-plî-frîr) n. a device that increases electric voltage, current, or power, or the loudness of sounds.

am·pli·fy (am-plî-frî) v. (am-plî-fîd, am·pli·fy·ing) 1. to increase the strength of, to amplify sound. 2. to make fuller, to add details to, please amplify your statement. am·pli·fi·ca·tion (am-plî-fi-ká-shôn) n.

am·pli·tu·de (am-plî-túd) n. 1. breadth. 2. largeness, abundance. □ amplitude modulation, variations in the amplitude of carrier waves used in radio transmission.

am·pule (am-pyool), am·poule (am-pool) n. a small sealed container holding a liquid, especially for hypodermic injection.

am·pu·tate (am-pyû-tât) v. (am·pu·ta·ted, am·pu·tat·ting) to cut off by surgical operation. am·pu·ta·tion (am-pyû-tá-shôn) n.

am·pu·tie (am-pyû-tee) n. a person who has had a limb amputated.

Am·ster·dam (am-stér-dam) the capital of the Netherlands.

amt. abbr. amount.

Am·trak (am-trak) n. a system of railroads in the U.S.

a·muck = amok.

a·u·let (a-yû-lit) n. a thing worn as a charm against evil.

a·muse (ä-myooz) v. (a·mused, a·mus·ing) 1. to cause to laugh or smile. 2. to make time pass pleasantly for. a·muse'ment n.

AMVETS (am-vets) n. an organization of U.S. veterans of World War II and the Korean War.

an (an) adj. (called the indefinite article) the form of a used before vowel sounds other than “u” (pr. yoo), an egg, an hour (but a unit).

an- prefix without, not, as in anarchy, an-hydrous.

-an suffix used to form adjectives or nouns, especially from names of places, systems, zoological classes, and founders, as in American, republican.

a·nach·ro·nism (ä-nak-rô-niz-ém) n. 1. a mistake in placing something into a particular historical period. 2. the thing wrongly placed. 3. a person, custom, or idea regarded as out of date.

an·a·cond·a (än-ä-kon-dä) n. a large Southern American snake that crushes its prey.

a·nae·mi·a = anemia.

an·a·er·o·bic (an-ä-roh-bik) adj. living and reproducing in the absence of atmospheric oxygen.

an·aes·the·sia = anesthesia.

an·aes·thet·ic = anesthetic.

a·naes·the·tist = anesthetist.

a·naes·the·tize = anesthetize.

an·a·gram (an-ä-grâm) n. a word or phrase formed from the rearranged letters of another (carthorse is an anagram of orchestra).

a·nal (ay-nål) adj. 1. of the anus. 2. of infantile psychosexual development that is centered on the anus.

anal. abbr. analogous. 2. analogy. 3. analysis. 4. analytic.

an·al·ge·si·a (an-äl-ge-zé-á) n. loss of ability to feel pain while still conscious.

an·al·go·sic (an-äl-go-zik) adj. relieving pain. analgesic n. a drug that relieves pain.

an·a·log (an-ä-lawg) computer a computer using physical quantities (voltage, weight, etc.) to represent numbers.

an·al·o·gous (ä-nal-å-gus) adj. similar in certain respects. an·al'o·go·ous·ly adv.

an·a·logue, an·a·log (an-ä-lawg) n. an analogous word or thing.

an·al·o·gy (ä-nal-å-je) n. (pl. -gies) a partial likeness between two things that are compared, the analogy between the human heart and a pump.

an·a·log·i·cal·ly adv.

an·al·y·sis (ä-nal-i-sis) n. (pl. -ses, pr. -sez) 1. analyzing. 2. a statement of the result of this. 3. psychoanalysis.

an·a·lyst (an-ä-list) n. 1. a person who is skilled in analysis of chemical substances etc. 2. a psychoanalyst.

an·a·lyt·ic (än-ä-lit-ik), an·a·lyt·i·cal·ly adv.
analyze / anemometer

1·cal (an-á-lit-1-kal) adj. of or using analysis. an·a·lyt·ic·al·ly adv.
an·a·lyze (an-á-liz) v. (an-á-lyzed, an·a·lyzing) 1. to separate (a substance etc.) into its parts in order to identify it or study its structure. 2. to examine and interpret, tried to analyze the causes of their failure. 3. to psychoanalyze.
an·a·pes·t (an-á-pést) n. a metrical foot of three syllables, the first two short and the last long. an·a·pes·tic (an-á-pes·tic) adj.
an·ar·chist (an-ár-kist) n. a person who believes that government and laws are undesirable and should be abolished. an·ar·chism n. an·ar·chist·ic (an-ár-kist·ic) adj.
an·ar·chy (an-ár-kee) n. 1. the absence of government or control, resulting in lawlessness. 2. disorder, confusion. an·ar·chic (an-ahr-kik) adj. an·ar·chi·cal adj.
an·as·tic·ment·ic (an-as-tig-mat-ik) adj. free from astigmatism.
an·at. abbr. anatomy.
an·e·ma (á-nath-é-má) n. 1. a formal curse of the Church, excommunicating someone or condemning something as evil. 2. a detested person or thing, blood sports are anathema to him.
an·e·mat·ize (á-nath-é-má-tiz) v. (á-nath·é·ma·tized, a·nath·é·ma·tiz·ing) to curse.
an·e·mat·o·my (á-nat-é-mé) n. 1. the scientific study of bodily structures. 2. the bodily structure of an animal or plant.
an·a·tom·i·cal (an-á-tom-i-kál) adj. an·a·tom·i·cal·ly adv.
-an·ce suffix used to form nouns meaning quality, as in arrogancy, relevance; action, as in assistance, penance.
an·ces·tor (an-ses-tór) n. any of the persons from whom a person is descended, especially those more remote than grandparents. an·ces·tral (an-ces-trál) adj.
an·ces·try (an-ses-tree) n. (pl. -tries) a line of ancestors.
an·chors (ang-kór) n. 1. a heavy metal structure or other object used to moor a ship to the sea bottom or a balloon etc. to the ground; at anchor, moored by an anchor. 2. anything that gives stability or security. anchor v. 1. to lower an anchor, to make secure with an anchor. 2. to fix firmly. an·chorm an. a strong member of a sports team who plays a vital part (as at the back of a tug-of-war team or as a last runner in a relay race); a broadcaster who introduces and comments on and coordinates the reports etc. of others. anchor person, a man or woman who plays the role of anchor man.
an·chor·age (ang-kór-aj) n. 1. a place where ships may anchor safely. 2. the charge for this.
an·cho·rite (ang-kór-ri) n. a hermit.
an·cho·vy (an-choh-vee) n. (pl. -vies) a small rich-flavored fish of the herring family.
an·cient (ayn-chént) adj. belonging to times long past. an·cient·ly adv. ancient history, history of the period before the end of the Western Roman Empire in 476 A.D. the ancients, people who lived in ancient times.
an·cil·lar·y (an-sil·lar·ee) adj. helping in a subsidiary way, ancillary services.
-ancy suffix used to form nouns meaning quality, as in constancy, relevancy; state, as in expectancy, infancy.
and (and) conj. 1. together with. 2. then again, repeatedly or increasingly, gets better and better; miles and miles, very many miles. 3. added to, two and two make four. 4. to, go and buy one. 5. with this consequence, move and I shoot. and/or, together with or as an alternative, either one or both. D Careful writers do not use and/or.
an·dan·te (ahn-dahn-tay) adj. (of music) in moderately slow time. andante n. a passage to be played in this way.
an·de·an (an-dee-án) adj. of the Andes, a range of mountains in western South America. and·i·ron (and-i-árn) n. an iron support (usually one of a pair) for holding logs in a fireplace.
and/or see and.
an·dor·ra (an-dor-á) a small country in the Pyrenees. an·dor·ran adj. & n.
Andorra la Vé·la (lá vel-á) the capital of Andorra.
an·dro·gen (an-dró-jen) n. a male sex hormone or other substance capable of developing and maintaining certain male sexual characteristics.
an·droid (an-droid) n. a robot with human form. an·ec·dote (an-ik-doyt) n. a short amusing or interesting story about a real person or event. an·ec·dotal (an-ik-dotal) adj. Do not confuse anecdote with antidote.
an·e·mi·a (á-nee-mi-á) n. lack of red corpuscles or of their hemoglobin in blood.
an·e·mic (á-nee-mik) adj. 1. suffering from anemia. 2. pale, weak in color. 3. lacking vigor or positive characteristics. an·e·mi·cal·ly adv.
an·e·mom·e·ter (an-é-mom-é-tër) n. an instrument for measuring the force of wind.
a·nem·o·nee (ä-nem-ō-nee) n. a plant related to the buttercup, with white, red, or purple flowers.

an·e·roid (an-ë-roid) barometer a barometer that measures air pressure by the action of air on the lid of a box containing a vacuum, not by the height of a fluid column.

an·es·the·sia (an-is-thee-zhā) n. 1. loss of sensation. 2. insensibility, especially to pain, induced by certain drugs.

an·es·the·si·ol·o·gist (an-is-thee-zī-ol-ō-jist) n. a specialist in anesthesiology.

an·es·the·si·ol·o·gy (an-is-thee-zī-ol-ō-jee) n. the branch of medicine dealing with anesthesia.

an·es·thet·ic (an-is-thet-ik) n. a substance that produces loss of sensation and of ability to feel pain. anesthetic adj. having this effect.

an·es·the·tist (ā-nes-thē-tist) n. a person trained to administer anesthetics.

an·es·the·tize (ā-nes-thē-tiz) v. (an·es·the·tiz·ed, an·es·the·tiz·ing) to administer an anesthetic to (a person etc.).

an·eu·rysm (an-ū-riz-ēm) n. a localized dilation of an artery caused by weakening of its wall.

a·new (ā-noo, ā-nyou) adv. again, in a new or different way.

an·gel (a·n·jel) n. 1. an attendant or messenger of God, usually shown in pictures as a being in human form with wings and dressed in long white robes. 2. a very beautiful or kind person. 3. a financial backer, especially of a theatrical production. □ angel dust, (informal) a white crystalline powder used as an anesthetic by veterinarians and as a narcotic by some people, in whom it can cause apathy and social estrangement.

an·gel·fish (a·n·jel-fish) n. (pl. fish·es, fish) a fish with winglike fins.

an·gel·food (a·n·jel-food) cake a light, white sponge cake.

an·gel·ic (a·n·jel-ik) adj. of or like an angel. an·gel·i·cal·ly adv.

an·ge·lic·al·ca (a·n·jel-i-kā) n. a fragrant plant used in cookery and medicine.

an·ge·lus (ang-ē-lūs) n. (in the Roman Catholic Church) 1. a prayer to the Virgin Mary commemorating the Incarnation, said at morning, noon, and sunset. 2. a bell rung as a signal for this.

an·ger (ang-gér) n. extreme displeasure. anger v. to make angry.

an·gil·na (ān·jil-nā) n. a spasmodic gripping sensation of pain. □ angina pec·tor·is (pek-tō-ris), a sharp pain in the chest, accompanied by a sense of suffocation, caused by an insufficient blood supply to the heart.

an·gle (ang-gēl) n. 1. the space or figure formed between two lines or surfaces that meet. 2. a sharp projecting corner. 3. a point of view, written from the sportsman's angle. angle v. (ang-gled, an·gling) 1. to move or place in a slanting position. 2. to present (news etc.) from a particular point of view.

an·gle·worm (ang·gel-wurm) n. an earthworm used as bait.

An·glican (ang-glik-ān) adj. of the Church of England. Anglican n. a member of this Church. Ang'lican·ism n.

an·gl·cize (ang-glij-iz) v. (an·gl·ciz·ed, an·gl·ciz·ing) to make English in form or character. an·gl·cli·za·tion (ang-gli-si-zā-shōn) n.

An·glo·phile (ang-glo-fīl) n. (pl. -glos) (slang) an English-speaking white American.

An·glo·French agreement, between Britain and France.

An·glo·phile (ang-gli-fil) n. a person who admires England or English things.

An·glo·phone (ang-glo-fōn) n. a person who hates England or the English.

An·glo·Sax·on (ang-glo-sak-son) n. 1. an English person of the period before the Norman Conquest. 2. the English language of this period, also called Old English. 3. a person of English descent. Anglo-Saxon adj. of the Anglo-Saxons or their language.

An·glo·Sax·on (ang-glo-sak-son) n. 1. a yarn or fabric made from the hair of angora goats or rabbits. 2. a long-haired variety of cat, goat, or rabbit.

an·gos·tu·ra (ang-gōs-tōor-ā) n. the bitter bark of a South American tree.

an·gray (ang-gray) adj. (-gri·er, -gri·est) 1. feeling or showing anger. 2. inflamed, an angry sore. an·gri·ly adv.

angst (anɡst) n. anxiety, remorse.

an·grom (ang-strōm) n. a unit of length used in measuring wavelengths and equal to one ten-billionth of a meter.

an·guish (ang·gwhis) n. severe physical or mental pain.

an·guished (ang-gwishd) adj. feeling anguish.

an·guis·t (ang-gyū-lār) adj. 1. having angles or sharp corners. 2. lacking smoothness or smoothness. 3. measured by angle, the angular distance. an·guis·t·i·ty (ang-gyū-lār-i·tee) n.

An·gus n. Aberdeen Angus. annunciation / antecedent ay-tör) n. an-nun-ci-a-to-ry (ā-nun-si-ā-tohr-ē) adj.

an-nun-ci-a-tion (ā-nun-si-ā-yshōn) n. 1. the act of announcing. 2. Annunciation, the announcement by the angel Gabriel to the Virgin Mary that she was to be the mother of Christ, the festival commemorating this.

an-ode (an-ohd) n. the electrode by which current enters a device. ar-iod-ic (an-oyd-ik) adj.

an-o-dize (an-ō-diz) v. (an-o-dized, an-o-diz-ing) to coat (metal) with a protective layer by electrolysis. an-od-i-za-tion (an-ō-di-zay-shon) n.

an-o-dyne (an-ō-din) n. 1. a drug that relieves pain. 2. anything that relieves pain or distress.

anoint (ā-noint) v. 1. to apply ointment or oil to, especially as a sign of consecration. 2. to smear or rub with grease.

anoint-ment (ā-noint-ment) n.

an-om-a-ly (ā-nom-ā-lee) n. (pl. -lies) something that deviates from the general rule or the usual type, an irregularity or inconsistency. an-nom-a-lous adj.

an-an (ā-an) adv. (old use) soon, presently, I will say more of this anon.

anon. abbr. by an anonymous author.

an-om-ly (ā-nom-ī-tee) n. (ā-nom-ī-tē) n. being anonymous.

an-an-y-mous (ā-an-i-mōs) adj. 1. with a name that is not known or not made public, an anonymous donor. 2. written or given by such a person, an anonymous gift; an anonymous letter, one that is not signed. an-nom-ous ly adv.

anoph-e-lies (ā-nof-ē-lez) n. a mosquito that carries malaria.

an-ore-c-tic (an-ō-rek-tik) adj. suffering from anorexia.

an-ore-xia (an-ō-rek-sē-ā) n. loss of appetite for food. anorexia nervosa, a psychological condition causing chronic absence of appetite for food.

an-oth-er (ā-noth-ēr) adj. 1. additional, more; another Solomon, one like him. 2. different, use another pipe, this one leaks. 3. some or any other, will not do another man’s work. another pronoun another or a different person or thing.

an-swer (an-sār) n. 1. something said or written or needed or done to deal with a question, accusation, or problem. 2. the correct solution to a problem. an-swer v. 1. to make an answer to, to say, write, or do something in return; answer the door, go to it in response to a signal; he answers to the name of Thomas, is so called. 2. to suffice or be suitable for, this will answer the purpose. 3. to take responsibility for, to vouch for, I will an-swer for his honesty; they must answer for their crimes, must justify them or pay the penalty. 4. to correspond, this bag answers to the description of the stolen one. an-swer-er n. 1. answer back, to answer a rebuke impertinently. an-swer-ing service, a business that receives telephone calls for its clients.

an-swer-able (an-sēr-ā-bēl) adj. 1. able to be answered. 2. having to account for something.

ant (ant) n. a very small insect of which there are many species, all of which form and live in highly organized groups.

ant lion, an insect that traps ants.

ant. abbr. 1. antenna. 2. antonym.

Ant. abbr. Antarctica.

-an suffix used to form adjectives meaning existence of action, as in repentant.

-an suffix used to form nouns meaning agent, as in assistant.

an-ta-cid (ant-as-id) n. a substance that prevents or corrects acidity.

an-tag-o-nism (an-tag-ō-niz-ēm) n. active opposition, hostility. an-tag-o-nist n.

an-tag-o-nis-tic (ant-tag-ō-nis-tik) adj. showing or feeling antagonism. an-tag-o-nized, an-tag-o-niz-ing n. to arouse antagonism in.

Ant-arc-tic (ant-ark-tik) adj. of the regions around the South Pole. Antarctic n. 1. these regions. 2. the Antarctic Ocean. Ant-Artic Circle, the line of latitude 66° 30’ S. Be sure to pronounce the two “k” sounds in Antarctic.

Ant-Art-ic-ca (ant-ark-ti-kā) the continent mainly within the Antarctic Circle. Be sure to pronounce the two “k” sounds in Antarctica.

an-te (an-tē) n. 1. a stake put up by each poker player before he sees his hand. 2. (slang) the cost or price. ante v. (an-ted or an-teed, an-te-ing) to put up an ante, to pay up. an-ted up, to ante.

ante- prefix before. Do not confuse ante- with anti-.

ant-eat-er (ant-ē-at-ēr) n. a tropical American mammal feeding chiefly on ants and termites.

an-te-bel-um (an-tē-bel-ūm) adj. before the war, of the southern U.S. before the Civil War.

an-te-ced-ent (an-tē-se-dēnt) n. 1. a preceding thing or circumstance, the war and its antecedents; I know nothing of his antecedents, of his ancestry or past life. 2. a noun, clause, or sentence to which a following pronoun refers (in the book that I have, book is the antecedent of that). antecedent adj. previous.
antechamber (an-ti-chaym-bér) n. an anteroom.

an·te·date (an-ti-dayt) v. (an·te·dat·ed, an·te·dat·ing) 1. to put an earlier date on (a document) than that on which it was issued. 2. to precede in time, to be earlier.

an·te·di·lu·vi·an (an-ti-di-loo-vi-ān) adj. 1. of the time before the Flood. 2. (informal) utterly out of date.

an·te·lope (an-tē-lohp) n. a swift-running animal resembling a deer, found especially in Africa.

an·te·me·ri·di·em (an-ti mé-rid-ī-ēm) between midnight and noon. > Latin.

an·tena (an-tē-nā) n. (pl. -ten·nae, pr. -ten·ee, -ten·nas) 1. one of a pair of flexible sensitive projections on the heads of insects, crustaceans, etc., a feeler. 2. wire(s) or rod(s) used to transmit or receive radio waves, an aerial.

an·te·pe·nul·ti·mate (an-ti-pi-nul-tī-māt) adj. last but two.

an·te·ri·or (an-teer-i-ōr) adj. coming before in position or time.

an·te·room (an-ti-room) n. a room leading to a more important one.

an·them (an-thēm) n. 1. a short musical composition to be sung in religious services, often with words taken from the Bible. 2. a song of praise or gladness.

an·ther (an-thēr) n. the part of a flower's stamen that contains pollen.

an·t·hill (an-hil) n. a mound over an ants' nest.

an·thoi·o·gist (an-thōi-ō-jist) n. a person who compiles an anthology.

an·tho·i·o·gize (an-thōi-ō-jiz) v. (an·tho·i·o·gized, an·tho·i·o·giz·ing) to include in an anthology.

an·tho·i·o·gy (an-thōi-ō-jē) n. a collection of passages from literature, especially poems.

an·thra·cite (an-thrā-sīt) n. a hard form of coal that burns with little flame or smoke.

an·thrax (an-thraks) n. a disease of sheep and cattle that can be transmitted to people.

anthrop. abbr. anthropology.

an·throp·oid (an-thrō-poid) adj. manlike in form. anthropoid n. an anthropoid ape such as a gorilla or chimpanzee.

an·tho·p·ol·o·gist (an-thrö-pōl-ō-jist) n. an expert in anthropology.

an·tho·po·li·gy (an-thrö-pōli-jē) n. the scientific study of mankind, especially of its origins, development, customs, and beliefs. an·tho·po·log·i·cal (an-thrö-pō-loj-ik) adj. an·tho·po·log·i·cal·ly adv.

an·tho·po·mor·phic (an-thrö-pō-mor·fik) adj. attributing human form or personality to a god or animal or object.

an·thro·po·mor·phism n.

an·ti (an-ti, -tēc) n. (pl. -tis) a person who opposes a certain policy etc. anti prep. (informal) opposed to.

anti- prefix against, opposed to, as in anti-slavery; preventing, counteracting, as in antiperspirant. > Do not confuse anti- with ante-.

an·ti·air·craft (an-ti-air-kraft) adj. used against enemy aircraft.

an·ti·A·mer·i·can (an-ti-ā-mer-i-kān) adj. 1. opposed to U.S. policy or interests. 2. hating Americans.

an·ti·bac·te·ri·al (an-ti-bak-te-ri-āl) adj. stopping the growth of bacteria.

an·ti·bal·lis·tic (an-ti-bāl-lis-tik) missle a defensive missile designed to intercept and destroy an attacking ballistic missile.

an·ti·bi·ot·ic (an-ti-bī-ot-ik) n. a substance capable of destroying or preventing the growth of bacteria.

an·ti·bo·dy (an-ti-bō-di) n. a protein formed in the blood in reaction to certain substances which it then attacks and destroys.

an·ti·c (an-tī-k) n. (usually antics) 1. absurd movements intended to cause amusement. 2. odd or foolish behavior.

an·ti·can·cer (an-ti-kān-sēr) adj. stopping the growth of cancer cells.

an·ti·Cath·o·lic (an-ti-kath-ōlik) adj. opposed to the doctrine and influence of the Roman Catholic Church. anti-Catholicism (an-ti-kā-thōl-i-sēm) n.

An·ti·christ (an-ti-kriṣt) n. a great enemy or opponent of Christ and his teachings.

an·tic·i·pat·ed, an·tic·i·pat·ing 1. to deal with before the proper time; be sure not to anticipate the check, do not spend it before receiving it. 2. to take action before someone else has had time to do so, others may have anticipated Columbus in the discovery of America. 3. to notice what needs doing and take action in advance; anticipate someone's needs, provide for them in advance; the boxer anticipated the blow, saw it coming and blocked it. 4. to expect, we anticipate that it will rain. (> Many people regard this use as unacceptable, but it is very common.) an·tic·i·pa·tion (an-tī-sī-pā-shōn) n.

an·tic·i·pa·to·ry (an-tī-sī-pā-tohr-ē) adj. showing anticipation.

an·ti·cler·i·cal (an-ti-klēr-i-kāl) adj. opposed to the influence of clergy or to the existence of an organized clerical hierarchy.

an·ti·clim·ax (an-ti-klīm-aks) n. a disappointing ending or outcome of events.
antique n. an antique object, especially furniture or a decorative object of a kind sought by collectors. antique v. (ant-ique, ant-ique-ed) to make (furniture etc.) appear antique by artificial means.

an·ti·qu·i·ty (an-tek-wi-te) n. (pl. -ties) 1. ancient times, especially before the Middle Ages; it is of great antiquity, it is very old. 2. an object dating from ancient times, Greek and Roman antiquities.

an·ti·Se·mit·ic (an-ti-se-mit-ik) adj. hostile to Jews.

ant·i·Se·mil·i·ty (an-ti-se-mil-i-ty) n. 1. state of being anti-Semitic. 2. something causing this.

an·ti·Se·rum (an-ti-ser-um) n. a substance with an anti-septic effect.

ant·i·se·p·tic (an-ti-sep-tik) adj. 1. killing or preventing the growth of bacteria etc. that cause things to become septic. 2. thoroughly clean and free from germs.

antiseptic n. a substance with an anti-septic effect.

an·ti·Se·p·ti·cal·ly adv.

an·ti·Se·rum (an-ti-se-rum) n. (pl. -se-rums, -se-ra, pr. -seer-á) a serum containing antibodies.

an·ti·Slav·er·y (an-ti-slay-er-ee) n. a pair of these on a stag or other deer.

an·to·nym (an-to-nim) n. a word that is opposite in meaning to another.

A (ay) number one see A.

a·nu·s (ay-nus) n. the opening at the end of the alimentary canal, through which waste matter passes out of the body.

an·vil (an-vil) n. a block of iron on which a blacksmith hammers metal into shape.

anx·i·e·ty (ang-zee-tee) n. 1. the state of being anxious. 2. something causing this.

anx·i·ous·ly adv. 1. troubled and uneasy in mind. 2. causing worry, filled with such feeling, an anxious moment.

an·xi·ous·ly adv. 1. careful writers do not use anxious in its third sense. They would write eager to please.

an·y (en-e) adj. 1. one or some (but no matter which) from three or more or from a quantity. 2. every, whichever you choose, any fool knows that. 3. in a significant amount, did not stay any length of time. any pronoun any person, thing, or amount, can't find any of them; we haven't any. any adv. at all, in some degree, isn't any better. □ not having any, (informal) unwilling to take part in something or to agree with what is said.

an·y·bo·dy (en-ib-ee) n. any person. 1. a person of importance, is he anybody? □ anybody's guess, something no one can be sure about.

an·y·how (en-i-how) adv. 1. in any way. 2. nevertheless, in any case.

an·y·mo·re (en-i-moor) adv. in negative and interrogative constructions now, henceforth. □ Do not confuse anymore with any more. I do not see him anymore. Any more would be too many.

an·y·one (en-i-wun) n. & pronoun anybody. □ Write any one only when you mean a particular person or thing or idea etc. Here are four. Please choose any one of them.

an·y·place (en-i-plays) adv. anywhere. □ Careful writers use anywhere.

an·y·thing (en-i-thing) n. & pronoun anything, anything will do; as easy as anything, very easy. □ anything but, far from being, it's anything but cheap, like anything, with great intensity.

an·y·time (en-i-tim) adv. at any time.

an·y·way (en-i-way) adv. in any way, in any case. □ Anyways is incorrect.

an·y·where (en-i-hwair) adv. in or to any place. □ Anywheres is incorrect.

An·zac (an-zak) n. 1. a member of the Australian and New Zealand Army Corps. □ The name is formed from the initial letters of the Corps. 2. an Australian or a New Zealander.

A·O·K, A·OK (ay-oh-kay) adj. & adv. (informal) perfectly all right, excellent.

A one (ay wun) see A.
a·or·ta (ay-or-tä) n. (pl. -tas, -tae, pr. -tee) the great artery through which blood is carried from the left side of the heart.

A.P. abbr. Associated Press.

a·pace (á-pays) adv. swiftly, work proceeded apace.

a·pace (á-pash) n. a violent street ruffian in Paris, a member of the Parisian underworld. [a]apache dance, a violent dance for two persons.

A·pach·e (á-pach-ee) n. a member of a tribe of North American Indians inhabiting the southwestern part of the U.S.

a·part (á-pahrt) adv. 1. aside, separately in place or time, to or at a distance; cannot tell them apart, cannot distinguish one from the other. 2. into pieces, it came apart. [a]apart from, independently of, other than, has no books apart from these.

A·part·heid (á-pahrt-hayt) n. a policy of racial segregation in the Republic of South Africa.

a·part·ment (á-pahrt-mont) n. a suite of rooms for dwelling in. [a]partment house or building, a building divided into individual dwelling units.

a·pa·thy (ap-a-thee) n. lack of interest or concern. a·pa·the·tic (ap-a-the-tik) adj. a·pa·the·tî·cal·ly adv.

ape (ayp) n. 1. a tailless monkey (gorilla, chimpanzee, orangutan,ibbon). 2. (slang) a large uncouth man. ape v. (aped, ap-ing) to imitate, to mimic.

ape-man (ayp-man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) a member of an extinct genus of apelike men.

A·pen·nînes (ap-ë-ninz) n. pl. a mountain range in Italy.

a·per·cu (ap-ër-syou) n. 1. a summary exposition. 2. an insight. [a]French.

a·per·lit·if (a-per-ë-teef) n. an alcoholic drink taken as an appetite.

a·per·tu·re (ap-ër-chür) n. an opening, especially one that admits light.

a·pex (ay-peks) n. the tip or highest point, the pointed end, the apex of a triangle.

aph·a·nite (af-ä-nit) n. a close-grained igneous rock. a·phâ·nî·lic (af-ä-nilik) adj.

a·pha·sia (af-fay-zha) n. partial or total loss of speech, or loss of understanding of language, resulting from brain damage. a·pha·sic (af-fay-zik) adj.

a·phe·li·on (ä-fee-li-ôn) n. (pl. -lla, pr. -li-ä) the point of a planet's or a comet's orbit farthest from the sun.

aph·id (ay-fid, af-id) n. a plant louse that sucks the juice of plants.

aph·is (ay-fis, af-is) n. (pl. -i-des, pr. af-i-deez) an aphid.

aph·o·rism (af-ë-riz-ëm) n. a short wise saying, a maxim.

aph·ro·di·si·ac (af-rô-diz-ë-ak) adj. arousing sexual desire. a·phro·disi·ac n. an aphrodisiac substance.

a·pi·a (ah-pee-ah) the capital of Western Samoa.

a·pi·ar·y (ay-pi-a-ree) n. a place with a number of hives where bees are kept.

a·pi·a·rist (ay-pi-ä-rist) n.

a·pi·cal (a-pî-kal) adj. 1. belonging to an apex. 2. placed at the tip. 3. articulated with the tip of the tongue. a·pi·cal·ly adj.

a·pi·ce (ä-pees) adv. for or by each one of a group, cost a penny apiece.

A·P·O. abbr. Army Post Office.

a·poc·a·lyp·se (ä-pok-ä-lips) n. 1. a cataclysmic event, the end of the world. 2. Apocalypse, the Revelation of St. John the Divine, the book in the New Testament containing a prophetic description of the end of the world.

a·poc·a·lyp·tic (ä-pok-ä-lip-tik) adj. prophesying great and dramatic events like those described in the Apocalypse.

a·poc·a·lyp·tic·al·ly adv.

A·poc·ry·pha (ä-pok-ri-fä) n. 1. those books of the Old Testament that were not accepted by Jews as part of the Hebrew Scriptures and were excluded from the Protestant Bible at the Reformation. 2. apocrypha, any writings of dubious authenticity.

a·poc·ry·phal (ä-pok-ri-fäl) adj. 1. untrue, invented, an apocryphal account of his travels. 2. Apocryphal, of the Apocrypha. a·poc·ry·phal·ly adv.

a·po·cy·thi·on (ap-ô-sin-thi-ôn) n. apolune.

a·po·gee (ap-ô-jee) n. 1. the point in the orbit of the moon or any planet when it is at its farthest point from Earth. 2. the highest or most distant point, a climax. a·po·ge·an (ap-ô-je-ân) adj.

a·po·lit·i·cal (a-pol-ë-tik) adj. detached from or unconcerned with or detached from politics. a·po·lit·i·cal·ly adv.

A·pol·lo (a-pô-lô) n. (pl. -ôs) a young man of great physical beauty. [a]Apollo was the sun god in Greek mythology.

a·pol·o·get·ic (a-pol-ô-jet-ik) adj. making an apology. a·pol·o·get·i·cal·ly adv.

a·pol·o·gie (ap-ô-je) n. 1. the point in the orbit of the moon or any planet when it is at its farthest point from Earth. 2. the highest or most distant point, a climax. a·pol·o·gize (ap-ô-jize) v. (ap-ô·o·gized, a·pol·o·giz·ing) to make an apology.

a·pol·o·gy (a-pol-ô-ji) n. 1. a statement of regret for having done wrong or hurt someone's feelings. 2. an explanation or defense of one's beliefs. 3. a poor or scanty specimen, this feeble apology for a meal.

apon by (ap-øy-loon) n. the point in a body's orbit about the moon where it is farthest from the moon's center.

apos-ta-sy (ap-óst-a-se) n. (pl. -sies) renunciation of one's religion, principles, political party, etc. a post-tate (apos-tayt) adj. & n.

apos-te-role (ap-os-te-rol) (ay pos-teer-i-ol-r) (of reasoning) from effects to causes.

> Latin, from what comes after.

apos-tle (ap-os-él) n. 1. Apostle, any of the twelve men sent forth by Jesus to preach the Gospel. 2. a leader or teacher of a new faith or movement.

apos-tol-ic (ap-os-tol-ik) adj. 1. of the Apostles or their teaching. 2. of the pope as successor to St. Peter. Apostolic succession, transmission of spiritual authority from the Apostles through successive popes and other bishops.

apos-tro-phy (apos-tró-fee) n. the sign ' used to show that letters or numbers have been omitted (as in can't = cannot; '05 = 1905), or showing the possessive case (the boy's book, the boys' books), or the plurals of letters (there are two l's in bell).

apo-th-e-car-y (apos-thé-ker-ee) n. (pl. -car-ies) (old use) a druggist, pharmacist. Apothecaries' weight, a system of units formerly used by pharmacists.

apo-them (ap-ò-them) n. a terse or pithy saying.

apo-th-e-o-sis (apos-thé-oh-sis) n. (pl. -ses, pr. -seez) deification, deified ideal.

app. abbr. 1. apparent. 2. apparently. 3. appendix.

ap-ala-chi-ans (ap-äl-a-chi-ants) n. pl. the Appalachian Mountains, in eastern North America.

ap-pall (ap-awl) v. (ap-palled, ap-palling) to fill with horror or dismay, to shock deeply.

ap-palling (ap-paw-líng) adj. (informal) shocking, unpleasant.

ap-aloosa (ap-äl-oo-sá) n. a horse of a western American breed with dark spots on a light background.

ap-nage (ap-níj) n. 1. provision for the younger children of kings etc. 2. a perquisite. 3. a natural accompaniment or attribute.

ap-pa-ra-tus (ap-a-rat-us, -ray-tús) n. (pl. -tus, -tus-es) 1. the equipment used for doing something, the instruments etc. used in scientific experiments. 2. the equipment (as parallel bars) used in gymnastics. 3. a group of bodily organs by which some natural process is carried out, the digestive apparatus.

ap-par-el (ap-par-él) n. clothing.

ap-par-ent (ap-par-ênt) adj. 1. clearly seen or understood; *it became apparent, became obvious. 2. seeming but not real, his reluctance was only apparent. Apparent-ly adv. heir apparent, see heir.

ap-par-i-tion (ap-arish-ôn) n. 1. an appearance, something that appears, especially something remarkable or unexpected. 2. a ghost.

ap-peal (ap-peal) v. 1. to make an earnest request, appealed for contributions. 2. to ask a person or go to a recognized authority for an opinion or for confirmation of what one says, appealed to the umpire. 3. to take a question to a higher court for rehearing and a new decision. 4. to offer attraction, to seem pleasing, cruises don't appeal to me. appeal n. 1. the act of appealing. 2. attraction, pleasantness. 3. a request for public donations to a cause. *Appeal*ing-ly adv. snob appeal, appeal to people's snobbish feelings.

ap-pear (ap-peär) v. 1. to be or become visible. 2. to present oneself, especially formally or publicly, the actress is appearing in a new play this season. 3. to act as counsel in a law court, I appear for the defendant. 4. to be published, the story appeared in the newspapers. 5. to give a certain impression, you appear to have forgotten.

ap-pear-ance (ap-peer-âns) n. 1. appearing. 2. an outward sign, what something appears to be, has an appearance of prosperity; judging by appearances, by outward looks. Keep up appearances, to keep an outward show of prosperity or good behavior. Make an appearance, appear; arrive. Put in an appearance, to be present, especially for only a short time. To all appearances, so far as can be seen, he was to all appearances dead.

ap-pease (ap-peez) v. (ap-peased, ap-peasing) to make calm or quiet by making concessions or demands. Appease able adj. ap-pease-ment n.

ap-pel-lant (ap-pel-ânt) n. a person making an appeal to a higher court.

ap-pel late (ap-pel-it) adj. having legal au-ap·pel·la·tion (ap-ə-lay-shən) n. 1. naming. 2. a name or title.
ap·pen·di·tis (ap-ən-di-sətis) n. an inflammation of the appendix of the intestine.
ap·pen·di·cil·li·ces (ap-ən-di-səl-əs) n. surgical removal of the appendix of the intestine.
ap·pen·di·dix (ap-ən-di-diks) n.: (pl. -dix·es, -dil·ci·ces, pr. -di·seekz) 1. a section with supplementary information at the end of a book or document. 2. a small blind tube of tissue attached to the intestine.
ap·per·tain (ap-ər-tayn) v. 1. to belong. 2. to be relevant, the facts appertaining to his dismissal.
ap·pe·tile (ap-ə·tīl) n. 1. physical desire, especially for food. 2. a desire or liking, an appetite for power.
ap·pe·tiz·er (ap-ə·tīz·ər) n. something eaten before a meal to stimulate the appetite.
ap·pe·tiz·ing (ap-ə·tīz·ing) adj. stimulating the appetite, an appetizing smell.
ap·pe·tiz·ing·ly adv.
ap·plau·d (ā·plawd) v. 1. to show approval of (a thing) by clapping one's hands. 2. to praise, we applaud your decision.
ap·plau·se (ā·plawz) n. 1. handclapping by people applauding. 2. warm approval.
ap·ple (ap·əl) n. 1. a round fruit with firm juicy flesh. 2. the tree bearing this fruit. an apple of one's eye, a cherished person or thing. apple pie order, perfect order.
ap·ple·jack (ap·əl·jak) n. liquor distilled from cider, apple brandy.
ap·ple·sauce (ap·əl·saws) n. 1. apples (usually sweetened) stewed and passed through a sieve. 2. (slang) nonsense.
ap·pli·ance (ā·pli·əns) n. a device, an instrument.
ap·pli·ca·ble (ap·li·kə-bəl) adj. able to be applied, applicable. ap·pli·ca·bil·l·ity (ap·li·kə-bəl·lə-tē) n. ap·pli·cant (ap·li·kənt) n. a person who applies, especially for a job. ap·pli·can·cy n. ap·pli·ca·tion (ap·li·kə·shən) n. 1. applying something, putting one thing on another, ointment for external application only. 2. the thing applied. 3. making a formal request, the request itself, his application was refused. 4. bringing a rule into use, putting something to practical use. 5. the ability to apply oneself.
ap·pli·ca·tor (ap·li·kə·tər) n. a device for applying something.
ap·plied (ā·plied) adj. put to practical use.
ap·plied science, applied mathematics, etc., these subjects used in a practical way (as in engineering), not merely theoretical.
ap·pli·qué (ap·li·kway) n. a piece of material cut out and sewn or fixed ornamentally to another. appliqué v. (ap·pli·qué) v. to ornament with appliqué.
ap·ply (ā·plī) v. (ap·plied, ap·ply·ing) 1. to put (one thing) into contact with another, to spread on a surface. 2. to bring into use or action, apply economic sanctions; apply common sense to the problem, use it to solve a problem; this name was applied to them, was used in describing or referring to them. 3. to put into effect, to be relevant, the rules must be applied in every case; what I said does not apply to you. 4. to make a formal request, to apply for a job. ap·ply·one·self, to give one's attention and energy to a task. apply the brakes, to cause them to act on the wheels.
ap·point (ā·point) v. 1. to fix or decide by authority, they appointed a time for the next meeting. 2. to choose (a person) for a job, to set up by choosing members, appoint a committee.
ap·point·ly n. well-appointed, well equipped or furnished.
ap·point·tee (ā·point·tē) n. the person appointed.
ap·point·ive (ā·point·tīv) adj. subject to or relating to appointment, many people in government hold appointive positions.
ap·point·ment (ā·point·ment) n. 1. an arrangement to meet or visit at a particular time. 2. appointing a person to a job. 3. the job or position itself. 4. appointments, equipment, furniture.
ap·por·tion (ā·pōr·shən) v. to divide into shares, to allot.
ap·por·tion·ment n.
ap·po·site (ap·ō·zīt) adj. (of a remark) appropriate for a purpose or occasion.
ap·po·site·ly adv. ap·po·site·ness n. ap·po·si·tion (ap·ō·sish·ən) n. 1. placing side by side. 2. a grammatical relationship in which a word or phrase is placed with another that it describes; in "I admire Lincoln, the man," the man is in apposition to Lincoln.
ap·pos·i·tive (ā·pōs·īt·iv) n. a word or phrase in apposition. ap·posi·tive adj. used in apposition.
ap·praise (ā·prāyz) v. (ap·praised, ap· appreciate / apron prais·ing) to estimate the value or quality of. app·rais·al n. app·rais·er n.

▷ Do not confuse appraise with apprise.

ap·pre·ciable (ə-pri·shə-bəl) adj. able to be seen or felt, considerable, an appreciable change in temperature. ap·pre·ci·ab·ly adv.

ap·pre·ci·ate (ə-pri·shə-ət) v. (ap·pre·ci·at·ed, ap·pre·ci·at·ing) 1. to value greatly, to be grateful for. 2. to enjoy intelligently, to appreciate good poetry. 3. to understand, we appreciate their reluctance to give details. 4. to increase in value, the investments have appreciated greatly. ap·pre·ci·a·tion (ə-pri·shə-shən) n.

ap·pre·ci·a·tive (ə-pri·shə-tiv) adj. feeling or showing appreciation. ap·pre·cia·tive·ly adv.

ap·pre·hen·sion (ə-pri·hen·shən) n. 1. a feeling of fear about a possible danger or difficulty. 2. understanding. 3. arrest. ap·pre·hen·sive (ə-pri·hen·siv) adj. feeling apprehension, anxious. ap·pre·hen·sive·ly adv. ap·pre·hen·sive·ness n.

ap·pre·n·tice (ə-pren·tis) n. 1. a person learning a craft from a skilled worker (and, formerly, bound to an employer by legal agreement). 2. a novice. ap·pre·n·tice v. (ap·pre·n·ticed, ap·pre·n·ticed·ly) to bind or set (a person) to work as an apprentice.

ap·prise (ə-priz) v. (ap·prised, ap·pris·ing) to inform. ▷ Do not confuse apprise with appraise.

ap·proach (ə-proch) v. 1. to come near or nearer in space or time, winter is approaching. 2. to set about doing or taking preliminary steps, approach the problem in a practical way. 3. to go to with a request or offer, approach your bank for a loan. 4. to be similar to, his liking for it approaches infatuation. approach n. 1. approaching, watched their approach. 2. a way of reaching a place. 3. the final part of an aircraft's flight before landing. 4. a method of doing or tackling something. 5. an effort to establish an agreement or friendly relations. 6. an approximation, his nearest approach to a smile.

ap·proach·able (ə-proch·ə-bəl) adj. able to be approached; he is very approachable, is friendly and easy to talk with. ap·proach·a·bil·i·ty (ə-proch·ə-bil·i-tee) n.

ap·pro·ba·tion (ə-pro·ba·shən) n. approval.

ap·pro·pri·ate (ə-pro·pri·at·it) adj. suitable, proper. ap·pro·pri·ate (ə-pro·pri·at·it) v. (ap·pro·pri·at·ed, ap·pro·pri·at·ing) 1. to take and use as one's own. 2. to set aside for a special purpose. $500 was appropriated for contingencies. ap·pro·pri·ate·ly adv. ap·pro·pri·ate·ness n. ap·pro·pri·a·tor n. ap·pro·pri·a·tion (ə-pro·pri·a·shən) n.

ap·prov·al (ə-pro·vəl) n. feeling, showing, or saying that one considers something to be good or acceptable. ▷ on approval, (of goods) taken by a customer for examination without obligation to buy unless satisfied.

ap·prove (ə-prov) v. (ap·proved, ap·prov·ing) 1. to say or feel that a thing is good or suitable. 2. to sanction, to agree to, the expenditure has been approved. ap·prov·ing·ly adv.

ap·prox. abbr. 1. approximate. 2. approximately.

ap·prox·i·mate (ə-prok·si·mat) adj. almost exact or correct but not completely so. ap·prox·i·mate·ly (ə-prox·i·mat·li) adv. ap·prox·i·mate (ə-prox·i·mat·ed, ap·prox·i·mat·ing) to be or make similar, especially in quality, number, etc. ap·prox·i·ma·tion (ə-prok·si·ma·shən) n.

ap·pur·tence (ə-pur·tə-nəns) n. 1. a minor piece of property, or a right or privilege that goes with a more important one. 2. an adjunct. ap·pur·tence·adj. Apr. apr·br. April.

ap·prés·ski (ə-pray·skə) adj. of or suitable for the period after skiing, especially at a resort. aprés-ski n. this period.

ap·ri·cot (ə-prə-kot, ay-pri-) n. 1. a juicy oval fruit with a pit, related to the plum and peach and orange-pink when ripe. 2. this color.

A·pril (ə-pril) the fourth month of the year. ▷ April fool, a person who is hoaxed on April Fool's Day, April 1, a day traditional for playing mild hoaxes.

ap·ri·o·ril (ə-prə-ər·əl) n. 1. reasoning from cause to effect, deductively. 2. presumptively, without investigation. 3. (of knowledge) existing in the mind independently of experience. ▷ Latin, = from what is before.

ap·ron (ə-prən) n. 1. a garment worn over the front part of the body to protect the wearer's clothes. 2. a similar garment worn as part of official dress by a bishop or freemason. 3. anything resembling such a garment in shape or function. 4. a hard-surfaced area on an airfield, where aircraft are maneuvered or loaded and unloaded. ▷ tied to mother's apron ap•ro•pos (ap-rō-poh) adv. appropriately, to the point. apropos adj. suitable or relevant to what is being said or done. □ apropos of, concerning, with reference to, apropos of elections, who is to be our candidate?
apse (aps) n. a recess, usually with an arched or domed roof, especially in a church.
ap•t (apt) adj. 1. suitable, appropriate, an apt quotation. 2. having a certain tendency, likely, he is apt to be careless. 3. quick at learning, an apt pupil. apt'ly adv. apt'ness n.
ap. abbr. apartment.
ap•ti•tude (ap-ti-tood) n. a natural ability or skill.
aq•ua (ak-wā) n. 1. water. 2. the color aquamarine.
aq•ua•cade (ak-wā-kayd) n. an entertainment by swimmers and divers, usually in time to music.
aq•ua•lung (ak-wā-lung) n. (trademark) a diver's portable breathing apparatus, consisting of cylinders of compressed air connected to a face mask. aq'ua-lung'er n.
aq•ua•ma•rine (ak-wā-mā-reen) n. 1. a bluish-green beryl. 2. its color.
aq•ua•naut (ak-wā-nawt) n. an underwater explorer or swimmer, especially one who lives in an underwater installation for an extended time.
aq•ua•plane (ak-wā-playn) n. a board on which a person stands to be towed by a speedboat. aquaplane v. (aq•ua•planned, aq•ua•plan•ling) 1. to ride on such a board. 2. (of a car or car's wheel) to glide or skid uncontrollably on the wet surface of a road.
aq•ua re•gi•a (ak-wā ree-ji-ā) a mixture of concentrated nitric and hydrochloric acids, able to dissolve gold and platinum, which are not attacked by the unmixed acids.
a•quar•i•um (ak-kwar-i-ūm) n. (pl. a•quar•i•ums, a•quar••i•a, pr. ā-kwar-i-ā) 1. an artificial pond or tank for keeping living fish and water animals and plants. 2. a building containing such ponds or tanks.
A•quar•i•us (ak-kwar-i-ūs) a sign of the zodiac, the Water Bearer. A-quar'i•an adj. & n. a•quat•ic (a-kwät-ik, a-kwot-ik) adj. 1. growing or living in or near water, aquatic plants. 2. taking place in or on water; aquatic sports, rowing, swimming, etc.
aq•ua•tint (ak-wā-tint) n. a kind of etching.
done or accepted, one with entire control, French designers are no longer the arbiters of fashion. 2. an arbitrator.

ar·bi·trary (ahr-bil-trer-e) adj. 1. based on random choice or impulse, an arbitrary decision. 2. despotic, unrestrained, arbitrary powers. ar·bi·trar·i·ly adv.

ar·bi·tray (ahr-bl-tray) adj. 1. an impartial person chosen to settle a dispute between parties.

ar·bo·re·al (ahr-bohr-ee-ahl) adj. 1. of trees. 2. living in trees.

ar·bo·re·um (ahr-bo-re-um) n. (pl. -tums, -ta, pr. -ta) a place where trees are grown for study and display.

ar·bor·vi·tae (ahr-bor-vit-ta) n. a coniferous evergreen shrub or tree.

ar·bu·tus (ahr-boo-tus) n. an evergreen plant of the heather family with red berries.

ar·c (ahrk) n. 1. part of a curve. 2. anything shaped like this. 3. a luminous electric current passing across a gap between two terminals. ar·c v. (arced, arcing) to form an electric arc. □ ar·c lamp or light, lighting using an electric arc. ar·c welding, welding by means of an electric arc.

AR·C abbr. American Red Cross.

ar·ca·de (ahr-kayd) n. 1. a covered passage or area, usually with shops on both sides. 2. a series of arches supporting or along a wall.

ar·can·e (ahr-kayn) adj. mysterious, secret.

arch (ahrch) n. 1. a curved structure supporting the weight of what is above it or used ornamentally. 2. something shaped like this. 3. the curved under part of the foot. ar·ch v. to form into an arch.

arch 2 adj. consciously or affectedly playful, an arch smile. arch·ly adj. arch·ness n.

arch. abbr. 1. archaic. 2. architect. 3. architecture.

ar·che·ol·o·gist (ahr-ki-ol-o-jist) n. an expert in archaeology.

ar·che·ol·o·gy (ahr·ki·ol·o·gy) n. the scientific study of past human life and civilizations through material remains. ar·che·o·log·i·cal adj.

ar·cha·ic (ahr·ki·ik) adj. 1. belonging to former or ancient times. 2. (of a word or expression) characteristic of the past and surviving in some special uses. ar·ch·a·i·cal·ly adv.

arch·an·gel (ahrk-ayn-jel) n. an angel of the highest rank.

arch·bish·op (ahrk-bish-op) n. a bishop ranking above other bishops in an ecclesiastical province.

arch·dea·con (ahrk-dee-kon) n. a priest ranking next below a bishop, or a clergyman who assists a diocesan bishop.

arch·di·o·cese (ahrk-dr-ee-sis) n. an archbishop’s diocese or district.

arch·duke (ahrk-dukk) n. a prince of the former imperial house of Austria.

arch·en·emy (ahrk-en·ee·me) n. (pl. -mies) the chief enemy.

arch·er (ahrk-er) n. 1. a person who shoots with bow and arrows. 2. the Archer, a sign of the zodiac, Sagittarius.

arch·er·y (ahrk-er·ee) n. the sport of shooting with bows and arrows.

arch·etype (ahrk-i-typ) n. an original model from which others are copied. ar·che·typ·al adj. ar·che·typ·i·cal adj.

arch·er·iard (ahrk-er·ee·ard) n. Satan.

arch·e·o·pol·i·tus (ahrk-i-o-pol-te) n. a superior of a monastery of the Orthodox Church, equivalent to an abbot in Western churches.

arch·eryl·a·go (ahrk-i-er-a-goh) n. (pl. -gos) a group of many islands, a sea containing such a group.

arch·et·tice (ahrk-i-tect) n. a person who designs buildings.

arch·et·tice·ture (ahrk-i-tect-chur) n. 1. the art or science of designing buildings. 2. the design or style of a building or buildings. ar·chi·tec·tur·al adj. ar·chi·tec·tur·al·ly n.

arch·et·tice·trave (ahrk-i-trayv) n. 1. the main beam of a structure, resting immediately on two or more columns. 2. a molded frame around a doorway, window, or arch.

arch·ives (ahrk-er-viz) n. pl. 1. the records or historical documents of an institution or community. 2. a place where such records or documents are kept.

arch·vist (ahrk-vist) n. a person trained to deal with archives.

arch·kon (ahrk-kon) n. 1. one of the nine chief magistrates in ancient Athens. 2. a ruler or president.

arch·way (ahrk-way) n. a passageway under an arch.

Ar·tic (ahrk-tik) adj. 1. of the regions around the North Pole. 2. arctic, very cold, the weather was arctic. Arctic n.
of the law, the authority or power of the law.
d
arm* v. 1. to supply or fit with weapons; armed with a big stick, carrying this as a weapon; the enemy is arming, is preparing as if for war. 2. to make (a bomb etc.) ready to explode, the device was not yet armed. arm n. each of the branches of a country's military forces, a strong arm. □ armed forces or services, military forces. armed neutrality, remaining neutral but prepared to defend oneself against attack. armed to the teeth, fully or elaborately armed. ar·ma·da (ahr-mah-dá) n. a fleet of warships. □ the Spanish Armada, that sent by Spain against England in 1588. ar·ma·dil·lo (ahr-mah-dil-oh) n. (pl. -los) a small burrowing animal of South America, with a body covered with a shell of bony plates.
Ar·ma·ged·don (ahr-mah-ged-son) 1. (in the Bible) the scene of the final conflict between the forces of good and evil at the end of the world. 2. any decisive conflict.
ar·ma·ment (ahr-má-mént) n. 1. the weapons with which an army or a ship, aircraft, or fighting vehicle is equipped. 2. the process of equipping for war.
ar·ma·ture (ahr-má-chúr) n. the wire-wound core of a dynamo or electric motor.
ar·ch·chair (ahrch-chair) n. a chair with raised sides or supports for the arms. □ armchair critic, one who criticizes without having practical experience. armchair traveler, one who reads or hears about foreign lands rather than experiencing them through travel.
Ar·me·ni·a (ahr- mee-ni-á) a republic of the U.S.S.R. bordering on Turkey. Ar·me ni-an adj. & n. ar·ful (ahr-fuul) n. 1. as much as the arm can hold. 2. (slang) an attractive woman, one a man would like to hold in his arms.
ar·hole (ahr-hohl) n. an opening in a garment through which the arm is inserted.
ar·mi·st·ice (ahr-mi-stis) n. an agreement during a war or battle to stop fighting for a time.
ar·less (ahr-lis) adj. without arms.
ar·let (ahr-lit) n. a band worn around the upper arm or sleeve.
ar·mor (ahr-mor) n. 1. a protective covering for the body, formerly worn in fighting. 2. metal plates covering a warship, tank, etc. to protect it against missiles. 3. armored fighting vehicles collectively.
ar·mored (ahr-mord) adj. 1. covered or protected with armor, an armored car. 2. equipped with such vehicles, armored divisions.
ar·mor·er (ahr-mor-er) n. 1. a maker of arms or armor. 2. a person in charge of small arms.
ar·mo·ri·al (ahr-mohr-i-ál) adj. of heraldic arms.
ar·mor·y (ahr-mör-ree) n. (pl. -mories) a place where weapons are kept or made.
ar·pit (ahr-pit) n. the hollow under the arm below the shoulder.
ar·rest (ahr-rest) n. the arm of a chair.
arms (ahrms) n. pl. 1. weapons, an arm of the U.S. military. 2. a coat of arms (see coat). □ arms race, competition among nations in accumulating weapons. up in arms, angry, protesting vigorously.
ar·my (ahr-mee) n. (pl. -mies) 1. an organized force equipped for fighting on land. 2. a vast group, an army of locusts. 3. a body of people organized for a particular purpose, an army of helpers. □ army ant, any of the tropical American ants that move in vast numbers.
ar·ni·ca (ahr-ni-ká) n. 1. a composite plant, largely American, having yellow flowers. 2. a tincture prepared from the root and flowers of this and used for bruises, sprains, etc.
aro·ma (ä- roh-má) n. a smell, especially a pleasant one. ar·o·mat·ic (är-o-mat·ik) adj.
arose (ä- rohz) see arise.
ar·round (ä-round) adv. & prep. 1. enveloping, on every side, in every direction. 2. about, here and there; he's somewhere around, close at hand; we stopped around, went from place to place. 3. along the circuit or circumference of, sail around the world, walk around the block. 4. (informal) about, approximately at, be here around five o'clock. □ around the clock, continuously throughout day and night. □ Careful writers and speakers use about instead of around in the fourth sense of around.
arouse (ä-rowz) v. (ä-roused, a·rous·ing) 1. to awaken. 2. to incite, to stimulate into activity. a·rous·al n. ar·peg·gi·o (ahr-pej-ö) n. (pl. -gis·os) the notes of a musical chord played in succession instead of simultaneously.
ar·ragn (ä-rayn) v. 1. to indict, to accuse. 2. to call before a court to answer an indictment. ar·ragn·ment n.
ar·rang·ing (ä-rayn) v. (ä-ranged, ar·rang·ing) 1. to put into a certain order, to adjust; arrange flowers, place them attractively, especially in a vase. 2. to form plans, to settle the details of, to prepare, arrange to be there; arrange a meeting. 3. to adapt (a musical composition) for voices or instruments other than those for which it was written. ar•rang'er n. ar•range'ment n. ar•rant (ar-ånt) adj. downright, out-and-out, this is arrant nonsense!
ar•ray (å-ray) v. 1. to arrange in order, arrayed his forces along the river. 2. to dress, especially splendidly, arrayed in her party gown. array n. an imposing series, a display, a fine array of tools.
ar•rears (å-reerz) n. pl. 1. money that is owing and ought to have been paid earlier, the arrears of two months' rent must be paid. 2. work that should have been finished but it still waiting to be dealt with. □ in arrears, behind in payment or work, not paid or done when it was due, he is in arrears with his rent; the rent is in arrears.
ar•rest (å-rest) v. 1. to stop or check (a process or movement); arrest attention, catch and hold it. 2. to seize (a person) by authority of the law, to take into custody by the police. arrest n. 1. stoppage. 2. seizure, legal arresting of an offender. □ under arrest, arrested by the police.
ar•ri•val (å-ri-vål) n. 1. arriving. 2. a person or thing that has arrived.
ar•rive (å-rév) v. (ar•ri•ved, ar•ri•ving) 1. to reach one's destination or a certain point on a journey; arrive at an agreement, reach it after discussion. 2. to come at last, to make an appearance, the great day arrived; the baby arrived on Tuesday, was born. 3. to be recognized as having achieved success in the world, she has really arrived.
ar•ro•gant (ar-ō-gánt) adj. proud and overbearing through an exaggerated feeling of one's superiority. ar•ro•gant•ly adv. ar•ro•gance n.
ar•ro•gate (ar-ō-gáyt) v. (ar•ro•gat•ed, ar•ro•gat•ing) to claim (a thing) unduly, he arrogated all important decisions to himself. □ Do not confuse arrogate with abrogate.
ar•row (oh-oh) n. 1. a straight thin pointed shaft to be shot from a bow. 2. a mark or sign shaped like a line with an outward-pointing V at the end, used to show direction or position, as a road sign or on a map.
ar•row•head (ar-oh-hed) n. 1. the pointed tip of an arrow. 2. a water plant with arrow-shaped leaves, growing in ponds and slow streams.
ar•row•root (ar-oh-root) n. an edible starch prepared from the root of a tropical American plant.
ar•roy•o (å-rol-oh) n. (pl. -os) 1. a deep gully cut by a usually dry stream. 2. a brook or stream.
ar•se•nal (ahr-sē-nal) n. a place where weapons and ammunition are stored or manufactured.
ar•se•nic (ahr-sē-nik) n. 1. a brittle steel-gray poisonous chemical element. 2. a violently poisonous white compound of this. ar•sen•i•cal (ahr•sen•i-kāl) adj.
ar•son (ahr-sōn) n. the act of setting fire to a house or other property intentionally and unlawfully, either from malice or to claim insurance money.
ar•son•ist (ahr-sōn-ist) n. a person guilty of arson.
ar•t (ahrt) n. 1. the production of something beautiful, skill or ability in such work. 2. works such as paintings or sculptures produced by skill. 3. any practical skill, a knack, the art of sailing. □ art film, a motion picture produced as a form of artistic expression rather than as mere entertainment. art gallery, a gallery where paintings or pieces of sculpture etc. are displayed. Art Nouveau (ahr noo-voh), a decorative style (about 1880 to about 1910) using flowing curves and naturalistic motifs.
ar•t (old use) the present tense of be, used with thou.
art. abbr. article.
-ar suffix used to form nouns, as in brag-gart.
ar•te•ri•ole (ahr-teer-i-ohl) n. a small artery.
ar•te•ri•o•sclero•sis (ahr-teer-i-oh-skli-rah-sis) n. a condition in which the walls of arteries become thicker and less elastic, so that blood circulation is hindered.
ar•te•ry (ahr-të-ree) n. (pl. -ries) 1. any of the tubes carrying blood away from the heart to all parts of the body. 2. an important transport route. ar•te•ri•al (ahr-teer-i-ål) adj. □ arterial road, an important main road.
ar•te•slan (ahr-tse-zhàn) well a well that is bored vertically into a place where a constant supply of water will rise to the earth's surface with little or no pumping.
ar•ful (ahr-fül) adj. crafty, cunningly clever at getting what one wants. ar•ful•ly adv. ar•ful•ness n.
ar•thr•itis (ahr-thri-tis) n. a condition causing inflammation, pain, and stiffness in the joints. ar•thr•itic (ahr-thri-tik) adj.
ar•thro•pod (ahr-thrö-pod) n. one of the Arthropoda, the largest animal phylum, comprising insects, arachnids, myriapods, crustaceans, and trilobites, and characterized by jointed limbs and a hard jointed external skeleton.
Ar•thur (ahr-thűr), Ches•ter Al•an (1830–86) the twenty-first president of the U.S. 1881–85.
artifact (ahr-ti-kəl) adj. 1. a particular or separate thing; articles of clothing, toilet articles, things of the kind named. 2. a piece of writing, complete in itself, in a newspaper or periodical, an article on immigration. 3. a separate clause or item in an agreement. 4. a word (as a, an, and the) used before a noun to identify what it refers to. □ the definite article, "the"; the indefinite article, "a" or "an."

articulate (ahr-ti-kət-l) adj. of the joints of the body.

artificial (ahr-ti-fish-əl) adj. not originating naturally, made by human skill in imitation of something natural, artificial flowers; an artificial smile, forced or pretended. □ artificiality (ahr-ti-fish-əl-i-té) n. □ artificial insemination, injection of semen into the uterus by artificial means. □ artificial respiration, forcing air into and out of the lungs to start natural breathing or stimulate it when it has failed.

artillery (ahr-ti-lər-i) n. 1. large guns used in fighting on land. 2. the branch of an army that uses these. □ artilleryman n.

artist (ahr-tis) n. a skilled manual worker in trade or industry.

artist (ahr-tis) n. 1. a person who produces works of art, especially paintings. 2. a person who does something with exceptional skill. 3. a professional entertainer.

artist (ahr-tis-t) n. a professional entertainer.

artistic (ahr-tis-tik) adj. 1. showing or done with skill and good taste, an artistic display of flowers. 2. of art or artists; the artistic temperament, impulsive and eccentric behavior thought to be characteristic of artists. □ artis(t)ical-ly adv.

artistic (ahr-tis-tik) adj. 1. showing or done with skill and good taste, an artistic display of flowers. 2. of art or artists; the artistic temperament, impulsive and eccentric behavior thought to be characteristic of artists. □ artis(t)ical-ly adv.

artistic (ahr-tis-tik) adj. 1. showing or done with skill and good taste, an artistic display of flowers. 2. of art or artists; the artistic temperament, impulsive and eccentric behavior thought to be characteristic of artists. □ artis(t)ical-ly adv.

artistic (ahr-tis-tik) adj. 1. showing or done with skill and good taste, an artistic display of flowers. 2. of art or artists; the artistic temperament, impulsive and eccentric behavior thought to be characteristic of artists. □ artis(t)ical-ly adv.

artistic (ahr-tis-tik) adj. 1. showing or done with skill and good taste, an artistic display of flowers. 2. of art or artists; the artistic temperament, impulsive and eccentric behavior thought to be characteristic of artists. □ artis(t)ical-ly adv.
up to this time, the land is as yet undeveloped. As you were, return to the previous position.

As symbol arsenic.

A.S. abbr. Anglo-Saxon.

as-a-fet-i-dā (as-ā-fet-i-dā) n. a resinous plant gum with a strong smell of garlic, used in medicine.

as-bes-tōs (as-bes-tōs) n. a soft fibrous mineral, made into fireproof material or used for heat insulation.

as-bes-to-sis (as-bes-toh-sis) n. a lung disease caused by inhaling asbestos particles.

as-cend (ā-send) v. to go or come up.  □ ascend the throne, to become king or queen.

as-cend-an-cy (ā-sen-dān-see) n. the state of being dominant; gain ascendancy, win control.

as-cend-ant (ā-sen-dānt) adj. ascending, rising. □ in the ascendant, rising in power or influence.

as-cen-sion (ā-sen-shōn) n. ascent. Ascension Day, the Thursday on which this is commemorated, the fortieth day after Easter. □ the Ascension, the ascent of Christ into heaven, witnessed by the Apostles.

as-cent (ā-sent) n. 1. ascending. 2. a way up, an upward slope or path.

as-cer-tain (as-cerr-taɪn) v. to find out by making inquiries.

as-cer-tain-a-ble (as-er-tayn-ə-bəl) adj. able to be ascertained.

as-cet·ic (a-set-ik) adj. self-denying, not allowing oneself pleasures and luxuries.

ascetic n. a person who leads a severely simple life without ordinary pleasures, often for religious reasons. as-cetˈi·cal·ly adv. as-cetˈi·clism (ə-setˈi-siz·əm) n.

a·scor·bic (ə-skɔrˈbik) acid vitamin C, found especially in citrus fruits and in certain vegetables.

as-cot (as-kôt) n. a broad scarflike tie looped under the chin.

as-crib-a-ble (ə-skribə-bəl) adj. able to be ascribed.

as-crike (ə-skrik) v. (as-cried, as-crib·ing) to attribute. as-crip·tion (ə-skripˈshən) n.

a·sep·tic (ə-səpˈtik) adj. free from bacteria that cause something to become septic, surgically clean. a·sepˈtik·al·ly adv.

a-sex·u·al (ə-sekˈshoo-əl) adj. without sex or sex organs. a-sexˈu·al·ly adv.

ash (ash) n. 1. a tree with silver-gray bark and close-grained wood. 2. this wood.

ash n. 1. the powder that remains after something has burned. 2. ashes, the remains of a body after cremation. □ ash can, a container for ashes and refuse. Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent.

a·shamed (ə-shaʊmd) adj. feeling shame. a·sham·ed·ly (ə-shaʊ-midˈli) adv.

ash·en (ash·ən) adj. 1. of ashes. 2. pale as ashes.

ash·lar (ash·lər) n. 1. hewn or squared stone. 2. masonry made of this.

a·shore (ə-shohr) adv. to or on shore.

ash·ram (ash·rəm) n. a place of religious retreat in India.

ash·tray (ash·trə) n. a receptacle for tobacco ashes.

ash-y (ash·ə) adj. 1. ashen. 2. covered with ash.

a·si·a (ay-zhā) the largest of the continents, extending from Europe to the Pacific Ocean. a·siˈān adj. & n. □ Asia Min·or, a peninsula of western Asia between the Mediterranean and the Black Sea, including most of Turkey.

a·si·at·ic (a-siˈət ik) adj. of Asia. a·siˈət·ic·al·ly adv. a·siˈət·ic·al·ity n. an Asian. □ Asian is the preferred word when used of people or their customs.

a·side (ə-sid) adv. 1. to or on one side, away from the main part or group, pull it aside; step aside. 2. away from one's thoughts or from consideration. 3. in reserve, put money aside for a holiday.

as·ide (ə-sid) n. words spoken so that only certain people will hear. □ aside from, apart from.

a·l·nine (a-lən) adj. silly, stupid. a·lˈni·ˈni·ty (ə-lənˈni·ti) n.

ask (ask) v. 1. to call for an answer to or about, to address a question to. 2. to seek to obtain from another person, ask a favor of him; asked ten dollars for the book; you can have it for the asking, you have only to ask and it will be given to you. 3. to invite, ask him to dinner. □ ask for, to ask to be given, or to be seen or speak to. ask for it or ask for trouble, to behave in such a way that trouble is likely. asking price, the price at which something is offered for sale.

a·skance (ə-skəns) adv. with a side glance, with distrust or disapproval, looked askance at the new plan.

a·skew (ə-skyoo) adj. & adv. not straight or level.

a·slant (ə-slant) adv. obliquely.

a·sleep (ə-sleep) adj. & adv. 1. in or into a state of sleep, fell asleep. 2. numbed, my foot is asleep.

asp (asp) n. a small poisonous snake.

a·spar·a·gus (ə-sparˈə-gəs) n. 1. a plant whose young shoots are cooked and eaten as a vegetable. 2. these shoots.

as·pect (əpekt) n. 1. the look or appearance of a person or thing, the forest has a sinister aspect; this aspect of the probaspen / assertive

as-sas-sin (á-sas-in) n. a person, especially one hired by others, who assassinates another.

as-sas-si-nate (á-sas-i-nát) v. (as-sas-si-nat-ed, as-sas-si-nat-ing) to kill (an important person) by violent means, usually from political or religious motives. as-sas-si-na-tion (á-sas-i-ná-shën) n.

as-sault (á-sawl-t) n. 1. a violent attack. 2. an unlawful personal attack on another person, even if only with menacing words. 3. rape. assaul-tant v. to make an assault upon. □ assault and battery, an assault involving a blow or touch.

as-say (as-ay, á-say) v. 1. testing of metals, especially those used for coin or bullion, for quality. 2. an analysis of an ore to determine its composition. assay (as-a, ás-say) v. 1. to make an assay of. 2. to try, to put to a test. 3. to judge critically, to evaluate after examination or analysis. □ Do not confuse assay with essay.

as-sem-bli-age (á-sem-bli-j) n. 1. assembling. 2. an assembly. 3. things assembled. 4. a work of art made of unrelated things joined together.

as-sem-bled (á-sem-bled) v. (as-sem-bled, as-sem-blied) 1. to bring or come together. 2. to fit or put together.

as-sem-bly (á-sem-bly) n. (pl. -bles) 1. an assembling. 2. an assembled group, especially of people meeting for a specific purpose. 3. a gathering of a student body in an auditorium for a program. 4. parts of a machine etc. put together to form a unit. 5. a military call by bugle, drum, etc. for troops to make a formation. 6. a deliberative or legislative body, especially the lower house of the legislature in some states. □ assembly line, a sequence of machines and workers through which parts of a product move to be assembled in successive stages.

as-sem-bli-man (á-sem-bli-mán) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mén) a member of a legislative assembly.

as-sent (á-sent) v. to consent, to express agreement. assent n. consent or sanction.

as-sert (á-surt) v. 1. to declare as true, to state, asserted his innocence. 2. to use effectively or aggressively, asserted his authority. □ assert itself, to become active, to make its effect felt. assert oneself, to take effective action, to use one's authority, to insist on one's rights.

as-ser-tion (á-sur-shën) n. 1. asserting. 2. a statement that something is a fact.

school at fifteen. 4. of cause, was annoyed at his failure. 5. of direction toward, aimed at the target. □at all, in any way, to any extent, of any kind. at home, in one's home; relaxed and at ease; familiar with a subject; available to callers. at it, engaged in some activity, working. at once, immediately; simultaneously. at that, at that point; moreover, lost in ten moves, and to a beginner at that.

At symbol astatine.

at·a·vism (at-ā-viz-ēm) n. 1. resemblance to remote ancestors rather than parents. 2. reversion to an earlier type. at·a·v·is·tic (at-ā-vis-tik) adj.

ate (ayt) see eat.

-ate¹ suffix used to form adjectives, as in desolate, ornate.

-ate² suffix used to form nouns meaning office, state, function, group, or product, as in episcopate, magistrature, electorate, filtrate.

-ate³ suffix used to form nouns meaning a salt of an acid with a corresponding name ending in -ic, as in chlorate, nitrate.

-ate⁴ suffix used to form verbs, as in hypenate, fascinate.

at·el·ler (at-ē-yay) n. an artist's workshop, a studio.

a·the·ist (ay-thē-ist) n. a person who does not believe in the existence of a god or gods. a·the·ism n. a·the·is·tic (ay-θē-ist-tik) adj.

ath·e·na·um, ath·e·ne·um (ath-e·nee-ūm) n. 1. an institution for the promotion of learning. 2. a library or reading room. 3. Athenaenum, an institute of rhetoric and poetry, founded at Rome about 133 A.D. by the Emperor Hadrian.

Ath·ens (ath-ēnz) the capital of Greece.

ath·er·o·sclē·ro·sis (ath·ē-roskē-ro·sis) n. (pl. -ro·ses, pr. -ro·seez) a form of arteriosclerosis with fatty degeneration. ath·er·o·sclē·rot·ic (ath·ē-roskē·rot·ik) adj.

ath·lete (ath·leet) n. a person who is trained or skilled in athletics. □ath·lete's foot, a form of ringworm affecting the feet.

ath·let·ic (ath·let·ik) adj. 1. of athletes. 2. physically strong and active, muscular in build. ath·let·i·cal·ly adv. □ath·let·ic· sup·por·ter, a jockstrap.

ath·let·ics (ath·let·iks) n. physical exercises and sports.

at·home (at-hōhm) n. a reception for visitors between certain hours.

a·thwart (ā-thwart) adv. across from side to side, usually obliquely. athwart prep. across.

a·tilt (ā-tilt) adj. & adv. tilted and nearly falling.

Atl. abbr. Atlantic.

At·lan·ta (at-lan-tā) the capital of Georgia.

At·lan·tic (at-lan-tik) adj. of the Atlantic Ocean. □At·lan·tic Ocean, the ocean lying between the Americas on the west and Europe and Africa on the east.

at·las (at-lās) n. a book of maps.

atm. abbr. atmosphere(s).

at·mo·sphere (at-mōs-feer) n. 1. the mixture of gases surrounding Earth or any star or planet. 2. the air in any place. 3. a psychological environment, a feeling or tone conveyed by something, an atmosphere of peace and calm. 4. a unit of pressure, equal to the pressure of the atmosphere at sea level. at·mo·sphere·lic (at-mōs-feer·lik) adj. at·mo·phere·li·cal·ly adv.

at·mo·sphere·ics (at-mōs-feer·iks) n. pl. electrical disturbances in the atmosphere, crackling sounds or other interference in radio receiving apparatus caused by these.

at·oll (at-ōl) n. a ring-shaped coral reef enclosing a lagoon.

at·om (at-ōm) n. 1. the smallest particle of a chemical element. 2. this as a source of atomic energy. 3. a very small quantity or thing, there's not an atom of truth in it. □atom bomb, an atomic bomb. atom smasher, a high-speed particle accelerator.

a·tom·ic (ā-tom·ik) adj. of an atom or atoms. □atomic bomb, a bomb that derives its destructive power from atomic energy. atomic clock, a clock using atomic vibrations as a standard of time. atomic energy, energy obtained as the result of nuclear fission. atomic num·ber, the number of positive charges carried by the nucleus of an atom of a chemical element. atomic pile, a nuclear reactor. atomic weight, the ratio between the mass of one atom of an element or isotope and one-twelfth of the weight of an atom of the isotope carbon 12.

at·om·ize (at·ō-miz) v. (at·om·iz·ed, at·om·iz·ing) to reduce to atoms or fine particles. at·om·iz·a·tion (at·ō-mi·zā·shon) n.

at·om·iz·er (at·ō-mi·zér) n. a device for reducing liquids to a fine spray.

a·ton·al (ā-ton·āl) adj. (of music) not written in any particular key or scale system.

a·tone (ā-tohn) v. (a·toned, a·ton·ing) to make amends, to make up for some error or deficiency. a·tone·ment n. □Day of Atonement, see Yom Kippur. the Atonement, the expiation of man's sin by Christ.
a-top (á-top) adj. & adv. at or on the top. atop prep. on the top of.

a-tri-um (a-tri-ûm) n. (pl. a-tri-a, pr. ay-tri-û, a-tri-ûms) 1. the central court of a Roman house. 2. either of the two upper cavities (left or right atrium) of the heart, into which the veins pour the blood.

a-tro-cious (á-trosh-shûs) adj. 1. extremely wicked, brutal. 2. (informal) very bad or unpleasant. atrocious weather. a-tro’cious ly adv.

a-tro-cy (a-tro-si-tee) n. 1. wickedness, a wicked or cruel act. 2. a repelling thing.

at-phy (at-fé) n. wasting away through undernourishment or lack of use. atrophy v. (at-ro-phied, at-ro-physics) to cause or suffer atrophy.

at-ro-pine (at-ro-pen) n. a white crystal-like alkaloid prepared from the plant Atropa belladonna (deadly nightshade), used to dilute the pupil of the eye or to relieve pain.

att. abbr. 1. attached. 2. attention. 3. attorney.

at-ta-boy (at-á-boi) interj. (slang) an exclamation of admiration or encouragement.

at-tach (á-tach) v. 1. to fix to something else. 2. to join as a companion or member, to assign (a person) to a particular group. 3. to attribute, we attach no importance to the matter. 4. to be ascribed, to be attributable, no blame attaches to the company. 5. to make a legal attachment of (money or goods).

at-ta-ché (at-á-shay) n. a person who is attached to the staff of an ambassador in some specific field of activity, the military attaché. attaché case, a small rectangular briefcase with rigid sides.

at-tached (á-tacht) adj. 1. fastened on. 2. bound by affection or loyalty, she is very attached to her cousin.

at-tach-ment (á-tach-men) n. 1. attaching, being attached. 2. something attached, an extra part that fixes on. 3. affection, devotion. 4. legal seizure of property or of a debtor's earnings before they are paid to him in order to pay his debts.

at-tack (á-tak) v. 1. to act violently against, to start a fight against (a person or country). 2. to criticize strongly. 3. to act harmfully on, rust attacks metals. 4. to begin vigorous work on. attack n. 1. a violent attempt to hurt, overcome, or defeat. 2. a piece of strong criticism. 3. a sudden onset of illness, an attack of flu. at-tack'er n.

at-tain (á-tayn) v. to succeed in doing or getting.

at-tain-a-ble (á-tayn-náb-bl) adj. able to be attained.

at-tain-der (á-tayn-dér) n. (in former times) the legal consequences of sentence of death or outlawry (forfeiture of estate, loss of civil rights).

at-tain-ment (á-tayn-mént) n. 1. attaining. 2. something attained, a personal achievement.

at-tar (at-ár) n. a fragrant oil obtained from flowers, attar of roses.

at-tempt (á-temp-t) v. to make an effort to accomplish, that's attempting the impossible. attempt n. 1. an effort to accomplish something. 2. an attack, an effort to overcome or surpass something.

at-tend (á-tend) v. 1. to apply one's mind, to give care and thought. 2. to take care of, to look after, which doctor is attending you? 3. to be present at, to go regularly to, five hundred people attended the ceremony; to attend school. 4. to accompany as an attendant. attend to, to deal with, to take care of.

at-ten-dance (á-ten-dáns) n. 1. attending. 2. the number of people present.

at-ten-dant (á-ten-dánt) n. a person who is present as a companion or whose function is to provide service. attendant adj. accompanying.

at-ten-tion (á-ten-shún) n. 1. applying one's mind to something, mental concentration. 2. awareness, it attracts attention. 3. consideration, looking after, care, she shall have every attention. 4. a soldier's erect attitude of readiness with feet together and arms stretched downward, stand at attention. 5. attentions, small acts of kindness, courtesy, or courtship. attention interj. an exclamation used to call people to take notice or to assume an attitude of attention.

at-ten-tive (á-ten-tiv) adj. 1. paying attention, watchful. 2. devotedly showing consideration or courtesy to another person. at-ten'tive-ly adv. at-ten'tiveness n.

at-ten-u-ate (á-ten-yoo-at) v. (at-ten-u-at-ed, at-ten-u-at-ing) 1. to make slender or thin. 2. to make weaker, to reduce the force or value of. at-ten-u-a-tion (á-ten-yoo-a-shún) n.

at-test (á-test) v. 1. to provide clear proof of. 2. to declare to be true or genuine. at-tes-ta-tion (a-tes-tay-shún) n.

at-tic (at-ik) n. the space or room immediately below the roof of certain buildings.

at-tire (á-trir) n. clothes. attire (at-tired, at-tir-ing) v. to clothe.

at-ti-tude (at-ti-tood) n. 1. a position of the body or its parts. 2. a way of thinking or behaving. 3. the position of an aircraft or spacecraft relative to wind, direction, etc.

attitudinize (at-i-to-di-niz) v. (at-ti-to-di-nized, at-ti-to-di-niz-ing) to assume attitudes, to act or speak etc. affectedly.

attn. abbr. attention.

at-tor-ney (a-tur-nee) n. (pl. -neys) a lawyer, especially one qualified to represent or act for persons in legal proceedings.

attorney general, the chief legal representative and adviser of a country, state, etc.

at-tract (a-trakt) v. 1. to draw toward itself by unseen force, a magnet attracts iron. 2. to get the attention of. 3. to arouse the interest or pleasure of.

at-tact (a-trakt-ant) n. a substance that attracts things (especially insects).

at-trac-tion (a-trak-shun) n. 1. attracting. 2. the ability to attract. 3. something that attracts by arousing interest or pleasure.

at-tact-ive (a-trak-tiv) adj. able to attract, pleasing in appearance or effect.

at-tact-ive-ly adv. at-tact-ive-ness n.

at-at-trib-u-tion (aw-di-toh-ree) n. the science of hearing. au-di-o-log-i-cal (aw-di-o-log-i-kal) adj. of hearing aids etc. using both sight and sound. audiovisual n. (usually audiovisuals) educational material such as filmstrips, recordings, etc.

au-dit v. to make an audit of.

au-di-o-log-i-cal (aw-di-o-log-i-kal) adj. of hearing aids etc. using both sight and sound. audiovisual n. (usually audiovisuals) educational material such as filmstrips, recordings, etc.

au-di-o-ly (aw-di-oh-ly) n. an examination of accounts to see that they are in order.

au-di-tor (aw-di-tor) n. a person who makes an audit.

au-di-to-ri-um (aw-di-toh-ri-um) n. the part of a building in which an audience sits, a building or hall used for public gatherings.

au-di-to-ry (aw-di-toh-ree) adj. of hearing.

auf Wie-der-seh-en (owf vea-der-zay-en) until we meet again, goodbye for now.

Aug. abbr. August.

au-ger (aw-gör) n. a tool for boring holes in wood, like a gimlet but larger.

au-ght! (awt) n. (old use) anything, for aught I know.

au-ght* n. zero, cipher.

au-g-ment (awg-men-t) v. to add to, to increase. au-g-men-ta-tion (awg-men-ta-shun) n.
au grat·in (oh grah-tin, grat-in) cooked with a crisp crust of bread crumbs and grated cheese.

au·gur (aw-gur) v. to foretell, to be a sign of; this augurs well for your future, is a favorable sign. augur n. diviner, soothsayer. au·gu·ry (aw-gyoo-ree) n. (pl. -ries).

au·gust (aw-gust) adj. majestic, imposing. Au·gust (aw-güst) n. the eighth month of the year.

Au·gus·ta (aw-gus-tä) the capital of Maine.

au jus (oh zho) (of meat) served with the natural juices obtained during roasting. ▲ French.

auk (awk) n. a northern seabird with small narrow wings.

auld lang syn·e (ohld lang zn) (Scottish) days of long ago.

aunt (ant) n. 1. a sister or sister-in-law of one's father or mother. 2. (children's informal) an unrelated woman friend, Aunt Jane.

aunt·ie (an-tee) n. (informal) an aunt.

au·pair (oh pair) girl a young woman from overseas helping with housework and receiving board and lodging in return.

au·ra (or–ä) n. 1. the atmosphere surrounding a person or thing and thought to come from him or it, an aura of happiness. 2. a luminous radiation.

au·ral (or–äl) adj. of the ear or sense of hearing. au·ral·ly adv. ▲ Do not confuse aural with oral.

au·re·ate (or–i-it) adj. 1. golden, resplendent. 2. (of language) very elaborate, rhetorical.

au·re·ole (or–i-ohl) n. 1. a halo shown around the head of a martyr, saint, etc. in paintings. 2. a halo or ring around the sun or moon.

au·re·voir (oh ré-voir) goodbye. ▲ French.

au·ri·cle (or–i-kēl) n. 1. the external ear of animals, an earlike part. 2. a small appendage to the atrium of the heart.

au·ric·u·lar (aw-rik-yoo-lar) adj. 1. pertaining to or like the ear. 2. pertaining to the auricle of the heart.

au·rif·er·ous (aw·rif·er-ōōs) adj. yielding gold.

au·ro·ra (aw-roh–rä) n. bands of colored light appearing in the sky at night and probably caused by electrical radiation from the North and South magnetic poles, specifically the aurora borealis (also called the Northern Lights) in the northern hemisphere, or the aurora australis in the southern hemisphere. AUS abbr. Army of the United States.

aus·pice (aw-spis) n. (pl. aus·pic·es, pr. aw-spic·es) 1. a forecast or omen. 2. auspices, patronage, under the auspices of.

aus·pi·cious (aw·spi·chës) adj. showing signs that promise success. aus·pi·cious·ly adv.

Aus·sie (aw·see) n. (informal) an Australian.

aus·tere (aw-steer) adj. severely simple and plain, without ornament or comfort. aus·ter·ely adv.

aus·ter·i·ty (aw·ster-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) being austere, an austere condition, the austerities of life in wartime.

Aus·tin (aw·stين) the capital of Texas.

Aus·tral (aw-sträl) adj. southern.

Aus·tral·ia (aw-strayl-yä) a continent and a country between the Pacific and Indian Oceans. Aus·tral·ian adj. & n.

Aus·tri·a (aw·stri-ä) a country in Europe. Aus·tri·an adj. & n.

Aus·tro·ne·si·a (aw-stroh-nee–zhä) the islands of the central and south Pacific Ocean.

auth. 1. authentic. 2. author. 3. authority. 4. authorized.

au·then·tic (aw·then·tik) adj. genuine, known to be true. au·then·ti·cal·ly adv. au·then·tic·i·ty (aw·then·tics·i·tee) n.

au·then·ti·cate (aw·then·ti·kät) v. (au·then·ti·kat·ed, au·then·ti·cat·ing) to prove the truth or authenticity of. au·then·ti·ca·tion (aw·then·ti·kä·shun) n.

au·thor (aw·thōr) n. 1. the writer of a book or books etc. 2. the originator of a plan or policy. au·thor·ess (aw·the·rēs) n. fem. (old use) au·thor·ship n. ▲ Do not use author as a verb.

au·thor·i·tar·i·an (ä·thōr·i·tar·i·än) adj. favoring complete obedience to authority as opposed to individual freedom. au·thor·i·tar·i·an·ism n.

au·thor·i·ty (aw·thōr·i·tee) n. 1. the power or right to give orders and make others obey, or to take specific action. 2. a person or group with such power. 3. a person with specialized knowledge, a book etc. that can supply reliable information, she is an authority on spiders.

au·thor·ize (aw·thōr·iz) v. (au·thor·iz·ed, au·thor·iz·ing) 1. to give authority to. 2. to give authority for, to sanction. I authorized this payment. au·thor·iza·tion (aw·thōr·i·za·shun) n. △ Authorized Version (also King James Version) the English translation of the Bible (1611) made by order of King James I.

au·tis·tic (aw-tis-tik) adj. having a form of mental illness that causes a person to withdraw into a private world of fantasy and be unable to communicate with others or respond to the real environment, autistick children. au·tis·mism (aw-tiz-ëm) n.

au·to (aw-toh) n. (pl. -tos) an automobile.

au·to·pre·fix by oneself, as in autocracy; by itself, as in automation.

au·to·bahn (aw-tö-bahn) n. an express highway in Germany.

au·to·bi·og·ra·phy (aw-toh-br-og-rä-fee) n. (pl. -phies) the story of a person's life written by that person. au·to·bi·og·ra·pher n.

au·to·crat (aw-tö-krät) n. 1. a person with unlimited power, a dictator.

au·to·crat'ic adj. au·to·crat'ical ly adv.

au·to·gi·ro, au·to·gy·ro (aw-tö-jir-oh) n. (pl. -ros) an early form of helicopter with a conventional propeller and rotating horizontal vanes to provide lift and permit slow steep descent.

au·to·graph (aw-tö-graf) n. 1. a person's signature. 2. a manuscript in an author's own handwriting. autograph v. to write one's name on or in, the author will autograph copies of his book tomorrow.

au·to·mate (aw-tö-mayt) v. (au·to·mat·ed, au·to·mat·ing) 1. to control or operate by automation. 2. to convert to automation, to introduce automatic equipment in a plant or process, the factory has been fully automated.

au·to·mat·ic (aw-tö-mat·ik) adj. 1. working itself without direct human control, self-regulating. 2. firing repeatedly until pressure on the trigger is released, an automatic pistol. 3. done without thought, done from habit or routine, made an automatic gesture of apology. automatic n. an automatic machine or tool or, especially, a firearm.

au·to·ma·tion (aw-tö-may-shän) n. the use of automatic equipment to save mental and manual labor.

au·tom·a·tion (aw-töm-a-tion) n. 1. a robot. 2. a person who seems to act mechanically and without thinking.

au·to·mo·bie·le (aw-töm-øy-beel, aw-tö-mö-beel) n. a car.

au·to·mo·tive (aw-töm-ot·iv) adj. of or relating to motor vehicles.

au·to·nom·ic (aw-töm-nö-mik) adj. of that part of the nervous system (autonomic or involuntary nervous system) that functions more or less independently of the will.

au·ton·o·mous (aw-tön-o-ömüs) adj. self-governing. au·ton·o·my n.

au·top·sy (aw-top-see) n. a postmortem.

au·to·strada (aw-toh-strah-dä) n. an express highway in Italy.

au·tumn (aw-töm) n. the season between summer and winter. au·tum·nal (aw-tüm-näl) adj. au·tum·nal·ly adv.

au·tumnal equinox, see equinox.

aux. abbr. auxiliary.

au·xil·la·ry (awg-zil-ya-ree) adj. giving help or support, functioning as a subsidiary, auxiliary services; an auxiliary verb, one used in forming parts of other verbs, as have in I have finished. auxiliary n. (pl. -aries) 1. an auxiliary person, group, or device. 2. an auxiliary verb. 3. auxiliaries, auxiliary troops.

aux·in (awk-sin) n. a class of substances that regulate or modify the growth of plants.

av. abbr. 1. average. 2. avoirdupois.

A.V. abbr. Authorized Version (of the Bible).

a·vail (ä-vayl) v. to be of help or advantage, nothing averted against the storm; he availed himself of the opportunity, made use of it. avail n. effectiveness, advantage, it was of no avail.

a·vail·a·ble (ä-vay-lä-bel) adj. ready or able to be used, obtainable, at hand.

a·vail·a·bil·i·ty (ä-vay-lä-bil-i-tee) n.

a·van·t-garde (a-vahnt-gahr) adj. using or favoring an ultramodern or experimental style, especially in art or literature.

a·vant·garde n. an avant-garde group.

a·van·t·gar·die (a-vahnt-gahr-day) adj. using or favoring an ultramodern or experimental style, especially in art or literature.

a·van·t·gar·de n. an avant-garde group.

a·van·t·gar·die (a-vahnt-gahr-day) adj. using or favoring an ultramodern or experimental style, especially in art or literature.

a·van·t·gar·de n. an avant-garde group.

a·vair·a·ble (ä-vay-lä-bel) adj. ready or able to be used, obtainable, at hand.

a·vail·a·bil·i·ty (ä-vay-lä-bil-i-tee) n. 1. a mass of snow or rock pouring down a mountainside. 2. a great onrush, an avalanche of letters.

a·vant·gar·de (a-vahnt-gahr) adj. using or favoring an ultramodern or experimental style, especially in art or literature.

a·vant·gar·de n. an avant-garde group.

a·van·t·gar·die (a-vahnt-gahr-day) adj. using or favoring an ultramodern or experimental style, especially in art or literature.

a·vant·gar·de n. an avant-garde group.

a·van·t·gar·die (a-vahnt-gahr-day) adj. using or favoring an ultramodern or experimental style, especially in art or literature.

a·vant·gar·de n. an avant-garde group.

a·van·t·gar·die (a-vahnt-gahr-day) adj. using or favoring an ultramodern or experimental style, especially in art or literature.

a·vant·gar·de n. an avant-garde group.

a·van·t·gar·die (a-vahnt-gahr-day) adj. using or favoring an ultramodern or experimental style, especially in art or literature.

a·vant·gar·de n. an avant-garde group.

a·van·t·gar·die (a-vahnt-gahr-day) adj. using or favoring an ultramodern or experimental style, especially in art or literature.

a·vant·gar·de n. an avant-garde group.

a·van·t·gar·die (a-vahnt-gahr-day) adj. using or favoring an ultramodern or experimental style, especially in art or literature.

a·vant·gar·de n. an avant-garde group.

a·van·t·gar·die (a-vahnt-gahr-day) adj. using or favoring an ultramodern or experimental style, especially in art or literature.

a·vant·gar·de n. an avant-garde group.

a·van·t·gar·die (a-vahnt-gahr-day) adj. using or favoring an ultramodern or experimental style, especially in art or literature.

a·vant·gar·de n. an avant-garde group.

a·van·t·gar·die (a-vahnt-gahr-day) adj. using or favoring an ultramodern or experimental style, especially in art or literature.

a·vant·gar·de n. an avant-garde group.

a·van·t·gar·die (a-vahnt-gahr-day) adj. using or favoring an ultramodern or experimental style, especially in art or literature.

a·vant·gar·de n. an avant-garde group.

a·van·t·gar·die (a-vahnt-gahr-day) adj. using or favoring an ultramodern or experimental style, especially in art or literature.

a·vant·gar·de n. an avant-garde group.
aver (ā-urv) v. (a-verred, a-ver-ring) to assert, to affirm.

average (ā-ver-age) n. 1. the value arrived at by adding several quantities together and dividing the total by the number of quantities. 2. the standard or level regarded as usual. average adj. 1. found by making an average, the average age of the pupils is fifteen. 2. of the ordinary or usual standard, people of average intelligence. average v. (av-er-aged, av-er-ag-ing) 1. to calculate the average of. 2. to amount to or produce as an average, the car averaged forty miles a gallon on the highway.

a·ver·ment (ā-ver-mént) n. a positive statement, an affirmation, especially with offer of proof.

a·verse (ā-vurs) adj. unwilling, disinclined, he is averse to hard work. △ Do not confuse adverse with averse.

a·ver·sion (ā-ver-zhōn) n. 1. a strong dislike. 2. something disliked.

a·vert (ā-ver)t v. 1. to turn away, people averted their eyes. 2. to prevent, to ward off, managed to avert disaster.

avg. abbr. average.

a·vi·an (ay-vi-ān) adj. of birds.

a·vi·ary (ay-vi-ē-re) n. a large cage or building for keeping birds.

a·vi·a·tion (ay-vi-ā-shōn) n. 1. the art of flying an aircraft. 2. aircraft design and manufacture.

a·vi·a·tor (ay-vi-ā-tōr) n. an aircraft pilot.

a·vi·a·trix (ay-vi-ā-triks) n. fem.

a·vid (ā-vid) adj. eager, greedy. a·vid·ly adv. a·vid·i·ty (ā-vid·i·tee) n.

a·vi·on·ics (ay-vi-ō-niks) n. the application of electronics in aviation. a·vi·on·ic adj.

a·vi·ta·min·o·sis (ay-vi-tā-mi-no-sis) n. (pl. -ses, pr. -seez) a condition resulting from deficiency of one or more vitamins. a·vi·ta·min·ot·ic (ay-vi-tā-mi-not-ik) adj.

a·vo·ca·do (av-ō-kah-doh, ah-vō-) n. (pl. -dos) 1. the edible pear-shaped fruit of a tropical tree. 2. the tree itself.

a·vo·ca·tion (av-ō-kay-shōn) n. a minor occupation, a hobby.

a·vo·cat (av-ō-set) n. a wading bird with a long upturned beak.

a·void (ā-void) v. 1. to keep oneself away from (something dangerous or undesirable). 2. to refrain from, avoid making rash promises. a·void·ance n.

a·void·a·ble (ā-voi-dā-bēl) adj. able to be avoided.

a·voi·r·du·pois (av-ōr-du-pōiz) n. 1. weight, heaviness, especially personal weight. 2. (also aoidupoi weight) a system of weights based on the pound of 16 ounces and the ounce of 16 drams.

a·vow (ā-vow) v. to admit, to declare openly. a·vow·al n. a·vow·ed·ly adv.

a·vun·cu·lar (ā-vun·ku·lār) adj. of or like a kindly uncle.

a·wait (ā-waɪt) v. 1. to wait for, I await your reply. 2. to be waiting for, a surprise awaits you.

a·wake (ā-waɪk) v. (a·woke or a·waked, a·wak·ing) to wake, to cease to sleep, to arouse from sleep. awake adj. 1. not yet asleep, no longer asleep. 2. alert, aware, he is awake to the possible danger.

a·wak·en (ā-way-kən) v. to awake.

a·wak·én·ing n.

a·ward (ā-word, rhymeys with afford) v. to give by official decision as a payment, penalty, or prize. award n. 1. a decision of this kind. 2. a thing awarded.

a·ware (ā-wair) adj. having knowledge or realization, I am aware of this possibility. a·ware·ness n.

a·wash (ā-wosh) adj. washed over by water or waves.

a·way (ā-way) adv. 1. to or at a distance. 2. out of existence, the water has boiled away. 3. constantly, persistently, we worked away at it. 4. from here, six miles away. 5. elsewhere. 6. aside, turned customers away. 7. at once, right away. away adj. 1. absent. 2. distant. 3. played on an opponent’s field, the Yankees play two home games and two away games this week.

awe (aw) n. respect combined with fear or wonder. awe v. (awed, aw·ing) to fill with awe.

a·we·igh (ā-way) adv. hanging just clear of the sea bottom, anchors aweigh.

a·we·some (aw-sōm) adj. causing awe.

a·we·struck (aw-struck), a·we·strick·en (aw-strick·ēn) adj. suddenly filled with awe.

a·wful (aw-fūl) adj. 1. inspiring awe. 2. extremely bad or unpleasant, an awful accident. 3. (informal), extreme, very great, that’s an awful lot of money. △ Careful writers do not use awful in its third sense. They would write that is a great deal of money.

a·wful·ly (aw-fū-lee) adv. (informal) 1. very. 2. very much. △ Careful writers avoid awfully.

a·while (ā-hwir) adv. for a short time.

a·whirl (ā-hwurl) adj. revolving rapidly, swirling.

aw·kward (aw-kward) adj. 1. difficult to handle, use, or deal with. 2. ungraceful, clumsy, having little skill. 3. inconvenient, came at an awkward time. 4. embarrassed, feel awkward about it. awk’ ward·ly adv. awk’ward·ness n. awl (awl) n. a small pointed tool for making holes, especially in leather or wood.

awn-ling (aw-ning) n. a rooflike shelter, as of canvas, erected as a protection against sun or rain.

awaken (aw-ken) see awake.

AWOL (ay-wawl) n. (slang) absent without leave.

A.W.O.L. abbr. absent without leave.

awry (ä-ri) adv. 1. twisted, to one side.
   2. amiss, plans went awry. awry adj. crooked, wrong.

ax, axe (aks) n. (pl. ax-es, pr. ak-siz) a chopping tool with an edge head parallel to the handle. ax v. (axed, ax-ing) to remove by abolishing or dismissing, the project was axed. get the ax, (slang) to be dismissed from one's job. have an ax to grind, to have some personal interest involved and be eager to take care of it.

axial (ak-si-al) adj. forming or belonging to an axis. axially adv.

axiom (ak-si-om) n. an accepted general truth or principle. axiomatic (ak-si-o-mat-ik) adj. axiologically adv.

axis (ak-sis) n. (pl. ax-es, pr. ak-seez) 1. a line through the center of an object, around which it rotates when spinning. 2. the line dividing a regular figure symmetrically. 3. an imaginary line around which a plane figure can be thought of as rotating to generate a given solid body. 4. the main stem or shoot of a plant. 5. the second cervical vertebra, on which the head turns. 6. an alliance between two or more countries. the Axis, an alliance between Germany and Italy, and later Japan, during World War II.

axle (ak-sel) n. the bar or rod on which a wheel or wheels turn.

axle-tree (ak-sel-tree) n. a bar under an animal-drawn vehicle, connecting the wheels.

ayah (ah-ya) n. a Hindu nurse.

aye-a-to-lah (ah-yä-toh-lä) n. a chief spiritual leader of Shiite Muslims.

aye, ay (i) adv. yes. aye n. a vote in favor of a proposal. the ayes have it, those in favor are in the majority, they have won the vote.

AZ abbr. Arizona.

a-zalea (ä-zayl-ya) n. a shrublike flowering plant.

Azərbaijan (azər-baijawän) a republic of the U.S.S.R. bordering on the Caspian Sea. Azərbaijumlah n. a native or inhabitant of Azerbaijan.

azimuth (az-muth) n. 1. an arc of the heavens extending from the zenith to the horizon, which it cuts at right angles. 2. the arc of the horizon between the north point (in the southern hemisphere, the south point) of the horizon and the point where the vertical circle passing through a heavenly body cuts the horizon. 3. the angle of lateral deviation of a bomb or shell.

Aztec (az-tek) n. a member of an Indian people of Mexico before the Spanish conquest. Aztec adj.

azure (az-ůr) adj. & n. sky blue.
B, b (bee) (pl. Bs, B's, b's) 1. the second letter of the alphabet. 2. B, a grade rating for good school work.

B symbol boron.

b. abbr. (also B.) 1. bachelor. 2. bass. 3. bishop. 4. book. 5. born.

Ba symbol barium.

B.A. abbr. Bachelor of Arts.

baa (bah) n. the cry of a sheep or lamb.

baa v. to make this cry.

Bab-bitt (bab-it) a materialistic complacent businessman. Named after the principal character of a novel by Sinclair Lewis.

Babbitt metal a soft alloy of tin, copper, and antimony, used for machine bearings.

bab-ble (bab-ël) v. (bab-bled, babbling) 1. to chatter in a thoughtless or confused way. 2. to make a continuous murmuring sound, a babbling brook.

babble n. babbling talk or sound.

babler n.

babe (bayb) n. 1. a baby. 2. (slang) a girl or woman.

ba-bel (bay-bël) n. a scene of confusion and uproar, a confused mixture of voices.

Ba-bel from the tower of Babel in the Old Testament, built by men in an attempt to reach heaven that resulted in God's confounding their languages.

ba-boon (ba-boon) n. a large African or Arabian monkey.

ba-bush-ka (bā-bush-kā) n. a kerchief tied under the chin.

ba-by (bay-bee) n. (pl. -bies) 1. a very young child or animal. 2. a babyish or timid person. 3. the youngest or the smallest, something small of its kind. 4. (slang) a person, he's a tough baby. 5. something that is one's creation or in one's care. baby adj. 1. of a baby. 2. small, small or the smallest of its kind, a baby grand piano. baby v. (ba-bled, ba-by-ing) to treat like a baby, to pamper. ba'by-lish adj. ba'by-lish-ly adv.

ba-by-hood n. baby carriage, a four-wheeled carriage for a baby, pushed by a person walking.

ba-by's-breath (bay-beez-breth) n. a plant with branching clusters of small fragrant white flowers.

ba-by-sit (bay-bee-sit) v. (ba-by-sat, ba-by-sit-ting) to act as or be a baby-sitter.

ba-by-sitter (bay-bee-sit-er) n. a person looking after a child while its parents are out.

bac-ca-laure-ate (bak-ā-lor-i-āt) n. 1. a bachelor's degree. 2. a sermon delivered at a college commencement.

bac-ca-rat (bak-ā-rah) n. a gambling card game played against a banker in which the winner is the person whose cards have a total value of nine.

bac-cha-nal (bak-ā-nāl) adj. of the Greek god Bacchus or his rites. bac-cha-nal n. drunken revelry, a wild party.

bac-cha-na-lla (bak-ā-nayl-yā) n. 1. a festival held in honor of the Greek god Bacchus. 2. a drunken revel, an orgy.

bac-cha-na-ll-an adj.

bach-e-lor (bach-ē-lor) n. 1. an unmarried man, especially one who has never married. 2. Bachelor, a person who holds the standard four-year university or college degree below that of Master.

bach'e- lor-hood n. Bachelor of Arts, Science, etc., a college degree awarded after four years of study, a person who holds this degree.

bach-e-lor's-but- ton (bach-ē-lorz-but-ōn) n. any of various flowers of round or buttonlike form, such as the cornflower.

back1 (bak) n. 1. the rear surface of the human body from neck to hip; the corresponding part of an animal's body. 2. that part of a chair etc. against which a seated person's back rests. 3. the part or surface of an object that is less used or less important, the part farthest from the front. 4. the part of a garment covering the back. 5. a football player or position behind the front line. be on someone's back, to be a burden or hindrance to him. have one's back to the wall, to be fighting for survival.
a person's back up, to offend or antagonize him. put one's back into something, to use maximum effort on it.

back² adj. 1. situated behind or farthest from the front, the back teeth. 2. remote or inferior, back streets. 3. of or for a past time, back pay. back adv. 1. at or toward the rear, away from the front or center. 2. in check, hold it back. 3. in or into a previous time or position or condition; I'll be back at six, I shall return then. 4. in return, pay it back.

back number, an old issue of a periodical; an out-of-date person or idea.

back of, behind, at or in the rear. back seat, a seat at the back; take a back seat, to take a less prominent position.

back-seat driver, a person without responsibility who is eager to give orders to one who has responsibility. • Careful writers avoid back of in the sense of behind; walk behind me not back of me.

back³ v. 1. to go or cause to go backward. 2. (of wind) to change gradually in a counterclockwise direction. 3. to give one's support to, to assist. 4. to give financial support to, he is backing the new business. 5. to lay a bet on. 6. to cover the back of, the rug is backed with canvas.

back'er n. □ back down, to give up a claim; to withdraw one's argument.

back out, to withdraw from an agreement.

back up, to give one's support to; back up some one's story, confirm what he says; (of water or traffic) to accumulate behind an obstruction; to reverse (a vehicle).

back•ache (bak-ayk) n. a pain in one's back.

back•bite (bak-bit) v. (back-bit, back-bit-ten, back-bit-ting) to slander.

back'bit'er n.

back•board (bak-bohrd) n. (in basketball) the board to which the basket is attached.

back•bone (bak-bohn) n. 1. the column of small bones down the center of the back, the spine. 2. strength of character.

back•date (bak-dayt) v. (back-dat-ed, back-dat-ing) to declare that (a thing) is to be regarded as valid from some date in the past, especially to write a previous date on (a check).

back•drop (bak-drop) n. a painted curtain hung at the back of a stage.

back•field (bak-feeld) n. (in football) 1. the backs. 2. the area in which these play.

back•fire (bak-fir) v. (back-fired, back-fir-ing) 1. to ignite or explode prematurely, especially in the cylinder of an internal combustion engine. 2. to produce an undesired effect, especially upon the originators, their plan backfired.

backfire n. an explosion in the exhaust of an internal combustion engine.

back•gam•mon (bak-gam-mon) n. a game played on a double board with pieces and dice.

back•ground (bak-ground) n. 1. the back part of a scene or picture, the setting for the chief objects or people; he was kept in the background, in an inconspicuous position; background music, used as an accompaniment to a play, movie, etc. 2. the conditions and events surrounding and influencing something; a person's background, his family life, education, experience, etc.

back•hand (bak-hand) adj. (of a stroke, blow, or catch) made with the back of the hand turned outward. backhand n. a backhand stroke or blow.

back•hand•ed (bak-han-did) adj. 1. backhand. 2. indirect. □ backhanded compliment, one made with underlying sarcasm so that it is not a compliment at all.

back•ing (bak-ing) n. 1. help, support; he has a large backing, many supporters. 2. material used to cover a thing's back or to support it.

back•lash (bak-lash) n. 1. a sudden or violent recoil. 2. a violent and usually hostile reaction to some event. back' lash' er n.

back•less (bak-lis) adj. 1. without a back. 2. (of a dress) cut low at the back.

back•log (bak-log) n. 1. a large log at the back of a hearth or hearth fire. 2. an accumulation of unfilled orders for work.

backlog v. (back-logged, back-log•ging) to accumulate a backlog.

back•pack (bak-pak) n. a knapsack usually mounted on a light frame. back•pack v. to hike while carrying a backpack.

back•ped•al (bak-ped-äl) v. (back-ped•aled, back-ped•al-ing) 1. to work a pedal backward. 2. to back down from an argument or policy.

back•rest (bak-rest) n. a rest for one's back.

back•side (bak-sid) n. (informal) the buttocks.

back•slap•per (bak-slap-er) n. a noisy, overly effusive person.

back•slap•ping (bak-slap-ing) n. a display of effusive cordiality.

back•slide (bak-slid) v. (back-slid, back-slid or back-slid-den, back-slid-ing) to slip back from good behavior into bad. back'slid'er n.

back•space (bak-spays) v. (back-spaced, back-spa•cing) to cause a typewriter carriage to move one space back. back·spin (bak-spin) n. a reverse spin imparted to a ball to slow it or make it roll or bounce in an opposite direction from its original course.

back·stage (bak-stage) adj. & adv. 1. behind the stage of a theater, in the wings or dressing rooms. 2. relating to the inner workings of an institution. 3. secret, of private lives.

back·stairs (bak-stairz) adj. underhanded, secret.

back·stop (bak-stop) n. 1. a barrier to stop a ball from going too far out of the playing area. 2. (informal) the catcher in baseball. 3. (informal) a substitute or support in case of need. backstop v. (back·stopped, back·stop·ping) to act as a backstop.

back·stretch (bak-stretch) n. the straight section of a racetrack opposite the homestretch.

back·stroke (bak-strohk) n. a swimming stroke in which the swimmer is lying on his back.

back·swept (bak-swept) adj. slanting toward the back.

back·track (bak-trak) v. 1. to go back the same way that one came. 2. to back down from an argument or policy.

back·up (bak-up) n. 1. a person who supports or acts as deputy for another. 2. a stoppage (as of traffic, plumbing, etc.). 3. a substitute mechanism or program ready in case the original fails.

back·ward1 (bak-ward) adj. 1. directed toward the back or the starting point. 2. having made less than normal progress, retarded. 3. diffident, not putting oneself forward. back·ward·ness n.

back·ward2 (bak-ward), back·wards (bak-wardz) adv. 1. toward the back. 2. with the back foremost, in a reverse direction or order. 3. toward the past. □backwards and forwards, in each direction alternately. know it backwards and forwards, to know it thoroughly. lean over backward(s), to do one’s utmost.

back·wash (bak-wosh) n. 1. the backward flow of water or air. 2. the aftereffects of an action or event.

back·wa·ter (bak-waw-tar) n. 1. a stretch of stagnant water joining a stream. 2. a place unaffected by progress or new ideas.

back·woods (bak-wuudz) n. remote and only partially settled forest land.

back·woods·man (bak-wuudz-mahn) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mén) a settler in the backwoods.

ba·con (bay-kön) n. salted or smoked meat from the back or sides of a pig.

bring home the bacon, (informal) to earn a living.

bac·te·ri·cide (bak-teer-i-sid) n. a substance that destroys bacteria. bac·te·ri·ol·dial (bak-teer-i-sir-dial) adj.

bac·te·ri·ol·o·gy (bak-teer-i-ol-o-gee) n. an expert in bacteriology.

bac·te·ri·ol·o·gic·al (bak-teer-i-ol-oh-lik) adj.

bac·te·ri·o·phage (bak-teer-i-o-fayj) n. a virus capable of destroying bacteria.

bac·te·ri·um (bak-teer-i-üm) n. (pl. te·ri·a, pr. teer-i-ä) a microscopic organism. bac·te·ri·al adj.

bad (bad) adj. (worse, worst) 1. wicked, evil, naughty. 2. unpleasant. 3. serious, severe. 4. inferior, of poor quality, worthless, incorrect, defective, faulty; a bad business, an unfortunate affair. 5. hurtful, unsuitable, candy is bad for the teeth. 6. in ill health, diseased. 7. decayed, spoiled, the meat went bad. bad adv. (informal) badly, you must want something bad enough to die for it. (Careful writers prefer badly in place of bad in such expressions.) bad n. that which is bad or unfortunate, return good for bad. bad·ness n. □bad blood, ill feeling, enmity.

bad debt, one that will not be repaid.

bad language, swearwords. bad news, unwelcome news; (slang) (of a person) disliked or untrustworthy, he is bad news.

be in a bad way, to be ill or in trouble.

feel bad about, (informal) to feel upset or guilty about. In bad with, (informal) regarded with disapproval by.

not bad, (informal) quite good.

bad·dy (bad-ee) n. (pl. -dies) (informal) a villain, the goodies and the baddies.

bade see bid2.

badge (baj) n. a thing worn to show one’s rank, occupation, or membership in an organization.

bad·ger (baj-ër) n. any of various flesh-eating mammals that burrow in the ground: badger v. to pester, to torment. □badger game, a dishonest trick in which a person is lured into a compromising situation and then surprised and blackmailed.

bad·dl·nage (bad-l-nahzh) n. banter.

bad·lands (bad-landz) n. a barren eroded region. □the Badlands, a section of southwestern South Dakota and northwestern Nebraska.

bad·ly (bad-lee) adv. (worse, worst) 1. in a bad way, defectively. 2. to a serious extent, badly hurt. ▷ Do not say I feel badly if you are not well or are upset; say I feel bad. Also see the note for bad.
bad·min·ton (bad-min-tōn) n. a game played with rackets and shuttlecocks across a high net.
bad·tem·per·ed (bad-tem-pərd) adj. having or showing bad temper.
Bae·de·ker (bā-de-kēr) n. a travel guidebook. ▷ Originally one of a series prepared by Karl Baedeker, a German publisher.
ba·fle (baf-əl) v. (baf·bled, ba·flying) 1. to puzzle, to perplex. 2. to frustrate, baffled their attempts. baﬄe n. a screen placed to hinder or control the passage of sound, light, or fluid. baﬄe·ment n.
bag (bag) n. 1. a container made of flexible material with an opening at the top, used for holding or carrying things. 2. this with its contents, the amount it contains. 3. something resembling a bag; bags under the eyes, folds of loose skin. 4. the amount of game shot by a sportsman. 5. ( slang: contemptuous) a woman, the old bag. bag v. (bagged, bag·ging) 1. to put into a bag or bags. 2. to kill or capture, bagged a pheasant. 3. (informal) to take possession of, to stake a claim to. 4. to bulge or hang loosely. □ bag and baggage, with all one’s belongings. be in the bag, (informal) to be secured or won as one wished.
ba·gas·se (bā-gas) n. the residue left after juice has been extracted from sugar cane or sugar beet.
bag·a·tle (bag·ə·tel) n. 1. a pinball game. 2. something small and unimportant.
ba·gel (bay-gəl) n. a hard ring-shaped bread roll.
bag·ful (bag·fuль) n. (pl. -fuls) as much as a bag will hold.
bag·gage (bag·ij) n. 1. suitcases and bags etc. containing a person’s belongings taken on a trip. 2. portable equipment. 3. (old use) an immoral or contemptible woman. □ baggage strap, a strap fastened around a suitcase for additional security.
bag·gy (bag·ee) adj. (-gi·er, -gi·est) hanging in loose folds. bag‘gi·ly adv. bag‘gi·ness n.
Bag·hdad (bag·dadj) n. the capital of Iraq.
bag·man (bag·mān) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) an agent who collects or distributes money for dishonest or illegal purposes.
bag·n·lo (bahn-yəh) n. a brothel.
bag·pipe (bag·pip) n. (frequently bag·pipes n. pl.) a musical instrument with air stored in a bag and pressed out through pipes.
ba·guette (ba·get) n. a gem cut in a long rectangular shape.
Ba·ha·mas (bā-hā-mās) a group of islands in the West Indies.
Bah·ra·in (bah·rayn) a sheikdom consisting of a group of islands in the Persian Gulf.
bail1 (bayl) n. 1. money or property pledged as security that a person accused of a crime will return, if he is released temporarily, to stand trial. 2. permission for a person’s release on such security. bail v. to obtain or allow the release of (a person) on bail. bail‘a·ble adj.
□ bail bond, money pledged as bail. bail bondsman, a person who makes his livelihood by supplying bail for others. go bail, to pledge money etc. as bail. out on bail, released after bail is pledged. ▷ Do not confuse bail with bale.
bail2 v. to scoop (water) out of a boat etc.
□ bail out (slang) to relieve by financial help in an emergency; to jump from an airplane in flight; (slang) to leave a bad situation. ▷ Do not confuse bail with bale.
bail3 n. 1. the handle of a bucket. 2. a bar holding paper against the platen of a typewriter. ▷ Do not confuse bail with bale.
bal·ley (bay·lee) n. the outer wall of a castle, a courtyard enclosed by this.
bail·iff (bay·lif) n. 1. a minor officer of a U.S. court. 2. (British) a law officer who helps a sheriff, serving writs etc.
bail·lif·ter (bay·li·fər) n. 1. a district, the jurisdiction of a bailiff. 2. one’s area of knowledge, skill, etc.
bail·lifs·man (bay·lifs·mān) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mēn) a person who goes bail for another.
bairn (bairn) n. (Scottish) a child. bait (bayt) n. 1. food (real or sham) placed to attract prey, especially fish. 2. an enticement. bait v. 1. to place bait on or in, bait the trap. 2. to torment by jeering. bai·ze (bayz) n. a thick woolen usually green cloth, used for covering tables or doors.
bake (bayk) v. (baked, bak·ing) 1. to cook or be cooked by dry heat. 2. to expose to great heat, to harden or be hardened by heat. □ baking powder, a powder used as a raising agent for cakes etc. baking soda, sodium bicarbonate, used in baking.
bak·er·y (bay·kər·ee) n. (pl. -er·ies) a place where bread, cake, etc. are baked for sale.
bakeshop / ballistic bake-shop (bayk-shop) n. a bakery, a store where baked goods are sold.

bak-sheesh (bak-sheesh) n. (pl. -sheesh) a small gift of money, a tip.
bal. abbr. balance.
bal-a-lai-ka (bal-ä-lë-kä) n. a Russian stringed instrument played by plucking.
bal-ance (bal-äns) n. 1. a weighing apparatus with two scales or pans hanging from a crossbar. 2. the regulating apparatus of a clock. 3. an even distribution of weight or amount, a steady position or state. 4. the difference between credits and debits. 5. money remaining after payment of a debt. balance v. 1. to consider by comparing, balance one argument against another. 2. to be or put or keep (a thing) in a state of balance. 3. to compare the debits and credits of (an account) and make the entry needed to equalize these, to have these equal.

balance of payments, the difference between the amount paid to foreign countries for imports and services and the amount received from them for exports etc. in a given period. balance of power, a condition in which no country or group is stronger than another. balance of trade, the difference in value between imports and exports. balance sheet, a written statement of assets and liabilities. balance wheel, a wheel that stabilizes or regulates the speed of a mechanism, especially of a clock or watch. hang in the balance, to be in a state where the outcome is still uncertain. off balance, in danger of falling. on balance, taking everything into consideration.

bal-brik-gan (bal-brig-än) n. 1. a knitted cotton cloth. 2. balbriggans, underclothes or pajamas of this material.
bal-co-ny (bal-kō-ne) n. (pl. -nies) 1. a platform with a rail or parapet, projecting outside an upper story of a building. 2. a gallery in a building. 3. an upper floor of seats in a theater. bal'co-nied adj.
bald (bawl'd) adj. 1. with the scalp wholly or partly hairless. 2. (of tires) with the tread worn away. 3. bare, without details, bald facts. bald'ly adv. bald'ness n.
bald eagle, an eagle with a white head and tail, also called “American eagle,” a symbol of the U.S.
bald-der dash (bawl-dér-dash) n. nonsense.
bald-ling (bawl-ding) adj. becoming bald.
bald-dric (bawl-drik) n. a belt for supporting a sword, bugle, etc., worn over the shoulder and across the body to the opposite hip.
bale (bayl) n. 1. a large bundle of straw etc. bound with cord or wire. 2. a large package of goods. bale v. (Baled, bal'ling) to make into a bale. □Do not confuse bale with ball.
bal-ee-en (bä-leen) n. whalebone.
bale-ful (bayl-fül) adj. menacing, destructive, a baleful influence. bale'ful-ly adv.
balk (bawk) v. 1. to thwart, to hinder, to discourage. 2. to refuse to proceed. 3. (in baseball) to commit a balk. balk n. (in baseball) an illegal pitching motion made while one or more runners are on base.
Bal-kan (bawl-kån) adj. of the peninsula in southeast Europe bounded by the Adriatic, Aegean, and Black Seas, or of its people or countries. □ the Balkans, the Balkan countries.
balk-y (bawl-kee) adj. (balk'-'er, balk'-'est) reluctant, perverse.
ball (bawl) n. 1. a solid or hollow sphere. 2. such a sphere used in games. 3. a game played with a ball, especially baseball. 4. a single delivery of the ball by the pitcher in baseball, a pitched ball that is not in the strike zone or is not swung at by the batter. 5. material gathered or wound into a round mass, a ball of string. 6. a rounded part. ball v. 1. to form into a ball. 2. to form a lump or lumps. □ ball bearing, a bearing using small steel balls; one of these balls.
ball boy, ball girl, one who retrieves balls in a tennis match. ball carrier, (in football) a player who runs with the ball.
ball of fire, a very lively spirited person.
ball of the foot, the rounded part under the foot at the base of the big toe. ball point pen, a pen with a tiny ball as its writing point. on the ball, (informal) alert, competent. start the ball rolling, to start an activity.
ball② n. a social gathering for dancing, especially a formal one. □ have a ball, (slang) to enjoy oneself.
bal-lad (bal-lad) n. a simple song or poem, especially one telling a story.
bal-lad-er (bal-lār) n. a person who sings ballads.
bal-last (bal-lāst) n. heavy material placed in a ship's hold to improve its stability; the ship is in ballast, is laden with ballast only.
bal-le-ri-na (bal-ē-ree-nä) n. a female ballet dancer.
bal-let (ba-lay) n. 1. a form of dancing and mime to music, a performance of this. 2. a company of ballet dancers.
bal-lis-tic (bā-lis-tik) adj. of projectiles such as bullets and missiles. \textit{ballistics}, one that is powered and guided during at least the initial stage of its flight.

\textit{bal-lis-tics} (bā-lis-tiks) \textit{n.} the scientific study of firearms or of the motion or flight characteristics of projectiles.

\textit{bal-loon} (bā-lōon) \textit{n.} a bag or envelope inflated with air or a lighter gas, intended to rise and float in the atmosphere or used as a children’s toy. \textit{balloon} \textit{v.} 1. to swell out like a balloon. 2. to travel in a balloon. 3. to increase or grow rapidly. \textit{balloon tire}, a wide pneumatic tire.

\textit{bal-loon} \textit{lst} (bā-lōo-nist) \textit{n.} a person who travels by balloon.

\textit{bal} \textit{lot} (bāl-ōt) \textit{n.} 1. a paper or token used in secret voting. 2. voting by means of such papers etc. \textit{ballot} \textit{v.} (\textit{bal-lot-ed, bal-lo-t-ing}) to vote by ballot.

\textit{ball-point} (bawl-point) \textit{n.} (also ballpoint pen) a pen having a tiny ball as its writing point.

\textit{ball-room} (bawl-room) \textit{n.} a large room where dances are held.

\textit{bal-ly} \textit{hoo} (bal-ee-hoo) \textit{n.} (pl. -hoos) ex-aggerated or sensational advertising or publicity. \textit{ballyhoo} \textit{v.} (\textit{bal-ly-hoo-ed, bal-ly-hoo-ing}) to publicize by ballyhoo.

\textit{balm} (bahm) \textit{n.} 1. an ointment that soothes or heals. 2. a soothing influence. 3. a fragrant herb.

\textit{balm-y} (bah-mee) \textit{adj.} (\textit{balm-l-er, balm-l-est}) 1. like balm, fragrant. 2. soft and warm, \textit{balm}y \textit{breezes}. \textit{balm’l-ness} \textit{n.}

\textit{ba-lo-ney} (bā-lo-nee) \textit{n.} 1. (slang) nonsense. 2. bologna.

\textit{bal-sa} (bawl-sā) \textit{n.} a very lightweight wood (also \textit{balsa wood}) from a tropical American tree.

\textit{bal-sam} (bawl-sam) \textit{n.} 1. a soothing oil. 2. a flowering plant. 3. a tree yielding balm. \textit{balsam} \textit{fir}, a North American evergreen tree widely used as a Christmas tree.

\textit{bal-tic} (bawl-tik) \textit{adj.} of the Baltic Sea, an almost landlocked sea of northeast Europe. \textit{Baltic} \textit{n.} the Baltic Sea.

\textit{bal-us-ter} (bāl-ū-stér) \textit{n.} one of the short stone pillars in a balustrade.

\textit{bal-us} \textit{trade} (bāl-ū-strayd) \textit{n.} a row of short posts or pillars supporting a rail or stone coping around a balcony or terrace.

\textit{Bam-a-ko} (bām-ā-koh) the capital of Mali.

\textit{bam-boo} \textit{n.} a giant tropical grass with hollow stems.

\textit{bam-boo-zle} (bām-boo-zel) \textit{v.} (\textit{bam-boo-zled, bam-boo-zling}) (slang) to trick.

\textit{ban} \textit{(ban)} \textit{v.} (\textit{banned, ban-ning}) to forbid officially. \textit{ban} \textit{n.} an order that bans something.

\textit{ba-nan-à} (bā-nan-ā) \textit{n.} 1. the finger-shaped fruit of a tree like a tropical plant. 2. this plant. \textit{go bananas}, (slang) to go crazy.

\textit{band} \textit{(band)} \textit{n.} 1. a narrow strip, hoop, or loop. 2. a range of values, wavelengths, etc. within a series. 3. a group of people, animals, or objects. 4. a set of people playing music together, especially on wind or percussion instruments.

\textit{band} \textit{v.} 1. to put a band on or around, to tie or fasten with a band. 2. to form into a league, to unite for a common cause, \textit{they banded together}. \textit{band’ed adj. \textit{band} saw}, an endless saw running over pulleys.

\textit{band-age} (ban-dij) \textit{n.} a strip of material for binding up a wound. \textit{bandage} \textit{v.} (\textit{band-aged, band-ag-ing}) to bind up with a bandage.

\textit{ban-dan-na}, \textit{ban-dan-a} (ban-dan-ā) \textit{n.} a large colored handkerchief with yellow or white spots or other bright pattern.

\textit{band-box} (band-boks) \textit{n.} (pl. -box-\textit{es}) a box for hats (originally for neckbands). \textit{bandbox} \textit{adj.} conspicuously neat and clean.

\textit{ban-dit} (ban-dit) \textit{n.} a robber, especially a member of a band of robbers.

\textit{ban-do-ler} (ban-dō-leer) \textit{n.} a shoulder belt with loops or pockets for cartridges.

\textit{band-stand} (band-stand) \textit{n.} a covered outdoor platform for a band or orchestra.

\textit{band-wag-on} (band-wag-ōn) \textit{n.} 1. a wagon carrying musicians in a circus parade. 2. an imaginary vehicle thought of as carrying a thing that is heading for success. \textit{climb or jump on the bandwagon}, to seek to join this thing or follow its example.

\textit{ban-dy} \textit{1} (ban-dee) \textit{v.} (\textit{ban-died, ban-dy-ing}) to pass to and fro, \textit{the story was banded about}; \textit{bandy words}, exchange remarks in quarrelling.

\textit{bandy} \textit{2} \textit{adj.} curving apart at the knees.

\textit{ban-di-ness} \textit{n.}

\textit{bane} (bayn) \textit{n.} 1. a poison. 2. a cause of trouble, misery, or anxiety. \textit{bane’ful adj. bane’ful-ly adv.}

\textit{bang} \textit{1} \textit{v.} 1. to make a sudden loud noise like an explosion. 2. to strike or shut noisily. \textit{bang} \textit{n.} 1. the sudden loud noise of or like an explosion. 2. a sharp blow. \textit{bang} \textit{adv.} 1. with a bang, abruptly. 2. exactly, \textit{bang in the middle}.

\textit{with a bang}, very successfully, impressively.
bang² n. a short fringe of hair over the forehead.
Bangkok (bang-kok) the capital of Thailand.
Ban-gla-desh (bang-glá-desh) a Muslim country in southeast Asia. Ban-gla-desh-i (bang-glá-desh-e) adj. & n. (pl. -desh-is).
ban·gle (bang-gel) n. 1. a bracelet of rigid material. 2. any loose-hanging ornament. Ban-gui (bahn-gee) the capital of the Central African Republic.
bang-up adj. (slang) excellent. Ban-ish (ban-ish) v. 1. to condemn to exile. 2. to dismiss from one's presence or one's mind, banish care. Ban-ish-ment n.
Ban·ish·ter (ban-ış-ter) n. 1. one of the uprights supporting the handrail of a stair. 2. the handrail itself. 3. the uprights and the rails together.
ban·jo (ban-joh) n. (pl. -jos) a stringed instrument like a guitar with a round body. Ban'jo·ist (bahn-juul) n.
Ban·jul (bahn-juul) the capital of Gambia.
Bank¹ (bangk) n. 1. a slope, especially at the side of a river. 2. a raised mass of sand etc. in a river bed. 3. a long mass of cloud or snow or other soft substance. 4. a tier, row, or series. Bank v. 1. to build or form a bank; bank the fire, heap on fuel, ashes, etc. so that it burns slowly. 2. to tilt or be tilted sideways in rounding a curve.
Bank² n. 1. an establishment for keeping people's money etc. safe and paying it out on a customer's order. 2. the money held by the keeper of a gaming table or the banker of a game. 3. a place for storing a reserve supply, a blood bank. Bank v. 1. to place or keep money in a bank. 2. to base one's hopes, we are banking on your success. □Bank holiday, a day (other than Sunday) on which banks are officially closed, usually a public holiday. Ban·kbook (bangk-buuk) n. a book containing a customer's copy of his savings account transactions with a bank.
bank·er (bang-kér) n. 1. an expert in banking. 2. the keeper of a gaming bank or one who keeps accounts of money, chips, etc. in a game.
bank·ing (bang-king) n. the business of running a financial bank.
bank·note (bangk-noht) n. a small strip of paper issued by a bank to serve as currency, printed with the amount for which it is valid. Bank·roll (bangk-rohl) n. a roll of banknotes, ready money. Bankroll v. to finance.
bankrupt (bangkrupt) n. a person who is unable to pay his debts in full and whose affairs are administered for the benefit of his creditors. Bankrupt adj. 1. declared by a law court to be a bankrupt. 2. financially ruined and in debt. Bankrupt v. to make bankrupt. Bank·rupt·cy (bangkrupt-see) n.
ban·ner (ban-ér) n. 1. a flag. 2. a strip of cloth bearing an emblem or slogan, hung up or carried on a crossbar or between two poles in a procession etc. Ban·ner adj. foremost, a banner year.
banns (banz) n. pl. a public announcement in church of a forthcoming marriage between two named people.
ban·quet (bang-kwet) n. an elaborate ceremonial public meal. Banquet v. (Ban·quet·ed, Ban·quet·ing) to give or take part in a banquet.
ban·shee (ban-shee) n. a female spirit in Irish and Scottish folklore whose wail is said to foretell a death in a house.
ban·tam (ban-tam) n. a small domestic fowl.
ban·tam·weight (ban-tam-wayt) n. a boxer between featherweight and flyweight weighing up to 118 pounds.
ban·ter (ban-ter) n. good-humored teasing. Banter v. to joke in a good-humored way.
Ban·tu (ban-too) n. (pl. -tus, -tu) one of a group of African peoples or their languages.
ban·yan (ban-yan) n. an Indian fig tree with spreading branches from which roots grow downward to the ground and form new trunks.
ban·zai (bahn-zai) interj. a Japanese patriotic greeting or cheer. □Banzai attack, a suicidal desperate attack or charge.
ba·o·bab (bay-o-bab) n. an African tree, naturalized also in India and Ceylon, bearing large woody fruit with edible pulp known as “monkey-bread.”
bap·tism (bap-tiz-ém) n. the Christian sacrament of sprinkling a person with water or immersing him in it to symbolize purification and admission to the Church. Bap·tismal name, a name given at baptism, a Christian name. Bap·tist (bap-tist) n. a member of a Protestant denomination believing that baptism should be by immersion and performed at an age when the person is old enough to understand its meaning. □the Baptist, St. John, who baptized Jesus.
bap·tis·ter·y, bap·tis·try (bap-tis-tri) n. (pl. -ters, -tries) a building or part of a church used for baptism.
bap·tize (bap-tiz) v. (bap-tized, bap·tiz·ing) 1. to perform baptism on. 2. to christen, name, or nickname. 3. to initiate (a person) by ordeal.
bar (bahr) n. 1. a long piece of solid material. 2. a narrow strip. 3. any barrier or obstacle, a sandbox. 4. one of the vertical lines dividing a piece of music into equal units, a section contained by these. 5. the railing in a law court behind which persons on trial are stationed. 6. the bar, the legal profession, lawyers. 7. a counter or room where alcohol is served. 8. a place where refreshments are served across a counter, a sandwich bar. 9. a shop counter selling a single type of commodity or service, the department store's hat bar. bar v. (barred, bar-ring) 1. to fasten with a bar or bars. 2. to keep in or out by this. 3. to obstruct, barred the way. 4. to prevent or prohibit. bar prep. except, she was the best of all, bar none. □ be called to the bar, to become a lawyer. behind bars, in prison.

bar? n. a unit of pressure used in meteorology.

barb (bahrbd) n. 1. the backward-pointing part of an arrow, fishhook, etc. that makes it difficult to withdraw from what it has pierced. 2. a wounding remark.

Bar-ba-dos (bahr-bay-dohs) a country in the Caribbean. Bar-ba-dian (bahr-bay-dian) adj. & n.

bar-bar-ian (bahr-bair-ee-an) n. an uncivilized person. barbarian adj. of barbarians.

bar-bar-ic (bahr-bar-ik) adj. suitable for barbarians, rough and wild. bar-bar'ic-ly adv.

bar-bar-is-m (bahr-bair-iz-em) n. 1. savagery. 2. absence of culture. 3. ignorance. 4. a word or phrase not in accordance with the established standard of a language, use of this.

bar-bar'-i-ty (bahr-bar-ee-tee) n. (pl. -ties) savage cruelty, an instance of this.

bar-bar-ous (bahr-bair-ous) adj. uncivilized, cruel. bar-bar'ous-ly adv.

bar-be-cue (bahr-bair-kyoo) n. 1. a metal frame for grilling food above an open fire. 2. an open-air party at which food is cooked on this. 3. the food itself. barbecue v. (bar-be-cued, bar-be-cuing) 1. to cook on a barbecue. 2. to cook in barbecue sauce. □ barbecue sauce, a highly seasoned sauce of vinegar, spices, etc.

barbed (bahrbd) adj. having a barb or barbs. □ barbed wire (also barb wire), a wire with short sharp points at intervals.

bar-bel (bahr-bel) n. an iron bar with a heavy disk at each end, used in weight lifting.

bar-ber (bahr-bair) n. a men's hairdresser.

bar-ber-ry (bahr-bair-ee) n. (pl. -ries) 1. a shrub with spiny shoots and small yellow flowers. 2. its oblong red sharply acid berry.

bar-ber-shop (bahr-bair-shop) n. an establishment for giving haircuts, shaves, etc.

bar-bl-can (bahr-bl-kahn) n. the outer defense of a city or castle, especially a double tower over a gate or bridge.

bar-bl-tu-rate (bahr-bich-u-rit) n. a kind of sedative drug.

bar-bl-tu-ric (bahr-bi-toor-ik) acid a white crystalline substance from which barbiturates are derived.

bar-ca-role, bar-ca-rolle (bahr-kair-ole) n. a gondolier's song, a song in this style.

bard (bahrhd) n. 1. a Celtic minstrel. 2. a poet. □ the Bard of Avon, Shakespeare.

bare (bair) adj. & adv. (bar'er, bar'est) 1. without clothing or covering; trees were bare, leafless; with one's bare hands, without tools or weapons. 2. exposed, undisguised, lay bare the truth. 3. plain, without detail, the bare facts. 4. empty of stores, cupboard was bare. 5. only just sufficient, the bare necessities of life. bare v. (bared, bar-ing) to uncover, to reveal, bared its teeth in a snarl.

bare'ness n.

bare-back (bair-bak) adj. & adv. on a horse without a saddle.

bare-faced (bair-fayst) adj. 1. with the face uncovered. 2. shameless, undisguised.

bare-foot (bair-fuut), bare-foot-ed (bair-fuut-id) adj. & adv. with bare feet.

bare-hand-ed (bair-han-did) adj. & adv. without tools or weapons.

bare-head-ed (bair-hed-id) adj. & adv. not wearing a hat.

bare-ly (bair-leee) adv. scarcely, only just.

bar-fly (bahr-flu) n. (pl. -flies) (informal) a person who frequents bars.

bar-gain (bahr-gain) n. 1. an agreement made with obligations on both or all sides. 2. something obtained as a result of this. 3. a thing bought cheaply. bargain v. 1. to discuss—the terms of an agreement. 2. to be prepared for, to expect, didn't bargain on his arriving so early; got more than she bargained for, was unpleasantly surprised. □ into the bargain, in addition to other things.

barge (bahrj) n. a large flat-bottomed boat for use on canals or rivers, especially for carrying goods. barge v. ( barged, barg-ing) 1. to transport by barge. 2. to move clumsily or heavily. □ barge in, to intrude.

barge-man (bahrj-mahn) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) a man in charge of or working on a barge.
bar·i·tone (bar-i-tohn) n. 1. a male voice between tenor and bass. 2. a singer with such a voice, a part written for this.

bar·i·um (bar-i-üm) n. 1. a soft silvery-white metal. 2. a chemical substance swallowed or injected into the digestive tract when this is to be x-rayed.

bark¹ (bahrk) n. the outer layer of tree trunks and branches. bark v. 1. to peel bark from. 2. to scrape the skin off accidentally, barked my shins.

bark² n. the sharp harsh sound made by a dog or fox. bark v. 1. to make this sound. 2. to speak in a sharp commanding voice, barked out orders. □ bark up the wrong tree, to direct one's effort or complaint in the wrong direction. his bark is worse than his bite, he speaks harshly but does not behave thus.

bar* n. a three-masted ship.

bar·keep·er (bahr-keep-ər) n. a person who owns or tends a bar serving alcoholic drinks.

bar·ker (bahr·man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -män) a male attendant at a bar serving alcohol.

bar·mitz·vah (bahr mitz-vah) 1. a religious initiation ceremony for a Jewish boy aged thirteen. 2. the boy for whom such a ceremony is held.

bar·n (bahn) n. a farm building for storing grain, hay, etc. and housing livestock. □ bar·n owl, an owl that often breeds and roosts in barns and other buildings.

bar·na·cle (bahr-nák′l) n. a kind of shellfish that attaches itself to objects under water.

bar·n·storm (bahrn-storm) v. to travel and present theatrical productions or make speeches in the countryside or in small towns.

bar·n·yard (bahrn-yahrd) n. a yard or fenced area.

bar·o·gram (bar-ō-gram) n. a record of variations in atmospheric pressure.

bar·o·graph (bar-ō-graf) n. a barometer with an apparatus for making a barogram. bar·o·graph·ic (bar-ō-graf-ik) adj.

bar·o·me·ter (bar-ō-me·ter) n. an instrument measuring atmospheric pressure, used for forecasting the weather. bar·o·me·try (bar-ō-me·trī) n.

bar·on (bar·on) n. 1. a member of the lowest rank of the British peerage (called Lord _____), or of other nobility (called Baron ____). 2. a magnate; a newspaper baron, one controlling many newspapers.

bar·on·ess (bar-ō-nis) n. 1. the wife or widow of a baron. 2. a woman with a baronial title in her own right.

bar·on·et (bar-ō-nit, bar-ō-net) n. a British nobleman ranking below a baron but above a knight, having the title "Sir."

bar·on·et·cy (bar-ō-nit·see) n. (pl. -cies) the rank of a baronet.

bar·ro·ni·al (bahr·ro·ni·al) adj. of or suitable for a baron.

bar·o·ny (bar·ō·ni) n. (pl. -nies) the rank or lands of a baron.

bar·o·que (bahr·o·que) adj. of the ornate architectural style of the 17th and 18th centuries. bar·o·que n. this style or ornamentation.

ba·rouche (bahr·oo sh) n. a four-wheeled horse-drawn carriage with a seat in front for the driver, and seats inside for two couples facing each other.

bar·acks (bahr·aks) n. (sing. also as pl.) a large building or group of buildings for soldiers to live in.

bar·ra·cu·da (bahr·ah-ko·da) n. (pl. -da, -das) a voracious fish found in warm seas.

bar·rage (bahr·aj) n. 1. an artificial barrier, especially one damming a river. 2. a heavy continuous bombardment by artillery. 3. a rapid fire of questions or comments.

bar·ra·try (bahr·a·try) n. (pl. -tries) 1. the purchase or sale of ecclesiastical promotions or offices of state. 2. annoying persistence in or incitement to litigation. 3. fraud or criminal negligence by a ship's master or crew.

bar·red (bahr·ed) see bar¹.

bar·rel (bahr·el) n. 1. a large round container with flat ends. 2. the amount this contains. 3. a tubelike part, especially of a gun. barrel v. (bar·reled, bar·rel·ing) 1. to put into barrels. 2. (slang) to travel at a very high speed. □ barrel organ, an instrument from which music is produced by turning a handle and so causing a pin-studded cylinder to act on keys. barrel roll, a maneuver by an airplane that makes a complete rotation about its longitudinal axis. over a barrel, (informal) in a helpless position.

bar·ren (bar·en) adj. 1. not fertile enough to produce crops, barren land. 2. not producing fruit or seeds, a barren tree. 3. unable to have young ones. barren n. 1. barren land. 2. elevated plains on which grow small trees and shrubs but barrette / basket

no timber. bar' ren-ly adv. bar' ren- ness n.

bar-rette (bā-ret') n. a bar-shaped clip for a woman's hair.

bar- ri-cade (bā-rē-kād') n. a barrier, especially one hastily erected as a defense. barricade v. (bar'-rē-kād-ed, bar'- rī-kād-ing) to block or defend with a barricade.

bar-ri-er (bā-rē-ər) n. something that prevents or controls advance, access, or progress. barrier reef, a coral reef with a channel between it and the land.

bar-ri-o (bā-rē-o) n. (pl. -rē-os) 1. a Hispanic quarter of a U.S. city. 2. a district of a town in a Hispanic country.

bar-ri-sā-ter (bā-rē-sā-tər) n. (British) a lawyer entitled to represent clients in the higher law courts.

bar-room (bār-room) n. a room in which alcoholic drinks are sold.

bar-row 1 (bār-ō) n. 1. a wheelbarrow. 2. a small cart with two wheels and shafts so it can be pulled or pushed by hand.

bar-row 2 n. a prehistoric burial mound.

barrow 2 n. a male hog.

Bar. abbr. Baronet.

bar-ten-der (bār-ten-dər) n. a person who prepares and sells alcoholic drinks at a bar.

bar-ter (bār-tər) v. to trade by exchanging goods etc. for other goods, not for money. barter n. trading by exchange.

bas-al (bās-əl) adj. of or at the base.

basal metabolism, the minimum amount of energy needed by an organism at rest.

ba-salt (bā-sawlt) n. a kind of dark rock of volcanic origin. ba-sal'tic adj.

base (bāz) n. 1. the lowest part of anything, the part on which it rests or is supported. 2. a basic or fundamental part, the main ingredient. 3. a starting point. 4. the headquarters of an expedition or other enterprise. 5. a place at which an expedition or force stores its supplies. 6. a substance into which other things are mixed, some paints have an oil base. 7. a cream or liquid applied to the skin as a foundation for makeup. 8. a substance (as an alkali) capable of combining with an acid to form a salt. 9. one of the four stations at the corners of a baseball diamond, especially the first three (excluding home plate). base v. (based, bas-ing) to use as a base or foundation or as evidence for a forecast. base adj. (bas'er, bas'est) 1. honorable, base motives. 2. of inferior value, base metals. 3. debased, not of acceptable quality, base coins. base'ly adv. base' ness n. □ base exchange, a post exchange at an air force base.

a hit enabling the batter to reach first base safely. base on balls (pl. bases on balls), advancement of a batter to first base after four balls. off base, (informal) mistaken.

base-ball (bāz-bāl, bāz-bōl) n. 1. a team game played with a bat and a ball on a field with four bases arranged in a diamond and in which runs are scored by hitting a ball, getting walks, etc. and circling the bases. 2. the ball used in this game.

base-board (bāz-bohrd) n. a narrow board around the wall of a room, close to the floor.

base-born (bāz-born) adj. 1. of illegitimate birth. 2. born of humble family. 3. contemptible.

base-less (bāz-lis) adj. without foundation, baseless rumors.

base-line (bāz-līn) n. 1. a known line used as a geometrical base in trigonometry. 2. the line at each end of a tennis court. 3. the line between successive bases in baseball.

base-ment (bāz-mēnt) n. the lowest story of a building, below ground level.

bash (bāsh) v. 1. to strike violently. 2. to attack with blows. bash n. 1. a violent blow or knock. 2. (slang) a party, a festive good time.

bash-ful (bāsh-fūl) adj. shy and self-conscious. bash'ful-ly adv. bash'ful-ness n.

ba-sic (bā-sīk) adj. 1. forming a base or starting point, fundamental, basic principles. 2. of a chemical base. ba'si-cal-ly adv.

ba-sil (bā-zil) n. a sweet-smelling herb.

ba-sil-ic (bā-sil-ik) n. 1. a large oblong hall or church with two rows of columns and an apse at one end. 2. a church or cathedral granted ceremonial privileges.

ba-sil-isk (bā-sil-isk) n. a mythical reptile said to cause death by its glance or breath.

ba-sin (bā-sin) n. 1. a round open dish for holding liquids or soft substances. 2. this with its contents, the amount it contains. 3. a washbasin. 4. a sunken place where water collects; a river basin, the area drained by a river. 5. an almost landlocked harbor, a yacht basin.

ba-sin-fu1 n. (pl. -fūla).

ba-sis (bā-sis) n. (pl. -ses, pr. -sees) a foundation or support, a main principle.

bask (bāsk) v. 1. to expose oneself comfortably to a pleasant warmth. 2. to enjoy someone's approval.

ba-set (bā-set) n. 1. a container for holding or carrying things, made of interwoven flexible material. 2. this with its basketball / bathrobe contents. bas'ket-ful n. (pl. -fuls).

basket case, (slang) a person whose four limbs have been amputated; a completely ineffectual person. basket weave, a weave of textiles that looks like the weave of a basket.

basket-ball (basket-ball) n. 1. a game played on a court (basketball court) by two teams of five players each, in which points are scored by throwing a ball through a raised hoop. 2. the ball used in this.

basket-work (basket-work) n. 1. a structure of interwoven rushes, twigs, etc. 2. the art of making this.

bas'mit-vah (bahts mits-vah) bat mitz-vah (baht mits-vah) n. 1. a religious initiation ceremony for a Jewish girl aged thirteen. 2. the girl for whom such a ceremony is held.

Basque (bask) n. 1. a member of a people living in the western Pyrenees. 2. their language.

bas-ref-ief (bah-ri-ref) n. a sculpture or carving in low relief.

bas (bas) n. (pl. bass) a spiny-finned sport and food fish of the perch family.

bass (bays) adj. deep-sounding, of the lowest pitch in music. basso (also basso) n. 1. the lowest male voice, a singer with such a voice. 2. a part written for this. 3. the lowest pitched member of a group of similar musical instruments.

bas-set (bas-it) n. (also basset hound) a dog of a short-legged breed with long ears.

bas-stil-net (bas-i-net) n. a hooded cradle for a baby.

bas-so (bas-oh) n. (pl. bas-sos, bas-si, pr. bas-e) a man with a base voice.

bass profundus, an unusually deep bass voice, a singer with such a voice.

bas-soon (ba-soon) n. a deep-toned woodwind instrument. bas-soon'ist n.

bas-wood (bas-wood) n. 1. the linden tree of North America. 2. its wood.

bass (bass) n. 1. the inner bark of the linden tree or basswood, cut into strips and coarsely woven, to make matting etc. 2. a similar fiber from palms used for ropes, brooms, etc. 3. any flexible or fibrous bark.

bas-tard (bas-tard) n. 1. an illegitimate child. 2. (vulgar slang) an unpleasant or difficult person or thing. bastard adj. 1. of illegitimate birth. 2. not considered a genuine specimen of its kind. bas-tard'ly adj. bas-tard-ly n.

bas-tardize (bas-tard-ize) (bas-tard-ize) v. (bas-tardized, bas-tard-ize'ing) 1. to declare or make (a person) a bastard. 2. to lower in quality or value. bas-tard-ize' tion (bas-tardized, bas-tard-ize'ing) n.

baste (bast) v. (bast-ed, bast-ing) 1. to moisten with fat during cooking. 2. to thrash.

baste (bast-ed, bast-ing) v. to sew together temporarily with long loose stitches.

bas-ti-na-do (bas-tee-nay-doh) n. (pl. -does) a beating given on the soles of the feet. bastinado v. (bas-ti-na-doed, bas-ti-na-doing) to punish by this.

bas-ton (bas-ton) n. 1. a projecting part of a fortification. 2. a fortified place near hostile territory. 3. something serving as a stronghold, a bastion of democracy.

bat (bat) n. 1. a heavy stick. 2. a shaped wooden implement for striking the ball in baseball etc. 3. a sharp blow. 4. (in baseball) a turn batting. bat v. (bat-ted, bat-ted) 1. to use a bat, to take one's turn at this. 2. to strike with a bat, to hit. bat (bat, baseball) batting.

bat n. a flying mammal with a mouselike body. blind as a bat, completely blind. have bats in the belfry, (informal) to be crazy or eccentric.

bat v. (bat-ted, bat-ted) to flutter, it batted its wings; didn't bat an eyelid, did not show any surprise.

bat (bat) n. 1. a boy or young man who assists baseball batters by taking care of their bats.

batch (batch) n. 1. a number of loaves or cakes baked at the same time. 2. a number of people or things dealt with as a group, a batch of recruits.

ba-teau (ba-to) n. (pl. -teaux) a light river boat, especially the long, tapering, flat-bottomed boat used by French Canadians.

bat-ted (bay-tid) adj. lessened. with bated breath, with breath held anxiously.

bath (bath) n. (pl. baths, pr. bathz, baths) 1. washing of the whole body by immersing it in water. 2. water for this. 3. a bathtub. 4. a bathroom. 5. a liquid in which something is immersed, its container. 6. baths, a building with rooms where baths may be taken.

bathe (ba-th) v. (bathed, bath-ing) 1. to apply liquid to, to immerse in liquid. 2. to make wet or bright all over, fields were bathed in sunlight. 3. to swim for pleasure. bath'er n. bathing suit, a garment worn for swimming.

bath-house (bath-hows) n. a building with dressing rooms for bathers.

ba-thos (bay-thos) n. 1. descent from something important to something trivial in speech or writing. 2. excessive pathos.

ba-thet-ic (ba-thet-ik) adj.

bath-robe (bath-roob) n. a loose garment, often of absorbent material and resembling a dressing gown, worn before and after a bath.

bath•room (bath-room) n. a room containing a bathtub or shower and usually a washbowl and toilet.

bath•tub (bath-tub) n. a large container for water, in which one sits to wash all over.

bath•y•scaphe (bath-i-skayf), bath•y•scape (bath-i-skayp) n. a vessel that can travel under water for deep-sea diving and exploration.

bath•y•sphere (bath-i-sfeer) n. a spherical diving apparatus for deep-sea observation.

ba•tik (ba-teek) n. 1. a method of printing colored designs on textiles by waxing the parts not to be dyed. 2. a fabric treated in this way.

ba•tiste (ba-tees) n. a very soft fine woven fabric.

bat•man (bat-man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mén) (British) a soldier acting as an officer's orderly.

bat•mitz•vah see bas mitzvah.

ba•ton (ba-ton) n. 1. a short thick stick, especially one serving as a symbol of authority, a truncheon. 2. a thin stick used by the conductor of an orchestra for beating time. 3. a short stick or tube carried in relay races.

Bat•on Rouge (bat-on roozh) the capital of Louisiana.

ba•tra•chi•an (bā-tray-ki-ān) n. a tailless amphibian, such as a frog or toad. ba-trachian adj.

bats•man (bats-mān) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mén) a player who is batting, especially in cricket.

bat•tal•ion (bā-tal-yōn) n. 1. an army unit made up of several companies and forming part of a regiment. 2. (informal) a large organized body of people.

bat•ten (bat-en) n. a strip of wood or metal fastening or holding something in place. batten v. to fasten with battens; batten down the hatches; close them securely.

batten v. 1. to make or become fat. 2. to thrive or prosper at the expense of others or so as to injure them; politicians batten on graft.

bat•ter (bat-ér) v. to hit hard and often; battered babies, battered wives, those subjected to repeated violence. batter n. 1. a beaten mixture of flour, eggs, and milk for cooking. 2. a player at bat in baseball.

battering ram; a beam formerly used in war to breach walls or gates.

bat•ter•y (bat-ē-ree) n. (pl. -ter•ies) 1. a group of big guns on land or on a warship. 2. an artillery unit of guns, men, and vehicles. 3. a set of similar or connected units or items, a whole battery of telephones. 4. an electric cell or group of cells supplying current. 5. unlawful blows or a menacing touch on a person or his clothes. 6. the pitcher and the catcher of a baseball team.

bat•ting (bat-ing) n. a cotton or wool in sheets, forquilting etc.

bat•tle (bat-ēl) n. 1. a fight between large organized forces. 2. any contest, a battle of wits. 3. victory; confidence is half the battle, a help toward success. battle v. (bat•tled, bat•ting) to engage in battle, to struggle. □ battle cry, a war cry, a slogan. battle fatigue, mental disorder due to stress in wartime combat.

bat•tle•ax (bat-ēl-aks) n. 1. a heavy ax used as a weapon in ancient times. 2. (informal) a formidable aggressive woman.

bat•tle•field (bat-ēl-feel’d) n. a place where a battle is or was fought.

bat•tle•ground (bat-ēl-ground) n. a battlefield.

bat•tle•ment (bat-ēl-mēnt) n. a parapet with gaps at intervals, originally for firing from.

bat•tle•ship (bat-ēl-ship) n. the most heavily armed and armored kind of warship.

bat•tle•wagon (bat-ēl-wagon) n. (slang) a battleship.

bat•ty (bat-ē) adj. (-ti•er, -ti•est) (slang) crazy. bat’ti•ness n.

bau•ble (baw-bēl) n. a showy but valueless ornament or fancy article.

baux•ite (baw-sit) n. the claylike substance from which aluminum is obtained.

bux•it•ic (baw-sit•ik) adj.

bawd (bawd) n. a procurer.

bawd•y (baw-dee) adj. (bawd•i•er, bawd•i•est) humorous in a coarse or indecent way. bawd•i•ly adv. bawd•i•ness n.

bawl (bawl) v. to shout or cry loudly. bawl n. 1. a howl or shout. 2. loud weeping. □ bawl a person out, (informal) to scold him severely.

bay (bay) n. a kind of laurel with deep green leaves that are dried and used for seasoning. □ bay leaf, this seasoning, used in soups, stews, etc.

bay n. a part of the sea or of a large lake within a wide curve of the shore.

bay n. a compartment or recess in a room, building, structure, or area, a parking bay. □ bay window, a window projecting from the outside wall of a house; (informal) a man's large protruding stomach.

bay n. the deep drawn-out cry of a large dog or of hounds in pursuit of a hunted animal. bay v. to make this sound.

[Box] at bay, forced to face attackers and showing defiance in a desperate situation.

hold at bay, to ward off.

bay² adj. reddish-brown. bay n. a bay horse.

bay-ber-ry (bay-ber-ee) n. (pl. -ries) 1. a shrub of eastern North America, bearing small gray-green berries. 2. a West Indian tree, the leaves of which are used in making bay rum.

bay-o-net (bay-ō-nit) n. a daggerlike blade that can be fixed to the muzzle of a rifle and used in hand-to-hand fighting. bayonet v. (bay-o-net-ed, bay-o-net-ing) to stab with a bayonet.

bay-ou (br-oo) n. (pl. -ous) a marshy inlet or stagnant creek.

bay rum a fragrant liquid made from bay leaves, used as an astrigent.

ba-zaar (bā-zahr) n. 1. a series of shops or stalls, especially in an Oriental country. 2. a sale of goods to raise funds, especially for charity.

BB (bee-bee) n. a pellet shot for firing from an air rifle.

B.B.A. abbr. Bachelor of Business Administration.

bbl. abbr. barrel.

bd. abbr. 1. board. 2. bond. 3. bound.

B.D. abbr. Bachelor of Divinity.

bdl. abbr. bundle.

bdrm. abbr. bedroom.

be (bee) v. (am, are, is; was, were; been; being) 1. to exist, to occur, to live, to occupy a position. 2. to have a certain identity or quality or condition; how much is it? what does it cost? 3. to equal, to become, he wants to be a pilot. be auxiliary verb, used to form parts of other verbs, as in it is rising; he was laughing; I am to inform you, it is my duty to inform you. be-all and end-all, the supreme purpose or essence. be that as it may, no matter what the facts about it may be. have been, to have visited, I have been to Cairo. let it be, do not disturb it, do not change it or act upon it. Do not use being as how or being that in place of because or as in such expressions as because he is here and as she was our principal speaker.

Be symbol beryllium.

B.E. abbr. Board of Education.

beach (beech) n. the shore between high and low water mark, covered with sand or waterworn pebbles. beach v. to bring on shore from out of the water. beach bean (beet) n. 1. a plant bearing seeds in long pods. 2. its seed used as a vegetable. 3. a similar seed of coffee and other plants. □bean curd, a creamy white cake of soybean cheese used in Oriental cooking. full of beans, (informal) in high spirits; full of nonsense or petty lies.

bean v. (slang) to hit on the head.

bean-ball (been-bawl) n. a baseball deliberately thrown by the pitcher at the batter's head.

bean-le (bee-nee) n. a small close-fitting hat worn on the top of the head.

bean-pole (been-pohl) n. 1. a pole for supporting growing bean plants. 2. (informal) a tall thin person.

bear (bair) n. 1. a large heavy animal with thick fur. 2. a rough ill-mannered person.

bear market, (on the stock exchange) a situation in which stock prices are falling rapidly. the Great Bear, the Little Bear, constellations near the North Star.

bear v. (bore, borne, bearing; see the note under borne). 1. to carry, to support; bear oneself bravely, to behave bravely. 2. to have or show a certain mark or characteristic, he still bears the scar; bears an honored name, has it as his own or a family name. 3. to have in one's heart or mind, bear a grudge; I will bear it in mind, will remember it. 4. to endure, to tolerate, grin and bear it. 5. to be fit for, his words won't bear repeating. 6. to produce, to give birth to, she had borne him two sons. 7. to turn, to diverge, bear right when the road forks. 8. to exert pressure, to thrust.

bear down, to press downward; to work harder. bear down on, to move rapidly or purposefully toward. bear on, to be relevant to, matters bearing on public health. bear out, to confirm. bear up, to be strong enough not to give way or despair. bear with, to tolerate patiently. bear witness to, to provide evidence of the truth of. It was borne in upon him, he was convinced.

bearable (bair-able) adj. able to be borne, endurable. bearably adv.

beard (beerd) n. 1. hair on and around a man's chin. 2. a similar hairy or bristly growth of hair on an animal or plant.

beard v. to confront boldly; beard the lion in his den, confront and oppose someone in his own stronghold.

bearded (beer-did) adj. beardedless adj.

bearer (bair-er) n. 1. a person who carries or bears something; this check is payable to the bearer, to the person who presents it at a bank. 2. a person who helps to carry something, (as a coffin to the grave, or a stretcher).

bearing (bair-ing) n. 1. departure, behavior, a military bearing. 2. relationship, relevance, it has no bearing on this problem. 3. a compass direction; get one's bearings, find out where one is by recognizing landmarks etc. 4. a device reducing friction in a part of a machine where another part turns.

beartful (bair-skin) n. 1. the skin or fur of a bear. 2. a rug, coat, hat, etc. made from this.

beast (beest) n. 1. a large four-footed animal. 2. a cruel or disgusting person.

beastly (beest-lee) adj. (-ill-er, -ill-est) 1. like a beast or its ways. 2. abominable, very unpleasant. beastly adv. very unpleasantly, it was beastly cold.

beastlike n.

beatings (beat) v. (beat, beat-en, beating) 1. to hit repeatedly, especially with a stick; we heard the drums beating, being beaten. 2. to strike; the sun beat down, shone with great heat. 3. to shape or flatten by blows; beat a path, make it by trampling things down. 4. to mix vigorously to a frothy or smooth consistency, beat the eggs. 5. (of the heart) to expand and contract rhythmically. 6. to overcome, to do better than, to act or arrive before (another); it beats me, is too difficult for me. □beat about the bush, to discuss a subject without coming to the point. beat a person down, to cause a seller to lower the price he is asking. beat a retreat, to go away defeated. beaten path or track, a well-worn path, the expected or usual way. beat it, (slang) to go away. beat off, to drive off by fighting. beat up, to assault violently with the fists.

beating (beat) n. 1. a regular repeated stroke, a sound of this. 2. a recurring emphasis marking rhythm in music or poetry, the strongly marked rhythm of popular music. 3. the appointed round of a policeman or newspaper reporter; the area covered by this. 4. a beatnik.

beat adj. 1. tired. 2. relating to young people of the 1960's with unconventional dress and behavior as an expression of social philosophy, the beat generation.

beater (bee-ttr) n. 1. an implement for beating things. 2. a person employed to drive game out of cover toward those waiting with guns to shoot it.

beatiful (bee-à-tif-i-k) adj. showing great happiness, a beatific smile.

beatitude (bi-at-i-fay-shan) n. the pope's official statement that a dead person is among the blessed in heaven, the first step toward canonization.
be-at-1-ly (be-at-1-fi) v. (be-at-1-fied, be-at-1-ly-ing) to honor by beatification.

be-at-ing (bee-ing) n. 1. punishment by being hit with a stick etc. 2. a defeat.

be-at-1-tude (be-at-1-tood) n. blessedness.

the BeatitudeS, the declarations made by Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount, beginning "Blessed are..."

be-at-nik (beet-nik) n. a member of the beat generation (see beat3).

beau (boh) n. (pl. beaux, beaux, pr. bohz) 1. a fop or dandy. 2. a suitor or sweetheart.

beau•fort (boh-fort) scale a scale and description of wind velocity ranging from (calm) to (hurricane).

beau geste (boh zhest) (pl. beaux gestes, pr. boh zhest) a display of generous conduct.

beau l-deal (boh l-deel) one's highest or ideal type of excellence or beauty.

Beau•jo•lais (boh-zho-lay) n. a red or white burgundy wine from Beaujolais, France.

beau monde (boh mond) fashionable society.

beaut (byoot) n. (slang) a beauty, a fine specimen, when I make a mistake, it's a beauty.

beau•te•ous (byoo-ti-ús) adj. (old use) beautiful. beau-te-ous-ly adv. beau-te-ous-ness n.

beau•ti•clan (byoo-tish-an) n. a person whose job is to give beautifying treatments to the face or body.

beau•ti•ful (byoo-ti-ful) adj. 1. having beauty, giving pleasure to the senses or the mind. 2. (informal) very satisfactory. beau-ti•ful-ly adv. beau-ti•fully adj.

beau-ti•ful•ty (byoo-te-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. a combination of qualities that give pleasure to the sight or other senses or to the mind. 2. a person or thing having this, a beautiful woman. 3. a fine specimen, here's a beauty. 4. a beautiful feature; that's the beauty of it, the point that gives satisfaction. beauty parlor or shop, a beauty salon. beauty queen, a woman judged to be the most beautiful in a competition. beauty salon, an establishment for giving beautifying treatments to the face, body, etc. beauty sleep, sleep that is said to make or keep a person beautiful. beauty spot, a place with beautiful scenery; a birthmark or artificial patch on the face, said to heighten beauty.

beaux arts (boh zahr) the fine arts.

bea•ver (bee-ver) n. 1. a soft-furred animal with strong teeth that lives both on land and in water. 2. its brown fur. 3. (informal) a hard worker.

be•calm (bi-kahm) v. to make (a sailing ship) unable to move because of lack of wind. be•calmed adj.

be•came (bi-kaym) see become.

be•cause (bi-kawz) conj. for the reason that, did it because I was asked. because adv. by reason, on account, because of his age. Do not say or write the reason is because. Also see the note under due.

be•cha•mel (bay-sha-mel) sauce a rich white sauce of butter, flour, cream, and seasoning.

beck (bek) n. a beckoning gesture.

at someone's beck and call, always ready and waiting to obey his orders.

beck•on (bek-on) v. 1. to signal or summon by a gesture. 2. to attract.

be•cloud (bi-klowd) v. 1. to cover with clouds. 2. to obscure.

be•come (bi-kum) v. (be•came, be•come, be•com•ing) 1. to come or grow to be, to begin to be, she became a doctor; ask what has become of it, ask what happened to it, or where it is. 2. to suit, to be becoming to.

be•com•ing (bi-kum•ing) adj. giving a pleasing appearance or effect, suitable.

be•com•ing•ly adv.

bed (bed) n. 1. a thing to sleep or rest on, a piece of furniture with a mattress and coverings. 2. a mattress, a feather bed. 3. the use of a bed, being in bed, a quick drink and then bed; go to bed, retire there to sleep. 4. a flat base on which something rests, a foundation. 5. the bottom of the sea or river etc. 6. a layer, a bed of clay. 7. a garden plot for plants.

bed v. (bed•ded, bed•ding) 1. to provide with a place to sleep, to put to bed. 2. to place or fix in a foundation, the bricks are bedded in concrete. 3. to plant in a garden bed, he was bedding out seedlings. no bed of roses, not a pleasant or easy situation.

be•daub (bi-dawb) v. to smear or daub with paint, mud, etc.

be•daz•zle (bi-daz•zle) v. (be•daz•zled, be•daz•zling) 1. to dazzle completely. 2. to confuse (a person). be•daz•zle•ment n.

bed•bug (bed-bug) n. a bloodsucking insect infesting beds.

bed•ding (bed-ing) n. mattresses and bedclothes.

be•deck (bi-dek) v. to adorn.

be•dev•il (bi-dev-il) v. (be•dev•iled, be·dev·il·ling) to torment diabolically, to plague. be·dev·il·ment n.
be·dew (bi-doo, -dyoo) v. to cover with drops of or like dew.
bed·fast (bed-fast) adj. bedridden.
bed·fel·low (bed-fel-oh) n. 1. a person who shares one’s bed. 2. an associate; politics makes strange bedfellows, obliges unlikely people to associate together.
be·di·zen (bi-dr-zén) v. to deck out gaudily.
bed·lam (bed-lam) n. 1. (old use) a mental institution. 2. a scene of uproar.
Bed·ou·in (bed-oo-in) n. (pl. -ins, -in) a member of an Arab people living in tents in the desert.
bed·pan (bed-pan) n. a pan for use as a toilet by a person confined to bed.
bed·post (bed-pohst) n. one of the upright supports of a bedstead.
be·drag·gled (bi-drag·gld) adj. hanging in a limp untidy way, especially when wet or when dirty and disordered.
be·rid·den (bed-rid·en) n. confined to bed through illness or weakness, especially permanently.
bed·rock (bed-rok) n. 1. solid rock beneath loose soil. 2. basic facts or principles.
bed·roll (bed-rol) n. bedding rolled into a bundle.
bed·room (bed-room) n. a room for sleeping in.
bed·side (bed-sid) n. a position by a bed; a bed-side table, one for placing by a bed.
bedside manner, the attitude of a doctor toward his patient.
bed·sore (bed-sohr) n. a sore developed by lying in bed for a long time.
bed·spread (bed-spreed) n. a covering spread over a bed during the day.
bed·stead (bed-sted) n. a wooden or metal framework supporting the springs and mattress of a bed.
bed·time (bed-tim) n. a time for going to bed.
bee (bee) n. 1. a four-winged stinging insect that produces wax and honey after gathering nectar from flowers. 2. a neighborly gathering for work and socializing, as a husking bee (to husk corn) or quilting bee (to sew patchwork quilts).
be·have a bee in one’s bonnet, to have a particular idea that occupies one’s thoughts continually. make a beeline for, to go straight or rapidly toward. spelling bee, a competition in spelling.
beech (beech) n. (pl. beech·es or beech) 1. a kind of tree with smooth bark and glossy leaves. 2. its wood. 3. (also beech-nut) its small triangular nut.
beech·en adj.
beef (beef) n. (pl. beevz, pr. beevz, for 2. beefs) for 4) 1. the flesh of a steer, bull, or cow used as meat. 2. the animal itself. 3. muscular strength, brawn. 4. (slang) a complaint. beef v. (slang) to complain. beef tea, the juice from stewed beef, for invalids. beef up, (informal) to strengthen.
beef·burg·er (beef-bur·gär) n. a hamburger.
beef·eat·er (beef-ce·tär) n. a guard in the Tower of London, or a member of the Yeomen of the Guard, wearing Tudor dress as uniform.
beef·steak (beef-stayk) n. a slice of beef for broiling or frying.
beef·y (bee·fee) adj. (beef·i·er, beef·i·est) having a solid muscular body.
beef·i·ness n.
beef·hiv·er (bee-hiv·r) n. a hive.
beef·keep·er (bee·kee·pär) n. a person who raises bees. beef·keep·ing n.
been (bin) see be.
be·er (beer) n. an alcoholic drink brewed from malt and hops.
beery (beer·ee) adj. (beer·i·er, beer·i·est) like beer, smelling of beer.
bees·wax (beez·waks) n. a yellowish substance secreted by bees, used for polishing wood.
beet (beet) n. a plant with a fleshy root used as a vegetable or for making sugar.
beet·le (beet·l) n. an insect with four wings, the outer pair being hard.
beet·le·ly (bi-fawl) v. (be·fell, be·fall·en, be·fall·ing) (formal) to happen, to happen to.
be·fit (bi-fit) v. (be·fit·ted, be·fit·ting) to be right and suitable for. be·fit·ting·ly adv.
be·fog (bi-fog) v. (be·fogged, be·fog·ging) 1. to envelop in fog. 2. to confuse, to obscure.
be·fore (bi-fohr) adv., conj. & prep. 1. at an earlier time, earlier than. 2. ahead, ahead of, in front of; they sailed before the wind, under its impulse, with the wind behind them; appeared before the judge, in his presence for judgment. 3. rather than, in preference to, death before dishonor! before Christ, before the birth of Christ.
be·fore·hand (bi-fohr·hand) adv. in advance, in readiness.
be·foul (bi-fowr) v. to make foul or dirty.
be·friend (bi-frend) v. to act as a friend to, to be kind and helpful to.
be·fud·dle (bi-fud·ēl) v. (be·fud·dled, be·fud·dling) 1. to stupefy with alcobeg (beg) v. (begged, beg-ging) 1. to ask for as charity or as a gift, to obtain a living in this way. 2. to request earnestly or humbly. 3. to ask for formally, I beg your pardon; beg to differ, take the liberty of disagreeing. 4. (of a dog) to sit up expectantly, as it has been trained, with forepaws off the ground. □ beg off, to ask to be excused from doing something. beg the question, to use circular reasoning (see circular definition 3). go begging, (of things) to be available but unwanted.

be-get (bi-get) v. (be-got, be-gotten, be-get-ting) 1. to be the father of. 2. to give rise to, war begets misery and ruin.

beg-gar (beg-är) n. a person who lives by begging, a very poor person. beg-gar v. 1. to reduce to poverty. 2. to make seem poor or inadequate; the scenery beggars description, is so magnificent that any description is inadequate. beg-gar-y n.

beg-gar-ly (beg-är-lee) adj. 1. poverty-stricken. 2. mean and insufficient, a beggarly salary.

be-gin (bi-gin) v. (be-gan, be-gun, be-gin-ning) 1. to perform the earliest or first part of some activity, to be the first to do something; I can’t begin to thank you, cannot thank you enough. 2. to come into existence, to arise. 3. to have its first element or starting point. □ to begin with, as the first thing.

be-gin-ner (bi-gin-er) n. a person who is just beginning to learn a skill.

be-gin-ning (bi-gin-ing) n. 1. the first part. 2. the starting point, the source or origin.

be-gone (bi-gawn) v. (especially as a command) to go away immediately, begone with you!

be-go-nia (bi-gohn-yä) n. a garden plant with brightly colored leaves and flowers.

be-grime (bi-grim) v. (be-grimed, be-grim-ing) to make dirty.

be-grudge (bi-gruj) v. (be-grudged, be-grudg-ing) 1. to grudge. 2. to do, give, or concede reluctantly or with ill will or annoyance.

be-guile (bi-gül) v. (be-gulled, be-gull-ing) 1. to deceive. 2. to win the attention or interest of, to amuse. 3. to coax by flattery or cunning. be-guile’ment n.

be-guine (bi-gūen) n. 1. a native dance of tropical America. 2. a ballroom dance based on this. 3. a kind of syncopated bolero dance rhythm.

be-gum (bee-gūm) n. an Indian Muslim woman of high rank.

be-gun (bi-gun) see begin.

be-half (bi-haf) n. on behalf of, in aid of; as the representative of, speaking on behalf of his client.

be-have (bi-hav) v. (be-haved, be-hav-ing) 1. to act, react, or function in some specified way. 2. to show good manners, the child must learn to behave or to behave himself.

be-hav-ior (bi-hav-yór) n. a way of behaving, treatment of others, manners; on one’s best behavior, taking care to behave well. be-hav-ior-al (bi-hav-yór-ál) adj.

be-hav-ior-ism (bi-hav-yór-iz-əm) n. a school of psychology holding that psychological understanding should be based only on observation of animal and human behavior and stressing the importance of environmental factors in determining this behavior.

be-head (bi-head) v. to cut the head from, to execute (a person) in this way.

be-he-moth (bi-hee-mōth) n. an enormous creature.

behest (bi-hest) n. 1. a command. 2. an earnest request.

be-hind (bi-hind) adv. 1. in or to the rear; he was lagging behind, did not keep up with the others; stayed behind, stayed after others had left. 2. late, slow. behind prep. 1. in the rear of, on the farther side of; put the past behind you, recognize that it is over and done with. 2. causing or supporting; ask what lies behind his refusal, what causes it; the man behind the project, supporting or promoting it. 3. having made less progress than, two students are far behind the rest of the class. 4. later than, we are behind schedule; behind time, unpunctual. □ behind a person’s back, kept secret from him deceitfully. behind the scenes, backstage, hidden from public view or knowledge. behind the times, having out-of-date ideas or practices. □ See the note at back².

be-hold (bi-hold) v. (be-held, be-hold-ing) to see, to observe. be-hold’er n.

be-hold-en (bi-hold-en) adj. owing thanks, we don’t want to be beholden to anybody.

be-hoo-ve (bi-hoov) v. (be-hooved, be-hoov-ing) to be obligatory for, to befit. beige (bayzh) n. a light fawn color.

Bel-jeong (bay-jeeng) = Peking.

be-ing (bee-ing) n. 1. existence; come into being, begin to exist; the greatest army in being, in existence. 2. something that exists and has life, especially a person. □ the Supreme Being, God.

Bel-ru-t (bay-root) the capital of Lebanon.
be·la·bor (bi-lay-bór) v. 1. to thrash, to beat repeatedly. 2. to discuss at unreasonable length.
be·la·t•ed (bi-lay-tid) adj. coming very late or too late. be·la·t'ed·ly adv.
be·lay (bi-lay) v. (be·laid, be·lay·ing) to coil (a running rope) around a cleat etc. to secure it. be·lay·ing interj. (used by seamen) stop! be·lay·ing pin, a fixed wooden or iron pin for beelaying on.
be·ch (belch) v. 1. to send out wind from the stomach noisily through the mouth. 2. to send out from an opening or funnel, to gush, the chimney was belching smoke; smoke belched out. bech n. an act or sound of belching.
be·lea·guer (bi-lee-gér) v. to besiege. be·lea'guered adj. be·lea'guer·er n.
Bel·fast (bel-fast) the capital of Northern Ireland.
bel·fry (bel-free) n. (pl. -fries) a bell tower, a space for bells in a tower.
Bel·g. abbr. Belgium.
Bel·gium (bel-júm) a country in Europe.
Bel·gian (bel-ján) adj. & n.
Bel·grade (bel-grayd) the capital of Yugoslavia.
be·lie (bi-lé) v. (be·lied, be·ly·ing) 1. to show to be false. 2. to fail to justify or fulfill. 3. to give a false impression of.
be·lief (bi-leef) n. 1. the feeling that something is real and true, trust, confidence. 2. something accepted as true, what one believes. 3. religion, something taught as part of this, Christian beliefs.
be·lie·va·ble (bel-vé-ə-bəl) adj. able to be believed.
be·lieve (bi-leev) v. (be·lied, be·ly·ing) 1. to accept as true or as speaking or conveying truth. 2. to have religious faith, to believe in God. 3. to think, to suppose, I believe it's raining. be·lieve in, to have faith in the existence of, to feel sure of the value or worth of. be·liev·er (bi-leev·ər) n. a person who believes, one with religious faith.
be·lit·tle (bi-lit·tl) v. (be·lit·ted, be·lit·ting) to imply that (a thing) is unimportant or of little value.
be·ll (bel) n. 1. a cup-shaped metal instrument that makes a ringing sound when struck. 2. the sound of this, especially as a signal; one to eight bells, the strokes of a ship's bell, indicating the half hours of each four-hour watch; eight bells, 12, 4, or 8 o'clock. 3. a bell-shaped thing. bell v. 1. to hang a bell on, who will bell the cat? 2. to widen out like a bell lip. be·ll jar, a bell-shaped glass used to protect instruments or contain gases etc. in a laboratory.
bel·la·don·na (bel·á·don·á) n. 1. deadly nightshade. 2. dried parts of this, containing atropine and related alkaloids, used in medicine as a narcotic and to dilate the pupils of the eyes.
bell·bot·tom (bel·bot·om) adj. widening from knee to ankle, bell-bottom trousers.
bel·bot·tom·s, bell-bottom trousers.
bell·boy (bel·boi) n. a man employed by a hotel or club to carry luggage, run errands, etc.
belle (bel) n. a beautiful and charming woman.
bel·les·let·tres (bel·let-rē) 1. literary studies and writings. 2. these as a branch of literature. > French.
bell·hop (bel·hop) n. a bellboy.
bel·li·cose (bel·li-kohs) adj. belligerent, eager to make war. be·li·cose·ness n. be·li·cos·i·ty (bel·li-kos·i-tee) n.
bel·lig·er·ent (bi·lij·ə·rënt) adj. 1. waging a war, the belligerent nations. 2. aggressive, showing eagerness to fight, a belligerent reply. be·lig·er·ent·ly adv. bel·lig·er·ence n. be·lig·er·en·cy n.
bel·low (bel·oh) n. 1. the loud deep sound made by a bull. 2. a deep shout. be·low v. to utter a bellow.
bel·lows (bel·ohz) n. sing. or pl. 1. an apparatus for driving air into or through something; a pair of bellows, two-handled bellows for blowing air into a fire. 2. a device or part that can be expanded or flattened in a series of folds.
bell·weth·er (bel·weth·ər) n. 1. the leading sheep of the flock, with a bell on its neck. 2. any leader.
bel·ly (bel·le) n. 1. the abdomen. 2. the stomach. 3. a bulging or rounded part of something. belly v. (bel·lied, bel·ly·ing) to swell out, the sails bellied out; wind bellied out the sails. belly dance, an oriental dance by a woman, with erotic movement of the belly; (v.) to perform this. belly dancer, one who performs a belly dance. belly flop, an awkward dive in which the body hits the water almost horizontally. belly laugh, a deep loud laugh.
bel·ly·ache (bel·ly-ayk) n. a pain in the abdomen or stomach. bellyache v. (bel·ly·ached, bel·ly·ach·ing) (slang) to complain.
bel·ly·but·ton (bel·ly·but·dun) n. (informal) the navel.
bel·ly·ful (bel·ly·ful) n. (pl. -fuls) (informal) as much as one wants or rather more.
be·long (bi·lawng) v. 1. to be rightly assigned as property or as a part, appendage, inhabitant, etc., the house belongs to me; that lid belongs to this jar. 2. to belongings / Benelux

be a member, we belong to the club. 3. to have a rightful or usual place, the pans belong in the kitchen.

be-long-ings (bi-lawng-ingz) n. pl. personal possessions.

be-loved (bi-luvd) adj. dearly loved, she was beloved by all. be-lov-ed (bi-luvid) adj. & n. darling, my beloved wife; my beloved.

be-low (bi-loh) adv. 1. at or to a lower position, downstream. 2. at the foot of a page, further on in a book or article, see chapter six below. 3. on Earth (as opposed to above = in heaven). 4. in hell.

be-low prep. 1. lower in position, amount, rank, etc. than. 2. downstream from, the bridge is below the ford.

belt (belt) n. 1. a strip of cloth or leather worn around the waist. 2. a continuous moving strap passing over pulleys and so driving machinery, a fan belt. 3. a long narrow region or strip, a belt of rain will move eastward. 4. (slang) a heavy blow. 5. (slang) a drink of whiskey. belt v. 1. to put a belt around. 2. to attach with a belt. 3. to thrash with a belt, (slang) to hit with the hand. 4. (slang) to drink (whiskey). ◐ belt out, (slang) to sing or play loudly, belting out pop songs. hit below the belt, to give an unfair blow, to fight unfairly. under one's belt, (informal) eaten; obtained or achieved.

belt-way (belt-way) n. a highway circling a city or metropolitan area.

be-lu-ga (bi-lu-ga) n. 1. a white sturgeon, valued as a source of caviar. 2. a white whale.

be-ve-dere (bel-ve-deer) n. a raised turret, or a summerhouse, from which to view scenery.

be-mire (bi-mir) v. (be-mired, be-mir-ing) 1. to cover or stain with mud. 2. to cause to be stuck in mud.

be-moan (bi-mohn) v. to lament.

be-mused (bi-myoozed) adj. 1. bewildered. 2. lost in thought.

bench (bench) n. 1. a long seat for two or more persons. 2. the bench, the seat of a judge in a law court, the judge or judges hearing a case, a law court. 3. a long working table. 4. seating for team members not participating in a game, or waiting their turn at bat in baseball. ◐ bench mark, a surveyor's mark put on a stone etc. to indicate a point of known height above sea level. bench warrant, one issued by a judge.

bend (bend) v. (bent, bend-ing) 1. to force out of straightness, to make curved or angular. 2. to become curved or angular. 3. to turn downward, to stoop. 4. to turn in a new direction, they bent their steps homeward; bend your mind to this, give it your attention. 5. to draw (a bow) taut. 6. to apply one's efforts, bend to it. 7. to yield or force to yield, bend them to my will. bend n. 1. a curve or turn. 2. a kind of knot used to fasten a rope. 3. the bends, caisson disease. ◐ bend the rules, to interpret them loosely to suit oneself. on bended knees, kneeling in prayer or supplication.

bend'er (ben-dér) n. (slang) a spree.

be-neath (bi-neeth) adv. & prep. 1. below, under, underneath. 2. not worthy of, not befitting; beneath contempt, not even worth despising.

be-n·e·dict (ben-ë-dikt) n. a newly married man, especially one who has long been a bachelor.

be-n·e·dic·tine (ben-ë-dik-tin) n. 1. a monk of the order founded by St. Benedict. 2. a liqueur originally made by monks of this order.

be-n·e·dic·tion (ben-ë-dik-shun) n. a spoken blessing.

be-n·e·fac·tion (ben-ë-fak-shun) n. 1. the act of doing good. 2. a charitable gift.

be-n·e·fac·tor (ben-ë-fak-tör) n. a person who gives financial or other help.

be-n·e·fac·tress (ben-ë-fak-tris) n. fem.

be-n·e·fice (ben-ë-fis) n. 1. a position that provides a clergyman with a livelihood. 2. the income from this.

be-ne·fic·ence (bë-ne-fë-sëns) n. an act of kindness.

be-ne·fic·ient (bë-ne-fë-sënt) adj. doing good, showing active kindness.

be·n·e·fi·cial (ben-ë-fish-äl) adj. having a helpful or useful effect.

be·n·e·fi·cial·ly adv.

be·n·e·fi·ci·ary (ben-ë-fish-i-er-ee) n. (pl. -ar·ies) a person who receives a benefit, one who is left a legacy under someone's will.

be·n·e·fi·t (ben-ë-fit) n. 1. something helpful, favorable, or profitable. 2. an allowance of money etc. to which a person is entitled from an insurance policy, from government funds, or from his employment, death benefits. 3. a performance or game held in order to raise money for a particular player, a benefit performance. benefit v. (ben·e·fit·ed, ben·e·fit·ing) 1. to do good to. 2. to receive benefit. ◐ benefit of the doubt, the assumption that a person is innocent (or right) rather than guilty (or wrong) when nothing can be fully proved either way.

Ben·e·lux (ben-ë-luks) Belgium, the Netherlands, and Luxembourg, considered as a group.
be·nev·o·lent (bē-nev-ō-lent) adj. 1. wishing to do good to others, kindly and helpful. 2. charitable, a benevolent association. be·nev·o·lent·ly adv. be·nev·o·lence n.

Ben·gal (ben-gawl) a former province of northeast India, now divided into West Bengal (a state of India) and Bangladesh.

Ben·gal·i (ben-gawl-lee) adj. of Bengal or its people or language. Bengali n. (pl. -gal·i) a native or the language of Bengal.

be·night·ed (bi-ni-tid) adj. 1. overtaken by night. 2. in intellectual or moral darkness, ignorant.

be·nign (bi-nign) adj. 1. kindly. 2. mild and gentle in its effect; a benign tumor, one that is not malignant. be·nign·ly adv.

be·nig·nant (bi-nig-nant) adj. kindly.

Be·nin (be-neen) a country in West Africa, formerly Dahomey.

ben·i·son (ben-i-zôn) n. (old use) a blessing.

ben·ny (ben-ce) n. (pl. -nies) (slang) an amphetamine tablet.

bent (bent) see bend. bent n. a natural skill or liking, she has a bent for needlework. bent on, determined or seeking to do something, bent on mischief.

ben·ton·ite (ben-tō-nit) n. a kind of clay used as an absorbent, filler, etc. ben·ton·i·tic (ben-tō-ni-tik) adj.

bent·wood (bent-wuud) n. wood that has been artificially bent into a permanent curve, used for making chairs etc.

bentwood rocker, a rocking chair made of this.

be·numb (bi-num) v. to make numb or torpid, to paralyze.

Ben·ze·drine (ben-zē-dreen) n. (trade-mark) an amphetamine.

ben·zene (ben-zeen) n. a colorless liquid obtained from petroleum and coal tar, used as a solvent, as fuel, and in the manufacture of plastics. benzene ring, a ringlike hexagonal arrangement of the six carbon atoms in the benzene molecule.

ben·zine (ben-zeen) n. a colorless liquid mixture of hydrocarbons obtained from petroleum and used as a solvent in dry cleaning.

ben·zo·ate (ben-zoh-ayt) n. a salt or ester of benzoic acid.

ben·zo·lic (ben-zoh-ik) acid benzene carboxylic acid.

ben·zo·lin (ben-zoh-in) n. (also gum benzoil) a fragrant resin obtained from various trees of Sumatra and Thailand, and used in perfumery, medicine, etc. ben·zo·lic (ben-zoh-ik) adj.

ben·zoil (ben-zohl) n. benzene.

be·queath (bi-kweeth) v. to leave as a legacy.

be·quest (bi-kwest) n. a legacy.

be·rate (bi-rayt) v. (be·rat·ed, be·rat·ing) to scold.

Ber·ber (bur-bër) n. a member of a fair-skinned aboriginal people of North Africa.

be·reave (bi-reev) v. (be·reaved, be·rea·ving) to deprive, especially of a relative, by death; the bereaved husband, the man whose wife died. be·reave·ment n.

be·ref (bi-ref) adj. deprived; bereft of reason, driven mad.

be·ret (bi-ray) n. a round flat cap with no peak.

ber·g (berg) n. (informal) an iceberg.

be·r·i·ber·i (ber-i-ber-i) n. a disease affecting the nervous system, caused by lack of thiamine (vitamin B1).

ber·ke·li·um (burk-ī-lĕm) n. a metallic radioactive synthetic element.

Ber·lin (ber-lin) the capital of Germany, now divided into East Berlin and West Berlin.

Ber·mu·da (ber-myoo-dă) a group of islands in the West Atlantic. Ber·mu·dan adj. □ Bermuda shorts, knee-length shorts. Bermuda triangle, an area of the Atlantic Ocean where ships and airplanes are said to have vanished mysteriously.

Berne, Bern (burn) the capital of Switzerland. be·ry·ly (ber-ee) n. (pl. -ries) a small round juicy stoneless fruit.

be·serk (ber-surk) adj. frenzied. go berserk, to go into an uncontrollable and destructive rage.

berth (berth) n. 1. a bunk or sleeping place in a ship or train. 2. a place for a ship to swing at anchor or tie up at a wharf. 3. a job, employment. berth v. to moor at a berth. □ give a wide berth to, to keep at a safe distance from.

be·ry·li·um (ber-ī-li-ŭm) n. a very light metallic element obtained from beryl.

be·seech (bi-seech) v. (be·sought, be·seech·ing) to implore.

be·seem (bi-seem) v. (old use) to be fitting or seemly.

be·set (bi-set) v. (be·set, be·set·ting) to hem in, to surround; the temptations that beset people, that face them on all sides.

be·set·ting (bi-set-ing) adj. habitually affecting or troubling a person.

be·side (bi-sird) prep. 1. at the side of, close to. 2. compared with, his work looks poor beside yours. 3. wide of, having besides / betray besides (bi-srdz) prep. in addition to, other than, he has no income besides his pension. besides adv. also, moreover, besides, I have no desire to offend her.

be-sides (bi-spat-ər) v. to smear, to daub.
be-smirch (bi-smirch) v. to soil, to sully.
be-smirch'er n. be-smirch'ment n.
be-som (bee-zomm) n., a broom made by tying a bundle of twigs to a long handle.
be-sot-ted (bi-sot-id) adj. 1. mentally stupefied, especially from drink. 2. silly, foolish. 3. infatuated.
be-span-gle (bi-spang-gel) v. (be-span-gled, be-span-gling) to cover with spangles. be-spat-ter (bi-spat-ər) v. 1. to spatter. 2. to slander.
be-speak (bi-speek) v. (be-spoke, be-spoke-en, be-speak-ing) to engage beforehand, to order. 2. to indicate, to be evidence of.
be-sprin-kle (bi-spring-kel) v. (be-sprin-kled, be-sprin-kling) to sprinkle.
best1 (best) adj. of the most excellent kind.
best adv. 1. in the best manner, to the greatest degree, she was best suited for a career in law. 2. most usefully; we had best go, would find it wisest to go. best n. 1. that which is best, the chief merit or advantage, it brings out the best in us; dressed in his best, in his best clothes. 2. victory in a fight or argument; we got the best of it, won; the best of three games, the winning of two out of three. as best one can, as well as one is able under the circumstances. at best, taking the most hopeful view. best man, the bridgeman's chief attendant at a wedding. best part of, most of.
best seller, a book that sells in very large numbers. make the best of, to be as contented as possible with; to do what one can with.
put one's best foot forward, to work as hard as one can. to the best of one's ability, using all one's ability. to the best of one's knowledge, as far as one knows. with the best of them, as well as anyone.
best2 (best) v. to defeat, to outdo, to outwit.
bes-tial (bes-chəl) adj. of or like a beast, savage. bes'tial-ly adv. bes-ti'al-i-ty (bes-chi-əl-ə-tə) n.
bes-ti-ar-y (bes-chi-är-ə) n. (pl. -ar-ies). a medieval moralizing treatise on real or mythical beasts.
be-stir (bi-stur) v. (be-stirred, be-stir-ring) bestir oneself, to exert or rouse to action.
be-stow (bi-stoh) v. to present as a gift.
be-stow'al n.
be-stride (bi-strid) v. (be-strod, be-strid-den, be-strid-ing) to get or sit upon with legs astride, to stand astride over.
bet (bet) n. 1. an agreement pledging something that will be forfeited if one's prediction of the outcome of some event proves to be wrong. 2. the money etc. pledged. 3. a person or thing considered likely to be successful in something; your best bet is to call tomorrow, this is your best course of action. 4. (informal) a prediction, my bet is that he won't come. bet v. (bet, bet-ted, bet-ting) 1. to make a bet, to pledge in a bet. 2. (informal) to predict, to think most likely.
bet. abbr. between.
be-ta (bay-tə) n. 1. the second letter of the Greek alphabet (B). 2. the second star in a constellation and in other classifications. □ beta particles, fast-moving electrons emitted by radioactive substances, originally regarded as rays. beta rays, beta particles in a stream.
be-take (bi-tayk) v. (be-took, be-tak-en, be-tak-ing) betake oneself, (old use) to go.
be-ta-tron (bay-tə-tron) n. an apparatus for accelerating electrons.
be-tel (bee-təl) n. 1. a shrubby East Indian pepper plant. 2. the leaf of this plant chewed by people of India etc. for its stimulating and narcotic effects. □ betel nut, the areca nut around which the betel leaf is wrapped for chewing.
bète noire (bayn wahr) (pl. bêtes noires, same pr.) a thing or person that one dislikes very much. □ French.
beth-el (beth-əl) n. 1. a hallowed spot. 2. a seaman's church (ashore or floating).
be-think (bi-thiŋk) v. (be-thought, be-think-ing) bethink oneself of, (old use) remember.
Beth-le-hem (beth-lə-hem) a town near Jerusalem, the birthplace of Jesus Christ.
be-tide (bi-tid) v. (be-tid-ed, be-tid-ing) to happen to; woe betide him, trouble will come to him.
be-times (bi-timz) adv. (old use) early; in good time.
be-to-ken (bi-toh-kən) v. to be a token or advance sign of. be-to'ken-er n. be-tray (bi-tray) v. 1. to give up or reveal disloyally to an enemy. 2. to be disloyal to. 3. to show unintentionally. be\-tray'\-al n. be\-tray'er n. be\-troth (bi-troth) v. to engage with a promise to marry. be\-troth'al n.
be\-ter (bi-\-ter) adj. 1. of a more excellent kind; one's better feelings, more charitable feelings, conscience. 2. partly or fully recovered from an illness. better adv. in a better manner, to a better degree, more usefully; we had better go, would find it wiser to go. better n. that which is better. better v. to improve, to do better than. □ better half, (slang) one's wife or husband. better oneself, to get a better social position or status. better part, more than half. get the better of, to overcome. go one better, to do better than someone else's effort. □ Do not use better than to mean more. Write more than a mile away instead of better than a mile away.
better² = be\-tort.
be\-ter\-ment (bet-\-er-ment) n. making or becoming better, she did that for the betterment of society.
be\-tor (bet-\-er) n. a person who bets.
be\-tween (bi-\-tween) adv. & prep. 1. in the space bounded by two or more points, lines, or objects. 2. intermediate to, especially in time or quantity or quality etc. 3. separating, the difference between right and wrong. 4. to and from, the liner sails between Naples and Haifa. 5. connecting, the great love between them. 6. shared by, divide the money between them; this is between you and me or between us or between ourselves, to be kept secret. (▷ The phrases between you and I and between you and she are incorrect. Use between you and me and between you and her.) 7. taking one and rejecting the other, choose between them. □ Use between for two persons or things or ideas, among for three or more.
be\-twixt (bi-twixt) adv. & prep. between.
□ betwixt and between, midway between in character etc.
be\-v\-el (bev\-el) n. 1. a sloping edge or surface. 2. a tool for making such slopes. bevel v. (bev\-eled, bev\-el\-ing) to give a sloping edge to.
bev\-er\-age (bev\-er\-age) n. any drink.
bev\-y (bev\-ee) n. (pl. bev\-ies) a company, a large group.
be\-wall (bi-wall) v. to wall over, to mourn for.
be\-ware (bi-wair) v. to be on one's guard. □ Beware never changes form. It occurs most often in the imperative, as in beware his sharp tongue and beware of the dog.
be\-wil\-der (bi-wil\-der) v. to puzzle, to confuse, the questions bewildered him.
be\-wil\'-der\-ment n.
be\-witch (bi-witch) v. 1. to put under a magic spell. 2. to delight very much.
be\-y (bay) n. 1. a former Turkish provincial governor. 2. a man's title of honor and respect in Turkey, equivalent to Mr.
be\-\-y\-ond (bi-yond) adv. & prep. 1. at or to the farther side of, farther on. 2. outside, outside the range of, this is beyond repair; it is beyond me, too difficult for me to do or to understand. 3. besides, except. □ be\-\-y\-ond doubt, quite certain, unquestionably. to live beyond one's income, to spend more than one earns.
bez\-el (bez\-el) n. 1. the sloped edge of a chisel etc. 2. any of the oblique faces of a cut gem. 3. a groove holding a gem or watch crystal.
b.f. abbr. bold face.
bhang (bang) n. 1. Indian hemp. 2. its leaves etc. used as a narcotic and intoxicant.
Bhu\-tan (boo-tahn) a country between India and Tibet. Bhu-tan\-ese (boo-t\-\-n\-eez) adj. & n. (pl. Bhu-tan\-ese).
B\-\-i symbol bismuth.
b\-a\-ly (bi-\-ah\-lee) n. bla\-ly\-stock (byahl\-i-stok) n. a flat onion-flavored bread roll.
b\-\-a\-nu\-al (bi-\-an\-yoo\-al) adj. appearing or happening twice a year. b\-\-a\-nu\-al\-ly adv. □ Biannual and biannually do not mean “every two years.”
b\-\-a\-s (bi-\-as) n. 1. an opinion or feeling or influence that strongly favors one side in an argument or one item in a group or series. 2. the slanting direction across threads of woven material; skirt is cut on the bias, cut with the threads running slantwise across the up-and-down line of the garment. bias v. (bi-\-ased, bi-\-as\-ing) to give a bias to, to influence. bias adv. on the bias, diagonally.
b\-\-a\-th\-lon (bi-\-ath\-lon) n. an athletic contest in which competitors engage in sking and shooting.
bib (bib) n. a cloth or plastic covering put under a young child's chin to protect the child's clothes. □ best bib and tucker, best clothes.
Bib. abbr. Bible.
b\-\-l\-e\-lot (bee-bë\-lot) n. (pl. -lots, pr. -lohs) a small curio or artistic trinket.
B\-\-i\-ble (bri\-bi) n. 1. the Christian scriptures. 2. the Jewish scriptures. 3. a copy of either the Old or New Testament. 4. bible, a book regarded as authoritative.
bib\-\-l\-l\-c\-al (bibli-kal) adj. of or in the Bible.
bib\-\-l\-o\-g\-ra\-phy (bibli-og-rá\-fee) n. (pl. -phies) 1. a list of books or articles about a particular subject or by a particular bighearted / bimonthly

ing through a marriage ceremony while one's previous marriage is still valid.

big'a-mous adj. big'a-mous·ly adv.
big·heart·ed (big-bahr-tid) adj. very kind, generous.
big·horn (big-horn) n. (pl. -horns, -horns) a wild Rocky Mountain sheep with large curved horns.
big·light n. 1. a long inward curve in a coast, the Great Australian Bight. 2. the slack part of a loop of rope.
big·league (big-leeg) adj. important.
big·ot (big-ot) n. a person who holds a prejudice against a racial or religious group.
big·ot·ed (big-ot-ed) adj. narrow-minded and intolerant.
big·ot·ry (big·ot·ri) n. (pl. -ries) being a bigot or bigoted.
big·time n. informal. a time of stress.
big·wig n. (informal) an important person.
bike (bik) n. (informal) a bicycle or motorcycle.
bike·way (bik-way) n. a path made especially for use by bicyclists.
bi·ke·man (bi·kee·man) n. a man who rides a bicycle or motorcycle.
bi·ke·man·cy (bi·kee·man·si) n. an area where people ride bicycles.
bill (bil) n. an unfinished metal bar. 2. a thick piece of firewood.
bill·a·tional (bil·a·tional) adj. international.
bill·a·tional·ism (bil·a·tional·iz·m) n. internationalism.
bill·a·tional·ist (bil·a·tional·ist) n. an internationalist.
bill·a·tional·ly adv.
big·a·mous adj. big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv.
big·a·mous·ly adv. 1. a written statement of charges for goods supplied or services rendered. 2. a poster or placard. 3. a program of entertainment. 4. the draft of a proposed law, to be discussed by a legislature. 4. a piece of paper money, a ten-dollar bill. 5. a certificate; a clean bill of health, a declaration that there is no disease or defect. bill v. 1. to an-bin (bin) n. a large rigid container or enclosed space for storing coal, grain, flour, etc.

bind (bind) n. 1. of or involving two things or parts. 2. of the binary system. binary n. (pl. -ries) something composed of two things or parts. □ binary digit, one of two digits (usually 0 and 1) used in a binary scale. binary notation or scale or system, a system of numbers using only the two digits 0 and 1. binary star, two stars that revolve around each other.

bin·au·ral (bin-ôr-ôl) adj. 1. of, using, or for both ears. 2. recorded by two microphones and usually transmitted separately to the two ears.

bind (bind) v. (bound, binding) 1. to tie or fasten, to tie up. 2. to hold together, to unite, they had been bound by ties of friendship. 3. to encircle with a strip or band of material; bind up the wound, bandage it. 4. to cover the edge of (a thing) in order to strengthen it or as a decoration. 5. to fasten the pages of (a book) into a cover. 6. to stick together in a solid mass, bind the mixture with egg yolks. 7. to place under an obligation or a legal agreement; he was bound over to keep the peace, was ordered to do so by a judge. □ in a bind, (informal) in a difficult situation.

bind·er (bin-dêr) n. 1. a person or thing that binds. 2. a bookbinder. 3. a machine that binds harvested grain into sheaves or bales. 4. a cover for papers.

bind·ing (bin-dîng) n. 1. a fabric used for binding edges. 2. the strong covering holding the leaves of a book together. binding adj. making a legal obligation, a binding agreement is needed.

bind·weed (bind-weed) n. convolvulus or other climbing plant.

binge (binj) n. (slang) a spree, eating and drinking and making merry.

bin·go (bin-gô) n. a gambling game played with cards on which numbered squares are covered as the numbers are called at random. bingo interj. an explanation of discovery or victory.

bin·na·cle (bin-nä-kôl) n. a nonmagnetic stand for a ship's compass.

bin·oc·u·lar (bin-nôk-yû-lîr) adj. of, using, or for both eyes. bin·oc·u·lar·ly adv.

bin·oc·u·lar·s (bin-nôk-yû-lîr-z) n. pl. an instrument with lenses for both eyes, making distant objects seem nearer.

bi·no·mi·al (bi-nô-mî-lôal) n. an algebraic expression that is a sum or difference of two terms. binomial adj.

bi·o·chem·ist (bi-ô-kiem-îst) n. an expert in biochemistry.

bi·o·chem·is·try (bi-ô-kiem-î-stôr) n. the chemistry of living organisms.

bi·o·chem·i·cal (bi-ô-kiem-i-käl) adj. & n.

bi·o·ci·dal (bi-ô-sî-däl) adj. destructive to life.

bi·o·de·grad·a·ble (bi-ô-de-gray-dâbôl) adj. able to be broken down by bacteria in the environment, some plastics are not biodegradable.

bi·o·de·gra·da·tion (bi-ô-de-gray-dä-de-shôn) n. bi·o·de·grad·a·bil·i·ty (bi-ô-de-gray-dä-bil-i-tee) n.

bi·o·feed·back (bi-ô-feed-bâk) n. a method of controlling mental reactions and physical functions that normally are involuntary by use of electronic monitoring devices.

bi·og·ra·phy (bi-ô-ge-grä-fe) n. the scientific study of the geographical distribution of animals and plants. bi·o·ge·o·graph·ic (bi-ô-je-grä-fe-ik) adj. bi·o·ge·o·graph·ic·al (bi-ô-je-grä-fe-îl) adj. bi·o·ge·o·graph·er (bi-ô-je-grä-gräf-er) n. a person who writes a biography.

bi·og·ra·ph·ic (bi-ô-je-grä-fe-ik) adj.

bi·o·log·ist (bi-ô-log-ist) n. an expert in biology.

bi·ol·ogy (bi-ô-lô-jî) n. the scientific study of the life and structure of living things. bi·o·lo·gi·cal (bi-ô-loj-i-käl) adj. bi·o·lo·gi·cal·ly adv. □ biological clock, an innate mechanism controlling an organism's regularly recurring functions or behavior. biological warfare, the deliberate use of organisms to spread disease among an enemy.

bi·on·ic (bi-ô-nïk) adj. (of a person or his faculties) operated by electronic means, not naturally.

bi·on·ics (bi-ô-nilks) n. the study of mechanical systems that are designed to behave like living beings.

bi·o·phy·s·ic·ist (bi-ô-fiz-i-stôr) n. an expert in biophysics.

bi·o·phy·sics (bi-ô-fiz-iks) n. the branch of physics dealing with the way the laws of physics apply to living things.
amination of tissue cut from a living body.

bi-o-rythm (bi-oh-ri-th-ém) n. any of the recurring cycles of high and low levels of activity alleged to occur in living things.

bi-o-sat-el-lite (bi-oh-sat-é-lit) n. a space satellite designed to transport animals or plants for scientific study.

bi-o-sci-ence (bi-oh-si-éns) n. any of the sciences that deal with living organisms, especially in outer space.

bi-o-sphere (bi-oh-sfeer) n. regions of Earth's crust and atmosphere occupied by living matter.

bi-o-tele-m-e-try (bi-oh-tel-i-mé-tree) n. the detecting and measuring at a great distance of the biological functions of a living being.

bi-o-te-l-e-m-i-try (bi-oh-te-le-mi-tree) n. bi-oh-te-l-e-m-e-tree.

bi-o-tic (bi-ot-ik) adj. of or relating to life or to living things.

bi-o-tin (bi-ot-tin) n. the crystalline vitamin in yeast etc., controlling growth.

bi-par-ti-san (bi-par-ti-zan) adj. of or involving two political parties.

bi-par-tite (bi-par-tit) adj. having two parts, shared or involving two groups.

bi-ped (bi-ped) n. a two-footed animal.

bi-plane (bi-playn) n. an old type of airplane with two sets of wings, one above the other.

bi-po-lar (bi-po-lar) adj. two parts, shared or involving two groups.

bi-po-lar-i-ty (bi-po-lar-i-ty) n. the two parts, shared or involving two groups.

bi-po-lar-ity (bi-po-lar-i-ty) n. the two parts, shared or involving two groups.

bi-rhym (bi-oh-tel-i-mé-tree) n. bi-oh-te-l-e-m-e-tree.

bird (burd) n. 1. a feathered animal with two wings and two legs. 2. (informal) a person, he's a cunning old bird.

bird of paradise, a New Guinea bird with brightly colored plumage.

bird watcher, a person who studies the habits of birds in their natural surroundings.

get the bird, (slang) to be hissed and booted, to be rejected. strictly for the birds, (slang) trivial, unimportant, to be regarded with contempt.

bird-bath (burd-bath) n. a basin in a garden etc. with water for birds to bathe in.

bird-brain (burd-brayn) n. a stupid or flighty person.

bird-er (bur-dér) n. a bird watcher.

bird-house (burd-hows) n. a box placed in a tree etc. for birds to nest in.

bird-ie (bur-dee) n. 1. (informal) a little bird. 2. a score of one stroke under par for a hole at golf.

bird-seed (burd-seed) n. seed used as food for birds.

bird's-eye (burdz-i) adj. 1. seen from above. 2. marked with spots resembling a bird's eye, bird's-eye maple.

bird's-eye view, a general view from above.

bi-ret-ta (bi-ret-ä) n. a square cap worn by Roman Catholic and some Anglican clergymen.

birth (burth) n. 1. the emergence of young from the mother's body. 2. origin, parentage, he is of noble birth.

birth certificate, an official document giving such information as the date and place of a person's birth.

birth control, the prevention of unwanted pregnancy. give birth to, to produce as young from the body; to conceive (ideas etc.).

birth-day (burth-day) n. an anniversary of the day of one's birth.

birthday suit, a state of nakedness as at birth.

birth-mark (burth-mahrk) n. an unusual colored mark on a person's skin at birth.

birth-place (burth-plays) n. a person's place of birth or origin.

birth-rate (burth-rayt) n. the number of births per thousand of population per year.

birth-right (burth-rit) n. a privilege or property to which a person has a right through being born into a particular family (especially as the eldest son) or country.

birth-stone (burth-stohn) n. a gemstone associated with the month of one's birth.

bis-cuit (bis-kit) n. 1. a small cake of shortened bread raised with baking powder or soda. 2. (British) a cracker or cookie. 3. light brown.

bi-sect (bi-sekt) v. to divide into two equal parts.

bi-sec' tion n. bi-sec'tor n. Bisect in two is incorrect.

bi-sex'ual (bi-sek-shoo-äl) adj. 1. of two sexes. 2. having both male and female sexual organs in one individual. 3. sexually attracted by members of both sexes.

bi-sex'ual-ity n.

bish-op (bish-op) n. 1. a clergyman of high rank with authority over the work of the Church in a city or district (his diocese). 2. a chess piece shaped like a miter.

bish-op-ric (bish-op-rik) n. the office or diocese of a bishop.

Bis-marck (biz-mahrk) the capital of North Dakota.

bis-muth (biz-muth) n. 1. a grayish-white metallic element used in alloys. 2. a compound of this used in medicines.

bl·son (br-són) n. (pl. bl·son) a wild ox of North America (also called buffalo).

biske (bisk) n. 1. a thick soup of pureed shellfish etc. 2. an unglazed white ceramic used for statuettes etc.

bis·tro (bis-tro) n. (pl. -tros) a small bar or restaurant in Europe, an imitation of this.

bit1 (bit) n. 1. a small piece or quantity or portion of anything; I'm a bit puzzled, slightly puzzled; it's a bit of a nuisance, rather a nuisance; it takes a bit of doing. is quite difficult. 2. a short time, wait a bit. □bit by bit, gradually. bit part, a small part in a play or film. bits and pieces, odds and ends. do one's bit, to do one's due share.

bit2 n. 1. a metal bar forming the mouth-piece of a bridle. 2. the part of a tool that cuts or grinds when twisted, the boring part of a drill. □take the bit between one's teeth, to get out of control.

bit3 n. (in computers etc.) a unit of information expressed as a choice between two possibilities.

bit4 (bit) see bite.

bitch (bich) n. 1. a female dog, fox, or wolf. 2. (slang) a spiteful woman. 3. (slang) an unpleasant or difficult thing. bitch v. (slang) to speak spitefully, to complain. bitch'y adj. (bitch·i·er, bitch·i·est), bitch'·i·ness n.

bite (bit) v. (bit, bit·ten, bit·ting) 1. to cut into or nip with the teeth; this dog bites, is in the habit of biting people. 2. (of an insect) to sting, (of a snake) to pierce with its fangs. 3. to accept bait, the fish are biting. 4. to grip or act effectively, wheels can't bite on a slippery surface. bite n. 1. an act of biting. 2. a wound made by this. 3. a mouthful cut off by biting. 4. food to eat, a small meal. 5. the taking of bait by a fish. 6. a firm grip or hold, this drill has no bite. 7. the way the teeth close in biting. bit·er n. □bit a person's head off, to reply angrily. bite off more than one can chew, to attempt more than one can manage. bite the dust, to fall wounded and die. put the bite on, (slang) to borrow or try to borrow money.

bit·ting (bit·ting) adj. 1. causing asmarting pain, a biting wind. 2. (of remarks) sharp and critical.

bit·ten (bit·ten) see bite.

bit·ter (bit·ër) adj. 1. tasting sharp, like quinine or hops. 2. unwelcome to the mind, causing sorrow. 3. showing, feeling, or caused by mental pain or resentment, bitter remarks. 4. piercingly cold, a bitter wind. bit' ter·ly adv. bit·ter·ness n. □ to the bitter end, until all that is possible has been done.

bit·tern (bit·ërn) n. marsh bird related to the heron, especially the kind known for the male's booming note.

bit·ters (bit·ërz) n. sing. or pl. an alcoholic liquor flavored with bitter herbs to give a stimulating taste.

bit·ter·sweet (bit·ër·sweet) n. 1. a climbing plant with bright orange or red berries or seeds. 2. sweetness with a bitter aftertaste or element. bit·tersweet adj. with bitterness and sweetness mingled together; a bit·tersweet love affair, one ending unhappily.

bi·tu·men (bi-tu·mén) n. a black sticky substance obtained from petroleum, used for covering roads etc. bi·tu·mi·nous adj. □bituminous coal, coal that burns with a smoky flame.

bi·va·dent (bi-vay·lent) adj. having a valence of two.

bi·valve (bi-valv) n. a shellfish with a hinged double shell. bivalve adj.

biv·ouac (biv-oo-ak) n. a temporary camp, especially one without tents or other cover. bivouac v. (biv-ou·ack, biv·ou·ack·ing) to camp in a bivouac.

bi·week·ly (br-week·lee) adj. & adv. 1. happening every second week. 2. happening twice a week. ( □Careful writers do not use biweekly in this sense. They use semimonthly.) biweekly n. (pl. -lies) a periodical published every second week.

bi·year·ly (bi-year·lee) adj. & adv. biennial.

biz (biz) n. (slang) business.

bi·zarr·re (bi-zahr) adj. strikingly odd in appearance or effect.

Bk symbol berkelium.

bk. abbr. book.

bkgd. abbr. background.

bl. abbr. 1. bale. 2. barrel. 3. black. 4. blue.

blab (blab) v. (blabbed, blab·bing) to talk indiscrately, to let out a secret.

black (blak) adj. 1. of the very darkest color, like coal or soot. 2. having a black skin. 3. (often Black) of a dark-skinned race, especially of African descent. 4. soiled with dirt. 5. dismal, sullen, hostile; things look black, not hopeful; a black day, disastrous. 6. evil, wicked. black n. 1. black color. 2. a black substance or material, black clothes. 3. the black men in chess etc., the player using these. 4. the credit side of an account; in the black, having a credit balance. 5. (often Black) a member of dark-skinned race, especially of African descent. black v. 1. to make black. 2. to polish with blacking.
black'ly adv. black'ness n.  □ black and blue, discolored by bruises. black art, black magic. black bass, a North American freshwater game fish. black belt, a belt awarded as a symbol of proficiency in judo. black box, an electronic device in an aircraft that records information about its flight. black coffee, coffee without milk. black comedy, comedy presenting a tragic theme or situation in comic terms. Black Death, the plague that swept through Europe in the 14th century. black eye, an eye with the skin around it darkened by a bruise; a disgrace. Black Friars, Dominicans. black hole, a region in outer space from which no matter or radiation can escape. black light, invisible ultraviolet or infrared radiation. black lung disease, illness contracted by coal miners as a result of inhaling coal dust. black magic, magic involving the invocation of devils. Black Maria, (chiefly British) a secure van for taking prisoners to and from prison. black mark, a mark of disapproval placed against a person’s name. black market, the illegal buying and selling of goods or currencies. Black Mass, a travesty of the Christian Mass said to be used in the cult of Satanism. Black Muslim, a member of an American black Muslim sect proposing separation of races. black nationalist, an advocate of the establishment of a separate black nation in the U.S. black sheep, a bad character in an otherwise well-behaved group. black tie, a man’s black bow tie worn with a dinner jacket; men’s semiformal evening wear. black widow, a poisonous spider, the female being black with a red hourglass mark on its abdomen. black work, moonlighting for extra nontaxable cash income. in black and white, recorded in writing or print. black•ball (blak-bawl) v. to prevent a person from being elected as a member of a club by voting against him in a secret ballot. black•ber•ry (blak-ber-ee) n. (pl. -ries) 1. the bramble. 2. its small dark berry. black•ber•ry•ing (blak-ber-i-ing) n. picking blackberries. black•bird (blak-burd) n. any bird of the family that includes grackles, redwings, etc. black•board (blak-bohrd) n. a board, usually colored black, for writing on with chalk in front of a class in school etc. black•en (blak-en) v. 1. to make or become black. 2. to defame or harm the reputation of, blackened his character. black-eyed Su•san (blak-id soo-zan) a flower with light petals and a dark center. Black-foot (blak-fuut) n. (pl. -feet, -foot) a member of a tribe of North American Indians. black-guard (blag-ahrd) n. a scoundrel. black-head (blak-bed) n. a small hard lump blocking a pore in the skin. black-ing (blak-ing) n. a paste or liquid for blacking or polishing shoes, boots, etc. black-ish (blak-ish) adj. rather black. black-jack (blak-jak) n. 1. a flexible loaded club. 2. the pirates’ black flag. 3. a card game, twenty-one. black-list (blak-list) n. a list of persons under suspicion, liable to punishment or unfavorable treatment etc. blacklist v. to enter (a person’s name) on a blacklist. black•mail (blak-mayl) v. to demand payment or action from (a person) by threats, especially of revealing a discreditable secret. blackmail n. 1. the crime of demanding payment in this way. 2. the money itself. black‘mail•er n. black•out (blak-owt) n. 1. the extinguishing of all lights accidentally, as from an electric power failure. 2. the deliberate obscuring of all lights, as during an air raid. 3. a temporary loss of consciousness. 4. suppression of news to prevent information from reaching people. black-smith (blak-smith) n. a smith who works in steel. black-thorn (blak-thorn) n. 1. a thorny shrub bearing a blue-black plumlike fruit. 2. a walking stick made from this. black-top (blak-top) n. a type of road surfacing. blacktop v. (black-topped, black-top-ping) to cover with black-top. blad•der (blad-ør) n. 1. a bag in which urine collects in human and animal bodies. 2. an inflatable bag resembling this. blade (blayd) n. 1. the flattened cutting part of a knife, sword, chisel, etc. 2. the flat wide part of an oar, spindle, propeller, etc. 3. a flat narrow leaf especially of grass and cereals. 4. a broad flattish bone, shoulder blade. blah (blah) n. (informal) high-sounding nonsense. blah adj. (slang) unwell. □ have the blues, (slang) feel unwell or depressed. blame (blaym) v. (blamed, blam-ing) to hold responsible and criticize for a fault; I don’t blame you, I feel your action was justified. blame n. responsibility for a fault, criticism for doing something wrong. △ Careful writers do not blame anything on anyone; they blame people for, as in they blamed him for the mistake. blame-less (blaym-lis) adj. deserving no blame, innocent. blame·wor·thy (blaym-wur-thée) adj. deserving blame. blame·wor·thi·ness n.
blank (blanch) v. to make or become white or pale; blank the almonds, peel them, especially by scalding them.
blank·mange (blá-mahnj) n. a flavored gelatin-like pudding made with milk.
blanket (bland) adj. 1. mild in flavor, bland foods. 2. gentle and casual in manner, not irritating or stimulating. blanket·ly adv. blanket·ness n. blan·dish·ment (blan-dish-mént) n. a flattering or coaxing speech or action.
blank (blank) adj. 1. not written or printed on, unmarked; a blank wall, without ornament or opening, an insurmountable obstacle. 2. without interest or expression, without result; look blank, to appear puzzled. blank n. 1. a blank space or paper, an empty surface; his mind was a blank, he could not remember anything. 2. a blank cartridge. blank v. (informal) to keep (an opponent) from scoring in a game. blank·ly adv. blanket·ness n.
blank·card·tage, one that contains no bullet. blank check, one with the amount left blank, to be filled in by the payee; carte blanche. blank verse, verse written in lines of usually ten syllables, without rhyme.
blank·ket (blang-kit) n. a thick covering made of woolen or other fabric; a blanket of fog, a thick covering mass; a blanket agreement, an inclusive one, covering all cases. blanket v. (blank·ket-ed, blank·et·ting) to cover with a blanket.
blare (blair) n. a harsh loud sound like that of a trumpet. blare v. (blared, blared·ly) to make such a sound.
blar·ney (blahr-nee) n. smooth talk that flatters and deceives people.
Barney Stone, a stone at Blarney Castle in Ireland said to confer a cajoling tongue on whoever kisses it.
bla·sé (blah-zay) adj. bored or unimpressed by things because one has experienced or seen them so often.
blash·pheme (blas·feem) v. (blas·phemed, blash·phem·ing) to utter blasphemies. blasph·pem·er n.
blash·phemy (blas·fe-mi) n. (pl. -mies) contemptuous or irreverent talk about God or things considered sacred. blasph·pem·ous adj. blasph·pem·ous·ly adv.
blast (blast) n. 1. a sudden strong rush of wind or air, a wave of air from an explosion. 2. the sound made by a wind instrument, whistle, car horn, etc. 3. (slang) a riotous party. blast v. 1. to blow up with explosives. 2. to cause to wither, to blight, to destroy. blast tur... with drooping red or pink heart-shaped flowers. 2. (informal) an excessively soft-hearted person.

bleep (bleep) n. a short high-pitched sound used as a signal. bleep v. 1. to make this sound. 2. to censor a word or words from a television or radio program by use of this sound. bleep'er n.

blem·ish (blem-ish) n. 1. a flaw or defect that spoils the perfection of something. 2. a pimple. blemish v. to spoil with a blemish.

bless (bless) v. 1. to call holy, to praise, to bless God. 2. to call God's favor upon, Christ blessed the children; bless his heart!, an exclamation of affection; bless my soul!, an exclamation of surprise. 3. to make sacred or holy with the sign of the cross. ① be blessed (pr. bles') with, to be fortunate in having, be blessed with good health.

bles·sed (bles-id) adj. 1. holy, sacred. 2. in paradise. ① the Blessed, the dead who have been beatified. the Blessed Sacrament, the Eucharist. the Blessed Virgin, Mary, mother of Jesus Christ. bles'ed-ness n.

bles·sing (bles-ing) n. 1. God's favor, a prayer for this. 2. a short prayer of thanks to God before or after a meal. 3. something one is glad of. ① a blessing in disguise, something unwelcome that turns out to have a good effect.

blew (bloo) see blow'.

blight (blit) n. 1. a disease that withers plants. 2. a fungus or insect causing this disease. 3. a malignant influence. 4. an unsightly area. blight v. 1. to affect with blight. 2. to spoil.

blimp (blimp) n. a small nonrigid airship.

blind (blind) adj. 1. without sight; a blind curve, where road users cannot see what is approaching. 2. without foresight or understanding, without adequate information, blind obedience. 3. concealed. 4. (slang) very drunk. blind adv. blindly.

blind v. 1. to make blind. 2. to take away the power of judgment. blind n. 1. a window screen, especially one on a roller. 2. a pretext. blind'ly adv. blind'ness n. ① blind alley, an alley that is closed at one end; a job with no prospects of advancement. blind date, a date between persons who have not met before.

blind landing, the landing of an aircraft by instruments only. blind spot, a point on the eye that is insensitive to light; an area where understanding is lacking; an area cut off from a motorist's vision. turn a blind eye, to pretend not to notice.

blind'er (blin-dér) n. a device on a bridle to keep a horse looking straight ahead instead of to the side.

blind·fold (blind-folded) adj. & adv. with the eyes covered with a cloth to block one's sight. blindfold n. a cloth used for this. blindfold v. to cover the eyes with a cloth.

blind·man's (blind-man's) buff a game in which a blindfolded player tries to catch and identify one of the others.

blink (blingk) v. 1. to open and shut the eyes rapidly. 2. to shine unsteadily. 3. to ignore, to refuse to consider. blink n. 1. an act of blinking. 2. a quick gleam. ① on the blink, (slang) not in good operating condition.

blind'er (blin'ker) n. 1. a device for flashing light signals, especially for warning motorists of a road hazard. 2. a blinder.

blintz (blin'ts) n. (pl. blintz'es) a thin pancake folded around a fruit or cheese filling.

blip (blip) n. a spot of light on a radar screen.

bliss (blis) n. perfect happiness. bliss'ful adj. bliss'ful·ly adv.

blis·ter (blis·ter) n. 1. a bubble-like swelling on the skin, filled with watery liquid. 2. a raised swelling, as on a painted surface. blister v. to cause a blister on, to be affected with blisters. ① blister pack, a transparent package enclosing merchandise.

blithe (blit'h) adj. casual and carefree. blithe'ly adv. ① blithe spirit, a cheerful and carefree person.

blith·er·ing (blith·er·ing) adj. (informal) absolute, contemptible, blithering idiot.

blitz (blits) n. a sudden, violent attack, especially one employing aircraft. blitz v. to attack or damage in a blitz.

blitz·krieg (blits·kreeg) n. a violent military campaign intended to bring about a speedy victory.

bliz·zard (bliz·ard) n. a storm with wind-driven snow.

blk. abbr. 1. black. 2. block. 3. bulk.

bloat (bloht) v. to make or become swollen with fat, gas, or liquid.

bloat·ed (bloht·ed) adj. swollen with vanity or self-importance; overstuffed with rich food.
blob (blob) n. a drop of liquid, a round mass or spot, a coagulated mass.
block (blök, blok) n. 1. a group of parties or countries that unite to support a particular interest. ▷ Do not confuse bloc with block.
block (blok) n. 1. a solid piece of wood or stone or other hard substance. 2. a log of wood. 3. a large piece of wood for chopping or hammering on; the block, that on which condemned people were beheaded. 4. a case in which a pulley or pulleys are mounted. 5. the main part of a gasoline engine, consisting of the cylinders and valves. 6. a section of a city bounded by streets, drive around the block. 7. a large section of shares, seats, etc. as a unit. 8. an obstruction; a mental block, failure to understand etc. caused by emotional tension. block v. 1. to obstruct, to prevent the movement or use of. 2. (in football) to intercept (an opponent) with one's body. ▷ block and tackle, a system of pulleys and ropes used for lifting. block letters, plain capital letters. knock someone's block off, (slang) clout his head. ▷ Do not confuse block with bloc.
blockade (blo-kad) n. the blocking by military forces of access to a place in order to prevent the entry of goods etc.
blockade v. (block·ade·ed, block·ade·ing) to set up a blockade of.
block·age (blok-ij) n. 1. something that blocks. 2. the state of being blocked.
block·bust·er (blok-bus-tar) n. 1. a bomb capable of destroying a city block. 2. a thing of great power.
block·bust·ing (blok-bust-ing) n. inducing people to sell their homes at a low price by warning of a change in the racial patterns of a neighborhood.
block·head (blok-hed) n. (informal) a stupid person.
block·house (blok-hous) n. 1. a strong wooden fort with loopholes for defenders to shoot from. 2. a reinforced concrete shelter.
blöke (blok) n. (British slang) a man.
blönd, blönde (blönd) adj. fair-haired.
blönd n. a fair-haired man. blönde n. a fair-haired woman.
blood (blud) n. 1. the red oxygen−bearing liquid circulating in the bodies of animals. 2. bloodshed. 3. temper, courage; his blood is up, he is in a fighting mood; there is bad blood between them, hatred. 4. race, descent, parentage; new blood, new members admitted to a family or group; a prince of the blood, of royal descent; they are my own blood, relatives. blood v. to give a first taste of blood to (a hound), to initiate. ▷ blood bank, a place where a supply of blood for transfusion is stored. blood bath, a massacre. blood count, the number of corpuscles in a specific volume of blood. blood group, a class or type of human blood. blood poisoning, the condition that results when the bloodstream is infected with harmful microorganisms that have entered the body, especially through a cut or wound. blood pressure, the pressure of blood within the arteries and veins; some suffered from high blood pressure and others from low blood pressure, abnormal conditions. blood relative, one related by blood, not by marriage. blood sports, sports involving killing. blood sugar, glucose in the blood, the quantity of this. blood test, an examination of a specimen of blood in a medical diagnosis. blood type, blood group. blood vessel, a vein, artery, or capillary carrying blood. in cold blood, see cold.
blood·cur·dling (blud-kurd-ling) adj. horrifying.
blood·ed (blud-id) adj. 1. of a specified kind of blood, as in red-blooded, hot-blooded, etc. 2. (of animals) of pure or nearly pure stock.
blood·hound (blud-hownd) n. a large keen-scented dog used in tracking. blood·less (blud-lis) adj. 1. having no blood. 2. looking pale, drained of blood. 3. without bloodshed. 4. lacking energy.
blood·let·ting (blud-let-ing) n. 1. surgical removal of some of a patient's blood. 2. bloodshed.
blood·line (blud-lin) n. the line of descent from ancestors, pedigree.
blood·mo· bile (blud-mobil) n. a vehicle in which donors can give blood for storage in a blood bank.
blood·red (blud-red) adj. as red as blood.
blood·root (blud-root) n. a North American wildflower with a red root and red juice.
blood·shed (blud-shed) n. the killing or wounding of people.
blood·shot (blud-shot) adj. (of eyes) red from dilated veins.
blood·stained (blud-staynd) adj. 1. stained with blood. 2. disgraced by bloodshed.
blood·stone (blud-stohn) n. a green variety of chalcedony spotted or streaked with red. blood·stream (blud-streem) n. the blood circulating in the body.
blood·suck·er (blud-suk-ær) n. 1. a creature that sucks blood. 2. a person who extorts money.
blood·thirst·y (blud-thur-stee) adj. eager for bloodshed.
bloody adj. (blood-ee) 1. blood-stained. 2. with much bloodshed, a bloody battle. 3. (British vulgar) damned, very great. bloody adv. (British vulgar) very, bloody awful. bloody v. (blood-led, blood-y-ing) to stain with blood. bloody-ly adv. blood-i-ness n. Bloody Mary, a drink of vodka, tomato juice, and spices.

bloom (bloom) n. 1. a flower. 2. beauty, perfection, in the bloom of youth. 3. fine powder on fresh ripe grapes etc. bloom v. 1. to bear flowers, to be in bloom. 2. to be in full beauty and perfection. bloom in, bloom out.

bloom-ers (bloo-merz) n. pl. 1. loose knee-length trousers worn as an outer garment by some women in the 19th century. 2. women's undergarments of this shape.

bloop-er (bloo-er) n. 1. (informal) an embarrassing mistake, especially one spoken on radio or television. 2. (slang) a baseball hit high but not far beyond the infield.

blos-som (blos-om) n. 1. a flower, especially of a fruit tree. 2. a mass of such flowers. blossom v. 1. to open into flowers. 2. to develop and flourish.

blot (blot) n. 1. a spot of ink etc. 2. something ugly, a blot on the landscape. 3. a fault, a disgraceful act or quality. blot v. (blot-ted, blot-ting) 1. to make a blot or blots on. 2. to dry with blotting paper, to soak up. blot out, to cross out thickly; to obscure, mist blotted out the view; to destroy completely.

blotch (bloch) n. a large irregular mark.

blotch v. to make an irregular patch of ink or color. blotch'y adj. (blotch-er, blotch-i-est).

blot-ter (blot-er) n. 1. a sheet of blotting paper. 2. a book for recording their occurrence, especially arrests, police blotter.

blot-ting (blot-ing) paper absorbent paper for drying ink writing.

blot-to (blot-to) adj. (slang) very drunk.

blouse (blows) n. 1. a shirtlike garment worn by women and children. 2. a waist-length coat forming part of a military uniform.

blow (blow) v. (blew, blown, blow-ing) 1. to move or flow as a current of air does. 2. to send out a current of air or breath, to move or propel by this; blow one's nose, clear it by breathing out through it; blow the whistle, sound it, alert the authorities to an instance of wrongdoing. 3. to shape (molten glass) by blowing into it. 4. to be moved or carried by air, the door blew open. 5. to puff and pant. 6. to melt with too strong an electric current, a fuse has blown. 7. to break with explosives. 8. (slang) to reveal; the spy's cover was blown, became known to the enemy. 9. (slang) to spend recklessly. blow n. 1. a blowing of air. 2. a storm. blow dry, to use a handheld dryer to style washed hair while drying it. blow in, (informal) to arrive casually or unexpectedly. blow one's mind, (slang) to astound; to indulge in hallucinations. blow one's own trumpet, to praise oneself. blow one's top, (slang) to show great anger. blow over, to die down. blow up, to inflate; to exaggerate; to make an enlargement of (a photograph etc.); to explode; to shatter by an explosion; to lose one's temper, to reprimand severely; to become a crisis, this problem has blown up recently.

blow2 n. 1. a hard stroke with a hand or weapon. 2. a shock, a disaster.

blow-by-blow (bloh-bi-bloh) adj. telling all the details of an event in their order of occurrence, a blow-by-blow account.

blow-er (blow-er) n. a person or thing that blows.

blow-fly (bloh-fi) n. (pl. -flies) a fly that lays its eggs on meat.

blow-gun (bloh-gun) n. a tube for propelling arrows or darts by blowing.

blown (blohn) see blow.

blow-out (bloh-owt) n. a burst tire.

blow-pipe (bloh-pip) n. 1. a tube for heating a flame by blowing air or other gas into it. 2. a tube used in glass blowing.

blow-sy, blow-zy (blow-zee) adj. red-faced and coarse looking, slatternly.

blow-torch (bloh-torch) n. an apparatus for directing a very hot flame on a selected spot, used for heating or cutting metals.

blow-up (bloh-up) n. 1. an explosion. 2. an enlargement (of a photograph etc.). 3. an outburst of anger.

blow-y (bloh-ee) adj. (blow-er, blow-i-est) windy.

BLT abbr. bacon, lettuce, and tomato sandwich.

blub-ber4 (blub-er) n. whale fat.

blub-ber2 v. to weep noisily.

blu-cher (bloo-kier) n. a strong leather half boot or high shoe.

blud-geon (blu-jon) n. a short stick with a thickened end, used as a weapon. bludgeon v. 1. to strike with a bludgeon. 2. to compel forcefully.

blue (bloo) adj. (blu-er, blu-est) 1. of the color of the sky on a cloudless day. 2. unhappy, depressed. 3. indecent, obscene, blue jokes. blue n. 1. blue color. 2. a blue substance or material, blue clothes. 3. the blue, the clear sky. blue bluebell (blu-bel) n. a plant with blue bell-shaped flowers.
blue-ber-ry (blu-ber-ee) n. (pl. -ries) 1. a shrub with edible blue berries. 2. its fruit.
blue-bird (blu-burd) n. a North American songbird with a blue back and rosy breast.
blue-black (blu-blak) adj. black with overtones of dark blue.
blue-blood (blu-blud) n. a person of aristocratic birth.
blue-bon-net (blu-bon-it) n. 1. a wildflower with blue blossoms common in the southwestern U.S. 2. a round flat blue woolen cap formerly worn by men in Scotland.
blue-book (blu-buuk) n. 1. a book in which students write their examinations. 2. a directory of socially prominent people.
blue-bot-tle (blu-bot-él) n. a large fly with a bluish body.
blue-chip (blu-chip) stock a stock that is a reliable investment, paying good dividends.
blue-col-lar (blu-kol-är) work-er man-ual or industrial worker.
blue-fish (blu-fish) n. (pl. -fish-es, -fish) a voracious game fish.
blue-gill (blu-gil) n. an edible North American freshwater sunfish of bluish hue.
blue-grass (blu-gras) n. 1. a bluish grass, especially of Kentucky. 2. a kind of country music.
blue-jack-et (blu-jak-it) n. a seaman in the U.S. Navy. blue-nose (blu-nohz) n. a puritanical person.
blue-pen-cil (blu-pen-sil) v. (blue-pen-ciled, blue-pen-cil-ling) to cross out with a blue pencil, to censor.
blue-point (blu-point) n. an oyster.
blue-print (blu-print) n. 1. a blue photographic print of building plans. 2. a detailed plan or scheme. blueprint v. to make a blueprint of.
blue-ness n. a woman with strong literary tastes and learning.
blue-et (blu-it) n. a blue-flowered plant.
bluff1 (bluf) adj. 1. with a broad steep front, a bluff headland. 2. abrupt, frank, and hearty in manner. bluff n. a bluff headland or cliff. bluff-ness n.
bluff2 v. to deceive someone by making a pretense, especially of strength. bluff n. bluffing, a threat intended to get results without being carried out. bluff'er n.
blue-ling, blue-ling (blu-ling) n. a laundry powder or liquid used to keep white fabrics from yellowing.
blue-ly adv. blue'n'ess n.
blur (blur) n. 1. a smear. 2. a confused or indistinct appearance. blur v. (blurred, blur-ring) 1. to smear. 2. to make or become indistinct. blur'ry adj.
blurb (blurb) n. a description of something praising it, as in advertising matter.
blurt (blurt) v. to utter abruptly or tactlessly, blurted it out.
blush (blush) v. to become red in the face from shame or embarrassment. blush n. such reddening of the face. blush'er n. at first blush, on first glimpse or impression.
bluster (blus-tér) v. 1. to be windy, to blow in gusts. 2. to talk aggressively, especially with empty threats. bluster n. such talk. blus'ter-y adj.
blvd abbr. boulevard.
BM abbr. 1. basal metabolism. 2. bowel movement.
BMR abbr. basal metabolic rate.
bn abbr. battalion.
B.O. abbr. (informal) body odor.
boa (boh-à) n. (pl. bo-as) 1. a large non-poisonous South American snake that kills its prey by crushing it. 2. a woman's fluffy scarf, usually feathered. boa constrictor, a Brazilian species of boa.
boar (bohr) n. 1. a male wild pig. 2. an uncastrated domestic pig.

board (bohred) n. 1. a long thin flat piece of wood. 2. a flat piece of wood or stiff material for a special purpose, as a diving board, a chessboard. 3. thick stiff paper used for book covers. 4. daily meals obtained in return for payment or for services, room and board. 5. a committee.

board v. 1. to cover with boards. 2. to go on board (a ship, train, etc.). 3. to receive or provide with room and board for payment. □ board up, to block with fixed boards. go by the board, to be ignored or rejected. on board, on or in a ship, train, etc.

board·er (boh·dér) n. a person who boards with someone.

board·ling (boh·ding) n. 1. boards. 2. material from which boards are cut, a structure or covering made of this.

board·ing·house (boh·ding·hows) n. a house at which room and board may be obtained for payment.

boarding school n. a school in which pupils receive room and board.

board·room (boh·rd·room) n. a room in which the meetings of the board of a company etc. are held.

board·walk (boh·rd·wawk) n. a footway made of boards.

boast (bohst) v. 1. to speak with great pride and try to impress people, especially about oneself. 2. to possess as something to be proud of, the town boasts a fine park. boast n. 1. a boastful statement. 2. a thing boasted of. boast·er n.

boast·ful (bohst·fül) adj. boasting frequently, full of boasting. boast·ful·ly adv. boast·ful·ness n.

boat (bohst) n. 1. a vessel for traveling on water, the kind moved by oars or sails or an engine, a steamer; a ship's boats, lifeboats carried on board ship. 2. a boat-shaped serving dish for sauce or gravy. □ boat drill, practice in launching a ship's boats. in the same boat, suffering the same troubles.

boat·er (boh·tér) n. 1. a person who rows a boat. 2. a hard flat straw hat.

boat·house (boh·thows) n. a shed at the water's edge for housing boats.

boat·ing (boh·ting) n. going out in a boat for pleasure.

boat·man (boht·män) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mên) a man who rows or sails or rents out boats.

boat·swain (boh·sūn) n. a ship's petty officer in charge of rigging, boats, anchors, etc.

bob (bob) v. (bobbed,bob·bing) 1. to make a jerky movement, to move quickly up and down. 2. to appear unexpectedly.

bob n. 1. a bobbing movement. 2. a fishing-line float.

bob1 v. (bobbed, bob·bing) to cut (hair) short so that it hangs loosely. bob n. the style of bobbed hair.

bob2 n. (pl. bob) (British slang) a shilling, 5p.

bob·bin (bob·in) n. a small spool holding thread or wire in a machine.

bob·ble (bob·bl) v. (bob·bled, bob·bing) 1. to tumble (a ball). 2. to blunder. bobble n. a tumble.

bob·by (bob·by) n. (pl. -bles) (British slang) a policeman.

bob·by pin n. a flat hairpin.

bob·by sock n. short socks covering the ankle. □ bobby soxer, an adolescent girl.

bob·cat (bob·kat) n. a North American short-tailed lynx.

bob·o·link (bob·ö·lingk) n. a North American songbird.

bob·sled (bob·sled) n. 1. a racing sled with two pairs of runners, a brake, and a steering mechanism. 2. a sled formed by two short sleds operating in tandem.

bobsled v. (bob·sled·ded, bob·sled·ding) to operate a bobsled. bobsled·ding n.

bob·tail (bob·tayl) n. 1. a docked tail. 2. a horse or dog with this.

bob·white (bob·hwit) n. a North American quail.

boc·cle (boh·cē) n. an Italian bowling game.

bock (bok) n. (also bock beer) strong dark-colored German beer, usually brewed for drinking in the spring months.

bode1 (bohd) v. (bod·ed, bod·ing) to be a sign of, to promise, it boded well or ill for their future.

bode2 (bohd) see bide.

bob·ice (bob·is) n. the upper part of a woman's dress, down to the waist.

bod·i·less (bod·i·lis) adj. having no body or material form.

bod·i·ly (bod·i·lee) adj. of the human body or physical nature. bodily adv. 1. in person, physically. 2. as a whole, the bridge was moved bodily fifty yards downstream.

bod·kin (bod·kin) n. a blunt thick needle with a large eye, for drawing tape etc. through a hem, a small pointed instrument for piercing cloth etc.

bod·y (bod·ee) n. (pl. bod·ies) 1. the structure of bones, flesh, etc. of man or an animal, living or dead. 2. a corpse, a carcass. 3. the trunk, the main part of a body apart from the head and limbs. 4. the main part of anything, an auto body. 5. (informal) a person, she's a cheerful old body. 6. a group or quantity of people, things, or matter, regarded as a unit. 7. a distinct piece of matter, an object in space. 8. thick texture, strong quality, this fabric has more body; this wine has no body. □ body blow, a severe setback; a hit to the body, as in boxing.

body count, (in the Vietnam War) the count of enemy soldiers killed in combat.

body English, twisting of the body during a game as if to help the ball travel in the desired path.

body language, positions and attitudes of the human body said to communicate feelings.

body odor, the smell of the human body, especially when unpleasant.

body politic, the nation or a similar organized system.

body stocking, a woman's undergarment covering the trunk, legs, and arms. In a body, all together. keep body and soul together, to have just enough food etc. to remain alive.

body-y-gurad (bod-ee-gahrd) n. a person’s escort or personal guard.

body-y-work (bod-ee-wurk) n. 1. the body of an automobile. 2. the repair of this.

Boer (bohr) n. a South African of Dutch descent.

bog (bog) n. an area of ground that is permanently wet and spongy, formed of decayed plants etc.

bog v. (bogged, bogging) to be stuck fast in wet ground, to cause to be stuck and unable to make progress.

bog'gy adj. (bog-gl'er, bog-gl'est).

bo-g'ey (buug-ee) n. (pl. -geys) 1. an evil spirit. 2. something that causes fear. 3. (pr. boh-gee) a score of one over par in playing one hole in golf.

bo-g'ey-man (buug-ee-man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) an imaginary man feared by children, especially in the dark.

bog'gle (bog-gl) v. (bog-gl'ed, bog-gl'ing) to hesitate in fright, to raise objections, the mind boggles at the idea.

Bo-go-ta (bohl-tah) the capital of Colombia.

Bo-gus (bohl-gus) adj. sham, counterfeit.

bo-gy (buug-ee, boh-gee) = bogey.

Bo-he-mi-a (boh-hee-mi-ah) a province of Czechoslovakia.

Bo-he-mi-an (boh-hee-mi-ahn) n. 1. a native or inhabitant of Bohemia. 2. (often bohemian) a socially unconventional person, especially an artist or writer, of free-and-easy habits, manners, and sometimes morals.

Bohemian adj.

boll1 (boll) n. an inflamed swelling under the skin, producing pus.

boll2 v. 1. to bubble up and change into vapor through being heated. 2. to heat (a liquid or its container) so that the liquid boils, to cook or wash or process thus, to be heated or cooked etc. thus. 3. to seethe like a boiling liquid, to be hot with anger.

boll n. the boiling point.

□ boll down, to reduce or be reduced in quantity by boiling; (informal) to express or be expressed in fewer words.

boiling hot, (informal) very hot.

boiling point, the temperature at which a liquid boils; a state of great anger or excitement.

boll over, to overflow when boiling.

boll'er (bol-lur) n. 1. a container in which water or other liquid is boiled. 2. a tank in which water is heated and stored until used. 3. a tank in a plant in which steam is made.

boll'er-mak'er (bol-lur-may-kur) n. 1. a person who builds or repairs boilers. 2. a serving of whiskey with a beer chaser.

Bo-lse (bol-zee) the capital of Idaho.

bois-te-rous (boi-steh-roo'us) adj. noisy and cheerful, boisterous children.

bois-te-rous-ly adv. bois-te-rous-ness n.

bo-la (boh-la) n. (pl. -las) a South American weapon consisting of balls connected by a strong cord (when thrown, it brings down quarry by entangling the limbs).

bold (bolld) adj. 1. confident and courageous. 2. without feelings of shame, impudent. 3. (of colors) strong and vivid.

bold’ly adv. bold’ness n.

bold-face (bolld-fayz) n. type or print with thick heavy lines. bold’faced adj.

bole (bol) n. the trunk of a tree.

bo-ler-o (bohl-loh-oh) n. (pl. -eros) 1. a Spanish dance, the music for this. 2. a woman's short jacket with no front fastening.

bo-l'var (bol-vair) n. (pl. bol-var-es, bol'va-res, pr. bol-vahr-es) the unit of money in Venezuela.

Bo-liv-i-a (bol-ee-ee-ah) a country in South America.

Bo-liv-i-an adj. & n.

boll (boll) n. a rounded seed vessel, as in flax or cotton. □ boll weevil, a small destructive insect infesting cotton plants.

bo-lo (bohl-oh) n. (pl. -los) a heavy knife used in the Philippines. □ bolo tie, a necktie in the form of a thick string held together by a decorative clip.

bo-lo-gna (bohl-oh-nee) n. a type of large meat sausage.

bo-lo-nee (bohl-oh-nee) n. (slang) nonsense.

Bo-lshe-vik (bol-shuh-vik) n. (pl. Bol-she-viks, Bol-she-vi-kli, pr. bohl-shuh-vik-l) 1. a member of the revolutionary party that seized power in Russia in 1917. 2. a socialist revolutionary.

Bo-lshe-vism (bol-shuh-viz-izhm) n. Bol'she-vist adj. & n.

bo-l'ster (bol-ster) n. a long cushion or pillow usually kept at the head of a bed.

bolster v. to support, to prop, bolster up confidence.

bolt1 (bohlit) n. 1. a sliding bar for fastening a door. 2. the sliding part of a rifle breech. 3. a strong metal pin for fastening things together. 4. a shaft of lightning. 5. a roll of fabric. 6. the act of bolting.

bolt v. 1. to fasten with a bolt or bolts. 2. to run away, (of a horse) to run off out of control. 3. to gulp down (food) hastily. □ a bolt from the blue, a complete (usually unwelcome) surprise. bolt upright, quite upright.

bolt2 v. to sift (flour).

bo-lus (boh-lúz) n. 1. a large pill. 2. a quantity of food at the moment of swallowing.

bomb (bom) n. 1. a container filled with explosive or incendiary material to be set off by impact or by a timing device. 2. the bomb, an atomic or hydrogen bomb, regarded as the supreme weapon. 3. (football slang) a long forward pass.

bomb v. 1. to attack with bombs. 2. (slang) to fail.

ban-bard (bom-bahrд) v. 1. to attack with shells from big guns. 2. to send a stream of high-speed particles against. 3. to attack with questions or complaints.

ban-bard’ment n.

ban-bar-dler (bom-bár-de-r) n. the member of a bomber crew who aims and releases bombs.

ban-bast (bom-bast) n. pompous speech.

ban-bas-tic (bom-bas-tik) adj. speaking pompously.

ban-ba-zine (bom-bá-zen) n. a twilled dress material of worsted with or without silk or cotton.

bombé (bombd) adj. (slang) drunk.

bo-mbivér (bom-br) n. 1. an aircraft that carries and drops bombs. 2. a person who throws or plants bombs.

bo-mbiv-proof (bom-proof) adj. strong enough to resist the explosion of a bomb.

bo-mbiv-shell (bom-shell) n. 1. a bomb. 2. something that comes as a great surprise and shock.

bo-mbiv-sight (bom-sit) n. a device in an aircraft for aiming bombs.

bo-na fide (boh-ná frd) genuine, without fraud, bona fide customers.

bo-na fídes (boh-ná ft-deez) honest intention, sincerity, he proved his bona fides. □ This is not a plural form of bona fides. It is incorrect to say “his bona fides were questioned”; say “was questioned.”

bo-nan-za (bó-nan-zá) n. a source of sudden great wealth or luck, a windfall.

bon apé-tit (bón ap-é-tit) (I wish you) a good appetite. □ French.

bon-bon (bon-bon) n. a candy, usually with a creamy filling.

bond (bón) n. 1. something that binds, attaches, or restrains, as a rope. 2. something that unites people. 3. a binding agreement, a document containing this. 4. money deposited as a guarantee. 5. a document issued by a government or public company acknowledging that money has been lent to it and will be repaid, usually with interest. 6. writing paper of high quality. bond v. 1. to connect or unite with a bond. 2. to put into a warehouse until taxes are paid. 3. to insure a contract etc. by means of a financial bond.

bon-age (bón-di) n. slavery, captivity.

bon-ed (bón-did) adj. stored in bond.

boned whiskey, whiskey that has been aged in a bonded warehouse for at least four years before bottling.

bon-hold-er (bón-hohl-dér) n. a person who owns bonds issued by a government or company.

bon-man (bón-mán), bonds-man (bonds-mán) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mén) a serf or slave.

bonds-man (bonds-mán) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mén) a bailsmen.

bon-wom-an (bón-wuüm-án) n. (pl. -wóm-en, pr. -wim-in) a woman in servdom or slavery.

bone (bón) n. 1. one of the hard parts that make up the skeleton of an animal's body. 2. a piece of bone with meat on it, as food. 3. the substance from which such parts are made, a similar hard substance. bone v. (boned, bon-ing) to remove the bones from. bone’less adj.

bone china, fine china made of clay mixed with bone ash. bone fish, a large game fish with many small bones. bone of contention, the subject of a dispute. bone weary, utterly weary. feel in one's bones, to feel sure by intuition. have a bone to pick, to have something to argue or complain about. make no bones about, to raise no objection to, to speak frankly about. wet to the bone, completely wet.

bone-dry (bón-drí) adj. quite dry.

bone-head (bón-hed) n. (slang) a stupid person. bone'head’ed adj.

bone-meal (bón-meel) n. crushed powdered bones used as a fertilizer.

bone-r (bón-nér) n. (slang) a blunder.

bone-fire (bón-frí) n. a large fire built in the open air to destroy rubbish or as a celebration.

bon-go (bóng-gó) n. (pl. -gos, -goes) one of a pair of drums played with the fingers.
bon·ho·mie (bon·o·mee) n. a genial manner.
bon·ni·to (bō-nē·toh) n. (pl. -tos, -to) a large mackerel-like fish.
bon·kers (bōn·kērz) adj. (British slang) crazy.
bon mot (bon mōt) (pl. bons mots, bon mots, pr. bon mōzh) a witty saying.
Bonn (bon) the capital of West Germany.
bon·net (bon·it) n. a hat with strings that tie under the chin.
bon·ny (bon·ee) adj. (-ni·er, -ni·est) (Scottish) good-looking.
bon·sai (bon·sāi) n. 1. a plant or tree grown in miniature form in a pot by artificially restricting its growth. 2. the method of cultivating this.
bo·nus (boh·nūs) n. (pl. -nūs·es) a payment or benefit in addition to what is usual or expected.
bon·vant (bon vē·vant) (pl. bon·vants, bons·vants, pr. bon·ven·vants) a person who lives well and especially one who enjoys good food and drink.
bon·voy·age (bon vwa·h-yahzh) (I wish you) a pleasant journey.
bon·y (boh·nee) adj. (bon·l·er, bon·l·est) 1. like bones. 2. having large or prominent bones, having bones with little flesh. 3. full of bones. bon·l·ness n. bonze (bonz) n. a Japanese or Chinese Buddhist priest. boo (boo) interj. 1. a sound made to show disapproval or contempt. 2. an exclamation used to startle someone. Boo v. to show disapproval by shouting "boo."
boob (boob) n. (slang) a foolish person.
boob·tube, (slang) a television set.
boo·by (boo·bee) n. (pl. -bies) a foolish person. 2. booby hatch, (slang) a mental institution. booby prize, a prize given as a joke to the competitor with the worst score. booby trap, a hidden trap rigged up for a practical joke; a hidden bomb placed so that it will explode when some apparently harmless object is touched or moved.
boo·by·trap (boo·bee·trap) v. (boo·by·trapped, boo·by·trap·ping) to place a booby trap in or on.
boo·die (boo·dē) n. (slang) 1. money, especially for political bribery. 2. loot from a robbery.
book (buuk) n. 1. a series of written, printed, or plain sheets of paper fastened together at one edge and enclosed in a cover. 2. a literary work that would fill such a book or books if printed, he is working on his book. 3. (informal) a magazine. 4. a number of checks, stamps, tickets, matches, etc. fastened together in the shape of a book. 5. one of the main divisions of a written work. 6. a libretto. 7. a record of bets made; make book, act as bookmaker. Book v. 1. to enter in a book or list; the police booked him for speeding, recorded a charge against him. 2. to reserve (a seat or accommodation etc.). Book club, an organization that sells books to its members at a reduced price. Book learning, knowledge gained from books without practical experience. Book match, one of the matches of a matchbook. Book value, value of a company's shares as entered in the company books, as opposed to market value. Bring to book, to make (a person) answer for his conduct. By the book, in accordance with the correct procedure. The Book or the Good Book, the Bible. Throw the book at, see throw.
book·case (buuk·kays) n. a piece of furniture with shelves for books.
book·end (buuk·end) n. one of a pair of usually ornamental props to keep a row of books upright.
book·le (buuk·ee) n. (informal) a bookmaker.
book·ish (buuk·ish) adj. fond of reading.
book·keep·er (buuk·kee·pər) n. a person who keeps the accounts of a business etc.
book·keep·ing (buuk·kee·ping) n. the systematic recording of business transactions.
book·let (buuk·lit) n. a small thin usually paper-covered book.
book·mak·er (buuk·may·kər) n. a person whose business is taking bets. Book·mak·ing n.
book·mark (buuk·mahrk) n. a strip of paper or other material placed between the pages of a book to mark a place.
book·mo·bile (buuk·mō·bīl) n. a vehicle equipped as a traveling lending library.
book·plate (buuk·playt) n. a decorative label with the owner's name pasted in the front of a book.
book·sell·er (buuk·sel·ər) n. a person whose business is selling books.
book·shelf (buuk·shelf) n. a shelf for standing books on.
book·stall (buuk·stawl) n. a booth at which books are sold.
book·store (buuk·stoar) n. a shop where books are sold.
book·worm (buuk·wurm) n. 1. a grub or insect that eats holes in books. 2. a person who is very fond of reading.
boom (boom) v. 1. to make a hollow deep resonant sound. 2. to have a period of prosperity or rapid economic growth. Boom n. 1. a booming sound. 2. a period of growth, prosperity, or increasing boom / born

value. □boom town, a town undergoing sudden rapid growth, as after the discovery of gold.

boom\(^2\) n. 1. a long pole used to keep the bottom of a sail stretched. 2. a floating barrier across a body of water, often used to contain oil spills. 3. a long pole or crane carrying a microphone etc.

boon\(-\)ang (boo-mê-rang) n. 1. a curved wooden missile that can be thrown so that it returns to the thrower if it fails to hit anything, used by Australian aborigines. 2. something that causes unexpected harm to its originator.

boomerang v. to act as a boomerang.

boon\(^1\) (boon) n. a benefit.

boon\(^2\) adj. boon companion, a pleasant, sociable companion.

boon\(-\)docks (boo-doks) n. pl. (slang) rough or isolated country.

boon\(-\)dog\(-\)gle (boo-dog-êl) n., (informal) trivial or unnecessary work.

boon\(-\)dog\(-\)ler n.

boor (boor) n. an ill-mannered person.

boor'ish adj. boor'ish\(-\)ly adv. boor'ish\(-\)ness n.

boost (boost) v. 1. to push upward. 2. to increase the strength, value, or good reputation of, to promote. boost n. 1. an upward thrust. 2. (slang) an increase.

boost'er n. □booster rocket, a rocket that powers the liftoff or early stage of a missile launching, and then may drop away.

boot\(^1\) (boot) n. 1. a shoe or outer covering for the foot and ankle or leg. 2. the boot, (slang) dismissal from a job. boot v. 1. to kick. 2. (slang) to dismiss. □boot camp, a training base for recruits in the U.S. Navy or Marines.

boot\(^2\) v. (old use) to profit. □to boot, in addition, besides.

boot\(-\)black (boot-blak) n. a person engaged in the business of polishing shoes.

boo\(-\)tee, boo\(-\)tie (boo-tee) n. a baby's knitted or crocheted boot.

booth (booth) n. 1. a small temporary shelter at a market or fair. 2. an enclosure for a public telephone. 3. a compartment in a large room, as for voting at elections. 4. a seating accommodation in a restaurant. 5. an enclosed stand or table where merchandise or food is displayed for sale.

boot\(-\)leg (boot-leg) v. (boot\(-\)legged, boot\(-\)leg\(-\)ging) to smuggle or sell (especially liquor) illegally. bootleg n. bootlegged liquor. bootleg adj. (of liquor etc.) smuggled or sold illegally.

boot\(-\)lick (boot\(-\)lik) v. (slang) to behave obsequiously, to fawn. boot'lick'er n.

boo\(-\)ty (boo-tee) n. (pl. -ties) loot.

booze (booz) v. (boozed, booz\(-\)ing) (informal) to drink alcohol, especially in large quantities. booze n. (informal) liquor; on the booze, boozing. booze'er n. booze'y adj.

bop\(^1\) (bop) v. (bopped, bop\(-\)ping) (slang) to hit or strike. bop n. (slang) a blow.

bop\(^2\) n. a kind of jazz music with complex harmony and highly syncopated rhythm.

bop'per n.

bo-rate (bohr-ayt) n. salt of boric acid.

bo\(-\)rax (bohr-aks) n. a soluble white powder that is a compound of boron, used in making glass, enamels, and detergents.

Bor\(-\)deaux (bor-doh) n. a red or white wine from Bordeaux in France, a similar wine from elsewhere.

bor\(-\)del\(-\)lo (bor-del-oh) n. (pl. -los) a brothel.

bor\(-\)der (bor-dér) n. 1. an edge or boundary, the part near this. 2. the line dividing two countries, the area near this. 3. an edging. 4. a strip of ground around a garden or a part of it, a perennial border.

border v. to put or be a border to. □border on, to be next to; to come close to, it borders on the absurd.

bor\(-\)der\(-\)land (bor-dér-land) n. the district near a boundary.

bor\(-\)der\(-\)line (bor-dér-lin) n. the line that marks a boundary. borderline adj. on the borderline between different groups or categories.

bore\(^1\) (bohr) see bear\(^2\).

bore\(^2\) (bohr) v. (bored, bor\(-\)ing) 1. to make (a hole or well etc.) with a revolving tool or by digging out soil. 2. to pierce or penetrate in this way; bore one's way, get through by pushing. bore n. 1. the hollow inside of a gun barrel or engine cylinder. 2. a hole made by boring.

bore\(^3\) v. (bored, bor\(-\)ing) to make (a person) feel tired or uninterested by being dull or tedious. bore n. a boring person or thing. bore'\-dom n. bored adj. bor'ing adj.

bore\(^4\) n. a tidal wave with a steep front that moves up some channels.

bo\(-\)re\(-\)al (bohr-i-äl) adj. of the north or the Arctic or the north wind.

bo\(-\)ric (bohr-ik) adj. of boron. □boric acid, a substance derived from boron, used as a mild antiseptic.

born (born) see bear\(^2\). (▷See the note under borne.) be born, to be brought forth by birth; born to suffer, destined for this by birth; their courage was born of despair, originated from this. born adj. 1. having a certain order or status or place of birth, first-born; well-born; foreign-born. 2. having a certain natural quality or ability, a born leader. □born again Christian, a person who, through a profound spiritual experience, claims to have received a new spiritual life. In all one's born days, (informal) in all one's lifetime. not born yesterday, experienced in people's ways and not easy to deceive.

borne (bohrn) see bear.
The word borne is used as part of the verb to bear only when it comes before by or after have, has, or had, as in children borne by Eve; she had borne him a son. The word born is used in such statements as a son was born.

bo-ron (bohr-on) n. a chemical element that is very resistant to high temperatures, used in metal working and in nuclear reactors.

bor-ough (bur-oh) n. 1. an incorporated town or village. 2. one of the five administrative districts of the City of New York.

bor·row (bor-oh) v. 1. to get the temporary use of, on the understanding that the thing received is to be returned. 2. to use without being the inventor; borrow their methods, copy them.

borscht (borsht), borsch (borsch) n. a Russian or Polish soup made from beets.

borscht belt, a resort area in the Catskill mountains of New York.

bor-zoi (bor-zoi) n. (also Russian wolfhound) a large hound with a narrow head and silky coat.

bosh (boss) interj. & n. (informal) nonsense.

bo'sn = boatswain.

bo-som (buuz-óm) n. 1. a person's breast. 2. the part of a garment covering this. 3. the center or innermost part; returned to the bosom of his family, to a loving family circle.

bosom friend, one who is dear and close.

bo-som-y (buuz-óm-mee) adj. having large breasts.

boss (baws) n. (informal) 1. a person who employs or controls or gives orders to workers. 2. a manager of a political organization.

boss v. (slang) to be the boss of, to give orders to; boss someone about, to order him about.

boss n. a round projecting knob or stud.

boss v. to ornament with bosses.

boss-y (baw-see) adj. (boss·i-er, boss·i-est) fond of ordering people about, doing this continually. boss·i·ly adv.

boss·i·ness n.

Bos-ton (baw-stön) the capital of Massachusetts.

bo-sun = boatswain.

bot. abbr. 1. botanical. 2. botanist. 3. botany. 4. bottle.

bo-tan·i·cal (bó-tan-i-kál), bo-tan·ic (bó-tan-ik) adj. of botany.
bouil·la*baisse (boh-yah-bayz) n. a fish stew made with several different types of fish.

bouil'lon (boh-yuh-隆) n. a girl's small private room or (informal) bedroom.

bou·doir (boh-dwar) n. a woman's small private room or (informal) bedroom.

bou·fant (boh-fahn) adj. puffed out.

bou·gain*vil·lae*a (boh-gan-vil-ay-uh) n. a tropical shrub with red or purple bracts.

bough (bow) n. a large branch coming from the trunk of a tree.

bought (bowt) v. buy.

bouil·la-baisse (boh-yul-bay) n. a fish stew made with several different types of fish.

bouil·lon (boh-yuh-隆) n. broth.

boul·der (boh-luhr) n. a large stone rounded by water or weather.

boul·e·vard (boh-luh-vahr) n. a wide street, often with trees on each side.

bounce (bownz) v. (bounced, bounc·ing) 1. to spring back when sent against something hard, to cause to do this. 2. (informal) (of a check) to be sent back by the bank as worthless. 3. to jump suddenly, to move in a lively manner.

bounce n. 1. bouncing, the power of bouncing. 2. a lively manner.

bounc·er (bown-ser) n. 1. a ball that bounces, as a baseball hit to the infield. 2. a man employed to eject undesirable customers from a club etc.

bounc·ing (bown-sing) adj. big and healthy, boisterous, a bouncing baby boy.

bounc·y (bown-see) adj. (bounc·er, bounc·er, bounc·y·est) full of bounce.

bound1 (bownd) n. limit, to be the boundary of.

bound2 v. to jump or spring, to run with jumping movements. bound n. a bounding movement.

bound3 adj. going or heading toward, bound for Spain; northbound traffic.

bound* v. see bind. bound adj. obstructed or hindered by, fog-bound. □ bound to, certain to. bound up with, closely associated with. I'll be bound, I feel certain.

bound·a·ry (bownd-uh-ree) n. (pl. -ries) a line that marks a limit.

bound·en (bownd-en) adj. (old use) obligatory, bounden duty.

bound·less (bownd-less) adj. without limits. bound/less/ness n.

bounds (bowndz) n. pl. limits. □ out of bounds, outside the areas one is allowed to enter; (in sports) outside the playing area.

boun·te·ous (bownt-ay-uss) adj. beneficent, plentiful, freely bestowed. boun·te·ously adv.

boun·ti·ful (bownt-ay-fuhl) adj. 1. giving generously. 2. abundant. boun·ti·ful·ly adv.

boun·ty (bown-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. generosity in giving. 2. a generous gift. 3. a reward or payment given as an inducement. □ bounty hunter, one who hunts wild animals in order to collect a bounty.

bou·quet (booh-kay, boh-kay) n. 1. a bunch of flowers for carrying in the hand. 2. a compliment, praise. 3. the perfume of wine. □ bouquet gar·nl (pr. gahn-nay), a bundle of herbs used for flavoring.

boun·thful (bown-thuhl) adj. plentiful, abundant.

boun·te·ous (bown-teen) adj. plentiful, undiscriminating.

bourn·ty (bourn-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. generosity in giving. 2. a generous gift. 3. a reward or payment given as an inducement. □ bounty hunter, one who hunts wild animals in order to collect a bounty.

bou·quet (booh-kay, boh-kay) n. 1. a bunch of flowers for carrying in the hand. 2. a compliment, praise. 3. the perfume of wine. □ bouquet gar·nl (pr. gahn-nay), a bundle of herbs used for flavoring.

boun·thful (bown-thuhl) adj. plentiful, abundant.

boun·te·ous (bown-teen) adj. plentiful, undiscriminating.
or liquid. 2. this with its contents, the amount it contains. 3. the hollow rounded part of a spoon, tobacco pipe, etc. 4. a stadium for football etc., Rose Bowl. bowlful n. (pl. -fuls).

bowl 2 n. a ball used in bowling, skittles, etc. bowl v. 1. to send rolling along the ground. 2. to play at bowling. 3. bowls, a game played on a bowling green by rolling heavy balls so that they stop near a target. □ bowl over, to knock down; to overwhelm with surprise or emotion.

bow-leg (boh-leg) n. outward curvature or bowing of one or both legs. bow-leg-ged (boh-leg-id) adj.

bowl-er 1 (boh-lěr) 1. a person who plays at bowls. 2. a person who bowls in bowling or cricket.

bowler 2 n. (also bowler hat) a hard felt hat with a rounded top, a derby hat.

bow-line (boh-lin, -lin) n. a simple but secure knot used by sailors.

bow-ling (boh-ling) n. a game played by rolling a bowling ball down a wooden alley to knock down as many as possible of a triangular group of ten pins. □ bowling alley, a long enclosure for bowling. bowling green, a lawn for playing bowls.

bowl-man (boh-mán) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mèn) an archer.

bow-sprit (boh-sprit) n. a spar running out from a ship's stem, to which the fore-stays are attached.

bow-string (boh-string) n. the string of a bow.

box 1 (boks) n. 1. a container with a flat base and usually a lid, for holding solids. 2. the amount it contains. 3. a boxlike receptacle, a money box, mailbox, etc. 4. a compartment, as with seats for several persons in a theater, for a horse in a stable or vehicle, for the jury or witnesses in a law court. 5. a small hut or shelter, sentry box. box v. to put into a box. □ box in or up, to shut into a small space, preventing free movement. box kite, a kite with an open boxlike frame.

box number, a number used to identify a box in a newspaper office to which letters to an advertiser may be sent. box office, an office from which tickets are sold at a theater etc. box pleat, an arrangement of parallel pleats folding in alternate directions. box spring, one of a set of vertical springs in a mattress.

box 2 v. to fight with the fists, to engage in boxing. box n. a slap with the open hand. □ box a person's ears, to slap them.

box 3 n. 1. a small evergreen shrub. 2. its wood.

box-car (boks-kahr) n. an enclosed railroad freight car.

box-er 1 (bok-sér) 1. a person who engages in boxing.

boxer 2 n. a dog of a short-haired breed with tan coat.

box-ing (bok-sing) n. the sport of fighting with the fists. □ boxing gloves, a pair of padded leather mittens worn in boxing. boxing ring, a square area, marked off by ropes, for boxing matches.

boy (boi) n. 1. a male child. 2. a young man. 3. a young male employee, an office boy. 4. (contemptuous) a male servant.

boy interj. an exclamation of surprise or joy. boy'hood n. □ boy scout, a member of the Boy Scouts, an organization intended to develop character through outdoor activities.

boy-cott (boi-kot) v. to refuse to have anything to do with; boycotted the goods, refused to handle or buy them. boycott n. boycotting, treatment of this kind.

boy-friend (boi-frend) a woman's usual or preferred male companion.

boy'ish (boi-ish) adj. like a boy. boy'ish-ly adv. boy'ish-ness n.

boy-sen-ber-ry (boi-zěn-ber-ee) n. (pl. -ries) 1. a hybrid of several species of bramble. 2. its blackberrylike fruit.

bp abbr. bishop.

B.P. abbr. 1. bills payable. 2. blood pressure.

BPOE abbr. Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

br. abbr. 1. branch. 2. brass. 3. brother. 4. brown.

Br. abbr. 1. Britain. 2. British.

bra (brah) n. a woman's undergarment worn to support the breasts, a brassiere.

brace (brays) n. 1. a device that clamps things together or holds and supports them in position. 2. a pair, five brace of partridge. 3. braces, (British) suspenders for trousers. brace v. (braced, brac-ing) to support, to give firmness to. brac'er n. □ brace oneself or brace up, to steady oneself in order to meet a blow or shock.

brace-let (brays-lít) n. 1. an ornamental band worn on the arm. 2. bracelet(s), (slang) handcuffs.

bra-ce-ro (brah-sair-oh) n. (pl. -ros) a Mexican doing seasonal agricultural work in the U.S.

brac-ing (bray-sing) adv. invigorating, stimulating.

brack-en (brak-ën) n. a large fern that grows on wasteland, a mass of such ferns.

brack-et (brak-it) n. 1. a support projecting from an upright surface. 2. either of the marks used in pairs for enclosing words or figures, [ ] 3. a group bracketed together as similar or falling between certain limits, an income bracket. bracket
v. (brack-et-ed, brack-et-ing) 1. to enclose or join by brackets. 2. to put together to imply connection or equality. 3. to place shots both short of the target and beyond it in order to find the range.

brackish
adj. slightly salty, brackish water.

bract
v. (brack-ed, brack-ing) to boast.

brag
v. (brag-ged, brag-ging) to boast.

brag-ger (brag-ger) n. a person who brags.

Brahman, Brahmin (brah-man) n. 1. a member of the highest or priestly caste among Hindus. 2. (informal) a highly cultured or intellectual aloof person. 3. a breed of cattle native to India and developed in the U.S.

Brahmanism, Brahminism (brah-män-ism) n. the social and religious practices, especially the caste system, of orthodox Hindus and Brahmans.

braid
v. 1. a woven ornamental trimming. 2. an interlacing of three or more strands of hair. braid v. 1. to plait. 2. to trim with braid.

braille
n. a system of representing letters etc. by raised dots that blind people can read by touch. Braille, braille v. (Brailled, Brail-ing) to represent in Braille. >Named after its inventor, Louis Braille.

brain
n. 1. the organ that is the center of the nervous system in animals, a mass of soft gray matter in the skull. 2. the mind or intellect, intelligence.

brain v. 1. to kill by a heavy blow on the head. 2. to hit on the head. □brain drain, the loss of educated people by emigration. brain trust, the group of advisers called in by President Franklin Roosevelt; a group of experts advising a government. brain wave, an electrical impulse in the brain.

brain-child (brain-child) n. a person’s invention or plan.

brain-less (brain-less) adj. stupid.

brain-power (brain-power) n. mental ability.

brain-storm (brain-storm) n. a sudden bright idea. brainstorm v. to engage in a conference designed to produce bright ideas.

brain-wash (brain-wash) v. to force (a person) to reject old beliefs and accept new ones by subjecting him to great mental pressure. brain’wash-ing n.

brain-y (brain-y) adj. (brain-i-er, brain-i-est) clever, intelligent.

braise (braize) v. (braised, brais-ing) to cook slowly with very little liquid in a closed container.

brake
v. (brayk) n. a device for reducing the speed of something or stopping its motion. brake v. (braked, braking) to slow down by means of this. □brake drum, a cylinder attached to a wheel, receiving the pressure of the brake shoe. brake fluid, the liquid used in a hydraulic brake. brake shoe, the part of a brake coming in contact with the wheel.

brake n. 1. a thicket.

brake n. a kind of bracken.

brake-man (brayk-män) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) a member of a train crew who acts as an assistant to a conductor.

bramble (bram-bèl) n. a rough shrub with long prickly shoots, a blackberry bush.

bran (bran) n. coarse meal consisting of the ground inner husks of grain sifted out from flour.

branch (branch) n. 1. an armlike part of a tree. 2. a similar part of a river, road, railroad, etc. 3. a subdivision of a family or a group of languages or a subject. 4. a local store, library, office, etc. belonging to a larger organization. branch v. to send out branches, to divide into branches. □branch off, to leave a main route and take a minor one. branch out, to begin a new line of activity.

brand (brand) n. 1. a trademark, goods of a particular make. 2. a mark of identification made with a hot iron, the iron used for this. 3. a piece of burning or charred wood. brand v. 1. to mark with a hot iron, to label with a trademark. 2. to give a bad name to, he was branded as a troublemaker.

brandish (brandish) v. to wave (a thing) in display or threateningly.

brand-new (brand-foo, -nyoo) adj. completely new.

brandy (brand-dee) n. (pl. -dies) a strong liquor distilled from wine or from fermented fruit juice. brandy v. (bran-died, bran-dying) to flavor or preserve with brandy.

brash (brash) adj. 1. vulgarly self-assertive. 2. reckless. brash’ly adv. brash’ness n.

Brasil (brah-zen-yà) the capital of Brazil.

brass (bras) n. 1. a yellow alloy of copper and zinc. 2. a thing or things made of this. 3. the brass wind instruments of an orchestra. 4. a brass memorial tablet in a church. 5. (informal) impudence.
brasserie / break

6. (slang) high-ranking officers or officials, the top brass. brass adj. made of brass. □ brass band, a band playing brass and percussion instruments only. brass hat, (slang) an officer of high rank. brass knuckles, see knuckle.

g. get down to brass tacks, to begin to consider the basic facts or practical details.

brasse·rie (bras-ê-ree) n. an unpretentious restaurant, originally one that served beer with food.

bras·siere (brä-zeer) n. a brassiere.

brat·va·ri·a (bra-vo-ri-a) n. a bratva.

bras·si·er (bras-ee-er) adj. (bras-i·er, brass·i·est) 1. like brass in appearance or sound. 2. bold and vulgar. brass'i·ness n.

brat (brat) n. (contemptuous) an obnoxious badly behaved child. brat'ty adj. brat'ti·ness n.

bräu·do (brä-vah-doh) n. (pl. -does, -dos) a show of boldness.

brave (brayv) adj. (brav·er, brav·est) 1. able to face and endure danger or pain. 2. splendid. brave n. an American Indian warrior. brave v. (braved, brav·ing) to face and endure with bravery. brave'ly adv. brav'er·y n. (pl. -er·ies) bravo (brah-vo) interj. well done! Bravo n. (pl. -vos) a shout of "bravo."

brä·vo·ra (brä-vyoor-ä) n. 1. a brilliant performance, an attempt at this. 2. a passage of music requiring great skill and spirit in performance.

brawl (brawl) n. a noisy quarrel or fight. brawl v. to take part in a brawl. brawl'er n.

brawn (brawn) n. muscular strength.

brä·umn (bräwnee) adj. (bräw·ner, braun·i·est) strong and muscular.

bray (bray) n. the cry of a donkey, a sound like this. bray v. to make this cry or sound.

braze (brayz) v. ( brazed, braz·ing) to solder with a hard solder that has a high melting point, as with an alloy of brass and zinc. braze n. a brazed joint.

bra·zen (bray·zen) adj. 1. made of brass, like brass. 2. shameless, impudent.

□ brazen it out, to behave, after doing wrong, as if one has nothing to be ashamed of. bra'zen·ly adv. bra'zen·ness n.

bra·zer (brä·zher) n. a basketlike stand for holding burning coals.

brazer2 n. a brass worker.

Bra·zi·li·a·n (brä-zil·i·a·n) adj. & n.

□ Braz·zi·l nut, a large three-sided nut.

Braz·za·ville (braz·ä-vil) the capital of Republic of Congo.

breach (breech) n. 1. the breaking or ne-
ard) the opening play. 6. (informal) a piece of luck; a bad break, bad luck. 7. a fair chance; give him a break, an opportunity. 8. an escape, a prison break. 9. (in harness racing) a horse's change from one type of step to another. □ break down, to cease to function because of mechanical failure; (of a person's health) to collapse; to give way to emotion; to act upon chemically and reduce to constituent parts; to analyze, break down the expenditure. break even, to make gains and losses that balance exactly. break fresh ground, to deal with some aspect of a subject for the first time. break in, to force one's way into a building; to interrupt; to accustom to a new routine; to use (shoes etc.) until wearable, fully operable, etc. break point, the point at which a person or thing gives way under stress. break in on, to disturb, to interrupt. break of day, dawn. break off, to bring to an end; to stop speaking. break one's neck, to fracture or dislocate one's neck; (informal) to make a great effort, we broke our necks to finish on time. break out, to begin suddenly; to exclaim; to force one's way out; to develop as a rash etc. break service, to win a game at tennis when one's opponent is serving. break the bank, to use up all the resources of a casino gambling table. break the heart of, to overwhelm with grief. break the ice, to overcome formality. break up, to bring or come to an end; to become weaker; to separate; to disband. break wind, to expel wind from the bowels or stomach. break with, to give up; to end one's friendship with.

break-a-ble (bray-kā-bēl) adj. able to be broken.

break-age (bray-kij) n. 1. breaking. 2. something broken. 3. an amount allowed for expected breaking. 4. change or an amount less than 1$, 5¢, or 10¢ kept by a vendor, a gambling house, etc. when only full or round figures are given.

break-a-way (brayk-ā-way) adj. 1. becoming separate or free. 2. that breaks or has broken away, a breakaway group.

break-down (brayk-down) n. 1. a mechanical failure. 2. a weakening. 3. a collapse of health or mental stability. 4. an analysis.

break-er (bray-kër) n. 1. a heavy ocean wave that breaks on the coast. 2. a person wishing to transmit a message (in CB radio).

break-fast (brek-fāst) n. the first meal of the day. breakfast v. to eat breakfast.

break-front (brayk-frunt) adj. having a center section that projects beyond those at either side. breakfront n. a breakfront cabinet.

break-in (brayk-in) n. a forcible entry, especially by a thief.

break-neck (brayk-nek) adj. dangerously fast, at breakneck speed.

break-through (brayk-throu) n. a major advance in knowledge.

break-up (brayk-up) n. breaking up, dissolution.

break-wa-ter (brayk-waw-tər) n. a wall built out into the sea to protect a harbor or coast against heavy waves.

break (breem) n. a fish of the carp family.

breast (brest) n. 1. either of the two milk-producing organs on the upper front of a woman's body. 2. the upper front part of the human body or of a garment covering this. 3. the corresponding part in animals. breast v. to face and advance, breasted the waves. □ breast stroke, a swimming stroke performed face downward, with sweeping movements of the arms.

breast-bone (brest-bohn) n. the bone down the center of the upper front of the body.

breast-feed (breed-feed) v. (breast-fed, breast-feed-ing) to feed (a baby) by allowing it to suck at the mother's breast.

breast-plate (brest-play) n. a piece of armor covering the breast.

breast-work (brest-wurk) n. a temporary defense or parapet a few feet high.

breath (breth) n. 1. air drawn into and sent out of the lungs. 2. breathing in, take six deep breaths. 3. a gentle blowing, a breath of wind. 4. a whisper, a trace, not a breath of scandal. □ in the same breath, immediately after saying something else. out of breath, panting after violent exercise. save one's breath, to refrain from useless discussion. take one's breath away, to make one breathless with surprise or delight. under one's breath, in a whisper.

breathe (breathe) v. (breathed, breath-ing) 1. to draw air into the lungs and send it out again, (of plants) to respire. 2. to take into or send out of the lungs, breathing cigar smoke. 3. to utter, don't breathe a word of it, keep it secret. □ breathe again, to feel relieved of fear or anxiety. breathing room, room to breathe; a pause for rest.

breathe-er (bree-thér) n. 1. a pause for rest. 2. a short period in the fresh air.

breath-less (breth-lis) adj. out of breath, panting. breath'less-ly adv. breath' less-ness n.

breath-tak-ing (breth-tay-king) adj. very exciting, spectacular.

breccia (brech-i-a) n. a composite rock of angular fragments of stone etc. cemented together.

bred (bred) see breed.

breech (breech) n. 1. the back part of a gun barrel. 2. the back part of anything. [breech birth, a birth in which the baby's buttocks appear first.]

breech-cloth (breech-clawth) n. a loin-cloth.

breech-es (brich-iz) pl. trousers reaching to just below the knee.

breech* (breez*) n. a person who breeds animals. [breeder, a nuclear reactor that produces more fissile material than it uses.]

breech*ing (breech-ing) n. 1. the production of young from animals, propagation. 2. good manners resulting from training or background.

breeze (breez) n. a light wind. [breeze v. (breezed, breez-ing) (informal) to move in a lively manner, they breezed in.]

breeze-way (breez-way) n. a roofed open-sided passageway connecting two buildings.

breezy (breezy) adj. (breez-i-er, breez-i-est) 1. exposed to wind. 2. pleasantly windy. 3. lively, jovial.

breezy-ly adv. breezy-ness n.

Bren (bren) gun a lightweight machine gun.

brethren (brethren) n. pl. (old use) brothers. [the Brethren, members of various German Protestant groups.]

Breton (bret-on) adj. of Brittany or its people. [Breton n. a native of Brittany. brev (brev) n. a mark "placed over a vowel to indicate that it is short."

brev-i-ar-y (brev-i-ar-y) n. (pl. -aries) a book of prayers to be said daily by Roman Catholic priests.

brev-i-ty (brev-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) shortness, briefness.

brew (broo) v. 1. to make (beer) by boiling and fermentation, to make (tea) by steeping. 2. to be under preparation in this way, the tea is brewing. 3. to bring about, to develop, trouble is brewing. [brew n. 1. a liquid made by brewing. 2. an amount brewed. 3. (informal) a glass of beer.]

brewer (broo-er) n. a person whose trade is brewing beer.

brew-ery (broo-er-e) n. (pl. -eries) a building in which beer is brewed.

bri-ar (broo-ar) = brier.

brib-a-ble (brí-bá-bél) adj. able to be bribed.

bride (brìd) n. something offered in order to influence a person illegally or improperly to act in favor of the giver. [bride v. (brided, brid-ing) to persuade by a bride. bride'er-y n. (pl. -eries) the act or practice of bribing.]

bric-a-brac (brík-ä-brak) n. pl. odd items of furniture, ornaments, etc. of no great value.

brick (brík) n. 1. a block of baked or dried clay or other substance used to build walls. 2. a rectangular block of something. 3. (slang) a kindhearted person. [brick adj. 1. built of brick. 2. brick-red. brick v. to block with brickwork.]

brick-bat (brík-bat) n. 1. a piece of brick, especially one used as a missile. 2. (informal) a piece of harsh criticism, she threw brickbats at me.

brick-lay-er (brík-lay-er) n. a workman who builds with bricks. [brick'lay-ing n.]

brick-red (brík-red) adj. of the red color of bricks.

brick-work (brík-wurk) n. a structure made of bricks.

brid-al (brí-dal) adj. of a bride or wedding.

bride (brìd) n. a woman on her wedding day, a newly married woman.

bride-groom (bríd-groom) n. a man on his wedding day, a newly married man.

brides'maid (brídz-mayd) n. a girl or unmarried woman attending the bride at a wedding.

bridge (brìj) n. 1. a structure providing a way across something or carrying a road or railroad etc. across. 2. the raised platform on a ship from which the captain and officers direct its course. 3. the bony upper part of the nose. 4. something that joins or connects or supports other parts. [bridge v. (bridged, bridging) to make or form a bridge over.]

bridge (brìj) n. 2. a card game developed from whist. [auction bridge, a variety of bridge in which the right to name the trumps and to play with the dummy goes, with each deal, to the player who makes the highest bid. contract bridge, the most common form of bridge, in which only the tricks the declarer has undertaken to make count toward the game.]

bridge-head (brìj-hed) n. a fortified area established in enemy territory, especially on the far side of a river.

Bridge-town (brìj-town) the capital of Barbados.

bridge-work (brìj-wurk) n. a partial denture supported by teeth on each side.

bril-dle (brì-dé) n. the part of a horse's... harness that goes on its head. bridle v. (bril·ied, bril·dled, bril·dling) 1. to put a bridle on. 2. to restrain, to keep under control. 3. to draw one’s head up in pride or scorn. □bride path, a path suitable for horseback riding but not for vehicles.
Brie (bree) n. a kind of soft cheese.
brief1 (bref) adj. 1. lasting only for a short time. 2. concise. 3. short in length. brief’ly adv.
brief2 n. 1. a summary of the facts of a case, drawn up by an attorney. 2. a summary. 3. instructions and information given in advance. 4. briefs, very short close-fitting underpants. brief v. 1. to give a brief to. 2. to instruct or inform concisely in advance. □hold no brief for, not to be obliged to support.
brief·case (bref·kays) n. a flat case with a handle for carrying documents.
brief·ing (bree·fing) n. a presentation (to reporters, government officials, etc.) of the facts of an event or other matter.
brid·er1 (bri·er) n. 1. a thorny or prickly plant with a woody stem. 2. a patch of such plants.
brider2 n. a white heath of southern Europe, the root of which is used for making tobacco pipes.
brig1 (brig) n. a two-masted sailing vessel.
brig2 n. a ship’s prison.
Brig. abbr. 1. brigade. 2. Brigadier.
 bri·gade (bri·gayd) n. 1. an army unit forming part of a division. 2. a group of people organized for a particular purpose.
brig·a·dier (brig·a·deer) general an officer ranking immediately above colonel and below major general in the U.S. Army, Air Force, and Marine Corps.
brig·and ( brig·and) n. a member of a band of robbers.
brig·an·tine (brig·an·teen) n. a two-masted vessel with a square-rigged forecastle and a fore-and-aft rigged mainmast.
 bright (brít) adj. 1. giving out or reflecting much light, shining. 2. cheerful. 3. quick-witted, clever. bright adj. brightly. bright’ly adv. bright’ness n.
 bright·en (brít·en) v. to make or become brighter. bright’en·er n. bril·liant (brig·yant) adj. 1. very bright or sparkling. 2. very clever. brilliant n. a cut diamond with many facets. bril· liant’ly adv. bril’liance n. bril’lian·cy n.
bril·li·nate (bril·yant) n. a substance used to make the hair glossy.
brim (brim) n. 1. the edge of a cup or hollow or channel. 2. the projecting edge of a hat. brim v. (brim·med, brim· ming) to fill or be full to the brim. brim·less adj.
bristly / broken

etc. in a brush. bristle v. (bris·tled, bris·tling) 1. (of an animal) to raise the bristles in anger or fear. 2. to show indignation. 3. to be thickly set with bristles. □bristle with, to be full of, the plan bristled with difficulties.

bris·tly (bris-lee) adj. (-tli·er, -tli·est) full of bristles.

Brit·ain (brit-in) also (Great Britain) England, Wales, and Scotland.

Brit·tan·ni·a (brit-tan-ē-ə) the personification of Britain, shown as a woman with a shield, helmet, and trident. □Britan·nia metal, an alloy of tin with copper, antimony, and sometimes bismuth, used for tableware etc.

Brit·tan·nic (brit-tan-ik) adj. of Britain, Her Britannic Majesty.

brit·ch·es (brich·ez) pl. informal a pair of breeches or trousers.

Brit·l·cism (brit·l-siz·ēm) n. a word or an idiom used in Great Britain but not in the U.S. etc.

Brit·ish (brit·ish) adj. of Great Britain or its inhabitants. □British Columbia, a province of Canada. British English, the English language as spoken in Britain. British Isles, Britain and Ireland with the islands near its coasts. British thermal unit, the amount of heat needed to raise the temperature of a pound of water by one degree F. the British, British people.

Brit·ish·er (brit·ish·er) n. a native or inhabitant of Britain.

Brit·on (brit·ōn) n. 1. a native or inhabitant of southern Britain before the Roman conquest. 2. a native or inhabitant of Great Britain or (formerly) the British Empire.

brist·le (brit·l) adj. (-tler, -tlest) hard but easily broken. brist·le·ly adv. brist·le·ness n.

bro. abbr. brother.

broach (broch) v. 1. to make a hole in (a cask) and draw out liquid. 2. to begin a discussion of, broached the topic.

broach; do not confuse broach with brooch.

broad (broad) adj. 1. large across, wide. 2. measuring from side to side, 50 feet broad. 3. full and complete, broad daylight; a broad hint, strong and unmistakable; a broad New England accent, strongly regional. 4. in general terms, not detailed, in broad outline, without details. 5. rather coarse, broad humor.

broad n. 1. the broad part. 2. (slang) a woman. broad·ly adv. broad·ness n. □broad bean, an edible bean with large flat seeds. broad jump, a track event of jumping as far as possible along the ground in one leap, usually from a running start. broadly speaking, speaking in a general way.

broad·band (broad·band) adj. of or sensitive to a wide range of frequencies.

broad·cast (broad·cast) v. (broad·casting, broad·cast·ed, broad·cast·ing) 1. to send out by radio or television. 2. to speak or appear in a radio or television program. 3. to make generally known. 4. to sow (seed) by scattering. broadcast n. a broadcast program. broad·cast·er n.

broad·cloth (broad·cloth) n. a fine twilled woolen cloth or plainly woven cotton cloth (the name refers to quality rather than width).

broad·en (broad·en) v. to make or become broad. broad·en·ing adj.

broad·loom (broad·loom) adj. woven in broad widths.

broad·mind·ed (broad·mind·ed) adj. having tolerant views.

broad·side (broad·side) n. 1. the firing of all guns on one side of a ship. 2. a strong attack in words. 3. an advertisement, usually printed on a large sheet of paper.

broadside on, sideways on.

broad·spec·trum (broad·spec·trum) adj. having a wide range.

broad·sword (broad·sword) n. a broad-bladed cutting sword.

broad·tail (broad·tail) n. caracul fur.

broad·way (broad·way) n. 1. a street in New York City extending the length of Manhattan and famous for its stores and theaters. 2. (informal) the professional theater in New York City.

bro·cade (bro·cade) n. a fabric woven with raised patterns.

bro·ca·de·d (bro·ca·de·d) adj.

broc·co·li (brok·ō·li) n. (pl. -li) a variety of cauliflower, whose green flower head is cooked as a vegetable.

brō·chette (bro·shet) n. a skewer used in cooking.

bro·chure (bro·shoo) n. a booklet or pamphlet containing information.

bro·gan (bro·gan) n. a heavy work shoe reaching to the ankle.

brogue (brog) n. 1. a strong shoe with ornamental perforated bands. 2. a dialectal accent, especially Irish.

broll (broil) v. 1. to cook (meat) on a fire or gridiron. 2. to make or be very hot, especially from sunshine.

broll·er (broil·er) n. 1. a young chicken suitable or specially reared for broiling or roasting. 2. a pan for broiling food.

broke (brok) see break. broke adj. (slang) having spent all one’s money, bankrupt.

bro·ken (brok·ən) see break. bro·ken·ly adv. broken English, English spoken imperfectly by a foreigner. broken home, a family lacking one parent as a result of divorce or separation.

bro-ken-heart-ed (broh-kên-hahr-tid) adj. crushed by grief.

bro-ker (broh-kër) n. an agent who buys and sells things on behalf of others, a stockbroker.

bro-ker-age (broh-kër-rij) n. 1. a broker's fee or commission. 2. a broker's business.

brokerage firm, a company whose business is buying and selling on commission.

bro-mide (broh-míd) n. 1. a compound of bromine, used in medicine to calm the nerves. 2. a commonplace or soothing remark. bro-mid-ic (broh-mid-ik) adj.

bro-mine (broh-meen) n. a chemical element, compounds of which are used in medicine and photography.

bron-chi-al (brong-ki-äl) adj. of the branched tubes into which the windpipe divides before entering the lungs.

bron-chi-tis (brong-ki-tis) n. inflammation of the mucous membrane inside the bronchial tubes. bron-chit-ic (brong-kit-ik) adj.

bron-chus (brong-küs) n. (pl. -chi, pr. -ki) either of the two main divisions of the windpipe.

bron-co (brong-koh) n. (pl. -cos) a wild or half-tamed horse of western North America. bronco buster, a cowboy who breaks in broncos.

bron-to-saur (bron-tô-sor) n. (pl. -sauras), bron-to-saur-us (bron-tô-sor-ús) (pl. -rus-es) a herbivorous dinosaur from the Jurassic and Cretaceous periods, one of the largest terrestrial vertebrates.

Bronx (brongks) cheer (informal) a rude sound made with the mouth, a raspberry.

bronze (bronz) n. 1. a brown alloy of copper and tin. 2. a thing made of this, a bronze medal (awarded as third prize). 3. its color. bronze adj. made of bronze, bronze-colored. bronze v. (bronzed, bronzing) to make or become tanned by sun. Bronze Age, the period when weapons and tools were made of bronze.

brooch (broch) n. an ornamental hinged pin fastened with a clasp. Do not confuse brooch with broach.

brood (brood) n. 1. the young birds or other animals produced at one hatching or birth. 2. (informal) a family of children. brood v. 1. to sit on eggs to hatch them. 2. to think long and deeply or sentimentally. brood-er n. brood mare, a mare kept for breeding.

brook (bruuk) n. a small stream.

brook trout, a common speckled food and game fish found in cold waters of eastern North America.

brook3 v. to tolerate, he would brook no interference.

broom (broom) n. 1. a shrub with yellow or white flowers. 2. a long-handled brush for sweeping with.

broom-stick (broom-stik) n. a broom handle.

Bros. abbr. Brothers.

broth (brawth) n. the water in which meat or fish has been boiled, soup made with this.

broth-el (broth-ël) n. a house where women work as prostitutes.

broth-er (bruth-ër) n. 1. a son of the same parents as another person. 2. a man who is a fellow member of a church or labor union or other association. 3. a monk who is not a priest; Brother, his title.

broth'er-ly adj. broth'er-ly-ness n.

broth'er-hood (bruth-ër-hood) n. 1. the relationship of brothers. 2. brotherliness, comradeship. 3. an association of men, its members.

broth'er-in-law (bruth-ër-in-law) n. (pl. broth'ers-in-law) the brother of one's husband or wife, the husband of one's sister.

brought (brawt) see bring.

br ou-ha-ha (broo-hah-hah) n. a commotion.

brow (brow) n. 1. an eyebrow. 2. the forehead. 3. a projecting or overhanging part, the brow of the hill, the ridge at the top.

brow-beat (brow-beet) v. (brow beat, brow-beat-en, brow-beat-ing) to intimidate.

brown (brown) adj. 1. of a color between orange and black. 2. having skin of this color, sun-tanned. 3. (of bread) brown in color, especially through being made with whole-wheat flour. brown n. 1. brown color. 2. brown clothes or material. brown v. to make or become brown.

brown bagging, bringing lunch to work from home; carrying wine or liquor into a restaurant or club. browned off, (slang) bored, fed up. brown paper, strong coarse paper for wrapping parcels etc. brown sugar, sugar that is only partly refined. do it up brown, (slang) to do it wonderfully well. In a brown study, deep in thought.

brown-le (brow-nee) n. 1. a friendly goblin. 2. a chocolate cookie cake.
Brown·ie (brow-nee) n. a member of the junior branch of Girl Scouts at ages seven and eight. □ earn Brownie points, to do good deeds.

brown·ish (brow-nish) adj. rather brown.

brown·out (brow-owt) n. a partial blackout, a cut in electric current.

brown·stone (brow-stohn) n. 1. a dark brown sandstone used in building. 2. a building made of this.

browse (browz) v. (browsed, browsed, browsing) 1. to feed as animals do, on leaves or grass etc. 2. to look through a book, or examine items for sale, in a casual leisurely way. browse n. browsing.

bru·in (bri-in) n. a personifying name for a bear.

bruis·e (broy-zē) n. a bruise. bruise v. (bruised, bruising) 1. to cause a bruise or bruises on. 2. to show the effects of a knock etc.

bru·nis·er (broy-zēr) n. a big muscular man.

bruit (broyt) v. to spread a report about.

brunch (brunch) n. (informal) a single meal instead of breakfast and lunch.

bru·net (broy-net) n. a man with darkish hair or skin. brunet adj. having dark color.

bru·nette (broy-net) n. a woman with darkish hair or skin. brnete adj. having dark color.

brunt (brunt) n. the chief stress or strain, bore the brunt of the attack.

brush (brush) n. 1. an implement with bristles of hair, wire, or nylon etc. set in a solid base. 2. a brushlike piece of carbon or metal for making a good electrical connection. 3. the bushy tail of a fox or other animal. 4. a short sharp encounter. 5. a brushing, give it a brush.

brush v. 1. to use a brush on, to remove with a brush or by passing something lightly over the surface of. 2. to touch lightly in passing. □ brush aside, to reject casually or curtly. brush off, to reject curtly, to snub. brush up, to study and revive one's former knowledge of.

brush adj.

brush² = brushwood.

brushed (brusht) adj. with raised nap, brushed nylon.

brush·less (broy-les) adj. used without a brush.

brush·off (broy-off) n. a curt rejection, a snub.

brush·wood (broy-wood) n. 1. a thicket. 2. cut or broken twigs.

brush·work (broy-work) n. the style of the strokes made with a painter's brush.

brusque (broyk) adj. curt and offhand in manner. brusquely adv. brusqueness n.

Brus·sels (brow-elz) the capital of Belgium. □ Brussels sprouts, the edible buds growing thickly on the stem of a kind of cabbage.

brut (broot) adj. (of wine) dry, not sweet.

bru·tal (brow-tal) adj. very cruel, merciless. bru·tal·ly adv. bru·tal·ty (brow-tal-tee) n.

bru·tal·ize (brow-tal-iz) v. to brutalize, to brutalize to make brutal.

brute (broot) n. 1. an animal other than man. 2. a brutal person. 3. (informal) an unpleasant or difficult person or thing.

brute adj. 1. like an animal. 2. savage, cruel. 3. unreasonable. brught adj. □ brute force, unreasonable force.

B.S. abbr. 1. Bachelor of Science. 2. bill of sale.

B.Sc. abbr. Bachelor of Science.

bskt. abbr. basket.

B.T.v. abbr. British thermal unit(s).

bu. abbr. bushel(s).

bub·ble (bub-ēl) n. 1. a thin ball of liquid enclosing air or gas. 2. a small ball of air in a liquid or in a solidified liquid, such as glass. 3. a transparent domed cover. bubble v. (bub·bled, bubbling) 1. to send up bubbles, to rise in bubbles, to make the sound of these. 2. to show great liveliness. □ bubble bath, a bath in which water is made to foam by a perfumed liquid or crystals; this substance. bubble gum, a chewing gum that can be blown into large bubbles.

bub·bly (bub·lee) adj. (bil·er, -bil·est) full of bubbles. bubbly n. (slang) champagne.

bu·bo (boy-ooh) n. (pl. -boes) an inflamed swelling in a gland, especially in the groin or armpit.

bu·bonic (byoo-bon-ik) plague an epidemic disease characterized by buboes and fever.

buc·ca·neer (buk·kā-neer) n. a pirate.

Bu·chan·an (byoo-kan·ān) James (1791–1868) the fifteenth president of the U.S. 1857–61.

Bu·cha·rest (boo-kā-rest) the capital of Rumania.

buck¹ (buk) n. the male of a deer, hare, or rabbit. buck v. 1. (of a horse) to jump with the back arched. 2. (slang) to resist or oppose, bucking the system. □ buck fever, nervousness of an inexperienced hunter at the first chance to shoot. buck up, (slang) to make or become more cheerful.

buck² n. a counter placed as a reminder before the person whose turn it is to deal at poker. □ pass the buck, (slang) to shift responsibility (and possible blame) to someone else. buck-passing n. buck-passer n.
buck n. (slang) a dollar. a fast buck, easy money.
buck n. a small vaulting horse for gymnastics.
buck-board (buk-bohrd) n. 1. a plank slung upon wheels. 2. a light vehicle with a body consisting of this.
buck-et (buk-it) n. 1. a round open container with a handle, used for holding or carrying liquids or substances that are in small pieces. 2. this with its contents, the amount it contains. buck’et-ful n. (pl. -fuls). □ bucket seat, an automobile seat with a rounded back for one person.
buck-eye (buk-i) n. 1. a tree of the horse chestnut family. 2. its shiny brown nut.
buck-le (buk-él) n. a device, usually with a hinged tongue, through which a belt or strap is threaded to secure it. buckle v. (buck-led, buck-ling) 1. to fasten with a buckle. 2. to crumble under pressure, to cause to do this. □ buckle down to, to set about doing. buckle to, to make a vigorous start on work.
buck-ler (buk-lér) n. a small round shield, usually held by a handle.
buck-ram (buk-rám) n. a stiffened cloth, especially that used for binding books.
buck-saw (buk-saw) n. a saw for cutting firewood, with its blade set across a wooden frame.
buck-shot (buk-shot) n. coarse shot.
buck-skin (buk-skin) n. leather made of buck's skin. buckskin adj.
buck-thorn (buk-thorn) n. a kind of thorny shrub.
buck-tooth (buk-tooth) n. (pl. -teeth, pr. -teeth) a projecting upper front tooth. buck-toothed adj.
buck-wheat (buk-hweet) n. 1. a plant with seeds that are used as feed or made into flour. 2. its seeds.
busy (bús) (byoo-kol-ik) adj. characteristic of country life.
bud (bud) n. 1. a small knob that will develop into a branch, leaf cluster, or flower. 2. a flower or leaf not fully open; in bud, putting forth such buds. bud v. (bud-ded, bud-ding) 1. to be in bud. 2. to graft a bud on a plant.
Bu-da-pest (boo-dá-pest) the capital of Hungary.
Bud-da (boo-dá) n. 1. the title (often treated as a name) of the Indian philosopher Gautama (5th century B.C.), and a series of teachers of Buddhism. 2. a statue or carving representing Gautama Buddha.
Bud-dhism (boo-diz-ém) n. an Asian religion based on the teachings of Buddha. Bud’hist adj. & n. bud-ding (bud-ing) adj. beginning to develop, a budding poet.

bud-dy (bud-e) n. (pl. -dies) (informal) a friend.
buddy-buddy (bud-e-bud-e) adj. (informal) extremely friendly.
buf-fet (buf-ét) n. 1. to move slightly. 2. to cause to alter a position or opinion.
bu-ger-li-gar (buf-ér-gi-gar) n. a kind of Australian parakeet, often kept as a cage bird.
buf-get (buf-it) n. 1. an estimate or plan of income and expenditure. 2. the amount allotted for a particular purpose. budget v. (buf-get-ed, buf-get-ing) to plan or allot in a budget.
buf-gle (buf-e) n. (informal) a budgerigar.
Bue- nos Ais-res (bway-nos óo-éz) the capital of Argentina.
buf-f (buf) n. 1. strong velvety dull-yellow leather made from the hide of the buffalo or other animals. 2. the color of this. 3. the bare skin, stripped to the buff. 4. (informal) a devotee of an activity etc. buff adj. dull yellow. buff v. to polish with soft material.
buf-fa-lo (buf-ló) n. (pl. -loes, -los, -lo) 1. a kind of ox found in Asia and South Africa. 2. the bison of North America. buffalo v. 1. (slang) to intimidate. 2. to confuse or mystify.
buf-fer (buf-ér) n. something that lessens the effect of an impact, a device for this purpose. buffer v. to act as a buffer to.
buf-fer state, a small country between two powerful ones, thought to reduce the chance of war between these. buffer zone, a neutral zone between two hostile powers.
buf-fer n. a person or thing that buffs or polishes something.
buf-fet (buf-fé) n. 1. a counter where food and drink may be bought and consumed. 2. provision of food where guests serve themselves, a buffet lunch. 3. a cabinet for holding china.
buf-fet (buf-it) n. a blow, especially with the hand. buffet v. (buf-fet-ed, buf-fet-ing) 1. to slap or punch. 2. to struggle ahead or force one's way.
buf-foon (buf-oon) n. a person who plays the fool. buf-foon'er-y n.
buf-g (buf) n. 1. any small insect. 2. (slang) a microbe, especially one causing disease. 3. (slang) a very small hidden microphone installed secretly. 4. (slang) a mechanical defect. 5. (slang) a devotee of an activity etc. bug v. (bugged, bug-gling) (slang) 1. to fit with a hidden mi-bug-a-boo (bug-ä-boō) n. (pl. -boos) a bugbear.

bug-bear (bug-bair) n. something feared or disliked.

bug-eyed (bug-īd) adj. (slang) with bulging eyes.

bug-gy (bug-ee) n. (pl. -gies) 1. a light horse-drawn carriage. 2. a small sturdy vehicle, beach buggy.

bugle1 (byoo-gel) n. a brass instrument like a small trumpet, used for sounding military signals.

bugle2 n. a creeping plant with small dark blue flowers.

bugler (byoo-glēr) n. one who sounds a bugle.

build (bild) v. (built, build-ling) to construct by putting parts or material together. built n. bodily shape, of slender build. build on, to rely on. build up, to accumulate; to establish gradually; to fill in with buildings; to boost with praise or flattering publicity. build-up n.

build-er (bil-dēr) n. a person who builds, one whose trade is building houses etc.

build-ing (bil-ding) n. 1. the constructing of houses etc. 2. a house or similar structure. building and loan, an organization that accepts deposits and lends out money on mortgage to people wishing to buy or build houses.

built (bilt) see build. built adj. having a specified build, sturdily built.

built-in (bilt-in) adj. incorporated as part of a structure.

built-up (bilt-up) adj. filled in with buildings; built-up area, an urban area.

Bu-jum-bu-ra (boo-joom-boo-rah) the capital of Burundi.

bulb (bulb) n. 1. a thick rounded mass of scalelike leaves from which a stem grows up and roots grow down. 2. a plant grown from this. 3. a bulb-shaped object. 4. an electric lamp, the glass part of this.

bulbous adj.

Bul-gar-i-an (bul-gar-i-an) adj. & n.

bulge (bulj) n. a rounded swelling, an outward curve. bulge v. (bulged, bulging) to form a bulge, to cause to swell out.

bulgur (bulgur) n. a form of wheat processed by parboiling, cracking, and drying.

bulk (bulk) n. 1. size or magnitude, especially when great. 2. the greater part, the majority. 3. a large shape or body or person. bulk v. to increase the size or thickness of.

bulk-head (bulk-head) n. an upright partition in a ship, aircraft, or vehicle.

bulk-y (bul-kee) adj. (bulk-i-er, bulk-i-est) taking up much space.

bull1 (buul) n. 1. an uncastrated male of any animal of the bovine family. 2. the male of the whale, elephant, and other large animals. 3. a speculator who buys shares etc. in the hope that prices will rise and that he will be able to sell them at a higher price very soon. 5. the bull's-eye of a target. 6. the Bull, a sign of the zodiac, Taurus. bull'ish adj. bull pen, (in baseball) the area where relief pitchers warm up.

bull2 n. an official edict issued by the pope.

bull n. (slang) an obviously absurd statement, lies, nonsense. bull session, (slang) a spontaneous discussion. shoot the bull, (slang) to make idle talk.

bull-dog (buul-dawg) n. a dog of a powerful breed with a short thick neck. bulldog v. (bull-dogged, bull-dogging) to throw a steer by grasping its horns and twisting its head.

bull-doze (buul-dohz) v. (bull-dozed, bull-doz-ing) 1. to clear with a bulldozer. 2. (informal) to force or intimidate, he bulldozed them into accepting it.

bull-dozer (buul-dohz-er) n. a powerful tractor with a broad steel blade mounted in front, used for shifting earth or clearing ground.

bull-let (buul-it) n. a small round or conical missile used in a rifle or revolver.

bull-ei-ten (buul-it-tin) n. 1. a short official statement of news. 2. a periodical publication, a journal.

bull-let-proof (buul-it-proof) adj. capable of protecting from the full impact of a bullet, some policemen wear bulletproof vests.

bull-fight (buul-fit) n. the Spanish and Latin American spectacle in which a bull is baited and killed by a matador.

bull-finch (buul-finch) n. a songbird with a strong beak and a pinkish breast.

bull-frog (buul-frog) n. a large American frog with a loud bellow.

bull-head (buul-hed) n. a small big-headed fish.

bull-head-ed (buul-hed-id) adj. obstinate, impetuous, blundering.

bull-horn (buul-horn) n. an electrically powered megaphone.

bull-lion (buul-yōn) n. gold or silver in bulk or bars, before coining or manufacture.

bull-ock (buul-ōk) n. a bull after castration.

bull-ring (buul-ring) n. an arena for bullfights.

bull's-eye (buulz-ī) n. 1. the center of a bu*reau*cy

bu*reau*crat

burgeon

bu-rette,

bu-reau-crat-ic

bur*

burn

burgh

burgess

bur

bur. abbr. bureau.

bur*ble (bur-bël) v. (bur-bled, burbling) to make a gentle murmuring sound, to bubble.

bur*den (bur-dên) n. 1. something carried, a heavy load. 2. something difficult to support, the heavy burden of taxation.

burden v. to load, to put a burden on.

beast of burden, an animal that carries packs on its back. the burden of proof, the obligation to prove what one says.

bur*den-some (bur-dên-sôm) adj. troublesome, tiring.

bur*dock (bur-dok) n. a coarse weedy plant with prickly flower heads and dock-like leaves.

bu*rea*u (byoor-oh) n. (pl. -reaus, -reaux, pr. byoor-ohz) 1. a chest of drawers, often with a mirror above it. 2. an office or department, a travel bureau; the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

bu*rea*u*cr*acy (byuu-rok-rá-see) n. (pl. -cles) 1. government by administrative officials. 2. these officials. 3. excessive official routine.

bu*rea*u*cr*at (byoor-ô-krat) n. an official who works in a government office, one who applies the rules of his department without exercising much judgment.

bu*rea*u*cr*at-ic (byoor-ô-krat-ik) adj. 1. of bureaucracy. 2. of or like bureaucrats.

bu*ret*te, bu*ret (byuu-ret) n. a graduated glass tube with a tap, used for measuring small quantities of liquid run out of it.

burg (burg) n. (informal) a small town.

bur*gee (bur-jee) n. a small swallow-tailed pennant used by yachts etc. as a distinguishing flag.

bur*geon (bur-jôn) v. to begin to grow rapidly.

bur*ger (bur-ger) n. (informal) a hamburger.

bur*ges (bur-jis) n. 1. (old use) a member of the lower house of the colonial legislature of Virginia or Maryland. 2. (old use) a member of the English Parliament representing a town, borough, or university.

burgh (burg) n. (old use) a borough in Scotland.

bur*gh*er (bur-ger) n. a middle-class townsmen.

bur*glar (bur-glár) n. a person who breaks into a building illegally, especially in order to steal. bur*glar*ry n.

bur*glar*ize (bur-glár-iz) v. (bur*glar*ized, bur*glar*iz*ing) to rob, as a burglar.

bur*gle (bur-gël) v. (bur*ged, bur*gling) (informal) to burglarize.

bur*go*mas*ter (bur-gó-mas-tër) n. the mayor of a Dutch, Flemish, German, or Austrian town.

bur*gun*dy (bur-günk-dee) n. (pl. -cles) 1. a red or white wine from Burgundy in France, a similar wine from elsewhere. 2. dark purplish red.

bur*l*al (ber-i-äl) n. 1. burying, being buried. 2. a buried body, a prehistoric burial was found.

burl (burl) n. 1. a knot in wool, cloth, or wood. 2. an overgrown knot in walnut etc. used in veneering.

bur*lap (bur-lap) n. a coarse canvas of jute, used for sacks.

bur*lesque (bür-lesk) n. 1. a mocking imitation. 2. vaudeville, frequently featuring striptease. burlesque v. (bur*lesqued, bur*les*quing) to mock by burlesque.

bur*ley (bur-lee) n. (pl. -leys) a light type of tobacco.

bur*ly (bur-lee) adj. (-ll-*er, -ll-*est) adj. with a strong heavy body, sturdy. bur*li*ness n.

Bur*ma (bur-má) a country of southeast Asia. Bur*me*se (bür-meez) adj. & n. (pl. -mese).

burn1 (burn) v. (burned or burnt, burn*ing) 1. to damage or hurt or destroy by fire or heat or the action of acid. 2. to be injured or damaged in this way. 3. to produce (a mark etc.) by heat or fire; money burns holes in his pocket, makes him eager to spend it. 4. to use as fuel. 5. to produce heat or light, to be alight. 6. to be able to be set on fire. 7. to feel or cause to feel hot; my ears are burning, they feel hot, jokingly supposed to be a sign that one is being talked about. 8. to make or become brown from heat or light. 9. to kill or be killed by burning, she was burned at the stake. 10. (slang) to be electrocuted in the electric chair. 11. (slang) to cause damage to, he was burned in the stock market. burn n. 1. a mark or sore made by burning. 2. the firing of a spacecraft's rocket. bur*ned down, to burn less vigorously as fuel fails; to destroy by burning. burn one's bridges behind one, to do something that makes retreat impossible. burn the midnight oil, to study far into the night. burn up, (slang) to make or become angry. have money to burn, to have so much that one does not need to take care of it.
burn

burn\(^2\) n. (Scottish) a brook.

burn-er (bur-nér) n. 1. the part of a stove or lamp from which the flame or heat issues. 2. a fuel-burning device, a gas burner. □ on the back burner, of no urgency.

burn-ing (bur-nìng) see burn\(^1\), burning adj. 1. intense, a burning desire. 2. hotly discussed, vital, a burning question.

burn-nish (bur-nìsh) n. to polish by rubbing. burn\(^\)nish-er n. burn\(^\)nish-ing adj.

burn-noose, burn-nous (bùr-noos) n. an Arab or Moorish hooded cloak.

burn-out (bur-nùt) n. the end of the powered stage in a rocket's flight, when the propellant has been used up.

burnt (burnt) see burn\(^1\). burnt adj. of a deep shade, burnt sienna, burnt umber.

burr (bùr) n. 1. a whirring sound. 2. the strong pronunciation of r, a soft country accent, especially one using this. 3. a small drill. 4. a plant's seedcase or flower that clings to hair or clothing, the plant itself. burr v. to make a whirring sound.

bur-ro (bur-oh) n. (pl. -ros) a small donkey, especially one used as a pack animal.

bur-row (bur-ô) n. a hole or tunnel dug by a fox or rabbit etc. as a dwelling. burrow v. 1. to dig a burrow, to tunnel. 2. to form by tunneling. 3. to search deeply, to delve.

bursa (bùrså) n. (pl. -sae, pr. -see) a pouch between joints or between muscles or skin etc. and bones, for lessening friction. bursa-l adj.

bursar (bùrsår) n. a person who manages the finances and other business of a school or college.

bursitis (bùrs-\-tis) n. inflammation of a bursa.

burst (burst) v. (burst, burst-ing) 1. to force or be forced open, to fly violently apart because of pressure inside; buds are bursting, opening out. 2. to appear or come suddenly and forcefully, burst into flame. 3. to let out a violent expression of feeling, burst into tears, burst out laughing; she burst into song, suddenly began to sing. burst n. 1. a bursting, a split. 2. an explosion or outbreak, a series of shots, a burst of gunfire, of applause. 3. a brief violent effort, a spurt. □ Do not confuse burst with bust.

burst-ing (bur-stìng) adj. full to the breaking point, sacks bursting with grain; bursting with energy, full of it; we are bursting to tell you, very eager.

Bu-run-di (bù-rùn-dee) a country in East Africa. Bu-run-di-an adj. & n.

bury (ber-ee) v. (bur-ied, bury-ing) 1. to place (a dead body) in the earth or a tomb or the sea; she has buried both parents this year, lost them by death. 2. to put underground, to hide in earth etc., to cover up; buried himself in the country, went and lived where he would meet few people; buried themselves in their books, gave all their time and attention to reading. □ bury the hatchet, to cease quarreling and become friendly.

bus (bus) n. (pl. buses, bus-es) 1. a long-bodied passenger vehicle. 2. (slang) a motor vehicle. bus v. (bussed or bused, bus-ing or bus-ing) 1. to travel by bus. 2. to transport by bus, to take (children) to a distant school by bus in order to counteract racial segregation. □ bus lane, a strip of road for use by buses only. bus station, a station at which a number of buses stop, with facilities for passengers etc. bus stop, the regular stopping place of a bus.

bus-abr. business.

bus-boy (bus-boi) n. a waiter's assistant.

bus-by (bus-bee) n. (pl. -bles) a tall fur cap worn as part of certain full-dress military uniforms.

bush (buush) n. 1. a shrub. 2. a thick growth or gump. 3. wild, remote uncultivated land. □ bush league, (in baseball) a minor league. bush telegraph, a way in which news is passed on unofficially.

bushed (buusht) adj. (informal) exhausted.

bush-el (buush-\-el) n. a measure for grain and fruit (4 pecks or 32 quarts). □ hide one's light under a bushel, to conceal one's abilities.

bush-ing (buush-ing) n. a metal lining for an axle hole etc.

bushman (buush-mán) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mén) 1. a dweller in the Australian bush. 2. Bushman, a member or the language of an aboriginal tribe of South Africa.

bush-mas-ter (buush-mas-tèr) n. a very large venomous viper of Central and South America.

bush-whack (buush-hwak) v. 1. to make one's way through woods by clearing away brush, branches, etc. 2. to ambush.

bush-whack-er (buush-hwak-\-èr) n. 1. (old use) a backwoodsman. 2. a person who ambushes.

bush-y (buush-ee) adj. (bush\(^\cdot\)er, bush\(^\cdot\)est) 1. covered with bushes. 2. growing thickly. bush\(^1\)-\-ness n.

busi-ness (biz-nis) n. 1. a task or duty, a thing one is concerned with. 2. one's usual occupation, a profession, a trade. 3. a thing needing to be dealt with, the agenda. 4. a difficult matter, what a business! 5. an affair, subject, or device. 6. buying and selling, trade. 7. a commercial firm, a store, factory, etc., they own a grocery business. □business end, (informal) the working end of a tool, weapon, etc., not the handle. have no business to, to have right to (do something).

busi-ness-like (biz-nis-lıık) adj. practical, systematic.

bus-kin (bus-kin) n. 1. a boot reaching to the calf or knee. 2. a thick-soled boot worn by actors in ancient Greek drama, to increase their height.

bus-man (bus-män) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) the driver of a bus. □busman's holiday, leisure time spent doing something similar to one's usual work.

buss (bus) n. a kiss. buss v. to kiss.

bust1 (bust) n. 1. a sculpture of the head, shoulders, and chest. 2. the bosom. 3. the measurement around a woman's body at the bosom.

bust2 v. (bust-ed or bust, bust-ing) (slang) 1. to burst. 2. to break, smash. 3. to hit. 4. to demote, busted to private. 5. to arrest, busted for possession of drugs. 6. to bankrupt. bust n. (slang) 1. a failure. 2. a spree. 3. a hit or bust. 4. a demotion. 5. an arrest. 6. a business or economic depression. □Do not confuse bust with burst.

bust-ed (bus-tid) adj. (slang) 1. broken. 2. demoted. 3. arrested. 4. bankrupt.

bust-er (bus-tër) n. (slang) an insulting form of address to a man.

bus-tle1 v. (bus-tled, bus-tling) 1. to make a show of hurrying. 2. to cause to hurry. bustle n. excited activity.

bus-tle2 n. padding used to puff out the top of a woman's skirt at the back.

bust-up (bust-up) n. (slang) a quarrel, especially between close friends.

bus-y (biz-ce) adj. (bus-i-er, bus-i-est) 1. working, occupied, having much to do; get busy, start doing things. 2. full of activity, a busy day; the telephone line is busy, is engaged. 3. (of a picture or design) too full of detail. busy v. (bus-ied, bus-y-ing) to keep busy, busy oneself. bus-ly-ly adv. □busy signal, an intermittent tone made by a telephone when the number called is in use.

bus-ı-y-bod-ı-y (biz-ce-bod-ce) n. (pl. -bod-lıes) a meddlesome person.

bus-ı-y-work (biz-ce-wurk) n. work performed just to keep oneself occupied.

but (but) adv. only, no more than, we can but try. but conj. & prep. 1. however, on the other hand. 2. except, otherwise than, there's no one here but me; I'd have drowned but for you, if you had not helped me. but n. an objection, ifs and buts; but me no buts, do not raise objections. □Careful writers avoid but what and but that in such sentences as I don't know but what (or that) I might go. For this they would write I believe I will go or I may go or any of dozens of other good sentences.

bu-tane (byoo-tayn) n. an inflammable gas produced from petroleum, used as a fuel.

butch (buuch) n. a short haircut (of a man or boy).

butch-er (buuch-ër) n. 1. a person whose trade is to slaughter animals for food, one who cuts up and sells animal flesh. 2. a person who has people killed needlessly or brutally. 3. (slang) an unskilled craftsman or artist. butcher v. 1. to slaughter and cut up animals for food. 2. to kill needlessly or brutally. 3. (slang) to work (wood, metal, etc.) badly. □butcher block, a wooden block on which a butcher cuts meat; a similar piece of wood used as a table or counter top.

butch-er-y (buuch-ë-ree) n. (pl. -er-ies) 1. a butcher's trade. 2. needless or brutal killing.

but-ler (but-lër) n. the chief manservant of a household.

but1 (but) n. a large cask or barrel.

but2 n. 1. the thicker end of a tool or weapon. 2. a short remnant, a stub. 3. (slang) a cigarette.

but3 (but) n. 1. the mound of earth behind the targets on a shooting range. 2. a person or thing that is frequently a target for ridicule or teasing. butt v. 1. to push with the head like a ram or goat. 2. to meet or place edge to edge, the strips should be butted against each other, not overlapping. □butt in, to interrupt; to meddle.

butte (byoot) n. an isolated steep flat-topped hill.

but-ter (but-ër) n. 1. a fatty food substance made from cream by churning. 2. a similar substance made from other materials, peanut butter. butter v. to spread with butter, cement, etc. but-ter-y adj. □butter bean, the dried seed of white varieties of lima bean, used as a vegetable. butter up, (informal) to flatter.

but-ter-ball (but-ër-bawl) n. 1. butter buttercup / Byelorussia rolled into a ball. 2. (slang) a fat person.

but-ter-cup (but-ër-kup) n. a wild plant with bright yellow cup-shaped flowers.

but-tered (but-ërd) adj. cooked or spread with butter.

but-ter-fat (but-ër-fat) n. the fat content of milk.

but-ter-fin-ger-s (but-ër-fing-gérz) n. a person inclined to drop things.

but-ter-fly (but-ër-fli) n. (pl. -flies) 1. an insect with four often brightly colored wings and knobbed feelers. 2. a swimming stroke in which both arms are lifted at the same time.

butter. (butter)

buttercup (butter-kup) n. a plant of the buttercups family.

bux-om (bëks-ëm) adj. plump and healthy looking. 2. full- bosomed.

bux-om (bëks-ëm) adj. 1. plump and healthy looking. 2. full-bosomed.

butter (bët) v. (bought, buy-ing) 1. to obtain in exchange for money or by some sacrifice. 2. to win over by bribery. 3. (slang) to believe, to accept the truth of, only a fool would buy that excuse. buy n. a purchase; a good buy, a useful purchase, a bargain. □ buy-er (bi-ër) n. 1. a person who buys something. 2. an agent choosing and buying merchandise for a store. □ buy-er-mar-ket, a state of affairs when goods are plentiful and prices are low.

buzz (bëz) n. 1. a vibrating humming sound. 2. (slang) a telephone call, give me a buzz. buzz v. 1. to make a buzz. 2. to be filled with a buzzing noise. 3. to go about quickly and busily. 4. to fly (an airplane) close to or low over.

buzz off, (slang) to go away.

buzz saw, a circular saw. have a buzz on, (slang) to be intoxicated.

buz-zard (buz-ârd) n. a kind of hawk.

buzz-er (buz-ër) n. a device that produces a buzzing note as a signal.

buzz-word (buz-wûrd) n. a catch word or slogan popular in politics, a profession, etc. and often lacking precise meaning.

B.V. abbr. Blessed Virgin.

B.V.D. (trademark) underwear.

bwa-na (bweh-nâ) n. (in Africa) master, sir.

bx. abbr. box.

by (bë) adv. & prep. 1. near, beside, in reserve; north by east, between north and north-northeast. 2. along, via, past. 3. during, came by night, 4. through the agency or means of, (of an animal) having as its sire. 5. (of numbers or measurements) taking it together with, multiply six by four; it measures ten feet by eight, with eight feet as a second dimension. 6. not later than, be here by noon. 7. according to, judging by appearances; sold by the dozen, a dozen at a time. 8. after, succeeding, bit by bit. 9. to the extent of, missed it by inches. 10. in respect of, a tailor. Jones by name; pull it up by the roots. 11. in the belief of, swear by God. □ by and by, before long.

by and large, on the whole, considering everything.

bye (bi) n. the state of having no opponent for one round in a tournament and so advancing to the next as if having won.

bye-bye (bi-bë) interj. (informal) goodbye.

by-e-lec-tion (bi-ëlek-shôn) n. (British) an election held for a seat in the House of Commons as a consequence of the death or resignation of a member.

Bye-lo-rus-sia = Belorussia.
by-gone (bi-gawn) adj. belonging to the past.
by-gones (bi-gawnz) n. pl. things belonging to the past. □ let bygones be bygones, forgive and forget past offenses.
by-law (bi-law) n. a law or regulation made by a local authority, club, etc.
by-line (bi-lin) n. the author’s name given at the beginning or end of an article in a newspaper or magazine.
by-pass (bi-pas) n. 1. a road taking traffic around a congested area. 2. a secondary channel allowing something to flow when the main route is blocked. bypass v. 1. to avoid by means of a bypass. 2. to omit or ignore (procedures, regulations, etc.) in order to act quickly.
by-path (bi-path) n. (pl. -paths, pr. -pathz, -paths) a secluded path.
by-play (bi-play) n. action, usually without speech, of minor characters in a play etc.
by-product (bi-prod-ukt) n. a substance produced during the making of something else.
by-road (br-rohd) n. a minor road.
by-stand·er (br-stan-dër) n. a person standing near but taking no part when something happens.
byte (bit) n. a group of binary digits in a computer.
by-way (bi-way) n. a byroad.
by-word (br-wurd) n. 1. a person or thing spoken of as a notable example, the firm became a byword for mismanagement. 2. a familiar saying.
Byz·an·tine (biz-án-teen) adj. 1. of Byzantium or the eastern Roman Empire. 2. complicated, devious, underhand.
C, c (see) (pl. Cs, C's, c's) 1. the third letter of the alphabet. 2. C, a grade rating for average school work. 3. the Roman numeral symbol for 100.

C, c abbr. 1. cape. 2. carat. 3. Celsius. 4. cent. 5. centigrade. 6. centimeter. 7. circa. 8. copyright.

C symbol carbon.
Ca symbol calcium.
CA abbr. California.
cab (kab) n. 1. a taxi. 2. a compartment for the driver of a train, bus, or crane.
CAB, C.A.B. abbr. Civil Aeronautics Board.
cab (kabēl) n. 1. a secret plot. 2. the people engaged in it.
cab-a-la (kab-ā-lā) n. 1. a Jewish mystical interpretation of Scripture, based on finding hidden meanings in its letters and words. 2. any secret or occult matter or doctrine.
cab-a-lis'tic adj.
cab-al-le-ro (kab-āl-yair-oh) n. 1. a Spanish gentleman. 2. (Southwestern use) a horseman, a woman's male escort or admirer.
cab-a-na (kab-ā-nā) n. a shelter at a beach or swimming pool, used as a bathroom.
cab-a-ret (kab-ā-ray) n. a restaurant or nightclub that provides entertainment while the guests are eating or drinking.
cab-bage (kab-ij) n. a vegetable with green or purple leaves, usually forming a round head.
cab-by, cab·bie (kab·bi) ( informal) a cab driver.
cab-ber (kay-bēr) n. a roughly trimmed tree trunk used in the Scottish sport of tossing the caber.
cab·in (kab-in) n. 1. a small dwelling or shelter, especially one of wood. 2. a compartment in a ship or aircraft. □ cabin boy, a boy waiting on the officers or passengers on a ship.
cabin class, the intermediate class of accommodation on a ship.
cabin cruiser, a large motorboat with one or more cabins.
cab·i-net (kab-i-nit) n. 1. a cupboard with drawers or shelves for storing or displaying articles, or containing a radio or television set. 2. the group of department heads or ministers chosen by a president or prime minister to advise on government policy.
cab·i-net·mak·er (kab-i-nit-may-ker) n. a skilled woodworker who makes fine furniture.
cab·i-net·work (kab-i-nit-wurk) n. things produced by a cabinetmaker.
ca·ble (kay-bēl) n. 1. a thick rope of fiber or wire. 2. an anchor chain. 3. a set of insulated wires for carrying electricity or telegraph messages. 4. a cablegram. 5. a knitted pattern (cable stitch) looking like twisted rope. cable v. (ca·bled, ca·bling) to send a telegram to (a person) abroad, to transmit (money or information) in this way. □ cable car, one of the cars in a cable rail system; cars drawn by an endless cable by means of a stationary engine. cable TV, television programs transmitted to homes from a community antenna by a coaxial cable; this system.
cab·le·gram (kay-bēl-gram) n. a telegraph message transmitted by a submarine cable.
cab·o·chon (kab-ō-shon) n. a polished un faceted gem usually circular or elliptical in shape. cabochon
adv. in the shape of a cabochon.
ca·boo·die (kā-boo-dē) n. (slang) the whole caboodle, the whole lot.
caboose (kā-boos) n. the rear car on a freight train, for use by the crew.
cab·ri·o·let (kab-ri-ō-lay) n. 1. a light two-wheeled hooded one-horse carriage.
2. an automobile resembling a convertible coupe.
cab·stand (kab-stand) n. a place where cabs are permitted to wait for hire.
ca·ca·o (kā-kay-oh) n. (pl. -ca·os) 1. a tropical tree producing a seed (cacao bean) from which cocoa and chocolate are made. 2. its seed.
cac·cia·to·re (kach-ā-tohr-ē) adj. prepared with tomatoes, olive oil, spices, etc. □ Italian.
cache (kash) n. 1. a hiding place for treasure or provisions. 2. hidden treascachet / caisson

ure or provisions. cache v. (cached, cach-ing) to place in a cache.
ca-chet (ka-shay) n. 1. a distinguishing mark. 2. prestige.
cack-le (kak-êl) n. 1. the loud clucking noise a hen makes after laying. 2. a loud silly laugh. 3. noisy chatter. cackle v. (cack-led, cack-ling) 1. to give a cackle. 2. to chatter noisily. cack-ler n. ca-cop-ho-ny (kâ-kof-ô-nee) n. (pl. -nies) a harsh discordant sound. cacopho-nous adj.
cac-tus (kak-tûs) n. (pl. -tl, pr. -tii) a plant from a hot dry climate, with a fleshy stem and usually prickles but no leaves.
cad (kad) n. a person who behaves dishonorably. cad'dish adj. cad'dish-ly adv. cad'dish-ness n. cad'ave-ry (kad-av-er-i) n. a corpse.
cad'dish-ness n.
cad-dle, cad-dy (kad-ee) n. (pl. -dies) a person who carries clubs for a golfer during a game. caddie, caddy v. (cad-died, cad-dy-ing) to act as caddie.
cad-dis-fly (kad-is-fi) n. (pl. -flies) a four-winged insect living near water.
cad-dis-worm (kad-is-wurm) n. the larva of the caddisfly, used as bait by fishermen.
cad-dy (kad-ee) n. (pl. -dies) a small box for holding tea etc.
cad-dence (kay-dên-s) n. 1. rhythm in sound. 2. the rise and fall of the voice in speaking. 3. the end of a musical phrase. ca'denced adj.
cad-enza (kâ-den-zâ) n. an elaborate passage, usually toward the end of a composition for a solo instrument or voice, showing off the performer's skill.
cad-get (kâ-det) n. 1. a young person receiving elementary training for service in the armed forces or the police force. 2. a younger son or brother. ca-dette' n. fem. ca-dette' n. fem. □ Cadette Scout, a member of the Girl Scouts, aged twelve through fourteen.
cadge (kaj) v. (cadged, cadg-ing) to ask for as a gift, to go about begging. cadg'er n.
cad-mi-um (kad-mî-ûm) n. a grayish chemical element that looks like tin and is used especially in plating.
cad-dre (kad-rê, -ree) n. a group forming a nucleus of trained personnel in industry or the armed forces that can be increased when necessary.
cad-ve-us (kad-ve-us) n. (pl. -ve-i, pr. -ve-i) 1. the wand of the Roman god Mercury, with two serpents twined around it and having wings at the top.
2. a similar staff used as the symbol of the medical profession.
ca-ce-cum = cecum.
Ca-e-sar (see-zâr) n. 1. a title of the Roman emperors. 2. any powerful ruler or autocrat.
Ca-e-sar-e-an (si-zair-i-ân) n. (informal) a Caesarian section, a surgical operation by which a child is taken from the womb by cutting through the wall of the mother's abdomen and into the womb. □ So called from the story that Julius Caesar was born in this way.
cae-su-ra, ce-su-ra (si-zhoor-â) n. (pl. -su-ras, -su-rae, pr. -zhoor-e) a pause in the middle of a metrical line.
CAF abbr. cost and freight.
café (ka-fay) n. 1. a shop that sells refreshments, a small restaurant. 2. a barroom. □ café au lait (ka-fay oh lay) 1. coffee mixed with an equal quantity of scalded milk. 2. the brownish-cream color of this.
caf-e-te-ri-a (ka-fe-ta-ri-a) n. a restaurant where customers serve themselves or are served from a counter.
caf-feine, caf-feln (ka-feen) n. a stimulant found especially in tea and coffee.
caf-tan (kad-tân) n. 1. a long coat-like garment worn by men in the Near East. 2. a woman's long loose dress.
cage (kayj) n. 1. a framework with wires or bars in which birds or animals are kept. 2. any similar structure, the enclosed platform in which people travel in an elevator or in the shaft of a mine.
cage v. (caged, cag-ing) to put or keep in a cage. □ cage bird, a bird of a kind usually kept in a cage.
cage-ling (kayj-ling) n. a caged bird.
ca-gy (kay-ji) adj. (-gl-er, -gl-est) (informal) cautious about giving information, secretive. ca'gi-ly adv. ca'gi-ness n.
ca-hoots (kâ-hoots) n. pl. (slang) in ca-hoots with, in league with.
ca-l-man, ca-y-man (kay-man) n. any of several tropical American reptiles resembling alligators and crocodiles.
Cain (kayn) n. 1. the first son of Adam and Eve and murderer of his brother Abel. 2. a murderer. □ raise Cain, see raise.
calm (kairn) n. a pyramid of rough stones set up as a landmark or a monument. □ calm terrier, a small shaggy short-legged terrier.
Cai-ro (kêr-oh) the capital of Egypt.
cal-son (kay-son) n. 1. a watertight box or chamber inside which work can be carried out on underwater structures. 2. a wheeled vehicle for transporting artillery shells. □ caisson disease, a disease caused by working under high atmospheric pressure.

calcit (kay-tif) n. (old use) a despicable person. calcif adj. despicable.

cal-jole (kà-joh1) v. (ca-joled, ca-joling) to coax. cajol'er-y n. ca-jole' ment n.

Ca-jun, Cal-jan (kay-jun1) n. 1. a descendant of French Canadian immigrants in Louisiana. 2. the dialect spoken by Cajuns.

cake (kayk) n. 1. a baked sweet breadlike food. 2. a mixture cooked in a round flat shape, fish cakes. 3. a shaped or hard- ened mass, a cake of soap. cake v. (caked, caking) 1. to harden into a compact mass. 2. to encrust with a hard- ened mass.

cake-walk (kayk-wawk) n. 1. a ballroom march originated by black Americans, with a cake as the prize for the dancer with the most intricate steps. 2. a popular dance developed from these steps.

cal. abbr. 1. calendar. 2. caliber. 3. calorie. Cal. abbr. California.

cal-a-bash (kal-à-bash) n. 1. any of various gourds, especially with a hard shell. 2. a container made from the shell of such a gourd.

cal-a-boose (kal-à-boos) n. (informal) a prison.

cal-a-di-um (kal-ay-di-um) n. any of various tropical American plants with ornamental leaves.

cal-a-mine (kal-à-min) n. a pink powder, chiefly zinc carbonate or oxide, used in skin lotions.

cal-a-mi-ty (kal-à-mi-tee) n. (pl. -ties) a disaster. cal-a-mi-ty n. adj. cal-a-mi-ty adv.

calc. abbr. calculate.

cal-car-e-ous (kal-car-i-us) adj. of or containing calcium carbonate or limestone.

cal-car-e-ous-ness n.

cal-ce-o-lar-i-a (kal-si-o-lair-i-à) n. garden plants with a slipper-shaped flower.

cal-cic (kal-sik) adj. composed of or containing calcium or lime.

cal-cif-er-ous (kal-sif-i-rús) adj. yielding or containing calcium carbonate.

cal-cl-ty (kal-si-fr) v. (cal-cl-fled, cal-cl-fy-ing) to harden by a deposit of calcium salts. cal-cl-fi-ca-tion (kal-si-fi-kay-shon) n.

cal-cl-mine (kal-si-min) n. a white or lightly colored liquid preparation containing zinc oxide, used on walls and ceil- ings. calcimine v. (cal-cl-mined, cal-cl-min-ing) to paint with calcimine.

cal-cl-um (kal-si-um) n. a grayish-white chemical element present in bones and teeth and forming the basis of lime.

calcium carbonate, a chemical compound frequently occurring as limestone or chalk. calcium hydroxide, a powder of water and lime, used in mortar, plaster, etc.

cal-cu-la-ble (kal-kyù-là-bel) adj. able to be calculated.

cal-cu-la-tion (kal-kyù-lay-shon1) n. 1. a person who calculates. 2. a machine that performs arithmetical processes.

cal-cu-lus (kal-kyù-lus) n. (pl. -ll, pr. -l, -luss-es) 1. a stone formed in the body. 2. a branch of mathematics that deals with problems involving rates of variation.

cal-de-ra (kal-de-ra) n. (pl. -ras) a deep hole at the top of a volcano.

cal-dron = cauldron.

Cal-e-do-ni-an (kal-e-doh-ni-an) adj. of Scotland.

cal-en-dar (kal-ên-dar) n. 1. a chart showing the days, weeks, and months of a particular year. 2. a device displaying the date. 3. a list of dates or events of a particular kind, the academic calendar. 4. the system by which time is divided into fixed periods, the Gregorian calendar. > Do not confuse calendar with cal- ender.

Cal-en-der (kal-ên-dër) n. a machine in which cloth or paper is pressed by rollers to glaze or smooth it. calendere v. to press in a calendar. > Do not confuse calendar with calendere.

cal-end-z (kal-e-nz) n. pl. the first day of the month in the Roman calendar.

cal-en-du-la (kal-e-nu-la) n. a garden plant with large yellow or orange flowers.

calfe (kaf) n. (pl. calves, pr. kav) 1. the young of cattle, also of the seal, whale, and certain other animals. 2. leather made from calfskin.

calf2 n. (pl. calves) the fleshy back part of the leg below the knee.

calfskin (kal-skyn) n. calf leather, used especially in bookbinding and shoemaking. calfskin adj. made of calfskin.

cal-i-ber, cal-i-bre (kal-i-bër) n. 1. the diameter of the inside of a tube or gun barrel. 2. the diameter of a bullet or shell. 3. ability, importance, we need a person of your caliber.
calibrate (kal-ibrat) v. (kal-ibrat-ed, kal-ibrat-ing) 1. to mark or correct units of measurement on a gauge. 2. to measure the caliber of cal-i-brator n. cal-i-bration (kal-i-bray-shon) n.

calico (kal-i-koh) n. (pl. -coes, -cos) a kind of cotton cloth printed with a figured pattern. calico adj. made of calico.

californian (kal-T-for-nya) adj. of California.

california (kal-T-for-nyah) a state of the U.S. Cali-fornian adj. & n. Cali-fornia poppy, a small cultivated herb related to the poppy.

cal-i-for-ni-an (kal-i-for-ni-uhn) a. synthetic radioactive element.

cal-i-per (kal-i-per) n. (usually calipers) a compass for measuring the diameter of tubes or of round objects.

cal-i-ph, cal-i-f (kal-i-f) n. the chief civil and religious ruler in some Muslim countries. cal-i-phate (kal-i-fayt) n.

cal-i-sis-than-ics (kal-i-sis-than-iks) n. light gymnastic exercises. cal-i-sis-than-i-c adj.

cal-k (kal-k) n.

call1 (kawl) n. 1. a shout or cry. 2. the characteristic cry of a bird. 3. a signal on a bugle etc. 4. a short visit. 5. a summons, an invitation; the call of the wild, its attraction. 6. a demand, a claim, I have many calls on my time. 7. a need, an occasion, there's no call for you to worry. 8. an act of telephoning, a conversation on the telephone. 9. (informal) a ruling by a referee or umpire in a game.

call2 v. 1. to shout or speak loudly in order to attract attention etc. 2. to utter a call. 3. to pay a short visit. 4. to name, to describe or address as, I call that cheating; let's call it even. 5. to rouse deliberately, to summon to get up. 6. to summon, call the fire department. 7. to command or invite, to urge as if by commanding, call a strike; duty calls, claims my attention. 8. to communicate with by telephone or radio. 9. (in sports) to rule that play is ended. call'er n. □ call a person's bluff, to challenge him to carry out his threat. call down, to reprimand. call for, to demand, to require; to come and collect. call girl, a prostitute who accepts appointments by telephone. call in, to report by telephone; to seek advice or help from; to order the return of, to take out of circulation. call it a day, to decide that enough work has been done for one day, and stop working. call number, a code assigned to a book to establish its proper location on a library shelf. call off, to call away, call off your dog; to cancel, the strike was called off. call of nature, a need to go to the toilet. call on, to make a short visit to (a person); to appeal to, to request. call out, to summon to action; to order to come out on strike. call sign, a signal identifying a radio transmitter. call the tune, to control the proceedings. call to mind, to remember; to cause a person to remember. call up, to telephone to; to bring back to one's mind; (informal) to summon for military service. on call, available to be called out on duty. within call, near enough to be summoned by calling.

cal-la (kal-a) n. a white showy petallike part surrounding a yellow spike.

call-back (kawl-bak) n. a manufacturer's recall of a product to correct a defect.

call-board (kawl-bohrd) n. a board on which notices are displayed, especially backstage in a theater.

cal-li-gr-a-phy (kal-i-gra-fe) n. beautiful handwriting, the art of producing this.

call-ing (kaw-l-ing) n. 1. an occupation, a profession or trade. 2. a strong impulse toward one of these.

cal-li-o-pe (kal-li-o-pe) n. a musical instrument consisting of steam whistles and a keyboard.

cal-lus (kal-us) adj. 1. hardened, having callouses. 2. unsympathetic. callous v. to make or become unsympathetic. cal-lous-ly adv. cal-lous-ness n. □ Do not confuse callous with callus.

cal-lous-ed (kal-lus-ted) adj. hardened, having callouses.

Call low (kal-oh) adj. immature and inexperienced. call-low-ly adv. call-low-ness n.

call-up (kawl-up) n. a summons for military service.

cal-lus (kal-us) n. (pl. -luses) an area of thick hardened skin or tissue. callus v. (cal-lused, cal-lus-ing) to form a callus. □ Do not confuse callus with callous.

calm (kahm) adj. 1. quiet and still, not windy. 2. not excited or agitated. 3. casual and confident. calm n. a calm condition or period. calm v. to make or become calm. cal-ly adv. calm-ness n.

cal-o-me-l (kal-o-mel) n. a heavy white powder used as a laxative and fungicide.

cal-los-i-ty (kal-los-it) n. 1. of calories. 2. of heat.

cal-ori (kal-ori) adj. 1. of calories. 2. of heat.
measuring the energy value of food.
cal·o·ri·fic (kal-ō-rif-ik) adj. of, producing heat.
cal·o·ri·m·e·ter (kal-ō-rim-ē-tër) n. a device for measuring heat. cal·o·ri·me·try n. cal·o·ri·met·ric (kal-ō-rī-met'ri-k) adj. cal·o·ri·met·ri·cal·ly adv.
cal·u·met (kal-ū-mēt) n. a long-stemmed ornamental pipe used by North American Indians for ceremonial purposes, especially as a symbol of peace or friendship (the peace pipe).
cal·um·ni·ate (kā-lūm-ni-āt) v. (cal·um·ni·a·tion (kā-lūm-ni-ā-shōn) n. slander.
cal·um·ny (kal-ūm-nī) n. (pl. -nies) 1. slander. 2. a slanderous statement. cal·um·ni·ous cal·um·ni·ous·ly adj.
cal·va·ry (kal-um-ni·ay-shōn) n. the place or a representation of the Crucifixion. ▷ Do not confuse Calvary with cavalry.
calve (kav) v. (calved, calv·ing) to give birth to a calf.
calves see calf.
cal·vin·ism (kal-vī-niz-ēm) n. the teachings of John Calvin, a French Protestant religious reformer who lived in Switzerland (1509–64), and of his followers. Cal·vin·ist n. cal·vin·ism·at·ic (kal-vī-nis-tik) adj.
cal·y·p·so (kā-lip-so) n. a West Indian song with a variable rhythm and topical usually improvised lyrics.
cal·yx (kā-lyks) n. (pl. -lyx·es, -ly·ces, pr. -li-seez) a ring of leaves (sepals) enclosing an unopened flower bud.
cam (kam) n. a projecting part on a wheel or shaft, shaped or mounted so that its circular motion, as it turns, transmits an up-and-down or back-and-forth motion to another part.
ca·ma·ra·de·rie (kah-mā-rah·dē-ree) n. comradeship.
cam·ber (kam-bēr) n. a slight arch or upward curve given to a surface, especially of a road. cam·ber v. 1. to have a camber. 2. to give a camber to. cam·ber·ed adj.
cam·bi·um (kam-bī-ŭm) n. (pl. -bi·ums, -bi·a, pr. -bi·ă) a layer of cells that provide the base for growth of woody tissue and bark. cam·bi·al adj.
cam·bo·di·a (kam-boh-dī-ă) the former name of Kampuchea.
Cam·bo·di·an adj. & n.
Cam·bri·an (kaym-bri-ăn) adj. of the earliest geologic period of the Paleozoic era. Cambrian n. the Cambrian period.
cam·bric (kaym-brīk) n. thin cotton or linen cloth.
came (kaym) see come.
cam·el (kam-ĕl) n. 1. a long-necked animal with either one or two humps on its back, used in desert countries for riding and for carrying goods. 2. a fawn color. □ cam·el hair or cam·el’s hair, fine soft hair used in artists’ brushes; a fabric made of this.
cam·el·lia, cam·e·lia (kā-mel-lā) n. 1. an evergreen flowering shrub from China and Japan. 2. its flower.
cam·el·op·ard (kā-mel-ophərd) n. (old use) a giraffe.
cam·em·bert (kam-ĕm-bār) n. a soft rich cheese of the kind made in Normandy, France.
cam·e·o (kame-ō) n. 1. a small piece of hard stone carved with a raised design, especially with two colored layers cut so that one serves as a background to the design. 2. something small but well executed, such as a short description or a minor part in a play.
cam·er·a (kam·er-a) n. an apparatus for taking photographs, moving pictures, or television pictures.
cam·er·a·man (kam·er-a·mān) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) a person whose job is to operate a film camera or television camera.
cam·e·r·oon, Cam·e·ro·on (kam·er·oon) a country on the west coast of Africa. Cam·e·ro·on’l·ish adj. & n.
cam·i·sole (kam-i-sōl) n. a short sleeveless shirt worn by women as an undergarment.
cam·o·mile (kam·ō-mīl) n. a sweet-smelling plant with daisy-like flowers, which are dried for use in medicine as a tonic.
cam·ou·flage (kam·ō-flāzh) n. 1. a method of disguising or concealing objects by coloring or covering them so that they look like part of their surroundings. 2. the concealment itself. cam·ou·flag·e v. (cam·ou·flag·ed, cam·ou·flag·ing) to conceal in this way.
camp1 (kamp) n. 1. a place where people live temporarily in tents, huts, or similar shelters. 2. the occupants. 3. a group of people with the same ideals. cam·p v. 1. to make or live in a camp. 2. to live temporarily as if in a camp. □ camp·bed, a folding portable bed. camp·fire girl, a member of the Campfire Girls, an organization similar to the Girl Scouts. camp·fol·low·er, a civilian follower of military troops, especially a prostitute. camp·out, to sleep in a tent or in the open. go cam·ping, to spend a holiday outdoors, sleeping in tents or in sleeping bags.
camp2 adj. 1. effeminate, homosexual. 2. exaggerated in style, especially for hu-terous effect. camp n. such a style or manner. camp'y adj. (camp'lı, camp'lı-est) camp. camp'lı-ly adv. camp'lı-ness n. □ camp it up, to behave or perform in a camp way.

campaign (kam-payn) n. 1. a series of military operations with a set purpose, usually in one area. 2. a similar series of planned activities, an advertising campaign. campaign v. to take part in a campaign. campaign'ér n.

campa*n*le (kam-pa-ni-le) adj. planful, careful, as of excursions.

camp'ls (kam-ıls) n. (pl. -İls, -İll, pr. -ılee) a bell tower, especially a free-standing one.

cam*pan*ol*o*gy (kam-pa-nol-0-jii) n. the study of bells and their casting, ringing, etc. cam*pan*ol*ist n.

cam*pán*u*la (kam-pan-yû-là) n. a plant with bell-shaped usually blue or white flowers.

cam'pän*ol*ist (kam-pan-ol-ist) n.

can'pl*on (kam-pi-ôn) n. a wild plant with pink or white flowers.

camp'lı (kam-pı-ôn) n. a campsite.

camp*stool (kamp-stool) n. a lightweight folding stool.

campus (kam-pus) n. (pl. -puseses) the grounds of a university or college.

cam'shaf*ty (kam-shaf-ty) n. a shaft bearing cams.

can (kan) n. 1. a metal or plastic container for liquids. 2. a sealed metal container in which food or drink is preserved. 3. either of these with its contents, the amount it contains. 4. (slang) a jail. 5. (slang) the buttocks. can v. (canned, can'ning) 1. to preserve in a sealed can. 2. (slang) to dismiss from a job. can'ner n. □ can opener, a tool for opening cans. In the can, made into a motion picture or phonograph record and ready for release to the public. tin can, (slang) a naval destroyer.

can v. auxiliary verb expressing ability or knowledge of how to do something (he can play the violin) or permission (you can go; □ may is more formal) or desire or liberty to act (we cannot allow this).

can.'br. Canada.

Can.'da (kan-ı-dà) a country in North America. Ca-na'd*an (kà-nay-di-an) adj. & n. □ Canada goose, a wild goose of North America. Canadian bacon, a round piece of bacon cut from a strip of pork loin.

Ca-na'd*an-sm (kà-nay-di-ı-niz-im) n. a custom, belief, trait, phrase, etc., originating in Canada or peculiar to it.

can'nille (kă-nayl) n. the rattle. □ French.

can'al (kà-nal) n. 1. a channel cut through land for navigation or irrigation. 2. a tubular passage through which food or air passes in a plant or animal body, the alimentary canal. □ Canal Zone, the area around the Panama Canal formerly governed by the U.S.

can'al*boat (kà-nal-boh) n. a barge, either self-propelled or towed, for use in a canal.

can'al*ize (kà-nal-ız) v. (can'al-ized, can'al-izing) to channel. can'al*iza*tion (kà-nal-iz-shan) n.

can'a*pee (kan-a-pee, -pay) n. a small piece of bread or toast spread with savory food.

can'ard (kà-nahrd) n. a false or unfounded story.

can'ary (kà-nair-ee) n. (pl. -aries) 1. a small yellow songbird. 2. (slang) a person acting as a police informer. canary adj. bright-yellow.

Canary Islands a group of islands off the northwest coast of Africa.

can'sta (kan-sta) n. a card game played with two packs of fifty-two cards plus four jokers.

Can'ber*ra (kan-bër-à) the capital of Australia.

canc.'br. 1. cancel. 2. cancellation.

can'can (kan-kan) n. a lively stage dance involving high kicking, performed by women in long skirts and petticoats.

can'cel (kan-sel) v. (can'celed, can'cel-ing) 1. to say that (something already decided upon or arranged) will not be done or take place. 2. to order (a thing) to be discontinued. 3. to neutralize, his absences canceled his excellent work. 4. to cross out. 5. to mark (a stamp or ticket) in order to prevent further use. can'cel*a*tion (kan-së-la-shon) n. □ cancel out, to counterbalance, to neutralize (each other).

can'er (kan-sër) n. 1. a tumor, especially a malignant one. 2. a disease in which malignant growths form. 3. something evil that spreads destructively. 4. Cancer, a sign of the zodiac, the Crab. can'cer*ous adj.
can·de·la (kan-de-lá) n. a unit used in measuring the intensity of light.

Can·de·la·brum (kan-de-lah-brűm) n. (pl. -bra, pr. -brá, -brums) a large branched candlestick or holder for lights. ▷ Candelabra is also used as a singular but not by careful writers.

can·des·cent (kan-des-ěnt) adj. glowing, incandescent. can·des·cence n.

can·did (kan-did) adj. frank, not hiding one's thoughts. can·did·ly adv. can·did·ness n. □ candid camera, a small camera for taking informal pictures, especially without the subject's knowledge.

can·di·date (kan-di-dayt) n. 1. a person who seeks or is nominated for appointment to an office or position or membership. 2. a person taking an examination.

can·di·da·cy (kan-di-dă-se) n.

can·di·ed (kan-deed) adj. encrusted with sugar, preserved in sugar. □ candied fruit, small pieces of fruit or peel of citrus fruits candied for eating or use in cooking.

can·die (kan-del-mas) n. a religious festival in honor of the presentation of the infant Jesus in the temple, when candles are blessed (February 2).

can·di·for·mer (kan-de-lō-form-er) n. the intensity of light expressed in candles.

can·di·stick (kan-del-stik) n. a holder for one or more candles.

can·die·wick (kan-del-wik) n. a fabric with a raised tufted pattern worked in soft cotton yarn.

can·do·r (kan-dör) n. candid speech, frankness.

Can and W abbr. country and western music.

can·dy (kan-dee) n. (pl. -dies) 1. a sweet confection flavored with chocolate, peppermint, fruit, etc. 2. a small piece of this. candy v. (can·die·d, can-dy·ing) 1. to cook or coat with sugar or syrup. 2. to reduce to crystals. □ candy stripper, a volunteer hospital worker, usually a girl of high-school age. candy stripes, alternate stripes of white and color.

can·dy·tuft (kan-dee-tuft) n. a plant growing in tufts and having white, pink, or purple flowers.

cane (kan) n. 1. a wooden stick or metal rod carried when walking, especially as added support. 2. the hollow jointed stem of tall reeds and grasses (as bamboo, sugar cane), the solid stem of slender palms (as Malacca). 3. the material of these used for making furniture etc.

cane v. (caned, can·ing) 1. to punish by beating with a cane. 2. to weave cane into (a chair etc.). □ cane sugar, sugar obtained from the juice of sugar cane.

cane·brake (kan·bræk) n. a tract of land overgrown with canes.

can·nine (kan-nin) adj. of dogs. canine n. (also canine tooth) a strong pointed tooth next to the incisors.

can·is·ter (kan-i-stër) n. 1. a metal box or other container. 2. a cylinder, filled with shot or tear gas, that bursts and releases its contents when fired from a gun or thrown.

can·ker (kan-kér) n. 1. a disease that destroys the wood of plants and trees. 2. a disease that causes ulcerous sores in animals. can·ker·ous adj. □ canker sore, an ulcerous sore of the mouth and lips.

can·ker·worm (kan-kěr-wurm) n. the caterpillar of a moth that destroys the leaves or buds of plants and trees.

can·na·bis (kan-a-bis) n. 1. a hemp plant. 2. a preparation of this for smoking or chewing as an intoxicant drug, marijuana.

canned (kand) see can1. canned adj. 1. preserved in jars or cans, canned fruit. 2. (slang) recorded, canned music.

can·nel·o·ni (kan-ě-lō-hee) n. pl. rolls of pasta containing meat and seasoning.

can·ner·y (kan-ě-re) n. (pl. -ner·ies) a canning factory.

can·ni·bal·ism (kan-i-ba-liz-əm) n. a person who eats human flesh, an animal that eats its own kind. can·ni·bal·ist (kan-i-ba·lis-t) adj.

can·ni·bal·ize (kan-i-ba-lize) v. (can·ni·bal·iz·ed, can·ni·bal·iz·ing) to dismantle (a machine etc.) in order to provide spare parts for others.

can·ni·bal·iza·tion (kan-i-ba·li·za·shən) n.

can·non·on (kan-ôn) n. 1. an old type of large heavy gun firing solid metal balls. 2. an automatic shell-firing gun used in aircraft. cannon v. to collide heavily with. □ cannon fodder, men regarded merely as material to be expended in war. ▷ Do not confuse cannon with canon.

can·non·ade (kan-o-nayd) n. continuous gunfire. cannonade v. (can·non·a·dëd, can·non·a·ding) 1. to fire continually. 2. to bombard with gunfire.

can·non·ball (kan-ôn-bawl) n. a round heavy missile formerly fired from a can-canoneer / capable cannonball n. (slang) to move very quickly.

cannonball (kan-ô-neer) n. a person who fires a cannon.
cannon-fire (kan-not, ka-not) = cannon not.
cannot can not, cannot help (doing something), must. Use cannot when indicating no special emphasis on not, I cannot do this. Use can not when indicating such emphasis, I can accept an occasional absence but I cannot accept repeated absences.
cannon-la (kan-yû-la) n. (pl. -las, -læ, pr. -lee) a small tube inserted into the body to allow fluid to enter or escape.
cannon-ny (kan-ee) adj. (-ni-er, -ni-est) shrewd. cannon-ly adv. cannon-ness n. cannon (kâ-noo) n. a light narrow boat propelled by paddles. canoé (v. (ca-noed, ca-noè-ing) to paddle or travel in a canoe. canoë-ist n.
cannon-on (kan-ôn) n. 1. a general principle. 2. a set of writings accepted as genuinely by a particular author, sacred writings included in the Bible. 3. a clergyman who is one of a group with duties in a cathedral.
cannon law, church law. Do not confuse canon with cannon.
cannon = canyon.
cannon-shadic (kâ-non-i-kal) adj. 1. ordered by canon law. 2. included in the canon of Scripture. 3. standard, accepted. cannon-shadely adv.

cannon-shadic (kâ-non-i-kal) adj.
cannon-shads (kâ-non-i-kals) n. pl. the canonical dress of clergy.
canoë-ize (kan-ô-niz) v. (can-oized, canoë-izing) to declare officially to be a saint. canoë-ization (kan-ô-niz-ation) n.
canoë-py (kan-ô-pee) n. (pl. -pies) 1. a hanging cover forming a shelter above a throne, bed, or person, etc. 2. any similar covering. 3. the part of a parachute that spreads in the air. canopy v. (canoë-pied, canoë-pying) to place a canopy over.
cant to cant a. to slope, to tilt. cant n. a tilted or sloping position.
cant n. 1. insincere talk. 2. jargon. cant v. to indulge in insincere talk.
cant = cannot.
cant-ble (kah-uhn-bi-ly) adj. & adv. flowing and songlike. cantabile n. music of this kind. Italian.
cant-loupe (kan-ta-lôhp) n. a kind of melon.
cant-ker-ous (kan-tang-kô-rûs) adj. bad-tempered. can-tan-ker-ous-ly adj. can-tan-ker-ous-ness n.
cant-ta (kân-tah-ta) n. a musical composition for singers, like an oratorio but shorter. cant-tea (kan-tea) n. 1. a restaurant for the employees of a factory, office, etc. 2. a soldier's or camper's water flask. 3. a place of entertainment for soldiers etc.
canter (kan-tér) n. a gentle gallop. canter v. to gallop gently.
canter-bur-y (kan-té-ber-ee) bell a cultivated campanula with large flowers.
can-til-ble (kan-til-kël) n. a song or chant with words taken from the Bible, as the Magnificat and the Nunc Dimittis.
can-ti-le-ver (kan-ti-lev-ër) n. a projecting beam or girder supporting a balcony or similar structure.
canto (kan-toh) n. (pl. -tos) a division of a long poem.
canton (kan-ton) n. a division of a country, especially of Switzerland. can ton al (kan-tó-nal) adj.
cantonese (kan-tó-neez) n. (pl. -ese) 1. a Chinese language spoken in southern China and in Hong Kong. 2. a native or inhabitant of Canton. Cantonese adj.
canton-ment (kan-ton-mënt) n. a temporary lodging assigned to troops.
cantor (kan-tör) n. 1. the chief singer of the liturgy in a synagogue. 2. the leader or chief singer of a church choir.
canvas (kan-vâs) n. 1. strong coarse cloth used for making tents and sails etc. and by artists for painting on. 2. a piece of canvas for painting on, especially in oils, an oil painting. 3. the floor of a boxing ring. Do not confuse canvas with canvass.
canvas (kan-vâs) v. to visit in order to ask for votes, orders for goods etc., or opinions. canvassing, canvass n. canvassing. canvass v. canvass-er n. Do not confuse canvass with canvas.
canvas (kan-yôn) n. a deep gorge, usually with a river flowing through it.
cap (kap) n. 1. a soft covering for the head without a brim but often with a peak. 2. an academic headdress, a mortar-board. 3. a caplike cover or top. 4. a percussion cap. cap v. (capped, cap ping) 1. to put a cap on, to cover the top or end of. 2. to excel, to outdo; can you cap that! it cannot be surpassed.
cap and gown, the mortarboard and cassock-like gown worn on ceremonial occasions at colleges and universities; the academic community. cap pistol or cap gun, a toy gun that uses percussion caps.
cap abbr. Civil Air Patrol.
cap. abbr. 1. capital. 2. chapter.
captive (kay-pâ-bël) adj. 1. competent. 2. having a certain ability or capacity, capacious / capriole capacious (kā′pǎs′ēs-əs′) adj. roomy, able to hold much.

capacious-ness n.
capac-i-ty (kā′pa-sē-i-tē) n. 1. the ratio of a change in an electric charge to a corresponding change in potential. 2. the ability to store an electric charge. capacitive adj. capacitance n.

capac-i-tate (kā′pa-sē-i-tāt) v. capaci- ted, capaci- ting to make capable or legally competent.
capac-i-tor (kā′pa-sē-i-tôr) n. a device storing a charge of electricity.
capacity (kā′pa-sē-i-tee) n. 1. the ability to contain or accommodate, the amount that can be contained; full to capacity, quite full. 2. ability, capability; working at full capacity, as intensively as possible. 3. a position or function, signed it in his capacity as chairman.
cap-a-ble (kap-ə-ble) adj. of head to foot.
cap-a-ble (kā′pa-ə-bəl) adj. 1. horses’ ornamental trappings. 2. ornate clothing.
caparison v. 1. to cover with a caparison. 2. to clothe ornately.
cape (kāp) n. 1. a cloak. 2. a very short similarly shaped part of a coat etc. covering the shoulders. cape n. a coastal promontory. the Cape, the Cape of Good Hope; Cape Cod.
cap-er (kāp-ər) v. to jump or run about playfully. caper n. 1. capering. 2. (slang) an illegal escape, an activity.
caper n. 1. a bramble-like shrub. 2. one of its buds, which are pickled for use in sauces etc., caper sauce.
cape-skin (kāp-skin) n. soft leather made from sheepskin. capeskin adj.
Cape (kāp) Town one of the two capital cities of South Africa.
Cape Verde (vurd) a country off the western coast of Africa.
cap-il-lar-i-ty (kāp-il-lar-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) surface tension that causes a liquid in contact with a solid to rise or fall.
cap-il-lar-y (kāp-il-lar-ee) n. (pl. -aries) one of the very fine branching blood vessels that connect veins and arteries. capillary adj. of or like a capillary, capillary action.
cap-i-tal (kāp-i-tāl) adj. 1. principal, most important; capital city, the chief city of a country or state. 2. (informal) excellent. 3. involving the death penalty, a capital offense. 4. very serious, fatal, a capital error. 5. (of letters) of the form and size used to begin a name or a sentence, a capital / A. capital n. 1. a capital city. 2. a capital letter. 3. the head or top part of a pillar. 4. wealth or property that is used or invested to produce more wealth, the money with which a business etc. is started. capital-ly adv. capital gain or capital loss, profit, loss, from the sale of investments or property. capital goods, goods intended for use in producing other goods. capital punishment, the death penalty. capital ship, a warship of the largest and most powerful type. capital stock, the total number of shares issued by a corporation; the total value of these shares. capital sum, a lump sum of money. make capital of, to use (a situation etc.) to one’s advantage. Do not confuse capital with capitol.
cap-i-tal-ism (kāp-i-tāl-iz-əm) n. an economic system in which trade and industry are controlled by private owners.
cap-i-tal-ist (kāp-i-tāl-ist) n. 1. one who has much capital invested, a rich person. 2. an adherent of capitalism. capit-alist n. (kāp-i-tāl-ist-) adj.
cap-i-tal-ize (kāp-i-tāl-iz) v. 1. to write or print as a capital letter. 2. to convert into capital, to provide with capital.
cap-i-tal-iz-ation (kāp-i-tāl-iz-a-shən) n. to capitalize on, to profit by, to use (a thing) to one’s advantage.
cap-i-ta-tion (kāp-i-ta-shən) n. the levying of a tax or fee of so much per head. 2. a poll tax.
cap-i-tol (kā-pə-tōl) n. the building in which a state or national legislature meets. the Capitol, the building in Washington, D.C., in which the U.S. Congress meets. Do not confuse capitol with capital.
cap-it-u-lat-e (kāp-it-u-lət) v. (cap'-it-u-lət-ed, cap'-it-u-lət-ing) to surrender. capitulation (kāp-it-u-lə-shən) n.
cap-on (kāp-on) n. a domestic male chicken castrated and fattened for eating.
capric-ci-o (kā-prēch-'chē-ō) n. (pl. -ci-os) a lively, usually short musical composition.
capriccio (kā-prēch'ō) n. 1. a whim. 2. a piece of music in a lively fanciful style. capri-ci-ous (kā-prē-chē-əs) adj. 1. guided by caprice, impulsive. 2. changeable, a capricious breeze. capri'-ci-ous adj.
capric-cious-ness n.
Cap-rí-corn (kāp-rē-kōrn) n. a sign of the zodiac, the Goat.
cap-rí-ole (kāp-rē-ōl) n. 1. a caper, as in dancing. 2. a horse’s high leap with all four feet off the ground without advancing. capriole v. (cap'-ri-ōl-ed, cap'-ri-ōl-ing) to perform a capriole.
caps (kaps) n. pl. (informal) capital letters.
cap·si·cum (kap-sī-kŭm) n. 1. a tropical plant with hot-tasting seeds. 2. its fruit.
cap·si·z (kap-siz) v. (cap-sized, cap·si·zing) to overturn, a wave capsized the boat; the boat capsized.
cap·stan (kap-stán) n. 1. a thick revolving post used to pull in a rope or cable that winds around it as it turns, as for raising a ship's anchor. 2. a revolving spindle on a tape recorder. □ capstan bar, a pole used as a lever when turning a capstan manually.
cap·stone (kap-stohn) n. 1. the top and last stone to be placed in a structure. 2. the greatest achievement, her recent book is the capstone to her career.
cap·su·late (kap-sū-lit) adj. enclosed in a capsule.
cap·sule (kap-sūl) n. 1. a seed case that splits open when ripe. 2. a small soluble case in which a dose of medicine is enclosed for swallowing. 3. a detachable compartment of a spacecraft, containing instruments or crew. capsule adj. concise, summarizing.
Capt. abbr. Captain.
cap·tain (kap-tin) n. 1. a person given authority over a group or team. 2. an army officer ranking below a major and above a lieutenant. 3. a naval officer ranking below a commodore or rear admiral and above a commander. 4. the person commanding a ship. 5. the pilot of a civil aircraft. captain v. to act as captain of.
cap·tain·cy n.
cap·tion (kap-shŏn) n. 1. a short title or heading. 2. a description or explanation printed with an illustration etc. 3. words shown on a television or movie screen. caption v. to write a caption for.
cap·ti·ous (kap-shūs) adj. fond of finding fault or raising objections about trivial matters. cap·ti·ous·ly adv. cap·ti·ous·ness n.
cap·ti·vate (kap-tī-vat) v. (cap·ti·vated, cap·ti·ving) to capture the fancy of, to charm. cap·ti·va·tor n.
cap·ti·va·tion (kap-tī-vā-shon) n.
cap·ti·ve (kap-tīv) adj. 1. taken prisoner. 2. kept as a prisoner, unable to escape. captive n. a captive person or animal. □ captive audience, people who cannot get away easily and therefore cannot avoid being addressed.
cap·ti·v·i·ty (kap-tī-v·i·ti) n. the state of being held captive.
cap·tor (kap-tör) n. one who captures a person or animal.
cap·ture (kap-chûr) v. (cap·tured, cap·tur·ing) 1. to make a prisoner of. 2. to take or obtain by force, trickery, attraction, or skill; capture a likeness, to see and reproduce it. capture n. 1. capturing. 2. a thing captured.
Cap·u·chín (kap-yū-chîn) n. a friar of a branch of the Franciscan order.
car (kahr) n. 1. an automobile. 2. a railroad car of a specified type, dining car, Pullman car. 3. the passenger compartment of a cable railway. □ car bed, a child's bed used in the rear of a car. car coat, a short coat designed for automobile drivers. car park, an area for parking cars. car pool, a group of commuters organized to take turns at driving the group to work or to share the expense involved in this.
ca·ra·ba·o (kahr-ā-bah-oh) n. (pl. -ba·os) (in the Philippines) a water buffalo.
car·a·bi·neer, car·a·bi·ner (kar-ā-bî-neer) n. a soldier armed with a carbine.
ca·ra·cas (kā-ra-kās) the capital of Venezuela.
car·a·cole (kar-ā-kohl) n. a horseman's half wheel to the right or left, a succession of such turns to the right and left alternately. caracole v. (car·a·coled, car·a·co·ling) to execute a caracole.
ca·ra·fe (kahr-raf) n. a glass bottle in which wine or water is served at the table.
car·a·mel (kar-ā-mêl) n. 1. burnt sugar used for coloring and flavoring food. 2. a chewy candy tasting like this.
car·a·mel·ize (kar-ā-mê-liz) v. (car·a·mel·ized, car·a·mel·iz·ing) to turn or be turned into caramel. car·a·mel·i·za·tion (kar-ā-mê-li-zay-shon) n.
car·a·pace (kar-ā-pays) n. the shell on the back of a tortoise or crus tacean.
car·at (kar-āt) n. 1. a unit of weight for precious stones, 200 milligrams. 2. karat.
car·a·van (kar-ā-van) n. 1. a company of people (such as merchants) traveling together across desert country. 2. a line of vehicles traveling together.
car·a·van·sa·ry (kar-ā-van-să-ree) (pl. -ries), car·a·van·se·ral (kar-ā-van-se-ră) (pl. -rels, -ral) n. an inn in the Near East with a courtyard where caravans rest at night.
car·a·vel, car·a·velle (kar-ā-vel) n. a small light fast sailing ship, chiefly Spanish or Portuguese, of the 15th to 17th centuries.
car·a·way (kar-ā-way) n. a plant with spicy seeds (caraway seeds) that are used for flavoring cakes etc.
car·bide (kahr-bid) n. a compound of carbon, used in making acetylene gas.
car·bine (kahr-been) n. a short light automatic rifle.
car·bo·hy·drate (kahr-bo-hi-drät) n. 1. an organic compound, such as the sugars and starches, composed of carbon, oxycarbon, and hydrogen. 2. carbohydrates, starchy foods, considered to be fattening.
carbon (kahr-bön) n. 1. a chemical element that is present in all living matter and occurs in its pure form as diamond and graphite. 2. a rod of carbon in an arc lamp. 3. carbon paper. 4. a carbon copy.
carbon black, a black coallike substance used in making pigment, rubber, etc. carbon copy, a copy made with carbon paper; an exact copy. carbon dating, a method of determining the age of prehistoric objects by measuring the decay of radio carbon in them. carbon dioxide, a colorless odorless gas formed by the burning of carbon breathed out by animals in respiration. carbon 14, a naturally radioactive carbon, used in carbon dating.
carbon monoxide, a very poisonous gas formed when carbon burns incompletely, as in the exhaust of automobile engines. carbon paper, a thin paper coated with carbon, placed between sheets of writing paper for making copies of what is written or typed on the top sheet. carbon tetrachloride, a colorless liquid used as a solvent in dry cleaning etc. carbon 12, a carbon isotope used as the standard by which atomic weights are measured.
carbonaceous (kahr-bô-nay-shûs) adj. 1. of or like coal or charcoal. 2. consisting of or containing carbon.
carbonate (kahr-bön-ät) n. a compound that releases carbon dioxide when mixed with acid. carbonate v. (car-bon-at-ed, car-bon-at-ing) 1. to form into a carbonate. 2. to charge with carbon dioxide gas. carbonated drink, a drink made fizzy with carbon dioxide gas.
carboniferous (kahr-dif-ér-ús) adj. 1. producing or containing carbon or coal. 2. Carboniferous, of the geologic period of the Paleozoic era before the Devonian and after the Permian. carboniferous n. the carboniferous period.
carbonize (kahr-bön-iz) v. (car-bon-ized, car-bon-iz-ing) 1. to convert (a substance that contains carbon) into carbon alone, as by heating or burning it. 2. to coat with carbon. carbonization (kahr-bön-iz-a-shôn) n.
Carbon-burn-dum (kahr-bön-burn-dûm) n. (trademark) a hard compound of carbon and silicon used for polishing and grinding things.
carbon boy (kahr-boi) n. a large round bottle surrounded by a protecting framework, used for transporting liquids safely.
carbonbunicle (kahr-bön-kël) n. 1. a severe abcess in the skin. 2. a bright red gum cut in a knoblike shape.
carbon burner (kahr-bû-ray-tôr) n. an apparatus for mixing fuel and air in an internal combustion engine.
carbonized, carbonizing (kahr-bû-ri-zed, kahr-bû-ri-zing) to combine or inject (a metal) with carbon. carbonizing (kahr-bû-ri-zing) n.
carbon cask (kahr-kâs) n. 1. the dead body of an animal, especially one prepared for cutting up as meat. 2. the bony part of the body of a bird before or after cooking.
carbonic acid (kahr-sin-ë-jén) n. a cancer-producing substance. carbonic acid (kahr-sin-ë-jén) adj.
carbonic acid (kahr-sin-ë-jén) acid (kahr-sin-ë-jén) adj. carbonic acid (kahr-sin-ë-jén) n.
carbons (kahr-sin) n. 1. a small piece of stiff paper or thin cardboard, often printed, used to send messages, greetings, etc., or to record information such as a person's name or the title of a book and for use as an identification or in a card index. 2. a program of horse races. 3. a playing card. 4. an odd or amusing person. 5. cards, card playing, a card game. card v. 1. to write or list on cards. 2. to score in golf, he carded a 78. be in the cards, to be likely or possible. card catalog, a library file with information of books entered on cards. card file, a file in which each item is entered on a separate card. card game, a game using playing cards. play one's cards right, to use good judgment in managing one's affairs. put one's cards on the table, to be frank about one's resources and intentions.
cardboard n. a wire brush or toothed instrument for cleaning or combing wool. card v. to clean or comb with this.
cardboard n. a thin card. cardboard n. a space consisting of the seed capsules of various plants, used as a medicine, in curries, etc. Also cardboard (mûn). cardboard n. pasteboard, especially for making into boxes. card-carrying (kahr-kar-i-ing) adj. being a registered member of a political party etc.
cardiac (kahr-di-ak) adj. 1. of the heart. 2. of heart disease. cardiac failure, a heart attack.
cardiff (kahr-diff) the capital of Wales.
cardigan (kahr-di-gan) n. a sweater or knitted jacket opening down the front.
cardinal (kahr-dî-nal) adj. 1. chief, most important, the cardinal virtues. 2. deep scarlet. cardinal n. 1. a member of the...
Sacred College of the Roman Catholic Church, which elects the pope. 2. an American songbird, the male of which is bright red. cardinalate adv. □ cardinal flower, a North American plant bearing a spike of red flowers. cardinal numbers, the whole numbers, 1, 2, 3, etc. cardinal points, the four main points of the compass, north, east, south, and west.

care

care (ka-re), v. 1. to tilt or keel (a boat etc.) over to one side. 2. to swerve.

career (ka-re-er) n. 1. an occupation, a way of making a living, especially one with opportunities for advancement or promotion. 2. progress through life, the development and progress of a political party etc. 3. quick or violent forward movement; stopped him in mid career, as he was rushing. career v. to move swiftly or wildly. □ career diplomat, one who follows diplomacy as a career.

career woman, a woman who works permanently in a paid occupation.

care-free (kair-free) adj. lighthearted through being free from anxiety or responsibility. □ Do not confuse carefree and careless.

careful (kair-ful) adj. 1. giving serious attention and thought, painstaking, a careful worker. 2. done with care, careful work. 3. cautious, avoiding damage or loss. careful-ly adv. careful-ness n.

careless (kair-lis) adj. not careful. care-less-ly adv. care-less-ness n.

□ Do not confuse careless with carefree.

careless, adjective.

carer (kair-er) n. a mark (.) to show omission.

care-taker (kair-tay-ker) n. a person employed to look after a house or building.

□ caretaker government, one holding office temporarily until another can be elected.

care-worn (kair-woh-rn) adj. showing signs of prolonged worry.

car-fare (kair-fair) n. bus or streetcar fare.

car-go (kahr-go) n. (pl. -goes, -gos) goods carried on a ship, aircraft, or other vehicle.

car-hop (kahr-hop) n. (informal) a person employed to serve patrons in their cars at a drive-in restaurant etc.

car-lib-be-an (kar-lib-be-an) adj. of the Caribbean Sea, a part of the Atlantic off Central America. Caribbean n. the Caribbean Sea.

car-l-boo (kar-l-boo) n. (pl. -boos) a North American reindeer.

car-l-cap-ture (kar-l-kap-tur) n. a picture or description or imitation of a person or thing that exaggerates certain characteristics, especially for comic effect. car-lcap-ture v. (car-lcap-tured, car-lcap-turing) to make a caricature of. car-lcap-turing n.

car-la n. (pl. car-la) decay in bones or teeth, dental caries.

car-l-lon (kar-l-lon) n. a set of bells sounded either from a keyboard or mechanically. car-l-lon-neur (kar-l-lon-nur) n.

car-lous (kar-l-öous) adj. (especially of bones or teeth) decayed.

car-load (kahr-load) n. 1. a load that fills a car, especially a freight car. 2. a large quantity of anything.
Car-mel-ite (kahr-mé-lit) n. a member of an order of friars or of a corresponding order of nuns. Carmelite adj.
car-min-a-tive (kahr-min-a-tiv) adj. curing flatulence. Carminative n. a carminative drug.
car-mine (kahr-min) adj. & n. deep red.
car-nage (kahr-nij) n. the killing of many people.
car-na-tion (kahr-nay-shun) n. a double-flowered carnation.
car-ni*vo*re (kahr-ni-vor) n. a carnivorous animal.
car-ni*vo*rous (kahr-ni-vor-ous) adj. feeding on flesh or other animal matter.
car-niv'o*rous-ly adv. Car-niv'o*rous-ness n.
car-ni*val (kahr-ní-val) n. 1. a traveling amusement show having sideshows, game booths, and rides. 2. festivities and public merrymaking during the last three days or last week before Lent. Car-niv'o*ra (kahr-ní-vor-á) n. an order of mammals, mostly carnivorous, including cats, dogs, and many other animals.
car-ni*vo*re (kahr-ní-vor) n. a carnivorous animal.
car-ni*vo*rous (kahr-ní-vor-ous) adj. feeding on flesh or other animal matter.
car-niv'o*rous-ly adv. Car-niv'o*rous-ness n.
car-ny (kahr-nee) n. (pl. -nies) ( slang) 1. a carnival. 2. a person working for a carnival. car-ol (kahr-ol) n. a joyful song, especially a Christmas hymn. Carol v. (car-oled, car-ol-ing) 1. to sing carols. 2. to sing joyfully. Carol'er n.
car-ol'la-na (kahr-ol-lá-ná) either of two states of the U.S., North and South Carolina. car*om (kahr-óm) n. 1. (in billiards) the hitting of two balls successively by a player's ball. 2. a rebound, as of a rubber ball off a wall. Carom v. 1. to make a carom. 2. to strike and rebound off.
car-o*ten*e (kahr-ót-ten) n. an orange or red substance that occurs in carrots, tomatoes, and many other vegetables, and is a source of vitamin A. car*ot*id (kahr-ót-íd) n. either of the carotid arteries, the two great arteries (one on either side of the neck) carrying blood to the head. Carotid adj. of these arteries.
car*rous (kahr-rous) v. (car-roused, car-rous-ing) to drink and be merry. Car-rouser n. Car-rous'al n.
car*ou*sel, car*rou*sel (kahr-ós-él) n. 1. a merry-go-round. 2. a conveyor or deliv-ery system that rotates like a merry-go-round.
carp¹ (kahrp) n. (pl. carp, carps) an edible freshwater fish that lives in lakes and ponds.
carp² v. to keep finding fault, to raise petty objections.
car'pal (kahr-pal) adj. of the wrist joint. Car-pal n. any of the wrist bones.
car*pe di*em (kahr-pé dí-ém) enjoy today without thought of tomorrow. > Latin.
car*pel (kahr-pél) n. the pistil of a flower, the part in which the seeds develop.
car*pen*ter (kahr-pen-tér) n. a person who makes or repairs wooden objects and structures. Carpenter v. to work as a carpenter. Car-pen*try n. □ Carp*en*ter ant, one that nest and bores in decaying trees and dead wood.
car*pet (kahr-pit) n. 1. a thick textile covering for floors. 2. a thick layer underfoot, a carpet of leaves. Carpet v. (car-pet*ed, car-pet*ing) to cover with a carpet. □ Carpet slippers, slippers with cloth uppers. Carpet sweeper, a house- hold device with revolving brushes for sweeping carpets. on the carpet, (informal) being reprimanded.
car*pet*bag (kahr-pit-bag) n. a traveling bag made of carpet fabric.
car*pet*bag*ger (kahr-pit-bag-ér) n. 1. a Northerner who went into the South after the Civil War to profit from Reconstruction. 2. a person who meddles in the politics of a locality with which he has no genuine connection.
car*pet*ing (kahr-pit-ing) n. material for carpets.
car*port (kahr-pohrt) n. an open-sided shelter for a car, projecting from the side of a house.
car*pus (kahr-pús) n. (pl. -pl, pr. -pi) 1. the set of bones (eight in humans) connecting the forearm to the hand. 2. the wrist.
car*ra*geen, car*ra*geen (kahr-rá-geen) n. an edible purple seaweed.
car*rel (kahr-rel) n. a cubicle for a reader in a library.
car*riage (kahr-ij) n. 1. a wheeled vehicle, usually horse drawn, for carrying passengers. 2. (British) a railroad car for passengers. 3. the carrying of goods from place to place, the cost of this. 4. a gun carriage. 5. a moving part carrying or holding something in a machine. 6. the posture of the body when walking. 7. a baby carriage. □ Carriage trade, an affluent clientele; trade with this.
ports goods or people or for payment. 3. a support for luggage or a seat for a passenger on a bicycle etc. 4. a person or animal that transmits a disease to others without being affected by it himself. 5. an aircraft carrier. 6. (also carrier wave) a transmitted wave that carries a television or radio signal. □ carrier pigeon, a homing pigeon used to carry messages tied to its leg or neck.

car*ri-on (kar-i-ton) n. dead and decaying flesh.

car*rot (kar-öt) n. 1. a plant with a tapering orange-colored root. 2. this root, used as a vegetable. 3. a means of enticing someone to do something; the carrot and the stick, bribes and threats. car*rot*·y adj.

car*rot-top (kar-öt-top) n. (informal) a red-headed person.

car*rou*sel = carousel.

car*ry (kar-ee) v. (car·ried, car·ry·ing) 1. to take from one place to another. 2. to have on one's person, he is carrying a gun. 3. to conduct, to take, wires carry electric current. 4. to support the weight of, to bear; she carries that department, but for her ability it would collapse. 5. to involve, to entail, the crime carries a life sentence. 6. to extend; don't carry modesty too far, do not be too modest. 7. to win, to capture; the motion was carried, was approved. 8. (of a newspaper or broadcast) to contain, the networks carried the story. 9. to hold and move (the body) in a certain way, she carries herself with dignity. 10. to be transmitted clearly, sound carries across water. carry n. (pl. -ries) 1. the distance traveled by a golf ball in flight. 2. a portage between rivers etc. 3. range (of a gun, sound, etc.). □ be carried away, to be very excited. carry all before one, to be very successful. carry conviction, to sound convincing. carry forward, to transfer to a new page of accounts in bookkeeping. carrying charge, the interest on an unpaid balance of a charge or installment account. carry off, to cause the death of; to win (a prize); to deal with (a situation) successfully. carry on, to continue; to take part in (a conversation); to manage or conduct (a business etc.); (informal) to behave excitedly, to complain lengthily. carry on with, (informal) to have an affair with, to flirt with. carry out, to put into practice, to accomplish. carry over, to carry forward in bookkeeping. carry weight, to be influential or important.

car*ry·all (kar-ee-awl) n. a roomy bag or basketlike container.

car*ry-on (kar-ee-on) n. (informal) a bag or suitcase small enough to be kept within an airplane cabin during flight.

carry-on adj.

car·ry-out (kar-ce-owt) adj. (informal) (of food) to be taken along by the customer for eating elsewhere.

car·sick (kar-sik) adj. made sick or queasy by the motion of a car. car*sick*·ness n.

Car·son (kar-sohn) City the capital of Nevada.

cart (kahr't) n. 1. a two-wheeled vehicle used for carrying loads, pulled by a horse etc. 2. a light vehicle with a shaft, pushed or drawn by hand. cart v. 1. to carry in a cart. 2. (informal) to carry laboriously, to lug; carted his family off to Italy, made them go with him. cart'er n. □ put the cart before the horse, to put a thing first when it should logically come second.

cart·age (kahr-tij) n. 1. carting goods. 2. the cost of this.

carte blanche (kahr-blahnsh) full power to act as one thinks best. □ French.

car·tel (kahr tel) n. a combination of business firms to control production, marketing, etc. and avoid competing with one another.

Car·te·sian (kahr tee zhan) adj. of the French scholar Descartes or his philosophy or mathematical methods.

Car·thu*sian (kahr tuh zhahn) n. a member of an order of monks founded at La Grande Chartreuse near Grenoble, France.

Car·ti·lage (kahr tij lij) n. 1. tough white flexible tissue attached to the bones of animals. 2. a structure made of this. car·ti·lage··nous (kahr ti-laj i nus) adj.

car·to·gra·phy (kahr togra fe) n. map drawing. car·to·gra·pher n. car·to·gra·phi·cian (kahr to gra fi kian) adj.

car·to·n (kahr ton) n. 1. a cardboard box or container. 2. the amount it contains.

car·toon (kahr too n) n. 1. an amusing drawing in a newspaper etc., especially as a comment on public matters. 2. a sequence of these telling a comic or serial story. 3. an animated cartoon. cartoon v. to draw cartoons, to represent in a cartoon.

Car·toon·ist (kahr too nist) n. a person who draws cartoons.

Car·ridge (kahr trij) n. 1. a tube or case containing explosive for firearms or blasting, with bullet or shot if for a rifle etc. 2. a sealed case holding film, recording tape, etc. put into an apparatus and removed from it as a unit. 3. the detachable head of a pickup on a record player, holding the stylus.

cart-wheel (kahr-t-hweel) n. a handspring in which the body turns with limbs spread like spokes of a wheel, balancing on each hand in turn.

carve (kahrv) v. (carved, carv-ing) 1. to form or produce or inscribe by cutting solid material. 2. to cut (cooked meat) into slices for eating. 3. to make by great effort, carved out a career for himself. carv'er n. carve up, to divide into parts or shares.

car-wash (kahr-wosh) n. an establishment where automobiles are washed.

car-y-at-id (kar-ee-at-id) n. a sculptured female figure used as a supporting pillar in a building.

cas*sa*ba (ka-sa-ba) n. a winter musk-melon with a yellow rind and sweet flesh.

Cas*a*no*va (kaz-á-noh-vá) n. a man with a reputation for having many love affairs. Named after an Italian adventurer (18th century).

cas*cade (kas-kayd) n. 1. a waterfall. 2. something falling or hanging like this. cascade v. (cas-cad-ed, cas-cad-ing) to fall as or like a cascade.

cas*car*a (kas-kar-á) n. 1. the bark of a North American buckthorn, used as a purgative. 2. the tree itself.

case1 (kays) n. 1. an instance or example of the occurrence of something, an actual state of affairs. 2. a condition of disease or injury, a person suffering from this, two cases of measles. 3. something being investigated by police etc., a murder case. 4. a lawsuit. 5. a set of facts or arguments supporting something, she made a case for keeping her secretary. 6. the form of a noun or pronoun that shows its relation to another word, as in Mary's hat, 's shows the possessive case. case history, a record of the pertinent history of a patient etc. case law, law based on judicial decision in an earlier case or cases rather than on statute. case study, a study of a person or a condition based on collected information. In any case, whatever the facts are; whatever may happen. In case, lest something should happen; in case of fire, if there should be a fire.

case2 n. 1. a container or protective covering. 2. this with its contents, the amount it contains. 3. a suitcase. case v. (cased, cas-ing) 1. to enclose in a case. 2. (slang) to examine, to look at closely; case the joint, examine (a house etc.) in planning a crime. case shot, a projectile consisting of small pellets in a metal container.

case-book (kays-buuk) n. 1. a record of legal or medical cases. 2. a collection of scholarly articles on a single subject.

case-bound (kays-bownd) adj. (of a book) in hard cover.

case-hard-en (kays-hahr-dén) v. 1. to harden the surface of (a metal). 2. to render callous.

ca-*sein (kay-seen) n. a protein found in milk, the basis of cheese.

case-load (kays-lohd) n. the number of cases with which a doctor etc. is concerned in a period of time.

case-ment (kays-mént) n. a window that opens on hinges like a door.

case-work (kays-wurk) n. social work that involves dealing with people who have problems. case'work'er n.

case-worm (kays-wurm) n. an insect larva, such as a caddisworm, enclosed within a case it builds for protection.

cash (kash) n. 1. money in coin or notes. 2. immediate payment for goods, as opposed to installment payments etc. 3. informal money, wealth, they're short of cash. cash v. to give or get cash for, cashed a check. cash and carry, a method of shopping in which goods are paid for in cash and taken away by the buyer himself. cash crop, a crop grown for selling. cash discount, a discount given in return for payment in cash.

cash flow, the flow of cash into a business as goods etc. are sold. cash in on, to make a large profit from; to turn to one's advantage. cash in one's chips, (slang) to die. cash on delivery, payment to be made when goods are delivered, not at the time of purchase. cash register, a device used in stores, with a mechanism for recording and storing the money received for each purchase.

cash-a-ble (kash-a-béll) adj. able to be cashed.

cash-ew (kash-oo) n. 1. the small edible nut of a tropical tree. 2. this tree.

cash-ier1 (kay-sheer) n. a person employed to receive and pay out money in a bank or to receive payments in a shop etc. cashier's check, a check issued by a bank, drawn on the bank's own funds and signed by a cashier.

cashier2 v. to dismiss from service, especially with disgrace.

cash-mere (kazh-meer) n. 1. a very fine soft wool, especially that from the Kash-mir goat. 2. fabric made from this.

cas*ing (kay-sing) n. 1. a protective covering or wrapping. 2. the material from which this is made.

cas*si*no (kä-see-noh) n. (pl. -nos) a public building or room for gambling and other amusements.
cask (kask) n. 1. a barrel, especially for alcoholic drinks. 2. its contents.
cas-ket (kas-kit) n. a coffin.
casque (kask) n. a medieval helmet with a nose guard.
Cas-san-dra (ka-san-dra) n. a person who prophesies disaster. Named after a prophetess in Greek legend who foretold evil events but was doomed never to be believed.
Cas-sa-vá (ka-sah-vá) n. a tropical plant with starchy roots from which tapioca is obtained.
Cas-se-role (kas-é-rohl) n. 1. a covered dish in which meat etc. is cooked and served. 2. food cooked in such a dish.
Cas-sette (ka-set) n. a small sealed case containing a reel of film or magnetic tape.
Cas-set-ta-nets (kas-ta-nets) v. (cas-ta-way) 1. to throw, cast a net; cast a shadow, cause there to be one. 2. to shed. 3. to turn or send in a particular direction; cast your eye over this, examine it. 4. to give (one's vote). 5. to make (an object) by pouring metal etc. into a mold and letting it harden. 6. to calculate, cast a horoscope. 7. to select actors for a play etc., to assign a role to. Cast n. 1. an act of casting. 2. something made by putting soft material into a mold to harden, a plaster cast (see plaster). 3. a set of actors cast for parts in a play. 4. a slight squint.
Cast about for, to search or look for.
Cas-ti-gate (kas-ti-gate) v. (ca-su-al«ly) 1. to have turrets or battlements like a castle.
Cas-ti-ga-tion (kas-ti-ga-tion) n. 1. a small container for sugar or salt, with a perforated top for sprinkling from. 2. one of the small swiveled wheels fixed to the legs of furniture so that it can be moved easily. 3. a person who casts.
Cas-ti-ga-ting (kas-ti-ga-ting) v. (cas-ti-ga-tion) to punish by blows or by criticizing severely.
Cas-tle (kas-tel) n. 1. a large fortified building or group of buildings. 2. a chess piece also called a rook. Castle v. (cas-tled, cas-tling) in chess, to move the rook to next to the king and the king to the other side of the rook. Castles in the air daydreams.
Cas-tle-oil (kas-te-lay-tid) n. 1. made of cast iron. 2. very strong.
Cas-tor (kas-tor) n. 1. a large bird like an ostrich but smaller.
Cast v. (cast, cast-ing) 1. to throw, cast a net; cast a shadow, cause there to be one. 2. to shed. 3. to turn or send in a particular direction; cast your eye over this, examine it. 4. to give (one's vote). 5. to make (an object) by pouring metal etc. into a mold and letting it harden. 6. to calculate, cast a horoscope. 7. to select actors for a play etc., to assign a role to. Cast n. 1. an act of casting. 2. something made by putting soft material into a mold to harden, a plaster cast (see plaster). 3. a set of actors cast for parts in a play. 4. a slight squint.
Cas-tor bean, the seed of the castor-oil plant.
Cas-trate (kas-trayt) v. (cas-trate-ed, cas-trate-ing) to remove the testicles of, to geld. Cas-tration n.
Cas-su-al (ka-su-al) adj. 1. happening by chance, a casual encounter. 2. made or done without forethought, not serious, a casual remark. 3. not methodical, a casual inspection. 4. informal, for informal occasions, casual clothes. 5. irregular, not permanent, found some casual work; casual laborers, doing such work. Ca-su-al-ly adv. Ca-su-al-ness n.
Cas-su-lary (ka-pul-ler-ee) 1. reasoning, especially by a theologian, to settle questions of conscience and conduct. 2. dishonest or insincere reasoning in these matters. Ca-su-lar adj.
Cas-su-lar-ly adv.
Cas-sus bel-li (kay-sús bel-li) (pl. Ca-sus bel-li) an act justifying or regarded as reason for war. Lat.
Cat (kat) n. 1. a small furry domesticated animal often kept as a pet. 2. a wild animal related to this; the great cats, lion, tiger, leopard, etc. 3. (informal) a spiteful or malicious woman. 4. the cat-o'-ninetails. □ cat and mouse, a children's game; the practice of taking slight action repeatedly against a weaker party. cat burglar, a burglar who enters by climbing a wall or drainpipe etc. cat's cradle, a game with string forming looped patterns between the fingers. let the cat out of the bag, to give away a secret. CAT abbr. clear-air turbulence.
cat. abbr. catalog.
cat·ab·o·l·ism (kā-tab-o-liz·ēm) n. the phase of metabolism in which complex compounds break into simpler ones. cat·a·bol·ic (kat-ā-bol-ik) adj. cat·a·bol'·i·cal·ly adv.
cat·a·clysm (kat-ā-klyz·ēm) n. a violent upheaval or disaster. cat·a·cly·sic (kat-ā-klyz·ik) adj.
cat·a·comb (kat-ā-kōm) n. an underground gallery with side recesses for tombs. □ the Catacombs, those made by Jews and early Christians in and near Rome.
cat·a·falque (kat-ā-falk) n. a decorated platform on which the coffin of a distinguished person stands during the funeral or while the remains are lying in state, or on which the coffin is drawn in procession.
cat·a·lep·sy (kat-ā-lep-sē) n. a seizure in which a person becomes rigid and unconscious. cat·a·lep·tic (kat-ā-lep-tik) adj.
cat·a·log, cat·a·logue (kat-ā-log) n. a list of items, usually in systematic order and with a description of each. cata·log(ue) v. (cat·a·logoed, cat·a·log·ging; cat·a·logued, cat·a·log·uing) to list in a catalog. cat·a·log·er, cat·a·log·ue·r·er n.
cat·a·pal·pa (kā-tal-pā) n. a tree with large simple leaves, native to North America, tropical America, Japan, and China. cat·a·lyst (kat-ā-list) n. 1. a substance that aids or speeds up a chemical reaction while remaining unchanged itself. 2. a person or thing that precipitates a change. cat·a·ly·sis (kat-ā-līs) n. (pl. -ses, pl. -sees).
cat·a·lyt·ic (kat-ā-lit·ik) adj. causing catalysis. cat·a·lyt'·i·cal·ly adv.
cat·a·ma·ran (kat-ā-mā-rān) n. a boat with twin hulls.
cat·a·mount (kat-ā-mont) n. see mountain lion.
cat·a·pult (kat-ā-pult) n. 1. a device with elastic for shooting small stones etc. 2. a device for launching a glider or an aircraft from the deck of a carrier. catapult v. 1. to hurl from a catapult, to fling forcibly. 2. to rush violently.
cat·a·ract (kat-ā-rakt) n. 1. a large waterfall. 2. a condition in which the lens of the eye becomes cloudy and obscures sight. 3. this opaque area.
cat·arrh (kā-tahr) n. inflammation of a mucous membrane, especially of the nose and throat, accompanied by a watery discharge. cat·arrh'·al adj.
cat·as·tro·phe (kā-tas·trō-fē) n. a sudden great disaster. cat·a·stro·ph·ic (cat-ā-strof·ik) adj. cat·a·stro'ph·i·cal·ly adv.
cat·a·ton·ic (kat-ā-ton·ik) adj. schizophrenic and with attacks of catalapsey.
cat·taw·ba (kā-taw-bā) n. 1. a grape cultivated in the eastern U.S. 2. a white wine made from this grape.
cat·bird (kat-burd) n. a North American songbird whose call sounds like the meowing of a cat. □ in the catbird seat, (informal) in advantageous position.
cat·boat (kat-boht) n. a broad-beamed sailboat with the mast well forward and rigged with one sail.
cat·call (kat-kawl) n. a shrill whisper of disapproval. catcall v.
catch (kach) v. (caught, catch·ing) 1. to capture in a net or snare or after a chase. 2. to overtake. I caught him at the finish line. 3. to grasp something moving and hold it, the tight end caught the pass. 4. to come unexpectedly upon, to take by surprise, to detect. 5. to be in time for and get on (a train etc.). 6. (informal) to hear (a broadcast), to watch (a film). 7. to get briefly, caught a glimpse of it: you have caught the likeness well, seen and reproduced it in painting etc.; try to catch his eye, make him notice you. 8. to become or cause to become fixed or prevented from moving. 9. to hit, the blow caught him on the nose. 10. to begin to burn, the sticks caught or caught fire. 11. to become infected with, caught a cold. catch n. 1. the act of catching. 2. something caught or worth catching; he's a good catch, worth getting as a husband. 3. a concealed difficulty or disadvantage, there must be a catch in it; a catch question, one involving a catch. 4. a device for fastening something. □ catch basin, a well at a sewer opening, intended to prevent undesired materials from entering the sewer. catch hold of, to seize in the hand(s); he caught hold of himself just in time, stopped himself from blundering. catch it, (informal) to be scolded or punished. catch on, (informal) to become popular; to understand what is meant. catch phrase, a phrase in frequent current use, a catchword. catch up, to come abreast with; to do work that is in arrears. play catch-up, to use tactics that may enable one to catch up with a competitor.
catch-all (kach-awł) n. a receptacle for a variety of objects.
catch-as-catch-can (kach-áz-kach-kan) n. wrestling in which few or no holds are barred.
catch-er (kach-ë-r) n. 1. one who catches. 2. a baseball player who is stationed at home plate.
catch-ing (kach-ing) adj. infectious.
catch-ment (kach-mënt) n. that which is caught. □catchment area, an area from which rainfall drains into a river or reservoir.
catch-penny (kach-pen-ee) adj. intended to sell quickly for little money.
catch-22 n. (slang) a dilemma from which the victim has no escape. △From the title of a novel, Catch-22, by Joseph Heller, 1961.
catch-word (kach-wurd) n. a memorable word or phrase that is often used, a slogan.
catch-y (kach-ee) adj. (catch-l-er, catch-l-est) 1. pleasant and easy to remember, a catchy tune. 2. tricky, involving a catch.
cat-e-chism (kat-ë-kiz-ém) n. 1. the Cat-e-chism, a summary of the principles of a religion in the form of questions and answers. 2. a series of questions and answers.
cat-e-chist (kat-ë-kist) n. a person who puts questions to another.
cat-e-chize (kat-ë-kiz) v. (cat-e-chized, cat-e-chiz-ing) to put a series of questions to (a person).
cat-e-chumen (kat-ë-kyoo-mën) n. a Christian convert under instruction before baptism.
cat-e-gor-i-cal (kat-ë-gor-i-kål) adj. absolute, unconditional, a categorical refusal. cat-e-gor-i-cal-ly adv. □categorical imperative, an absolute and universally binding moral law.
cat-e-nar-y (kat-ë-nar-y) n. (pl. -nar-ies) a curve formed by a uniform chain hanging freely from two points not in the same vertical line. catenary adj.
cat-er (kay-ter) v. to provide what is needed or wanted, especially food or entertainment, cater for 50 people; cater to people's interest in scandal, pander to it.
cat-er-corn-er (kat-ër-kor-nër) = catty-cornered.

Ca-ter-er (kay-tër-ë-r) n. one whose trade is to supply meals etc.
cat-er-pli-lar (kat-ër-pli-lær) n. the larva of a butterfly or moth. □caterpillar thread, a steel band passing around two wheels of a tractor or tank, enabling it to travel over very rough ground.
cat-er-waul (kat-ër-wał) v. to make a cat's howling cry. caterwaul n. such a cry.
cat-fish (kat-fish) n. (pl. -fish, -fish-es) a large usually freshwater fish with whiskerlike feelers around the mouth.
cat-gut (kat-gut) n. a fine strong cord made from the dried intestines of animals, used for the strings of musical instruments and for sewing up surgical incisions.

Cath. abbr. 1. (often cath.) cathedral. 2. Catholic.
ca-thar-sis (kath-ohd-sis) n. (pl. -ses, pr.-seez) 1. the act of ridding or cleansing. 2. the relief of the emotions gained through viewing the experiences of others, especially in a drama. 3. the relieving of a neurotic state by reenacting an earlier emotional experience.
cat-har-tic (kath-ohd-tik) adj. producing catharsis. cathartic n. a laxative.
cat-he-dral (kath-6-ral) n. the principal church of a bishop's see. □cathedral ceiling, a high ceiling constructed of or imitating exposed beams.
cath-er-line (kath-ë- rin) wheel a rotating firework. △Named after St. Catherine, who was martyred on a spiked wheel.
cath-e-ter (kath-ë-tër) n. a tube that can be inserted into a body passage or cavity.
cath-e-ter-ize (kath-ë-të-raz) v. (cath-e-ter-ized, cath-e-ter-izing) to insert a catheter into.

cath-ode (kath-ohd) n. the electrode by which current leaves a device. ca-thod-ic (kă-thod-ik) adj. □cathode ray tube, a vacuum tube, for example, a television picture tube, in which beams of electrons are directed against a fluorescent screen where they produce a luminous image.

cath-o-lic (kath-ö-lık) adj. universal, including many or most things, his tastes are Catholic.
Cath-o-lic (kath-ö-lık) adj. 1. Roman Catholic. 2. of all Churches or Christians. Catholic n. a Roman Catholic.
Ca-thol-ic-ism (kă-thol-ik-iz-äm) n. cath-o-lic-ity (kath-ö-liks-tee) n. 1. the quality of being of wide interest or use. 2. broadmindedness. 3. Catholicity, Roman Catholicism.
cat-on (kat-t-ôn) n. an ion with a positive charge.
cat-kin (kat-kin) n. a spike of small soft catlike / cave

flowers hanging from trees such as willow and hazel.
cat-like (kat-lík) adj. like a cat.
cat-nap (kat-nap) n. a short nap. catnap
v. (cat-napped, cat-nap-ting) to have a catnap.
cat-nip (kat-nip) n. a plant with a strong smell that attracts cats.
cat-o'-nine-tails (kat-ö-nin-taylz) n. a whip with nine knotted lashes, formerly used for flogging people.
cat's-eyes (kats-iz) n. pl. 1. reflector studs marking the edge of a road etc. 2. gems reflecting light.
cat's-paw (kats-paw) n. a person who is used by another to do something risky.
cat-sup (kat-súp) = ketchup.
cat-tail (kat-tayl) n. a reedlike marsh plant with flowers in tall cylindrical spikes.
cat-tle (kat-éll) n. large ruminant animals with horns and cloven hoofs, bred for their milk or meat. cat-tle-man (kat-éll-mán) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mén). a breeder of cattle. □ cattle car, a penlike railroad car for transporting livestock.
cat-ty (kat-éy) adj. (ti-er, ti-est) spiteful, speaking spitefully. cat'ti-ly adv. cat'ti-ness n.
cat-ty-cor-nered (kat-éy-kor-nér'd) adv. diagonally.
CATV abbr. community antenna television.
cat-walk (kat-wawk) n. a raised narrow pathway.
Cau-ca-sian (kaw-ká-si'ún) n. member of the light-skinned division of humanity.
Caucasian adj.
cau-cus (kaw-kúss) n. (pl. -cus'es) a meeting of a small group of political party leaders to decide policy etc. cau-cus v. (cau-cused, cau-cus'ing) to meet for such purposes.
cau-dal (kaw-dál) adj. of or at the tail. cau'dal-ly adv.
cau-di-lo (kaw-dee-loh) n. (pl. -los) a military dictator in a Spanish-speaking country.
caught (kawt) see catch.
caul (kawl) n. 1. a membrane enclosing a fetus in the womb. 2. part of this found on a child's head at birth, once thought to be a charm against drowning.
caul-dron (kawl-drón) n. a large deep pot for boiling things in.
cau-li-flow-er (kaw-li-flow-ér) n. a cabbage with a large white flower head. □ cauliflower ear, an ear thickened by repeated blows, as in boxing. caulk (kawk) v. to make watertight by filling seams or joints with waterproof material, or by driving edges of plating together. caulk'er n.
caulk-ing (kaw-king) n. material used to caulk seams etc.
caus'al (kaw-zál) adj. of or forming a cause. caus'al-ly adv. caus'als-ly ty (kaw-zal-ty) n.
cau-sa-tion (kaw-zá-shún) n. 1. the causing or producing of an effect. 2. the relation of cause and effect.
cause (kawz) n. 1. a person or thing that makes something happen or produces an effect. 2. a reason, there is no cause for anxiety. 3. a purpose or aim for which efforts are made, a movement or charity; a good cause, one deserving support. 4. a lawsuit; pleading his cause, his case.
cause v. (caus'ed, caus'in) to be the cause of, to produce, to make happen.
caus'a-tive (kaw-zá-tiv) adj. □ cause cé-lè-bre (kozh say-leb-ré) a celebrated lawsuit or other issue.
cause-way (kawz-way) n. a raised road across low or wet ground.
caus'tic (kawz-tik) adj. 1. able to burn or corrode things by chemical action. 2. sarcastic. caustic n. a caustic substance.
caus'ti-cal-ly adv. caus'tic'l-ty (kaws-tik-l'ty) n. □ caustic soda, sodium hydroxide.
cau-ter-ize (kaw-tér-iz) v. (cuer-ter-ized, cau-ter-iz-ing) to burn the surface of (living tissue) with a caustic or a hot iron in order to destroy infection or stop bleeding. cau-ter-i-za'tion (kaw-tér-i-zá'shún) n.
cau-tion (kaw-shún) n. 1. avoidance of rashness, attention to safety. 2. a warning against danger etc. 3. a warning and reprimand, let him off with a caution. 4. (informal) an amusing person or thing, he is a caution. caution v. 1. to warn. 2. to warn and reprimand.
cau-tion-ar-y (kaw-sha-nar-e) adj. conveying a warning.
cau-tious (kaw-shúss) adj. having or showing caution. cau'tious'ly adv. cau'tious'ness n.
cav. abbr. cavalry.
cav-al-cade (kav-ál-kayd) n. a procession, especially of people on horseback or in cars etc.
cav-a-lier (kav-ál-leer) n. 1. Cavalier, a supporter of Charles I in the English Civil War. 2. (humorous) a man escorting a woman. cavaller adj. arrogant, offhand, a cavalier attitude.
cave (kayv) n. a natural hollow in the side of a hill or cliff, or underground. cave v. (caved, cav'ing) cave in, to fall inward, to collapse; to cause to do this; to withdraw one's opposition.
caveat / celestial cave-at (kav-ec-at) n. a warning.

caveat emp-tor (kav-ec-at emp-tor), "let the buyer beware," the legal maxim that the buyer buys at his own risk. caveat ven-di-tor (kav-ec-at ven-di-tor) "let the seller beware," the legal maxim that the seller sells at his own risk.

cave-in (kayv-in) n. 1. the act of collapsing. 2. a site at which earth or a structure has fallen inward.

cave-man (kayv-man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) 1. a person of prehistoric times living in caves. 2. a man with a rough primitive manner toward women.

cav-ern (kav-er-n) n. a large cave. cav'-er-nous adj. cav'-er-nous-ly adv.
cav-i-oar (kaw-i-ahr) n. objection, a cavil.

cav-i-ty (kav-i-tee) n. 1. the space or hole in any body, thing, or part, the cavity of which is closed. 2. of a hole in a tooth. 3. a tube in which one end is closed in an animal body.

cav-i-ous (kaw-i-ahr) adj. full of cavities.

cav-i-ous-ly (kaw-i-ahr-lee) adv. in a cavious, or cavious manner.

cav-i-ous-ly (kav-i-ar-lee) adv. in a cavious, or cavious manner.

cay-dee (kay-dee) n. a unit of currency used in Cayman Islands.

cay-man (see-kum) n. (pl. ce-ca, pr. see-kä) a tube with one closed end in an animal body.

cel-cal adj.
cel-der (see-dor) n. 1. an evergreen tree with hard sweet-smelling wood. 2. its wood. clo-der chest, a storage chest made of cedar for protecting woolen clothing etc. from insects and rot.

cede (seed) v. (ced-ed, ced-ing) to give up one's rights to or possession of, they were compelled to cede certain territories.

cel-di-la (si-dil-a) n. a mark written under c in certain languages to show that it is pronounced as s, as in façade.

cel-ing (see-ling) n. 1. the undersurface of the top of a room. 2. the maximum altitude at which a particular aircraft can fly. 3. an upper limit or level, wage ceilings.

cel-an-dine (sel-an-din) n. a small wild plant with yellow flowers.

cel-e-brate (sel-eh-brayt) v. (cel-e-brat-ed, cel-e-brat-ing) 1. to do something to show that a day or event is important, to honor with festivities, to make merry on such an occasion. 2. to officiate at (a religious ceremony).

cel-e-brat-ing (sel-eh-brayt-ing) n. a well-known person. 2. fame, being famous.

cel-e-brant (sel-eh-brant) n. a garden plant with crisp juicy stems used in salads or as a vegetable.

cel-es-tial (sel-es-tial) adj. 1. of the sky; celestial bodies, stars etc. 2. of heaven, divine. cel-es-tial-ly adv. clo-stial equator, the great circle of the celestial sphere, formed by a plane cutting through Earth's center at right angles to its axis. clo-stial navigation, navigation by reference to celestial bodies. cel-e-stial sphere, the imaginary sphere on which the heavenly bodies appear to lie, having its center at the center of Earth (or at the point where the observer stands) and an infinite radius.

cel-es-tial adj. 1. of the sky; celestial bodies, stars etc. 2. of heaven, divine. cel-es-tial-ly adv. clo-stial equator, the great circle of the celestial sphere, formed by a plane cutting through Earth's center at right angles to its axis. clo-stial navigation, navigation by reference to celestial bodies. clo-stial sphere, the imaginary sphere on which the heavenly bodies appear to lie, having its center at the center of Earth (or at the point where the observer stands) and an infinite radius.

cease (seez) v. (ceased, ceasing) to come or bring to an end, to stop. cease

n. ceasing. clo-without cease, not ceasing.

cese-fire (sees-fr) n. 1. a signal to stop firing guns in war. 2. a truce.

cese-less (sees-lish) adj. not ceasing, going on continually. clo-less-ly adv. clo-less-ness n.

cel-cum (see-küm) n. (pl. ce-ca, pr. see-kä) a tube with one closed end in an animal body.

cel-cal adj.

cel-der (see-dor) n. 1. an evergreen tree with hard sweet-smelling wood. 2. its wood. clo-der chest, a storage chest made of cedar for protecting woolen clothing etc. from insects and rot.

cede (seed) v. (ced-ed, ced-ing) to give up one's rights to or possession of, they were compelled to cede certain territories.

cel-di-la (si-dil-a) n. a mark written under c in certain languages to show that it is pronounced as s, as in façade.

cel-ing (see-ling) n. 1. the undersurface of the top of a room. 2. the maximum altitude at which a particular aircraft can fly. 3. an upper limit or level, wage ceilings.

cel-an-dine (sel-an-din) n. a small wild plant with yellow flowers.

cel-e-brate (sel-eh-brayt) v. (cel-e-brat-ed, cel-e-brat-ing) 1. to do something to show that a day or event is important, to honor with festivities, to make merry on such an occasion. 2. to officiate at (a religious ceremony).

cel-e-brat-ing (sel-eh-brayt-ing) n. a well-known person. 2. fame, being famous.

cel-e-brant (sel-eh-brant) n. a garden plant with crisp juicy stems used in salads or as a vegetable.

cel-es-tial (sel-es-tial) adj. 1. of the sky; celestial bodies, stars etc. 2. of heaven, divine. cel-es-tial-ly adv. clo-stial equator, the great circle of the celestial sphere, formed by a plane cutting through Earth's center at right angles to its axis. clo-stial navigation, navigation by reference to celestial bodies. clo-stial sphere, the imaginary sphere on which the heavenly bodies appear to lie, having its center at the center of Earth (or at the point where the observer stands) and an infinite radius.

cease (seez) v. (ceased, ceasing) to come or bring to an end, to stop. cease

n. ceasing. clo-without cease, not ceasing.

cese-fire (sees-fr) n. 1. a signal to stop firing guns in war. 2. a truce.

cede (seed) v. (ced-ed, ced-ing) to give up one's rights to or possession of, they were compelled to cede certain territories.

cel-di-la (si-dil-a) n. a mark written under c in certain languages to show that it is pronounced as s, as in façade.

cel-ing (see-ling) n. 1. the undersurface of the top of a room. 2. the maximum altitude at which a particular aircraft can fly. 3. an upper limit or level, wage ceilings.

cel-an-dine (sel-an-din) n. a small wild plant with yellow flowers.

cel-e-brate (sel-eh-brayt) v. (cel-e-brat-ed, cel-e-brat-ing) 1. to do something to show that a day or event is important, to honor with festivities, to make merry on such an occasion. 2. to officiate at (a religious ceremony).

cel-e-brat-ing (sel-eh-brayt-ing) n. a well-known person. 2. fame, being famous.

cel-e-brant (sel-eh-brant) n. a garden plant with crisp juicy stems used in salads or as a vegetable.

cel-es-tial (sel-es-tial) adj. 1. of the sky; celestial bodies, stars etc. 2. of heaven, divine. cel-es-tial-ly adv. clo-stial equator, the great circle of the celestial sphere, formed by a plane cutting through Earth's center at right angles to its axis. clo-stial navigation, navigation by reference to celestial bodies. clo-stial sphere, the imaginary sphere on which the heavenly bodies appear to lie, having its center at the center of Earth (or at the point where the observer stands) and an infinite radius.
cel·i·bate (sel-i-bit) adj. remaining unmarried, especially for religious reasons.
cel·i·bate n. such an unmarried person.
cel··i·ba·cy (sel-i-ba-see) n. the unmarried state.
cell (sel) n. 1. a very small room, as for a monk in a monastery or for confining a prisoner. 2. a compartment in a honeycomb. 3. a device for producing electric current by chemical action. 4. a microscopic unit of living matter, containing a nucleus. 5. a small group of people forming a center or nucleus of political activities.
cel·lar (sel-är) n. 1. an underground room used for storing things. 2. a room in which wine is stored, a stock of wine. 3. a basement.
cel·lar·age (sel-ä-rij) n. 1. a fee for storage in a cellar. 2. cellar space.
cel·lar·et (sel-ä-ret) n. a case or sideboard for holding bottles of wine.
cell··block (sel-blok) n. a set of cells forming a section of a prison.
cel·list (chel-ist) n. a person who plays the cello.
cel·lo (chel-oh) n. (pl. -los) a violoncello, an instrument like a large violin, played by a seated player who sets it between his knees.
cel·lo·phane (sel-ō-fayn) n. (formerly a trademark) thin moisture-proof transparent material used for wrapping things.
cel·lu·lar (sel-yū-lär) adj. 1. of cells, composed of cells. 2. woven with an open mesh, cellular blankets.
Cel·lu·loid (sel-yū-loid) n. (trademark) a plastic made from cellulose nitrate and camphor.
cel·lu·lose (sel-yū-lohs) n. an organic substance found in all plant tissues, used in making plastics. □ cellulose acetate, acetic ester of cellulose, used to make rayon, lacquer, plastics, etc. cellulose nitrate, a constituent of smokeless gunpowders and of cordite, Celluloid, etc.
Cel·si·us (sel-si-ūs) adj. centigrade. (DNamed after Anders Celsius, a Swedish astronomer (1701–44), who devised the centigrade scale.) □ Celsius scale, the centigrade scale.
Celt (kelt, selt) n. a member of an ancient European people who settled in Britain before the coming of the Romans, or of their descendants especially in Ireland, Wales, Cornwall, and Scotland. Celt’ic adj. of the Celts.
cem·ba·lo (chem-ba-loh) n. (pl. -ll, pr. -lee) a harpsichord.
ce·ment (si-ment) n. 1. a gray powder, made by burning lime and clay, that sets to a stonelike mass when mixed with water and is used for building. 2. any similar soft substance that sets firm. cement v. 1. to put cement on or in, to join with cement. 2. to unite firmly. ce·men·ta·tion (see-men-tay-shon) n. ce·ment mixer, a machine that mixes cement, sand, etc. with water in a turning drum.
ce·men·tum (si-men-tūm) n. the bonelike tissue at the base of a tooth, covering the root.
cem·e·ter·y (sem-ë-ter-ee) n. (pl. -teries) a burial ground other than a churchyard.
cen·o·bi·te (sen-ō-bit) n. a member of a monastic community. cen·o·bit·ic (sen-ō-bit-ik) adj. cen·o·bit·i·cal adj.
cen·o·taph (sen-ō-taf) n. a tomblike monument to persons buried elsewhere.
Ce·no·zo·ic (see-nö-zoh-ik) adj. of the geologic era following the Mesozoic and including the present era, marked by the appearance of birds and mammals. Ce·nozoic n. the Cenozoic era. cen·ser (sen-sēr) n. a container in which incense is burned, swung on chains in a religious ceremony to disperse its fragrance. D Do not confuse censer with censor or censure.
cen·sor (sen-sōr) n. a person authorized to examine letters, books, films, etc. and remove or ban anything regarded as harmful. censor v. to subject to such examination or removal. (D Do not confuse censor with censer or censure.) cen·so·ri·al (sen-sohr-i-āl) adj. cen·so·ri·al·ly adv.
cen·so·ri·ous (sen-sohr-i-ūs) adj. severely critical.
cen·so·ri·ous·ly adv.
cen·so·ri·ous·ness n.
cen·sure (sen-shúr) n. strong criticism or condemnation. censure v. (cen-sured, cen·sur·ing) to blame and rebuke. (D Do not confuse censure with censor or censer.) cen·sur·er n. cen·sur·a·ble adj.
cen·sus (sen-sūs) n. (pl. -sus·es) an official count of the population and its characteristics, such as sex, family size, and occupation.
cent (sent) n. 1. one 100th of a dollar or of certain other metric units of currency, a coin of this value. 2. (informal) a very small amount of money, I haven’t a cent. cent. abbr. 1. centigrade. 2. central. 3. century.
cen·ta·ur (sen-tor) n. (in Greek mythology) a creature with the head, trunk, and arms of a human joined to the body and legs of a horse.
cen·ta·vo (sen-tah-voh) n. (pl. -vos) one 100th of a peso or similar unit of cur-centenarian / cereal rency in several Spanish American countries.

cente*nar-l-an (sen-te-nair-i-an) n. a person who is one hundred years old or more.

cente*nar-y (sen-te-ner-ee) n. (pl. -naries) a centennial. centenary adj.

centen- (sen-tin) n. 1. a 100th anniversary. centennial adj.

center (sen-tar) n. 1. the middle point or part. 2. a point toward which interest is directed or from which administration etc. is organized. 3. a place where certain activities or facilities are concentrated, a shopping center. 4. a political party or group holding moderate opinions. 5. (in some sports) the player who puts the ball into play. center v. 1. to place in or at the center. 2. to concentrate at one point. 3. (in hockey) to hit the puck toward center ice, (in football) to put the ball into play. □ center of gravity, the point about which all parts of a body exactly balance each other. center punch, a tool used to make shallow impressions in metalwork or wood to guide the placing of a drill bit. □ Do not say or write centers around, something may center on or in or at.

center-board (sen-tar-boyrd) n. a plate lowered through a slot in the keel of a sailboat to increase stability.

centered (sen-tar-d) n. 1. having an exact midpoint. 2. located in the center.

center-fold (sen-tar-fohld) n. a pair of facing pages at the center of a magazine.

center-piece (sen-tar-pes) n. a flower arrangement or other ornament for the center of a table.

center- mal (sen-tar-mal) n. reckoning, reckoned, by hundredths.

centi- prefix one hundredth, hundred.

centi-grade (sen-ti-grayd) adj. of or using a temperature scale divided into 100 degrees, 0° being the freezing point and 100° the boiling point of water.

centi-gram (sen-ti-gram) n. one 100th of a gram.

centi-ll-ter (sen-ti-lee-tar) n. one 100th of a liter.

centime (sahn-teem) n. one 100th of a franc or a similar unit of currency.

centi-m *eter (sen-ti-meetar) n. one 100th of a meter, about 0.4 inch. □ centimeter-gram-second, of the system of units of measurement based on the centimeter, gram, and second as units of length, mass, and time.

centi- pede (sen-ti-ped) n. a small crawling creature with a long thin segmented body and many legs, one pair on each segment.

central (sen-tral) adj. 1. of or at or form-cer-e-bel-lum (ser-ä-bel-ūm) n. (pl. -bel-lums, -bel-la, pr. -bel-ä) the portion of the human brain that coordinates movements of the muscles.

cer-e-bral (ser-ë-brål, së-ree-) adj. 1. of the brain. 2. intellectual. cer-e-bral-ly adv. □ cerebrospinal, the surface tissue of the cerebrum. cerebrospinal palsy, see spastic.

cer-e-brum (ser-ë-brûm) n. (pl. -brums, -bra, pr. -brä) the portion of the human brain that acts as the center for conscious thought.

cere-cloth (ser-klawth) n. (pl. -cloths, pr. -klawthz, -klawths) waxed cloth, formerly used for wrapping the dead.

cere-ment (seer-min) n. (usually cements) cerecloth.

cer-e-mo-ny (ser-ë-mo-hi-nee) n. (pl. -nies) 1. a set of formal acts, especially those used on religious or public occasions. 2. formal politeness.

cere-us (ser-ë-us) n. (pl. -us-es) any of several cacti native to the western U.S. and tropical America.

cer-e-rise (seer-rees) adj. & n. light clear red.

cer-i-lum (ser-ë-i-lum) n. an element resembling iron in color and luster.

cer-met (ser-met) n. an alloy of ceramic with metal.

cert. abbr. 1. certificate. 2. certification. 3. certified. 4. certify.

cert-a in (sur-tän) adj. 1. having no doubt, convinced. 2. known without doubt. 3. able to be relied on to come or happen or be effective. 4. specific but not named or stated for various reasons. 5. small in amount but definitely there, I feel a certain reluctance. 6. existing but not well known, a certain John Smith. □ for certain, without doubt, as a certainty. make certain, to make sure.

cert-a in-ly (sur-tän-lec) adv. 1. without doubt. 2. yes.

cert-a in-ty (sur-tän-tëc) n. (pl. -ties) 1. being certain. 2. something that is certain; his victory is a certainty, he is certain to win.

certif. abbr. certificate.

cer-ti-fi-a-ble (sur-ti-frä-bel) adj. able to be certified. cer-ti-fl-a-bly adv.

cer-tif-i-cate (ser-tif-i-kit) n. an official written or printed statement giving certain facts. □ certificate of deposit, an interest-bearing bank receipt for a specified amount of money.

cer-ti-fy (sur-tî-fi) v. (cer-ti-fl-deed, cer-ti-fl-ing) to declare formally, to show on a certificate or other document. □ certified check, a check guaranteed by the bank on which it is drawn. certified milk, milk produced in dairies operating under strict standards of cleanliness. certified public accountant, one who has passed state examinations and received a certificate of professional competence. cer-ti-fl-e-r n. cer-ti-fl-ca-tion (sur-tî-fl-ke-yay-shôn) n.

cer-ti-tude (sur-tî-tood) n. a feeling of certainty.

cer-e-le-an (seer-roo-li-ân) adj. & n. deep blue.

cer-e-le-men (seer-roo-men) n. yellow waxy secretion of the glands of the external ear.

cer-vi-cal (sur-vi-käl) adj. 1. of the neck, cervical vertebrae. 2. of the cervix, of the cervix of the womb.

cer-vix (sur-viks) n. (pl. -vix-es, -vîces, pr. -vi-seez) 1. the neck. 2. a neck-like structure, the neck of the womb.

cer-zi-um (seer-zî-um) n. a soft silvery metal element.

ces-sa-tion (see-say-shôn) n. ceasing.

ces-sion (sesh-ôn) n. ceding, giving up.

cess-pool (ses-pool) n. a covered pit or tank where liquid waste or sewage is stored temporarily.

Cey-lon (si-lon) the former name of Sri Lanka.

cf. abbr. compare.

Cl symbol Californium.

cg, cgm abbr. centigram(s).

CG abbr. Commanding General.

cgs abbr. centimeter-gram-second.

CH abbr. 1. clearinghouse. 2. courthouse. 3. customhouse.

ch. abbr. 1. chapter. 2. (in chess) check. 3. church.

chab-lis (sha-blee) n. a white burgundy.

cha-cha (cha-cha) n. a ballroom dance with a Latin-American rhythm. cha-cha v. to dance this.

Chad (chad) a country in North Africa.

Chad-li-an adj. & n.

chafe (chaf) v. (chafed, chaf-ing) 1. to warm by rubbing. 2. to make or become sore from rubbing. 3. to become irritated or impatient. □ Do not confuse chafe with chaff.

chaf-er (chay-fër) n. a large slow-moving beetle, especially a cockchafer.

chaff (chaf) n. 1. wheat husks separated chaffer / chamber

from the seed by threshing or winnowing. 2. hay or straw cut up as food for cattle. 3. good-humored teasing or joking. chaff v. to tease or joke in a good-humored way. ▷ Do not confuse chaff with chafe.

chaf’fer (chāf-әr) v. (chaf’fered, chaf’fer-ing) to haggle. chaffer n. bargaining. chaf’fer-er n.

chaf’finch (chāf-inch) n. a common European finch.

chaf’ing (chā-fing) dish a pan or dish with a heater under it for cooking food or keeping it warm at the table.

cha’grin (shā-grin) n. a feeling of annoyance and embarrassment or disappointment.

cha’grined (shā-grin’d) adj. affected with chagrin.

chain (chān) n. 1. a series of connected metal links, used for hauling or supporting weights or for restraining things or as an ornament. 2. a connected series or sequence, chain of mountains, chain of events. 3. a number of stores or hotels etc. owned by the same company. 4. a unit of length for measuring land, 66 feet.

chain v. to make fast with a chain or chains. □ chain gang, a gang of convicts chained together at work to prevent escape. chain letter, a letter of which the recipient is asked to make copies and send to other people, who will be asked to do the same. chain mail, chain armor. chain reaction, a chemical or other change forming products that themselves cause more changes; a series of events each of which causes or influences the next. chain saw, a saw with teeth set on an endless chain. chain smoker, a person who smokes cigarettes continually. chain stitch, a looped stitch that looks like a chain, in crochet or embroidery. chain store, one of a series of similar stores owned by one firm.

chain-smoke (chān-smōkh) v. (chain-smoked, chain-smok’-ing) to smoke many cigarettes in succession often lighting one from the end of another.

chair (chār) n. 1. a movable seat, with a back, for one person. 2. a position of authority at a meeting, the chairmanship; address your remarks to the chair, to the chairman. 3. a professorship. 4. the electric chair. chair v. 1. to seat in a chair of honor. 2. to carry in triumph on the shoulders of a group. 3. to act as chairman of. □ chair lift, a series of chairs suspended from an endless cable, for carrying people up a mountain.

chair-man (chār-mǎn) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mën) 1. a person who presides over a meeting or a committee. 2. the president of a board of directors. chair-man’ship n. chair-wom’-an (chair-wu-wum-ān) n. (pl. -wom’-en, pr. -wim’-in).

chair-per’-son (chār-pur’-sōn) n. any person chosen to preside over a meeting, organization, etc. ▷ The word chairman may be used of persons of either sex, but chairperson is increasingly heard in this sense.

chaise (sha-yz) n. 1. a light open carriage for one or two persons. 2. a chaise longue.

chaise longue (sha-yz lawng) (pl. chaise longues, pr. sha-yz lawngz) a chair with a very long seat on which the sitter can stretch out his legs. ▷ This expression is frequently written incorrectly as chaise lounge.

chal’ced-0’-ny (kal-sed-0’-nee) n. (pl. -nies) a precious or semiprecious stone, a type of quartz.

chal’co-py’-rite (kal-kō-pi-rīt) n. copper-iron sulfide ore.

cha’-let (sha-lay) n. (pl. -lets, pr. -layz) 1. a Swiss hut or cottage. 2. a small villa. 3. a small cottage in a resort area.

chal’ice (chal-iz) n. a vessel like a large goblet for holding wine, one from which consecrated wine is drunk at the Eucharist.

chalk (chawk) n. 1. a white soft limestone used for burning into lime. 2. a piece of this or of similar substance, white or colored, used in crayons for drawing. chalk v. to write or draw or mark with chalk, to rub with chalk. chalk’y adj. □ chalk up, to make a note of something; to achieve, chalked up another victory.

chalk’-board (chawk-bohrd) n. a blackboard or other smooth surface that is written on with chalk.

chal-lenge (chāl-ěnj) n. 1. a call to try one’s skill or strength against another. 2. a call or demand to respond, a sentry’s call for a person to identify himself. 3. a formal objection, as to a member of a jury. 4. a difficult or demanding task. challenge v. (chāl-leng’d, chal-leng’-ing) 1. to make a challenge. 2. to raise a formal objection to. 3. to question the truth or rightness of. chal’len’ger n.

chal-leng’-ing (chāl-ěnj’-ing) adj. offering problems that test one’s ability, stimulating.

cham’ber (chaym-bér) n. 1. a room, a bedroom. 2. the hall used for meetings of a legislature etc., the members of the group using it. 3. a chamber pot. 4. a cavity or compartment in the body of an animal or plant, or in machinery. 5. chambers, a set of rooms, a judge's room for hearing cases that do not need to be heard in court. cham'bered adj.
chamber music, music written for a small number of players, suitable for performance in a room or small hall.
Chamber of Commerce, an association of businessmen etc. to promote local commercial interests.
Chamber of Horrors, the room of criminals etc. in Madame Tussaud's waxworks; a place full of horrifying things. chamber pot, a receptacle for urine etc., used in the bedroom.
cham-bér-lain (chaym-bér-lin) n. an official who manages the household of a sovereign or a great noble.
cham-bér-maid (chaym-bér-mayd) n. a woman employed to clean and take care of bedrooms in a hotel.
cham-bray (sham-bray) n. gingham with a linen finish.
cham-mé-le-on (ká-mee-li-ón) n. a small lizard that can change color according to its surroundings.
cham-fér (cham-fér) v. to bevel the edge or corner of. chamfer n. such a bevel.
cham-ois (sham-e) n. (pl. -ois, pr. sham-eez) 1. a small wild antelope found in the mountains of Europe and Asia. 2. a piece of chamois leather, soft yellowish leather made from the skin of sheep, goats, and deer and used for washing and polishing things.
champ¹ (champ) v. 1. to munch noisily, to make a chewing action or noise. 2. to show impatience, the athletes were champing at the bit.
champ² n. (informal) a champion.
cham-pagne (sham-payn) n. 1. a sparkling white wine from Champagne in France or elsewhere. 2. its pale straw color.
cham-plon (cham-pi-ón) n. 1. a person or thing that has defeated all others in a competition. 2. a person who fights, argues, or speaks in support of another or of a cause. champion adj. excelling over all competitors. champion v. to support as a champion. cham-plon-ship n.
chance (chans) n. 1. the way things happen through no known cause or agency, luck, fate; games of chance, those decided by luck not skill. 2. a possibility, likelihood. 3. an opportunity, an occasion when success seems very probable. chance v. (chanced, chang·ling) 1. to happen without plan or intention. 2. (informal) to risk, let's chance it. chance adj. coming or happening by chance, a chance meeting. by chance, as it happens or happened, without being planned. chance on, to come upon or find by chance. take a chance, to take a risk, to act in the hope that a particular thing will (or will not) happen. take chances, to behave riskily. take one's chances, to trust to luck.
chan-cel (chan-sel) n. the part of a church near the altar, used by the clergy and choir.
chan-cel-ler-y (chan-sel-lee) n. (pl. -ler-les) 1. a chancellor's position, department, or official residence. 2. an office attached to an embassy or consulate. > Do not confuse chancellery with chancery.
chan-cel-lor (chan-sel-ór) n. 1. a government or law official of various kinds. 2. the chief minister of state in West Germany and in Austria. 3. the head of some universities. chan'cel-lor-ship n.
Chancellor of the Exchequer, the finance minister of the United Kingdom, who prepares the budget.
chan-cer-y (chan-ser) n. (pl. -cere) 1. a court of equity. 2. an administrative office of a diocese. > Do not confuse chancery with chancellery.
chan-cre (shang-kér) n. an ulcer caused by syphilis.
chanc-y (chan-see) adj. (chanc-ler, chanc-ler-est) (informal) risky, uncertain.
chan-de-lier (shan-de-leer) n. an ornamental hanging fixture with supports for several lights.
chan-dler (chan-dlor) n. a dealer in ropes, canvas, and other supplies for ships. chan'dler-y n. change (chayn) v. (changed, chang·ing) 1. to make or become different. 2. to pass from one form or phase into another. 3. to take or use another instead of. 4. to put fresh clothes or coverings etc. on; change the baby, put a fresh diaper on it. 5. to go from one to another, change trains. 6. to exchange; can you change a $20 bill, give small money in change, or give different currency for it. change n. 1. changing, alteration; a change of the moon, a fresh phase. 2. substitution of one thing for another, variety; pack a change of clothes, a fresh outfit in reserve. 3. a fresh occupation or surroundings. 4. money in small units. 5. money returned as the balance when the price is less than the amount offered in payment. chang'er n. change'ful adj. change'less adj. change hands, to pass into another person's possession. change of heart, a great alteration in one's attitude or feelings. change of life, the menopause. change changeable / characteristic over, to change from one system or position to another. change ringing, ringing a peal of bells in a series of different sequences. for a change, for the sake of variety, to vary one's routine.

change·a·ble (chayn-jā-bel) adj. 1. able to be changed. 2. altering frequently, changeable weather.

change·ling (chaynj-ling) n. (old use) a child believed to have been substituted secretly for another.

change·o·ver (chaynj-oh-vər) n. a change from one system or situation to another.

chan·nel (chä-nəl) n. 1. the sunken bed of a stream of water. 2. the navigable part of a waterway, deeper than the parts on either side. 3. a stretch of water, wider than a strait, connecting two seas; swim the Channel, the English Channel. 4. a passage along which a liquid may flow, a sunken course or line along which something can move. 5. any course by which news or information etc. can travel. 6. a band of broadcasting frequencies reserved for a particular station.

channel v. (chan·neled, chan·nel·ling) 1. to form a channel or channels in. 2. to direct through a channel or desired route.

chant (chant) n. 1. a tune to which the words of psalms or other works with irregular rhythm are fitted by singing several syllables or words to the same note. 2. a monotonous song. 3. a rhythmic call or shout. chant v. 1. to sing, especially a chant. 2. to call or shout rhythmically.

chant·teuse (shan-tooz) n. a female singer of popular songs, especially in nightclubs.

chan·tey (shan-tee) n. (pl. -teys) a sailors' traditional song, especially one sung to their work.

chan·ti·cleer (chan-ti- kleer) n. a domestic rooster, used as a proper name in medieval fables.

Cha·nu·kah = Hanukkah.

cha·os (ka-os) n. great disorder or confusion. cha·ot·ic (ka·ot-ik) adj. cha·ot·i·cal·ly adv.

chap¹ (chap) v. (chapped, chap-ping) to split or crack (skin); (of skin) to become cracked. chap n. a crack in the skin.

chap² n. the lower jaw or half of the cheek, especially of a pig, as food.

chap³ n. (informal) a man.

chap. abbr. 1. chaplain. 2. chapter.

chap·ar·ral (chap-ar-ral) n. dense tangle shrubs, especially those that grow in poor soil in the southwest U.S. and in Mexico.

chaparral bird, a roadrunner.

chap·book (chap-buuk) n. a small book of popular tales, ballads, poems or religious tracts, of the kind formerly sold by peddlers.

cha·peau (sha-poh) n. (pl. -peaux, -peaus, pr. -poohz) (humorous) a hat.

chap·el (chap-əl) n. 1. a place used for religious worship, other than a cathedral, synagogue, or parish church. 2. a service in this, go to chapel. 3. a place with a separate altar within a church or cathedral.

chap·er·on, chap·er·one (chap·ər-on) n. an older person in charge of young people on social occasions. chaperon(e) v. (chap·er·oned, chap·er·on·ing) to act as chaperon to. chap·er·on·age n.

chap·fall·en (chap-faw·lən) adj. with jaw hanging down, dejected.

chap·lain (chap-lin) n. a clergyman attached to a chapel in a private house or institution, or to a military unit. chap·lain·cy n. (pl. -cies).

chap·let (chap·lit) n. 1. a wreath for the head. 2. a short rosary.

chaps (chaps) n. pl. long leather leggings worn by cowboys.

chap·ter (chap·tər) n. 1. a division of a book, usually numbered. 2. a local branch of an organization. 3. the canons of a cathedral or members of a monastic order, a meeting of these. □ chapter and verse, an exact reference to a passage or authority. chapter house, the building used for meetings of a cathedral chapter or of a college fraternity.

char (chahr) v. (charred, char·ring) to make or become black by burning.

char·a·banc (char·ə-bang) n. an early form of bus with bench seats from side to side, used for outings.

char·ac·ter (kar·ik-tər) n. 1. all those qualities that make a person, group, or thing what he or it is and different from others. 2. a person's moral nature. 3. moral strength. 4. a person, especially a noticeable or eccentric one. 5. a person in a novel or play etc. 6. a letter, sign, or mark used in a system of writing or printing etc. 7. a physical characteristic of a plant or animal. 8. (old use) a description of a person's qualities, a reference. □ character actor or actress, one who portrays people with distinctive personal traits. In character, appropriate to a person's general character. out of character, not appropriate to a person's usual character.

char·ac·ter·is·tic (kar·ik-tər-ɪs·tɪk) adj. forming part of the character of a person or thing, showing a distinctive feature.

characteristic n. a characteristic fea-
tue. char-act-er-Is’ti-cal-ly adv. char-ac-t-er-lze (kar-ik-té-riz) v. (char-ac-t-er-ized, char-ac-t-er-lz-ing) 1. to describe the character of. 2. to be a characteristic of. char-ac-t-er-lza-tion (kar-ik-té-rí-zay-shon) n. 3. to be a characteristic of. char-ac-t-er-less (kar-ik-tér-lis) adj. lacking any positive character.

char-a-ide (shá-rayd) n. 1. a scene acted as a clue to the word to be guessed in the game of charades. 2. an absurd pretense.

char-broll (chahr-broll) v. to broil over charcoal.

char-coal (chahr-kohl) n. a black substance made by burning wood slowly in an oven with little air, used as a filtering material or as fuel or for drawing.

charcoal gray, very dark gray.

char-d (chahrd) n. (also Swiss char) a kind of beet lacking a large root but having edible leaves and stalks.

charge (chahrrj) n. 1. the price asked for goods or services. 2. the quantity of material that an apparatus holds at one time, the amount of explosive needed for one explosion. 3. the electricity contained in a substance, energy stored chemically for conversion into electricity. 4. a task or duty, custody. 5. a person or thing entrusted. 6. formal instructions about one's duty or responsibility. 7. an accusation, especially of having committed a crime. 8. a rushing attack. charge v. (charged, charg-ing) 1. to ask as a price. 2. to record as a debt, charge it to my account. 3. to load or fill, to put a charge into. 4. to give an electric charge to, to store energy in. 5. to give as a task or duty, to entrust. 6. to accuse formally. 7. to rush forward in attack; charge in, to act impetuously. charge account, a credit account at a store, permitting a customer to receive goods in advance of billing. charge card, charge plate, a small metal or plastic card, usually valid for only one store or chain. in charge, in command. take charge, to take control.

charge-a-ble (chahr-já-bél) adj. able to be charged.

char-gé d'af-faires (shahr-zhay-dá-fair) (pl. char-gés d'af-faires, pr. shahrh-zhayz-dá-fair) 1. an ambassador's deputy. 2. an envoy to a minor country. D-French.

charg-er (chahr-jér) n. 1. one who or that which charges; battery charger, an apparatus that charges storage batteries. 2. a horse that can be ridden into battle.

char-i-ot (char-i-ót) n. a two-wheeled horse-drawn carriage used in ancient times in battle and in racing.

char-l-o-teer (char-i-ót-teer) n. the driver of a chariot.

char-ri-s-ma (ká-ríz-má) n. the power to inspire devotion and enthusiasm.

char-is-mat/ic (kar-iz-mat-ik) adj. having charisma.

char-l-ta-ble (char-i-tá-bél) adj. 1. generous in giving to the needy. 2. of or belonging to charities, charitable institutions. 3. unwilling to think badly of people or acts. char'l-ta-bly adv. char'l-ta-bles'i-ness n.

char-l-ty (char-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. loving kindness toward others. 2. unwillingness to think badly of people or acts. 3. generosity in giving to the needy. 4. an institution or fund for helping the needy.

char-la-dy (chahr-lay-dee) n. (pl. -dies) a charwoman.

char-la-tan (shahr-lá-tán) n. a person who falsely claims to be an expert, especially in medicine.

char-les-ton (chahr-léstn) n. 1. a fast dance employing side kicks from the knee, popular in the 1920s. 2. the capital of West Virginia.

char-ley (chahr-lee) horse (informal) a stiffness or cramping of the muscles, especially in the thigh, from overexertion or injury.

char-lock (chahr-lök) n. wild mustard, a weed with yellow flowers.

char-lot-ta russe (shahr-lót róss) a mold of custard or cream enclosed in sponge cake.

charm (chahrrm) n. 1. attractiveness, the power of arousing love or admiration. 2. an act or object or words believed to have magic power. 3. a small ornament worn on a chain or bracelet, a charm bracelet. charm v. 1. to give pleasure to. 2. to influence by personal charm. 3. to influence as if by magic. charm'er n.

charm-ling (chahr-míng) adj. delightful.

char-nel (chahr-nél) house a place in which the bodies or bones of the dead are kept.

chart (chahrt) n. 1. a map designed for navigators on water or in the air. 2. an outline map for showing special information, a weather chart. 3. a diagram, graph, or table giving information in an orderly form, a temperature chart. chart v. to make a chart of, to map. D-the charts, those listing the recordings that are currently most popular.

char-ter (chahr-ter) n. 1. a document from a ruler or government granting certain rights or defining the form of an institution. 2. the chartering of a ship, aircraft, or vehicle. charter v. 1. to grant a char-

...
chateaux (chay-st) n. 1. a large house or castle. 2. a castle or large country house in France.

chat-e-laine (chat-él-lay) n. the mistress of a large house.

chat-é-ter (chat-ér) v. 1. to talk or converse quickly and continually about unimportant matters. 2. to make sounds like this, as some birds and animals do. 3. to make a repeated clicking or rattling sound.

chatter n. 1. chattering talk. 2. a chattering sound. chatter-er n.

chatter-box (chat-ér-boks) n. a talkative person.

chat-ty (chat-ti) adj. (-ti-er, -ti-est) 1. fond of chatting. 2. resembling chat, a chatty letter. chat-ti-ly adv. chat-ti-ness n.

chauffeur (shoh-fur) n. a person employed to drive a car. chauffeur v. to drive as chauffeur.

chaun-vin-istic (shoh-vin-ist-ik) adj.

chaun-vin-ism, some men's prejudiced belief in their superiority over women.

Ch.E. abbr. chemical engineer.

cheap (cheep) adj. 1. low in price, worth more than it cost; cheap money, available at a low rate of interest. 2. charging low prices, offering good value. 3. poor in quality, of low value. 4. showy but worthless, silly. cheap adv. cheaply, we got it cheap. cheap'ly adv. cheap'ness n.

cheap-en (chee-pen) v. to make or become cheap.

cheap-skate (cheep-skayt) n. (informal) a stingy person.

check (chek) v. 1. to stop or slow the motion of suddenly, to restrain. 2. to make a sudden stop. 3. to threaten (an opponent's king) at chess. 4. to test or examine in order to make sure that something is correct or in good condition; check the items off, mark them when you find they are correct. 5. to correspond when compared. 6. to deposit (a coat etc.) in a checkroom, to receive (such an item) for safekeeping. check n. 1. a stopping or slowing of motion, a pause. 2. a loss of the scent in hunting. 3. exposure of a chess king to possible capture. 4. a restraint. 5. a control to secure accuracy. 6. a test or examination to check that something is correct or in good working order. 7. a receipt for something handed over. 8. a bill in a restaurant. 9. a written order to a bank to pay out money from an account. □ checks and balances, a series of limitations placed on various branches of government to prevent any one from usurping the powers invested in another. check in to register on arrival (at an airport, hotel, etc.). checking account, a bank account for drawing checks against deposits. check on or out or up or on, to examine or investigate the correctness of. check out, to pay one's hotel bill in preparation for departure; to investigate. check valve, a valve that allows a flow in one direction only. keep in check, to keep under control.

check² n. a pattern of squares like a chessboard, or of crossing lines.

cHECKed (chekt) adj. patterned in crossing lines that form small squares, a checked fabric.

cHECK-er¹ (check-er) v. 1. to mark with squares, especially of alternate colors. 2. to break the uniformity of, to variegate.

cHECKer² n. 1. one who checks (items, people, etc.). 2. a playing piece in checkers.

CHECK-er-BOARD (cheek-er-bohird) n. a board with sixty-four squares of two alternating colors for playing checkers.

CHECK-ered (cheek-erd) adj. 1. marked or patterned like a checkerboard. 2. undergoing varied fortunes, a checkered career.

CHECK-ers (cheek-ers) n. a game played by two persons on a checkerboard with twenty-four pieces.

CHECK-list (check-list) n. a complete list of items, used for checking.

CHECK-mate (check-mayt) n. 1. a situation in chess in which the capture of a king cannot be prevented. 2. a complete defeat.

CHECK-mate v. (check-mat-ed, check-mat-ing) 1. to put into checkmate in chess. 2. to defeat finally, to foil.

CHECK-off (check-awf) n. payment of union dues by withholding their amount from employees' paychecks.

CHECK-out (check-owt) n. checking out. □ check-out counter, a place where goods are paid for in a supermarket.

CHECK-point (check-point) n. a place where documents, vehicles, etc. are checked or inspected.

CHECK-room (check-room) n. a room in a restaurant etc. where coats, hats, etc. are checked for safekeeping.

CHECK-up (check-up) n. a thorough examination, medical or other.

Ched·dar (ched-ar) n. a firm cheese of a kind originally made at Cheddar, England.

Cheek (cheek) n. 1. either side of the face below the eye. 2. (slang) a buttock. 3. (informal) impudent speech, outspoken arrogance. □ cheek by jowl, close together, in close association.

Cheek·bone (cheek-bohn) n. the bone just below the eye.

Cheek·y (cheek-kee) adj. (cheek-ler, cheek-ler) 1. (informal) showing outspoken lack of respect. 2. coquettish.

Cheek·ly adv. cheek·li·ness n.

Cheep (cheep) n. a weak shrill cry like that made by a young bird. cheque v. to make such a cry.

Cheer (cheer) n. 1. a shout of encouragement or applause, give three cheers. 2. cheerfulness. cheer v. 1. to utter a cheer, to encourage or applaud with cheers. 2. to comfort, to gladden. □ cheer up, to make or become more cheerful.

Cheer·ful (cheer-ful) adj. 1. happy, contented, in good spirits. 2. pleasantly bright, cheerful colors. cheerful·ly adv.

Cheer·ful·ness n.

Cheer·o·o·la (cheer-o-oh) interj. (British informal) goodbye.

Cheer·lead·er (cheer-lee-dar) n. a person who leads organized cheering.

Cheer·less (cheer-less) adj. gloomy, dreary. cheerful·less·ly adv. cheerful·less·ness n.

Cheer·y (cheer-ee) adj. (cheer·ler, cheer·ler) showing good spirits.

Cheer·ly adv. cheer·li·ness n.

Cheese (cheez) n. 1. a food made from milk curds. 2. a shaped mass of this.

□ cheese it, the cops, (slang) let's get out of here,' the police are coming.

Cheese·burg·er (cheez-bur-gar) n. a hamburger with cheese on it.

Cheese·cake (cheez-kayk) n. 1. a cake made with cream cheese or cottage cheese. 2. (slang) a picture displaying a woman's shapely body.

Cheese·cloth (cheez-klawth) n. thin loosely woven cotton fabric.

Cheese·y (cheez-ee) adj. (cheese·er, cheese·er) 1. of or like cheese. 2. (slang) of inferior quality.

Chee·tan (chee-tan) n. a kind of leopard that can be trained to hunt deer.

Chef (shef) n. a professional cook, the chief cook in a restaurant etc.

Chef·d'oeu·vre (shay-duuv-re) n. (pl. chefs-d'oeu·vre, pr. shay-duuv-re) a masterpiece.

Che·la (kee-lah) n. 1. (in Buddhism) a novice qualifying for initiation. 2. the pupil of a guru.

Chem. abbr. 1. chemical. 2. chemist. 3. chemistry.

Chem·ical (kem-i-kal) adj. 1. of chemistry. 2. produced by chemistry. chemical n. a substance obtained by or used in a chemical process. chemical adj.
chemical engineering, engineering concerned with processes that involve chemical change and with the equipment needed for these. chemical warfare, warfare employing chemical substances other than explosives.

che·mise (shē-mēez) n. 1. a loose-fitting undergarment formerly worn by women, hanging straight from the shoulders. 2. a dress of similar shape.

chem·ist (kem-ist) n. 1. a scientist skilled in chemistry. 2. (chiefly British) a person or firm dealing in medicinal drugs.

chem·is·try (kem-i-stree) n. (pl. -tries) 1. the scientific study of substances and their elements and of how they react when combined or in contact with one another. 2. chemical structure, properties, and reactions.

che·mo·ster·il·li·ant (kee-mō-ster-ī-lānt) n. a chemical that produces sterility, especially in insects, without causing a change in mating habits.

che·mo·ther·a·py (kee-mō-ther-ā-pee) n. treatment of disease, especially cancer, using chemical substances. che·mo·ther·a·peu·tic (kee-mō-ther-ā-pyoo·tik) adj. che·mo·ther·a·peu·ti·cal adj.

chem·ur·gy (kem-ūr-je) n. chemical and industrial use of organic raw materials.

chem·ur·gil (ke-mur-jik) adj.

che·nille (shē-neel) n. a fabric with a long velvety pile, used for curtains, bedspreads, etc.

cher·ish (cher-ish) v. 1. to look after lovingly. 2. to be fond of. 3. to keep in one's heart, we cherish hopes of his return.

cher·o·kee (cher-o-kee) n. (pl. -kees, -kee) a member of an Iroquoian-speaking tribe of North American Indians.

che·root (shē-root) n. 1. a cigar with both ends open. 2. (slang) a cheap cigar.

cher·ry (cher-ee) n. (pl. -ries) 1. a small soft round fruit with a stone. 2. a tree producing this or grown for its ornamental flowers. 3. the wood of this tree. 4. deep red. cherry adj. deep red.

cher·ry bomb, a round firecracker.

cher·ry brandy, a liqueur of brandy in which cherries have been steeped.

cher·ry picker, a crane used to hold men working high above the ground.

cher·ry·stone (cher-ee-stohn) n. 1. a small variety of clam. 2. the seed of a cherry.

chert (churt) n. a flintlike form of quartz. chert'y adj.

cher·ub (cher-ūb) n. (pl. especially for definition 1 cher·u·bim, pr. cher-ū-bim, cher·ubs) 1. one of the angelic beings usually grouped with the seraphim. 2. a representation (in art) of a chubby infant with wings. 3. an angelic child.

che·ru·bic (ché-roo-bik) adj. like a cherub, with a plump innocent face.

cher·vil (chur-vil) n. an herb used for flavoring.

chess (ches) n. a game played by two persons on a chessboard with thirty-two chessmen. □ chess piece, a chessman.

chess·board (ches-bohrd) n. a board with sixty-four squares of two alternating colors for playing chess.

chess·man (ches-mān) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mēn) one of the pieces used in playing chess.

chest (chest) n. 1. a large strong box for storing or shipping things in. 2. the upper front surface of the body, the part containing the heart and lungs. chest'ed adj. □ chest of drawers, a piece of furniture with drawers for storing clothes etc. get it off one's chest, (informal) to reveal what one is anxious about.

ches·ter·field (ches-ter-feeld) n. a man's single-breasted topcoat with a velvet collar.

chest·nut (ches-nut) n. 1. a tree with hard brown nuts, those of the Spanish or sweet chestnut being edible. 2. the wood of this tree. 3. its nut. 4. deep reddish brown. 5. a horse of reddish-brown or yellowish-brown color. 6. an old joke or story. chestnut adj. deep reddish brown or (of horses) yellowish brown.

chest·y (ches-tee) adj. (chest·i·er, chest·i·est) 1. of the chest, a chesty cough. 2. (informal) having a large chest.

ches·t·i·ness n.

chev·a·lier (shev-a-leer) n. a member of certain orders of knighthood or other groups.

chev·i·ot (shev-i-ēt) n. 1. a sheep of a breed with short thick wool originally raised in Cheviot Hills, on the border between England and Scotland. 2. a fabric made from its wool.

chev·ron (shev-rōn) n. a bent line or stripe or bar, especially one worn on the sleeve to show rank.

chew (choo) v. to work or grind between the teeth, to make this movement. chew n. 1. the act of chewing. 2. something for chewing. chew'er n. chew'a·ble adj. □ chewing gum, a sticky substance sweetened and flavored for prolonged chewing. chew over, (informal) to think over. chew the fat or rag, (slang) to chat.

chew·y (choo-ee) adj. (chew·i·er, chew·i·est) 1. suitable for chewing. 2. needing to be chewed, not soft.

Chey·enne (shi-en) n. (pl. -ennes, -enne) 1. a member of a tribe of North American Indians formerly of central Minnesota and North and South Dakota, now mainly in Montana and Oklahoma.

2. the capital of Wyoming.

chg. abbr. 1. change. 2. charge.

chi (ki) n. the twenty-second letter of the Greek alphabet (X χ).

Chi-an-ti (ki-an-te) n. a dry Italian wine, usually red.

chic (sheek) adj. stylish and elegant. chic n. style, elegance.

chi-can-ery (shi-kan-ree) n. (pl. -eries) trickery used to gain an advantage.

Chi-ca-no (chi-cah-no) n. (pl. -nos) a Mexican-American.

chic-chi (shee-shee) adj. (informal) fussy ornamented, showy. 2. (of manner) affected.

chick (chik) n. 1. a young bird before or after hatching. 2. (slang) a young woman.

chick-a-dee (chik-ah-dee) n. any small gray North American titmouse.

Chick-a-saw (chik-ah-saw) n. (pl. -saws, -saw) a member of a tribe of Indians, formerly in Mississippi and Alabama, now in Oklahoma.

chick-en (chik-en) n. 1. a young bird, especially of the domestic fowl. 2. the flesh of domestic fowl as food. 3. (slang) a game testing courage, to play chicken.

chicken adj. (slang) afraid to do something, cowardly.

chicken v. (sling) to chicken out. be no chicken, (sling) to be no longer young.

chicken col- onel, (sling) a colonel, not a lieutenant colonel.

chicken feed, food for poultry; (informal) something that is of little value; a petty sum of money.

chicken haw-k, any of various types of hawks said to prey on poultry.

chicken out, (sling) to withdraw through cowardice.

chicken pox, a disease, especially of children, with red spots on the skin.

chicken wire, light wire netting with hexagonal mesh.

chick-en-liv-ered (chik-en liv-er-d) adj. cowardly.

chick pea (chik-pee) n. a dwarf pea with yellow seeds.

chick weed (chik-weed) n. a weed with small white flowers.

chic-le (chik-ehl) n. the milky juice of a tropical American tree, the main ingredient of chewing gum.

chic-o-ry (chik-oh-ree) n. (pl. -ries) a blue-flowered plant cultivated for its salad leaves and for its root, which is roasted, ground, and used with or instead of coffee.

chide (chid) v. (chid-ed or chid-den, chid-ding) (old use) to scold.

chief (cheef) n. 1. a leader or ruler. 2. a person with the highest authority. chief adj. 1. highest in rank or authority. 2. most important. chiefly adv. □Chief Executive, the President of the U.S. chief executive officer, usually the president of a large corporation.

Chief justice, the judge presiding over a court with several judges, especially the Supreme Court.

Chief of staff, the senior officer in command of a general staff.

Chief of state, the formal head of a nation.

Chief petty officer, a noncommissioned naval officer above petty officer first class and below senior petty officer.

Chief warrant officer, a noncommissioned army officer above warrant officer and below second lieutenant.

Chief-tain (cheef-teen) n. the chief of a tribe, clan, or other group.

chiff-ton (shi-fon) n. 1. a thin almost transparent fabric of silk or nylon etc. 2. a very light textured pudding or pie made with beaten egg white, lemon chiffon.

chig-ger (chig-ger) n. the larva of a parasitic mite that causes severe itching.

chi-gon (sheen-yon) n. a knot or roll of long hair, worn at the back of the head by women.

Chi-hua-hua (chi-wa-wa) n. a very small smooth-haired dog of a breed that originated in Mexico.

chil-blayn (chil-blain) n. a painful swelling on the hand, foot, or ear, caused by exposure to cold and by poor circulation.

child (child) n. (pl. child-ren, pr. chil-dren) 1. a young human being below the age of puberty, a boy or girl. 2. a son or daughter. □Child abuse, mistreatment of a child either by beating or neglect.

Children of Israel, the Jewish people. child's play, something very easy to do. with child, (old use) pregnant.

child-bair-ing (child-bair-ing) n. pregnancy and childbirth.

child-birth (child-birth) n. the process of giving birth to a child.

child-hood (child-hood) n. the condition or period of being a child.

child-ish (child-dish) adj. like a child, unsuitable for a grown person. (Do not confuse childish with childlike; the word childish is often applied contemptuously, whereas childlike is not.) childish-ly adv. child/ish-ness n.

child-less (child-less) adj. having no children. child/less-ness n.
child·like (child-lık) adj. having the qualities of a child, simple and innocent. □ See the note under childish.

Chil·e (chil-ee) a country in South America. Chil·e·an adj. & n.

Chil·i, chil·e, chil·li (chil-ee) n. (pl. chil·ies, chil·es, chil·lies) the dried pod of capsicum, acrid and pungent, used to make cayenne pepper. □ chili con carne (chil·ee kon kahr-nee), a Mexican stew of chili-flavored minced beef. chili sauce, a sauce made from tomatoes with chili and other spices.

chill (chil) n. 1. unpleasant coldness. 2. an illness with feverish shivering. 3. a feeling of discouragement. chill adj. chilly. chill v. 1. to make or become unpleasantly cold. 2. to preserve at a low temperature without freezing, chilled desserts.

chill·er (chil·är) n. a frightening mystery story.

chil·ly (chil·ee) adj. (chill·er, chil·ly·est) 1. rather cold, unpleasantly cold. 2. cold and unfriendly in manner. chill·i·ness n.

chime (chim) n. a tuned set of bells, a series of notes sounded by these. chime v. (chimed, chim·ing) 1. (of bells) to ring. 2. (of a clock) to show the hour by chiming. □ chime in, to insert a remark when others are talking. chime in with, to agree or correspond with.

chi·me·ra (ki-meer·a) n. (pl. -ras) 1. a grotesque monster. 2. a thing of mixed character or fanciful origin.

chim·ney (chim·ne) n. (pl. -neys) a structure carrying off smoke or gases from a fire. □ chimney corner, a warm seat within an old-fashioned fireplace. chimney piece, a mantel or decoration over a fireplace. chimney pot, a pipe fitted to the top of a chimney. chimney swallow, chimney swift, a type of swift that occasionally nests in a chimney. chimney sweep, a person whose trade is to remove soot from inside chimneys.

chimp (chimp) n. (informal) a chimpanzee.

chim·pan·zee (chim-pan-zee) n. an African ape, smaller than a gorilla.

chin (chin) n. the front of the lower jaw. chin v. (chinned, chin·ing) (informal) to chat. □ chin whiskers, a beard. keep one's chin up, to remain cheerful.

chi·na (chih·nah) n. 1. fine earthenware, porcelain. 2. articles made of this, household china.

Chi·na (chi·nah) a country in Asia.

Chi·na·man (chi·nah·mahn) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mén) (informal) a Chinese man. (▷ This word is considered offensive.)

Chi·na·man's chance, (slang) a very small chance or none at all.

Chi·na·town (chi·nah·tawn) n. a section of a city outside China in which the Chinese live as a group.

chinch (chinch) bug a type of insect that feeds on grains.

chin·chil·a (chin·chil·uh) n. 1. a small squirrellike South American animal. 2. its soft gray fur. 3. a heavy nubby woolen cloth.

chine (chin) n. an animal’s backbone, a cut of meat containing part of this. chine v. (chined, chine·ing) to cut along and separate the backbone in (a cut of meat).

Chi·ni·ese (chee·nee·z) adj. of China or its people or language. Chinese n. (pl. Chi·ni·se) 1. a native of China, a person of Chinese descent. 2. the language of China. □ Chinese checkers, a game in which marbles are moved from hole to hole across a board. Chinese lantern, a collapsible paper lantern; a plant with an orange calyx resembling this.

chink (chin·k) n. a narrow opening or slit. chink v. to fill in chinks in a log cabin wall etc.

chink·ed (chin·ked) n. a sound like glasses or coins being struck together. chink v. to make or cause to make this sound.

chin·o (chee·no) n. (pl. -nos) 1. cotton twill cloth, usually khaki colored. 2. chi·nos, trousers made of chino.

Chi·nook (shi·nuuk) n. (pl. -nooks, -nook) 1. a member of a North American Indian tribe. 2. a warm moist wind blowing from the sea on the coasts of Washington and Oregon. 3. a warm dry wind from the Rocky Mountains. □ Chinook jargon, a mixture of English, French, and Indian words, formerly used by traders and Indians from Oregon to Alaska.

chintz (chints) n. a cotton cloth with a printed pattern, usually glazed, used for curtains etc.

chintz·y (chint·see) adj. (chintz·i·er, chintz·i·est) (informal) cheap, gaudy.

chi·o·no·dox·a (ki·o·no·dok·suh) n. a blue-flowered plant blooming in early spring.

chip (chip) n. 1. a thin piece cut or broken off something hard. 2. a fried shaving of potato. 3. wood split into strips for making baskets, a basket made of such strips. 4. a place from which a chip has been broken. 5. a counter used to represent money, especially in gambling. 6. a microchip. chip v. (chipped, chipp·ing) to cut or break at the surface or edge, to shape or carve by doing this. □ a chip off the old block, a child who is very like its father. A chip on one's shoulder, a feeling of bitterness or resentment. Chip in, (informal) to interrupt with a remark when someone is speaking; to contribute money. Chipped beef, dried beef that has been shredded or made into very small pieces. Chip shot, a short slightly lofted golf stroke.

hand or cash in one's chips, (slang) to die. when the chips are down, when matters reach the point of decision.

chip-board (chip-bohrd) n. thin material made of compressed wood chips and resin.

chip-munk (chip-mungk) n. a small striped squirrel-like animal of North America.

Chip -pen-dale (chip-én-dal) n. an 18th-century style of English furniture, named after its designer.

chip- per (chip-er) adj. lively.

chip -pe-wa (chip-é-wah) n. (pl. -was, -wa) a member of the Ojibwa tribe of North America.

ch'i -rog-ra phy (kí-rog-rá-fé) n. handwriting.

ch'i-rog ra -pher n. ch'i-ro -graph -ic (kí-rog-raf-ik) adj. ch'i-rog -graph'í-cal adj.

ch'i-rop -o -dist (kí-rop-ó-dist) n. an expert in chiroprory.

ch'i-rop -o -dy (kí-rop-ó-dee) n. the treatment of ailments of the feet.

ch'i -rop -a -tic (kí-rop-át-tík) n. manipulation of the spine and joints as a method of treating disease.

ch'i-rop -a -tor (kí-rop-á-tor) n. a practitioner of chiropractic.

chirp (churp) n. the short sharp note made by a small bird or a grasshopper. chirp v. to make this sound.

chirr -rup (chirr-úp) n. a series of chirps.

chirrup v. (chir-rupped, chir-rup-ing) to make this sound.

chis -el (chiz-él) n. a tool with a beveled edge for shaping wood, stone, or metal.

chisel v. (chis -eled, chis -el -ing) 1. to cut or shape with a chisel. 2. (slang) to treat unfairly, to swindle. chis -el -er n.

chit? (chit) n. a young child, a small young woman, only a chit of a girl.

chit? n. 1. a short written note. 2. a note containing an order or statement of money owed.

chit -chat (chat -chat) n. chat, gossip.

chit -tin (kí-tín) n. an organic substance forming a part of the exoskeleton of arthropods. chi'tin-ous adj.

chit -ter -lings, chit -lings, chit -lings (chit-linz) n. pl. the small intestines of a pig, cooked as food.

ch'i-val -ric (shiv-ál-ri-k) adj. 1. of or as of the ideal knight, gallant, courteous, honorable. 2. of or pertaining to chivalry.

chiv- al -ry (shiv-ál-ri) n. courtesy and considerate behavior, especially toward weaker persons. chiv'al-rous adj. chiv'al-rous -ly adv. chiv'al-rous -ness n.

chive (chiv) n. a small herb with onion-flavored leaves.

chlo -ral (kloh r-ál) hy drate a white powder used as an anesthetic and to induce sleep.

chlor -dane (kloh-der-dayn), chlor -dan (kloh-der-dan) n. a liquid insecticide.

chlo -ride (kloh -rid) n. a compound of chlorine and one other element.

chlo -rin -ate (kloh-rín-at) v. (chlo -rin -at-ed, chlo -rin -at -ing) to treat or sterilize with chlorine. chlo'ri-na -tor n. chlo'ri-na -tion (kloh-rin-a -shón) n.

chlo -rine (kloh-rín) n. a chemical element used in sterilizing water and in industry.

chlo ro -form (kloh-ró-form) n. a liquid that gives off vapor that causes unconsciousness when breathed. chloroform v. to make unconscious by this.

chlo -ro -phyll, chlo -ro -phy l (kloh-ór -fil) n. the green coloring matter in plants.

chm. abbr. chairman.

choc. abbr. chocolate.

chock (chok) n. a block or wedge used to prevent something from moving.

chock v. to wedge with a chock or chocks.

chock -a -block (chock-á-blok) adj. & adv. crammed or crowded together.

chock -full (chock-fuul) adj. stuffed, crammed.

choc -o -late (chaw-kó-lit) n. 1. a powder or solid block made from roasted cacao seeds. 2. a drink made with this. 3. a candy made of or covered with this. 4. dark brown color.

Choc -taw (chok-taw) n. (pl. -taws, -taw) 1. a member of a tribe of Indians formerly living in Mississippi and Alabama, now chiefly in Oklahoma. 2. the language of this tribe.

choice (chois) n. 1. choosing, the right of choosing; I have no choice, no alternative. 2. a variety from which to choose, a wide choice of holidays. 3. a person or thing chosen, this is my choice. choice adj. (choic -er, choic -est) of the best quality, choice bananas.

choir (kwir) n. 1. an organized band of singers, especially leading the singing in church. 2. the part of the church where these sit. ☐ choir loft, the raised part of a church occupied by the choir.

choir -boy (kwir-boi) n. a boy who sings in a church choir.
choirmaster / chow mein choir-mas-ter (kwr-mas-tər) n. the director or trainer of a choir.

choke (chohk) v. (choked, choked-ing) 1. to cause to stop breathing by squeezing or blocking the windpipe or (of smoke etc.) by being unfit to breathe. 2. to be unable to breathe from such causes. 3. to make or become speechless from emotion. 4. to clog, to smother, the garden is choked with weeds. □choke n. 1. choking, a choking sound. 2. a valve controlling the flow of air into a gasoline engine. □choke off, to silence or discourage, usually by snubbing. □choke up, (informal) to become speechless because of emotion, to perform badly because of fear etc.

chok-er (chohk-ər) n. 1. a high stiff collar, a clerical collar. 2. a close-fitting neck-lace.

chol-er (kol-ər) n. 1. one of the four cardinal humors, bile. 2. (old use) anger.

chol-er-a (kol-ə-ri-a) n. an infectious and often fatal disease causing severe diarrhea.

chol-er-ic (kol-ə-rik) adj. easily angered, often angry.

choi-les-ter-ol (kəl-əs-tə-rol) n. a fatty substance found in animal tissues, thought to cause hardening of the arteries.

chomp (chomp) v. (informal) to chew, to bite.

chon-drite (kon-drīt) n. a meteorite containing granules.

chon-drule (kon-drool) n. a granule of olivine found in a chondrite.

choose (chooz) v. (chose, cho-sen, choos-ing) 1. to select out of a greater number of things. 2. to decide, to prefer, to desire; there is nothing to choose between them, they are about equal.

choos-y, choos-ey (chooz-ee) adj. (choos-ə-l-er, choos-ə-l-est) (informal) careful and cautious in choosing, hard to please.

chop (chop) v. (chopped, chop- ping) 1. to cut by a blow with an ax or knife. 2. to hit with a short downward stroke or blow. □chop n. 1. a cutting stroke, especially with an ax. 2. a chopping blow. 3. a thick slice of meat, usually including a rib. □chop up, to chop into small pieces.

chop-house (chop-hous) n. (pl. -hous- es, pr. -howziz) a restaurant specializing in chops or steaks.

chop-per (chop-ər) n. 1. a chopping tool, a short ax. 2. (slang) a helicopter.

chop-py (chop-ee) adj. (-pl-er, -pl-est) 1. full of short broken waves. 2. jerky, not smooth.

chop'pl-ly adv.

chop'pl-ness n.

chops (chops) n. pl. the jaws of an animal.

chop-stick (chop-stik) n. one of a pair of sticks used in China etc. to lift food to the mouth.

chop su·ey (chop soo-ee) a Chinese-American dish of small pieces of meat fried with rice and vegetables.

cho·ral (kohr-əl) adj. written for a choir or chorus, sung or spoken by these. □cho·ral·ly adv. □choral society, a society for singing choral music.

cho·rale (kohr-əl) n. a choral composition, using the words of a hymn.

chord1 (kord) n. a combination of notes sounded together in harmony.

chord2 a straight line joining two points on a curve.

chore (chohr) n. a routine task, a tedious task.

cho·re·a (kohr-ee-ə) n. St. Vitus's dance (see saint).

cho·re·o·graph (kohr-ə-ər-əf) v. to arrange the dancing in a ballet, musical comedy, etc. chore·o·gra·pher (kohr-ə-ər-əf-ər) n.

cho·re·o·gra·phy (kohr-ə-ər-ə-fər-ə) n. the composition of ballets or stage dances.

cho·re·o·graph·ic (kohr-ə-ər-ə-fik) adj. chore·o·graph·i·cal·ly adv.

chor·is·ter (kor·i·stər) n. a member of a choir.

cho·rle·ti (kor·i·təl) n. a loud gleeful chuckle.

chorl·tle (kor·i·təl) n. (cho·r·tled, chor·ting) to utter a chortle.

cho·rus (kohr·əs) n. (pl. -rus·es) 1. a group of singers. 2. a piece of music for these. 3. something spoken or sung by many people together, a chorus of approval. 4. the refrain or main part of a song. 5. a group of singing dancers in a musical comedy, the chorus line. chor·rus v. (cho·rus·ed, chor·rus·ing) to sing or speak or say in chorus. □chorus girl, a female member of a chorus in a musical comedy etc. In chorus, speaking or singing all together.

chose (choz), cho·sen (choz·zen) see choose.

chow1 (chow) n. a long-haired dog of a Chinese breed.

chow2 n. (informal) food. □chow line, (informal) a line of people waiting to be served food.

chow·chow (chow-chow) n. a relish of chopped vegetables pickled in mustard.

chow·der (chow-dər) n. a thick soup of clams or fish and vegetables, usually in a milk base.

chow mein (chow mayn) a Chinese-American dish of fried noodles with shredded meat and vegetables.

Christ (krist) the title of Jesus (= the anointed one), now treated as a name. Christ-like adj.

Chris•ten (kris-ên) v. 1. to admit to the Christian Church by baptism. 2. to give a name or nickname to.

Chris•ten•dom (kris-ên-dôm) n. all Christians, Christian countries.

Chris•ten•ing (kris-ê-ning) n. the ceremony of baptizing or naming.

Christ•ian (kris-chân) adj. 1. of the doctrines of Christianity, believing in or based on these. 2. of Christians. 3. showing the qualities of a Christian, kindly, humane. Christian n. a person who believes in Christianity. □ Christian Era, time reckoned from the birth of Christ.

Christ•ian•name (christ•ian•na•me) n. a name given at a christening, a person's given name.

Christian Science, a religious system claiming that health and healing can be achieved through the mental effect of true Christian faith, without medical treatment. Christian Scientist, one who believes in this system.

Chris•ti•an•ize (kris-chih-ân-iz) v. (Christi•an•ized, Chris•ti•an•iz•ing) to make or to become Christian.

Chris•tie (kris-tee) n. (pl. -ties) (formerly Christiania) a turn in skiing with skis parallel, used for stopping short.

Christ•mas (kris-mas) n. the Christian festival (celebrated on December 25) commemorating Christ's birth, the period about this time. □ Christmas Club, a bank account for which money is deposited regularly over a year's time, the total amount being returned to the depositor in time for Christmas. Christmas Day, December 25. Christmas Eve, December 24. Christmas tree, an evergreen (or artificial) tree decorated at Christmas.

Christ•mas•sy (kris-mas-sy) adj. looking festive, typical of Christmas.

Christ•mas•tide (kris-mas-tide) n. the Christmas season.

Chro•mat•ic (kroh-mat•ik) adj. of color, in colors. Chro•mat•i•c•ism n. □ Chromatic scale, (in music) a scale that ascends or descends by semitones.

Chro•ma•to•gra•phy (kroh-ma•to•gra•fe) n. (in chemistry) separation of mixed substances by slow passage through or over adsorbing material. Chro•ma•to•graph•ic (kroh-mä•to•graf•ik) adj. Chro•ma•to•graph•y (kroh•ma•to•gra•fe) n. Chrom•a•to•graph•y (kroh•ma•to•gra•fe) n. the arrangement of events in the order in which they occurred, as in history or geology.

Chrom•a•to•graph•ic (kroh-mä•to•graf•ik) adj. Chrom•a•to•graph•y (kroh•ma•to•gra•fe) n. a chemical element, a hard metal used in making stainless steel and for plating other metals, chromium-plated.

Chro•mi•um (kroh-mi•üm) n. 1. chromium or a chromium alloy, used especially as plating. 2. yellow coloring matter obtained from a compound of chromium, chrome yellow.

Chro•mo•sphere (kroh-mö•sf•eer) n. the red gaseous envelope around a star. Chro•mo•sphere (kroh-mö•sf•eer•ik) adj.

Chro•n•o•graph (krohn•o•graf) n. an instrument that records time accurately.

Chro•n•o•graph•ic (krohn•o•graf•ik) adj. Chro•n•o•graph•y (krohn•o•graf•ik) n. (pl. -gies) the arrangement of events in the order in which they occurred, as in history or geology.

Chro•nom•e•ter (krohn•o•me•ter) n. a time-measuring instrument with a special mechanism for keeping exact time.

Chrys•a•lis (kris•a•lis) n. (pl. Chrys•a•lis•es, Chry•sal•ides, pr. kri•sal•i•des) the stage in an insect’s life when it forms a sheath inside which it changes from a grub to an adult insect, especially a butterfly or moth.

Chry•san•the•mum (kri•san•the•mum) n. a garden plant with bright flowers, blooming in autumn.

Chub (chub) n. (pl. Chub, Chubs) a thick-bodied river fish.

Chub•by (Chub•by) adj. (-bi•er, -bi•est) round and plump. Chub•by•ness n. chuck¹ (chuk) v. (informal) 1. to throw carelessly or casually. 2. to give up, to resign. 3. to touch playfully under the chin. chuck n. a playful touch. □ chuck out, (informal) to throw away; to expel (a troublesome person).

chuck² n. 1. the part of a lathe that grips the drill, the part of a drill that holds the bit. 2. a cut of beef including the neck and shoulder blade, chuck steak.

chuck³ n. (slang) food. □ chuck wagon, a wagon equipped for cooking and serving meals to workers at a ranch, lumber camp, etc.

chuck-hole (chuk-hohl) n. a hole in a road.

chuck·le (chuk-èl) n. a quiet or half-suppressed laugh. chuckle v. (chuck·led, chuck·ling) to give a chuckle.

chug (chug) v. (chugged, chug·ging) to make a dull short repeated sound, like an engine running slowly. chug n. this sound.

chuk·ka (chuk-à) n. (also chukka boot) an ankle-high leather boot, originally worn for polo.

chuk·ker (chuk·èr) n. a period of play in polo.

chum¹ (chum) n. (informal) a close friend. chum v. (chummed, chum·ming) to form a close friendship.

chum² n. chopped or ground bait dropped into a fishing ground to attract fish.

chum v. (chummed, chum·ming) to fish with such bait.

chum·my (chum·ee) adj. (-mi·er, -mi·est) very friendly. chum·mily adv.

chum·mi·ness n.

chump (chump) n. 1. a heavy block of wood. 2. (slang) a foolish person.

chunk (chungk) n. 1. a thick piece of something. 2. a substantial amount.

chunk·y (chung·kee) adj. (chunk·li·er, chunk·li·est) 1. short and thick. 2. in chunks, containing chunks.

church (church) n. 1. a building for public Christian worship. 2. a religious service in this, see you after church. 3. the Church, the whole body of Christian believers, a particular group of these, the Protestant Episcopal Church; the clergy, the clerical profession; he went into the Church, became a clergyman. □ Church of England, the episcopal church of England, rejecting the pope's supremacy. Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, the official name of the Mormon Church.

church·less (church·lis) adj. not associated with or not belonging to a church.

church·man (church·män) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mën) 1. a clergyman. 2. a member of a church.

church·war·den (church·wor·dën) n. a representative of a parish in certain churches who helps with the business of the church.

church·wom·an (church·wu·män) n. (pl. wom·en, pr. -wim·in) a female member of a church or of the clergy.

church·yard (church·yahr) n. the enclosed land around a church, often used for burials.

churl (churl) n. 1. a rude boorish person. 2. a peasant.

churl·ish (chur·lish) adj. 1. ill-mannered or rude. 2. in a peasantlike fashion.

churl·ish·ly adv. churl·ish·ness n.

churn (churn) n. 1. a machine in which milk is beaten to make butter. 2. a large can in which milk is carried from a farm.

churn v. 1. to beat (milk) or make (butter) in a churn. 2. to stir or swirl violently; the tank churned up the field, broke up its surface. 3. to produce in quantity without regard for quality.

chute (shoot) n. 1. a sloping or vertical channel down which things can slide or be dropped. 2. (informal) a parachute.

chut·ney (chut·nee) n. a highly seasoned relish of fruit, vinegar, spices, etc.

chutz·pah (hut·spä) n. shameless audacity. □ Yiddish.

C.I. abbr. cost and insurance.

C.I.A. abbr. (Spanish Compañía) Company.

ciao (chow) interj. (informal) 1. goodbye. 2. hello.

ci·ca·da (si·kay·da) n. (pl. -das, -dae, pr. -de) a grasshopper-like insect that makes a shrill chirping sound.

ci·c-ci·c·a·tri·x (si·k-ah-triks) n. (pl. ci·c-ci·c·a·tri·ces, pr. sik·ah-tri·ees) the scar left by a healed wound.

ci·ce·ro·ne (sis·eh-roh·nee) n. (pl. -nes, pr. -ne) a guide who understands and explains antiquities etc.

C.I.D. abbr. Criminal Investigation Department (of Scotland Yard).

ci·der·er (si·dër) n. a drink made from apples that may be either fermented (hard cider) or unfermented (sweet cider).

Cle. abbr. (French Compagnie) Company.

cl·gar (si·gahr) n. a roll of tobacco leaves for smoking. □ cigar store, a store in which tobacco, cigars, and smoking accessories are sold.

cl·g·a·re·tte (sig·a·ret) n. a roll of cut tobacco or other substance enclosed in thin paper for smoking. □ cigarette paper, thin white paper used to make cigarettes.

cl·g·a·ril·lo (sig·a·ril·lo) n. (pl. -los) 1. a small cigar. 2. a cigarette made from cut tobacco wrapped in tobacco leaf rather than paper.
cilium / circular

cil-i-um (sil-i-ūm) n. (pl. cili-a, pr. sil-i-á) 1. an eyelash, a delicate hair resembling that on a leaf, insect’s wing, etc. 2. a hairlike vibrating organ used as an aid to movement by many lower animals living in water.

C. in C. abbr. Commander in Chief.

cinch (sinch) n. 1. a girth for a saddle or pack. 2. (informal) a certainty; an easy task. cinch v. 1. to fix a saddle securely. 2. to make secure, to make sure of.

cin-cho-na (sin-koh-nā) n. a South American tree or shrub with fragrant pink and white flowers.

cinc-te-ru-e (singk-chûr) n. a girdle, belt, or border.

ciner (sin-dêr) n. 1. a small piece of partly burned coal or wood. 2. cinders, ashes. cinder block, a concrete block made with cement and cinders. cinder track, a running track made with fire cinders.

Cin-der-el-la (sin-dē-rel-ā) n. a girl who achieves sudden recognition or wealth. Cinderella story, a story of sudden success, usually involving change from rags to riches.

cine-ma (sin-e-ma) n. 1. a theater where motion pictures are shown. 2. films as an art form or an industry.

cine-ma-theque (sin-e-ma-tek) n. a motion-picture theater where art or avant-garde films are shown.

cine-mat-o-graph-ic (sin-e-mat-ō-graf-ik) adj. for taking or projecting motion pictures. cinematic, adj. for an activity that uses realistic techniques. French.

cine-ma-tog-ra-phy (sin-e-ma-tog-rā-fee) n. the art or technique of motion picture photography. cinematic, adj. for an activity that uses realistic techniques. French.

cine-rar-i-um (sin-e-rar-ē-um) n. (pl. cineraria) a herbaceous flowering plant related to the rose family, having compound leaves of five leaflets each.

cipher (sī-fér) n. 1. the symbol 0, representing naught or zero. 2. any Arabic numeral. 3. a person or thing of no importance. 4. a set of letters or symbols used to represent others for secrecy, it was written in cipher. cipher v. 1. to write in cipher. 2. to solve by arithmetic.

circ. abbr. 1. circa: 2. circuit. 3. circulation. 4. circumference.

cin-cal (sin-kāl) prep. about, from China from circa 1850. Latin.

cir-ka (sur-kā) adj. of physiological activity occurring approximately every twenty-four hours.

circ-le (sur-kēl) n. 1. a perfectly round figure. 2. the line enclosing it, every point on which is the same distance from the center. 3. something shaped like this, a ring. 4. curved rows of seats rising in tiers at a theater etc., above the lowest level. 5. a number of people bound together by similar interests, in business circles. circle v. (cir-cl-cled, cir-cl-cling) to move in a circle, to form a circle around.

come full circle, to pass through a series of events etc. and return to the starting point. go around in circles, to be fussily busy but making no progress.

cire-clay (sur-klit) n. a circular band worn as an ornament, especially around the head.

circ-lar (sur-kī-tar) adj. 1. a line or route or distance around a place. 2. the journey of a judge within a particular district to hold court sessions, the district itself. 3. a scheduled sequence of events, the American golf circuit, the lecture circuit. 4. a closed path for an electric current. 5. an apparatus with conductors, vacuum tubes, etc. through which electric current passes. occurs breaker, a device for interrupting an electric current. circuit, a court that meets at various places within one judicial district. circuit riders, (old use) judges or ministers who made circuits through an area to hold trials, preach, etc.

cir-cu-lar-tous (sur-kī-yōo-i-tōs) adj. round, indirect. circular, adj. circular, adj. circular, adj. circular, adj. or closed. circuits, the equipment forming these.

cir-cu-lar-ty (sūr-kī-yōo-i-tē) n. (pl. -ties) the quality of being circuitous.

cir-cu-lar-tor (sūr-kyū-lār) adj. shaped like a circle. 2. moving around a circle; a circular tour, one by a route that brings travelers back to the starting point. 3. (of reasoning) using as evidence for its conclusion the very thing that it is trying to prove. 4. addressed to a circle of people, a circular letter. circular n. a circular letter or advertising leaflet. circular saw, a power saw having a toothed disk as cutting edge. cir-cu-lar-i-ty (sur-kyú-lar-i-tee) n.

cir-cu-lar-ize v. (cir-cu-lar-iz-de, cir-cu-lar-iz-Ing) to send circulars to.

cir-cu-late (sur-kyú-lay-t) v. (cir-cu-lat-ed, cir-cu-lat-ing) 1. to go around continuously. 2. to pass from place to place. 3. to cause to move around, to send around, we will circulate this letter.

cir-cu-la-tion (sur-kyú-lay-shon) n. 1. circulating, being circulated. 2. the movement of blood through the body, pumped by the heart. 3. the number of copies sold or distributed, especially of a newspaper.

cir-cu-la-tory (sur-kyú-lay-er-i-tor-i) adj. of the circulation of blood. circula- tory system, the system, including organs and tissues, that circulated blood and lymph through the body.

cir-cum-cis-ion (sur-kúm-sizh-ón) n.

cir-cum-fer-ence (sur-kúm-per-ens) n. the boundary of a circle, the distance around this.

cir-cum-flex (sur-kúm-fleks) n. a mark over a vowel, as over e in fête.

cir-cum-lo-ca-tion (sur-kúm-lo-ká-tshon) n. 1. use of many words where a few would do. 2. evasive talk.

cir-cum-lu-nar (sur-kúm-loo-nár) adj. moving or situated around the moon.

cir-cum-scribe (sur-kúm-skrib) v. (cir-cum-scrib-ed, cir-cum-scrib-ing) 1. to draw a line around. 2. to mark the limits of, to restrict. cir-cum-scrib- tion (sur-kúm-skrib-shon) n.

cir-cum-so-lar (sur-kúm-soh-lár) adj. situated near or moving around the sun.

cir-cum-spec-t (sur-kúm-spekt) adj. cautious and watchful, wary. cir-cum- spec-tion (sur-kúm-spek-shon) n.

cir-cum-stance (sur-kúm-stans) n. 1. one of the conditions or facts connected with an event or person or action; he was a victim of circumstances, the conditions affecting him were beyond his control; what are his circumstances? what is his financial position?; they live in reduced circumstances, in poverty that contrasts with their former prosperity. 2. cer- mony, pomp and circumstance.*

in or under the circumstances, owing to or making allowances for them. under no circumstances, no matter what may happen.

cir-cum-stan-tial (sur-kúm-stan-shal) adj. 1. giving full details. 2. consisting of facts that strongly suggest something but do not provide direct proof. circum-stan-tial evidence.

cir-cum-men-tial-ly adv.

cir-cum-vent (sur-kúm-vent) v. to evade, to find a way around, managed to circumvent the rules. cir-cum-ven-tion (sur-kúm-ven-shon) n.

cir-cus (sur-kúz) n. (pl. -cus-es) 1. a traveling show with performing animals, acrobats, and clowns. 2. (informal) a scene of lively action; the people in such action. 3. (informal) a group of people performing in sports or a series of lectures etc., either together or in succession.

cirque (surk) n. a bowl-shaped hollow at the head of a valley or on a mountain slope.

cir-cho-sis (si-roh-sis) n. a chronic disease, especially of alcoholics, in which the liver hardens into many small projections. cir-hot-ic (si-rot-ik) adj.

cir-ro-cus (si-roh-strá-tus) adj.

cir-ral-lo (si-tay-shon) n. a cloud formed of small roundish fleecy clouds.

cir-ro-strá-tus n. (pl. -tus) a thin high cloud of horizontal or inclined sheets.

cir-rus (sir-ús) n. (pl. cirrus) a light wispy cloud, typically at great altitude.

cis-ter-cian (sis-tur-shan) adj. between Earth and the moon.

cis-ter-cian (sis-tur-shán) n. a member of a religious order that was founded as a branch of the Benedictines.

cis-tern (sis-térn) n. a tank or other vessel for storing water.

citi abbr. 1. citation. 2. cited. 3. citizen.

citi-à-del (sit-à-del) n. a fortress overlooking a city.

ci-ta-tion (si-tay-shon) n. 1. a mention in an official dispatch, a recommendation for a decoration or honor. 2. an official summons, especially one to appear in court. 3. the act of citing or quoting, something cited or quoted.

cite v. (citi-ed, cit-ing) to quote or mention as an example or to support an argument. △Do not confuse cite with site.

cite-ly (sit-i-fi) v. (citi-ed, cit-ing) to make urban in behavior or appearance.
cīt·l·zen (sit-i-zēn) n. 1. an inhabitant of a city. 2. a person who has full rights in a country etc. by birth or by naturalization. cīt·l·zen·ship n. citizen’s band, radio frequencies reserved by the federal government for communication between private citizens. citizen’s band radio, a radio that operates at these frequencies.
cīt·l·zen·ry (sit-i-zēn-ree) n. (pl. -ries) the citizens of a nation or state as a group.
cīt·ric (sit-rik) acid the acid in the juice of lemons, limes, etc.
cīt·ron (sit-rōn) n. 1. an oval fruit, larger, less acid, and thicker skinned than the lemon. 2. a tree bearing this fruit.
cīt·ron·el·la (sit-rō-nel-lā) n. 1. a South Asian grass yielding a fragrant oil. 2. this oil, used in insect repellents and perfume.
cīt·rus (sit-rūs) n. (pl. -rus-es) any of a group of related trees including lemon, orange, and grapefruit; citrus fruit, fruit from such a tree.
cīt·y (sit-ē) n. (pl. cit·ies) 1. a large and important town. 2. the City, the oldest part of London, England, now a center of commerce and finance. city hall, municipal offices; you can’t fight City Hall, ordinarily people are powerless against a bureaucracy. city manager, an appointed official directing the administration of a city. city state, one of the small republics of ancient Greece; a small sovereign state consisting of an autonomous city and its dependencies.
cív. abbr. 1. civil. 2. civilian.
cív·et (siv-it) n. 1. a civet cat. 2. a musky substance obtained from its glands, used in making perfumes. civet cat, a cat-like animal of Central Africa.
cív·ic (siv-ik) adj. of or proper to a city or town, of citizens or citizenship. civic center, an area containing municipal offices and other public buildings.
cív·ics (siv-iks) n. the study of government and of the rights and duties of citizens.
cív·il (siv-il) adj. 1. belonging to citizens; civil liberty, liberty restricted only by those laws established for the good of the community. 2. of the general public, not the armed forces or organized religion; civil aviation, nonmilitary; civil marriage, with a civil ceremony not a religious one. 3. involving civil law not criminal law, a civil dispute. 4. polite and obliging. civilized, adj. civilized, adv. civilized defense, organized protection of the civil population against air raids or other hostile action. civil disobedience, refusal to obey laws, pay taxes, etc. as a means of influencing government. civilized engineering, the designing and construction of roads, bridges, canals, etc. civil law, law dealing with the private rights of citizens, not with crime. civil rights, the rights, privileges, and protection given to citizens; civil rights movement, an organized movement to secure civil rights for blacks and other minorities in the U.S. civil servant, an employee of a government department other than the armed forces. civil war, war between groups of citizens of the same country.
cív·il·lan (siv-il-lān) n. a person not serving in the armed forces.
cív·il·ty (siv-il-tee) n. (pl. -ties) politeness, an act of politeness.
cív·il·li·za·tion (siv-il-li-zā-shun) n. 1. making or becoming civilized. 2. a stage in the evolution of organized society, a particular type of this, ancient civilizations. 3. civilized conditions or society, spent months in the jungle, far from civilization.
cív·il·lize (siv-il-liz) v. (siv·il·lized, siv·il·liz·ing) 1. to cause to improve from a savage or primitive stage of human society to a more developed one. 2. to improve the behavior of.
cív·vies (siv-eez) n. pl. (slang) civilian clothes.
cJ abbr. Chief Justice.
ck. abbr. 1. cask. 2. check.
Ci symbol chlorine.
Cl abbr. carload.
cl abbr. centilitter(s).
clack (klak) n. 1. a short sharp sound like that made by plates struck together. 2. the noise of chatter. clack v. to make such a sound or noise.
clad1 (klad) v. see clothe. clad adj. clothed, warmly clad; iron-clad, protected with iron, as though protected thus.
clad2 v. (clad, clad·ding) to provide (metal etc.) with cladding.
clad·ding (klad·ing) n. a metal or other material applied to the surface of another as a protective covering.
claim (klām) v. 1. to demand as one’s right or due; the floods claimed many lives, people died as a result. 2. to declare that something is true or has been achieved, to state without being able to prove. claim n. 1. a demand for something as one’s right; lay claim to (see lay3). 2. the right to something, a widow has a claim on her deceased husband’s estate. 3. a statement claiming that something is true, an assertion.
claim·ant (klām-mānt) n. a person who makes a claim, especially in law.
clar·voy·ance (klayr-vō-āns) n. the supposed power of seeing in the mind either future events or things that are happening or existing out of sight.

clar·voy·ant (klar-voi'-ant) n. a person said to have clairvoyance. clairvoyant adj.

clam (klam) n. a shellfish with a hinged shell. clam v. (clammed, clam·ming) to fish for clams. □ clam up, (slang) to refuse to talk.

clam·bake (klam-bayk) n. 1. a party held outdoors at which clams and other shellfish are eaten. 2. a large noisy party.

clam·ber (klam-bër) v. to climb with some difficulty.

clam·my (klam-ee) adj. (-mi·er, -mi·est) unpleasantly moist and sticky.

clam·mi·ness n.

clam·or (klam-ôr) n. 1. a loud confused noise especially of shouting. 2. a loud protest or demand. clamor v. to make a loud protest or demand. clam'or·ous adj.

clamp (klamp) n. a device for holding things tightly, often with a screw. clamp v. to grip with a clamp, to fix firmly. □ clamp down on, to become stricter about, to put a stop to.

clam·shell (klam-shel) n. 1. the shell of a clam. 2. a bucket for dredging.

clan (klan) n. 1. a group with a common ancestor, the Scottish clans. 2. a large family forming a close group.

clan·des·tiny (klan-des-tin) adj. kept secret, done secretly. clan·des·tine·ly adv.

clang (klang) n. a loud ringing sound. clang v. to make a clang.

clang·or (klang-ôr) n. a clanging noise.

clank (klangk) n. a metallic sound like that of metal striking metal. clank v. to make a clank.

clan·nish (klan-ish) adj. showing clan feeling, clinging together and excluding others. clan'nish·ness n.

clap (klap) n. 1. the sharp noise of thunder. 2. the sound of the palms of the hands being struck together, especially in applause. 3. a friendly slap, gave him a clap on the shoulder. clap v. (clapped, clap·ping) 1. to strike the palms loudly together, especially in applause. 2. to flap (wings) audibly. 3. to put or place quickly, clapped him into jail. □ clap eyes on, (informal) to catch sight of.

clap·board (klab·ord) n. a long narrow board with one edge thicker than the other, used to form the outside walls of houses.

clap·per (klap-ér) n. the tongue or striker of a bell.

clap·trap (klap-trap) n. talk or ideas used only to win applause.

claque (klak) n. 1. people hired to applaud at a theater. 2. a group of fawning admirers.

clar·et (klar-it) n. a dry red wine.

clar·i·fy (klar·i-fi) v. (clar·i·fied, clar·i·fy·ing) 1. to make or become clear or easier to understand. 2. to remove impurities from (fats), as by heating. clar·i·fic·a·tion (klar·i-fi·ka·shôn) n.

clar·i·net (klar·i-net) n. a woodwind instrument with finger holes and keys.

clar·i·net·ist (klar·i-net·ist) n. a person who plays the clarinet.

clar·i·ty (klar·i-tee) n. clearness.

clash (klash) v. 1. to strike making a loud harsh sound like that of cymbals. 2. to conflict, to disagree. 3. to take place inconveniently at the same time as something else. 4. (of colors) to produce an unpleasant visual effect by not being harmonious. clash n. 1. a sound of clashing. 2. a conflict, a disagreement. 3. a clashing of colors.

clasp (klasp) n. 1. a device for fastening things, with interlocking parts. 2. a grasp, a handshake. clasp v. 1. to fasten, to join with a clasp. 2. to grasp, to hold or embrace closely.

class (klas) n. 1. people or animals or things with some characteristics in common. 2. people of the same social or economic level, the working class. 3. a set of students taught together, a session when these are taught. 4. a division according to quality, first class; tourist class. 5. distinction, high quality, a tennis player with class. class v. to place in a class, to classify. □ class action, a lawsuit undertaken on behalf of a group of individuals. class consciousness, the feeling of belonging to a particular social or economic class. class struggle, competition for economic and political power between classes of people, as between capitalists and workers. in a class by itself, much superior to everything else of its kind.

clas·sic (klas·ik) adj. 1. having a high quality that is recognized and unquestioned, Hardy's classic novel. 2. very typical, a classic case of malnutrition. 3. having qualities like those of classical art, simple and harmonious; classic clothes, plain and conventional in style. 4. famous through being long established; the classic races, the Kentucky Derby, etc. classic n. 1. a classic author or work etc., "David Copperfield" is a classic. 2. a garment in classic style. 3. a classic sporting event. □ Note the various definitions of classic and compare them with the definitions of classical.

clas-si-cal (klas-i-käl) adj. 1. model or first class, especially in literature. 2. of ancient Greek and Roman art, literature, and culture; a classical scholar, an expert in these. 3. simple and harmonious in style. 4. traditional and standard in style, classical music. class-i-cal-ly adv.

> Do not confuse classic with classic.

clas-si-cism (klas-i-siz-ëm) n. 1. classical style. 2. classical scholarship.

clas-si-cist n. a classical scholar.

clas-si-cal (klas-si-kal) adj. arranged systematically in classes or groups, to put into a particular class. clas-si-fied (klas-i-fid) adj. official and secret and available only to specified people. clas-si-fieds, (informal) classified advertisements.

clas-si-fy (klas-i-fi) v. clas-si-fied, clas-si-fy-ing to arrange systematically in classes or groups, to put into a particular class.

clas-si-fi-ca-tion (klas-i-fi-ká-shon) n.

clas-si-les (klas-lís) adj. without distinctions of social class.

clas-si-mate (klas-mayt) n. a present or past member of the same class (as in school).

clas-si-room (klas-room) n. a room where a class of students is taught.

clas-sy (klas-ee) adj. clas-si-er, clas-si-est (informal) stylish, superior.

clas-tic (klas-tik) adj. composed of broken pieces of older rock. clastic n. rock of this type.

clat-ter (klat-ër) n. 1. a sound like that of plates rattled together. 2. noisy talk.

clat-ter v. to make or cause to make a clatter.

clause (klawz) n. 1. a single part in a treaty, law, or contract. 2. a part of a compound or complex sentence, with its own verb and subject.

clas-tro-pho-bi-a (klaws-trö-fó-bi-á) n. abnormal fear of being in an enclosed space. clas-tro-pho-bi-cl club adj. suffering from or causing claustrophobia.

clav-i-chord (klav-i-kord) n. a musical instrument resembling an upright piano.

clav-i-cie (klav-i-ké) n. the collarbone.

clav-i-er, klav-i-er (klá-veer) n. an early musical instrument resembling a piano.

claw (klaw) n. 1. the pointed nail on an animal's or bird's foot, a foot with such nails. 2. the pincers of a shellfish, a lobster claw. 3. a device like a claw, used for grappling and holding. claw v. to grasp or scratch or pull with a claw or with the hands. claw hammer, a hammer with a head divided at one end for pulling out nails.

clay (klay) n. stiff, sticky earth that becomes hard when baked, used for making bricks and pottery. clay'ey adj. clay pigeon, a breakable disk thrown up as a target for shooting.

clean (kleen) adj. 1. free from dirt or impurities, not soiled. 2. not yet used, a clean page. 3. (of a nuclear bomb) producing relatively little fallout. 4. with nothing dishonorable in it, (of a driver's license) with no violations. 5. attentive to cleanliness, with clean habits. 6. without projections or roughness, smooth and even. 7. keeping to the rules, not unfair, a clean fighter. 8. free from indecency; keep it clean, do not tell improper jokes. clean adv. completely, entirely, I clean forgot; the thief got clean away, escaped without a trace. clean v. 1. to make or become clean. 2. to dry-clean. 3. to remove the innards of before cooking, to gut, clean the fish. clean'ness n.

> do clean out, to clean the inside of; (slang) to use up all the supplies or money of. clean room, any enclosed laboratory etc. where the air is kept free of all contaminants. clean up, to make clean, to tidy things or oneself, to rid of crime and corruption; (informal) to make a gain or profit. make a clean breast of it, to confess fully. make a clean sweep, see sweep.

clean-cut (kleen-kut) adj. sharply outlined, clean-cut features.

clean'er (klee-nér) n. 1. a device or substance used for cleaning things. 2. a person employed to clean rooms.

clean'ers (klee-nérz) n. pl. a dry cleaning establishment. take a person to the cleaners, (slang) to rob or defraud him; to win all his money.

clean-ly (kleen-lee) adv. in a clean way.

cleanly (kleen-lee) adj. having clean habits. clean-li-ness (klen-li-nis) n.

cleanse (kleenz) v. (cleansed, clean-sing) to make thoroughly clean.

cleansing cream, a lotion for cleansing the skin.

clean-seer (klen-zér) n. a cleansing substance, especially one containing an abrasive.

clean-shav-en (kleen-shav-ën) adj. with beard, mustache, and whiskers shaved off.

clean-up (kleen-up) n. 1. the process of cleaning. 2. the process of ridding a community of crime and corruption. cleanup hitter or batter, the fourth batter in a baseball batting order. clear (kleer) adj. 1. transparent, clear glass; clear water, not muddy or cloudy; clear soup, not thickened. 2. free from blemishes, a clear complexion. 3. free from guilt, a clear conscience. 4. easily seen or heard or understood, distinct. 5. evident, a clear case of cheating. 6. free from doubt, not confused. 7. free from obstruction or from something undesirable. 8. net, without deductions, complete, a clear profit. clear adj. 1. clearly. 2. completely. 3. apart, not in contact, stand clear! clear v. 1. to make or become clear. 2. to free (one's throat) of phlegm or huskiness by a slight cough. 3. to get past or over, especially without touching. 4. to get approval or authorization for; clear goods through customs, satisfy official requirements there. 5. to pass (a check) through a clearinghouse. 6. to make as net gain or profit; we cleared our expenses, made enough money to cover these. clear n. a clear space. clearly adv. clearness n. □clear away, to remove; to remove used crockery etc. after a meal. clear off, to get rid of; (slang) to go away. clear out, to empty, to depart in haste. clear the decks, to clear away hindrances and prepare for action. clear up, to become better or brighter; clear up the mystery, solve it. In the clear, free of suspicion or difficulty.

clearance (kleer-åns) n. 1. clearing. 2. authorization, permission. 3. the space left clear when one object moves within or past another. □clearance papers, official papers certifying that a ship may enter or leave a port. clearance sale, a sale at low prices to dispose of a store's merchandise.

clear-cut (kleer-kut) adj. 1. very distinct. 2. not open to doubt.

clear-headed (kleer-hed-id) adj. alert, perceptive, thinking clearly.

clearing (kleer-ing) n. an open space from which trees have been cleared in a forest.

clearing-house (kleer-ing-hows) n. 1. an office at which banks exchange checks and settle balances. 2. an agency that collects and distributes information etc.

cleave (kleev) v. (cleaved or old use clave, cleaving) to stick fast.

cleave or cleaver (kleev-vår) n. a butcher's chopper.

clef (klef) n. a symbol on a stave in a musical score, showing the pitch of the notes (treble, bass, etc.).

cleft (klef) v. see cleave. cleft adj. split, partly divided; a cleft chin, with a V-shaped hollow. cleft n. a split, a cleftage. □cleft palate, a defect in the roof of the mouth where two sides of the palate failed to join before birth.

clem-a-tis (kleem-ä-tis, cli-mah-tis) n. a climbing plant, usually with white or purplish flowers.

clemency (kleem-én-see) n. (pl. -cies) 1. mildness, especially of weather. 2. mercy. clemency (kleem-én-t) adj.

clench (kleench) v. 1. to close (the teeth or fingers) tightly. 2. to grasp tightly. 3. to clinch. clenched n. a clinching action, a clinched state.

clerical (kler-i-k) n. a clergyman.

clerical (kler-i-cal) adj. 1. of clergymen; a clerical error, one made in copying or writing something out. 2. of the clergy; clerical collar, an upright white collar fastening at the back, worn by some clergy.

clericalism (kler-i-kal-iz-äm) n. clerical rule or influence.

clerical (kler-i-hew) n. a short witty verse in four lines of unequal length, rhyming in couplets, the first line usually containing the name of a famous person. □From its inventor Edmund Clerihew Bentley, English writer (1875–1956).

clerk (klurk) n. 1. a person employed to keep records or accounts etc. in an office. 2. an official who keeps the records of a court or council etc. clerk v. □clerk of the works, the superintendent of a construction project.

Cleveland (kleev-lând), Grover (1837–1908) the twenty-second and twenty-clever (klev-ér) adj. 1. quick at learning and understanding things, skillful; he was too clever for us, he outwitted us. 2. showing skill, a clever plan. clever·ly adv. clever·ness n.
cle·is (kle-is) n. a U-shaped piece of metal with holes at the ends through which a bolt or pin is run.
clew = clue.
cli·ché (kli-shay) n. a hackneyed phrase or idea. cli·ché adj.
click (klik) n. a short sharp sound like that of billiard balls colliding. click v. 1. to make or cause to make a click, to fasten with a click. 2. (slang) to be a success, to become understood.
cli·ent (klé-ent) n. 1. a person using the services of a lawyer or architect or a professional person other than a doctor, or of a business. 2. a customer.
cli·nical (klin-i-cal) adj. of or having a climax. Do not confuse climactic with climatic.
cli·mate (klim-it) n. 1. the regular weather conditions of an area. 2. an area with certain weather conditions, living in a hot climate. 3. a general attitude or feeling, an atmosphere, a climate of hostility. cli·matic (kli-mat-i-k) adj. (Do not confuse climactic with climatic.) cli·mate·ly adv. cli·mate control, air conditioning.
cli·ma·tol·o·gy (kli-ma-tol-ə-jee) n. the study of climates.
cli·ma·to·log·i·cal (kli-ma-tō-loj-i-kāl) adj. cli·ma·to·log·i·cally adv. cli·ma·to·log·is·t n.
cli·max (klim-aks) n. 1. the event or point of greatest interest or intensity. 2. sexual orgasm. climax v. to reach or bring to a climax.
climb (klim) v. 1. to go up or over by effort. 2. to move upward, to go higher, the plane climbed rapidly. 3. to grow up a support, this rose climbs. climb n. an ascent made by climbing. climb down, to go downward by effort; to retreat from a position taken up in argument.
climb·a·ble (klim-ə-bəl) adj. able to be climbed.
climb·er (kli-mər) n. 1. one who climbs, a mountaineer. 2. a climbing plant.
clime (klem) n. (poetic) 1. a region. 2. climate.
clinch (klinch) v. 1. to fasten (a nail or rivet) by hammering the point sideways after it is driven through. 2. (in boxing) to move too close together for a full-arm blow. 3. to settle conclusively, clinched the deal. clinch n. 1. a clinching position in boxing. 2. (informal) an embrace, a slow fade-out on the clinch.
clinch·er (klin-chər) n. (informal) a remark, argument, or fact that settles a matter.
cling (kling) v. ( cling, cling·ing) 1. to hold on tightly. 2. to become attached, to stick. 3. to remain close or in contact, to be emotionally attached or dependent, the brothers and sisters still cling together. 4. to refuse to abandon, clinging to hopes of rescue.
cling·stone (kling-stohn) n. a kind of peach in which the stone is difficult to separate from the flesh.
clin·ic (klin-ik) n. 1. a place or session at which specialized treatment or advice is given to visiting persons, prenatal clinic. 2. a medical training session with hospital patients as subjects.
clin·i·cal (klin-i-kāl) adj. 1. of a clinic. 2. of or used in the treatment of patients, clinical thermometer. 3. of or based on observed signs and symptoms, clinical medicine. 4. looking bare and hygienic. 5. unemotional, cool and detached.
clin·i·cal·ly adv.
clin·i·cian (klin-i-shən) n. a physician who treats patients, as opposed to one who conducts research.
clink1 (klingk) n. a thin sharp sound like glasses striking together. clink v. to make or cause to make this sound.
clink2 n. (slang) prison, in the clink.
clink·er (kling-kər) n. 1. rough stony material left after coal has burned, a piece of this. 2. (slang) a bad mistake.
clink·er-built (kling-kər-bilt) adj. (of a boat) made with the outside planks or plates overlapping downward.
clip1 (klip) n. 1. a device for holding things tightly or together, a paper clip. 2. a magazine for a firearm. 3. an ornament fastened by a clip. clip v. ( clipped, clip·ping) to fix or fasten with a clip.
clip2 v. ( clipped, clip·ping) 1. to cut or trim with shears or scissors. 2. to punch a small piece from (a ticket) to show that it has been used. 3. (informal) to hit sharply, clipped him on the ear. clip n. 1. clipping. 2. the wool cut from a sheep or flock at one shearing. 3. an extract from a film. 4. (informal) a sharp blow. 5. a rapid pace, going at quite a clip.
clip joint, (slang) a bar or restaurant charging outrageously high prices.

clip-board (klip-bohrd) n. a board with a spring clip for holding papers, etc.

clip-on (klip-on) adj. attached by a clip.

clip-er (klip-ér) n. (also clipper ship) a fast sailing ship.

clip-pers (klip-érz) n. pl. an instrument for clipping hair, grass, etc.

clip-ping (klip-ing) n. a piece clipped off or out, an item cut from a newspaper.

clip-sheet (klip-sheet) n. a sheet of paper printed on one side, in order to facilitate reprinting, that is circulated by an organization.

clique (kleek) n. a small exclusive group. (Often mispronounced to rhyme with chick.) cltv. quish (klee-kish) adj.

cli-to-ri*s (klit-ō-ris) n. a small erectile part of the female genitals, at the upper end of the vulva. clitv. ra! adj.

cloak (klohk) n. 1. a loose sleeveless outdoor garment. 2. something that conceals, under the cloak of darkness. cloak v. to cover or conceal.

cloak-and-dag-ger (klohk-án-dag-ér) adj. involving dramatic adventures in spying.

cloak-room (klohk-room) n. 1. a room where outdoor clothes and packages etc. may be left. 2. a checkroom.

clob-ber (klob-ér) v. (slang) to hit redly, to give a beating to, to defeat; clobbering the taxpayers, hurting them by heavy taxation.

cloche (klosh) n. a woman’s close-fitting bell-shaped hat.

clock1 (klok) n. 1. an instrument (other than a watch) for measuring and showing the time. 2. any measuring device with a dial or displayed figures, as a taximeter, an odometer. clock v. 1. to time (a race or competitor). 2. (informal) to achieve as a speed, he clocked ten seconds for the hundred meters. (clock in, to register one’s arrival for work. clock out, to register one’s departure from work. clock watcher, a person who is constantly alert for the time when he may legitimately stop working.

clock2 n. an ornamental pattern on the side of a stocking or sock.

clock-wise (klok-wiz) adj. & adv. moving in a curve from left to right, as seen from the center of the circle.

clock-work (klok-wurk) n. a mechanism with wheels and springs, like that of a clock. like clockwork, with perfect regularity and precision.

clod (klod) n. 1. a lump of earth or clay. 2. a stupid unimaginative person.

clod-hop-per (klod-hop-ér) n. 1. a rustic, an unsophisticated person. 2. clodhop-pers, (informal) large heavy shoes.

clog (klog) n. a wooden-soled shoe. clog v. (clog*ed, clog*ing) to block, to become blocked.

cloé·son·né (kloi-zó-nay) n. enamelwork in which the colors of the pattern are separated by wires.

clois·ter (kloi-stér) n. 1. a covered walk along the side of a church or other building, looking out on a courtyard. 2. a monastery or conven, life in this. clois-ter v. to seclude in a monastery or conven.

clois·tered (kloi-stér) adj. sheltered, secluded.

clo-nee (klohn) n. 1. a group of plants produced from one original stock or seedling. 2. an organism asexually produced from and genetically identical with one ancestor. clone v. (cloned, clon*ing) to grow or propagate as a clone.

clop (klop) n. the sound of a horse’s hoof striking a hard surface, a similar sound. clop v. (clopped, clop*ing). to make this sound.

close1 (klohs) adj. 1. near in space or time. 2. near in relationship, a close relative. 3. affectionate, a close friend. 4. nearly alike, a close resemblance. 5. in which the competitors are nearly equal, a close contest. 6. dense, compact, with only slight intervals, a close texture. 7. detailed, leaving no gaps or weaknesses, concentrated, close study. 8. secretive. 9. stingy. 10. stuffy, humid, without fresh air. close adj. closely, in a near position, they live close by. close*ly adv. close*ness n. [at close quarters, very close together. close call, (informal) a narrow escape from death or danger; (in sports) an umpire’s decision in a play that is difficult to decide. close shave, a narrow escape from an accident etc.

close2 (klohs) v. (closed, clos*ing) 1. to shut. 2. to be or declare to be not open to the public. 3. to bring or come to an end; the closing days of the year, the last ones. 4. to bring or come closer or into contact; close ranks, agree after initial disagreement. 5. to come within striking distance, to grapple. close n. a conclusion, an end. closed book, a subject one has ceased considering.

closed-circuit television, that transmitted by wires, not waves, to a restricted number of receivers. close down, to shut completely, to cease working.

closed season, a period during which it is illegal to take certain specified game or fish. closed shop, the system whereby membership in a labor union is a condition of employment in a certain establishment. close in, to approach from all sides so as to shut in or entrap.

close out, to discontinue, terminate, or dispose of (merchandise, a business, etc.).
close with, to accept (an offer), to accept the offer made by (a person).
close-fist-ed (klohs-fis-tid) adj. niggardly, stingy.
close-fit-ting (klohs-fit-ing) adj. tightly fitting, clinging to the body.
close-knit adj. bound together.
close-mouthed (klohs-mowthd) adj. reticent or secretive.
close-out (klohz-owt) n. a sale of goods at low prices when going out of business or discontinuing certain kinds of merchandise.
clos·et (kloz-it) n. 1. a small storage room or cabinet. 2. (old use) any small room.
closed v. (clos·et-ed, clos·et-ing) to shut off (people in) a room, as for a conference. closed-adj. secret. closed-up the-adj. one whose homosexuality is kept secret. come out of the closed, to acknowledge one's homosexuality publicly.
close-up (klohs-up) n. a photograph giving a detailed view of something.
clos·ing (klozh-ing) n. the concluding details of a sale of property.
clo·sure (klozh-zhur) n. 1. the act or process of closing, a closed condition. 2. closure.
clot (klot) n. a small thickened mass formed from blood or other liquid. clot v. (clot·ted, clot·ting) to form clots. clot·ted cream, cream thickened by being scalded.
cloth (klawth) n. 1. woven or felted material. 2. a piece of this for a special purpose, a dishcloth, tablecloth, etc. 3. clerical clothes, the clergy, respect for the cloth.
clothe (klozh/h) v. (clothed or clad, cloth·ing) to put clothes upon, to provide with clothes.
clothes (klohz, kloht/hz) n. pl. things worn to cover the body and limbs.
clothes-horse (klohz-hors) n. 1. a frame with bars over which clothes etc. are hung to dry. 2. a person much concerned with dressing fashionably.
clothes-line (klohz-lin) n. a rope or wire on which washed clothes are hung to dry.
clothes-pin (klohz-pin) n. a forked peg or clip for fastening wash to a clothesline.
cloth·ier (klozh-yer) n. a manufacturer or seller of men's clothes.
cloth·ing (klozh-thing) n. clothes, garments.
clo·ture (klozh-chur) n. decision of a legislature to take a vote without further debate.

cloud (klowd) n. 1. a visible mass of condensed watery vapor, floating in the sky. 2. a mass of smoke or mist etc. 3. a mass of things moving in the air, a cloud of insects. 4. a state of gloom or trouble, casting a cloud over the festivities. cloud·ed adj. 1. to cover or darken with clouds or gloom or trouble. 2. to become overcast or indistinct or gloomy. on cloud·nine, (informal) extremely happy. under a cloud, out of favor, under suspicion, in disgrace. with one's head in the clouds, daydreaming.
cloud·burst (klowd-burst) n. a sudden violent rainstorm.
cloud·less (klowd-lis) adj. free from clouds.
cloud·y (klow-dee) adj. (cloud·i·er, cloud·i·est) 1. covered with clouds. 2. not transparent, a cloudy liquid.
cloud·i·ness n.
clout (klowt) n. (informal) 1. a blow. 2. power of effective action, trade unions with clout. clout v. (informal) to hit.
clove1 (klohv) see cleave1.
clove2 n. one of the small bulbs making up a compound bulb, a clove of garlic.
clove3 n. the dried unopened flower bud of tropical myrtle, used as a spice.
clove hitch a knot used to secure a rope around a spar or pole.
clo·ven (klozh-vén) see cleave1. cloven hoof, one that is divided, like those of oxen or sheep or goats.
clo·ver (klozh-ver) n. a plant with three-lobed leaves, used for fodder. In clo·ver, in ease and luxury.
clo·ver·leaf (klozh-ver-leef) n. an intersection of roads in a pattern resembling a four-leaf clover.
clown (klown) n. 1. a performer, especially in a circus, who does comical tricks and actions. 2. a person who is always behaving comically. clown v. to perform as a clown, to behave comically. clown·ish adj. clown’ish·ly adv. clown’ish·ness n.
cloy (kloi) v. to sicken by glutting with sweetness or pleasure, cloy the appetite.
cloy·ing (kloy-ing) adj. sickeningly sweet.
club (klub) n. 1. a heavy stick with one end thicker than the other, used as a weapon. 2. the headed stick used to hit the ball in golf. 3. a playing card of the suit (clubs) marked with black clover leaves. 4. a society of people who organize to provide themselves with sport or entertainment etc., their buildings or premises, the tennis club. 5. an organization offering members certain benefits, a book club. club v. (clubbed, club·bing) 1. to strike with a club. 2. to unite for a common purpose, we clubbed to-get one to buy a boat. club car, a railroad car outfitted like a club, with chairs, tables, etc. and usually serving food.

club chair, a low-backed chair with solid sides. club sandwich, a three-decker sandwich. club soda, soda water. club steak, a steak cut from the rib end of the short loin.

club-foot (klub-fut) n. a deformed foot. club-foot-ed adj.

club-house (klub-hows) n. (pl. -houses, pr. -how-ziz) the premises used by a club.

club-man (klub-män) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mën) a man who is a member of one or more fashionable clubs.

club-woman (klub-wuüm-än) n. (pl. -women, pr. -wim-in) a woman who is an active member of civic and social organizations.

cluck (kluk) n. 1. the throaty cry of a hen. 2. (slang) a stupid person. cluck v. to utter a cluck.

clue (kloo) n. 1. a fact or idea that gives a guide to the solution of a problem. 2. a word or phrase indicating what is to be inserted in a crossword or other word puzzle. clue v. (clued, cluing) to provide with a clue. clue in, (informal) to inform.

clue-less (kloo-lis) adj. without a clue.

clump (klump) n. 1. a cluster or mass. 2. a clumping sound. clump v. 1. to form a clump, to arrange in a clump. 2. to walk with a heavy tread.

clum-sy (klum-see) adj. (-si-er, -si-est) 1. heavy and ungraceful in movement or shape. 2. large and difficult to handle or use, a clumsy instrument. 3. done without tact or skill, a clumsy apology. clum-si-ly adv. clum-si-ness n.

clung (klung) see cling.

clunk (klunkg) n. a dull sound like thick metal objects striking together. clunk v. to make this sound.

clus-ter (klus-tër) n. a small close group. cluster v. to bring or come together in a cluster. cluster zoning, zoning practices that permit construction of buildings in clusters, with open space around these clusters.

clutch1 (kluch) v. to grasp tightly; clutch at, to try to grasp. clutch n. 1. a tight grasp, a clutching movement. 2. a device for connecting and disconnecting certain working parts in machinery. 3. (informal) a critical moment, especially in sports. clutch hitter, a baseball batter who usually makes a safe hit in a clutch.

get into a person’s clutches, to come into his possession or under his relentless control.

clutch2 n. 1. a set of eggs for hatching. 2. the chickens hatched from these.

clut-ter (klut-ër) n. 1. things lying about untidily. 2. a crowded untidy state. clutter v. to fill with clutter, to crowd untidily.

Clydes-dale (klirdz-dayl) n. a horse of a heavily built breed used for pulling things.

cm abbr. centimeter(s).

Cm symbol curium.

Cmdr. abbr. Commander.

CMSgt abbr. Chief Master Sergeant.

CNO abbr. Chief of Naval Operations.

CNS, cns abbr. central nervous system.

Co symbol cobalt.

Co. abbr. 1. Company. 2. County.

CO abbr. Colorado.

c/o abbr. care of (see care).

c.o prefix together with, jointly, as in co-author, coexistence.

C.O. abbr. 1. Commanding Officer. 2. conscientious objector.

coach (kohch) n. 1. a large four-wheeled horse-drawn carriage. 2. a railroad car. 3. (also motor coach) a bus. 4. an instructor in sports. 5. a teacher giving private specialized instruction, a voice coach. coach v. to train or teach.

coach-man (kohch-män) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mën) a driver of a coach or carriage.

co-ad-ju-tor (koh-aj-ü-tör) n. a helper or assistant, especially one assisting a bishop.

co-ag-u-lant (koh-ag-yu-lant) n. a coagulating agent.

co-ag-u-late (koh-ag-yu-layt) v. (co-ag-u-lat-ed, co-ag-u-lat-ing) to change from liquid to semisolid, to clot.

co-ag-u-lation (koh-ag-yu-lay-shun) n.

co-ag-u-lum (koh-ag-yu-lum) n. (pl. -la, pr. -lå, -lums) a coagulated mass, a clot.

coal (kohl) n. 1. a hard black mineral used for burning to supply heat. 2. a piece of this, one that is burning, a live coal. coal v. to load a supply of coal into a ship. carry coals to Newcastle, to take a thing to a place where it is already plentiful. coal gas, mixed gases extracted from coal and used for lighting and heating. coal mine, a mine where coal is dug. coal oil, kerosene. coal tar, tar produced when gas is made from coal. drag over or rake over the coals, to criticize sharply.

co-a-lesc (koh-ä-les) v. (co-a-lesc-ed, co-a-lesc-ing) to combine and form one whole. co-a-lesc-ence n.

coal-field (kohl-field) n. an area in which coal occurs naturally.

co-a-ll-tion (koh-ä-lësh-ôn) n. 1. union. 2. a temporary union between political parties. co-a-ll-tion-ist n.
coarse / cockpit

course (kohrs) adj. (coars'er, coars'est) 1. composed of large particles, rough or loose in texture. 2. rough or crude in manner or behavior, not refined; coarse language, improper, vulgar. 3. inferior, common. Course'ly adv.

course'ness n.

coars'en (kohs'en) v. to make or become coarse.

coast (kohst) n. the seashore and the land near it, its outline. Coast v. 1. to sail along a coast. 2. to ride down a hill or slope without using power. □ Coast Guard, a branch of the U.S. Department of Transportation that helps regulate navigation and acts as a sea rescue force.

cost guardsman (pl. -men) a member of the Coast Guard. The coast is clear, there is no chance of being seen or hindered.

costa'li (kohs-tal'i) adj. of or near the coast.

cost'er (kohs-ter) n. 1. a ship that trades between ports on the same coast. 2. a tray for a wine bottle, a small dish or mat for a drinking glass. □ Coaster brake, a bicycle brake engaged by back-pedaling.

costa'line (kohst-lin) n. the shape or outline of a coast, a rugged coastline.

coat (kohst) n. 1. an outdoor garment with sleeves. 2. an animal's hair or fur covering its body. 3. a covering layer, a coat of paint. Coat v. to cover with a layer.

□ Coat of arms, a design on a shield, used as an emblem by a family or a city or an institution.

coa'tli (koh-ah-tee) n. (pl. -ties) a South American animal with a long slender snout and a ringed tail.

costa'ling (kohst-ling) n. 1. a covering layer. 2. material for coats.

coa'th'or (koh-aw-thor) n. an author who writes books etc. with one or more other authors. Coauthor v. to write in this manner.

coa'x (kohks) v. 1. to persuade gently or gradually. 2. to obtain in this way, coaxed a smile from her.

coa'x. abbr. coaxial.

coa'x'l'al (koh-ak-si-al) adj. having a common axis. Coa'x'l'al-ly adv.

□ Coaxial cable, an electrical transmission line in which there are two concentric conductors separated by insulation.

cob (kob) n. 1. a corncob. 2. a male swan. 3. a sturdy short-legged horse for riding.

cob'alt (koh-bawl't) n. 1. a chemical element, a hard white metal used in many alloys, and with radioactive forms used in medicine and industry. 2. coloring matter made from this, its deep-blue color.

cob'le1 (kob-é) n. a cobblestone. Cob'le v. (cob'led, cob'bling) to pave with cobblestones.

cob'le2 v. (cob'bled, cob'bling) 1. to put together or mend roughly. 2. to mend shoes.

cob'ler (kob-lor) n. 1. a shoe repairer. 2. an iced drink of wine, sugar, and lemon. 3. a deep-dish fruit pie with a thick crust.

cob'ble'stone (kob-é-stohn) n. a rounded stone used in paving.

□ COBOL (koh-bohl) n. a computer programming language. □ Common Business Oriented Language.

c'o'bra (koh-brá) n. a poisonous snake of India and Africa that can rear up.

cob'web (koh-web) n. the fine network spun by a spider, a strand of this.

coa'line (koh-kain) n. a drug used as a local anesthetic or as a stimulant.

□ Coccus (kok-ús) n. (pl. coc'ci, pl. kok'si) a bacterium roughly spherical in shape.

coc'cys (kok-siks) n. (pl. -cy'ges, pr. -si-jeez, -cy'xes) the small bone at the lower end of the spinal column in man and some apes.

□ Coch-l'Neal (kohch-l-neel) a bright red coloring matter made from the dried bodies of certain insects.

coc'chle'a (kok-klá, kok-li'á) n. (pl. -le'a, pr. -li-ee, -le-as) a spiral cavity forming part of the inner ear in most mammals. Coc'chle'ar adj.

coc'k1 (kok) n. 1. a male bird, especially of the domestic fowl. 2. a tap or spout for controlling the flow of a liquid. 3. a lever in a gun, raised ready to be released by the trigger; at half cock, only half ready for something. Cock v. 1. to tilt or turn upward; the dog cocked his ears, raised them attentively; cock an eye, to glance knowingly. 2. to raise the cock of a gun) ready for firing, to set (the shutter of a camera) ready for release.

□ Cock of the Walk, the most influential person.

coc'k2 n. a cone-shaped pile of straw or hay. Cock v. to pile in cocks.

coc'kade (ko-kayd) n. a rosette of ribbon worn on a hat as a badge.

coc'k-a-doo'-die doo (kok-á-doo-dé doo) interj. the sound of a cock crowing.

coc'k-a-leek-ie (kok-á-lik-ee) n. a Scottish soup of cock boiled with leeks.

coc'k-and-bull (kok-an-bul) story a foolish story that one should not believe.

coc'k-a-too (kok-á-too) n. (pl. -toos) a crested parrot.

coc'k-a-trice (kok-á-tris) n. a mythical cock with a serpent's tail whose glance was supposed to be deadly.
cock·chafer (kok-chay-fər) n. a large flying beetle.
cock·crow (kok-kroh) n. dawn, when cocks begin to crow.
cocked (kokt) hat a triangular hat worn with some uniforms. □ knock into a cocked hat, to defeat utterly. cock·er·el (kok-ə-rēl) n. a young domestic cock.
cock·er (kok-ər) spaniel a small spaniel with a dense curly coat and long ears.
cock·eye (kok-i) n. a squinting eye.
cock·eyed (kok-id) adj. 1. having a squinting eye. 2. (slang) crazy or foolish; drunk.
cock·fight (kok-fīt) n. a fight in which cocks are pitted against each other.
cock·le (kok-əl) n. an edible shellfish.
□ warm the cockles of one's heart, to make one rejoice.
Cock·ney (kok-ne) n. (pl. -neys) 1. a native of the East End of London. 2. the dialect or accent of this area. cock·ney adj. of Cockneys or Cockney.
cock·pit (kok-pit) n. 1. a place made for cockfighting. 2. the compartment for the pilot and crew of an aircraft. 3. the driver's seat in a racing car.
cock·roach (kok-roch) n. a beetle-like insect that infests kitchens.
cock·scomb (kok-somb) n. 1. a plant with red or purple flowers that resemble the comb of a rooster. 2. a coxcomb.
cock·sure (kok-soor) adj. 1. quite convinced, very positive. 2. overly confident of oneself.
cock·tail (kok-tayl) n. 1. a mixed alcoholic drink. 2. an appetizer containing shellfish or fruit, shrimp or grapefruit 'cocktail'. □ cocktail lounge, a barroom.
cocktail party, an early evening party at which liquor and tidbits are served.
fruit cocktail, small pieces of fruit served as an appetizer.
cock·y (kok-ee) adj. (cock·y·er, cock·y·est) conceited and arrogant. cock·y·ly adv. cock·y·ness n.
co·co (kok-koh) n. (pl. -cos) the coconut palm or its fruit.
co·coa (kok-koh) n. 1. powder made from crushed cacao seeds. 2. a drink made from this. □ cocoa butter, a fatty substance made from cacao seeds and used in cosmetics etc.
co·co·nut (kok-kō-nut) n. 1. the large hard-shelled seed of a tropical palm tree (the coconut palm) containing a milky juice. 2. its edible white lining. □ coconut matting, matting made from the tough fiber of the coconut's outer husk.
coconut oil, the oil or fat obtained from coconuts and used in cooking and in making soaps, candles, etc.
co·coon (kō-kōn) n. 1. the silky sheath around a chrysalis. 2. a protective wrapping. cocoon v. to protect by wrapping completely.
cod (kod) n. (pl. cod) a large sea fish used as food. □ cod-liver oil, oil obtained from cod livers, rich in vitamins A and D.
COD abbr. cash on delivery.
cod·da (koh-də) n. the concluding passage of a piece of music, after the main part.
cod·die (kod-əl) v. (cod·die·dng, cod·dlin·g) 1. to cherish and protect carefully. 2. to cook (eggs) in water just below boiling point.
code (kohd) n. 1. a set of laws or rules, a code of practice for advertisers. 2. a prearranged word or set of words representing a message, used for secrecy. 3. a system of symbols used to send messages etc. by machine, the Morse code.
code v. (cod·ed, cod·ing) to put into code.
cod·de·line (koh-deen) n. a white substance made from opium, used to relieve pain or induce sleep.
cod·ex (kohdeks) n. (pl. -di·ces, pr. -di·seez) a manuscript volume, especially of ancient writings.
cod·fish (kod-fish) n. (pl. -fish·es, -fish) a cod.
cod·ger (koy·ər) n. (informal) a fellow, especially an old strange one.
cod·i·cil (kod-i·sil) n. an appendix to a will.
cod·i·fy (kod·i·fi) v. (cod·i·fied, cod·i·fy·ng) to arrange (laws or rules) systematically into a code. cod·i·fi·ca·tion (kod-i·fi·kā·shon) n.
cod·ling (kod·ling) n. a small codfish.
cod·ed (koh·ed, koh·ed) adj. (informal) coeducational. cod ed n. (informal) a girl or young woman at a coeducational school or college.
cod·ed·uc·ation (koh·ed·ju·kā·shon) n. education of boys and girls in the same classes.
cod·ed·uc·ation·al adj.
cod·ed·fl·i·cent (koh·i·fish·e·nt) n. a multiplier, a mathematical factor.
coe·la·canth (see-lā·kanth) n. a kind of fish that is extinct except for one species.
coe·len·ter·ate (si·len·tě·rət) n. an invertebrate animal, such as a jellyfish or a hydra, with a large internal cavity and tentacles.
co·er·mate (si·len·t̩e·rät) adj.
coe·qual (koh·kwāl) adj. equal. co·equal n. a person who is the equal of another. co·equal·ly adv. co·e·qual·i·ty (koh·i·kwōl·i·ti) n.
co·erce (koh·ərs) v. (co·erced, co·er·cing) to compel by threats or force.
co·er·cion (koh·ər·shon) n.
co·er·cive (koh-ur-siv) adj. using coercion.
co·e·val (koh-ee-väl) adj. of the same period or age, contemporary.
co·ex·ist (koh-ig-zist) v. to exist together.
co·ex·ist·ence (koh-ig-zis-tëns) n. coexisting; peaceful coexistence, tolerance of each other by countries with different political and social systems. co·ex·ist·ent adj.
co·ex·ten·sive (koh-ik-sten-siv) adj. extending over the same space or time.
C of C abbr. Chamber of Commerce.
co·fe·a·ture (koh-fee-chur) n. a short film shown as part of the program at a motion picture theater. co·fe·a·tured adj.
co·fee (kaw-fee) n. 1. the beanlike seeds of a tropical shrub, roasted and ground for making a drink. 2. this drink. 3. light brown color. □ coffee break, an interruption of work for light refreshments.
co·ffee·cup, a cup from which coffee is drunk. coffee klatch, an informal meeting whose primary purpose is conversation and at which coffee is served.
co·ffee·shop, an informal restaurant, especially at a hotel. coffee table, a small low table.
co·fee·cake (kaw-fee-kayk) n. a sweet bread or cake intended to be served with coffee.
co·fee·pot (kaw-fee-pot) n. a pot in which coffee is made or served.
co·fer (kaw-fër) n. 1. a large strongbox for holding money and valuables. 2. coffers, funds, financial resources.
co·fer·dam (kaw-fër-dam) n. a temporary watertight structure built or placed around an area of water that can then be pumped dry to allow building, work, etc. to be done within.
co·fin (kaw-fin) n. a box in which a dead body is placed for burial or cremation.
co·fin·nal (kaw-fin-nal) n. 1. a nail used in a coffin. 2. (slang) a cigarette.
C of S abbr. Chief of Staff.
cog (kog) n. one of a series of teeth on the edge of a wheel, fitting into and pushing those on another wheel. □ cog railway, a railway with a clogged track that engages clogged wheels on trains and enables these to climb steep grades.
cog. abbr. cognate.
cog·ent (koh-jënt) adj. convincing, compelling belief, a cogent argument. cog·ent·ly adv. co·gen·cy n.
cog·i·tate (koh-i-tay-t) v. (cog·i·tat·ed, cog·i·tat·ing) to think deeply.
cog·i·ta·tive adj. cog·i·ta·tion (koh-i-tay-shen) n. cog·nac (kohn-yak) n. French brandy, that made in Cognac in western France.
cog·nate (kog-nayt) adj. having the same source or origin, (of things) related.
cog·ni·tion (kog-nish-ion) n. the act or process of perceiving or knowing. cog·ni·tion·al adj. cog·ni·tive (kog-ni-tiv) adj.
cog·ni·zant (kog-niz-ant) adj. aware, having knowledge. cog·ni·zance n. cog·ni·za·ble (kog-ni-zä-bel) adj.
cog·no·men (koh-noh-men) n. (pl. -mens, -nom·i·na, pr. -nom·i-nä) 1. a last name. 2. a nickname.
co·gnoc·sce·ti·ci·ty (kohn-yosh-ten-tee) n. pl. connoisseurs.
cog·wheel (kog-hweel) n. a toothed wheel, a gearwheel.
co·ha·bit·i·tious (koh-hab-i-tay-shen) adj. and v. to live together as man and wife, especially when not married to each other. co·ha·bit·a·tion (koh-hab-i-tay-shen) n.
cog·he·sus (koh-heejus) n. a person who inherits jointly with others.
co·he·re (koh-heer) v. (co·her·ed, co·her·ing) to stick together, to remain united in a mass, the particles cohere.
co·her·ent (koh-heer-ent) adj. 1. cohering. 2. connected logically, not rambling in speech or in reasoning. co·her·ent·ly adv. co·her·ence n.
cog·he·sion (koh-hee-zhen) n. cohering, a tendency to stick together. co·he·sive (koh-hee-siv) adj.
co·ho (koh-hoh) n. (pl. -hos, -ho) a small light-colored salmon.
co·hort (koh-hort) n. 1. a group of admirers or followers. 2. an associate, a colleague.
colf (koi) n. a cap shaped like a hood.
colf·feur (kwh-fur) n. a male hairdresser. □ French.
colf·feuse (kwah-foos) n. a female hairdresser. □ French.
colf·ture (kwh-fyor) n. a hairstyle.
coll (koi) v. to wind into rings or a spiral. coll n. 1. something coiled. 2. one ring or turn in this. 3. a length of wire wound in a spiral to conduct electric current.
coin (koin) n. metal money, a piece of this. coin v. 1. to make (coins) by stamping metal. 2. to invent (a word or phrase). 3. (informal) to make (money) easily or rapidly, we coined money in that business.
coin·er n.
coin·age (koi-nij) n. 1. coining. 2. coins, the system of coins in use. 3. a coined word or phrase.
col·in·cide (koh-in-sid) v. (co·in·clid·ed, co·in·clid·ing) 1. to occur at the same time, his holidays don't coincide with hers. 2. to occupy the same portion of space. 3. to agree; our tastes coincide, are the same.
co-in-ci-dence (koh-in-si-déns) n. 1. coinciding. 2. a remarkable occurrence of similar or corresponding events at the same time by chance.

co-in-ci-dent (koh-in-si-dént) adj. coinciding.

co-i-tus (koh-i-tüs) n. sexual intercourse.

coke¹ (kohk) n. the solid substance left after coal gas and coal tar have been extracted from coal, used as fuel.

coke² (slang) n. cocaine.

COL abbr. cost of living.

col. abbr. 1. collected. 2. collector. 3. college. 4. colonial. 5. colony. 6. color 7. colored. 8. column.

col. (koh-lá) n. a carbonated drink made with dried coco leaves and kola nut seeds.

COLA n. cost-of-living adjustment.

col-an-der (kul-an-dér, kol-) n. a bowl-shaped container with holes for straining water from foods after cooking or washing.

cold (kohld) adj. 1. at or having a low temperature, especially when compared with the human body. 2. not heated, having cooled after being heated or cooked. cold meat. 3. (slang) unconscious, knocked him cold. 4. without friendliness or affection or enthusiasm, got a cold reception. 5. (of colors) suggesting coldness. 6. (of the scent in hunting) faint because no longer fresh. 7. (in children's games) far from finding or guessing what is sought. cold adv. in a cold state. cold n. 1. lack of heat or warmth, low temperature. 2. an infectious illness causing sneezing etc. cold'ly adv. cold'ness n.

cold comfort, poor consolation. cold cream, ointment for cleansing and softening the skin. cold cuts, sliced cheeses and meats, usually for sandwiches. cold duck, a mixture of champagne and sparkling burgundy. cold fish, a person who seems to lack feelings.

cold frame, an unheated frame for growing small plants. cold front, the zone between a mass of warm air and one of cooler air that is moving onward to replace it. cold shoulder, deliberate unfriendliness. he gave me the cold shoulder. cold snap, a sudden period of cold weather. cold sore, a blister or group of blisters on the mouth, caused by a virus. cold steel, a steel weapon such as a bayonet or sword. cold storage, storage in a refrigerated place; in cold storage, (of plans etc.) postponed but available when required. cold sweat, perspiration accompanying a slight chill. cold turkey, (slang) sudden withdrawal of narcotic drugs from an addict, without preparation. cold type, any of various printing techniques employing photographic reproduction of text prepared by means other than metallic typesetting. cold war, intense hostility between nations without actual fighting. cold wave, a sudden severe drop in temperature; a wave set in the hair by means of a chemical solution. cold weld, to bond together without the use of pressure or heat. get cold feet, to feel afraid or reluctant. have a person cold, (informal) to have him at one's mercy. have something (down) cold, to know something perfectly. in cold blood, without passion, deliberately and ruthlessly. leave cold, to fail to affect or impress, their promises leave me cold.

leave out in the cold, to ignore or neglect. throw or pour cold water on, to make discouraging remarks about.

cold-blood-ed (kohl-blud-id) adj. 1. having a body temperature that varies with the temperature of the surroundings, as fish do. 2. unfeeling, deliberately ruthless, a coldblooded killer.

cold-heart-ed (kohl-bahr-tid) adj. lacking in emotion, unsympathetic or unfeeling.

cold-shoul-der (kohld-shouldér) v. to treat with deliberate unfriendliness.

cole-slaw (kohl-slaw) n. shredded raw cabbage coated in dressing, as a salad.

col-le-us (kohl-le-ūs) n. a plant grown for its variegated leaves.

col-ic (kol-ik) n. severe abdominal pain.

col'ick-y adj.

col-i-se-um, col-o-se-um (kol-i-se-ūm) n. an amphitheater or stadium used especially for sporting events.

co-lil-tis (kō-li-tis) n. inflammation of the lining of the colon.

coll. abbr. 1. collect. 2. collection. 3. collector. 4. college. 5. collegiate. 6. colloquial.

col-lab-o-rate (kōl-lab-o-rayt) v. (col-lab-o-rat-ed, col-lab-o-rat-ing) to work in partnership. col-lab'o-ra-tor n. col-lab'o-ra-tion (kōl-lab'-ō-ray-shōn) n.

col-lage (kō-lahj) n. an artistic composition made by fixing bits of paper, cloth, string, etc. to a surface.

col-la-gen (kol-ah-jen) n. a protein substance found in bone and tissue.

col-lapse (kō-laps) v. (col-lapsed, col-laps-ing) 1. to fall down or in suddenly. 2. to lose strength or force suddenly, ene-my resistance collapsed. 3. to fold or be foldable. 4. to cause to collapse; collapsing the lung, surgically reducing the amount of air in it. collapse n. collapsing, a breakdown.

collapsible (kō-lap-si-bēl) adj. made so as to fold together compactly, a collapsible canoe.

collar (kol-är) n. 1. an upright or turned-over band around the neck of a garment. 2. a band of leather etc. put around the neck of an animal. 3. a band, ring, or pipe holding part of a machine. collar v. 1. to put a collar on. 2. (informal) to seize, to take for oneself. collarless adj.

collar button, a button that fastens the neckband of a shirt.

collars (kol-ärz) n. the bone joining the breastbone and shoulder blade, the clavicle.

collard (kol-ārd) n. a type of kale.

collard greens, the young leaves of this plant.

collate, abbr. collateral.

collate (kol-ayt) v. (collat-ed, collat-ing) 1. to compare in detail. 2. to collect and arrange systematically, collate information. collat-or n.

collater-al (kol-āt-ē-rāl) adj. 1. parallel. 2. additional but subordinate, collateral evidence. 3. descended from the same ancestor but by a different line, a collateral branch of the family. collateral n. a collateral security. collat'er-al-ly adv.

collateral security, an additional security pledged; security presented by a third party, or consisting of stocks, shares, property, etc. as opposed to a personal guarantee.

collation (kol-ā-shun) n. 1. collating. 2. a light meal, especially at an unusual time.

colleague (kol-lēj) n. a fellow official or worker, especially in a business or profession.

collect (kol-ekt) 1. a short prayer in certain churches, usually to be read on an appointed day.

collect2 (kō-lect) v. 1. to bring or come together. 2. to get from a number of people, to ask for (payment or contributions) from people. 3. to seek and obtain specimens of, especially as a hobby or for study. 4. to fetch, collect the children from school. 5. to gather (one’s thoughts) into systematic order or control; collect oneself, to regain control of oneself. collect adj. & adv. requiring the recipient to pay for, to collect phone call; send this package collect. collect’-i-ble, collect’a-ble adj. collect’tor n.

collector (kol-ēk-tor) n. 1. collecting. 2. money collected for a charity etc., as at a church service. 3. objects collected systematically. 4. a heap of things that have come together.

collective (kō-lek-tiv) adj. of a group taken as a whole, our collective impression of the new plan. collective n. a collective farm. collective adj.-ly adv.

collective bargaining, bargaining by an organized group of employees. collective farm, a farm or group of small holdings organized and run by its workers, usually under government control.

collective noun, a noun that is singular in form but denotes more than one individual, as army, cattle, committee, herd.

collective ownership, ownership of land etc. by all and for the benefit of all.

collective-ism (kō-lek-ti-viz-ēm) n. the doctrine of government control of all production and distribution. collective’-ism n.

collective-vize (kō-lek-ti-viz) v. (collect-ti-vized, collect-ti-viz-ing) to bring from private into collective ownership. collective-vi-zation (kō-lek-ti-vi-zay-shun) n.

collector (kō-lek-tor) n. a person who collects things; a collector’s item, a thing worth placing in a collection because of its beauty, value, or interest.

colloquial (kol-ēk-ti-viz) v. (collect-ti-vized, collect-ti-viz-ing) to bring from private into collective ownership. collective-vi-zation (kō-lek-ti-vi-zay-shun) n.

colleen (ko-leen) n. 1. (Irish) a girl. 2. an Irish girl.

collegiate (kol-ij) n. 1. an educational establishment for higher or professional education. 2. an independent part of a university with its own teachers and students. 3. a school, she went to business college. 4. the buildings of any of these. 5. an organized body of professional people with common purposes and privileges, the College of Cardinals.

collegian (kol-ē-jan) n. a college student.

collegiate (kol-ē-jāt) adj. of or belonging to a college or college student.

collide (ko-līd) v. (collid-ed, collid-ing) 1. of (a moving object) to strike violently against something, to meet and strike. 2. to have a conflict of interests or opinions.

collie (kō-lē) n. a dog with a long pointed muzzle and shaggy hair.

coller (kol-ēr) n. (chiefly British) 1. a coal miner. 2. a ship that carries coal as its cargo.

collimatic (kol-lim-ātik) adj. & adv. collimate, to make rays pass through a collimator.
of light etc. parallel to each other.
col·li·sion (kō-lizh-ōn) n. colliding, the striking of one body against another.
collision course, a set course that is bound to end in a collision.
col·lo·ca·tion (kol-ō-kay-shōn) n. placing together or side by side.
col·lo·di·on (kō-loh-di-ōn) n. a mixture of ether, alcohol, and other substances that hardens when exposed to air, used to dress wounds and in the production of photographic film.
col·loid (kol-oid) n. a gluey substance.
col·loi·dal (ko-loi-dāl) adj. col·loi·dal·ly adv.
colloq. abbr. 1. colloquial. 2. colloquialism. 3. colloquially.
col·lo·quial (kō-loh-kwī-āl) adj. suitable for ordinary conversation but not for formal speech or writing, informal. col·lo·qui·al·ly adv.
col·lo·quial·ism (kō-loh-kwī-āl-iz-ēm) n. a colloquial word or phrase.
col·lo·quial·ly adv.
col·lo·quial·ism (kō-loh-kwī-āl-iz-ēm) n. (pl. -quīums, -quil, pr. -kwī-ā) an informal seminar or conference.
col·lo·quy (kol-ō-kwī) n. (pl. -ques) (formal) a conversation.
col·lu·sion (kō-loo-zhōn) n. agreement between two or more people for a deceitful or fraudulent purpose. col·lu·sive (kō-loo-siv) adj.
col·lu·vi·um (kō-loo-vī-ūm) n. (pl. -vī-a, pr. -vī-ā, -vī-ums) fragments of broken rock that have gathered at the foot of a hill. col·lu·vi·al adj.
Colo. abbr. Colorado.
col·lo·gne (kō-lohn) n. eau de Cologne or other lightly scented liquid, used to cool and scent the skin.
Co·lon·ia (kō-lum-bi-ā) a country in South America. Co·lon·ia·n adj. & n.
Co·lon·bo (kō-lum-bō) the capital of Sri Lanka.
col·on1 (kō-lōn) n. (pl. -lons, -la, pr. -lā) the lower and greater part of the large intestine. col·on·ic (kō-lōn-ik) adj.
col·on2 n. the punctuation mark : used (1) to show that what follows is an example or list or summary of what precedes it, or a contrasting idea; (2) between numbers that are in proportion, as in 1:2 = 2:4; (3) after the salutation in business letters etc.
colo·nel (kur-nēl) n. 1. an army, marine, or air force officer ranking next below a brigadier general. 2. a lieutenant colonel.
colo·ni·al (kō-loh-nē-āl) adj. of a colony or colonies. colonial n. an inhabitant of a colony.
co·lo·ni·al·ism (kō-loh-nē-āl-iz-em) n. the policy of acquiring or maintaining colonies. co·lo·ni·al·ist adj. & n.
col·o·ni·st (kol-ō-nist) n. a pioneer settler in a colony.
col·o·ni·ze (kol-ō-niz) v. (col·o·ni·zed, col·o·ni·zing) to establish a colony in.
col·o·ni·za·tion (kol-ō-ni-zā-shōn) n.
col·on·nade (kol-ō-nayd) n. a row of columns.
col·o·ny (kol-ō-ney) n. (pl. -nies) 1. an area of land settled or conquered by a distant nation and controlled by it, the American Colonies. 2. its inhabitants. 3. a group of colonists. 4. people of one nationality or occupation etc. living in a particular area, the area itself, the artists' colony.
col·o·phon (kol-ō-fon) n. 1. an inscription at the end of a book or manuscript giving information about its production, including author, title, name of publisher, etc. 2. a publisher's emblem on the title page or cover of a book.
col·or (kul-ōr) n. 1. the sensation produced by various rays of light of different wavelengths, a particular variety of this. 2. the use of all colors, not just black and white; in color, using all colors; color film, producing photographs that are in color. 3. rudeness of complexion; she has no color, looks pale. 4. the pigmentation of the skin, especially if dark. 5. pigment, paint, or dye. 6. colors, the flag of a ship or regiment. color v. 1. to put color on, to paint or stain or dye. 2. to change color or blush. 3. to give a special color or bias to, his political opinions color his writings. col·or bar, legal or social discrimination between white and non-white people. color code, a system in which colors are used as a help in sorting, classifying, etc. color guard, an honor guard for the colors of a regiment. color line, a color bar. color scheme, a systematic combination of colors. give or lend color to, to give an appearance of truth to. in its true colors, with its real characteristics revealed.
Col·o·rad·o (kol-ō-rad-ō) a state of the U.S. Col·o·ra·d·an (kol-ō-rad-ān) adj. & n. Colorado potato beetle, a beetle with black and yellow stripes that feeds on potato leaves.
col·or·mat·ter (kul-ō-rānt) n. coloring matter.
col·or·a·tion (kul-ō-rā-shōn) n. coloring.
col·o·ra·tu·ra (kul-ō-rā-toor-ā) n. the use of trills, runs, and other ornamentation in vocal music. 2. a soprano who specializes in singing coloratura.
col·or·blind (kul-ōr-blind) adj. unable to colored / combine perceive the difference between certain colors. col'or·blind·ness n.

col·ored (kul-örd) adj. 1. having color. 2. wholly or partly of non-Caucasian descent. 3. Colored, (in South Africa) of mixed white and non-white descent. col·ored n. 1. a colored person. 2. Colored, (in South Africa) a person of mixed white and non-white descent. △ Many people consider colored (= black) offensive.
col·or·fast (kul-ör-fast) adj. dyed so that the color does not run or fade. col·or·fast·ness n.
col·or·ful (kul-ör-fül) adj. 1. full of color. 2. with vivid details, a colorful account of her journey. col·or·ful·ly adv.
col·or·ing (kul-ör-ring) n. 1. the way in which something is colored. 2. a substance used to color things. □ coloring book, a child's book containing outline drawings to be colored with crayons or paints.
col·or·less (kul-ör-lis) adj. 1. without color. 2. lacking interest, a colorless account.
co·los·sal (kö-lös-ääl) adj. 1. immense. 2. (informal) remarkable, splendid. co·los·sal·ly adv.
Co·los·sians (kö-lös-ianz) n. a book of the New Testament, the epistle of St. Paul to the Church at Colossae.
co·los·sus (kö-lös-sus) n. (pl. -los·sus·es, -los·si, pr. -los·si) adj. 1. an immense statue, the Colossus of Rhodes. 2. a person of immense importance and influence.
co·los·to·my (kö-lös-tö-mee) n. (pl. -mies) an artificial opening through which the bowel can empty, made surgically by bringing part of the colon to the surface of the abdomen.
co·los·trum (kö-lös-trüm) n. the first milk secreted after giving birth.
colt (kohlt) n. a young male horse. colt·ish adj.
colts·foot (kohltz-fytt) n. (pl. -foots) a weed with yellow flowers, its leaf suggesting the print of a colt's foot.
Co·lum·bia (kö-lüm-bi-ä) the capital of South Carolina.
Columbia, District of a district of the U.S. coextensive with the city of Washington, capital of the U.S. co· lum·bi·ne (kol-üm-bin) n. a garden flower with slender pointed projections on its petals.
co· lum·bi·um (kö-lüm-bi-üm) n. a metallic element, formerly known as niobium.
Co·lum·bus (kö-lüm-büs) the capital of Ohio.
co· lumn (kol-üm) n. 1. a round pillar. 2. something shaped like this, a column of smoke; the spinal column, the backbone.
3. a vertical section of a page, there are two columns on this page. 4. a regular feature of a newspaper, usually devoted to a special subject. 5. a long narrow formation of troops or vehicles etc. col·umn·ar (kö-lüm-när) adj. col·umn·ned (kol-üm-ned) adj.
co·lum·nist (kol-üm-nist) n. a journalist who regularly writes a column of comments. co·ma (kö-mä) n. (pl. -mas) a state of deep unconsciousness.
Co·man·che (kö-man-che) n. (pl. -ches, -che) a member of a tribe of North American Indians formerly inhabiting parts of Texas.
com·a·to·se (kö-mä-toh) adj. 1. in a coma. 2. drowsy.
comb (kohm) n. 1. a strip of bone or plastic etc. with teeth, used for tidying the hair or holding it in place. 2. something shaped or used like this, as for separating strands of wool or cotton. 3. the fleshy crest of a fowl. 4. a honeycomb. comb v. 1. to tidy or untangle with a comb. 2. to search thoroughly. □ comb out, (informal) to get rid of (unwanted people or things) from a group; to untangle with a comb.
comb. abbr. combining.
com·bat (kom-bat) n. a fight or contest. combat (köm-bat) v. (com-bat·ted, com·bat·ting) to counter, to combat the effects of alcohol. □ combat fatigue, a mental disorder due to stress in wartime combat.
com·bat·ant (köm-bat·ant) n. one who is engaged in fighting.
com·bat·ive (köm-bat·iv) adj. fond of fighting.
comb·er (kö-mër) n. 1. a person who combs. 2. a long curling ocean wave.
comb. form abbr. combining form.
com·bi·na·tion (kom-bi-nay-shon) n. 1. combining, being combined. 2. a number of people or things that are combined. 3. a sequence of numbers or letters used in opening a combination lock. □ combination lock, a lock that can be opened only by turning one or more dials into a particular series of positions, indicated by numbers or letters.
com·bine (köm-bin) v. (com·bined, com·bin·ing) to join or be joined into a group or set or mixture. combine (kom-bin) n. 1. a combination of people or firms acting together in business. 2.
a combined reaping and threshing machine. □combining form, a form of a word used in combinations, such as euro- (= European) in eurocommunism.

comb·ings (koh-mingz) n. loose hair removed by a brush or comb.

com·bo (kom-boh) n. (pl. -bos) 1. a small band that plays dance or jazz music. 2. (informal) a combination.

com·bus·ti·ble (kohm-bus-ti-bel) adj. capable of catching fire and burning, used for burning. combustible n. a combustible substance. com·bus·ti·bil·i·ty (kohm-bus-ti-bil-i-tee) n. com·bus·ti·ve (kohm-bus-tiv) adj.

com·bus·tion (kohm-bus-chon) n. the process of burning, a chemical process (accompanied by heat) in which substances combine with oxygen in air.

comdg. abbr. commanding.

comdr. abbr. commander.

comdt. abbr. commandant.

come (kum) v. (came, come, com·ing) 1. to move toward the speaker or a place or point. 2. (of an illness) to begin to develop. 3. to arrive, to reach a point or condition or result, when winter comes; we came to a decision, made one; for several years to come, in the future. 4. to take or occupy a specified position, what comes next? 5. to be available, the dress comes in three sizes; he's as tough as they come, no one is tougher. 6. to happen, how did you come to lose it? 7. to occur as a result, that's what comes of being too confident. 8. to be descended, she comes from a rich family. come interj. think again, don't be hasty, come, come, it's not that bad! □come about, to happen. come across, (informal) to find or meet unexpectedly. come along, to make progress, to thrive, coming along nicely; come along!, hurry up. come between, to disrupt the relationship between (two people); to prevent (a person) from having something, nothing must come between him and his career. come by, to obtain (a thing). come clean, (informal) to confess fully. come down, to collapse, to fall, to become lower; come down in the world, to lose one's former high social position; come down in favor of, to decide in favor of. come down on, to rebuke. come forward, to offer oneself for a task etc. come from, to have as one's birthplace or as a place of origin. come in, to take a specified position in a race or competition, he came in third; to become сезонable or fashionable; to be received as income; to begin one's radio transmission; to have a part to play, to serve a purpose, it will come in useful; where do I come in?, what is my role?, where is my advantage? come in for, to get a share of. come into, to inherit, he came into the legacy. come of age, to reach adult status. come off, to become detached or separated, to be detachable; to fall from, she came off her bicycle; (of a series of performances) to end; to fare, to acquit oneself, they came off well; to be successful. come off it!, (informal) stop talking or behaving like that. come on, to make progress, to thrive; to come on to the stage, to appear in a filmed scene etc.; to find or meet unexpectedly; come on!, hurry up. come on strong, (informal) to behave in an overbearing or aggressive manner. come out, to go on strike; to emerge from an examination etc. with a specified result; to emerge from behind clouds, the sun came out; to become visible in a photograph, the house has come out well; to become known, the truth came out; to be published; to be solved; to declare one's opinions publicly, came out in favor of the plan; (of stains etc.) to be removed. come out with, to utter. come over, (informal) to affect, what has come over you? come round or around, to make a casual or informal visit; to recover from faintness or bad temper; to be converted to another person's opinion. come to, to amount to, to be equivalent to; to regain consciousness. come to pass, to happen. come true, to happen in the way that was prophesied or hoped. come up, to arise for discussion etc., to occur, a problem has come up. come upon, to find or meet unexpectedly. come up to, to equal, it doesn't come up to our expectations. come up with, to contribute (a suggestion etc.). come what may, whatever may happen. come·back (kum-bak) n. 1. a return to one's former successful position. 2. (slang) a reply or retort.

Com·e·con (kom-e-kehn) n. an economic organization of eastern European countries. □From Council for Mutual Economic Assistance.

co·me·di·an (ko-mee-di-ahn) n. 1. an actor who plays comic parts. 2. a humorous entertainer. 3. a person who behaves humorously.

come·di·enne (koh-mee-deen) n. a female comedian.

come·do (kom-i-doh) n. (pl. com·e·dos, com·e·do·nes, pr. kom-i-doh-nee) a blackhead.

come·down (kum-down) n. 1. a fall from rank, dignity, or importance. 2. an anticlimax.

come·dy (kom-e-dee) n. (pl. -dies) 1. come-hither / command

a light amusing play, film, television production, etc. 2. the branch of drama that consists of such plays. 3. an amusing incident. 4. humor. com·e·díc (kō-mee·dik) adj.

come-hith·er (kum-hith·ér) adj. enticing, flirtatious, a come-hither look.

come·ly (kum·lee) adj. (-li·er, -li·est) good-looking. come'li*ness n.

com·er (kum·ér) n. 1. one who comes, the first comers; all comers, anyone who comes or challenges or applies. 2. a beginner who seems likely to succeed.

com·es·ti·bles (kō-mes·ti-bélz) n. pl. things to eat.

com·et (kom-it) n. a hazy object that moves around the sun, usually with a starlike center and a tail pointing away from the sun.

come·up·pance (kum-up·áns) n. (in·for·mal) one's desires for misbehavior etc.

com·fort (kum-fort) n. 1. a state of ease and contentment. 2. relief of suffering or grief. 3. a person or thing that gives this. comfort v. to give comfort to.

comfort station, a public toilet.

com·fort·a·ble (kum-fur·tá-bél, kum-för·tá-bél) adj. 1. giving ease and contentment. 2. not close or restricted, won by a comfortable margin. 3. feeling at ease, in a state of comfort. com’fort·a·bly adv.

com·fort·er (kum-fur·tér) n. 1. a person who comforts. 2. a blanket, coverlet.

com·fy (kum-fe) adj. (-fi·er, -fi·est) comfortable. com·fy·ness n.

com·ic (kom·ik) adj. 1. causing amusement or laughter. 2. of comedy. comic n. 1. a comedian. 2. a comic book. com·ic·al adj. com·i·cal·ly adv.

comic book, a magazine consisting of comic strips. comic strip, a series of cartoons telling a story. the comics, a section containing comic strips in the newspapers etc.

com·ing (kum-ing) see come. coming adj. 1. approaching, next, the coming week. 2. likely to be important in the near future, a coming thing. coming n. arriving,comings and goings.

com·i·ty (kom-i·tee) n. (pl. -ties) courtesy, especially between nations.

coml. abbr. commercial.

comm. abbr. 1. commission. 2. committee.

3. commonwealth.

com·ma (kom·á) n. the punctuation mark , indicating a slight pause or break between parts of a sentence, separating words or figures in a list, etc.

com·mand (kō-mand) n. 1. a statement, given with authority, that some action must be performed. 2. the right to control others, authority; she is in command, has this authority. 3. the ability to use something, mastery, has a command of languages. 4. a body of troops; a major element of the organization of the U.S. Army, Continental Command. com·mand v. 1. to give a command or order to. 2. to have authority over. 3. to have at one's disposal, the conglomerate commands great resources. 4. to deserve and get, they command our respect. 5. to look down over or dominate from a strategic position, the tower commands the harbor: in a commanding position.

command module, a space vehicle designed to carry a crew and its equipment. com·mand post, the headquarters of a military force.

com·man·dat (kom-án-dant) n. the officer in command of a fort or other military establishment.

com·man·deer (kom-án-deer) v. 1. to seize for military purposes. 2. to seize for one's own purposes.

com·mand·er (kō-man·dér) n. 1. the person in command. 2. a naval officer ranking next below a captain. com·mand·er in chief (pl. commanders in chief), the supreme commander. Commander in Chief, the president of the U.S. as commander in chief of U.S. armed forces.

com·man·dant (kō-man·dant) n. a divine command, one of the ten laws given by God to Moses.

com·man·do (kō-man·doh) n. (pl. -dos, -does) a member of a military unit specially trained for making raids and assaults.

come Il faut (kum eel foa) proper, as it should be (especially of behavior etc.). > French.

com·mem·o·rate (kō-mem·o·rat, kō-mem·o·rat·ed, kō-mem·o·rat·ing) 1. to keep in the memory by means of a celebration or ceremony. 2. to be a memorial to, a plaque commemorates the victory. com·mem·o·ra·tive (kō-mem·o·ra·tiv) adj. com·mem·o·ra·tion (kō-mem·o·ra·shon) n. commemorative issue, an object, as a coin, produced to memorialize a person or event etc. commemorative stamp, a postage stamp issued to honor a person or event etc.

com·mence (kō-mens) v. (com·menced, com·menc·ing) to begin.

com·mence·ment (kō-mens·ment) n. 1. a commencing, a beginning. 2. a formal ceremony of graduation.

com·mend (kō-mend) v. 1. to praise. 2. to recommend. 3. to entrust, to commit, commending his soul to God. com·men·da·tion (kom-en·day·shon) n. commendable / committee commendable (kō-men-dā-bēl) adj. worthy of praise. commend’a·bly adv.

commendable (kō-men-sū-rā-bēl) adj. able to be measured by the same standard.

commendable (kō-men-sū-rit) adj. 1. of the same size or extent. 2. proportionate, the salary is commensurate with the responsibilities.

comment (kom-ent) n. an opinion given briefly about an event or in explanation or criticism. comment v. to utter or write comments.

commentary (kom-ën-ter-ee) n. (pl. -tar·ies) 1. a series of descriptive comments on an event or performance. 2. a collection of explanatory comments, a new commentary on the Bible.

commentator (kom-ën-ta·tor) (kom-ën-ta·tor) n. a person who broadcasts or writes a commentary.

commerce (kom-ûrs) n. all forms of trade and the services that assist trading, as banking and insurance.

commercial (kō-mur-shāl) adj. 1. of or engaged in commerce; commercial vehicles, those carrying goods or fare-paying passengers; commercial art, art used in advertising etc.; produced on a commercial scale, in amounts suitable for marketing widely. 2. financed by firms etc. whose advertisements are included, commercial television. 3. intended to produce profits rather than to be of artistic or scholarly merit. commercial n. a broadcast advertisement. commercial·ly adv.

commercialism (kō-mur-shā-liz-ēm) n. commercial practices and attitudes.

commercialize (kō-mur-shā-liz) v. (com·mer·cial·ized, com·mer·cial·izing) to make commercial, to alter in order to make profitable, a very commercialized resort. commercial·iza·tion (kō-mur-shā-liz-shān) n.

Commie (kom-ee) n. (slang) a Communist.

commingle (kō-ming-gēl) v. (commingled, commingling) to mingle together.

commiserate (kō-miz-ē-rayt) v. (com·mis·er·at·ed, com·mis·er·ating) to express pity for, to sympathize. commiser·a·tion (kō-miz-ē-ray-shōn) n.

commiserate (kō-miz-ē-rayt) v. (com·mis·er·at·ed, com·mis·er·ating) to express pity for, to sympathize. commiser·a·tion (kō-miz-ē-ray-shōn) n.

commission (kō-mish-ōn) n. 1. the giving of authority to someone to perform a certain task or duty. 2. the task etc. given, a commission to paint a portrait. 3. the body of people to whom such authority is given. 4. a certificate conferring rank on an officer in the armed forces. 5. performance, committing, the commissioneer of a crime. 6. payment to an agent for selling goods or services, often calculated in proportion to the amount sold; selling goods on commission, receiving such payment. commission v. 1. to give a commission to. 2. to place an order for, commissioned a portrait. commissioned officer, an officer in the armed forces who holds a commission. commission merchant, one who acts as an agent for suppliers and buyers of merchandise, receiving commission on goods bought and sold. in commission, (of a warship etc.) manned and ready for service. out of commission, not in commission; not in working order.

commissioner (kō-mish-ōn-er) n. 1. a member of a commission, a police commissioner. 2. a person who has been given a commission.

commit (kō-mit) v. (com·mit·ted, com·mit·ting) 1. to do, to perform, commit a crime. 2. to entrust for safekeeping or treatment, commit a prisoner for trial, send him to prison pending trial; commit a body to the earth, bury it with a formal ceremony. 3. to pledge, to bind with an obligation; she did not commit herself; gave no definite statement or opinion. committed adj. dedicated or pledged, especially to support a doctrine or cause. commit to memory, to memorize.

commission (kō-mish·mēnt) n. 1. committing. 2. the state of being involved in an obligation. 3. an obligation or pledge.

commit·tal (kō-mit·tal) n. 1. committing to prison or other place of confinement. 2. committing a body at burial or cremation.

commit·ted (kō-mit·ted) adj. dedicated or pledged, especially to support a doctrine or cause.

committee (kō-mit·ée) n. a group of people appointed to attend to special business or to manage the business of a club etc. commit·tee·man n. commit·tee·woman n. commode / communicate mit’tee-wom-an n. □committee of one, an individual authorized to perform the functions of a committee.

com•mode (kō-mohd) n. 1. a chest of drawers. 2. a chamber pot mounted in a chair or box with a cover. 3. a covered washstand.
com•mo•di•ous (kō-moh-di-ūs) adj. roomy.
com•mod•i•ty (kō-mod-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) a useful thing, an article of trade, a product. □commodity exchange, a place where commodities are bought and sold.
com•mo•dor (kō-ō-dohr) n. 1. a naval officer ranking above a captain and below a rear admiral. 2. the commander of a squadron or other division of a fleet. 3. the president of a yacht club.
com•mon (kom-ôn) adj. 1. of or affecting the whole community; it was common knowledge, was known to most people. 2. belonging to or shared by two or more people or things; common ground, something on which two or more people agree or in which they share an interest. 3. occurring frequently, familiar, a common weed. 4. without special distinction, ordinary, the common pigeon. 5. ill-bred, not refined in behavior or style. 6. the Commons, the House of Commons (see house1). common n. an area of unfenced grassland for all to use. com' mon•ly adv. com•mon•ness n. □common carrier, a company or person that transports goods or people for a fee. common denominator, a number into which each of the denominators of a given set of fractions divides evenly; the feature that members of a group have in common. lowest or least common denominator, the lowest common multiple of the denominators of several fractions, 6 is the lowest common denominator of $\frac{1}{2}$ and $\frac{1}{3}$. Common Era, the Christian era. common law, unwritten law based on custom and usage and on former court decisions. common man, the average person. Common Market, the European Economic Community, an association of certain European countries with internal free trade, and common tariffs on their imports from countries outside the community. common room, (chiefly British) a room shared for social purposes by pupils or students or teachers of a school or college. common sense, normal good sense in practical matters, gained by experience of life not by special study. common stock, shares in a company that represent residual ownership in it and have no preference in regard to dividends.
common year, a year having 365 days. in common, in joint use between two or more people or things, shared as a possession or characteristic or interest.
com•mon•er (kom-ō-nēr) n. one of the common people, not a member of the nobility.
com•mon•law (kom-ôn-law) marriage a marriage recognized by common law, without an official ceremony, usually after a period of cohabitation.
com•mon•place (kom-ôn-plays) adj. ordinary, usual; a few commonplace remarks, lacking originality. common•place n. something commonplace, air travel is now a commonplace. □commonplace book, a journal in which one records significant observations, poetry, etc.
com•mon•sense (kom-ôn-sens) adj. showing common sense.
com•mon•weal (kom-ôn-weel) n. 1. the public good. 2. (old use) a commonwealth.
com•mon•wealth (kom-ôn-welth) n. 1. an independent nation, state, or community. 2. a republic. 3. a federation of states, the Commonwealth of Australia. □New Commonwealth, those countries that have achieved self-government within the British Commonwealth since 1945. the Commonwealth (also Brit•ish Commonwealth), an association of the United Kingdom and various independent states (formerly subject to Brit•ain) and dependencies.
com•mo•tion (kō-mō-shōn) n. uproar, fuss and disturbance.
com•mu•nal (kō-mōo-nal) adj. shared among members of a group or community, a communal kitchen. com•mu' nal•ly adv.
com•mune1 (kom-yoon) n. 1. a group of people, not all of one family, sharing living arrangements and goods. 2. a small district of local government in France and certain other European countries.
com•mune2 (kō-myoon) v. (com• muned, com• mun•ing) to communicate mentally or spiritually; communicating with nature, absorbed in feeling oneself in harmony with it.
com•mu•ni•cal•be (kō-myoo-ni-kā-bēl) adj. able to be communicated.
com•mu•ni•cant (kō-myoo-ni-kānt) n. a person who receives Holy Communion, one who does this regularly.
com•mu•ni•cate (kō-myoo-ni-kāt) v. (com•mu•ni•cat•ed, com•mu•ni•cat•ing) 1. to make known, communicate the news to your friends. 2. to transfer, to transmit, communicated the disease to others. 3. to pass news and information to and fro, to have social dealings with. 4. to succeed in conveying information; young people cannot always communicate with older ones. 5. to be connected, the passage communicates with the hall and stairs. community (kō-myoo-ni-kā′bil-i-tee) n. communication (kō-myoo-ni-kā′bil-i-tee) n. 1. communicating. 2. something that communicates information from one person to another, a letter or message. 3. a means of communicating, as a road, railroad, telegraph line, radio, or other link between places. companionable (kō-myoo-ni-kā′bil-i-tee) adj. ready and willing to talk and give information. fellowship (kō-myoo-ni-yōn) n. 1. fellowship, having ideas or beliefs in common; churches in communion with one another, those that accept each other's doctrines and sacraments. 2. social dealings between people. 3. a body of Christians belonging to the same denomination, the Anglican communion. 4. Communion, (also Holy Communion) the Christian sacrament in which bread and wine are consecrated and consumed, the Eucharist. communique (kō-myoo-ni-kā′bil-i-tee) n. an official communication giving a report of a meeting or a battle etc. communist (kō-myoo-nist) n. 1. a social system in which property is owned by the community and each member works for the common benefit. 2. Communism, a political doctrine or movement seeking to overthrow capitalism and establish a form of communism, such a system established in the U.S.S.R. and elsewhere. Communist Party a political party supporting Communism. companionate marriage a form of marriage in which hus-companionship / compensate band and wife have none of the legal obligations of marriage and which provides for easy divorce.

companionship (kŏm-pa-n-yŏn-ship) n. the state of being companions, the friendly feeling of being with another or others.

companionway (kŏm-pa-n-yŏn-way) n. a staircase from a ship's deck to the saloon or cabins.

company (kom-pa-ni) n. (pl. for definitions 4 & 5 -ties) 1. companionship, travel with us for company. 2. a number of people assembled, guests, we're expecting company. 3. the people with whom one spends one's time, got into bad company. 4. people working together or united for business purposes, a firm; the ship's company, the officers and crew. 5. a subdivision of a military battalion.

company (kom-pa-ni) n. 1. an enterprise devoted to promoting the interests of the company for which he works; an employee despised by fellow employees because of his strong allegiance to the company.

keep a person company, to accompany, especially for the sake of companionship. keep company with, (old use) to date steadily. part company, see part.

comparative, adj. able or suitable to be compared, similar.

comparable adv. com-pa-ra-bly (kom-pa-rā-blē) adj.

comparing v. com-pa-ring (kom-pa-rĭng) 1. to estimate the similarity between one thing and another. 2. to liken, to declare to be similar; this film is not to be compared to his earlier ones, is not as good as these. 3. to be worthy of comparison, he cannot compare with Dickens as a novelist. 4. to form the comparative and superlative of (an adjective or adverb). compare n. comparison, beautiful beyond compare.

compare (kŏm-pa-rē) v. (com-pared, com-par-ing) 1. to use force or influence to cause (a person) to do something, to allow no choice of action. 2. to arouse irresistibly, her courage compels admiration. □ A person compelled to do something is forced to act against his will. When he is compelled to do something, he is responding to an inner motive.

comprehensive, adj. giving much information concisely.

compete (kŏm-pa-tĭt) v. (competed, com-par-ing) 1. to make a suitable payment in return for compensatory / complication

(a loss or damage etc.). 2. to counterbalance, our present success compensates for earlier failures. complement (kom-pen-sa-tion) n. compensating.

compete (kom-peet) v. (com-pet-ed, com-pet-ing) to take part in a competition.

competition (kom-pe-tens) n. 1. sufficiency of means for living. 2. being competent. 3. legal capacity or eligibility.

compe-test (kom-pe-tent) adj. 1. having the ability or authority to do what is required. 2. adequate, satisfactory, a competent knowledge of French. competitively adv.

compe-tition (kom-pe-tish-ön) n. 1. a friendly contest in which people try to do better than their rivals. 2. competing, competition for export markets. 3. those competing with oneself, we have strong foreign competition.

compe-tive (kom-pe-tiv) adj. of or involving competition, competitive sports; the competitive spirit, enjoying competition; a competitive examination, one in which people compete for a prize; at competitive prices, at prices that compare favorably with those of rivals. competitively adv. competitiveness n.

compe-ti-tor (kom-pe-ti-tör) n. one who competes.

compile (kom-pıl) v. (compiled, compiling) 1. to collect and arrange (information) into a list or book. 2. to make up (a book etc.) in this way, compile a dictionary. compilation (kom-pi-lar-en) n. compilation (kom-pi-lar-shôn) n.

complaint (kom-play-senh) adj. self-satisfied. complacently adv. complacency n.

complain (kom-playn) v. 1. to say that one is dissatisfied, to protest that something is wrong. 2. to state that one is suffering from a pain etc. complainer n. complaintant n.

complaint (kom-playnat) n. 1. a statement saying that one is dissatisfied, a protest. 2. a cause of dissatisfaction, a list of complaints. 3. an illness.

complaintant (kom-play-sant) adj. willing to do what pleases others. complaintance n. Do not confuse complacent with compliant.

complement (kom-plen-menta-ry) adj. completing, forming a complement. complementary colors, two colors of light that when mixed have the appearance of white or gray (as blue and yellow). Do not confuse complementary with complimentary.

completely (kom-ple-tly) adj. 1. having all its parts, not lacking anything. 2. finished, the work is now complete. 3. thorough, in every way, a complete stranger.

complete (kom-plat-ed, completing) 1. to add what is lacking to (a thing) and make it complete. 2. to finish (a piece of work etc.). 3. to add what is required, complete the questionnaire. completely adv. completeness n.

complete (kom-pleet) n. completing, being completed.

complex (kom-plex) adj. 1. made up of parts. 2. complicated. complex (complexes) n. 1. a complex whole. 2. a connected group of feelings or ideas that influence a person's behavior or mental attitude, a persecution complex. 3. a set of buildings. complex sentence, a sentence containing at least one subordinate clause.

complexe (kom-pleks) n. 1. the color, texture, and appearance of the skin of the face. 2. the general character or nature of things; that puts a different complexion on the matter, makes it seem different. complexeened adj.

compliance (kom-plan-ans) n. 1. action in accordance with a request, a command, etc. 2. a tendency to submit easily. In compliance with, according to (a regulation, request, etc.). compliancy n.

compliant (kom-plan-tant) adj. complying, obedient. compliantly adv.

complacency (kom-plat-ed, complacency) to make complex or complicated.

complex combination of things. 3. something that complicates or adds difficulties. 4. an illness or condition that arises during the course of another and makes it worse.
com·plicated (kóm-plis-tee) adj. partnership or involvement in wrongdoing.

compliant (kom-pli-ment) n. 1. an expression of praise or admiration either in words or by action. 2. compliments, formal greetings conveyed in a message. compliment (kom-pli-ment) v. to pay a compliment to, to congratulate. ▷ Do not confuse compli·ment with com·plement.

compli·men·ta·ry (kom-pli-men-tā-ree) adj. 1. expressing a compliment. 2. given free of charge. ▷ Do not confuse complimentary with complementary.

comply (kóm-plī) v. (complied, com·ply·ing) to do as one is asked or ordered; comply with the rules, obey them.

com·po·ment (kóm-poh·ment) n. one of the parts of which a thing is composed.

component adj. being a component.

com·di·ment (kóm-poh·ment) n. behavior, manner of bearing.

com·pose (kóm-pohz) v. (composed, com·pos·ing) 1. to form, to make up, the group was composed of twenty students. 2. to create in music or literature. 3. to arrange into good order. 4. to make calm, to compose oneself.

com·posed (kóm-pohzd) adj. calm, with one's feelings under control. com·pos·ed·ly (kóm-poh·zed·lee) adv.

com·poser (kóm-poh·zēr) n. a person who composes music etc.

com·pos·ite (kóm-poz·it) adj. made up of parts, composite photograph; composite material. composite n. 1. a composite thing. 2. a plant of which the apparently single flower consists of many flowers (as daisy, dandelion, etc.).

com·po·si·tion (kóm·po·zish·ōn) n. 1. putting together into a whole, composing. 2. something composed, a piece of music or writing, a short essay written as a school exercise. 3. the parts of which something is made up, the composition of the soil. 4. the arrangement of parts of a picture. 5. a compound artificial substance.

com·pos·i·tor (kóm-poz·i-tōr) n. a person who sets up type for printing.

com·pos·men·tis (kom-pōz·men·tis) in one's right mind, sane. ▷ Latin.

com·post (kom-pohst) n. 1. a mixture of decaying substances used as a fertilizer. 2. a mixture usually of soil and other ingredients for growing seedlings, cuttings, etc. compost v. to treat with compost, to make into compost.

com·po·sure (kóm-poh·zhūr) n. calmness of mind or manner.

com·pote (kom-poh·tē) n. fruit stewed with sugar.

com·pound (kom·pownd) adj. made up of several parts or ingredients. com·pound n. a compound thing or substance. com·pound (kóm-pownd) v. 1. to put together to form a whole, to combine. 2. to add to or increase. 3. to pay (interest) on interest as well as on principal. 4. to refrain from revealing (a crime), compromising a felony. □ com·pound·complex sentence, a sentence having two or more independent and one or more subordinate clauses. com·pound fracture, one in which the fractured bone has pierced the skin. com·pound interest, interest paid on the original capital and on the interest that has been added to it. com·pound sentence, a sentence having two or more independent clauses.

com·pound2 (kom-pownd) n. a fenced-in enclosure, (in India, China, etc.) an enclosure in which a house or factory stands, the Kennedy compound.

com·pre·hen·si·ble (kom·pri·hen·sī·bēl) adj. able to be understood. com·pre·hen·si·bly adv. com·pre·hen·si·ble·ly adv. (kom-pri·hen·si·bēl·i·tee) adj. and compound.

com·pre·hen·si·ble·ly adv. com·pre·hen·si·ble·ly adv. com·pre·hen·si·ble·ly adv. (kom-pri·hen·si·bēl·i·tee) adj. and compound.

com·pre·hen·si·ble·ly adv. com·pre·hen·si·ble·ly adv. com·pre·hen·si·ble·ly adv. (kom-pri·hen·si·bēl·i·tee) adj. and compound.

com·press (kóm-pres) v. to squeeze together, to force into less space. com·press (kom-pres) n. a pad or cloth pressed on the body to stop bleeding or to cool inflammation etc. com·press·ed’ adj. com·press·ion (kóm-pres·ē·on) n. com·press·or n. □ com·press·ed air, air that undergoes compression, so that it exerts greater pressure than the surrounding atmosphere.

com·pres·si·ble (kóm-pres·si·bēl) adj. able to be compressed.

com·pris·e (kóm-priz) v. (com·prised, com·pris·ing) 1. to include. 2. to consist of, the apartment comprises three rooms. 3. to form, to make up. (▷ The words constitute or compound are preferable in this sense. It is incorrect to say or write the apartment is comprised of three rooms.)

com·pro·mise (kom-pro·mīz) n. 1. making a settlement by each side giving up part of its demands. 2. a settlement made in this way. 3. something that is halfway between opposite opinions or courses of action etc. com·pro·mise v. (com·pro·mis·ed, com·pro·mis·ing) 1. to settle a dispute by a compromise. 2. to expose to danger or suspicion or scandal, etc. by unwise action, a compromising situation.

comptroller (kōn-trohl-ler) = controller.

compulsion (kōm-pul-shōn) n. 1. compelling, being compelled. 2. an irresistible urge.

compulsive (kōm-pul-siv) adj. 1. compelling. 2. acting as if from compulsion, a compulsive gambler. compulsively (kōm-pul-siv-ly) adv.

computation (kōm-pyoo-shon) n. 1. the act of calculating, a computer; a computer system. 2. an electronic machine for making calculations, storing and analyzing information fed into it, and controlling machinery automatically.

computationize (kōm-pyoo-tay-shdn) (kōm-pyoo-tay-shdn) v. (kōm-pyoo-tay-shdn, kōm-pyoo-tay-shdn-ing) 1. to equip with a computer or computers. 2. to produce or perform by means of a computer. computationizing (kōm-pyoo-tay-shdn-ing) adj. computationized (kōm-pyoo-tay-shdn-ed) adv.

computer (kōm-pyoo-ter) n. 1. an electronic digital computer. 2. a machine that can perform complex calculations automatically.

concede (kōn-seed) v. (conceded, conceding) 1. to admit that something is true. 2. to grant, to allow, to yield, they conceded us the right to cross their land. 3. to admit defeat in (a contest), especially before the official end, our opponents conceded.

conceit (kōn-seet) n. too much pride in oneself.

conceit-ed (kōn-seetid) adj. being too proud of oneself.

conceivable (kōn-seev-ə-bel) adj. able to be imagined or believed. conceivably (kōn-seev-əbly) adv.

conceive (kōn-seev) v. (conceived, conceiving) 1. to become pregnant. 2. to form (an idea, plan, etc.) in the mind, to think.

concentrate (kōn-sen-trat) v. (concentrated, concentrating) 1. to employ all one's thought or attention or effort on something. 2. to bring or come together to one place. 3. to make less dilute. concentrate a concentrated substance or solution. concentration (kōn-sen-tray-shn) n. concentration camp, a place where political prisoners are brought together and confined.

concentrated (kōn-sen-tray-tid) adj. 1. of a solution etc. having a large proportion of effective elements, not diluted. 2. intense, concentrated hatred.

concentric (kōn-sen-trik) adj. having the same center, concentric circles.

concept (kōn-sept) n. an idea, a general notion, the concept of freedom. conceptual (kōn-sep-shn-al) adj.

conceptual (kōn-sep-shn-al) adj. conceptualized (kōn-sep-shn-ed) adj.

conceptualize (kōn-sep-shn-liz) v. (conceptualizing, conceptualized) to form an idea of.

conceptualization (kōn-sep-shn-liz-a-shn) n. a conceptualization of ideas, facts, etc. conceptualization of a concept of an idea or a concept.

concen-trate (kōn-seen-trate) v. to concentrate, to focus, to give one's attention to, to concern oneself with, to worry about, to be anxious about.

concert (kōn-sert) n. 1. a musical entertainment. 2. agreement, cooperation.

concert (kōn-sert) v. to arrange by mutual agreement or coordination. at concert pitch, in a state of unusually great efficiency or intensity. in concert, in combination, together.

concert-ed (kon-sur-tid) adj. arranged by mutual agreement, done in cooperation.

concert-ti-na (kon-sër-tee-nä) n. a portable musical instrument with hexagonal ends and bellows, played by pressing keys at each end.

concert-ize (kon-sër-itz) v. (con-certized, con-cert-iz-ing) to perform in concerts.

concert-mas-ter (kon-sërt-mas-tër) n. the leading first violinist of a symphony orchestra.

concert-to (kon-chér-toh) n. (pl. -tos) a musical composition for one or more solo instruments and an orchestra.

concert-ion (kon-sësh-ôn) n. 1. conceding. 2. something conceded. 3. a right given by the owners of land to extract minerals etc. from it or to sell goods there, an oil concession; a food concession.

concert-sion (kon-sësh-ôn) n. one who holds a concession. n.

conch (konch) n. the spiral shell of a kind of shellfish, sometimes used as a horn.

conclave (kon-syllah) n. the doorkeeper and janitor of a building, especially in France.

conclude (kon-syll) v. (concuncl-i-at-ed, con-clu-cl-i-ating) 1. to overcome the anger or hostility of, to win the goodwill of. 2. to reconcile (people who disagree). conclu-clu-a-tion (kon-syll-i-ay-shôn) n. conclu-clu-a-tor n.

conclu-clu-a-tory (kon-syll-i-á-thohr-re) adj.

conclude (kon-syll) adj. brief, giving much information in few words. conclu-clu-ly adv. conclu-clu-ness n.

conclave (kon-klay) n. a private meeting for discussing something, in conclave.

conclude (kon-kloyd) v. (concuncl-i-ed, con-clu-clu-ing) 1. to bring or come to an end. 2. to arrange, to settle finally, they concluded a treaty. 3. to arrive at a belief or opinion by reasoning, we concluded that they were correct.

conclusion (kon-kloyd-zhôn) n. 1. ending, an end, at the conclusion of his speech. 2. arrangement, settling, conclusion of the treaty. 3. a belief or opinion based on reasoning. in conclusion, lastly, to conclude.

conclusive (kon-kloyd-siv) adj. ending doubt, completely convincing, conclusive evidence of his guilt. conclu-convic-tive-ly adv. conclu-convic-tive-ness n.

coct (kon-kókt) v. 1. to prepare by putting ingredients together. 2. to invent, condemned an excuse. con-coc-tion (kön-kok-shôn) n.

condemned (kön-kom-i-tant) adj. accompanying. concomitant n. an accompanying thing.

condemn (kön-kord) n. agreement or harmony between people or things.

condemn (kön-körd) the capital of New Hampshire.

condemn (kon-kord-ânce) (kon-kord-dâns) n. 1. an index of the important words used in a book or an author’s writings, a concordance to the Bible. 2. harmony, agreement.

condemn (kon-kord-dât) adj. harmonious, in concord (with).

condemn (kon-kor-don) n. an official agreement.

condemn (kön-kord) grape a large purplish grape of the eastern U.S.

condemn (kon-kor-don) adj. 1. existing in material form, able to be touched and felt. 2. definite, positive, concrete evidence. concrete n. (concuncl-i-ed, concuncl-i-ing) 1. to cover with or embed in concrete. 2. to form into a solid mass, to solidify. concrete n. a city considered as a place where people have to struggle for survival. concrete-ly adv. concrete-ness n.

concrete (kon-kree-shôn) n. a hard solid mass.

concise (kon-koll-bine) (kon-kys-bë-bin) n. 1. a secondary wife in countries where polygamy is customary. 2. a woman cohabitating with a man who is not her husband.

concise (kon-koll-bine) n. intense sexual desire. concis-cent adj.

concise (kon-kur) v. (concuncl-i-ered, concuncl-i-ring) 1. to agree in opinion. 2. to happen together, to coincide.

concise (kon-kur-êns) n. 1. agreement, concurrence of opinion. 2. simultaneous occurrence of events.

concise (kon-kur-ënt) adj. existing or occurring at the same time. concis-cent adj.

conclude (kon-kus) v. 1. to subject to conclusion. 2. to shake violently.

conclude (kon-kush-ôn) n. injury to the brain caused by a hard blow.

conclude (kon-kom) v. 1. to expressly disapprove of. 2. to pronounce guilty, to convict. 3. to sentence, was condemned to death. 4. to destine to an unhappy fate. 5. to declare unfit for use or uninhabitable, condemned houses. condemnation (kon-dem-nä-shon) n. condemn (kon-dem) v.

condensate (kon-dën-sát) n. a product of condensation.

condense (kon-denz) v. (con-densed, con-dens-ing) 1. to make denser or more concentrated. 2. to change or be changed from gas or vapor into liquid. 3. to express in fewer words, a condensed report on the meeting. condensation (kon-den-sä-shon) n. condensate (kon-dën-sät) n. a product of condensation.

condense (kon-denz) v. (con-densed, con-dens-ing) 1. to make denser or more concentrated. 2. to change or be changed from gas or vapor into liquid. 3. to express in fewer words, a condensed report on the meeting. condensation (kon-den-sä-shon) n.

condistion (kon-di'shən) n. 1. the state in which a person or thing is with regard to characteristics and circumstances. 2. a state of physical fitness or (of things) fitness for use, get into condition; out of condition, not fully fit. 3. an abnormality, she has a heart condition. 4. something required as part of an agreement. 5. conditions, the facts or situations or surroundings that affect something, working conditions are good. condition (kon-dən) v. 1. to bring into a desired condition, to make physically fit, to put into a proper state for work or use. 2. to have a strong effect on. 3. to train, to accustomed. condition (kon-di'ʃən) n. conditioned reflex or response, a reaction produced by training, not a natural one. on condition that, on the understanding that (a thing will be done).

conditional (kon-di'ʃəl) adj. not absolute, containing a condition or stipulation, a conditional agreement. condition (kon-did'ʃən) n.

condo (kon-do) n. (pl. -dos) (informal) a condominium (definitions 1 and 2).

condole (kon-dōl) v. (con-dōled, con-dōl-ing) to express sympathy. condolence n.

condominium (kon-do-mini-əm) n. (pl. -ums) 1. a building in which apartments are individually owned. 2. one of these apartments. 3. joint control of a territory by two or more nations. 4. a territory so controlled.

condone (kon-dōn) v. (con-done, con-done'ing) to forgive or overlook (wrongdoing) without punishment. condonation (kon-dōn-a-shon) n.

condor (kon-dōr) n. either of two large vultures, one of South America and the other of western North America (the California condor).

conduce (kon-doos) v. (con-ducked, con-ducing) to help to cause or produce.

conduce (kon-doos) v. (con-ducked, con-ducing) to help to cause or produce.

conduct (kon-dukt) v. 1. to lead or guide; conducted tour, one escorted by a guide. 2. to be the conductor of (a choir or orchestra or music). 3. to manage or direct (business or negotiations etc., or an experiment). 4. to have the property of allowing heat, light, sound, or electricity to pass along or through. conduct (kon-dukt) n. 1. a person's behavior. 2. managing or directing affairs; the conduct of the war, the way it is being conducted. conduct oneself, to behave.

conductance (kon-dukt-əns) n. the conducting power of a substance.

conductance (kon-dukt-əns) n. the conducting power of a substance.

conduct (kon-dukt) v. 1. to lead or guide; conducted tour, one escorted by a guide. 2. to be the conductor of (a choir or orchestra or music). 3. to manage or direct (business or negotiations etc., or an experiment). 4. to have the property of allowing heat, light, sound, or electricity to pass along or through. conduct (kon-dukt) n. 1. a person's behavior. 2. managing or directing affairs; the conduct of the war, the way it is being conducted. conduct oneself, to behave.

conductance (kon-dukt-əns) n. the conducting power of a substance.

cone (kon) n. 1. a solid body that narrows to a point from a round flat base. 2. something shaped like this. 3. the dry fruit of certain evergreen trees, consisting of woody scales arranged in a shape suggesting a cone. 4. an ice cream cone.

cone-head (kon-hed) n. (slang) an intellectual. cone (kon) n. 1. a solid body that narrows to a point from a round flat base. 2. something shaped like this. 3. the dry fruit of certain evergreen trees, consisting of woody scales arranged in a shape suggesting a cone. 4. an ice cream cone.

cone (kon) n. 1. a solid body that narrows to a point from a round flat base. 2. something shaped like this. 3. the dry fruit of certain evergreen trees, consisting of woody scales arranged in a shape suggesting a cone. 4. an ice cream cone.

cone (kon) n. 1. a solid body that narrows to a point from a round flat base. 2. something shaped like this. 3. the dry fruit of certain evergreen trees, consisting of woody scales arranged in a shape suggesting a cone. 4. an ice cream cone.

conf. abbr. conference.

confab (kon-fab) n. (informal) an impromptu or informal conference.

concept (kon-sept) n. something made of various things, especially sweet ones, put together. 2. candy. concept (kon-sept) n. something made of various things, especially sweet ones, put together. 2. candy.
confectioner / confirmatory maker or retailer of confectionery.

confection-er-y (kôn-fek-shô-ner-e) n. (pl. -er-ies) 1. candies. 2. a confectioner's store.

con-fed-er-a-cy (kôn-fed-ér-e-see) n. (pl. -cies) 1. a union of people or states. 2. the Confederacy, the Confederate States of America, the league of southern states that seceded from the U.S. in 1860–1.

con-fed-er-at-ed (kôn-fed-ér-rit) adj. allied, joined by agreement or treaty. confederate n. 1. a member of a confederacy. 2. an ally, an accomplice. 3. the Confederate States of America, see confederacy.

con-fed-er-at-ed (kôn-fed-ér-ray-tid) adj. united by agreement or treaty.

con-fed-er-a-tion (kôn-fed-ér-ray-shôn) n. 1. joining in an alliance. 2. a confederated group of people or organizations or nations or states.

con-fer (kôn-fûr) v. (con-ferred, confer-ring) 1. to grant, to bestow. 2. to hold a conference or discussion.

con-fer-ee (kôn-fû-ree) 1. a person at a conference. 2. a recipient of (a grant etc.).

con-fer-ence (kôn-fû-rëns) n. a meeting for discussion.

con-fer-ment (kôn-fûr-mënt) n. granting, bestowing.

con-fer-ra-ble (kôn-fûr-râ-bel) adj. able to be conferred.

con-fess (kôn-fês) v. 1. to state formally that one has done wrong or has a weakness. 2. to state one's attitude or reaction reluctantly, I must confess that I am puzzled. 3. to declare one's sins formally, especially to a priest. 4. (of a priest) to hear the confession of.

con-fess-ed-ly (kôn-fês-id-lee) adv. according to a person's own confession.

con-fes-sion (kôn-fês-iôn) n. 1. confessing. 2. a thing confessed, a statement of one's wrongdoing. 3. a declaration of one's religious beliefs or one's principles, a confession of faith.

con-fes-sion-al (kôn-fês-iôn-ál) n. an enclosed stall in a church, where a priest sits to hear confessions. confessional adj. of confession.

con-fes-sor (kôn-fês-ór) n. 1. a priest who hears confessions and gives spiritual counsel. 2. a person who keeps to the Christian faith in the face of danger, King Edward the Confessor.

con-fed-tl (kôn-fed-ee) n. bits of colored paper for throwing, as by wedding guests at the bride and bridegroom.

con-fi-dant (kon-fi-dant, kon-fi-dant) n. a person in whom one confides. 1. Do not confuse confidential with confidant.

con-fi-fl-dant (kon-fi-dant, kon-fi-dant) n. a female confidant.

con-fl-ded (kôn-fûd-ed, con-fi-ding) 1. to tell confidentially; confided in his friend, told him things confidentially. 2. to entrust.

con-fl-dence (kôn-fi-dens) n. 1. firm trust. 2. a feeling of certainty, self-reliance, boldness, he lacks confidence. 3. something told confidentially, he has listened to many confidences.

con-fl-dence man, one who defrauds people by means of a confidence game, a dishonest scheme, such as one in which a victim is persuaded to entrust his valuables to the confidence man, who gives a false impression of honesty. In confidence, as a secret. In a person's confidence, trusted with his secrets.

con-fi-dent (kon-fi-dent) adj. feeling confidence, bold. con-fi-den-tly adv. Do not confuse confident with confidant.

con-fi-den-tial (kon-fi-den-shal) adj. 1. spoken or written in confidence, to be kept secret. 2. entrusted with secrets, a confidential secretary. 3. confiding, he spoke in a confidential tone.

con-fi-den-tial-ly adv. con-fi-den-tial-ty (kon-fi-den-shal-tee) n.

con-fi-g-u-ra-tion (kôn-fi-gû-ray-shôn) n. a method of arrangement, a shape or outline.

con-fin (kôn-fûn) v. (con-fined, con-fin-ing) 1. to keep or restrict within certain limits. 2. to keep shut up, the prisoner is confined to his cell; confined to bed, in bed because of illness.

con-fined (kôn-fûnd) adj. narrow, restricted, a confined space.

con-fin-ment (kôn-fûn-mënt) n. 1. confining, being confined. 2. the time during which a woman is giving birth to a baby.

con-fin-es (kon-finiz) n. pl. the limits or boundaries of an area.

con-firm (kôn-fûrm) v. 1. to provide supporting evidence for the truth or correctness of, to prove. 2. to establish more firmly, it confirmed his dislike of animals. 3. to make definite or valid formally, reservations made by telephone must be confirmed in writing. 4. to administer the rite of confirmation to.

con-fir-ma-tion (kon-fûr-may-shôn) n. 1. confirming. 2. something that confirms. 3. a religious rite confirming a baptized person as a member of a Christian church. 4. a ceremony initiating a Jewish boy or girl into the Jewish faith.

con-fir-ma-to-ry (kôn-fûr-mä-tohr-ee) adj. confirming, we found confirmatory evidence. congratulatory / connector

(con·grat·u·lat·ed, con·grat·u·lat·ing) to praise and tell (a person) that one is pleased about his achievement or good fortune; congratulating ourselves on our escape, thinking ourselves fortunate, taking pleasure in it. con·grat·u·la·tion (kön-grach-ü-lay-shön) n.

con·grat·u·la·to·ry (kön-grach-ü-lä-toh-ry) adj. expressing congratulations.

con·gre·gate (kong-grē-gayt) v. (con·gre·gat·ed, con·gre·gat·ing) to flock together into a crowd. con·gre·ga·tion (kong-grē-gay-shön) n. a group of people gathered together to take part in religious worship. con·gre·ga·tion·al adj.

con·gre·ga·tion·al·ism (kong-grē-gay-shō-nal-izm) n. a Protestant denomination in which each congregation governs itself.

con·gress (kong-gris) n. 1. a formal meeting of representatives, for discussion. 2. Congress, the lawmaking body of a country, especially of the U.S. con·gres·sion·al (kön-gresh-ün-nal) adj.

con·gre·man (kong-gris·män) n. (pl. -men, pr. -män) a member of the U.S. House of Representatives.

con·gra·ence (kong-grē-ens) n. agreement, consistency. con·gru·en·cy n.

con·gru·ent adj.

con·gran·uous adj.

con·gru·ous (kong-grō-ūs) adj. 1. agreeing, conformable. 2. fitting. con·gru·i·ty (kön-grō-i-tee) n.

con·ic (kon-īk) adj. of a cone. con·ic section, a figure formed by intersection of a cone and a plane.

con·i·cal (kon-i-käl) adj. cone-shaped. con·i·cal·ly adv.

con·i·fer (kon-i-fer) n. a coniferous tree.

con·i·fer·ous (kōn-i-fē-rōs) adj. bearing cones.

con·j. abbr. 1. conjugation. 2. conjunction.

con·jec·tur·al (kön-jek-tū-ral) adj. based on conjecture.

con·jec·ture (kön-jek-choor) v. (con·jec·tures, con·jec·tur·ed, con·jec·tur·ing) to guess. conjecture n. a guess.

con·join (kōn·join) v. to join, to combine.

con·join·t adj.

con·ju·gal (kōn·ju-gāl) adj. of marriage, of the relationship between husband and wife. con·ju·gal love, a sexual relationship within marriage.

con·ju·gate (kōn·ju-gāt) v. (con·ju·gat·ed, con·ju·gat·ing) to give the different forms of (a verb), as get, gets. con·ju·gate (kon-jū-gat) adj. joined together, coupled. con·ju·ga·tion (kon·ju-gā-shōn) n.

con·junct (kōn·jungkt) adj. joined together, combined.

con·junc·tion (kōn·jungk-shōn) n. 1. a word that joins words or phrases or sentences, as and, but. 2. combination, union, the four countries acted in conjunction. 3. the occurrence of events etc. at the same time. 4. the apparent nearness of two or more heavenly bodies to each other, these planets are in conjunction.

con·junc·tive (kōn·jungk-tiv) adj. 1. serving to join. 2. (in grammar) of the nature of a conjunction.

con·jure (kōn·jur) v. (con·jured, con·jur·ing) 1. to perform tricks that appear to be magical, especially by movements of the hands, conjuring tricks. 2. to summon (a spirit) to appear. 3. to produce as if from nothing, managed to conjure up a meal. 4. to produce in the mind, mention of the Arctic conjures up visions of snow and ice. con·ju·ra·tion (kon·jū-ray-shōn) n. a name to conjure with, a name of great importance. con·jur·ing man, con·jur·man (in southern U.S. and West Indies) one who practices witchcraft.

con·jur·er, con·jur·or (kōn·ju-rār) n. a person who performs conjuring tricks.

conk (kongk) v. (slang) to hit on the head.

con·k out, (slang) (of a machine) to break down, to fail; (of a person) to become exhausted and give up, to faint, to die.

Conn. abbr. Connecticut.

con·nect (kō·nekt) v. 1. to join or be joined. 2. (of a train etc.) to be timed to arrive so that passengers from one train etc. can catch another in which to continue their journey. 3. to be united in a relationship, the families are connected by marriage. 4. to think of (things or persons) as being associated with each other.

con·nect·i·cut (kō·net·i·kūt) a state of the U.S.

con· nec·tion (kō·nek·shōn) n. 1. connecting, being connected. 2. a place where things connect, a connecting part. 3. a train etc. timed to connect with another, transfer between such trains. 4. a person connected by family or marriage. 5. (slang) a drug dealer. 6. connections, influential friends or associates, political connections, legal connections, etc.

con· nec·tive (kō·nek·tiv) adj. connecting, connective tissue. con·nective n. (in grammar) a conjunction.

con·nect·or (kō·nek·tər) n. a thing that connects others.
conning (kon-ing) tower a raised structure on a submarine containing the periscope.

con nip tion (kō-nip-shōn) n. (informal) a tantrum.

con-nive (kō-nív) v. (con-nived, con-niv-ling) to conspire. □ connive at, to take no notice of (wrongdoing), thus seeming to consent to it. con-niv'er n. con-niv'ance n.

con-nois'seur (kon-ō-sur) n. a person with expert understanding of artistic and similar subjects.

con-no-ta'tion (kon-ō-tay-shōn) n. the implied meaning of an expression in addition to its primary meaning. □ Do not confuse connotation with denotation.

con-no-ta'tive (kon-ō-tay-tiv) adj. connoting, suggesting.

con-note (kō-noh-t) v. (con-not-ed, con-not-ing) to imply in addition to the literal meaning.

con-nu'bi-al (kō-noo-bi-il) adj. of marriage, of the relationship between husband and wife.

con-quer (kong-kér) v. 1. to overcome in war, to win. 2. to overcome by effort; they have conquered Everest, climbed it successfully. con'quer'or n.

con-quest (kon-kwest) n. 1. conquering; the Norman Conquest, conquest of England by the Normans in 1066. 2. something got by conquering.

con-quis-ta'dor (kon-kwis-tā-dor) n. a conqueror, especially one of the Spanish conquerors of Mexico and Peru in the 16th century.

Con-rail (kon-rayl) n. (also ConRail) a system of railroads established under government guidelines in 1976. □ From Con(solidated) Rail (Corporation).

cons. abbr. 1. consolidated. 2. consonant.

con-san'guin-i-ty (kon-san-juin-ī-tee) n. (pl. -ties) relationship by descent from the same ancestor. con-san'guin-e'ous (kon-sang-juin-ī-ūs) adj.

con-science (kon-shēn) n. 1. a person's sense of what is right and wrong, especially in his own actions or motives. 2. a feeling of remorse, I have no conscience about leaving them. □ conscience money, money paid by a person who feels conscience-stricken, especially about having evaded payment previously. on one's conscience, causing one to feel guilty or remorseful.

con-science-strick'en (kon-shēn-strik-ěn) adj. filled with remorse.

con-scientious (kon-shi-en-shūs) adj. showing or done with careful attention. con-scienti'ously adv. con-scienti'ous ness n. □ conscientious objector, one who refuses to serve in the armed forces in a war because he believes the war is morally wrong.

con-scientious (kon-shi-ent-shūs) adj. 1. with one's mental faculties awake, aware of one's surroundings. 2. aware, he was conscious of his guilt. 3. realized by oneself, intentional, spoke with conscious superiority; a conscious insult. con'scientious·ly adv.

con-scientious·ness n.

con-script (kōn-skrip-t) v. to summon for compulsory military service. conscirpt (kon-skrip-t) n. a conscripted recruit.

con-scrip·tion (kon-skrip-shōn) n.

con-se·crate (kon-sē-kra't) v. (con-se·crat-ed, con-se·crat-ing) to make or declare sacred, to dedicate formally to the service or worship of God.

con-se·cra'tion (kon-sē-kra'shon) n.

con·sec·u·tive (kon-se-kwə-tiv) adj. following continuously, in unbroken order. con·sec'u·tive·ly adv.

con-sen·sus (kon-sen-sus) n. (pl. -sus'es) general agreement in opinion. □ It is incorrect to say or write consensus of opinion.

con·sent (kon-sent) v. to say that one is willing to do or allow what someone wishes. consent n. agreement to what someone wishes, permission. □ age of consent, the age at which a girl's consent to sexual intercourse is valid in law.

con·se·quence (kon-sē-kwən-s) n. 1. a result produced by some action or condition. 2. importance, a person of consequence; the matter is of no consequence, it is not important. □ in consequence, as a result. suffer or take the consequences, to accept whatever results from one's choice or action.

con·se·quent (kon-sē-ku'ent) adj. following as a result.

con·se·quent·ial (kon-sē-kwen-tshəl) adj. following as a result. con·se·quent·ial·ly adv.

con·se·quent·ly (kon-sē-kwen-tly) adv. as a result, therefore.

con·ser·va·cy (kon-sér-və-see) n. (pl. -cies) 1. a committee or organization concerned with preservation of historical or natural resources, a nature conservancy. 2. official conservation (of forests etc.).

con·ser·va·tion (kon-sër-və-shən) n. 1. conserving, being conserved. 2. preservation, especially of the natural environment.

con·ser·va·tion·ist (kon-sër-və-shə-nist) n. a person who supports preservation of the natural environment.

con·ser·va·tism (kon-sër-və-tiz-əm) n. a conservative attitude, conservative principles (general or political).

con·ser·va·tive (kon-sër-və-tiv) adj. 1.
182
disliking or opposed to great or sudden change. 2. moderate, avoiding extremes; a conservative estimate, a low one. conservative n. 1. a conservative person. 2. Conservative, a member of the U.S. or British Conservative Party, favoring private enterprise and freedom from government control. conservative adj. {pl. -ries} 1. a greenhouse, especially one built against an outside wall of a house that has an opening into it. 2. a school for training musicians and composers. conservative v. to keep from harm, decay, or loss, for future use. conserves (k6n-surv, k6n-surv) n. (often conserves) jam, especially that made from fresh fruit and sugar. consid-er (k6n-sid-er) v. 1. to think about, especially in order to make a decision, to weigh the merits of; it is my considered opinion, arrived at after some thought. 2. to make allowances for, consider people’s feelings. 3. to think to be, to suppose, consider yourself lucky. considered adj. all things considered, taking all the events or possibilities into account. cons-id-er-a-ble (k6n-sid-ér-a-b'l) adj. fairly great in amount or extent etc., of considerable importance. considerably adv. consid-er-ate (k6n-sid-ér-ät) adj. taking care not to inconvenience or hurt others. considerate adj. consideration (k6n-sid-ér-a-shun) n. 1. careful thought. 2. being considerate, kindness. 3. a fact that must be kept in mind, time is now an important consideration. 4. payment given as a reward, he will do it for a consideration. In consideration of, in return for, on account of. on no consideration, no matter what the circumstances may be. take into consideration, to allow for. under consideration, being considered. considering (k6n-sid-ér-on-ing) prep. taking into consideration, she’s very active, considering her age; you’ve done very well, considering; if we take the circumstances into consideration. consign (k6n-sin) v. 1. to hand over or deliver formally. 2. to give into someone’s care. consignee (k6n-si-nē) n. a firm or person to whom goods etc. are consigned. consigning (k6n-sin-ing) n. 1. consigning. 2. a batch of goods etc. consigned. consignor (k6n-si-nōr) n. a person or firm that consigns goods etc. to another. consist (k6n-sist) v. 1. consist of, to be made up of, the apartment consists of three rooms. 2. consist in, to have as its basis or essential feature, their happiness consists in hoping. consistency (k6n-sis-tē-see) n. (pl. -cies) 1. the degree of thickness, firmness, or solidity especially of a liquid or soft mixture, mix it to the consistency of heavy cream. 2. being consistent. consistent adj. 1. conforming to a regular pattern or style, unchanging, they have no consistent policy. 2. not contradictory, these reforms are consistent with their general policies. consistently adv. consistorial (k6n-sis-to-ri) n. (pl. -ries) an ecclesiastical assembly, especially of the cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church. consol. abbr. consolidated. consol-able (k6n-soh-lə-b'l) adj. able to be consoled. consolation (k6n-sō-lā-shun) n. consoling, being consoled. consolation prize, a prize given to a competitor who has just missed winning one of the main prizes. consol.*ed (k6n-sohl) v. (consol*ed, consol*ing) to comfort in time of sorrow or disappointment. consol*ation (k6n-soh-lā-shun) n. 1. a frame containing the keyboards and stops etc. of an organ. 2. a panel holding the controls of electrical or other equipment. 3. a cabinet containing a radio or television set, designed to stand on the floor. consoli-date (k6n-sōl-i-dayt) v. (consol*id-at*, consol*id-at-ing) 1. to make or become secure and strong, consolidating his position as leader. 2. to combine or become combined, to merge. consolidation (k6n-sōl-i-day-shun) n. consom*mé (k6n-soh-mē) n. a clear meat soup. conson*ance (k6n-soh-nans) n. agreement, harmony. cons*onant adj. consistent, harmonious, actions that are consonant with his beliefs. consort (konsort) n. a husband or wife, especially of a monarch. consort (konsort) v. to associate, to keep company, consorting with criminals. consort*um (konsort-shō-ōm) n. (pl. -tli-a, pr. -shī-a) a combination of countries or companies or other groups acting together. conspic*ous (konspik-yoo-ūs) adj. easily seen, attracting attention. con* spic'·u·ous·ly adv. con·spic·u·ous·ness n.

con·spir·a·cy (kon-spir·á·see) n. (pl. -cies) 1. conspiring. 2. a plan made by conspiring. □ CONSPIRACY OF SILENCE, an agreement to say nothing about a certain matter.

con·spir·a·tor (kon-spir·á·tor) n. a person who conspires. con·spir·a·to·ry (kon-spir·á·tór·i) adj. con·spir·a·to·ry·ly adv.

con·spire (kon-spir) v. (con·spired, con·spiring) 1. to plan secretly with others, especially for some unlawful purpose. 2. (of events) to seem to combine, events conspired to bring about his downfall.

con·sta·ble (kon-stá·bel) n. a policeman or policewoman in a small town.

con·stab·u·lar·y (kon-stá·bul·ár·é) n. (pl. -lar·ies) a police force.

con·stan·cy (kon-stán·see) n. 1. the quality of being constant and unchanging. 2. faithfulness.

con·stant (kon-stánt) adj. 1. happening or continuing all the time, happening repeatedly. 2. unchanging, faithful, remained constant to his principles. constant n. something that does not vary. con·stant·ly adv.

con·stel·la·tion (kon-sté·lay·shdn) n. a group of fixed stars.

con·ster·na·tion (kon-stér·ná·shdn) n. a great surprise and anxiety or dismay.

con·stit·ute (kon-sti·tú) v. (con·stit·ut·ed, con·stit·ut·ing) to cause constipation in.

con·sti·pa·tion (kon-sti·pá·shdn) n. difficulty in emptying the bowels.

con·sti·u·ency (kon-sti·chú·en·see) n. (pl. -cies) 1. a body of voters who elect a representative to a legislature or other elected body. 2. the district and its residents represented thus.

con·stit·u·ent (kon-sti·tú·en·t) adj. forming part of a whole, its constituent parts. constituent n. 1. a constituent part. 2. a member of a constituency.

con·sti·tute (kon-sti·tút) v. (con·sti·tut·ed, con·sti·tut·ing) 1. to make up, to form, twelve months constitute a year. 2. to appoint, they constituted him chief adviser. 3. to establish or be, this does not constitute a precedent.

con·sti·tu·tion (kon-sti·too·shdn) n. 1. constituting. 2. composition. 3. the set of principles according to which a country is organized; the Constitution, that of the U.S. 4. general condition and character, especially of a person's body, she has a strong constitution.

con·sti·tu·tion·al (kon-sti·too·shnal) adj. 1. of a country's constitution, established or permitted or limited by this, a constitutional crisis; constitutional government. 2. of or produced by a person's physical or mental constitution, a constitutional weakness. constitutional n. a walk taken for the sake of one's health. con·sti·tu·tion·al·ly adv. con·sti·tu·tion·al·i·ty (kon-sti·too·shnal·i·tee) n.

constr. abbr. construction.

con·stru·tions (kon-strú·shdn) v. to compel, to oblige.

con·stru·ant (kon-strú·ant) n. 1. constraining or being constrained, compulsion. 2. a strained manner caused by holding back one's natural feelings.

con·stric·tion (kon-strik·shdn) n. con·stric·tor n. con·stric·tive (kon-strík·tiv) adj.

con·struct (kon-strukt) v. to make by placing parts together, to build. con·struc·tor n.

con·struc·tion (kon-strúk·shdn) n. 1. constructing, being constructed. 2. something constructed. 3. two or more words put together to form a phrase or clause or sentence. 4. an interpretation, put a bad construction on their refusal. con·struc·tion·al adj. □ construction paper, heavy, usually colored, paper.

con·struc·tion·ist (kon-strúk·shné·ist) n. strict constructionist, a legal scholar who interprets the Constitution in the most narrowly limited sense.

con·struc·tive (kon-strúk·tiv) adj. offering helpful suggestions, they made constructive criticisms. con·struc·tive·ly adv.

con·strue (kon-strú) v. (con·strued, con·stru·ing) to interpret, to explain, her words were construed as a refusal.

con·sub·stan·ti·a·tion (kon-sub·stan·sht·shén·shdn) n. a Lutheran doctrine that the body and blood of Christ exist together with bread and wine in the Eucharist.

con·su·late (kon-sú·late) n. an official appointed to live in a foreign city in order to assist and protect his countrymen who live or visit there and to help commercial relations between the two countries. con·su·lar adj.

con·su·late (kon-sú·lit) n. 1. the official premises of a consul. 2. a consul's position.

con·sult (kon-sult) v. 1. to seek information or advice from; a consulting engineer, one who acts as a consultant. 2. to confer, they consulted with their fellow workers. consultancy (kon-sül-tay-shon) n.

consultant (kon-sül-tant) n. the position or practice of a consultant.

consultant (kon-sül-tant) n. a person qualified to give expert professional advice.

consumption (kon-sump-shon) n. 1. the spreading of disease by contact or close association. 2. a disease that is spread in this way.

contagious (kön-tay-jûs) adj. 1. able to be spread by contact or close association, a contagious disease. 2. capable of spreading disease in this way, all these children are now contagious.

containing (kon-tem-play-shon) n. 1. to contain, the atlas contains forty maps; whiskey contains alcohol. 2. to contain, to be equal to, a gallon contains eight pints. 3. to restrain, try to contain your laughter. 4. to keep within limits, enemy troops were contained in the valley.

contemporary (kon-tay-per-ee) adj. 1. the same age. 2. up to the same date. 3. to belong to the same period. 4. to belong to the same era. 5. to belong to the same time. 6. to be contemporary with.

contempt (kon-temp-t) n. 1. the process or feeling of despising something. 2. the condition of being despised; fell into contempt, became despised. 3. disrespect. 4. contempt of court, disobedience or disrespect toward a court of law or its processes.

contemptible (kön-temp-ti-bēl) adj. deserving contempt. con'tempt'ible adv. con'tempt'i-bly (kön-temp-ti-bil-i-ty) n.

contemptuous (kön-temp-choo-ūs) adj. feeling or showing contempt. con' temporary adv. con'tem' tuous-ly adv. con'tem' tuous-ness n.

con'tend (kön-tend) v. 1. to strive or fight or struggle, especially in competition or against difficulties. 2. to assert, to argue, the defendant contends that he is innocent. con'tend'er n.

con'tent (kön-tent) adj. contented, satisfied with what one has. content n. being contented, satisfaction. content v. to make content, to satisfy. con'tent' ment n. □ to one's heart's content, as much as one desires.

con'tent adj. (kön-tent) adj. contented, satisfied with what one has. con'tent ed adj. con'tent ed ly adv. con'tent ed ness n.

con'tention (kön-ten'shon) n. 1. contending, quarreling or arguing. 2. an assertion made in arguing.

con'tentious (kön-ten-shūs) adj. 1. quarrelsome. 2. likely to cause contention. con'ten'tious ly adv.

con'terminous (kön-tur-mi-nūs) adj. 1. a having a common boundary (with). 2. occurring in the same time or space, or having the same meaning, as something else. con'ter'mi no' us ly adv.

con'test (kon-test) n. 1. a struggle for superiority or victory. 2. a competition, a test of skill or ability etc. between rivals. con'test v. 1. to compete for or in; contest a seat at an election, run for election. 2. to dispute, to challenge; contest a statement, try to show that it is wrong; contest an election, challenge the results; contest a will, try to prove that it is not valid.

con'test' ant (kön-tes-tānt) n. one who takes part in a contest, a competitor.

con'text (kon-teks't) n. 1. the words that come before and after a particular word or phrase and help to fix its meaning. 2. the circumstances in which an event occurs, shortages were tolerated in the context of war. □ in context, with the surrounding words and therefore giving a correct impression of the meaning. out of context, without the surrounding words and therefore giving a false impression of the meaning.

con'tingent (kön-tin-juhnt) adj. adjoining, Vermont is contiguous to Canada. con'ting'en'ty (kon-tin-ju-ūn-tē) adv. con'ting'en'ty (kon-tin-ju-ūn-tē) adj. one of the main land masses of Earth (Europe, Asia, Africa, North and South America, Australia, Antarctica); the Continent, the mainland of Europe as distinct from the British Isles.

con'tinent (kon-ti-nent) adj. 1. able to control the excretion of one's urine and feces. 2. abstaining from sexual activity. con'ti'nence n.

con'tinent adj. (kon-ti-nent) 1. of a continent. 2. Continental, of the Continent. con'tinental (kon-ti-nen-tul) n. 1. a native or inhabitant of a continent, especially Europe. 2. Continental, a soldier of the Continental Army. 3. Continental, a piece of paper currency issued by the Continental Congress and individual states. □ Continental Army, the American revolutionary army. Continental breakfast, a light breakfast of coffee and rolls etc. Continental Congress, the two assemblies of envoys from the colonies (later states) that governed America from 1774 to 1789. continental divide, the dividing line between river systems that flow to opposite sides of a continent. continental shelf, a shallow slope around a continent, outside which the ocean bed descends deeply. con'tinental slope, the drop from the continental shelf to the ocean basin. not worth a Continental, not worth anything.

con'tingency (kon-tin-jen-se) n. (pl. -cless) 1. something unforeseen. 2. a possibility, something that may occur at a future date; contingency plans, plans made in case something happens.

con'tingent (kon-tin-jent) adj. 1. happening by chance. 2. possible, liable to occur but not certain. 3. depending on something that may or may not happen, an advantage that is contingent on the success of the expedition. contingent n. 1. a body of troops or ships etc. contributed to form part of a force. 2. a group of people forming part of a gathering. con'tin'gent ly adv.

con'tinguous (kon-tin-yoo-ūs) adj. continuing over a long time without stopping or with only short breaks. con'tin'u'al ly adv. □ Do not confuse continual with continuous.

con'tinue (kon-ti-nū) n. 1. continuing, starting again after ceasing. 2. a part etc. by which something con*·tin·ue (kön·tin-yoo) v. (con·tin·ued, con·tin·u·ing) 1. to keep up (an action etc.), to do something without ceasing, continue to eat; continue the struggle. 2. to remain in a certain place or condition, he will continue as manager. 3. to go farther, the road continues beyond the bridge. 4. to begin again after stopping, to be continued next week.

con·ti·nu·ous (kön·tin-yoo-ús) adj. continuing, without a break. con·tin·u·ous·ly adv. Do not confuse continuous with continual.

con·ti·nu·um (kön·tin-yoo-üm) n. (pl. -u·a, pr. -yoo-ä) something that extends continuously.

con·tor·tort (kön-tort) v. to force or twist out of its usual shape. con·tor·tion (kön-tor-shön) n.

con·tor·tion·ist (kön-tor-shö-nist) n. a performer who can twist his body into unusual postures.

con·tour (kon-toor) n. 1. an outline. 2. (also contour line) a line (on a map) joining the points that are the same height above sea level.

contr. abbr. 1. contract. 2. contraction. 3. contralto.

con·tra prefix against.

con·tra·band (kon-trä-band) n. 1. smuggled goods. 2. smuggling.

con·tra·cep·tion (kon-trä-sep-shön) n. the prevention of pregnancy.

con·tra·cep·tive (kon-trä-sep-tiv) adj. preventing conception. contraceptive n. a contraceptive drug or device.

con·tract (kon-trakt) n. 1. a formal agreement between people or groups or countries. 2. a document setting out the terms of such an agreement. contract (kon-trakt) v. 1. to make or become smaller or shorter. 2. to arrange or undertake by contract, they contracted to supply oil to the factory. 3. to catch (an illness), to form or acquire (a habit, a debt, etc.).

con·trac·tion (kon-trak-shon) n. con·trac·tor n. □ contract bridge, a form of bridge in which only tricks bid and won count toward the game. contract out, to assign (a job or task) by contract.

con·trac·tile (kön-trak-till) adj. capable of or producing contraction. con·trac·til·i·ty (kon-trak-till-i-tee) n.

con·trac·tu·al (kön-trakchoo-äl) adj. of a contract.

con·tra·dict (kon-trä-dikt) v. 1. to state that (what is said) is untrue or that (a person) is wrong. 2. to state the opposite of, to be contrary to, these rumors contradict previous ones. con·tra·dic·tion (kon-trä-dik-shön) n. con·tra·dic·to·ry (kon-trä-dik-tö-re) adj. □ a contradiction in terms, a statement that contradicts itself.

con·tra·dis·tinc·tion (kon-trä-di-stink-shön) n. distinction by contrast, crossing the Atlantic by air takes a few hours, in contradistinction to the journey by sea.

con·tral (kon-trayl) n. a trail of condensation left by an airplane or missile.

con·tra·in·di·cate (kon-trä-in-di-kayt) v. (con·tra·in-di·cat·ed, con·tra·in-di·cat·ing) (in medicine etc.) to act as an indication against (use of a particular treatment etc.). con·tra·in·di·ca·tion, (kon-trä-in-di-kay-shön) n.

con·tral·to (kon-tral·toh) n. (pl. -tos, -tl, pr. -tee) 1. the lowest female singing voice. 2. a singer with such a voice, a part written for it.

con·trap·tion (kon-trap-shön) n. (informal) an odd-looking gadget or machine.

con·tra·pun·tal (kon-trä-pun-tal) adj. of or in counterpoint.

con·tra·ri·wise (kon-trär-ee-wiz) adv. on the other hand, in the opposite way.

con·tra·ry (kon-trär-ee) adj. 1. opposite in nature, opposed, the result was contrary to expectation. 2. opposite in direction; delayed by contrary winds, by unfavorable ones. 3. (pr. kon-trair-ee) doing the opposite of what is expected or advised, willful. contrary n. (pl. -ries) the opposite. contrary adv. in opposition, against, acting contrary to instructions.

con·trar·i·ness n. □ on the contrary, in denial of what is just said and stating that the opposite is true. to the contrary, proving or indicating the opposite, there is no evidence to the contrary.

con·trast (kon-trast) n. 1. the act of contrasting. 2. a difference clearly seen when things are put together. 3. something showing such a difference. 4. the degree of difference between tones or colors. contrast (kon-trast) v. 1. to compare or oppose two things so as to show their differences. 2. to show a striking difference when compared.

con·tra·ven·ce (kon-trä-veen) v. (con·tra·ven·ed, con·tra·ven·ing) to act in opposition to, to conflict with, contravening the law. con·tra·ven·tion (kon-träven-shön) n.

con·tre·temps (kon-trä-tahn) n. an unfortunate happening.
contrib. abbr. 1. contribution. 2. contributor.

contrib.ulate (kön-trib-yoot) v. (contrib-ute, ed, contrib-ut-ing) 1. to give jointly with others, especially to a common fund. 2. to supply for publication in a newspaper or magazine or book. 3. to help to bring about, drink contributed to her ruin. contrib-utter n. contribution (kon-tri-byoo-shun) n.

control (kon-trul) n. 1. the power to give orders or to restrain something. 2. a means of restraining or regulating: the controls of a vehicle, the devices by which it is operated. 3. restraint, self-restraint. 4. a standard of comparison for checking the results of an experiment or industrial process. 5. a place where cars taking part in a road race must stop for inspection etc. 6. a personality said to direct the actions of a spiritualist medium. control v. (con-trolled, con-trol-ling) 1. to have control of, to regulate. 2. to restrain. □ control tower, an airport tower from which air traffic is directed by radar and radio. in control, controlling. out of control, no longer able to be controlled. under control, controlled, in proper order.

controlable (kön-troh-labal) adj. able to be controlled.

controler (kön-troh-lær) n. the person in charge of finance in a company or other institution.

trovernial (kön-trö-ver-shial) adj. causing controversy. trovernial-ly adv.

troversty (kön-trö-ver-see) n. (pl. -sies) a prolonged argument or dispute.

trovert (kön-trö-vurt) v. to deny the truth of, to contradict.

trovertible (kön-trö-vurt-i-bel) adj. able to be denied or disproved.

insubordinate, disobedient. contributory, controversial, contrile, contributive, contribut, contributed, contrib-agreement with conventions, to make conventional.

con•ven•tion•eer (kon-vên-shôn-er) n. a person who attends a convention.

con•verge (kon-vurj) v. (con•verged, con•verg•ing) to come to or toward the same point. con•ver'gence n. con•ver'gen•cy n. con•ver'gent adj.

con•ver•sant (kon-vur-sânt) adj. conversant with, having a knowledge of.

con•ver•sa•tion (kon-vër-sa-shôn) n. informal talk between people. con•ver•sa•tion•al adj. con•ver•sa•tion•al•ly adv. □con•ver•sation piece, an item of bric-a-brac that attracts attention.

con•ver•sa•tion•al•ist (kon-vër-sa-shôn-ist) n. a person who is good at conversation.

con•verse1 (kon-vurs) v. (con•versed, con•vers•ed, con•vers•ing) to hold a conversation.

con•verse2 (kon-vurs, kon-vurs) adj. opposite. converse (kon-vurs) n. an idea or statement that is the opposite of another. con•verse'ly adv.

con•vert (kon-vurt) v. 1. to change from one form or use or character to another. 2. to be able to be changed, the sofa converts into a bed. 3. to cause (a person) to change his attitude or beliefs, he was converted to Christianity. 4. to score a point or points after touchdown in football. convert (kon-vurt) n. a person who is converted, especially to a religious faith. con•ver'sion (kon-vur-zhôn) n.

con•vert•er (kon-vur-fër) n. 1. a device for converting a direct current of electricity to alternating current or vice versa. 2. a person who converts others.

con•vert•i•ble (kon-vur-ti-bêl) adj. able to be converted, a convertible sofa. convertible n. 1. a car with a roof that can be folded down or removed. 2. a sofa that can become a bed. con•vert•i•bil•i•ty (kon-vur-ti-bil-i-tê) n.

con•vex (kon-veks) adj. curved like the surface of a ball as seen from the outside. con•vex'ly adv. con•vex'li•ty n.

con•vey (kon-vay) v. 1. to carry or transport or transmit. 2. to communicate as an idea or meaning. 3. to transfer (ownership of land etc.). con•vey'a•ble adj.

con•vey•ance (kon-vay-ãns) n. 1. conveying. 2. a means of transporting people, a vehicle. 3. a legal document that conveys land etc.

con•vey•anc•ing (kon-vay-ãn-sing) n. the practice of law associated with transferring the ownership of land etc.

con•vey•or (kon-vay-ór) n. 1. a person or thing that conveys. 2. (also conveyor belt) a continuous moving belt for conveying objects in a factory etc.

con•vict (kon-vikt) v. to prove or declare (a person) to be guilty of a crime. con•vict (kon-vikt) n. a convicted person who is in prison for his crime.

con•vic•tion (kon-vik-shôn) n. 1. conviction. 2. being convicted. 3. a firm opinion or belief.

con•vise (kon-vins) v. (con•vinced, con•vinc•ing) to make (a person) feel certain that something is true, I am convinced of his honesty or that he is honest. con•vinc'ing adj. con•vinc'ing•ly adv.

con•viv•al (kon-viv-âl) adj. sociable and lively. con•viv'i•al•ly adv. con•viv•ial•ty (kon-viv-ial-ty) n. (kon-viv-i-al-ty) n.

con•vo•ca•tion (kon-vô-kay-shôn) n. 1. convoking. 2. an assembly convoked.

con•vo•ke (kon-vôk) v. (con•voked, con•vok•ing) to summon (people) to assemble.

con•vo•lu•te (kon-vô-loot) adj. 1. rolled up together, coiled and twisted, 2. complicated.

con•vo•lu•ted (kon-vô-loo-tid) adj. convoluted.

con•vo•lu•tion (kon-vô-loo-shôn) n. a coil, a twist.

con•vol•vu•lus (kon-vol-vû-lûs) n. a twining plant with trumpet-shaped flowers.

con•voy (kon-voi, kon-voi) v. to escort and protect, especially with an armed force or warships. convoy (kon-voi) n. a group of ships or vehicles traveling under escort or together.

con•vulse (kon-vuls) v. (con•vulsed, con•vuls•ing) 1. to cause violent movement in. 2. to cause to double up with laughter.

con•vul•sion (kon-vul-shôn) n. 1. a violent movement of the body, especially one caused by muscles contracting voluntarily. 2. a violent upheaval.

con•vul•sive (kon-vul-siv) adj. like a convulsion, producing upheaval. con•vul'sive•ly adv.

co•ny = coney.

coo (koo) v. to make a soft murmuring sound. coo n. a cooing sound.

cook (kuuk) v. 1. to prepare (food) for eating, by using heat. 2. to undergo this preparation, lunch is cooking. 3. (informal) to alter or falsify in order to produce a desired result, cooked the books. cook n. a person who cooks, especially as a job. □cook a person's goose, to ruin his chances. cooking apple, an apple suitable for cooking. cook up, (informal) to concoct; to invent, cook up an excuse. what's cooking?, (informal) what is happening or being planned?

cook•book (kuuk-buuk) n. a book of recipes and directions for cooking.

cook'er (kuuk-ér) n. a pot for cooking food.

cook'ery (kuuk-ér-e) n. the art and practice of cooking.

cook'ie (kuuk-ee) n. 1. a small cake made from sweet stiff dough. 2. (slang) a person, a smart cookie. cookie cutter, a metal or plastic mold used to shape cookie dough. cookie pusher, (informal) a trivial person. the way the cookie crumbles, (informal) how things turn out.

cook'out (kuuk-owt) n. a party at which cooking is done outdoors.

cook'ware (kuuk-wair) n. utensils used in cooking.

cool (kool) adj. 1. moderately cold, not hot or warm. 2. (of colors) suggesting coolness. 3. calm and unexcited. 4. not enthusiastic, got a cool reception. 5. casual and confident, I admired his cool manner. 6. full in amount, cost me a cool thousand. cool n. 1. coolness, something cool, the cool of evening. 2. (slang) calmness, composure, keep your cool. cool v. to make or become cool.

cool'ly (kool-lee) adv. cool'ness n. cooling tower, a tower for cooling hot water in an industrial process so that the water can be reused. cool it, (slang) to calm down. cool one's heels, to be kept waiting.

cool'ant (koo-lánt) n. a fluid used for cooling machinery etc.

cool'er (koo-lër) n. a container that cools its contents or keeps them cool.

coo'le (kuoo-le) n. an unskilled native laborer in the Far East.

coon'hound (kuun-hownd) n. any of several different hounds used in hunting raccoons or other small animals.

coon'skin (kuun-skin) n. a raccoon pelt.

coop (koop) n. a cage for poultry. coop v. to confine or shut in, he is cooped up in his room.

coop'er (kuo-për) n. a person whose job is making and repairing barrels and tubs.

coop'er-age (kuo-pee-rij) n. a factory where barrels and tubs are made.

coop'er-ate (kuo-pee-rij) v. (coop'er-ated, coop'er-at-ed, coop'er-at-ing) to work in a helpful way with another or others. coop'er-a-tor n. coop'er-a-tion (kuo-pee-ray-shun) n.

coop'er-a-tive (kuo-pee-raytiv) adj. 1. of cooperation. 2. willing to cooperate. 3. owned and run jointly by its members with profits shared among them. coop'er-ative n. 1. a farm or business organized on a cooperative basis. 2. an apartment house owned jointly by its tenants.

coop'er'a-tive • a • tive • ly adv.

coop'opt (koh-opt) v. 1. to appoint to become a member of a group by the invitation of its existing members. 2. to take over an idea etc. for one's own. coop'opt•ion (koh-opt-shun) n.

co•or•di•nate (koh-or-di-net) adj. equal in importance. coordinate n. 1. a coordinate thing. 2. a system of magnitudes used to give the position of a point etc., as latitude and longitude. 3. coordinates, items of women's clothing that can be worn together harmoniously. coordi•nate (koh-or-di-nayt) v. (co•or•di•nat•ed, co•or•di•nat•ing) to bring (parts etc.) into a proper relationship, to work or cause to work together efficiently. coordi•nate•tion (koh-or-di-nay-shun) n. co•or•di•nat•or (koh-or-di-nay-tor) n. co•or•di•nat•ely (koh-or-di-nay-lee) adv.

coot (koot) n. 1. a kind of water bird, especially one with a horny white plate on the forehead. 2. (informal) a stubborn or foolish man, an old coot.

coot•ie (koo-tee) n. a body louse.

cop (kop) v. (copped, cop•ping) (slang) to steal. cop n. (slang) a policeman.
cop a plea, (slang) to plead guilty to a crime carrying a lesser penalty than that imposed for the crime of which one is accused. cop out, (slang) to fail to do what one promised.

cop. abbr. copyright.

cope1 (kohp) v. (coped, cop•ing) to manage successfully. cope with, to deal successfully with.

cope2 n. a long loose cloak worn by clergy in certain ceremonies and processions.

Co•pen•ha•gen (koh-pen-hay-gen) the capital of Denmark.

cop•i•er (kop-i-ér) n. 1. a copying machine. 2. a person who copies.

cop•i•lot (kop-i-löt) n. a second pilot in an aircraft.

cop•ing (kop•ing) n. the top row of masonry (usually sloping) in a wall. cop•ing saw, a saw used for cutting wood into curves. cop•ing stone, a stone used in a coping.

cop•i•ous (kop•i-us) adj. existing in large amounts, plentiful. cop•i•ously adv. cop•i•ous•ness n.

cop•out (kop•owt) n. (slang) a failure to do what one promised.

cop•per1 (kop•er) n. 1. a reddish-brown metal. 2. a coin made of copper or a copper alloy. 3. a reddish-brown color.

copper adj. 1. made of copper. 2. reddish brown. □ copper beech, a beech tree with copper-colored leaves.

copper sp. n. (slang) a policeman.

copperhead (kop-ér-hed) n. a venomous snake of eastern U.S., so called from the reddish-brown color of its head.

copper plate (kop-ér-playt) n. neat clear handwriting.

copse (kops) n. a wood of small trees and undergrowth, grown for periodic cutting.

cop (kop) n. a copse.

copies (kop-eez) n. 1. a thing made to look like another. 2. the copies of books or documents. 3. material for printing; the trial made good copy, interesting material for newspaper reporting. copy v. copied, copy-ing 1. to make a copy of. 2. to try to do the same as, to imitate. □ copy desk, a desk at which newspaper editors edit news copy and write headlines.

copy book (kop-ee-buk) n. a book containing specimens for students to imitate.

copy boy (kop-ee-boi) n. an office boy for a newspaper.

copy cat (kop-ee-kat) n. (slang) a person who slavishly imitates another.

copy ed-it (kop-ee-ed-it) v. to prepare manuscripts for printing by correcting errors, improving style, etc. copy ed-itor n.

copy ist (kop-ee-ist) n. a person who makes copies of documents etc.

copy reader (kop-ee-ree-dér) n. a newspaper editor who edits articles before they are printed.

copy right (kop-ee-right) n. the sole legal right to print, publish, perform, film, or record a literary or artistic or musical work. copyright adj. (of material) protected by copyright. copyright v. to protect (material) by copyright.

copy writer (kop-ee-writ-er) n. one who writes advertisements.

cou-quet (koh-ket) v. (co-cou-quet-ted, co-cou-quet-ted) to play the coquette, to flirt or dally with. co-cou-quet-ry (koh-kii-tree) n. (pl. -ries).

cou-lette (koh-ket) n. a woman who flirts. co-quet’lish adj.

cora-br. 1. corner. 2. cornet. 3. coroner. 4. corpus. 5. correct. 6. corrected. 7. correction. 8. correspondence. 9. correspondent. 10. corresponding.

cor-a-cle (kor-á-kel) n. a small wicker-work boat covered with watertight material.

cor-al (kor-áli) n. 1. a hard red, pink, or white substance built by tiny sea creatures; coral reef, one formed by coral. 2. reddish-pink color. coral adj. reddish pink. □ coral snake, a poisonous snake of the American tropics.

cor-bel (kor-béli) n. a stone or timber projection from a wall, to support something. cor-beled adj.

cord (kord) n. 1. long thin flexible material made from twisted strands, a piece of this. 2. a similar structure in the body, the spinal cord. 3. corduroy material. 4. a measure of cut wood, especially firewood, 8 feet by 4 feet by 4 feet. cord v. to fasten with a cord.

cord-age (kor-dij) n. cords or ropes.

cord-ed (kor-di) adj. (of fabric) with raised ridges.

cor-dial (kor-jál) n. a liquor sweetened with fruit etc. cordial adj. warm and friendly, cordial greetings. cor-dial-ly adv. cor-dial-ly (kor-jal-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties).

cor-dill’era (kor-dill-yair-as) 1. one of a series of parallel mountain ridges, especially the Andes and in Mexico and in Central America. 2. a chain of mountains, especially a principal range. cor-dill’era n.
cord-ite (kor-dít) n. a smokeless explosive made of guncotton, nitroglycerine, and mineral jelly.

cord-less (kor-lis) adj. (of an electric appliance) needing no electric cord.

cor-don (kor-don) n. 1. a ring of people or military posts etc. enclosing or guarding something. 2. an ornamental cord or braid worn as a badge of honor. cor-don v. to enclose with a cordon.

cor-don bleu (kor-don blu) of the highest degree of excellence in cookery. □ French.

cor-do-van (kor-dov-ván) n. a kind of fine leather.

core (kohr) n. 1. the horny central part of certain fruits, containing the seeds. 2. the central or most important part of something. core v. (cored, cor-ing) to remove the core from. cor’er n. □ core curriculum, a program of study in which most or all subjects are treated in relation to a central theme. to the core, thoroughly, entirely.

corre•spon•dent (koh-ri-spon-dent) n. the person with whom the person proceeded against in a divorce suit (the respondent) is said to have committed adultery.

cor•gi (kor-gee) n. (pl. -gls) a dog of a small Welsh breed with a foxlike head.

cor•l•an•der (kohr-i-an-der) adj. 1. of Corinth, a city of ancient Greece. 2. of the Corinthian order, the most ornate of the five classical orders of architecture. 3. Corinthians, either of two books of the New Testament, the epistles of St. Paul to the Church at Corinth.

cork (kork) n. 1. a light tough substance, the thick outer bark of a kind of South European oak (the cork oak). 2. a piece of this used as a float. 3. a bottle stopper made of this or other material. cork v. to close or stop up with a cork.

corked (korkt) adj. 1. (of wine) contaminated by a decayed cork. 2. (of a bottle) unopened.

cork•er (kor-kér) n. (slang) an excellent person or thing.

cork•ing (kor-king) adj. & adv. (informal) excellent.

cork•screw (kork-skroo) n. 1. a tool for extracting corks from bottles. 2. a spiral thing.

cork•y (kork-ee) adj. (cork-l•er, cork-l•est) 1. corklike. 2. (of wine) tasting of the cork, spoiled.

corm (korm) n. a rounded underground base of a stem, from the top of which buds sprout.

cor•mo•rant (kor-mó-ránt) n. a large black sea bird.

corn1 (korn) n. 1. a cereal plant with tall stalks bearing kernels on ears. 2. the ear of this plant. 3. kernels of this plant. 4. (also peppercorn) a single grain of pepper. 5. (informal) something corny. corn v. to preserve beef in brine or by a process that imitates this. □ corn bread, bread made with cornmeal. corn muffin, a muffin made with cornmeal. corn oil, oil pressed from corn kernels, used in cooking, cosmetics, etc. corn pone, corn bread made without milk or eggs. corn shock, a bundle of cornstalks in an upright position. corn silk, the silky fibers lining the husk of an ear of corn. corn snake, a rat snake of North America. corn snow, grain-like snow produced by periods of thawing and freezing. corn sugar, dextrose. corn syrup, sweet syrup made from corn. corn whiskey, corn liquor, whiskey distilled from corn.

corn2 n. a small area of horny hardened skin on the foot.

corn•ball (korn-ball) adj. (slang) corny. cornball n. (slang) a corny person.

corn•cob (korn-kob) n. the woody core of an ear of corn. □ corncob pipe, a tobacco pipe made from a corncob.

corn•crib (korn-crib) n. a building with ventilated sides, used for storing ears of corn.

cor•ne•a (kor-nee-á) n. the transparent outer layer of the eyeball.

cor•ne•al adj.

corned (korned) adj. preserved in brine or by a similar process, corned beef.

corn•er (kor-nér) n. 1. the angle or area where two lines or sides meet or where two streets join. 2. a hidden or remote place. 3. a virtual monopoly of a certain type of goods or services, enabling the holder to control the price, a corner on copper. corner v. 1. to drive into a corner, to force into a position from which there is no escape. 2. to obtain (all or most of something) for oneself, to establish a monopoly of, corner copper. 3. to move around a corner, the car had cornered too fast.

corn•er•stone (kor-nér-stohn) n. a basis, a vital foundation, hard work is the cornerstone of success.

cor•net (kor-net) n. a brass musical instrument like a small trumpet.

corn•fed (korn-fed) adj. fed on corn.

corn•flakes (korn-flayks) n. pl. a breakfast cereal of toasted flakes of corn.

corn•flow•er (korn-flow-er) n. a plant that grows wild in cornfields (especially a blue-flowered kind), or is cultivated as a garden plant.

corn•husk (korn-husk) n. the outer covering of an ear of corn.

cor•nice (kor-nis) n. an ornamental molding around the wall of a room just below the ceiling.

corn•meal (korn-meel) n. meal made of ground corn.

corn•stalk (korn-stawk) n. a stalk of corn.

corn•starch (korn-stahrch) n. corn flour used as a thickening agent in gravies etc.

cor•nu•co•pi•a (kor-nyú-koh-pi-á) n. a horn of plenty, a horn-shaped container overflowing with fruit and flowers.

corn•y (kor-nee) adj. (corn-l•er, corn-l•est) (informal) hackneyed, repeated so often that people are tired of it, overly sentimental.

cor•tol•la (kō-tol-lā) n. a ring of petals forming the inner envelope of a flower.

cor•ol•lar•y (kor-ō-lar-ē) n. (pl. -lar-coronation (kor-o-nay) n. the ceremony of crowning a king or queen or consort.
corporation (kor-pohr-a-shuhn) n. a group of people authorized to act as an individual, especially in business. 2. a group of people elected to govern a municipality. 3. (informal) a protruding abdomen.
corps (kohr) n. (pl. corps, pr. kohrz) 1. a military force, an army unit, the Army Medical Corps. 2. a body of people engaged in a special activity, the diplomatic corps.

Note the pronunciation of corps.
corpses (korps) n. a dead body.
corpses-man (kohr-mahn) n. (pl. -men, pr. -menn) a member of the medical troops.
corpus (kohr-pus) n. (pl. -po-ra, pr. -poh-ray) 1. a body or collection of writings. 2. a structure of special character or function in an animal body.

Corpus Delicti (di-lik-ti), the material evidence that a crime has been committed; the body of a murdered person.
Corpus Christi (kor-pus kris-tee) a Christian festival in honor of the Eucharist, celebrated on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday. > Latin, = the body of Christ.
corpuscle (kor-pus-ak) n. one of the red or white cells in the blood.
corpuscular (kor-pus-kyu-lar) adj.
correction (kor-rek-shuhn) 1. corrected. 2. correction. 3. correspond. 4. correspondence. 5. correspondent. 6. corresponding.
corral (kor-ral) n. an enclosure for horses, cattle, etc. corral v. (cor-ralled, corral-ing) to drive animals into a corral.
correct (kor-rect) adj. 1. true, accurate. 2. proper, in accordance with an approved way of behaving or working. correct v. 1. to make correct, to set right by altering or adjusting. 2. to mark the errors in. 3. to point out faults in (a person), to punish (a person or a fault).
correctly adv. correctional adj. correctional institution, a prison or reformatory. corrective (kor-rektiv) adj. correcting what is bad or harmful. corrective n. something that corrects.
corrective adj. correctional n. correctional institution, a prison or reformatory.
correspond (kor-e-spond) v. 1. to be in harmony or agreement, this corresponds with what I've heard. 2. to be similar or equivalent, a parliament that corresponds to our Congress. 3. to write letters to each other, we correspond regularly.
corresponding adj. correspondence course, instruction by means of materials sent by mail. correspondence school, a school conducting correspondence courses.
correspondent (kor-e-spon-dent) n. 1. a person who writes letters. 2. a person who is employed to gather news and contribute reports to a newspaper or to a television or radio station. 3. a business or person having regular business relations with another at a distance. corresponding adj. corresponding.
corridor / cost

cor·ri·dor (kor-i-dor) n. a narrow passage, especially one from which doors open into rooms or compartments.

cor·ri·gen·da (kor-i-jen-dá) n. pl. = errata (see erratum).

cor·ri·gi·ble (kor-i-jí-bél) n. capable of being corrected.

cor·rob·o·rate (kör-rob-ö-rayt) v. (cor·ro·bo·rat·ed, cor·ro·bo·rat·ing) to get or give supporting evidence. cor·rob·o·ra·tion (kör-rob-ö-ray-shón) n.
cor·rob·o·ra·tive (kör-rob-ö-ray-tiv) adj.
cor·ro·de (kör-rohd) v. (cor·ro·ded, cor·ro·dng) to destroy gradually by chemical action, rust corrodes metal. cor·ro·sion (kör-rob-ö-ray-shún) n.
cor·ru·gate (kör-rág) v. (cor·ru·gated, cor·ru·gat·ing) to wrinkle, to mark with or bend into parallel folds or ridges. cor·ru·ga·tion (kör-rág-shón) n. cor·ro·sive adj.
cor·ru·gate·ed (kör-rág-tid) adj. shaped into alternate ridges and grooves, corrugated iron.
cor·rupt (kör-rupt) adj. 1. dishonest, accepting bribes. 2. immoral, wicked. 3. decaying. cor·rupt v. 1. to cause to become dishonest or immoral, to persuade to accept bribes. 2. to spoil, to taint. cor·rupt·ion n.
cor·rupt·i·ble (kör-rupt-i-bél) adj. able to be corrupted. cor·rupt·i·bil·i·ty (kör-rupt-i-bil-i-tee) n.
cor·sage (kor-sázh) n. fresh flowers worn by a woman on the shoulder or wrist.
cor·sair (kor-sair) n. (old use) 1. a Mediterranean pirate, especially of Barbary. 2. a corsair's ship.
cor·set (kor-sit) n. a close-fitting undergarment worn to shape or support the body.
cor·te·ge (kor-tezh) n. a funeral procession.
cor·tex (kor-teks) n. (pl. ti·ces, pr. -ti·seez) 1. the gray matter of the brain. 2. the outer part of the kidney or suprarenal gland. 3. the inner bark of a tree.
cor·ti·sone (kor-ti-sohn) n. a hormone produced by the adrenal glands or made synthetically.
cor·us·cate (kor-ús-káyt) v. (cor·us·cat·ed, cor·us·cat·ing) to sparkle. cor·us·ca·tion (kor-ús-káyt-shón) n.
cor·vette (kor-vēt) n. a small fast gunboat designed for escorting merchant ships.
cor·ry·za (kör-ry-zá) n. an inflammation of the nasal mucous membrane and sinuses.
cos (kos) n. a kind of lettuce with long leaves.
cos² abbr. cosine.
C.O.S. abbr. 1. cash on shipment. 2. Chief of Staff.
cos·ig·na·to·ry (koh-sig-ná-to-ree) n. (pl. -ries) a person signing jointly with another or others. cosignatory adj. signing jointly with another or others.
cos·ig·ner (koh-si-nér) n. a cosignatory, especially of a promissory note.
cos·ine (koh-sín) n. (in a right-angled triangle) the ratio of the length of a side adjacent to one of the acute angles to the length of the hypotenuse.
cos·met·ic (koh-si-tik) n. a substance for beautifying the body, especially the face. cosmetic adj. for beautifying or improving the appearance, cosmetic surgery.
cos·me·tol·o·gist (koh-si-tol-6-jist) n. a beautician.
cos·mic (koh-siik) adj. of the universe. cos·mic·al·ly adv. □ cosmic rays, high-energy radiation that reaches Earth from outer space.
cos·mog·o·ny (kohs-mog-ö-nee) n. (pl. -nies) a theory of the creation and evolution of the universe. cos·mo·go·nist n. cos·mo·gon·ic (kohs-mog-ö-nik) adj.
cos·mol·o·gy (kohs-mol-ö-je) n. (pl. -gies) the study of philosophy of the universe as an ordered whole. cos·mo·log·i·cal (kohs-mol-loj-i-kál) adj.
cos·mo·naut (kohs-mo-nawt) n. an astronaut, especially one from the Soviet Union.
cos·mo·pol·i·tan (kohs-mo-pol-i-tan) adj. 1. of or from many parts of the world, containing people from many countries, a cosmopolitan crowd or city. 2. free from national prejudices and at home in all parts of the world, a cosmopolitan outlook. cosmopolitan n. a cosmopolitan person. cos·mo·pol·i·lite (kohs-mo-pol-i-lit) n. a cosmopolitan.
cos·mos (kohs-mós) n. the universe.
cos·mos (kohs-mos) n. a garden plant with pink, white, or purple flowers.
cos·pons·or (kohs-pons-sor) n. a person who sponsors legislation, an event, etc. with one or more sponsors.
Cos·sack (kos-ak) n. a member of a people of south Russia, famous as horsemen. Cossack adj.
cos·set (kos-it) v. (cos-set·ed, cos·set·ing) to pamper.
cost (kawst) n. 1. an amount given or required as payment. 2. an expenditure of time or labor, a loss suffered in achieving attorney or group of attorneys giving advice in a legal case. counsel v. ( counseled, coun·sel·ing) to advise, to give advice to professionals on personal problems. Keep one’s own counsel, to keep one’s views or plans secret. Take counsel with, to consult. □ Do not confuse counsel with council.
coun·se·lor (kown-sé-lor) n. an adviser. □ Do not confuse counselor with counelor.
count1 (kownnt) v. 1. to find the total of. 2. to say or name the numbers in order. 3. to include or be included in a reckoning, six of us, counting the dog: this will count against him, will be a disadvantage to his reputation. 4. to be important, to be worth reckoning; fine words count for nothing, are of no value. 5. to regard or consider, I should count it an honor. count n. 1. counting, a calculation. 2. a number reached by counting, a total. 3. a point being considered, one of the charges against an accused person, he was found guilty on all counts. □ Count down, to count numerals backward to zero, as in the procedure before launching a rocket. Count in, to include in a reckoning. Count on, to rely on; to expect confidently. Count one’s chicken before they are hatched, to assume that something will be successful before this is certain. Count out, to count one by one from a stock; to exclude from a reckoning; (of a referee) to count up to ten seconds over (a boxer or wrestler who has been knocked or fallen to the canvas). Count up, to find the sum of. Down for the count, defeated in a boxing match by failing to rise within ten seconds after falling to the canvas. Take the count, to be down for the count in boxing. count2 n. a European nobleman corresponding to a British earl.
coun·table (kown-ta-bel) adj. able to be counted.
coun·down (kowat-down) n. a count in reverse order in the process of counting. coun·te·nance (kown-té-nans) n. 1. the expression of the face. 2. an appearance of approval, lending countenance to their plan. Countenance v. ( coun·te·nanced, coun·te·nanc·ing) to give approval to.
coun·ter1 (kown·ter) n. 1. a table or other flat surface over which goods, food, etc. are sold or served or business is transacted with customers. 2. a small disk used for keeping count in table games. 3. a person or device that counts something. coun·ter2 adv. in the opposite direction. coun·ter adj. opposed. coun·ter v. to hinder or defeat by an opposing action. coun·ter n. a parry. coun·ter· prefix against, opposite, as in counteract, counterpoint.
coun·ter·act (kown·ter·akt) v. to reduce or prevent the effects of. coun·ter·ac·tive ( kown·ter·ak·tiv) adj.
coun·ter·at· tack (kown·ter·ä·tak) n. an attack directed against an enemy who has already attacked or invaded. coun·ter·attack (kown·ter·ä·tak) v. to make a counterattack.
coun·ter·bal·ance (kown·ter·bal·åns) n. a weight or influence that balances another. coun·terbalance (kown·ter·bal·åns) v. ( coun·ter·bal·anced, coun·ter·bal·anc·ing) to act as a counterbalance to.
coun·ter·check (kown·ter·chek) n. an obstruction checking movement or operating against another.
coun·ter·claim (kown·ter·klaym) n. a claim made in opposition to another claim.
coun·ter·clock·wise (kown·ter·klok·wiz) adj. & adv. in a curve from right to left, that is, opposite to the movement of clock hands.
coun·ter·cul·ture (kown·ter·kul·char) n. a mode of life of persons who reject established social values and practices.
coun·ter·es·pi·o·nage (kown·ter·es·pi·o·nahz) n. action taken to uncover and counteract enemy spying.
coun·ter·feit (kown·ter·fit) adj. fake. coun·terfeit n. a fake. coun·terfeit v. to fake. coun·ter·feit·er n.
coun·ter·foil (kown·ter·foil) n. a detachable section of a check or receipt etc. kept by the sender as a record.
coun·ter·in·sur·gen·cy (kown·ter·in·sur·jen·see) n. ( pl. -cies) action taken to combat insurgent activity. coun·ter·in·sur·gent n.
coun·ter·in·tel·li·gence (kown·ter·int·el·i·jen) n. counterespionage.
coun·ter·man (kown·ter·man) n. ( pl. -men, pr. -men) a person who serves food to customers at a lunch counter.
coun·ter·mand (kown·ter·mand) v. to cancel (a command or order).
coun·ter·mea·sure (kown·ter·meaz·ur) n. action taken to counteract a threat or danger etc.
coun·ter·of·fen·sive (kown·ter·aff·en·siv) n. a large-scale counterattack.
coun·ter·pane (kown·ter·payn) n. a bedspread.
coun·ter·part (kown·ter·pahrt) n. a person or thing corresponding to another in position or use.
counterpoint / course coun*ter-point (kown-tér-point) n. a method of combining melodies.

coun*ter-poise (kown-tér-poiz) n. a counterbalance. coun*terpoise v. (coun*ter-poised, coun*ter-poised) to counterbalance.
coun*ter-pro-duc*tive (kown-tér-pró-dukt-tiv) adj. having the opposite of the desired effect.

Counter (kown-tér) Réformation the reformation in the Roman Catholic Church following on the Protestant Reformation.
coun*ter-rev-o-lu*tion (kown-tér-rev-ō-loo-shôn) n. a revolution undertaken to reverse the effects of a previous revolution. coun*ter-rev-o-lu*tion-ar*y (pl. -ar-les) adj. & n.
coun*ter-sig*na*ture (kown-tér-sig-nā-chûr) n. a confirming signature added to a document.
coun*ter-sink (kown-tér-singk) v. (coun*ter-sank, coun*ter-sank, coun*ter-sink*ing) to enlarge the top of (a hole) so that the head of a screw or bolt will lie level with or below the surface, to sink (a screw etc.) in such a hole.
coun*ter-spy (kown-tér-spt) n. (pl. -spies) a person who conducts counterespionage.
coun*ter-ten*or (kown-tér-ten-ôr) n. 1. an adult male singing voice above tenor. 2. a singer with such a voice, a part written for it.
coun*ter-vail (kown-tér-vayl) v. to counterbalance.
coun*ter-weight (kown-tér-wayt) n. a counterbalancing weight or influence.
coun*te*ss (kown-tis) n. 1. the wife or widow of a count or earl. 2. a woman holding the rank of a count or earl.
coun*te*less (kown-tlis) adj. too many to be counted.
coun*tri*field (kun-tri-fid) adj. having the characteristics of the country or country life.
coun*try (kun-tree) n. (pl. -tries) 1. a nation, the land it occupies. 2. land consisting of fields and woods with few houses or other buildings. 3. an area of land with certain features, hill country.

country and western, country music. country club, a suburban club for golf, tennis, other sports, social activities, etc. country music, simple music, originated in the southern U.S., based on folk and cowboy songs, spirituals, and gospel music. cross country, across fields, not keeping to main roads or to a direct road.
coun*try-man (kun-tri-mân) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mèn) 1. a man living in the country, not in a town. 2. a man of one's own country, a patriot. coun*try-wom*an n. (pl. -wom-en, pr. -wim-in).
coun*try-side (kun-tri-sid) n. land outside a settled area.

coun*ty (kown-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. one of the main areas into which a state is divided for purposes of local government. 2. the people of a county. county seat, a town in which the business of the county is transacted.
coup (koo) n. (pl. coups, pr. kooz) a sudden action taken to obtain power or achieve a desired result.
coup de grâce (koo dé grâhs) (pl. coups de grâce, pr. koo de grâhs) 1. a finishing stroke. 2. a deathblow administered as an act of mercy to a dying person. □ French.
coup d'état (koo day-tah) (pl. coups d'état, pr. koo day-tah) the sudden overthrowing of a government by force or by unconstitutional means. □ French.
coupe (koop) n. a small closed two-door automobile.
cou*ple (kup-èl) n. 1. two people or things considered together. 2. a man and woman who are engaged or married. 3. partners in a dance. couple v. (cou*pled, cou*pling) 1. to fasten or link together, to join by coupling. 2. to join in marriage. 3. to copulate.
cou*plet (kup-lit) n. two successive lines of verse that rhyme and have the same meter.
cou*pling (kup-ling) n. a device for connecting two railroad cars or parts of machinery.
cou*pon (koo-pon) n. 1. a detachable ticket or part of a document etc. that entitles the holder to receive something or that can be used as an application form. 2. a certificate attached to a bond, showing the interest due. □ clip coupons, to detach the coupons from bonds and collect the interest; (informal) to live without having to earn one's livelihood.
cour-age (kur-ij) n. the ability to control fear when facing danger or pain, bravery. □ have the courage of one's convictions, to be brave enough to do what one feels is to be right.
cou*ra'geous (kô-ray-jûs) adj. having or showing courage. cou*ra'geously adv.
cou*ri*er (kur-i-èr) n. a messenger carrying news or important papers.
course (kohrs) n. 1. an onward movement in space or time, in the ordinary course of events. 2. the direction taken or intended, the course of the river; the ship was off course. 3. a series of things one can do to achieve something, your best course is to start again. 4. a series of talks or lessons or treatments etc., an English composition course; a course of exercises. 5. an area of land on which golf is played, a stretch of land or water over which a race takes place. 6. a continuous layer of brick or stone etc. in a wall. 7. one of the parts of a meal, the first course was soup. course v. 1. to hunt (especially rabbits) with hounds that follow game by sight not by scent. 2. to follow a course. 3. to move or flow freely, blood coursed through his veins. □ In course of, in the process of, the bridge is in course of construction. In due course, in the natural order. In the course of, during; in the course of time, after some time has passed. of course, without a doubt, as was to be expected.

court (kohrt) n. 1. a courtyard. 2. a yard surrounded by houses, opening off a street. 3. an enclosed area for certain games, as squash, tennis. 4. a sovereign's establishment with attendants, councilors, etc.; the Court of St. James's, the British sovereign's court. 5. a law court. court v. 1. to try to win the favor or support of. 2. to woo. 3. to behave as though trying to provoke something harmful, courting danger. □ Out of court, without a trial, we settled the case out of court. pay court to, to pay special attention to a person in order to win that person's favor or interest.
cour-te-san (kohr-tē-zan) n. (old use) a prostitute with wealthy or upper-class clients.
cour-te-sy (kur-tē-se) n. (pl. -sies) courteous behavior. □ By courtesy of, by the permission or favor of.
court-house (kohrt-hows) n. (pl. -houses, pr. -how-ziz) a building housing county courts and county administrative offices.
cour-ti-er (kohrt-tee-er) n. (old use) one of a sovereign's companions at court.
court-mar-tial (kohrt-mahr-shal) n. (pl. courts-mar-tial) 1. a court for trying offenses against military law. 2. trial by such a court. court-martial v. (court-mar-tialed, court-mar-tial-ing) to try by a court-martial.
court-room (kohrt-room) n. a room in which law courts meet.
court-ship (kohrt-ship) n. courting, the period during which this takes place.
court-yard (kohrt-yahrd) n. a space enclosed by walls or buildings.
cous·in-in (kuz-in) n. a child of one's uncle or aunt (also called first cousin); second cousin, a child of one's parent's first cousin. cous‘in-ly adv.
cou·ture (koo-toor) n. the design and making of fashionable clothes.
cou·tu·ri·er (koo-toor-ee-ay) n. a designer or maker of fashionable clothes.
cou·tu·ri·ère (koo-toor-ee-er) n. fem. co·va·lence (koh-vay-lynz) n. 1. a covalent bond, the electrons forming this. 2. the number of covalent bonds an atom can form. co·va‘lent adj. co·va·lent·ly adv.
cove (kohv) n. a small bay.
cov·en (kuv-én) n. an assembly of witches.
cov·en·nant (kuv-é-nant) n. a formal agreement, a contract. covenant v. to undertake by covenant.
cov·er (kuv-er) v. 1. to place (a thing) over or in front of, to conceal or protect in this way. 2. to spread (a thing) over; covered with shame, obviously ashamed. 3. to lie or extend over, to occupy the surface of, the factory covers a large area. 4. to travel over (a distance), we covered ten miles a day. 5. to protect by dominating the approach to, to have within range of one's gun(s), to keep a gun aimed at. 6. to protect by providing insurance or a guaranty, covering you against fire or theft. 7. to amount to enough money to pay for, $44 will cover the fare. 8. to include, to deal with (a subject); a covering letter, an explanatory letter sent with a document or goods. 9. to investigate or report for a newspaper etc., who is covering the conference? cover n. 1. a thing that covers. 2. the binding of a book etc., either half of this. 3. a wrapper or envelope. 4. a place or area giving shelter or protection, there was no cover. 5. a supporting force etc. protecting another from attack, fighter cover. 6. a screen or pretense, under cover of friendship. □ cover a lot of ground, (informal) to travel far; to deal with a variety of topics. cover charge, an extra charge per person in a restaurant or nightclub. cover crop, a crop grown for the protection or enrichment of the soil. covered wagon, a large horse-drawn wagon with an arched canvas top, used by American pioneers going west during the 19th century. cover girl, a beautiful young woman whose picture appears on the cover of a magazine. cover up, to conceal (a thing or fact). under sepa·rate cover, in a separate envelope or package.
cov•er•age (kuv-ē-rij) n. 1. the act or fact of covering. 2. the area or amount covered. 3. reporting of a news event. 4. insurance against loss or damage etc.
cov•er•all (kuv-ēr-awl) n. a full-length protective outer garment.
cov•er•let (kuv-ēr-lit) n. a bedsprad.
cov•ert (kuv-ërt) n. 1. an area of thick undergrowth in which animals hide. 2. a bird’s feather covering the base of another. covert (koh-vert) adj. concealed, done secretly, covertly. adv. cov•er•ly. n. cov•er•t•ness. n. cov•ert•ly.
cov•ey (kuv-ee) n. a brood or small flock of partridges or quail.
cow¹ (kow) n. the mature female of cattle or of certain other large animals (as elephant, whale, seal). cow pony, a cow•boy’s horse.
cow² v. to subdue by frightening with threats or force.
cow•ard (kow-ård) n. a person who lacks courage. cow’ard•ly adj. cow’ard•li•ness n.
cow•ard•ice (kow-ård-dis) n. lack of courage.
cow•bird (kow-burd) n. any of various American blackbirds that lay their eggs in other birds’ nests.
cow•boy (kow-boi) n. 1. a man in charge of grazing cattle in the western U.S. (informal) a person who drives an automobile recklessly. cow•girl n.
cow•catcher (kow-kach-er) n. a wedge•shaped steel frame fixed to the front of a locomotive, for clearing the tracks.
cow•er (kow-er) v. to crouch or shrink back in fear.
cow•hand (kow-hand) n. a cowboy (definition 1).
cow•hide (kow-hid) n. 1. the skin of a cow. 2. a whip made from this.
cowl (kowl) n. 1. a monk’s hood or hooded robe. 2. a hood•shaped covering, as on a chimney.
cow•lick (kow lik) n. a projecting lock of hair.
cowl•ing (kow-ling) n. a removable metal cover over an engine.
cow•man (kow-man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mën) (slang) the owner of a cattle ranch.
co•work•er (koh-wur-kër) n. a fellow worker.
cow•pock (kow-pohk) n. (informal) a cowboy (definition 1).
cow•pox (kow-poks) n. a disease of cows of which the virus is used in vaccination against smallpox.
cow•punch•er (kow-pun-chër) n. (informal) a cowboy (definition 1).
cow•rie, cow•ry (kow-ri) n. 1. a small gastropod of the Indian Ocean. 2. its shell, used as money in Africa and South Asia.
cow•shed (kow-shed) n. a shed where cattle are kept when not at pasture.
cow•slip (kow-slip) n. a wild plant with small fragrant yellow flowers.
cox (koks) n. (informal) a coxswain. cox v. to act as coxswain of.
cox•comb (koks-kohm) n. a conceited showy person.
cox•swain (kok-sän) n. 1. a person who steers a racing shell. 2. a sailor in charge of a ship’s boat. coy (koi) n. pretending to be shy or embarrassed, bashful. coy’ly adv. coy’ness n.
cox•ote (ki-ocht, ki-oh-tee) n. a North American prairie wolf. coy•pu (koi-poo) n. a beaverlike water animal, originally from South America.
coz•en (kuz-ën) v. 1. to cheat, defraud, beguile. 2. to act deceitfully. coz•en•age (kuz-ë-nij) n.
co•zy (koh-ze) adj. (zl-er, -zl-est) warm and comfortable. co•zy•ly adv. co•zy•ness n.
co•p (pi co) abbr. compare.
C.P.A. abbr. Certified Public Accountant.
cpd. abbr. compound.
CPI abbr. consumer price index.
Cpl. abbr. corporal.
CPO, C.P.O. abbr. Chief Petty Officer.
cps abbr. cycles per second.
Cr symbol chromium.
Cr. abbr. 1. credit. 2. creditor. 3. creek. 4. crown.
crab (krab) n. 1. a ten-footed shellfish. 2. its flesh as food. 3. the Crab, a sign of the zodiac, Cancer. crab (crabbed, crab•bing) (informal) to find fault with, to grumble. crab apple, a kind of small sour apple.
crab•bed (krab-id) adj. 1. bad-tempered. 2. (of handwriting) difficult to read or decipher.
crab•by (krab-ee) adj. (bl-er, -bl-est) bad tempered.
crab•grass (krab-gras) n. a coarse creeping grass infesting lawns. crack (krak) n. 1. a sudden sharp explosive noise. 2. a sharp blow. 3. (informal) a wisecrack, a joke. 4. a chink. 5. a line of division where something is broken but has not come completely apart.

crack adj. (informal) first-rate. crack v. 1. to make or cause to make a sudden sharp explosive sound; cracked his head against the wall, gave his head a sharp blow. 2. to tell (a joke). 3. to break with a sharp sound. 4. to break into (a safe etc.). 5. to find the solution to (a code or problem). 6. to break without coming completely apart. 7. (of a voice) to become suddenly harsh, especially with emotion. 8. to collapse under strain, to cease to resist. 9. to break down (heavy oils) in order to produce lighter ones.

☐ crack down on, (informal) to take severe measures against (something illegal); to enforce (a rule) strictly. crack of dawn, daybreak. crack up, (informal) to have a physical or mental breakdown; to laugh boisterously; to damage (an automobile etc.); to be involved in an accident. get cracking, (informal) to get busy on work that is waiting to be done. have a crack at, (informal) to attempt.

crack-brained (krak-braynd) adj. (slang) crazy.

crack-down (krak-down) n. strict enforcement of rules, laws, etc.

cracked (krakk) adj. (slang) crazy.

crack-er (krak-ér) n. 1. a firecracker. 2. a small paper toy made so as to explode harmlessly when the ends are pulled. 3. a thin dry unleavened bread in a small flat shape. 4. (contemptuous) a poor rural white person, especially in Georgia or Florida.

crack-er-jack (krak-ér-jak) adj. (informal) first-rate. crackerjack n. (informal) a first-rate person or thing.

crack-ling (krak-ling) v. (crack-led, crack-lung) to make or cause to make a series of slight cracking sounds. crackle n. these sounds.

crack-ling (krak-ling) n. crisp skin on roast pork.

crack-pot (krak-pot) n. (slang) a person with crazy or impractical ideas.

cradle (kra-del) n. 1. a small bed for a baby, usually on rockers. 2. a place where something originates, the cradle of civilization. 3. a supporting framework or structure. cradle v. (cradled, cradling) to hold or support as if in a cradle. ☐ rob the cradle, to date or marry a person much younger than oneself.

cradle-song (kra-del-sawng) n. a lullaby.

craft (kraft) n. 1. an occupation in which skill is needed. 2. such a skill or technique. 3. cunning, deceit. 4. (pl. craft) a ship or boat or raft, an aircraft or spacecraft.

crafts-man (krafts-mán) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mén) a workman skilled in a craft.

crafts-man-ship n.

craft-y (kraft-tee) adj. (craft-l-er, craft-l-est) cunning, using underhand methods. craft-l-ly adv. craft-l-ness n.

crag (krag) n. a steep or rugged rock.

crag'gy adj. (gl-er, gl-est) crag'gl-ness n.

cram (kram) v. (crammed, cram-ing) 1. to force into too small a space so that the container is overfull. 2. to overfill in this way. 3. to study intensively at the last minute for an examination.

cramp (kramp) n. 1. sudden painful involuntary tightening of a muscle. 2. (also cramps) a sharp pain in the abdomen. cramp v. to keep within too narrow limits. ☐ cramp a person's style, to prevent him from acting freely or showing his best abilities.

cramped (kramp-t) adj. 1. put or kept in too narrow a space, without room to move. 2. (of handwriting) small and with letters close together.

cram-pon (kram-pón) n. an iron plate with spikes, worn on boots for walking or climbing on ice.

cran-ber-ry (kran-ber-ee) n. (pl. -ries) 1. the small tart red berry of a kind of shrub, used for making jelly and sauce. 2. the shrub itself.

crane (kraen) n. 1. a large wading bird with long legs, neck, and bill. 2. an apparatus for moving heavy objects, usually by suspending them from a jib by ropes or chains. crane v. (craned, cran-ing) to stretch (one's neck) in order to see something. ☐ crane fly, a flying insect with very long legs.

cran-ii-um (kra-ni-üm) n. (pl. -iums, -nii-a, pr. -nii-ä) the bones enclosing the brain, the skull. cran-ii-al adj.

crank (krangk) n. 1. an L-shaped part for converting to-and-fro motion into circular motion. 2. (informal) an eccentric person. 3. (informal) a grouch. crank v. to cause to move by means of a crank. ☐ crank out, (informal) to mass-produce. crank up, (informal) to start (a project etc.).

crank-case (krangk-kays) n. the case enclosing a crankshaft.

crank-shaft (krangk-shaft) n. the shaft driven by the crank in an internal combustion engine.

crank-y (krang-kee) adj. (crank-l-er, crank-l-est) 1. grouchy, ill-tempered. 2. crochety, eccentric. crank-l-ness n. cranny / creamy

cranny (kran-ee) n. (pl. -nies) a crevice.
crap (krap) n. a losing throw of the dice in craps.
crape (krayp) n. 1. a band of black fabric or paper used as a sign of mourning. 2. crepe.
crap·pie (krap-ee) n. a small U.S. fish.
craps (kraps) n. a gambling game played with a pair of dice; shooting craps, playing this game.
crap·shoot·er (krap-shoo-tér) n. 1. a person who plays craps. 2. (informal) a person who takes risks.
crash1 (krash) n. 1. a sudden violent noise like that of something breaking by impact. 2. a violent collision or fall. 3. financial collapse. crash v. 1. to make a crash, to move or go with a crash. 2. to cause (a vehicle or aircraft) to have a collision, to be involved in a crash. 3. (informal) to enter without permission, to gatecrash. 4. to collapse financially.
crash adj. involving intense effort to achieve something rapidly, a crash program. crash dive, a sudden dive by an aircraft or submarine, especially in an emergency. crash helmet, a padded helmet worn to protect the head in case of a crash. crash landing, an emergency landing by an aircraft etc.
crash2 n. a coarse linen or cotton fabric for towels etc.
crash-dive (krash-dív) v. (crash-dived or crash-dove, crash-dived, crash-diving) 1. (of a submarine) to dive at a steep angle. 2. to cause to make such a dive.
crash-land (krash-land) v. 1. to land (an aircraft) in an emergency, especially with damage to it. 2. to be landed in this way.
crass (kras) adj. 1. gross, crass stupidity. 2. very stupid. crass'ly adv. crass'ness n.
crate (kraɪt) n. 1. a packing case made of wooden slats. 2. ( slang) an old aircraft or car. crate v. (crat·ed, crat·ing) to pack into a crate.
cra·ter (kra·tér) n. a bowl-shaped cavity or hollow.
cra·ton (kra·tən) n. a relatively rigid and stationary part of Earth's crust.
cra·vat (kra·vat) n. 1. a short scarf. 2. a necktie.
crave (kraɪv) v. (craved, cravin·g) 1. to long for, to have a strong desire. 2. to ask earnestly for, crave mercy or for mercy.
cra·ven (kra·ven) adj. cowardly. craven n. a coward.
crav·ing (kra·ving) n. a strong desire, a longing.
craw·fish (kra·fish) n. (pl. -fish, -fish·es) a crayfish.
crawl (kraɪl) v. 1. to move as snakes or ants do, with the body close to the ground or other surface. 2. to move on hands and knees. 3. to move slowly or with difficulty. 4. (informal) to seek favor by behaving in a servile way, he crawls before the boss. 5. to be covered with crawling things, it was crawling with ants. 6. to feel as if covered with crawling things. crawl n. 1. a crawling movement. 2. a very slow pace, at a crawl. 3. a swimming stroke with an overarm movement of each arm alternately. crawl'er n. crawl space, a shallow cellar.
cray·fish (kra·fish) n. (pl. -fish, -fish·es) a freshwater shellfish like a very small lobster.
cray·on (kra·yon) n. a stick of colored wax or chalk or other material for drawing. crayon v. to draw or color with crayons.
craze (kraɪz) n. 1. great but often short-lived enthusiasm for something. 2. the object of this.
crazed (kra'zd) adj. 1. driven insane, crazed with grief. 2. of pottery glaze etc. showing small cracks.
cra·zy (kra·zy) adj. (zi·er, -zi·est) 1. insane. 2. very foolish, not sensible, this crazy plan. craz'1·ly adv. craz'1·ness n. crazy quilt, a quilt made from pieces of fabric of many colors, sizes, and shapes. like crazy, (informal) like mad, very much.
creak (kreɪk) n. a harsh squeak like that of an unoiled hinge. creak v. to make such a sound. creak'y adj. (creek·l·er, creek·l·est) creak'1·ly adv.
cream1 (kream) n. 1. the fatty part of milk. 2. its color, yellowish white. 3. a food containing or like cream, ice cream. 4. a soft creamlike substance, especially a cosmetic. 5. the best part of something, the cream of society. cream adj. cream-colored. cream v. 1. to remove the cream from; creaming off the best parts, removing them for some special purpose. 2. to make creamy; cream the butter and sugar, beat the mixture to a creamy consistency. 3. to apply a cream to. cream cheese, soft rich cheese made from whole milk and cream. cream of tartar, a compound of potassium used in cookery.
cream2 v. (slang) to defeat badly in a contest. cream off, (slang) to anger.
cream·er (kree·mər) n. 1. a cream pitcher. 2. a substitute for cream, not made from milk.
cream·er·y (kree·mər·i) n. (pl. -er·ies) a place where milk and milk products are processed or sold.
er, cream·i·est) 1. rich in cream. 2. like cream. cream·i·ness n.
crease (krees) n. 1. a line caused by crushing or folding or pressing. 2. the marked area directly in front of the goal cage in hockey. crease v. (creased, creas·ing) 1. to make a crease or creases in. 2. to develop creases.
cre·ate (kri·ayt) v. (cre·at·ed, cre·at·ing) 1. to bring into existence, to originate. 2. to give rise to, to produce by what one does, create a good impression. 3. to portray a dramatic role for the first time, Mary Martin created Nellie Forbush.
cre·a·tion (kree·a·shun) n. 1. the act of creating. 2. all created things. 3. the Creation, God's act of creating the universe.
cre·a·tive (kri·ay-tiv) adj. 1. having the power or ability to create things. 2. showing imagination and originality as well as routine skill, creative work. cre·a·tive·ly adv. cre·a·tiv·i·ty (kree-a·tiv-ee-tee) n. cre·a·tor (kri·ay-tor) n. one who creates something; the Creator, God.
cre·a·ture (kree·chur) n. 1. a living being, especially an animal. 2. a person; a poor creature, someone who is pitted or despised. □ creature comforts, things that make one's life comfortable, such as comfortable surroundings. creature of habit, a person who does things from force of habit.
créche (kresh) n. a model of the manger at Bethlehem.
cre·dence (kred·ens) n. belief. □ Do not confuse credence with credibility.
cre·den·cial (kri·den·shal) n. 1. anything that constitutes a basis for trust. 2. credentials, letters in introduction, evidence of qualifications or authority (usually in written form).
cre·den·za (kred·zen·za) n. a sideboard.
cre·dibil·i·ty (kred·i·bil·i·ty) n. the quality of being credible. □ credibility gap, people's disinclination to trust official statements or the person(s) making these. □ Do not confuse credibility with credence.
cred·i·ble (kred·i·bél) adj. able to be believed, convincing. cred·i·bly adv. □ Do not confuse credible with creditable.
cred·it (kred·it) n. 1. belief that something is true. 2. honor given for some achievement or good quality, shared the credit with his fellow workers. 3. a source of honor, a credit to the firm. 4. a system of doing business by trusting that a person will pay at a later date for goods or services supplied to him; buy on credit, with an arrangement to pay later. 5. the power to buy in this way. 6. the amount of money in a person's bank account or entered in a ledger as paid to the holder. 7. recognition given to a student on completing a requirement for a degree. 8. credits, a list of acknowledgements of participants' contributions shown at the end of a film or television program, a performer's or writer's past achievements. credit v. 1. to believe. 2. to attribute; credit Strauss with this waltz, say that he wrote it. 3. to enter as credit in a ledger. □ credit card, a card authorizing a person to buy on credit. credit line, authority to borrow money. credit union, a cooperative organization that makes small loans to its members at low interest rates.
cred·i·tab·le (kred·i·tab·l) adj. deserving praise. cred·i·tab·ly adv. □ Do not confuse creditable with credible.
cred·i·tor (kred·i·tor) n. a person to whom money is owed.
créd·o (kred·oh, kray·doh) n. (pl. -dos) 1. a creed, especially the Apostles' Creed or the Nicene Creed. 2. a musical setting for any of these.
cred·u·lous (kred·u·lús) adj. too ready to believe things. cre·du·li·ty (kri·doo·li·tee) n.
Cree (kree) n. (pl. Crees, Cree) 1. a member of an Indian tribe of central Canada and Montana. 2. the Algonquin language of this tribe. creed (kreed) n. 1. Creed, a formal summary of Christian beliefs. 2. a set of beliefs or principles.
creek (kreek) n. a small stream, a tributary to a river. □ up the creek, (slang) in difficulties.
Creek (kreek) n. a member of an Indian tribe formerly of Georgia, Alabama, and Florida, now mainly in Oklahoma. creel (krel) n. a fisherman's wicker basket for carrying fish.
creek (krep) v. (crept, creep·ing) 1. to move with the body close to the ground. 2. to move timidly or slowly or stealthily, to come on gradually. 3. (of plants) to grow along the ground or other surface. 4. to feel as if covered with crawling things; it will make your flesh creep, have this effect by causing fear or dislike. creep n. 1. creeping. 2. (slang) a person one dislikes, one who seeks favor by behaving in a servile way. □ give a person the creeps, (informal) to make his flesh creep. make one's flesh creep, to make one's skin seem to move in horror.
creep·er (krep·er) n. 1. a person or thing that creeps. 2. a creeping plant.
creep·y (krep·pee) adj. (creep·i·er, creep·i·est) making one's flesh creep, cremate / Crimian

feeling this sensation. creep'·i·ness n. cre·mate (kree-mayt) v. (cre·mat· ed, cre·mat·ing) to burn (a corpse) to ashes. cre·ma·tion (kri-may-shon) n. cre·ma·to·ri·um (kree-mä-toh-ri-üm, krem-ä-) n. (pl. -to·ri·ums, -to·ri·a, pr. -tohr·i-ä) a place where corpses are cremated.
cre·ma·to·ry (kree-mä-toh-re, kre-mä-) adj. of or pertaining to cremation. cre·ma·to·ry·n·o·ty (kre-mä-to·ri·nö·ti) n.
cremate (krem-ä-) v. to burn in an incinerator. cre·ma·to·ry·n·o·ty (kre-mä-to·ri·nö·ti) n. crem·a·tious (kjrem-ä-té-us) adj. of or involving cremation. 2. (informal) very stupid.
creme (kré-m) n. 1. a thick brown oily liquid obtained from coal tar, used as a preservative for wood. 2. a colorless liquid obtained from wood tar, used as an antiseptic. creosote (kre-ö-sot·ing) n. cre·o·sot·ing (kre·o·sot·ing) n.
crepe (krip, krep) n. 1. fabric with a wrinkled surface. 2. rubber with a wrinkled texture, used for shoe soles. cre·pe·pa·per, thin crepe-like paper.
crépe Su·zette (krip soo-zet, krepe) n.
crep·es Su·zettes (pl. kre·pes Su·zettes, pr. krip soo-zet, krep) a small sweet pancake served flambé.
crept (krept) see creep.
cre·pus·cu·lar (ki-ru·pyu-lär) adj. of or like twilight.
cres., cres. abbr. crescendo.
cre·scen·do (kri-shen-doh) adj. & adv. gradually becoming louder. cres·cen·do n. (pl. -dos) a gradual increase in loudness.
cres·cent (kres·ënt) n. 1. a narrow curved shape tapering to a point at each end. 2. something shaped like this. 3. a curved street.
cress (kres) n. any of various plants with pungent leaves, used in salads.
crest (krest) n. 1. a tuft or fleshy outgrowth on a bird's or animal's head. 2. a plume on a helmet. 3. the top of a slope or hill, the white top of a large wave. 4. a design above the shield on a coat of arms, or used separately on a seal or notepaper etc. crested adj. to reach the crest, to reach the highest level before receding. crest·ed (kres·tëd) adj.
crest·fall·en (krest·fal·len) adj. downcast, disappointed at failure.
cre·ta·ceous (kri·tay-shus) adj. 1. of or like chalk. 2. Cretaceous, of the latest geologic period of the Mesozoic era. cre·ta·ceous n. this period.
cre·tan (kree-tan) adj. of Crete, an island in the East Mediterranean.
cre·tin (kree-tin) adj. a person suffering from cretinism. cre·tin·ism (kree-ti·niz·ëm) n. an abnormality in which a person is deformed and mentally undeveloped through lack of thyroid hormone.
cre·tin·ous (kjret·ë-nës) adj. 1. of or involving cretinism. 2. (informal) very stupid.
cre·ton·ne (kri·ton) n. heavy cotton cloth with a printed pattern, used in curtains and upholstery.
cre·vasse (kri·vas) n. a deep open crack, especially in the ice of a glacier.
crev·ice·menthe (krip ked mahnt) a green liqueur flavored with peppermint.
cre·vices·menthe (krip ked-mee-an) n. 1. a descendant of European settlers in Louisiana or the West Indies or Central or South America. 2. the dialect spoken by these.
cre·o·sote (krip sót) n. 1. a thick brown oily liquid obtained from coal tar, used as a preservative for wood. 2. a colorless liquid obtained from wood tar, used as an antiseptic. creosote (kri-tët-ëd, kri-tët·ing) n. to treat with creosote.
crer's, cres. abbr. crescendo.
crib (krip) n. 1. a wooden framework from which animals can pull out fodder. 2. a baby's bed. 3. something copied from another person's work. 4. a literal translation (for use by students) of something written in a foreign language. crib (crib·bed, crib·bing) v. to copy unfairly or without acknowledgment. crib·ber n.
crib·bage (krip·ij) n. a card game in which the score is kept on a board. crib·bage·board, a board with pegs and holes for scoring cribbage.
crick (krik) n. a painful stiffness in the neck or back. crick v. to cause a crick in.
crick·et·i·st (krik·it·st) n. an outdoor summer game played with a ball, bats, and wickets, between two sides of eleven players.
not cricket, (informal) not fair play.
cricket n. a brown grasshopper-like insect that makes a shrill chirping sound.
crick·et·er (krik·et·ër) n. a cricket player.
cri·er (kri·er) n. 1. one who cries. 2. (old use) a town crier (see town).
crime (krim) n. 1. a serious offense, one for which there is punishment by law. 2. such offenses, serious law-breaking, the detection of crime. 3. (informal) a shame, a senseless act, it would be a crime to miss such a chance.
Cri·me·an (kri·më-an) adj. of the Cri-crook·ed (kruk-ed) adj. 1. not straight or level, having curves or bends or twists. 2. dishonest, not straightforward.
crook·ed·ly adv. crook·ed·ness n.
croon (kroon) v. to sing softly and gently.
croon·er n.
crop (krop) n. 1. a batch of plants grown for their produce. 2. the harvest from this. 3. a group or quantity appearing or produced at one time, this year’s crop of students. 4. the bag-like part of a bird’s throat in which food is broken up for digestion before passing into the stomach. 5. the handle of a whip, one with a loop instead of a lash. 6. a very short haircut. crop v. (cropped, crop·ping) 1. to cut or bite off, sheep crop the grass closely. 2. to cut (hair) very short. □crop up, to occur unexpectedly.
crop-dust·ing (krop-dus·ting) n. the spraying of growing crops from an airplane with insecticide or fungicide. crop dust·er n.
crop·land (krop·land) n. land on which crops can be grown.
crop·per (krop·per) n. come a cropper, (informal) to have a heavy fall or a bad failure.
cro·quet (kroh-kay) n. a game played on a lawn with wooden balls that are driven through hoops with mallets.
cro·quette (kroh-ket) n. a fried ball or roll of potato, meat, or fish, coated with crumbs.
cro·sier (kroh-zher) n. a hooked staff carried by a bishop as a symbol of office.
cross (kraws) n. 1. a mark made by drawing one line across another. 2. an upright post with another piece of wood across it, used in ancient times for crucifixion; the Cross, that on which Christ died. 3. a model of this as a Christian emblem, a monument in this form. 4. an affliction, an annoying thing one has to bear. 5. a cross-shaped emblem or medal, the Distinguished Service Cross. 6. an animal or plant produced by crossbreeding. 7. a mixture of two different things. cross v. 1. to place crosswise; a crossed telephone line, an accidental connection. 2. draw a line across, cross the t’s. 3. to make the sign of the Cross on or over; cross oneself, do this as a sign of religious awe or to call upon God for protection. 4. to go or extend across. 5. to frustrate, to oppose the wishes or plans of. 6. to crossbreed (animals), to cross-fertilize (plants). cross adj. 1. passing from side to side; cross winds, blowing across one’s direction of travel. 2. annoyed, showing bad temper. cross’fly adv. cross·ness n. □at cross purposes, misunderstanding or conflicting with each other.
cross a person’s path, to come across him. cross hairs, fine wires at the focus of an optical instrument for use in measurement. cross in the mail, (of letters between two people) to be in the mails at the same time. cross off, to cross out. cross one’s mind, to come briefly into one’s mind. cross out, to show that (a thing) is no longer valid by drawing a line through it. cross section, a representation of the internal structure of something that has been cut crossways; a representative sample. cross swords, to have a controversy, cross swords with her. cross talk, unwanted transfer of signals between radio or telephone etc. communication channels. keep one’s fingers crossed, to hope that nothing unfortunate will happen, crooking one finger over another to bring good luck. cross·bar (kraws-bahr) n. a horizontal bar.
cross·bones (kraws-bohnz) n. a representation of two crossed thighbones (see skull).
cross·bow (kraws-bow) n. a bow fixed across a wooden stock, with a groove for the arrow and a mechanism for drawing and releasing the string. cross’ bow·man n. (pl. -men, pr. -men).
cross·breed (kraws-breed) v. (cross·bred, cross·breed·ing) to produce by mating an animal with one of a different kind. crossbreed n. an animal produced in this way.
cross·check (kraws-check) v. to check by an alternative method of verification.
cross·con·try (kraws-kun-tree) adj. & adv. across fields, not keeping to main roads or to a direct road. cross·country (kraws-kun-tree) n. a cross-country sport, especially running or skiing.
cross·cut (kraws-kut) n. a cut across the grain (of wood). □crosscut saw, a saw for making such cuts.
cross·eye (kraws-i) n. an eye that is turned permanently toward the nose. □cross·eyed adj.
cross·fer·til·ize (kraws-fur·tilliz) v. (cross·fer·til·ized, cross·fer·til·iz·ing) 1. to fertilize (a plant or animal) crossfire / crucible

from one of a different kind. 2. to help by an interchange of ideas etc. cross-fir-ti-li-za-tion (kraws-für-ti-ly-zay-shòn) n.
cross-fire (kraws-fir) n. the firing of guns from two or more points so that the lines of fire cross.
cross-grained (kraws-graynd) adj. (of wood) with the grain in crossing directions.
cross-hatch (kraws-hach) v. to shade with intersecting sets of parallel lines.
cross-ing (kraws-sing) n. 1. a journey across water, we had a smooth crossing. 2. a place where things cross. 3. a specially marked place for pedestrians to cross a road.
cross-leg-ged (kraws-leg-id) adj. sitting with legs crossed.
cross-patch (kraws-pach) n. a bad-tempered person.
cross-piece (kraws-pées) n. a crosswise part of a structure etc.
cross-ply (kraws-pli) adj. (of tires) having fabric layers with cords lying crosswise.
cross-pol-l-i-nate (kraws-pol-i-nayt) v. (cross-pol-li-nat-ed, cross-pol-li-nat-ing) to pollinate (a plant) from another. cross-pol-li-na-tion (kraws-pol-i-nay-shòn) n.
cross-pur-pose (kraws-pur-pòs) n. a contrary or conflicting purpose.
cross-que-si-tion (kraws-kwes-chōn) v. to cross-examine.
cross-ref-er-ence (kraws-ref-ër-ênś) n. a note directing readers to another part of a book or index for further information.
cross-roads (kraws-rohdz) n. a place where two or more roads intersect.
cross-town (kraws-town) adj. (of a street, bus, etc.) going across a city.
cross-walk (kraws-wāk) n. a marked path for people to use in walking across a street.
cross-ways (kraws-wāyz) adv. crosswise.
cross-wise (kraws-wīz) adj. & adv. in the form of a cross, with one crossing another.
cross-word (kraws-wurd) puzzle a puzzle in which intersecting words, indicated by clues, have to be inserted into blank squares in a diagram.
crotch (kroch) n. 1. a place where things fork. 2. the part of the body or of a garment where the legs fork.
crotch-et-y (kroch-ë-tee) adj. peevish.
crouch (krooch) v. to lower the body with the limbs bent and close to it, to be in this position. crouch n. this position.
croup (kroop) n. a disease in which inflammation of the windpipe causes a hard cough and difficulty in breathing.
croup'y adj.
crou-pl-er (kroo-pee-ay) n. a person who rakes in the money at a gambling table and pays out winnings.
crou-ton (kroo-ton) n. a small piece of fried or toasted bread served with soup etc.
crow1 (kroh) n. a large black bird.
• as the crow flies, in a straight line.
crow's nest, a protected lookout platform high on the mast of a ship. to eat crow, (informal) to submit to humiliation.
crow2 v. (crowed or [chiefly British] crew, crow-ing) 1. (of a rooster) to make a loud shrill cry. 2. to express gleeful triumph. crow n. a crowing cry or sound.
Crow (kroh) n. (pl. Crows, Crow) 1. a member of a tribe of Indians in western U.S. 2. their language.
crow-bar (kroh-bahr) n. a steel bar with a chiseled end, used as a lever.
crowd (krowd) n. a large group of people gathered together. crowd v. 1. to come together in a crowd. 2. to fill or occupy fully or cram with people or things. crowd-ed (krow-did) adj. □ crowd out, to keep out by crowding.
crow-foot (kroh-fuut) n. (pl. -foots) a small wild plant of the buttercup family.
crown (krown) n. 1. an ornamental head-dress worn by a king or queen. 2. the sovereign, his or her authority, loyalty to the crown. 3. the Crown, the supreme governing power in the United Kingdom. 4. a wreath worn on the head, especially as a symbol of victory. 5. a crown-shaped object or ornament. 6. the top part of something (as of the head or a hat or a tooth), the highest part of something arched, the crown of the road. crown v. 1. to place a crown on, as a symbol of royal power or victory; the crowned heads of Europe, kings and queens. 2. to form or cover or ornament the top part of. 3. to make a successful conclusion to, our efforts were crowned with success; to crown it all, completing one's good or bad fortune. 4. to put an artificial top on (a tooth). 5. (slang) to hit on the head. □ crown jewels, a sovereign's crown, scepter, orb, etc. used at coronations. crown prince or princess, the heir to a throne. crow's-foot (kroh-fuut) n. a wrinkle in the skin at the side of the eye.
cru-cial (kroh-zhsl) adj. very important, deciding an important issue, at the crucial moment. cru'cial-ly adv.
cru-ci-ble (kroo-šl-bël) n. a pot in which metals are melted.
cru·ci·fix (krú-skú-fiks) n. a model of the Cross or of Christ on the Cross.
cru·ci·fix·ion (krú-skú-fiks-shún) n. crucifying, being crucified; the Crucifixion, that of Christ.
cru·ci·form (krú-skú-form) adj. cross-shaped.
cru·ci·fy (krú-skú-fi) v. (krú·si·fi·ed, krú·si·fy·ing) 1. to put to death by nailing or binding to a cross. 2. to cause extreme mental pain to.
cru·de (krúd) adj. (cru·de·er, cru·de·est) 1. in a natural state, not refined, crude oil. 2. not well finished or worked out, rough, a crude attempt. 3. without good manners, vulgar. crude n. crude oil. crude·ly adv. crude·ness n. crud·i·ty n. □cru·de oil, unrefined petroleum.
cru·el (krú-ul) adj. (-e·er, -e·est) 1. feeling pleasure in another's suffering, 2. causing pain or suffering, this cruel war. cruel·ly adv. cruel·ty n. (pl. -ties).
cru·et (krú-ét) n. a small glass bottle for holding oil or vinegar for use at the table.
cruise (krúz) v. (cruised, cruise·ing) 1. to sail about for pleasure or on patrol. 2. (of a vehicle or aircraft) to travel at a moderate speed that is economical of fuel. 3. to drive at moderate speed, or at random when looking for passengers etc. cruise n. a cruising voyage.
cruise missile, a low-flying jet-powered radar-controlled guided missile.
cruise ship, a passenger ship that takes passengers on cruise.
cruise·er (krú-zér) n. 1. a fast warship, smaller than a battleship. 2. a cabin cruiser (see cabin). 3. a police patrol car.
crul·ler (krú-lér) (krul-zher) n. a crisp doughnut, often in a twisted shape.
crumb (krúm) n. a small fragment, especially of bread or other food. □crumb bun, a sweet bread roll topped with crumbs.
crum·ble (krúm-bél) v. (crum·bled, crum·bling) to break or fall into small fragments. □Do not confuse crumble with crushed.
crum·bly (krúm-bél·i) adj. (-bl·er, -bl·est) easily crumbled.
crum·my (krúm-ee) adj. (crum·mi·er, crum·mi·est) (slang) 1. dirty, squalid. 2. inferior, worthless.
crum·pet (krúm-pet) n. (British) a soft cake of yeast mixture, baked on a griddle and eaten toasted.
crum·ple (krúm-pél) v. (crum·pled, crum·pling) 1. to crush or become crushed into creases. 2. to collapse loosely. □Do not confuse crumple with crush.
crunch (krúch) v. 1. to crush noisily with the teeth. 2. to walk or move with a sound of crushing, to make such a sound. crunch n. 1. crunching. 2. a crunching noise. 3. a decisive event. □energy crunch, an energy crisis (see crisis), when it comes to the crunch, (in·form·al) when there is a showdown.
cru·sade (krú·said) n. 1. (also Cru·sade) any of the military expeditions made by Europeans in the Middle Ages to recover the Holy Land from the Muslims. 2. a campaign against something believed to be bad. crusade v. (cru·sad·ed, cru·sad·ing) to take part in a crusade. cru·sad·er n.
crush (krúch) v. 1. to press so as to break or injure or wrinkle, to squeeze tightly. 2. to pound into small fragments. 3. to become crushed. 4. to defeat or subdue completely, a crushing defeat or reply. crush n. 1. a crowd of people pressed together. 2. a drink made from crushed fruit. 3. (in·form·al) an infatuation.
crush·a·ble (krúsh-á-bél) adj. able to be crushed easily. crust (krúst) n. 1. the hard outer layer of something, especially bread. 2. the rocky outer portion of Earth.
crus·ta·cean (krú-sta-seen) n. an animal that has a hard shell (as crab, lobster, shrimp).
crust·y (krúst·ee) adj. (cru·st·i·er, cru·st·i·est) 1. having a crisp crust. 2. having a harsh manner. cru·st·i·ness n. crutch (krúch) n. 1. a support for a lame person, usually fitting under the armpit. 2. any support.
cru·x·t·i·ro (krú-zair-oh) n. (pl. -ros) the unit of money in Brazil.
cry (kri) n. (pl. cries) 1. a loud wordless sound expressing pain, grief, joy, etc. 2. a shout. 3. the call of a bird or animal. 4. an appeal, a demand. 5. a battle cry. 6. a spell of weeping, have a good cry. cry v. (cried, crying) 1. to shed tears; cry one's heart or eyes out, to weep bitterly. 2. to call out loudly in words. 3. to appeal, to demand; a crying shame, one demanding attention. 4. (of an animal) to utter its cry. 5. to announce for sale by shouting, crying their wares. □cry wolf, to raise false alarms. □in full cry, in hot pursuit.
cry·ba·by (kri-bay-bee) n. (pl. -bies) a person who weeps easily without good cause.
cry·o·gen·ic·al·ly (kri-ö-jen-ik-lé) adv.
cry·o·gen·ics (kri-ö-jen-iks) n. the branch of physics dealing with very low temperatures and their effects.

Cryosurgery / Cudgel

Cryosurgery (kri-oh-súr-jé-ree) n. the surgical use of intense cold for anesthesia or therapy.

Crypt (krip't) n. a room below the main floor of a church, used as a burial place.

Cryptic (krip-tik) adj. concealing its meaning in a puzzling way. cryptically adv.

Cryptogamy (krip-tog-rá-phy) n. the art of writing in or solving codes. cryptographer n.

Crystal abbr. 1. crystalline. 2. crystallized. 3. crystallography.

Crystallography (kris-ta-log-ra-fee) n. the scientific study of the structure, classification, and properties of crystals.

crystalline adj. transparent to certain light. crystallization n. the process of becoming crystalline.

crystallized v. to form crystals.

crystal ball, a globe of glass used in crystal gazing. crystal clear, obvious. crystal gazing, looking into a crystal ball in an attempt to see future events pictured there.

Crystal-line (kris-ta-lin) adj. 1. like or containing crystals. 2. transparent, very clear.

crystalized adj. formed into a solid state.

Crystallography n. the scientific study of the structure, classification, and properties of crystals.

crystallographer n. crystallography n. the study of crystals.

cut v. to make a cut (food) into small cubes. 2. to find the cube of (a number). 3. to make (meat) tender by scoring.

cube root, see root (definition 7). cube steak, a thin slice of cubed beef.

cubic (kyoo-bik) adj. of three dimensions; one cubic centimeter, the volume of a cube with sides one centimeter long.

Cubical adj. having a shape of a cube, cube-shaped.

cubicle (kyoo-bi-kel) n. a small division of a large room, an enclosed space screened for privacy.

cubicle n. a small division of a large room, an enclosed space screened for privacy.

cubicle n. a small division of a large room, an enclosed space screened for privacy.

cubicle n. a small division of a large room, an enclosed space screened for privacy.

cubicle n. a small division of a large room, an enclosed space screened for privacy.

cubicle n. a small division of a large room, an enclosed space screened for privacy.

The term cubical is used to describe the shape of a cube or something that has the shape of a cube.

Cubical adj. having a shape of a cube, cube-shaped. cubic adj. relating to or having the shape of a cube.

Cut v. to make a cut (food) into small cubes. 2. to find the cube of (a number). 3. to make (meat) tender by scoring.

cubes (kubz) n. a small compartment.

cubed adj. 1. cut into small cubes. 2. having been cut into small cubes.

Cubiform adj. having a cube-like shape.

Cubic adj. relating to or having the shape of a cube.

Cubility n. the quality of being cubic.

Cuboid adj. having a shape of a cuboid, cuboid-shaped.

Cuboid adj. having a shape of a cuboid, cuboid-shaped.

Cuboid adj. having a shape of a cuboid, cuboid-shaped.

Cuboid adj. having a shape of a cuboid, cuboid-shaped.

Cuboid adj. having a shape of a cuboid, cuboid-shaped.

Cuboid adj. having a shape of a cuboid, cuboid-shaped.

Cuboid adj. having a shape of a cuboid, cuboid-shaped.

Cuboid adj. having a shape of a cuboid, cuboid-shaped.

Cuboid adj. having a shape of a cuboid, cuboid-shaped.

Cuboid adj. having a shape of a cuboid, cuboid-shaped.

Cuboid adj. having a shape of a cuboid, cuboid-shaped.

Cuboid adj. having a shape of a cuboid, cuboid-shaped.
remember. take up the cudgels for, to defend vigorously.

cue
ter
1 (kyoo) n. something said or done that serves as a signal for something else to be done, as for an actor to speak in a play. cue v. (cued, cu·ing) to give a cue to.

cue2 n. a long rod for striking the ball (cue ball) in billiards and similar games.

cuff (kuf) n. 1. a doubled strip of cloth forming a band around the end part of a sleeve, or a separate band worn similarly. 2. the part of a glove covering the wrist. □ cuff link, one of a pair of fasteners for shirt cuffs, used instead of buttons.

off the cuff, without rehearsal or preparation. off-the-cuff adj. produced in this way, on the cuff, (slang) on credit, to be paid for later.

cuff v. to strike with the open hand. cuff n. a cuffing blow.

cui·bo·no (kwee boh-noh) who gains by this? □ Do not use this Latin phrase to mean "what is the use?"

cul·sine (kwi-zeen) n. a style of cooking.

cuke (kyook) n. (informal) a cucumber.

cul·de·sac (kul-de-sak) n. (pl. culs-, pr. kul-) a street an opening at one end only, a blind alley.

cul·lar·y (kyoo-ler-ee) adj. of a kitchen or cooking, the culinary art.

cull (kull) v. 1. to pick (flowers). 2. to select. 3. to pick out and kill (surplus animals from a flock). cull n. 1. culling. 2. a thing culled as surplus.

cul·mi·nat·ed (kul-mi-nayt) v. (cul·mi·nat·ed, cul·mi·nat·ing) to reach its highest point or degree, the argument culminated in a fight. cul·mi·na·tion (kul-mi-nay-shun) n.

cul·lot·tes (koo-lots) n. pl. women’s trousers styled to look like a skirt.

cul·pa·ble (kul-pa-bel) adj. deserving blame. cul·pa·ble·ly adv. cul·pa·ble·ty (kul-pa-bel-ty) n.

cul·prit (kul-prit) n. a person who has committed a crime or offense.

cult (kult) n. 1. a system of religious worship. 2. devotion to or admiration of a person or thing; the Elvis Presley cult, his devoted group of admirers. cult·ist n.

cul·ti·gate (kul-ti-gate) v. (cul·ti·gate·ed, cul·ti·gate·ing) 1. to prepare and use (land) for crops. 2. to produce (crops) by tending them. 3. to spend time and care in developing (a thing); cultivate a person, try to win his good will. cul·ti·va·ble (kul-ti-vay-bel) adj. cul·ti·va·tion (kul-ti-vay-shun) n.

cul·ti·vat·or (kul-ti-vay-tor) n. 1. an implement or machine for breaking up soil for planting or for uprooting weeds. 2. one who cultivates.

cul·tur·al (kul-chu-rul) adj. of culture. cul·tur·al·ly adv.

cul·ture (kul-chur) n. 1. the appreciation and understanding of literature, arts, music, etc. 2. the customs and civilization of a particular people or group, West Indian culture. 3. improvement by care and training, physical culture. 4. the cultivating of plants, the rearing of bees, silkworms, etc. 5. a quantity of bacteria grown for study. culture v. (cul·tured, cul·tur·ing) to grow (bacteria) for study. □ culture shock, the confusion experienced when introduced to a culture strikingly different from one's own.

cul·tured (kul-chur·d) adj. educated to appreciate literature, arts, music, etc. □ cultured pearl, a pearl formed by an oyster when a foreign body is inserted artificially into its shell.

cul·vert (kul-vert) n. a drain that crosses under a road or railroad etc.

cum (kum) prep. with. □ cum dividend, including a dividend that is about to be paid.

cum·ber·some (kum-bur-som) adj. clumsy to carry or wear or manage.

cum div. abbr. cum dividend.

cum·in (kum-in) n. a plant with fragrant seeds that are used for flavoring.

cum·la·de (kum low-dee) n. with academic distinction. □ Latin.

cum·mer·bund (kum-er-bund) n. a sash worn around the waist, especially in men's formal dress.

cu·mu·la·tive (kyoo-myoo-lay-tiv) adj. increasing in amount by one addition after another. cu·mu·la·tive·ly adv.

cu·mu·lo·nim·bus (kyoo-myoo-loh-nim-bus) n. a type of gray dense column-shaped cloud with spreading top.

cu·mu·lus (kyoo-myoo-lus) n. (pl. -lus) a type of cloud formed in rounded masses heaped on each other.

cu·ne·i·form (kyoo-nee-i-form) adj. wedge-shaped. cu·neiform n. wedge-shaped writing found in ancient inscriptions of Assyria, Persia, etc.

cun·ner (kun-er) n. a small fish food fish found off the New England coast.

cun·ning (kun-ing) adj. 1. skilled at deceiving people, crafty. 2. ingenious, a cunning device. 3. attractive, quaint. cunning n. craftiness. cu·nning·ly adv.

cup (kup) n. 1. a small open container for drinking from, usually bowl-shaped and with a handle, used with a saucer. 2. its contents, the amount it contains (used as a measure in cookery). 3. something shaped like a cup. 4. an ornamental goblet-shaped vessel awarded as a prize. cup v. (capped, cup·ping) 1. to form into cupbearer / currency

a cuplike shape, cupped his hands. 2. to hold as if in a cup, with her chin cupped in her hands. cupful n. (pl. -fuls).
□ not my cup of tea, (informal) not what I like, not what interests me.
▷ Note the plural of cupful.

cupbearer (kup-bair-ér) n. one who serves wine, especially an attendant in a noble or royal household.
cup-board (kub-árd) n. a recess or piece of furniture with a door, in which things may be stored.
cup-cake (kup-kayk) n. a small, usually iced, cake baked in a cuplike pan.
Cupid (kyoo-pid) the Roman god of love.
cupid n. a picture or statue of a beautiful boy with wings and a bow and arrows.
cupidity n. greed for gain.
cupola (kyoo-pd-la) n. a small dome on a roof.
cuprite (kyoo-prit) n. red ore of copper.
cupro-nickel (kyoo-pró-nik-él) n. an alloy of copper and nickel containing up to forty percent nickel.
cur (kur) n. 1. a bad-tempered or worthless dog. 2. a contemptible person.
curr. abbr. 1. currency. 2. current.
cur·a·ble (kyoo-ra-bél) adj. able to be cured.
cur·a·cao (kyoo-ra-soh) n. a liqueur flavored with peel of bitter oranges.
cur·a·cy (kyoor-á-see) n. (pl. -cies) the position of a curate.
cur·a·re (kyu-rar-ee) n. a bitter extract of various South American plants, used by South American Indians as a poison on arrows.
cur·ate (kyoor-it) n. a clergyman who assists a vicar or rector.
cur·a·tive (kyoor-á-tiv) adj. helping to cure illness. curative n. a substance that cures illness.
cur·a·tor (kyoo-ray-tór) n. a person in charge of a museum or other collection.
curb (kurb) n. 1. something that restrains, put a curb on spending. 2. a raised edge of a paved street or other surface. curb v. to restrain. □ curb service, service (by a bank, restaurant, etc.) provided to people in parked automobiles.
curb·bing (kur-bing) n. 1. the material out of which a curb (definition 2) is formed. 2. a curb.
curb·stone (kurb-stohn) n. a stone or group of stones used as curbing.
curd (kurd) n. (often curds) the thick soft substance formed when milk turns sour.
curd·le (kur-dél) v. (cur·dled, cur·dling) to form or cause to form curds.
□ curdle one's blood, to fill one with horror.
cure (kyoor) v. (cured, curing) 1. to restore to health. 2. to get rid of (a disease or troublesome condition). 3. to preserve (meat, fruit, tobacco, or skins) by salting, drying, etc. 4. to vulcanize (rubber).
cure n. 1. curing, being cured, cannot guarantee a cure. 2. a substance or treatment that cures a disease, a remedy.
cur·é (kyu-ray) n. a parish priest in France and French-speaking areas.
cure-all (kyoor-awl) n. a remedy for all kinds of diseases or troubles, a panacea.
cur·ret·tage (kyoor-é-tahz’h) n. scraping surgically to remove tissue or growths.
cur·rette, cur·ret (kyu-rett) n. a surgeon's small scraping instrument. currette, curet v. (cur·ret·ted, cur·ret·ting) to scrape with a curette.
cur·few (kur-fyoo) n. a signal or time after which people must remain indoors until the next day.
cur·ri·a (kyoor-i-a) n. the government departments of the Vatican.
cur·ri·e (kyoor-ee) n. a unit of radioactivity, corresponding to 37 billion disintegrations per second.
cur·ri·o (kyoo-rett) n. (pl. -ri·os) an object that is interesting because it is rare or unusual.
cur·ri·os·i·ty (kyoor-i-os-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. a desire to find out and know things. 2. something that is of interest because it is rare or unusual.
cur·ri·ous (kyoor-i-ús) adj. 1. eager to learn or know something. 2. strange, unusual. cur·ri·ous·ly adv.
cur·ri·um (kyoor-i-üm) n. an artificially made radioactive metallic element.
curl (kurl) v. 1. to bend, to coil into a spiral. 2. to move in a spiral form, smoke curled upward. curl n. 1. something curled inward or coiled. 2. a coiled lock of hair. 3. a curling movement. □ curl up, (informal) to lie or sit with the knees drawn up comfortably.
curl·er (kur-lër) n. a device for curling the hair.
cur·lew (kur-loo) n. a wading bird with a long slender curved bill.
curl·i·cule (kur-li-kyoo) n. a decorative curl or twist.
curl·ing (kur-ling) n. a game played with large flat round stones that are sent along ice toward a mark.
curl·y (kur-lee) adj. (curl·i·er, curl·i·est) curling, full of curls.
cur·mud·ge·on (kur-muj-ôn) n. a bad-tempered person.
cur·rant (kur-ánt) n. 1. the dried fruit of a small seedless grape, used in cookery. 2. a small round red, white, or black berry, the shrub that produces it.
▷ Do not confuse currant with current.
cur·ren·cy (kur-ën-see) n. (pl. -cies) 1.
money in actual use in a country. 2. the state of being in common or general use; the rumor gained currency, became generally known and believed.

cur·rent (kur-ënt) adj. 1. belonging to the present time, happening now, current events. 2. in general circulation or use, some words are no longer current. current n. 1. water or air etc. moving in a certain direction, a running stream. 2. the flow of electricity through something or along a wire or cable. cur·rent·ly adv. ▷ Do not confuse current with curren·tly.

cur·ric·u·lum (kúr-ri-kú-lúm) n. (pl. -la, pr. -là) a course of study.

cur·ry (kur-ë) n. (pl. -ries) 1. seasoning made with hot-tasting spices. 2. a dish flavored with this. curry v. (cur·ried, cur·ry·ing) to flavor with curry. □ curry powder, a hot-tasting blend of powdered cumin, coriander, turmeric, and other spices.

curry v. (cur·ried, cur·ry·ing) to groom (a horse) with a currycomb, a pad with rubber or plastic projections. □ curry favor, to win favor by flattery.

curse (kurs) n. 1. a call for evil to come upon a person or thing. 2. the evil produced by this. 3. a violent exclamation of anger. 4. something that causes evil or harm. curse v. (cursed, curs·ing) 1. to utter a curse against. 2. to exclaim violently in anger. □ be cursed with, to have as a burden or source of harm.

curs·ed (kur·sid) adj. damnable.

cur·sive (kur·siv) adj. of a style of writing with joined characters and rounded angles.

cur·so·ry (kur-so·ree) adj. hasty and not thorough, a cursory inspection. cur·so·ry·ly adv. cur·so·ri·ness n.

curt (kurt) adj. noticeably or rudely brief. curt·ly adv. curt·ness n.

cur·tail (kúr-tayl) v. to cut short, to reduce, cur·tail·ment n.

cur·tain (kur·tin) n. 1. a piece of cloth or other material hung up as a screen, especially at a window or between the stage and auditorium of a theater. 2. the fall of a stage curtain at the end of an act or scene. 3. a curtain call. 4. curtains, (slang) the end. curtain v. to provide or shut off with a curtain or curtains. □ curtain call, applause calling for an actor etc. to take a bow after the curtain has been lowered.

cur·tsy (pl. -sies), cur·sey (pl. -seys) (kurt-sey) n. a movement of respect made by women and girls, bending the knees and lowering the body with one foot forward. cur·tsy (cur·sied, cur·sy·ing), curtsie (cur·sied, cur·sey·ing) v. to make a curtsy.

cur·va·ceous (kúr-vay-shús) adj. (informal) having a shapely figure.

cur·va·ture (kur-vá-chur) n. curving, a curved form, curvature of the spine.

curve (kuryv) n. 1. a line of which no part is straight. 2. a smooth continuous surface of which no part is flat. 3. a curved form or thing. curve v. (curved, cur·ving) to bend or shape so as to form a curve.

cush·ion (kuush·ôn) n. 1. a bag of cloth or other fabric filled with soft material, used to make a seat etc. more comfortable. 2. a soft pad or other means of support or of protection against jarring. 3. the elastic border around a billiard table, from which the balls rebound. cushion v. 1. to furnish with a cushion or cushions. 2. to lessen the impact of (a blow, or shock). 3. to protect from the effects of something harmful.

cush·y (kuush·ë) adj. (cush·i·er, cush·i·est) (informal) pleasant and easy, a cushy job.

cusp (kus·p) n. a pointed end where two curves meet, as the horn of a crescent moon.

cus·pid (kus·pid) n. a tooth narrowing to a single point.

cus·pi·dor (kus·pi·dor) n. a spittoon.

cuss (kus) v. (informal) to curse. cuss n. (informal) 1. a curse. 2. a person, an awkward cuss.

cuss·ed (kus·id) adj. (informal) 1. cursed. 2. awkward and stubborn. cuss·ed·ness n.

cus·tard (kus·têrd) n. 1. a dish or sauce made with beaten eggs and milk. 2. a similar food frozen, frozen custard.

cus·to·di·al (kus-tô·di·al) adj. of or involving custody.

cus·to·di·an (kus-tô·di·an) n. 1. a guardian or keeper, especially of a public building or a trust fund. 2. a janitor.

cus·to·dy (kus·tô·de) n. (pl. -dies) 1. the right or duty of taking care of something, guardianship; in safe custody, safely guarded. 2. imprisonment. □ take into custody, to arrest.

cus·tom·er (kus·têm) n. 1. a usual way of behaving or of doing something. 2. the regular patronage of a merchant or a business by customers.

cus·tom·ar·y (kus·tô·mer·ê) adj. in accordance with custom, usual. cus·tom·ar·i·ly adv.

cus·tom·built (kus·tôm·built) adj. custom-made.

cus·tom·er (kus·tô·mêr) n. 1. a person who buys goods or services from a shop or business. 2. a person one has to deal with, an ugly customer.

customhouse (kus-töm-hous’) n. (also customhouse) a building for Customs officials.

cus-tom-made (kus-töm-mayd’) adj. made according to a customer’s order.

cus-toms (kus-tömz’) 1. duty charged on goods imported from other countries. 2. Customs, the government department dealing with such duties and the ships and vehicles that carry the goods. 3. the area at a port or airport where Customs officials examine goods and baggage brought into a country. □ customs union, a group of countries that have arranged to charge the same amount of duty on imported goods.

cut (kut’) v. (cut, cut’-ting) 1. to divide or wound or detach with an edged instrument; the knife won’t cut, is blunt. 2. to shape or make or shorten in this way. 3. to be able to be cut, cotton fabric cuts easily. 4. to have (a tooth) appear through the gum, she is cutting her first tooth. 5. to cross, to intersect; you can cut across the field, go across it as a shorter way. 6. to reduce by removing part, cut taxes; two scenes were cut by the producer. 7. to switch off (electric power, an engine, etc.). 8. to lift part of a pack of playing cards. 9. to hit a ball with a chopping movement in handball etc. 10. to stay away deliberately from, cut the class. 11. to ignore (a person) deliberately. 12. to dilute (whiskey for drinking). cut n. 1. the act of cutting, a division or wound made by this. 2. a stroke with a sword or whip or cane. 3. a stroke made by cutting a ball in sports. 4. a piece of meat cut from the carcass of an animal. 5. the way a thing is cut, the style in which clothes are made by cutting. 6. a cutting remark. 7. a reduction, a tax cut. 8. the cutting out of part of a play or film etc. 9. (slang) a share of profits, commission, loot, etc.

a cut above, noticeably superior to.

cut a dashing figure, to make a brilliant show in appearance and behavior.

cut and dried, planned or prepared in advance. cut back, to reduce; to prune.

cut both ways, to result in simultaneous advantages and disadvantages.

cut corners, to eliminate all but the essentials, the planning committee was forced to cut corners. cut down, to reduce. cut in, to interrupt; to return too soon to one’s own side of the road, obstructing the path of an overtaken vehicle; to give a share of the profits to; (informal) to interrupt a dancing couple and take one of them as one’s own partner. cut it out, (slang) stop doing that. cut no ice, (slang) to have no influence or effect. cut off, to prevent from continuing; to keep from contact; cut off without a penny, to deprive (a person) of further financial support. cut one’s losses, to abandon a scheme that causes loss, before one loses too much. cut out, to shape by cutting; to outdo (a rival); to deprive of an inheritance or portion; to cease or cause to cease functioning, the engine cut out. cut out for, having the qualities and abilities needed for. cut the ground from under someone’s feet, to anticipate his arguments or plans and leave him with no foundation for these. cut up, to cut into pieces; be very cut up, to be greatly distressed; (slang) to criticize severely, to reprimand, the foreman really cut me up; to behave comically.

cu·ta·ne·ous (kyoo-tay-ni-ūs’) adj. of the skin.

cut-a-way (kus-tā-way’) adj. having a portion cut away. cutaway n. 1. a man’s formal coat, with sides tapering toward the back. 2. *(in television and motion pictures) a change from one scene to another.

cut-back (kut-back’) n. a reduction in a rate or amount.

cute (kyoot’) adj. (cut·er, cut·est) (informal) 1. sharp, clever, shrewd. 2. artificial, straining to impress. 3. attractive, pretty. cute’ly adv. cute’ness n.

cut·i·cle (kyoo-ti-kēl’) n. skin at the base of a fingernail or toenail.

cut·lerry (kut-lē-rē’) n. one who makes or deals in cutlery.

cut·ler·y (kut-lē-ree’) n. knives, forks, and spoons used in eating or serving food.

cut·let (kut·lit’) n. 1. a slice of veal etc. from the ribs or legs of the animal for breading and frying. 2. ground meat cooked in the shape of a cutlet.

cut·off (kut-awf’) n. 1. a device or mechanism that stops something. 2. a road used as a shortcut or bypass. 3. (informal) a termination point, the cutoff is May 15. 4. a shorter channel made when a stream cuts across a bend.

cut-rate (kut-rayt’) adj. offered for sale at a reduced price.

cut·ter (kut-er’) n. 1. a person or thing that cuts. 2. a kind of small boat with one mast.

cut·throat (kut-throht’) n. a person who cuts throats, a murderer. cutthroat adj. intensive and merciless, cutthroat competition. □ cutthroat trout, a North American trout with a reddish mark on both sides of the throat.

cut·ting (kut·ing’) v. see cut. cutting adj.
(of words) hurtful, cutting remarks. cutting n. 1. the act of cutting. 2. a piece cut from a plant for replanting to form a new plant.
cuttlefish (kut-čl-fish) n. (pl. -fish- es, -fish) a sea creature that sends out a black liquid when attacked.
cut-up (kut-up) n. (informal) a person who behaves comically.
cw abbr. clockwise.
CWO abbr. chief warrant officer.
c.w.o. abbr. cash with order.
cwt abbr. hundredweight.
-cy suffix used to form nouns meaning state, condition, or quality, as in comple-cency: rank or office, as in papacy; action or practice, as in trucancy.
cy-an (si-án) n. a greenish-blue color.
cy-an adj. greenish blue.
cy-a-nide (si-á-níd) n. a very poisonous chemical substance.
cy-a-no-sis (si-á-no-sís) n. a condition in which the skin appears blue, caused by lack of oxygen in the blood.
ocy-ber-net-ics (si-bér-net-iks) n. the science of communication and control in animals (as by the nervous system) and in machines (as by computers).
cy-cle (si-kl) n. 1. a series of events or operations that repeat regularly in the same order, the cycle of the seasons. 2. the time needed for one such series. 3. one complete occurrence of a continuously recurring process such as electrical oscillation or alternation of electric current. 4. a complete set or series, as of songs or poems. 5. a bicycle or motorcycycle v. (cy-cled, cy-cling) 1. ride a bicycle. 2. to cause a machine to go through one cycle. 3. to move in cycles.
cy-cli-cal adj. cy-cli-cal-ly adv.
cy-cli-stry (si-klíst) n. a person who rides a bicycle etc.
cy-clo-m-e-ter (si-klo-m-ë-tër) n. an instrumament attached to a wheel of a bicycle etc. to measure distance traveled.
cy-clone (si-kloon) n. 1. a wind rotating around a calm central area. 2. a violent destructive form of this.
cy-clon-i-cal (si-klon-ik) adj.
cy-clo-tron (si-klö-tron) n. an apparatus for accelerating charged particles by making them move spirally in a magnetic field.
cy-g-net (sig-nit) n. a young swan.
cyl. abbr. cylinder.
cyl-in-der (sil-in-dër) n. 1. a solid or hollow object with straight sides and circular ends. 2. a machine part shaped like this, the chamber in which a piston moves in an engine.
cy-lin-dri-cal (si-lin-dri-kál) adj.
cym-bal (sim-bál) n. a percussion instrument consisting of a brass plate struck with another or with a stick.
cym-bal-is (sim-bál-is) n. a person who plays the cymbals.
cyn-ic (sin-ik) n. a person who believes people's motives are bad or selfish and shows this by sneering at them. cyn'i-cal adj. cyn'i-cal-ly adv.
cyn-i-cism (sin-i-siz-ém) n. the attitude of a cynic.
cyn-o-sure (si-nô-shoor) n. a center of attraction or admiration.
cy-press (si-pris) n. a coniferous evergreen tree with dark feathery leaves.
cy-prus (si-prús) a country in the East Mediterranean.
cyp-rö (si-prö) adj. & n.
cy-rillic (si-rik-ik) adj. of the alphabet used for Russian, Bulgarian, and other Slavonic languages.
cyst (sist) n. an abnormal sac formed in the body, containing fluid or semisolid matter.
cyst-i-c (sis-tik) adj. 1. of the bladder. 2. like a cyst.
cys-ti-tis (si-str-tis) n. inflammation of the bladder.
cy-tol-o-gy (si-tol-ö-jee) n. the scientific study of cells. cy-tol-o-gist n. cy-to-log-ic (si-töl-ö-jik) adj. cy-tology-cal adj.
cy-to-plasm (si-töl-plaz-ém) n. the cellular substance surrounding the cell nucelus. cy-to-plas-mic (si-tol-plaz-mik) adj.
CZ, C.Z. abbr. Canal Zone.
czar (zahr) n. 1. (often Czar) formerly, the emperor of Russia. 2. a person with great authority. caz-rin-a (zah-ree-nä) n. fem. caz-ríst adj. & n.
czar-das (chahr-dahsh) n. a Hungarian dance with a slow start and a quick wild finish.
Czech (chek) n. 1. a native or the language of western Czechoslovakia. 2. a Czechoslovak. Czech adj. of, relating to, Czechoslovakia or its people or language.
Czech-o-slo-vä-ki-a (chek-ö-sloh-väki-ä) a country in central Europe.
D, d (dee) (pl. Ds, D's, d's) 1. the fourth letter of the alphabet. 2. D, a grade rating for poor school work. 3. the Roman numeral symbol for 500.
D symbol deuterium.
d. abbr. 1. date. 2. daughter. 3. day. 4. deceased. 5. degree. 6. delete. 7. dialect. 8. dialectical. 9. diameter. 10. died. 11. dime. 12. dividend. 13. dose.
D. abbr. 1. Democrat. 2. dimension (as in 3D). 3. Dutch.
D.A. abbr. 1. days after acceptance. 2. Department of Agriculture. 3. deposit account. 4. District Attorney.
dab (dab) n. 1. a light or feeble blow, a tap. 2. quick gentle pressure on a surface with something soft, a dab with a sponge. 3. a small amount of a soft substance applied to a surface. dab v. (dabbled, dabbling) 1. to strike lightly or feebly. 2. to press quickly and lightly.
dab·ble (dab·ël) v. (dab·bled, dab·bling) 1. to wet by splashing or by dipping in and out of water. 2. to move the feet, hands, or bill lightly in water or mud. 3. to study or work at something casually not seriously, she dabbles in photography. dab·bler n.
Dac·ca (dak-i) the capital of Bangladesh.
dace (days) n. (pl. daces, dace) a small freshwater fish related to the carp.
da·cha (dah-chä) n. a small country house in Russia.
dachs-hund (doks-huند) n. a small dog of a breed with a long body and very short legs.
Da·cron (day-kron) n. (trademark) a synthetic fabric that is wrinkle-resistant.
dac·tyl (dak-til) n. a metrical foot consisting of one long syllable followed by two short syllables, for example, prac·ti·cal, hap·pi·ness. dac·tyl·ic (dak·til·ik) adj.
dad (dad) n. (informal) father.
Da·da (dah-dah) n. an international movement in art during the early 20th century rejecting conventions and intending to shock. Da·da·ist (dah-dah-ist) n. Da' da·ism n.
dad·dy (dad·ee) n. (pl. -dies) (informal) father.
dad·dy-long·legs (dad·ee-lawng·legz) n. a spider-like animal, usually having long thin legs.
da·do (day-doh) n. (pl. -does, -dos) the lower part of the wall of a room or corridor when it is colored or faced differently from the upper part.
daf·fo·dil (dah·fo·dil) n. a yellow flower with a trumpetlike central part, growing from a bulb.
daf·fy (dad·ee) adj. (-fl·er, -fl·est) (informal) silly, foolish, crazy. daf·fi·ness n.
dag·ger (dag·er) n. a short pointed two-edged weapon used for stabbing. dagg·ers at, to stare angrily at.
da·guerre·o·type (da·ger·o·trip) 1. an early photographic process using a silver or silvered plate. 2. a photograph produced by this.
dahl·la (dal·yä) n. a garden plant with large brightly colored flowers and tuberous roots.
Dall Elr·eann (doil air·än) the lower house of Parliament in the Republic of Ireland.
dal·ly (day-lee) adj. happening or appearing on every day (or every weekday).
daily adv. once a day. daily n. (pl. -lies) a daily newspaper. dal·ly bread, one's livelihood. dally double, a race-track bet in which the bettor must select the winners of two specified races in order to win his bet. dally dozen, a set of daily exercises.
dain·ty (day·tee) adj. (-ti·er, -ti·est) 1. small and pretty, delicate. 2. fastidious, especially about food. dain·ti·ly adv. dain·ti·ness n.
dal·quil·ri (dr·kil·ree) n. (pl. -ris) a cocktail of rum, lime juice, and sugar.
dair·y (dair·ee) n. (pl. dair·ies) 1. a room or building where milk and milk products are processed. 2. a shop where these are sold. dair·y·ing n. dair·y farm, a farm producing chiefly milk.
dair·y·maid (dair·ee·maid) n. a woman who works in a dairy.
dair-y-man (dair-ee-man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mén) a dealer in milk etc.
dai's (day-is) n. a low platform, especially at one end of a hall.
dai-shi-ki = dashiki.
dai-sy (day-zee) n. (pl. -sies) a flower with many white rays surrounding a center. pushing up the daisies, (slang) dead and buried.
Da-kar (dah-kahr) the capital of Senegal.
Da-ko-ta (dah-kahr) either of two states of the U.S., North and South Dakota.
Da-lai La-ma (dah-li lah-má) the chief lama of Tibet.
dale (dayl) n. a small valley.
dal-ly (dal-ee) v. (dal-lied, dal-ling) 1. to idle, to dawdle. 2. to flirt. dal-li-ance (dai-áns) n.
Dal-ma-tian (dahl-may-shan) adj. of Dalmatia, the central region of the coast of Yugoslavia. Dalmatian n. a large white dog with dark spots.
dam1 (dam) n. a barrier built across a river etc. to hold back water and control its flow or form a reservoir. dam v. (dammed, dam-ming) 1. to hold back with a dam. 2. to obstruct (a flow).
dam2 n. the mother of a four-footed animal.
dam-age (dam-i) n. 1. something done or suffered that reduces the value or usefulness of the thing affected or spoils its appearance. 2. (slang) the cost or charge, what's the damage? 3. damages, money claimed or paid as compensation for an injury. damage v. (dam-aged, dam-ag-ing) to cause damage to. dam'ag-ing adj.
dam-a-scene (dam-á-scen) v. (dam-a-scened, dam-a-scen-ing) to ornament metal or steel with inlaid gold or silver or wavy patterns produced in welding.
Da-mas-cus (dá-mas-kús) the capital of Syria. Damascus steel, an early type of wavy-patterned steel, formerly used for sword blades.
dam-ask (dam-ask) n. silk or linen material woven with a pattern that is visible on either side. damask rose, an old sweet-scented variety of rose. dame (daym) n. 1. (slang) a woman. 2. Dame, the title of a woman who has been awarded an order of knighthood in Great Britain (corresponding to the title of Sir for a knight).
damn (dam) v. 1. to condemn to eternal punishment in hell; I'll be damned, (informal) I am astonished; I'm damned if I know, (informal) I certainly do not know. 2. to condemn as a failure. 3. to swear at, to curse. damn interj. an exclamation of anger or annoyance; let's go, and damn the expense, never mind the expense. damn n. "damn" said as a curse. damn adj. & adv. (informal) damned.
dam-na-ble (dam-ná-bel) adj. hateful, annoying. dam-na-bley adv.
dam-na-tion (dam-ná-shon) n. being damned or condemned to hell. damnation interj. an exclamation of anger or annoyance.
damned (damd) adj. (informal) damnable. damned (informal) adj. damnable, extremely, it's damned hot. do one's damnedest, (informal) to do one's very best.
Dam-o-cles (dam-ó-klez) n. sword of Damocles, imminent danger. From the story of Damocles, a Greek of the 4th century B.C. above whose head a sword was once hung by a hair while he ate.
damp (damp) n. 1. moisture in the air or on a surface or throughout something. 2. foul or explosive gas in a mine. damp adj. slightly or moderately wet. damp v. 1. to make damp. 2. to dampen. 3. to stop the vibration of (a string in music). damp'ly adv. damp'ness n. damp down, to heap ashes on (a fire) to make it burn more slowly.
damp'en (dam-pén) v. 1. to decrease in activity or vigor. 2. to become or to make damp.
damp'er (dam-pér) n. 1. a movable metal plate that regulates the flow of air into the fire in a stove or furnace. 2. a person or thing that dampens or discourages enthusiasm, cast a damper over the proceedings.
dam-sel (dam-zel) n. (old use) a young woman.
dam-sel-fly (dam-zel-fli) n. (pl. -flies) an insect like a dragonfly but with wings that fold while it rests.
dam-son (dam-zon) n. 1. a small purple plum. 2. the tree that bears it.
dan (dan) n. 1. a degree of proficiency in judo. 2. a person who reaches this.
dance (dans) v. (danced, danc-ing) 1. to move with rhythmical steps or movements, usually to music. 2. to perform in this way. 3. to move in a quick or lively way, to bob up and down. dance n. 1. a piece of dancing. 2. a piece of music for dancing to. 3. a social gathering for the purpose of dancing. danc'er n.
danc-ing (dan-sing) n. the act of dancing. d. and c. abbr. dilation (of the cervix) and curettage (of the womb).
dan-de-li-ón (dan-de-li-ón) n. a wild plant with bright-yellow flowers.
dander (dan-dér) n. (informal) fighting spirit; his dander is up, he is angry.

dan·dled (dan-díl) adj. like a dandy.

dan·die (dan-dé) v. (dan-died, dan·dling) to dance (a child) in one's arms or on one's knees.

dan·druff (dan-druf) n. flakes of dead skin on the scalp and hair.

dan·dy (dan-dee) n. (pl. -dies) 1. a man who pays excessive attention to the smartness of his appearance and clothes. 2. (informal) something exceptionally good. dandy adj. (-dl*er, -dl*est) (informal) very good of its kind.

dan·der (dayn-jér) n. 1. liability or exposure to harm or to death 2. a thing that causes this.

dan·ger·ous (dayn-jé-rús) adj. causing danger. dan'ger·ous·ly adv.

dan·gle (dang-gel) v. (dangled, danging) 1. to hang loosely. 2. to hold or carry (a thing) so that it swings loosely. 3. to hold out (hopes) to a person temptingly. □ dangling participle, a participle lacking proper grammatical connection, as walking in walking down the street the church appears on the left.

Dan·iel (dayn-yél) n. 1. a Hebrew prophet who was delivered by God from the lion's den. 2. a book of the Old Testament bearing his name.

Dan·ish (dayn-nish) adj. of Denmark or its people or language. Danish n. the language of Denmark. □ Danish pastrу, a sweet yeast roll filled or topped with cheese, fruit, nuts, etc.

dank (dangk) adj. unpleasantly damp and cold.

dan·seur (dahn-sur) n. a male ballet dancer.

dan·seuse (dahn-suz) n. a female ballet dancer.

dap·per (dap·er) adj. neat and smart in dress and appearance, a dapper little man. dap·per·ly adv. dap·per·ness n.

dap·ple (dap·el) v. (dappled, dappling) to mark with spots or patches of shade or a different color.

dap·ple·gray (dap·el-gray) adj. gray with darker markings.

dare (dair) v. (dared, daring) 1. to have the courage or impudence to do something, to be bold enough, he didn't dare go or dare to go. 2. to take the risk of, to face as a danger. 3. to challenge (a person) to do something risky. dare n. a challenge to do something risky. □ I dare say, I am prepared to believe, it is very likely, I do not deny it. □ Durst is no longer a correct past form of dare.

dare·dev·il (dair-dev-il) n. a recklessly daring person.

Dar es Sa·laam (dahr es zah-lahm) the capital of Tanzania.

dar·ing (dair-ing) n. boldness. daring adj. 1. bold, taking risks boldly. 2. boldly dramatic or unconventional. dar'ing·ly adv.

dark (dahrk) adj. 1. with little or no light. 2. (of color) of a deep shade closer to black than to white, dark gray; a dark suit. 3. (of people) having a brown or black skin, having dark hair. 4. gloomy, cheerless, dismal, the long dark years of the war. 5. secret, keep it dark. 6. mysterious, remote and unexplored, in darkest Africa. dark n. 1. absence of light. 2. a time of darkness, night or nightfall, out after dark. 3. a dark color. dark'ly adv.

dark'ness n. □ Dark Ages, the early part of the Middle Ages in Europe, when learning and culture were in decline.

dark horse, a competitor of whose abilities little is known before the contest.

dark meat, flesh (of a fowl) that appears dark after cooking. in the dark, having no information about something.

dark·en (dahr·ken) v. to make or become dark or darker. □ darken a person's door, pay him an unwelcome visit.

dark·ish (dahr·kish) adj. rather dark.

dark·room (dahr·room) n. a room from which daylight is excluded so that photographs can be processed.

dar·ling (dahr·ling) n. 1. a dearly loved or lovable person or thing, a favorite. 2. (informal) something charming. dar·ling adj. dearly loved, (informal) charming.

darn1 (dahrn) v. to mend by weaving yarn across a hole. darn n. a place mended by darning. □ darning needle, a long needle for darning; (informal) a dragonfly.

darn2 interj. & adj. = damn, damned.

darned (dahrnd) adj. = damned.

dart (dahrt) n. 1. a small pointed missile. 2. a small metal-tipped object used in the game of darts. 3. a darting movement. 4. a tapering stitched tuck in a garment. 5. darts, an indoor game in which darts are thrown at a target. dart v. 1. to spring or move suddenly and rapidly in some direction. 2. to send out rapidly, darted an angry look at him.

dart·board (dahrt·bohrd) n. a circular board used as a target in the game of darts.

dart·er (dahrt·er) n. 1. one who darts. 2. a perch-like freshwater fish.

Dar·von (dahr·von) n. (trademark) a drug used to relieve pain.

dash (dash) v. 1. to run rapidly, to rush.
2. to knock or drive or throw (a thing) with force against something, to shatter (a thing) in this way; our hopes were dashed, were destroyed. 3. to write hastily, dashed off a letter.
dash n. 1. a short rapid run, a rush, made a dash for the door. 2. a small amount of liquid or flavoring added, a dash of soda. 3. a dashboard. 4. energy, vigor. 5. lively spirit or appearance, flair, charm. 6. the punctuation mark — used to show a break in sense. 7. the longer of the two signals used in Morse code.

dash-board (dash-bohrd) n. a panel below the windshield of a motor vehicle, carrying various instruments and controls.

dash-ling (dash-ing) adj. spirited, smartly dressed.

da-tard (das-tärd) n. a despicable coward. dus'tard-ly adj.

da-ta (day-tä) n. pl. facts or information to be used as a basis for discussing or deciding something, or prepared for being processed by a computer etc. (Data should not be used with a singular verb, as in the data is inconclusive; it is by origin a Latin plural (the singular is datum) and should be used with a plural verb, the data are inconclusive.)

data bank, a large collection of data stored for use or analysis, especially by a computer.

electronic data processing, analysis and storage of data in a computer.

dat-a-ble (day-tä-bäl) adj. able to be dated.

da-ta-ma- tion (day-tä-may-shon) n. data processing.

date1 (dayt) n. 1. the day on which something happened or was written or is to happen etc., a statement of this in terms of day, month, and year (or any of these). 2. the period to which something belongs, objects of prehistoric date. 3. an appointment to meet socially. 4. a person of the opposite sex with whom one has a social appointment. date v. (dat-ed, dat-ing) 1. to mark with a date. 2. to assign a date to. 3. to originate from a particular date, the custom dates from Victorian times. 4. to show up the age of, to show signs of becoming out of date, some fashions date quickly. 5. to make or have a social appointment with a member of the opposite sex, to have such appointments with the same person regularly. dat-ed (day-tid) adj. out of date, see out. to date, so far, until now, here are our sales figures to date. up to date, see up.

date2 n. the small, brown sweet edible fruit of the date palm, a palm tree of North Africa and southwest Asia.

date-less (dayt-les) adj. 1. having no date. 2. not becoming out of date. 3. too old to assign a date to.

date-line (dayt-lin) n. 1. (also international dateline) a line from north to south roughly along the meridian 180° from Greenwich, England, east and west of which the date differs (east being one day earlier). 2. a statement of the place and date of origin at the beginning of a newspaper article.

da-tive (daytiv) n. the grammatical case showing indirect object, such as him in "we gave him our blessings." dat-ive adj.

da-tum (day-tum) n. see data.

daub (dawb) v. to cover or smear roughly with a soft substance, to paint clumsily. daub n. 1. a clumsily painted picture. 2. a smear.

daugh-ter (dawtär) n. 1. a female child in relation to her parents. 2. a female descendant, daughters of Eve. daugh-ter-ly adj.

daunt (dawnt) v. to make afraid or discouraged.

daunt-less (dawnt-läs) adj. brave, not daunted. daunt'less-ly adv.

dauph-phin (daw-fin) n. a king of France's eldest son.

day-it (day-it) n. a kind of small crane on board ship.

Da-vy Jones (day-vee johnz) the spirit of the sea, the evil spirit of the sea.

Davy Jones's locker, the bottom of the sea as the graveyard of those who are drowned or buried at sea.

daw-die (dawdē) v. (daw-died, daw-dling) to walk slowly and idly, to take one's time. daw’dier n.

dawn (dawn) n. 1. the first light of day. 2. the beginning, the dawn of civilization. dawn v. 1. to begin to grow light. 2. to begin to appear; the truth dawned on him, became evident to him.

day (day) n. 1. the time during which the sun is above the horizon. 2. the time for one rotation of Earth, a period of twenty-four hours, especially from one midnight to the next. 3. the hours given to work, an eight-hour day. 4. a specified or appointed day, New Year's Day, inauguration day. 5. a period, time, or era, in Abraham Lincoln's day; in my young days; when I was young. 6. a period of success; colonialism has had its day, its successful period is over. 7. victory in a contest, win the day. day boy, day girl, day student, a pupil attending a boarding school but living at home. day daybed / deadly by day, daily. day in day out, every day, unceasingly. Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur. day school, a private school that pupils attend during the day, not a boarding school.

day•bed (day-bed) n. a couch that can be converted to a bed.

day•book (day-buuk) n. 1. a diary. 2. a bookkeeper’s journal for daily transactions.

day•break (day-brayk) n. dawn, the first light of day.

day•care (day-kair) center a place where young children are looked after while their mothers are at work.

day•dream (day-dream) n. idle and pleasant thoughts. daydream v. to have daydreams.

day•light (day-lit) n. 1. the light of day. 2. dawn. \(\text{\textcircled{b}}\) beat or scare the daylights out of someone, beat him severely, scare him greatly. daylight saving, creation of longer evening daylight in summer by making clocks show a time that is later than standard time. see daylight, to begin to understand what was previously puzzling; to begin to approach the end of a task.

day•time (day-tim) n. the time of daylight.

daze (dayz) v. (dazed, daz•ing) to make (a person) feel stunned or bewildered. daze n. a dazed state.

daz•zle (daz•el) v. (daz•zled, daz•zling) 1. to make (a person) unable to see clearly because of too much bright light. 2. to amaze and impress or confuse (a person) by a splendid display. dazzle n. dazzling, a bright confusing light.

dB abbr. decibel(s).

dbl abbr. double.

dC, D.C., dc, d.c. abbr. direct current.

D.C. abbr. District of Columbia.

DD abbr. 1. days after date. 2. demand draft. 3. dishonorable discharge. 4. Doctor of Divinity.

D•day (dee-day) n. 1. the date on which an important operation is planned to begin. 2. June 6, 1944, the day on which Allied forces invaded France.

DDT abbr. a white chemical used as an insecticide.

DE abbr. 1. Delaware. 2. Department of Education.

dea•con (dee-kön) n. 1. a clergymen ranking below a priest in certain Christian denominations. 2. a layman attending to church business in certain Christian denominations.

dea•con•ess (dee-kön•is) n. a woman with duties similar to those of a deacon.
tremely, deadly serious. dead*ll-i*ness n. • deadly nightshade, a plant with poisonous black berries, belladonna. deadly sin, one of the seven deadly sins, those that result in damnation for a person's soul.

deaf·pan (de·pan) adj. (informal) with an expressionless face. deadpan v. (dead-panned, dead·pan·ning) (informal) to show no expression.

deaf·wood (de·wuud) n. 1. dead trees or branches. 2. a useless person or persons.

deaf (def) adj. 1. wholly or partly without the sense of hearing, unable to hear. 2. refusing to listen, deaf to all advice; turned a deaf ear to our requests. deaf* ness n. • the deaf, deaf people.

deaf·en (de·fn) v. (deaf·en·ed, deaf·en·ing) to make deaf or unable to hear by a very loud noise. deaf*en·ing adj. deaf·mute (de·myoot) n. a person who is both deaf and unable to speak.

deal (deel) v. (dealt, pr. delt, deal·ing) 1. to distribute among several people, to distribute (cards) to players in a card game. 2. to give, to inflict, dealt him a severe blow. 3. to do business, to trade, we deal at Smith's; they deal in imported gems. deal n. 1. dealing, a player's turn to deal, a round of play after dealing. 2. a business transaction, the deal fell through; it's a deal, I agree to this. 3. treatment, didn't get a fair deal. deal'er n. • a good deal, a great deal, a large amount. deal with, to do business with; to take action about or be what is needed by (a problem etc.); deal with a subject, discuss it in a book or speech etc.

deal·er·ship (dee-lurr·ship) n. a sales agency for a specified brand of merchandise etc.

dean (deen) n. 1. an Anglican clergyman who is head of a cathedral chapter. 2. an official in certain universities, responsible for a college or its students, or having some administrative function. 3. the senior or leading member of a group, the dean of American letters.

dear (deer) adj. 1. much loved, cherished. 2. esteemed; Dear Sir, a polite phrase beginning a letter. 3. costing more than it is worth, not cheap. dear n. a dear person. dear adv. dearly, at a high price. dear interj. an exclamation of surprise or distress. dear*ly adv. dear*ness n. • Dear John letter, a letter (originally to a soldier) from a man's wife or girlfriend announcing that she has deserted him. dear me, an expression of surprise, distress, sympathy, etc.

dear·ie (deer·ee) n. (informal) dear.

dearth (durth) n. a scarcity.

death (deth) n. 1. the process of dying, the end of life. 2. the state of being dead. 3. a cause of death, drink was the death of him. 4. the ending or destruction of something, the death of our hopes. • at death's door, close to death. death certificate, an official statement of the date, place, and cause of a person's death. death march, a forced trek on which many die from exhaustion. death penalty, punishment for a crime by being put to death. death rate, the number of deaths in one year for every 1000 persons. death rattle, the sound in a dying person's throat. death's head, a picture of a skull as a symbol of death. put to death, to kill, to execute. to death, extremely, to the utmost limit, bored to death. to the death, until one or the other is killed, a fight to the death.

death·bed (deth·bed) n. the bed on which a person is dying or dies.

death·blow (deth·bloh) n. a blow that causes death.

death·less (deth·lis) adj. immortal.

death·ly (deth·lee) adj. & adv. like death, a deathly hush; deathly pale.

death·trap (deth·trap) n. a dangerous place or structure.

death·watch (deth·woch) n. a vigil kept over the dying or dead.

death watch beetle, a beetle whose larva bores holes in old wood and makes a ticking sound.

deb (deb) n. (informal) debutante.

de·ba·cle (di·bah·kell) n. a sudden disastrous collapse.

de·bar (di·bahr) v. (de·bar·red, de·bar·ring) to exclude, to prohibit.

de·bark (di·bahrk) v. to disembark. de·bar·ka·tion (dee-bahr·kay·shun) n.

de·base (di·bays) v. (de·based, de·bas·ing) to lower in quality or value. de·base·ment n.

de·bat·a·ble (di·bay·tah·buhl) adj. questionable, open to dispute. de·bat·a·bly adv.

de·bate (di·bayt) n. a formal discussion.

debate v. (de·bat·ed, de·bat·ing) 1. to hold a debate about. 2. to discuss, to consider. de·bat·er n. • debating society, a group formed to practice debating.

de·bauch (di·bawch) v. to make dissolute, to lead into debauchery.

de·bauch·er·y (di·baw·chur·ree) n. (pl. -er·ies) indulgence in harmful or immoral pleasures.

de·ben·tire (de·ben·chur) n. a certificate or bond acknowledging a debt on which fixed interest is being paid.

deb·il·i·tate (de·bil·i·tay) v. (de·bil·i·tay·ing) to weaken, to make weak; to debilitate.
l·tat·ed, de·bil·i·tat·ing) to cause de·bil·i·ty in.
de·bil·i·ty (di-bil-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) fee·b·leness, weakness.
de·bit (de-bit) n. an entry in a ledger or other accounting record of a debt. debit v. (de-bit·ed, de-bit·ing) to enter as a debt in an account.
de·b·o·nair (deb-o-nair) adj having a carefree self-confident manner.
de·bouch (di-boosh) v. to march out of a ravine, wood, etc. into an open area.
de·brief (dec-brief) v. (in·for·mal) to question (a person) after his completion of a mission.
de·bris (de-bree) n. scattered broken pieces.
de·bt (det) n. something owed by one person to another. $debt of honor$, a gam·bling debt. In a person’s de·bt, under obligation to him. In de·bt, owing some·thing. out of de·bt, having paid what one owes.
de·bt·or (det-ör) n. a person who owes money to another.
de·bug (dec-bug) v. (de-bugged, de·bug·ging) to free from bugs (= insects, faults and errors, or secret microphones).
de·bunk (di-bungk) v. (in·for·mal) to show up (a claim or theory) as exaggerated or false.
de·but (day-byoo) n. a first appearance on the stage, in society, etc. Do not use de·but as a verb.
de·bu·tante (de-bu·tu·tan·te) n. a girl making her first appearance in society.
dec. abbr. 1. deceased. 2. decimeter. 3. declared. 4. declination. 5. de·clin·a·tion.
6. decrease. 7. decrescendo.
dec·ade (dek-ayd) n. a period of ten years.
dec·a·dent (dek-a-dent) adj. becoming less worthy, deteriorating in standard.
dec·a·dence n.
dec·af·fein·at·ed (dek-a-fen-ay-ted) adj. with the caffeine removed or reduced.
dec·a·gon (dek-a-gon) n. a geometric figure with ten sides. de·ca·gonal (dek-a-gon·al) adj.
dec·a·gram = dekagram.
dec·a·he·dron (dek-a-hee-drōn) n. (pl. -drōns, -dra, pr. -drā) a solid body with ten sides.
de·cal (dek-kal) n. 1. a picture transferred from paper to china or other material.
2. the paper bearing this picture.
de·ca·co·ma·ni·a (di-kal-kō-may-ni-ä) n. de·cal.
de·ca·li·ter = dekaliter.
Dec·a·logue (dek-a-log) n. the Ten Com·mandments.
de·ca·me·ter = dekameter.
de·camp (di-kamp) v. to go away sud·denly or secretly.
de·can·ta·tion (de·can·ta·tion) (di-kan·tay-shōn) n.
de·can·ter (di-kan·ter) n. a stoppered glass bottle into which wine etc. may be decanted before serving.
de·cap·i·ta·tate (di·kap·i·ta·tate) v. (de·cap·i·ta·ting, de·cap·i·ta·ted) to behead. de·cap·i·ta·tion (di·kap·i·ta·tion) (di·kap·i·ta·tion) n.
de·c·a·syl·lab·ic (dek-ā-syl·lab·ic) adj.
de·cath·lon (di-kath-lon) n. an athletic contest in which each competitor takes part in ten events.
de·cay (de·key) v. 1. to become rotten, to cause to rot. 2. to lose quality or strength. dec·ay n. decaying, rot.
de·cease (di·sees) n. (formal) death. de·cease v. (de·ceased, de·ces·ing) (formal) to die.
de·ceased (di·seest) adj. dead; the de·ceased, the person(s) who died recently.
de·ce·dent (di·see·dent) n. (formal) a de·ceased person.
de·cel·t (di·see·t) n. deceiving, a deception.
de·cel·t·ful (di·seet·ful) adj. deceiving people. de·cel·t·ful·ly adv. de·cel·t·ful·ness n.
de·ce·live (di·see·ve) v. (de·ceived, de·ceiv·ing) 1. to cause (a person) to be·lieve something that is not true. 2. to be sex·ually unfaithful to. de·ceiv·er n.
de·cel·er·ate (dek-ser·ē·rayt) v. (de·cel·er·ating, de·cel·er·at·ed) to cause to slow down, to decrease one’s speed. de·cel·er·a·tion (dek-sel·er·a·tion) (dek-sel·er·a·tion) n.
Dec·em·ber (di·sem·ber) n. the twelfth month of the year.
de·cen·cy (de·sen·cy) n. (pl. -cies) 1. being decent. 2. propriety, con·forming to respectable behavior.
de·cen·ni·al (di·sen·ni·al) adj. lasting or recurring every ten years. de·cen·ni·al·ly adv.
de·cen·tent (de·seent) adj. 1. conforming to the accepted standards of what is proper, not immodest or obscene. 2. respectable, or·di·nary dec·ent people. 3. (in·for·mal) quite good, earns a decent salary. 4. (in·for·mal) kind, generous, obliging. de·cen·tent·ly adv.
de·cen·tral·ize (de·sen·tral·ize) v. (de·cen·tral·ized, de·cen·tral·iz·ing) to divide and distribute (powers etc.) from a central authority to places or branches away from the center. de·cen·tral·ize deception / decode

l·za·tion (de·sen·trá·li·zay·shon) n. the process of doing this.
de·cep·tion (di·sep·shon) n. 1. deceiving, being deceived. 2. something that deceives people.
de·cep·tive (di·sep·tiv) adj. deceiving, easily mistaken for something else. de·cep·tive·ly adv. de·cep·tive·ness n.
dec·i·bel (des·i·bél) n. a unit for measuring the relative loudness of sound.
de·cide (di·sid) v. (de·cid·ed, de·cid·ing) 1. to think about and make a choice or judgment, to come to a decision. 2. to settle by giving victory to one side, this goal decided the game. 3. to cause to reach a decision, that decided me. de·cid·er n.
de·cid·ed (di·sid·ed) adj. 1. determined, unhesitating. 2. clear, definite, a decided difference. de·cid·ed·ly adv.
de·cid·u·ous (di·sid·oo·ús) adj. 1. (of a tree) shedding its leaves annually. 2. falling off or shed after a time, a deer has deciduous antlers.
dec·i·l·gram (des·i·gram) n. one-tenth of a gram.
dec·i·li·ter (des·i·lee·tér) n. one-tenth of a liter.
dec·i·mal (des·i·mál) adj. reckoned in tens or tenths. decimal n. a decimal fraction. □ decimal currency, currency in which each unit is ten or one hundred times the value of the one next below it. decimal fraction, a fraction whose denominator is a power of ten, expressed in figures after a dot (the decimal point), as 0.5 = 5/10, 0.52 = 52/100. decimal system, a system of weights and measures with each unit ten times that immediately below it.
dec·i·mal·i·ze (des·i·mál·i·ız) v. (dec·i·mal·i·zed, dec·i·mal·i·zing) 1. to express as a decimal. 2. to convert to a decimal system. dec·i·mal·i·za·tion (des·i·mál·i·zi·za·shon) n.
dec·i·mat·e (des·i·mat) v. (dec·i·mat·ed, dec·i·mat·ing) to destroy one-tenth of, to destroy a large proportion of. dec·i·ma·tion (des·i·ma·shon) n.
dec·i·me·ter (des·i·mi·tér) n. one-tenth of a meter.
de·cl·pher (di·si·fér) v. to make out the meaning of (a coded message, bad handwriting, or something difficult to interpret). de·cl·pher·a·ble adj.
de·c·sion (di·sizh·on) n. 1. deciding, making a reasoned judgment about something. 2. the judgment itself. 3. the ability to form clear opinions and act on them.
de·c·sive (di·siv) adj. 1. settling something conclusively, a decisive battle. 2. showing decision and firmness, a decisive manner. de·c·sive·ly adv. de·c·sive·ness n.
deck1 (dek) n. 1. any of the horizontal floors in a ship. 2. a similar floor or platform, especially one of two or more. 3. (also tape deck) the part of a tape recorder that holds the tapes and their controls. 4. a pack of cards. 5. (slang) the ground, the floor. deck v. (slang) to knock to the floor. □ hit the deck, (slang) fall to the ground.
deck2 v. to decorate, to dress up, decked with flags; decked out in her finest clothes.
dec·k·chair (dek·chair) n. a portable folding chair of canvas on a wood or metal frame.
dec·k·hand (dek·hand) n. a seaman who works on deck.
deck·le (dek·él) edge a ragged edge like that on handmade paper. deck·le·ed·ge adj.
de·claim (di·klaym) v. to speak or say impressively or dramatically. dec·la·ma·tion (dek·lä·may·shon) n.
dec·lar·a·tor·y (di·klar·ä·tor·ë) adj. explanatory.
de·clare (di·klar) v. (de·clared, de·claring) 1. to make known, to announce openly or formally or explicitly. 2. to state firmly, he declares that he is innocent. 3. to inform customs officials that one has (goods) on which duty may be payable. dec·lar·er n. de·clar·a·tive (di·klar·ä·tiv) adj. dec·la·ra·tion (dek·lä·ray·shon) n. □ declarative sentence, one that makes a statement. declare war, to announce that a state of war exists.
dec·la·si·li·fy (dee·klas·i·fy) v. (dec·las·i·lied, dec·las·i·ling) to cease to designate (information) as secret.
dec·li·sion (di·kli·shon) n. 1. declining, deterioration. 2. variation of the form of a noun etc. to give its cases, the class into which a noun etc. is put according to this variation.
de·cline (di·klí·n) v. (de·clined, de·clin·ing) 1. to refuse; decline the invitation, say politely that one cannot accept it. 2. to slope downward. 3. to decrease, to lose strength or vigor; one's declining years, old age. 4. to give the declensions of (a noun etc.). decline n. a gradual decrease or loss of strength. de·clin·a·ble adj. de·clin·a·tion (dek·li·nay·shon) n. □ in decline, decreasing.
de·cliv·i·ty (di·kliv·i·të) n. (pl. -ties) a downward slope.
de·code (dee·kohd) v. (de·cod·ed, de·cod·ing) to put (a coded message) into plain language. de·cod·er n.
de-col·let·age (day-kol-tahzh) n. a low neckline.

dé·col·le·té (day-kol-tay) adj. having a low neckline.

de·com·mis·sion (dec-kō-mish-ən) v. to remove (a ship etc.) from active service.

de·com·pose (dek-kōm-pōzh) v. (de·com·posed, de·com·pos·ing) 1. to separate (a substance etc.) into its parts. 2. to decay, to cause to decay. de·com·po·si·tion (dek-kōm-pō-zish-ən) n.

de·com·press (dek-kōm-pres) v. to subject to decompression.

de·com·pres·sion (dek-kōm-pres-ən) n. 1. release from compression. 2. the gradual and safe reduction of air pressure on a person who has been in compressed air. de·com·pression cham·ber, an enclosed space where this can be done.

de·con·ges·ti·on (dek-kōn-jēs-ən) n. a medicinal substance that relieves nasal congestion.

de·con·tam·i·na·tion (dek-kōn-tam-i-nə-shən) n. the addition of dirt to radioactive or other contamination.

de·con·tro·l (dek-kōn-trohl) v. (de·con·trolled, de·con·trol·ling) to release from government control. de·con·trol·l n. decon·trolling.

dé·cor (day-kor) n. the style of furnishings and decoration used in a room etc.

dec·o·rate (dek-ō-rayt) v. (dec·o·rat·ed, dec·o·rat·ing) 1. to make (a thing) look attractive or striking or festive with objects or details added for this purpose. 2. to put fresh paint or paper on the walls etc. of. 3. to confer a medal or other award upon.

dec·o·ra·tion (dek-ō-ray-shən) n. 1. decorating. 2. something that decorates. 3. a medal etc. awarded and worn as an honor. Décor Day, Memorial Day.

dec·o·ra·tive (dek-ō-rā-tiv) adj. ornamental, pleasing to look at.

dec·o·ra·tor (dek-ō-ray-tər) n. a person who decorates, especially one whose job is to select and apply paints, fabrics, furnishings, etc.

dec·o·rous (dek-ō-rūs) adj. polite and well-behaved, decent. dec·o·rous·ly adv. dec·o·rous·ness n.

de·co·rum (di-kōr-əm) n. correctness and dignity of behavior.

dé·cou·page (day-koo-pahzh) n. 1. the art of decorating a surface with paper cutouts. 2. work produced by this.

dé·coy (dek-ō) n. 1. something used to lure an animal or person into a trap or situation of danger. 2. a wooden duck used to attract live ducks. decoy (di-koj) v. to lure by means of a decoy.

dec·rease (di-krees) v. (de·creased, de·creas·ing) to make or become shorter or smaller or less. de·crea·sis·ing (dee-krees) n. 1. decreasing. 2. the amount by which something decreases.

dec·ree (di-krē) n. 1. an order given by a government or other authority and having the force of a law. 2. a judgment or decision of certain law courts. de·cre·es·ing (di-krē-ing) to order by decree. Decree n. 1. an order given by a government or other authority and having the force of a law. 2. a judgment or decision of certain law courts.

dec·re·men·tal (di-kris-təl) adj. made weak by old age or hard use, dilapidated.

dec·re·men·tal·ly adv. in a decremen·tal manner.

dec·re·men·tal·iza·tion (di-krē-men·tal-ə-za·shən) n. a medicinal substance that relieves nasal congestion.

dec·re·men·tal·iza·tion (di-krē-men·tal-ə-za·shən) n. the addition of dirt to radioactive or other contamination.

dec·re·miser·al·iza·tion (di-krē-men·zər-əl-ə-za·shən) n. the addition of dirt to radioactive or other contamination.

dec·re·miser·al·iza·tion (di-krē-men·zər-əl-ə-za·shən) n. the addition of dirt to radioactive or other contamination.

dec·re·miser·al·iza·tion (di-krē-men·zər-əl-ə-za·shən) n. the addition of dirt to radioactive or other contamination.

dec·re·miser·al·iza·tion (di-krē-men·zər-əl-ə-za·shən) n. the addition of dirt to radioactive or other contamination.

dec·re·miser·al·iza·tion (di-krē-men·zər-əl-ə-za·shən) n. the addition of dirt to radioactive or other contamination.

dec·re·miser·al·iza·tion (di-krē-men·zər-əl-ə-za·shən) n. the addition of dirt to radioactive or other contamination.

dec·re·miser·al·iza·tion (di-krē-men·zər-əl-ə-za·shən) n. the addition of dirt to radioactive or other contamination.

dec·re·miser·al·iza·tion (di-krē-men·zər-əl-ə-za·shən) n. the addition of dirt to radioactive or other contamination.

dec·re·miser·al·iza·tion (di-krē-men·zər-əl-ə-za·shən) n. the addition of dirt to radioactive or other contamination.

dec·re·miser·al·iza·tion (di-krē-men·zər-əl-ə-za·shən) n. the addition of dirt to radioactive or other contamination.

dec·re·miser·al·iza·tion (di-krē-men·zər-əl-ə-za·shən) n. the addition of dirt to radioactive or other contamination.

dec·re·miser·al·iza·tion (di-krē-men·zər-əl-ə-za·shən) n. the addition of dirt to radioactive or other contamination.

dec·re·miser·al·iza·tion (di-krē-men·zər-əl-ə-za·shən) n. the addition of dirt to radioactive or other contamination.

dec·re·miser·al·iza·tion (di-krē-men·zər-əl-ə-za·shən) n. the addition of dirt to radioactive or other contamination.

dec·re·miser·al·iza·tion (di-krē-men·zər-əl-ə-za·shən) n. the addition of dirt to radioactive or other contamination.
ing. 3. logical reasoning that something must be true because it is a particular case of a general law that is known to be true.

def·duc·tive (di-duk-tiv) adj. of or reasoning by deduction.

deed (deed) n. 1. something done, an act.
  2. a written or printed legal agreement, especially one giving ownership or rights, bearing the giver's signature. deed v. to convey or transfer by legal deed.

dee-jay (deey-jay) n. (informal) a disc jockey.

dee (deem) n. (formal) to believe, to consider, to judge.

dee·em·pha·size (dee-em-fa-sized) v. (dee·em·pha·sized, dee·em·pha·siz·ing) to remove or reduce the emphasis of.

dee·em·pha·sis n.

deep (deep) adj. 1. going or situated far down or back or in, a deep cut; deep shelves; a deep sigh, coming from far down. 2. intense, extreme, a deep sleep; deep colors, strong in tone. 3. low-pitched and resonant, not shrill, a deep voice. 4. absorbed, deep in thought. 5. heartfelt, deep sympathy. 6. difficult to understand, obscure, that's too deep for me; he has deep thoughts. deep adv. deeply, far down or in. deep n. a deep place; the deep, the sea. deep'ly adv. deep'ness n. □deep space, the far distant regions beyond Earth's atmosphere or those beyond the solar system. go off the deep end, (informal) to give way to emotion.

dee·p·en (dee-pen) v. to make or become deep or deeper.

dee·p·free·ze (dee-preez) v. (dee·preezed or deep·reeze, deep·reezed or deep·fro·zen, deep·freez·ed) to freeze (food) quickly for storage. deep·freeze n. (informal) a freezer.

dee·p·fly (dee·fri) v. (deep·fried, deep·fry·ing) to fry in fat deep enough to cover (the food).

dee·p·root·ed (deep-root-tid) adj. deeply-seated.

dee·p·sea (deep·see) adj. of the deeper parts of the ocean, deep·sea fishing.

dee·p·seat·ed (deep·see·tied) adj. firmly established, not superficial, a deep-seated distrust.

dee·p·set (deep·set) adj. set far in.

dee·p·six (deep·six) v. (slang) to throw overboard, to destroy.

dee·r (deer) n. (pl. deer) a ruminant swift-footed animal, the male of which usually has antlers. □deer fly, a small blood-sucking fly.

dee·r·skin (deer·skin) n. the skin of a deer, leather made from this.

dee·r·stalk·er (deer·staw·ker) n. a soft cloth cap with one peak in front and another at the back.

dee·es·cal·ate (dee·es·kal·ate) v. (dee·es·cal·ated, deaes·cal·at·ing) to reduce the level or intensity of. dee·es·ca·la·tion (dee·es·kal·ay·shen) n.
def. abbr. 1. defective. 2. defendant. 3. defense. 4. deferred. 5. defined. 6. definite. 7. definition.

def·face (di·fays) v. (defaced, defac·ing) to spoil or damage the surface of.
de·fac·to (dee·fak·toh) existing in fact (whether by right or not). □Latin.
def·fal·ca·tion (def·fal·kah·shen) n. misappropriation of funds, a breach of trust concerning money.

def·am·a·to·ry (di·fam·ah·toh·ree) adj. defaming.

def·fame (di·faym) v. (defamed, defam·ing) to attack the good reputation of, to speak ill of. def·a·ma·tion (def·ah·may·shen) n.
def·ault (di·fawlt) v. to fail to fulfill one's obligations. default n. failure to fulfill an obligation or to appear; they won by default, because the other side did not appear. def·ault'er n.
def·eat (di·feet) v. 1. to win a victory over. 2. to cause to fail, to frustrate, this defeats our hopes for reform. 3. to baffie, the problem defeats me. defeat n. 1. defeating others. 2. being defeated, a lost battle or contest.
def·eat·ist (dj·fee·tist) n. a person who expects to be defeated and accepts defeat too easily. def·eat'ism n.
def·e·cate (def·ek·tiv) v. (def·ec·ted, def·ec·ting) to empty the bowels. def·e·ca·tion (def·ek·tion) n. def·ect (dee·fekt, di·fekt) n. a deficiency, an imperfection. defect (di·fekt) v. to desert one's country, to abandon one's allegiance to a cause. def·ec·tor n. def·ec·tion (di·fek·shen) n.
def·ec·tive (di·fek·tiv) adj. 1. having defects, imperfect, incomplete. 2. (of a person) mentally deficient. def·ec·tive·ly adv. def·ec·tive·ness n.
def·end (di·fend) v. 1. to protect by warding off an attack. 2. to try to preserve; the champion is defending his title, trying to defeat one who challenges him. 3. to uphold by argument, to put forward a justification of. 4. to represent (the defendant) in a lawsuit. def·end'er n.
def·end·ant (di·fend·ant) n. a person accused or sued in a lawsuit.
de·fense (di·fens) n. 1. defending from or resistance against attack. 2. something that defends or protects against attack. 3. a justification put forward in response to an accusation. 4. the defendant's case in a lawsuit, the lawyer(s) representing an accused person.

defenseless (di-fens-1is) adj. having no defense, unable to defend oneself.
defensive (di-fens-tf-bél) adj. able to be defended. defensive* adv. defensive n. defence (di-fens-1iv) adj. used or done for defense, protective. defensive* adv. on the defensive, in an attitude of defense, ready to defend oneself against criticism.
def'er (di-fur) v. deferred, deferring 1. to put off to a later time, to postpone. 2. to grant (a person) a delay in being drafted. def'ence (di-fur-ments) n. deferred, deferring 1. to put off to a later time, to postpone. 2. to grant (a person) a delay in being drafted. defense, defensive, defensive adj. having no defense, unable to defend oneself.

def'acer (di-fur) v. to give way to a person's wishes or judgment or authority, to yield.
def'erence (def-yé-rensy) n. polite respect. in deference to, out of respect for.
def'er en tial (def-yé-ren-shál) adj. showing deference. def'er en tial ly adv.
defi ance (di-fr-áns) n. defying, open disobedience, bold resistance.
defi ant (di-fr-ánt) adj. showing defiance. defiant*ly adv.
defi ciency (di-fish-én-see) n. (pl. -cies) 1. being deficient. 2. a lack or shortage, the amount by which something falls short of what is required. deficiency disease, a disease (rickets etc.) caused by lack of vitamins or other essential elements in food.
deficient (di-fish-ént) adj. 1. not having enough, deficient in vitamins; mentally deficient. 2. insufficient or not present at all.
deficit (def-i-sit) n. 1. the amount by which a total falls short of what is required. 2. The excess of expenditure over income, or of liabilities over assets. deficit spending, expenditure by the government of funds raised by borrowing not by taxation.
defile (di-fil) v. defiled, defiling to make dirty, to pollute. defilement n. defile* n. a narrow way or gorge through which troops must file. defile v. defiled, defiling to march in file.
definable (di-fr-nál-bél) adj. able to be defined.
define (di-fin) v. defined, defining 1. to give a definition of (a word etc.). 2. to state or explain precisely, customers' rights are defined by the law. 3. to outline clearly, to mark out the boundary of. definer n.
definite (def-i-nit) adj. 1. having exact limits. 2. clear and unmistakable, not vague, I want a definite answer. 3. certain, settled, is it definite that we are to move? (See the note under definitive.) definite*ly adv. definite article, the word "the."
definition (def-i-na-shón) n. 1. a statement of the precise meaning of a word or phrase, or of the nature of a thing. 2. making or being distinct, clearness of outline.
definite (def-i-nit) adj. finally fixing or settling something, conclusive. do not confuse this word with definite. A definite offer is one that is clearly stated. A definitive offer is one that is in its final form and must be accepted or refused without trying to alter its terms. A definitive edition of a work is one with authoritative status.

deflate (di-flayt) v. deflated, deflating 1. to let out air or gas from (an inflated tire etc.). 2. to cause (a person) to lose confidence or self-esteem. 3. to counteract inflation in (a country's economy), as by reducing the amount of money in circulation. 4. to become deflated. deflation n. deflationary (di-flay-shón-ar-y) deflationary (di-flay-shón-ar-y) adj. deflationary (di-flay-shón-ar-y) adv.
deflect (di-flekt) v. to turn or cause to turn aside. deflect*on n. deflect*or n.

defog (de-fog) v. defogged, defogging to remove the fog from. defogger n. defoil (def-oil) n. a chemical substance that destroys foliage.
defoil ate (def-oil-áte) v. defoiling to strip of leaves, to destroy foliage by chemical means. defoilation (def-oil-á-shón) n. deforest (de-fo-re-st) v. to clear of forests. deforestation (de-fo-re-sta-shón) n.

deform (di-form) v. to spoil the form or appearance of, to put out of shape. deformation (de-fo-re-ma-shón) n. deformed (di-formd) adj. badly or abnormally shaped. deformity (di-for-mity) n. (pl. -ties) 1. being deformed. 2. a deformed part of the body.
defraud (di-fraud) v. to deprive by fraud.
defray (di-fray) v. to provide money to pay (costs or expenses). defrayal n. defrock (de-frock) v. to unfrock.
defrost (di-frast) v. 1. to remove frost or ice from. 2. to unfreeze (frozen food), to thaw, defrost the chicken; let the chicken defrost. defroster n.
deft (deft) adj. skillful, handling things neatly. deft*ly adv. deftness n. defunct (di-funkt) adj. 1. dead. 2. no longer existing or used or functioning.
de-fuse (de-fyooz) v. (de-fused, de-fus-ing) 1. to remove the fuse of, to make (an explosive) unable to explode. 2. to reduce the dangerous tension in (a situation).

de-fy (di-fi) v. (de-fied, de-fy-ing) 1. to resist openly, to refuse to obey. 2. to challenge (a person) to try and do something that one believes he cannot or will not do. I defy you to prove this. 3. to offer difficulties that cannot be overcome, the door defied all attempts to open it.

deg. abbr. degree(s).

degas (di-gas) v. (de-gassed, de-gas-sing) to remove gas from.

degauss (dee-gaus) v. to demagnetize (a television receiver, ship, etc.).

degen-rate (di-jen-er-at) v. (de-gener-at-ed, de-gener-at-ing) to become worse or lower in standard, to lose good qualities. degenerate (di-jen-er-ate) adj. having degenerated. degenerate (de-gener-ate) n. a degenerate person or animal.

degen-rate-acy (di-jen-er-ak-see) n. degeneration (di-jen-er-a-shun) n. degenerate (de-gen-er-ate) adj. having degenerated.

degrade (di-grayd) v. (degrad-ed, degrad-ing) 1. to reduce to a lower rank or status. 2. to bring disgrace or contempt on. degrade (de-gray-d) n. degraded (de-gred-ed) adj. degrading (de-grad-ing) adj. shaming, humiliating.

degree (di-gree) n. 1. a step or stage in an ascending or descending series. 2. a stage in intensity or amount, a high degree of skill. 3. an academic rank awarded to a person who has successfully completed a course of study or as an honor. 4. a unit of measurement for angles or arcs, indicated by the symbol °, as 45°. 5. a unit of measurement in a scale, as of temperatures, water freezes at 32° F. by degrees, step by step, gradually.

dehorn (de-horn) v. to remove the horns from (an animal).

dehumanize (de-hyum-ahn-iz) v. (de-hum-an-ized, de-hum-an-iz-ing) to take away human qualities, to make impersonal or machine-like. dehumanization (de-hum-an-i-zation) (de-hyu-mah-ni-zay-shun) n.

dehumidify (de-hyum-i-dify) v. (de-hum-i-difed, de-hum-i-dify-ing) to remove moisture from (air etc.). dehumidifier (de-hum-i-dif-or) n. dehumidification (de-hyoo-mid-i-fay-shun) n.

dehydrate (de-hy-drayt) v. (de-hy-drat-ed, de-hy-drat-ing) 1. to remove the moisture content from. 2. to lose moisture. dehydration (de-hy-dray-shun) n.

Deh-y-dro-generate (de-hy-dro-jen-ate) v. (de-hy-dro-gen-at-ed, de-hy-dro-gen-at-ing) to remove hydrogen from (a compound). dehydration (de-hy-dro-jen-a-shun) n.

decease (de-yes) v. (de-iced, de-ic-ing) to remove or prevent the formation of ice on (a windshield or other surface).

delict (di-fekt) n. enjoyment, delight, for your delection.
delegate / delta

dé·légé (del-é-git, -gayt) n. a person who represents others and acts according to their instructions. delegate (del-é-gayt) v. (del-e-gat-ed, del-e-gat-ing) to entrust (a task, power, or responsibility) to an agent.

dé·lé-ga·tion (del-é-gay-shôn) n. 1. delegation. 2. a body of delegates.

dé·lé-gate (di-leet) v. (dé·let-ed, dé·let-ing) to strike out (something written or printed), several words were deleted by the censor. délé-ga·tion (di-lee-shôn) n.

dé·lé-ga·ti·ous (del-é-ter-i-ús) adj. harmful to the body or mind.

delft (delft) n. a kind of glazed earthenware, usually decorated in blue.

delft·ware (delft-wair) n. delft.

del-hi (del-ee) n. the capital of India.

dé·lib·er·ate (di-lib-ér-ät) adj. 1. done or said on purpose, intentional, a deliberate insult. 2. slow and careful, unhurried, entered with deliberate steps. déliberate (di-lib-ér-rayt) v. (dé·lib·er·at-ed, dé·lib·er·at-ing) to think over or discuss carefully before reaching a decision. dé·lib·er·a·tive·ly adv. dé·lib·er·a·ti·ness n.

dé·lib·er·ate·ly (di-lib·ér-ray-shôn) n. 1. careful consideration or discussion. 2. careful slowness.

dé·lib·er·a·tive (di-lib-ér-ray-tiv) adj. for the purpose of deliberating or discussing things, a deliberative assembly.

del·ica·cy (del-i-ká-seé) n. (pl. -cies) 1. delicateness. 2. avoidance of what is immodest or offensive or hurtful to others. 3. a choice food.

del·i·cate (del-i-kit) adj. 1. fine in texture, soft, slender. 2. of exquisite quality or workmanship. 3. (of color or flavor) pleasant and not strong or intense. 4. easily injured, liable to illness, (of plants) unable to withstand cold. 5. requiring skill or careful handling, a delicate operation; the situation is delicate. 6. skillful and sensitive, has a delicate touch. 7. taking great care to avoid what is immodest or offensive or hurtful to others. del·i·cate·ly adv. del·i·cate·ness n.

del·i·ca·tes·sen (del-i-kä-tës-chen) n. 1. a store selling prepared delicacies such as salads, cooked meats, and smoked fish. 2. these foods.

del·i·cious (di-lish-üs) adj. delightful, especially to the senses of taste or smell. del·i·cious·ly adv.

del·ight (di-lit) v. 1. to please greatly. 2. to be greatly pleased, to feel great pleasure, she delights in giving surprises. del·ight n. 1. great pleasure. 2. something that causes this. del·ight·ed adj. del·ight·ed·ly adv.

del·ight·ful (di-lit·ful) adj. giving delight. del·ight·ful·ly adv.

del·i·lah (di-lil-lah) n. a seductive and treacherous woman. > From a woman in the Bible who betrayed Samson to the Philistines.

del·im·it (di-lim-it) v. to fix the limits or boundaries of. del·im·i·ta·tion (di-lim-i-tay-shôn) n.

del·in·e·ate (di-lin-i-ät) v. (de·lin·e·at-ed, del·in·e·at-ing) to show by drawing or by describing. del·in·e·a·tion (di-lin-i-ät-shôn) n.

del·in·quent (di-ling-kwent) adj. committing an offense or failing to perform a duty. delinquent n. a delinquent person, especially a young offender against the law.

del·i·ques·ce (del-i-kwes) v. (del·i·ques·ced, del·i·ques·cing) to become liquid, to melt. del·i·ques·cent adj.

del·ir·i·ous (di-leer-i-ús) adj. 1. affected with delirium, raving. 2. wildly excited. del·ir·i·ous·ly adv.

del·ir·i·um (di-leer-i-üm) n. (pl. -iums, -i-ums, -ir-i-a, pr. -ler-i-a) 1. a disordered state of mind, especially during feverish illness. 2. wild excitement or emotion. >delirium tre·mens (tree·mênz), a form of delirium with tremors and terrifying delusions, caused chiefly by heavy drinking.

del·iv·er (di-liv-ér) v. 1. to take (letters or goods etc.) to the addressee or purchaser. 2. to transfer, to hand over, to present. 3. to utter (a speech). 4. to aim or launch (a blow or attack), to pitch (a ball) in baseball etc. 5. to rescue, to save or set free. 6. to give birth to, to assist (a female) in giving birth. del·iv·er·er n.

del·iv·er·ance (di-liv-ér-rans) n. rescue, setting free.

del·iv·er·y (di-liv-ér-) n. (pl. -er·ies) 1. delivering, being delivered. 2. a periodical distribution of letters or goods etc. 3. the manner of delivering a speech, her delivery was poor. 4. the manner of pitching a ball, throwing a blow in a fight, etc. 5. a baseball pitch. 6. child-birth. > delivery boy, a boy who delivers goods ordered from a store.

dell (del) n. a small wooded hollow or valley.

del·louse (dee-lows) v. (de·loused, de·lous·ing) to rid of lice.

del·phín·i·um (del-fin-i-üm) n. a garden plant with tall spikes of flowers, usually blue.

del·ta (del-tä) n. 1. the fourth letter of the Greek alphabet (Δ δ). 2. a triangular patch of land accumulated at the mouth of a river between two or more of its branches, the Mississippi Delta. □ delta ray, a ray consisting of low-energy electrons knocked from an atom during collision with other particles. delta wing aircraft, an aircraft with swept-back wings that give it a triangular appearance.

de-lude (di-lood) v. (de-lúd-ed, de-lúd-ing) to deceive.

deluge (del-yooj) n. 1. a great flood, a heavy fall of rain; the Deluge, the flood in Noah's time. 2. anything coming in a heavy rush, a deluge of questions. deluge v. (de-lúged, de-lúg-ing) to flood, to come down on like a deluge.

delusive (di-foo-siv) adj. deceptive, raising vain hopes.

deluxed (di-lúks) adj. of very high quality, luxurious.

delve (delv) v. (delved, delv-ing) to search deeply for information.

dem. abbr. 1. Democrat. 2. Democratic.

demagoge (dem-á-gawg) n. a leader or agitator who wins support by appealing to people's feelings and prejudices rather than by reasoning. dem-a-gu-er-y (dem-a-gaw-gér-ee) n. dem-a-gog (dem-á-gawg) n. a leader or agitator who wins support by appealing to people's feelings and prejudices rather than by reasoning.

demand (di-mánd) n. 1. a request made imperiously or as if one had a right. 2. a desire for goods or services by people who wish to buy or use these, there's a great demand for typists. 3. an urgent claim, there are many demands on my time. demand v. 1. to make a demand for. 2. to need, the work demands great skill. □ demand deposit, a bank deposit that can be withdrawn without advance notice. In demand, sought after. on demand, as soon as the demand is made, payable on demand.

demanding (di-mán-ding) adj. 1. making many demands. 2. requiring much skill or effort, a demanding job.

defeat (di-maht) v. (de-maht-ed, de-maht-ing) to mark the boundaries of. de-maht-ation (di-maht-á-shan) n.

delude (di-meen) v. to lower the dignity of, I wouldn't demean myself to ask for it.

demoralize (di-maht-iz) v. (de-maht-ized, de-maht-ing) to remove military forces, installations, etc. from. de-maht-za-tion (di-maht-zá-shan) n. □ demilitarized zone, an area required (by treaty or agreement) to have no military forces or installations in it.

democrat (dem-á-krat) n. 1. a person who favors democracy. 2. Democrat, a member of the Democratic Party in the U.S. democrat-ic (dem-ó-krat-ik) adj. 1. of or like or supporting democracy. 2. in accordance with the principle of equal rights for all, a democratic decision. 3. Democratic, of the Democratic Party.

democratically adv.
democratize / denigrate

n. □ demonstrative pronoun, see pronoun.

democratically (dem-o-krat-ik) adv.
de•mor•ali•ze (di-mor-ali-z) v. (de•mor•ali•zed, de•mor•ali•zing) to make democratic. de•mor•ali•za•tion (di-mor-á-li-zay-shon) n. démocraté (day-mo-day) adj. out of fashion. ▷ French.
de•mog•ra•phy (di-mog-ra-fe) n. the scientific study of population statistics relating to births, deaths, diseases, etc.
de•mog•ra•pher n. de•mo•graph•ic (dee-mô-graph-ik) adj. de•mo•graph’ic al•ly adv.
de•mol•ish (di-mol-ish) v. 1. to pull or knock down (a building); 2. to destroy (a person’s argument or theory etc.). 3. (informal) to eat up. de•mon•il•lion (di-ô-lish-ôn) n.
de•mon (dee-môn) n. 1. a devil or evil spirit; 2. a cruel or forceful person. de•mon adj. 1. like, of a demon. 2. (informal) energetic, forceful, skilled, a demon worker.
de•mon•e•tize (de•mon-é-tiz) v. (de•mon•e•tized, de•mon•e•tiz’ing) to withdraw (coins or bills) from use as money. de•mo•ne•ti•za•tion (dee-mô-ti•za•tion) n.
de•mo•ni•ac (di-mô-ni-ak) adj. 1. of or like a demon. 2. possessed by an evil spirit. 3. fiercely energetic, frenzied.
de•mo•ni•a•cal (dee-mô-ni-a-kál) adj. of or like a demon.
de•mon•i•c (di-mon-i-k) adj. of or like a demon. de•mon’i•cal adj.
de•mon•i•o•gy (dee-mô-ni-o-j) n. the study of demons, belief in demons.
de•mon•str•a•ble (di-mon-strá-bél) adj. able to be shown or proved. de•mon’str•a•bly adv.
de•mon•str•ate (dem-ôn-strat) v. (dem•on•strat’ed, dem•on•strat’ing) 1. to show evidence of, to prove. 2. to describe and explain by the help of specimens or examples; demonstrate the machine to customers, show them how it works. 3. to take part in a demonstration. de•mon•str•a•tor n.
de•mon•str•a•tion (dem-ôn-stray-shon) n. 1. demonstrating. 2. a show of feeling. 3. an organized gathering or march to express the opinion of a group publicly. 4. a display of military force.
de•mon•str•a•tive (di-mon-strá-tiv) adj. 1. showing or proving. 2. expressing one’s feelings openly; she is not a demonstrative child, does not readily show affection openly. 3. (in grammar) indicating the person or thing referred to, as this in “this is wrong; that hat is right for me.” demonstrative n. a demonstrative word. de•mon’s•tra•tive•ly adv. de•mon’s•tra•tive•ness move oxygen from. de-ox'i-dizer n. de-ox-y'-ri'-bo-nu-cle-ic (dee-ok-si-ri-boh-noo-klee-ik) acid n. a substance in the chromosomes of higher creatures, storing genetic information.

dep. abbr. 1. depart. 2. departed. 3. department. 4. departure. 5. deponent. 6. deposited. 7. deposit. 8. depot. 9. deputy.

depart (di-pahrt) v. 1. to go away, to leave. 2. (of trains or buses) to start, to begin a journey. 3. to cease to follow a particular course, departing from our normal procedure.

departed (di-pahrt-tid) adj. bygone, departed glories; the departed, the dead.

department (di-pahrt-mont) n. one of the units, each with a specialized function, into which a business, store, or organization is divided. department store, a large store in which there are various departments, each dealing in a separate type of goods.

departmental (dee-pahrt-men-tal) adj. of a department.

departure (di-pahrt-chur) n. 1. departing, going away. 2. setting out on a new course of action or thought.

depend (di-pend) v. depend on, 1. to be controlled or determined by, whether we can have a picnic depends on the weather. 2. to be unable to do without, she depends on my help. 3. to trust confidently, to feel certain about, you can depend on John to be there when he's needed. depend upon it, you can be quite certain.

dependable (di-pen-dah-bel) adj. able to be relied on. dependable, dependable in weather.

dependable (di-pen-dah-bil-i-tee) n.

dependence (di-pen-den-sens) n. depending, being dependent.

dependency (di-pen-den-se) n. (pl. -cens) a country that is controlled by another.

dependent (di-pen-den-t) adj. 1. depending, conditioned, promotion is dependent on ability. 2. needing the help of, unable to do without, he is dependent on drugs. 3. controlled by another, not independent, our dependent territories.

dependent n. one who depends on another for support, he has four dependents.

depsialize (dee-pur-sah-nil-ize) v. (dee-per-son-al-ized, de-per-son-al-iz-ing) to make impersonal.

depict (di-pikt) v. 1. to show in the form of a picture. 2. to describe in words. depiction (di-pik-shuhn) n.

depilatory (dee-pil-a-to-ri-ee) n. (pl. -ries) a substance that removes superficial hair. deplorably adv. deplaning) to descend or remove from an airplane.

deplete (di-plet) v. (deplet-ed, deplet-ing) to use up large quantities of, to reduce in number or quantity. depletion allowance, a tax reduction for industries that deplete their renewable resources in the course of doing business.

deplore (di-plehr) v. (deplored, deploring) 1. to regret deeply, we deplore her death. 2. to find deplorable, we deplore their incompetence.

deploy (di-ploy) v. to spread out, to bring or come into action systematically, deploying his troops or resources; the ships and aircraft deployed in battle.

depopulate (dee-poh-lah-ri-ze) v. (depo-larized, depo-larizing) 1. to reduce or remove polarization from. 2. to move closer together in opinion after being far apart.

depopulation (dee-poh-lah-ri-zay-shuhn) n. depopulation.

depopulon ent (di-poh-nent) n. a person making a deposition under oath.

depopulate (dee-poh-lot) v. (depopulating) to reduce the population of.

depopulate (di-poh-t) v. to remove (an unwanted person) from a country. depopulation (dee-poh-tay-shuhn) n.

depopulate (di-poh-t-mont) n. behavior, a person's way of conducting himself, the child's deportment was unacceptable.

depose (di-po兹) v. (deposed, deposing) 1. to remove from power, the queen was deposed. 2. to testify or bear witness, especially on oath in court.

deposit (di-poz-it) n. 1. a thing deposited for safekeeping. 2. a sum of money paid into a bank. 3. a sum paid as a guaranty or a first installment. 4. a layer of matter deposited or accumulated naturally, new deposits of copper were found.

deposit v. 1. to lay or put down, she deposited the books on the desk. 2. to store or entrust for safekeeping, to pay (money) into a bank. 3. to pay as a guaranty or first installment. 4. to leave as a layer or covering of matter, floods deposited mud on the land. deposition (dee-poh-say-shuhn) n. on deposit, deposited with a bank, store, etc.) for safekeeping or as a first installment.

deposition (dee-poh-say-shuhn) n. 1. deposing or being deposited from power. 2. a statement made on oath. 3. deposing.
de·pos·i·to·ry (di-poz-i-tohr-ee) n. (pl. -ries) a storehouse, a place for safekeeping of things, the merchant left his receipts in the night depository.

de·pot (dee-poh) n. 1. a storehouse, especially for military supplies. 2. a place for assembling military recruits and replacement troops. 3. a place where goods are deposited or from which goods, vehicles, etc. are dispatched. 4. a bus station or railroad station.

de·prave (di-prayv) v. (de·praved, de·prav·ing) to make morally bad, to corrupt. dep·ra·va·tion (dep-ra-vay-shon) n.

de·praved (di-prayv-ed) adj. 1. immoral, wicked, a depraved character. 2. made bad, perverted, depraved tastes.

de·prav·i·ty (di-prav-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) moral corruption, wickedness.

de·pre·cate (dep-re-kayt) v. (de·pre·cat·ed, dep·re·cat·ing) 1. to feel and express disapproval of. 2. to try to turn aside (praise or blame etc.) politely. dep·re·ca·tion (dep-re-kay-shon) n.

de·pre·ca·to·ry (dep-re-kay-tohr-ee) adj. Do not confuse deprecate with deprecate.

de·pre·ci·ate (di-pre-ki-at) v. (de·pre·ci·at·ed, de·pre·ci·at·ing) 1. to make or become lower in value. 2. to belittle, to disparage. dep·re·ci·a·tion (di-pree-shi-ayt) n. Do not confuse deprecate with deprecate.

de·pre·ci·a·to·ry (di-pree-shi-ä-tohr-ee) adj. disparaging.

de·pre·da·tion (dep-re-day-shon) n. plundering, destruction.

de·press (di-pres) v. 1. to make sad, to lower the spirits of. 2. to make less active; bad news depresses the stock market, values are reduced. 3. to press down, depress the lever. de·pressed' adj. de·press'ed·nor n.

de·press·sant (di-pres-änt) n. a substance that reduces the activity of the nervous system, a sedative. depressant adj. depressing.

de·press·ion (di-presh- ön) n. 1. a state of excessive sadness or hopelessness, often with physical symptoms. 2. a long period of inactivity in business and trade, with widespread unemployment. 3. a lowering of atmospheric pressure, an area of low pressure that may bring rain. 4. a sunken place or hollow on a surface. 5. pressing down. The Depression, the Great Depression, the business slump that began in 1929 and ended when World War II broke out.

de·press·ive (di-pres-iv) adj. 1. depressing. 2. involving mental depression. de·press·ive n. a person suffering from mental depression.

de·priv·al (di-pral) n. depriving, being deprived.

dep·ri·va·tion (dep-ri-vay-shon) n. 1. deprivation 2. a keenly felt loss.

de·prive (di-priv) v. (de·prived, de·priv·ing) to take a thing away from, to prevent from using or enjoying, the prisoner had been deprived of food. de·prived child, one who has been prevented from having a normal home life.

dep·ro·gram (dep-roe-gram) v. (de·pro·grammed, dep·ro·gram·ing) to restore (a person’s thought processes) to normal through systematic reindoctrination. dep·ro·gram·er n.

dep·t. abbr. 1. department. 2. deponent. 3. deputy.

depth (depth) n. 1. being deep. 2. the distance from the top down, or from the surface inward, or from front to back. 3. deep learning or thought or feeling. 4. intensity of color or darkness. 5. lowness of pitch in a voice or sound. 6. the deepest or most central part, living in the depths of the forest. Depth charge, a bomb that will explode under water, for use against submarines etc. to depth, with thorough and intensive investigations, studied it in depth; defense in depth, a system of defense employing successive areas of resistance. Out of or beyond one’s depth, in water that is too deep to stand in; attempting something that is beyond one’s ability.

dep·u·ta·tion (dep-yoo-tay-shon) n. a body of people appointed to go on a mission on behalf of others.

dep·u·ty (dep-yoo-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. a person appointed to go on a mission for another. 2. a member of a legislature in certain countries, the Chamber of Deputies. Deputy sheriff, an acting sheriff.

der. abbr. 1. derivation. 2. derivative. 3. derived.

dep·u·ty (dep-yoo-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. a person appointed to act as substitute for another. 2. a member of a legislature in certain countries, the Chamber of Deputies. Deputy sheriff, an acting sheriff.

der. abbr. 1. derivation. 2. derivative. 3. derived.

dep·u·ty (dep-yoo-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. a person appointed to go on a mission for another. 2. a member of a legislature in certain countries, the Chamber of Deputies. Deputy sheriff, an acting sheriff.

der. abbr. 1. derivation. 2. derivative. 3. derived.

dep·u·ty (dep-yoo-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. a person appointed to go on a mission for another. 2. a member of a legislature in certain countries, the Chamber of Deputies. Deputy sheriff, an acting sheriff.

der. abbr. 1. derivation. 2. derivative. 3. derived.

der·ail (dee-rayl) v. 1. to cause (a train) to leave the rails. 2. (of a train) to leave the rails. Dep·ail·ment n.

dep·range (di-raynj) v. (de·rang·ged, de·rang·ing) 1. to throw into confusion, to disrupt. 2. to make insane. De·range·ment n.

der·by (dur-bee) n. (pl. -bies) 1. a horse race of particular prominence. 2. a contest of any kind open to all, a roller derby
3. (also derby hat) a man's stiff felt hat.

4. the Derby, the annual horse race at Churchill Downs, Kentucky; the annual horse race at Epsom, near London, England.

derelict (der-e-lict) adj. abandoned, deserted and left to fall into ruin. derelict n. 1. a person who is abandoned by society or who does not fit into a normal social background. 2. an abandoned ship, car, plane, etc.
derelict (der-e-lict) adj. abandoned, deserted and left to fall into ruin. derelict n. 1. a person who is abandoned by society or who does not fit into a normal social background. 2. an abandoned ship, car, plane, etc.
dereliction (der-e-lik-shon) n. 1. neglect of duty. 2. abandoning, being abandoned.
dereliction (der-e-lik-shon) n. 1. neglect of duty. 2. abandoning, being abandoned.
derelict (der-e-lict) adj. abandoned, deserted and left to fall into ruin. derelict n. 1. a person who is abandoned by society or who does not fit into a normal social background. 2. an abandoned ship, car, plane, etc.
dereliction (der-e-lik-shon) n. 1. neglect of duty. 2. abandoning, being abandoned.
derelict (der-e-lict) adj. abandoned, deserted and left to fall into ruin. derelict n. 1. a person who is abandoned by society or who does not fit into a normal social background. 2. an abandoned ship, car, plane, etc.
dereliction (der-e-lik-shon) n. 1. neglect of duty. 2. abandoning, being abandoned.
dereliction (der-e-lik-shon) n. 1. neglect of duty. 2. abandoning, being abandoned.
dereliction (der-e-lik-shon) n. 1. neglect of duty. 2. abandoning, being abandoned.
dereliction (der-e-lik-shon) n. 1. neglect of duty. 2. abandoning, being abandoned.
sacred thing) with irreverence or disrespect. des‘e· cra·tor n. des·e· cra·tion (des-ē-kray-shōn) n.

des·seg·re·gate (dee-seg-rē-gat) v. (de·seg·re· gated, des·seg· re·gat·ing) to abolish racial segregation in (public places, schools, etc.). de·seg· re·ga·tion (dee-seg-rē-ga-shōn) n.

de·sen·si·tize (dee-sen-si-tiz) v. (de· sen·si· tized, de·sen·si· tiz·ing) to make less sensitive to a substance or influence. de·sen·si· ti·za·tion (dee-sen-si-ti-zā-shōn) n.

des·ert1 (dez-ērt) n. a dry barren often sand-covered area of land. desert adj. 1. barren and uncultivated. 2. uninhabited, a desert island. □ Do not confuse desert with dessert.

des·ert2 (di-zurt) v. 1. to abandon, to leave without intending to return, to forsake. 2. to leave service in the armed forces without permission. de·ser·t’er n. de·ser·tion (di-zur-shōn) n.

des·erts (di-zurtz) n. pl. what one deserves (whether good or bad), she agreed that she had received her deserts. □ Do not confuse deserts with desserts.

des·erve (di-zurv) v. (des·erved, des· erv· ing) to be worthy of or entitled to (a thing) because of actions or qualities.

des·erv· ed·ly (di-zur-vid-lee) adv. according to what is deserved, justly.

des·erv·ing (di-zur·ving) adj. worthy, worth rewarding or supporting, a deserving charity; those who are deserving of our sympathy.

des·ic·cant (des-i-kánt) adj. capable of drying. desiccant n. a drying agent.

des·ic·cate (des-i-kayt) v. (des·ic· cat·ed, des·ic·cat·ing) to dry out the moisture from, to dry (solid food) in order to preserve it. des·ic·cat·or n.

des·ic·ca·tion (des-i-kā-shōn) n.

des·id·er·a·tum (di-sid·ē-ray-tūm) n. (pl. -ta, pr. -tā) something that is lacking but needed or desired.

des·ign (di-zrn) n. 1. a drawing that shows how something is to be made. 2. the art of making such drawings. 3. the general form or arrangement of something, the design of the building is good. 4. a combination of lines or shapes to form a decoration. 5. a mental plan, a purpose. design v. 1. to prepare a drawing or design for (a thing). 2. to plan, to intend for a specific purpose, the book is designed for students. de·sign·er n.

□ have designs on, to plan to get possession of.

des·ign·ate (dez-ign-nat) v. (des·ign· nat·ed, des·ign·nat·ing) 1. to mark or point out clearly, to specify, the river was designated as the western boundary. 2. to describe as, to give a name or title to. 3. to appoint to a position, designated Smith as his successor. design·ate (dez· ign-nat, -nit) adj. appointed to office but not yet installed, the ambassador design·ate. □ designated hitter, the tenth player on a baseball team, whose only role is to bat (instead of the pitcher).

des·ig·na·tion (dez-ig-nay-shōn) n. 1. designating. 2. a name or title.

des·ign·ed·ly (di-zr-nid-lee) adv. intentionally.

des·ign·ing (di-zr-ning) adj. cr. crafty, scheming.

des·ir·a·ble (di-zr·a-bēl) adj. 1. arousing desire, worth desiring, a desirable waterfront house. 2. advisable, worth doing, it is desirable that you be present. des·ir·a·ble·ly adv. des·ir·a·ble·ly·ty (di-zr·a-bēl-i-tee) n.

des·ire (di-zir) n. 1. a feeling that one would get pleasure or satisfaction by obtaining or possessing something. 2. an expressed wish, a request, at the desire of the company president. 3. an object of desire, all your heart’s desires. 4. strong sexual urge. desire v. (de·sired, de·sir·ing) 1. to have a desire for. 2. to ask for. □ leave much to be desired, to be unsatisfactory.

des·ir·ous (di-zr·ūs) adj. having a desire, desiring.

des·ist (di-zist) v. to cease from an action etc.

desk (desk) n. 1. a piece of furniture with a flat top and often drawers, used when reading or writing etc. 2. a counter behind which sits a cashier or receptionist etc., ask at the information desk. 3. a section of a newspaper office dealing with specified topics. 4. a section of the Department of State, the Far East desk.

Des Moines (de mōn) the capital of Iowa.

des·o·late (des-ō-lit) adj. 1. solitary. 2. lonely. 3. deserted, uninhabited, barren, dismal, a desolate landscape. 3. forlorn and unhappy. desolate (des-ō-lit) v. (des·o·lat·ed, des·o·lat·ing) 1. to depopulate. 2. to devastate. 3. to make (a person) wretched. des·o·late·ly (des-ō-lit·lee) adv.

des·o·la·tion (des-ō-lā-shōn) n. 1. a desolate or barren condition. 2. loneliness. 3. grief, wretchedness.

des·pair (di-spair) n. 1. complete loss or lack of hope. 2. a thing that causes this, that project was the despair of the office. des·pair v. to lose all hope. des·pair·ing adj. des·pair·ing·ly adv.

des·patch (di-spach) n. & v. dispatch.

des·per·a·do (des-pē-rə-doh) n. (pl. does) a reckless criminal.
de*per*ate (des-për-rit) adj. 1. leaving little or no hope, extremely serious, the situation is desperate. 2. made reckless by despair or urgency, a desperate criminal; they are desperate for food. 3. done or used in a nearly hopeless situation, a desperate remedy. des*per*ate*ly adv.

des*per*a*tion (des-pë-ray-shôn) n. 1. hopelessness. 2. being desperate, recklessness caused by despair.

des*pli*ca*ble (des-pli-ká-bél) adj. deserving to be despised, contemptible. des*pli*ca*ble adv.

des*pi*ca*ble (des-pi-ká-bél) adj. despising) to regard as inferior or worthless, to feel disrespect for.

des*pite (di-spît) prep. in spite of.

des*poil (di-spoil) v. to plunder, to rob (a place or person) of. de*spo*ler n. des*po*lment n.

des*spo*li*a*tion (di-spo-li-a-y-shôn) n. plundering.

des*spond*ent (di-spons-dent) adj. in low spirits, dejected. des*pond*ent*ly adv.

des*spond*en*cy n.

des*po*t (des-pôt) n. a tyrant, a ruler who has unrestricted power.

des*po*ti*cal (di-spot-i-kal) adj. having unrestricted power. des*po*ti*cal*ly adv.

*des*po*ti*sm (des-po-tiz-ém) n. 1. tyranny, government by a despot. 2. a country ruled by a despot.

des*ser*t (di-zurt) n. the course of sweet fruit, fruit, cheese, or the like served at the end of a meal. des*ser*t fork, a medium-sized fork for eating cake etc. des*ser*t spoon, a medium-sized spoon used in eating dessert. des*ser*t fork, a medium-sized fork for eating cake etc. des*ser*t spoon, a medium-sized spoon used in eating dessert. des*ser*t spoon.

des*tin*a*tion (des-tin-a-y-shôn) n. the place to which a person or thing is going.

des*ti*ne (des-tin) v. (des-tîned, de*stîning) to settle or determine the future of, to set apart for a purpose; he was destined to become President, this was his destiny.

des*tîny (des-tî-nee) n. (pl. -nies) 1. fate considered as a power. 2. that which happens to a person or thing, thought of as determined in advance by fate.

des*tîtute (des-tî-toot) adj. 1. penniless, without the necessities of life. 2. lacking in something, a landscape destitute of trees.

des*tîtution (des-tî-tooshôn) n. being destitute, extreme poverty.

des*trой (di-stroy) v. 1. to pull or break down, to reduce to a useless form, to spoil completely. 2. to kill (an animal) deliberately, the horse had to be destroyed. 3. to put out of existence, it destroyed our chances. des*trой*er (di-stroy-er) n. 1. a person or thing that destroys. 2. a fast warship designed to protect other ships. des*trой*er escort, a warship smaller than a destroyer, used to aid destroyers in their missions.

des*truc*ty (di-strukt) v. (informal) to bring about the deliberate destruction of (one's own rocket etc.). des*truct n. (informal) the action of destructing. des*truct is preferred by military and rocketry staff, especially in the word self-destruct. Careful writers use the verb destroy and the noun destruction except when referring to rockets and military devices.

des*truc*ti*ble (di-struk-tî-bél) adj. able to be destroyed. des*truc*ti*ble (di-struk-tî-bél) adj. able to be destroyed.

des*truc*ti*v (di-struk-tîv) adj. 1. destroying, causing destruction. 2. frequently destroying things, some children are very destructive. des*truc*ti*v*ly adv.

des*su*e*te (des-wi-tood) n. 1. passing into disuse. 2. a state of disuse.

des*ul*to*ry (des-ul-toh-rî) adj. going aimlessly from one subject to another, not systematic. des*ul*to*ri*ly adv.

des*ul*to*ri*ness n.

det. abbr. 1. detached. 2. detachment. 3. detail.

des*tach (di-tach) v. to release or remove from something else or from a group. des*tach*able (di-tach-ä-bél) adj. able to be detached.

des*tach*ed (di-tacht) adj. 1. (of a house) not joined to another. 2. (of the mind or opinions) free from bias or emotion. des*tach*ment (di-tach-mënt) n. 1. detaching, being detached. 2. freedom from bias or emotion, aloofness, lack of concern. 3. a group of troops or ships etc. detached from a larger group for a special duty.

des*tail (di-tayl, dee-tayl) n. 1. an individual item, a small or subordinate particular. 2. a number of such particulars, the description is full of detail. 3. the minor decoration in a building or picture etc., look at the detail in the carvings. 4. a small military detachment assigned to special duty. detail v. 1. to give particulars of, to describe fully. 2. to assign to special duty. des*tail*less (di-tayl-less) adj. to explain things in detail. des*tail*less (di-tayl-less) adj. to explain things in detail. in detail, describing the individual parts or events etc. fully.
de·talled (di-tayld, dee-tayld) adj. giving or showing many details.

de·tain (di-taym) v. 1. to keep in confinement or under restraint. 2. to keep waiting, to cause delay to, to keep from proceeding.

de·tain·ee (di-tay-nee) n. a person who is detained by the authorities.

de·tect (di-tek) v. 1. to discover the existence or presence of. 2. to find (a person) doing something bad or secret, like a boy detected while robbing an orchard. de·tect·a·ble adj.

de·tect·ion (di-tek-shôn) n. 1. detecting, being detected. 2. the work of a detective.

de·tect·ive (di-tek-tiv) n. a person, especially a member of the police force, whose job is to investigate crimes. de·tective adj. concerned with or used for detection. de·tective story, a story that tells of crime and the detection of criminals.

de·tect·or (di-tek-tôr) n. a device for detecting the presence of something, a smoke detector; a lie detector.

de·tent (di-tent) n. a catch that has to be released in order to allow machinery to operate.

de·tente (day-tahnt) n. the easing of strained relations between countries.

de·ten·tion (di-ten-shôn) n. 1. detaining, being detained. 2. being kept in custody. de·ten·tion center, an institution where those charged with crime are kept for a short time.

de·ter (di-tur) v. (de·ter·red, de·ter·ring) to discourage or prevent from doing something through fear or dislike of the consequences. de·ter·ment n.

de·ter·gent (di-tur-jênt) n. a cleansing substance, especially a synthetic substance other than soap. de·ter·gent adj. having a cleansing effect.

de·ter·mi·nate (di-tur-mât) adj. having a definite scope or nature. de·ter·mi·na·tion (di-tur-ma-nya-shôn) n.

de·ter·mi·na·ble (di-tur-ma-nâ-bôl) adj. able to be settled or calculated, its age is not determinable. de·ter·mi·na·bly adv.

de·ter·mi·nant (di-tur-mànt) adj. limited, of fixed and definite scope or nature. de·ter·mi·na·tion (di-tur-ma-nâ-shôn) n. 1. firmness of purpose. 2. the process of deciding, determining, or calculating.

de·ter·mine (di-tur-min) v. (de·ter·min·ed, de·ter·min·ing) 1. to find out or calculate precisely, we must determine the height of the mountain. 2. to settle, to decide, determine what is to be done.

3. to be the decisive factor or influence on, income should determine one's standard of living. 4. to decide firmly, she determined to become a doctor.

de·ter·min·ed (di-tur-mînd) adj. showing determination, firm and resolute. de·ter·min·ed·ly adv.

de·ter·min·ism (di-tur-mîn-izm) n. a doctrine that human action is not free but determined by motives regarded as external force acting on the will. de·ter·min·ist n.

de·ter·ren·ce (di-tur-îns) n. 1. the act of deterring. 2. the capacity to deter.

de·ter·rent (di-tur-ânt) n. a thing that deters, a nuclear weapon that deters countries from attacking the one who has it. de·ter·rent adj. deterring.

de·test (di-test) v. to dislike intensely, to loathe. de·test·a·tion (dee-test-a·shôn) n.

de·test·a·ble (di-test-a-bôl) adj. intensely disliked, hateful. de·test·a·bly adv.

de·thron·e (dee-thrahn) v. (de·throned, de·thron·ing) to remove from a throne, to depose. de·thron·ment n.

det·o·nate (det-ô-nât) v. (det-o·nat·ed, det-o·nating) to explode or cause to explode loudly. de·to·na·tion (det-ô-nay-shôn) n.

det·o·na·tor (det-ô-nay-tôr) n. a device that detonates an explosive.

de·tour (dee-toor, di-toor) n. a deviation from one's, direct or intended course, an alternative route to avoid a section of road that is blocked or under repair, make a detour. de·tour v. to make a detour.

de·tox·i·fy (dee-tok-si-fi) v. (de·tox·i·fied, de·tox·i·fy·ing) to remove poison from. de·tox·i·fi·ca·tion (dee-tok-si-fê-kay-shôn) n.

de·tract (di-trakt) v. to take away a part, to lessen (a quantity, value, etc.), it will not detract from our pleasure. de·trac·tion (di-trak-shôn) n. de·tract v. to remove with distract.

de·trac·tor (di-trak-tôr) n. a person who criticizes something unfavorably, the plan has its detractors.

de·tri·ment (det-ri-men) n. harm, damage, worked long hours to the detriment of her health.

de·tri·men·tal (det-ri-men-tal) adj. causing harm, smoking is detrimental to health. de·tri·men·tal·ly adv.

de·tri·tus (di-tri-tis) n. 1. fragments (of gravel, sand, silt, etc.) caused by the rubbing away of a larger mass. 2. any waste.

de·trop (dê troôb) not wanted, unwelcome, in the way. de·trop (dê troôb) n. 1. (in tennis) the score of forty all. 2. the two on dice or a playing card. 3. (slang) a two-dollar bill. deuce n. (in exclamations of surprise or annoyance) the Devil, where the deuce is it?
deu-te-re-lum (doo-teer-i-um) n. a heavy form of hydrogen.
Deut-sche (doo-chay) mark the unit of money in West Germany.
de- v. abbr. deviation.
de-val-ue (dee-val-you) v. (de-val-ued, de-val-u-ing) to reduce the value of (currency) in relation to other currencies or to gold. de-val-u-a-tion (dee-val-you-ah-shon) n.
dev-as-ta-tion (dev-ah-sta-shun) n. from. to overwhelm mentally, she was devastated by the death of her son. dev-as-ta-tion (dev-ah-sta-shon) n. dev-as-tat-ing (dee-val-ay-shun) adj. 1. causing destruction. 2. overwhelming, a devastating handicap.
dev-el-op (di-vel-op) v. (dev-el-oped, dev-el-op-ing) 1. to make or become larger or fuller or more mature or organized. 2. to bring or come gradually into existence, a storm developed. 3. to begin to exhibit or suffer from, to acquire gradually, develop measles; develop bad habits. 4. to convert (land) to a new purpose so as to use its resources, to use (an area) for the building of houses or stores or factories etc. 5. to treat (a photographic film or plate etc.) so as to make the picture visible. □ developing country, a poor or primitive country that is developing economically and social conditions.
dev-el-op-er (di-vel-op-er) n. 1. one who develops. 2. a person or firm that develops land, constructs new areas of buildings or houses etc. 3. a substance used for developing photographic film etc.
dev-el-op-ment (di-vel-op-ment) n. 1. developing, being developed. 2. something that has developed or been developed, the latest developments in science; a housing development. de-vel-op-ment-al (di-vel-op-men-tal) adj.
dev-vi-ant (dee-vi-ant) adj. deviating from what is accepted as normal or usual. dev-vi-ant n. a person who deviates from accepted standards in his beliefs or behavior. dev-vi-an-cy n.
dev-vi-a-tion (dee-vi-ay-shon) n. □ standard deviation, (in statistics) the quantity calculated to indicate the extent of deviation for a group as a whole.
de-vel-a-tion-lst (dee-vil-ay-shon-list) n. 1. a political party member, especially a Communist, who deviates from his party's accepted doctrines or practices. de- vel-a-tion-ism n.
de-vi-ces (di-viss) n. 1. a thing that is made or used for a particular purpose, a device for opening cans. 2. a plan or scheme for achieving something. 3. a design used as a decoration or emblem. □ leave a person to his own devices, to leave him to do as he wishes without help or advice. □ Do not confuse device with devise.
dev-il (di-vel) n. 1. the Devil, (in Jewish and Christian teaching) the supreme spirit of evil and enemy of God. 2. an evil spirit. 3. a wicked or cruel or annoying person. 4. a mischievous person or a person of great cleverness. 5. (informal) something difficult or hard to manage, a devil of a task. 6. (informal) a person, poor devil; lucky devil. 7. (informal) used in exclamations of surprise or annoyance, where the devil is it? dev-il v. (dev-iled, dev-il-ing) to prepare or cook with hot seasoning, deviled crabs; deviled eggs. dev-il-lish adj. dev-il-lis-hly adv. dev-il-lis-hness n. □ between the devil and the deep blue sea, between equally harsh alternatives. Devill's advocate, one who tests a theory by putting forward possible objections to it. devil's food cake, rich chocolate cake. like the devil, with great energy, intensely. play the devil with, to cause severe damage to. the devil to pay, trouble to be expected.
dev-il-may-care (dev-il-may-kair) adj. cheerful and reckless.
dev-il-ment (di-vel-mont) n. mischief.
dev-il-try (di-vel-tree) n. (pl. -tries) 1. wickedness. 2. mischief.
de-vi-ous (dee-vi-uss) adj. 1. winding, roundabout. 2. not straightforward, underhand. de-vi-ous-ly adv. de-vi-ous-ness n.
dev-i-se (di-viss) v. (dev-is-ed, dev-is-ing) to think out, to plan, to invent. □ Do not confuse devise with device.
de-vi-tal-lize (devi-tah-liz) v. (devi-tal-lized, devi-tal-liz-ing) to remove life or vitality from.
de-void (di-void) adj. lacking or free from something, devoid of merit.
de-volve (di-vol) v. (de-volved, de-volv-ing) to pass or be passed on to a deputy or successor, this work will devolve the new manager. dev·o·lu· tion (dev-ô-loo-shôn) n.

De·vo·ni·an (dë-voh-ni-ân) adj. of the geologic period of the Paleozoic era before the Carboniferous and after the Silurian.

Devonian n. the Devonian period.

de·vo·ted (di-voh-tid) adj. showing devotion, very loyal or loving. de·vo·ted· ly adv. de·vo·ted·ness n.

de·vo·tee (dev-ô-tee) n. a person who is devoted to something, an enthusiast, golf devotees.

de·vo·tion (di-voh-shôn) n. 1. great love or loyalty, enthusiastic zeal. 2. religious worship. 3. devotions, prayers.

de·vo·tion·al (di-voh-shôn-nal) adj. used in religious worship.

De·vor (di-vor) v. 1. to eat hungrily or greedily. 2. to destroy completely, to consume, fire devoured the forest. 3. to take in greedily with the eyes or ears, they devoured the story. 4. to absorb the attention of, she was devoured by curiosity. de·vor·er n.

de·vout (di-vout) adj. 1. earnestly religious. 2. earnest, sincere, a devout supporter. de·vout·ly adv. de·vout·ness n.

dew (doo, dyoo) n. 1. small drops of moisture that condense on cool surfaces during the night from water vapor in the air. 2. moisture in small drops on a surface. dew point, the temperature at which dew forms.

DEW (doo) n. distant early warning.

DEW line, a line of radar stations, crossing North America north of the Arctic Circle, that give early warning of approaching enemy missiles or aircraft.

dew·ber·ry (doo-ber-ce) n. (pl. -ries) a bluish fruit like a blackberry.

dew·claw (doo-klaw) n. a small claw on the inner side of a dog's leg, not reaching the ground in walking.

dew·drop (doo-drop) n. a drop of dew.

dew·ey (doo-ee) deci demal system a deci-

m al system for classifying books in libraries.

dew·lap (doo-lap) n. a fold of loose skin that hangs from the throat of cattle and other animals.

dew·y (doo-ee) adj. (dew·l-er, dew· llest) wet with dew.

dew·y-eyed (doo-ee-id) adj. innocently trusting or sentimental.

dex·ter·i·ty (dek-ster-i-tee) n. skill in handling things.

dex·ter·ous, dex·trol·ous (dek-strüs) adj.
showing dexterity. dex·ter·ous·ly, dex·trol·ous·ly adv.

dex·tri·n (dek-strin) n. a gummy substance formed from starch, used as an adhesive.

dex·trose (dek-strohs) n. a form of glucose. <
dg abbr. decigram.

dhow (dow) n. a triangular-rigged Arab sailing vessel.

DI abbr. 1. Department of the Interior. 2. drill instructor.
dia. abbr. diameter.
di·a·be·tes (dr-â-bee-tis, -teez) n. a disease in which sugar and starch are not properly absorbed by the body.

di·a·bet·ic (di-â-bet-ik) adj. of diabetes.

diabetic n. a person suffering from diabetes.

di·a·bol·ic (di-â-bol-ik) adj. of the Devil.

di·a·bol·i·cal (di-â-bol-i-kal) adj. like a devil, very cruel or wicked. 2. fiendishly clever or cunning or annoying.

di·a·bol·i·cal·ly adv.

dia·bo·lo·ism (di-â-bô-liz-êm) n. worship of the Devil.

di·a·crit·ic (di-â-krit-ik) n. a diacritical mark.

di·a·crit·i·cal (di-â-krit-i-kal) mark a sign (such as *) used to indicate that a letter has a particular sound, as â and ê.

di·a·dem (di-â-dem) n. 1. a crown or headband worn as a sign of sovereignty.
2. royal authority or status, the diadem has passed to the younger son.
diag. abbr. 1. diagonal. 2. diagram.

di·a·g·o·nals (dë-â-goh-noh-sis) n. (pl. -noses, pr. -noh-seez) a statement of the nature of a disease or other condition made after observing its signs and symptoms.

di·a·g·o·nals (dë-â-goh-noh-sis) n. (pl. -noses, pr. -noh-seez) a statement of the nature of a disease or other condition
made after observing its signs and symptoms.

di·a·g·o·nals (dë-â-goh-noh-sis) n. (pl. -noses, pr. -noh-seez) a statement of the nature of a disease or other condition
made after observing its signs and symptoms.
dial. and having a movable pointer that indicates the amount registered. 3. a plate or disk etc. on a radio or television set showing the wavelength or channel selected. 4. a movable disk with finger holes over a circle of numbers or letters, manipulated in order to connect one telephone with another. dial v. (di-aled, di-al-ing) 1. to select or regulate by means of a dial. 2. to make a telephone connection by using a dial. □ dial tone, a steady humming sound given off by the telephone to show that the caller may begin to dial. dial. aabbr. 1. dialectic. 2. dialectal. 3. dialectic. 4. dialectical.

dial. lect (dr-á-lekt) n. the words and pronunciation that are used in a particular area and differ from what is regarded as standard in the language as a whole.

dial. lect’tal adj.

dial. lect-ic (dr-á-lek-tik) n. (also dialec-tics) investigation of truths in philosophy etc. by systematic reasoning. Marx-ian dialectic holds great interest for me.

dial. lect’ti-cal adj.

dial. logue, dial. log (dr-á-lawg) n. 1. a conversation or discussion. 2. the words spoken by characters in a play or story.

dial. y sis (di-á-lis-sis) n. (pl. -ses, pr. -seez) purification of the blood by causing it to flow through a suitable membrane which traps impurities.

dial. lyze (dr-á-liz) v. (di-á-lyzed, di-a-lyzing) to separate by dialysis.

diam. aabbr. diameter.

diam. et er (dm-á-t-ér) n. 1. a straight line passing from side to side through the center of a circle or sphere. 2. the length of this.

diam. met’ri-cal (dm-á-met-ri-kál), di-a-met’ric (dm-á-met-rík) adj. of or along a diameter; the geometrical opposite, the exact opposite. di-a-met’ri-cal-ly adv.

diam. mond (dm-mond) n. 1. a very hard brilliant precious stone of pure crystalized carbon. 2. a figure with four equal sides and with angles that are not right angles. 3. something shaped like this. 4. a playing card of the suit (diamonds) marked with red figures of this shape. diamond adj. made of or set with diamonds. □ diamond in the rough, a person who is excellent but has rough manners. diamond jubilee, the sixtieth or seventy-fifth anniversary of a sovereign’s accession or other event. diamond wed-ding, the sixtieth or seventy-fifth anniversary of a wedding.

dia-mond back (dm-mond-bak) rattlesnake any of various large poisonous rattlesnakes with diamond patterns on the back.

di-an-thus (dm-án-thús) n. (pl. -thua pointed instrument for making holes in the ground for bulbs etc.

dice (dis) n. pl. (sing. die) 1. small cubes marked on each side with one to six spots, used in games of chance. 2. a game played with these, dice is not my game.
dice v. (diced, dic·ing) 1. (old use) to gamble using dice. 2. to cut into small cubes, dice the carrots. □ no dice, (slang) no success.
dice·y (di·see) adj. (dic·er, dic·est) (slang) risky, unreliable.
di·chot·o·my (di·kot·o·mee) n. (pl. -mies) division into two parts or kinds.
di·chot·o·mous adj.
dick (dik) n. (slang) a detective.
dick·ens (dik·ens) n. (informal) a person (informal) dick·er (dik·er) n. (informal) a person's dick·ey (pl. dick·eys) or (slang) a detachable dij·cot·y·le·don (di·kot·i·lee·don) n. a flowering plant with two cotyledons. di·cot·y·le·don·ous adj.

dict. abbr. 2. dictionary.
Dic·ta·phone (dic·ta·fohn) n. (trademark) a machine that records and plays back dictation. dic·ta·tate (dik·ta·tay, dik·ta·tay) v. (dic· ta·ted, dic·ta·tating) 1. to say or read aloud (words) to be written down by a person or recorded by a machine. 2. to state or order with the force of authority, dictate terms to a defeated enemy. 3. to give orders officiously, I will not be dic ta·tion (dik·ta·shen) n.
dic·ta·tates (dik·ta·tays) n. pl. authoritative commands, the dictates of conscience.
Dic·ta·tor (dik·ta·tør, dik·ta·y) n. 1. a ruler who has unrestricted authority, especially one who has taken control by force. 2. a person with supreme authority in any sphere, one who dictates what is to be done. 3. a domineering person. dic ta·tor·ship n.
dic·ta·to·ri·al (dik·ta·tor·i·al) adj. 1. of or like a dictator. 2. domineering. dic ta·to·ri·al·ly adv.
dic·tion (dik·shen) n. a person's manner of uttering or pronouncing words.
dic·tion·ar·y (dik·shen·ner·ee) n. (pl. -ar dic·tion·ar·ies) a book that lists and explains the words of a language or the words and dic·tion·ar·ies) a book that lists and explains the words of a language or the words and topics of a particular subject, usually in alphabetical order.

dic·tion·um (dik·tum) n. (pl. -ta, pr. -tā) 1. a formal expression of opinion. 2. a saying.
did (did) see do.
generator driven by a diesel engine, employing diesel oil as fuel.

di·et (di-et) n. 1. the sort of foods usually eaten by a person or animal or community. 2. a selection of food to which a person is restricted. diet v. (di·et·ed, di·et·ing) to restrict oneself to a special diet, especially in order to control one's weight. di·et·er n.

diet² n. a congress, a parliamentary assembly in certain countries, for example, Japan.

di·e·tar·y (di·è·tar·é) adj. of or involving diet, the dietary rules of Hindus.

di·e·tet·ic (di·è·tet·ik) adj. 1. of diet and nutrition. 2. specially prepared or processed for people who are dieting. 3. dietetics, the scientific study of diet and nutrition.

di·e·ti·cian (di·è-ti·shn) n. an expert in dietetics.

dif, diff. abbr. 1. difference. 2. different.

dif·fer (dif·ér) v. 1. to be unlike, to be distinguishable from something else. 2. to disagree in opinion.

dif·fer·ence (dif·ér·ens) n. 1. the state of being different or unique. 2. the point in which things differ, the amount or degree of unlikeness. 3. the quantity by which amounts differ, the remainder left after subtraction, the difference between 8 and 5 is 3. 4. a disagreement in opinion, a quarrel. □ make all the difference, to make a very important or vital difference. settle one's differences, to reach agreement after a quarrel.

dif·fer·ent (dif·ér·ent) adj. 1. unlike, of another nature or form or quality, we are different from them in many respects. 2. separate, distinct, several different people. 3. unusual, try Finland for a different holiday. dif·fer·ent·ly adv. □ Different than is sometimes correct, but different from is always correct.

dif·fer·en·ti·al (dif·è-ren·shəl) adj. of or showing or depending on a difference. differential n. 1. a difference in wages between industries, between different classes of workers, etc. 2. a differential gear. □ differential calculus, a method of calculating rates of change, maximum and minimum values, etc. differential gear, an arrangement of gears that allows the rear wheels of an automobile to revolve at different speeds in rounding corners.

dif·fer·en·ti·ate (dif·è-ren·shi·at) v. (dif·fer·en·ti·at·ed, dif·fer·en·ti·at·ing) 1. to be a difference between, to make different, the features that differentiate one breed from another. 2. to recognize as different, to distinguish, to discriminate; the pension scheme does not differentiate between male and female employees, does not treat them differently. 3. to develop differences, to become different. dif·fer·en·ti·a·tion (dif·è-ren·shi·a·shn) n.

dif·fi·cull (dif·fi·kul) adj. 1. needing much effort or skill, not easy to do or practice. 2. troublesome, perplexing, these are difficult times. 3. not easy to please or satisfy, a difficult person.

dif·fi·cul·ty (dif·fi·kul·ti) n. (pl. -ties) 1. being difficult. 2. a difficult problem or thing, a hindrance to action. 3. a difficult state of affairs, trouble; in financial difficulties, short of money. □ make difficulties, to raise objections, to put obstacles in the way of progress. with difficulty, not easily.

dif·fi·dent (dif·i·dent) adj. lacking self-confidence, hesitating to put oneself or one's ideas forward. dif·fi·dent·ly adv.

dif·fi·den·ce n.

dif·frac·tion (dif·frak·shn) n. the process of breaking up a beam of light into a series of dark and light bands or the colored bands of the spectrum.

dif·fuse (di-fyooz) v. (dif·fused, dif·fus·ing) v. 1. to spread widely or thinly throughout something, to diffuse knowledge or light or heat. 2. to mix (liquids or gases) slowly, to become intermingled. diffuse (di-fyooz) adj. 1. spread out, diffused, not concentrated, diffuse light. 2. wordy, not concise, a diffuse style. dif·fus·er (di-fyoo-zər) n. dif·fus·ion (di-fyoo-zhən) n. dif·fus·e·ly (di-fyooz·lee) adv.

dig (dig) v. (dug, dig·ging) 1. to break up and move ground with a tool or machine or claws etc., to make (a way or a hole) by doing this, dig the ground; dig through the hill; dig a tunnel. 2. to obtain or remove by digging, dig potatoes. 3. to excavate archaeologically. 4. to thrust, to plunge, dig a knife into it. 5. to prod, to nudge, dig him in the ribs. 6. (slang) to appreciate, to enjoy, to understand, they don't dig pop music; do you dig? dig n. 1. an archaeological excavation. 2. (informal) a thrust, a poke, a dig in the ribs. 3. (informal) a cutting remark; that was a dig at me, a remark directed against me. □ dig in or into, to mix (a substance) with the soil by digging; (informal) to begin eating or working energetically. dig oneself in, to dig a defensive trench or pit; to establish oneself securely. dig one's heels in, to become obstinate, to refuse to give way. dig up, (informal) to seek or discover by investigation, dig up some useful information.

di·gest (di·jest, di-) v. 1. to dissolve (food) digestible / dimension

in the stomach etc. so that it can be absorbed by the body; this food digests easily, is easily absorbed. 2. to think over, to absorb into the mind, digesting the information. digest (di-jest) n. 1. a methodical summary. 2. a periodical publication giving excerpts and summaries of news, writings, etc.

dig·gest·i·ble (di-jes-ti-bel, di-) adj. able to be digested. dig·gest·i·ble·ty (di- jes-ti-bl-tee, di-) n.

dig·es·tion (di jes-shun, di-) n. 1. the process of digesting. 2. the power of digesting food, has a good digestion.

dig·es·tive (di- jes-tiv, di-) adj. 1. of or aiding digestion. 2. having the function of digesting food, the digestive system.

dig·es·tive·n (n. a substance promoting digestion.

dig·ger (dig-جر) n. 1. one who digs. 2. a mechanical excavator.

dig·it (dij-it) n. 1. any numeral from 0 to 9, especially when forming part of a number. 2. a finger or toe.

dig·i·tal·ty (di- ja-tal-tee) n. a clock that shows the time by displaying a row of figures. digital computer, a device that makes calculations etc. with data represented as a series of digits or other discrete forms.

dig·i·tal (dij-i-tal) adj. of digits. dig·i·tal·ty adv.

dig·i·tal·ly adv. □ digital clock, a clock that shows the time by displaying a row of figures. digital computer, a device that makes calculations etc. with data represented as a series of digits or other discrete forms.

dig·i·tal·ty (dij-i-tal-tee) n. a drug prepared from dried foxglove leaves, used as a heart stimulant.

dig·ni·fied (dig-ني-فيد) adj. having or showing dignity.

dig·ni·ty (dig-ني-تي) n. (pl. -ties) 1. to give dignity to. 2. to make (a thing) sound more important than it is.

dig·ni·tar·y (dij-ni-tear-ee) n. (pl. -tar·ies) a person holding a high rank or position, especially in the Church or in government.

dig·ni·ty (dig-ني-تي) n. (pl. -ties) 1. a calm and serious manner or style, showing suitable formality or indicating that one deserves respect. 2. worthlessness, the dignity of labor. 3. a high rank or position.

di·lute (di-lūt, di-) v. (di-lūt·ed, di-lūt·ing) 1. to thin down, to make a liquid less concentrated by adding water or other liquid. 2. to weaken or reduce the forcefulness of; to water down.

dil-water, dil·u·tation (di-loo-shun, di-) n.

dim (dim) adj. (dim·mer, dim·pest) 1. faintly lit, luminous but not bright. 2. indistinct, not clearly seen or heard or remembered. 3. not seeing clearly, eyes dim with tears. 4. (informal) stupid. dim v. (dimmed, dim·ming) to make or become dim.

dim·ly adv. dim·ness n.

take a dim view of, (informal) to disapprove of; to feel gloomy about.

dim. abbr. 1. dimension. 2. diminished. 3. diminuendo. 4. diminutive.

dime (dime) n. a ten-cent coin of the U.S.

dime store, a five-and-ten-cent store.

dim·en·sion (di-من-شون, di-) n. 1. a measurement such as length, breadth, thickness, area, etc. 2. size; of great dimensions, very large. 3. extent, scope, gave the problem a new dimension.
dim·i·nion (dim-i-nooshōn) n. 1. diminishing, being diminished. 2. a decrease.
dim·i·ni·tive (dim-i-nyü-tiv) adj. very small. diminutive n. 1. a word for a small specimen of something (as booklet, duckling), or an affectionate form of a name etc. (as dearie, Johnnie). 2. a suffix such as -let or -kin or -ling indicating smallness or affection, as in ringlet, bodkin, duckyling.
dim·ly (dim-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) cotton fabric woven with checks or stripes of heavier thread.
dim·mer (dim-er) n. a device for reducing the brightness of lights.
di·mor·phic (di-mor-fik) adj. occurring in two distinct forms in the same species, individual, etc. di·mor·phism n. the occurrence of two forms in this way.
dim·out (dim-owt) n. a reduction in night lighting to conserve energy or as a protection in wartime.
dim·ple (dim-pēl) n. a small hollow or dent, especially a natural one on the skin of the cheek or chin. dimple v. (dim·pled, dim·pling) 1. to produce dimples in. 2. to show dimples.
dim·wit (dim-wit) n. (informal) a stupid person.
dim·wit·ted (dim-wit-id) adj. (informal) stupid.
din (din) n. a loud resonant and annoying noise. din v. (dinned, din·ning) 1. to make a din. 2. to force (information) into a person by continually repeating it, din it into him.
di·nar (di-nahr) n. the unit of money in Yugoslavia and various countries of the Middle East and North Africa.
dine (din) v. (dined, din·ing) 1. to eat dinner. 2. to entertain with dinner, we were wined and dined. □dining car, a railroad car in which meals are served at tables. dining room, a room in which meals are eaten.
din·er (dr-nēr) n. 1. a person who dines. 2. a dining car on a train. 3. an inexpensive restaurant with a long counter and booths, shaped like or built from a railroad car.
din·ette (dr-net) n. 1. a small room or part of a room used for meals. 2. a compact set of furniture for dining.
ding (ding) n. the sound a bell makes.
ding-a-ling (ding-a-ling) n. (informal) a stupid person.
ding-dong (ding-dong) n. the sound of a clapper bell or alternate strokes of two bells. ding-dong adj. (informal) with vigorous and alternating action, a ding-dong argument; a ding-dong struggle, in which each contestant has the better of it alternately.
din·ghy (ding-ee) n. (pl. -ghies) a small open boat driven by oars or sails.
din·go (ding-goh) n. (pl. -goes) an Australian wild dog.
ding·us (ding-iss) n. (pl. -us-es) (slang) a gadget.
din·gy (din-gee) adj. (-gli·er, -gli·est) dirty looking, not fresh or cheerful. din'gl·i·ness n. din'gl·ly adv.
din·ky (ding-kee) adj. (-kli·er, -kli·est) (informal) small, insignificant.
din·ner (din-er) n. 1. the chief meal of the day, whether at midday or in the evening. 2. a formal evening meal in honor of a person or event. □dinner jacket, a tuxedo.
din·ner·ware (din-er-wair) n. china, glasses, etc. for use at the dinner table.
di·no·saur (dr-nō-sor) n. an extinct lizard-like creature often of enormous size.
dint (dint) n. by dint of, by means of. □Do not confuse dint with dent.
di·o·cese (dr-ō-sis) n. a district under the care of a bishop. di·o·ce·san (dr-os-ə-sən) adj.
di·ode (dr-ōd) n. any two-element electronic device having only two terminals that allows current to flow in only one direction.
di·op·ter (di-op-tër) n. a unit measuring the power of a lens to bring rays of light to a focus.
di·o·ra·ma (dr-ō-ram-ə) n. a small-scale representation of a scene with three-dimensional objects, viewed through a window.
di·ox·ide (dr-ōk·sid) n. an oxide with two atoms of oxygen to one of a metal or other element.
dip (dip) v. (dipped, dip·ping) 1. to put or lower into liquid; dip sheep, wash them in a vermin-killing liquid; dip fabrics, dye them in liquid. 2. to go under water and emerge quickly. 3. to set, the sun dipped below the horizon. 4. to put a hand or ladle etc. into something in order to take something out; dip into one's pocket or reserves, take out money etc. and use it. 5. to lower for a moment, dip the flag. 6. to slope or extend downward, the path dips down to the river. 7. to read short passages here and there in a book, I've dipped into his autobiography. dip n. 1. the act of dipping. 2. a quick plunge, a swim. 3. a downward slope. 4. a liquid into which something is dipped, sheep dip. 5. a creamy mixture into which crackers, potato chips, etc. are dipped before eating.

diph•the•ri•a (dif-theer-i-ə) n. an acute infectious disease causing severe inflammation of a mucous membrane especially in the throat. ▷ Note the spelling and pronunciation of diphtheria.

diph•thong (dif-thawng) n. a compound vowel sound produced by combining two simple ones, such as oi in point, ou in loud. ▷ Note the spelling and pronunciation of diphthong.

dipl. abbr. 1. diplomat. 2. diplomatic.

dip•lo•ma (dip-lo-mə) n. an organism or cell with twice the usual number of chromosomes.

di•pl•o•ma (di-plō-mə) n. a certificate awarded by a college etc. to a person who has successfully completed a course of study.

di•pl•o•ma•cy (di-plō-mə-see) n. 1. the handling of international relations, skill in this. 2. tact.

dip•lo•mat (dip-lo-mat) n. 1. a member of the diplomatic service. 2. a tactful person.

dip•lo•mate (dip-lo-mat) n. a holder of a diploma, especially a medical specialist.

dip•lo•mat•ic (dip-lo-mat-ik) adj. 1. of or engaged in diplomacy; the diplomatic service, the officials engaged in diplomacy on behalf of their country. 2. tactful, a diplomatic person or reply. dip•lo•mat’ic•al•ly adv. □ diplomatic immunity, exemption from arrest, taxation, etc., granted to diplomatic staffs abroad.

dip•per (dip-ər) n. 1. a diving bird, especially the European water ouzel. 2. a ladle. ▷ Big Dipper, a constellation of seven bright stars in Ursa Major resembling a water dipper. Little Dipper, a similar constellation in Ursa Minor.

dip•py (dip-ee) adj. (-pl-er, -pl-est) (slang) crazy, silly.

dip•so (dip-soh) n. (pl. -sos) (slang) a dipsomaniac.

dip•so•ma•ni•a (dip-so-mə-në-ə) n. an uncontrollable craving for alcohol.

dip•so•ma•ni•ac (dip-so-mə-nə-kək) n. a person suffering from dipsomania.

dip•stick (dip-stik) n. a graduated rod for measuring the depth of a liquid.

dip•ter•ous (dip-të-rəs) adj. two-winged, having two winglike appendages. dip•ter•an adj.

dip•tych (dip-tik) n. a painting, especially an altarpiece, of two panels hinged together.

dir. abbr. director.

dire (dir) adj. (dir-er, dir-est) 1. dreadful, terrible, in dire peril. 2. ominous, predicting trouble, dire warnings. 3. extreme and urgent, in dire need.

di•rect (di-rekt, di-) adj. 1. going in a straight line, not curved or crooked or roundabout, the direct route. 2. with nothing or no one in between, in an unbroken line, in direct contact; direct taxes, those charged on income, as distinct from those added to the price of goods or services. 3. straightforward, frank, going straight to the point, a direct way of speaking. 4. exact, complete, the direct opposite. direct adv. by a direct route, traveled to Rome direct. direct v. 1. to tell or show how to do something or get somewhere, can you direct me to the station? 2. to address (a letter or parcel etc.). 3. to cause to have a specified direction or target, to utter (remarks) to a particular hearer, direct our energies toward higher productivity; the remark was directed at me. 4. to control, to manage, there was no one to direct the workmen; direct a play, supervise the acting and staging of it. 5. to command, to order, directed his men to advance. di•rect’ness n. □ direct current, electric current flowing in one direction only.

di•rect•ion (di-rek-shən, dir-) n. 1. directing, aiming, guiding, managing. 2. the line along which something moves or faces, in the direction of Cleveland. 3. directions, instructions. ▷ sense of direction, a person’s ability to get his bearings without guidance.

di•rect•ion•al (di-rek-shə-nəl, dir-) adj. 1. of or indicating direction. 2. operating or sending radio signals in one direction only.

di•rec•tive (di-rek-tiv, dir-) n. a general instruction issued by someone in authority. directive adj. giving guidance.

di•rect•ly (di-rek-lee, dir-) adv. 1. in a direct line, in a direct manner. 2. without delay. 3. very soon.

di•rec•tor (di-rek-tər, dir-) n. 1. a person who supervises or manages things, especially a member of the board managing a business company. 2. a person who directs a film or play. dir•ec’tor•ship n.

di•rec•tor•ate (di-rek-tə-rət, dir-) n. 1. the office of director. 2. a board of directors.

di•rec•to•ry (di-rek-tə-ri, dir-) n. (pl. -ries) a book containing a list of telephone subscribers, residents of a city, members of a profession, business firms, etc.

direful / disaster adj. dire (definitions 1 and 2).

dirge (durj) n. a slow mournful song, a lament for the dead.

di·rıl·gl·ble (dir·i·gıl·bıl, dir·i·gl·bıl) n. a steerable balloon or airship.

dirk (durk) n. a kind of dagger.

dirn·dl (durm·dl) n. a full skirt gathered into a tight waistband.

dirt (durt) n. 1. unclean matter that soils something. 2. earth, soil. 3. anything worthless or not deserving respect. 4. foul words or talk, scandal. □ dirt cheap, (slang) very cheap. dirt track, a racetrack made of earth or rolled cinders etc. do a person dirt, (slang) to cause him trouble, to harm or injure him maliciously.

dirt·y (dur·tee) adj. (dirt·i·er, dirt·i·est) 1. soiled, unclean; a dirty job, causing the doer to become dirty. 2. (of a nuclear bomb) producing much fallout. 3. not having clean habits. 4. dishonorable, mean, unfair, a dirty trick; a dirty fighter. 5. (of weather) rough and stormy. 6. lewd, obscene, dirty jokes. dirty v. (dirt·ied, dirt·i·ing) to make or become dirty. □ dirty look, a disapproving look. dirty word, an obscene word; a word denoting something that is regarded as discreditable, welfare became a dirty word. dirty work, dishonorable dealings.

dis·a·bil·i·ty (dis·a·bil·i·tee) n. (pl. -ties) something that disables or disqualifies a person, a physical incapacity caused by injury or disease etc.

dis·a·ble (dis·ay·bıl) v. (dis·a·bled, dis·a·bling) to deprive of some ability, to make unfit or useless. dis·a·ble·ment n.

dis·a·bled (dis·ay·bıl·d��d) adj. having a physical disability.

dis·a·bus·e (dis·ay·byooz) v. (dis·a·bus·ed, dis·a·bus·ing) to disillusion, to free from a false idea, he was soon disabused of this notion.

dis·ad·van·ta·ge (dis·ad·van·tij) n. 1. an unfavorable condition or circumstance; at a disadvantage, in an unfavorable position. 2. damage to one's interest or reputations; to our disadvantage, causing us loss or inconvenience etc. disadva·n·tage v. (dis·ad·van·tag·ed, dis·ad·van·tag·ing) to put at a disadvantage.

dis·ad·van·tag·ed (dis·ad·van·tag·d) adj. suffering from unfavorable conditions of life, disadvantaged countries; the disadvantaged, those suffering disadvantage.

dis·a·van·ta·ge·ous (dis·ad·van·ta·ge·ous) adj. causing disadvantage.

dis·af·fect·ed (dis·ay·fek·tij) adj. discontented, having lost one's feelings of loyalty. dis·af·fected (dis·ay·fek·shijn) n.

dis·a·gree (dis·ay·gre) v. (dis·a·greed, dis·a·greed·ing) 1. to have a different opinion. 2. to be unlike, to fail to correspond, your statement disagrees with your brother's. 3. to quarrel. 4. (of food or climate etc.) to have bad effects, hot weather disagrees with him. dis·a·gree·ment n.

dis·a·gree·a·ble (dis·ay·gre·a·ble) v. (dis·a·greed, dis·a·greed·ing) adj. unpleasant. 2. badtempered. dis·a·gre·a·ble·ness n.

dis·al·low (dis·ay·lou) v. to refuse to allow or accept as valid, the judge disallowed the claim.

dis·ap·pear (dis·ay·pair) v. to cease to be visible, to pass from sight or from existence, the problem may disappear. dis·ap·pear·ance n.

dis·ap·point (dis·ay·point) v. to fail to do or be equal to what was hoped or desired or expected by. dis·ap·point·ment n.

dis·ap·point·ed (dis·ay·point·id) adj. feeling disappointment, we were disappointed at the failure or in him or with the gift.

dis·ap·pro·ba·tion (dis·ap·rō·bay·shôn) n. disapproval.

dis·ap·prove (dis·ay·prove) v. (dis·ap·proved, dis·ap·prov·ing) to have or express an unfavorable opinion. dis·ap·prov·al n.

dis·arm (dis·ahrm) v. 1. to deprive of weapons or of the means of defense. 2. to disarm or reduce armed forces. 3. to defuse (a bomb). 4. to make it difficult for a person to feel anger or suspicion or doubt, his friendliness disarmed their hostility.

dis·ar·ma·ment (dis·ahr·mā·ment) n. re·duction of a country's armed forces or weapons of war.

dis·ar·ray (dis·ay·ray) n. disorder. dis·ar·ray (dis·ay·ray) v. to disarrange.

dis·as·sem·ble (dis·ay·sem·bıl) v. (dis·as·sem·bled, dis·as·sem·bling) to take (a machine etc.) apart. □ Do not confuse disassemble with dismantle.

dis·as·so·ci·ate (dis·ay·so·si·ät) v. (dis·as·so·ci·at·ed, dis·as·so·ci·at·ing) to remove from association, to cease associating with.

dis·as·ter (dis·a·stər) n. 1. a sudden great misfortune. 2. a complete failure, the performance was a disaster. dis·as·trous adj. dis-as'trous-ly adv. □ disaster area, an area in which a major disaster (such as an earthquake) has recently occurred.

dis-a-vow (dis-ä-vow) v. to disclaim. dis-a-vow'al n.

dis-band (dis-band) v. to break up, to separate, disbanded the choir; the troops disbanded. dis-band'ment n.

dis-bar (dis-bahr) v. (dis-barred, dis-bar'ring) to expel from membership in the legal profession. dis-bar'ment n.

dis-be-lieve (dis-bi-leeve) v. (dis-believed, dis-be-liev'ing) to refuse to accept as true; to be unable to believe. dis-be-liev'er n.

dis-be-lief (dis-bi-lief) n.

dis-bur-den (dis-bur-den) v. to relieve of a burden.

dis-burse (dis-burs) v. (dis-bursed, dis-burs'ing) to pay out (money), disbursing large amounts. dis-burse'ment n.

dis-burs'a-ble adj. △ Do not confuse disburse with disperse.

disc (disk) n. 1. a disk. 2. a phonograph record. 3. a plate coated with magnetic material on which computer data are stored. □disc jockey, (informal) a person who conducts a broadcast program of records of popular music.

disc. abbr. 1. discount. 2. discovered.

dis-card (di-skahr'd) v. to throw away, to put aside as useless or unwanted. dis-card (dis-kahr'd) n. something discarded.

dis-cern (di-sur'n, -zurn) v. to perceive clearly with the mind or senses. dis-cern'ment n.

dis-cern'-'ble (di-sur-nī-bēl, -zūr-) adj. able to be discerned. dis-cern'-'bly adv.

dis-cern'-'ing (di-sur-nī-ing, -zūr-) adj. perceptive, showing good judgment. dis-cern'-'ing-ly adv.

dis-charge (dis-chahrj) v. (dis-charged, dis-charg'ing). 1. to give or send out, the pipes discharge their contents into the river; the river discharges into the sea, flows into it; the wound is still discharging. matter is coming out. 2. to give out an electric charge, to cause to do this. 3. to fire (a missile or gun). 4. to dismiss from employment. 5. to allow to leave, the patient was discharged from the hospital. 6. to pay (a debt), to perform or fulfill (a duty or contract). discharge (dis-chahrj) n. 1. discharging, being discharged. 2. something that is discharged, the discharge from the wound.

dis-cli-ple (di-stī-pēl) n. 1. Disciple, one of the original followers of Christ. 2. a person who follows the teachings of another whom he accepts as a leader.

one who enforces or believes in strict discipline.

dis-cli-plar-y (dis-klī-nar-y) adj. (dis-klī-nar-ee) adj. of or for discipline.

dis-cli-pline (dis-klī-plin) n. 1. training that produces obedience, self-control, or a particular skill. 2. controlled behavior produced by such training. 3. punishment given to correct a person or enforce obedience. 4. a branch of instruction or learning, an academic discipline. dis-cli-pline v. (dis-klī-plined, dis-cli-plin'ing) 1. to train to be obedient and orderly. 2. to punish.

dis-claim (dis-kleym) v. to disown; they disclaim responsibility for the accident, say that they are not responsible.

dis-claim'er (dis-kleym'-er) n. a statement claiming something.

dis-close (dis-klohz) v. (dis-closed, dis-clos'ing) to expose to view, to reveal, to make known. dis-clo'-sure (diskhō-zhūr) n.

dis-co (dis-kōh) n. (pl. -cos) (informal) a discothèque. disco adj. (informal) of or suitable for a discothèque, disco music; disco dancing.

dis-co-lor (dis-koh) v. (dis-koh-lor) n. 1. to spoil the color of, to stain. 2. to become changed in color. dis-co-or-a-tion (dis-kul-ō-ray-shōn) n.

Do not confuse disco with discombobulate.

dis-com-fort (dis-kum-fōrt) n. 1. lack of comfort in body or mind. 2. something that causes this. dis-comfort v. △ Do not confuse discomfort with discomfit.

dis-com-mode (dis-kō-mōd) v. (dis-com-mod-ed, dis-com-mod'ing) (old use) to put to inconvenience.

dis-com-pose (dis-kōm-pōz) v. (dis-com-pose'd, dis-com-pos'ing) to disturb the composure of, to agitate. dis-com-po'sure (dis-kōm-pō-zhūr) n.

dis-con-cert (dis-kōn-surt) v. to upset the self-possession of, to fluster.

Do not confuse disconcert with disconnection.

Do not confuse disconcert with disconnection.

dis-con-nec'tion n.

dis-con-nec'ted (dis-kō-nekt-id) adj. lacking orderly connection between its parts, a disconnected speech. dis-con-nec'ted-ly adv.

dis-con-so-late (dis-kōn-so-lit) adj. 1. unhappy at the loss of something, disapdiscontent pointed. 2. inscrutable, hopelessly unhappy. dis*con’so*late*ly adv.

dis*con*tent (dis-kōn-tent) n. dissatisfaction, lack of contentment.
dis*con*tent*ed (dis-kōn-ten-tid) adj. not contented, feeling discontent. dis*con*tent*ed*ly adv.
dis*con*tin*ue (dis-kōn-tin-yoo) v. (dis*con*tin*ued, dis*con*tin*uing) to put an end to, to come to an end. dis*con*tin’unce n.
dis*con*tin*u*ous (dis-kōn-tin-yoo-ūs) adj. not continuous. dis*con*ti*nu*al*ty (dis-kōn-ti-noon-i-tee) n. dis*cord (dis-kord) n. 1. disagreement, quarreling. 2. a combination of notes producing a harsh or unpleasant sound. dis*cord*ant (dis-kord-dant) adj. dis*cord’ant*ly adv.
dis*co*thèque (dis-kō-tek) n. a nightclub or hall where amplified recorded music is played for dancing.
dis*count (dis-kownt) n. an amount of money taken off the full price or total. dis*count (dis-kownt) v. 1. to disregard partly or wholly, we cannot discount this possibility. 2. to purchase a promissory note etc. for less than its value will be when matured. 3. to sell at a reduced price. dis*count’a*ble adj. □ at a discount, below the usual or nominal price. dis*count*store, one selling goods regularly at less than the standard price.
dis*coun*te*nance (dis-kown-tē-nənss) v. (dis*coun*te*nanced, dis*coun*te*nanc*ing) to refuse to countenance, to discourage or show disapproval of. dis*coun*ter (dis-kown-tər) n. a merchant who sells regularly at less than the standard price.
dis*cour*age (dis-kour-i) v. (dis*cour*aged, dis*cour*ag*ing) 1. to dishearten. 2. to dissuade. 3. to deter. dis*cour*age*ment n. dis*cour*ag*ing*ly adv.
dis*cour*se (dis-kōhrs) n. a speech or lecture, a written treatise on a subject. dis*cour*se (dis-kōhrs) v. (dis*coursed, dis*cours*ing) to utter or write a discourse.
dis*cour*te*ous (dis-kour-ti-ūs) adj. lacking courtesy, rude. dis*cour*te*ous*ly adv.
dis*cour*te*sy (dis-kour-tē-sē) n. (pl. -ses) rudeness, an impolite or uncivil action.
dis*cov*er (dis-kuv-er) v. 1. to obtain sight or knowledge of, especially by searching or other effort. 2. to be the first to do this, Herschel discovered a new planet. dis*cov’er*er n. dis*cov*er*a*ble adj.
dis*cov*er*y (dis-kuv-ə-ree) n. (pl. -er-les) 1. discovering, being discovered. 2. something that is discovered.
dis*cred*it (dis-kred-it) v. 1. to damage the good reputation of. 2. to refuse to believe. 3. to cause to be disbelieved. dis*cred*it n. 1. damage to reputation. 2. something that causes this. 3. doubt, lack of credibility.
dis*cred*it’it*a*ble (dis-kred-i-tā-bēl) adj. bringing discredit, shameful. dis*cred’it*a*ble ly adv.
dis*creet (di-skreet) adj. 1. showing caution and good judgment in what one does, not giving away secrets, a discreet reply. 2. not showy or obtrusive, discreet manners. dis*creet’ly adv. □ Do not confuse discreet with discrete.
dis*crep*an*cy (di-skrep-ān-se) n. (pl. -cies) difference, disagreement, failure to tally, there were several discrepancies between the two accounts. dis*crep’ant adj.
dis*crete (di-skreet) adj. discontinuous, individually distinct, there were three discrete parts. dis*cre*te*ly adv. dis*cre*te*ness n. □ Do not confuse discrete with discreet.
dis*cre*tion (di-skresh-ōn) n. 1. being discreet in one’s speech, keeping secrets. 2. good judgment, he acted with discretion. 3. freedom to act according to one’s judgment, the treasurer has full discretion. □ at a person’s discretion, in accordance with his decision.
dis*cre*tion*ar*y (di-skresh-ō-nər-ē) adj. done or used at a person’s discretion, discretionary powers. □ discretionary income, money beyond that needed for essentials, which can be spent as one pleases.
dis*crim*i*nate (di-skrim-i-nat) v. (dis*crim*i*nated, dis*crim*i*nating) 1. to have good taste or judgment. 2. to make a distinction, to give unfair treatment, especially because of prejudice, they had discriminated against him. dis*crim’i*nat*ing*ly adv. dis*crim’i*nat*ion (dis*krim-i-nay-shōn) n. dis*crim’i*nat*ory (di-skrim-i-nət-or-ē) adj. characterized by discrimination and bias.
dis*cur*ri*val (dis-kur-siv) adj. rambling from one subject to another. dis*cur*ri*val*ly adv. dis*cur*ri*vial*ness n.
dis*cus (dis-kus) n. (pl. dis*cus*es, dis*ci, pr. dis*i) a heavy disk thrown for distance by a discus thrower in a track-and-field competition.
dis*cuss (di-skus) v. to examine by means of argument, to talk or write about. dis*cuss*ion (di-skush-ōn) n.
dis*cuss*ant (di-skus-ānt) n. (formal) a person who takes part in a discussion.

dis*ain* (dis-dain*) n. scorn, contempt.
dis*dain* v. 1. to regard with disdain, to treat as unworthy of notice. 2. to refrain because of disdain, she disdained to reply.
dis*dainiful adj. dis-dain*ful*ly adv.
dis*ease (di-zeez) n. an unhealthy condition caused by infection or diet or conditions of life, or inherited.
dis* eased (di-zeezed) adj. affected with disease.
dis*em-bar*k (dis-em-bahrk) v. to put or go ashore.
dis*em*bara*tion (di-em-bar-a-tion) n.
dis*em*bed*ded (dis-em-bed-ed) adj. (of the soul or spirit) freed from the body.
dis*em*bow*el (dis-em-bow-EL) v. (dis-em-bow-eid, dis-em*bow*el*ing) to take out the bowels of.
dis*em*bow*el*ment (n. dis-em-bow-el-ment) n.
dis*en*chant (dis-en-chant) v. to free from enchantment, to disillusion, they are disenchanted with the government.
dis*en*chant*ment (n. dis-en-chant*ment) n. dis*en*cum*ber (dis-en-kum-bér) v. to free from encumbrance.
dis*en*fran*chise (dis-en-fran-chize) v. (dis-en*fran-chised, dis-en*fran*chis*ing) to disfranchise.
dis*en*fran*chise*ment (n. dis-en-fran-chise*ment) n.
dis*en*gage (dis-en-gayj) v. (dis-en*gaged, dis-en*gag*ing) to free from engagement, to detach.
dis*en*gage*ment (n. dis-en*gage*ment) n.
dis*en*gaged (dis-en-gagyjed) adj. not engaged in attending to another person or to business, free.
dis*en*tan*gle (dis-en-tan*gle) v. (dis-en*tan*gled, dis-en*tan*gling) to free from tangles or confusion, to extricate. dis*en*tan*gle*ment (n. dis-en*tan*gle*ment) n.
dis*es*tab*lish*ment (dis-es-tab-lisht) n. to end the established state of, to deprive (a church) of its official connection with the state.
dis*es*tab*lish*ment (dis-es-tab-lisht) n. separation of church and state.
dis*es*tab*lish*ment*en*tar*ism (dis-es-tab-lisht-en-tar-i-az-ehm) n. a policy favoring disestablishment.
dis*es*teem (dis-e-steem) n. lack of esteem.
di*se*ur (dee-zur) n. a male performer who recites monologues. ▷ French.
di*seuse (dee-zuuz) n. a female di*seur. ▷ French.
dis*fa*vor (dis-fay-vor) n. dislike, disapproval.
dis*fig*ure (dis-fig-yür) v. (dis*fig*ured, dis*fig*ured*ly adj. to spoil the appearance of.
dis*fran*chise (dis-fran-chiz) v. (dis*fran*chised, dis*fran*chis*ing) to deprive of the right to vote.
dis*france*ment (n. dis-france*ment) n.
dis*gorge (dis-gorj) v. (dis-gorged, dis*gorg*ing*) 1. to throw out from the gorge or throat, the whale swallowed Jonah and then disgorged him. 2. to pour forth, the river disgorges itself into the sea.
dis*grace (dis-grays) n. 1. loss of favor or respect. 2. something that causes this.
dis*grace*ful adj. dis*grace*ful*ly adv.
dis*grun*tled (dis-grunt-lêd) adj. discontented, resentful.
dis*guise (dis-griz) v. (dis-guis*ed, dis*guis*ing) 1. to conceal the identity of. 2. to conceal; there's no disguising the fact, it cannot be concealed. dis*guise n. 1. something worn or used for disguising. 2. disguising, a disguised condition. ▷ Do not confuse disguise with guise.
dis*gust (dis-gust) n. a strong feeling of dislike, finding a thing very unpleasant or against one's principles. dis*gust v. to cause disgust in.
dis*gust*ing*ly adv.
dis*gust*ed (dis-gus-tid) adj. feeling disgust. dis*gust*ed*ly adv.
dish (dish) n. 1. a shallow flat-bottomed container for holding or serving food; wash the dishes, wash all the utensils after use at a meal. 2. the amount a dish contains. 3. the food itself, a particular kind of food. 4. a shallow concave object. 5. (slang) an attractive woman or girl. dish v. 1. to serve (food) in a dish. 2. to make or become concave. ▷ dish out, (in-formal) to distribute. dish up, to put food into dishes ready for serving; (slang) to serve up as facts etc., dished up the usual excuses.
dis*ha*bile (dis-ä-beel) n. state of being only partly or not carefully dressed.
dis*har*mo*ny (dis-hahr-moh-nee) n. (pl. -nies) lack of harmony. dis*har*mo*ni*ous (dis-hahr-moh-ni-us) adj.
dish*cloth (dish-klawth) n. (pl. -cloths, pr. -klawthz) a cloth for washing dishes.
dis*heart*en (dis-hahr-tên) v. to cause to lose hope or confidence. dis*heart*en*ment (n. dis-heart*en*ment) n. dished (disht) adj. concave.
di*shev*ed (di-shèv-ëd) adj. ruffled and untidy. di*shev*el*ment (n. di*shev*el*ment) n.
dis*hon*est (dis-on-ist) adj. not honest. dis*hon*est*ly adv. dis*hon*est*ly (adj. dis*hon*est*ly) n. dis*hon*or (dis-on-ör) n. 1. loss of honor or respect, disgrace. 2. something that causes this. dis*honor v. to bring dis*honor upon, to disgrace.
dish·hon·or·a·ble (dis-o-nor-ə-bəl) adj. not honorable, shameful. dis·hon·or·a·bil·ly adv.

dish·wash·er (dish-wash-ər) n. a machine for washing dishes etc. automatically, a person who washes dishes.
dish·wa·ter (dish-waw-tər) n. water in which dishes have been washed. □dull as dishwater, very dull.
dis·illu·sion (dis-i-lu-shən) v. to set free from pleasant but mistaken beliefs. disillu·sion·a·tion n. the state of being disillusioned.
dis·illu·sion·ment n.

dis·in·cen·tive (dis-in-sen-tiv) n. something that discourages an action or effort.
dis·in·cli·na·tion (dis-in-kli-nə-shən) n. unwillingness, a slight dislike.
dis·in·cline (dis-in-klən) v. (dis·in·clined, dis·in·clin·ing) to make (a person) feel reluctant or unwilling to do something.
dis·in·fect (dis-in-fekt) v. to cleanse by destroying bacteria that may cause disease. dis·in·fec·tion n.
dis·in·fect·ant (dis-in-fekt-ənt) n. a substance used for disinfecting things.

dis·in·gen·u·ous (dis-in-jeŋ·ə-əs) adj. insincere, not frank.
dis·in·her·it (dis-in-hér-it) v. to deprive (a person) of an inheritance by making a will naming another or others as one's heir(s).
dis·in·te·grate (di-sin-tē-grāt) v. (dis·in·te·grat·ed, dis·in·te·grat·ing) to break or cause to break into small parts or pieces. dis·in·te·gra·tion (di-sin-tē-grā-shən) n.
dis·in·ter (dis-in·ter) v. (dis·in·terred, dis·in·ter·ring) to dig up (something buried), to unearth. dis·in·ter·est (dis-in·ter·est·ed) adj. 1. unbiased, not influenced by self-interest. 2. uninterested, uncaring. □Careful writers regard the second use as unacceptable because it obscures a useful distinction between disinterested and uninterested.) dis·in·ter·est·ed·ly adv. dis·in·ter·est·ed·ness n.
dis·in·join (dis-in·join) v. to separate.
dis·joint (dis·joint) v. 1. to cut (a roasted fowl) apart at the joints. 2. to dislocate, to disturb.
dis·joint·ed (dis·joint·ed) adj. 1. (of talk) disconnected, incoherent. 2. (of a roasted fowl) cut apart at the joints.
disk (disk) n. 1. something shaped or looking like a thin circular plate, the sun's disk. 2. a layer of cartilage between vertebrae. 3. a disc. □ disk brake, one in which a flat plate presses against a plate at the center of a wheel. disk harrow, a harrow with rows of sloping concave disks. slipped disk, a disk between vertebrae that has become displaced.
dis·like (dis-lık) n. a feeling of not liking something. dislike v. (dis·liked, dis·lik·ing) to feel dislike for.
dis·lo·cate (dis-lō·kāt) v. (dis·lo·cat·ed, dis·lo·cat·ing) 1. to put (a thing) out of place in relation to connecting parts, to displace (a bone) from its proper position in a joint. 2. to put out of order, to disrupt, fig dislocated traffic.
dis·lo·ca·tion (dis-lō·kā-shən) n.
dis·lo·de·ge (dis-lō·dʒ) v. (dis·lo·dged, dis·lodg·ing) to move or force from an established position.
dis·loy·al (dis-lō·əl) adj. not loyal. dis·loy·al·ly adv. dis·loy·al·ty n. (pl. -ties).
dis·mal (dis·māl) adj. 1. causing or showing gloom, dreariness. 2. feeble, a dismal attempt at humor. dis·mal·ly adv.
dis·man·tle (dis·man·təl) v. (dis·man·tled, dis·man·tling) to take away fittings or furnishings from, to take to pieces. dis·man·tle·ment n.
dis·may (dis-mā) n. a feeling of surprise and discouragement. dismay v. to fill with dismay. dis·may·ing·ly adv.
dis·mem·ber (dis·mem·bər) v. 1. to remove the limbs of. 2. to divide into parts, to partition (a country etc.). dis·mem·ber·ment n.
dis·miss (dis·mĭs) v. 1. to send away from one's presence or employment. 2. to put out of one's thoughts, to mention or discuss only briefly. 3. to reject without further hearing, the case was dismissed for lack of evidence. dis·miss'·al n. dis·miss'·al·ble adj.
dis·mount (dis·mōnt) v. 1. to get off or down from something on which one is riding. 2. to cause to fall off, to unseat. dis·o·be·di·ent (dis·ō·bē-di·ənt) adj. not obedient. dis·o·be·di·ent·ly adv. dis·o·be·di·ence n.
dis·o·be·y (dis·ō·bē) v. to disregard others, to fail or refuse to obey.
dis·o·bi·lge (dis·ō·bilj) v. (dis·o·bi·lged, dis·o·bilg·ing) to disregard the wishes or convenience of (a person).
dis·or·der (dis·ō·dər) n. 1. lack of order, untidiness. 2. a disturbance of public order, a riot. 3. disturbance of the normal working of the body or mind, a nervous disorder. disorder v. to throw into disorder, to upset. dis·or·der·ly adj.
dis·or·gan·ize (dis·ō·gān·ız) v. (dis·or·gan·ized, dis·or·gan·iz·ing) to throw into confusion, to upset the orderly system or arrangement of.
dis·or·gan·ized (dis·ō·gān·ız·ed) adj. lacking organization or an orderly system.
disorientate / disproportion

(a person) and make him lose his bearings.

dis•o•ri•en•tate (dis-oehr-i-ën-tayt) v. (dis-o•ri•en•tat•ed, dis-o•ri•en•tat•ing) to disorient. dis•o•ri•en•ta•tion (dis-ohr-i-ën-tay-shôn) n.

dis•own (dis-own) v. to refuse to acknowledge as one's own, to reject all connection with.

dis•par•age (dis-par-ij) v. (dis-par•aged, dis-par•ag•ling) to speak of in a slighting way, to belittle. dis•par•ag•ing•ly adv. dis•par•age•ment n.

dis•pa•rate (dis-pä-rät) adj. different in kind. dis•pa•rate•ly adv.

dis•par•i•ty (di-spär-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) inequality, difference.

dis•pas•sion (dis-pass-ôn) n. freedom from emotion.

dis•pas•sionate (dis-pass-ô-nit) adj. free from emotion, calm, impartial. dis•pas•sion•ate•ly adv.

dis•patch (di-spach) v. 1. to send off to a destination or for a purpose. 2. to give the deathblow to, to kill. 3. to complete or dispose of quickly. dis•patch n. 1. dispatching, being dispatched. 2. promptness, speed, she acted with dispatch. 3. an official message or report sent with speed. 4. a news report sent to a newspaper or news agency etc. dis•patch•er n. ☐ dis•patch case, a container for carrying official documents.

dis•pel (di-spel) v. (dis-pelled, dis•pel•ling) to drive away, to scatter, wind dispelled the fog: how can we dispel their fears?

dis•pen•sa•ble (dis-spens-sá-bêl) adj. 1. not essential. 2. able to be dispensed, a dispensable drug.

dis•pen•sa•ry (dis-spens-sá-ree) n. (pl. -ries) a place where medicines are dispensed, the hospital dispensary.

dis•pen•sa•tion (dis-pên-say-shôn) n. 1. dispensing, distributing. 2. ordering or management, especially of the world by divine authority, by the merciful dispensation of Providence. 3. exemption from a penalty or duty, was granted a dispensation.

dis•pense (di-spens) v. (dis-pensed, dis•pens•ing) 1. to distribute, to deal out; dispense justice, to administer it. 2. to prepare and give out (medicines etc.) according to prescriptions. ☐ dispense with, to do without; to make unnecessary.

dis•pen•ser (dis-spens-sôr) n. 1. a person who dispenses medicines. 2. a device that deals out a quantity of something, a soap dispenser.

dis•per•sion (di-spershôn) n. a substance that disperses something.

dis•per•se (di-spurs) v. (dis-pers•sed, dis•pers•ing) to scatter, to go or drive or send in different directions. dis•per•sal n. dis•per•sion (di-spur-zhôn) n. ☐ Do not confuse dispense with disburse.

dis•pir•it (di-spir-it) v. to make despondent, to depress. dis•pir•it•ed adj.

dis•place (dis-plays) v. (dis•placed, dis•plac•ing) 1. to shift from its place. 2. to take the place of, to out, weeds tend to displace other plants. dis•place•ment n. ☐ displaced person, a refugee.

dis•play (di-play) v. 1. to show, to arrange (a thing) so that it can be seen. 2. (of birds and animals) to make a display (see definition 3 below). display n. 1. displaying, being displayed. 2. something displayed conspicuously. 3. a special pattern of behavior used by birds and animals as a means of communication.

dis•please (dis-pleez) v. (dis•pleased, dis•pleas•ing) to offend, to arouse the disapproval or anger of.

dis•pleas•ure (dis-plezh-ûr) n. a displeased feeling, dissatisfaction.

dis•port (di-sporht) v. (formal) to play, to amuse oneself, disporting themselves on the beach.

dis•pos•a•ble (di-sop-hä-bêl) adj. 1. able to be disposed of. 2. at one's disposal; disposable income, the amount left after taxes have been deducted. 3. designed to be thrown away after being used once, disposable diapers.

dis•pos•al (di-sop-zâl) n. disposing of something. ☐ at one's disposal, available for one's use.

dis•pose (di-sopz) v. (dis•posed, dis•pos•ing) 1. to place suitably or in order, disposed the troops in two lines. 2. to determine the course of events, man proposes, God disposes. 3. to make willing or ready to do something, to incline, their friendliness disposed us to accept the invitation; we felt disposed to accept. dis•pos•er n. ☐ be well disposed toward, to be friendly toward, to favor. dispose of, to get rid of; to deal with.

dis•pos•i•tion (di-sop-zish-ôn) n. 1. setting in order, arrangement, the disposition of troops. 2. a person's natural qualities of mind and character, has a cheerful disposition. 3. a natural tendency or inclination, they show a disposition to change jobs frequently.

dis•pos•sess (dis-pô-zez) v. to deprive (a person) of the possession of something. dis•pos•ses•sion n.

dis•pro•por•tion (dis-prô-pohr-shôn) n. lack of proper proportion, being out of disprove / dissipate proportion. dis·pro·por·tion·ate adj. dis·pro·por·tion·ate·ly adv.

dis·prove (dis-proov) v. (dis-proved, dis-prov·ing) to show to be false or wrong. dis·proof (dis-proof) n.
dis·put·a·ble (dis-pyoo-tä-bäl) adj. able to be disputed, questionable. dis·put·a·bly adv.
dis·pu·tant (dis-pyoo-tänt) n. a person engaged in a dispute.
dis·pu·ta·tion (dis-pyoo·ta·shän) n. argument, debate.
dis·pu·ta·tious (dis-pyoo·ta·shä·shəs) adj. fond of, or given to, argument.
dis·pute (dis-pyoot) v. (dis·put·ed, dis·put·ing) 1. to argue, to debate. 2. to quarrel. 3. to question the truth or validity of, dispute a claim; the disputed territory, that which is the subject of a dispute. dis·pute n. 1. an argument or debate. 2. a quarrel. dis·put·er n.

In dispute, being argued about.
dis·qual·i·fy (dis-kwol·i·fi) v. (dis·qual·i·fied, dis·qual·i·fy·ing) 1. to debar from a competition because of an infringement of the rules, that team was disqualified from the race. 2. to make unsuitable or ineligible, weak eyesight disqualifies him for military service. dis·qual·i·fica·tion (dis-kwol·i·fi·ka·shən) n.
dis·qui·et (dis·ku·iet) n. uneasiness, anxiety. dis·qui·et·ty v. to make uneasy or anxious.
dis·qui·et·ing (dis·ku·iet·ing) adj. causing disquiet.
dis·qui·et·ude (dis·ku·iet·u·də) n. a state of uneasiness, anxiety.
dis·qui·si·tion (dis·ku·i·si·shən) n. a long elaborate spoken or written account of something.
dis·re·gard (dis·ri·gahrd) v. to pay no attention to, to treat as of no importance. dis·regard n. lack of attention to something, treating it as of no importance, complete disregard for his own safety.
dis·re·mem·ber (dis·ri·mem·bər) v. (in·for·mal) to fail to remember. >Careful writers and speakers use this word humorously if at all.
dis·re·pair (dis·ri·pair) n. a bad condition caused by lack of repairs, in a state of disrepair.
dis·rep·u·ta·ble (dis·rep·yū·ta·bəl) adj. having a bad reputation, not respectable in character or appearance. dis·rep·u·ta·bly adv.
dis·re·pute (dis·ri·pyoot) n. lack of good repute, discredit, fell into disrepute.
dis·re·spect (dis·ri·spект) n. lack of respect, rudeness. dis·re·spect·ful adj.
dis·robe (dis·rohb) v. (dis·robed, dis·robe·ning) to take off official or ceremonial robes, to undress.
dis·rupt (dis·rupt) v. to cause to break up, to throw into disorder, to interrupt the flow or continuity of, party quarrels disrupted the coalition; floods disrupted traffic. dis·rup·tion (dis·rup·shən) n.
dis·rup·tive (dis·rup·tiv) adj. causing disruption.
dis·sat·is·fac·tion (dis·sat·is·fak·shən) n. lack of satisfaction or of contentment.
dis·sat·is·fy (dis·sat·is·fi) v. (dis·sat·is·fied, dis·sat·is·fy·ing) to fail to satisfy, to make discontented. dis·sat·is·fied adj.
dis·sect (di·sekt) v. 1. to cut apart, especially in order to examine internal structure, we dissected a worm. 2. to examine (a theory etc.) part by part. dis·sec·tor n. dis·sec·tion (di·sek·shən) n. >Note the spelling and pronunciation of dissect.
dis·sem·ble (di·sem·bəl) v. (dis·sem·bled, dis·sem·bling) to conceal (one's true feelings or motives), to pretend. >Do not confuse assemble with disassemble.
dis·sem·i·late (di·sem·i·lat) v. (dis·sem·i·lated, dis·sem·i·la·ting) to make respect for, or opposites. disrep·u·ta·tion (dis·re·pū·ta·shən) n. a spoken or written discourse. 2. a substantial treatise written as part of the requirements for a doctorate.
dis·ser·vice (dis·sur·vis) n. a harmful action done by a person who intended to help. dis·ser·ver (di·ser·vər) n. 1. a person who dissects. 2. Dissenter, a member of a church that has separated itself from the Church of England.
dis·sen·ti·ent (dis·sen·ti·ənt) adj. dissenting. dis·sent·ent n. a person who dissects.
dis·ser·ta·tion (dis·er·ta·shən) n. 1. a spoken or written discourse. 2. a substantial treatise written as part of the requirements for a doctorate.
dis·serv·ice (dis·sur·vis) n. a harmful action done by a person who intended to help. dis·ser·ver (di·ser·vər) n. to sever, to divide.
dis·si·dent (dis·si·dent) adj. disagreeing. dis·si·dent n. a person who disagrees, one who opposes the authorities. dis·si·den·ce n.
dis·sim·i·lar (dis·sim·i·lər) adj. unlike. dis·sim·i·lar·i·ty (dis·sim·i·lar·i·tə) n. dis·sim·u·late (dis·sim·yü·lat) v. (dis·sim·yü·lat·ed, dis·sim·yü·lat·ing) to disguise. dis·sim·u·la·tion (dis·sim·yü·la·shən) n.
dis·si·pate (dis·si·pət) v. (dis·si·pat·ed, dis·si·pat·ing) 1. to dispel, to disperse. 2. to squander or fritter away.

dissipated / distinguish dissipate (dis-sip-ät) adj. indulging one's vices, living a dissolute life.

dissipation. 2. dissipating. 2. dissipating practices.
dis-so-ci-ate (dis-so-šə-āt, di-soh-šə-āt-) v. (dis-so-či-ä-t, dis-so-či-at-ing) to separate in one's thought, it is difficult to dissociate the man from his work; dissociate oneself from a project, to declare that one has no connection with it. dis-so-ci-a-tion (di-soh-shə-ā-shən, di-soh-shə-n) n.
dis-so-olute (dis-so-ə-lūt) adj. lacking moral restraint or self-discipline. dis-so-lute-ly adv. dis-so-lute-ness n.
dis-so-lu-tion (dis-so-šə-lu-shən) n. the dissolving of an assembly or partnership.
dis-solve (di-zolv) v. (dis-solved, dis-solv-ing) 1. to make or become liquid, to disperse or cause to be dispersed in a liquid. 2. to cause to disappear, to disappear gradually. 3. to dismiss or disperse (an assembly, such as a parliament), to annul or put an end to (a partnership, such as a marriage). 4. to give way to emotion, she dissolved into tears.
dis-so-nant (dis-so-nánt) adj. discordant. dis-so-nance n.
dis-suade (dis-so-ād) v. (dis-suad-ing) to discourage or persuade against a course of action, dis-suaded her from going. dis-suasion (dis-so-ā-shən) n.
dis-su-er (di-su-er) adj. dissuading.
dist. abbr. 1. distance. 2. distant. 3. district.
distaff (dis-tāf) n. 1. a cleft stick holding wool etc. for spinning. 2. woman's work. distaff adj. female, maternal. on the distaff side, on the mother's side of a family.
distal (dis-tal) adj. (in anatomy) away from the center of the body or from the point of attachment, a distal bone.
distance (dis-tāns) n. 1. the length of space between one point and another. 2. a distant part, in the distance. 3. being distant, remoteness. distance v. to outdistance in a race. at a distance, far off, not very near; keep someone at a distance, to avoid becoming too friendly.
keep one's distance, to remain at a safe distance; to behave aloofly, to be not very friendly. within walking distance, near enough to be reached easily by walking.
distant (dis-tant) adj. 1. at a specified or considerable distance away, three miles distant. 2. remote, much apart in space or time or relationship etc., the distant past; a distant cousin. 3. not friendly, aloof. distant-ly adv.
dissaying (dis-tay-ing) v. to swell or become swollen by pressure from within. dis-ten-sion, dis-ten-sion (di-sten-shən) n. dis-tens-ible (di-sten-si-bəl) adj.
distich (dis-tik) n. a pair of lines of verse, a couplet.
distill (di-stil) v. 1. to treat by distillation, to make or produce or purify in this way. 2. to undergo distillation.
distillate (dis-til-lät) n. a product of the vapor produced during distillation.
distillation (di-stil-la-shən) n. 1. the process of turning a substance to vapor by heat, cooling the vapor so that it condenses, and collecting the resulting liquid in order to purify it or separate its constituents or extract an essence. 2. something distilled.
distiller (di-stil-ər) n. a person who distills, one who makes alcoholic liquors by distillation.
distillery (di-stil-ə-rē) n. (pl. -er-ies) a place where whiskey and other alcoholic liquors are produced.
distributed (dis-tinkt) adj. 1. able to be perceived clearly by the senses or the mind, definite and unmistakable, a distinct improvement. 2. different in kind, separate, his hobbies are quite distinct from his work. distinct-ly adv. distinct-ness n. See the note under distinctive.
distinct (di-stinkt) n. 1. seeing or making a difference between things. 2. a difference seen or made. 3. a thing that differentiates one thing from another. 4. a mark of honor. 5. excellence, a person of distinction.
distinctive (di-stink-tiv) adj. serving to distinguish a thing by making it different from others. distinctively adv. distinctive-ness n. Do not confuse distinctive with distinct. A distinct sign is one that can be seen clearly; a distinctive sign is one not commonly found anywhere.
distinguish (di-stingk-shən) n. v. 1. to see or point out a difference between, to draw distinctions, we must distinguish facts from rumors. 2. to make different, to be a characteristic mark or property of, speech distinguishes man from animals. 3. to make out by listening or looking, unable to distinguish distant objects. 4. to make notable, to bring honor to, he distinguished himself by his bravery. dis-tin'guish·a·ble adj.
dis-tin'guished (di-sting-gwished) adj. 1. showing excellence, the Distinguished Service Cross. 2. famous for great achievements. 3. having an air of distinction and dignity.
dis-tort (di-stort) v. 1. to pull or twist (a thing) out of its usual shape. 2. to misrepresent, to twist out of the truth. dis-tor·tion (di-stor-shôn) n.
distr. abbr. 1. distribute. 2. distribution.

3. distributor.
dis-tract (di-strakt) v. to draw away the attention of, distracted him from his work.► Do not confuse distract with detract.
dis-tract·ed (di-strak-tid) adj. distraught.
dis-tra·c·tion (di-strak-shôn) n. 1. something that distracts the attention and prevents concentration. 2. an amusement or entertainment. 3. mental upset or distress. □ to distraction, almost to a state of madness.
dis-traught (di-strawt) adj. greatly upset, nearly crazy with grief or worry.
dis·tress (di-stres) n. 1. suffering caused by pain, worry, illness, or exhaustion. 2. the condition of being damaged or in danger and requiring help, a ship in distress. distress v. to cause distress to.
dis-tress'ful adj.
dis·trib·ute (di-strib-yoot) v. (dis·trib·ut·ed, dis·trib·ut·ing) 1. to divide and give a share to each of a number, to deal out. 2. to spread or scatter, to place at different points, distributed his forces. dis·tri·bu·tion (dis-tri-byooshôn) n.
dis·trib·u·tive (di-strib-yu-tiv) adj. 1. of or concerned with distribution. 2. (in grammar) referring to each individual in a group, not to the group itself, as each, neither, every. dis·trib·u·tive·ly adv.
dis·trib·u·tor (dis·trib-yû-tor) n. 1. a person who distributes things, an agent who markets goods. 2. a device for distributing current to the spark plugs in an engine.
dis·trict (dis-trikt) n. a part of a country, city, or county having a particular feature or regarded as a unit for a special purpose, the Lake District; District of Columbia; a postal district. □ district attor·ney, the public prosecutor of a judicial district.
dis·trust (dis-trust) n. lack of trust, suspicion. distrust v. to feel distrust in. dis-trust'ful adj. dis-trust'ful·ly adv.
dis·turb (di-sturb) v. 1. to break the rest or quiet or calm of. 2. to cause to move from a settled position. dis·turb'er n.
dis·tur·bance (di-stur-bâns) n. 1. disturbing, being disturbed. 2. a commotion, an outbreak of social or political disorder.
dis·tur·bed (di-sturbed) adj. emotionally or mentally unstable or abnormal.
dis·u·n·ite (dis-you-nit) v. (dis·u·nit·ed, dis·u·nit·ing) to separate, to divide.
dis·u·ni·ty (dis-you-ni-tee) n. (pl. -ties) lack of unity.
dis·use (dis-yooz) n. the state of not being used, rusty from disuse.
dis·used (dis-yooz'd) adj. no longer used.
ditch (dich) n. a narrow trench to hold or carry off water or to serve as a boundary. ditch v. 1. to make or repair ditches. 2. to drive (a vehicle) into a ditch. 3. (slang) to make a forced landing on the sea. 4. (slang) to abandon, to discard, to leave in the lurch. □ dull as ditchwa·ter, very dull (same as dull as dishwater).
dith·er (dith-ér) v. 1. to tremble, to quiver. 2. to hesitate indecisively. dither n. a state of dithering, nervous excitement or fear, all in a dither.
dit·to (dit-oh) n. (pl. -tos) (used in lists to avoid repeating something) the same again. □ ditto marks, inverted commas "representing the word “ditto.”
dit·ty (dit-ee) n. (pl. -ties) a short simple song.
di·u·ret·ic (di-yû-ret-ik) adj. causing more urine to be secreted. diuretic n. a diuretic substance.
di·ur·nal (di-ur-nâl) adj. 1. of the day, not nocturnal. 2. occupying one day.
div. abbr. 1. divided. 2. dividend. 3. division. 4. divisor. 5. divorced.
di·va (dee-vâ) n. (pl. di·vas, di·ve, pr. dee-vay) a great woman singer, a prima donna.
di·va·lent (di-vay-lent) adj. having a va·lence of two.
di·van (di-van) n. a low couch without a raised back or ends, a bed resembling this.
dive (div) v. (dived or dove, dived, div·ing) 1. to plunge head first into water. 2. (of an aircraft) to plunge steeply downward. 3. (of a submarine or diver) to go under water, our submarine has dived many times. 4. to go down or out of sight suddenly, to rush headlong, dived into a foxhole. 5. to plunge (into an activity etc.); she dives right into her work, begins to work promptly and with great concentration. dive n. 1. an act of diving. 2. a sharp downward movement or fall. 3. (slang) a disreputable place. □ div·ing board, a board for diving from. div·ing suit, a watertight suit, usually with a helmet and air supply, for work under water. Careful writers use divided rather than dove in the past tense.

dive-bomb (div-bomb) v. to drop bombs from a diving aircraft. □ dive bomber, an aircraft used for divebombing.

dive (di-vēr) n. 1. one who dives. 2. a person who works underwater in a diving suit.

di-ver-si-fy (di-ver-si-fy) v. (di-ver-si-fied, di-ver-si-fy-ing) 1. to go in different directions from a common point or from each other, to become farther apart. 2. to go aside from a path; diverge from the truth, depart from it; our views diverge further from theirs each day. □ di-ver-gent adj. □ di-ver-gence n.

di-ver-tic-u-lum (di-ver-tik-yu-lum) n. a diverticulum, a cavity or pouch in the body, especially in the colon.

di-ver-tic-u-lus (di-ver-tik-yu-lus) n. (pi -la, pr. -lā) a tubular branch of a cavity or passage in the body, especially in the colon.

di-ver-tling (di-ver-ting, di-ter-ling) v. 1. to turn (a thing) from its course, divert the stream; divert attention, distract it; divert traffic, cause it to go by a different route. 2. to entertain or amuse with recreations.

di-ver-tic-u-lus (di-ver-tic-u-lus) n. (pi -la, pr. -lā) a tubular branch of a cavity or passage in the body, especially in the colon.

divebomb / divvy
Dixie / doctrine

ing) divvy up, (informal) to share, to divide up.

Dix-le (dik-see) n. (informal) the southern states of the U.S.

Dix-le-land (dik-see-land) n. 1. (informal) Dixie.

D.M.D. Doctor of Dental Medicine.

DMZ abbr. demilitarized zone.

dn. abbr. down.

DNA abbr. deoxyribonucleic acid.

do1 (doo) v. (did, done, doing) 1. to perform, to carry out, to fulfill or complete (a work, duty, etc.). 2. to produce, to make, do five copies. 3. to deal with, to set in order, to solve, do a crossword; do the room, clean or decorate it; do the flowers, arrange them; they did us in for (did us out of) $20, (slang) cheated us out of it. 4. to cover (a distance) in traveling, 5. to visit, to see the sights, we did Rome last year. 6. to undergo; did time for robbery, was in prison. 7. to provide food etc. for, they do well by us here. 8. to act or proceed, do as you like. 9. to fare, to get on, to achieve something; they did well with it, profited by it. 10. to be suitable or acceptable, to serve a purpose, it doesn’t do to worry; that will do, stop it. do auxiliary verb 1. used to indicate present or past tense, what does he think? what did he think? 2. used for emphasis, I do like nuts. 3. used to avoid repetition of a verb just used, we work as hard as they do. do n. (pl. do’s) 1. a statement of what should be done, do’s and don’ts. 2. (informal) an entertainment, a party. □ do away with, to abolish, to get rid of. do for, (informal) to ruin, to destroy, to kill; to do housework for. do in, (slang) to ruin, to kill; (informal) to tire out. do one’s (own) thing, to do as one pleases; to perform one’s specialty. do or die, to make a supreme effort, disregarding danger. do over, to do again; to redecorate. do right by, to treat fairly, to do justice to; the family did right by the meal, ate it all. do up, tofasten, to wrap up. do with, to get on with; to tolerate; to need or want. do without, to manage without.

do2 (doh) n. a name for the first note of the musical scale.

do, abbr. ditto.

D.O.A. abbr. dead on arrival.

do-a-ble (doo-á-bél) adj. able to be done.

D.O.B. abbr. date of birth.

dob-in (dob-in) n. a draft or farm horse.

Do-ber-man (doh-ber-mán) n. (also Doberman pinscher) a German hound with a smooth short dark coat.

doc (dok) n. (informal) doctor.

doc. abbr. document.

doc-le (dos-il) adj. willing to obey. doc’l-ly adv. doc’l-ty (dok-ij) n.
dock1 (dok) n. a weed with broad leaves.

dock2 v. 1. to cut short (an animal’s tail). 2. to reduce or take away part of (wages, supplies, etc.).

dock3 n. 1. an artificially enclosed body of water where ships are admitted for loading, unloading, or repair. 2. a platform at which freight cars, trucks, etc. are unloaded. dock v. 1. to bring or come into dock. 2. to join (two or more spacecraft) together in space, to become joined thus.

dock* n. an enclosure for the prisoner in a criminal court.

dock-age (dok-ij) n. use of a ship’s dock, the charge for this.

dock-et (dok-it) n. 1. a document or label listing goods delivered or the contents of a package, or recording payment of customs dues etc. 2. a list of matters to be dealt with, especially by a legislature or law court. docket v. (dock-et-ed, dock-et-ing) to enter on a docket, to label with a docket.

dock-work-er (dok-wur-kér) n. a worker in a dockyard.

dock-yard (dok-yahrd) n. an area with docks and equipment for building and repairing ships.

doc-tor (dok-tör) n. 1. a person who is qualified to be a practitioner of medicine, a physician. 2. a person who holds a doctorate, Doctor of Philosophy. doctor v. 1. to treat medically. 2. to patch up (machinery etc.). 3. to tamper with or falsify, doctored the evidence. doc’tor-al adj.

□ doctor’s degree, a doctorate.

doc-tor-ate (dok-tör-ät) n. the highest degree at a university, entitling the holder to the title of “doctor.”

doc-tri-naire (dok-tri-nair) adj. applying theories or principles without regard for practical considerations, doctrinaire socialism. doctrinaire n. a person who does this.

doc-trine (dok-trin) n. a principle or set of principles and beliefs held by a reliigious or political or other group. doc' trin-al adj.

doc·u·ment (dok-yú-men-t) n. a paper giving information or evidence about something. document v. to prove or provide with documents; she documented her report, supported its statements by many references to evidence. doc·u-men·ta·tion (dok-yú-men-ta-shan) n.

doc·u·men·ta·ry (dok-yú-men-ta-ree) adj.
1. consisting of documents, documentary evidence. 2. giving a factual dramatized report of a subject or activity.
documentary n. (pl. -ries) a documenta-tory film or television program.

DOD abbr. Department of Defense.
dod·der (dod-ér) v. to tremble or totter because of age or frailty. dod' der·er
n. dod·der·y adj.
dodge (doj) v. (dodged, dodg·ing) 1.
to move quickly to one side, to change position or direction in order to avoid something. 2. to evade by cunning or trickery, dodged military service. dodge n. 1. a quick movement to avoid something. 2. (informal) a clever trick, an ingenious way of doing something. dodg' er n.
do·do (doh-doh) n. (pl. -dos, -does) 1.
a large bird that formerly lived in Mauritius but has long been extinct. 2. a stupid or hopelessly old-fashioned person.
doe (doh) n. the female of the deer, reinder, rabbit, or hare.

DOE abbr. Department of Energy.
do·er (doo-ér) n. a person who does something, one who takes action rather than thinking or talking about things.
does (duz) third person singular present tense of do1.
doe·skin (doh-skin) n. 1. the skin of a do. 2. a soft leather made from this skin.
does·n't (douz·ent) = does not.
doff (dof) v. to take off (one's hat etc.).
dog (dawg) n. 1. a four-legged carnivorous animal, commonly kept as a pet or trained for use in hunting etc. 2. the male of this or of the wolf or fox. 3. (informal) a person, lucky dog. 4. a mechanical device for gripping things. 5. a despisable person, the dirty dog. dog v. (dogged, pr. dawgd, dog·ging) to follow closely or persistently, dogged his footsteps. dog' like adj. dog paddler, a simple swiming stroke with short quick movements of the arms and legs. dog's life, a life of misery. Dog Star, the star Sirius. go to the dogs, (slang) to become worthless, to be ruined. not a dog's chance, not the slightest chance. put on the dog, (informal) to show off. Note that the past form dogged is pronounced diffently from the adjective dogged.
dog·bate (dawg-bat) n. an herb with milky juice and a bitter root.
dog·cart (dawg·kar·t) n. 1. a horse-drawn cart with two transverse seats back to back. 2. a cart drawn by a dog.
dog·catch·er (dawg-kach·ér) n. a public officer who rounds up stray dogs or cats.
doge (doz) n. the former chief magistrate of Venice.
dog·ear (dawg·eer) v. to bend down the corners of the pages of (a book). dog-eread adj.
dog·eat·dog (dawg·eat·dawg) n. ruthless competition.
dog·fight (dawg·fit) n. 1. a fight between dogs. 2. (informal) a battle between (usually two) fighter aircraft.
dog·fish (dawg-fish) n. (pl. -fish·es, -fish) a kind of small shark found in coastal waters.
dog·ged (dawg·gid) adj. determined, not giving up easily. dog'ged·ly adv. Note that the adjective dogged is produced differently from the past form dogged.
dog·ger·el (dawg·gér·él) n. bad verse.
dog·gle, dog·gy (dawg·gee) n. (pl. dog·gels) (informal) a dog. doggie or doggy bag, a small bag provided by a restaurant for taking home uneaten food.
dog·gone (dawg·gawn) adj. (informal) pesky or annoying. doggone it, (informal) damn it.
dog·house (dawg·house) n. (pl. -houses, es, pr. -how·ziz) a dog's kennel. In the doghouse, (slang) in disgrace.
dog·gle (doh·gee) n. (Western use) a stray motherless calf.
dog·leg (dawg·leg) n. something bent at a sharp angle, especially a path or road.
dog·ma (dawg·má) n. (pl. -ma·ta, pr.
-má·tä, -mas) a doctrine or doctrines put forward by some authority, especially a Church, to be accepted as true without question.
dog·ma·tic (dawg·mat·ik) adj. 1. of or like dogma. 2. putting forward statements in a firm authoritative way. dog-mat·i·cal·ly adv.
dog·ma·tism (dawg·má·tiz·ém) n. being dogmatic.
dog·ma·tize (dawg·má·tiz) v. (dogma·tized, dog·ma·tizing) to make dogmatic statements.
dog· good·er (dawg·guud·ér) n. a well-meaning but unrealistic reformer or philanthropist.
dog·tired (dawg·trir·d) adj. tired out.
dog·tooth (dawg·tooth) n. a canine tooth. dogtooth violet, a North American spring-flowering plant with yellow flowers having reddish spots.
dog-trot (dawg-trot) n. an easy steady trot like a dog's. dog-trot- ed, dog-trot-ting to run this way.

dog-watch (dawg-woch) n. one of the two-hour watches on a ship (4–6 or 6–8 P.M.).

dog-wood (dawg-wuud) n. an American tree with small white or pink flowers and with bright red berries in the autumn.

Do-ha (doh-hah) the capital of Qatar.

dol-ly (dol-lec) n. (pl. -lies) a small ornamental mat placed under a dish or under cake etc. on a dish.

do-ings (doo-ingz) n. pl. things done or being done.

do-it-your-self (doo-it-voor-self) adj. for use by an amateur. do-it-yourself n.

dol. abbr. dollar(s).

dol-drums (dohl-drëmz) n. pl. 1. the ocean regions near the equator where there is little or no wind. 2. a period of inactivity. □In the doldrums, in low spirits.

dole (dohl) v. (doled, doling) to distribute sparingly, dole it out. dole n. (informal) a payment by a government to persons who are unable to find employment; on the dole, (British) receiving this.

do-le-ful (dohl-ful) adj. mournful, sad.

do-le'-ful-ly adv.

doll (dol) n. 1. a small model of a human figure, especially as a child’s toy. 2. a pretty but empty-headed young woman.

3. (slang) a young woman, a lovable person. doll v. doll up, to dress smartly, dolly herself up.

dol-lar (dol-är) n. the unit of money in the U.S. and certain other countries. □dollars and cents, judged only in terms of the money involved.

dol-lap (dol-öp) n. a mass or quantity, a shapeless lump of something soft.

dol-ly (dol-e) n. (pl. -lies) 1. (informal) a doll. 2. a movable platform for a heavy object.

dol-man (dohl-män) sleeve a loose sleeve cut in one piece with the body of a garment.

dol-men (dohl-mën) n. a prehistoric structure with a large flat stone laid on upright ones.

do-lo-mite (dohl-o-mit) n. a mineral or rock of calcium magnesium carbonate.

do-lo-mites (dohl-o-mits) n. pl. a rocky mountain range in north Italy.

do-lor-ous (dohl-ôr-ûs) adj. mournful.

do-lor-ous-ly adv. do-lor-ous-ness n.

dol-phin (doh-fin) n. 1. a sea animal like a porpoise but larger and with a beaklike snout. 2. either of two large fishes found in tropical waters and used as food.

dolt (dohlt) n. a stupid person.

dom. abbr. 1. domestic. 2. dominion.

-dom suffix used to form nouns with the meaning of rank, condition, or domain, as in earldom, freedom, kingdom, or group, as in officialdom.

do-main (doh-mayn) n. 1. a district or area under someone's control. 2. a field of thought or activity, the domain of science.

dome (dohm) n. 1. a rounded roof with a circular base. 2. something shaped like this.

domed (dohmd) adj. having a dome, shaped like a dome.

Domes-day (dōmz-day) Book a record of the ownership of lands in England made in 1086 by order of William the Conqueror.

-do-mes-tic (dō-mes-tik) adj. 1. of the home or household or family affairs. 2. of one's own country, not foreign or international, domestic flights. 3. (of animals) kept by man, not wild. domestic n. a servant in a household. do-mes-ti-cal-ly adv. □domestic science, the study of household management.

do-mes-ti-ca-tion (dō-mes-ti-kay-shun) n.

-do-mes-tic-le-ty (dō-mes-ti-kl-tee) n. being domestic, domestic or home life.

dom-i-cle (dom-i-sil) n. a person's place of residence. domicile v. (dom-i-ciled, dom-i-cil-ing) to establish or settle in a place.

dom-i-ciled (dom-i-sild) adj. dwelling in a place.

do-mi-cli-ar-y (dom-i-sil-i-er-ee) adj. of a dwelling place.

dom-i-nant (dom-i-nánt) adj. dominating.

dom-i-nance n.

-do-mi-nate (dom-i-nayt) v. (dom-i-nat-ed, dom-i-nat-ing) 1. to have a commanding influence over. 2. to be the most influential or conspicuous person or thing. 3. (of a high place) to tower over, the mountain dominates the whole valley. dom-i-na-tion (dom-i-nay-shon) n.

do-mi-neer (dom-i-neer) v. to behave in a forceful way, making others obey.

do-mi-na-ted (domi-nat-ed) adj. of the Dominican Republic, a country in the West Indies.

Dominican n. a native or inhabitant of this country.

dominion (dö-min-yön) n. 1. authority to rule, control. 2. territory controlled by a ruler or government, a domain.

Dominion (dö-min-yön) Day July 1, a Canadian holiday celebrating establishment of the Dominion of Canada on July 1, 1867.

don·i·no (don-i-nō) n. (pl. -noes) one of the small oblong pieces marked with up to six pips on each half, used in the game of dominoes. □ domino effect, an effect compared to a row of dominoes falling, when a political or other event in one place seems to cause similar events elsewhere.

don (don) v. (doomed, don·ning) to put on.

don·a·tion (doh-nə-shən) n. a gift of money etc. to a fund or institution.

done (dun) see do. done adj. cooked sufficiently. done interj. (in reply to an offer) I accept. □ done for, doomed, ruined, dying. done in, (informal) very tired.

done to a turn, cooked perfectly. done with, finished with; it's over and done with, ended. It isn't done, it is socially unacceptable.

don·key (dōn-ki) n. (pl. -keys) an animal of the horse family, with long ears. □ donkey engine, a small auxiliary engine. donkey work, drudgery, the laborious part of a job.

don·ish (dōn-ish) adj. like a college don, pedantic.

don·ny·brook (dōn-ë-bruk) n. a wild fight, a free-for-all.

do·nor (dō-nər) n. 1. a person who gives or donates something. 2. one who provides blood for transfusion or semen for insemination or tissue for transplantation.

don't (dōnt) = do not. dont n. (informal) a prohibition, do's and don'ts.

do·nut (dō-nət) n. a doughnut.

do·d·d·le (dō-dəl) v. (do·dled, do·dly·ing) to scribble while thinking about something else. doodle n. a drawing or marks made by doodling. do·d·d·ler (dōd-lér) n.

doom (dōm) n. a grim fate, death or ruin.

do·om·s·day (dōmz-dā) n. the day of the Last Judgment, the end of the world.

door (dōr) n. 1. a hinged, sliding, or revolving barrier that closes an entrance or exit. 2. a doorway; they live three doors away, three houses away. 3. a means of obtaining or approaching something; closed the door to any agreement, made it impossible.

door·bell (dōr-bell) n. a bell inside a house, rung from the outside by visitors as a signal.

door·jamb (dōr-jamb) n. one of two upright posts framing a door.

door·keep·er (dōr-keep-ər) n. a doorman.

door·knob (dōr-nob) n. a knob for turning to release the latch of a door.

door·man (dōr-man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) a person on duty at the entrance to a hotel or large building.

door·mat (dōr-mat) n. 1. a mat placed at a door, for wiping dirt from shoes. 2. a person who meekly allows himself to be bullied.

door·plate (dōr-playt) n. a small plate on the door to a house or apartment identifying its occupant.

door·step (dōr-step) n. a step leading to a door. □ on one's doorstep, very near.

door·stop (dōr-stop) n. a device for keeping a door open or preventing it from striking a wall when it opens.

door·to-door (dōr-tō-dōr) adj. (of selling etc.) done at each house in turn.

door·way (dōr-way) n. an opening filled by a door.

door·yard (dōr-yahrd) n. a yard in front of a door or house.

do·pa (dō-pə) n. an amino acid used in treating Parkinson's disease.

dop·ant (dō-pant) n. a substance added to a semiconductor to change its electrical properties.

dope (dōp) n. 1. a thick liquid used as a lubricant etc. 2. (informal) a medicine or drug, a narcotic, a drug given to a greyhound or racehorse to affect its performance. 3. a varnish used to protect the cloth on model airplanes. 4. (slang) information. 5. (slang) a stupid person.

dope v. (doped, dop·ling) 1. to treat with dope. 2. to give a narcotic or stimulant to. □ dope·out (informal) to work out (a puzzle etc.).

dope·ster (dōp-stər) n. a person who tries to predict the outcome of a sports event, political election, etc.
dop-ey (doh-pec) adj. (dop-i-er, dop-i-est) (slang) 1. half asleep, stupefied by a drug. 2. stupid. dop'il-ness n.

Dor-ic (dor-ik) adj. of the Doric order, the simplest of the five classical orders of architecture.

dorm (dorm) n. (informal) a dormitory.

dor-mant (dor-mänt) adj. 1. sleeping, lying inactive as if in sleep. 2. (of plants) alive but not actively growing. 3. temporarily inactive, a dormant volcano. dor-man-cy n.

dor-mer (dorn-ner) n. (also dormer window) an upright window under a small gable built out from a sloping roof.

dor-mi-to-ry (dor-mi-tohr-ee) n. (pl. -ries) a room with a number of beds, especially in a school or institution.

dor-mouse (dorm-ows) n. (pl. -mice, pr. -mrs) a mouse-like animal that hibernates in winter.

dor-sal (dör-sal) adj. of or on the back of an animal or plant, a dorsal fin. dor-sal-ly adv.

do-ry (dohr-ee) n. (pl. -ries) a small flat-bottomed fishing boat.

dos-age (doh-sij) n. 1. the giving of medicine in doses. 2. the size of a dose.

dose (dohs) n. 1. an amount of medicine to be taken at one time. 2. an amount of radiation received by a person or thing. 3. (informal) an amount of flattery or punishment etc. dose v. (dosed, dos-ling) to give a dose or doses of medicine to.

do-sim-e-ter (doh-sim-i-tér) n. a device used to measure and record the amount of radiation absorbed. do-sim'e-try n.

do-si-er (doh-si-er, dos-i-ay, dos-i-ay) n. a set of documents containing information about a person or event.

dot (dot) n. 1. a small round mark, a point. 2. the shorter of the two signals used in the Morse code. dot v. (dot-ted, dot-ting) 1. to mark with a dot or dots, to place a dot over a letter. 2. to scatter here and there, dot them about; the sea was dotted with ships. □ dotted line, a line of dots showing where a signature etc. is to be entered on a document. dot the i's and cross the t's, to be minutely accurate and explicit about details. on the dot, exactly on time.

DOT abbr. Department of Transportation.

dot-age (doh-tij) n. a state of weakness of mind caused by old age, in his dotage.

dot-ard (doh-tard) n. a person who is in his dotage.

dote (doh) v. (doted, dot-ing) to show great fondness, a doting husband; she dotes on her grandchildren.

do-th (duth) v. (old use) = does.

dot-til (dot-č) n. unburned tobacco left in a pipe.

dot-ty (dot-č) adj. (dot-ti-er, dot-ti-est) (informal) feebleminded, eccentric, silly. dot'ti-ness n.

Dou-ay (doo-ay) Bible (also Douay Version) the English translation of the Latin Vulgate Bible used in the Roman Catholic Church.

double (dub-č) adj. 1. consisting of two things or parts that form a pair. 2. twice as much or as many; a double whiskey, twice the standard portion. 3. designed for two persons or things, a double bed. 4. combining two things or qualities, it has a double meaning. 5. (of flowers) having more than one circle of petals. dou-ble adv. 1. twice the amount or quantity, it costs double what it cost last year. 2. in twos; see double, to see two things where there is only one. double n. 1. a double quantity or thing. 2. a person or thing that looks very like another. 3. (in baseball) a hit that enables a batter to reach second base. 4. a hotel room for two people. 5. doubles, a game between two pairs of players. double v. (dub-led, dou-ling) 1. to make or become twice as much or twice as many. 2. to bend or fold in two. 3. to turn sharply back from a course, the fox doubled back on its tracks. 4. to be the double of (a person). 5. to increase the value of a contract in bridge. 6. (in baseball) to make a double. doubly adv. □ dou-ble agent, one who spies for two rival countries. double bass, the lowest-pitched instrument of the violin family.

double bed, a bed for two people.

double boiler, a saucepan with a detachable upper compartment in which food is cooked slowly by water boiling in the lower.

double bond, a pair of bonds between two atoms.

double chin, a chin with a fold of loose flesh below it.

double dagger, a printing mark ‡ used for footnotes or cross-references.

dou-ble date, (informal) a date of two couples going out together.

double-date v. (double-dated, double-dating) (informal) to date in this way.

double-digit inflation, an inflation rate of 10 percent to 99 percent. double dip, two scoops of ice cream on a cone. double dipper, (slang) a retired soldier, airman, etc. who is employed by the U.S. government while also drawing a government pension.

double entry, a system of bookkeeping in which each transaction is entered as a debit in one account and a credit in another.

double exposure, accidentally or deliberately repeated exposure of film etc.

double feature, a motion picture program featuring two full-length films. double figures, any number from 10 to 99 inclusive. double glazing, two layers of glass in a window, with an air space between them. double header, two games of baseball etc. played on the same day between the same teams. double helix, a pair of parallel helices with a common axis, especially in the structure of the DNA molecule. double indemnity, provision for payment of twice face value of a life insurance policy in case of accidental death of the insured person. double jeopardy, subjection of a person to a second trial when he has already been acquitted on the same charge. double knit, a jersey-like fabric knitted as two thicknesses interlocked. double negative, incorrect use of two or more negative words in the same sentence, with the effect of canceling the intended meaning, as in they cannot do no more. double or nothing, a gamble (with dice etc.) deciding whether a person must pay twice what he owes or nothing at all. double play, a baseball play resulting in two put-outs. double pneumonia, pneumonia of both lungs. double standard, a moral code, criterion, etc. applied more strictly to one group than another, for example, permitting more social freedom to men than to women. double star, two stars actually or apparently close together. double take, a delayed reaction to a situation etc., coming immediately after one's first reaction. double time, payment of an employee at twice the normal rate; (in marching) taking approximately 180 steps a minute. double up, to bend into a stooping or curled up position; to share living or sleeping quarters. on the double, quickly, without wasting time; (in military use) running. double-barreled (dub-él-bar-él) adj. (of a gun) having two barrels. double-breasted (dub-él-bres-tid) adj. (of a coat) having fronts that overlap to fasten across the breast. double-check (dub-él-chek) v. to verify twice or in two ways. double-cross (dub-él-kraws) v. to deceive or cheat a person with whom one pretends to be collaborating. double-cross' er n. double-deal'ing (dub-él-dee-ling) n. deceit, especially in business. double-deal' er n. double-deck' er (dub-él-dek-ér) n. 1. a bus with two decks. 2. a sandwich with two layers of filling. double-edged (dub-él-ejd) adj. 1. having two cutting edges. 2. damaging to the user as well as his opponent, a double-edged question. double en·ten·dre (dub-él ahn-tahn-dré) a phrase with two meanings, one of which is usually indecent. double-joint'ed (dub-él-join-tid) adj. having very flexible joints that allow the fingers, arms, or legs to bend in unusual ways. double-park (dub-él-pahrk) v. to park a car (illegally) alongside one already parked at the side of a street. double-quick (dub-él-kwik) adj. & adv. very quick, quickly. double-space (dub-él-spays) v. (double-spaced, double-scap-ing) to type (copy) leaving one line of space between lines. double'let (dub-lit) n. 1. a man's close-fitting jacket with or without sleeves. 2. a pair, one of a pair. double-talk (dub-él-tawk) n. 1. talk that appears to have meaning but does not. 2. phrasing that is deliberately evasive or ambiguous. double'bloon (du-bloon) n. a former Spanish gold coin. doubt (dowt) n. 1. a feeling of uncertainty about something, an undecided state of mind. 2. a feeling of disbelief. 3. an uncertain state of affairs. doubt v. 1. to feel uncertain or undecided about. 2. to hesitate to believe. doubt' er n. doubt' a ble adj. doubting Thomas, a person who (like St. Thomas) refuses to believe something until it has been fully proved. no doubt, certainly. without doubt or without a doubt, certainly. doubt'ful (dowt-ful) adj. 1. feeling doubt. 2. causing doubt; a doubtful ally, unreliable; a doubtful reputation, not a good one. doubt'ful-ty adv. doubt'less (dowt-lis) adv. no doubt. doubtless adj. with no doubt or uncertainty. douche (doosh) n. 1. a jet of liquid applied to a part of the body to cleanse it or for medical purposes. 2. a device for applying this. douche v. (douched, douche'ing) to treat with a douche, to use a douche. dough (doh) n. 1. a thick mixture of flour etc. and liquid, to be baked as bread, cake, or pastry. 2. (slang) money. dough' y adj. (dough·i·er, dough·i·est). dough' boy (doh-boi) n. (informal) an American infantry soldier of World War I. dough' nut (doh-nut) n. a small sweetened fried cake of dough. dough' ty (dow-tee) adj. (-ti·er, -ti·est) valiant or stout-hearted.
Douglas fir / down-home door (door, dowr) adj. stern, severe, gloomy looking. dour’ly adv. dour’ness n. douse (dows) v. (doused, dous’ing) 1. to put into water, to throw over. 2. to extinguish, douse the light. > Do not confuse douse with dowse.

dove1 (duv) n. 1. a kind of bird with short legs, a small head, and a thick body, which makes a cooing sound. 2. a person who favors a policy of peace and negotiation rather than violence. dov’ish adj.
dove2 (dohv) see dive.
dove-cote (dov-koht) n. a shelter for domesticated pigeons.

do•ver (doh-vern) the capital of Delaware.
dove-tail (dow-tayl) n. a wedge-shaped joint interlocking two pieces of wood.
dovetall v. 1. to join by such a joint. 2. to fit closely together, to combine neatly, my plans dovetailed with hers.
dow—a•ger (dow-ə-jër) n. 1. a woman who holds a title or property from her dead husband, the dowager duchess. 2. a dignified elderly woman.
dow—dy (dow-dee) adj. (-dl•er, -dl•est) 1. (of clothes) unattractively dull, not stylish. 2. dressed in dowdy clothes.
dow’dl•ly adv. dow’dl•ness n.
dow—el (dow-əl) n. a headless wooden or metal pin for holding two pieces of wood or stone together by fitting into a corresponding hole in each. dowel v. (dow•eled, dow—el•ing) to fasten with a dowel.
dow—el•ing (dow•el•ing) n. round rods for cutting into dowels.
dow—er (dow•ær) n. 1. a widow’s share of her husband’s estate. 2. (old use) a dowry. dow•er v. to give a dowry or dowry to.
dow—itch•er (dow•ich•ær) n. a shorebird similar to a snipe and having a long bill.
down1 (down) n. an area of open rolling land.
down2 n. very fine soft furry feathers or short hairs.
down•adv. 1. from an upright position to a horizontal one, fell down. 2. to or in or at a lower place or level or condition, to a smaller size, farther south; they are two goals down, are losing by this amount; I’m $5 down in the game so far, have lost this amount; I’m down to my last penny, have only this left. 3. so as to be less active, quiet down. 4. incapacitated by illness, is down with flu. 5. away from a central place, he is down from headquarters. 6. from an earlier to a later time, down to the present day. 7. in writing, note it down; he is down to speak, is listed in the program. 8. to the source or the place where something is, track it down. 9. as a payment at the time of purchase, paid $100 down. down prep. 1. downward along or through or into, along; from top to bottom of. 2. at a lower part of, Cincinnati is farther down the river. down adj. 1. directed downward, a down draft. 2. dejected. 3. completed, nine down and one to go. down v. 1. to knock or bring down. 2. to swallow. 3. to defeat. down n. 1. misfortune, ups and downs. 2. one of four consecutive plays in football in which a team seeks to advance at least ten yards. 3. a low point, a falling period. □ down and out, completely destitute. down at the heels, shabby. Down East, in or into New England, especially the state of Maine. down in the mouth, looking unhappy. down on, disapproving or hostile toward, she is down on smoking. down on one’s luck, suffering misfortune. down payment, a partial payment made at the time of purchase. down under, in Australia or other countries of the antipodes. down wind, in the direction toward which the wind is blowing. down with, may (a person or party etc.) be overthrown. down—and-out•er (down•än•ow-tær) n. (informal) a destitute person.
down•beat (down•beet) n. (in music) an accented beat, the downward stroke of a conductor’s baton to indicate the first beat of a measure. downbeat adj. (informal) depressing, gloomy.
down•cast (down•kast) adj. 1. looking downward, downcast eyes. 2. (of a person) dejected.
down•er (down•ær) n. (slang) 1. a depressant, such as a barbiturate. 2. a depressing person or event.
down•fall (down•fawl) n. a fall from prosperity or power, something that causes this.
down•grade (down•grayd) v. (down•grad•ed, down•grad•ing) to reduce to a lower grade or rank. downgrade n. a downward incline or slope. □ on the downgrade, falling from wealth, power, etc.
down•heart•ed (down•hahr•tid) adj. in low spirits.
down•hill (down•hil) adj. in a downward direction, on a downward slope. down•hill adj. going or sloping downward. □ go downhill, to deteriorate.
down•home (down•hohm) adj. (informal) 1. of or as in the southern U.S. 2. friendly, sociable. 3. homemade.
Downing / drag

Down-ing (down-ing) Street 1. a street in London containing the official residences of the British Prime Minister and other members of the government. 2. (informal) the British government.
down-pour (down-pohr) n. a great fall of rain.
down-range (down-raynj) adj. & adv. (of a missile) away from the launch pad and toward the target.
down-right (down-rit) *adj. 1. frank, straightforward. 2. thorough, complete, a downright lie. downright adv. thoroughly, felt downright scared.
down-shift (down-shift) v. to shift an automobile into a lower gear. downshift n. the act of shifting into a lower gear.
Down's (downz) syn-drome Mongolism. down-stage (down-stayj) adj. & adv. at or toward the front of a theater stage.
down-stairs (down-stairz) adv. down the stairs, to or on a lower floor. downstairs adj. situated downstairs.
down-stream (down-stream) adj. & adv. in the direction in which a stream or river flows.
down-stroke (down-strohk) n. a stroke executed in a downward direction.
down-swing (down-swing) n. 1. a swing downward. 2. a downturn, a decline.
down-to-earth (down-too-urth) adj. sensible and practical.
down-town (down-town) adj. & adv. of or in the business section of a town.
down-trod-den (down-trod-en) adj. trampled underfoot, oppressed.
down-turn (down-turn) n. a decline in activity or prosperity.
down-ward (down-ward) adj. toward what is lower or less important or later, a downward movement. downward adv. (also downwards) toward what is lower etc., moved downward.
down-y (down-nee) adj. (down-l-er, down-l-est) like or covered with soft down. Downy mildew, a fungus disease of plants. Downy woodpecker, a small black and white woodpecker of North America.
dow-ry (dow-ree) n. (pl. -ries) property or money bought by a bride to her husband.
dowse (dowz) v. (dowsed, dows-ing) to search for underground water or minerals by using a Y-shaped stick or rod. Dows'er n. a person who does this. Dow not confuse dowse with douse.
dox-ol-o-gy (dok-sol-o-jee) n. (pl. -gies) a set form of words praising God.
doz. abbr. dozen(s).
doze (dohz) v. (dozed, doz-ing) to sleep lightly; dozed off, fell into a doze. doze n. a short light sleep.
doz-en (duz-en) n. a set of twelve, pack them in dozens; dozens of things, very many.
DP abbr. displaced person.
D.P. abbr. 1. data processing. 2. displaced person. 3. double play.
dpt. abbr. 1. department. 2. deponent.
DR abbr. dining room.
dr. abbr. 1. debit. 2. debtor. 3. drachma(s). 4. dram(s). 5. drawer. 6. drum.
Dr. abbr. 1. Doctor. 2. Drive.
drab1 (drab) adj. (drab-ber, drab- best) 1. dull, uninteresting. 2. a dull grayish-brown color. drab n. drab color.
drab'ly adv. drab'ness n. drab2 n. 1. a slovenly woman. 2. (old use) a female prostitute.
drac-h-ma (drak-má) n. (pl. -mas, -mae, pr. -me) the unit of money in Greece.
Dra-co-ni-an (drakoh-ni-an) adj. very harsh, Draconian laws. Named after Draco, who is said to have established severe laws in ancient Athens. draft (draft) n. 1. a rough preliminary written version, a draft of a speech. 2. a written order for the payment of money by a bank, the drawing of money by this. 3. conscription. 4. drawing (of a load, a vehicle, etc.). 5. a drink, the amount drunk in one swallow. 6. the amount of air taken in one breath. 7. a current of air. 8. a device for controlling air to a stove or furnace. 9. the depth of water displaced by a loaded ship. Draft v. 1. to prepare a written draft of. 2. to select for a special duty, he was drafted to the Paris branch. 3. to conscript. Draft adj. 1. in preliminary form, a draft report. 2. used for pulling or carrying loads, a draft animal. 3. drawn from a barrel, draft beer. Draft board, officials who select people for a military draft. draft-ee (draft-tee) n. a person who has been drafted into the armed forces.
drafts-man (drafts-mán) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mén) a person employed to make drawings, plans, or sketches.
draft-y (draft-tee) adj. (draft-l-er, draft- l-est) subject to currents of air. draft' l- ness n.
drag (drag) v. (dragged, drag-ging) 1. to pull along with effort or difficulty. 2. to trail or allow to trail along the ground, to move slowly and with effort. 3. to search the bottom of water with grapnel nets, etc., drag the river. 4. to continue slowly in a dull manner, the speeches dragged on. 5. to puff on a cigarette etc., dragged at his pipe. Drag n. 1. something that is made for pulling along the ground, for example, a heavy harrow, a dragged. 2. something that slows progress, something boring. 3. (slang) women's clothes.
worn by men, he went to the party in drag. 4. (informal) a puff on a cigarette etc. □ drag in, to bring in (a subject) unnecessarily or in an artificial way. drag one's feet or heels, to be deliberately slow or reluctant. drag out, to prolong unnecessarily. drag race, a race between cars to see which can accelerate fastest from a standstill. drag strip, a straight short paved strip for drag races. △ Dragged is the correct past form of drag. Drag is not.

drag-net (drag-net) n. 1. a net drawn through a river to trap fish. 2. a systematic search by police to capture a criminal.

drag-on (drag-on) n. an imaginary reptile usually with wings, able to breathe out fire.

drag-on-fly (drag-on-fly) n. (pl. -flies) a long-bodied insect with wings that spread while it is resting.

drag-on (dra-goon) v. to force into doing something. dragoon n. a cavalryman.

drain (drayn) v. 1. to draw off (liquid) by means of channels or pipes etc. 2. to flow or trickle away. 3. to dry or become dried when liquid flows away. 4. to deprive gradually of (strength or resources). 5. to drink, to empty (a glass etc.) by drinking its contents. drain n. 1. a channel or pipe through which liquid or sewage is carried away. 2. something that drains one's strength or resources. drain'er n.

square the drain, (informal) lost, wasted.

drain-age (dray-nij) n. 1. draining. 2. a system of drains. 3. what is drained off.

drain-board (drayn-bohrd) n. a sloping surface beside a sink, on which washed dishes are put to drain.

drain-pipe (drayn-pip) n. a pipe used in a system of drains.

drake (drayk) n. a male duck.

dram (dram) n. 1. a small amount of anything. 2. a small drink of liquor. 3. one-eighth of an ounce, apothecaries' weight. 4. one-sixteenth of an ounce, avoirdupois weight.

dra-ma (drah-mä, dram-ä) n. 1. a play for acting on the stage or for broadcasting. 2. plays as a branch of literature, their composition and performance. 3. a dramatic series of events, the drama continued inside the consulate. 4. dramatic quality, the drama of the situation.

Dram-a-mine (dram-ä-meen) n. (trademark) an antihistamine used to counteract motion sickness.

dra-mat-ic (dra-mat-ik) adj. 1. of drama. 2. exciting, impressive, a dramatic change. dra-mat'i-cal-ly adv.

dra-mat-ics (dra-mat-iks) n. pl. 1. the performance of plays. 2. exaggerated behavior, she tired of his dramatics.

dra-ma-tist (drah-mä-tist, dram-ä-) n. a writer of dramas.

dra-ma-tize (drah-mä-tiz, dram-ä-) v. (dra-ma-tized, dra-ma-tiz-ing) 1. to make (a story etc.) into a play. 2. to make things seem dramatic. dra-ma-tiz-a-tion (drah-mä-ti-zä-shon, dram-ä-) n. drank (drangk) see drink.

drape (drayp) v. (draped, dra-ping) 1. to cover loosely or decorate with cloth etc. 2. to arrange loosely or in graceful folds.

dra-per-y (drayp-ä-ree) n. (pl. -per-les) 1. fabric arranged in loose folds. 2. draperies, heavy curtains.

drapes (drayps) n. (informal) draperies.

dras-tic (dras-tik) adj. having a strong or violent effect. dra-sti-cal-ly adv.

drat (drat) interj. (informal) curse.

drat-ten (drat-ten) adj. (informal) cursed.

draught (draft) n. 1. the drawing of beer etc. from its container, beer on draught. 2. a drink, the amount drunk in one swallow. 3. draughts, (British) checkers.

draw (draw) v. (drew, drawn, draw-ing) 1. to pull; draw a bow, pull back its string; draw the curtains, pull them across the window. 2. to attract, draw attention. 3. to take in, draw breath; the chimney draws well, has a good draft; he drew at his pipe, sucked in smoke from it. 4. to take out, drew the cork; draw water; draw $25, withdraw it from one's account; draw a salary, receive it from one's employer; draw blood, cause blood to flow; draw on one's imagination, use it as a source. 5. to draw lots, to obtain in a lottery, drew for partners; drew the winner. 6. to get information from, tried to draw him out about his plans. 7. to finish a contest with neither side winning. 8. to require (a certain depth of water) in which to float, the ship draws ten feet. 9. to produce a picture or diagram by making marks on a surface. 10. to formulate, draw a conclusion. 11. to write out (a check) for casing. 12. to make one's way, draw near; the train drew in, entered a station and stopped. 13. to flatten or shape (metal) by hammering etc. draw n. 1. the act of drawing; quick on the draw; quick at drawing a gun. 2. a person or thing that attracts customers, a box-office draw. 3. the drawing of lots. 4. a drawn game. □ draw a blank, to get no response or result. draw in one's horns, to become less aggressive or less ambitious. draw near, to approach.

draw on, to remove money from (one's bank account); to take advantage of (someone's good will). draw oneself up, to make oneself stiffly erect. draw out, to prolong (a discussion etc.); to encourage (a person) to talk. draw the line at, to refuse to do or tolerate. draw up, to come to a halt; to compose (a contract etc.).

draw-back (draw-bak) n. a disadvantage; the drawback to the plan was its disadvantageous aspect.

draw-bridge (draw-brij) n. a bridge over a moat, hinged at one end so that it can be drawn up.

draw-er (draw-er for definition 1; draw for definition 2) n. 1. a person who draws something, one who draws (writes out) a check. 2. a boxlike compartment without a lid, which can be slid horizontally in and out of a piece of furniture.

draw-ers (drawrz) n. pl. underpants.

draw-ing (draw-ing) n. a picture etc. drawn but not colored. □ drawing board, a flat board on which paper is stretched while a drawing is made; back to the drawing board, we must begin planning all over again. drawing card, an entertainer or athlete or show etc. attracting a large audience. drawing room, a room for receiving guests in, a sitting room.

drawl (drawl) v. to speak lazily or with drawn-out vowel sounds. drawl n. a drawling manner of speaking.

drawn (drawn) see draw. drawn adj. (of a person's features) looking strained from tiredness or worry. □ drawn butter, butter melted and clarified, often with herbs.

draw-string (draw-string) n. a string that can be pulled to tighten an opening.

dray (dray) n. a strong low flat cart for heavy loads. dray-man (dray-män) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mén).

dray-age (dray-ij) n. 1. hauling by dray, trucking. 2. the charge for this.

dread (dred) n. great fear. dread v. to fear greatly. dread adj. (old use) dreaded, awe-inspiring.

dread-ful (dred-ful) adj. 1. causing dread. 2. troublesome, boring, very bad, dreadful weather. dreadful-ly adv.

dread-nought (dred-nawt) n. a heavily armed battleship.

dream (drem) n. 1. a series of pictures or events in a sleeping person's mind. 2. the state of mind of one dreaming or daydreaming, goes around in a dream. 3. an ambition, an ideal. 4. a beautiful person or thing. dream v. (dreamed or dreamt, pr. drednt, dream-ing) 1. to have a dream or dreams while sleeping. 2. to have an ambition, dreamed of being champion. 3. to think of as a possibility, never dreamed it would happen; wouldn't dream of allowing it. will certainly not allow it. dream'er n. dream'less adj. dream'like adj. □ dream up, to imagine, to invent.

dream-land (drem-land) n. 1. an ideal or imaginary land. 2. sleep.

dream-world (drem-wurd) n. a world of fantasy.

dream-y (dree-mee) adj. (dream-l·er, dream-l·est) 1. daydreaming. 2. (informal) wonderful. dream'ly adv.
dream'liness n.

drear (derre) adj. (old use) dreary.

dreer·y (derre-ee) adj. (drear·er, drear·est) dull, boring, (of places, etc.) gloomy. drear'ily adv. drear'iness n.

dredge1 (drez) n. an apparatus for scooping earth etc. from the bottom of a body of water. dredge v. (dregged, dredging) to bring up or clean out with a dredge. dredger (drez-er) n. a dredge, a boat equipped with a dredge.

dredge2 v. (dregged, dredging) to sprinkle with flour or sugar etc. dredger (drez-er) n. a container with a perforated lid, used for sprinkling things.

dregs (dregz) n. pl. 1. bits of worthless matter that sink to the bottom of a liquid. 2. the worst and useless part, the dregs of society.

drench (drench) v. to make thoroughly wet.

Dres·den (drez-den) china fine china made at Meißen, near Dresden, in Germany.

dress (dres) n. 1. clothing, especially the visible part of it. 2. a woman's or girl's garment with a waist and skirt. dress v. 1. to put clothes upon, to put on one's clothes, to provide clothes for; she dresses well, chooses and wears good clothes. 2. to put on evening dress, they dress for dinner. 3. to decorate; dress a shop window. arrange goods in it. 4. to put a dressing on (a wound etc.). 5. to groom and arrange (hair). 6. to finish or treat the surface of, to dress leather. 7. to prepare (poultry, crab, etc.) for cooking or eating. 8. to arrange (soldiers) into a straight line. dress adj. requiring formal dress, suitable for a formal occasion. □ dress circle, the section of a concert hall or theater, usually the mezzanine, where evening dress was formerly required. dress down, to reprimand severely. dress rehearsal, a rehearsal in full costume. dress shirt, a shirt suitable for wearing with evening dress. dress up, to put on special clothes; to make (a thing) look more interesting.

dres·sage (dres-iij) n. the exhibition of a horse to show its obedience and deportment.

dress·er1 (dres·ər) n. one who dresses a person or thing.
dress·er2 n. a chest of drawers with a mirror.
dress·ing (dres·ing) n. 1. a sauce or stuffing for food. 2. manure etc. spread over the land. 3. a bandage, ointment, etc. for a wound. □ dressing gown, a loose gown worn when one is not fully dressed. dressing room, a room for dressing or changing one's clothes. dressing table, a table with a mirror, for use while dressing.
dress·ing-down (dres·ing-down) n. a scolding.
dress·mak·er (dress·mak·er) n. a woman who makes women's clothes.
dress·mak·ing (dres·mak·ing) n. making women's clothes.
dress·y (dres·ee) adj. (dress·i·er, dress·i·est) 1. wearing stylish clothes. 2. (of clothes) elegant, elaborate.
drew (droo) see draw.
drib·ble (drib·bul) v. (drib·bled, drib·bled) 1. to allow saliva to flow from the mouth. 2. to flow or allow to flow in drops. 3. to move the ball forward in basketball with rapid continuous bounces. dribble n. a dribbling flow.
drib·bler n.
drib·let (drib·let) n. a small amount; in driblets, a little at a time.
drubs and drabs (dribz an' drabz) small amounts.
dried (drid) see dry. dried adj. (of foods) preserved by drying, dried apricots.
dri·er (dri·er) n. 1. a substance added to paint etc. to make it dry quickly. 2. a dryer.
drift (drif) v. 1. to be carried by or as if by a current of water or air. 2. to move casually or aimlessly. 3. to be piled into drifts by wind, the snow had drifted. 4. to cause to drift. drift n. 1. a drifting movement. 2. a mass of snow or sand piled up by wind. 3. deviation from a set course. 4. the general tendency or meaning of a speech etc., we couldn't get her drift.
drift·age (drif·tij) n. drifting or the results of drifting, deviation from course.
drift·er (drif·ter) n. an aimless person.
drift·wood (drif·twood) n. wood floating on the sea or washed ashore by it.
drill1 (dril) n. 1. a pointed tool or a machine used for boring holes or sinking wells. 2. training in military exercises. 3. thorough training by practical exercises, usually with much repetition. 4. a single exercise designed to train, a fire drill. drill v. 1. to use a drill, to make (a hole) with a drill. 2. to train or be trained by means of drill. □ drill instructor, a member of the U.S. Marine Corps who drills recruits. drill press, a drilling machine used primarily on metals.

drill2 n. 1. a furrow. 2. a machine for making or sowing seed in furrows. 3. a row of seeds sown in this way. drill v. to plant in drills.
drill3 n. strong twilled linen or cotton cloth.
drill·mas·ter (dri·lmas·ter) n. a teacher who uses repetitious exercises to train his students.
drill·ly (dri·lee) adv. in a dry way.
drink (drink) v. (drank, drunk, drink·ing) 1. to swallow (liquid), we have drunk milk all our lives. 2. (of plants, the soil, etc.) to take in or absorb liquid. 3. to take alcoholic liquors, especially in excess; drank himself to death, caused his death by drinking. 4. to pledge good wishes to by drinking, drank his health.
drink n. 1. liquid for drinking. 2. alcoholic liquors. 3. a portion of liquid for drinking. 4. (slang) the sea. drunk·er n. drink·a·ble adj. □ drink in, to listen to with delight or eagerness. Do not confuse drank (past) with drunk (past participle).
drip (drip) v. (dipped, dripped, drip·ping) to fall or let fall in drops. drip n. 1. liquid falling in drops, one of these drops. 2. the sound of this. 3. (slang) a weak or dull person. □ drip grind, coffee that has been ground fine for use with a filter pot. drip·ping wet, very wet.
drip·dry (drip·dry) v. (drip-dried, drip·dry·ing) to dry easily when hung up wet, without wringing or ironing. drip·dry adj. made of fabric that will drip-dry.
drip·pings (drip·pings) n. pl. fat and juices that have dripped from roast meat. drive (driv) v. (drove, driv·en, driv·ing) 1. to urge or send in some direction by blows, threats, violence, etc. 2. to push, send, or carry along. 3. to strike and propel (a ball etc.) forcibly. 4. to force to penetrate, drove a stake into the ground; drove a tunnel through the hill; dug it. 5. to operate (a vehicle or locomotive) and direct its course. 6. to travel or convey in a private vehicle, we drive to work; he drove me to the station. 7. (of steam or other power) to keep (machinery) going. 8. to cause, to compel, was driven by hunger to steal; he drives himself too hard, overworks; drove him mad, forced him into this state. 9. to rush, to move or be moved rapidly, driving rain. drive n. 1. a journey in a vehicle. 2. a stroke made by driving in baseball, golf, etc. 3. the transmission of power to machinery, front-wheel drive; right-hand drive, having the steering wheel on the right of the vehicle. 4. energy, persistence, a psychological urge. 5. an organized effort to achieve something, a sales drive. 6. a road, especially a scenic one. 7. a driveway.  □ drive A hard bargain, to conclude one without making concessions. drive- at, to intend to convey as a meaning, what was he driving at? drive-in adj. (of a theater, bank, etc.) able to be used without getting out of one's car. drive shaft, a shaft that transmits motive power from the engine to the wheels of a motor vehicle. drive wheel, a wheel that transmits motive power in machinery.

driv•el (driv-el) n. silly talk, nonsense.

driv•el v. (driv•eled, driv•el•ing) to talk or write drivel. driv•el•er n.

driv•er (driv•er) n. 1. a person who drives a vehicle. 2. a golf club used to send the ball a long distance, especially from the tee.

drive•way (driv•way) n. a private road leading to a house or garage.

driz•zle (driz•zle) n. very fine rain. drizzle v. (driz•zled, driz•zling) to rain in very fine drops. driz•zly adj.

droge (drogh) n. (also drogue chute) a funnel-shaped piece of fabric used as a windsock, brake, target, etc.

droll (drol•l) adj. amusing in an odd way. drol•ly adv.

drol•ler•y (drol•ler•y) n. quaint humor.

drom•e•dar•y (drom•e•der•y) n. (pl. -dar•ies) a light one-humped camel bred for riding.

drone (dron•e) n. 1. a male honeybee. 2. an idler. 3. a deep humming sound. 4. a remotely controlled airplane. drone v. (droned, dron•ing) 1. to make a deep humming sound. 2. to speak or utter monotonously.

drool (droll) v. 1. to water at the mouth, to dribble. 2. to show gushing appreciation.

droop (droop) v. to bend or hang downward through tiredness or weakness. droop n. a drooping attitude. droop•y adj. (droop•y•er, droop•y•est).

drop (drop) n. 1. a small rounded or pear-shaped mass of liquid. 2. something shaped like this, such as a candy. 3. a very small quantity. 4. the act of dropping. 5. a fall, a drop in prices. 6. a steep or vertical descent, the distance of this, a drop of ten feet from the window. 7. the length of a hanging curtain. 8. a thing that drops or is dropped, a trapdoor withdrawn from under the feet of a person executed by hanging. 9. drops, liquid medicine to be measured by drops. drop v. (dropped, drop•ping) 1. to fall by force of gravity from not being held, to allow to fall. 2. to sink from exhaustion; feel ready to drop, very tired. 3. to form a steep or vertical descent, the cliff drops sharply to the sea. 4. to lower, to become lower or weaker, drop the hem; prices dropped; drop one's voice. 5. to allow oneself to move to a position farther back, dropped behind the others. 6. to utter or send casually, drop a hint; drop me a note. 7. to omit, to fail to pronounce or insert, drop one's h's. 8. to set down (a passenger or parcel etc.). 9. to fall with an ax, blow, or bullet. 10. to give up, to reject, to cease to associate with, dropped the habit; has dropped his friends; drop the subject, cease talking about it. 11. to lose money in gambling etc. drop•per n. □ drop back, to fall behind, go to the rear. drop behind, to fail to keep pace (with). drop by or drop in, to pay a casual visit. drop off, to fall asleep, to decline. drop out, to cease to participate.

drop•kick (drop•kick) n. a kick made by dropping a football to the ground and kicking it as it rebounds.

drop•let (drop•lit) n. a small drop.

drop•out (drop•owt) n. a person who drops out from a course of study or from conventional society.

drop•per (drop•per) n. a device for administering liquid in drops, eye dropper, medicine dropper.

drop•plngs (drop•plngs) n. pl. the dung of animals.

drop•sy (drop•see) n. a disease in which watery fluid collects in the body. drop'•si•cal adj.

dross (draws) n. 1. scum on molten metal. 2. impurities, rubbish.

drought (drowt), drouth (drowth) n. continuous dry weather.  □ Careful writers and speakers do not use drouth.

drove (drov•h) v. see drive. drove n. 1. a moving herd or flock. 2. a large crowd, droves of people.

drov•er (drov•er) n. a person who herds cattle or sheep to market or pasture.

drown (drown) v. (drowned, drown•ing) 1. to kill or be killed by suffocating in water or other liquid. 2. to flood, to drench. 3. to drown (grief etc.) with drink, drown one's sorrows. 4. to overpower (a sound) with greater loudness, the music drowned out the speech.  □ Drowned is incorrect.

drowse (drowz) v. (drowsed, drows•ing) to be half asleep. drowse n. this state.

drow•sy (drow•zee) adj. (-si•er, -si•est) est) half asleep. drōw′si-ly adv. drōw′si-ness n. drub (drub) v. (drubbed, drub·bing) 1. to thrash. 2. to defeat thoroughly. drub·bing (drub·ing) n. a beating, a severe defeat.
drudge (druj) n. a person who does dull or laborious or menial work. drudge v. (drugged, drudging) to do such work.
drug (drug) n. 1. a substance used in medicine. 2. a substance that acts on the nervous system, such as a narcotic or stimulant, especially one causing addiction. v. (drugged, drug·ging) 1. to add a drug to (food or drink). 2. to give drugs to, to stupefy. □ drug on the market, something that is plentiful but not in demand.
drug·gist (drug·ist) n. a dispenser of prescription drugs etc. in a drugstore.
drug·store (drug·stor) n. a store that sells prescription drugs and usually a variety of merchandise.
Drü·id (dru·id) n. a priest or member of an ancient Celtic religion. Drü·id·ism n.
drum (drum) n. 1. a percussion instrument consisting of a parchment or skin stretched tightly across a round frame. 2. the sound of this being struck, a similar sound. 3. a cylindrical structure or object or container. 4. the eardrum.
v. (drummed, drum·ming) 1. to play a drum or drums. 2. to make a drumming sound, to tap or thump continuously or rhythmically. 3. to drive (facts etc.) into a person's mind by constant repetition. □ drum brake, one in which curved pads on a vehicle press against the inner cylindrical part of a wheel. drum major, the leader of a marching band. drum major·ette, a female drum major. drum out, to dismiss in disgrace. drum up, to obtain through vigorous effort, drum up support.
drum·beat (drum·beat) n. the sound of a drum.
drum·head (drum·hed) n. the stretched parchment or skin of a drum.
drum·lin (drum·lin) n. a long oval mound formed of glacial drift.
drum·mer (drum·mer) n. 1. a person who plays a drum or drums. 2. (old use) a traveling salesman.
drum·stick (drum·stik) n. 1. a stick for beating a drum. 2. the lower part of a cooked fowl's leg.
drunk (drungk) v. see drink. drunk adj. excited or stupefied with alcoholic drink; drunk with success, made greatly excited by it. drunk n. 1. a drunken person. 2. (slang) a bout of drinking, he went on a drunk. □ See the note under drunken.
drun·ked·ard (drung·kard) n. a person who is often drunk.
drun·ken·en (drung·ken·en) adj. 1. intoxicated, frequently in this condition. 2. happening during or because of drunkenness, a drunken brawl. drunk·en·ly adv. drunk·en·ness n. □ Drunken is used before a noun (as in a drunken man), whereas drunk is usually used after a verb, (as in he is drunk, she feels drunk).
drupe (droop) n. a fruit with juicy flesh around a stone with a kernel, as a peach.
dry (dri) adj. (dri·er, dri·est) 1. without water or moisture; a dry country, with little rainfall; dry land, not under water; dry shampoo, for use without water; a dry cough, without phlegm; dry wall, built without mortar or cement; the cows are dry, not producing milk. 2. eaten without butter etc., dry bread. 3. thirsty. 4. (of wine) not sweet. 5. uninteresting, a dry book. 6. expressed with pretended seriousness, dry humor. 7. not allowing the sale of liquor, a dry county. v. (dried, dry·ing) 1. to make or become dry. 2. to preserve (food) by removing its moisture. dry n. a person who opposes the sale and use of alcoholic beverages.
dri·fly, dry·ly adv. dry·ness n. □ dry cell, a cell in which the electrolyte is absorbed in a solid and cannot be spoiled.
dry dock, a dock that can be emptied of water, used for repairing ships. dry goods, clothing, textiles, and related articles of trade. dry ice, solid carbon dioxide, used as a refrigerant. dry measure, a measure of capacity for grain and other dry things. dry rot, decay of wood that is not well ventilated; the fungi that cause this; any moral or social decay. dry run, (informal) a practice exercise. dry up, to become depleted, the money dried up; (informal) to cease talking.
dry·ad (dri·ad) n. a wood nymph.
dry·clean (dri·kleen) v. to clean (clothes etc.) by a solvent that evaporates very quickly, not by water.
dry·er (dri·er) n. any of various devices to dry laundry, hair, etc.
dry·fly (dri·fly) adj. (in fishing) using an artificial fly that floats. dry·wall (dri·wawl) n. plasterboard, construction using plasterboard in place of plaster.
DSC abbr. 1. Distinguished Service Cross. 2. Doctor of Surgical Chiroprapy.
DSM abbr. Distinguished Service Medal.
DSO abbr. Distinguished Service Order.
DST abbr. 1. daylight-saving time. 2. Doctor of Sacred Theology.
D.T.'s, d.t.'s abbr. delirium tremens.
Du. abbr. Dutch.
du-al (doo-al) adj. composed of two parts, double. du-al-ism n. du-al-i-ty (doo-al-i-tee) n. □ dual control, two linked sets of controls, enabling either of two persons to operate an aircraft or automobile. □ Do not confuse dual with duel.

du-al-pur-pose (doo-al-pur-pös) adj. suitable for two purposes.

du*b (dub) v. (dubbed, dub*bing) 1. to make (a person) a knight by touching him on the shoulder with a sword. 2. to give a nickname to.

dub* v. (dubbed, dub*bing) to replace or add to the soundtrack of (a film), especially in a different language.

du*bin (dub-in) n. thick grease for softening and waterproofing leather.

du*bl-e-ty (doo-br-e-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. a feeling of doubt. 2. a doubtful matter.

Dub*lin (dub-lin) the capital of the Republic of Ireland.

du-cal (doo-kal) adj. of or like a duke.

duc-at (duk-at) n. 1. a gold coin formerly used in most European countries. 2. (slang) a ticket to an entertainment, sports event, etc.

duch-ess (duch-is) n. 1. a duke’s wife or widow. 2. a woman whose rank is equal to that of a duke.

duch-y (duch-e) n. (pl. duch-les) the territory of a duke or duchess.

duck¹ (duk) n. 1. a swimming bird of various kinds. 2. the female of this. 3. its flesh as food. 4. a ducking movement.

duck v. 1. to dip the head under water and emerge, to push (a person) under water. 2. to bob down, especially to avoid being seen or hit. 3. to dodge, to avoid (a task etc.).

duck² n. 1. strong linen or cotton cloth. 2. ducks, trousers made of this.

duck*bill (duk-bil) n. a platypus.

duck*boards (duk-bohrdz) n. pl. boards forming a narrow path across a trench or over mud.

duck*ling (duk-ling) n. a young duck.

duck*pin (duk-pin) n. 1. a short squat bowling pin. 2. duckpins, a bowling game using duckpins.

duck*weed (duk-weed) n. a plant that forms on the surface of ponds etc.

duck*y (duck-e) adj. (duck-i-er, duck-i-est) (informal) excellent.

duct (dkut) n. 1. a tube or channel for conveying liquid, gas, air, cable, etc. 2. a tube in the body through which fluid passes, tear ducts. duct v. to convey through a duct. duct*less adj. □ duct*less gland, a gland that pours its secretion directly into the blood, not through a duct.

duc*tile (duk-til) adj. (of metal) able to be drawn out into fine strands.

dud (dud) n. (informal) something that is useless or counterfeited or that fails to work.

dude (dood) n. 1. a dandy. 2. (slang) a tough, a man. □ dude ranch, a ranch used as a vacation resort.

dug*eon (duj-ôn) n. resentment, indignation, in high dudgeon.

duds (duzd) n. pl. (slang) clothes.

due (doo, dyoo) adj. 1. owed as a debt or obligation. 2. payable immediately, it has become due. 3. that ought to be given to a person, rightful, adequate, with due respect. 4. scheduled to do something or to arrive, he is due to speak tonight; the train is due at 7:30. 5. caused by. □ See the note below.) due adv. exactly, sailed due east. due n. 1. a person’s right, what is owed to him; give the Devil his due, give a disliked person credit for one of his good qualities or actions. 2. dues, n. pl. a fee, club dues; what one owes, pay one’s dues. □ due process of law, the fair application of law in U.S. courts so that no person’s rights are denied. In due course, in the proper order, at the appropriate time. □ The phrase due to is often wrongly used. Careful writers use because of, not due to, in such expressions as play was delayed due to rain. Due to should be used after a linking verb, as in the delay was due to rain; her success was due to hard work, not she succeeded due to hard work.

du-el (doo-èl) n. 1. a fight with weapons between two persons. 2. a contest between two persons or sides. duel v. (du-eled, du-el-ing) to fight a duel. du-el*ist n. □ Do not confuse duel with dual.

du-en-de (doo-en-day) n. 1. an evil spirit. 2. inspiration. □ Spanish.

du-en-na (doo-en-à) n. an older woman acting as chaperon, especially in Spanish families.

du-et (doo-et) n. a musical composition for two performers.

duf*fel (duf-èl) n. a heavy woolen cloth with a thick nap. □ duffel bag, a cylindrical canvas bag closed by a drawstring. duffel coat, a hooded overcoat made of duffel, fastened with toggles.

duf*fer (duf-èr) n. an inefficient or incompetent person, especially a poor golfer.

dug¹ (dug) see dig.

dug² n. an udder, a teat.

dug*out (dug-owt) n. 1. an underground shelter. 2. (also dugout canoe) a canoe made by hollowing a tree trunk.

duke (dook, dyook) n. 1. a nobleman of the highest rank. 2. the male ruler of a duchy or of certain small states.
dukedom

dull (dull) adj. 1. not bright or clear. 2. slow in understanding, stupid. 3. not sharp, (of pain) not felt sharply, (of sound) not resonant. dull v. to make or become dull. dull'ly adv. dull'ness n. dull'ard (dum-bel) n. a mentally dull person.
dumo- (doo-lee, doo-oo-) adv. in a correct or suitable way.
dump (dum) n. (pl. -mes) 1. a sham article. 2. a model of the human figure, used to display clothes. 3. a ventriloquist's doll. 4. (in card games) a player whose cards are placed upward on the table and played by his partner. dummy adj. sham. □dummy up, (slang) to refuse to talk.
dump (dum) v. 1. to deposit as rubbish. 2. to put down carelessly. 3. to get rid of (something unwanted). 4. to market goods (especially abroad) at a lower price than is normally charged in order to secure a commercial advantage. dump n. 1. a rubbish heap, a place where rubbish may be deposited. 2. a temporary store, an ammunition dump. 3. (informal) a dull or unattractive place. □dump truck, a truck whose body can be tilted to tip out its contents.
dumping (dum-ping) n. a ball of dough cooked with meat etc. or prepared with fruit inside it.
dumps (dumps) n. pl. (informal) low spirits, in the dumps.
dumpster (dum-stër) n. a very large trash container.
dump-y (dum-pee) adj. (dump'-er, dump'-est) short and fat. dump'iness n.
dun (dun) adj. & n. grayish brown.
dun' (dun) v. (dunned, dun'ning) to ask persistently for payment of a debt.
dunce (duns) n. a person who is slow at learning.
dun-der-head (dun-dar-hed) n. a dunce.
dune (doon) n. a sand dune (see sand).
□dune buggy, a beach buggy (see beach).
dung (dung) n. animal excrement.
dun-ga-ree (dung-ga-ree) n. 1. blue denim. 2. dungarees, blue denims.
dun-geon (dun-jen) n. a strong underground cell for prisoners.
dung-hill (dung-hil) n. a heap of dung or refuse in a barnyard.
dunk (dungk) v. to dip into liquid.
du•o (du-o) n. (pl. -os) a pair of performers.
du•o-dec•i•mal (du-o-des-i-mal) adj. based on 12, reckoning by twelves.
du•o-de-num (du-o-de-num) n. the first part of the small intestine, immediately below the stomach. du•o-de'nal adj.
dup. abbr. 1. duplex. 2. duplicate.
dupe (duop) n. a person who is deceived or tricked. dupe v. (duped, duping) to deceive, to trick.
du•plex (duo-pleks) adj. 1. having two parts. 2. (of an apartment) on two floors. duplex n. a duplex apartment.
du•pli•cate (duo-pli-kit) n. 1. one of two or more things that are exactly alike. 2. an exact copy. duplicate adj. exactly like another thing, being a duplicate. du•plic•ate (duo-pli-kit) v. (duo-pli-cat•ed, duo-pli-cat•ing) 1. to make or be an exact copy of something. 2. to repeat or do something twice. du•plic•a•tion (duo-pli-kay-shen) n. □duplicate bridge, a bridge game in which identical hands are dealt at two or more tables at the same time. In duplicate, in two identical copies, prepare this in duplicate.
du•pli-ca•tor (duo-pli-kay-tor) n. a machine for copying documents.
du•pli-k•t•y (duo-pli-k•t•i•ty) n. (pl. -ties) double-dealing, deceitfulness.
du•ra•bi•le (door-ä-bel, dyoor-) adj. likely to last, not wearing out or decaying quickly. du'ra•bly adv. du•ra•bi•l•i•ty (door-ä-bil-i•ty, dyoor-) n. □durable goods, manufactured products that can be used over a long period of time.
durable press, (of a fabric) so processed that it has few wrinkles after being laundered or after prolonged use.
du•rance (door-äns, dyoor-) n. (old use) imprisonment, in durance vile.
duration / dynamics du·ra·tion (duu-ray-shən, dyuu-) n. the time during which a thing continues.

du·res·sion (duu-res-ən, dyuu-) n. the use of force or threats to procure something.

dur·ing (doo-rəng, dyoo-) prep. throughout or at a point in the continuance of.

dur·st (dūrst) see dare.

du·rum (door-əm) n. a species of wheat with hard seeds, used chiefly for pasta.

dusk (dusk) n. the darker stage of twilight.

dusk·y (dus-ki) adj. (dus·ki·er, dusk·i·est) 1. shadowy, dim. 2. dark colored.

dusk·y·ness n.

dust (dust) n. fine particles of earth or other matter. dust v. 1. to sprinkle with dust or powder. 2. to clear of dust by wiping, to clear furniture etc. of dust.

dust·bowl, an area stripped of vegetation by drought and erosion.

dust·cover, dust·jacket, a paper jacket on a book.

dust·devil, a small whirlwind made visible by dust it carries.

dust·storm, a severe dust-filled windstorm during a period of drought.

throw dust in (a person's) eyes, to prevent him from seeing the truth.

dust·er (dust·ər) n. 1. a cloth or brush for dusting furniture etc. 2. a smocklike garment, a housecoat. 3. (slang) a baseball pitch intentionally thrown close to a batter's head.

dust·pan (dust·pən) n. a pan into which dust is brushed from a floor.

dust·y (dust·i) adj. (dust·i·er, dust·i·est) 1. like dust, full of dust, covered with dust. 2. (of a color) grayish, dusty pink.

dust·y·ness n. dusty miller, a common plant with white dust on its leaves and flowers.

Dutch (dūch) adj. of the Netherlands or its people or language. Dutch n. 1. the Dutch language. 2. the Dutch, Dutch people.

Dutch·man n. Dutch·woman n. fem. Dutch courage, that obtained by drinking whiskey.

Dutch door, a door with upper and lower halves that can be opened independently.

Dutch elm disease, a disease of elm trees, caused by a fungus, first found in the Netherlands.

Dutch oven, a covered dish for cooking meat etc. slowly.

Dutch treat, an outing at which each person pays his own expenses.

Dutch uncle, (informal) a severe and candid critic. go Dutch, to share expenses on an outing.

In Dutch, (slang) in trouble. talk like a Dutch uncle, (informal) to lecture a person severely but candidly.

du·te·ous (doo-ti-əs) adj. (old use) dutiful, obedient.

du·ti·a·ble (doo-ti-a-bəl) adj. on which customs or other duties must be paid.

du·ti·ful (doo-ti-fəl) adj. doing one's duty, showing due obedience.

du·ti·ful·ly adv. du·ti·ful·ness n.

du·ty (doo-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. a moral or legal obligation. 2. a task that must be done, action required from a particular person, household duties; the duties of a postman. 3. a tax charged on certain goods or on imports. do duty as or for, to serve as (something else). In duty bound, obliged by duty. on or off duty, actually engaged or not engaged in one's regular work.

D.V.M. abbr. Doctor of Veterinary Medicine.

dwarf (dwaرف) n. (pl. dwarfs, dwarves, pr. dwarvz) a person, animal, or plant much below the usual size. dwarf adj. of a kind that is very small in size.

dwarf v. 1. to stunt. 2. to make seem small by contrast or distance.

dwarf·ish adj.

dwell (dwel) v. (dwell or dwelled, dwel· ling) 1. to live as an inhabitant. 2. to think or speak or write lengthily about, dwell on a subject.

dwell·er n.

dwell·ling (dwel·ling) n. a house etc. to live in.

dwin·dle (dwin-dəl) v. (dwin·dled, dwin·dling) to become gradually less or smaller.

dwt. abbr. pennyweight(s).

DX (dee-eks) n. (slang) distance, especially in shortwave radio reception.

DXer, (slang) a long-distance radio hobbyist.

DXing, (slang) the hobby of long-distance radio transmission and reception.

Dy symbol dysprosium.

dyb·buk (dib-ũk) n. (pl. dyb·bux, dyb·bū·kim, pr. di-buuk-im) (in Jewish folklore) the evil spirit of a dead person that enters and controls a living person's body.

dye (dí) v. (dyed, dye·ing) 1. to color, especially by dipping in a liquid. 2. to be able to be dyed, this fabric dyes well.

dye n. 1. a substance used for dyeing.

2. a color given by dyeing. dye·er n.

dy·ed·in-the-wool, unchangeable, a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat, one who never will vote for any other party.

dye·stuff (dī-stuf) n. material used as or producing a dye.

dye·ing (dī-ing) see die'.

dyke = dike.

dy·nam·ic (dī-nam·ik) adj. 1. of force producing motion (as opposed to static). 2. (of a person) energetic, having force of character.

dy·nam·i·cal·ly adv.

dy·nam·ics (dī-nam·iks) n. 1. (sing.) a branch of physics that deals with matter in motion. 2. (pl.) the forces operating in any complex matter, the dynamics of political matters.

dy-na-mite (dī-nā-mit) n. 1. a powerful explosive made of nitroglycerine. 2. something likely to cause violent or dangerous reactions, the frontier question is dynamite. 3. (informal) great vitality or effectiveness. dynamite v. (dy-na-mit-ed, dy-na-mit-ing) to blow up with dynamite.

dy-na-mo (dī-nā-moh) n. (pl. -mos) a small compact generator producing electric current. human dynamo, a dynamic person.

dy-na-mom-eter (dī-nā-mom-ē-tēr) n. an instrument for measuring energy expended by some force.

dy-nas-ty (dī-nā-ste) n. (pl. -ties) a line of hereditary rulers. dy-nas-tic (dī-nas-tik) adj.

dys-en-ter-y (dis-ēn-ter-ee) n. a disease with inflammation of the intestines, causing severe diarrhea.

dys-func-tion (dis-fungk-shōn) n. failure to function normally.

dys-lex-i-a (dis-lek-si-ā) n. abnormal difficulty in reading and spelling, caused by a brain condition. dys-lex’ic adj. & n. Dyslexic is incorrect.

dys-pek-si-a (dis-pep-si-ā) n. indigestion.

dys-pek-tic (dis-pep-tik) adj. suffering from dyspepsia or the resultant irritability.

dys-pro-si-um (dis-proh-zī-ūm) n. a highly magnetic chemical element.

dys-tro-phy (dis-trō-fee) n. a condition causing progressive weakening of the muscles, muscular dystrophy.

dz. abbr. dozen(s).
ear\(^2\) n. the seed-bearing part of corn.

ear\(\cdot\)ache (ee-ak) n. pain in the eardrum.

ear\(\cdot\)drum (ee-drum) n. a membrane inside the ear that vibrates when sound waves strike it.

ear\(\cdot\)flaps (ee-flaps) n. pl. parts of a cap that can be turned down to cover the ears.

ear\(\cdot\)ful (ee-fuul) n. (pl. -fuls) (informal) 1. a large amount of talk. 2. a strong reprimand.

earl (url) n. a British nobleman ranking between marquis and viscount.

ear\(\cdot\)laps (ee-laps) n. pl. earflaps.

earl\(\cdot\)dom (url-dom) n. the position or lands of an earl.

ear\(\cdot\)lobe (ee-lob) n. the lower fleshy part of the ear.

ear\(\cdot\)ly (ur-lee) adj. & adv. (ear\(\cdot\)ll\(\cdot\)er, ear\(\cdot\)ll\(\cdot\)est) 1. before the usual or expected time. 2. not far on in a period of time or a development or a series, his early years. ear\(\cdot\)ll\(\cdot\)ness n. ear\(\cdot\)ly bird, a person who gets up early or arrives early.

ear\(\cdot\)ly on, at an early stage.

ear\(\cdot\)mark (ee-marhrk) n. a distinguishing mark. earmark v. 1. to put a distinguishing mark on. 2. to set aside for a particular purpose.

ear\(\cdot\)muffs (ee-muffs) n. pl. a pair of ear coverings worn for protection against the cold.

earn (urn) v. 1. to get or deserve as a reward for one’s work or merit. 2. (of money lent or invested) to gain as interest. earned income, income derived from paid employment. earned run, (in baseball) a run scored without help from the opposing team.

ear\(\cdot\)nest\(^1\) (ur-nist) adj. showing serious feeling or intentions. ear\(\cdot\)nest\(\cdot\)ly adv.

ear\(\cdot\)nest\(\cdot\)ness n. in earnest, seriously, not jokingly; with determination, intensively.

earn\(\cdot\)est\(^2\) n. 1. (also earnest money) a payment from a buyer to a seller to confirm an agreement. 2. something given as a pledge.

earn\(\cdot\)ings (ur-ningz) n. pl. money earned.
earphone / easy

earth (eart) n. 1. Earth, the planet on which we live. 2. its surface, dry land, the ground, it falls to earth. 3. soil. 4. an oxide with little taste or smell. □ earth science, any of the sciences that study the history, composition, or processes of the earth. on earth, in existence, in this world (as distinct from a future life); why on earth, why ever? look or feel like nothing on earth, feel very unwell. run a thing to earth, to find it after a long search. earth-bound (eart-bownd) adj. attached to the earth, moving toward Earth. earth-en (eart-ën) adj. 1. made of earth. 2. made of baked clay. earth-ware (eart-wàr) n. pottery made of coarse baked clay. earth-ling (eart-ling) n. an inhabitant of Earth. earth-ly (eart-lee) adj. (!-lër, -lëst) of the living world, of man’s life in it. earthliness n. □ no earthly use, (informal) no use at all. □ Use earthly when describing the human condition, as in our earthly existence prepares for heaven. Use earthy when likening something to soil or describing something that is coarse, as in his earthy language shocked all of them. earthquake (eart-kwayk) n. a violent natural movement of a part of Earth’s crust. earth-shaking (eart-shay-king) adj. having a violent effect on established arrangements, beliefs, etc. earthward (eart-wàrd) adj. headed toward the earth. earthward, earthwards (eart-wàrdz) adv. toward the earth. earthwork (eart-work) n. an artificial bank of earth. earthworm (eart-worm) n. a long worm that burrows in the soil. earthly (er-the) adj. (earth·l·er, earth·l·est) 1. like earth or soil. 2. gross, coarse, earthy humor. □ See the note under earthy. earwax (eart-waks) n. the waxy material found in the ear. earwig (eart-wig) n. a small insect with pincers at the end of its body (formerly thought to enter man’s head through the ear). ease (eaz) n. 1. freedom from pain or trouble or anxiety. 2. relief from pain. 3. absence of painful effort, did it with ease. ease v. (eased, eas·ing) 1. to relieve from pain or anxiety. 2. to make less tight or forceful or burdensome. 3. to move gently or gradually, ease it in. 4. to slacken, to reduce in severity or pressure etc., it will ease off or up. □ At ease, free from anxiety, in comfort; standing relaxed with feet apart; a military order to stand in this way. At one’s ease, relaxed, not feeling awkward or embarrassed. easel (eez·el) n. a wooden frame to support a painting or a blackboard etc.
easy manners, relaxed and pleasant; in easy circumstances, with enough money to live comfortably. easy adv. in an easy way, with ease. eas’t-ness n. eas’ly adv. □ easy chair, a large comfortable chair. easy does it, be careful; go slowly. easy on the eye, (informal) pleasant to look at. Easy Street, (informal) a state of affluence. go easy on, to be lenient with, go easy on him; to use with restraint, go easy on starches.

go easy with, to be careful with (a person). rest easy, do not worry. stand easy, stand at ease. take it easy, to proceed comfortably or carefully; to rest or relax.

easy-going (ee-ze-goh-ing) adj. not strict, placid and tolerant.
eat (eat) v. (ate, eat-en, eat-ing) 1. to take food into the mouth and swallow it for nourishment, to chew and swallow. 2. to have a meal, when do we eat? 3. to destroy gradually, to consume, acids eat into metals; the car ate up the miles, covered the distance rapidly. eats n. pl. (slang) food. eat’er n. □ eating apple, an apple suitable for eating raw, as opposed to one grown primarily for cooking. eat one’s heart out, to suffer greatly with vexation or longing. eat one’s words, to be obliged to withdraw what one has said. what’s eating you?, (slang) why are you annoyed?
eat-a-ble (ee-ta-bel) adj. fit to be eaten (because of its condition).
eat-a-bles (ee-ta-blez) n. pl. food. eat-er-y (ee-ta-rec) n. (pl. -er-ies) (slang) an inexpensive restaurant.
eau de Co-logne (oh de koh-lohn) a delicate toilet water originally made at Cologne, Germany. eaves (eevz) n. pl. the overhanging edge of a roof.
eaves-drop (eevz-drop) v. (eaves-dropped, eaves-drop-ping) to listen secretly to a private conversation.
eaves-drop-per n.
ebb (eb) n. 1. the outward movement of the tide, away from land. 2. a condition of lowness or decline. ebb v. 1. (of tides) to flow away from land. 2. to become lower, to weaken, his strength ebb'd.
eb-on-ite (eb-uhn-ite) n. see vulcanite.
eb-on-yl (eb-uhn-yl) n. (pl. -on-yls) the hard black wood of a tropical tree (the ebony tree). ebony adj. black as ebony.

e-bul-lent (ib-uhl-ent, -bul-) adj. exuberant, bubbling over with high spirits.
e-bul-lence n. eb-uhl-li- tion (eb-uhl-lish-uhn) n.

ec•cen•tric (ik-sen-trik) adj. 1. unconventional in appearance or behavior. 2. (of circles) not concentric, (of orbits) not circular, (of a pivot) not placed centrally.
eccentric n. an eccentric person. ec•cen•tri•cal•ly adv. ec•cen•tri•cally adj. (ek-sen-tris-i-tee) n.

Ec•cle•si•as•tes (i-kl-kw-zi-as-teez) n. a book of the Old Testament traditionally ascribed to Solomon and written in his name.

ec•cle•si•as•tical (i-kw-zi-as-tik) n. a clergyman.

ec•cle•si•as•ti•cal (i-kw-zi-as-tik) adj. of the church or the clergy. ec•cle•si•as•ti•cal•ly adv.

ECG abbr. electrocardiogram.

ech•e•lon (e-kwel-uhn) n. 1. a staggered formation of troops or aircraft etc. 2. a level of rank or authority, the upper echelons of government.

ech•o (ek-oh) n. (pl. -oes) 1. repetition of sound by the reflection of sound waves, a secondary sound produced in this way. 2. a close imitation or imitator. echo v. (ech-oed, echo-ing) 1. to repeat (sound) by echo, to resound. 2. to repeat or imitate.

ech•o•lo•ca•tion (ek-oh-loh-kay-shuhn) n. the location of objects by reflected sound.

é•clair (ay-kleer) n. a finger-shaped pastry with cream filling.

e•clat (ay-klah) n. 1. conspicuous success. 2. general applause, acclaim. 3. elaborate display.

ec•lec•tic (iklek-tik) adj. choosing or accepting from various sources. eclectic n. a person who borrows freely from various sources in forming opinion, taste, etc.

ec•lec•tic•ism n.

e•clip•se (iklip-z) n. 1. the blocking of light from one heavenly body by another. 2. a loss of brilliance or power or reputation. eclipse v. (e•clip•sed, e•clip•sing) 1. to cause an eclipse of. 2. to outshine, to throw into obscurity.

e•clip•tic (iklip-tik) n. the sun’s apparent path among stars during the year.

ec•logue (ek-lawg) n. a short pastoral poem, especially one in dialogue form.

ec•co•lide (ee-koh-lee, ek-uh-) n. the destruction of the human environment, especially through contamination by man-made waste.

ecol. abbr. 1. ecological. 2. ecology.

e•col•o•gy (ik-koh-lee) n. 1. the scientific study of living things in relation to each other and to their environment. 2. this relationship. (Note that ecology does not mean environment.) ec•o•logy (ee-kō-loj-ik, ek-ō-) adj. ec·o·lo·g'ı·cal adj. ec·o·lo·g'ı·cal·ly adv.

econ. abbr. 1. economic. 2. economics. 3. economy.

e·con·o·met·rics (ee-kön-ō-met·riks) n. the branch of economics concerned with the application of mathematical economics by use of statistics.

e·con·o·met·ric·ic (ee·kon·o·met·rik·ən) n.

e·con·o·nom·ic (ee-kō-nom·ik, ek-ō-) adj. 1. of economics, the government's economic policies. 2. of one's own finances, concerned with her economic well-being.

> Do not confuse economic with economical, she was an expert in economic geography.

> Do not confuse economic with economical, she was an economist.

E·cor·vo·mize (e*Con*vo*miz) v. (e·Cor·vo*miz·ing) to make economically feasible, to use or spend less than before, economize on fuel.

E·cor·vo·mized, e·con·o·miz·ing

E·con·o·my (i-kon·o·mi) n. 1. (sing.) the science concerned with the production and consumption or use of goods and services. 2. (pl.) the financial aspects of something, the economics of farming.

E·con·o·mist (i-kon·o·mist) n. an expert in economics.

E·con·o·mize (i-kon·o·miz) v. (e·con·o·mized, e·con·o·miz·ing) to economize, to use or spend less than before, economize on fuel.

E·con·o·my (i-kon·o·mi) n. 1. being economical, practice economy. 2. an instance of this, a saving, make economies. 3. a community's system of using its resources to produce wealth; an agricultural economy, one in which agriculture is the chief industry. 4. the state of a country's prosperity, its economy lagged. economy adj. economical; the large economy size, so large as to be economically advantageous to the customer.

E·co·sys·tem (ee-koh-sis-tem, ek-oh-) n. all the organisms living in a place (small or large) as an interdependent and separate unit.

Ec·ru (ek-roo) n. light fawn color.

Ec·sta·sy (ek-sta-see) n. (pl. -sies) a feeling of intense delight. ec·sta·tic (ek-sta·tik) adj. ec·sta·tic·al·ly adv.

c·to·plasm (ek-tō-plaz·əm) n. a substance supposed to be exuded from a spiritualist medium during a trance.

Ecu: abbr. Ecuador.

Ec·ua·dor (ek-wā-dor) a country in South America. Ec·ua·dor·e·an, Ec·ua·dor·i·an adj. & n.

Ec·u·men·i·cal (ek-yoo·men·i·kal) adj. 1. of the whole Christian church, not only of separate sects. 2. seeking world-wide Christian unity, the ecumenical movement.

e·cu·men·i·cal·ly adv.

Ec·u·men·i·cal·ty (ek-yoo·men·i·cal·tē) n.

E·cz·e·ma (ek-sē-mə, eg-zē-) n. a skin disease causing scaly itching patches.

ED abbr. Department of Education.

ed. abbr. 1. edited. 2. edition. 3. editor. 4. education.

-ed 1 suffix used to form the past tenses and past participles of verbs, as in wanted, granted, snowed.

-ed 2 suffix used to form adjectives, as in moneyed, talented, wooded.

E·dam (ee-dām) n. a round Dutch cheese, usually with a red rind.

ed·dy (ed-ee) n. (pl. -dies) a swirling patch of water or air or fog etc. eddy v. (ed·died, ed·dy·ing) to swirl in eddies.

e·de·ma (ay-dē-lə) n. an alpine plant with white flowers and woolly leaves.

e·de·ma (i-dee-mə) n. the abnormal retention of fluid in body cavities or tissues.

E·den (ee-dēn) the place where Adam and Eve lived at their creation. Eden n. a delightful place.

e·dge (ej) n. 1. the sharpened side of a blade. 2. its sharpness, has lost its edge. 3. the line where two surfaces meet at an angle. 4. a rim, the narrow surface of a thin or flat object, the pages have gilt edges. 5. the outer limit or boundary of an area, the edge of the forest. edge v. (edged, edg·ing) 1. to supply with a border, to form the border of. 2. to move gradually, edging toward the door.

□ be on edge, to be tense and irritable.

have the edge on, (informal) to have an advantage over. set a person's teeth on edge, to upset his nerves by causing an unpleasant sensation. take the edge off, to dull or soften; take the edge off one's appetite, to make one's hunger less acute.

e·edge·wise (ej-wiz), edge·ways (ej-ways) adv. with the edge forward or outward. □ get a word in edgewise, to manage to break into a lengthy monologue.

edg·ing (ej-ing) n. something placed around an edge to define or strengthen or decorate it.

edg·y (ej-ee) adj. (edg·i·er, edg·i·est) with nerves on edge, irritable.

ed·i·ble (ed-i-bəl) adj. fit or safe to be eaten (because of its nature). ed·i·bil·i·ty (ed-i-bil-i-tē) n.

e·dict (ee-dikt) n. an order proclaimed by an authority.

ed·i·fic (ed-i-fis) n. a large building.

ed·i·fy (ed-i-fi) v. (ed·i·fi·ed, ed·i·fy·

273 econ. / edify
ing) to be an uplifting influence on the mind of (a person). ed·i·fla·ca·tion (ed·i·fla·kay-shōn) n.

Ed·in·bur·gh (ed-in-bur-oh) the capital of Scotland.
ed·it (ed-it) v. 1. to act as editor of (a newspaper etc.). 2. to prepare (written material) for publication. 3. to prepare (a film or recording) by selecting individual sections and arranging them in sequence.
ed·i·tion (i-dish-ôn) n. 1. the form in which something is published, a pocket edition. 2. the number of copies of a book or newspaper printed from one set of type.
ed·i·tor (ed-i-tôr) n. 1. a person who is responsible for the content and writing of a newspaper etc. or a section of this, our financial editor. 2. one who edits written material for publication. 3. one who edits film or recording tape. ed·i·tor·ship n. ed·i·to·ri·al (ed-i-toh-ré-ál) adj. of an editor, editorial work. editorial n. a newspaper or magazine article giving the editor's comments on current affairs, a similar statement by a radio or television station. ed·i·to·ri·ally adv.
ed·i·to·ri·al·ly (ed-i-toh-ré-ál·ë) v. (ed-i-toh-ré-ál·ëd, ed·i·to·ri·al·iz·ed, ed·i·to·ri·al·iz·ing) 1. to write an editorial. 2. to express one's opinion when facts (and not opinions) are appropriate. ed·i·to·ri·ali·zer, ed·i·to·ri·ali·zer·n. ed·i·to·ri·ali·za·tion (ed-i-toh-ré-ál·ë-zay-shōn) n.

EDP abbr. electronic data processing.
educ. abbr. 1. education. 2. educational.
ed·u·ca·ble (ej-ū-kä-bël) adj. able to be educated.
ed·u·cate (ej-ū-kayt) v. (ed·u·cat·ed, ed·u·cat·ing) to train the mind and abilities of, to provide education for.
ed·u·ca·tor n.
ed·u·ca·tion (ej-ū-kay-shōn) n. systematic training and instruction designed to impart knowledge and develop skill. ed·u·ca·tion·al adj. □ educational television, television programming designed to promote learning.
educe (i-doos) v. (e·duc·ed, e·duc·ing) 1. to bring out or develop, to elicit (from a person). 2. to infer (from information).
Ed·ward·i·an (ed-wor-di-án) adj. of the time of King Edward VII's reign in Britain (1901–10). Edwardian n. a person of this time.

E.E. abbr. Electrical Engineer(ing).
EEC abbr. European Economic Community.
EEG abbr. electroencephalogram.
eel (eel) n. a snake-like fish.
e'er (air) adv. (old use) ever.
e·e·rie (eer-eé) adj. (ee·rë·er, ee·rë·est) causing a feeling of mystery and fear. ee·rë·ness n. ee·rë·ly adv.
e·fack (i-faks) v. (e·faced, e·fac·ting) to rub out, to obliterate. e·fac·to·ry adj. e·face·ment n. □ efface oneself, to make oneself inconspicuous.
e·fect (i-fekt) n. 1. a change produced by an action or cause, a result; have an effect, to produce such a change. 2. an impression produced on a spectator or hearer etc., special lighting gave the effect of moonlight; did it only for effect, in order to impress people. 3. a state of being operative, the law came into effect last week. 4. effects, property, her personal effects; sounds and lighting etc. provided to accompany a broadcast or film, special effects. effect v. to bring about, to accomplish, effect one's purpose; effect a cure; effect a settlement, reach an agreement. (The words effect and affect have totally different meanings and should not be confused.) □ in effect, in fact, really, it is, in effect, a refusal. take effect, to produce its effect(s); to become operative. to that effect, with that implication, words to that effect.
e·fect·tive (i-fekt-tiv) adj. 1. producing an effect, powerful in its effect. 2. making a striking impression. 3. actual, existing; the effective membership, the real (not nominal) number of members. 4. operative, the law is effective after April 1. ef·fect·tive·ly adv. ef·fect·tive·ness n.

▷ Careful writers note a subtle difference between effective and effectual. A law that is effective (operative) becomes effectual (answers its purpose) only when it is enforced.
e·fect·tu·al (i-fekt-choo-ál) adj. answering its purpose, sufficient to produce an effect. ef·fect·tu·al·ly adv. □ See the note under effective.
e·fect·tu·ate (i-fekt-choo-ät) v. (ef·fect·tu·at·ed, ef·fect·tu·at·ing) to cause to happen.
e·fem·i·nate (i-fem-i-nit) adj. unmanly, having qualities associated with women.
e·fem·i·nate·ly adv. ef·fem·i·nac·cy (i-fem-i-nä-see) n. (pl. -cies) □ Do not use effeminacy to describe women or girls.
e·fen·di (i-fen-di) n. 1. a person of education or standing in an eastern Mediterranean or Arab country. 2. a title of respect or courtesy formerly used in Turkey.
e·fer·ent (ef-ér-rënt) adj. (in physiology) conducting outward from an organ. ef·fer·ent n. an efferent duct or nerve.
e·fer·ves·ce (ef-ér-ves) v. (ef·fervesced, ef·fer·vescing) to give off small bubbles of gas. ef·fer·vescence n. ef·fer·ves·cent adj. ef·fer·vesc·cent·ly adv.
ef·ete (i-feet) adj. having lost its vitality. ef·ete·ness n.
ef·fla·ci·ous (ef-i-kay-shuhs) adj. producing the desired result. ef·fi·ca·cy (ef-i-kay-shuhs) n.
ef·fla·cient (i-fish·i·ent) adj. acting effectively, producing results with little waste of effort. ef·flu·ent adv. ef·fl'ent·ly n.
ef·fla·gy (ef-i-jee) n. (pl. -gies) a sculpture or model of a person.
ef·fla·res·ce (ef-lō·res·cid, ef·fla·res·cing) to burst out into flower.
ef·fla·res·cence n. ef·f'lo·res·cent adj.
ef·fla·ence (ef-loo-ëns) n. 1. the process of flowing out, especially of sewage. 2. an effluent.
ef·fla·ent (ef-loo·ënt) adj. flowing out. ef·fluent n. something that flows out, especially sewage.
ef·fla·vi·um (i·floo·vi·üm) n. an unpleasant or harmful gas.
ef·for·t (ef-ort) n. 1. the use of physical or mental energy to achieve something. 2. the energy exerted, it was quite an effort to give up smoking. 3. something produced by this, this painting is a good effort.
ef·for·tless (ef-ort·lis) adj. done without effort. ef·fort·less·ly adv.
ef·fron·ter·y (i·frun·ter·ee) n. (pl. -ter·es) shameless insolence.
ef·ful·gence (i·ful·jëns) n. radiance. ef·ful·gent adj.
ef·fu·sion (i·fyoo·zhan) n. 1. a pouring forth. 2. an unrestrained outpouring of thought or feeling.
ef·fu·sive (i·fyoo·siv) adj. expressing emotions in an unrestrained way. ef·fu·sive·ly adv. ef·fu·sive·ness n. eft (eft) n. a newt. E.F.T. abbr. electronic funds transfer.
Eq. abbr. 1. Egypt. 2. Egyptian.
e.g. abbr. for example. ▫ From the Latin exempli gratia.
E·gad (i·gad, ee·gad) interj. (old use) by God.
E·gal·i·tar·i·an (i·gal·i·tar·i·an) adj. holding the principle of equal rights for all persons. egalitarian n. a person who holds this principle. e·gal·i·tar·i·anism n.
egg (eg) n. 1. a reproductive cell produced by the female of birds, fish, reptiles, etc. 2. the hard-shelled egg of a domestic hen, used as food. ▫ bad egg, (informal) a worthless or dishonest person. egg cell, the female reproductive cell. egg cream, a carbonated chocolate drink, formerly made with egg and cream. egg cup, a small cup for holding a boiled egg. egg foo young, an omelet-like Chinese-American dish filled with a meat and vegetable mixture. egg roll, a Chinese or Chinese-American dish made of egg dough wrapped around minced vegetables or meat or seafood and fried. egg timer, a device for timing the cooking of a boiled egg. good egg, (informal) a friendly helpful person.
egg² v. to urge a person to do something, egging him on.
egg-beat·er (ee·beet·ér) n. 1. a hand-operated device for whipping eggs, cream, etc. 2. (slang) a helicopter.
egg·head (eg·hed) n. (informal) an intellectual person.
egg·nog (eg·nog) n. a drink of whipped eggs, milk or cream, sugar, and usually liquor.
egg·plant (eg·plant) n. 1. a plant with deep-purple fruit used as a vegetable. 2. its fruit.
egg·shell (eg·shell) n. the shell of an egg. eggshell adj. 1. (of china) very fragile. 2. yellowish white.
e·gis = aegis.
E·gla·tine (eg·län·tin) n. sweetbrier.
E·go (ee·goh, eg·oh) n. (pl. -gos) 1. the self. 2. self-esteem, conceit. 3. the part of the psyche that is concerned with the outside world. ▫ Ego ideal, the conscious idealization of oneself. ego trip, (informal) an activity undertaken with the sole purpose of indulging in one's own interests or in self-expression.
E·go·cen·tric (ee·go·sen·trik, eg·oh-) adj. self-centered.
E·go·ism (ee·go·iz·em, eg·oh-) n. self-centeredness. e·go·ist n. e·go·is·tic (ee·go·is·tik, eg·oh-) adj. e·go·is·tic·al·ly adv. e·go·is·tic·ly adv.
E·go·tism (ee·go·tiz·em, eg·dë-) n. the practice of talking too much about oneself, conceit. e·go·tist n. e·go·tis·tic (ee·go·tis·tik, eg·dë-) adj. e·go·tis·tic·al·ly adv. e·go·tis·tic·ly adv.
E·gre·gi·ous (i·gree·jüss) adj. outstandingly bad, egregious folly. e·gre·gious·ly adv. e·gre·gi·ous·ness n.
E·gress (ee·gres) n. an exit.
E·gret (ee·grit) n. a kind of heron with beautiful long tail feathers.
E·gy·pt (ee·jip·t) a country in northeast Africa. E·gypt·i·an (i·jip·shun) adj. & n.
E·gy·pt·o·lo·gist (ee·jip·tol·o·jist) n. an expert in Egyptology.
E·gy·pt·o·tol·o·gy (ee·jip·tol·o·jy) n. the study of Egyptian antiquities.
Eh (ay) interj. (informal) an exclamation of doubt or inquiry or surprise.
EHF abbr. extremely high frequency.
eider (i-dér) n. (also eider duck) a large northern duck.
eider-down (i-dér-down) n. 1. the small soft feathers from the breast of the female eider. 2. a quilt stuffed with eiderdown or similar material. eiderdown adj. stuffed with eiderdown for warmth, an eiderdown jacket.
eido-lon (i-doh-lon) n. (pl. -lons, -la, pr. -lá) 1. a specter, a phantom. 2. an idealized image.
eigh (eight) adj. & n. 1. one more than seven, (8, VIII). 2. anything having eight members or units, such as an eight-track tape. behind the eight ball, (slang) out of luck, in deep trouble. eight ball, a billiard ball bearing the number 8.
eigh-teen (ay-teen) adj. & n. one more than seventeen (18, XVIII). eighteenth (ay-teenth) adj. & n.
eighth (ayth) adj. & n. 1. next after seventh. 2. one of eight equal parts of a thing. eighthly adv. eighth note, a musical note having one-eighth the count of a whole note.
eight-ies (ay-teez) n. pl. the numbers or years or degrees of temperature from 80 to 89.
eight-track (ayt-trak) n. (informal) a magnetic tape cartridge having eight parallel tracks for recording on.
eight-y (ay-tee) adj. & n. eight times ten (80, LXXX). eighth-i-th (ay-ty-i-th) adj. & n.
einsteinium (in-stin-yoo-m) n. a radio-active chemical element.
Elair (air-é) a former name of the Republic of Ireland.
Elisenhower (i-zen-how-er), Dwight D-avid (1890-1969) the thirty-fourth president of the U.S. 1953-61. eistedd-fod (i-steth-vod) n. an annual Welsh gathering of poets and musicians for competitions.
elther (ee-thér) adj. & pron. 1. one or the other of two, either of you can go. 2. each of two, there are fields on either side of the river. either adv. & conj. 1. as one alternative, he is either mad or drunk. 2. likewise, any more than the other, the new lid doesn't fit either. ▷ Use a singular verb for the pronoun either, he said that either is acceptable.
ejaculate (i-jak-yoo-layt) v. (ejaculate, ejaculating) 1. to say suddenly and briefly. 2. to eject fluid (especially semen) from the body. ejaculation (i-jak-yoo-lay-shun) n. ejaculator adj.
eject (i-jekt) v. 1. to thrust or send out forcefully, the gun ejects spent cartridges. 2. to expel, to compel to leave. ejection n. ejection seat, a seat that can eject the occupant out of an aircraft in an emergency so that he can descend by parachute.
eke (eek) v. (eked, ek-ing) eject out 1. to supplement, eke out oil by burning wood. 2. to make (a living) laboriously, eke out a living.
EKG abbr. electrocardiogram. ekistics (i-kins-tiks) n. the study of human settlements and their development. kistic adj.
el (el) n. an elevated railroad in a city. el. abbr. elevation.
elabo-rate (i-labo-rat) adj. with many parts or details, complicated, an elaborate pattern. elaborate (i-labo-rayt) v. (elabo-rate, elabo-rating) to work out or describe in detail. elabo-rate-ly adv. elabo-rate-ness n.
elabo-ra-tion (i-labo-ray-shun) n. elan (el-ahn) n. 1. vivacity. 2. an impetuous rush.
eland (ee-lând) n. (pl. -lands, -land) a large African antelope with spirally twisted horns.
elapse (i-laps) v. (elapsed, elapsing) (of time) to pass away, hours have elapsed. ▷ Do not confuse elapse with lapse; days elapse but licenses lapse.
elastic (i-las-tik) adj. 1. going back to its original length or shape after being stretched or squeezed. 2. adaptable, not rigid, the rules are somewhat elastic.
elastic n. cord or material made elastic by interweaving strands of rubber etc.
elas-tic-ity (i-las-tick-ity) n.
elas-tomer (i-las-om-er) n. a natural or synthetic rubber or a rubberlike plastic.
elate (i-layt) v. (elated, elating) to make happy or proud. elat-ed (i-layt-ed) adj. feeling very pleased or proud. elation n.
elbow (el-bow) n. 1. the joint between the forearm and upper arm, its outer part. 2. the part of a sleeve covering this. 3. a sharp bend in a pipe etc. elbow v. to thrust with one's elbow. elbow grease, vigorous polishing; hard work.
elbow-room (el-bow-room) n. plenty of room to work or move.
elder (el-dér) adj. elder, older sister. elder n. 1. an older person, respect your elders. 2. an official in certain churches. ▷ elder statesman, an elderly influential person whose advise is valued because of his or her years of experience. ▷ Use elder and eldest for people, older and oldest for things or people.
elder / electrolyte

e·ler\(^2\) n. a tree with white flowers and dark berries.
e·ler·ber·ry (el-dër-ber-ee) n. (pl. -ries) the berry of the elder tree.
e·ler·er·ly (el-dër-lee) adj. rather old, past middle age.
e·ler·est (el-dist) adj. oldest, first-born, elder son. See the note under elder.
e·ler·do·ra·do (el-dô-rah-dô) n. (pl. -dos) an imaginary land of riches.
elec., elect. abbr. 1. electric. 2. electrical.
elec. 3. electrician. 4. electricity.
e·lect (i-lect) v. 1. to choose by vote, elect a chairperson. 2. to choose as a course, to decide, he elected to become a lawyer.
elect adj. chosen; the president-elect, chosen but not yet in office. elect n. (pl. elect) a worthy or chosen person or persons, they were considered the elect.
e·lec·tion (i-lek-shôn) n. 1. choosing or being chosen, especially by vote. 2. the process of electing representatives etc.
e·lec·tion·eer (i-lek-shô-ner) v. to work to promote a candidate or party in an election. e·lec·tion·eer·ing n. e·lec·tive (i-lek-tiv) adj. 1. having the power to elect, an elective assembly. 2. chosen or filled by election, an elective office. elective n. a freely chosen course of study in a school.
e·lec·tor (i-lek-tôr) n. one who has the right to vote in an election. e·lec·tor·al adj. □Electoral College, the body of electors, chosen by popular vote in each state, who elect the U.S. president and vice president.
e·lec·tor·ate (i-lek-tô-rit) n. the whole body of voters.
e·lec·tric (i-lek-trik) adj. 1. of or producing electricity. 2. worked by electricity. 3. causing sudden excitement, the news had an electric effect. □electric chair, a chair in which criminals are executed by electrocution. electric eel, an eellike fish able to give an electric shock. electric eye, a photoelectric cell activating something when the beam of light it emits is broken. electric guitar, a guitar with a built-in microphone that transmits sound to an amplifier. electric shock, the effect of a sudden discharge of electricity through the body of a person or animal, stimulating the nerves and contracting the muscles.
e·lec·tri·cal (i-lek-tri-kal) adj. 1. of or concerned with electricity, electrical engineering. 2. causing sudden excitement. e·lec·tri·cal·ly adv. □electrical storm, a thunderstorm.
e·lec·tri·clan (i-lek-trish-ân) n. a person whose job is dealing with electricity and electrical equipment.
e·lec·tri·city (i-lek-tris-i-tee) n. 1. a form of energy occurring in certain particles (electrons and protons) and hence in larger bodies, since they contain these. 2. a supply of electric current for lighting, heating, etc.
e·lec·tri·fy (i-lek-tri-fi) v. (e·lec·tri·fied, e·lec·tri·fy·ing) 1. to charge with electricity. 2. to convert (a railroad, farm, etc.) to the use of electric power. 3. to startle or excite suddenly. e·lec·tri·fi·ca·tion (i-lek-tri-fl-kay-shôn) n. e·lec·tro·car·di·o·gram (i-lek-trokahr-dô-gram) n. the pattern traced by an electrocardiograph.
e·lec·tro·car·di·o·graph (i-lek-trokahr-dô-gram) n. a device that detects and records electric activity in the muscles of the heart. e·lec·tro·car·di·o·graph·ic adj.
e·lec·tro·card·io·graph·y (i-lek-trokahr-dô-gram-i) n. to deposit by electrolysis. e·lec·tro·de·po·si·tion (i-lek-trokahr-dô-si-shôn) n. e·lec·tro·de·po·si·tion (i-lek-trokahr-dô-si-shôn) n. a solid conductor through which electricity enters or leaves a vacuum tube etc.
e·lec·tro·dy·nam·ics (i-lek-trô-din-iks) n. the branch of physics dealing with electrical currents. e·lec·tro·dy·namic adj.
e·lec·tro·en·ceph·alo·gram (i-lek-trokahr-dô-lo-gram) n. the pattern traced by an electroencephalograph.
e·lec·tro·en·ceph·alo·graph (i-lek-trokahr-dô-lo-gram) n. a device that detects and records the electrical activity of the brain. e·lec·tro·en·ceph·alo·graph·ic adj.
e·lec·tro·en·ceph·alo·graph·y (i-lek-trokahr-dô-lo-gram-i) adj. e·lec·tro·en·ceph·alo·graph·y (i-lek-trokahr-dô-lo-gram-i) adj. to form in a mold by electrodeposition.
e·lec·tro·hy·dra·u·lic (i-lek-trokahr-dô-lik) adj. of the interaction of electric and hydraulic mechanisms. e·lec·tro·hy·dra·u·lic·al·ly adv.
e·lec·tro·y·sis·sis (i-lek-trol-i-sis) n. 1. chemical decomposition by electric current. 2. the breaking up of tumors, hair roots, etc. by electric current.
e·lec·tro·lyte (i-lek-trô-lît) n. a solution that conducts electric current, especially in an electric cell or battery. electrolytic (i-lek-tró-lit-ik) adj.

electromagnet (i-lek-tró-mag-net) n. a magnet consisting of a metal core magnetized by a coil, carrying electric current, wound around it.

electromagnet/ic (i-lek-tró-mag-net-ik) adj. having both electrical and magnetic properties. electromotive force the energy derived as a result of the difference in potential between the terminals of an electric circuit.

electron (i-lek-trón) n. a particle of matter with a negative electric charge. electron microscope, a very high-powered microscope that uses beams of electrons instead of rays of light. electron tube, a sealed container within which electrons are made to conduct current between at least one pair of electrodes.

electro- (i-lek-tró) adj. 1. produced or worked by a flow of electrons in a vacuum, gas, or certain solids. 2. of or concerned with electronics, an electronic engineer. electrocaly adv. electronic music, electronically produced sounds taped and arranged to form a musical composition. electronic surveillance, the gathering of information through use of wiretaps or other electronic devices.

electronics (i-lek-trón-iks) n. 1. (sing.) the development and application of electronic devices, as in transistors, computers. 2. (pl.) electronic circuits.

electrophoresis (i-lek-tró-fō-re-sis) n. (pl. -ses) the movement of colloidal particles in a fluid under the influence of an electric field. electrophoretic (i-lek-tró-fō-ret-ik) adj.

electroplate (i-lek-tró-playt) v. electroplating, to coat with a thin layer of silver etc. by electrolysis. electroplate n. objects plated in this way.

electroshock (i-lek-tró-shok) therapy medical treatment for mental illness by means of electric shocks.

electrostatics (i-lek-tró-stat-iks) n. a branch of physics dealing with static electricity.

electrotype (i-lek-tró-tip) n. a copy formed by electrolytic deposition of copper on a mold, especially for printing.

electromagnetic (i-lek-tró-mag-net-ik) adj. of or dependent on charity, charitable. electromagnetic radiation, radiation consisting of electromagnetic waves, including visible light, radio waves, gamma rays, etc. electromagnetic wave, a wave resulting from acceleration of an electric charge and propagated by periodic disturbances in an electromagnetic field.

electromotive (i-lek-tró-moh-tiv) adj. producing electric current. electromotive force, the energy derived as a result of the difference in potential between the terminals of an electric circuit.

elementary adj. dealing with the simplest facts of a subject. elementary particle, one of several subatomic particles not known to be composed of simpler particles. elementary school, a school in which elementary subjects are taught, comprising the first six or eight grades.

phantasmagoria (el-e-jee) adj. dealing with the simplest facts of a subject. elementary particle, one of several subatomic particles not known to be composed of simpler particles. elementary school, a school in which elementary subjects are taught, comprising the first six or eight grades.

phantasmagoria (el-e-jee) adj. dealing with the simplest facts of a subject. elementary particle, one of several subatomic particles not known to be composed of simpler particles. elementary school, a school in which elementary subjects are taught, comprising the first six or eight grades.

phantasmagoria (el-e-jee) adj. dealing with the simplest facts of a subject. elementary particle, one of several subatomic particles not known to be composed of simpler particles. elementary school, a school in which elementary subjects are taught, comprising the first six or eight grades.
el·e·va·tor (el-ə-vay-tər) n. 1. an apparatus for transporting people or goods from one floor of a building to another. 2. a building for storing grain, equipped with machinery for lifting and discharging grain. 3. a movable part of an airplane, used to control altitude.

el·lev·en (el-ev·ən) adj. & n. 1. one more than ten (11, XI). 2. a team of eleven players at football.

el·lev·enth (el-ə-vənθ) adj. & n. 1. next after tenth. 2. one of eleven equal parts of a thing. at the eleventh hour, at the latest possible time for doing something.

e·lf (elf) n. (pl. elves, pr. elvz) an imaginary small being with magic powers.

el·i·shən adj.

e·lhi (el-hi) adj. of elementary and high school.

el·ic·it (el-ə-ik-ət) v. to draw out (information, a response, etc.). Do not confuse elicit with illicit.

el·ide (el-əd) v. (e·il·d·ed, e·il·d·ing) to omit (a vowel, consonant, or syllable) in pronouncing.

el·i·ble (el-i·bəl) adj. 1. qualified to be chosen for a position or allowed a privilege etc., he is eligible for a pension. 2. regarded as suitable or desirable, especially for marriage, eligible young men.

eligible n. an eligible person.

el·i·bil·i·ty (el-i·bil·ə-tē) (el-i·bil-i-tē) n.

el·i·nate (el-i·nət) v. (e·il·n·ət·ed, e·il·n·ət·ing) 1. to get rid of (something that is not wanted), eliminate errors. 2. to exclude from further stages of a competition etc. through defeat, was eliminated in the fourth round.

el·i·nat·ing (el-i·nət·ing) adj.

el·i·son (el·i·son) n. omission of part of a word in pronouncing it (as in I'm = 1 am).

el·ite (el·i·t) n. a group of people regarded as superior in some way and therefore favored. 2. a size of letters in typewriting (twelve per inch). elite adj. having elite characteristics, elite club, elite type.

el·lit·ist (el·lit·ist) adj. 1. advocating the selecting and treating of certain people as an elite. 2. regarding oneself as elite. elitist n. an elitist person.

el·lit·ism n.

el·ix·ir (el·ik·ər) n. 1. a fragrant liquid used as a medicine or flaorering. 2. a remedy believed to cure all ills.

E·li·z·a·be·th·an (el·iz·ə-bē·than) adj. of the time of Queen Elizabeth I's reign in England (1558–1603). Elizabethan n. a person of this time.

e·lk (elk) n. a large deer of northern Europe and Asia.

e·ll (ell) n. a wing of a building at right angles to the main part.

el·lip·se (el·ip·s) n. a regular oval that can be divided into four identical quarters.

el·lip·sis (el·ip·sis) n. (pl. -ses, pr. -sez) 1. omission of words needed to complete a meaning or a grammatical construction. 2. the mark . . . showing an intentional omission.

el·lip·soid (el·ip·so·id) n. a solid of which all plane sections through one axis are ellipses and all other plane sections are ellipses or circles.

el·lip·sol·dal (el·ip·so·dal) adj.

el·lip·ti·cal (el·ip·ti·kal) adj. 1. shaped like an ellipse. 2. containing an ellipse, having omissions. el·lip·ti·cal·ly adv.

el·lm (elm) n. 1. a deciduous tree with rough serrated leaves. 2. its wood.

el·o·cu·tion (el·o·kō·shən) n. a person's style of speaking, the art of speaking expressively. el·o·cu·tion·ist n.

el·on·gate (el·ō·nā·gāt) v. (e·lon·g·at·ed, e·lon·g·at·ing) to lengthen, to prolong. el·on·ga·tion (el·ō·nā·gā·shən) n.

el·o·pe (el·ōp) v. (e·lopped, e·lopp·ing) to run away secretly with a lover, especially in order to get married. el·o·pe·ment n.

el·o·quen·ce (el·ō·kwəns) n. fluent and powerful speaking.

el·o·quent (el·ō·kwənt) adj. speaking fluently and powerfully. el·o·quent·ly adv.

El·Sal·va·dor (el·sal·və·dər) a country in Central America.

el·sel (els) adj. other, someone else. else adv. otherwise, if not, run or else you'll be late.

el·s·where (el·s·hwair) adv. somewhere else.

el·u·cl·i·date (el·u·kli·dat) v. (el·u·kli·dat·ed, el·u·kli·dat·ing) to throw light on (a problem), to make clear.

el·u·cla·tion (el·u·klə·shən) n.

el·u·d·ed (el·u·dəd) v. (el·u·d·ing, el·u·d·ed) 1. to escape from, to avoid, eluded his pursuers. 2. to escape a person's understanding or memory etc., the answer eludes me. el·u·sion n. (el·u·zshən) n.

el·u·sive (el·u·sviv) adj. 1. eluding, escaping. 2. eluding a person's understanding or memory. el·u·sive·ly adv. el·u·sive·ness n. Do not confuse elusive with illusive.

el·ver (el·vər) n. a young cel.

el·ves see elf.

E·ly·si·um (el·i·zə·üm) n. 1. (in Greek mythology) the abode of the blessed after death. 2. a place or state of ideal happiness. E-ly'sian adj. □Elysian fields, Elysium.

em (em) n. a unit for measuring the amount of printed matter in a line, equal to the space occupied by M. EM abbr. 1. enlisted man. 2. enlisted men. 'em (ém) pronoun (informal) = them, I love 'em.

em-ba-cu-late (i-may-shi-ayt) v. (e-ma-cu-lat-ed, e-ma-cu-lat-ing) 1. to deprive of force; an emasculated law, one made weak by alterations to it. 2. to castrate. e-ma-cu-la-tion (i-ma-kú-lá-shon) n. □Emasculation Proclamation, the proclamation issued by President Lincoln, effective January 1, 1863, giving freedom to slaves in states still in conflict with the Union. The Great Emancipator, Abraham Lincoln.

e-mas-cu-late (i-mas-kyú-layt) v. (e-mas-cu-lat-ed, e-mas-cu-lat-ing) 1. to deprive of force; an emasculated law, one made weak by alterations to it. 2. to castrate. e-ma-cu-la-tion (i-ma-kú-lá-shon) n. □Emasculation Proclamation, the proclamation issued by President Lincoln, effective January 1, 1863, giving freedom to slaves in states still in conflict with the Union. The Great Emancipator, Abraham Lincoln.

em-balm (em-balm) v. to preserve (a corpse) from decay by using spices or chemicals. em-balm'er n.

em-bank-ment (em-bank-mént) n. a long mound of earth or a stone structure to keep a river from spreading or to carry a road or railroad.

em-ba-go (em-bahr-go) n. (pl.-goes) an order forbidding commerce or other activity. embargo v. to impose an embargo on (a product, a nation).

em-bark (em-bahrk) v. 1. to put or go on board ship at the start of a journey. 2. to begin an undertaking, they embarked on a program of expansion.

em-bar-ka-tion (em-bahr-kay-shon) n. embarking on a ship.

em-bar-rass (em-bar-ás) v. to make (a person) feel awkward or ashamed. em-bar'ras-sment n. em-bar'ras-sing ly adv.

em-bas-sy (em-bas-see) n. 1. an ambassador and his staff. 2. his official headquarters. 3. a deputation sent on a mission to a foreign government.

em-bat-ting (em-bat-tling) adj. 1. prepared for battle, embattled troops. 2. fortified against attack.

em-bed (em-bed) v. (em-bed·ded, em-bed·ding) to fix firmly in a surrounding mass.

em-bel-lish (em-bel-lish) v. 1. to ornament. 2. to improve (a story etc.) by adding details that are entertaining but invented. em-bel'lish-ment n.

em-bellish (em-bēl-lish) n. 1. a small piece of live coal or wood in a dying fire. 2. embers, the smolderings remains of a dying fire.

em-bez-ze (em-bez-iz) v. (em-bez-zled, em-bez-zling) to take fraudulently for one's own use (money or property placed in one's care). em-bez'zler n. em-bez'ze-ment n.

em-bit-ter (em-bit-ér) v. to arouse bitter feelings in.

em-bla-zon (em-blay-zon) v. to ornament with heraldic or other devices.

em-blem (em-blém) n. a symbol, a device that represents something, the crown is the emblem of kingship.

em-blem at·ic (em-blé-mat-ik) adj. serving as an emblem, symbolic. em-blem·at'ic adj. em-blem at·i-cal adj. em-blem at·ic·ally adv.

em-bod·y (em-bod-ee) v. (em-bod·led, em-bod·y-ing) 1. to express principles or ideas in a visible form, the house embodied her idea of a home. 2. to incorporate, to include, parts of the old treaty are embodied in the new one. em-bod'iment n.

em-bold·en (em-bohl·den) v. to make bold, to encourage.

em-bo·lis·m (em-bō-liz·em) n. obstruction of an artery or vein by an em-bo·lus (em-bō-lus), a clot of blood, an air bubble, etc. em-bol·ic (em-bol·ik) adj.

em·bon·point (ahm·bohn·pwān) n. plumpness (of a person). □French.

em-boss (em-baws) v. to decorate with a raised design.

em-bou·ch·ure (em·bū·shoor) n. 1. the mouthpiece of a wind instrument. 2. the way in which the lips are applied to this. 3. the mouth of a river. 4. the opening out of a valley into flat land.

em-brace (em-brays) v. (em-braced, em-brac·ing) 1. to hold closely and affectionately in one's arms. 2. to accept eagerly, embraced the opportunity. 3. to adopt (a religion etc.). 4. to include, their religion embraces many ideas. embrace n. the act of embracing, a hug.

em·bra·sure (em-bray·zhūr) n. 1. an opening in a wall for a door or window, with splayed sides. 2. a similar opening for a gun, widening toward the outside.

em·bro·cate (em·brō·kayt) v. (em·bro·cat·ed, em·bro·cat·ing) to apply an embrocation to.
of an airplane, especially the stabilizing surfaces at the tail.

em·per·or (em-pë-rôr) n. the male ruler of an empire.

em·pha·sis (em-fä-sis) n. (pl. -ses, pr. -sees) 1. special importance given to something, prominence, the emphasis is on quality. 2. vigor of expression or feeling or action, nodded his head with emphasis. 3. stress laid on part of a word or on a phrase etc. or on a note or notes in music.

em·pha·size (em-fä-size) v. (em-phä-sized, em·pha·size·ing) to lay emphasis on.

em·phat·ic (em-fat·ik) adj. using or showing emphasis, expressing oneself with emphasis. em·phat·i·cal·ly adv.

em·phy·se·ma (em-fi·se-mä) n. a condition in which the air cells in the lungs become dilated and lose their elasticity, causing difficulty in breathing.

em·pire (em-pir) n. 1. a group of countries ruled by a single supreme authority. 2. supreme political power. 3. a large commercial organization controlled by one person or group. □ empire building, the process of deliberately acquiring extra territory or authority etc.

em·pir·i·cal (em-pir·i-kal), em·pir·i·cism (em-pir·i-siz·em) n. 1. empirical method or procedure. 2. the doctrine that knowledge is obtainable only by direct experience through the physical senses. em·pir·i·clism n.

em·place·ment (em-plays·mënt) n. a place or platform for a gun or battery of guns.

em·ploy (em-plô) v. 1. to give work to, to use the services of. 2. to make use of, how do you employ your spare time? employ n. employment. □ in the employ of, employed by.

em·ploy·a·ble (em-plô·ä-bël) adj. able to be employed.

em·ploy·ee (em-plô·ë) n. a person who works for another in return for wages.

em·ploy·er (em-plô·ër) n. a person or firm that employs people.

em·ploy·ment (em-plô·mënt) n. 1. employing. 2. the state of being employed. 3. work done as an occupation or to earn a livelihood.

em·po·ri·um (em-pôr·ë-ë-ëüm) n. (pl. -po·ri·ums, -po·ri·ë, pr. -pôr·ë-ë) 1. a center of commerce. 2. a large retail store.

em·pow·er (em-pôw·ër) v. to give power or authority to, police are empowered to arrest people.

em·press (em-prës) n. 1. the female ruler of an empire. 2. the wife or widow of an emperor.

emp·ties (emp·tëz) n. pl. emptied boxes or bottles or trucks etc.

emp·ty (emp·ti, emp·ti·est) adj. (emp·ti·er, emp·ti·est) 1. containing nothing, empty boxes; empty trucks, not loaded. 2. without an occupant, an empty chair; empty streets, without people or traffic. 3. without effectiveness, empty promises. 4. lacking good sense or intelligence, an empty head. 5. (informal) hungry, feel rather empty. empty v. (emp·ti·ed, emp·ty·ing) 1. to make or become empty. 2. to transfer the contents of one thing into another; the Danube empties into the Black Sea, flows into it. emp·ti·ly adv. emp·ti·ness n. □ empty calorie, one that has no nutritive value. empty nesters, (informal) a middle-aged or elderly couple whose grown children live apart from them.

emp·ty-hand·ed (emp·ti·hand·id) adj. bringing or taking away nothing.

emp·ty-head·ed (emp·ti·head·id) adj. lacking good sense or intelligence.

emp·py·re·an (emp·py·ree·ë-an) n. 1. the highest heaven, as the sphere of fire in ancient cosmology or the abode of God. 2. the visible heavens. emp·py·re·an adj. of the heavens.

e·mu (ee·myoo) n. a large Australian bird resembling an ostrich.

em·u·late (em·yü-lat·ed, em·yü·lat·ing) to try to do as well as or better than. em·u·la·tor n. em·u·la·tion (em·yü·la·shën) n.

e·mul·si·fy (i·mul·si·fi) v. (e·mul·si·fied, e·mul·si·fy·ing) to convert or be converted into an emulsion. e·mul·si·fi·er n. e·mul·si·fl·a·ble adj. e·mul·si·fl·a·tion (i·mul·si·fë·si·kay·shën) n.

e·mul·si·on (i·mul·shën) n. 1. a creamy liquid in which particles of oil or fat are evenly distributed. 2. a medicine or paint in this form. 3. the light-sensitive coating on photographic film, a mixture of silver compound in gelatine. e·mul·si·ve (i·mul·si·vë) adj.

en· prefix used to form verbs meaning in or into, as in enshroud; to put in or on, as in engage; to cause to be, as in enfranchise.

-en1 suffix used to form adjectives from nouns meaning consisting of or like, as in wooden.

-en2 suffix used to form verbs from adjectives meaning becoming or causing to be, as in toughen; and to form verbs from nouns meaning causing or coming to have, as in lengthen.

en·a·ble (en·ay·bël) v. (en·a·bled, en·a·ble·d• about many subjects or intensively about one subject.

en·cyst (en-sist) v. to enclose or become enclosed in a cyst. en·cyst·ment n.

end (end) n. 1. the extreme limit of something. 2. the part or surface forming this; to the ends of the earth, to its farthest points; no problem at my end, in my share of the work. 3. the end, (informal) the limit of what one can endure. 4. the finish or conclusion of something, the latter or final part. 5. destruction, downfall, death. 6. a purpose or aim, to gain his own ends. 7. (in football) one of two players at the ends of the line of scrimmage.

end v. 1. to bring to an end, to put an end to. 2. to come to an end, to reach a certain place or state eventually, ended up laughing. □ end it all, (informal) to commit suicide. end man, one of two performers in a minstrel show standing at the ends of a line of minstrels and carrying on comic dialogue with the interlocutor. end on, with the end facing one or adjoining the end of the next object. end product, the final product of a manufacturing process. end run, a play in football in which the ball carrier runs around one end of the line of scrimmage and then toward the goal line. end table, a small table, usually placed alongside an end of a couch or beside a chair. keep one's end up, to do one's part in spite of difficulties. make (both) ends meet, to keep one's expenditure within one's income. put an end to, to abolish or stop or destroy.

en·dan·ger (en-dayn-ger) v. to cause danger to. en·dan·gered adj. □ endan·gered species, a species facing possible extinction.

en·dear (en-deer) v. to cause to be loved, endeared herself to us all. en·dear·ing adj. inspiring affection. en·dear·ing·ly adv.

en·dear·ment (en-deer-ment) n. a word or words expressing love.

en·deav·or (en-dev-ør) v. to attempt, to try. endeavor n. an attempt.

en·de·mic (en-dem-ik) adj. commonly found in a particular country or district or group of people, the disease is endemic in Africa. □ See the note under epidemic.

end·ing (en-ding) n. the final part.

en·dive (en-div) n. 1. a curly-leaved plant used in salad. 2. the young chicory plant with broad fleshy leaves used in salad.

en·dle·ss (end-lis) adj. without end, never stopping. end·less·ly adv. □ endless belt, one with the ends joined so that it forms a continuous strip for use in machinery etc.

end·most (end-mohst) adj. nearest the end.

en·do·crine (en-dō-krin) adj. (of a gland) pouring its secretions straight into the blood, not through a duct. endocrine n. an endocrine gland, its secretion.

en·do·cri·nol·o·gist (en-dō-kri-nol-ō-jist) n. an expert in endocrinology.

en·do·cri·nol·o·gy (en-dō-kri-nol-ō-jē) n. the branch of science dealing with the endocrine glands and their secretions.

en·dog·e·nous (en-dog-ē-nus) adj. growing or originating from within. en·dog·e·nous·ly adv.

en·dorse (en-dors) v. (en-dorsed, en·dors·ing) 1. to sign or add a comment on (a document), to sign the back of (a check) in order to obtain the money indicated. 2. to confirm (a statement), to declare one's approval of. en·dors·er n.

en·dorse·ment n. en·dors·a·ble adj.

en·do·scope (en-dō-sköhp) n. a tubular instrument for viewing internal parts of the body. en·dos·co·py (en-dos-kö-pë) n. en·do·scope·ic (en-dō-skop-ik) adj.

en·do·ther·mic (en-dō-thér-mik), en·do·ther·mal (en-dō-thér-mal) adj. occurring or formed with the absorption of heat.

en·dow (en-dow) v. 1. to provide with a permanent income, endow a school. 2. to provide with a power or ability or quality, was endowed with great talents.

en·dow·ment (en-dow-mënt) n. 1. endowing. 2. an endowed income. 3. a natural ability. □ endowment policy, a form of life insurance in which a fixed sum is paid to the insured person on a specified date or to his estate if he dies before this date.

en·drin (en-drin) n. an insecticide.

en·due (en-doo) v. (en-dued, en·dung) to furnish with (powers, qualities, etc.).

en·dur·able (en-door-ā-bēl) adj. able to be endured.

en·dur·ance (en-door-āns) n. ability to withstand pain or hardship or prolonged use or strain.

en·due·red (en-dūred, en·dur·ing) 1. to experience pain or hardship or difficulties, to bear patiently. 2. to tolerate. 3. to remain in existence, to last.

en·dur·oh (en-door-oh) n. (pl. -os) a race for motorcycles etc. in which the winner is the one who has traveled the greatest distance in a fixed period of time.

end·ways (end-wayz), end·wise (end·wiz) adv. 1. with the end toward the viewer. 2. on end, end to end, lengthwise.
ene abbr. east-northeast.
en·e·ma (en-ē-mā) n. 1. the insertion of liquid into the rectum through the anus by means of a syringe, for medical purposes. 2. this liquid.
en·e·my (en-ē-mee) n. (pl. -mies) 1. one who is hostile toward another and seeks to harm the other. 2. a member of a hostile army or nation etc., an opposing military force, ship, aircraft, etc.
en·er·get·ic (en·er·jet·ik) adj. full of energy, done with energy. en·er·get·i·cal·ly adv.
en·er·gize (en·er·jiz) v. (en·er·gized, en·er·giz·ing) 1. to give energy to. 2. to cause electricity to flow to. Do not confuse energize with energize.
en·er·giz·er (en·er·jiz·er) n. 1. that which energizes. 2. an antidepressant drug.
en·er·gy (en·er·je) n. (pl. -gies) 1. the capacity for vigorous activity. 2. the ability of matter or radiation to do work either because of its motion (kinetic energy), or because of its mass (released in nuclear fission etc.), or because of its electric charge etc. 3. fuel and other resources used for the operation of machinery etc., the energy crisis.
en·er·vate (en·er·vat) v. (en·er·vat·ed, en·er·vat·ing) to cause to lose vitality. I hate an enervating climate. en·er·va·tion (en·er·vay·shon) n. Do not confuse enervate with energize.
fen·tant ter·ri·ble (ahn-fahn ter·re·bl) a person whose behavior is embarrassing or indiscriminate or irresponsible. French.
en·fee·ble (en·fee·bēl) v. (en·fee·bled, en·fee·bl·ing) to make feeble. en·fee·ble·ment n.
en·fil·lade (en·fil·lād) n. 1. gunfire sweeping a line of troops from end to end. 2. a line of troops subject to such fire. enfil·lade v. to sweep with fire in this way.
en·fold (en·fohd) v. 1. to wrap up. 2. to clasp.
en·force (en·fohrs) v. (en·forced, en·forc·ing) to compel obedience to, to impose by force or compulsion, the law was firmly enforced. en·forc·er n. en·forc·ment n.
en·for·ce·able (en·fohr·sā·bēl) adj. able to be enforced.
en·fran·chise (en·fran·chiz) v. (en·fran·chised, en·fran·chis·ing) 1. to admit to citizenship, especially to the right to vote. 2. to release (a slave etc.) from bondage. en·fran·chis·ment (en·fran·chiz·ment) n.
eng. abbr. 1. engine. 2. engineer. 3. engineering. 4. engraved.
eng·age (en·gay) v. (en·gaged, en·gage·ing) 1. to take into one's employment, engage a typist. 2. to promise, to pledge. 3. to occupy the attention of, engaged her in conversation. 4. to occupy oneself, he engages in politics. 5. to begin a battle against, engaged the enemy troops. 6. to interlock (parts of a gear) so that it transmits power, to become interlocked in this way.
eng·aged (en·gayjd) adj. 1. having promised to marry, an engaged couple. 2. occupied or reserved by a person, occupied with business etc., I'm afraid the hall is engaged for that night.
en·gage·ment (en·gay·ment) n. 1. engaging something, being engaged. 2. an appointment made with another person. 3. a battle.
en·gag·ing (en·gay·jing) adj. attractive, charming. en·gag·ing·ly adv.
en·gen·der (en·jen·dēr) v. to give rise to.
en·gine (en·jin) n. 1. a mechanical contrivance consisting of several parts working together, especially as a source of power. 2. a railroad locomotive. 3. a fire engine.
en·gi·ne·er (en·ji·neer) n. 1. a person who is skilled in a branch of engineering. 2. one who is in charge of machines and engines, as on a ship. 3. one who plans or organizes something, a manager. en·gi·neer v. 1. to construct or control as an engineer. 2. to contrive or bring about, she engineered a meeting between them.
en·gi·neer·ing (en·ji·neer·ing) n. the application of scientific knowledge for the control and use of power, as in works of public utility such as the building of roads and bridges (civil engineering), machines (mechanical engineering), electrical apparatus (electrical engineering), etc.
Eng·land (eng·land) the country forming the southern part of Great Britain.
Eng·lish (eng·lish) adj. of England or its people or the language that originated in England. English n. 1. the English language, used in Britain, Canada, and many areas now or once under British jurisdiction. 2. the English, English people. Eng·lish·man n. Eng·lish·wor·man n. □ English Channel, an arm of the Atlantic Ocean between England and France. English horn, an oboe-like woodwind instrument, lower in pitch than a regular oboe. English muffin, a small round bread, eaten toasted and buttered. English sparrow, a small hardy bird native to Europe but naturalized in many parts of the world.
engr. abbr. 1. engineer. 2. engraved. 3. engraving.
en·graft (en·graft) v. to insert as a graft, in propagation.
en·gram (en·gram) n. a supposed permanent change in the brain that would account for the existence of memory.
en-grave (en-grayv) v. (en-graved, en-grav-ing) 1. to cut or carve (a design) into a hard surface, to ornament with a design in this way. 2. to fix deeply in the mind or memory. en-grav'er n.
en-grav-ing (en-gray-ving) n. a print made from an engraved metal plate.
en-gross (en-grohs) v. to occupy fully by absorbing the attention, an engrossing book; he was engrossed in his book.
en-gulf (en-gulf) v. to surround or cause to disappear by flowing around or over, to swamp.
en-hance (en-hans) v. (en-hanced, en-hanc-ing) to increase the attractiveness or other qualities of. en-hance'ment n.
en-nil'ma (en-nil-mâ) n. (pl. -mas) something very difficult to understand.
en-ig-mat-ic (en-ig-mat-ik) adj. mysterious and puzzling. en'ig-mat'i-cal-ly adv.
en-jamb-ment (en-jam-ment) n. (in poetry) continuation of a sentence beyond the end of a line, couplet, or stanza.
en-join (en-join) v. 1. to order, to command. 2. (in law) to prohibit, to restrain by an injunction.
en-joy (en-joy) v. 1. to get pleasure from. 2. to have as an advantage or benefit, to enjoy good health. en-joy'ment n.
en-joy oneself, to experience pleasure from what one is doing.
en-joy-a-ble (en-joy-á-bêl) adj. giving enjoyment, pleasant. en-joy'a-ble adv.

enl. abbr. 1. enlarge. 2. enlarged. 3. enlisted.
en-large (en-lahrj) v. (en-larged, en-larg-ing) 1. to make or become larger. 2. to reproduce (a photograph) on a larger scale. 3. to say more about something, enlarge upon this matter.
en-large'ment (en-lahrj-ment) n. 1. enlarging, being enlarged. 2. something enlarged, a photograph printed larger than its negative.
en-larg'er (en-lahr-jér) n. an apparatus for making photographic enlargements.
en-light-en (en-lí-tén) v. to give knowledge to, to inform. en-light'en ment n. the Enlightenment, a movement in 18th century European philosophy placing much emphasis on reason and individualism.
en-light-ended (en-lí-tend) adj. freed from ignorance or prejudice, in these enlightened days.
en-list (en-list) v. 1. to take into or join the armed forces, enlist as a soldier. 2. to secure as a means of help or support, enlisted their sympathy. en-list'ment n.
en-list·ee (en-lis-tee) n. enlisted man, woman, a member of the U.S. armed forces without the rank of commissioned or warrant officer.
en-liv'en (en-lí-vén) v. to make more lively. en-liv'en ment n.
en-masse (ahn mas) all together.

> French.
en-mesh (en-mesh) v. to entangle as if in a net. en-mi-ty (en-mi-toe) n. (pl. -ties) hostility between enemies.
en-no'ble (en-noh-bêl) v. (en-no'bled, en-no'bling) 1. to make (a person) a noble. 2. to make (a thing) noble or more dignified. en-no'ble ment n.
en-nul (ahn-woo) n. 1. null, nullified. 2. null and void.
en-nor'mous (i-nor-mûz) adj. very large, huge. e-nor'mous ly adv. e-nor'mous ness n.
en-nough (i-nuf) adj., adv. & pronoun as much or as many as necessary.
en-plane (en-playn) v. (en-planeed, en-plan-ing) to board an airplane.
en-quire (en-kwir) v. (en-quired, en-quir ing) to inquire. en-quir'y (en-kwir-ee) n. an inquiry.
en-range (en-rayj) v. (en-raged, en-rag ing) to make furious.
en-rap-ture (en-rap-chûr) v. (en-rapt ured, en-rap-tur-ing) to fill with intense delight.
en-rich (en-rich) v. 1. to make richer. 2. to improve the quality of by adding things, this food is enriched with vitamins. en-rich'ment n.
en-robe (en-rohb) v. to put a robe on.
en-roll (en-rol) v. (en-rolled, en-roll ing) 1. to become a member of a society, institution, etc. 2. to admit as a member. en-roll'ment n.
en route (ahn root, en) on the way, met him en route from Chicago to Montreal. Ens. abbr. ensign.
en-sconce (en-skons) v. (en-sconced, en-sconc-ing) to establish securely or comfortably.
en-sem'ble (ahn-sahm-bêl) n. 1. a thing viewed as a whole. 2. a group of musicians who perform together. 3. a woman's outfit of harmonizing items.
en-shrine (en-shrin) v. (en-shrined, en shrin-ing) 1. to enclose in a shrine. 2. to serve as a shrine for.
en-shroud (en-shrowd) v. to cover completely.
en·sign (en-sin) n. 1. a military or naval flag, a special form of the national flag flown by ships. 2. a commissioned naval officer of the lowest rank.

en·sil·lage (en-sil-laj) n. 1. silage. 2. storing fodder to produce silage.

en·sile (en-sil) v. (en·siled, en·sil·ling) 1. to preserve (fodder) in a silo. 2. to make (fodder) into silage.

en·slave (en-slav) v. (en·slaved, en·slave·ing) to make a slave of. en·slave·ment n.

en·snare (en-snair) v. (en·snared, en·snar·ling) to entrap.

en·sue (en-soo) v. (en·sued, en·su·ing) to happen afterward or as a result, a quarrel ensued.

en·sure (en·sure) v. (en·sured, en·sil·ling) to make safe or certain, to secure, good food will ensure good health. □ Do not use this word to mean “to provide with financial insurance.”

en·tail (en-tayl) v. 1. to make necessary, to involve, these plans entail great expense. 2. to leave (land) to a line of heirs so that none of them can give it away or sell it. en·tail·ment n.

en·tangle (en·tang-gel) v. (en·tan·gled, en·tan·gling) 1. to tangle. 2. to entwine in something that is difficult to escape from. 3. to involve in something complicated. en·tan·gle·ment n.

en·tente (ahn-tahmt) n. a friendly understanding between countries.

en·ter (en·ter) v. 1. to go or come in or into. 2. to come on stage. 3. to penetrate, the bullet entered his leg. 4. to become a member of, he entered the Navy. 5. to put (a name, details, etc.) on a list or in a book. 6. to register as a competitor, she entered the presidential race. 7. to record formally, to present for consideration, entered a plea of not guilty; entered a protest. □ enter into, to take part in (a conversation, an agreement, etc.); to form part of (calculations, plans, etc.). enter on, to begin (a process, stage of work, etc.).

en·ter·lit·is (en-tor-ri-tis) n. inflammation of the intestines.

en·ter·prise (en·ter-priz) n. 1. an undertaking, especially a bold or difficult one. 2. initiative, she shows true enterprise. 3. business activity, private enterprise.

en·ter·pris·ing (en·ter·pri·zing) adj. full of initiative.

en·ter·tain (en·ter·tayn) v. 1. to amuse, to occupy agreeably. 2. to receive (a person) with hospitality, they entertained me at lunch. 3. to have in the mind, entertain doubts. 4. to consider favorably, refused to entertain the idea.

en·ter·tain·er (en·ter·tay·ner) n. a person who performs in entertainments, especially as an occupation.

en·ter·tain·ment (en·ter·tay·ment) n. 1. entertaining, being entertained. 2. amusement. 3. something performed to amuse or interest an audience.

en·thrall (en·thrawl) v. to hold spellbound.

en·throne (en-throhn) v. (en·throned, en·throne·ing) to place on a throne, especially with ceremony. en·throne·ment n.

en·thuse (en·thooz) v. (en·thused, en·thus·ing) (informal) 1. to show enthusiasm. 2. to fill with enthusiasm. □ Careful writers do not enthuse. They become enthusiastic and show enthusiasm and are filled with enthusiasm.

en·thu·si·asm (en·thoo·zi-az·em) n. 1. a feeling of eager liking for or interest in something. 2. the object of this, one of my entusiasms.

en·thu·si·ast (en·thoo·zi-ast) n. one who is full of enthusiasm for something, a sports enthusiast.

en·thu·si·as·tic (en·thoo·zi-as·tik) adj. full of enthusiasm. en·thu·si·as·ti·cal·ly adv.

en·tice (en·tts) v. (en·ticed, en·ticing) to attract or persuade by offering something pleasant. en·tice·ment n.

en·tire (en·tir) adj. whole, complete. en·ti·rally adv.

en·tire·ty (en·tir·tee) n. (pl. -ties) completeness, the total, in its entirety, in its complete form.

en·ti·tle (en·ti·tel) v. (en·ti·tled, en·tit·ling) 1. to give a title to (a book etc.). 2. to give a right, the ticket entitles you to a seat. en·ti·tle·ment n.

en·ti·ty (en·ti·tee) n. (pl. -ties) something that exists as a separate thing.

entom., entomol. abbr. 1. entomological. 2. entomology.

en·tomb (en·toom) v. to place in a tomb, to bury.

en·to·mol·o·gist (en·to·mol·o·jist) n. an expert in entomology.

en·to·mol·o·gy (en·to·mol·o·jy) n. the scientific study of insects. en·to·mo·log·i·cal (en·to·mo·log·i·kal) adj. □ Do not confuse entomology with etymology.

en·to·nu·rage (ahn·tuh·rahzh) n. the people accompanying an important person.

en·trac·te (ahn·trakt) n. 1. the interval between acts of a theatrical production. 2. entertainment, such as music or dancing, during this interval.

en·trails (en·traylz) n. pl. the intestines.

en·train (en·trayn) v. to put on or board a train.

en·trance (en·trants) n. 1. entering. 2. a door or passage by which one enters. 3.
the right of admission, the fee charged for this.
en·trance\(^2\) (en-trans) v. (en-tranced, en·tranc·ing) to fill with intense delight.
en·trant (en-tránt) n. one who enters, especially as a competitor.
en·trap (en-trap) v. 1. to catch, as in a trap. 2. to lure into difficulty or danger. en·trap·ment n.
en·treat (en-treat) v. to request earnestly or emotionally. en·treat·y n. (pl. -treat·ies).
en·tree, en·trée (ahn-tray) n. 1. the right or privilege of admission. 2. the main course of a meal. 3. a dish served between the fish and meat courses of a meal.
en·trench (en-trench) v. to establish firmly in a well-defended position; en·trenched ideas, firmly fixed in the mind.
en·trench·ment (en-trench-ment) n. 1. entrenching, being entrenched. 2. a trench made for defense.
en·tre·pre·neur (ahn-tré-pré-nur) n. a person who organizes and manages a commercial undertaking, especially one involving commercial risk. en·tre·pre·neur·i·al (ahn-tré-pré-nur-i-ál) adj.
en·trol·py (en-tró-pi) n. a measure of the disorder of the molecules in substances etc. that are mixed or in contact with each other, indicating the amount of energy that (although it still exists) is not available for use because it has become more evenly distributed instead of being concentrated.
en·trust (en-trust) v. to give as a responsibility, to place (a person or thing) in a person's care, being reluctant to entrust them with political power.
en·try (en-tree) n. 1. entering. 2. a place of entrance; entry-level job, one at the lowest level of an employment category. 3. an item entered in a list, diary, etc. 4. a person or thing entered in a race or competition; entry list, a formal list of those entered.
en·twine (en-twin) v. (en·twined, en·twin·ing) to twine around, to interweave.
en·nu·mer·ate (i-noo-mér-rayt) v. (e·nu·mer·a·ted, e·nu·mer·a·ting) to count, to mention (items) one by one. e·nu·mer·a·tion (i-noo-mér-a·shón) n.
en·num·cl·ate (i-nun-si-ayt) v. (e·num·cl·a·ted, e·num·cl·a·ting) 1. to pronounce (words). 2. to state clearly. e·num·cl·a·tion (i-nun-si-ay-shón) n.
en·u·res·is (en-yú-ree-sis) n. involuntary urination, bed-wetting.
en·vel·op (en-vel-op) v. (en·vel·oped, en·vel·op·ing) to wrap up, to cover on all sides, the hill was enveloped in mist.
en·vel·op·ment n.
en·ve·lope (en-vé-lohp) n. a wrapper or covering, especially a folded and gummed cover for a letter.
en·vil·a·ble (en-víl-á-bél) adj. desirable enough to arouse envy, an enviable achievement. en·vil·a·ble·ly adv. 1. Do not confuse enviable with envious.
en·vil·ous (en-víl-ús) adj. full of envy, an envious person. en·vil·ous·ly adv. en·vil·ous·ness n. 2. Do not confuse envious with enviable.
en·vil·ron·ment (en-ví·l-rn-ment) n. surroundings, especially those affecting people's lives. en·vil·ron·men·tal (en-ví·l-rn-men-tál) adj.
en·vil·ron·men·tal·ist (en-ví·l-rn-men·tal·ist) n. a person who seeks to protect or improve the environment.
en·vil·rons (en-ví·l-rns) n. pl. the surrounding districts, especially around a town.
en·vis·age (en-víz-ij) v. (en·vis·aged, en·vis·ag·ing) 1. to visualize, to imagine. 2. to foresee, changes are envisaged.
en·vil·sion (en-vízh-ón) v. to picture in the mind, especially a future occurrence. en·voy (en-voi) n. 1. a diplomatic minister ranking below an ambassador. 2. a messenger or representative on a diplomatic mission.
en·vy (en-ve) n. (pl. -vies) 1. a feeling of discontent aroused by someone else's possession of things one would like to have oneself. 2. the object of this, his car is the envy of the neighborhood. envy v. (en·ved, en·vy·ing) to feel envy of.
en·zyme (en-zim) n. 1. a protein formed in living cells and assisting chemical processes (as in digestion). 2. a similar substance produced synthetically for use in chemical processes, household detergents, etc. en·zy·mat·ic (en-zi-mát-ik) adj.
E·o·cene (ee-ŏ-seen) adj. of the geologic epoch of the Tertiary period before the Oligocene and after the Paleocene. Eo·cene n. the Eocene epoch.
E·o·li·an = Aeolian.
E.o.m. abbr. end of month.
e·on (ee-ón) n. an immense time.
-eous suffix used to form adjectives meaning of the nature of, as in vitreous, aqueous.
EPA abbr. Environmental Protection Agency.
ep·au·let, ep·au·lette (ep-ŭ-let) n. an ornamental shoulder piece worn on uniforms.
é·pée (ay-pay) n. a sharp-pointed dueling sword, blunt for use in fencing.
ep·er·gne (i-purn) n. a centerpiece (especially in branched form) holding flowers or fruit.

ep·hed·rine (i-fed-rin) n. a stimulant drug used to relieve asthma, hay fever, etc.

ep·hem·er·al (i-fem-ər-əl) adj. lasting only a very short time.

E·phe·sians (i-fee-zhənz) n. a book of the New Testament ascribed to St. Paul, the epistle to the church at Ephesus.

ep·ic (ep-ik) n. 1. a long poem or other literary work telling of heroic deeds or history. 2. a book or film resembling this. 3. a subject fit to be told in an epic. epic adj. of or like an epic, on a grand scale.

ep·i·cal adj. ▷ Do not confuse epic with epochal.

ep·i·cen·ter (ep-i-sen-tər) n. the point at which an earthquake reaches Earth’s surface.

ep·i·cen·tral (ep-i-sen-trəl) adj.

ep·i·cure (ep-i-kyoor) n. a person who enjoys well-prepared food and drink.

ep·i·cu·re·an (ep-i-kyoor-ə-n) n. a person devoted to sensuous pleasures and luxuries. epicurean adj. of or suitable for an epicurean.

ep·i·dem·ic (ep-i-dem-ik) n. an outbreak of a disease etc. spreading rapidly through a community. epidemic adj. spreading in this way. ▷ Do not confuse epidemic with endemic. Yellow fever was endemic in parts of South America. The last American epidemic of this disease occurred in New Orleans in 1905.

ep·i·der·mis (ep-i-dur-mis) n. the outer layer of the skin. ep·i·der·mal adj.

ep·i·glo·tis (ep-i-glot-is) n. (pl. -tis-es) the flap of cartilage at the root of the tongue, which moves during swallowing to cover the glottis and prevents food from entering the windpipe.

ep·i·gram (ep-i-gram) n. a short witty saying.

ep·i·gra·phy (i-pigrə-fe) n. the study of inscriptions, especially those on ancient stones, coins, etc. ep·i·graph (ep-i-graph) n. such an inscription.

ep·i·lep·sy (ep-i-lep-see) n. a disorder of the nervous system causing mild or severe convulsions, sometimes with loss of consciousness. ep·i·lep·tic (ep-i-lep-tik) adj. & n.

ep·i·lo·gue, ep·i·log (ep-i-lawg) n. a short concluding section in a literary work.

ep·i·neph·rine (ep-i-nef-rin) n. adrenalin.

E·ph·h·a·ny (i-pif-ə-nee) n. (pl. -nies) 1. the Christian festival commemorating the showing of Jesus to the Magi, celebrated on January 6. 2. epiphany, an appearance of a superhuman being.

ep·i·sco·pa·cy (i-pis-kə-pə-se) n. (pl. -pa·cles) 1. government of the church by bishops. 2. episcopate.

ep·i·sco·pal (i-pis-kə-pəl) adj. of a bishop or bishops, governed by bishops.

E·pi·co·pa·lian (i-pis-kə-pə-lı-an) adj. of the Episcopal Church. Episcopalian n. a member of the Episcopal Church.

ep·i·sco·pate (i-pis-kə-pət) n. 1. the office, position, or tenure of a bishop. 2. the episcopate, the bishops as a group.

ep·i·sl·ot·o·my (i-pee-zı-ot-ə-mee) n. (pl. -mies) a cut made at the opening of the vagina during childbirth, to facilitate delivery of the baby.

ep·i·sode (ep-i-sohd, -zod) n. 1. an incident or event forming one part of a sequence. 2. an incident in a story, one part of a serial. ep·i·sod·ic (ep-i-sod-ik, -zod-) adj.

ep·i·tem·ol·o·gy (i-pis-tə-məl-ə-je) n. the study of etymology. (esp.) or of human knowledge.

ep·i·tem·ol·o·gist n. e·pi·tem·o·log·i·cal (i-pis-te-məl-ə-nil) adj.

ep·i·tie (i-pis-əl) n. 1. a letter. 2. Epistle, any of the letters in the New Testament, written by the Apostles.

ep·i·taph (ep-i-taft) n. words inscribed on a tomb or describing a dead person. ▷ Do not confuse epitaph with epiteth.

ep·i·tha·la·mi·on (ep-i-thə-lay-mi-ən) n. a song or poem in celebration of a wedding.

ep·i·the·li·um (ep-i-the-li-əm) n. (pl. -li-əmz, -li-ə) tissue forming the outer layer of a body surface, or the lining of a cavity that opens to a body surface. ep·i·the·li·al adj.

ep·i·then·et (ep-i-the-t) n. 1. a descriptive word or phrase, such as the Great in Alfred the Great. 2. a contemptuous word or phrase, most of the epithets were deleted. ▷ Do not confuse epithet with epitaph.

ep·i·to·me (i-pi-to-m) n. something that shows on a small scale the qualities of something much larger, a person who embodies a quality, she is the epitome of kindness. ▷ This word does not mean “the best.” One can also be the epitome of mediocrity, the embodiment of it.

ep·i·to·me·ized (i-pi-to-məz) v. (e·pi·to·m·ized, e·pi·to·m·iz·ing) to be or to form the epitome of.

ep·lu·ri·bus u·num (ee ploor-i-bus yoo-nəm) one out of many. ▷ Latin, the motto of the United States.
epoch / equivocate

ep-o-ch (ep-ôk) n. 1. a particular period of history. 2. a division of a period of geologic time. ep-o’ch-al adj. Do not confuse epochal with epical.

ep-o-ch-mak-ing (ep-ôk-may-king) adj. very important or remarkable, marking the beginning of a new epoch.

e-pow’y-mous (ê-pow-l-mûs) adj. of an eponym. ep-o’nym (ep-ô-nim) n. a person whose name is taken for a people, place, institution, etc., as A. J. Tasman (Dutch navigator) for Tasmania, Caesar for Caesarean section.

ep-o-x-y (e-pok-see) n. (pl. -ox-ies) a synthetic thermosetting resin, used in adhesives and coatings. epoxy v. (ep-ox-ied, ep-oxy-ing) to glue with epoxy.

ep-som (ep-sôm) salts magnesium sulfate, used as a laxative.

eq. abbr. 1. equal. 2. equation. 3. equivalent.

eq-u-a-ble (ek-wâ-bêl) adj. 1. even, unvarying; an equitable climate, free from extremes of heat and cold. 2. even-tempered. eq-u’a-bly adv. eq-u-a-bil-i-ty (ek-wâ-bil-i-te) n. Do not confuse equitable with equivalent.

e-qual (ek-wâl) adj. 1. the same in size, amount, value, etc. 2. having the same rights or status. 3. having enough strength or courage or ability etc., he was equal to the task. equal n. a person or thing that is equal to another. equal v. (e-qual-ed, e-qual-ing) 1. to be equal to. 2. to produce or achieve something to match, no one has equalled her score. e’qual-ly adv. e’qual sign, the symbol =, which indicates equality in a mathematical equation. equal time, the policy whereby a television or radio station provides broadcast time fairly for all candidates in an election.

e-qual-i-tar-i-an (i-kwôl-i-tair-i-ân) adj. egalitarian.

e-qual-i-ty (i-kwôl-i-te) n. (pl. -ties) being equal.

e-qual-i-ze (ee-kwâ-lirz) v. (e-qual-i-zed, e-qual-i-zing) 1. to make or become equal. 2. to make uniform. e-qual-i-za-tion (ee-kwâ-li-zay-shân) n.

e-qual-i-z-er (ee-kwâ-lir-zer) n. 1. a thing that equalizes something. 2. (slang) a gun.

e-qua-nil-ty (ee-kwâ-nil-i-te) n. calmness of mind or temper.

e-quate (i-kwâyt) v. (e-quat-ed, e-quat-ing) to consider to be equal or equivalent, can we equate those two crimes?

e-qua-tion (i-kwâ-yûn) n. 1. a mathematical statement that two expressions (connected by the sign =) are equal. 2. making equal.

e-qua-tor (i-kwâ-tor) n. an imaginary line around Earth at an equal distance from the North and South Poles.

e-qua-tor-i-al (i-kwâ-toh-ral) adj. of or near the equator. □ Equatorial Guinea, a country on the west coast of Africa.

e-qua-ry (ek-wâ-ree) n. (pl. -ries) an officer of the British royal household, attending members of the royal family.

e-ques-tri-an (i-kwes-tri-ân) adj. of horse riding; an equestrian statue, a statue of a person on a horse. eques-trian n. a person who is skilled in horsemanship.

e-ques-tri-enne (i-kwes-tri-ên) n. a woman who is skilled in horsemanship.

e-qui-dis-tant (ek-kuh-diz-uhnt) adj. at an equal distance.

e-qui-lat-e-ra-l (ee-kweh-lat-er-uh-l) adj. having all sides equal.

e-qui-lib-ri-um (ee-kweh-lib-ri-uhm) n. a state of balance.

e-quine (ee-kuh-nej) adj. of or like a horse.

e-qui-nox (ee-kuh-noks) n. the time of year when day and night are of equal length; autumnal equinox, that of September 22nd; vernal equinox, that of March 21st. e-qui-nox-i-al (ee-kweh-nok-shuhl) adj.

e-quip (i-wip) v. (e-quipped, e-quip-ping) to supply with what is needed.

equip. abbr. equipment.

e-qui-page (ek-wi-pij) n. a carriage and horses with attendants.

e-quip-ment (i-wip-ment) n. 1. equipping. 2. the outfit, tools, and other things needed for a particular job or expedition etc.

e-qui-poise (ee-kuh-poyz) n. 1. equilibrium. 2. a counterbalance.

e-qual-bale (ee-kwâl-bâl) adj. fair and just. e’qual-bly adv. Do not confuse equitable with equivalent.

e-qual-tion (ek-wâl-shuhn) n. riding on horseback, horsemanship.

e-qual-ty (ek-wâl-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. fairness, impartiality. 2. Equity, the actors’ union. 3. equalities, stocks not bearing fixed interest, common stocks.

equiv. abbr. equivalent.

e-quiv-a-lent (i-kwiv-uh-lent) adj. equal in value, importance, meaning, etc. equiv-alent n. an equivalent thing or amount or word. e-quiv’al-ence n.

e-quiv-o-cal (i-kwiv-uh-kal) adj. 1. able to be interpreted in two ways, ambiguous. 2. questionable, suspicious, an equivocal character. e-quiv’o-cal-ly adv.

e-quiv-o-cate (i-kwiv-uh-kayt) v. (e-quiv-o-cat-ed, e-quiv-o-cat-ing) Er / erudite

Er- symbol eribium.

-er suffix used to form the comparative degree of adjectives and adverbs of one syllable, as in weaker, faster, and of some adjectives and adverbs of two or more syllables, as in narrower.

-er suffix used to form nouns indicating occupation, as in astronomer: agent, as in maker; instrument, as in computer; person living in a place, as in Easterner.

er (eer-à, er-ä) n. 1. a period of history; the Christian era, the period reckoned from the birth of Christ. 2. a major division of geologic time, containing periods.

ERA abbr. Equal Rights Amendment.

eradicate (i-rad-i-kayt) v. (e-rad-i-cat-ed, e-rad-i-cat-ing) to get rid of, to remove all traces of. e-rad-i-ca-tion (i-rad-i-kay-sh6n) n. e-rad-i-ca-ble (i-rad-i-kä-bël) adj.

erase (i-rays) v. (e-raised, e-ra-sing) to rub or scrape out (marks, writing, etc.), to wipe out a recorded signal from (magnetic tape).

erase-er (i-ray-sèr) n. a thing that erases marks etc., a piece of rubber or other substance for rubbing out marks or writing.

erasure (i-ray-shur) n. 1. erasing. 2. a word etc. that has been erased.

erblum (ur-bi-lüm) n. a rare-earth chemical element.

er (air) conj. & prep. (old use) before.

erect (i-rekt) adj. 1. standing on end, upright, vertical. 2. (of a part of the body) enlarged and rigid from excitement. erect v. to set up, to build. e-rec-tor n.

erectile (i-rek-till) adj. (of parts of the body) able to become enlarged and rigid from excitement.

erection (i-rek-shôn) n. 1. erecting, being erected. 2. something erected, a building. 3. swelling and hardening of a part of the body in sexual excitement.

erect long (air-lawng) adv. (old use) before long.

erg (urg) n. (in physics) a unit of work or energy.

er-go (ur-goh) adv. therefore.

gersterol (ur-gos-té-rahil) n. a steroid present in ergot and yeast, a source of vitamin D.

ergot (ur-göt) n. a fungus affecting rye and other cereals, dried for use in medicine.

Erie (eer-ee) n. a member of an Indian tribe formerly of the Lake Erie region. Erin (er-in) (in poetry) Ireland.

er-mine (ur-min) n. (pl. -mines, -mine) 1. an animal of the weasel family, with brown fur that turns white in winter. 2. this white fur.

erode (i-rohd) v. (e-rod-ed, e-roding) to wear away gradually, especially by rubbing or corroding.

erotic (i-roh-tik) adj. irregular or uneven in movement, quality, habit, etc. er-rot-i-cal-ly adv.

erotica (i-roh-tik-ah) n. (pl. -ta, pr. -tä) 1. an error in printing or writing. 2. errors shown in a list attached to a book etc.

erron. abbr. 1. erroneous. 2. erroneously.

eroneous (i-roh-ni-ús) adj. mistaken, incorrect. er-ro-ne-ous-ly adv.

eror (er-ôr) n. 1. a mistake. 2. the condition of being wrong in opinion or conduct. 3. the amount of inaccuracy in a calculation or a measuring device, an error of 2%. 4. a baseball misplay that allows a runner to advance or that allows a player to be safe who should have been out. er-or-less adj.

eros (er-ôz) adj. serving as a substitute, especially of inferior kind. ersatz n. an inferior substitute, when coffee beans were unavailable, the Germans brewed ersatz.

erst (urst) adv. (old use) formerly.

erstwhile (urst-hwil) adj. & adv. former, formerly.

eruct (ur-rukt) v. 1. to belch. 2. to discharge or emit with violence, as a volcano. e-ruc-ta-tion (i-ruk-tay-shôn) n.

erudite (er-yû-drît) adj. having or showing great learning. er • u • di • tion (er • yu • dish • ōn) n.

e • rupt (i • rupt) v. 1. to break out suddenly and violently. 2. (of a volcano) to shoot forth lava etc., (of a geyser) to spurt wa • ter. 3. to form spots or patches on the skin. e • rup • tive (i • rupt • tiv) adj. e • rup • tion (i • rupt • shōn) n. □ Do not confuse erup • tion with irrupt • tion.

-ery suffix used to form nouns meaning class of persons or things, as in green • ery; condition, as in slavery; place or occupation, as in brewery.

er • y • sip • e • las (er • i • sip • ē • lās) n. inflammation of the skin, caused by a type of bacterium.

er • y • the • ma (er • i • the • mā) n. superficial redness of the skin in patches.

er • yth • ro • cyte (er • ith • rō • sit) n. one of the red blood cells.

Es symbol einsteinium.

es • ca • late (es-kā • layt) v. (es • ca • lat • ed, es • ca • lat • ing) to increase or cause to increase in intensity or extent. es • ca • la • tion (es-kā • lay • shōn) n.

es • ca • la • tor (es-kā • lay • tōr) n. a staircase with an endless line of steps moving up or down. □ escalator clause, a clause in a contract providing for automatic increases or decreases in wages, prices, benefits, etc. under specified conditions.

es • cal • lop, es • cal • op (es-kōl • ḵōp, es • kal •) v. to bake (food) in sauce, usually topped with crumbs. escallop n. a scallop.

es • ca • pade (es-kā • payd) n. an act of reckless or mischievous conduct.

es • cape (es-skāp) v. (es • caped, es • cap • ing) 1. to get oneself free from confinement or control. 2. (of liquid or gas e tc.) to get out of a container, to leak.
3. to succeed in avoiding (capture, punishment, etc.). 4. to be forgotten or unnoticed by; his name escapes me, I have forgotten it. 5. (of words, a sigh, etc.) to be uttered unintentionally. escape n.
1. the act of escaping, the fact of having escaped. 2. a means of escaping. 3. a temporary distraction or relief from reality or worry. es • cap • er n. □ escape clausage, a clause releasing a person etc.
from a contract under specified conditions. escape hatch, a means of emergency exit from a ship etc. escape ve • docity, the minimum velocity needed for one body to escape from the gravitational pull of another.

es • cap • ee (es-skā-pee) n. a person who has escaped from prison or other confinement.

es • cape • ment (es-skāp • ment) n. a mecha nism regulating the movement of a watch or clock etc., a movable catch engaging the projections of a toothed wheel.

es • cap • ist (es • skā • pist) n. a person who likes to escape from the realities of life by absorbing his mind in entertainment or fantasy. es • cap • ism n. this tendency.
es • ca • role (es-kā • roh) n. a variety of en-development with wide frilled leaves, used in salads.

es • carp • ment (es-skārp • ment) n. a steep slope at the edge of a plateau.

es • cen • ce suffix used to form nouns meanning process, condition, or continuing state as in convalescence, corresponding to adjectives ending in -escent.

-escent suffix used to form adjectives meaning beginning to be or do, as in pu • bescence, luminescent.

es • chew (es-cho) v. to avoid or abstain from (certain kinds of action or food etc.).

es • cort (es-kort) n. 1. one or more persons or ships etc. accompanying a person or thing to give protection or as an honor.
2. a person accompanying a member of the opposite sex socially. escort (es-skort) v. to act as escort to.

es • cri • toire (es-kree • twahr) n. a writing desk with drawers.

es • crow (es-kroh) n. 1. a bond to do something, kept in a third person’s custody until some condition has been fulfilled.
2. money or goods so kept.

es • cu • do (es-koo • doh) n. (pl. -dos) the unit of money in Portugal.

es • cutch • eon (es-skuch • ōn) n. a shield or emblem bearing a coat of arms. □ a blot on one’s escutcheon, a stain on one’s reputation.

ESE abbr. east-southeast.

-es suffix used to form adjectives and nouns from names of foreign countries and cities, meaning an inhabitant or language of these, as in Japanese, Viennese, or from nouns or names of writers meaning the style of writing characteristic of these, as in officialese, Carlylese.

Es • kl • mo (es-kl-moh) n. (pl. -mos, -mo)
1. a member of a people living near the Arctic coast of North America and easter Siberia. 2. their language. □ Eskimo dog, a breed of powerful dog with long hair, used by the Eskimos as a sled dog.

e • soph • a • gus (i-sof • ā • gus) n. (pl. -pl, pr.
-ji) the tube leading from the mouth to the stomach, the gullet. e • soph • a • ge al (i-sof • ā • jee-eal) adj.

es • o • ter • ic (es-ō • ter-ik) adj. intended only for people with special knowledge or interest.

ESP abbr. extrasensory perception.

Est. abbr. 1. establish. 2. established. 3. estate. 4. estuary.

-es1 suffix used to form superlatives of adjectives and adverbs, as in widest, fastest.

-es2 suffix (old use) used to form the second person singular of verbs, as in knowest, goest.

estab. abbr. established.

estab.lish (e-stab-lish) v. 1. to set up (a business or government etc.) on a permanent basis. 2. to settle (a person or oneself) in a place or position. 3. to cause people to accept (a custom or belief etc.). 4. to show to be true, to prove, established his innocence. □ established church or religion, one that is made officially a country’s national church or religion.

estab.lish-ment (e-stab-lish-mént) n. 1. establishing, being established. 2. an organized body of people maintained for a purpose, a household or staff of servants etc. 3. a business firm or public institution, its members or employees or premises. □ the Establishment, people who are established in positions of power and authority, exercising influence in the background of public life or other activity and generally resisting changes.

estate (e-stayt) n. 1. landed property. 2. all that a person owns, especially that left at his death. □ estate tax, a tax levied on property after the owner’s death, before transfer to the heirs.

esteem (e-stéem) v. 1. to think highly of. 2. to consider or regard, I should esteem it an honor. esteem n. favorable opinion, respect.

ester (es-tér) n. a chemical compound formed when an acid and an alcohol interact in a certain way.

esthetics = aesthete.

esthetics = aesthetic.

esthetic adj. worthy of esteem.

est-ti-mate (es-ti-mat) v. 1. a judgment of a thing’s approximate value or amount etc. 2. a contractor’s statement of the sum for which he will undertake specified work. 3. a judgment of character or qualities. estimate (es-ti-mat) v. (es-ti-mat-ed, es-ti-mat-ing) to form an estimate of. est-ti-ma-tor n.

est-ti-ma-tion (es-ti-ma-shun) n. 1. estimating. 2. judgment of a person’s or thing’s worth.

Es-to-nia (e-stoh-ni-ä) a republic of the estrang...
gas, used as an anesthetic and to improve the color of citrus fruits.

e·ti·o·late (ee-ti-o-late) v. (e·ti·o·lat·ed, e·ti·o·lat·ing) to make (a plant) pale through lack of light. e·ti·o·la·tion (ee-ti-o-lay-shan) n.

e·ti·o·log·ic·al adj.

et·i·o·log·ic·al (ee-ti-o-d-lay-shdn) n. etymology.

et·i·o·log·ic·al (e·ti·o·log·ic·al) adj.

etiology. 2.

1. the study of words and their origins. 2. the conserved elements, especially the bread. Eu·char·is·tic (yoo-ká-ris-tik) adj.

Eu·char·is·tic (yoo-ká-ris-tik) adj.

Eu·char·is·tic (yoo-ká-ris-tik) adj.

Eu·chre (yoo-ká) n. a game played with a pack of thirty-two cards. euchre

Eu·chre (yoo-chred, eu·chring) to outwit.

Eu·cly·dian (yoo-klí-dí-án) adj. of Euclid, a mathematician of Alexandria c.300 B.C.

Eu·gen·ics (yoo-jen-iks) n. the study of improving the human species by improvement of inherited qualities. eu·gen·ic adj. eu·gen·i·cal·ly adv. eu·gen·i·cal·st (yoo-jen-i-sist) n.

Eu·lo·giz·ing (yoo-lo-giz-ing) to write or utter a eulogy of.

Eu·lo·gy (yoo-lo-jee) n. (pl. -gies) a speech or piece of writing in praise of a person or thing. » Do not confuse eulogy with elegy.

Eu·nuch (yoo-núk) n. a castrated man, especially one employed in a harem.

Eu·phe·mism (yoo-fé-miz-ém) n. a mild or roundabout expression substituted for one considered improper or too harsh or blunt (pass away is a euphemism for die). eu·phe·mis·tic (yoo-fé-mis-tik) adj. eu·phe·mis·ti·cal·ly adv.

Eu·pho·ni·um (yoo-foh-núm) n. a large brass wind instrument, a tenor tuba.

euphonic (yoo-fó-ník) adj. euphonic (yoo-fó-ník) adj.

euphony (yoo-fó-ní) n. (pl. -nies) pleasantness of sounds, especially in words. eu·pho·ni·ous (yoo-fó-ní-ús) adj.

Eu·pho·ri·a (yoo-for-i-á) n. a feeling of general well-being. eu·phor·ic adj.

Eur·a·niu·sian (yoo-ray-z/ia) adj. 1. of Europe and Asia. 2. of mixed European and Asian parentage. Eur·a·niu·sia n. a Eurasian person.

Eu·re·ka (yu·ru·ku·kä) interj. I have found it, an exclamation of triumph at a discovery. » Said to have been uttered by the Greek mathematician Archimedes (3rd century B.C.) on realizing that the volume of an object can be calculated by the amount of water it displaces.

Eu·ro·bond (yoor-ô-bond) n. a bond issued in dollar denominations by a U.S. corporation but sold outside the U.S., especially in Europe.

Eu·ro·com·mu·nism (yoo·or-ô-kom-yú-niz-ém) n. a form of Communism in European countries seeking independence from the Soviet Communist Party. Eu·ro·com·mun·ist n.

Eu·ro·dol·lar (yoor-ô-dol-lár) n. a dollar held in a bank outside the U.S., usually in Europe.

Eu·ro·pe·an (yoor-ô-pee-ân) adj. & n. European Economic Community, see Common Market. European plan, a hotel rate covering room and service but not meals.

Eu·ro·pi·um (yu·ru·pi·üm) n. a chemical element.

Eu·sta·chian (yoo-stay-shan) tube the passage between the middle ear and the pharynx.

Eu·tha·na·sia (yoo-thá·na·zá) n. the bringing about of a gentle and easy death.
for a person suffering from a painful incurable disease.

eutoptic (yoo-troh-fik) adj. (of a pond etc.) rich in nutrients and hence having excessive plant growth, which kills animal life by depriving it of oxygen. eutrophication (yoo-troh-fi-kay-shon) n. eutrophy (yoo-trö-fee) n.

EVA abbr. extravehicular activity.

evacuate (i-vak-yoo-ayt) v. (e-vac-u-ate-ed, e-vac-u-ate-ing) 1. to send (people) away from a place considered dangerous, to remove the occupants of (a place). 2. to empty (a vessel) of air etc. 3. to empty the contents of (the bowel or other organ). evacuation (i-vak-yoo-ay-shon) n. evacuee (i-vak-yoo-ee) n. an evacuated person.
evade (i-vayd) v. (e-vad-ed, e-vad-ing) to avoid (a person or thing) by cleverness or trickery; evade the question, to avoid giving a direct answer to it.
evaluate (i-val-yoo-ayt) v. (e-val-u-ate-ed, e-val-u-ate-ing) to find out or state the value of, to assess. evaluation (i-val-yoo-ay-shon) n. evanescent (ee-va-nes-cent) adj. (of an impression etc.) fading quickly. evanesence n. evangelical (ee-van-jel-i-kal) adj. 1. according to the teaching of the gospel or the Christian religion. 2. (also Evangelical), of a Protestant group believing that salvation is achieved by faith in atonement through Christ. evangelist (i-van-jel-ist) adj. evangely adv.
evangelism (i-van-jel-iz-izm) n. preaching or spreading of the gospel.
evangelistic (i-van-jel-ist-tik) adj. evangelically adv.
evangelists (i-van-jel-ists) n. 1. any of the authors of the Four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, John). 2. a person who preaches the gospel.
evangelize (i-van-jel-iz) v. (e-van-gel-ized, e-van-gel-iz-ing) to preach or spread the gospel to, to win over to Christianity. evangelization (i-van-jel-iz-a-shon) n.

evaporate. abbr. evaporate.
evaporate (i-vap-o-rayt) v. (e-vap-o-rate-ed, e-vap-o-rate-ing) 1. to turn or be turned into vapor. 2. to lose or cause to lose moisture in this way. 3. to cease to exist, their enthusiasm evaporated. evaporator (i-vap-o-ra-tor) n. evaporative adj. evaporative (i-vap-o-ra-tive) adj. evaporated milk, unsweetened milk thickened by partial evaporation and canned.

event (i-vent) n. 1. something that happens, especially something important. 2. the fact of a thing happening; in the event of his death, if he dies. 3. an item in a sports program. at all events, in any ex. abbr. 1. examination. 2. examined. 3. example. 4. except. 5. exception. 6. exchange. 7. excursion. 8. executed. 9. executive. 10. express. 11. extra.

Ex. abbr. Exodus.

ex- prefix former, as in ex-president, ex-convict; outside, out of, as in exodus.

ex-acer-bate (ig-zas-er-bayt) v. (ex-ac-er-bat-ed, ex-ac-er-bat-ing) to make (pain, disease, anger, etc.) worse.

ex-acer-bation (ig-zas-er-ray-shon) n.

ex-act (ig-zakt) adj. 1. correct in every detail, free from error. 2. giving all details, gave me exact instructions. 3. capable of being precise, the exact sciences. exact v. to insist on and obtain, exacted payment or obedience. ex-act’ness n. ex-action (ig-zak-shon) n.

ex-act-ing (ig-zak-ting) adj. making great demands, requiring or insisting on great effort, an exacting task or teacher.

ex-ac-ti-tude (ig-zak-ti-tood) n. exactness.

ex-ac-ly (ig-zakt-lee) adv. 1. in an exact manner. 2. (said in agreement) quite so, as you say. □ not exactly, (informal) by no means, didn’t exactly enjoy it.

ex-ag-ger-ate (ig-zag-er-rayt) v. (ex-ag-ger-at-ed, ex-ag-ger-at-ing) to make (a thing) seem larger or better or smaller or worse than it really is; with exaggerated courtesy, with excessive courtesy. ex-ag-ger-a-tor n. ex-ag-ger-a-tion (ig-zag-a-ray-tion) n.

ex-alt (ig-zawlt) v. 1. to raise (a person) in rank or power or dignity. 2. to praise highly.

ex-al-ta-tion (eg-zawl-tay-shon) n. 1. exalting, being exalted. 2. elation, spiritual delight. △ Do not confuse exultation with exultation.

ex-am (ig-zam) n. (informal) an examination.

ex-am-i-na-tion (ig-zam-i-nay-shon) n. 1. examining, being examined or looked at. 2. the testing of knowledge or ability by oral or written questions or by exercises. 3. a formal questioning of a witness or an accused person in a court of law.

ex-am-i-ne (ig-zam-in) v. (ex-am-in-ed, ex-am-in-ing) 1. to look at in order to learn about or from, to look at closely. 2. to subject to questions or exercises etc. in order to test knowledge or ability. 3. to question formally in order to get information. ex-am-i’ner n.

ex-am-i-nee (ig-zam-i-nee) n. a person being tested in an examination.

ex-am-ple (ig-zam-pel) n. 1. a fact that illustrates a general rule, a thing that shows the quality or characteristics of others in the same group or of the same kind. 2. something (especially conduct) that is worthy of imitation, her courage is an example to us all. □ for example, by way of illustrating a general rule. make an example of, to punish as a warning to others. set an example, to behave in a way that is worthy of imitation.

ex-as-per-at-e (ig-zas-per-rayt) v. (ex-as-per-at-ed, ex-as-per-at-ing) to annoy greatly. ex-as-per-a-tion (ig-zas-per-ray-shon) n.

exc. abbr. 1. excellent. 2. except. 3. exception. 4. excursion.

ex ca-the-dra (eks ká-the-dra, kath-e-dra) given by an authoritative person, especially the pope, as an infallible judgment.

ex-ca-vate (eks-ká-vayt) v. (ex-ca-vat-ed, ex-ca-vat-ing) 1. to make (a hole or channel) by digging, to dig out (soil). 2. to reveal or extract by digging. ex-ca-va-tor n. ex-ca-vation (eks-ká-ray-shon) n.

ex-ceed (ik-seed) v. 1. to be greater than. 2. to go beyond the limit of, to do more than is warranted by, exceeded his authority. △ Do not confuse exceed with accede.

ex-ceed-ing-ly (ik-see-ding-lee) adv. very, extremely.

ex cel (ik-sel) v. (ex-celled, ex-cel-ling) 1. to be better than. 2. to be very good at something. □ excel oneself, to do better than one has ever done before.

ex cel-lence (ek-se-lens) n. very great merit or quality.

ex cel-len-cy (ek-se-lenn-se) n. (pl. -cies) the title of high officials such as ambassadors and governors.

ex cel-lent (ek-se-lent) adj. extremely good. ex cel-lent-ly adv.

ex cel-si-or (ik-sel-si-ór) interj. (as a motto etc.) higher.

ex cep-t (ik-sept) prep. not including, they all left except me. except v. to exclude from a statement or calculation etc. △ Do not confuse except with accept.

ex cep-tion (ik-sep-ting) n. (esp. one) except.

ex cep-tion (ik-sep-shon) n. 1. excepting, being excepted. 2. a thing that does not follow the general rule. □ take exception to, to object to. the exception proves the rule, the excepting of some cases proves that the rule exists, or that it applies to all other cases. with the exception of, except.

ex cep-tion-a-ble (ik-sep-shon-a-bel) adj. open to objection.

ex cep-tion-al (ik-sep-shon-al) adj. 1. forming an exception, very unusual. 2. outstandingly good. ex cep tion·al·ly adv.
ex cerpt (ek-surpt) n. an extract from a book or film or piece of music etc. ex cerpt (ik-surpt) v. to select excerpts from.
ex cess (ik-ses, ek-ses) n. 1. the exceeding of due limits. 2. an amount by which one number or quantity etc. exceeds another. 3. excesses, immoderation in eating or drinking. □ excess baggage, the amount that is over the weight for free carriage. excess-profits tax, a tax levied on business profits that are in excess of the average profits of a standard period. in excess of, more than.

Do not confuse excess with access.
ex ces·sive (ik-ses-iv) adj. greater than what is normal or necessary, too much.
ex ces·sive·ly adv.
exch. abbr. 1. exchange. 2. exchequer.
ex·change (iks-chayn) v. (ex·changed, ex·chang·ing) 1. to give or receive (one thing) in place of another. 2. to give to and receive from another person; they exchanged glances, looked at each other.
ex change n. 1. exchanging (goods, prisoners, words, blows, etc.). 2. the exchanging of money for its equivalent in another currency, the relation in value between the money of two or more countries. 3. a place where merchants or stockbrokers etc. assemble to do business, a stock exchange. 4. the central telephone office of a district, where connections are made between lines concerned in calls.
ex change·a·ble (iks-chayn-jä-bēl) adj. able to be exchanged.
ex cheq·u·er (eks-chek-ēr) n. a national treasury.
ex·cil·e (ek-siz, -sis) n. duty or tax (also excise tax) levied on certain goods and licenses etc.
ex·cil·e2 (ik-siz) v. (ex·cised, ex·cis·ing) to remove by cutting out or away, excise tissue from the body; excise a passage from a book. ex·cil·sion (ik-siz·shōn) n.
ex·cil·ate (ik-sil·at) v. (ex·cil·ed, ex·cil·ing) 1. to rouse the feelings of, to cause (a person) to feel strongly, to make eager. 2. to cause (a feeling or reaction), it excited curiosity. 3. to produce activity in (a nerve or organ of the body etc.). ex·cil·ta·tion (ek-sil·tā-shōn) n.
ex·cil·ed (ik-sil·id) adj. feeling or showing excitement. ex·cil·ed·ly adv.
ex·cil·ent (ik-sil·ent) n. 1. a state of great emotion, especially that caused by something pleasant. 2. something causing this.
ex·cil·ing (ik-sil·ing) adj. causing great interest or eagerness. ex·cil·ing·ly adv.
ex·cil·m·a·tion (ek-sil·mā·shān) n. 1. exclaiming. 2. a word or words etc. exclaimed. □ exclamation point or mark, the punctuation mark ! placed after an exclamation.
ex·clam·a·to·ry (ik-sklām·ā·tōr·ē) adj. of or containing or being an exclamation.
ex·clude (ik-sklood) v. (ex·clud·ed, ex·clud·ing) 1. to keep out (a person or thing) from a place or group or privilege etc. 2. to omit, to ignore as irrelevant, do not exclude this possibility. 3. to make impossible, to prevent. ex·clu·sion (ik-skloo·zhōn) n.
ex·clu·sive (ik-skloo·siv) adj. 1. not admitting something else; the schemes are mutually exclusive, if you accept one you must reject the other. 2. (of groups or societies) admitting only certain carefully selected people to membership. 3. (of shops or their goods) catering only to the wealthy, expensive. 4. (of terms etc.) excluding all but what is specified. 5. (of an article in a newspaper or goods in a shop) not published or obtainable elsewhere. 6. done or held etc. so as to exclude everything else, his exclusive occupation; we have the exclusive rights, not shared with others. exclusive adv. not counting, twenty men exclusive of our own. ex·clus·ive·ly adv. ex·clus·iveness n.
ex·com·mu·ni·cate (eks-kō·myoo·nī·kat) v. (ex·com·mu·ni·cat·ed, ex·com·mu·ni·cat·ing) to cut off (a person) from participation in a religion, especially in its sacraments. ex·com·mu·ni·ca·tion (eks-kō·myoo·nī·kā·shōn) n.
ex·co·ri·ate (ik-skōr·ē·a·tē) v. (ex·co·ri·ated, ex·co·ri·at·ing) 1. to remove part of the skin by abrasion, to strip or peel off (skin). 2. to denounce, to reproach harshly.
ex·cre·ment (ek-skrey·mēnt) n. feces. ex·cre·men·tal (eks-kreh·men·tal) adj.
ex·cre·sen·ce (ik-skre·sēn·sē) n. 1. an outgrowth, especially an abnormal one, on an animal body or a plant. 2. an ugly or disfiguring addition, as to a building. ex·cre·sen·cent adj.
ex·cre·ta (ik-skre·tē) n. pl. waste matter expelled from the body, especially feces. ex·cre·te (ik-skrēt) v. (ex·cret·ed, ex·cret·ing) to separate and expel (waste exhaustion / exothermic in turn. exhaust n. 1. the expulsion or exit of waste gases from an engine etc. 2. these gases. 3. the device through which they are sent out.

exhaustion (ig-zaws-chôn) n. 1. exhausting something, being exhausted. 2. total loss of strength.

exhaustive (ig-zaws-tiv) adj. thorough, trying all possibilities, we made an exhaustive search. ex-haust-ive ly adv.

exhibit n. a thing or collection of things exhibited. ex-hib- i-ter n.

exhibition (ek-sl-bish-on) n. 1. exhibiting, being exhibited. 2. a display or show, an exhibition of temper. 3. a public display of works of art or industrial products etc. or of a skilled performance.

make an exhibition of oneself, to behave so that one appears ridiculous.

exhibitionism (ek-sl-bish-d-nizm) n. a tendency toward exhibitionist behavior.

exhibitionist (ek-sl-bish-ô-nist) n. a person who behaves in a way designed to attract attention to himself. exhibitionist adj.

exhibit-rate (ig-zil-ä-ray-t) v. (ex-hil-a-rate-ed, ex-hil-a-rate-ing) to make very happy or lively.

exhibit-line (ig-zil-ä-ray-shôn) n.

exhort (ig-zort) v. to urge or advise earnestly. ex-hor-ta-tion (eg-zor-tay-shôn) n.

exhume (ig-zoom, -zyoom) v. (ex-hum̱ed, ex-hum-ing) to dig up (something buried, especially a corpse). ex-hum-a-tion (egz-yoo-may-shôn) n exigency (ek-si-jen-si-cy) (ek-si-jen-si see) n. (pl. -cies) 1. an urgent need, the exigencies of the situation. 2. an emergency.

exigent (ek-si-jent) adj. 1. urgent. 2. exacting, requiring much. ex-i-gent-ly adv.

exiguous (ig-zig-yoo-u)s adj. very small, scanty. ex-ig-u-i-ty (eg-zil-yoo-i-te) n.

exile (eg-zil) n. 1. being sent away from one's country as a punishment. 2. long absence from one's country or home. 3. an exiled person. exile v. (ex-iled, ex-il-ing) to send (a person) into exile.

exist (ig-zist) v. 1. to have place as part of what is real, do fairies exist? 2. to have actual being under specified conditions, to occur or be found. 3. continue living, we cannot exist without food.

existence (ig-zis-tens) n. 1. the state of existing, occurrence, presence. 2. con-continuance in life or being, the struggle for existence.

exist (ig-zis-tent) adj. existing, actual, current.

existence-ism (eg-zis-ten-sha-лиз-ëm) n. a philosophical theory emphasizing that man is responsible for his own actions and free to choose his development and destiny. ex-is-ten-tial-ism adj. & n.

exit (eg-zit, ek-sit) v. 1. (stage direction) he or she leaves the stage. 2. to go out.

exit n. 1. an actor's or performer's departure from the stage. 2. the act of going away or out, departure from a place or position etc. 3. a passage or door to go out by. □ exit visa, permission to leave a country.

exobiology (ek-soh-bi-o-jee) n. the study of life outside Earth. ex-o-bi-o-log-i-st n. ex-o-bi-o-log-i-cal adj.

exocrine (ek-so-o-krin) gland a gland that pours out its secretions through a duct.

Exod. abbr. Exodus.

exodus (ek-so-Dûs) n. 1. a departure of many people. 2. Exodus, the second book of the Old Testament, telling of the exodus of the Israelites from Egypt.

ex officio (eks ô-fish-i-oh) because of one's official position, the director is an ex officio member of this committee or is a member ex officio. □ Latin.

exogenous (ek-soj-e-nûs) adj. growing or originating externally.

exonerate (ig-zon-ë-rayt) v. (ex-on-er-at-ed, ex-on-er-at-ing) to free from blame, to declare (a person) to be blameless.

exoneration (ig-zon-ë-ray-shôn) n.

exor. abbr. executor.

exorcist (ig-zor-ë-tant) adj. (of a price or demand) much too great.

exorcise (ek-sôr-siz) v. (ex-or-cised, ex-or-cis-ing) 1. to drive out (an evil spirit) by prayer. 2. to free (a person or place) of evil spirits. ex-or-cism (ek-sôr-sizëm) n. ex-or-cist n. □ Do not confuse exorcise with exercise.

exordium (ig-zor-dë-ûm) n. (pl. -di-ums, -di-a, pr. -di-a) the beginning or introductory part, especially of a discourse or treatise.

exoskeleton (ek-soh-skël-ë-tôn) n. an external bony or leathery covering of an animal, such as the shell of a lobster.

exosphere (ek-soh-sfeer) n. the outermost layer of Earth's atmosphere. ex-o-sphere-ic (ek-soh-sfeer-ik) adj.

exothermic (ek-so-thur-mik), ex-o-thermal (ek-soh-thur-mål) adj. liberating, as opposed to absorbing, heat.

exotic / expense

ex·ot·ic (ig-zot-ik) adj. 1. (of plants, words, or fashions) introduced from abroad, not native. 2. striking and attractive through being colorful or unusual.

ex·ot·i-cal·ly adv. ex·ot·i·cal·ism (ig-zot-i-siz-em) n. exotic dancer, a striptease dancer.

exp. abbr. 1. expenses. 2. experimental. 3. expired. 4. exponential. 5. export. 6. exportation. 7. exported. 8. exporter. 9. express.

ex·pand (ik-spand) v. 1. to make or become larger, to increase in bulk or importance. 2. to unfold or spread out. 3. to give a fuller account of, to write out in full (what is condensed or abbreviated). 4. to become genial, to throw off one's reserve. ex·pan·der n.

ex·pan·se (ik-spans) n. a wide area or extent of open land or space, etc.

ex·pan·sion (ik-span-shon) n. expanding, increase, extension.

ex·pan·sion·ism (ik-span-sho-niz-em) n. a policy or theory of expansion, especially of territory. ex·pan·sion·ist adj. & n.

ex·pan·sive (ik-span-siv) adj. 1. able or tending to expand. 2. (of a person or his manner) genial, communicating thoughts and feelings readily. ex·pan·sive·ly adv. ex·pan·sive·ness n.

ex·par·te (eks-pahr-tee) 1. on, or in the interests of, one side only in a legal dispute. 2. made or said thus, an ex parte opinion. □ Latin.

ex·pa·ti·ate (ik-spay-shi-a-yt) v. (ex·pa·ti·at·ed, ex·pa·ti·a·ting) to speak or write about (a subject) at great length or in detail. ex·pa·ti·a·tion (ik-spay-shy-a-shen) n.

ex·pa·tri·ate (eks-pay-tri-a-yt) v. (ex·pa·tri·at·ed, ex·pa·tri·a·ting) to banish, to withdraw (oneself) from one's native country and live abroad. expatriate (eks-pay-tri-it) adj. expatriated, living abroad. expatriate (eks-pay-tri-it) n. an expatriate person. ex·pa·tri·a·tion (eks-pay-tri-a-shen) n.

ex·pect (ik-spekt) v. 1. to think or believe that (a thing) will happen or come, or that (a person) will come. 2. to wish for and be confident that one will receive, to consider necessary, he expects obedience. 3. to think, to suppose. □ be expect·ing, (informal) to be pregnant. ex·pect·ing a baby, pregnant.

ex·pect·an·cy (ik-spekt-an-see) n. a state of expectation. □ life expectancy, the average period that persons of a certain age are expected to live.

ex·pect·ant (ik-spekt-tant) adj. filled with expectation. ex·pect·ant·ly adv.
ployee's expenses to be paid by his employer.

experience (ek-spri-ens) n. 1. actual observation of facts or events, activity or practice in doing something. 2. skill or knowledge gained in this way. 3. an event or activity that gives one experience. experience v. (ex-per-i-enced, ex-per-i-encing) to observe or share in (an event etc.) personally, to be affected by (a feeling).

experienced (ik-speeri-ënst) adj. having knowledge or skill gained from much experience.

experiential (ik-speeri-ën-tial) adj. of experience.

experience, experiment. much or skill.

knowledge 2.

skill knowledge

ly 2.

ly)

(event)

(ik-sper-i-ment)

knowledge

expensive

ex*pli*cate (ik-spli-ëkt) v. (ex-pli-cat-ed, ex-pli-cat-ing) to make clear, to explain (a literary work etc.).

explic-it (ik-spilz-it) adj. stating something in exact terms, not merely implying things. explic-it-ly adv. explic-it-ness n.

explode (ik-splohd) v. (ex-plod-ed, ex-plod-ing) 1. to expand suddenly with a loud noise because of the release of internal energy, to cause (a bomb etc.) to do this. 2. (of feelings) to burst out, (of a person) to show sudden violent emotion, exploded with laughter. 3. (of a population or a supply of goods etc.) to increase suddenly or rapidly. 4. to destroy (a theory) by showing it to be false. exploded diagram, one showing the parts of a structure in their relative positions but slightly separated from each other.

exploit (ek-sploit) n. a bold or notable deed. exploit (ik-sploit) v. 1. to work or develop (mines and other natural resources). 2. to take full advantage of, to use (workers, colonial possessions, etc.) for one's own advantage and without regard for theirs. exploitaton (ek-sploi-tay-shon) n.

explore (ik-splohr) v. (ex-plor-ed, ex-plor-ing) 1. to travel into or through (a country etc.) in order to learn about it. 2. to examine by touch. 3. to examine or investigate (a problem, possibilities, etc.). ex-plora-tion (ek-splö-ray-shon) n.

explorer (ik-splohr-ër) n. a person who explores unknown regions.

explosion (ik-splozhon) n. 1. exploding, being exploded, a loud noise caused by this. 2. a sudden outburst of anger, laughter, etc. 3. a sudden great increase, the population explosion.

explosive n. an explosive substance.

expound (ek-spönd) n. (pl. -pos) (informal) an exposition (definition 2).

expoundent (ik-spönd-ënt) n. 1. a person who sets out the facts or interprets something. 2. one who favors a particular theory or policy. 3. (in mathematics) a symbol indicating what power of a factor... is to be taken, usually written at the upper right of the factor symbol. ex- po-nen-tial adj. ex- po-nen-ly adv. □exponential growth, increasingly rapid growth.

ex-port (ik-spo-hrt, ek-spo-hrt) v. to send (goods etc.) to another country for sale.

ex-port (ek-spo-hrt) n. 1. exporting. 2. a thing exported. ex-port'er n. ex- port-a-tion (ek-spo-hr-tay-shon) n.

ex-port-a-ble (ik-spo-hr-tä-bèl) adj. able to be exported.

ex- pose (ik-spo-hzh) v. (ex-posed, ex- pos-ing) 1. to leave (a person or thing) uncovered or unprotected, especially from the weather. 2. to subject to a risk etc. 3. to allow light to reach (photographic film or plate). 4. to make visible, to reveal. 5. to make known or reveal (a crime, fraud, impostor, etc.), to reveal the wrongdoings of (a person). □ex- pose oneself, to expose one's body indecently.

ex-po-sé (ek-spo-zay) n. public revelation of a scandal.

ex-po- sed (ik-spo-zed) adj. (of a place) not sheltered.

ex-po-sl-tion (ek-spó-zish-ön) n. 1. expounding, an explanatory account of a plan or theory etc. 2. a large public exhibition.

ex-pos-i-tor (ik-spo-z-é-tor) n. a person who explains or expounds.

ex-pos-i-to-ry (ik-spo-z-é-toh-re) adj. serving to clarify, expound, etc.; expository writing, exposition.

ex post fac-to (eks poht fak-toh) acting or applying retrospectively. □ Latin.

ex-pos-tu-la-tion (ik-spos-tul-ay-shon) n. (ex- pos-tu-lat-ed, ex-pos-tu-lat-ing) to make a friendly protest, to reason or argue with a person.

ex-pos- tu-la-tion (ik-spos-chu-lay-shon) n.

ex- po-sure (ik-spo-zhür) n. 1. exposing or being exposed to air or cold or danger etc.; died of exposure, from the effects of being exposed to cold. 2. the exposing of photographic film or plate to the light, the length of time for which this is done. 3. a section of film exposed as a unit. □exposure meter, a device measuring light and indicating the length of time needed for a photographic exposure.

ex-pound (ik-spo-wond) v. to set forth or explain in detail. ex-pound'er n.

ex-pres (ik-spres) adj. 1. definitely stated, not merely implied. 2. going or sent quickly, designed for high speed, (of a train or elevator etc.) traveling rapidly to its destination with few or no intermediate stops. 3. (of a letter or parcel) delivered quickly by a special messenger or service. ex-pres adv. at high speed, by express service. ex-pres n. an express train. ex-pres v. 1. to make known (feelings or qualities). 2. to put (thought etc.) into words. 3. to represent by means of symbols, as in mathematics. 4. to press or squeeze out. 5. to send by express service. □ex-pres oneself, to communicate one's thoughts or feelings.

ex-pres-sion (ik-spres-ë) n. 1. expressing, being expressed. 2. a word or phrase. 3. a look that expresses one's feelings. 4. a manner of speaking or playing music in a way that shows feeling for the meaning. 5. a collection of mathematical symbols expressing a quantity.

ex-pres-sion-ism (ik-spres-ë-izm) n. a style of painting, drama, or music seeking to express the artist's or writer's emotional experience rather than represent the physical world realistically. ex-pres-sion-ist n. ex-pres-sion-ist adj.

ex-pres-sion-less (ik-spres-ë-ës) adj. without positive expression, not revealing one's thoughts or feelings, an expressionless face.

ex-pres-sive (ik-spres-iv) adj. 1. serving to express, a tone expressive of contempt. 2. full of expression, an expressive voice.

ex-pres-sive-ly adv. ex-pres-sive-ness n.

ex-pres-ly (ik-spres-lee) adv. 1. explicitly. 2. for a particular purpose.

ex-pres-sion-way (ik-spres-way) n. a limited-access highway for high-speed travel.

ex-pro-pri-a-tion (eks-proh-pri-ët-ën) v. (ex-pro-pri-at-ed, ex-pro-pri-at-ing) 1. to take away (property) by official action without an owner's approval. 2. to take and use (another's work, idea, etc.) as one's own. ex-pro-pri-a-tion (eks-proh-pri-ët-shon) n.

expt. abbr. experiment.

ex-pul-sion (ik-spul-shön) n. expelling, being expelled.

ex-pul-sive (ik-spul-sëv) adj. expelling.

ex-punge (ik-spunj) v. (ex-pungened, ex-pung-ing) to wipe or rub out, to delete.

ex-pur-gate (ek-spur-gët) v. (ex-pur-ga-ted, ex-pur-ga-t-ing) to remove objectionable matter from (a book etc.), to remove (such matter). ex-pur-ga-tor n. ex-pur-ga-tion (ek-spur-gay-shön) n.

expwy. abbr. expressway.

ex-qu-i-site (eks-kwiz-ët, ik-skwiz-ët) adj. 1. having special beauty. 2. having excellent discrimination, exquisite taste in dress. 3. acute, keenly felt, exquisite pain. ex'- qui-site-ly adv.
ex-serv-i-ce-man (eks-sur-vis-man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) a male former member of the armed services.

ex-serv-i-ce-wom-an (eks-sur-vis-wum-àn) n. (pl. -wom-en, pr. -wim-in) a female former member of the armed services.

ext. abbr. 1. extension. 2. exterior. 3. external. 4. extinct. 5. extra. 6. extract.

ex-tant (ek-stánt) adj. still existing. △Do not confuse extant with extent.

ex-tem-po-re (ik-stem-pö-rec) adj. & adv. spoken or done without preparation, impromptu.

ex-tend (ik-stend) v. 1. to make longer in space or time. 2. to stretch out (a hand or foot or limb etc.). 3. to reach, to be continuous over an area or from one point to another, our land extends to the river. 4. to enlarge, to increase the scope of. 5. to offer or grant, extend a welcome. 6. (of a task) to stretch the ability of (a person) fully. ex-tend'er n. ex-ten-ded family, a family including all relatives living near.

ex-tend-able, ex-tend-i-ble (ik-stend-i-bel) adj. able to be extended.

ex-ten-sion (ik-sten-shon) n. 1. extending, being extended. 2. extent, range. 3. an addition or continuance, a section extended from the main part. 4. an additional period. 5. a subsidiary telephone distant from the main one, its number. 6. instruction by a university or college away from the institution proper, extension courses.

ex-ten-sive (ik-sten-siv) adj. 1. large in area, extensive gardens. 2. wide-ranging, large in scope, extensive knowledge. ex-ten-sive-ly adv. ex-ten-sive-ness n.

ex-ten-tent (ik-stent) n. 1. the space over which a thing extends. 2. the range or scope of something, the full extent of his power. 3. a large area, an extent of pasture. △Do not confuse extent with extant.

ex-ten-u-ate (ik-sten-yoo-ayt) v. (ex-ten-u-at-ed, ex-ten-u-at-ing) to make (a person's guilt or offense) seem less great by providing a partial excuse, extenuating circumstances. ex-ten-u-a-tion (ik-sten-yoo-ay-shon) n.

ex-te-ri-or (ik-steer-i-ôr) adj. on or coming from the outside. exterior n. an exterior surface or part or appearance.

ex-te-ri-er-ly adj. 1. less than one's usual or expected. 2. less than usually, extra strong. extra n. 1. an extra thing, something additional. 2. a thing for which an additional charge is made. 3. a special issue of a newspaper etc. 4. a person engaged temporarily for a minor part or to form one of a crowd in a motion picture.

extra-prefix situated outside or not coming within the scope of, as extralegal.

ex-tract (ik-strakt) 1. v. to take out by force or effort (something firmly fixed). 2. to obtain (money, information, etc.) from someone unwilling to give it. 3. to obtain (juice) by suction or pressure, to obtain (a substance) as an extract. 4. to obtain (information from a book etc.), to take or copy passages from (a book). 5. to derive (pleasure etc.) from. extract (ek-strakt) n. 1. a substance separated from another by dissolving it or by other treatment. 2. a concentrated substance prepared from another. 3. a passage from a book, play, film, or music. extract'able adj. extract'or n. ex'trac tion (ik-strak-shén) n. 1. extracting. 2. descent, lineage, he is of Polish extraction.
extraneous (ek-strá-ri-nás) adj. not coming within the curriculum, as school activities or sports.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-šén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ik-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-tá-bél) adj. liable to extradition, (of a crime) warranting extradition.
ex'tra-di-tion (ik-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex'tra-di-tion (ek-strá-di-shén) n.
ex’t’re-mismatic (ek-stre-miz-ik) adj. of extrinsic origin.
ex’t’re-mil’ty (ik-streem-il-see) n. (pl. -ties) 1. an extreme point, the end of something. 2. an extreme degree of feeling or need or danger etc. 3. extremities, the hands and feet.
ex’t’re-ca-bled (ek-stri-ká-bél) adj. able to be extricated.
ex’t’re-cate (ek-stri-ká-tayt) v. (ex-tri-ca-te’d, ex-tri-ca-te’d, ex-tri-ca-te’d) to disentangle or release from an entanglement or difficulty etc. ex’t’re-ca’tion (ek-stri-ká-shén) n.
ex’t’re-sic’ (ek-stri-sik) adj. 1. originating from outside, external. 2. not belonging to the basic nature of a person or thing. ex’t’re-sic’al ly adv. Do not confuse extrinsic with intrinsic.
ex’t’re-ver’ted (ek-stró-vur-tid) adj. having the characteristics of an extrvert.
extrude / Ezra

ex-trude (ik-strood) v. (ex-trud-ed, ex-trud-ing) 1. to thrust or squeeze out. 2. to shape (metal or plastic etc.) by forcing through a die. ex-trud'er n. ex-tru-sion (ik-stroo-zhôn) n.
ex-tru-sive (ik-stroo-siv) adj. forced out (as molten matter) through Earth's crust.
ex-u-ber-ant (ig-zoo-bë-rânt) adj. 1. full of high spirits, very lively. 2. growing profusely, plants with exuberant foliage. ex-u-ber-ant-ly adv. ex-u-ber-ance n.
ex-u-de (ig-zood) v. (ex-u-ded, ex-u-ding) 1. to ooze out, to give off like sweat or a smell. 2. to show (pleasure, confidence etc.) freely. ex-u-date (eks-yû-dayt) n. a substance that has been exuded. ex-u-da-tion (eks-yû-day-shôn) n.
ex-ult (ig-zult) v. to rejoice greatly. ex-ulta-tion (eg-zûl-tay-shôn) n. > Do not confuse exultation with exaltation.
ex-ul-tant (ig-zul-tânt) adj. exulting. ex-ul-tant-ly adv.
ex-urb (ek-surb) n. a prosperous area beyond the suburbs. ex-ur-bi-a (ek-sur-bi-â) n.
ex-ur-ban-ite (ek-sur-bâ-nit) n. a person who lives in an exurb.
-ey suffix used to form adjectives from nouns ending in y, as in clayey.
eye (i) n. 1. the organ of sight in man and animals. 2. the iris of this, blue eyes. 3. the part of the face around it, gave him a black eye. 4. the power of seeing, observation, sharp eyes. 5. a thing like an eye, the spot on a peacock's tail, the leaf bud of a potato. 6. the hole in a needle, through which thread is passed. 7. a relatively calm spot at the center of a storm. eye v. (eyed, eye-ing) to look at, to watch. an eye for an eye, retaliation in the same form as the injury done. cast or run an eye over, to examine quickly. eye drops, drops used to soothe the eyes. eye shadow, a cosmetic applied to the upper eyelid. In the eyes of, in the opinion or judgment of. keep an eye on, to watch carefully, to take care of. keep one's eyes open or peeled, to watch carefully, to be observant. make eyes at, to gaze at flirtatiously. see eye to eye, to be in full agreement with a person. with an eye to, with the aim or intention of. with one's eyes open, with full awareness.
eye-ball (i-bawl) n. the ball of the eye, within the lids. eyeball to eyeball, (informal) confronting a person closely. up to the eyeballs, (informal), deeply involved or occupied in something.
eye-bank (i-bangk) n. a depository for corneas from the recently dead for transplanting into the eyes of those who need them.
eye-brow (i-brow) n. the fringe of hair growing on the ridge above the eye socket.
eye-catcher (i-kach-ér) n. (informal) something that attracts attention because of its appearance.
eye-drop-per (i-drop-ér) n. a dropper for administering medicine to the eye.
eye-ful (i-fuul) n. (pl. -fuls) 1. something thrown or blown into one's eye, got an eyeful of sand. 2. (informal) a thorough look, having an eyeful. 3. (informal) a remarkable or attractive sight, especially a desirable woman.
eye-glass (i-glas) n. 1. a lens for correcting or assisting defective sight. 2. eyeglasses, a pair of these held in position by a frame.
eye-lash (i-lash) n. one of the fringe of hairs on the edge of each eyelid.
eye-less (i-lis) adj. having no eyes.
eye-let (i-lit) n. 1. a small hole through which a rope or cord etc. is passed. 2. a metal ring strengthening this.
eye-lid (i-lid) n. either of the two folds of skin that can be moved together to cover the eyeball.
eye-lin-er (i-lin-ér) n. a cosmetic applied as a line around the eye.
eye-o-pen-er (i-oh-pén-ér) n. an enlightening or surprising circumstance.
eye-piece (i-pees) n. the lens or lenses to which the eye is applied at the end of a telescope or microscope etc.
eye-sight (i-sigt) n. 1. the ability to see. 2. range of vision, within eyesight.
eye-sore (i-sohr) n. a thing that is ugly to look at.
eye-strain (i-strayn) n. weariness of the eyes from excessive or incorrect use.
eye-tooth (i-tooth) n. (pl. -teeth) a canine tooth in the upper jaw, under the eye.
eye-wash (i-wosh) n. 1. a lotion for the eye. 2. (slang) talk or behavior intended to create a misleadingly good impression.
eye-wit-ness (i-wit-nis) n. a person who actually saw an accident or crime etc. take place.
eye-rie = aerie.
F, f (ef) (pl. Fs, F's, f's) 1. the sixth letter of the alphabet. 2. F, a grade rating for failing school work. f symbol focal length. F abbr. 1. Fahrenheit. 2. French. F symbol fluorine.

fa, fab (fay-bay) 1. false. 2. family. 3. female. 4. forte². 5. frequency. fa (fah) n. (a name for) the fourth note of a scale in music.

FAA abbr. Federal Aviation Agency.

Fabian (fay-bi-an) adj. of the principles of or of the Fabian Society itself. (The Fabian Society was organized in England in 1884 to promote socialist principles.) Fabian n. a member of or sympathizer with the Fabian Society. Fab'li-an-ism n.

fa·ble (fay-bel) n. 1. a short story not based on fact, often with animals as characters and conveying a moral. 2. these stories or legends collectively. 3. untrue statements, sort out fact from fable.

fa·bled (fay-bled) adj. told of in fables, legendary.

fa·bric (fab-rik) n. 1. cloth, woven or knitted or felted material. 2. a plastic resembling this. 3. the framework or structure of something, the fabric of modern society.

fa·bric·ate (fab-rik-ayt) v. (fa·bric·cat·ed, fa·bric·cat·ing) 1. to construct, to manufacture. 2. to invent (a story), to forge (a document). fab·ri·ca·tor n. fab·ri·ca·tion (fab-ri-ka-sho'n) n.

fa·bu·lous (fab-ýo-lús) adj. 1. told of in fables. 2. incredibly great, fabulous wealth. 3. (informal) wonderful, marvelous. fab'lu·ous·ly adv.

fac, abbr. 1. facsimile. 2. factor. 3. factory. 4. faculty.

fa·cade (fä-sahd) n. 1. the principal face or the front of a building. 2. an outward appearance, especially a deceptive one.

face (fayz) n. 1. the front part of the head from forehead to chin. 2. the expression shown by its features, a cheerful face; make a face, make a grimace. 3. the outward show or aspect of something, put a good face on things. 4. the front or facade or right side of something, the dial of a clock, the distinctive side of a playing card. 5. the end of a coal mine or quarry in which digging is (or was) going on. 6. the striking surface of a golf club etc., the working surface of a tool. 7. the working surface of a printing type or plate. face v. (faced, fac·ing) 1. to have or turn the face toward (a certain direction). 2. to be opposite to. 3. to meet confidently or defiantly, to accept and be prepared to deal with (unpleasant facts or problems). 4. to meet (an opponent) in a contest. 5. to present itself, the problem that faces us. 6. to cover (a surface) with a layer of different material, to put a facing on (a garment etc.).

fac the music, to face unpleasant consequences bravely. face up to, to face (a difficulty etc.) resolutely. face value, the value printed or stamped on money; take a thing at its face value, assume that it is genuinely what it seems to be. have the face, to be impudent enough. in the face of, despite. lose face, to suffer loss of prestige through a humiliation. on the face of it, judging by appearances. put a good face on it, to make an outward show of cheerful acceptance of something. save face, prevent (a person) from losing prestige. to one's face, openly in one's presence.

face·cloth (fays-klawth) n. a cloth for washing one's face.

face·less (fays-lis) adj. 1. without a face. 2. without identity. 3. purposely not identifiable. face'less·ness n.

face·lift (fays-lift) n. (also face lifting) 1. plastic surgery on the face to improve its appearance. 2. (informal) an alteration etc. that improves the appearance, as of a building.

face·off (fays-awf) n. (in ice hockey) the dropping of the puck between two opposing players by the referee to initiate play.

face·sav·ing (fays-say-ving) adj. protecting one's status or dignity, a facesaving gesture.

fac·et (fas-it) n. 1. one of the many sides of a cut stone or jewel. 2. one aspect of a situation or problem.

fac·eous (fæ-see-shūs) adj. intended or intending to be amusing. fac·eous·ly adv. fac·eous·ness n.

face-to-face (fays-too-fays) adv. 1. in someone's presence. 2. confronting a person or danger etc.

fa·cial (fay-shal) adj. of the face. facial n. a beauty treatment for the face.

fac·ile (fay-sil) adj. 1. easily done. 2. (of a person) able to do something easily, a facile speaker. 3. achieved easily but without attention to quality, superficial, a facile solution.

fac·ili·tate (fak-sil-i-tayt) v. (fac·ili·tat·ing) to make easy, to lessen the difficulty of. fac·ili·ta·tion (fak-sil-i-tay-shun) n.

fac·ili·ty (fak-sil-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. the quality of being easy, absence of difficulty. 2. ease in doing something, reads music with great facility. 3. an aid, equipment, structure, etc. that makes it easy to do something, you shall have every facility; sports facilities. □Do not confuse facility with faculty.

fac·ing (fay-sing) n. 1. an outer layer covering a surface. 2. a layer of material covering part of a garment etc. for contrast or to strengthen it.

fac·sim·ile (fak-sim-i-lee) n. 1. a reproduction of a document or book or painting etc. 2. a system of producing this by radio or telephone transmission of signals from scanning the original.

fact (fakt) n. 1. something known to have happened or to be true or to exist. 2. a thing asserted to be true as a basis for reasoning, his facts are disputed. □after the fact, after something has occurred or become known. facts of life, (informal) knowledge of human sexual functions. In fact, in reality.

fac·tion (fak-shon) n. a small united group within a larger one, especially in politics. fac·tion·al adj. fac·tion·al·ism n.

fac·tious (fak-shūs) adj. 1. having factions. 2. creating dissension. □Do not confuse factious with fractional.

fac·tile·ous (fak-tish-ūs) adj. artificial.

fac·tile·ously adv.

fac·tor (fak-tor) n. 1. a circumstance or influence that contributes to a result; safety factor, the margin of security against risks. 2. one of the numbers or mathematical expressions by which a larger number etc. can be divided exactly, 2, 3, 4, and 6 are factors of 12. 3. a person or company that finances the accounts of businesses. fac·tor v. 1. to separate into mathematical factors. 2. to finance (business accounts).

fac·to·ry (fak-toh-ree) n. (pl. -ries) a building or buildings in which goods are manufactured. □ fac·to·ry ship, a fishing vessel that processes its catch while at sea.

fac·to·turn (fak-toh-tūm) n. a servant or assistant doing all kinds of work.

fac·tu·al (fak-choo-āl) adj. based on or containing facts. fac·tu·al·ly adv.

fac·u·la·tions (fak-yū-la-see) n. (pl. -lae, pr. -lee) a bright spot or streak on the sun.

fac·u·lity (fak-ul·tee) n. 1. any of the powers of the body or mind, the faculty of sight; he has lost his faculties. 2. a particular kind of ability, a faculty for learning languages. 3. a department teaching a particular subject in a university or college, the faculty of law. 4. the entire teaching and administrative staff of a university etc. □ Do not confuse faculty with facility.

fad (fad) n. a person's particular like or dislike, a craze. fad·dish adj. fad·dish·ly adv. fad·dish·ness n.

fade (fayd) v. (fad·ed, fad·ling) 1. to lose or cause to lose color, freshness, or vigor. 2. to disappear gradually, to become indistinct. 3. to cause the sound or picture in radio, film, etc. to decrease (fade out) or increase (fade in) gradually.

fade·in (fayd-in), fade·out (fayd-out) n. the fading in or out of the sound or picture in radio, film, etc.

FAdm abbr. Fleet Admiral.

fae·ces = feces.

fag (fag) v. (fagged, fag·ging) (of work) to make tired. □ fag end, an inferior or worthless remnant. fagged out, tired out.

fag·ot (fag-ot) n. a bundle of sticks or twigs bound together.

fag·ot·ting (fag-ot·ting) n. embroidery in which threads are fastened together like fagots.

Fahr·en·heit (fahr·en·heit) adj. of or using a temperature scale (Fahrenheit scale) with 32° being the freezing point and 212° the boiling point of water.

fa·ence, fa·lence (fay-ahns, fr-) n. brilliantly glazed earthenware or porcelain.

fall (fayl) v. 1. to be unsuccessful in what is attempted. 2. to be or become insufficient, (of crops) to produce a very poor harvest. 3. to become weak or ineffective, to cease functioning, the engine failed. 4. to neglect or forget or be unable to do something, he failed to appear. 5. to disappoint the hopes of. 6. to become bankrupt. 7. to grade (a candidate) as not having passed an examination. fail
n. failure in an examination. □ fail safe, (of equipment) to revert to a danger-free condition in the event of a breakdown or other failure. without fail, for certain, whatever happens.
failed (fayld) adj. unsuccessful, a failed author.
fail-ing (fay-ling) n. a weakness or fault, a human failing. failing prep. if (a thing) does not happen, if (a person) is not available. faille (fil) n. a closely woven silk, rayon, or cotton fabric.
fail-safe (fayl-sayf) device one that ensures a safe condition in the event of a breakdown or other failure in equipment.
fail-ure (fayl-yur) n. 1. failing, nonperformance of something, lack of success. 2. the ceasing of mechanism or power or a part of the body etc. to function. heart failure. 3. becoming bankrupt. 4. an unsuccessful person or thing or attempt.
fain (fayn) adj. (old use) willing. fain adj.
(old use) willingly.
faint (faynt) adj. 1. not clearly perceived by the senses, indistinct, not intense in color or sound or smell. 2. weak, vague, a faint hope. 3. timid, feeble. 4. about to lose consciousness. faint v. to lose consciousness temporarily through failure in the supply of blood to the brain. faint
n. an act or state of fainting. faint*ly
adv. faint*ness n.
faint-heart-ed (faynt-hahr-tid) adj.
timid. faint-heart-ed-ly adv.
fa(1) (fair) n. 1. a periodical gathering for the sale of goods, often with shows and entertainments. 2. an exhibition of commercial or industrial goods. 3. an exhibition of agricultural produce, farm animals, etc.
fa(2) adj. 1. (of the hair or skin) light in color, (of a person) having fair hair. 2.
(old use) beautiful. 3. (of weather) fine,
(of winds) favorable. 4. just, unbiased, in accordance with the rules. 5. of moderate quality or amount. fair adj. in a fair manner. fair*ness n. □ fair and square, straightforwardly, aboveboard; exactly. fair copy, a neat copy of a cor-corrected document. fair enough!, (informal) I agree to your conditions. fair play, equal opportunities and treatment for all. fair shake, (slang) an equal chance (to get a job etc.). In a fair way to, at the stage where something is likely, he's in a fair way to succeed. in all fairness, legitimately. the fair sex, women.
fair-ground (fair-ground) n. a site for fairs, horse races, etc.
faired-haired (fair-haired) adj. having fair hair. □ fair-haired boy, (slang) a boy or man favored by his superiors.
fair-ing (fair-ing) n. a structure added to the exterior of a ship or aircraft etc. to streamline it.
fair-ly (fair-lee) adv. 1. in a fair manner.
2. moderately, fairly difficult. 3. actually, fairly jumped for joy.
fair-spo-ken (fair-spo-kên) adj. polite.
faired-trade (fair-trayd) v. (fair-trad-ed, faired-trading) to sell (merchandise) at a price set by the manufacturer.
fair-way (fair-way) n. 1. the part of a golf course between tee and green, kept free of rough grass. 2. an unobstructed passage, especially a navigable channel.
fair-y (fair-ce) n. (pl. fair-ies) an imaginary small being supposed to have magical powers. □ fairy godmother, a benefactress who provides a sudden unexpected gift. fairy story, fairy tale, a tale about fairies or magic; an incredible story; a falsehood.
fair-y-land (fair-ce-land) n. 1. the world of fairies. 2. a very beautiful place. faire ac-com-pli-lish (fayt-ak-kom-plee) (pl.
faits ac-com-plis, pr. fais a-komplee) a thing that is already done and not reversible. □ French.
faith (fayth) n. 1. reliance or trust in a person or thing. 2. belief in religious doctrine. 3. a system of religious belief, the Christian faith. 4. loyalty, sincerity.
□ break faith, to break one's promise or loyalty. faith cure, something that heals a person because he believes that it will do so. faith healer, a person who practices faith healing, healing by prayer, not by medical skill. in good faith, with honest intention.
faith-ful (fayth-fül) adj. 1. loyal, trustworthy, conscientious. 2. true to the facts, accurate. 3. the faithful, true believers (especially Muslims), loyal supporters. faithful*ly adv. faithful*ness n. faith-less (fayth-lis) adj. 1. lacking religious faith. 2. false to promises, disloyal.
faith*less*ly adv. faith*less*ness n. fake (fayk) n. 1. something that looks genuine but is not, a forgery. 2. a person who tries to deceive others by pretending to be something that he is not. fake adj. faked, not genuine. fake v. (faked, faking) 1. to make (a thing) that looks genuine, in order to deceive people. 2. to pretend, he faked illness. fak'er n. □ Do not confuse faker with fakir.
fa-ki (fâ-kee, fay-ki) n. a Muslim or Hindu religious beggar regarded as a falchion / familiar falchion (fawl-chön) n. a broad curved convex-edged sword.

falcorry (fawl-kör-ré) n. a small long-winged hawk.

fal-condry (fawl-kön-ree) n. the breeding and training of hawks.

fall (fawl) v. (fell, fall-en, fall-ing) 1. to come or go down freely, as by force of weight or loss of balance or becoming detached. 2. to come as if by falling, silence fell. 3. to lose one's position or office, fell from power. 4. to hang down. 5. to decrease in amount or number or intensity, prices fell; her spirits fell, she became depressed. 6. to slope downward.

fall (of the face) to show dismay. 8. to die in battle. 9. (of a fortress or city) to be captured. 10. to take a specified direction or place, his glance fell on me. 11. to come by chance or be assigned as what one must have or do, the job falls to you. 12. to happen to come, fell into bad company.

fall out (fawl-out) n. 1. airborne radioactive debris from a nuclear explosion. 2. side effects.

fallow1 (fawl-oh) adj. (of land) plowed but left unplanted in order to restore its fertility.

fallow2 adj. pale yellowish brown.

fallow deer, a kind of small deer, spotted white in summer.

false (fa-wls) adj. (fauls-er, fauls-est) 1. wrong, incorrect. 2. deceitful, lying, unfaithful, 3. not genuine, sham, artificial, false teeth. 4. improperly so called; the false acacia, not really an acacia tree.

false-fly adv. false'ness n. false alarm, an alarm raised without genuine cause. false pretenses, acts intended to deceive.

false-hood (fa-wls-huud) n. 1. an untrue statement, a lie. 2. telling lies.

false-set-to (fawl-set-toh) n. (pl. -tos) a high-pitched voice above one's natural range, especially when used by male singers.

false-setto adv. in a falseetto voice.

fasies (fawl-seez) n. pl. ( slang) a padded bra, pads worn inside a bra.

false-fly (fawl-fi) v. false-fly-ing 1. to alter (a document) fraudulently. 2. to misrepresented (facts).

false-fly-ation (fawl-fi-kay-shun) n.

false-ty (fawl-fi-ti) n. (pl. -ties) 1. falsehood, an error.

falter (faht-lor) v. 1. to go or function steadily. 2. to become weaker, to begin to give way, his courage faltered. 3. to speak or utter hesitatingly, to stammer.

fame (faym) n. 1. the condition of being known to many people. 2. a good reputation.

famed (faymd) adj. famous.

familiar (fam-yl-ler) adj. of or occurring in members of a family.

familiar (fam-yl-yo) adj. 1. well known, often seen or experienced, a familiar sight. 2. having a good knowledge (of a thing), well acquainted (with a person). 3. lacking formality, friendly and informal, addressed him in familiar terms. 4. too informal, assuming a greater degree of informality or friendship than is familiarize / far proper. fam/i/lar/-ly adv. fam/i/lar/-ly (fā-mil-i-ar-i-tē) n. fam/i/lar/-lize (fā-mil-yā-riz) v. (fam/i/lar/-lized, fam/i/lar/-liz/ing) 1. to make well acquainted (with a person or thing). 2. to make well known. fam/i/lar/-lize (fā-mil-yā-riz/shōn) n.

fam/i/-ly (fam/-i-ly) n. (pl. -lies) 1. parents and their children. 2. a person's children, they have a large family. 3. a set of relatives. 4. all the descendants of a common ancestor, their line of descent. 5. a group of things that are alike in some way. 6. a group of related plants or animals; lions belong to the cat family. • family circle, a group of close relatives. family man, one who is fond of home life with his family. family planning, birth control. family tree, a diagram showing how people in a family are related. in the (or a) family way, (informal) pregnant.
fam/-ine (fam/-in) n. extreme scarcity (especially of food) in a region.
fam/-ish (fam/-ish) v. to suffer from extreme hunger.
fa/-mous (fay-mūs) adj. known to very many people.
fa/-mous/-ly (fay-mūs-lec) adv. extremely well, getting on famously.
fan1 (fan) n. a device waved in the hand or operated mechanically to create a current of air. fan v. (fanned, fan/-ning) 1. to drive a current of air upon, with or as if with a fan. 2. to stimulate (flames etc.) in this way. 3. to spread from a central point, troops fanned out. • fan belt, a belt driving the fan that cools the radiator of a motor vehicle.
fan2 n. an enthusiastic admirer or supporter. (fā.Original short for fan/tic.) • fan club, an organized group of a person's admirers. fan mail, letters from fans to the person they admire.
fa/-nat/-ic (fā-nat/ik) n. a person filled with excessive enthusiasm or zeal for something. fanatic adj. fa/-nat/-i-cal adj. fa/-nat/-i-ly adv.
fa/-nat/-i-cism (fā-nat-i-siz/em) n. excessive enthusiasm.
fan/-ci/-er (fan-si-ér) n. 1. a person with special knowledge of and love for something, a dog fancier. 2. one whose hobby is breeding animals or growing plants.
fan/-ci/-ful (fan-si-fūl) adj. 1. (of people) using the imagination freely, imagining things. 2. existing only in the imagination. 3. (of things) designed in a quaint or imaginative style. fan/ci/-ful/-ly adv.
fan/-cy (fan-sē) n. (pl. -cēes) 1. a liking, she took a fancy to the child. 2. the power of imagining things, especially of an unreal or fantastic sort. 3. an unreasoning desire for something. 4. something imagined, an unfounded idea or belief. fancy adj. (-cl/er, -cl/est) 1. ornamental, not plain, elaborate. 2. based on imagination not fact. fancy v. (fan/-ci-ed, fan/-cy/-ling) 1. to imagine. 2. to be inclined to believe or suppose. 3. (informal) to take a fancy to, to like, to find (a person) attractive. • fancy dress, a costume worn for a party etc. at which the guests dress to represent animals, characters of history or fiction, etc. fancy oneself, (informal) to be rather conceited, to admire oneself. fancy prices, excessively high prices. take a fancy to, to develop a liking for. • take a person's fancy, to become liked by him.
fan/-cy/-free (fan-see-free) adj. not in love.
fan/-cy/-work (fan-see-wurk) n. decorative needlework.
fan/-dan/-go (fan-dang-goh) n. (pl. -gos) a lively Spanish dance for two people, music for this.
fan/-fare (fan-fair) n. a short showy or ceremonious sounding of trumpets.
fang (fang) n. 1. a long sharp tooth, especially of dogs and wolves. 2. a snake's tooth with which it injects venom.
fan/-jet (fan-jet) n. 1. a jet engine equipped with an exhausting fan. 2. an airplane having fanjets.
fan/-light (fan-lit) n. a semicircular window above a door, a small window above another window or a door.
fan/-ny (fan-ee) n. (pl. -nies) (slang) the buttocks.
fan/-tail (fan-tayl) n. 1. a kind of pigeon with a semicircular tail. 2. the part of the stern of a ship extending aft from the last perpendicular.
fan/-ta/-sia (fan-tay-zhā) n. a fanciful musical or other composition of free form.
fan/-ta/-size (fan-tā-siz) v. (fan/-ta/-sized, fan/-ta/-siz/-ing) to imagine in fantasy, to daydream.
fan/-tas/-tic (fan-tā-tek) adj. 1. absurdly fanciful. 2. designed in a very imaginative style. 3. (informal) very remarkable, excellent. fan/-tas/-ti-cal adj. fan/-tas/-ti-cal/-ly adv.
fan/-ta/-sy (fan-tā-see, -zee) n. (pl. -sies) 1. imagination, especially when producing very fanciful ideas. 2. a wild or fantastic product of the imagination, a daydream. 3. a fanciful design, a fantasy. FAO abbr. Food and Agricultural Organization.
far (fahr) adv. (far-ther or fur/-ther, far/-thest or fur/-thest) at or to or by a great distance. far adj. distant, remote. • a far cry from, greatly different from.
as far as, right to, as far as my home; to whatever extent, as far as I am concerned. by far, by a great amount. far ment, a fast road. 3. (of a clock etc.) showing a time ahead of the correct one. 4. (of a person) spending too much time and energy on pleasure, immoral. 5. (of photographic film) very sensitive to light, (of a lens) having a large aperture, allowing a short exposure to be used. 6. firmly fixed or attached. 7. (of colors or dyes) unlikely to fade or run. fast adv. 1. quickly. 2. firmly, tightly, securely, stuck fast; fast asleep. □ fast foods, dishes that are quickly prepared and quickly served, such as hamburgers, fried chicken, etc. fast worker, one who makes rapid progress, especially in furthering his own interests. play fast and loose, to ignore one's obligations, to act deceitfully.

fast² v. to go without food or without certain kinds of food, especially as a religious duty. fast n. fasting, a day or season appointed for this.

fast·back (fas-bak) n. a car with a long sloping back, the back itself.

fas·ten (fas-én) v. 1. to fix firmly, to tie or join together. 2. to fix (one's glance or attention) intently. 3. to become fastened, the door fastens with a latch. □ fasten off, to tie or secure the end (of a thread etc.). fasten on, to lay hold of; to single out for attack; to seize as a pretext.

fas·ten·er (fas-è-ner), fas·ten·ing (fas·è-ning) n. a device used for fastening something.

fas·tid·i·ous (fa-stid-i-ás) adj. 1. selecting carefully, choosing only what is good. 2. easily disgusted. fas·tid·i·ous·ly adv. fas·tid·i·ous·ness n.

fast·ness (fast-nis) n. 1. the state of being fast or firm, color fastness. 2. a stronghold, a fortress.

fast-talk (fas-tawk) v. to persuade by rapid or deceitful talk.

fat (fat) n. 1. a whitish or yellowish substance, insoluble in water, found in animal bodies and certain seeds. 2. this substance prepared for use in cooking. fat adj. (fat·ter, fat·test) 1. containing much fat, covered with fat. 2. excessively plump. 3. (of an animal) made plump for slaughter. 4. thick, a fat book. 5. fertile, fat lands. 6. richly rewarding, a nice fat job. fat·ness n. □ a fat chance, (informal) none, no chance at all. fat cat, (slang) a wealthy person. fat farm, (slang) a resort for people who wish to lose weight. live off the fat of the land, to have the best of everything, especially without having to work for it. the fat is in the fire, something has happened that will cause an explosion of anger or other undesirable reaction.

fat·tal (fay-täl) adj. 1. causing or ending in death. 2. causing disaster, a fatal mistake. 3. fateful, the fatal day. fat·tal·ly adv.

fat·tal·list (fay-tā-list) n. a person who accepts and submits to what happens, regarding it as inevitable. fat·tal·ism n. fat·tal·is·tic (fay-tā-lis-tik) adj.

fat·tal·ly (fay-tā-lī) adv.

fat·back (fas-bak) n. a strip of fat, from the upper part of a side of pork, cured by drying and salting.

fate (fayt) n. 1. a power thought to control all events and impossible to resist. 2. a person's destiny. fat·ed (fat-tid) adj. destined by fate, doomed.

fat·ful (fat·fūl) adj. bringing or producing great and usually unpleasant events, the fateful decision. fat·ful·ly adv.

fath. abbr. fathom.

fat·head (fat-hed) n. (informal) a stupid person. fat·head·ed adj.

fat·her (fa·ther) n. 1. a male parent. 2. a male ancestor, land of our fathers. 3. the founder or originator of something. 4. Father, God, the First Person of the Trinity. 5. the title of certain priests, especially those belonging to religious orders. father v. 1. to beget, to be the father of. 2. to found or originate (an idea or plan etc.). fa·ther·ly adj. fa·ther·hood n. □ Father Christmas, (British) Santa Claus. father figure, an older man who is respected and trusted by others like a father. Father's Day, a day (usually the third Sunday in June) on which special tribute is paid to fathers.

Father Time, the personification of time, shown as an old man with a scythe and an hourglass.

fa·ther·in·law (fa·ther-in-law) n. father-in-law.

fa·ther·land (fa·ther-land) n. one's native country.

fa·ther·less (fa·ther-lis) adj. without a living father, without a known father.

fath·om (fath·om) n. (pl. -oms, -om) a measure of six ft. used in stating the depth of water. fathom v. 1. to measure the depth of. 2. to get to the bottom of, to understand. fath·om·a·ble adj.

fath·om·a·bly adv.

fath·om·less (fath·om-less) adj. too deep to fathom, too complicated to understand.

fat·igue (fā-teeg) n. 1. tiredness resulting from hard work or exercise. 2. weakness in metals etc. caused by repeated stress. 3. (also fatigue duty) any of the nonmilitary duties of soldiers, such as cleaning and dishwashing. 4. fatigues, (informal) informal military dress. fatigue v. (fa-\tigued, fa\c tig-ing) to cause fatigue to. fat\c ted (fat-id) adj. (of animals) fattened as food, the fatted calf.

fat\c ten (fat-\c n) v. to make or become fat. fat\c ty (fat-\c ee) adj. (fat\c ty-er, fat\c ty-est) like fat, containing fat. fatty n. (pl. -ties) (informal) a fat person. fatty acid, any member of a series of acids derived from or occurring in animal or vegetable fats.

fat\c u\c *ous (fach\c oo\c-\c u\c s) adj. foolish, silly. fat\c u\c *ous\c ly adv. fat\c u\c *ous\c ness n.

fa\c tu\c *i\c ty (f\c a\c too\c -i\c -tee) n. (pl. -ties). fa\c bourg (foh\c boor) n. a suburb of a French city.

fa\c u\c *et (faw\c -sit) n. a device for allowing water to come from a kitchen or lavatory pipe in a controllable flow.

fault (fa\c ult) n. 1. a defect or imperfection. 2. an offense, something wrongly done. 3. the responsibility for something wrong. 4. a break in the continuity of layers of rock, caused by movement of Earth's crust. 5. an incorrect serve in tennis etc. fault v. 1. to find fault with, to declare to be faulty. 2. to make imperfect. at fault, responsible for a mistake or shortcoming. double fault, two consecutive faults in tennis etc. find fault with, to seek and find mistakes in, to complain about. to a fault, excessively, generously to a fault.

fault\c find\c ing (fa\c ult\c -fin\c -ding) n. the act of complaining or criticizing, especially in a petty way. fault\c find\c er n.

fault\c less (fa\c ult\c -lis) adj. without fault. fault\c less\c ly adv.

fault\c y (fa\c ult\c -\c ee) adj. (fa\c ult\c -\c er, fault\c -\c est) having a fault or faults, imperfect. fault\c \c -ly adv. fault\c \c -ness n.

faun (fa\c un) n. one of a class of gods of the woods and fields in ancient mythology, with the legs and horns of a goat. faun\c like adj. Do not confuse faun with fawn.

faun\c na (fa\c un\c na) n. (pl. -nas, -n\c ae, pr. -nee) the animals of an area or period of time.

Fau\c ve (foh\c v\c ) n. a member of a group of early 20th-century French artists whose works employ bright contrasting colors. Fauv\c ism n. Fauv\c ist n.

fau\c pas (foh\c pah\c ) (pl. faux pas, pr. foh pah\c ) an embarrassing blunder. French.

fa\c vor (fa\c vor) n. 1. liking, goodwill, approval. 2. an act that is kindly or helpful beyond what is due or usual. 3. support or preference given to one person or group at the expense of another. 4. an ornament or badge etc. worn to show that one supports a certain political or other party. 5. a small decorative object provided at a party. favors, consent to sexual relations. favor v. 1. to regard or treat with favor. 2. to be in favor of. 3. to oblige, favor us with a song. (of events or circumstances) to make possible or easy, to be advantageous to. 5. to resemble (one parent etc.), the boy favors his father. be in or out of favor, to have or not have a person's goodwill. in favor of, in support of, in sympathy with; to the advantage of, the exchange rate is in our favor; (of checks) made out to a person or his account.

fa\c vor\c a\c *ble (fay\c -v\c o\c -r\c a\c -b\c el) adj. 1. giving or showing approval. 2. pleasing, satisfactory, made a favorable impression. 3. helpful, advantageous, favorable winds. fa\c vor\c a\c *b\c ly adv.

fa\c vor\c it\c le (fay\c -v\c o\c -rit) adj. liked or preferred above others. favorite n. 1. a favored person or thing. 2. a competitor generally expected to win. favorite son, a person preferred as a presidential candidate by delegates from his own state.

fa\c vor\c it\c ism (fay\c -v\c o\c -ri\c -tiz\c -\c em) n. unfair favoring of one person or group at the expense of another.

fawn\c (faw\c n) n. 1. a fallow deer in its first year. 2. light yellowish brown. fawn adj. light yellowish brown. Do not confuse fawn with faun.

fawn\c (faw\c n) v. 1. (of a dog etc.) to try to win affection or attention by crouching close to a person and licking him. 2. to try to win favor by obsequious behavior.

fa\c ze (fay\c z) v. (fazed, faz\c -\c ing) to discourage.

fb. abbr. fullback.

fcp. abbr. footscap.

fcy. abbr. fancy.

FD abbr. 1. fire department. 2. focal distance.

FDA abbr. Food and Drug Administration.

FDIC abbr. Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Fe symbol iron.

fe\c al\c ty (fee\c -\c al\c -tee) n. (pl. -ties) loyalty, oath of fealty.

fear (feer) n. 1. an unpleasant emotion caused by the nearness of danger or expectation of pain etc. 2. the reverence or awe felt for God. fear v. 1. to feel fear of, to be afraid. 2. to reverence (God). 3. to have an uneasy feeling, to be politely regretful, I fear there's none left. □ for fear of, because of the risk of, put the fear of God into, to terrify.
without fear or favor, impartially.
fear-ful (feer-fuhl) adj. 1. feeling fear. 2. terrible, awful. 3. (informal) extreme, very great. fear'ful-ly adv.
fear-less (feer-lis) adj. feeling no fear.
fear-less-ly adv. fear-less-ness n.
fee*ony

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.
fearless (feer-sis) adj. fearless.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.
fearless (feer-sis) adj. fearless.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.
fearless (feer-sis) adj. fearless.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.
fearless (feer-sis) adj. fearless.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.
fearless (feer-sis) adj. fearless.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.
fearless (feer-sis) adj. fearless.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.
fearless (feer-sis) adj. fearless.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.
fearless (feer-sis) adj. fearless.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.
fearless (feer-sis) adj. fearless.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.
fearless (feer-sis) adj. fearless.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.
fearless (feer-sis) adj. fearless.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.
fearless (feer-sis) adj. fearless.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.
fearless (feer-sis) adj. fearless.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.
fearless (feer-sis) adj. fearless.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.
fearless (feer-sis) adj. fearless.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearful (feer-fuhl) adj. feeling fear.

fearsome task.

feast (feest) n. 1. a large elaborate meal. 2. a religious festival of rejoicing. feast v. 1. to eat heartily. 2. to give a feast to. 3. to give pleasure to, feasting his eyes on the display. □ feast or famine, being characterized by ups and downs, life is feast or famine for some actors.

feat (feets) n. a remarkable action or achievement.

feath-er (feth-er) n. 1. one of the structures that grow from a bird's skin and cover its body, consisting of a central shaft with a fringe of fine strands on each side. 2. long silky hair on a dog's or horse's legs. feather v. 1. to cover or fit with feathers. 2. to turn (an oar) so that the blade passes through the air edgeways. 3. to make (propeller blades) rotate in such a way as to lessen the resistance of the air or water. feath'ered adj. feath'ер-еss adj. □ a feather in one's cap, an achievement one can be proud of. feather bed, a mattress stuffed with feathers. feather duster, a dusting brush made of feathers. feather one's nest, to enrich oneself when an opportunity occurs.

feath-еr-bed-ding (feth-er-bed-ing) n. the requiring of an employer to hire more workers than are actually needed. □ featherbed contract, a union contract that includes featherbedding.

feath-еr-brain (feth-er-brayn) n. a silly person. feath'еr-brained adj.

feath-еr-edge (feth-еr-ej) n. a fine edge of a wedge-shaped board etc.

feath-еr-stitch (feth-еr-stitch) n. an ornamental stitch in embroidery or knitting, producing a featherlike pattern.

feath-еr-weight (feth-еr-wayt) n. 1. a boxer between bantamweight and lightweight weighing up to 126 pounds. 2. a very lightweight thing or person. 3. a person of little or no influence.

feath-еr-y (feth-еr-ree) adj. 1. light and soft, like feathers. 2. covered with feathers.

feа-ture (fee-chur) n. 1. one of the named parts of the face (as the mouth, nose, eyes) that together make up its appearance. 2. a distinctive or noticeable quality of a thing. 3. a prominent article in a newspaper etc. 4. a long film (feature film) forming the main item in a film program. feature v. (fee-tured, feа-tur-ing) 1. to give special prominence to. 2. to be a feature of or in.

feа-ture-less (fee-chur-lis) adj. without distinctive features.

feaze (feez, fayz) v. (feazed, feaz-ing) to faze.

Feb. abbr. February.

febr-i-fuge (febr-i-fyoo) n. a cooling drink or medicine to reduce fever. febr-i-fuge adj. serving to reduce fever.

fe Giá-ня (febr-Ị1, febr-ị) adj. feverish.

Feb-ru-аry (feb-roo-er-ee) n. (pl. -ar-ies) the second month of the year.

few-еs (fee-sez) n. waste matter discharged from the bowels. fe-ca-il (fee-kal) adj.

feck-less (fek-lis) adj. feeble and incompetent, irresponsible. feck-less-ness n.

few-еnd (fee-kund, fek-ụnd) adj. fertile.

few-еnd-di-ty (hi-kun-di-tee) n.

few-еnd-date (fee-kun-dayt, fek-ụn-) v. (fe-cun-da-tion) to make fruitful.

few-еnd-a-tion (fee-kun-day-shon, fek-ụn-) n.

fed1 (fed) v. see feed. □ fed up, (slang) discontented, displeased.

fed2 n. (slang) a federal law enforcement officer.

fed-еr (fed-er) abbr. 1. federal. 2. federated. 3. federation.

fed-a-уеen (fed-а-уеen) n. pl. Palestinian guerrillas, operating especially against Israel.

fed-еral (fed-er-al) adj. 1. of a system of government in which several states unite under a central authority but remain independent in internal affairs. 2. belonging to this group as a whole (not to its separate parts), federal laws. 3. of an association of units that are largely independent. fed-еr-al-ly adv. □ Fed-еral Bureau of Investigation, a section of the U.S. Department of Justice, responsible for investigating violations of federal law and safeguarding national security. federal district, a region used as the seat of a federal government.

fed-еral-ism (fed-еr-al-ism) n. 1. the federal principle of government. 2. Fed-еralism, advocacy of a federal system, the principles of Federalists.
federalize / felicity who supports federalism. 2. Federalist, (in U.S. history) a member of the Federalist Party, which advocated a strong central government and adoption of the constitution. fed’er-al-ist (fed’er-äl-ist) adj.

fed’er-al-ize (fed’er-ä-liz) v. (fed’er-al-iz·ed, fed’er-al-iz·ing) 1. to unite (states etc.) in a federal organization. 2. to put (militia etc.) under the control of a federal government.

fed’er-ate (fed’er-ät) v. (fed’er-at·ed, fed’er-at·ing) 1. to unite on a federal basis. 2. to band together for a common object.

fed’er-a·tion (fed’er-ä-shun) n. 1. federalizing. 2. a federated society or group of states.

defn. abbr. federation.

def·do·ra (fi·dōr-ä) n. a low soft felt hat with the crown creased lengthways.

fee (fee) n. 1. a sum payable to an official or a professional person for advice or services. 2. a sum payable for membership in a society, use of a laboratory or other facility, etc.

fee·ble (fee’bel) adj. (-bler, -blest) weak, without strength or force or effectiveness.

fee’bly adv. fee’ble·ness n.

fee·ble·mind-ed (fee’bel-mind-did) adj. mentally deficient. fee’ble·mind’ed·ness n.

feed (feed) v. (feed, feed·ing) 1. to give food to, to put food into the mouth of. 2. to give as food to animals, feed oats to horses. 3. (of animals) to take food. 4. to serve as food for, to nourish. 5. to supply, to pass a supply of material to. 6. to send passes to (a player) in basketball, hockey, etc. 7. to pass (information), especially to an informant or the press. feed n. 1. (informal) a big meal. 2. food for animals. 3. a pipe or channel etc. by which material is carried to a machine, the material itself. □ feed on, to consume as food, to be nourished or sustained by.

feed·back (feed·bak) n. 1. return of part of the output of a system to its source, especially so as to modify the output. 2. the return of information about a product etc. to its supplier.

feed·er (feed·er) n. 1. (of plants and animals) one that takes in food in a certain way, a heavy feeder. 2. a hopper or feeding apparatus in a machine. 3. a branch railroad line, airline, canal, etc. linking outlying areas with a central line or service.

feed·lot (feed·lot) n. a tract of land on which animals are fed before slaughter.

feed·stock (feed·stock) n. metal bars etc. fed into a cutting or shaping machine.

feed·stuff (feed-stuf) n. food for farm animals.

feel (feel) v. (felt, feel·ing) 1. to explore or perceive by touch. 2. to be conscious of, to be aware of being, feel a pain; feel happy. 3. to be affected by, feels the loss deeply. 4. to give a certain sensation or impression, the water feels warm. 5. to have a vague conviction or impression of something. 6. to have as an opinion, to consider, we felt it was necessary to do this. feel n. 1. the sense of touch. 2. the act of feeling. 3. the sensation produced by something touched, silk has a soft feel. □ feel for a person, to sympathize with him. feel free, (informal) an expression of permission. feel like, to be in the mood for. feel one’s way, to find one’s way by feeling about; to proceed cautiously. feel up to, to feel capable of doing (work etc.). □ feeler gauge, a gauge with many thin blades that can be inserted to measure gaps.

feel·ing (feel·ing) n. 1. the power and capacity to feel, had lost all feeling in his legs. 2. mental or physical awareness, emotion. 3. an idea or belief not wholly based on reason, had a feeling of security. 4. readiness to feel sympathy, showed no feeling for the sufferings of others. 5. opinion, attitude, the feeling of the meeting was against it. 6. feelings, the emotional side of a person’s nature (contrasted with the intellect), sympathies, opinions, we have strong feelings on this matter. feel·ing adj. sensitive, sympathetic. feel·ing·ly adv. □ bad feelings, ill will. good feelings, friendliness.

feet (feet) see foot.

feign (fayn) v. to pretend.

feint (faynt) n. a slight attack or movement made in one place to divert attention from the main attack coming elsewhere.

feint v. to make a feint.

feldspar (feld-spar) n. a white or redish mineral containing aluminum and other silicates.

fel·lic·i·tate (fi·lis·i·tayt) v. (fel·lic·i·tat·ed, fel·lic·i·tat·ing) to congratulate. fel·lic·i·ta·tion (fi·lis·i·tat·shun) n.

fel·lic·i·tous (fi·lis·i·tōs) adj. (of words or remarks) well chosen, apt. fel·lic·i·tous·ly adv.

fel·lic·i·ty (fi·lis·i·te) n. (pl. -ties) 1. being happy, great happiness. 2. a pleasing manner or style, expressed himself with great felicity.

fe·line (fee-lin) adj. of cats, catlike. feline n. an animal of the cat family.

fell1 (fell) adj. (in poetry) ruthless, cruel, destructive. at one fell swoop, in a single deadly action.

fell2 v. 1. to strike down by a blow. 2. to cut (a tree) down. 3. to stitch’down (the edge of a seam) so that it lies flat.

fell2 see fall.

fel·lah (fel-ä) n. (pl. fel·lahs, fel·la·hin, fel·la·heen, pr. fel·la·heen) an Egyptian peasant.

fel·low (fel·oh) n. 1. one who is associated with another, a comrade. 2. a thing of the same class or kind, the other of a pair. 3. a member of a learned society. 4. a graduate student who is paid a stipend, sometimes in exchange for performing some academic duty. 5. (informal) a man or boy. fellow traveler, one who sympathizes with the aims of the Communist Party but is not a member of it.

fel·low·man (fel·oh·man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) a kindred human being.

fel·low·ship (fel·oh·ship) n. 1. friendly association with others, companionship. 2. a number of people associated together, a society, membership of this. 3. the position of a college or university fellow.

fel·on (fel·ön) n. a person who has committed a felony.

fel·ony (fel·ö-nee) n. (pl. -nies) a crime regarded by the law as serious, usually involving violence.

felt1 (felt) n. a kind of cloth made by matting and pressing fibers. felt v. 1. to make or become matted together like felt. 2. to cover with felt.

felt2 see feel.

fem. abbr. 1. female. 2. feminine.

fe·male (fee-mayl) adj. 1. of the sex that can bear offspring or produce eggs. 2. (of plants) fruit-bearing, having a pistil and no stamens. female n. a female animal or plant.

fe·m·i·nine (fe-mi-nin) adj. 1. of or like or suitable for women, having the qualities or appearance considered characteristic of a woman. 2. having the grammatical form suitable for the names of females or for words corresponding to these, “lions” is the feminine noun corresponding to “lion.” feminine n. a feminine word or gender.

fe·m·i·nin·i·ty (fe-mi-nin-i-tee) n. the quality of being feminine.

fe·m·i·nist (fe-mi-nist) n. a supporter of women’s claims to be given rights, opportunities, and treatment equal to those of men. fem’i·nis·m n.

femme fe·tale (fem fä-tal) a dangerously attractive woman. > French.

fe·mur (fe-mür) n. (pl. fe·murs, fem·i·ra, pr. fem·i·ra) the thighbone, extending from the pelvis to the knee.

fen (fen) n. a low-lying marshy or flooded tract of land.

fence (fens) n. 1. a structure of rails, stakes, wire, etc. put around a property, field, or garden to mark a boundary or keep animals from straying. 2. a person who knowingly buys and resells stolen goods. fence v. (fenced, encing) 1. to surround with a fence. 2. to act as a fence for (stolen goods). 3. to engage in fencing. fence in, surround. fence off, to close off by fencing. sit on the fence, to avoid giving definite support to either side in a contest or dispute.

fenc·er (fen·ser) n. a person who engages in the sport of fencing.

fenc·ing (fen·sing) n. 1. fences, a length of fence. 2. the sport of fighting with foils or other kinds of swords.

fend (fend) v. fend for, to provide a livelihood for, to look after. fend off, to ward off.

fend·er (fen·der) n. 1. the part of an automobile body immediately above each wheel. 2. a low frame bordering a fireplace, to keep falling coals etc. from rolling into the room. 3. a pad or a bundle of rope hung over a vessel’s side to prevent damage when alongside a wharf or another vessel.

fen·es·tra·tion (fen·es·tra·shon) n. 1. the arrangement of windows in a building. 2. a surgical operation in which an opening is made in the labyrinth of the ear to improve hearing.

Fe·ni·an (fee·ni·an) n. a member of a 19th-century society of Irish people in the U.S. and Ireland who advocated overthrow of British government in Ireland.

fen·nel (fen·él) n. a fragrant yellow-flowered herb used for flavoring.

fe·ral (feer·äl, fer·äl) adj. 1. wild, untamed. 2. in a wild state after escape from captivity.

fer·de·lance (fer·de·lans) n. a large poisonous snake of tropical South America.

fer·ment (fër·ment) v. 1. to undergo fermentation, to cause fermentation in. 2. to seethe with excitement or agitation.

fer·ment (fur·ment) n. 1. fermentation. 2. something that causes this. 3. a state of seething excitement or agitation. Do not confuse ferment with foment.

fer-men-ta-tion (fur-men-tay-shon) n. a chemical change caused by the action of an organic substance such as yeast, involving effervescence and the production of heat, as when sugar is converted into alcohol.

fer-mi-um (fur-mi-üm) n. a radioactive chemical element.

fern (furn) n. a kind of flowerless plant with feathery green leaves.

fer-nér-y (fur-nér-é) n. (pl. -éřes) 1. a place where ferns are grown. 2. a collection of ferns.

fe-ro-cious (fé-ruh-she-ús) adj. fierce, savage.

fer-ro-cious-ly adv. fer-ro-cious-ness n. fer-ro-cious-ty (fé-ros-i-tee) n.

fer-ret (fer-it) n. a small animal of the weasel family kept for driving rabbits from burrows, killing rats, etc. ferret v. (fer-ret-ed, fer-ret-ing) to search, to rummage. ferret out, to discover by searching or rummaging.

fer-ric (fer-ik) adj. of iron. ferric oxide, an iron oxide, used as a pigment and for polishing.

Fer-ís (fer-is) wheel a giant revolving vertical wheel with passenger cars on its rim, used at amusement parks.

fer-ro-con-créte (fer-oh-kon-kreet, kong-) n. reinforced concrete.

fer-rous (fer-ús) adj. containing iron, ferrous and nonferrous metals.

fer-rule (fer-ül) n. a metal ring or cap strengthening the end of a stick or tube.

fer-ry (fer-ee) v. (fer-ried, fer-ry-ing) 1. to convey (people or things) in a boat etc. across a stretch of water. 2. to transport from one place to another, especially as a regular service. ferry n. (pl. -ries) 1. a boat etc. used for ferrying. 2. the place where it operates. 3. the service it provides.

fer-ry-boat (fer-ee-boht) n. a boat for ferrying people or things.

fer-tile (fur-til) adj. 1. (of soil) rich in the materials needed to support vegetation. 2. (of plants) able to produce fruit, (of animals) able or likely to conceive or beget young. 3. (of seeds or eggs) capable of developing into a new plant or animal, fertilized. 4. (of the mind) able to produce ideas, inventive. fer-tile-ly (fer-tile-ly) adv. fer-til-i-ty (fer-til-i-tee) n.

fer-til-i-za-tion (fur-til-i-za-shon) n. that it develops seed or young.

fer-til-i-iz-er (fur-til-i-iz-er) n. material (natural or artificial) added to soil to make it more fertile.

fer-ule (fer-ül) n. a rod or a stick used for punishing children.

fer-vent (fur-vënt) adj. showing warmth of feeling. fer-vent-ly adv. fer-ven-cy n.

fer-vid (fur-vid) adj. fervent. fer-vid-ly adv.

fer-vor (fur-vör) n. warmth and intensity of feeling, zeal.

fes-cue (fes-kyou) n. a kind of grass used as pasture and fodder.

fes-tal (fes-täl) adj. of a festival.

fes-ter (fes-tër) v. 1. to make or become septic and filled with pus. 2. to cause continuing resentment. fester n. a pus-filled sore.

fes-ti-val (fes-ti-äl) n. a day or time of religious or other celebration. 2. a series of performances of music, drama, films, etc. given periodically, the Shakespeare Festival.

fes-tive (fes-tiv) adj. of or suitable for a festival. fes-tive-ly adv.

fes-tiv-i-ty (fes-tiv-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) a festive occasion or celebration.

fes-toon (fes-toon) n. a chain of flowers, leaves, ribbons, etc. hung in a curve or loop as a decoration. fes-toon v. to decorate with hanging ornaments.

Fest-schrift (fest-shrift) n. (pl. -schrif-ten, -schriften, -schriffts) a collection of articles, essays, etc., presented to a scholar to honor an occasion in his life.

fe-tal (fee-tal) adj. of or relating to a fetus.

fetal position, resting like the fetus in the womb, with body curved and legs bent and pulled close to the chest.

fetch (fech) v. 1. to go for and bring back, fetch a doctor. 2. (of goods) to sell for a price, your books won’t fetch much.

fetch-ing (fech-ing) adj. attractive. fetch-ing-ly adv.

fête, fęte (fayt, fet) n. 1. a festival. 2. an outdoor entertainment or sale, usually to raise funds for a cause or charity. fete v. (fet-ed, fet-ing) to entertain (a person) in celebration of some achievement etc.

fe-ti-cide (fee-ti-sid) n. destroying a fetus, causing an abortion.

fet-id (fee-tid) adj. stinking.

fet-ish (fee-sh) n. 1. an object worshipped by primitive peoples who believe it to have magical powers or to be inhabited by a spirit. 2. anything to which foolishly excessive respect or devotion is given. 3. an object arousing erotic feeling.

fet-ish-ism (fee-shiz-em) n. 1. belief in or use of fetishes. 2. blind devotion to fetishes or their use. *festish-ist n. *festish-is-tic (fest-i-shis-tik) adj.

*fest-lock (fest-lock) n. the part of a horse's leg above and behind the hoof.

*fest-or (fee-tor) n. a stench.

*fest-ter (fest-er) n. a chain or shackle for a prisoner's ankles. *fetter v. 1. to put into fetters. 2. to impede or restrict.

*fest-tle (fest-ell) n. condition, trim, in fine *fettle.

*fest-tu-cl-nil (fest-oo-chee-nee) n. a pasta in thin narrow strips.

*festus (fee-tuhs) n. (pl. -tu'es) a developed embryo in the womb, a human embryo more than eight weeks after conception.

*feud (fyood) n. a lasting hostility between people or groups. *feud v. to carry on a feud.

*feudal (fyood-dal) adj. of or according to the *feudal system, a method of holding land (during the Middle Ages in Europe) by giving one's services to the owner.

*fe-ver (fee-ver) n. 1. an abnormally high body temperature. 2. a disease characterized by this. 3. a state of nervous excitement or agitation. at *fever pitch, at a high level of excitement.

*fe-vered (fee-ved) adj. affected with fever.

*fe-ver-ish (fee-ve-rish) adj. 1. having a fever, caused or accompanied by a fever. 2. restless with excitement or agitation.

few (fyoo) adj., n. & pron. not many, a small number. (>See the note under less.) few'ness n. a few, some, not none. quite a few, (informal) a fairly large number. the few, the minority, select people.

*fey (fay) adj. 1. showing unnaturally high spirits, playful, mischievous. 2. having a strange otherworldly charm. *fey'ness n.

*fez (fez) n. (pl. *fez-zes) a man's high flat-topped cap with a tassel, worn by Muslims in certain countries.

*fed. abbr. 1. folios. 2. following pages. 3. fortissimo.

FHA abbr. Federal Housing Administration.

*fez-an-cé, *fez-an-cée (fee-ahn-say) n. a man (fiancé) or woman (fiancée) to whom one is engaged to be married.

*fez-as-co (fee-as-koh) n. (pl. -cos, -coes) a complete and ludicrous failure in something attempted.

*fez-at (fee-ät, ft-) n. an order or decree.

*flat money, paper money made legal by government decree but not backed by silver or gold.

*flib (fib) n. an unimportant lie. *flib v. (flibbed, *flib-ling) to tell a fib. *flib'ber n.

*fl-ber (fri-berr) n. 1. one of the thin strands of which animal and vegetable tissue or a textile substance is made, a threadlike piece of glass. 2. a substance consisting of fibers. 3. strength of character, moral fiber.

fiber optics, a technique of transmitting images through glass etc. fibers by repeated internal reflection.

*fl-ber-board (fri-berr-bohrrd) n. board made of compressed fibers.

*fl-ber-fil (fri-berr-fil) n. synthetic fibers used as filling for cushions, pillows, etc.

*fl-ber-glass (fri-berr-glass) n. a textile fabric made from glass fibers, a plastic containing glass fibers.

*fl-bril (fri-bril, fib-ril) n. a small fiber.

*fl-bril-la-tion (fri-bril-lay-shun) n. rapid quivering of muscle fibers, especially in the heart.

*fl-brin (fri-brin) n. an insoluble protein formed in blood clotting.

*fl-brin-o-gen (fri-brin-og-en) n. a substance that yields fibrin.

*fl-broid (fri-broid) adj. consisting of fibrous tissue. fibroid n. a benign fibroid tumor in the womb.

*fl-bro-sis (fri-bro-sis) n. development of excessive fibrous tissue.

*fl-brous (fri-bruss) adj. like fibers, made of fibers.

*fl-b-u-la (fri-yoo-lah) n. (pl. -lae, pr. -lee, -las) the bone on the outer side of the lower part of the leg.

*fiche (feesh) n. microfiche.

fish-oo (fish-oo) n. a woman's small triangular scarf of lace or muslin draped around the neck and over the shoulders.

*fick-le (fik-ël) adj. often changing, not constant or loyal. *fick'le-ness n.

fiction (fik-shun) n. 1. a product of the imagination. 2. an invented story. 3. a class of literature consisting of books containing such stories. fiction-al adj. of novels and short stories.

fiction-al-ly adv. >See the note under fictitious.

fiction-al-iz (fik-shun-a-liz) v. (fiction-al-ized, fiction-al-iz-ing) 1. to make (a true story) into a fictional narrative. 2. to make (a film or play) into a novel.

fiction-al-ous (fik-tish-us) adj. imagined, not real, not genuine, gave a fictitious account of his movements. >Fictitious is used to describe untruths where we expect truths, fictional to describe literary invention.
fic-tive (fik-tiv) adj. creating or created by imagination, not genuine.

fid-dle (fid-əl) n. (informal) a violin. fid-dle v. (fid-dled, fid-dling) 1. (informal) to play the fiddle. 2. to fidget with something, to handle a thing aimlessly. 3. (slang) to cheat or swindle; he fiddled with the accounts, falsified them.

fid’ler n. □fielder crab, a small crab, the male of which has one large claw held in position like a violinist’s arm.

fid-dle-sticks (fid-əl-sticks) interj. nonsense.

fi-del-i-ty (fi-del-ə-tee, fi-) n. (pl. -ties) 1. faithfulness, loyalty, 2. accuracy, truthfulness. 3. the quality or precision of reproduction of sound.

fid-get (fi-jit) v. 1. to make small restless movements. 2. to be uneasy, to worry. fidget n. 1. a person who fidgets. 2. fidgets, fidgeting movements.

fidd·get·y (fij-e-tē) adj. inclined to fidget.

fi·do (fr-doh) n. (pl. -dos) a coin with a minting error. □From freak irregular defect oddity.

fi-duc·iar·y (fi-duh-shir-ee) n. (pl. -ar·ies) a trustee. fiduciary adj. of the relationship of a fiduciary and his or her client (the principal).

fie (fi) interj. an expression of disapproval or pretense of outraged propriety.

fief (feef) n. 1. a feudal estate. 2. a person’s sphere of operation or control. fief-dom n.

field (feeld) n. 1. a piece of open ground, especially one used for pasture or cultivation. 2. an area of land rich in some natural product, a coal field or gas field or oil field. 3. a battlefield. 4. a sports ground, the playing area marked out on this. 5. the space within which an electric or magnetic or gravitational influence etc. can be felt, the force of that influence. 6. the area that can be seen or observed, one’s field of vision. 7. the range of a subject or activity or interest, an expert in the field of music. 8. the scene or area of fieldwork, field archaeology. 9. all the competitors in an outdoor contest or sport, all except the one(s) specified.

field v. 1. to act as a fielder in baseball. 2. to stop and return (the ball) in baseball. 3. to put (a football team or other team) into the field. 4. to deal successfully with (a series of questions). □field day, a day of much activity, especially of brilliant and exciting events. field event, any track-and-field event other than a race, as jumping and shot put. field glasses, binoculars for outdoor use. field goal, a three-point score made in football by kicking the ball over the bar between the opponent’s goal posts; a two-point score made in basketball while the ball is in play. field gun, a cannon set on wheels. field hockey, a game played on turf by two teams of eleven players using hockey sticks and a small hard ball. field house, a building housing an athletic field and storage facilities for athletic equipment. field marshal, an army officer of the highest rank, as in the British army. field mouse, the type of mouse found in open country. field officer, an army officer of the rank of colonel, lieutenant colonel, or major. field of honor, the scene of a duel. field of view, the expanse visible through an optical instrument. field of vision, the area that the eyes can see in a single look. field trial, a competition of sporting dogs conducted in the field.

field trip, an educational trip by a group of students to a site away from their school building, a trip by a scholar to an archaeological, geological, etc. site to gather data.

field·er (feel-ər) n. a baseball player (other than pitcher or catcher) playing in the infield or outfield.

field·piece (feeld-pieces) n. a field gun.

field·stone (feeld-stohn) n. stone found in fields and used in building.

field·work·er n.

fiend (fiend) n. 1. an evil spirit. 2. a very wicked or cruel person, one who causes mischief or annoyance. 3. a devotee or addict, a fresh-air fiend. fiend’ish adj. fiend’ish·ly adv.

fierce (feers) adj. 1. violent in temper or manner, or action, not gentle. 2. eager, intense, fierce loyalty. 3. unpleasantly strong or extreme, fierce heat. fierce·ly adv. fierce’ness n.

fi·er·y (fr-ē-re) adj. (fi·er·i·er, fi·er·i·est) 1. consisting of fire, flaming. 2. looking like fire, bright red. 3. intensely hot, producing a burning sensation. 4. intense, passionate, a fiery temper. fiery temper. fi·er·i·ness n.

fi·es·ta (fee-es-tä) n. a religious festival in Spanish-speaking countries.

fife (fif) n. a kind of small shrill flute used with a drum in military music.

FIFO (fi-foh) n. (in accounting) first in, first out.

fif·teen (fif-teen) adj. & n. one more than fourteen (15, XV). fifteenth adj. & n.

fifth (fifth) adj. & n. 1. next after fourth. 2. one of five equal parts of a thing. 3.
a fifth part of a gallon, a bottle (of liquor) holding this amount. 4. the Fifth, (informal) the Fifth Amendment; the distrustful witness took the Fifth, remained silent. fifth'-ly adv. 5 Fifth Amendment, the Constitutional amendment stating that no individual is required to testify against himself in a criminal case.

fifth column, an organized body working for the enemy within a country at war. (General Mola, leading four columns of troops toward Madrid in the Spanish Civil War, declared that he had a fifth column inside the city.) fifth columnist, a member of such a group. fifth wheel, a superfluous person or thing.

ff-ties (ff-teez) n. pl. the numbers or years or degrees of temperature from fifty to fifty-nine.

ff'-ty (ff-te) adj. & n. (pl. -ties) five times ten (50, L). ff'th-eth adj. & n.

ff'-ty-ff'-ty (ff-tee-ff-te) adj. & adv. shared or sharing equally between two; we went fifty-fifty, we shared the cost; a fifty-fifty chance, an equal chance of winning or losing or surviving etc.

fig (fig) n. 1. a broad-leaved tree bearing a soft pear-shaped fruit. 2. this fruit. 3. a valueless thing. I don't give a fig for conventions. fig leaf, a device used in statuary for concealing something thought to be indecent, especially the genitals.

fig. abbr. 1. figurative. 2. figuratively. 3. figure.

fight (fit) v. (fought, fight-ing) 1. to struggle against (a person or country) in physical combat or in war. 2. to carry on (a battle). 3. to struggle or contend in any way, to strive to obtain or accomplish something. 4. to strive to overcome or destroy, they fought the fire. 5. to make one's way by fighting or effort. fight n. 1. fighting, a battle. 2. a struggle or contest or conflict of any kind. 3. a boxing match. fight back, to show resistance. fighting chance, a chance of succeeding provided that one makes a great effort. fight it out, to settle something by fighting or arguing until one side wins. fight off, to drive away by fighting. show fight, to show readiness to fight.

fighter (fit-ter) n. 1. a person who fights. 2. one who does not yield without a struggle. 3. a fast military aircraft designed for attacking other aircraft.

figure (fig-yur) n. 1. the written symbol of a number. 2. a diagram. 3. a decorative pattern, a pattern traced in dancing or skating. 4. a representation of a person or animal in drawing, painting, sculpture, etc. 5. a person as seen or studied, saw a figure leaning against the door; the most terrible figure in our history. 6. external form or shape, bodily shape, has a good figure. 7. a geometrical shape enclosed by lines or surfaces. 8. figures, arithmetic, calculating, she is good at figures. figure v. (fig-ured, fig-ur-ing) 1. to represent in a diagram or picture. 2. to picture mentally, to imagine. 3. to form part of a plan etc., to appear or be mentioned, he figures in all books on the subject. figure on, (informal) to count on, to expect. figure out, (informal) to work out by arithmetic; to interpret, to understand.

figured (fig-yurd) adj. ornamented, decorated; figured silk, with designs woven into it.

figure-head (fig-yur-hed) n. 1. a carved image at the prow of a ship. 2. a person at the head of an organization etc. but without real power.

figurative (fig-yur-ative) adj. a quip, a joke.

file (fil) n. a place, a space, a slot. file away, to store up. file back, to store up. file place, to store up. file place, to store up.

filet (fil-et) n. a narrow strip of fish or meat cut from the side of a fish.

file (fil) n. a place, a space, a slot. file away, to store up. file back, to store up. file place, to store up. file place, to store up.

file (fil) n. a place, a space, a slot. file away, to store up. file back, to store up. file place, to store up. file place, to store up.

file (fil) n. a place, a space, a slot. file away, to store up. file back, to store up. file place, to store up. file place, to store up.

file (fil) n. a place, a space, a slot. file away, to store up. file back, to store up. file place, to store up. file place, to store up.
delaying tactics by a legislator to delay or prevent a vote on a bill, a long speech or other tactic used for this purpose. fill-buster v. to delay things in this way. fill-buster-er (fil-bus-ter) n. fil-lah (fil-lah) v. to fill things with metal. fill-ling (fil-ling) n. a particle rubbed off by a file. Fill-lah-nee (fil-lah-nee) n. (pl. -nees) a native of the Philippine Islands. Filipino adj. fill (fil) v. 1. to make or become full, to occupy the whole of. 2. to block up (a hole or cavity). 3. to spread over or through, smoke began to fill the room. 4. to hold (a position), to appoint a person to (a vacant post). 5. to occupy (vacant time). fill n. 1. enough to fill something. 2. enough to satisfy a person's appetite or desire. filled milk, skim milk with a substitute for butterfat. fill in, to complete by writing or drawing inside an outline; to complete (an unfinished document etc.); (informal) to inform (a person) more fully; to act as a substitute. fill out, to enlarge, to become enlarged or plumper. fill the bill, to be suitable for what is required. fill up, to fill completely, to fill the gas tank of a car. fill-er (fil-er) n. an object or material used to fill a cavity or to increase the bulk of something; fill-let (fil-let) n. 1. a boneless slice or cut of meat or fish. 2. a strip of ribbon etc. worn around the head. fillet v. to remove the bones from (fish etc.). fill-ing (fil-ing) n. 1. material used to fill a tooth cavity. 2. material put into a container to absorb impact, between layers of bread to form a sandwich, etc. filling station, a gas station. fill-lip (fil-lip) n. 1. a quick smart blow or stroke given with a fingertip. 2. something that tends to excite interest or enthusiasm. filllip v. (fil-lipped, fill-lip-ling) to strike with a fingernail in order to compel attention, obedience to a command, etc. Fill-m-er-more (fil-mo-er-mo) Mill-lard (1800–74) the thirteenth president of the U.S. 1850-53. Fill-ly (fil-ly) n. (pl. -lies) a young female horse. film (film) n. 1. a thin coating or covering layer. 2. a rolled strip or sheet coated with light-sensitive material used for taking photographs or making a motion picture, a single roll of this. 3. a motion picture. film v. 1. to cover or become covered with a thin coating or covering layer. 2. to make a film of (a story etc.). □ film star, a star actor or actress in films. film-go-er (film-goh-er) n. a person who patronizes motion-picture theaters. film-og-ra-phy (film-oh-raj-fee) n. (pl. -phies) a list of films on a particular theme or by a particular director, producer, actor, or actress. film-strip (film-strip) n. a series of transparencies for still projection, especially in teaching. film-y (fil-mee) adj. (film-er, film-l-est) thin and almost transparent. filter (fil-ter) n. 1. a device or substance for holding back the impurities in a liquid or gas passed through it. 2. a screen for preventing light of certain wavelengths from passing through. 3. a device for suppressing electrical or sound waves of frequencies other than the ones required. 4. (informal) a filter tip. filter v. 1. to pass or cause to pass through a filter, to remove impurities in this way. 2. to come or make a way in or out gradually, news filtered out; people filtered into the hall. 3. to screen (information) in order to remove objectionable items etc. filter-er-a-ble adj. filter-a-ble (fil-tra-bil) adj. □ filter bed, a tank or reservoir containing a layer of sand etc. for filtering large quantities of liquid. filter pa- per, porous paper for filtering liquids. filter tip, a cigarette with a filter at the mouth end to purify the smoke. fill-ter-tipped adj. filth (filth) n. 1. disgusting dirt. 2. obscenity. filth-l-er (filth-l-er) adj. (filth-l-er, filth-l-est) 1. disgusting dirty. 2. obscene. filth-l-ly adv. filth-l-ness n. fill-trate (fill-trate) v. (fill-trated, fill-trat-ing) to filter. fill-tra-tion (fil-tray-shon) n. fin (fin) n. 1. a thin flat projection from the body of a fish etc., used by the animal for propelling and steering itself in the water. 2. an underwater swimmer's rubber flipper. 3. a small projection shaped like a fish's fin, to improve the stability of an aircraft, rocket, etc. finned adj. fin. abbr. 1. finance. 2. financial. 3. finish. Fin. abbr. 1. Finland. 2. Finnish. fi-na-gle (fi-nay-gell) v. (fi-na-gled, fi-na-gling) (informal) to behave or obtain dishonestly. fi-na-gler n. fi-nal (fi-nal) adj. 1. at the end, coming last. 2. putting an end to doubt or discussion or argument. final n. 1. the edition of a newspaper published latest in the day. 2. finals, the last examinations in a course or competition, the last event in an athletic competition. fi-nal-ly adv. fi-nal-ly (fi-nal-lee) n. the final section of a musical composition or a drama or any activity.

fi-nal-ist (fi-nal-ist) n. a person who competes in the finals of an athletic competition.

fi-nal-iz·ing (fi-nal-iz·ing) v. 1. to bring to an end. 2. to put into its final form. (fi-nal-i-ties) n. □ Careful writers do not use finalization or finalize.

fi-nance (fi-nanc) n. 1. the management of money. 2. money as support for an undertaking. 3. finances, the money resources of a country or company or person. fi-nance v. (fi-nanced, fi-nanced·ing) to provide the money for. □ finance company, a company that is mainly concerned with lending money for retail purchases.

fi-nan·cial (fi-nan·shəl) adj. of finance.

fi-nan·cial·ly adv. □ See the note under monetary.

fin·an·ci·er (fin·ən·see·ər) fi-nan·ci·er·ly adj. □ See the note under monetary.

finch (finch) n. any of a number of related birds, most of which have short stubby bills.

find (find) v. (found, finding) 1. to discover by search or effort or inquiry or by chance. 2. to become aware of, to discover (a fact). 3. to arrive at naturally, water finds its own level. 4. to succeed in obtaining, can’t find time to do it. 5. to supply, to provide, who will find the money for the expedition? 6. (of a jury etc.) to decide and declare, found him innocent; found for the plaintiff. find n. 1. the finding of something. 2. a thing found, especially something useful or pleasing. □ find favor, to be acceptable. find oneself, to discover one’s own powers or one’s vocation. find one’s feet, to become able to stand or walk; to develop one’s powers and become able to act independently. find out, to get information about; to detect (a person) who has done wrong; to discover (a deception or fraud).

find·er (find·ər) n. 1. one who finds something. 2. the viewfinder of a camera. 3. a small telescope attached to a larger one to locate an object for observation. □ finder’s fee, money paid to an agent for discovering a commercial opportunity and bringing buyer and seller together.

fin de siècle (fin də syəˈklə) the end of a century, especially the 19th century. □ French.

find·ings (find·iŋz) n. pl. the conclusions reached by means of an inquiry.

fine1 (fin) n. a sum of money fixed as a penalty for an offense. fine v. (fined, fin·ing) to punish by a fine.

fine2 adj. (fin·er, fin·est) 1. of high quality. 2. excellent, of great merit. 3. (of weather) bright and clear, free from rain and fog etc. 4. of slender thread or thickness, small-sized, consisting of small particles. 5. requiring very skillful workmanship. 6. difficult to perceive, making fine distinctions. 7. complimentary especially in an insincere way, said fine things about them. 8. in good health, comfortably, I’m fine, thank you. fine adv. 1. finely. 2. (informal) very well, that will suit me fine. fine v. (fined, fin·ing) to make or become finer or thinner or less coarse. fine·ly adv. fine·ness n.

fine arts those appealing to the sense of beauty, especially painting, sculpture, and architecture. not to put too fine a point on it, to express it bluntly.

fine-drawn (fin·dron) adj. 1. subtle. 2. extremely thin.

fin·er·y (fin·ər·e) n. pl. fin·er·ies fine clothes or decorations.

fines herbes (feenz airb) mixed herbs used to flavor cooking. □ French.

fine·spin (fin·span) adj. 1. refined, delicately detailed. 2. excessively detailed.

fi·nesse (fi·nes) n. 1. delicate manipulation. 2. tact and cleverness in dealing with a situation. 3. (in bridge) taking a trick with a card that is not the highest and might lose to an opponent’s card.

finesse v. (fi·nessed, fin·ess·ing) 1. to use finesse. 2. (in bridge) to attempt a finesse.

fine·tooth (fin·tooth) comb, a comb with narrow close-set teeth; go through something with a fine-tooth comb, to examine it closely and thoroughly.

fin·fish (fin·fish) n. (informal) a true fish, not a shell fish.

fi·nger (fi·ngər) n. 1. one of the five parts extending from each hand, or one of these other than the thumb. 2. the part of a glove that fits over a finger. 3. a fingerlike object. 4. (slang) the breadth of a finger (about three-quarters of an inch) as a measure of liquor in a glass.

finger v. 1. to touch or feel with the fingers. 2. to play (a musical instrument) with the fingers. 3. (slang) to identify as a criminal suspect or a target for assassination. □ finger bowl, a small bowl for rinsing one’s fingers at the table. finger mark, a mark left on a surface by a finger. finger paint, paint formulated for applying with the fingers. finger painting, a painting made with the fin-fing·er·y (fin·ər·e) n. pl. fin·er·ies fine clothes or decorations.

Fingerboard; the technique of painting in this way. finger wave, a small wave set in the hair by fingers. have a finger in the pie, to be actively involved in a project.

fin·ger·board (fing-gér-bohd) n. the part of the neck of a violin etc. where strings are pressed by fingers.

fin·ger·ing (fing-gér-ríng) n. 1. a method of using the fingers in playing a musical instrument or in typing. 2. an indication of this in a musical score, usually by numbers.

fin·ger·ling (fing-gér-ling) n. a young fish smaller than a man’s finger.

fin·ger·nail (fing-gér-nayl) n. the nail at the tip of the finger.

fin·ger·print (fing-gér-print) n. an impression of the ridges of the skin on the pad of a finger, especially as a means of identification. fingerprint v. to take such an impression of.

fin·ger·tip (fing-gér-tip) n. the tip of a finger. have at one’s fingertips, to be thoroughly familiar with (a thing or fact).

fin·i·al (fin-i-ál) n. an ornament finishing off the apex of a roof, pediment, lamp, etc.

fin·i·ly (fin-i-lee) adj. being fastidious, giving or requiring extreme care about details.

fin·ish (fin-ish) v. 1. to bring or come to an end, to complete. 2. to reach the end of a task or race etc. 3. to consume or get through all of, finish the pie. 4. to put the final touches to, to complete the manufacture of (woodwork, cloth, etc.) by surface treatment. finish n. 1. the last stage of something. 2. the point at which a race etc. ends. 3. the state of being finished or perfect. 4. the method or texture or material used for finishing woodwork etc. finishing school, a private school preparing girls for life in fashionable society. finish off, to kill. finish with, to complete one’s use of; to end one’s association with.

fin·i·te (fin-ít) adj. limited, not infinite.

fink (fink) n. (slang) 1. a despicable person. 2. an informer.

Fin·land (fin-länd) a country of northeast Europe.

Fin·n (fin) n. a native or inhabitant of Finland.

Finn abbr. Finnish.

fin·nan had·die (fin-án had-ee) haddock cured with smoke of green wood or of turf or peat.

Fin·nish (fin-ish) adj. of the Finns or their language. Finnish n. the language of the Finns.

fio abbr. free in and out.

flord = fjord.

flr (fur) n. 1. (also flr tree) a kind of evergreen cone-bearing tree with needlelike leaves on its shoots. 2. its wood.

fire (fir) n. 1. combustion producing light and heat. 2. destructive burning, insured against fire. 3. burning fuel in a fireplace or furnace etc., an electric or gas fire. 4. angry or excited feeling, enthusiasm. 5. the firing of guns, hold your fire. fire v. (fired, fir-ing) 1. to set fire to. 2. to catch fire. 3. to supply (a furnace etc.) with fuel. 4. to bake (pottery or bricks). 5. to excite, to stimulate, fired them with enthusiasm. 6. to send a bullet or shell from a gun, to detonate. 7. (of a firearm) to discharge its missile. 8. to dismiss (an employee) from a job. flr’er n. □ catch fire, to begin to burn; (informal) to develop or show enthusiasm. fire alarm, a bell or other device giving warning of fire. fire ant, a stinging ant that feeds on both animal and vegetable substances.

fire away, (informal) to begin, to go ahead. fire department, an organized body of people trained and employed to extinguish fires. fire dog, a Dalmatian. fire drill, a rehearsal of the procedure to be used in case of fire. fire eater, a circus performer who appears to eat fire; a person who is fond of fighting or quarreling; (slang) a fireman. fire engine, a vehicle fitted with equipment used for fighting fires. fire escape, a special staircase or apparatus by which people may escape from a burning building etc. in case of fire. fire extinguisher, an apparatus used for putting out a fire. fire fighter, a person who works at putting out forest fires; (informal) a fireman. fire iron, a poker, tongs, and shovel for tending a domestic fire. fire screen, a protective screen placed in front of an open fireplace. fire station, the headquarters of the fire department. fire storm, a high wind or storm following fire caused by bombs. fire tower, a tower from which a watch for fires can be kept. fire truck, = fire engine. firing line, the front line in a battle, from which troops fire at the enemy; a position in the forefront of an activity. firing squad, a group ordered to fire a salute during a military funeral, or to shoot a condemned person. on fire, burning. under fire, under attack; under criticism.

fire·arm (fîr-ərm) n. a rifle, gun, pistol, or revolver.

fire·ball (fîr-bawl) n. 1. a large meteor. fire-base (fīr-bās) n. an artillery base, especially one quickly set up to support an infantry attack.

fire-boat (fīr-both) n. a ship furnished with fire-fighting equipment.

fire-bomb (fīr-bōm) n. an incendiary bomb. firebomb v. to bombard with or place a firebomb. fire/bomb/er n.

fire-box (fīr-boks) n. 1. the fuel chamber of a steam boiler. 2. a box with an alarm or telephone for notifying the fire station about a fire.

fire-brand (fīr-brānd) n. a person who stirs up trouble.

fire-break (fīr-brāk) n. a ditch or clearing to prevent a forest fire from spreading.

fire-brick (fīr-brīk) n. a brick made of fire-clay.

fire-bug (fīr-bug) n. (informal) a pyromaniac, an arsonist.

fire-clay (fīr-klay) n. clay that resists great heat, used in firebricks and furnaces.

fire-crack-er (fīr-kra克-ər) n. a paper cylinder filled with an explosive and having a fuse, used as a noisemaker.

fire-damp (fīr-damp) n. the miners' name for methane, which is explosive when mixed in certain proportions with air.

fire-dog (fīr-dawg) n. an andiron.

fire-fly (fīr-flī) n. (pl. -flies) a kind of beetle that gives off a phosphorescent light.

fire-house (fīr-hous) n. a building housing equipment and personnel for fighting fires.

fire-light (fīr-līt) n. the light from a fire in a fireplace.

fire-man (fīr-mān) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mēn) 1. a member of a fire department. 2. one whose job is to tend a furnace etc.

fire-place (fīr-plēz) n. 1. an open recess for a domestic fire, at the base of a chimney. 2. the surrounding structure.

fire-plug (fīr-plug) n. (informal) a fire hydrant.

fire-power (fīr-pōw-ər) n. the ability (of a military unit) to inflict destruction.

fire-proof (fīr-proof) adj. 1. that does not catch fire. 2. that does not break when heated, fireproof dishes.

fire-re sist-ant (fīr-ri-zis-tānt) adj. capable of resisting, though not entirely preventing, destruction by fire.

fire-side (fīr-sid) n. the part of a room near a fireplace, this as the center of one's home. fire-side adj. informal and friendly. □ fireside chat, an informal discussion.

fire-trap (fīr-trāp) n. a building poorly protected against fire and without proper exits in case of fire.

fire-wa·ter (fīr-waw-tər) n. (slang) whiskey.

fire-wood (fīr-wūd) n. wood for use as fuel.

fire-work (fīr-wūrk) n. 1. a device containing chemicals that burn or explode with spectacular effect, used at celebrations. 2. fireworks, a display of fireworks; an outburst of anger.

firm (fīrm) n. a partnership for carrying on a professional practice or a business, a commercial establishment.

firm² adj. 1. not yielding when pressed, hard, solid. 2. steady, not shaking. 3. securely based. 4. established, not easily changed or influenced, a firm belief; a firm offer, one that is not liable to be canceled. firm adv. firmly, stand firm. firm v. to make or become firm or compact, to fix firmly. firm'ly adv. firm'ness n.

fir·ma·ment (fur-mā-men) n. the sky with its clouds and stars.

first (fīrst) adj. coming before all others in time or order or importance. first n. something that is first, the first day of a month, the first occurrence or achievement of something. first adv. 1. before all others. 2. before another event or time; must finish this work first, before doing something else. 3. for the first time, when did you first see him? 4. in preference, will see him dead first. □ at first, at the beginning. at first hand, obtained directly, from the original source. first aid, treatment given to an injured person before a doctor comes. first base, the first of the bases that must be reached to score a run in baseball; the portion of the field near this base; get to first base, to achieve the first step toward an objective. first baseman, the baseball player stationed at first base. first blood, the first success in a contest. first class, the best quality; the best accommodation in a boat or train or aircraft etc.; (of mail) the category that is most expensive and is intended to be delivered quickly and be given special treatment in handling. first cousin, see cousin.

first fruits, the first of a season's agricultural products, offered to God; the first results of work etc. first gear, the lowest forward gear in a motor vehicle. first lady (also First Lady), the wife of the president of the U.S. first lieutenant, see lieutenant. first mate, a ship's officer ranking just below the captain. first name, a personal or Christian name. first night, the first public performance fitful / flaccid

ready to drop from exhaustion. 4. in good athletic condition or health, fit as a fiddle. fit v. (fit·ted, fit·ting) 1. to be the right shape and size for something. 2. to put clothing on (a person) and adjust it to the right shape and size. 3. to put into place, fit a lock on the door. 4. to make or be suitable or competent, his training fitted him for the position. fit n. the way a thing fits, the coat is a good fit. fit′ly adv. fit′ness n. □ fit in, to make room or time etc. for; to be or cause to be harmonious or in a suitable relationship. fit out or up, to supply or equip. see or think fit, to decide or choose to do something, especially when this is unwise or without good reason.

fit·ful (fit·ful) adj. occurring in short periods, not regularly or steadily. fit′ful·ly adv.

fit·ter (fit·er) n. 1. a person who supervises the fitting of clothing etc. 2. a mechanic who fits together and adjusts the parts of machinery.

fit·ting (fit·ing) adj. proper, right, suitable. fitting n. 1. the trying on of clothing that has been altered or specially made. 2. a mechanical part or equipment. fit′ting·ly adv.

five (fiv) adj. & n. one more than four (5, V). □ five-and-ten-cent store, five-and-dime (store), a store that sells a wide variety of inexpensive merchandise, formerly costing between five and ten cents. give me five, (slang) shake my hand.

five·fold (frv·fold) adj. & adv. 1. five times as much or as many. 2. consisting of five parts.

fi·ver (frv·vér) n. (slang) a five-dollar bill. five·star (frv·star) adj. of the highest class. □ five·star general, a general of the army.

fix (fiks) v. 1. to fasten firmly. 2. to implant (facts or ideas) firmly in the mind or memory. 3. to direct (the eyes or attention) steadily toward something. 4. to establish, to specify, fixed a time for the meeting; how are you fixed for cash, what is your situation as regards money? 5. to treat (a photographic image or a color etc.) with a substance that prevents it from fading or changing color. 6. to repair 7. (slang) to deal with, to get even with. 8. (slang) to use bribery or deception or improper influence on, to arrange (the result of a race etc.) fraudulently. fix n. 1. an awkward situation, a dilemma, be in a fix. 2. the finding of the position of a ship or aircraft etc. by taking bearings, the position found. 3. (slang) an addict's dose of a narcotic drug. □ fixed star, an ordinary star, one that (unlike the sun and planets) is so far from Earth that it seems to have no motion of its own. fix up, to arrange; to organize; to provide for, fixed him up with a job.

fix·ate (fik·sayt) v. (fix·at·ed, fix·at·ing) 1. to direct one's gaze on. 2. to become emotionally arrested at an immature stage and therefore develop an abnormal attachment to certain persons or things. 3. to cause (a person) to undergo this process.

fix·a·tion (fik·say·shún) n. 1. fixing, being fixed. 2. an abnormal emotional attachment to a person or thing. 3. concentration on one idea, an obsession.

fix·a·tive (fik·sá·tiv) n. 1. a substance for keeping things in position. 2. a substance for fixing colors etc., or for preventing perfumes from evaporating too quickly.

fixed (fikst) adj. firmly fastened or stationary, not to be changed or moved, a fixed amount.

fix·é·dy (fik·sid·lee) adv. in a fixed way.

fix·er (fik·ser) n. 1. a person or thing that fixes something. 2. a substance for fixing photographic images. 3. (slang) a person who illegally arranges the results of a race etc. or attempts to bribe officials etc.

fix·ings (fik·singz) n. pl. the vegetables, puddings, etc. that accompany a main dish, turkey with all the fixings.

fix·i·ty (fik·si·tee) n. (pl. -ties) a fixed state, stability, permanence.

fix·ture (fik·chur) n. 1. a thing that is fixed in position. 2. a person or thing that is firmly established and unlikely to leave. 3. a date appointed for a match or race etc., the match or race itself.

fizz (fiz) v. to make a hissing or spluttering sound, as when gas escapes in bubbles from a liquid. fizz n. 1. this sound. 2. a bubbling drink, gin fizz. fiz·zy adj. fiz·zi·ness n.

fiz·zle (fiz·él) v. (fiz·zled, fiz·zling) 1. to make a feeble fizzing sound. 2. to fizzle out. fizz·le n. 1. the sound of fizzling. 2. (of an effort) a failure. □ fizz·le out, to end feebly or unsuccessfully.

fjord (fyohrd) n. a long narrow inlet from the sea between high cliffs, as in Norway. FL abbr. Florida.

fl. abbr. 1. floor. 2. flourished. 3. fluid.

fla. abbr. Florida.

flab (flab) n. (informal) fat, flabbiness.

flab·ber·gast (flab·ber·gast) v. to overwhelm with astonishment.

flab·by (flab·by) adj. (flab·bl·er, flab·bl·est) fat and limp, not firm. flab·bl·ly adv. flab′bl·ness n.

flac·cid (flak·sid) adj. hanging loose or wrinkled, not firm. flac′cid·ly adv.
flack / flannel

fla·cid·i·ty (flak-sid-i-tee) n. ▶ Note the pronunciation of these words. ▶ flack (flak) n. (slang) a press agent.
fla·con (flak-on) n. a small bottle with a stopper.
flag (flag) n. 1. a piece of cloth attached by one edge to a staff or rope and used as the distinctive symbol of a country etc. or as a signal. 2. an oblong device used as a signal that a taxi is for hire. 3. a small paper device resembling a flag.
flag v. (flagged, flag·ging) 1. to mark out with flags. 2. to signal with or as if with a flag; flagged the vehicle down, signaled to it to stop. ▶ Flag Day, June 14, the anniversary of the adoption of the Stars and Stripes in 1777. flag of convenience, a foreign flag of the nationality under which a ship is registered to avoid taxation or certain regulations.
flag2 v. (flagged, flag·ging) 1. to hang down limply, to droop. 2. to lose vigor, to become weak, interest flagged.
flag3 n. a flagstone. flag v. (flagged, flag·ging) to pave with flagstones.
flag·el·late (flag·el-lay·t) v. (flag·el·lat·ed, flag·el·lat·ing) to whip. flag·el·la·tion (flag·el-lay-shun) n.
flag·gel·lum (fla·gel·l) n. (pl. -gel·la, pr. -jel-a, -gel·lums) a lashlike appendage of protozoa, bacteria, etc.
flag·eo·let (fla·je·let) n. a small flute blown at the end, like a recorder but with thumb holes.
flag·gl·i·tious (fla·jish-üs) adj. deeply criminal, utterly villainous.
flag·man (flag·män) n. (pl. -men, pr. -män) a person who is employed to signal with a flag or light, as on a railroad or at a highway construction site.
flag·on (flag·on) n. a vessel with a handle, lip, and lid for serving wine at the table.
flag·pole (flag·pohl) n. a pole on which a flag is displayed.
flag·grant (flag·grant) adj. (of an offense or error or an offender) very bad and obvious. ▶ flag·grant·ly adv. flag·grant·cy n.
flag·ship (flag·ship) n. a ship that carries an admiral and flies his flag.
flag·staff (flag·staff) n. a flagpole.
flag·stone (flag·stohn) n. a flat slab of rock used for paving.
flail (flayl) n. an old-fashioned tool for threshing grain, consisting of a strong stick hinged on a long handle. flail v. 1. to beat with or as if with a flail. 2. to wave or swing about wildly.
flair (flair) n. a natural ability to do something well or to select and recognize what is good or useful etc. ▶ Do not confuse flair with flare.
flak (flak) n. 1. shells fired by antiaircraft guns. 2. (informal) verbal abuse. ▶ flak jacket, a heavy protective jacket, reinforced with metal.
flake (flayk) n. 1. a light fleecy piece of snow. 2. a small thin leaflike piece of something. flake v. (flaked, flak·ing) to come off in flakes. flak’y adj. (flak·i·er, flak·i·est) 1. of or like flakes. 2. (slang) strange, eccentric, a flaky sense of humor. ▶ flake out, (informal) to faint or fall asleep from exhaustion. flam·bé (flahm·bay) adj. (of food) covered with liquor (usually brandy) and ignited before serving.
flam·beau (flam·boh) n. (pl. -beaux, pr. -boh, -beaus) a flaming torch.
flam·boy·ant (flam·boi·ant) adj. 1. colored or decorated in a very showy way. 2. (of people) having a very showy appearance or manner. flam·boy·ant·ly adv. flam·boy·ance n. flam·boy·an·cy n.
flame (flaym) n. 1. the visible portion of a fire. 2. bright red. 3. passion, especially of love. 4. (informal) a sweetheart; old flame, a former sweetheart. flame v. (flamed, flam·ing) 1. to burn with flames, to send out flames. 2. to become bright red, his face flamed with anger.
fla·men·co (fla·men·co) n. (pl. -cos) a Spanish gypsy style of song or dance. ▶ flamenco dancer, an entertainer who performs this dance.
flame·out (flaym·o·wt) n. loss of power in a jet engine through extinction of the flame in the combustion chamber.
flame·proof (flaym·proof) adj. not easily set on fire.
flame·throw·er (flaym·throv·èr) n. a weapon that projects a flame.
fla·min·go (fla·ming·go) n. (pl. -gos, -goes) a long-legged wading bird with a long neck and pinkish feathers.
flam·ma·tile (fla·mi·til) adj. able to be set on fire. flam·ma·til·i·ty (fla·mi·til·i·tee) n. ▶ See the note under inflammable.
flan (flan) n. a custard dessert.
flange (flanj) n. a projecting rim or edge.
flank (flank) n. 1. the fleshy part of the side of the body between the last rib and the hip. 2. the side of an animal or object. 3. the right or left side of a body of troops etc. flank v. to place or be situated at the side of. ▶ flank steak, a slice of meat from an animal’s flank.
flank·er (flang·kér) n. 1. a thing or person that flanks. 2. (in football) a player on the offense who lines up far to the left or right of the end position and serves as a pass receiver.
flan·nel (flan·ell) n. 1. a kind of loosely flannelette / flatboat woven woolen fabric. 2. flannels, trousers made of flannel or similar fabric.

flan-nette (flan-ët-ë) n. cotton fabric made to look and feel like flannel.

flap (flap) v. (flapped, flapping) 1. to sway or be swayed up and down or from side to side, to wave about. 2. to give a light blow with something flat, flapped at a fly. flap n. 1. the action or sound of flapping. 2. a light blow with something flat. 3. a broad hanging piece hinged or attached at one side, a hinged or sliding section on an aircraft wing etc. used to control lift. 2. (slang) a state of agitation, the robbery caused a great flap.

flap-jack (flap-jack) n. a pancake.

flap-able (flap-ä-bel) adj. (informal) excitable.

flap-er (flap-er) n. 1. a broad fin or flipper. 2. a young woman of the 1920's, especially one having bold manners and dressing unconventionally.

flare (flair) v. (flared, flaring) 1. to blaze with a sudden irregular flame. 2. to burst into sudden activity or anger, tempers flared. 3. to widen gradually outward.

flare n. 1. a sudden outburst of flame. 2. a device producing a flaring light as a signal or for illumination. 3. a flared shape, a gradual widening. flare up, to become suddenly angry. Do not confuse flare with flair.

flash (flash) v. 1. to give out a sudden bright light. 2. to come suddenly into view or into the mind, the idea flashed upon me. 3. to move rapidly, the train flashed past. 4. to cause to shine briefly. 5. to signal with a light or lights. 6. to send (news etc.) by radio or telegraph. 7. (slang) to expose oneself in an indecent way. flash n. 1. a sudden burst of flame or light. 2. a very brief time, in a flash. 3. a brief news item sent out by radio etc. 4. a device producing a brief bright light in photography. 5. (slang) an act of indecent exposure. flash adj. sudden and brief, a flash flood. flasher n.

flash card, any of a group of cards with words, numbers, or pictures shown briefly to pupils by a teacher during a drill. flash in the pan, something that makes a showy start and then fails. (Originally an explosion of gunpowder in the pan (the part that held the powder) of an old gun without actually firing the charge.) flash point, the temperature at which vapor from oil etc. will ignite; the point at which anger is ready to break out.

flash-back (flash-bak) n. the changing of the scene in a story or film to a scene at an earlier time.

flash-bulb (flash-bulb) n. an electric bulb that briefly emits a dazzling light when ignited, for taking photographs.

flash-cube (flash-kuh) n. a small cube containing four flashbulbs for use in taking four successive photographs.

flash-gun (flash-gun) n. a device that simultaneously discharges a flashbulb and operates a camera shutter.

flash-ing (flash-ing) n. a strip of metal to prevent water entering at a joint in roofing etc.

flash-light (flash-lit) n. a hand-held electric torch powered by a battery.

flash-tube (flash-toof) n. a gas-filled flashbulb that can be used again and again.

flash-y (flash-ee) adj. (flash-er, flash-est) showy, gaudy. flash-ly adv.

flash-off ness n.

flash n. 1. a narrow-necked bottle. 2. a vacuum flask.

flat (flat) adj. (flat-er, flat-est) 1. horizontal, level. 2. spread out, lying at full length. 3. smooth and even, with a broad level surface and little depth, a flat cap. 4. absolute, unqualified, a flat refusal. 5. dull, monotonous. 6. (of drink) having lost its effervescence. 7. (in music) below the correct pitch; D flat etc., a half step lower than the corresponding note or key of natural pitch. 8. (of paint, surfaces, etc.) not reflecting light, not glossy. 9. deflated, a flat tire. flat adj. 1. in a flat manner. 2. (informal) completely, I am flat broke. 3. (informal) exactly, in ten seconds flat. 4. below the correct pitch in music, he was singing flat. flat n. 1. a flat thing or part, level ground. 2. an apartment. 3. (in music) a note that is a half step lower than the corresponding one of natural pitch, the sign indicating this. 4. a flat tire. 5. (often flats) an area of level or low ground, the Bonneville Salt Flats.

flat v. (flat-er, flat-est) to make or become flat. flat-ly adv. flat-ness n.

flat adj. 1. to fail, to fail to win applause or appreciation. fall flat on one's face, (informal) to fail ignominiously. flat feet, feet with less than the normal arch beneath. flat out, at top speed; using all one's strength or resources. flat race, a race over level ground, as distinct from a hurdle race or steeplechase. flat rate, a rate that is the same in all cases, not proportional.

flat tire, one that is deflated because of a puncture etc.

flat-bed (flat-bed) n. a truck or trailer having a bed or platform without raised sides, ends, or top.

flat-boat (flat-boht) n. a boat with a flat bottom for transport in shallow water.
flat·car (flat-kahr) n. a railroad freight car without raised sides, ends, or top.

flat·fish (flat-fish) n. (pl. -fish·es, -fish) a type of fish with a flattened body and both eyes on the upper side, as sole, flounder, etc.

flat·foot (flat-fuut) 1. (pl. -foot·s) (slang) a policeman. 2. (pl. -feet) the condition of flat feet (see flat).

flat·foot·ed (flat-fuut-id) adj. 1. having flat feet. 2. (informal) unprepared, he was caught flatfooted.

Flat·head (flat-hed) n. a member of one of several Indian tribes of the American northwest coast thought to practice head flattening.

flat·i·ron (flat-i-örn) n. a heavy iron heated by external means.

flat·land (flat-land) n. level land.

flat·ten (flat-ën) v. to make or become flat.

flat·ter (flat-ër) v. 1. to compliment (a person) excessively or insincerely, especially in order to win favor. 2. to gratify by honoring, we were flattered to receive an invitation. 3. to represent (a person or thing) favorably in a portrait etc. so that good looks are exaggerated. flat·ter·er n. flat·ter·es·self, to please or delude oneself with a belief.

flat·ter·y (flat-i-ré) n. 1. flattering. 2. excessive or insincere compliments.

flat·top (flat-top) n. (informal) an aircraft carrier.

flat·u·lent (flach-u-lent) adj. causing or suffering from the formation of gas in the digestive tract. flat·u·lence n.

flat·us (flay-tús) n. gas in or from the stomach or bowels.

flat·ware (flat-wair) n. flat tableware, do·mes·tic cutlery.

flat·work (flat-wurk) n. laundered articles that can be ironed flat by a machine.

flat·worm (flat-wurm) n. a type of worm with a flattened body.

flaunt (flaunt) v. 1. to display proudly or ostentatiously. 2. (of a flag etc.) to wave proudly. Do not confuse flaunt with flout. We flaunt our ignorance if we flout established grammatical principles.

fla·tist (flaw-tist, flow-) n. a flute player.

fla·vor (flav-vör) n. 1. a distinctive taste. 2. a special quality or characteristic, the story has a romantic flavor. flavor v. to give a flavor to, to season. fla·vor·ful adj. fla·vor·less adj. fla·vor·some adj.

fla·vor·ing (flav-vör-ing) n. a substance used to give flavor to food.

flaw (flaw) n. an imperfection, a blemish.

flaw v. to spoil with a flaw.

flaw·less (flaw-lis) adj. without a flaw. flaw·less·ly adv. flaw·less·ness n.

flax (flaks) n. 1. a blue-flowered plant cultivated for the textile fiber obtained from its stem and for its seeds (linseed). 2. its fiber.

flax·en (flak-sen) adj. 1. made of flax. 2. pale yellow in color like dressed flax, flaxen hair.

flay (flay) v. 1. to strip off the skin or hide of. 2. to criticize severely.

flea (flee) n. a small wingless jumping insect that feeds on human and animal blood. flea market, a street market.

flea·bag (flee-bag) n. (slang) 1. a cheap hotel or rooming house. 2. a worthless racehorse.

flea·bane (flee-bayn) n. one of various plants of the daisy family supposed to drive away fleas.

flea·bit·ten (flee-bit-ën) adj. 1. bitten by fleas. 2. (informal) showing wear or heavy use. 3. seedy, disreputable.

fleck (flek) n. 1. a very small patch of color. 2. a small particle, a speck.

flecked (flekt) adj. marked with flecks.

fled (fled) see flee.

fledged (flejd) adj. 1. (of young birds) with fully grown wing feathers, able to fly. 2. mature, trained and experienced, a full-fledged engineer.

fledg·ling (flee-ing) n. 1. a young bird that has just grown the feathers necessary to fly. 2. a young inexperienced person.

flee (flee) v. (fled, flee·ing) 1. to run or hurry away. 2. to run away from, flee the country. 3. to pass away swiftly, to vanish, all hope had fled.

fleece (fleez) n. 1. the woolly hair of a sheep or similar animal. 2. a soft fabric used for linings etc. fleece v. (fleeced, fleece·ing) (informal) to defraud, to rob by trickery. fleecy' adj.

fleer (fleer) v. to laugh impudently or mockingly, to jeer.

fleet (flekt) n. 1. the naval force of a country, a number of warships under one commander. 2. a number of ships or aircraft or buses etc. moving or working under one command or ownership. fleet admiral, the highest ranking officer in the U.S. Navy.

fleet·2 adj. moving swiftly, nimble. fleet·ly adj. fleet·ness n.

fleet·ing (flee·ting) adj. passing quickly, brief, a fleeting glimpse.

Flem. abbr. Flemish.

Flem·ish (flem-ish) adj. of Flanders or its people or language. Flemish n. 1. the Flemish language. 2. the Flemish, Flemish people.

flesh (flesh) n. 1. the soft substance of an animal body, consisting of muscle and fat. 2. this tissue of animal bodies (excluding fish and sometimes fowl) as food. 3. the body as opposed to the mind or soul. 4. the pulpy part of fruits and vegetables. □ flesh and blood, human nature, people with their emotions and weaknesses; one's own flesh and blood, relatives, descendants. flesh fly, a fly that lays its eggs in flesh. flesh out, to make or become substantial. flesh wound, a wound that does not reach a bone or vital organ. in the flesh, in bodily form, in person.

flesh-ly (flesh-lee) adj. 1. of the flesh or body. 2. lascivious, sensual. 3. mortal, worldly, not spiritual. □ do not confuse fleshly with fleshy.

flesh-pot (flesh-pot) n. a place offering licentious high living and luxuries.

flesh-y (flesh-ec) adj. (flesh-i-er, flesh-i-est) 1. of or like flesh. 2. having much flesh, plump, (of plants or fruits etc.) pulpy. flesh′i-ness n. □ do not confuse fleshy with fleshly.

fleur-de-lis (flur-de-lee) n. (pl. fleurs-de-lis, pl. flur-de-leez) a design of three petal-like parts used in heraldry.

flew (floo) see fly4.

flex (fleks) v. to bend (a joint or limb), to move (a muscle) so that it bends a joint. □ flex one's muscles, (informal) to show off one's strength or physique.

flex-i-ble (flek-si-bel) adj. 1. able to bend easily without breaking. 2. adaptable, able to be changed to suit circumstances.

flex′i-ble-ly adv. flex′i-bil-i-ty (flek-si-bil-i-tee) n.

flex-time (fleks-tim), flex-i-time (flek-si-tim) (trademark) n. a system of flexible working hours.

flex-ure (fleks-shur) n. a curvature, a bend.

fib-ber-ti-glub-bet (fib-ber-ti-jib-it) n. a flighty, frivolous, or restless person.

flick1 (flick) n. a quick light blow or stroke, as with a whip. flick v. to strike or remove with a quick light blow, to make a flicking movement.

flick2 n. (informal) a movie. □ the flicks, the movies.

flick-er1 (flick-er) v. 1. to burn or shine unsteadily. 2. (of hope etc.) to occur briefly, to be at the point of disappearing. 3. to quiver, to move quickly to and fro.

flicker n. a flickering movement or light, a brief occurrence of hope etc.

flicker2 n. a large North American woodpecker with a spotted breast and brown back.

flled (fled) see fly2 definition 11.

fi-er (fi-er) n. 1. a bird etc. that flies. 2. an animal or vehicle that moves very fast. 3. an aviator. 4. (informal) a speculation, a business risk; take a flirer, to risk money on a speculation. 5. a handbill.

flight1 (fliit) n. 1. the process of flying, the movement or path of a thing through the air. 2. a journey made by air, transport in an aircraft making a particular journey, there are three flights a day to Rome. 3. a flock of birds or insects. 4. a number of aircraft regarded as a unit. 5. a series of stairs in a straight line or between two landings. 6. a swift passage (of time). 7. an effort that is beyond the ordinary, a flight of the imagination.

□ flight bag, a small bag for carrying by air travelers. flight deck, the cockpit of a large aircraft. flight feather, one of the large feathers that enable a bird to fly. flight path, the planned course of an aircraft or spacecraft. top flight, taking a leading place, excellent of its kind.

flight2 n. fleeing, running or going away.

□ put to flight, to cause to flee. take flight or take to flight, to flee.

flight-less (fliit-les) adj. (of birds, as penguins) nonflying.

flight-test (fliit-test) v. to test (an aircraft, rocket, etc.) by flight.

flight-y (fliit-ee) adj. (flight-i-er, flight-i-est) without a serious purpose or interest, frivolous. flight′i-ness n.

film-flam (film-flam) n. (informal) a trick or deception. filmflam v. (informal) to cheat, to deceive.

film-sy (film-zee) adj. (film-si-er, film-si-est) 1. light and thin, of loose structure, fragile. 2. unconvincing, a flimsy excuse. film′si-ly adv. film′si-ness n.

flinch (flinch) v. 1. to draw back in fear, to wince. 2. to shrink from one's duty etc.

fling (fling) v. (flung, flinging) 1. to throw violently or angrily or hurriedly; fling caution to the winds, act rashly. 2. to put or send suddenly or forcefully, flung him into prison. 3. to rush, to go angrily or violently, she flung out of the room. fling n. 1. the act or movement of flinging. 2. a kind of vigorous dance, the Highland fling. 3. a brief period of indulgence in pleasure, have one's fling. □ take a fling at, (informal) to make an attempt at.

flint (flint) n. 1. a very hard kind of stone that can produce sparks when struck against steel. 2. a piece of this. 3. a piece of hard alloy used in a cigarette lighter etc. to produce a spark. □ flint glass, pure lustrous glass, originally made with ground flint.

flint-lock (flint-loc) n. 1. the lock of a gun discharged by a spark from flint. 2. a gun of this kind.
flint'y (flin-tee) adj. (flint·l·er, flint·l·est) like flint, very hard.

flip (flip) v. (flipped, flip·ping) 1. to flick. 2. to toss (a thing) with a sharp movement so that it turns over in the air. 3. (informal) to experience a sudden strong emotion. flip n. the action of flipping something. □ flip one's lid, (slang) to show great anger, to lose self-control; he flipped his lid over her, became infatuated. flip side, (informal) the less important side of a phonograph record.

flip² n. a cocktail containing sugar and egg.

flip³ adj. (flip·per, flip·pest) (informal) flip.

flip·pant (flip·ánt) adj. not showing proper seriousness. flip' pant·ly adv.

flip'pan·cy n.

flip·per (flip·er) n. 1. a limb of certain sea animals (as seals, turtles, penguins), used in swimming. 2. one of a pair of large flat rubber attachments worn on the feet for swimming and deep-sea diving.

flirt (flurt) v. 1. to court a person playfully or without serious intentions. 2. to toy, flirted with the idea; flirting with death, taking great risks. flirt n. a person who flirts. flirt·ta·tion (flurt·ta·sh6n) n.

flirt·ta·tious (flurt·ta·shis) adj. flirting, full of flirting. flirt·ta·tious·ly adv.

flit (fit) v. (flit·ted, flit·ting) to fly or move lightly and quickly.

flitch (fitch) n. a side of bacon.

fliv·ver (fiiv·er) n. (informal) a small cheap automobile.

float (fleth) v. 1. to rest or drift on the surface of a liquid without sinking, to be held up freely in air or gas. 2. to cause to do this. 3. to move lightly or casually.
4. to have or allow (currency) to have a variable rate of exchange. 5. to obtain (a loan) or issue (stocks or bonds) in order to finance an enterprise. float n. 1.
a thing designed to float on liquid, a cork used on a fishing line to show when the bait has been taken, one of the corks supporting the edge of a fishing net. 2. a floating device to control the flow of water, gasoline, etc. 3. a structure to enable an aircraft to float on water. 4. a platform on wheels carrying a display in a parade.
5. the available supply of a company's common stock. 6. a drink made of ice cream and soda. □ floating rib, one of the ribs not joined to the breastbone.

float·er (fleth·ter) n. 1. something that floats. 2. an office worker who is able to replace other workers when they are absent. 3. (informal) a person who goes aimlessly from one activity to another.

floc (flok) n. a fine mass formed by suspended particles in a precipitate etc.

floc·cu·late (flok·yu·lat) v. (floc·cu·lat·ed, floc·cu·lat·ing) to form (suspended particles) or be formed into tuftlike masses. floc·cu·lant n.

flock¹ (flok) n. 1. a number of sheep, goats, or birds kept together or feeding or travelling together. 2. a large number of peoples, a flock of visitors. 3. a number of people in someone's charge, a Christian congregation. flock v. to gather or go in a flock.

flock² n. 1. a tuft of wool or cotton etc.
2. wool or cotton waste used for stuffing mattresses etc. 3. powdered wool or felt applied to paper, cloth, etc. to produce a pattern or texture.

floe (floh) n. a sheet of floating ice.

flog (flog) v. (flogged, flog·ging) to beat severely with a rod or whip, as a punishment. flog·ger n. flog·ging n.

flood (flud) n. 1. the coming of a great quantity of water over a place that is usually dry, the water itself; the Flood, that described in the Bible. 2. a great outpouring or outburst, a flood of abuse.
3. the inflow of the tide. flood v. 1. to cover or fill with a flood, to overflow.
2. (of a river etc.) to become flooded.
3. to come in great quantities, letters flooded in. □ be flooded out, to be forced to leave because of a flood. flood tide, the advancing tide.

flood·gate (flud·gayt) n. a gate that can be opened or closed to control the flow of water, especially the lower gate of a lock.

flood·light (flud·lit) n. a lamp used for producing a broad bright beam of light to light up a stage or building etc. floodlight v. (flood·lit, flood·light·ing) to illuminate with this.

flood·plain (flud·plain) n. a plain that is subject to flooding.

flood·wa·ter (flud·waw·t6r) n. the water of a flood.

floor (flor) n. 1. the lower surface of a room, the part on which one stands. 2.
the bottom of the sea or of a cave etc.
3. (in legislative assemblies) the part of the assembly hall where members sit. 4.
a minimum level for wages or prices. 5.
a story of a building, all the rooms having a continuous floor. floor v. 1. to put a floor into (a building). 2. to knock down (a person) in a fight. 3. (informal) to baffle, to overwhelm (a person) with a problem or argument. □ floor leader, a legislator who is chosen by a political party to direct its activities on the floor of a legis-latively body. floor manager, a person at a political convention who leads support for his candidate for nomination.

floor show, an entertainment presented floorboard / flower

on the floor of a nightclub etc. have the floor, to have the right to speak in a debate.

floor-board (floh-berd) n. 1. one of the boards forming the floor of a room. 2. the floor of a motor vehicle etc.

floor-shift (floh-shift) n. a manually operated gearshift located on the floor of an automobile.

floor-walk-er (floh-waw-kér) n. (old use) a department store sales supervisor.

flooz-y, flooz-zie (flooz-zee) n. (pl. -zies) (slang) a disreputable woman.

flop (flop) v. (flopped, flopping) 1. to hang or sway heavily and loosely. 2. to fall down clumsily. 3. (slang) to be a failure. flop n. 1. a flopping movement or sound. 2. (slang) a failure. flop adv. with a flop.

flop-house (floh-hous) n. (pl. -houses, pr. -how-ziz) (slang) a low-grade rooming house or hotel.

flop-oy (floh-ay) n. continuous vertical movement of a television picture.

flop-oy (floh-ay) n. (flop-oy) adj. (flop-oy-er, flop-oy-est) hanging heavily and loosely.

flopa (floh-pa) n. (pl. flopas, florae, pr. floh-ce) the plants of an area or period of time.

flop-ral (floh-ral) adj. of flowers.

flor-en-tine (floh-en-teen) adj. of Florence, a city of north Italy.

flo-res-cence (floh-res-ens) n. a flowering time or state of being in bloom. flor-res-cent adj.

flo-ret (floh-ret) n. 1. a small flower. 2. one of the small flowers making up a composite flower.

flo-ri-bun-da (floh-ri-bun-da) n. a rose or other plant bearing dense clusters of flowers.

flo-ri-culture (floh-ri-kul-chur) n. the cultivation of flowers.

flor-id (floh-id) adj. 1. elaborate and ornate. 2. (of the complexion) ruddy.

Flo-r-i-da (floh-i-dá) a state of the U.S. Flo-r-i-dá-an (floh-i-dá-an) Flo-r-i-dan adj. & n. Florida room, a sunny sitting room (in a house) with windows on three sides.

flor-in (floh-in) n. 1. a Dutch coin. 2. a former British coin worth two shillings.

flo-ris-t (floh-ist) n. a person whose business is the selling or growing of flowers.

floss (flaws) n. 1. a mass of silky fibers. 2. silk thread with little or no twist, used in embroidery. 3. dental floss. floss' y adj. (floss-i-er, floss-i-est).

flo-ta-tion (floh-tay-shon) n. floating, especially the sale of bonds in the launching of a commercial venture. flotation collar, a device to keep a space capsule afloat after splashdown.

flo-ti-la (floh-til-á) n. 1. a small fleet. 2. a fleet of boats or small ships.

flo-tsam (floh-sam) n. wreckage found floating. flotsam and jetsam, odds and ends; vagrants, tramps, etc.

flounce1 (flownes) v. (flounced, flounc-ing) to go in an impatient annoyed manner, flounced out of the room. flounce n. a flouncing movement.

flounce2 n. a deep frill of material sewn by its upper edge to a skirt etc.

flounced (flownesed) adj. trimmed with a flounce.

floun-der1 (flowned-er) n. a small edible flatfish.

flounder2 v. 1. to move clumsily and with difficulty as in mud. 2. to make mistakes or become confused when trying to do something.

flour (flour) n. fine meal or powder made from grain, used in cooking. flour v. to cover or sprinkle with flour.

flour-ish (flur-ish) v. 1. to thrive in growth or development. 2. to prosper, to be successful. 3. (of famous people) to be alive and active at a certain time, Beethoven flourished in the early 19th century. 4. to wave a thing) dramatically. flourish n. 1. a dramatic sweeping gesture. 2. a flowing ornamental curve in writing etc. 3. a fanfare.

flout (flout) v. to disobey openly and scornfully. See the note under flaunt.

flow (floh) v. 1. to glide along as a stream, to move freely like a liquid or gas. 2. to proceed steadily and continuously, keep the traffic flowing. 3. (of talk or literary style) to proceed smoothly and evenly. 4. to hang loosely, (of a line or curve) to be smoothly continuous. 5. to gush forth, (of the tide) to come in, to rise. 6. to come from a source), to be the result. flow n. 1. a flowing movement or mass. 2. the amount that flows. 3. an outpouring, a copious supply. 4. the inward movement of the tide, toward the land, ebb and flow.

flow-chart (floh-charht) n. a diagram of the movement of things or persons in a complex activity.

flow-er (floh-er) n. 1. the part of a plant from which seed or fruit develops. 2. a blossom and its stem for use as a decoration etc. 3. a plant that is noticeable or cultivated for its fine flowers. 4. the best part of something. flower v. (of a plant) to produce flowers. flower girl, a very young girl who precedes the bride in a wedding procession and carries flowers.

flower head, a cluster of florets. in flower, with the flowers out.
flowered / flush flow·ered (fløw·èrd) adj. ornamented with flowers.

flow·er·pot (fløw·èr-pøt) n. a pot in which a plant may be grown.
flow·er·y (fløw·èr·ée) adj. 1. full of flowers. 2. (of language) full of ornamental phrases. flown (fløhn) see fly².
fl. oz. abbr. fluid ounce(s).
flu (fløo) n. influenza.
flub (fløob) v. (fløubbed, fløub·bing) (informal) to botch or bungle. flu n. (informal) a thing badly or clumsily done.
flu·cu·ta·te (fløok·choo·ay·tå) v. (flu·cu·ta·tå·ed, flu·cu·ta·tå·ing) (of levels, prices, etc.) to vary irregularly, to rise and fall. flu·cu·ta·tion (fløok·choo·ay·shån) n.
flue (fløo) n. 1. a smoke duct in a chimney. 2. a channel for conveying heat.
flu·ent (flø·ént) adj. 1. (of a person) able to speak smoothly and readily, fluent in three languages. 2. (of speech) coming smoothly and readily. flu·en·cy n.
flu·er·ny (flø·er·né) adv.
fluff (fløf) n. 1. a light soft downy substance. 2. (slang) a bungled attempt, a mistake in speaking. flu v. 1. to shake into a soft mass. 2. (slang) to bungle.
fluff·y (fløff·ee) adj. (fløff·i·er, fløff·i·est) having or covered with a soft mass of fur or fibers. fluff·i·ness n.
flu·id (flø·id) n. a substance that is able to flow freely as liquids and gases do. fluid adj. 1. able to flow freely, not solid or rigid. 2. (of a situation) not stable. flu·id·i·ty (flø·id·ë·tå) n. □ fluid dram, one-eighth of a fluid ounce. fluid drive, an automobile transmission employing liquid to transmit power. fluid ounce, one-sixteenth of a pint.
flu·id·ics (flø·id·ë·iks) n. the technique of using small interacting flows and fluid jets for amplification, switching, etc.
fluke1 (fløok) n. an accidental stroke of good luck. fluk·y adj. (fluk·ë·er, fluk·ë·est).
fluke2 n. 1. the broad triangular flat end of each arm of an anchor. 2. the barbed head of a harpoon etc. 3. one of the lobes of a whale's tail.
fluke3 n. 1. a kind of flatfish, especially the flounder. 2. a flatworm found as a parasite in sheep's liver.
flume (fløom) n. 1. a ravine with a stream. 2. an artificial channel conveying water.
flum·mox (fløm·moks) v. (chiefly British slang) to baffle.
flung (fløng) see fling.
flunk (fløngk) v. (informal) to fail, especially in an examination.
flun·ky (pl. -kies), flun·key (pl. -keys) (fløng·kee) n. 1. (British) a male servant wearing livery. 2. (contemptuous) a person who performs menial duties.
flu·o·res·ce (flø·o·res·så, flø·o·ó-å) v. (flu·o·res·ced, flu·o·res·cång) to exhibit fluorescence.
flu·o·res·cent (flø·o·res·çånt, flø·o·ó-ånt) adj. (of substances) taking in radiations and sending them out in the form of light, (of lamps) containing such a substance, (of a screen) coated with this. flu·o·res·cence n. □fluorescent lamp, a tubular lamp in which phosphor on the inside of the tube is made to fluoresce by ultraviolet radiation.
flu·o·ri·date (flø·o·ri·å·dayt, flø·o·rår-) v. (flu·o·ri·å·dat·å, flu·o·ri·å·dat·ång) to add or apply a fluoride to.
flu·o·ri·da·tion (flø·o·ri·å·dyå·shån, flø·o·rår-) n. the addition of traces of fluoride to drinking water to prevent or reduce tooth decay.
flu·o·ride (flø·o·rid, flø·o·rår-) n. a compound of fluorine and one other element.
flu·o·ri·nate (flø·o·ri·å·nå·tå, flø·o·rår-) v. (flø·o·ri·å·nå·tåd, flø·o·ri·å·nå·tång) to introduce fluorine into (a compound).
flu·o·ri·ne (flø·o·ri·en, flø·o·rår-) n. a chemical element, a pale yellow corrosive gas.
flu·o·ro·car·bon (flø·o·ro·kår·bån, flø·o·rår-) n. a synthetic compound of carbon and fluorine, used as a lubricant.
flu·o·ro·scope (flø·o·ro·skøp, flø·o·rår-) n. an instrument with a fluorescent screen, used to show x-ray effects. fluor·o·scope (flø·o·ro·skøp·ik) adj. flu·o·ro·co·pist (flø·o·ro·kô·pist) n. flu·o·ro·co·py n.
flur·ry (flø·rrë) n. (pl. -ries) 1. a short sudden rush of wind or rain or snow. 2. a commotion. 3. a state of nervous agitation. flurry v. (flø·rår·ëd, flø·rår·ëng) 1. to fluster 2. to come down as a flurry.
flush1 (flush) v. 1. to become red in the face because of a rush of blood to the skin. 2. to cause (the face) to redden in this way. 3. to fill with pride, flushed with success. 4. to cleanse (a drain or lavatory etc.) with a flow of water, to dispose of in this way. flush n. 1. flushing of the face, a blush. 2. excitement caused by emotion, the first flush of victory. 3. a rush of water. flush adj. 1. level, in the same plane, without projections, doors that are flush with the walls. 2. (informal) well supplied with money.
flush2 n. (in poker) a hand of cards all of one suit. □royal flush, a straight flush headed by an ace. straight flush, a flush that is a straight sequence.
flush3 v. to cause (a bird) to fly up and away, to drive out.
fluster / foam

fluster (flus-tër) v. to make nervous and confused. fluster n. a flustered state.

flute (foot) n. 1. a wind instrument consisting of a long pipe with holes stopped by fingers or keys and a mouth hole near one end. 2. an ornamental groove. flute v. (flut-ed, flut-ing) to make ornamental grooves in. fluted adj.

fluting (floo-ting) n. ornamental grooves.

flutist (floo-tist) n. a flute player.

fluter (flut-ër) v. 1. to move the wings hurriedly in flying or trying to fly. 2. to wave or flap quickly and irregularly, (of the heart) to beat feebly and irregularly. flutter n. 1. a fluttering movement or beat. 2. a state of nervous excitement. 3. a stir, a sensation. 4. rapid variation in the pitch or loudness of reproduced sound. fluster-y adj.

flux (fluxes) n. 1. a continuous succession of changes, in a state of flux. 2. flowing, flowing out.

fly (fly) n. (pl. flies) 1. a two-winged insect. 2. a natural or artificial fly used as bait in fishing. fly casting, the fishing technique of angling with the fly as a lure. fly fishing, fishing with flies as bait. fly in the ointment, one small thing that spoils enjoyment. like flies, in large numbers, dying like flies. there are no flies on him, (slang) he is very astute.

fly v. (flew, flown, fly-ing) 1. to move through the air by means of wings as a bird does. 2. to travel through the air or through space. 3. to travel in an aircraft. 4. to direct or control the flight of (an aircraft etc.), to transport in an aircraft. 5. to raise (a flag) so that it waves, (of a flag) to wave in the air. 6. to make (a kite) rise and stay aloft. 7. to go or move quickly, to rush along, (of time) to pass quickly. 8. to be scattered violently, sparks flew in all directions. 9. to become angry etc. quickly, flew into a rage. 10. to fly from, must fly the country. 11. (in baseball) to hit a fly ball. (C-Flied is the past tense and past participle of fly in this sense; he flied out; she has flied out.) fly n. (pl. flies) 1. flying. 2. a flap of material on a garment to contain or cover a fastening, a flap at the entrance of a tent. 3. a speed-regulating device in clockwork or machinery. 4. (in baseball) a fly ball. fly at, to attack violently, either physically or with words. fly ball, a baseball batted high in the air. fly high, to behave very ambitiously. fly in the face of, to disregard or disobey openly. fly off the handle, (informal) to become uncontrollably angry. fly the coop, (informal) to escape. go fly a kite, (informal) go away. on the fly, while in motion in the air, without stopping. send flying, to knock (a person or thing) violently aside.

fly-blown (fli-blohn) adj. (of meat etc.) tainted, especially by flies' eggs.

fly-by (fli-bi) n. (pl. -bys) the close approach of an aircraft or spacecraft to a specific point without touching down.

fly-by-night (fli-bi-nrt) adj. unscrupulous (in business). fly-by-night n. a business or person that is unscrupulous.

fly-catch-er (fli-kach-er) n. a bird that catches insects in the air.

fly-er = filer.

fly-ing (fli-ing) adj. able to fly. flying boat, a seaplane with a boatlike fuselage.

flying buttress, a buttress that springs from a separate structure, usually forming an arch with the wall it supports.

flying colors, great success, she passed the test with flying colors. flying fish, a tropical fish with winglike fins, able to rise into the air. flying leap, a forward leap made while moving swiftly. flying saucer, an unidentified saucer-shaped object reported as seen in the sky.

flying start, a vigorous start giving one an initial advantage. flying tackle, a tackle in football in which a player leaps at the ball-carrier.

fly-leaf (fli-leef) n. (pl. leaves, pr. -leevz) a blank leaf at the beginning or end of a book etc.

fly-pa-per (fli-pay-për) n. sticky paper for catching or poisoning flies.

flying speck (fli-speck) n. 1. the mark left by the excrement of a fly. 2. a very tiny thing.

fly-way (fli-way) n. a migration route of birds.

fly-weight (fli-wayt) n. a boxer of the lightest weight class in boxing, weighing up to 112 pounds.

fly-wheel (fli-hweel) n. a heavy wheel revolving on a shaft to regulate machinery.

FM abbr. 1. Field Marshal. 2. frequency modulation.

fn abbr. fathom(s).

foal (foh) n. the young of a horse or of a related animal. foal v. to give birth to a foal. in foal, (of a mare) pregnant.

foam (fohm) n. 1. a collection of small bubbles formed in or on a liquid. 2. the froth of saliva or perspiration. 3. rubber or plastic in a light spongy form. 4. a frothy fire-extinguishing material used especially to fight airfield fires. foam v. to form or send out foam. foam'y adj. □ foam rubber, light spongy rubber formed with air bubbles for use in cushions, mattresses, etc.

fob 1 (fob) n. an ornamental worn hanging from a watch chain etc.

fob 2 v. (fobbled, fob·bing) fob off, to palm (a thing) off, to get (a person) to accept something of little or no value instead of what he is seeking.

F.O.B., f.o.b. abbr. free on board.

fo·cal (foh·kal) adj. of or at a focus.

□ focal length, the distance between a lens or mirror and its focal point. focal plane, a plane through a focal point perpendicular to the axis of a lens or mirror. focal point, the point of focus; a center of action or interest.

fo·ci see focus.

fo·cuss’le = forecastle.

fo·cus (foh·kus) n. (pl. -cus·es, -ci, pr. -si) 1. the point at which rays meet or from which they appear to proceed. 2. the point or distance at which an object is most clearly seen by the eye or through a lens. 3. an adjustment on a lens to produce a clear image at varying distances. 4. a center of activity or interest etc. focus v. (fo·cused, fo·cus·ing) 1. to adjust the focus of (a lens or the eye). 2. to bring into focus. 3. to concentrate or be concentrated or directed (on a center etc.). □ in or out of focus, seen or not seen sharply by the eye or a lens.

fold·der (fod·er) n. dried food, hay, etc. for horses and farm animals.

foe (foh) n. an enemy.

fog (fog) n. 1. a thick mist that is difficult to see through. 2. cloudiness on a photographic negative etc., obscuring the image. fog v. (fogged, fog·ging) 1. to cover or become covered with fog or condensed vapor, a fogged lens. 2. to bewilder, to perplex.

fog·gy (fog·ee) adj. (fog·gi·er, fog·gi·est) 1. full of fog. 2. made opaque by condensed vapor etc., clouded. 3. obscure, vague, only a foggy idea. fog’gi·ness n. □ not the foggiest, (informal) no idea at all.

fog·horn (fog·horn) n. 1. a sounding instrument for warning ships in fog. 2. (informal) a loud voice.

fo·gy (pl. -gies, pr. -gee) adj.

fo·gey (pl. -geys, pr. -geez) (foh·gee) n. a person with old-fashioned ideas, an old fogey.

fol·ble (fohl·bel) n. a harmless peculiarity in a person’s character.

foil 1 (foil) n. 1. metal hammered or rolled into a thin sheet, tin foil. 2. a person or thing that contrasts strongly with another and therefore makes the other’s qualities more obvious.

foil 2 v. to frustrate, to thwart.

foil 3 n. a long thin sword with a blunt point, used in fencing.

fol·ist (foist) v. to cause a person to accept (something inferior or unwelcome or undeserved), the job was foisted on us.

fol. abbr. 1. folio. 2. followed. 3. following.

fold 1 (fohld·owt) v. 1. to bend or turn (a flexible thing) so that one part lies on another, to close or flatten by pressing parts together. 2. to become folded, to be able to be folded. 3. to clasp (the arms etc.) about, to hold (a person or thing) close to one’s breast. 4. to envelop. 5. to blend (an ingredient) in cooking by spooning one part over another. 6. to collapse, to cease to function, the business had folded.

fold n. 1. a folded part, a hollow between two thicknesses. 2. a line made by folding. 3. a hollow among hills or mountains. □ fold one’s arms, to place them together or entwined across one’s chest.

fold one’s hands, to clasp or place them together.

fold·a·way (fohl·dā·way) adj. adapted to be folded away when not in use, a fold·a·way cot.

fold·boat (fohld·boht) n. a sailboat.

fold·er (fohld·dər) n. 1. a folding cover for loose papers. 2. a folded leaflet.

fol·de·rol (fohl·dër) n. 1. a trifle, nonsense.

fold·out (fohld·out) n. a large page that can be unfolded from a book, magazine, etc.

foil·age (foh·li·oh) n. leaves of a tree or plant.

foil·at·ed (foh·li·ated) adj. 1. split or arranged in leaves. 2. decorated with foils, as an arch etc.

foil·ic (foh·lik, fol·ik) acid a vitamin of the B group, deficiency of which causes anemia.

foil·i·o (foh·li·oh) n. (pl. -li·os) 1. a large sheet of paper folded once, making two leaves of a book. 2. a book made of such sheets, the largest-sized volume. 3. the page number of a printed book.

folk (fohk) n. 1. people in general. 2. the people of a certain group or nation etc., country folk. 3. one’s relatives. □ folk dance, folk song etc., a dance, song, etc., in the traditional style of a country.

folk mass, a liturgical mass with folk music. folk rock, a style of music combining elements of rock-‘n’-roll and folk folklore / foolproof

music. folk singer, a person who sings folk songs.

folk-lore (fohk-lorrh) n. the traditional beliefs and tales etc. of a community.

folk'lor-ist n.

folk-sy (fohk-see) adj. (folk-si'er, folk-si'est) 1. simple in manner. 2. friendly, sociable.

folk-ways (fohk-wayz) n. traditional behavior common to a people.

foll. abbr. following.

fol-li-cle (fol-li-kel) n. a very small sac or cavity in the body, especially one containing a hair root.

fol-low (fol-oh) v. 1. to go or come after. 2. to go along (a path or road etc.). 3. to provide with a sequel or successor. 4. to take as a guide or leader or example; follow the fashion, conform to it. 5. to grasp the meaning of, to understand. 6. to take an interest in the progress of (events, a team, etc.). 7. to happen as a result, to result from. 8. to be necessarily true in consequence of something else.

follow one's nose, to be guided by instinct. follow on the heels of, to come or occur immediately after. follow suit, to play a card of the suit led; to follow a person's example. follow through, to carry a stroke through to the fullest possible extent after striking a golf ball, baseball, etc.; to see (a project) through to completion. follow up, to add a further action or blow etc. to a previous one; to perform further work or investigation etc. upon.

fol-low-er (fol-oh-er) n. 1. one who follows. 2. a person who believes in or supports a religion or teacher or cause etc.

fol-low-ing (fol-oh-ing) n. a body of believers or supporters. following adj. now to be mentioned, answer the following questions. following prep. as a sequel to, following the fall of the dollar, prices rose sharply. the following, that which now is to be mentioned.

fol-low-up (fol-oh-up) n. an action performed after another to investigate or complete the earlier one.

fol-ly (fol-ee) n. (pl. -lies) foolishness, a foolish act; Seward's folly, the purchase of Alaska (considered a foolish act when arranged by Secretary of State William H. Seward in 1867).

fo-men-t (foh-men-t) v. 1. to arouse or stimulate (trouble, discontent, etc.). 2. to apply warm liquid etc. to (an area of the body). fo-men-ta-tion (foh-men-tay-shon) n. Do not confuse foment with ferment.

fond (fon'd) adj. 1. affectionate, loving. 2. over-affectionate, doting. 3. (of hopes) cherished but unlikely to be fulfilled.

fond'ly adv. fond'ness n. fond of, having a liking for; much inclined to.

fon-dant (fon-dant) n. a creamy sugar mixture used as a basis for candies.

fon-dle (fon-dell) v. (fon-dled, fon-dling) to touch or stroke lovingly.

fon-due (fon-doo) n. a dish of flavored melted cheese.

font (fon't) n. a basin or vessel (often of carved stone) in a church, to hold water for baptism.

font² n. a set of printing type of one style and size.

fon-ta-ne, fon-ta-nelle (fon-tah-nel) n. a space under the skin on the top of an infant's head where the bones of the skull have not yet grown together.

fon-ti-na (fon-tee-nah) n. a type of Italian cheese made from ewe's milk.

food (food) n. 1. any substance that can be taken into the body of an animal or plant to maintain its life and growth. 2. a solid substance of this kind, food and drink. food chain, a series of organisms dependent on one another for supply of food. food for thought, something that needs thinking about. food poisoning, illness caused by bacteria or toxins in food. food processor, a kitchen appliance for preparing foods by grinding, shredding, etc. food stamps, stamps distributed by the federal government that are used to purchase food.

food value, the nourishing power of a food.

food-stuff (food-stuff) n. a substance used as food.

fool (fool) n. 1. a person who acts unwisely, one who lacks good sense or judgment. 2. a jester or clown during the Middle Ages. fool v. 1. to behave in a joking or teasing way. 2. to play about idly. 3. to trick or deceive (a person). fool around, to spend one's time aimlessly; to flirt. fool's errand, a useless errand. fool's gold, iron pyrites, sometimes mistaken for gold. fool's paradise, happiness that is based on an illusion. fool with, to meddle with; to play aimlessly with. make a fool of, to make (a person) look foolish; to trick or deceive.

fool'er-y (foo-lay-ree) n. foolish acts or behavior.

fool-hard-y (fool-hahr-dee) adj. (-di'er, -di'est) rash, delighting in taking unnecessary risks. fool'hard'i-ness n.

fool'ish (fool-ish) adj. 1. lacking in good sense or judgment. 2. (of actions) unwise. 3. ridiculous, felt foolish. fool'ish'ly adv. fool'ish'i-ness n.

fool-proof (fool-proof) adj. 1. (of rules or instructions) plain and simple and unable to be misinterpreted. 2. (of machinery) very simple to operate.

foot-cap (foolz-kap) n. a large size of writing paper. 1. So called from the use of a fool's cap (a jester's cap with bells) as a watermark.

foot (fuut) n. (pl. feet, pr. feet) 1. the end part of the leg below the ankle. 2. a similar part in animals, used in moving or for attaching the animal to things. 3. the lower end of a table or bed etc., the end opposite the head. 4. the part of a stocking covering the foot. 5. a person's step or tread or pace of movement, fleet of foot. 6. a lower usually projecting part of something (as of a table leg), the part of a sewing machine that is lowered on to the material to hold it steady. 7. the lowest part of something that has height or length, the bottom of a hill, ladder, page, list, etc. 8. a measure of length, = 12 inches (30.48 cm). 9. a unit of rhythm in a line of poetry, containing a stressed syllable, as each of the four divisions in Jack and Jill/went up the hill. foot v. 1. to walk, not ride, shall have to foot it. 2. (informal) to pay (a bill). 3. feet of clay, a great weakness in a person or thing that is honored. foot soldier, an infantryman. have a foot in both camps, to be a member of each of two opposing factions. have one foot in the grave, to be nearing death or very old. my foot, (informal) an exclamation of scornful contradiction. on foot, walking not riding. to one's feet, to a standing position. It is incorrect to say he is six foot tall. Say six feet tall.

foot-age (fuut-i-j) n. a length measured in feet, especially of exposed movie film.

foot-and-mouth disease a contagious disease of cattle etc., causing ulceration of the mouth and feet.

foot-ball (fuut-bawl) n. 1. an elliptical inflated leather ball. 2. a game played with a football on a rectangular field between teams of eleven men each. 3. (in most countries of the world) soccer. 4. any of several other related games, as Rugby football, Canadian football, Australian football. 5. ( slang) a difficult problem for which no one is eager to take responsibility, the high cost of medical care is a political football.

foot-board (fuut-bohrd) n. 1. a platform used to stand on. 2. an upright board fitted across the lower end of a bed.

foot-bridge (fuut-brij) n. a bridge for pedestrians, not for traffic.

foot-can-die (fuut-kan-del) n. a unit of illumination equal to that of one candela at a distance of one foot.

foot-er (fuut-er) n. (informal) a person or thing of a specified height or length, used in combination, a six-footer; an eight-footer.

foot-fall (fuut-fawl) n. the sound of a footstep.

foot-hill (fuut-hil) n. one of the low hills near the bottom of a mountain or range.

foot-hold (fuut-hold) n. 1. a place just wide enough for a foot to be placed on when climbing etc. 2. a small but secure position gained in a business etc.

foot-ing (fuut-ing) n. 1. a placing of the feet, a foothold; lost his footing, slipped. 2. a building foundation. 3. a status, conditions, they were on a friendly footing; put the army on a war footing.

foot-less (fuut-lis) adj. 1. having no feet. 2. lacking substance or basis.

foot-lights (fuut-lights) n. pl. a row of lights along the front of a stage floor.

foot-lock-er (fuut-lok-er) n. a small trunk for personal belongings, especially for a soldier to keep at the foot of his bed.

foot-loose (fuut-loos) adj. independent, free to act or to travel as one pleases.

footloose and fancy free, entirely unattached.

foot-man (fuut-man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mén) a manservant (usually in livery) who admits visitors, waits at table, etc.

foot-note (fuut-noht) n. a note printed at the bottom of a page.

foot-pad (fuut-pad) n. (old use) an unmounted highwayman.

foot-path (fuut-path) n. a path for pedestrians.

foot-pound (fuut-pound) n. the quantity of energy that will raise a weight of one pound to a height of one foot.

foot-print (fuut-print) n. an impression left by a foot or shoe.

foot-race (fuut-print) n. a race between persons on foot.

foot-rest (fuut-rest) n. a support or platform to rest the feet on.

foot-sore (fuut-sohr) adj. having feet that are sore from walking.

foot-step (fuut-step) n. a step taken in walking, the sound of this. follow in someone's footsteps, to do as an earlier person did.

foot-stool (fuut-stool) n. a stool for resting the feet on when sitting.

foot-wear (fuut-wair) n. shoes and stockings.

foot-work (fuut-wurk) n. the manner of moving or using the feet in boxing, football, etc.

top (top) n. a dandy. top'-er-y n. (pl. -per-ies) top'-ish adj.

for (for) prep. 1. in place of. 2. as the price or penalty of, was fined for speeding. 3. in defense or support or favor of. 4. with a view to, in order to find or obtain, went for a walk; looking for a job. 5. with regard to, in respect of, ready for dinner. 6. in the direction of, set out for home. 7. intended to be received by or belong to, bought shoes for the children. 8. so as to happen at a stated time, an appointment for two o’clock. 9. because of, on account of, famous for its eider. 10. to the extent or duration of, walked for two miles; it will last for years. for conj. because, they hesitated, for they were afraid. □ be in for it, (slang) to be about to meet with punishment or trouble.

for. abbr. 1. foreign. 2. forester. 3. forestry.

for-age (for-aj) n. 1. food for horses and cattle. 2. foraging. forage v. (for-aged, for-ag-ing) to go searching, to rummage.

for-ay (for-ay) n. a sudden attack or raid, especially to obtain something.

for-bade (for-bad, -baid) see forbid.

for-bear1 (for-bair) v. (for-bore, for-borne, for-bear-ing) to refrain, to refrain from, could not forbear criticizing or from criticizing; forbore to mention it.

for-bear2 n. = forbear.

for-bear-ance (for-bair-ans) n. patience, tolerance.

for-bear-ing (for-bair-ing) adj. & n. being patient or tolerant.

for-bid (for-bid) v. (for-bade, for-bid-den, for-bid-ding) 1. to order (a person) not to do something or not to enter, forbid him to go; forbid him the house. 2. to refuse to allow, forbid the marriage; he is forbidden wine, not allowed to drink it.

for-bid-ding (for-bid-ing) adj. looking unfriendly or uninviting, stern.

force (fohrs) n. 1. strength, power, intense effort. 2. (in scientific use) a measurable influence tending to cause movement of a body, its intensity. 3. a body of troops or police. 4. a body of people organized or available for a purpose, the labor force. 5. compulsion. 6. effectiveness, legal validity, the new rules come into force next week. force v. (forced, forc-ing) 1. to use force in order to get or do something, to compel, to oblige. 2. to exert force on, to break open by force, forced the lock. 3. to strain to the utmost, to overstrain. 4. to impose, to inflict; force an invitation on a person, insist that he come. 5. to cause or produce by effort, forced a smile. 6. to cause (plants etc.) to reach maturity earlier than is normal. □ force a person’s hand, to compel him to take action. forced landing, an emergency landing of an aircraft. forced march, a lengthy march requiring special effort by troops etc. force the issue, to make an immediate decision necessary. force the pace, to adopt a high speed in a race etc. and so tire out others who are taking part. in force, in operation, valid.

force-feed (fohrs-feed) v. to feed (a prisoner, etc.) against his will.

force-ful (fohrs-fül) adj. powerful and vigorous, effective. force‘ful-ly adv.

force’ful-ness n.

force-meat (fohrs-meet) n. finely chopped meat seasoned and used as stuff-

[...]
forc-eps (fohrs-seps) n. (pl. -ceps) pincers or tongs used by dentists, surgeons, etc. for gripping things.

for-cl-ble (fohr-si-bel) adj. done by force, forceful. for’cl’bly adv.

ford (fohrd) n. a shallow place where a river may be crossed by wading or riding or driving through. ford v. to cross in this way.

Ford (fohrd), Ger-ald R. (1913- ) the thirty-eighth president of the U.S. 1974–76.

ford-a-bie (fohr-dā-bel) adj. able to be forded.

fore1 (fohr) adj. situated in front. fore adv. in or at or toward the front. fore n. the fore part. □ to the fore, in front, conspicuous.

fore2 interj. a cry to warn a person who may be hit by a golf ball about to be played.

fore-and-aft (fohr-ánd-aft) adj. lengthwise in a ship.

fore-arm1 (fohr-ahrm) n. the arm from elbow to wrist or fingertips.

fore-arm2 (fohr-ahrm) v. to arm or prepare in advance against possible danger etc.

fore-bear (fohr-bair) n. an ancestor.

fore-bode (fohr-bold) v. (fore-bod-ed, fore-bod-ing) to be an advance sign or token of (trouble).

fore-bod-ing (fohr-boh-ding) n. a feeling that trouble is coming.

fore-cast (fohr-kast) v. (fore-cast or fore-cast-ed, fore-cast-ing) to tell in advance (what is likely to happen). forecast n. a statement that forecasts something. fore’cast-er n.

fore-cas-tle (fohk-sel) n. the forward part of certain ships, where formerly the crew had their accommodation.

fore-close (fohr-klozh) v. (fore-closed, fore-clos-ing) 1. (of a firm etc. that has lent money on mortgage) to take possession of property when the loan is not duly repaid, the bank decided to foreclose or decided to foreclose the mortgage. 2. to bar from a privilege. fore-clo-life (fohr-klozh-zhūr) n.

fore-court (fohr-kohrt) n. 1. an enclosed space in front of a building, an outer court. 2. (in tennis) the part of the court between the service line and the net.

fore•doom (fohr-doom) v. to doom or condemn beforehand.

fore•fa•ther (fohr-fah-thër) n. an ancestor.

fore•fin•ger (fohr-fing-gër) n. the finger next to the thumb.

fore•foot (fohr-fuut) n. (pl. -feet) an animal's front foot.

fore•front (fohr-frunt) n. the very front.

fore•gath•er (fohr-goh-ing) adj. preceding, previously mentioned.

fore•gone (fohr-gawn) conclusion a result that can be foreseen easily and with certainty.

fore•ground (fohr-ground) n. 1. the part of a scene or picture that is nearest to an observer. 2. the most conspicuous position.

fore•hand (fohr-hand) adj. 1. (of a stroke in tennis etc.) played with the palm of the hand turned forward. 2. on the side on which this stroke is made. forehand n. a forehand stroke.

fore•head (for-id, -hed) n. the part of the face above the eyes.

fore•ign (for-in) adj. 1. of or in or from another country, not of one's own country. 2. dealing with or involving other countries, foreign affairs. 3. not belonging naturally, jealousy is foreign to her nature. 4. coming from outside, a foreign body in the eye. □foreign exchange, the currency of other countries; dealings in these currencies. Foreign Legion, see legion. foreign minister, the head of a government department dealing with foreign affairs.

fore•ign•er (for-i-nër) n. a person who was born in or comes from another country.

fore•knowl•edge (fohr-nol-ij) n. knowledge of something before it occurs.

fore•la•dy (fohr-lay-dee) n. (pl. -dies) a forewoman.

fore•land (fohr-land) n. a cape or promontory.

fore•leg (fohr-leg) n. an animal's front leg.

fore•limb (fohr-lim) n. a foreleg.

fore•lock (fohr-loc) n. a lock of hair just above the forehead.

fore•man (fohr-män) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mën) 1. a workman whose job is to superintend other workmen. 2. a man acting as president and spokesman of a jury.

fore•mast (fohr-mast) n. the forward lower mast of a ship.

fore•most (fohr-mohst) adj. 1. most advanced in position or rank. 2. most important. foremost adv. in the foremost position etc.

fore•name (fohr-naym) n. a person's first name.

fore•named (fohr-naymd) adj. named or mentioned before.

fore•noon (fohr-noon) n. the day until noon, morning.

fo•ren•sic (fo rên-sik) adj. 1. of or used in law courts. 2. of or involving forensic medicine, the medical knowledge needed in legal matters or police investigations (as in a poisoning case).

fo•ren•sics (fo rên-siks) n. the art or practice of formal debate and argument; indulged in forensics, argued at great length and with oratorical display.

fore•or•daine (fohr-or-dayn) v. to destine beforehand; it was foreordained by God.

fore•part (fohr-pahrt) n. a previous or early part.

fore•sail (fohr-sayl) n. 1. the lowest square sail in a square-rigged vessel. 2. the triangular sail before the mast in a fore-and-aft rigged vessel.

fore•see (fohr-see) v. (fore•saw, fore•seen, for•see•ing) to be aware of or realize (a thing) beforehand.

fore•see•a•ble (fohr-see-â-bel) adj. able to be foreseen; the foreseeable future, the period during which the course of events can be predicted. fore•see•a•bly adv.

fore•shadow•ow (fohr-shad-oh) v. to be a sign of (something that is to come).

fore•sheet (fohr-sheet) n. the inner part of the bows of an open boat.

fore•shore (fohr-shohr) n. the shore between high-water mark and low-water mark, or between water and land that is cultivated or built on.

fore•short•en (fohr-shohr-tën) v. to represent (an object, when drawing it) with shortening of certain lines to give an effect of distance, to cause such an effect in.

fore•sight (fohr-sit) n. the ability to foresee and prepare for future needs. fore•sight•ed adj. fore•sight•ed•ness n.

fore•skin (fohr-skin) n. the loose skin at the end of the penis.

for•est (for-ist) n. trees and undergrowth covering a large area. □forest fire, a large fire burning in a forest. forest ranger, a person caring for or supervising a forest.

fore•stall (fohr-stawl) v. to prevent or foil (a person or his plans) by taking action first.

for•est•a•tion (for-ist-a-shôn) n. the planting of a forest.

for•est•ed (for-ist-d) adj. covered in forest.

for•est•er (for-ist-ër) n. an officer in charge of a forest or of growing timber. forestland / form

foreground

for estland (for istland) n. land that is covered by a forest.

for esttry (for i stree) n. the science or practice of planting and caring for forests.

fore taste (fohr tayst) n. an experience of something in advance of what is to come.

fore taste v. (fore tass ed, fore tass ing) to have a foretaste of.

fore tell (fohr tel) v. (fore told, fore tell ing) to forecast, to prophesy.

fore thought (fohr thwart) n. careful thought and planning for the future.

fore ken (fohr toh kren) v. to portend, to indicate beforehand.

fore top (fohr top) n. 1. the top of a ship's foremast. 2. a platform on this.

for ever (for ev er) adv. for all time, incessantly.

for ever more (for ev er mohr) adv. forever.

fore warn (fohr worn) v. to warn beforehand.

fore wing (fohr weeng) n. either of the two front wings of a four-winged insect.

fore woman (fohr wuum an) n. (pl. -wom en, pr. -wim in) 1. a woman whose job is to superintend other workers. 2. a woman acting as president and spokesman of a jury.

fore word (fohr wurd) n. introductory remarks at the beginning of a book, usually written by someone other than the author of the book.

for felt (for fit) n. something that has to be paid or given up as a penalty. for felt adj. paid or given up in this way. for felt v. to pay or give up as a forfeit.

for feiture (for fi chur) n. forfeiting.

for fend (for fend) v. (old use) to avert, to keep off, may heaven for fend!

for gather (for gath er) v. to assemble.

forge 1 (forj) v. (forged, forg ing) to make one's way forward by effort, forged ahead.

forge 2 n. 1. a workshop with a fire and an anvil where metals are heated and shaped, especially one used by a smith for shoeing horses and working iron. 2. a furnace or hearth for melting or refining metal, the workshop containing it.

forge v. (forged, forg ing) 1. to shape by heating in fire and hammering. 2. to make an imitation or copy of (a thing) in order to pass it off fraudulently as real.

forg er y (for jee ree) n. (pl. -ger ies) 1. forging, imitating fraudulently. 2. something forged.

for get (for get) v. (for got, for got ten, for get ting) 1. to lose remembrance of (a thing or duty etc.). 2. to put out of one's mind, to stop thinking about, decided to forget our quarrels. □ forget oneself, to behave without suitable dignity.

for get ful (for get ful) adj. tending to forget things. for get ful ness n. for get ful ly adv.

for get me not (for get mee not) n. a plant with small blue flowers.

f or gin g (for jing) n. a piece of metal that has been forged.

for give (for giv) v. (for gave, for giv en, for giv ing) to cease to feel angry or bitter toward (a person) or about (an offense). for give ness n. for giv a ble adj. for giv a bly adv.

for giv ing (for giv ing) adj. inclined to or showing forgiveness.

for go (for goh) v. (for went, for gone, for go ing) to give up, to go without.

for int (for int) n. the unit of money in Hungary.

fork (fork) n. 1. a pronged instrument used in eating or cooking. 2. a pronged agricultural implement used for digging or lifting things. 3. a thing shaped like this.

4. a place where something separates into two or more parts or branches.

5. a branch or tributary (of a river, road, etc.). fork v. 1. to lift or dig with a fork.

2. (of an object or road etc.) to form a fork by separating into two branches.

3. (of a person) to follow one of these branches, fork left. □ fork out, fork over; fork up, (slang) to pay out money, hand over.

forked (forkt) adj. having a fork or forking branches.

fork lift (fork lift) n. (also fork lift truck) a vehicle with a forklift mechanical device for lifting, moving, and stacking heavy objects.

for lorn (for lorn) adj. left alone and unhappy. for lorn ly adv. □ for lorn hope, the only faint hope left.

form (form) n. 1. the shape of something, its outward or visible appearance. 2. its structure. 3. a person or animal as it can be seen or touched. 4. the way in which a thing exists, ice is a form of water. 5. a fixed or usual method of doing something, a formality, a set of words in a ritual etc. 6. a document with blank spaces that are to be filled in with information. 7. (of a horse or athlete) condition of health and training; is in good form, performing well, (of a person) in good spirits. 8. details of previous performances, study the form before betting.

form v. 1. to shape, to mold, to produce or construct. 2. to bring into existence, to constitute, form a committee. 3. to take shape, to become solid, icicles formed. 4. to develop in the mind, formed a plan; formed a habit, developed it. 5. to arrange in a certain formation.

form letter, a standardized letter to deal with frequently occurring matters.

formal (for-măl) adj. 1. conforming to accepted rules or customs, showing or requiring formality, a formal greeting or party. 2. outward, only a formal resemblance. 3. regular or geometrical in design, formal gardens. formal n. 1. a formal dance. 2. a formal gown. for'mal-ly adv. □ formal dress, men's and women's evening clothes.

formaldehyde (for-măl-dē-hid) n. a colorless gas used in solution as a preservative and disinfectant.

formalism (for-măl-liz-ëm) n. strict observance of form, excessive regularity or symmetry.

formal-ity (for-măl-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. strict observance of rules and conventions. 2. a formal act, something required by law or custom, legal formalities; it's just a formality, is done only to comply with a rule.

formalize (for-măl-ize) v. (for-mal-ized, for-mal-iz-ing) to make formal or official. for'mal-i-za-tion (for-măli-zay-shon) n.

for-mat (for-mat) n. the shape and size of a book etc.

form-ation (for-may-shon) n. 1. forming, being formed. 2. a thing formed. 3. a particular arrangement or order.

formative (for-mă-tiv) adj. forming something; during a child's formative years, while its characteristic is being formed.

former (for-mër) adj. 1. of an earlier period, in former times. 2. mentioned before another; the former, the one mentioned first of two. □ When referring to the first of three or more, say the first, not the former.

former-ly (for-mër-lee) adv. in former times.

form-fitting (form-fit-ing) adj. fitting snugly; a formfitting gown, one that fits the curves of the figure closely.

formica (for-mi-kä) n. (trademark) a hard heat-resistant plastic used on surfaces.

formic acid (for-mik) acid a colorless acid contained in fluid emitted by ants.

formidable (for-mi-dă-bël) adj. 1. inspiring fear or awe. 2. difficult to do or overcome, a formidable task. for'mi-da-bly adv. □ It is incorrect to accent these words as formidable and formidable.

formless (form-lis) adj. without distinct or regular form.

formul-a (for-mü-lä) n. (pl. -las, -lae, pr. -lae) 1. a fixed series of words, especially one used on social or ceremonial occasions. 2. a list of ingredients for making something; diplomats seeking a formula, a set of statements that can be agreed on, as in order to produce a peace treaty. 3. a set of chemical symbols showing the constituents of a substance. 4. a mathematical rule or statement expressed in algebraic symbols. 5. the classification of a racing car, especially by its engine capacity.

formulate (for-myü-lät) v. (for-mu-lat-ed, for-mu-lat-ing) 1. to reduce to or express in a formula. 2. to state clearly and exactly. 3. to make according to a formula. for'mu-la-tion (for-myü-lay-shon) n.

formulate (for-ni-kät) v. (for-ni- cat-ed, for-ni-cat-ing) (of unmarried people) to have sexual intercourse voluntarily. for'n'i-ca-tor n. for'n'i-ca-tion (for-ni-kay-shon) n.

formsake (for-säk) v. (for-sak-en, for-sak-ing) 1. to give up, to renounce, forsaking their former way of life. 2. to withdraw one's help or friendship or companionship from, forsook his wife and children.

forsooth (for-sooth) adv. (old use) truly, no doubt.

formswear (for-swar) v. (for-swer, for-sworm, for-swear-ing) 1. to give up, renounce, he forswore tobacco. 2. to deny or renounce under oath. □ formswear oneself, to swear falsely, commit perjury.

form-sight-a-ble (for-sith-i-5) n. a shrub with bright yellow flowers, blooming in spring.

fort (fort) n. a fortified building or position.

forte1 (fort) n. a person's strong point.

forte2 (for-tay) adv. (in music) loudly.

forth (forth) adv. 1. out. 2. onward, forward, from this day forth. □ and so forth, and so on. back and forth, to and fro.

forthcoming (fohrth-kum-ing) adj. 1. about to come forth or appear; forthcoming events, things about to take place. 2. made available when needed, money was not forthcoming. 3. (informal) willing to give information, the girl was not very forthcoming.

forthright (fohrth-rit) adj. frank, outspoken. forthrightly adv. forthright-ness n.

forthwith (fohrth-with) adv. immediately.

forties (for-teez) n. pl. the numbers or years or degrees of temperature from forty to forty-nine.

fortieth (for-ti-eth) see forty.
fortification / foul for-ti-fi-ca-tion (for-ti-fay-sh'n) n. 1. fortifying. 2. a wall or building constructed to defend a place.

for-ti-fy (for-ti-fi) v. (for-ti-fied, for-ti-fy-ing) 1. to strengthen (a place) against attack, especially by constructing fortifications. 2. to strengthen (a person) mentally or morally, to increase the vigor of. 3. to increase the food value of (bread etc.) by adding vitamins, to strengthen (wine) by adding alcohol.

for-tis-si-mo (for-tis-i-moh) adj. & adv. (in music) very loud.

for-ti-tude (for-ti-tood) n. courage in bearing pain or trouble.

fort-night (fort-nit) n. a period of two weeks. fort'night-ly adj. & adv. happening or appearing once a fortnight.

for-tress (for-tris) n. a fortified building or town.

for-tu-i-tous (for-too-i-tus) adj. happening by chance.

for-tu-i-ton-ess n. □ Do not confuse fortuitous with fortunate. A fortuitous meeting may be unfortunate as often as it is fortunate.

for-tu-i-ty (for-too-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) fortuitousness, a chance occurrence.

for-tu-nate (for-chu-nit) adj. having or bringing or brought by good fortune.

for-'tu-nate-ly adv. □ See the note under fortuitous.

for-tune (for-chuhn) n. 1. the events that chance brings to a person or undertaking. 2. chance as a power in the affairs of mankind. 3. a person’s destiny. 4. prosperity, success, seek one’s fortune. 5. a great amount of wealth, left him a fortune. □ fortune hunter, a person seeking a rich spouse. tell fortunes, to be a fortuneteller.

for-tune-tell-er (for-chuhn-tel-er) n. a person who claims to foretell future events in people’s lives.

for-ty (for-tee) adj. & n. (pl. -ties) forty times ten (40, XL). fortieth adj. & n. □ forty winks, a nap.

for-ty-five (for-tee-fiv) n. a .45 caliber gun, or a 45 rpm record.

for-ty-nine (for-tee-nin) n. (for-tee-nin-er) n. a person who went to California in the gold rush of 1849.

fo-rum (fohr-um) n. (pl. fo-rums, for-ra, pr. fohr-ah) a place or meeting where a public discussion is held.

for-ward (for-ward) adj. 1. directed or moving toward the front, situated in the front. 2. of or relating to the future, forward thinking. 3. having made more than the normal progress. 4. too bold in one’s manner, presumptuous. forward n. an attacking player who is positioned near the desired goal in hockey or basketball, his position. forward adv. toward the front or future, in advance, ahead. for-ward v. 1. to send on (a letter etc.) to a new address. 2. to send or dispatch (goods) to a customer. 3. to help to advance (a person’s interests). for-ward-ness n. □ forwarding address, an address to which mail should be forwarded.

for-ward-er (for-wahr-der) n. a person or agent that forwards things, especially one handling freight or sending goods to their destination.

for-wards (for-wardz) adv. forward.

fos-sil (foss-il) n. 1. the remains or traces of a prehistoric animal or plant once buried in earth and now hardened like rock. 2. (informal) a person who is out of date and unable to accept new ideas. fossil adj. 1. of or as a fossil. 2. (of fuel, as coal) formed in the geological past and dug out of the earth.

fos-sil-i-ze (foss-i-liz) v. (foss-i-lized, fos-sil-i-zed, fos-sil-i-zing) to turn or be turned into a fossil. fos-sil-i-za-tion (foss-i-li-za-sh'n) n.

fos-ter (fawt-er) v. 1. to promote the growth or development of. 2. to take care of and bring up (a child that is not one’s own). □ foster child, a child fostered in this way. foster father, foster mother, foster parent, one who fosters a child. foster home, a family home in which a foster child is brought up.

fos-ter-ling (fawt-sterr-ling) n. a foster child.

fought (fawt) see fight.

foul (fowl) adj. 1. causing disgust, having an offensive smell or taste. 2. morally offensive, evil. 3. (of language) disgusting, obscene. 4. (of weather) rough, stormy. 5. clogged, choked, overgrown with barnacles etc. 6. in collision or entangled. 7. unfair, against the rules of a game, a foul blow. foul n. a foul stroke or blow etc., breaking the rules of a game, committed a foul. foul v. 1. to make or become foul. 2. to entangle or collide with, to obstruct. 3. to commit a foul in a game. foul’ly adv. □ foul ball, (in baseball) a ball hit outside the foul lines. foul line, (in baseball) one of two lines extending from home plate at right angles to the end of the outfield, marking the boundary of the playing field; (in basketball) one of two lines on the court at which players stand to take foul shots.

foul play, a violent crime, especially murder. foul shot, (in basketball) a throw at the basket without interference by opposing players, awarded as a penalty against them. foul up, to make or become foul; to confuse or bungle.
foulard / foxglove

foulard (foo-lahrd) n. a kind of silky material used for ties etc.

foul'ling (fo-wling) n. an incrustation, especially on a ship's bottom.

foul-mouthed (fo-wl-mouthd, -mouthth) adj. using foul language.

foul-up (fo-wl-up) n. (slang) confusion resulting from incompetence or mechanical breakdown.

found' (fownd) see find. □ found object, a manufactured or natural object regarded as having artistic or decorative value.

found2 v. (found-ed, found-ing) 1. to establish, to originate, to provide money for starting (an institution etc.). 2. to base or construct, a novel that is founded on fact. founded er n. □ Founding Fathers, the American colonial leaders who founded the U.S.

found3 v. (found-ed, found-ing) 1. to melt and mold (metal), to fuse (materials for glass). 2. to make (an object) in this way. founded er n.

found'a-tion (fown-day-shon) n. 1. the founding of an institution etc. 2. the institution itself, a fund of money established for a charitable purpose. 3. the strong base from which a building is built up. 4. a cosmetic applied to the skin as the first layer of makeup. 5. the underlying principle or idea etc. on which something is based. □ foundation garment, a woman's supporting undergarment, as a corset.

found'er1 (fown-dër) n. see found2, found3.

found'er2 v. 1. to stumble or fall. 2. (of a ship) to fill with water and sink. 3. to fail completely, the plan foundered.

found'ling (fown-ling) n. a deserted child of unknown parents.

found'ry (fown-dree) n. (pl. -ries) a factory or workshop where metal or glass is founded (see found3).

fountain (fo-wnt) n. a fountain, a source.

foun'tain (fown-tin) n. 1. a spring of water, especially a jet of water made to spout artificially as an ornament. 2. a structure providing a supply of drinking water in a public place. □ fountain pen, a pen containing a reservoir of ink.

foun'tain-head (fown-tin-hed) n. an original source.

four (fohr) adj. & n. one more than three (4, IV). □ Four Hundred, the most exclusive social set, originally that of New York. (C-From the period about 1890 when this set comprised about four hundred people.) four-letter word, a short word referring to sexual or excretory functions and regarded as obscene. four o'clock, a plant native to tropical Amer-ica, with flowers opening about 4 P.M. four'flush-er (fohr-flush-ër) n. (informal) a bluffer, a humbug.

four'fold (fohr-fold) adj. & n. 1. four times as much or as many. 2. consisting of four parts.

Four-H (fohr-aych) Club, (also 4-H Club) an organization sponsored by the U.S. Department of Agriculture to instruct young people in citizenship (improving head, heart, hands, and health). 4-H'er n. a member of the Four-H Club.

four-in-hand (fohr-in-hand) n. a necktie tied in a slipknot with long ends hanging and overlapping.

four'pen-ny (fohr-pen-ee) n. a bed with four posts to support a canopy.

four'score (fohr-sköor) adj. eighty.

four'some (fohr-söm) n. 1. a company of four people. 2. a golf match between two pairs.

four'square (fohr-skwair) adj. solidly based, steady. foursquare adv. squarely; they are foursquare behind you, support you completely.

four'teen (fohr-teen) adj. & n. one more than thirteen (14, XIV). four'teenth. adj. & n.

fourth (fohrth) adj. next after third.

fourth n. 1. something that is fourth. 2. one of four equal parts of a thing.

four'thly adv. □ fourth class, a class of mail consisting of merchandise or certain printed matter and sent at lowest rate. fourth dimension, time viewed as a lengthlike quantity. fourth estate, the press. the Fourth, July 4, Independence Day.

four-wheel (fohr-hweel) adj. applied to all four wheels of a vehicle, four-wheel drive.

fowl (fowl) n. (pl. fowl, fowls) 1: kind of bird often kept at houses and farms to supply eggs and flesh for food. 2. the flesh of birds as food, fish, flesh, and fowl.

fowler (fow-lor) n. a person who goes fowling.

fowl'ing (fo-wling) n. catching or shooting or snaring wildfowl.

fox (foks) n. (pl. fox'es) 1. a wild animal of the dog family with a pointed snout and reddish fur and a bushy tail. 2. its fur. 3. a crafty person. 4. (slang) a sexy woman. fox v. to deceive or puzzle by acting craftily.

foxed (foks) adj. (of things) discolored by brown spots caused by dampness.

fox'fire (foks-fir) n. phosphorescence from decaying wood.

fox'glove (foks-gluv) n. a tall plant with purple or white flowers like glove fingers.
fox-hole (foks-hohl) n. a small pit dug by soldiers as shelter against enemy fire.

fox-hound (foks-hound) n. a kind of hound bred and trained to hunt foxes.

fox terrier a kind of short-haired terrier.

fox trot a ballroom dance with slow and quick steps, music for this.

fox-trot (foks-trot) v. (fox-trot·ted, fox-trot·ting) to dance a fox trot.

fox·y (fox·see) adj. (fox·li·er, fox·li·est) 1. reddish brown. 2. crafty. 3. looking like a fox. 4. (slang) (of a woman) pretty, sexy.

foy·er (foi·er) n. an entrance hall or lobby.

fp. abbr. 1. foolscap. 2. foot-pound. 3. freezing point.

FPM, fpm abbr. feet per minute.

FPO abbr. 1. field post office. 2. fleet post office.

FPS, fps abbr. feet per second.

Fr symbol francium.

fr. abbr. 1. fragment. 2. franc. 3. from.

Fr. abbr. 1. Father. 2. franc. 3. France. 4. French. 5. Friar. 6. Friday.

fra·cas (fray-kas) n. (pl. -cas·es) a noisy quarrel or disturbance.

frac·tion (frak-shön) n. 1. a number that is not a whole number, as ½, ¾. 2. a very small part or piece or amount; at a fraction of the original price, very much reduced in price.

frac·tion·al (frak-sho·nal) adj. 1. of a fraction. 2. very small, a fractional difference. frac·tion·al·ly adv.

frac·tious (frak-shūs) adj. irritable, peevish. frac·tious·ly adv. frac·tious·ness n. >). Do not confuse fractious with fictitious.

frac·ture (frak-chür) n. breaking or breakage, especially of a bone. fracture v. (frac·tured, frac·tur·ing) to cause a fracture in, to suffer a fracture.

frag (frag) v. (frag·ged, frag·ging) (slang) to attack (especially an unpopular superior officer) with a hand grenade.

frag·ile (fraj·il) adj. 1. easily damaged or broken. 2. of delicate constitution, not strong. frag·il·ly adv. frag·il·ty (frā·jil·te) n.

frag·ment (frag·mənt) n. 1. a piece broken off something. 2. an isolated part, a fragment of the conversation. fragment v. (frag·mented, frag·ment·ing) to break or be broken into fragments. frag·ment·a·tion (frag·men·tā·shən) n. fragment·a·tion bomb, a bomb designed to break into small fragments on exploding.

frag·men·tar·y (frag·mən·tar·ē) adj. consisting of fragments.

fra·grant (fray·grant) adj. having a pleasant smell. fra·grant·ly adv.

frail (frayl) adj. not strong; physically weak.

frail·ty (frayl·tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. being frail, weakness. 2. moral weakness, liability to yield to temptation.

frame (fraym) n. 1. a rigid structure forming a support for other parts of a building, vehicle, piece of furniture, etc. 2. an open case or a border in which a picture, door, pane of glass, pair of eyeglasses, etc. may be set. 3. the human or an animal body with reference to its size, a small frame. 4. a single exposure on a strip of movie film. 5. (in bowling) one of ten rounds in a game. 6. a boxlike structure used for protecting plants from the cold. frame v. (framed, fram·ing) 1. to put or form a frame around. 2. to construct. 3. to compose, to compress in words, frame a treaty or a question. 4. (slang) to arrange false evidence against, so that an innocent person appears to be guilty. □frame house, a house of wooden framework covered with boards etc. frame of mind, a temporary state of mind. frame of reference, a set of principles or standards by which ideas and behavior etc. are evaluated.

frame·up (fraym·up) n. (slang) the arrangement of false evidence against an innocent person.

frame·work (fraym·wurk) n. 1. the supporting frame of a building or other construction. 2. the basic structure (of an idea, treaty, etc.).

franc (frangk) n. the unit of money in France, Belgium, Switzerland, and certain other countries.

France (frans) a country in western Eu-frac·hise (fran·chiz) n. 1. the right to vote at public elections. 2. authorization to sell a company’s goods or services in a particular area. frac·hise v. (frac·hised, frac·hising) to grant a franchise to (a person or company). frac·hise·er n. one who grants a franchise.

frac·hise·ee (fran·chee) n. one who receives or has a franchise.

frac·nis·can (fran·sis·kan) n. a member of an order of friars founded by St. Francis of Assisi, or of a corresponding order of nuns.

frac·il·um (fran·si-ūm) n. a radioactive chemical element.

frac·gl·ble (fran·jil·bəl) adj. breakable, fragile.

frank' (frangk) adj. showing one’s thoughts and feelings unmistakably. frank·ly adv. frank·ness n. frank² v. to send (mail) free, members of Congress have franking privileges. frank n. a mark on mail that enables it to be sent free.

Frank-en-stein (frang-kən-stən) (also Frankensteins monster) a thing that becomes formidable to the person who has created it. ▶ From a character in and the title of a novel (1818) by Mary W. Shelley. Dr. Frankenstein created the monster that turned on him.

Frank-fort (frangk-fōrt) the capital of Kentucky.

Frank-furt-er (frangk-für-tər) n. a highly seasoned smoked sausage, a hot dog. ▶ Originally made at Frankfurt in Germany.

Frank-in-cense (frang-kîn-sens) n. a kind of sweet-smelling gum burned as incense.

Fran-tic (fran-tik) adj. wildly excited or agitated by anxiety etc., frenzied. fra-n-ti-cal-ly adv.

frap-pé (fra-peer) frappe (frap) n. 1. a milk shake. 2. a frozen fruit-flavored dessert. 3. a liqueur served with shaved ice.

fra-ter-na! (fra-tur-nal) adj. of a brother or brothers. fra-ter-na!-ly adv. □ fra-ter-nal twins, twins developed from separate ova.

fra-ter-ni-ty (fra-tur-ni-te) n. (pl. -ties) 1. a society of college men. 2. a group of people with common interests. 3. brotherhood, brotherly feeling.

frat-er-nize (frat-er-niz) v. (frat-er-nized, frat-er-niz-ing) to associate with others in a friendly way.

frat-er-ni-za-tion (frat-er-ni-za-shon) n.

frat-ri-cide (frat-ri-sid) n. 1. the act of killing of one’s brother or sister. 2. a person who commits this crime. 3. the crime itself. frat-ri-cid-al (frat-ri-sid-əl) adj.

Frau (frow) n. (pl. Frauen, pr. frow-ən) the title of a German married woman, = Mrs.

Fraud (fraud) n. 1. criminal deception, a dishonest trick. 2. a person (or thing) that is not what he (it) seems or pretends to be.

FRAUD-u-lent (fraw-joo-lent) adj. acting with fraud, obtained by fraud. fraud-u-lent-ly adv. fraud-u-lence n.

fraught (frawt) adj. filled, involving, fraught with danger.

Frau-lin (frow-lin) n. the title of a German unmarried woman, = Miss.

Fray (fray) v. 1. to make worn so that there are loose threads, especially at the edge. 2. to strain or upset (nerves or temper). 3. to become frayed.

Fraz-zle (fraz-əl) v. (fraz-zled, fraz-zling) to wear down or exhaust. frazzle n. a completely exhausted state, worn to a frazzle.

F.R.B abbr. Federal Reserve Board.

freak (freak) n. 1. a person or thing that is abnormal in form. 2. something very unusual or irregular, the storm was a freak. 3. (slang) one who freaks out, a drug addict. freak’y adj. (freak-l-er, freak-l-est) □ freak out, (slang) to have hallucinations from narcotic drugs, to have a strong emotional experience. freak show, a sideshow at a carnival, displaying freaks.

freak-ish (free-kish) adj. like a freak. freak’ish-ly adv. freak’ish-ness n.

freak-out (free-kout) n. (slang) a period of insanity or hallucination.

freck-le (freek-əl) n. a light brown spot on the skin. freckle v. (freck-led, freck-ling) to become or cause to become spotted with freckles.

free (free) adj. (free-er, free-est) 1. (of a person) not a slave, not in the power of another or others, having social and political liberty. 2. (of a country or its citizens or institutions) not controlled by a foreign or despotic government, having representative government, having private rights that are respected. 3. not fixed or held down, able to move without hindrance. 4. unrestricted, not controlled by rules. 5. without, not subject to or affected by (an influence etc.), free from blame; the harbor is free of ice. 6. without payment, costing nothing to the recipient. 7. (of a place or time) not occupied, not being used, (of a person) without appointments or things to do. 8. coming or given or giving readily, he is very free with his advice. free v. (freed, free-ing) 1. to make free, to set at liberty. 2. to relieve, to rid or ease, freed him from suspicion. 3. to clear, to disengage or disentangle. free-ly adv. □ for free, (slang) without payment. free and easy, informal. freedom, freedom of private business to operate without government control. free fall, the unrestricted fall of a body toward Earth under the force of gravity. free flight, flight of an aircraft or rocket without power or control. free hand, the right of taking what action one chooses. free kick, a kick allowed to be taken in soccer without interference from opponents, as a penalty against them. free lance, see free-lance. free love, sexual intercourse irrespective of marriage. free lunch, light food formerly served free with the purchase of alcoholic beverages in a bar or saloon. free on board, without charge for delivery (of goods) to a ship or railroad or truck etc. free port, one open to all traders alike. free ride, something for nothing. free speech, the right to express opinions of any kind. free trade, trade left to its natural course without customs duties to restrict imports. free university, an informal organization of college students and teachers offering unconventional courses and methods. free verse, verse without metrical pattern or fixed or predictable rhythm. free will, the power of choosing one's own course of action. free world, the noncommunist countries' name for themselves.

freebie, freebee (free-bée, free-bee) n. (slang) something given away without charge.

free-board (free-bold) n. the part of a ship's side between the line of flotation and the deck level.

free-boot-er (free-boot-ér) n. a pirate, a piratical adventurer.

free-born (free-born) adj. born a free man, not a slave.

free-dom (free-dom) n. 1. the condition of being free, independence. 2. frankness, outspokenness. 3. exemption from a defeat or duty etc. 4. unrestricted use, has the freedom of the house.

free-for-all (free-for-all) n. a fight or discussion in which anyone present may join.

free-hand (free-hand) adj. (of a drawing) done without ruler or compasses etc.

free-hold (free-hold) n. the holding of land or a house etc. in absolute ownership for life.

free-lance (free-lance) n. to work as a free lance. free lance (free-lance) n. a person who works as a commercial artist or writer etc. for a fee rather than for a salary.

free-load (free-load) v. (slang) to eat, drink, be entertained, etc. at others' expense. free-load-er n.

free-man (free-man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mén) a person who has civil and political freedom, a citizen.

free-mar-tin (free-mar-tin) n. a calf that is incapable of propagation.

Free-ma-son (free-may-sôn) n. a member of an international fraternity (called the Free and Accepted Masons) for mutual help and fellowship, with elaborate secret rituals.

Free-ma-son-ry (free-may-sôn-ree) n. 1. the system and institutions of Freemasons. 2. freemasonry, sympathy and mutual help between people of similar interests.

free-si-a (free-zhi-ä) n. a fragrant flowering plant growing from a bulb.

free-stand-ing (free-stand-ing) adj. not supported by a framework.

free-stone (free-stohn) n. 1. a fine-grained sandstone or limestone that can be cut easily. 2. a kind of fruit, especially a kind of peach with stone loose when the fruit is ripe.

free-style (free-stêl) adj. 1. (of swimming races and other sports) in which any style may be used. 2. (of wrestling) with few restrictions on the holds permitted.

free-think-er (free-think-ér) n. a person who rejects authority in religious belief, a rationalist. free-think-ing adj. & n.

Free-town (free-town) n. the capital of Sierra Leone.

free-way (free-way) n. a limited access highway, an expressway.

free-wheel (free-wheel) v. 1. to live irresponsibly, to act heedlessly. 2. to ride a bicycle without pedaling.

free-will (free-will) adj. voluntary.

freeze (frez) v. (froze, fro-zen, freeze-ing) 1. to be so cold that water turns to ice, it was freezing last night. 2. to change or be changed from a liquid to a solid by extreme cold, to become full of ice or covered in ice. 3. to become very cold or rigid from cold, to chill by cold or fear etc. 4. to preserve (food) by refrigeration to below freezing point. 5. to make (credits or assets) unable to be realized. 6. to hold (prices, wages, etc.) at a fixed level. 7. to arrest the action or movement of. 8. to become unable to move because of shock or fright, the deer froze at the sound; the actor froze on seeing the audience. freeze n. a period of freezing weather. 2. the freezing of prices, wages, etc. freeze out, (slang) to exclude from business or social dealings. freeze over, (of a pond etc.) to become covered with ice. freeze up, to obstruct by the formation of ice.

freezing point the temperature at which a liquid freezes.

freeze-dry (frez-dri) v. (freeze-dried, freeze-dry-ing) to freeze and dry by evaporation of ice in a vacuum.

freeze-dried adj.

freez-er (free-zër) n. a refrigerated container or compartment for preserving and storing perishable goods by freezing them and keeping them at a very low temperature.

freight (frayt) n. 1. the shipment of goods in containers. 2. the goods shipped, cargo. 3. the charge for this. 4. (usually freight train) a train that carries only goods. freight v. to load (a ship) with cargo, to send or carry as cargo.

freight-er (fray-tër) n. a ship carrying mainly freight.

French (french) adj. of France or its people or language. French n. 1. the French language. 2. the French, French people.
French door, a door with glass panels along its full length. French dressing, salad dressing of oil and vinegar and sea- sonings. French fries, French fried potatoes, potatoes cut into thin strips and then fried in deep fat. French fry, to fry (food) in deep fat. French horn, a brass wind instrument with a long tube coiled in a circle. French toast, sliced bread dipped in egg and milk batter and lightly fried. take French leave, to absent oneself without permission.
—fre-net'ic (frē-net'ik) adj. frantic, fren- zied. fre-net'i-cal*ly adv.
fren-zied (fren-zeed) adj. in a state of frenzy, wildly excited or agitated. frenzied-ly adv.
fren-zy (fren-zee) n. (pl. -zies) violent ex- citement or agitation.
Fre- on (free-on) n. (trademark) a fluoroc-arbon used as a refrigerant etc.
Freq. abbr. 1. frequency. 2. frequent. 3. frequently.
Fre-quen-cy (free-kwén-see) n. (pl. -cies) 1. the state of being frequent, frequent occurrence. 2. the rate of the occurrence or repetition of something. 3. the number of cycles per second of a carrier wave, a band or group of similar frequencies.
□frequency modulation, transmission of signals by modulating the frequency of the radio wave.
—frequent (free-kwent) adj. happening or appearing often. fre'quent-ly adv.
freq' uent (kwen-see) adj. to go frequently to, to be often in (a place). fre'quent'er n.
fres-co (fres-koh) n. (pl. -coes) a picture painted on a wall or ceiling before the plaster is dry.
fresh (fresh) adj. 1. newly made or pro- duced or gathered etc., not stale. 2. newly arrived. 3. new or different, not previously known or used. 4. (of food) not preserved by salting or pickling or canning or freezing etc. 5. not salty, not bit- ter. 6. (of air or weather) cool, refreshing, (of wind) moderately strong. 7. bright and pure in color, not dull or faded. 8. not weary, feeling vigorous. 9. (informal) presumptuous, forward. fresh'ly adv. fresh'ness n.
fresh'en (fresh-ĕn) v. to make or become fresh.
fresh'et (fresh-it) n. 1. a rush of fresh water flowing into the sea. 2. an overflow of a river from heavy rain or melted snow.
fresh-man (fresh-măn) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mĕn) a first-year student at a high school or college.
fresh-wa-ter (fresh-waw-ter) adj. of fresh (not salty) water, not of the sea, freshwa- ter fish. fret (fret) v. (fret-ted, fret-ting) 1. to make or become unhappy, to worry. 2. to wear away by gnawing or rubbing. fret n. a state of unhappiness or worry, vexation.
fret (fret) n. a bar or ridge on the fingerboard of a guitar, banjo, etc.
fretful (fret-ful) adj. constantly worrying or irritable. fret'ful-ly adv. fret'ful-ness n.
fret-saw (fret-saw) n. a very narrow saw used for cutting thin wood in ornamental patterns.
fretted (fret-tid) adj. (of a ceiling etc.) dec- orated with carved or embossed work.
fret-work (fret-work) n. carved work in decorative patterns, especially in wood cut with a fretsaw.
Freudian (froi-di-an) adj. of Sigmund Freud, an Austrian physician (1856–1939), the founder of psychoanalysis, or his theories. □Freudian slip, an unintentional error that seems to reveal subconscious feelings.
Fri. abbr. Friday.
Fri-ar'ly (fri-ar-ĕl) adj. easily crumbled.
fri-ag (fri-ar) n. a man who is a member of certain Roman Catholic religious or- ders that combine monastic life with work in the outside world.
fri-ar-y (fri-ar-ĕe) n. (pl. -aries) a mon- astery of friars.
fricassee (frik-ă-see) n. a dish of stewed or fried pieces of meat served in a thick sauce. fricassee v. (fric-as-seed, fric-as-see-ing) to make a fricassee of.
fric-tion (frik-shŏn) n. 1. the rubbing of one thing against another. 2. the resis- tance of one surface to another that moves over it. 3. conflict between people with different ideas or personalities.
friction'al adj. □friction tape, a strong cloth adhesive tape, used especially to insulate electrical conductors.
Fri-day (fri-day) the day of the week fol- lowing Thursday.
fried (friid) see fry.'
friend (friend) n. 1. a person with whom one is on terms of mutual affection and respect. 2. a helpful thing or quality, darkness was our friend. 3. a helper or sympathizer; friends of the library, peo- ple who regularly contribute money to- ward its upkeep. 4. Friend, a member of the Society of Friends, a Quaker.
friend' ship n. □ make friends with, to become a friend of.

friend-less (friend-less) adj. without a friend.

friend-ly (friend-ly) adj. (ill-er, ill- est) 1. like a friend, kindly. 2. (of things) favorable, helpful. friend'li- ness n.

Frie-sian (free-zhən) n. see Holstein.

frieze (freez) n. a band of sculpture or decoration around the top of a wall or building.

frig-ate (frig-it) n. a small fast naval escort vessel or a small destroyer. □ frigate, a large swift brown seabird of tropical regions, with a habit of cruising near other species and snatching food from them.

fright (frit) n. 1. sudden great fear. 2. a ridiculous looking person or thing.

fright-en (frı-tən) v. 1. to cause fright to. 2. to feel fright, he doesn't frighten easily. 3. to drive or compel by fright, frightened them into concealing it. fright'en- ing- ly adv. □ be frightened of, to be afraid of.

fright-ful (frıt-fəl) adj. 1. causing horror. 2. ugly. 3. (slang) very great, extreme, extremely bad, a frightful expense; frightful weather. fright'ful-ly adv. fright'ful- ness n.

frig-id (frig-id) adj. 1. intensely cold. 2. very cold and formal in manner. 3. (of a woman) unresponsive sexually. frig' id-ly adv. fri-gid-i-ty (frı-jid-i-tee) n. □ frigid zone, a region lying within either polar circle.

frill (fril) n. 1. a gathered or pleated strip of trimming attached at one edge. 2. an unnecessary extra, simple accommodations with no frills. frilled adj. frill-y adj. (frill-i-er, frill-i-est).

fringe (frinj) n. 1. an ornamental edging of hanging threads or cords etc. 2. something resembling this. 3. the edge of an area or a group etc. fringe v. (fringed, fring-ing) 1. to decorate with a fringe. 2. to form a fringe to. □ fringe area, an area in which television reception is unsatisfactory because of great distance from the station etc. fringe benefit, a benefit that is provided for an employee in addition to wages or salary.

frip-per-y (frip-ə-ree) n. (pl. -per-r- ies) show unnecessary finery or ornaments.

Fris-bee (friz-bee) n. (trademark) a concave plastic disk thrown in the air as a game.

frisk (frisk) v. 1. to leap or skip playfully. 2. to pass one's hands over (a person) in order to search for concealed weapons etc.

frisk-y (frisk-ı) adj. (frisk-i-er, frisk-i- est) lively, playful. frisk'ı-ness n.

frit-ter (frıt-ər) n. a small fried or sautéed cake of batter containing sliced fruit or meat etc.

fritter v. to waste little by little, especially on trivial things, fritter away one's time or money.

fritz (frits) n. on the Fritz, (slang) not in good operating condition, my telephone is on the frizt.

friz, frizz (friz) v. to curl into a wiry mass. frizz n. a frizzled condition, frizzled hair. friz'-zy adj. (friz-zı-er, friz-zı-est) friz'zı-ness n.

friz-zle (friz-əl) v. (friz-zled, friz-zling) to friz.

fro (fro) adv. see to.

frock (frok) n. a woman's or girl's dress. □ frock coat, a man's long-skirted coat not cut away in front.

frog (frog) n. 1. a small cold-blooded jumping animal living both in water and on land. 2. a fastener consisting of a button and an ornamental looped cord. □ frog kick, (in swimming) a kick in which the legs are bent at the knees, then thrust down forcefully. have a frog in one's throat, to be unable to speak except hoarsely.

frog-man (frog-man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) a swimmer equipped with a rubber suit, flippers, etc., and an oxygen supply for underwater swimming and working.

frol-ic (frol-ık) v. (frol-icked, frol-lack-ing) to play about in a lively cheerful way. frolic n. lively cheerful playing or entertainment. frol'ic-some adj.

from (frum, from) prep. expressing separation or origin, 1. indicating the place or time or limit that is the starting point, traveled from Chicago; from ten o'clock. 2. indicating source or origin, took water from the well. 3. indicating separation, prevention, escape, etc., was released from prison; cannot refrain from laughing. 4. indicating difference or discrimination, can't tell red from green. 5. indicating cause or agent or means, died from starvation. 6. indicating material used in a process, wine is made from grapes. □ from day to day, daily; we live from day to day, do not plan our future. from time to time, at intervals of time; she finds work from time to time, occasionally.

frond (frond) n. a leaflike part of a fern or other flowerless plant or of a palm tree.

front (frunt) n. 1. the foremost or most frontage / fruitful

important side or surface. 2. the part normally nearer or toward the spectator or line of motion, the front of a bus. 3. the area where fighting is taking place in a war, the foremost line of an army etc. 4. outward appearance or show, something serving as a cover for secret activities. 5. the forward edge of an advancing mass of cold or warm air. 6. the part of a garment covering the front of the body. front adj. of the front, situated in front. front v. 1. to face, to have the front toward, fronting the sea or fronting on the sea. 2. (slang) to serve as a front or cover for secret activities. □ front man, (slang) a person acting as a front for secret activities. front office, the main office; the executive officers or policy makers of an organization. front runner, the contestant who seems most likely to succeed. In front, at the front of something. put up a good front, (informal) to conceal one’s real feelings.

front-age (frun-tij) n. 1. the front of a building. 2. the land along its front. 3. land bordering something, a thousand feet of ocean frontage.

frontal (frun-ta1) adj. of or on the front; full frontal nudity, that of a completely naked person seen from the front. frontal-ly adv.

frontier (frun-teer) n. 1. the land border of a country. 2. the edge of settled territory, facing the wilderness. 3. the limit of what is known in a subject, the frontiers of science. frontiers’man n.

frontierspiece (frun-ties-pees) n. an illustration placed opposite the title page of a book.

frost (frawst) n. 1. a weather condition with temperature below the freezing point of water. 2. a white powder-like coating of frozen vapor produced by this. frost v. 1. to cover with frost or frosting. 2. to make (glass) opaque by roughening the surface. □ frost heave, the rise of soil or buckling of pavement resulting from freezing of moisture in the soil beneath.

frostbite (frawst-bht) n. an injury to the tissue of the body from freezing.

frost-bit-ten (frawst-bit-ên) adj. affected with frostbite.

frost-ing (fraw-sting) n. sugar icing for cakes.

frost-y (fraw-stee) adj. (frost-l-er, frost-l-est) 1. cold with frost. 2. very cold and unfriendly in manner. frost-l-ly adv. frost-l-ness n.

froth (frawth) n. foam. froth v. to cause froth in, to foam. froth’y adj. (froth-l-er, froth-l-est) froth-l-ness n.

frot-tage (froh-tahzh) n. 1. an abnormal desire for contact between clothed bodies of oneself and another. 2. the technique or process of taking a rubbing from an uneven surface to form the basis of a work of art.

frotteur (froh-tur) n. a person who practices frottage.

frou-frou (froo-froo) n. rustling, especially of dresses.

frown (frown) v. 1. to wrinkle one’s brow in thought or disapproval. 2. to be disapproving, they frownd on gambling. frown n. a frowning movement or look.

frow-sy (frow-zee) adj. (frow-si-er, frow-si-est) 1. ill-smelling or musty. 2. unkempt, slovenly.

froze (froz) see freeze.

fro-zen (froh-zên) v. see freeze. frozen adj. 1. changed from a liquid to a solid because of extreme cold. 2. covered with ice. 3. very cold, rigid with cold. 4. (of food) preserved by refrigeration to below freezing point. 5. motionless, unable to move because of shock or fright, frozen with fear. □ frozen assets, property, securities, etc. that cannot be converted into money (because of government action, law suits, etc.). frozen custard, a chilled confection made with skim milk, similar to ice cream. frozen stiff, (informal) solidly frozen, extremely cold. frozen tight, (of a mechanical joint etc.) locked into position and unable to operate.

FRR abbr. Federal Reserve System.

frt. abbr. freight.

fruc-tli-ly (fruk-tlt-fi, fruuk-) v. (fruc-ti-plied, fruc-ti-ly-ing) 1. to bear fruit. 2. to make fruitful or productive.

fruc-tose (fruk-tohs, fruuk-) n. a form of sugar found in fruits and honey.

fru-gal (froo-gal) adj. 1. careful and economical. 2. scanty, costing little, a frugal meal. fru-gal-ly adv. fru-gal-ly (froo-gal-ly) n. (pl. -ties).

fruit (froot) n. (pl. fruits, fruit) 1. the seed-containing part of a plant. 2. this used as food. 3. any plant product used as food, the fruits of the earth. 4. the product or rewarding outcome of labor. fruit v. 1. (of a plant) to produce fruit. 2. to cause or allow (a plant) to produce fruit. □ fruit fly, any of several flies whose larvac feed on fruit. fruit salad, various fruits cut up and mixed.

fruit-cake (froot-kayk) n. a spiced cake containing raisins, nuts, preserved fruits, etc.

fruit-ed (froo-tid) adj. covered with fruit.

fruit-er-er (frooh-tar-er) n. a dealer in fruit.

fruit-ful (froot-full) adj. 1. producing much fruit. 2. producing good results. fruit-ful-ly adv. fruit-ful-ness n.
fru·i·tion (froo-ish-ôn) n. the fulfillment of hopes, results attained by work, our plans never come to fruition. □This word does not mean "fruiting" or "becoming fruitful."

fruit·less (froot-lis) adj. producing little or no result. fruit'less·ly adv. fruit·less·ness n.

fruit·y (froo-tee) adj. (fruit·i·er, fruit·i·est) like fruit in smell or taste.

frump (frump) n. a dowdily dressed woman. frump'y adj. (frump·i·er, frump·i·est) frump'ish adj.

frus·tate (frus-trayt) v. (frus·trat·ed, frus·trat·ing) to prevent (a person) from achieving what he intends, to make (efforts) useless. frus·tra·tion (frus-tray-shun) n.

frus·tum (frus-tûm) n. (pl. -tums, -ta, pr. -tä) the remainder of a cone or pyramid whose upper past has been cut off by a plane parallel to the base, a part intercepted between two planes.

frwy, abbr. freeway.

fry1 (fri) v. (fried, fry·ing) to cook or be cooked in boiling fat. fry n. (pl. fries) 1. a party at which fried food is cooked and eaten, we went to a fish fry. 2. a portion of fried food. 3. fries, French fried potatoes. □frying pan, a shallow pan used in frying. out of the frying pan and into the fire, from a bad situation to a worse one.

fry2 n. (pl. fry) young or newly hatched fishes. □small fry, children; people of little importance.

fry·er (fri·er) n. 1. a deep pot used for deep-frying. 2. a young chicken suitable for frying.

f-stop (ef-stop) n. a camera lens aperture setting indicated by an f number.

ft. abbr. 1. foot. 2. feet.

ft-lb abbr. foot-pound(s).

fuch·sia (fyoo-shâ) n. 1. an ornamental shrub with red or purple or white drooping flowers. 2. a purplish-pink color.

fud·dle (fyoo-âl) v. (fud·dled, fud·dling) to stupefy, especially with alcoholic drink. fuddle n. a confused state of mind.

fud·dy-dud·dy (fud-ee-dud-ee) n. (-dud·dies) (informal) a person who is out of date and unable to accept new ideas.

fudge1 (fuj) n. 1. a soft candy made of milk, sugar, and butter, especially chocolate fudge. 2. nonsense (often used as an interjection).

fudge2 v. (fudged, fudg·ing) to deal with or put together in a makeshift or dishonest way, to fake.

fu·el (fyoo-âl) n. 1. material burned as a source of warmth or light or energy, or used as a source of nuclear energy. 2. something that increases anger or other strong feelings. fuel v. (fu·eled, fu·el·ing) to supply with fuel. □fuel cell, a device producing electricity directly from chemical reaction. fuel injection, direct introduction of fuel under pressure into the combustion unit of an internal combustion engine.

fu·gi·tive (fyoo-jì-tiv) n. a person who is fleeing or escaping from something. fug·i·tive adj. 1. fleeing, escaping. 2. transient.

fugue (fyooeg) n. a musical composition in which one or more themes are introduced and then repeated in a complex pattern.

füh·rer, fueh·rer (fyoor-er) n. a leader, especially a tyrannical one.

-ful1 suffix used to form adjectives meaning full of, as in beautiful; suggesting, as in direful; accustomed to, as in forgetful.

-ful2 suffix used to form nouns meaning the amount needed to fill, as in spoonful, handful.

ful·crum (fu-el-krohm, ful-) n. (pl. -crums, -cra, pr. -krâ) the point on which a lever turns.

ful·fill (fyoo-fill) v. 1. to accomplish, to carry out (a task). 2. to do what is required by (a treaty etc.), to satisfy the requirements of. 3. to make a prophecy come true. ful·fill·ment n. □fulfill oneself or be fulfilled, (of persons) to develop and use one's abilities etc. fully.

ful·l (ful) adj. (full·er, full·est) 1. holding or having as much as the limits will allow. 2. having much or many, crowded, showing, full of vitality. 3. completely occupied with thinking of, full of himself: full of the news, unable to keep from talking about it. 4. fed to satisfaction, ate till he was full. 5. copious, give full details. 6. complete, reaching the usual or specified extent or limit etc., in full bloom; waited a full hour. 7. plump, rounded, a full figure. 8. (of clothes) fitting loosely, made with much material hanging in folds. 9. (of a tone) deep and mellow. full adv. 1. completely. 2. exactly, hit him full on the nose. full n. 1. whole. 2. the point or state of greatest fullness. ful·ly adv. full·ness n. □full board, provision of bed and all meals at a hotel etc. full dress, formal clothes, especially evening clothes. full face, with all the face toward the spectator. full gainer, a dive in which the diver initially faces forward for takeoff and then executes a backward somersault and finishes by entering the water feet first, full

facing away from the diving board. full moon, the moon with its whole disk illuminated; the time when this occurs. full speed ahead!, an order to move or work with maximum speed. full stop, the punctuation mark used at the end of a sentence or abbreviation, a period; come to a full stop, cease completely, be unable to proceed. full tilt or full speed, with all one’s energies, went at it full tilt; at full tilt, at full speed. full time, the whole of a working day or week. In full, with nothing omitted; for the whole amount, paid in full.
in full view, wholly visible.
in the fullness of time, at the proper or destined time. to the full, thoroughly, completely.
full² v. 1. to treat or beat (cloth) to clean and thicken it. 2. to clean and thicken (cloth etc.) in this way.
full-back (fulh-bak) n. (in football) the running back, who lines up behind the quarterback.
full-blood-ed (fulh-blud-id) adj. 1. of unmixed ancestry, a full-blooded Indian.
2. vigorous, hearty, sensual.
full-blown (fulh-blohn) adj. fully developed, a full-blown scandal.
full-bodied (fulh-bod-ied) adj. of full flavor, fully mature, a full-bodied wine.
full-er (fulh-er) n. a person who cleans and thickens freshly woven cloth. fuller's earth, a type of clay used for this process.
full-fash-ioned (fulh-fash-énd) adj. knitted to the body’s shape, as a sweater or stockings.
full-fledged (fulh-flejd) adj. 1. (of a bird) having full plumage. 2. having full status, a full-fledged member.
full-grown (fulh-grohn) adj. having reached maturity.
full-length (fulh-length) adj. not shortened or abbreviated.
full-time (fulh-tm) adj. & adv. for or during the whole of the working day or week.
full-tim-er (fulh-tm-mér) n. (informal) a person employed to work a full working week.
full-mar (fulh-már) n. an Arctic seabird related to the petrels. full-mi-nate (fulh-mí-nayt) v. (fulh-mi-nat-ed, fulh-mi-nat-ing) to protest loudly and bitterly. fulh-mi-na-tion (fulh-mí-nay-shón) n.
full-some (fulh-sóm) adj. cloying, excessive, disgusting; fulsome praise, exagerrated flattery. ▷ This word does not mean copious or plentiful.
fu-ma-role (fyoom-á-rol) n. a crevice in or near a volcano, through which come hot gases. fu-ma-rol’ic (fyoom-á-rol-ık) adj.
fum-ble (fum-bél) v. (fum-bléd, fum-bling) 1. to touch or handle something awkwardly; the quarterback fumbled, dropped the football. 2. to grope about.
4 fumble n. a bungling attempt; there was a fumble on the play, the football was dropped.
fume (fyoom) n. strong-smelling smoke or gas or vapor. fume v. (fumed, fuming) 1. to treat with chemical fumes. 2.
to emit fumes. 3. to seethe with anger.
fu-mi-gant (fyoom-í-gant) n. any substance used in fumigation. fu-mi-gate (fyoom-mí-gayt) v. (fyoom-gat-ed, fu-mi-gat-ing) to disinfect by means of fumes. fu-mi-gation (fyoommí-gay-shón) n.
fun (fun) n. 1. light-hearted amusement.
2. a source of this. □ like fun, (informal) certainly not. make fun of, to cause people to laugh at (a person or thing) by making it appear ridiculous. func-tion (fungk-shón) n. 1. the special activity or purpose of a person or thing.
2. an important social or official ceremony. function v. to perform a function, to be in action. func-tion-less n. func-tion-al (fungk-shó-nal) adj. 1. of a function or functions. 2. designed to perf orm a particular function without being decorative or luxurious. func-tion-ally adv.
func-tion-ar-y (fungk-shó-nar-ee) n. (pl.
-ar-ies) an official.
fund (fum) n. 1. a supply of money, especially that available for a particular purpose. 2. an available stock or supply, a fund of jokes. fund v. to provide with money.
of the basis or foundation of a subject etc., serving as a starting point. 2. very important, essential. 3. fundamentals n. pl. fundamental facts or principles. fun-da-men-tal-ism (fun-dá-men-tal-izám) n. 1. strict maintenance of traditional orthodox religious beliefs (especially Protestant) such as the literal truth of the Bible. fun-da-men-tal-ist adj. &
n.
fun-er-al (fyoom-ér-al) n. 1. the ceremony of burying or cremating the dead. 2.
(slang) a person’s unpleasant responsibility or concern, it’s your funeral.
funeral v. of a funeral. □ funeral director, an undertaker. funeral home, funeral parlor, an undertaker’s establishment.
fun-e-ral (fyoom-ér-ral) adj. of or used for burial or a funeral.
fun•ne•re•al (fyoo-neer-i-ál) adj. suitable for a funeral, dismal, dark.

fun•gl•cide (fun-ji-síd) n. a fungus-destroying substance. fun•gl•cid•al (fun-ji-sr-dál) adj.

fun•go (fun-goh) n. (pl. -goes) (in baseball) a fly ball hit by a batter who has thrown the ball into the air for hitting. □fungo bat, a long narrow bat for this.

fun•gus (fung-gús) n. (pl. fun•gi, pr. fun•ji, fun•gus-es) any of those plants without leaves, flowers, or green coloring matter, growing on other plants or on decaying matter and including mushroom, toadstools, and molds. fun•gal (fung-gál) adj. fung‘old adj. fung‘ous adj. □ Do not confuse fungus (noun) with fungous (adjective).

fu•nic•u•lar (fyoo-nik-yú-lár) n. a cable railway with ascending and descending cars counterbalancing each other.

funk (fungk) n. (informal) 1. fear, panic. 2. dejection. □ in a funk, in a bad mood.

funk•y (fung-kee) adj. (fung•i•er, funk•i•est) (slang) 1. (of jazz etc.) uncomplicated, emotional. 2. having a strong smell. 3. unconventional.

fun•nel (fun•él) n. 1. a tube or pipe wide at the top and narrow at the bottom, for pouring liquids or powders etc. into small openings. 2. a metal chimney on a steam engine or ship. funnel v. (fun•neled, fun•nel•ing) to move through a funnel or a narrowing space.

fun•nies (fun•e-z) n. pl. (informal) comic strips.

fun•ny (fun•é) adj. (fun•ni•er, fun•ni•est) 1. causing amusement. 2. puzzling, hard to account for. 3. (informal) insane or odd. fun•ni•ly adv. □ funny bone, part of the elbow over which a very sensitive nerve passes. funny business, trickery. funny papers, (informal) comic strips.

fur (fur) n. 1. the short fine soft hair covering the bodies of certain animals. 2. animal skin with the fur on it, especially when used for making or trimming clothes etc. 3. fabric imitating this. 4. a coat or cape etc. of real or imitation fur. 5. a fur-like coating. fur v. (fur•red, fur•ring) to cover with fur.

fur. abbr. furlong(s).

fur•be•low (fur-bé-loh) n. showy trimmings, frills and furbelows.

fur•bish (fur-bish) v. to polish, to clean or renovate.

fu•ri•ous (fyoor-i-ús) adj. 1. full of anger. 2. violent, intense, a furious pace. fu•ri•ous•ly adv.

fur v. (furled, fur•ling) to roll up and fasten (a sail, flag, or umbrella).

dur•lon (fur-lawng) n. one-eighth of a mile, 220 yards.

dur•lough (fur-loh) n. leave of absence, especially one granted to a soldier, went on furlough. furlough v. to grant a furlough to.

fur•nace (fur-nis) n. 1. a closed fireplace for heating water or air to warm a building etc. 2. an enclosed space for heating minerals or metals etc. or for making glass.

fur•nish (fur-nish) v. 1. to equip (a room or house etc.) with furniture. 2. to provide or supply.

fur•nish•ings (fur-nishings) (fur-nis•ngz) n. pl. the furniture and fixtures in a room or house.

fur•ni•ture (fur-ni•chur) n. the movable articles (such as tables, chairs, beds, etc.) needed in a room or house etc.

fur•or (fyoor•or) n. 1. an outburst of enthusiasm. 2. an uproar. 3. a popular craze.

fur•ri•er (fur•ri•er) n. a person who deals in furs or who makes fur clothes.

fur•ring (fur•ring) n. 1. the fixing of strips of wood or metal to a ceiling or wall in preparation for level mounting of a new ceiling or wall. 2. strips used for this purpose.

fur•row (fur•ow) n. 1. a long cut in the ground made by a plow or other implement. 2. a groove resembling this, a deep wrinkle in the skin. furrow v. to make furrows in.

fu•ry (fur•é) adj. (fur•ri•er, fur•ri•est) 1. like fur. 2. covered with fur.

fur•ther (fur•ther) adj. & adv. to a greater extent, more, shall inquire further; made further inquiries. □ See the note under farther.) farther.) farther v. to help the progress of, farther someone's interests.

fur•ther•ance (fur• ther•ance) (fur–ther–ance) n. the furthering of someone's interests etc.

fur•ther•more (fur•ther•mor) adv. in addition, moreover.

fur•ther•most (fur•ther•most) adj.

fur•thest (fur•thest) adj. & adv. to the greatest extent, they advanced our thinking furthest: she was furthest advanced. □ See the note under farther.

fur•tive•ly adv. fur•tive•ness n.

fu•ry (fyoor•ee) n. (pl. -ries) 1. wild anger, rage. 2. violence of weather etc., the storm's fury. 3. a violently angry person, especially a woman. 4. the Furies, snakelike goddesses in Greek mythology, sent from the underworld to punish crime. □ like fury, (informal) intensely, furiously.

furze (furz) n. a wild evergreen shrub with yellow flowers and sharp thorns common in Europe.
fuse¹ (fyooz) v. (fused, fus-ing) to blend or amalgamate (metals, living bones, institutions, etc.) into a whole.

fuse² n. (in an electric circuit) a short length of wire designed to melt and thus break the circuit if the current exceeds a safe level. fuse v. to fit (a circuit or appliance) with a fuse. □ fuse box, a metal box containing the fuses of an electrical system.

fuse³ n. a length of easily burned material for igniting a bomb or an explosive charge. fuse v. to fit a fuse to.

fus-é-lage (fyoo-zé-lahzh) n. the body of an airplane.

fus-ible (fyoo-zé-béél) adj. able to be fused. (See fuse¹.)

fus-ilade (fyooz-ilayd) n. 1. a simultaneous or continuous firing of guns. 2. a great outburst of questions, criticism, etc.

fus-ion (fyoo-zhón) n. 1. fusing, the blending or uniting of different things into a whole. 2. the union of atomic nuclei to form a heavier nucleus, usually with release of energy.

fuss (fus) n. 1. unnecessary excitement or activity. 2. a display of worry about something unimportant. 3. a vigorous protest or dispute. fuss v. to make a fuss. □ make a fuss, to complain vigorously.

make a fuss of or over, to treat (a person) with a great display of attention or affection.

fuss-bud-get (fus-buj-it) n. (informal) a person who continually finds fault in trivial matters.

fus-ey (fus-ce) adj. (fus·si·er, fus·si·est) 1. often fussing. 2. fastidious. 3. full of unnecessary detail or decoration. fus·si·ness n. fus·si·ly adv.

fus·tian (fus-chan) n. 1. a thick, twilled cotton cloth with a short nap, usually dyed in dark dull colors. 2. pompous language, bombast. fus·tian adj. 1. made of fustian. 2. bombastic.

fus·ty (fyoo-tee) adj. (fus·ti·er, fus·ti·est) 1. stale-smelling, stuffy. 2. old-fashioned in ideas etc. fus·ti·ness n.

fut. abbr. future.

fu·tile (fyoo-tíl) adj. producing no result, useless. fu·til·i·ty (fyoo-tíl-i-té) n.

fu·ture (fyoo-chooér) adj. belonging to the time coming after the present. future n. future time or events or condition; there's no future in it, no prospect of success or advancement. □ future life, existence after death. future shock, bewilderment and demoralization caused by swift social and technological change (‡ coined by Alvin Toffler, American author). in future, from this time onward.

fu·tur·ism (fyoo-chú-ri-zém) n. a movement in art, literature, music, etc., with violent departure from traditional forms so as to express movement and growth.

fu·tur·ist n.

fu·tur·is·tic (fyoo-chú-ri-tik) adj. looking suitable for the distant future, not traditional.

fu·tu·ri·ty (fyoo-toor-i-té) n. (pl. -ties) future time.

fuze = fuse².

fuzz (fuz) n. 1. fluff, something fluffy or frizzy. 2. (slang) the police.

fuz·zy (fuz-ce) adj. (fuz·zi·er, fuz·zi·est) 1. like fuzz, covered with fuzz. 2. frizzy. 3. blurred, indistinct. fuz·zi·ly adv. fuz·zi·ness n.

fwd. abbr. forward.

FY abbr. fiscal year.

-fy suffix used to form verbs meaning make, as in satisfy; produce, as in stupefy; cause, as in solidify.

FYI abbr. for your information.
G, g (jee) (pl. Gs, G's, g's) 1. the seventh letter of the alphabet. 2. (slang) grand (= $1000). 3. a symbol indicating that a film is recommended for general audiences.

g abbr. 1. game. 2. gauge. 3. gender. 4. general. 5. generally. 6. gold. 7. good. 8. grain(s). 9. gram(s). 10. gravity.

G. abbr. German.

g a abbr. gauge.

Ga abbr. Gallium.

GA abbr. 1. general assembly. 2. general average. 3. general of the army. 4. Georgia.

Ga, abbr. Georgia.

gab (gab) n. (informal) chatter. have the gift of gab to be good at talking.

gab-ar-dine (gab-ar-deen) n. a strong fabric woven in a twill pattern.

gab-ble (gab-éll) v. (gab-bled, gabbling) to talk quickly and indistinctly.

gabble n. gabbed talk. gab'bler n.

gab-bro (gab-roh) n. (pl. -bros) a dark granular igneous rock.

gab-by (gab-e) adj. (gab-bler, gab-bler) talkative.

gab-fest (gab-fest) n. (slang) an informal get-together for prolonged conversation.

gab-ble (gab-béll) n. the triangular upper part of an outside wall, between sloping roofs. gab'bled adj.

Ga-bon (ga-bon) a country on the west coast of Africa. Ga- boon-ese (gab-ó-neez) adj. & n. (pl. -ese).

Gab-o-ron-e (gab-ó-ro-neh) the capital of Botswana.

gad1 (gad) v. (gad-ded, gad-ding) to be a gadabout.

gad2 n. 1. a stick for driving cattle. 2. a sharp tool used to break up rock, coal, etc. gad v. (gad-ded, gad-ding) to split up or loosen with a mining gad.

Gad (gad) interj. an exclamation of surprise (a euphemism for "God").

gad-a-bout (gad-a-bowt) n. a person who goes about constantly in search of pleasure.

gad-fly (gad-fly) n. (pl. -flies) 1. a fly that bites horses and cattle. 2. a person who annoys others, especially by criticizing.

gadg-et (gaj-it) n. a small mechanical device or tool. gadg-et-ry n.

gad-e-teer (gaj-e-teer) n. a person who invents small devices.

gad-o-lin-ium (gad-ó-lin-i-um) n. a metallic chemical element.

Gael (gayl) n. a Scottish or Irish Celt.

Ga-el (gay-l) abbr. Gaelic.

Ga-el-ic (gay-lik) adj. of Gaels. Gaelic n. their language, comprising Scottish Gaelic, Irish, and Manx.

gaff (gaf) v. a stick with an iron hook for landing large fish caught with rod and line. gaff n. v. to seize with a gaff, ga-fing a salmon.

gaffe (gaf) n. a blunder.

gaf-fer (gaf-er) n. (informal) an elderly man.

gag (gag) n. 1. something put into a person’s mouth or tied across it to prevent him from speaking or crying out. 2. any action or order that prevents freedom of speech or of writing. 3. a joke or funny story, especially as part of a comedian’s act. gag v. (gagged, gagging) 1. to put a gag into or over a person’s mouth. 2. to prevent freedom of speech or of writing, we cannot gag the press. 3. to tell jokes or gags. 4. to retch or choke.

gag-a (gag-ah) adj. (slang) crazy, he went gaga. gaga over (slang) crazy about, infatuated with.

gage1 (gaj) n. a symbol of a challenge to fight, such as a glove or cap thrown on the ground.

gage2 = gauge.

gag-ele (gag-el) n. 1. a flock of geese. 2. a group of talkative people.

gai-e-ty (gay-e-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. cheerfulness, a happy and light-hearted manner. 2. merrymaking.

gai-ly (gay-lee) adv. 1. in a cheerful light-hearted manner. 2. in bright colors.

gain (gayn) v. y. to obtain, especially something desirable. 2. to make a profit. 3. to acquire gradually, to build up for oneself, gained strength after illness. 4. (of a clock etc.) to become ahead of the correct time. 5. to get nearer in racing or pursuit, our horse was gaining on the favoirite. 6. to reach a desired place, gained the shore. gain n. 1. an increase in weight or possessions. 2. an improvement, an increase in amount or power. gain'ner n. 1. a person or thing that gains. 2. see full gainer and half gainer. □ gain ground, to make progress. gain time, to improve one’s chances by arranging or accepting a delay.

gainful / Gallup

gainful (gayn-fül) adj. profitable. gain’ful-ly adv.

gain-say (guyn-say) v. (gain-sald, gain-say-ing) (informal) to deny or contradict, there’s no gain saying it. gain’say’er n.
gait (gait) n. 1. a manner of walking or running. 2. any of the forward movements of a horse, such as trotting or cantering. gait’ed adj.
gal-ter (gal-tér) n. a covering of cloth or leather for the ankle and lower leg.
gal (gal) n. (informal) a girl or woman.
gal, abbr. gallon(s).

gal-la (gal-lä, gal-lä) n. a festive occasion, a fête. gala adj.
gal-lact-ic (ga-lak-tik) adj. 1. of a galaxy or galaxies. 2. of the Galaxy or Milky Way.
gal-lact-ose (gä-läk-tohs) n. a sugar obtained from lactose.
gal-an-tine (gal-án-teen) n. white meat boned and spiced and cooked in the form of a roll, served cold in aspic.

gal-la-tans (gal-lä-šänz) n. a book of the New Testament, the epistle of St. Paul to the Church at Galatia.
gal-ax-ya (gal-äk-sea) n. (pl. -ax-ies) 1. any of the large independent systems of stars existing in space; the Galaxy, that containing Earth (the Milky Way). 2. a brilliant company of beautiful or famous people.
gale (gal) n. 1. a very strong wind; gale-force winds, winds with a speed of 35 to 50 m.p.h. 2. a noisy outburst, gales of laughter.
gal-le-na (gal-le-nä) n. the commonest lead ore, lead sulphide.
gall (gawl) n. 1. bile. 2. bitterness of feeling. 3. (slang) impudence.
gall n. a sore spot on the skin of an animal, especially a horse, caused by rubbing. gall v. to rub and make sore.
gall n. an abnormal growth produced by an insect, fungus, or bacterium on a plant.
gal-lant (gal-lánt) adj. 1. brave, chivalrous. 2. fine, stately, our gallant ship. gallant (gä-lant) n. a fashionable or courteous young man. gal’lant-ly adv. gal’lant-ry n. (pl. -ries).
gal-blader (gawl-blad-är) n. a pear-shaped organ attached to the liver, storing and releasing bile.

gal-le-on (gä-lé-ôn) n. a large Spanish sailing ship used in the 15th–17th centuries.
gal-ler-y (gal-é-ree) n. (pl. -ler-ies) 1. a room or building for showing works of art. 2. the highest balcony in a theater, the people occupying this. 3. the spectators at a sporting event, especially a golf or tennis match. 4. a raised covered platform or passage along the wall of a building. 5. a long room or passage, especially one used for a special purpose, a shooting gallery. 6. an underground passageway, as in a mine. gal’ler-ied adj. □ play to the gallery, to try to win favor by appealing to the taste of the general public. gal-ley (gal-ë) n. (pl. -leys) 1. a long low medieval ship propelled by sails and oars. 2. an ancient Greek or Roman warship propelled by oars. 3. the kitchen in a ship or aircraft. 4. an oblong tray for holding type for printing. 5. a galley proof. □ galley proof, a printed proof made from type set in a galley.
gal-li-c (gal-lık) adj. 1. of ancient Gaul. 2. of France, typically French, Gallic wit.
gal-lil-mau-fry (gal-lë-maw-free) n. (pl. -fries) a medley or jumble.
gal-ling (gaw-líng) adj. vexing, humiliating.
gal-li-nule (gal-lë-nool) n. a small water bird with elongated webless toes.
gal-li-um (gal-lë-um) n. a soft bluish-white metallic element.
gal-li-vant (gal-lë-vant) v. (informal) to gad about.
gal-lon (gal-lön) n. a measure for liquids, = 4 quarts (3.875 liters). □ imperial gallon, a British gallon (4.546 liters).
gal-lop (gal-lëp) n. 1. a horse’s fastest pace, with all four feet off the ground simultaneously in each stride. 2. a ride at this pace. gallop v. (gal-löped, gal-löp-ing) 1. to go at a gallop, to cause a horse to do this. 2. to go very fast, to rush; galloping inflation, getting worse rapidly. gal’lop-er n.
gal-lows (gal-ohz) n. a framework with a suspended noose for the hanging of criminals. 2. the gallows, execution by hanging, he went to the gallows.
gal-lic (gal-lick) n. a small hard mass that sometimes forms in the gallbladder.

Gal-lup (gä-lup) poll a sampling of public opinion, made by questioning representative people and used especially to forecast how people will vote in an election. △ Named after George Gallup (1901— ), an American statistician.
gal·lus·es (gal-ú-siz) n. pl. (informal) a pair of suspenders.
gal·lo·re (gá-lor) adv. in plenty, whiskey galore.
gal·lo·sh (gá-losh) n. (pl. -losh-es) one of a pair of overshoes, usually rubber.
gal·lum·ph (gá-lumf) v. (informal) 1. to prance in triumph. 2. to move noisily or clumsily.
gal·van·ic (gal-van-ik) adj. 1. producing an electric current by chemical action, a galvanic cell. 2. stimulating people into sudden activity. gal·van‘i·cal·ly adv. gal·van·ism (gal-vá-niz-ëm) n.
gal·va·nize (gal-va-niz) v. (galvanize) 1. to stimulate into sudden activity. 2. to coat (iron) with zinc in order to protect it from rust, galvanized iron. gal·va·ni·za·tion (gal-vá-niz·a·shun) n.
gal·va·nom·e·ter (gal-va-no·me-ter) n. an instrument for detecting and measuring small electric currents. gal·va·no·met·ric (gal-vá-nó-met·rik) adj.
gam (gam) n. (slang) a leg. Gam·bi·a (gam-bi-ä) a country in West Africa, also called the Gambia. Gam·bi·an adj. & n. gam·bit (gam-bit) n. 1. an opening move in chess in which a player deliberately sacrifices a pawn or other piece in order to gain a favorable position. 2. an action or statement intended to secure some advantage.
gam·ble (gam-bel) v. (gam·bled, gam·bling) 1. to play games of chance for money. 2. to stake or risk money etc. in the hope of great gain; gambled his fortune away, lost it by gambling. 3. to stake one’s hopes; gambled on its being a fine day, made plans in the hope of this. gamble n. 1. gambling. 2. a risky attempt or undertaking. gam·bler n. ▴ Do not confuse gamble with gambol.
gam·bol (gam-bol) v. (gam·boled, gam·bol·ing) to jump or skip about in play. gambol n. a gambling movement. ▴ Do not confuse gambol with gamble.
gam·bre·l (gam-bré) roof a roof with two slopes (a lower steeper slope and an upper flatter one) on each side (of the house, barn, etc.).
game (gaym) n. 1. a form of play or sport, especially one with rules. 2. a single section forming a scoring unit in some games (as in tennis or bridge). 3. a scheme or plan, a trick, so that’s his little game! 4. wild animals or birds hunted for sport or food. 5. their flesh as food. 6. (informal) a person’s occupation, he’s in the advertising game. 7. games, athletics or sports, a sporting contest, the Olympic Games. game v. (gamed, gam·ing) to gamble for money stakes. game adj. (gam·er, gam·est) 1. brave. 2. having spirit or energy, are you game for a lark? game‘ly adv. game’ness n. ▴ fair game, an object that may fairly be attacked, if you strike first, you’re fair game. game fish, an edible fish providing its captor with sport. game law, a law regulating the killing and preservation of game. game plan, a design for a course of action. game point, the state in a game, especially tennis or handball, when one side needs only one more point to win. game theory, the mathematical analysis of conflicts in war, economics, games of skill, etc. give the game away, to reveal a secret or scheme. make game of, to make fun of, to ridicule. the game is up, the secret or deception is revealed. game2 adj. lame, a game leg.
game·cock (gaym-kok) n. a male fowl of the kind formerly bred for cockfighting.
game·keep·er (gaym-kee-për) n. a person employed to protect and breed game animals.
games·man (gaymz-män) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mëän) a person who practices gamesmanship.
games·man·ship (gaymz-män-ship) n. the art of winning contests by upsetting the confidence of one’s opponent.
game·some (gaym-sôm) adj. merry, playful. game·ster "(gaym-stërr) n. an habitual gambler.
game·ete (gam-ët) n. a sexual cell capable of fusing with another in reproduction.
game·in (gam-in) n. 1. a street urchin. 2. a child who looks or behaves like this.
game·ine (gam-ën) n. 1. a girl gamin. 2. a small mischievous-looking young woman.
game·ma (gam-äm) n. the third letter of the Greek alphabet (Γ γ). ▴ gamma globulin, a component of blood plasma containing antibodies used to treat measles, infectious hepatitis, etc. gamma ray, an x-ray of very short wavelength emitted by radioactive substances.
game·mon (gam-ën) n. 1. cured or smoked ham. 2. the bottom piece of a side of bacon, including a hind leg.
game·ut (gam-ët) n. 1. the whole series or range or scope of anything; the whole gamut of emotion, from greatest joy to deepest despair. 2. the whole range of musical notes used in medieval or modern music.
gam·y (gay-mëe) adj. (gam·i·er, gam·i·est) 1. having the flavor or scent of game kept till it is slightly decomposed.
2. scandalous, sensational. 3. spirited.

gan·der (gan-dər) n. 1. a male goose. 2. (slang) a look, a glance, let's take a gander.

gang (gang) n. 1. a number of workmen working together, a road gang. 2. a band of people going about together or working together, especially for some criminal purpose. gang v. to combine in a gang; they ganged up on him, combined against him.

gang·land (gang-land) n. the world of criminals and organized crime.

ghan·ging (ghan-ging) adj. tall, thin, and awkward looking.

gan·glion (gan-gli-ən) n. (pl. -gli·a, pr. -gli·ə) 1. a group of nerve cells from which nerve fibers radiate. 2. a cyst on a tendon sheath. 3. a center of activity.

gang·plank (gang-plangk) n. a movable plank used as a bridge for walking into or out of a boat.

gang·grene (gan-green) n. death and decay of body tissue, usually caused by blockage of the blood supply to that part.

gang·gre·nous (gan·gré-nəs) adj.

gang·ster (gan-stər) n. a member of a gang of violent criminals.

gang·way (gang-way) n. 1. a passageway through a crowd at a stadium etc. 2. a temporary passageway at a construction site. 3. a movable bridge from a ship to the land, the opening in a ship's side into which this fits. gangway (gang-way) interj. make way!

gan·net (gan-it) n. a large seabird.

gan·let (gan-lit) = gauntlet.

gan·try (gan-tree) n. (pl. -tris) 1. a light bridgidelike overhead framework for supporting a traveling crane, railroad signals over several tracks, etc. 2. a movable platform used to prepare large rockets for launching.

GAO abbr. General Accounting Office.

gaol (jail) (British) = jail.

gap (gap) n. 1. a break or opening in something continuous, such as a hedge or fence or wall, or between hills. 2. an unfilled space or interval, a gap between programs. 3. something lacking, a gap in one's education. 4. a wide difference in ideas.

gape (gayp) v. (gaped, gap·ing) 1. to open the mouth wide. 2. to stare with open mouth, in surprise or wonder. 3. to open or be open wide, a gaping chasm.

gape n. an open-mouthed stare.

gar (gahr) n. (also gar·fish) a fish with a long body and large teeth.

gar. abbr. garage.

gar·rage (gə-rahzh, -rahj) n. 1. a building in which to keep a motor vehicle or vehicles. 2. a commercial establishment where motor vehicles are repaired and serviced. garage v. (gar·aged, gar· age·ing) to put or keep in a garage. ☐ garage sale, a sale of used objects, held in or just outside a family's garage.

garb (gahrb) n. clothing, especially of a distinctive kind, a man in clerical garb.

garb v. to clothe.

gar·bage (gahr-bij) n. 1. food waste. 2. any rubbish or trash. 3. (informal) anything that is useless or unnecessary.

gar·ban·zo (gahr-ban-zo) n. (pl. -zos) (also garbanzo bean) a chickpea.

gar·ble (gahr-bəl) v. (gar·bled, gar·bling) to give a confused account of, so that a message or story is distorted or misunderstood.

gar·con (gahr-sohn) n. (pl. -cons, pr. -sohnz, -sohn) a waiter in a French restaurant, hotel, etc. > French.

gar·den·den (gahr-den) n. 1. a piece of cultivated ground, especially near a house. 2. (often gardens) ornamental public grounds. 3. a large public hall for sports events etc., Boston Garden. garden v. to tend a garden. ☐ Garden of Eden, the place where Adam and Eve lived before the Fall. garden party, a party held on a lawn or in a garden or park. garden variety, (informal) average or ordinary. lead down the garden path, to entice, to mislead deliberately.

gar·den·er (gahr-den-ər) n. a person who tends a garden, either as a job or as a hobby.

gar·de·ria (gahr-de-riə) n. 1. a tree or shrub with large fragrant white or yellow flowers. 2. its flower.

Gar·field (gahr-field), James A. (1831–81) the twentieth president of the U.S. 1881.

gar·fish (gahr-fish) = gar.

gar·gan·tu·an (gahr·gan·choo·ən) adj. gigantic.

gar·gle (gahr·gel) v. (gar·gled, gar·gling) to wash or rinse the inside of the throat with liquid held there by air breathed out from the lungs. gargle n. a liquid used for this.

gar·goyle (gahr-gōyl) n. a grotesque carved face or figure, especially one used as a raisspout carrying water clear of a wall.

gar·ish (gahr·ish) adj. excessively bright, gaudy, overdecorated.

gar·land (gahr·land) n. a wreath of flowers etc. worn or hung as a decoration. garland v. to deck with a garland or garlands.

gar·lic (gahr·lik) n. 1. an onionlike plant. 2. its bulbous root which has a strong garment / gastrointestinal taste and smell, used for flavoring. garlick-y adj.

gar-ment (gar-ment) n. an article of clothing. □ the Garment Center, an area of New York City in which clothes are manufactured and sold at wholesale.
gar-ner (gahr-ner) v. 1. to store up. 2.
to acquire or earn.
gar-net (gahr-net) n. a semiprecious stone of deep transparent red.* gar-nish (gar-nish) v. to decorate (especially for food). garnish n.
something used for garnishing.
gar-nish-ee (gar-nish-ee) n. a garnish-
ment.
gar-nish-ee-ing (gar-nish-ee-ing) n.
2. a garnish.
gar-nish-ment (gar-nish-ment) n. 1.
a legal warning served to a person holding the property of a debtor, ordering him to give it to the creditor. 2. a garnish.
gar-ni-ture (gahr-ni-chur) n. adornment or trimmings, especially of a dish of food.
gar-ret (gar-ret) n. an attic, especially a poor one.
gar-ri-son (gar-i-soun) n. 1. troops stationed in a town or fort to defend it; a garrison town, one that has a permanent garrison. 2. the building or fort they occupy. garrison v. 1. to place a garrison in.
2. to occupy and defend, troops garrisoned the town.
gar-rote, ga-rotte (ga-rot) n. 1. a Spanish method of capital punishment by strangulation with a metal collar. 2. the apparatus used for this. 3. a cord or wire used to strangle a victim. garrote v.
(gar-rot-ed, gar-rot-ing) to execute or strangle with a garrote.
gar-ru-ous (gar-oo-us) adj. talkative.
gar-ru-ous-ly adv. gar-ru-ous-ness n. gar-ru-ill-ty (gah-roo-ill-tee) n. gar-ter (gahr-tar) n. a band especially of elastic worn around the leg to keep a stocking up. □ garter snake, a small striped snake of North America.
gas (gas) n. (pl. gas-es) 1. a substance that does not become liquid or solid at ordinary temperatures, that diffuses readily, and that tends to distribute itself evenly throughout any enclosure. 2. one of the gases or mixtures of gases used for lighting, heating, or cooking; gas stove, an appliance using gas as fuel. 3. poisonous gas used to disable an enemy in war, dangerous gas occurring naturally in a coal mine. 4. nitrous oxide or other gas used as an anesthetic. 5.
(slang) empty talk. 6. (informal) gasoline.
7. (informal, also gas pedal) the accelerator pedal in a motor vehicle; step on the gas, hurry up. gas v. (gassed, gas-sing)
1. to expose to gas, to poison or overcome by gas. 2. (informal) to talk idly for a long time. □ gas chamber, a room that can be filled with poisonous gas to kill animals or people. gas guzzler, (slang) a car that uses a great deal of gasoline in operation. gas mask, a protective device worn over the face to protect the wearer against poisonous gas. gas meter, an apparatus registering the amount of heating gas consumed. gas station, a place that sells gasoline and performs minor services on cars and other vehicles.
gas tank, a container for storing heating gas.
gas-bag (gas-bag) n. (informal) a person who talks too much.
gas-e-ous (gas-i-us) adj. of or like a gas.
gas-fired (gas-fired) adj. heated by burning gas.
gash (gash) n. a long deep slash or cut or wound. gash v. to make a gash in. gas-i-ty (gas-i-fi) v. (gas-i-plied, gas-ily-ing) to change or become changed into gas.
gas-ket (gas-kit) n. a flat sheet or ring of rubber or other soft material used for sealing a joint between metal surfaces to prevent gas or steam or liquid from entering or escaping. □ blow a gasket, (slang) to become extremely angry.
gas-light (gas-liht) n. light given by a jet of burning gas.
gas-o-hol (gas-oh-hawl) n. a mixture of a small amount of alcohol with a large amount of gasoline, used as vehicular fuel.
gas-o-line (gas-oh-leen) n. a liquid distilled from petroleum, used mainly as a fuel for motor vehicles.
gasp (gasp) v. 1. to struggle for breath with the mouth open. 2. to draw in the breath sharply in astonishment etc. 3.
to speak in a breathless way. gasp n.
a breath drawn in sharply; was at his last gasp, was exhausted or at the point of death.
gas-sy (gas-ee) adj. (-sil-er, -sil-est) 1.
of like a gas. 2. talkative.
gas-tric (gas-trik) adj. of the stomach.
□ gastric juice, thin colorless acid fluid secreted by the stomach glands to aid in digestion.
gas-tri-tis (gas-tri-tis) n. inflammation of the stomach.
inflammation of the stomach and intestines.
gas-tro-en-ter-o-l-o-gy (gas-tro-en-ter-rol-o-gee) n. the branch of medicine dealing with the structure and diseases of the digestive organs. gas-tro-en-ter-ol-o-gist n.
gas-tro-in-tes-ti-nal (gas-tro-in-testi-
nål adj. of the stomach and intestines.
gas·tron·o·my (gastron-ō-mee) n. the art or science of good eating and drinking. gas·tro·nom·ic (gastrō-nom-ik) adj. gas·tro·nom·i·cal adj.
gas·tro·pod (gastrō-pod) n. a mollusk of the class to which snails belong, usually having a coiled shell.
gas·works (gas wurks) n. a place where gas for lighting and heating is manufactured.
gate (gāt) n. 1. a movable barrier serving as a door in a wall or fence, or regulating the passage of water etc. 2. the opening it covers. 3. a means of entrance or exit. 4. the number of spectators entering to see a football game etc., the amount of money taken in.
-gate suffix used to form words with the meaning of government scandal, as in Koreagate etc. ➤ From Watergate. (See the entry for this.) gate·crash (gāt krahsh) v. (informal) to go to a private party etc. without being invited. gate·crasher n.
gate·fold (gāt fold) n. a section in a magazine or book that folds out. gate·house (gāt hōs) n. (pl. -hous·es, pr. -how zīz) a house built at the side of or over a gate.
gate·keep·er (gāt kē pēr) n. a person who guards a gate.
gate·leg (gāt leg) table a table having legs that can be moved back to allow the top to fold down.
gate·post (gāt pōhst) n. a post on which a gate is hung or against which it shuts.
gate·way (gāt way) n. 1. an opening or structure framing a gate. 2. any means of entrance or exit, the gateway to success.
gath·er (gath·ər) v. 1. to bring or come together. 2. to collect, to obtain gradually. 3. to collect as harvest, to pluck. 4. to increase gradually, gather speed. 5. to understand or conclude, I gather your proposal was accepted. 6. to draw parts together; his brow was gathered in thought, was wrinkled. 7. to pull fabric into gatherings; a gathered skirt, made with gathers at the waist.
gath·er·ing (gath·əring) n. 1. an assembly of people. 2. bringing or coming together.
gath·ers (gath·ərs) n. pl. a series of folds or tucks in a garment or cloth.
gau·che (gōsh) adj. lacking in ease and grace of manner, awkward and tactless.
-gau·che·rie (gōsh·rē) n. gauche manners, a gauche action.
gau·cho (gō chō) n. (pl. -chos) a cowboy from the South American pampas.
gaud (gawd) n. a gaudy ornament.
gaud·y (gaw·dee) adj. (gawd·i·er, gaud·i·est) showy or bright in a tasteless way.
gaud·i·ly adv. gaud·i·ness n.
gauge (gāj) n. 1. a standard measure of contents, fineness of texture, thickness of sheet metal, or diameter of bullets. 2. the distance between pairs of rails or between opposite wheels. 3. an instrument used for measuring, marked with regular divisions or units of measurement.
gauge v. (gauged, gaug·ing) 1. to measure exactly. 2. to estimate, to form a judgment of.
guant (gawnt) adj. 1. lean and haggard. 2. grim or desolate looking. guant·ness n.
guant·let1 (gawnt·lit) n. 1. a glove with a wide cuff covering the wrist. 2. the cuff itself. 3. a glove with metal plates worn by soldiers in the Middle Ages. ➤ throw down the gauntlet, to challenge someone to a fight.
guant·let2 n. two rows of men armed with clubs, paddles, etc. to strike a man forced to run between them. ➤ run the gauntlet, to undergo this punishment; to face an ordeal in which gunfire, blows, criticism, etc. come from all sides at once.
gauss (gō ws) n. (pl. gauss) a unit of magnetic induction.
gauze (gawz) n. 1. thin transparent woven material of silk or cotton etc. 2. fine wire mesh. gauz·y adj.
gav·age (gā vāzh) n. forced feeding. gave (gāv) see give.
gav·el (gā·vēl) n. a hammer used by a judge or an auctioneer or a chairman etc. to call for attention or order etc.
ga·votte (gā vot) n. a lively old French dance, the music for it.
gawk (gawk) v. to stare stupidly.
gawk·y (gawk·ē) adj. (gawk·i·er, gawk·i·est) awkward and ungainly.
gawk·i·ness n.
gay (gā) adj. (gā·yer, gā·est) 1. light-hearted and cheerful, happy and full of fun. 2. bright colored, dressed or decorated in bright colors. 3. (informal) homosexual, of homosexuals. gay n. (informal) a homosexual.
gaze (gāz) v. (gazed, gaz·ing) to look long and steadily. gaze n. a long steady look. gaz·er n.
gaz·e·bo (gā·ze bo) n. (pl. -bos) a structure, such as a summerhouse, with a fine wide view.
gaz·zelle (gā·zēl) n. (pl. -zelles, -zelle) a small graceful Asian or African ante-lope.
gaz·ette (gā·zēt) n. a newspaper or official journal.
gaz·et·teer (gā·zet·ér) n. a dictionary or index of place names.
gaz-pa-cho (gahz-pah-choh) n. Spanish cold vegetable soup.
G.B. abbr. Great Britain.
GCA abbr. ground-controlled approach.
dg abbr. 1. good 2. guard.
Gd symbol gadolinium.
G.D.R. abbr. German Democratic Republic.
Ge symbol germanium
g-e-a-n-t-li-line (jee-an-ti-klin) n. a great upward fold of Earth's crust. ge-anti-cl-nal (jee-an-ti-kl-nal) n. gear (geer) n. 1. equipment, hunting gear. 2. (informal) clothes, teenage gear. 3. apparatus, appliances, aircraft's landing gear. 4. a set of toothed wheels working in a machine, especially those in a motor vehicle that transmit the power of the engine to the axle, an idler gear. gear v. 1. to put (machinery) in gear.
2. to provide with or connect by gears. 3. to adjust or adapt; a factory geared to the export trade, organized for this specifically; they geared up for the new season's production, got everything ready for it. □ in gear, with gear mechanism engaged. out of gear, with it disengaged.
gear-box (geer-boks) n. the box or case enclosing the gears of a car, motorcycle, bicycle, etc.
gear-shift (geer-shift) n. a device used to engage or change gears.
gear-wheel (geer-hwei) n. one of the toothed wheels working together in a machine.
geck-o (gek-oh) n. (pl. gek-os, geckoses) a house lizard of warm climates, able to climb walls by the adhesive pads on its toes.
gee (jee) interj. gee whiz a mild exclamation of surprise, enthusiasm, etc.
geese (gees) see goose.
geez-zer (gee-zzer) n. (slang) a person,
an old man.
ge-fil-te (ge-fil-te) fish a Jewish food of balls of boneless fish mixed with eggs, matzo, etc.
Gel-ger (geg-ger) counter a device for detecting and measuring radioactivity. gel-sha (gay-sha, gee-) n. a Japanese host-ress trained to entertain men by dancing and singing and to serve as a companion to men.
gel (jel) n. a jelly-like substance. gel v.
(gelled, gel-ling) to set as a gel.
gel-a-tin, gel-a-tine (jel-a-tin) n. a clear tasteless substance made by boiling the bones, skins, and connective tissue of animals, used in foods, medicine, and photographic film.
ge-lat-i-nous (je-lat-i-nus) adj. of or like gelatine, jelly-like.
geld (geld) v. (gelled, gelt, gelding) to castrate.
geld-ing (gel-ding) n. a gelded animal, especially a horse.
gel-id (jel-id) adj. icy, chilly. gel'id-
ly adv.
gel-ig-nite (jel-ig-nit) n. an explosive containing nitroglycerine.
gem (jem) n. 1. a precious stone, especially when cut and polished. 2. something valued because of its excellence or beauty; the gem of the collection, the most prized item.
gem-i-nate (jem-i-nit) adj. combined in pairs. gem-i-na-tion (jem-i-nayshon) n.
Gem-i-nal (jem-i-nal, -nee) n. a sign of the zodiac, the Twins. Gem-i-ni-an (jem-i-an, -nee) adj. & n.
gem-o-l-o-gy (ge-mol-oh-je) n. the science of gems. gem-o-l'o-gist n.
gem-stone (jem-stoehn) n. a precious stone that can be cut and polished and used as a jewel.
ge-müt-lich (ge-moot-lik) adj. cheerful, genial.
gen. abbr. 1. gender. 2. general. 3. genitive.
4. genus.
gen-darme (zhah-dahrm) n. a soldier, mounted or on foot, employed in police duties, especially in France.
gen-dar-me-rie (zhah-dahr-mee-ree) n.
a force of gendarmes.
gen-der (jen-dër) n. 1. the class in which a noun or pronoun is placed in grammaticgal grouping (in English, these are masculine, feminine, and neuter). 2. (informal) a person's sex.
gen (jem) n. a chemical unit that carries hereditary characteristics from parent to child. gen-i-c (jen-ik) adj.
ge-ne-al-o-gy (nee-oh-lah-jee, -el) n.
(pl. -gels) 1. a record of one's descent from one's ancestors, especially in the form of a table. 2. the science or study of family descent. ge-ne-al'o-gist n.
ge-ne-a-log-i-cal (jee-ni-uh-log-ik) adj.
ge-ne-a-log-i-cal-ly adv.
gen-er-a (jen-er-a) see genus.
gen-er-al (jen-er-al) adj. 1. of or affecting all or nearly all, not partial or local or particular. 2. involving various kinds, not specialized, a general education. 3. involving only main features, not detailed or specific, spoke only in general terms. general n. an officer of the highest rank in the U.S. Marine Corps or of next-to-highest rank in the U.S. Army or Air Force. □ General Assembly, the most important deliberative body of the United Nations; a legislative assembly in some states of the U.S. general deliv-generalissimo / genl.

erly, a postal service whereby mail is delivered to a specific post office and held there for pickup by an addressee. general election, an election of officials at the local, state, or national level held at specified intervals. general knowledge, knowledge of a wide variety of subjects. general meeting, one open to all members. general of the air force, the highest ranking officer in the U.S. Air Force. general of the army, an officer of the highest rank in the U.S. Army. general post office, the chief post office in a town. general practitioner, a doctor who treats cases of all kinds. general staff, officers assisting a military commander at headquarters. general store, a retail store, especially in rural areas, that carries a wide range of goods but is not divided into departments. In general, as a general rule, usually; for the most part.

gen-er-al-i-sa-mo (jen-ë-ră-lis-i-mō) n. a commander of combined military, naval, and air forces in some countries.

gen-er-al-i-ty (jen-ë-răl-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. the quality of being general. 2. a general statement lacking precise details.

gen-er-al-ize (jen-ë-ră-liz) v. (gen-er-al-i-zed, gen-er-al-i-zing) 1. to draw a general conclusion from particular instances. 2. to speak in general terms, to use generalities. 3. to bring into general use.

gen-er-al-iz-a-tion (jen-ë-ră-liz-a-shun) n.

gen-er-al-ly (jen-ë-ră-l-lee) adv. 1. usually, as a general rule. 2. widely, for the most part, the plan was generally welcomed. 3. in a general sense, without regard to details, speaking generally.

gen-er-al-ship (jen-ë-răl-ship) n. 1. the office of a general. 2. strategy and military skill. 3. skillful management, tact, diplomacy.

gen-er-ate (jen-ë-rayt) v. (gen-er-at-ed, gen-er-at-ing) to bring into existence, to produce.

gen-er-a-tion (jen-ë-ray-shun) n. 1. generating, being generated. 2. a single stage in the descent of a family; three generations, children, parents, and grandparents. 3. all persons born about the same time and therefore of the same age, my generation; first-generation Americans. Americans whose parents were of some other nationality. 4. the average period (regarded as about thirty years) in which children grow up and become parents. generation gap, lack of understanding between people of different generations.

gen-er-a-tor (jen-ë-ray-tör) n. 1. a person or thing that generates; she was known as a generator of fresh ideas, an innovator. 2. a machine for converting mechanical energy into electricity. 3. an apparatus for producing gases, steam, etc.

gen-er-ic (jen-ér-ik) adj. of a whole genus or group.

gen-er-i-cal-ly adv. genetic drug, a drug not protected by a registered trademark.

gen-er-ous (jen-ë-rūs) adj. 1. giving or ready to give freely, free from meanness or prejudice. 2. given freely, plentiful, a generous gift; a generous portion.

-ge-net-ic (jen-e-net-ik) adj. 1. of or relating to genetics. 2. of or relating to genes. 3. inherited, a genetic defect. genetic code, the system of storage of genetic information in chromosomes.

-ge-net-ics (jen-e-net-iks) n. the scientific study of heredity.

-ge-nil (jen-e-nil) adj. 1. kindly, pleasant, and cheerful. 2. mild, pleasantly warm, a genial climate. genetic-ly adv. genetic-ity (jen-e-nil-i-tee) n.

-genic suffix used to form adjectives meaning producing, as in carcinogenic; well suited to, as in photogenic.

gen-ie (jen-e) n. (in Arabian tales) a spirit or goblin with strange powers.

-genit. abbr. genitive.

-gen-i-tal (jen-i-tal) adj. of animal reproduction or reproductive organs.

-gen-i-ta-ly adv.

-gen-i-ta-lia (jen-i-tayl-yā) n. pl. the genitals.

-gen-i-tals (jen-i-talz) n. pl. the external sex organs of people and animals.

-gen-i-tive (jen-i-tiv) adj. of the grammatical case showing source or possession in certain languages, corresponding to the possessive case or to the use of a phrase beginning with of or from in English. genitive n. the possessive case, a word in this case.

-gen-i-to-ur-i-nar-y (jen-i-toh-yoor-i-nar-ee) adj. of the genital and urinary organs and functions.

-gen-ius (jen-i-us) n. (pl. -ius-es) 1. exceptionally great mental ability, any great natural ability. 2. a person possessing this. 3. a guardian spirit, one's good or evil genius.

genl. abbr. general.
genocide / geomagnetic

gen•o•cide (jen•o•-sid) n. deliberate extermination of a race of people.

gen•o•type (jen•o•-tip) n. 1. the genetic constitution of an individual or organism. 2. a group or class having a particular genetic constitution in common.

gen•o•typ•ic (jen•o•-tip-ik) adj. -genicous suffix used to form adjectives meaning produced, as in indigenous.

gen•re (zhahn•rē) n. a particular kind or style of art or literature.

gens (jenz) n. (pl. gen•tes, pr. jen•teez) 1. (in Greek and Roman antiquity) a group of families with supposed common origin, sharing a name and religious rites, a clan. 2. (in biology) a group of related organisms. 3. line of descent through the father.

gent (jent) n. (slang) a man, a gentleman.

gen•teel (jen•teel) adj. affectedly polite and refined. gen•teel•ly adv.

gen•tian (jen-shān) n. a plant usually with deep blue bell-like flowers.

gen•tile (jen•ti•l) n. (often Gentile) 1. anyone who is not Jewish. 2. (among Mormons) one who is not a Mormon. gen•tile, Gentile adj. of such persons.

gen•til•i•ty (jen•ti•l-i•tee) n. good manners and elegance.

gen•tie (jen•tēl) adj. (-tier, -tiest) 1. mild, moderate, not rough or severe, a gentle breeze. 2. of good family, is of gen•tle birth. gentle v. (gen•tied, gen•tling) 1. to make gentle or calm, to tame. 2. to coax. gen'tly adv. gen'tle•ness n.

gen•tie•folk (jen•tē-l-folk) n. people of good family.

gen•tie•man (jen•tē-l-mān) n. (pl. men, pr. -mēn) 1. a man of honorable and kindly behavior. 2. a man of good social position. 3. (in polite use) a man. gen•tie•man•ly adv. □ gentleman's agreement, one that is regarded as binding in honor but not enforceable by law.

gen•tie•woman (jen•tē-l•wu•um•ān) n. (pl. -women, pr. -wim•im) (old use) a lady.

gen•tri•fica•tion (jen•tri•fi•kay-shōn) n. a movement of middle-class families into an urban area causing property values to increase and having the secondary effect of driving out poorer families.

gen•try (jen•tree) n. 1. people of prominent family, aristocracy. 2. (British) people next below the nobility in position and birth.

gen•u•flect (jen•yu•flekt) v. to bend the knee and lower the body, especially in worship. gen•u•flec•tion (jen•yu•flek•shōn) n.

gen•u•ine (jen•yoo•in) adj. really what it is said to be, genuine pearls; with genuine pleasure. gen•u•ine•ly adv. gen•u•ine•ness n.

gene•nus (jee•n•ūs) n. (pl. gen•era, pr. jen•ē•-rā) 1. a group of animals or plants with common characteristics, usually containing several species. 2. (informal) a kind or sort.

ge•o•cen•tric (jee•oh•sen•trik) adj. considered as or representing Earth as a center. ge•o•cen•tri•cal•ly adv.

ge•o•chem•ist (jee•oh•kem•ist) n. an expert in geochemistry.

ge•o•chem•is•try (hee•oh•kem•ist•ree) n. the chemistry of the earth. ge•o•chem•is•tral•ly adv.

ge•o•chrono•logy (hee•oh•kron•ol•ō•jē) n. the measurement of geological time, the ordering of geological events. ge•o•chrono•log•ic adj. (hee•oh•kron•ō•lo•jik) ge•o•chrono•log•i•cal adj.

ge•o•de•ode (hee•oh•oh•d) n. a rock containing a cavity lined with crystals or other mineral matter.

ge•o•des•ic (hee•oh•des•ik) n. (also geodes•ic line) the shortest line between points on a curved surface. □ geodes•ic dome, a light domelike structure consisting of flat polygonal pieces, fitted together to form a rough hemisphere.

ge•o•desk•ey (hee•oh•des•ee) n. the branch of mathematics dealing with the shape and area of Earth or large portions of it. ge•o•desk•ey•st n.

ge•o•det•ic (hee•oh•det•ik) adj. 1. of or relating to geodesy. 2. geodesic.

geo•graph•er (hee•oh•grā•fer) n. an expert in geography.

geo•graph•y (hee•oh•grā•fē) n. 1. the scientific study of Earth's surface and its physical features, climate, products, and population. 2. the physical features and arrangement of a place. ge•o•graph•ic adj. ge•o•graph•i•cal adj. ge•o•graph•i•cal•ly adv.

geol•ogy n. 1. the scientific study of Earth's crust and its strata. 2. the features and strata of Earth's crust. ge•o•log•ic adj. (hee•oh•lo•jik) ge•o•log•i•cal adj. ge•o•log•i•cal•ly adv.

geom•etry n. 1. geometric. 2. geometrical. 3. geometry.
ge·om·e·try (jee-om′-e-tree) n. the branch of mathematics dealing with the properties and relations of lines, angles, surfaces, and solids. ge·o·met·ric (jee-om′-et-rik), ge·o·met·ri·cal (jee-om′-et-ri-kāl) adj. ge·o·met′ri·cal·ly adv. □ geometric progression, progression with a constant ratio between successive quantities, as 1:3:9:27:81.

ges·to·na·tion′ (jee·sto·na·shon′) n. the study of the physical features of Earth's surface and their relation to its geological structures.

ge·o·phys·ic (jee·oh·fiz·ik) n. an expert in geophysics.

ge·o·phys·ics′ (jee·oh·fiz′iks) n. the branch of physics dealing with the physical properties of Earth, including meteorology, seismology, etc. ge·o·phys·i·cal adj.

ges·to·na·tion′ (jee·ston·a·shon′) n. the study of the politics of a country as determined by its geographical features. ge·o·po·l·i·tics (jee·oh·pol·i·tiks) n. an expert in geopolitics.

ges·to·na·tion′ (jee·ston·a·shon′) n. the study of the politics of a country as determined by its geographical features. ge·o·po·l·i·tics (jee·oh·pol·i·tiks) n. the branch of politics dealing with the political properties of Earth, including geopolitics, seismology, etc. ge·o·po·l·i·tically adv.

Ge·o·r·get·te′ (jor·jēt) n. a thin silk or other crêpe dress material.

Ge·oir·ga′ (jor·jē) 1. a state of the U.S. 2. a republic in the U.S.S.R., bordering on the Black Sea. Ge·or·gian adj. & n.

Ge·o·sta·tion′ar·y′ (jee·oh·stā′schon·ar·ē) adj. (of an artificial satellite of Earth) moving so as to remain always above the same point on Earth's surface.

ges·to·na·tion′ (jee·ston·a·shon′) n. of or relating to Earth's internal heat. ge·o·ther·mic adj.

ges·tar. gerund.

Ge·er·abr. 1. German. 2. Germany.

Ge·ra·ni·um (jē·ray·ni·ūm) n. a garden plant with red, pink, or white flowers.

Ge·b·il′ (jor·bil) n. a desert rodent with long hind legs for leaping.

ges·to·na·tion′ (jee·ston·a·shon′) adj.

ges·to·na·tion′ (jee·ston·a·shon′) v. to arrange the boundaries of constituencies so as to give unfair advantages to one party or class in an election. △ Named after Governor Gerry of Massachusetts, who rearranged boundaries for this purpose in 1812.

Ge·und′ (jor·ünd) n. a verbal noun ending in -ing, as scolding in what is the use of my scolding him?

Ge·sta·po′ (gē·stah-pō′) n. the German secret police of the Nazi regime.

Ge·sa·tion′ (je·stā·shon′) n. 1. the process of carrying or being carried in the womb. 2. the time of this, from conception until birth.

ges·tic·u·late′ (je·stik′u·lat′) v. (ges·tic·u·lat·ed, ges·tic·u·lat·ing) to make expressive movements of the hands and arms. ges·tic·u·la·tion′ (je·stik′u·la·shon′) n.

ges·ture′ (jes·chūr′) n. 1. an expressive movement of any part of the body. 2. something done to convey one's intentions or attitude, a gesture of friendship. ges·ture′ (jes·tured, ges·tur·ing) interj. an expression wishing good health to a person who sneezes. △ German.
relating to the U.S. armed forces or their enlisted personnel. □Gl bill, a program of educational stipends for former members of the U.S. armed forces.

G.I. abbr. 1. gastrointestinal. 2. general issue. 3. government issue.

gl·ant (ji-ant) n. 1. (in fairy tales) a man of very great height and size. 2. a man, animal, or plant that is much larger than the usual size. (See panda.) 3. a person of outstanding ability or influence. giant adj. of a kind that is very large in size.

gl·ant·es (ji-án-tis) n. a female giant.

gib·ber·ish (gib-é-rish) n. unintelligible talk or sounds, nonsense.

gib·ber·lsh (jib·ér-lsh) n. unintelligible talk or sounds, nonsense.

gib·bet (jib-it) n. (gib·bet·ed, gib·bet·ed·ging) a gallows, especially an upright post with an arm from which a criminal is hanged. gibbet v. 1. to hang. 2. to expose to scorn and ridicule.

gib·bon (gib·on) n. a long-armed ape of southeast Asia.

gibe (gib) v. (gibed, gil·ged·ging) to jeer. gibe n. a jeering remark. □ Do not confuse gibe with jibe or with jive.

gib·lets (jib-lits) n. pl. the edible parts of the inside of a bird, taken out before it is cooked.

Gib·son (gib·son) n. a dry martini with a small onion.

glid·dy (gld·dy) adj. (gld·di·er, gld·di·est) 1. having the feeling that everything is spinning around. 2. causing this feeling, giddy heights. 3. frivolous, flighty. gild·edly adv. gild·dess n.

glif (gift) n. 1. a thing given or received without payment. 2. a natural ability, has a gift for languages. 3. an easy task. □gift certificate, a voucher (given as a gift) for money to buy something in a particular store. gift of tongues, glossolalia. look a gift horse in the mouth, to accept something ungratefully, examining it for faults.

glif·ed (gift-ted) adj. having great natural ability.

glif·wrap (gift-rap) v. (gift-wrapped, gift·wrap·ping) to wrap attractively as a gift.

glg (gig) n. a light two-wheeled horse-drawn carriage.

glg n. (informal) an engagement to play jazz etc., especially for a single performance.

glg n. a spear used for catching fish.

glg n. (slang) a military demerit or reprimand.

glg·an·tic (ji-gan·tik) adj. very large. glg·tan·tic·al·ly adv.

glg·gle (gig·gül) v. (glg·ged, glg·gling) to laugh in a silly or nervous way. giggle n. this kind of laugh. gig·gle·ly adj.

glg·o·lo (zhig·glo-lo) n. (pl. -los) a man who is paid by a woman to be her escort or lover.

Gl·la (hee·lå) monster a large poisonous lizard of the southwestern United States.

glld (gld) v. (gld·ed or glit, gld·ing) to cover with a thin layer of gold or gold paint. □ gld the lly, to spoil something already beautiful by trying to improve it.

glld = guld.

gil (jil) n. a quarter of a pint, four fluid ounces.

gil (gil) n. 1. the organ with which a fish breathes in water. 2. the vertical plates on the under side of a mushroom cap. □ green around or about the gills, looking sickly.

gilt (gilt) adj. gilded, gold colored. gilt n. a substance used for gilding.

gilt n. a young sow.

gilt·ed·ged (gilt·eid·ged) adj. (of investments) considered to be very safe.

gim·bals (gim·bals, jim-) n. pl. a contrivance of rings and pivots for keeping instruments horizontal in a moving ship etc.

gim·crack (jim·krak) adj. showy, worthless, and flimsy, gimmerack ornaments.

gim·let (gim·lit) n. 1. a small tool with a screwlike tip for boring holes. 2. a cocktail of gin and lime juice.

gim·mick (gim·ik) n. 1. (slang) a gadget. 2. (informal) a trick, device, or mannerism used for attracting notice or publicity, or for making an entertainer etc. easily recognized and remembered.

gim·mick·y adj.

gim·mick·ry (gim·ik·ry) n. the use of tricky devices.

gimp (gimp) n. (slang) 1. a limp. 2. a cripple. gim·p’y adj.

gin (jin) n. 1. a trap or snare for catching animals. 2. a cotton gin (see cotton).

gin v. (ginned, gin·ning) to treat (cotton) in a gin.

gin n. a colorless alcoholic liquor flavored with juniper berries. □ gin mill, (slang) a bar. gin rummy, a form of rummy for two players. gin sling, a sweetened drink of gin and fruit juice etc.

gin·ger (jin·jer) n. 1. the hot-tasting root of a tropical plant. 2. this plant. 3. liveliness. 4. a light reddish yellow. ginger v. to make more lively, ginger things up. ginger adj. ginger colored. □ ginger ale, ginger beer, ginger-flavored fizzy drinks.

gin·g·bread (jin·jer·bred) n. 1. a ginger-flavored cake. 2. elaborate ornamentation, especially on buildings.
gingerly / glacé gin·ger·ly (jin-jér-lee) adj. cautious. gin·ger·ly adv. cautiously.

gin·ger·nap (jin-jér-snap) n. a brittle cookie flavored with ginger and molasses.

ging·ham (ging-ām) n. a cotton fabric often with a striped or checked pattern.

gin·gi·va (jin-ji-vi-ta) n. inflammation of the gums.

gink·go (ging-koh) n. (pl. -goes) a tree with fan-shaped leaves and yellow flowers, originally from China and Japan.

gin·sen·go (jin-sen-gō) n. the root of a medicinal plant found in East Asia and North America.

gip·sy = gypsy.

gl·affe (ji-raff) n. a long-necked African animal.

gird (gurd) v. (gird·ed or glrt, gird·ing) to encircle or attach with a belt or band, he girded on his sword. 1. gird up one's loins, to prepare for an effort.

gird·er (gur-dér) n. a metal beam supporting part of a building or a bridge.

girl·die (gur-dē) n. 1. a belt or cord worn around the waist. 2. an elastic corset. 3. a connected ring of bones in the body, the pelvic girdle. girdle v. (gird·ed, gird·ling) to surround.

girl (gurl) n. 1. a female child. 2. a young woman. 3. (informal) a woman of any age, a woman assistant or employee. (> Considered offensive by many people in this definition.) 4. a man's girlfriend.

girl·hood n. girl Friday, a female assistant doing general duties in an office. (See man.) Girl Scout, a member of an organization of girls for developing character through participation in activities, especially those related to outdoor life.

girl·friend (gurl-frend) n. a female friend, especially a usual companion.

girl·ie (gurl-lee) n. (slang) a girl. 1. girlie magazines, magazines containing erotic pictures of young women.

girl·ish (gur·ish) adj. like a girl. girl·ish·ly adv. girl·ish·ness n.

girt (gurt) see gird.

girth (gurth) n. 1. the distance around a thing. 2. a band passing under a horse's belly, holding the saddle in place.

gis·mo = glizmo.

gist (jist) n. the essential points or general sense of anything.

give (giv) v. (gave, giv·en, giv·ing) 1. to cause another person to receive or have (especially something in one's possession or at one's disposal), to supply; give me Florida for holidays, I prefer it. 2. to deliver (a message). 3. to utter, gave a laugh. 4. to pledge, give one's word. 5. to make over in exchange or payment; I don't give a damn, don't care at all. 6. to make or perform (an action or effort), to affect (another person or thing) with this, gave him a scolding; gave the door a kick; I was given to understand, was told. 7. to provide (a meal or party) as host. 8. to perform or present (a play etc.) in public. 9. to yield as a product or result. 10. to be the source of. 11. to permit a view of or access to, the window gives on the street. 12. to be flexible, to yield when pressed or pulled; woolen fabric gives, it stretches slightly. 13. (informal) to be happening, what gives? give n. springiness, elasticity. □ give away, to give as a present; to hand over (the bride) to the groom at a wedding; to reveal (a secret etc.) unintentionally.

give back, to return (a thing). give in, to hand in (a document etc.); to acknowledge that one is defeated. give it to a person, (informal) to reprimand or punish him. give off, to produce and emit; gasoline gives off fumes. give or take, (informal) add or subtract (an amount) in estimating. give out, to distribute; to announce; to emit, chimney was giving out smoke; to become exhausted or used up. give over, to devote, afternoons are given over to sports; to entrust, gave over management of the business to his partner. give up, to cease doing something; to part with; to surrender; to abandon hope; to declare (a person) to be incurable or (a problem) to be too difficult for oneself to solve; he was given up for dead, was assumed to be dead. give way, to yield, to allow other traffic to go first; to collapse.

give·a·ble (giv·ā-bel) adj. able to be given.

give-and-take (giv·ān-tāk) n. (informal) an exchange of talk and ideas, willingness on both sides to make concessions.

give·a·way (giv·ā-way) n. 1. a betrayal or unintentional disclosure. 2. something given away free, often to promote sales. 3. a radio or television show during which prices are given.

giv·en (giv·en) v. see give. given adj. 1. specified or stated, all the people in a given area. 2. having a certain tendency, he is given to swearing. □ given name, a first name (given in addition to a family name).

giv·er (giv·er) n. a person who gives.

giz·mo (giz·mō) n. (slang) a gadget or device.

giz·zard (giz·zárd) n. a bird's second stomach, in which food is ground.

Gk. abbr. Greek.

gla·brous (gla-brūs) adj. free from hair or down, smooth-skinned.

gla·cè (gla-say) adj. iced with sugar, preserved in sugar, glacé fruits.
glacial (glay-shal) adj. 1. icy. 2. of or from glaciers or other ice, glacial deposits. glacial-ly adv.

glaci-ate (glay-shi-ayt) v. (glac-i-at-ed, glaci-at-ing) to cover or become covered with glaciers or ice sheets. glac-i-a- tion (glay-shi-ay-shon) n.

gla-cier (glay-shèr) n. a river of ice moving very slowly.

glac-i-o-lus (glacioulus) n. the scientific study of the geological action of ice.

gladd

glad1 (glad) adj. (glad-der, gladdest) 1. pleased, expressing joy. 2. giving joy, the glad news. glad-ly adv. glad-ness n. □ be glad of, to be grateful for. glad eye, (slang) an inviting look toward a member of the opposite sex. glad hand, (informal) a hearty welcome, especially when insincere. glad rags, (informal) dressy clothes.

glad2 n. (informal) a gladiolus.

glad-den (glad-en) v. to make glad.

glade (glayd) n. an open space in a forest.

glad-hand-er (glad-han-dér) n. (informal) a person who greets others in a hearty way, especially when insincere.

glad-i-a-tor (glad-i-ay-tör) n. 1. a man trained to fight at public shows in ancient Rome. 2. a person engaged in battle or controversy. glad-i-a-to-ri-al (glad-i-ä-tohri-äl) adj.

glad-i-o-lus (glad-i-oh-lüs) n. (pl. -ll, pr.-ll) a garden plant with spikes of brightly colored flowers.

glad-some (glad-söm) adj. happy, cheerful.

glam-or-ize (glam-ör-ize) v. (glam-or-lized, glam-or-liz-ing) to make glamorous or romantic.

glam-our, glam-or (glam-ör) n. 1. magic, enchantment. 2. alluring beauty. 3. attractive and exciting qualities that arouse envy. glam-or-ous adj.

glance (glans) v. (glanced, glanc-ing) 1. to look briefly. 2. to strike at an angle and glide off (an object), a glancing blow; the ball glanced off his bat. glance n., a brief look. □ at a glance, immediately upon looking, I could tell at a glance he was drunk.

gland

gland (gland) n. an organ that secretes substances that are to be used by the body or expelled from it.

glan-ders (glan-ders) n. 1. a contagious disease of horses with swellings below the jaw and a mucous discharge from the nostrils. 2. this disease communicated to man or to other animals.

glan-du-lar (glan-du-lär) adj. of or like a gland. □ glandular fever, a feverish illness in which certain glands are swollen.

glans

glans (glanz) n. (pl. glan-des, pr. gland-eez) the conical part forming the end of the penis or clitoris.

glare (glair) v. (glared, glar-ing) 1. to shine with an unpleasant dazzling light. 2. to stare angrily or fiercely. glare n. 1. a strong unpleasant light; the glare of publicity, intense publicity. 2. an angry or fierce stare.

glar-ing (glair-ing) adj. 1. bright and dazzling. 2. very obvious, a glaring error. glare-ing-ly adv.

glass (glas) n. 1. a hard brittle substance (as used in windows), usually transparent. 2. an object made of this, such as a mirror. 3. a glass container for drinking from, its contents. 4. a lens or combination of lenses designed to improve vision, magnify, etc. 5. glasses, (informal) eyeglasses. 6. objects made of glass, glassware. 7. a barometer. glass v. to fit or enclose with glass. □ glass eye, an artificial eye made of glass etc. glass wool, a mass of glass fibers resembling wool and used for insulation and in air filters.

glass blow-ing (glas-blow-ing) n. the process of shaping semimolten glass by blowing air into it through a tube. glass’blow-er n.

glass-ware (glas-war) n. objects made of glass.

glass-ye (glas-ee) adj. (glass-ier, glass-iest) 1. like glass in appearance. 2. with a dull expressionless stare, glassy-eyed.

glass’ly adv. glass’ly-ness n.

glau-co-ma (glow-koh-mä) n. a condition caused by increased pressure of the fluid within the eyeball, causing weakening or loss of sight.

glaze (glayz) v. (glazed, glaz-ing) 1. to fit or cover with glass. 2. to coat with a glossy surface. 3. to become glassy.

glaze n. 1. a shiny surface or coating, especially on pottery. 2. the substance forming this.

glazier

glazier (glay-zher) n. a person whose trade is to fit glass in windows etc.

gleam (gleem) n. 1. a beam or ray of soft light, especially one that comes and goes. 2. a brief show of some quality, a gleam of hope. gleam v. to send out gleams.

glean (gleen) v. 1. to pick up grain left by harvesters. 2. to gather scraps of information. glean’er n. glean’ings n. pl.

glee (glee) n. 1. lively or triumphant joy. 2. a part song, especially for male voices.

glee club, a type of choral group. glee’ful adj. full of glee. glee’ful-ly adv.

glen (glen) n. a narrow valley.
glide / glow

a glib tongue; a glib excuse. glib'ly adv.
glib'ness n.
glide (glid) v. (glid-ed, glid-ing) 1. to move along smoothly. 2. to fly in a glider or in an aircraft without engine power. glide n. a gliding movement. glide path, an aircraft’s line of descent to land.
glider (gl)-dér (gl-x-dér) n. an aircraft without an engine.
gliding (gl-id-ing) n. the sport of flying in gliders.
glim-mer (glim-ér) n. a faint gleam. glimmer v. to gleam faintly.
glimpse (glimps) n. a brief view. glimpse v. (glimpsed, glimpses-ing) to catch a glimpse of.
glint (glim) n. a very brief flash of light. glint v. to send out a glint.
glissando n. (pl. -dl, pr. -dee, -dos) a glissando passage.
glisten (glisten) v. to shine like something wet or polished.
glistern (glist-en) v. a glistening shine.
glistens (glist-ens) n. glistens (glist-ens) v. (old use) to sparkle or glitter, all that glisters is not gold.
glitch (glick) n. (slang) a sudden irregularity or malfunction of equipment or of a plan or scheme.
glitter (glit-ér) v. to sparkle. glitter n. a sparkle.
gloom-in-g (glow-ing) n. the evening twilight.
gloat (gloht) v. to be full of greedy or malicious delight.
glob (glob) n. 1. a large rounded lump of something. 2. a small drop, a globule.
glob-al (glob-bäl) adj. of the whole world, worldwide. glob-al-ly adv.
globe (globb) n. 1. an object shaped like a ball, especially one with a map of Earth on it. 2. the world.
globe-trot-ter (globb-trot-ér) n. a person who tours the world, spending little time in each country visited. globe-trot-ting adj. & n.
glob-u-lär (glob-yü-lär) adj. shaped like a globe.
glob-u-le (glob-yool) n. a small rounded drop.
glob-u-lin (glob-yü-lin) n. a kind of protein found in animal and plant tissue.
glock-en-spiel (glock-én-shpeel) n. a musical instrument consisting of tuned steel bars fixed in a frame and struck by two hammers.
gloom (gloom) n. 1. semi-darkness. 2. a feeling of sadness and depression. gloom v. to look sullen, to be sad and depressed.
gloom-y (gloom-me) adj. (gloom-i-er, gloom-i-est) 1. almost dark, unlighted. 2. depressed, sullen. 3. dismal, depressing. gloom'-ly adv. gloom'-less n. glop (glop) n. (slang) a liquid or thick sticky substance, especially unattractive food.
glo-ri-fy (glohr-ri-fi) v. (glo-ri-fied, glo-ri-fy-ing) 1. to praise highly. 2. to worship. 3. to make something seem more splendid than it is; their patio is only a glorified backyard. glo-ri-fi-ca-tion (glohr-i-fi-kay-shon) n.
glo-ri-ous (glohr-i-us) adj. 1. possessing or bringing glory. 2. splendid, a glorious view; a glorious muddle, very great. glo-ri-o-ly adv.
glo-ry (glohr-ee) n. (pl. -ries) 1. fame and honor won by great deeds. 2. adoration and praise in worship, glory to God. 3. beauty, magnificence, the glory of a sunset. 4. a thing deserving praise and honor.
glory v. (glo-ried, glo-ry-ing) to rejoice or pride oneself, glorying in their success.
gloss1 (gloss) n. the shine on a smooth surface. gloss v. to make glossy. gloss over, to cover up (a mistake or fault). gloss2 n. (in literary texts) an explanatory comment, an interpretation. gloss v. 1. to write glosses. 2. to read a different sense into.
gloss-a-ry (gloss-ä-ree) n. (pl. -ries) a list of technical or special words with their definitions.
gloss-o-la-li-a (gloss-ö-lay-li-ä) n. the power of speaking in unknown languages as claimed by religious groups in ecstatic worship or as miraculously conferred on early Christians, also called gift of tongues.
gloss-y (glossy) adj. (gloss-i-er, gloss-i-est) shiny; glossy photograph, one printed on glossy paper. gloss-i-ly adv. gloss-i-ness n. glot-tis (glot-is) n. (pl. glots-tis-es, glotsti-des, pr. glot-i-deez) the opening at the upper end of the windpipe and between the vocal chords, affecting the modulation of the voice by contracting or dilating. glott-al adj. glott-al stop, the sound produced by the sudden opening or shutting of the glottis.
glove (gluv) n. a covering for the hand, usually with separate divisions for each finger and the thumb. gloved (gluvd) adj. fit like a glove, to fit exactly.
with the gloves off, arguing in earnest, striving mercilessly.
glover (gluv-er) n. a person whose trade is the making of gloves.
glow (glob) v. 1. to send out light and heat without flame. 2. to have a warm or flushed look, color, or feeling; a glowing account, very enthusiastic or favorable. glow v. a glowering state, look, or feeling.
glow·er (glow·er) v. to scowl, to stare angrily.
glow·worm (glo·worm) n. a kind of beetle that can give out a greenish light.
glox·i·n·i·a (glok·sin·i·á) n. a tropical plant with bell-shaped flowers.
glu·co·se (gloo·kos) n. 1. a form of sugar found in fruit juice. 2. a thick syrup made from cornstarch and used commercially in candy making, treating tobacco, etc.
glu·te·ous (gloo·tě·ús) adj. glut·tous.
glut (glut) n. a sticky substance used for joining things. glue v. (glued, glu·ing) 1. to fasten with glue. 2. to attach or hold closely, his ear was glued to the keyhole.
glu·ey (gloo·é) adj. glut·ey.
glu·rid·ge (gloo·rid·j) n. a raised ridge.
glo·kín·o·la (glo·kin·o·l) n. a tropical flower.
glo·lan·ti·um (glo·lan·ti·úm) n. a certain antelope.
glu·lous (glo·lús) adj. glut·lous.
glu·nate (glo·nát) v. to make glutinous.
glu·nate·tro·phic (glo·nát·tró·fik) adj. glut·nate·tro·phic.
glu·nate·tro·phic·al·ly (glo·nát·tró·fik·ál·lé) adv. glut·nate·tro·phic·al·ly.
glu·na·sis (glo·na·sis) n. a kind of dwarf in fairy tales, living underground and guarding the treasures of the earth.
Gnaw (naw) v. to bite persistently at something hard; a gnawing pain, hurting continuously.
gnaw·er (naw·ér) n. a small biting fly.
gnaw·ing (naw·ing) adj. gnaw·ing.
gne·ss (nis) n. a coarse-grained rock of quartz, feldspar, and mica.
gnome (nohm) n. a kind of dwarf in fairy tales, living underground and guarding the treasures of the earth.
GNP abbr. gross national product.
gnu (noo) n. (pl. gnus, gnu) an oxlike antelope with curved horns.
go (goh) v. (went, gone, go·ing) 1. to begin to move, to be moving, to pass from one point to another; we must go at one o’clock, must leave; go shopping, go out for this purpose. 2. to extend or lead from one place to another, the highway goes to New York City. 3. to be in a specified state, they went hungry. 4. to be functioning, that clock doesn’t go. 5. to make a specified movement or sound, the gun went bang. 6. (of time) to pass, (of a distance) to be traversed or accomplished, ten miles to go. 7. to be allowable or acceptable, anything goes; what he says, goes, has final authority; that goes without saying, is too obvious to need to be mentioned. 8. to belong in some place or position, plates go on the shelf. 9. to be on the average, it is cheap as things go these days. 10. (of a story or tune etc.) to have a certain wording or content, I forget how the chorus goes. 11. to pass into a certain condition, the fruit went bad. 12. to make progress, to fare, all went well; make the party go, to make it lively and successful. 13. to be sold, it’s going cheap. 14. (of money or supplies) to be spent or used up. 15. to be given up, dismissed, abolished, or lost, some luxuries must go; my sight is going, is becoming weaker. 16. to fail, to give way, to die. 17. to carry an action to a certain point; that’s going too far, beyond the limits of what is reasonable or polite; will go to fifty dollars for it, will pay as much as that. 18. to be able to be put, your clothes won’t go into that suitcase; 3 goes into 12 four times. 19. to be given or allotted, his estate went to his nephew. 20. to contribute, to serve, it all goes to prove what I said. go n. (informal) 1. energy, full of go. 2. a success; make a go of it, make it succeed. 3. (pl. goes, pr. gozh) a turn or try, have a go; had three goes. go adj. (informal) functioning properly; all systems are go, everything is ready.
go about it, to do a task, he went about it in the wrong way. go ahead, to proceed immediately. go a long way, to go far; to last long or buy much; to have a great effect toward achieving something. go along with, to agree with. go around, to be enough for everyone; to behave; he goes around grumbling. he grumbles to everyone he meets.

go back on, to fail to keep a promise or agreement. go by, to be guided or directed by. go by the boards, to be rejected.

go down, (of a ship) to sink; (of the sun) to appear to descend toward the horizon, to set; to be written down; to be swallowed; to be received or accepted, the suggestion went down very well. go far, to achieve much; to contribute greatly toward something; to be worth much, his income doesn’t go very far these days. go for, (informal) to like, to prefer to choose; (slang) to attack. go in for, to engage in (an activity). go into, to investigate (a problem) or explain (a circumstance), he told me about himself but didn’t go into his illness; to enter (a profession or trade). go it alone, to take action by oneself without assistance. go off, to explode; to cease functioning, every night at ten the lights go off; to fall asleep; to proceed, the party went off well. go on, to begin functioning, at dusk the lights go on automatically; to continue; to talk lengthily. go on! (informal) do not expect me to believe that. go out, to go to social functions; to be broadcast, the program goes out live; to be extinguished; to cease to be fashionable; to walk out on strike; to lose consciousness; (my heart went out to him, I sympathized with him. go out with, to have as a social companion of the opposite sex. go places, (informal) to become successful; *go places (and do things) to go out to have a good time.

go to a person’s head, (of alcohol) to make him slightly drunk; (of success etc.) to make him conceited. go to bat for, (informal) to support, defend, or substitute for. go under, (of a business venture) to fail; (informal) to lose consciousness, especially from general anesthesia. go up, to rise in price; to explode; to burn rapidly. go with, to match, to harmonize with: go without, to put up with the lack of something.

no go, (informal) useless, impossible. on the go, in constant motion, active. to go, (informal) to be taken away; coffee to go, to be drunk elsewhere.

go 2. n. a Japanese board game.

goad (gothd) 1. a pointed stick for prodding cattle to move onward. 2. something stimulating a person to activity. goad v. to act as a stimulus to, goaded her into answering back.

go-a-head (goh-á-hed) n. a signal to proceed.

goal (gohl) 1. a structure or area into which players try to send a ball in certain games. 2. a point scored in this way. 3. an objective. goal line, (in football) the line across which a team must carry the ball for a score. goal line stand, (in football) defense of the goal at the goal line. goal post, (in football) one of a pair of vertical posts supporting a horizontal crossbar over which a football must be kicked for scoring a field goal or a point after touchdown.

goalie (goh-lee) (informal) a goalie.

goal-keeper (gohl-kee-për) n. a player whose chief task is to keep the ball or puck out of the goal. goal-keeping n.

goat (goht) 1. a small horned animal kept for its milk. 2. a related wild animal, mountain goat. 3. the Goat, a sign of the zodiac, Capricorn. get someone’s goat, (slang) to annoy him.

goatee (goh-tée) n. a short pointed beard.

goat-herd (gohht-hurd) n. a person who looks after a herd of goats.

goat-skin (gohht-skin) (slang) 1. the skin of a goat. 2. a garment or bottle made of this.

gob (gob) 1. n. a clot of a soft moist substance. 2. gobs (informal) much, gobs of whipped cream; gobs of money.

gob 2. n. (slang) a sailor.

goble (gob-čl) 1. (gob-pled, gobl-ling) to eat quickly and greedily. 2. to make a throaty sound like a turkey. gobble n. a turkey-like sound.

goble-dy-gook, 1. (gob-čl-di-guuk) n. (slang) pompous and evasive language used by officials.

goble-bler (gob-lér) n. a male turkey.

go-bi-tween (goh-bi-tween) n. a person who acts as a messenger or negotiator.

gob-lit (gob-lit) n. a drinking glass with a stem and a foot.

gob-lin (gob-lin) n. a mischievous ugly elf.

go-cart (goh-kahrth) 1. a four-wheeled carriage for a small child to ride in, a stroller. 2. a cart.

god (god) 1. God, the creator and ruler of the universe in Christian, Jewish, and Muslim teaching. 2. a superhuman being regarded and worshipped as having power over nature and human affairs, Mars was the Roman god of war. 3. an image of a god, an idol. 4. a person or thing that is greatly admired or adored, money is his god. God forbid, I wish that this may not happen. God knows, this is something we cannot hope to know; I call God to witness. God willing, if circumstances allow it. good God, my God! oh God!, ye gods!, exclamations of surprise or pain.
god-child (god-child) n. (pl. -children, pr. -child-drēn) a child in relation to its godparent(s).
god-daughter (god-daw-tër) n. a female godchild.
god-dess (god-is) n. a female god.
god-father (god-fah-thër) n. 1. a male godparent. 2. a powerful Mafia leader.

God-fearing (god-feer-ing) adj. sincerely religious.

God-for-saken (god-für-say-ken) adj. wretched, dismal.

God-head (god-hed) n. 1. being God, the divine nature. 2. God.

God-hood (god-huud) n. the state of being a god, divinity.

God-less (god-lis) adj. not having belief in God, wicked. godless-ly adv. godlessness n.

God-like (god-līk) adj. like God or a god.

God-ly (god-lee) adj. (god-lyer, god-liest) sincerely religious. godliness n.

God-mother (god-muth-ér) n. a female godparent.

god-par-ent (god-pair-ent) n. 1. a person who undertakes, when a child is baptized, to see that it is brought up in the faith. 2. a person who undertakes to act as sponsor or guardian of a child.

God-send (god-send) n. a piece of unexpected good fortune.

God-son (god-sun) n. a male godchild.

God-speed (god-speed) n. an expression of good wishes to a person starting a journey.

God-er (goh-ér) n. a person or thing that goes, as in churchgoer, a person who goes to church regularly.

God-er (goh-fer) n. (informal) a person who runs errands for another.

God-get-ter (goh-get-ér) n. (informal) a person who succeeds by being aggressive and energetic.

Goggle (gog-êl) v. (gog-gled, goggling) to stare with wide-open eyes.

Goggles (gog-ēlz) n. pl. eyeglasses with side shields for protecting the eyes from wind, dust, water, etc.

Go-go (goh-goh) adj. (informal) very active, energetic. go-go dancer, a performer of lively erotic dancing at nightclubs etc.

Going (goh-ing) v. see go. going n. 1. moving away, departing, comings and goings. 2. the state of the ground for walking or riding on, rough going. 3. rate of progress, it was good going to get there by noon. going adj. 1. moving away, departing, working; he has everything going for him, all is operating in his favor. 2. current; the going rate, the current price. 3. active and prosperous, a going concern. Be going to do something, to be about to do it, to be likely to do it. get going, hurry up. while the going is good, while conditions are favorable.

Go-ing-over (goh-ing-oh-ver) n. 1. (informal) an inspection or overhaul. 2. (slang) a thrashing.

Going-on (goh-ingz-on) n. pl. surprising behavior or events.

God-ter (god-tër) n. an enlarged thyroid gland, often showing as a swelling in the neck.

Gold (gohl) n. 1. a yellow metallic element of very high value. 2. coins or other articles made of gold. 3. its color. 4. a gold medal (awarded as first prize). 5. something very good or precious. gold adj. made of gold, colored like gold. goldigger, a woman who uses her attractions to obtain money from men.

Gold dust, gold found naturally in fine particles.

Gold leaf, gold beaten into a very thin sheet.

Gold mine, a place where gold is mined; a source of great wealth, the shop was a little gold mine.

Gold plate, tableware made of gold; material plated with gold.

Gold reserve, gold held by a central bank to guarantee the value of a country's currency.

Gold rush, a rush to a newly discovered goldfield.

Gold standard, a system by which the value of money is based on that of gold.

Gold star, an emblem indicating that a member of a family, organization, etc. has died in military service in war; gold star mother or father, one whose son or daughter has died thus.

Gold-beater (gohld-bee-tër) n. a person who beats gold out into gold leaf.

Gold-brick (gohld-brik) n. 1. something that looks valuable on the surface but is sham beneath. 2. (slang) a person who shirks work.

Goldbrick v. (slang) to shirk work.

Gold-en (gohld-dën) adj. 1. made of gold. 2. colored like gold. 3. precious, excellent, a golden opportunity.

Golden age, a time of great prosperity and achievement.

Golden ager, (informal) an old person.

Golden anniversary, the celebration of the fiftieth year of a marriage etc.

Golden boy or girl, a popular or successful person.

Golden Gate, a channel of water in California between San Francisco Bay and the Pacific, spanned by a suspension bridge; this bridge.

Golden hamster, a tawny species of hamster, popular as a pet and used as a laboratory animal.
handshake, a generous cash payment given by a firm to one of its executives as compensation for being dismissed or for being forced to retire. golden mean, neither too much nor too little. golden retriever, a retriever dog with a thick golden coat. golden rule, a basic principle of action. golden wedding, the fiftieth anniversary of a wedding.

gold-en-rod (goльн-dзn-rod) n. a plant with spikes of yellow flowers, blooming in late summer.
gold-field (goльн-dзl-field) n. an area where gold is found as a mineral.
gold-finch (goльн-dзl-finч) n. a songbird with a band of yellow across each wing.
gold-fish (goльн-dзl-fish) n. (pl. -fish, -fish-es) a small orange Chinese carp kept in a bowl or pond.
gold-plat-ed (goльн-dзl-play-tid) adj. coated with gold.
gold-smith (goльн-dзл-smith) n. a person whose trade is making articles in gold.
golf (golf) n. a game in which a small hard ball is struck with clubs toward and into a series of holes. golf v. to play golf.
golf'er n. □ golf bag, a bag used to carry golf clubs and ball. golf ball, a ball used in golf. golf cart, a light cart to carry golf clubs during a game. golf club, a club used in golf; an association for playing golf, its premises. golf course, golf links, an area of land on which golf is played.
gol-ly (gоль-ee) interj. (informal) an exclamation of surprise.
go-losh = galosh.
-gon suffix used to form nouns meaning a specified number of angles, as in hexa-gon.
go-nad (goльн-nad) n. an animal organ, as the testis or ovary, producing gametes.
go-nad-al (goльн-nad-йl) adj.
go-nad-la (goльн-dзл-la) n. 1. a boat with high pointed ends, used on the canals in Venice. 2. a basketlike structure suspended beneath a balloon, for carrying passengers etc. 3. a flat open railroad freight car with low sides.
go-nad-ler (goльн-dзл-leer) n. a man who propels a gondola by means of a pole.
gone (gown) v. see go'. gone adj. 1. departed, past. 2. dead. 3. used up. 4. (slang) pregnant, she is six months gone.
□ gone on, (slang) infatuated with.
gon-er (gawn-er) n. (slang) a person or thing that is dead, ruined, or doomed.
gon-fa-lon (gon-fзл-loн) n. a banner, often with streamers, hung from a crossbar.
gong (gawn-g) n. 1. a round metal plate that resounds when struck, especially one used as a signal for meals. 2. a similar device operated electrically.
gon·o·coc·cus (gon-й-kок-йсус) n. (pl. -coc-ci, pr. -кок-си) the microorganism causing gonorrhea. gon·o·coc·cal (gon-й-kок-йл) adj. gon·o·coc·tic (gon-й-kок-йтик) adj.
go-no-go (goльн-no-go) n. (in a missile launch etc.) the point in a countdown at which a decision must be made to abort or proceed.
go-nor·rh-e·a (gon-й-рз-йй) n. a venereal disease causing a thick discharge from the sexual organs.
go·o (goo) n. (slang) 1. sticky wet material. 2. sickly sentiment. go·o·ber (goo-йбзр) n. (chiefly Southern U.S.) a peanut. good (guйд) adj. (bet·ter, best) 1. having the right or desirable properties, satisfactory, good food. 2. right, proper, expedient. 3. morally correct, virtuous, kindly. 4. (of a child) well-behaved. 5. gratifying, enjoyable, beneficial, have a good time; good morning, good evening, forms of greeting or farewell. 6. efficient, suitable, competent, a good driver; good at chess. 7. thorough, considerable, a good beating. 8. not less than, full, walked a good ten miles. 9. used in exclamations, good God! good adv. (informal) entirely; good and angry, very angry. good n. 1. that which is morally right; up to no good, doing something mischievous or criminal. 2. profit, benefit, it will do him good; five dollars to the good, having made this profit. □ as good-as, practically, almost, the war is as good as over. for good, permanently. good behavior, conduct that is legally correct. Good Book, the Bible. good cheer, hope and trust; having a very good time. Good Conduct Medal, a U.S. army medal given to enlisted men who have served with merit. good for, beneficial to; able to pay or undertake; he is good for one hundred dollars, for a ten-mile walk; good for you!, well done! Good Friday, the Friday before Easter, commemorating the Crucifixion. good humor, a cheerful mood or disposition, amiability. good nature, a kindly disposition, willingness to humor others. good night!, an exclamation of surprise or exasperation. good offices, influence deriving from one's position or power to reconcile; mediation. Good Samaritan, a genuinely charitable person who goes out of his way to help others. in good time, with no risk of being late; all in good time, in due course but without haste. make good, see make. to the good, as a balance on the right side; something extra. □ It is incorrect to say the machine works good or I am doing pretty good. It is also incorrect to say I feel good when speaking of one's health. Say I feel well.

good-bye, good-bye (guud-by) interj. farewell, an expression used when parting or at the end of a telephone call.

good-by, goodbye n. a farewell.

good-for-noth-ing (guud-fôr-nuth-ing) adj. worthless. good-for-nothing n. a worthless person.

good-heart-ed (guud-hahr-tid) adj. kindly, willing to please.

good-hu-mored (guud-hyoo-môrd) adj. of a cheerful disposition.

good-ish (guud-luuk-ing) adj. fairly good.

good-look-ing (guud-luuk-ing) adj. having a pleasant appearance.

good-ly (guud-lee) adj. (-ll-er, -ll-est) rather large or great, it's a goodly way from the station; a goodly amount of money.

good-na-tured (guud-nay-chûrd) adj. having or showing a kind disposition.

good-nis (guud-nis) n. 1. the quality of being good. 2. the good element of something; the goodness is in the gravel, this is the most nourishing part. 3. used instead of "God" in exclamations. goodness knows; for goodness' sake; thank goodness.

have the goodness to, to be kind enough to (do something).

goods (guudz) n. pl. movable property.

2. articles of trade, leather goods.

circle, the genuine article, the real thing; deliver the goods, to produce what one has promised; have the goods on a person, to have evidence of his guilt.

good-tem-pered (guud-tem-perd) adj. having or showing good temper.

good-will (guud-will) n. 1. a friendly feeling. 2. the good relationship of a business to its customers, considered as an asset that can be sold.

good-y (guud-ee) n. (pl. good-les) 1. (informal) something good or attractive, especially to eat. 2. (slang) a person of good character, the goodies and the baddies.

goodly adj. smugly virtuous. goody goody interj. an exclamation of delight.

goo-d-y-good-y (guud-ee-guud-ee) adj. smugly virtuous. goody goody n. (pl. -good-les) a goody-goody person.

goo-ey (goo-ee) adj. 1. wet and sticky. 2. sickly and sentimental.

goof (goof) n. (slang) 1. a stupid person. 2. a mistake. goof v. goof off, (slang) to loaf or kill time.

goof-ball (goof-bawl) n. (slang) 1. a pill containing a barbiturate or other drug. 2. a very stupid or silly person.

goof-off (goof-awf) n. (slang) a person who goes off.

goof-y (goo-fee) adj. (goof-ler, goof-ler) (slang) stupid. goof-liness n.

gook (guuk) n. (slang) grimy sticky wet material.

goop (goon) n. (slang) 1. a hired thug. 2. a dull or stupid person.

goose (goos) n. (pl. geese, pr. gees) 1. a web-footed bird larger than a duck. 2. its flesh as food. 3. (informal) a stupid person.

goose pimples, rough bristling skin caused by cold or fear. goose step, a way of marching without bending the knees.

goose-ber-ry (goos-ber-ee) n. (pl. -ries) 1. a thorny shrub. 2. its edible berry.

goose-flesh (goos-flesh) n. goose pimples.

gOP abbr. Grand Old Party, the U.S. Republican party.

go-pher (goh-für) n. a short-tailed burrowing rodent of North America having external cheek pouches.

gor-di-an (gor-dî-an) adj. cut the Gordian knot, to solve a problem forcefully or by some unexpected means.△ An intricate knot was tied by Gordius, king of ancient Phrygia; it was eventually cut, rather than untied, by Alexander the Great.

 gore1 (gohr) n. thickened blood from a cut or wound.

gore2 n. a triangular or tapering section of a skirt or a sail etc. gored adj.

gore v. (gored, goring) to pierce with a horn or tusk.

gorge (gorj) n. a narrow steep-sided valley. gorge v. (gorged, goring) 1. to eat greedily; gorge oneself; stuff oneself with food. 2. to fill full, to choke up.

make a person's gorge rise, to sickness or disgust him.

gor-geous (gor-jûs) adj. 1. richly colored, magnificent. 2. (informal) very pleasant, beautiful. gor'geous-ly adv. gor'geous-ness n.

gor-gon (gor-gon) n. a terrifying woman.△ Named after the Gorgons in Greek mythology, three snake-haired sisters whose looks turned to stone anyone who saw them.

gor-gon-za-la (gor-gon-zoh-là) n. a rich strong blue-veined cheese from Gorgonzola in north Italy or elsewhere.

go-rl-la (gô-rl-là) n. a large powerful African ape.

gor-mand-ize (gor-män-diz) v. (gor-mand-ized, gor-mand-izing) to eat greedily.

gor-mand-izer n.

gorse (gors) = furze.

gor-y (gohr-ee) adj. (gor-lier, gor-liest) 1. covered with blood. 2. involving bloodshed, a gory battle.
gosh (gosh) interj. an exclamation of surprise.
gos-hawk (gos-hawk) n. a large long-tailed hawk of North America and northern Europe.
gos-ling (gos-ling) n. a young goose.
gos-pel (gos-pēl) n. 1. the teachings of Christ recorded in the first four books of the New Testament. 2. Gospel, any of these books. 3. a thing one may safely believe, you can take it as gospel. 4. a set of principles that one believes in. gospel adj. of the gospel, evangelical.
gos-sa-mer (gos-ā-mér) n. 1. a fine filmy piece of cobweb made by small spiders. 2. any filmy delicate material.
gos-sip (gos-ip) n. 1. casual talk, especially about other people's affairs. 2. a person who is fond of gossiping. gossip v. (gos-siped, gos-sip-ing) to engage in or spread gossip. gos'sip-y adj.

gossip column, a section of a newspaper containing tidbits of information about people or social incidents.

got (got) see get.

Goth (gōth) n. a member of a Germanic tribe that invaded the Roman Empire in the 3rd-5th centuries.

Goth. abbr. Gothic.

Goth-ić (goth-ik) adj. of the style of architecture common in western Europe in the 12th-16th centuries, with pointed arches and rich stone carvings. Gothic n. this style. Gothic novel, a kind of English novel with sensational or horrifying events, popular in the 18th-19th centuries; a contemporary romance set in a remote place or time and featuring gloom, mystery, etc.

got-ten (got-ën) see get.

Gou-da (goo-dā) n. a flat round Dutch cheese.

gouge (gowj) n. a chisel with a concave blade, used for cutting grooves. gouge v. (goughed, gouging) 1. to cut out with a gouge. 2. to scoop or force out; gouge out his eye, force it out with one's thumb.

gou-lash (gōo-lash) n. a stew of meat and vegetables, seasoned with paprika.

gourd (goord, gord) n. 1. the hard-skinned fleshy fruit of a climbing plant. 2. this plant. 3. a bowl or container made from the dried hollowed-out rind of this fruit.

gour-mand (goor-mahnd) n. a lover of food, a glutton. This word is often applied to a person contemtuously, whereas gourmet is not.
gour-met (goor-may) n. a connoisseur of good food and drink. See the note under gourmand.

gout (gōt) n. a disease causing inflammation of the joints, especially the toes, knees, and fingers. gout'y adj.

gov. abbr. 1. government. 2. governor.
gov-ern (guv-érn) v. 1. to rule with authority, to conduct the affairs of a country or an organization. 2. to keep under control, to govern one's temper. 3. to influence or direct, be governed by the experts' advice.

gov-ern-ance (guv-ér-näns) n. governing, control.
gov-ern-ess (guv-ér-ës) n. a woman employed to teach children in a private household.
gov-ern-ment (guv-ér-mënt) n. 1. governing, the system or method of governing. 2. the group or organization governing a country. 3. the government as an agent; a government grant, given from federal funds. govern-ment-surplus, unused equipment sold to the public by the federal government.

gov-er-nor (guv-ér-när) n. 1. a person who governs a state or province, especially one of the states of the U.S. 2. the head or member of the governing body of an institution, board of governors. 3. a mechanism that automatically controls speed or the intake of gas or water etc. in a machine.

govt. abbr. government.

gown (gown) n. 1. a loose flowing garment, especially a woman's long dress. 2. a loose outer garment that is the official robe of judges etc.

gowned (gownd) adj. wearing a gown.

G.P. abbr. general practitioner.

GPO abbr. 1. general post office. 2. Government Printing Office.

GQ abbr. general quarters.

gr. abbr. 1. grade. 2. grain(s). 3. gram(s).

4. grammar. 5. gravity. 6. gross. 7. group. 8. great.

grab (grab) v. (grabbed, grabbing) 1. to grasp suddenly. 2. to take something greedily. 3. to operate harshly or jerkily, the brakes are grabing. 4. (slang) to make an impression on someone; how does that music grab you?, do you like it? grab n. 1. a sudden clutch or an attempt to seize. 2. a mechanical device for gripping things and lifting them.

grab for (slang) available for anyone to take.

gra-ben (grah-bén) n. a depression of the earth's surface between faults.

grace (grays) n. 1. the quality of being attractive, especially in movement, manner, or design. 2. elegance of manner; he had the grace to apologize, realized that this was right and proper, and did it. 3. favor, goodwill. 4. a delay or postponement granted as a favor, not as a right, give him a week’s grace. 5. God’s loving mercy toward mankind. 6. a short prayer of thanks before or after a meal.

7. Grace, the title used in speaking of or to a duke, duchess, or archbishop, his Grace, her Grace, their Graces.

grace (grās) v. (graced, gracing) to confer honor or dignity on, to be an ornament to. □be in a person’s good graces, to have his favor and approval. days of grace, the time allowed by law or custom after the day on which a payment is officially due. grace note, a music note that is not essential to the harmony but is added as an embellishment. with good grace, willingly or as if willingly.

graceful (grā’sfəl) adj. having or showing grace. grace’ful-ly adv. grace’ful-ness n.

grace-less (grās-lis) adj. 1. inelegant. 2. ungracious.

gra-cious (grā-shūs) adj. 1. kind and pleasant in manner, especially to subordinates. 2. showing divine grace, merciful. 3. showing qualities associated with good taste and breeding, gracious living.

blackbird.

grad. abbr. 1. gradient. 2. graduate. 3. graduated.

gra-da·tion (grā-day-shōn) n. a process of gradual change, a stage in such a process, the gradation of color between blue and green.

grade (grād) n. 1. a step or stage or degree in some rank, quality, or value. Grade A milk. 2. a class of people or things of the same rank or quality etc. 3. the mark given to a student for his standard of work. 4. gradient, slope.

grade v. (grad·ed, grad·ling) 1. to arrange in grades. 2. to give a grade to a student). 3. to adjust the gradient of (a road). □grade crossing, a place where a railroad and a road (or two railroads) cross each other at the same level.

grade school, an elementary school.

make the grade, to reach the desired standard.

grad·er (grā-dēr) n. a machine that reduces earth to easy gradients, as in road building.

gra-di·ent (grā-di-ent) n. 1. the amount of slope in a road or railroad; the road has a gradient of one in ten, it rises one foot in every ten feet of its length. 2. a sloping road or railroad.

grad·u·al (grad·oo-äl) adj. taking place by degrees, not sudden or steep. grad·u·al-ly adv.

grad·u·a·lism (grad·oo-ä-liz-äm) n. the policy of accomplishing goals gradually rather than by sudden change.

grad·u·a·tion (grad·oo-ät·shen) n. 1. to award or be awarded a degree or certificate showing successful completion of a course of study. 2. to divide into graded sections. 3. to mark into regular divisions or units of measurement, the beaker was graduated. graduate (grad·oo-it) n. a person who has completed a course of study, especially a college or university course.

graduate adj. □graduate school, the division of a university that offers courses of study for those who have received the bachelor’s degree. graduate student, one who studies in such a school. ▷ It is incorrect to say she graduated college. Say she graduated from or she was graduated from college.

grad·u·a·tion (grad·oo-ät·shen) n. 1. graduating, being graduated. 2. the ceremony in which a person is awarded a degree or certificate. 3. a mark of measurement.

graft (graft) n. 1. a shoot from one tree fixed into a cut in another to form a new growth. 2. a piece of living tissue transplanted surgically to replace diseased or damaged tissue. graft v. 1. to put a graft in or on. 2. to join (one thing) inseparably to another.

graft1 n. 1. obtaining some advantage in business or politics by bribery or unfair influence or other shady means. 2. a bribe or bribery used in this way. 3. the advantage gained by it. graft v. to gain advantage in business or politics through shady means. graft’er n.

graham (grā’äm) adj. made from unsifted whole-wheat flour.

Grail (grāil) n. Holy Grail, the cup or the platter used (according to legend) by Christ at the Last Supper and in which Joseph of Arimathea received drops of Christ’s blood at the Crucifixion, sought in prolonged quests by knights in the Middle Ages.

grain (grāin) n. 1. a small hard seed of a food plant such as wheat or rice. 2. the gathered seeds of such plants. 3. the plants themselves. 4. a small hard particle, a grain of sand. 5. a unit of weight, about sixty-five milligrams. 6. the smallest possible amount, he hasn’t a grain. of sense. 7. the texture produced by the particles in flesh, stone, etc., or in photographic prints. 8. the pattern of lines made by fibers in wood or by layers in rock or coal etc. □ against the grain, cutting or lying across a natural layer; contrary to one's natural inclinations.

grain alcohol, ethyl alcohol.

grain·field (grain-field) n. a field of grain.

grain·y (gray-nee) adj. (gray·i·er, gray·i·est) like grains in form or appearance or texture. grain'-i·ness n.

gram (gram) n. a unit of weight in the metric system, one-thousandth part of a kilogram.

gram. abbr. 1. grammar. 2. grammarian. 3. grammatical.

-gram suffix used to form nouns meaning something written or pictured, as in telegram, diagram.

gram·mar (gram·är) n. 1. the study of words and of the rules for their formation and their relationships to each other in sentences. 2. the rules themselves. 3. a book about these. 4. speech or writing judged as good or bad according to these rules, his grammar is appalling. gram·mar·i·an (grä·mär-i·än) n. □ grammar school, an elementary school.

gram·mat·ic·al (grä·mat·ič·əl) adj. in accordance with the rules of grammar.

gram·mat·i·cal·ly adv.

gram·o·phone (gram·o·фон) n. a phonograph.

gram·pus (gram·pus) n. (pl. -pus·es) a large sea animal of the dolphin family.

gran·a·ry (gran·â·ree) n. (pl. -ries) a storehouse for grain.

grand (grand) adj. 1. splendid, magnificent. 2. of the highest rank, the Grand Duke Alexis. 3. dignified, imposing, she puts on a grand manner. 4. (informal) very enjoyable or satisfactory, we had a grand time. 5. including everything, final, the grand total. grand n. 1. a grand piano. 2. (slang) a thousand dollars, five grand.

grand'ly adv. grand'ness n.

□ Grand Canyon, a gorge one mile deep through which the Colorado River flows in Arizona. grand jury, a jury convened to indict an accused person if the evidence warrants it. grand master, the head of a military order of knighthood, or of Freemasons, etc.

grand opera, opera in which everything is sung and there are no spoken parts. grand piano, a large full-toned piano with horizontal strings. Grand Prix (gran·pré) any of several important international auto racing events over a road course.

grand slam, (in bridge) see slam; (in tennis, golf, etc.) the winning of all of a group of championships; (in baseball) a home run with runners on all bases.

gran·dad (gran·dad) n. (informal) 1. grandfather. 2. an elderly man.

grand·child (grand·child) n. (pl. -chi·dren, pr. -chil-drên) the child of one's son or daughter.

grand·daugh·ter (gran·daw·tər) n. the daughter of one's son or daughter.

grand dame (gran·dám) n. a dignified lady of high rank. □ French.

gran·dee (gran·dee) n. a person of high rank.

gran·deur (gran·dɔr) n. splendor, magnificence, grandness.

gran·fa·ther (gran·fâ·thər) n. the father of one's father or mother. □ grandfather clock, a clock in a tall wooden case, worked by weights.

gran·di·o·quent (gran·di·ō·kwânt) adj. using pompous language. gran·di·o·quent·ly adv. gran·di·o·quence n.

gran·di·ose (gran·di·ōs) adj. 1. imposing, planned on a large scale. 2. trying to be grand, pompous. gran·di·os·i·ty (gran·di·os·i·tē) n. (gran·di·os·i·tē) n.

grand·ma (gran·mah) n. (informal) grandmother.

grand·moth·er (gran·mûth·ər) n. the mother of one's father or mother.

grand·pa (gran·pə) n. (informal) grandfather.

grand·par·ent (gran·pair·ənt) n. one's parent's parent.

grand·sire (gran·ser) n. (old use) grandfather.

grand·son (gran·son) n. the son of one's son or daughter.

grand·stand (grand·stand) n. the principal roofed building with rows of seats for spectators at races and sporting events. □ grandstand play, a play made by an athlete to impress the spectators; any action taken more for appearances than for substance.

grange (graynj) n. 1. a farm. 2. the Grange, a U.S. farmers' association founded in 1867; one of its local branches.

gran·ite (gran·īt) n. a hard gray stone used for building.

gran·ite·ware (gran·īt·wār) n. 1. a kind of speckled enameled ironware. 2. speckled pottery imitating the appearance of granite.

gran·ny (gran·ni) n. (pl. -nies) (informal) grandmother. □ granny glasses, a pair of eyeglasses with round lenses and a thin wire frame. granny knot, a square knot with the threads crossed the wrong way and therefore likely to slip.

gra·no·la (grâ·nô·lə) n. a dry breakfast food consisting of a mixture of grains, nuts, fruit, etc.
Grant (grant) v. 1. to give or allow; grant a request, permit what is requested. 2. to admit or agree that something is true, I grant that your offer is generous. grant n. something granted, especially a sum of money. grant'ee n. grant•ee (gran•tee) n. □ take for granted, to assume that (a thing) is true or sure to happen; to be so used to having (a thing etc.) that one no longer appreciates it.

Grant (grant), U•lys•ses S. (1822–85) the eighteenth president of the U.S. 1869–77.

grant-in-aid (grant-in-ayd) n. (pl. grants-in-aid) a sum granted to a person to finance his university studies, or to an institution to finance research etc.

grants•man•ship (grants•man•ship) n. (informal) the art of gaining grants-in-aid.

gran•u•lar (gran•y-u-lar) adj. like grains or granules.

gran•u•late (gran•y-u-layt) v. (gran•u•lated, gran•u•lated) 1. to form into grains or granules, granulated sugar. 2. to make rough and grainy on the surface.

gran•u•la•tion (gran•y-u-la•tion) n.

gran•ule (gran•yool) n. a small grain.

grape (grayp) n. a green or purple berry growing in clusters on vines, used for making wine. □ grape hyacinth, a small hyacinth-like plant with clusters of rounded usually blue flowers.

grape•fruit (grayp•fruit) n. a large round yellow citrus fruit with a juicy acid pulp.

grape•shot (grayp•shot) n. (old use) small iron balls that scattered when fired from a cannon.

grape•vine (grayp•vin) n. 1. the kind of vine on which grapes grow. 2. a way by which news is passed on unofficially, heard it on the grapevine.

graph (graf) n. a diagram consisting of a line or lines showing the relationship between two sets of quantities. graph v. to draw a graph of. □ graph paper, paper ruled into small squares, used for plotting graphs.

-graph suffix used to form nouns meaning something written, drawn, or recorded, as in photograph, seismograph.

graph•ic (graf•ik) adj. 1. of drawing or painting or lettering or engraving, the graphic arts; a graphic artist. 2. giving a vivid description, a graphic account of the fight. □ graphic arts, the reproductive arts of engraving, etching, woodcut, lithography, etc.

graph•i•cal•ly (graf•i•klee) adv. in a graphic way.

graph•ics (graf•iks) n. 1. (sing.) the use of diagrams in calculation or in design.

2. (pl.) lettering and drawings, the graphics are by John James.

graph•ite (graf•it) n. a soft black form of carbon used in lubrication, as a moderator in nuclear reactors, and in lead pencils.

graph•ol•o•gist (gra•fol•o•jist) n. an expert in graphology.

graph•ol•o•gy (gra•fol•o•gy) n. the scientific study of handwriting, especially as a guide to the writer's character.

graph•o•log•i•cal (gra•fo•lo•j-i•kal) adj.

grap•nel (grap•nel) n. 1. a small anchor with three or more flukes, used for boats and balloons. 2. a hooked grappling instrument used in dragging the bed of a lake or river.

grap•ple (grap•pel) v. (grap•pled, grap•pling) 1. to seize or hold firmly. 2. to struggle at close quarters; grapple with a problem, try to deal with it. □ grappling hook, a grapnel (definition 2).

grap•s (grap•ss) v. 1. to seize and hold firmly, especially with one's hands or arms. 2. to understand, he couldn't grasp what we meant. grasp n. 1. a firm hold or grip; within his grasp, close enough for him to grasp or obtain it. 2. a mental hold, understanding, a thorough grasp of his subject. □ grasp at, to snatch at.

grasp•ping (grasp•ping) adj. greedy for money or possessions.

gross (grass) n. 1. any of a group of common wild low-growing plants with green blades and stalks that are eaten by animals. 2. any species of this plant (in botanical use including cereal plants, reeds, and bamboos). 3. ground covered with grass, lawn, or pasture; put animals out to grass, put them to graze. 4. (slang) marijuana. □ grass roots, the fundamental level or source; ordinary people, the rank and file of a political party or other group. grass snake, a small harmless snake. grass widow, a woman who is divorced from or lives apart from her husband.

gross•hop•per (grass•hop•per) n. any of a number of insects with long back legs adapted for jumping.

gross•land (grass•land) n. a wide area covered in grass and with few trees.

grass•y (grass•ee) adj. (grass•y•er, grass•y•est) like grass, covered with grass.

grate1 (grayt) n. 1. a metal framework that keeps fuel in a fireplace. 2. the recess where fire burns.

grate2 v. (grat•ed, grat•ing) 1. to shred into small pieces by rubbing against a jagged surface. 2. to make a harsh noise by rubbing, to sound harshly, a grating grave* (græv) adj. a. solemn, grave. b. used to describe the sense of being.tened, 2. the force that attracts bodies toward the center of Earth. 3. solemnity. □ center of gravity, the central point in an object about which its mass is evenly balanced. gravity feed, a supply system in which a substance falls from a higher level to a lower one by force of gravity rather than by mechanical means. specific gravity, see specific.

grav’ure (græ-vyoor) n. 1. a photomechanical printing process. 2. a printing process from engraved plates.

grav’vy (græ-ve) n. (pl. -vies) 1. juice that comes out of meat while it is cooking. 2. sauce made from this. 3. (slang) money or profit easily or unexpectedly acquired. □ gravy train, (slang) a source of easy money.

gray (gray) adj. 1. of the color between black and white, colored like ashes or lead; he is going gray, his hair is losing its color; a gray day, without sun. 2. intermediate in character; a gray area, that part of a matter where there are no exact rules about right and wrong etc. gray n. 1. gray color. 2. a gray substance or material. 3. a gray horse. gray v. to make or become gray. gray’ness n. □ gray birch, a tree of northeastern North America with grayish-white bark. gray cells, (humorous) brain or intelligence. Gray Friars, Franciscan friars. gray matter, the material of the brain and spinal cord; (informal) brain or intelligence. gray power, the political pressure of organized old or retired persons.

gray-beard (gray-beerd) n. an old man. gray-head’ed (gray-hed-ed) adj. with gray hair.

gray-ish (gray-ish) adj. rather gray.

gray-ling (gray-ling) n. a silver-gray freshwater fish.

graze1 (græz) v. (grazed, graze’ing) 1. to eat growing grass, cattle grazing in the fields. 2. to put (animals) into a field to eat the grass. graze’er n.

graze2 v. (grazed, graze’ing) 1. to touch or scrape lightly in passing. 2. to scrape the skin from.

grease (grees) n. 1. animal fat melted soft. 2. any thick semisolid oily substance; great white heron, a large white bird of Florida, resembling the egret. great white shark, the large shark that is most feared for its attacks on human beings. Great White Way, the Broadway theater area of New York City.

great-coat (grayt-koht) n. a heavy overcoat.

great-heart-ed (grayt-hahr-tid) adj. having a noble or generous mind.

grebe (greeb) n. (pl. grebes, grebe) a diving bird.

Gre-ian (gree-shan) adj. Greek.

Greece (grees) a country in southeast Europe.

greed (gred) n. an excessive desire for food or wealth.

greed-y (gree-dee) adj. (greed-i-er, greed-i-est) 1. showing greed. 2. very eager or keen for something. greed-i-ly adv. greed-i-ness n.

Greek (greek) adj. of Greece or its people or language. Greek n. 1. a member of the people living in ancient or modern Greece. 2. their language. Greek Church, the Greek Orthodox Church (see orthodox). It's Greek to me, I cannot understand its meaning.

green (green) adj. 1. of the color between blue and yellow, the color of growing grass. 2. covered with grass or with growing leaves. 3. unripe, not seasoned; wood is green, not yet dry enough to burn well. 4. immature, inexperienced, easily deceived. 5. pale and sickly looking; green with envy, very jealous. green n. 1. green color. 2. a green substance or material. 3. a green light. 4. a piece of grassy public land, the village green. 5. a grassy area, a putting green. 6. greens, (informal) green vegetables. green'ly adv. green'ness n. green bean, a string bean. green belt, an area of open land around a town, where the amount of building is restricted. green-eyed monster, jealousy. green light, a signal to proceed on a road; (informal) permission to go ahead with a project. green manure, growing plants plowed into the soil as fertilizer. green pepper, the unripe fruit of the sweet or red pepper, used as a vegetable. green salad, a salad consisting of leafy vegetables. greens fee, a fee paid to play golf. green tea, tea made from leaves that are steam dried, not fermented. green thumb, (informal) skill in making plants grow.

green-back (green-bak) n. a U.S. dollar.

green-er-y (gree-në-ree) n. green foliage or growing plants.

green-finch (green-finch) n. a European finch with green and yellow feathers.
green-gage (green-gaj) n. a round plum with a greenish skin.
green-grocer (green-groh-sir) n. (Brit-ish) a shopkeeper selling vegetables and fruit.
green-grocer-y n. (pl. -cers-les).
green-horn (green-horn) n. an inexperienced person.
green-house (green-hous) n. (pl. -houses, pr. -how-zis) a building with glass sides and roof, for raising plants.
greenish (green-ish) adj. rather green.
Green-land (green-land) a very large island in the Arctic Ocean, a possession of Denmark.
green-room (green-room) n. a room in a theater, for the use of actors when they are not on stage.
green-keeper-er (greenz-kee-per), green-keeper (greenz-kee-per) n. the keeper of a golf course.
green-stick (green-stik) fracture a kind of bone fracture in which the bone is partly broken and partly bent.
green-sward (green-sword) n. a grassy turf.
Green-wich (gren-ich) a suburb of London, the former site of the Royal Observatory.
Greenwich mean time, time on the line of longitude that passes through Greenwich, used as a basis for calculating time throughout the world.
Greenwich Village, an area of New York City known for its night life and for the famous writers and artists who have lived there.
green-wood (green-wood) n. woodlands' in summer.
greet (greet) v. 1. to address politely on meeting or arrival. 2. to receive with a certain reaction, the news was greeted with dismay. 3. to present itself to one's sight or hearing, the sight that greeted our eyes. greet' er n.
greet-ling (greet-ling) n. 1. words or gestures used to greet a person. 2. expressions of goodwill, birthday greetings.
greet-ing card, a printed card sent as a greeting, usually for a special occasion.
gre-gar-i-ous (gr-e-gair-i-ús) adj. 1. living in flocks or communities. 2. fond of company. gre-gar-i-ous-ly adv. gre-gar-i-ous-ness n.
Gre-gor-ian (gr-e-gor-i-án) adj. of or relating to Pope Gregory I or Pope Gregory XIII. Gregorian calendar, the calendar introduced by Pope Gregory XIII in 1582 and still in general use.
Gregorian chant, plainsong ritual music named for Pope Gregory I.
grem-lin (grem-lin) n. (slang) a mischievous spirit said to cause mishaps to machinery.
Gre-nad (gr-e-nah-dah) an island country in the West Indies.
gre-nade (gr-e-nahd) n. a small bomb thrown by hand or fired from a rifle.
gren-a-dier (gren-ah-deer) n. a member of a British or European infantry regiment that was formerly armed with grenades.
gren-a-dine (gren-ah-deen) n. a French cordial syrup of pomegranates.
grew (groo) see grow.
grey = gray.
grey-hound (gray-hownd) n. a slender smooth-haired dog noted for its swiftness, used primarily in racing.
grill (grid) n. 1. a grating. 2. a network of squares on maps, numbered for reference. 3. any network of lines, an arrangement of electric-power cables or gas-supply lines for distributing current or gas over a large area. 4. a network of wires in a storage battery or vacuum tube. 5. a gridiron.
grill-die (grid-él) n. a flat pan or metal surface for cooking over heat. gridle cake, a thin flat cake of batter cooked on a griddle, a pancake.
grill-i-ron (grid-i-røm) n. 1. a framework of metal bars for cooking on. 2. a field on which football is played, with parallel lines marking the area of play.
grill-lock (grid-lock) n. an urban traffic jam caused by continuous lines of intersecting traffic.
grief (gref) n. 1. deep sorrow. 2. something causing this. come to grief, to meet with disaster, to fail, to fall.
grief-strick-en (gref-strik-en) adj. overcome by grief.
grievance (gree-vans) n. a real or imagined cause of complaint. grievance committee, a committee that presents complaints, especially of a labor union.
grieve (grev) v. (grieved, grieved) 1. to cause grief to. 2. to feel grief.
grievous (greev-us) adj. 1. causing grief. 2. serious; grievous bodily harm, serious injury. grievous-ly adv.
griff-fin (griff-fin) n. a creature in Greek mythology, with an eagle's head and wings on a lion's body.
griff-fox (griff-ón) n. one of a breed of terrier-like dogs with coarse hair.
grill (grill) n. 1. a metal grid, a grating. 2. a grating or griddle for cooking on. 3. a device on a stove for radiating heat downward, a broiler. 4. meat, fish, or vegetables broiled or griddle fried. 5. (also grill-room) a restaurant featuring broiled or fried foods.
Do not confuse grill with grille.

grille (gril) n. a grating, especially in a door or window. Do not confuse grille with grill.

grill-work (gril-wurk) n. something made to look like or serve as a grille.

grilse (grils-es, grilse) a young male salmon returning from the sea to fresh water to spawn for the first time.

grime (grim) adj. (grim-er, grim-est) 1. stern or severe in appearance. 2. severe, unrelenting, merciless, held on like grim death. 3. without cheerfulness, unattractive, a grim prospect. grim'y adj. grim'ness n.

gri-mace (grim-ás) n. a contortion of the face expressing pain or disgust, or intended to cause amusement. gri-mace v. (gri-maced, gri-mac-ing) to make a grimace.

grim (grimm) n. dirt or soot ingrained in a surface or in the skin. grime v. (grimed, grin-ing) to blacken with grime. grin'y adj. (grim-i-er, grim-i-est).

grin (grinn) v. (grinned, grinn-ing) 1. to smile broadly, showing the teeth; grin and bear it, endure something without complaining. 2. to express by a grin, he grinned his approval. grin n. a broad smile.

grind (grind) v. (ground, grind-ing) 1. to crush or be crushed into grains or powder. 2. to produce in this way. 3. to sharpen or smooth by friction. 4. to oppress or crush by cruelty. 5. to rub harshly together, grind one's teeth; the bus ground to a halt, stopped laboriously with a grinding sound. 6. to work (a thing) by turning a handle; grind out a tune on the barrel organ, produce it in this way. 7. (informal) to study hard, grinding away at his algebra. grind n. 1. the act of grinding. 2. the size of ground particles, a coarse grind. 3. hard monotonous work. 4. (slang) a student who does little else but study.

grind-er (grind-er) n. 1. a person or thing that grinds. 2. a molar tooth. 3. a large sandwich made on a long roll split lengthwise.

grind-stone (grind-stohn) n. a thick revolving disk used for sharpening or grinding things. keep one's nose to the grindstone, to work hard without rest.

gril-ot (gree-ót) n. an African tribal poet, musician, and oral historian.

grip (grip) v. (gripped, grip-ping) 1. to take a firm hold of. 2. to hold a person's attention, a gripping story. grip n. 1. a firm grasp or hold. 2. the power of gripgrog·gy (grog·ec) adj. (-gl·er, -gl·est) weak and unsteady, especially after illness. grog'gi·ly adv. grog'gi·ness n.
groin (groin) n. 1. the fold where each thigh joins the trunk. 2. this area of the body, where the genitals are situated. 3. the curved edge where two vaults meet in a roof.
grom·met (grom·it) n. a reinforced eyelet in cloth etc. to receive a cord or faster etc.
groom (groom) n. 1. a person employed to look after horses. 2. a bridegroom.
groom v. 1. to clean and brush (an animal). 2. to make neat and clean. 3. to prepare (a person) for a career or position.
groom·ing (groom·ing) n. personal cleanliness and neatness, good grooming.
groove (groov) n. 1. a long narrow channel in the surface of hard material. 2. a spiral cut on a phonograph record for the needle or stylus. 3. a way of living that has become a habit. groove v. (grooved, groo·ving) 1. to make grooves in. 2. (slang) to enjoy, to approve of. □ in the groove, (slang) in top form.
groo·v·y (groo·vec) adj. (groo·v·er, groo·v·est) (slang) excellent, admired.
grope (grohp) v. (groped, grog·ping) 1. to feel about as one does in the dark, to seek by feeling. 2. to search mentally with some uncertainty, grooping for an answer.
gros·beak (grohs·beek) n. any of various finches with large thick beaks.
gros·chen (grohs·chen) n. (pl. -schen) a small coin of Germany or Austria.
gros·grain (grohs·grayn) n. corded fabric of silky thread, used for ribbons etc.
gross (grohs) adj. 1. thick, large-bodied; a gross fellow, repulsively fat; gross vegetation, growing thickly. 2. not refined, vulgar, gross manners. 3. glaringly obvious, outrageous, gross negligence. 4. total, whole, without deductions; gross income, income before tax etc. is deducted. 5. (slang) disgusting. gross n. (pl. gross) twelve dozen (144) items; ten gross, 1440. gross v. to earn or make as a total income or profit prior to deducting expenses. gross'ly adv. gross'ness n. □ gross national product, the total value of goods produced and services provided in a country in one year. gross out, (slang) to disgust, to repel.
gro·tesque (grohs·task) adj. very odd or unnatural, fantastically ugly or absurd. grotesque n. a comically distorted figure, a design using fantastic human, animal, and plant forms. gro·tesque·ly adv. gro·tesque·ness n. grot·to (grot·oh) n. (pl. -toes, -tos) a picturesque cave.
grouch (grouch) v. (informal) to grumble. grouch n. (informal) 1. a grumble. 2. a grumbler. grouch·er n. grouch'y adj.
ground1 (ground) n. 1. the solid surface of the earth, especially contrasted with the air surrounding it. 2. an area or position or distance on the earth's surface. gain or lose ground. 3. a foundation or reason for a theory or action, there are no grounds for suspicion. 4. soil, earth, marshy ground. 5. an area used for a particular purpose, burial ground. 6. the underlying part, a surface worked on in embroidery or painting. ground v. 1. to run aground. 2. to prevent (an aircraft or airman) from flying, all aircraft were grounded because of the fog. 3. to teach thoroughly, to give good basic training to. 4. to base on, is grounded on or in fact. □ get off the ground, to rise in the air; to make a successful start. give ground, to retreat, to yield. ground ball, (in baseball) a batted ball that rolls or bounces along the ground. ground cloth, a grassy sheet. ground cover, low-growing plants used in place of grass or to control erosion. ground crew, workers, mechanics, etc. who service and maintain aircraft on the ground. ground floor, the floor at ground level in a building; get in on the ground floor, to be one of the first to have the advantage of sharing in a promising business. ground ivy, a creeping plant with bluish-purple flowers. ground plan, a plan of a building at ground level; an outline or general design of a scheme. ground rule, a basic principle of a situation; a rule arising from the nature of the playing field or the location of spectators. ground squirrel, a kind of squirrel that burrows instead of living in trees. ground zero, the point on the ground under an exploding bomb. run into the ground, to explain at unreasonable length, to overdo.
ground2 □ v. see grind. ground adj. ground glass, glass made nontransparent by grinding.
ground·er (grohn·derr) n. (in baseball) a ground ball, see ground4.
ground·hog (grohn·dawg) n. a woodchuck. □ groundhog day, February 2, when the groundhog is supposed to come out of his hole at the end of hibernation. □ If he sees his shadow, there are supposed to be six more weeks of winter weather.
ground·ing (grohn·ding) n. thorough groundless / grubstake

teaching, basic training, a good grounding in arithmetic.

ground-less (ground-less) adj. without basis, without good reason, your fears are groundless. ground-less-ly adv.

ground-mass (ground-mass) n. a base of hard rock embedded with prominent crystals.

ground-nut (ground-nut) n. 1. the edible tuber or underground nut of a plant, such as the peanut. 2. such a plant.

grounds (groundz) n. pl. 1. an area of enclosed land belonging to a large house or an institution. 2. solid particles that sink to the bottom of a liquid, coffee grounds.

ground-sheet (ground-sheet) n. a waterproof sheet for spreading on the ground.

ground-keep-er (groundz-kee-per) n. a person who takes care of the grounds of an estate, a playing field, etc.

ground-swell (ground-swell) n. 1. heavy slow-moving waves caused by a distant or recent storm. 2. a sudden spontaneous growth of enthusiasm and popular support, as for a political candidate.

ground-water (ground-waw-ter) n. water lying below the earth’s surface in springs and in pores of rock.

ground-work (ground-wurk) n. preliminary or basic work.

group (grop) n. 1. a number of persons or things gathered, placed, or classed together, or working together for some purpose. 2. a number of commercial companies under one owner. 3. a trio, quartet, etc., especially of pop or jazz performers. group v. (grouped, group-ing) to form or gather into a group or groups. group practice, a medical practice in which several doctors are associated. group therapy, psychological therapy in which patients with a similar condition are brought together to assist one another under the supervision of a therapist.

group-er (grop-er) n. a salt-water fish used as food.

group-le (grop-pee) n. (slang) a girl who follows touring pop groups.

grouse1 (grows) n. (pl. grouse) 1. a game bird with feathered feet. 2. its flesh as food.

grouse2 v. (groused, grous-ing) (informal) to complain. grouse n. (informal) a complaint. grouse’er n. grout (growt) n. thin mortar used to fill narrow cavities such as joints between stones or wall tiles. grout v. to fill with grout.

grove (grohv) n. a group of trees, a small wood. grov-el (gruv-él) v. (grov-eled, grov-el-ing) 1. to lie or crawl with the face downward in a show of humility or fear. 2. to humble oneself.

grow (groh) v. (grew, grown, grow-ing) 1. to increase in size or quantity, to become greater. 2. to develop; the seeds are growing, putting out shoots. 3. to be capable of developing as a plant, to flourish, rice grows in warm climates. 4. to become gradually, he grew rich. 5. to cause or allow to grow, to produce by cultivation, grow a beard; grow roses. 6. to become firmly established or more acceptable, it’s a habit that grows on you.

growing pains, neuralgic pain in children’s legs, usually caused by tiredness; problems arising because a project or development is in its early stages.

grow out of, (of a growing child) to become too large to wear (certain clothes); to become too mature for, grew out of his childish habits; to have as a source, to arise or develop from. grow up, to develop, to become adult or mature.

grow-a-ble (groh-ä-bäl) adj. able to be grown.

grow-er (groh-er) n. 1. a person who grows plants, fruit, or vegetables commercially. 2. a plant that grows in a certain way, a rapid grower.

growl (grohv) v. 1. to make a low threatening sound. 2. to speak or say in a growling manner, to grumble. growl n. a growling sound. growl’er n. grown (grohn) v. see grow. grown adj. 1. fully developed, adult, a grown man. 2. covered with a growth, a wall grown over with ivy.

grown-up (grohn-up) n. an adult person. grown-up adj.

growth (growth) n. 1. the process of growing, development. 2. the cultivation of produce. 3. something that grows or has grown, a thick growth of weeds. 4. an abnormal formation of tissue in the body, a tumor. growth industry, one developing faster than most others. growth stocks, common-stock investments thought likely to increase in value rather than yield high income.

grub (grub) n. 1. the thick-bodied worm-like larva of certain insects. 2. (slang) food. grub. v. (grubbed, grub-ling) 1. to dig the surface of the soil. 2. to clear away roots by digging, to dig up by the roots. 3. to search laboriously, to rummage.

grub’by (grub-ee) adj. (grub-ble-er, grub’ble-est) 1. infested with grubs. 2. dirty, unwashed. grub’bl-ly adv. grub’b-ly-ness n.

grub-stake (grub-stayk) n. supplies or money advanced (originally to a mining prospector) with the agreement that the profits will be shared with the lender.

grudge (gruj) n. (grudged, grudg·ing) to resent having to give or allow something; I don’t grudge him his success, I admit that he deserves it. grudge n. a feeling of resentment or ill will. grudging adj. grudging·ly adv.

gruel (grul) n. a thin porridge made by boiling oatmeal in milk or water.

gruel·some (groo-söm) adj. extremely tiring, exhausting.

gruff (gruf) adj. 1. (of the voice) low and harsh, hoarse. 2. having a gruff voice. 3. surly in manner. gruff·ly adj. gruff·ness n.

grumble (grum·bůl) v. (grum·bled, grum·blung) 1. to complain in a bad-tempered way. 2. to rumble, thunder was grumbling in the distance. grumble n. 1. a complaint, especially a bad-tempered one. 2. a rumble.

grumb·ler (grum·blér) n. a person who grumbles constantly.

grump·py (grum·pee) adj. (grump·i·er, grump·i·est) bad-tempered. grump·i·ly adv. grump·i·ness n.

grumpy·ness n.

guard (gahrd) v. 1. to watch over and protect, to keep safe. 2. to watch over and supervise or prevent escape. 3. to keep in check, to restrain; guard your tongue, do not be outspoken or indiscreet. 4. to take precautions, guard against errors.

guard n. 1. a state of watchfulness or alertness for possible danger. 2. a defensive attitude in boxing, fencing, etc. 3. a protector, a sentry. 4. a body of soldiers or others guarding a place or a person, serving as escort, or forming a separate part of an army. 5. a protecting part or device. guard n. standing as sentry; guarding military prisoners. guard of honor, a ceremonial guard for a special occasion such as a military funeral.

off guard, unprepared against attack or surprise. on one’s guard, alert for possible danger etc. stand guard, to guard, to act as a protector or sentry.

guard·ed adj. cautious, discreet, a guarded statement.

guard·house (gahrd·hous) n. (pl. -hous·es, pr. -how·ziz) a building for the accommodation of a military guard or for keeping prisoners under guard.

guard·ian (gahrd·i·án) n. 1. one who guards or protects. 2. a person who undertakes legal responsibility for someone who is incapable of managing his own affairs, such as an orphaned child.

guard·ian·ship n. guard·ian angel.
an angel thought of as watching over a person or place.

guard·room (gahrd-room) n. a room for keeping prisoners under guard or for the use of a military guard on duty.
guards·man (gahrdz-măn) n. a member of a unit of guards.

Gua-te·ma·la (gwah-tē-mah-lā) 1. a country in Central America. 2. its capital city. Gua-te·ma·lan adj. & n.
gua·va (gwah-vā) n. 1. a tropical American tree. 2. its edible orange-colored acid fruit.

gu·ber·na·to·ri·al (goo-bër-nā-toh·ri·āl) adj. of a governor or of the office of governor.

Guern·sey (gur·n-zē) n. (pl. -seys) one of a breed of dairy cattle known for its rich milk.
guer·ril·la (gū·ril·ā) n. a person who takes part in guerrilla warfare, fighting or harassment by small groups acting independently.

guess (ges) v. 1. to form an opinion or make a statement or give an answer without calculating or measuring and without definite knowledge. 2. to think something likely. 3. (informal) to suppose, I guess we ought to be going. guess n. an opinion formed by guessing. guess'er n.

□ keep a person guessing, (informal) to keep him uncertain of one's feelings or future actions etc.

guess·ti·mate (ges·ti·mit) n. (informal) an estimate based on guesswork and reasoning.
guestimate (ges·ti·mayt) v. (guess·ti·mat·ed, guess·ti·mat·ing) (informal) to form a guestimate.

guess·work (ges·wurk) n. the process of guessing, an example of this.

guest (gest) n. 1. a person staying or eating at another's house or visiting him by invitation. 2. a person staying at a hotel. 3. a visiting performer taking part in an entertainment, a guest artist. □ guest of honor, the most honored guest at a party. guest room, a bedroom kept for the use of guests.

guest·house (gest·houz) n. (pl. houses, pr. -howziz) 1. a separate house for guests on an estate. 2. a small, informal hotel.

guff (guf) n. (slang) empty talk, nonsense.
guf·faw (gu·faw) n. a coarse noisy laugh. guffaw v. to give a guffaw.

gui·dance (gwe·dans) n. 1. guiding, being guided. 2. advising or advice, especially on educational and vocational matters. □ guidance system, a computer and associated devices for keeping a missile, spacecraft, etc. on course.

guide (grd) n. 1. a person who shows others the way. 2. one employed to point out interesting sights on a journey or visit. 3. an adviser, a person or thing that directs or influences one's behavior. 4. a book of information about a place or a subject, a guide to Italy. 5. a thing that marks a position, guides the eye, or steers moving parts. guide v. (guid·ed, guid·ing) to act as guide to.

□ guide dog, a dog trained to guide a blind person. guided missile, a missile that is under remote control or directed by equipment within itself. guide rail, a track for a window or sliding door.
guide rope, a rope trailed along the ground by a balloon or small airship; a rope attached to the load of a crane to guide it. guide word, a word at the head of a page of a reference book indicating either the first or the last word on the page.

guide·book (grd·buuk) n. a book of information about a place, for travelers or visitors.

guide·line (grd·lin) n. a statement of principle giving practical guidance.

guil·da·nent (guil·d-ent) n. a small flag or pennant used as a military unit's standard.
guild (gild) n. a society of people with similar interests and aims, one of the associations of craftsmen or merchants in the Middle Ages.
guil·der (gil·d·er) n. a unit of money of the Netherlands, a florin.

guild·hall (gild·hawl) n. a hall built or used as a meeting place by a guild.
gulle (gil) n. treacherous cunning, craftiness. guile·ful adj. guile·less adj.
guile·less·ness n.
guil·lo·tine (gil·lo·ti·n) (gil·lo·ti·n) n. 1. a machine with a heavy blade sliding down in grooves, used for beheading criminals in France. 2. a machine with a long blade for cutting paper or metal. guillotine (gil·lo·tine) (gil·lo·tine) v. (guil·lo·ti·ned, guil·lo·ti·ning) to execute with a guillotine.
guilt (gil) n. 1. the fact of having committed some offense. 2. a feeling that one is to blame for something.
guilt·less (gil·lis) adj. without guilt, innocent.
gult·y (gil·ti) adj. (gult·i·er, gult·i·est) 1. having done wrong. 2. feeling or showing guilt. gult·i·ly adv. gult·i·ness n.
guin·ea (gin·ee) n. a former British gold coin worth 21 shillings (£1.05).

Guin·ea (gin·ee) a country in West Africa.

Guin·nee·an adj. & n.

Gu·in·ee·Bis·sau (gin·ee·bi·soh) a country in West Africa bordering Guinea.

guinea (gin·ee) fowl a domestic fowl of the pheasant family, with gray feathers spotted with white.

guinea hen a female guinea fowl.

guinea pig 1. a short-eared animal like a large rat, kept as a pet or for biological experiments. 2. a person or thing used as a subject for experiment.

guise (giz) n. an outward manner or appearance put on in order to conceal the truth, a pretense, they exploited him under the guise of friendship. □ Do not confuse guise with disguise.

guitar (guit-ər) n. a stringed musical instrument played by plucking with the fingers or with a plectrum; electric guitar, one with a built-in microphone.

gull·i·ble (gul·li·bəl) adj. (gul·li·bil·i·ty) n. a person who plays the guitar.

gulch (gulch) n. a small ravine.

gulf (gulf) n. 1. an area of sea (larger than a bay) that is partly surrounded by land. 2. a deep chasm or canyon. 3. a wide difference in opinions or outlook. □ Gulf Stream, a warm ocean current that flows from the Gulf of Mexico to Europe.

gull (gul ) n. a large seabird with long wings.

gull (gul ) n. (old use) a dupe. gull v. (old use) to deceive, to cheat.

gul-la·h (gul·lah) 1. one of a group of descendants of slaves from West Africa, inhabiting the Atlantic coastal region of the southeastern U.S. 2. the English-African dialect of these people.

gul·let (gul·let) n. 1. the passage by which food goes from the mouth to the stomach. 2. the throat.

gul·li·ble (gul·li·bəl) adj. easily deceived.

gul·li·bil·i·ty (gul·li·bil·i·te) n.

gul·ly (gul·ly) n. (pl. -lies) a narrow channel cut in the soil by flowing water.

gulp (gulp) v. 1. to swallow (food or drink) hastily or greedily. 2. to suppress something by swallowing hard, he gulped back his rage. 3. to make a gulping movement, to choke or gasp, gulping for breath. gulp n. 1. the act of gulping. 2. a large mouthful of liquid.

gum (gum) n. the firm flesh in which the teeth are rooted. gum v. (gummed, gum·ming) informal to chew without teeth.

-formal to cause confusion or delay in, to spoil, gum up the works, to interfere with the smooth running of something.

gum (gum) n. (slang, in oaths) God, by gum!

gum·bo (gum·bo) n. (pl. -bos) 1. the okra plant or its pods. 2. soup thickened with these pods. 3. thick mud.

gum·boil (gum·boil) n. a small abscess on the gum.

gum·drop (gum·drop) n. a candy made of gelatin or gum arabic and coated with sugar.

gum·my (gum·mi) adj. (gum·mi·er, gum·mi·est) sticky with gum. gum·mi·ness n.

gum·p·tion (gum·p·shən) n. (informal) common sense and initiative.

gum·shoe (gum·shoo) n. (slang) a detective.

gum (gum) n. 1. any kind of firearm that sends shells or bullets from a metal tube. 2. a starting pistol. 3. a device that forces out a substance through a tube, a grease gun. 4. (slang) a gunman, a hired gun.

gun v. (gummed, gun·ming) 1. to shoot with a gun, gunned him down. 2. to accelerate (an engine) briskly. □ be gunning for, to have as one's target for attack, to seek to destroy. big gun, see big. great guns, (informal) vigorously, intensively, blowing or going great guns.

gun·car·riage, a wheeled structure on which a gun is mounted for transport.

gun·metal, dull bluish-gray, like the color of metal formerly used for guns.

gun·moll, (slang) a gangster's mistress; a woman criminal with a gun. gun·run·ner, a person engaged in gun·running, extensive smuggling of guns and ammunition into a country.

gun·boat (gun·boat) n. a small armed vessel with heavy guns. □ gunboat diplo·mac·y, diplomacy backed by threat of force.

gun·cot·ton (gun·cot·ən) n. an explosive made of acid-soaked cotton.

gun·fight (gun·fit) n. a fight with guns. gun·fight·er n.

gun·fire (gun·frə) n. the firing of guns.

gung·ho (gung·ho) (informal) enthusiastic, eager.

gunk (gunk ) n. unpleasantly viscous or slimy material.

gun·lock (gun·lok) n. the mechanism by which the charge of a gun is exploded.

gun·man (gun·mən) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) a man armed with a gun.

gun·nel = gun·wale.

gun·ner (gun·ər) n. a soldier or member of an aircraft crew who operates a gun, tail gunner.

gun·ner·y (gun·ərə) n. the science of constructing and operating large guns. gunnery sergeant, a noncommissioned officer in the U.S. marines, next in rank below a first sergeant.
gunny (gun-ey) n. (pl. -nies) a coarse material made from jute or hemp.
gunny-sack (gun-ee-sak) n. a sack made of gunny.
gun-point (gun-point) n. at gunpoint, under threat of being shot by a gun held ready.
gun-pow-der (gun-paw-der) n. an explosive of saltpeter, sulfur, and charcoal.
gun-shot (gun-shot) n. 1. a shot fired from a gun. 2. the range of a gun, within gun-shot. gun-shy (gun-shy) adj. afraid of the sound of a gunshot.
gun-sling-er (gun-sling-er) n. (informal) a gunman.
gun-smith (gun-smith) n. a person whose trade is making and repairing small firearms.
gun-wale (gun-él) n. the upper edge of a small ship's or boat's side.
gulp (gup-lep) n. (pl. -ples) a small tropical fish frequently kept in aquariums.
gurgle (gur-gel) n. a low bubbling sound.
gurgle v. (gur-gled, gur-gling) to make this sound.
Gur-kha (goor-ká) n. a member of a Hindu people in Nepal, known for their ability as soldiers.
guru (goor-roo) n. (pl. -rus) 1. a Hindu spiritual teacher or head of a religious sect. 2. an influential or revered teacher.
gush (gush) v. 1. to flow or pour out suddenly or in great quantities. 2. to talk with extravagant enthusiasm or emotion, especially in an affected manner. gush n. 1. a sudden or great outflow. 2. an outpouring of feeling, effusiveness.
gush'y adj. (gush'-1-er, gush'-1-east). gush'er (gush-er) n. 1. an effusive person. 2. an oil well from which oil flows strongly without being needed to be pumped.
gus-set (gus-it) n. a triangular or diamond-shaped piece of cloth inserted in a garment to strengthen or enlarge it.
gus-set-ed (gus-it-ed) adj. fitted with a gusset.
gus-sy (gus-ee) v. (gus-sled, gus-sy-ling) (slang) to dress elegantly, to decorate, gussy up.
gust (gust) n. 1. a sudden rush of wind. 2. a burst of rain or smoke or sound. gust v. to blow in gusts. gust'y adj. gust'-1-ly adv.
gus-ta-to-ry (gus-ta-to-ree) adj. of the sense of taste.
gus-to (gus-toh) n. zest, great enjoyment in doing something.
gut (gut) n. 1. the lower part of the alimentary canal, the intestine. 2. a thread made from the intestines of animals, used surgically and for violin and racket strings. 3. guts, (informal) the internal organs of the abdomen; the internal parts of anything, the guts of the machine. 4. guts, (slang) strength or vitality, courage. gut adj. 1. fundamental, basic, a gut issue. 2. instinctive, a gut reaction. gut v. (gut-ting, gut-ting) 1. to remove the guts from (a fish). 2. to remove or destroy the internal fittings or parts of (a building), the factory was gutted by fire. gut-shot, a gunshot that wounds game in the stomach. hate a person's guts, (slang) to hate him intensely. work one's guts out, (informal) to work extremely hard.
gut-buck-et (gut-buk-1t) n. a style of jazz, enthusiastically played.
gut-less (gut-lish) adj. (informal) lacking courage and determination. guts-y (gut-see) adj. (slang) courageous.
gut-ta-per-cha (gun-a-pear-chá) n. a tough rubberlike substance made from the juice of various Malayan trees.
gut-ter (gun-tér) n. 1. a shallow trough under the eaves of a building, or a channel at the side of a street, for carrying off rain water. 2. a slum environment. gutter v. (of a candle) to burn unsteadily so that melted wax flows freely down the sides.
gut-ter-snip (gun-tér-snip) n. a dirty badly dressed child, a street urchin.
gut-tur-al (gun-ú-rál) adj. 1. throaty, harsh sounding, a guttural voice. 2. pronounced in the throat. gut-tural n. a guttural letter. gut-tur-al-ly adv.
gut-ty (gun-te) = gutsy.
guy1 (gr) n. a rope or cable used to keep something steady or secured, guy wires.
guy2 (informal) a man.
guz-zle (guz-él) v. (guz-zled, guz-zling) to eat or drink greedily. guzz'ler n.
gym (jim) n. (informal) 1. a gymnasium. 2. a physical education class. gym shoes, rubber-soled shoes worn in a gymnasium. gym suit, clothing, usually brief, worn for a gym class.
gym-kha-na (gim-kah-ná) n. a public sports competition, especially one that tests skill in driving a car or in gymnastics.
gym-na-sium (jim-nay-zí-úm) n. (pl. -siums, -sium, -sium, -si, pr. -zi-á) a room designed for physical training and gymnastics.
gymnast (jim-nást) n. an expert performer of gymnastics.
gymnastics (jim-nas-tiks) n. pl. exercises performed to develop the muscles or demonstrate agility; mental gymnastics, mental agility, elaborate reasoning. gymnastics n. sing. gymnastics as a subject of study or practice.
gymnastic (jim-nas-tik) adj. of gymnastics.
gymnastics (jim-nas-tiks) n. exercises performed to develop the muscles or demonstrate agility; mental gymnastics, mental agility, elaborate reasoning.
gymnastics n. sing. gymnastics as a subject of study or practice. gyroscope (ji-roh) n. {pi -ros) (informal) 1. a gyroscope. 2. a gyrocompass.
gyroscope (ji-rd-skohp) n. a device consisting of a heavy wheel which, when spinning fast, keeps the direction of its axis unchanged, used in navigation instruments in ships and in spacecraft etc.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy (ji-pee) n. (pl. -pies) 1. a member of a nomadic people, now mainly in Europe and the U.S. 2. their language, Romany. 3. (informal) a person who lives like a gypsy. □
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
gypsy moth, a moth whose larva is very destructive to trees.
habit (hab'i-t) n. 1. a settler or a person long settled in one place. 2. a descendant of the early French settlers in Canada and Louisiana.

habit (hay-bi-as) 1. a settled way of behaving, something done frequently and almost without thinking. 2. something that is hard to give up, especially an addiction to narcotics. 3. the long dress worn by a monk or nun. 4. a woman's riding dress.

habitability (ha-bit-a-bil-i-ty) n. 1. a place to live in. 2. inhabiting, being inhabited.

habitability (ha-bit-a-bil-i-ty) 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitability (ha-bit-a-bil-i-ty) adj. causing addiction.

habitability (ha-bit-a-bil-i-ty) 1. equipment, a habit, a taxi or its driver. habitability (ha-bit-a-bil-i-ty) 1. a horse for ordinary riding, one that may be hired. 2. a person paid to do hard and uninteresting work, especially as a writer. 3. (informal) a cab or carriage for hire, a taxi cab or its driver. habitability (ha-bit-a-bil-i-ty) adj. 1. hired, a hack writer. 2. commonplace, hackneyed, a hack novel. habitability (ha-bit-a-bil-i-ty) v. (informal) to drive a cab or carriage.

habitability (ha-bit-a-bil-i-ty) (hab-it-for-ming) adj. suitable for living in. habitability (ha-bit-a-bil-i-ty) adv. habitability (ha-bit-a-bil-i-ty) n. (pl. -a-bil-i-ties) a haberdasher's shop or goods.

habitability (ha-bit-a-bil-i-ty) adj. popular, ordinary, usual, commonplace, hackneyed, an adverb. habitability (ha-bit-a-bil-i-ty) v. (informal) to drive a cab or carriage.

habitability (ha-bit-a-bil-i-ty) (hab-it-for-ming) adj. causing addiction.

habitat (hab'i-tat) n. 1. the natural environment of an animal or plant. 2. the proper or natural place of an animal or plant. habitat (hab'i-tat) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) the driver of a taxicab or carriage.

habitation (hab-i-ta-shon) n. 1. a place to live in. 2. inhabiting, being inhabited.

habitation (ha-bi-ta-shon) n. 1. one who visits a place frequently or lives there. 2. the main house on a ranch or estate.

habitually (hab-it-u-ly) adv. habituality (hab-it'u-ly) n. 1. one who visits a place frequently or lives there. 2. the main house on a ranch or estate.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker. habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.

habitual (ha-bit'u-al) adj. 1. done constantly, like or resulting from a habit. 2. regular, usual, in his habitual place. 3. doing something as a habit, a habitual smoker.
metal, with a short blade in a frame.
hack-work (hak-wurk) n. literary work written on order, usually according to a prescribed formula.
had (had) see have.
had-dock (had-đk) n. (pl. -docks, -dock) a saltwater fish like cod but smaller, used for food.
Ha-des (hay-deez) n. 1. (in Greek mythology) the underworld, the place where the spirits of the dead go. 2. hell.
had-n't (had-ěnt) = had not.
haf-nil-um (haf-nil-ům) n. a gray metallic chemical element resembling and usually accompanying zirconium.
haft (haft) n. the handle of a knife or dagger or cutting tool.
hag (hag) n. an ugly old woman.
Hag-ga-dah (há-gah-dá) n. the book recited at Seder in the Jewish festival of Passover.
hag-gard (hag-ąrd) adj. looking exhausted and ugly from prolonged worry or illness or lack of sleep.
hag-gis (hag-is) n. A Scottish dish made from sheep's heart, lungs, and liver.
hag-gle (hag-ěl) v. (hag-gled, hag-gling) to argue about price or terms when settling a bargain. hag'-gler n.
ha-gl-og-ra-phy (hag-i-og-ra-fe) n. the writing of saints' lives. hag-i-og-ra-pher n.
Hague (hagy), The the seat of government of the Netherlands.
hah = ha.
ha-ha (hah-hah) interj. representing laughter.
hahn-l-um (hah-ni-ům) n. a newly discovered synthetic element.
hal-ku (há-ku, hâ-ku) n. (pl. -ku) a Japanese three-line poem of seventeen syllables, an English poem imitative of this form.
hail (hâl) v. 1. to greet, to call to (a person or ship), to signal to (a taxi etc.) to stop and take one as a passenger, within hailing distance, close enough to do this. 2. to originate, to have come, where does he hail from? □ hail fellow well met, very friendly toward strangers. Hail Mary, a prayer to the Virgin Mary beginning with these words.
hail (hâl) n. 1. pellets of frozen rain falling in a shower. 2. something coming in great numbers, a hail of blows. hail v. 1. to fall as hail in a shower, it is hailing. 2. to come or send down like hail. □ Do not confuse hail with hale.
hail-stone (hâl-stohn) n. a pellet of hail.
hail-storm (hâl-storm) n. a storm of hail.
hair (hair) n. 1. one of the fine threadlike strands that grow from the skin of people and animals or on certain plants. 2. a mass of these, especially on the human head. haired adj. □ get in a person's hair, to encumber or annoy him. hair trigger, a trigger that causes a gun to fire at the slightest pressure. split hairs, to make distinctions of meaning that are too small to be of any real importance.
hair-ball (hair-bawl) n. a ball of hair that collects in the intestines of an animal that licks its coat.
hair-brush (hair-brush) n. a brush for grooming the hair.
hair-cloth (hair-klawth) n. a stiff wiry upholstery fabric.
hair-cut (hair-kut) n. 1. shortening of the hair by cutting it. 2. the style in which it is cut.
hair-do (hair-doo) n. (pl. -dos) (informal) a particular way of styling or arranging a woman's hair.
hair-dress-er (hair-dres-er) n. a person whose trade is to arrange and cut hair.
hair-less (hair-lis) adj. without hair, bald.
hair-line (hair-lím) n. 1. a very narrow line.
2. the edge of a person's hair around the face. □ hairline fracture, a very narrow crack in a bone.
hair-piece (hair-pees) n. a quantity of false hair worn to increase the amount of a person's natural hair.
hair-pin (hair-pin) n. 1. a U-shaped pin for keeping the hair in place. 2. (also hairpin curve or turn) a very sharp doubling back of the road.
hair-rais-er (hair-ray-zér) n. a terrifying movie, story, experience, etc.
hair-rais-ing (hair-ray-zing) adj. terrifying, causing one's hair to stand on end.
hairs-breath (hairs-breath), hair-breath (hair-breath) n. a minute distance. hairbreath adj. □ hairsbreath escape, a very narrow escape.
hair-split-ter (hair-split-er) n. a person who makes unnecessarily fine distinctions.
hair-spray (hair-spray) n. an aerosol spray used to keep the hair in place.
hair-spring (hair-spring) n. a fine spring regulating the balance wheel in a watch.
hair-style (hair-styl) n. the style in which hair is arranged. hair-styl-ing n.
hair-styl-ist (hair-styl-ist) n. an expert in cutting and arranging hair.
hair-trig-ger (hair-trig-er) adj. rapidly responsive to any stimulus, a hair-trigger temper.
hair-weav-ing (hair-weav-ing) n. the interweaving of natural hair and a nylon thread base, to cover a bald area.
hair-y (hair-ee) adj. (hair-i-er, hair-i-est) 1. having much hair. 2. (slang) hair-raising, difficult. hair-i-ness n. □ hairy woodpecker, a North American woodpecker with similar markings to but larger than the downy woodpecker. Hal*ti (hay-tee) a country in the West Indies. Hal*tian (hay-shan) adj. & n. has made a pilgrimage to Mecca. Hake (hayk) n. (pl. hakes, hake) a fish of the cod family, used as food. Hal*berd (hal-bérd) n. a combined spear and battle-ax. Hal*berd*er (hal-bér-deer) n. a man armed with a halberd. Hal*cy*on (hal-si-in) adj. calm and peaceful, happy and prosperous, hale*con days.
> Named after a bird formerly believed to have the power of calming wind and waves while it nested on the sea.
Hale1 (hayl) adj. strong and healthy, hale and hearty. Hale*ness n. > Do not confuse hale with hall.
Hale2 v. (haled, hal-ing) to bring as by dragging, haled into court.
Half (haf) n. (pl. halves, pr. havz) one of two equal or corresponding parts into which a thing is divided. Half adj. amounting to a half. Half adv. to the extent of a half, partly, half cooked; I'm half inclined to agree. □ by half, excessively, too clever by half, by halves, lacking thoroughness, they never do things by halves. Half a dozen, six. Half and half, being half of one thing and half of another, especially half milk and half cream. Half boot, a boot reaching up to the calf of the leg. Half brother, sister, a brother or sister with only one parent in common with the other. Half dollar, a U.S. and a Canadian coin worth fifty cents. Half gainer, a dive in which the diver initially faces forward for takeoff and then executes a half-backward somersault and finishes by entering the water headfirst, facing the diving board.
Half hitch, a knot used in fastening a rope. Half hour, an interval of thirty minutes. Half measures, a policy lacking thoroughness. Half nelson, a hold in wrestling, with an arm under the opponent's arm and behind his neck. Half note, a musical note having one half the count of a whole note. Half past, thirty minutes past the hour. Half pint, a half of a pint; (informal) a very short or small person. Half shell, half of a mollusk shell, especially for serving seafood on.
Half size, any of the full figure sizes in women's clothes, indicated by the fraction one-half next to the size number.
Half slip, a woman's skirtlike undergarment. Half sole, the sole of a boot or shoe from Shank to toe. Half step, a half interval in pitch between two whole tones. Half time, the interval between the two halves of a game of football or hockey etc. Half*back (haf-bak) n. (in football) a player in the offensive backfield who often carries the ball. Half-baked (hay-baykt) adj. (informal) 1. not completely planned. 2. foolish.
Half*breed (haf-breed) n. a person of mixed race. Half*caste (haf-kast) n. a person of mixed race. Half-cocked (haf-kokt) adj. 1. (of a gun) with the hammer in a half-ready position.
2. (of a person) only half ready; go off half-cocked, to begin without adequate preparation. Half*heart*ed (haf-hahr-tid) adj. lacking enthusiasm. Half*heart*ed*ly adv.
Half*heart*ed'ness n.
Half*life (haf-lif) n. the time it takes the radioactivity of a substance to fall to half its original value. Half*mast (haf-mast) n. a point about halfway up a mast, to which a flag is lowered as a mark of respect for a dead person.
Half*pen*ny (hay-pé-nee) n. (pl. half* pen*nies, half*pence, pr. hay-péns) a British coin worth half a penny.
Half*tim*bered (haf-tim-béréd) adj. (of a building) having a timbered frame with the spaces filled in by brick or plaster.
Half*tone (haf-tohn) n. a black and white illustration in which light and dark shades are reproduced by means of small and large dots. Half*track (haf-trak) n. an armored vehicle having a propulsion system with wheels at the front and an endless driven belt at the back. Half*truth (haf-truth) n. a statement convoying only part of the truth.
Half*way (haf-way) adj. at a point between and equally distant from two others.
Halfway adv. partially. □ Halfway House, a special residence for former drug abusers, mental patients, prisoners, etc. where they are helped in adjusting to normal life. Half*wit (haf-wit) n. (slang) a mentally retarded or stupid person. Half*wit*ted adj.
Half*but (hal-l-bút) n. (pl. -but) a large flatfish used for food. Half*fax (hal-faks) the capital of Nova Scotia. Hal*ite (hal-it) n. a rock salt.
Hal*to*sis (hal-i-toh-sis) n. breath that smells unpleasant. Hall (hawl) n. 1. a large room or a building for meetings, meals, concerts, etc. 2. a corridor or passageway. 3. a space or passage into which the front entrance of a house etc. opens, a foyer or lobby. □ hall of fame, a building with memorials of celebrated persons, Baseball Hall of Fame. halls of learning, knowledge, (informal) college or university settings for the instruction of students. hal-le-lu-jah (hal-é-loo-yah) interj. praise to the Lord. hallelujah n. a song of praise to God. hall-mark (hawl-mahrk) n. 1. a mark, especially on articles of precious metal, to indicate their quality or purity. (Orig. — so marked at Goldsmith's Hall in England.) 2. a distinguishing characteristic, the bombing bears the hallmark of recent guerrilla attacks. hallmarked adj. hal-low (hawl-oh) v. to make holy, to honor as holy. hallowed adj. hal-low·een (hawl-é-en) n. October 31, the eve of All Saints' Day. hal-ly·ci·na·tion (hawl-uh-si-nay-shan) n. a drug causing hallucinations. hal-ly·ci·na·tive (hawl-uh-si-nay-tiv) adj. hal-ly·ci·na·tion (hawl-uh-si-nay-shan) n. 1. the illusion of seeing or hearing something when no such thing is present. 2. the thing seen or heard in this way. hal-ly·ci·na·tory (hawl-uh-si-nay-toh-ri) adj. of or causing hallucinations. hal-lo·gen (hawl-oh-gen) n. a metallic element. hal-lo·gen·ic (hawl-oh-gen-ik) adj. hal-low·en·y (hawl-oh-nee) adj. hal-lu·ci·nation (hawl-uh-si-nay-shan) n. 1. the introduction of a halogen atom into a molecule. hal-lu·ci·na·tion (hawl-uh-si-nay-shan) n. 1. a stop, an interruption, work came to a halt. 2. v. to falter in speech. 3. to walk hesitatingly. 4. to come or bring to a halt. halt adj. (old use) lame, crippled. hal·ter (hawl-tér) n. 1. a rope or leather strap put around a horse's head so that it may be led or fastened by this. 2. a style of dress top held up by a strap passing around the back of the neck, leaving the back and shoulders bare. 3. a rope with a noose for hanging a person. halter v. to put the halter on, to restrain, to hamper. hal·t·ing (hawl-ting) adj. 1. walking slowly as if unsure of oneself. 2. spoken hesitantly, a halting explanation. halting·ly adv. hal·vah (hawl-vah) n. a sweet food of Turkish origin, made of sesame flour and honey. hal·ve (hawl-iv) v. (halved, hal·v·ing) 1. to divide or share equally between two. 2. to reduce by half. hal·ves (hawl-ivs) see halt. hal·yard (hawl-yard) n. a rope for raising or lowering a sail or flag. ham (ham) n. 1. the upper part of a pig's leg, dried and salted or smoked. 2. meat from this. 3. the back of the thigh, the thigh and buttock. 4. (slang) a poor actor or performer. 5. (informal) the operator of an amateur radio station, a radio ham. ham v. (hammed, ham·ming) (slang) to overact, to exaggerate one's actions deliberately, hamming it up. ham·my adj. (mi·er, mi·est). ham·a·dryd (ham-uh-drid) n. 1. (in Greek and Roman mythology) a nymph living and dying with the tree she inhabited. 2. the king cobra. 3. a large Arabian baboon held sacred in ancient Egypt. ham·burg·er (hamburr·ger) n. a flat round cake of ground beef served fried or broiled, often in a bread roll. □ Named after Hamburg in Germany. ham·let (ham·lit) n. a small village. ham·mer (ham·ér) n. 1. a tool with a heavy metal head used for breaking things, driving nails in, etc. 2. something shaped or used like this, such as an auctioneer's mallet, part of the firing device in a gun, a lever striking the string in a piano. 3. a metal ball of about 15 pounds attached to a wire for throwing as an athletic contest. hammer v. to hit or beat with a hammer, to strike loudly. □ come under the hammer, to be sold by auction. hammer and sickle, the symbols of manual workers and peasants used as the emblem of the U.S.S.R. hammer and tongs, fighting or arguing with great energy and noise. hammer out, to devise (a plan) with great effort. ham·mer·head (ham·ér·hed) n. a shark with lateral extensions of the head bearing the eyes. ham·mer·lock (ham·ér·lok) n. a hold in which a wrestler's arm is bent behind his back. ham·mer·toe (ham·ér·toh) n. a toe that is permanently bent downward. ham·mock (ham·ök) n. a hanging bed of hand

hand-ful (hand-ful) n. (pl. -fuls) 1. a quantity that fills the hand. 2. a small number of people or things. 3. (informal) a person who is difficult to control, a troublesome task.

hand-gun (hand-gun) n. a gun held or fired with one hand.

canvas or rope mesh.

ham-mer (ham-per) n. a basketwork container for clothes, food, etc.

ham-per (ham-per) v. to prevent the free movement or activity of, to hinder.

ham-ster (ham-stér) n. a small ratlike rodent with cheek pouches for carrying grain.

ham-string (ham-string) n. 1. one of the strong tendons at the back of the human knee. 2. the great tendon at the back of an animal’s hock. hamstring v. (ham-strung, ham-string-ing) 1. to cripple by cutting the hamstrings. 2. to cripple the activity or efficiency of.

hand (hand) n. 1. the end part of the arm below the wrist. 2. possession, control, care, the child is in good hands. 3. influence, activity, many people had a hand in it. 4. active help, give him a hand. 5. a pledge of marriage, asked for her hand. 6. a manual worker in a factory, on a farm, etc., a member of a ship’s crew. 7. skill or style of workmanship, a person with reference to skill, has a light hand with pastry; an old hand at this, an experienced person. 8. style of handwriting. 9. a pointer on a clock, dial, etc. 10. side or direction, the right or left side, one of two contrasted sides in an argument etc., on every hand; on the other hand. 11. a unit of 4 inches used in measuring a horse’s height. 12. the cards dealt to a player in a card game, one round of a card game. 13. (informal) applause, got a big hand. 14. done or operated or carried etc. by hand, hand-sewn; hand brake; hand luggage. hand v. 1. to give or pass with one’s hand(s) or otherwise. 2. to help (a person) into a vehicle etc. □ at hand, close by; about to happen. by hand, by a person (not a machine); delivered by a messenger; not through the mail. hand and foot, completely, bound hand and foot; assiduously, waited on her hand and foot.

down, to transmit a decision (from the court). hand in glove with, working in close association with. hand in hand, holding each other’s hand; closely associated, linked together. hand it to a person, (informal) to award praise to. hand organ, a barrel organ with a crank turned by hand. hand over, to put (a person or thing) into the custody or control of another person. hand over fist, (informal) with rapid progress, making money hand over fist.

hands down, (of a victory won) easily, completely. hands off, do not touch or interfere. hands up, an order to raise both hands in surrender. hand towel, a small towel for wiping the hands after washing. have one’s hands full, to be fully occupied. hold a person’s hand, to give close guidance or moral support. hold hands, to be hand in hand with another person. in hand, in one’s possession; in control. live from hand to mouth, to supply only one’s immediate needs without provision for the future. on hand, available. on one’s hands, resting on one as a responsibility. out of hand, out of control; without delay, rejected it out of hand. out of one’s hands, out of one’s control. the upper hand, the advantage. to hand, within reach.

hand-bag (hand-bag) n. a woman’s bag to hold money and small personal articles.

hand-ball (hand-bawl) n. 1. a ball for hitting with the hand. 2. a game played with this ball in a walled court.

hand-bar-row (hand-bar-oh) n. a frame for loads etc. carried by two persons.

hand-bill (hand-bil) n. a printed notice circulated by hand.

hand-breath (hand-breth), hand’s-breath (handz-breth) n. the width of the average adult hand as a measure of distance, approximately four inches.

hand-car (hand-kahr) n. a small railroad car on four wheels operated by hand.

hand-cart (hand-kahrt) n. a cart drawn or pushed by hand.

hand-clap (hand-klap) n. a clapping of hands.

hand-clasp (hand-klasp) n. a handshake, a clapping of hands by two or more people to show friendship.

hand-craft (hand-kraft) v. to make by handicraft.

hand-cream (hand-krem) n. a cream for softening the hands.

hand-cuff (hand-kuf) n. one of a pair of linked metal rings for securing a prisoner’s wrists. handcuff v. to put handcuffs on (a prisoner).

hand-ed (hand-did) adj. 1. using or made for use by one hand or the other, left-handed. 2. requiring or involving a particular number of people, four-handed card game.

hand-ful (hand-fuul) n. (pl. -fuls) 1. a quantity that fills the hand. 2. a small number of people or things. 3. (informal) a person who is difficult to control, a troublesome task.

hand-grip (hand-grip) n. 1. a friendly or hostile grasp, seizure of the hand. 2. a handle.

hand-gun (hand-gun) n. a gun held or fired with one hand.
handicap (han-di-kap) n. 1. a disadvantage imposed on a superior competitor in order to equalize chances. 2. a race or contest in which this is imposed. 3. the number of strokes by which a golfer normally exceeds par for the course. 4. anything that lessens one's chance of success or makes progress difficult. 5. a physical or mental disability. handicap v. (hand-i-capped, hand-i-cap-ping) to impose or be a handicap on.

handicapped (han-di-kapt) adj. suffering from a physical or mental disability.

handicapper (han-di-kap-er) n. 1. a person whose job is to predict winners in a horse race. 2. a racetrack official who assigns the weights that horses carry in a race.

handicraft (han-di-kraft) n. work that needs both skill with the hands and artistic design, such as woodwork, needlework, pottery, etc. hand/i-crafts-man n. (pl. -men).

handily (han-di-lee) adv. in a handy way, easily.

handiwork (han-di-wurk) n. 1. something done or made by the hands. 2. something done or made by a named person.

handkerchief (hang-kér-chief) n. a small square of cloth for wiping the nose etc.

handicar (han-dicar) n. 1. a part of a thing by which it is to be held or carried or controlled. 2. (slang) one's name, what's your handle? handle v. (han-died, han-dling) 1. to touch or feel or move with the hands. 2. to be able to be operated, the car handles well. 3. to manage, to deal with, knows how to handle people. 4. to deal in (goods). 5. (informal) to discuss or write about (a subject). 6. fly off the handle, see fly².

handlebar (han-dle-bar) n. the steering bar of a bicycle etc., with a handle at each end. a handlebar mustache, a thick curving mustache shaped like this.

hander (hand-er) n. a person who handles things, one in charge of a trained police dog etc.

handmade (hand-mayd) adj. made by hand, the opposite of machine made.

handmaid (hand-mayd-en) n. a female servant.

hand-me-down (hand-mee-down) n. an article of secondhand clothing.

handoff (hand-awf) n. a short lateral pass in football.

handout (hand-owt) n. (informal) 1. a prepared statement issued to the press. 2. something distributed free of charge.

handpick (hand-pik) v. to choose carefully. hand'picked adj.

handrail (hand-rayl) n. a narrow rail for people to hold as a support when climbing stairs etc.

handsaw (hand-saw) n. a saw held with one hand.

handset (hand-set) n. a telephone mouthpiece and earpiece as one unit.

handshake (hand-shayk) n. a grasping and shaking of a person's hand with one's own as a greeting.

handsome (han-som) adj. 1. good-looking. 2. generous, a handsome present. 3. (of a price or fortune etc.) very large.

handsome'ly adv. hand/i-ness n.

handspring (hand-spring) n. a somersault in which a person lands first on his hands, then on his feet.

handstand (hand-stand) n. balancing on one's hands with the feet in the air.

hand-to-hand (hand-tó-hand) combat a fight involving close personal contact between the combatants.

handwritten (hand-written) adj. produced on a hand-operated loom.

handwritten (hand-written) adj. 1. writing done by hand with a pen or pencil. 2. a person's style of this.

handy (han-dee) adj. (hand-i-er, hand-i-est) 1. convenient to handle or use. 2. conveniently placed for being reached or used. 3. clever with one's hands.

handily (hand-i-ly) adv. hand/i-ness n.

handyman (han-di-man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) a person who does household repairs and odd jobs.

hang (hang) v. (hung, hang-ing) 1. to support or be supported from above so that the lower end is free. 2. to cause (a door or gate) to rest on hinges so that it swings freely back and forth, to be placed in this way. 3. to stick (wallpaper) to a wall. 4. to decorate with drapery or hanging ornaments. 5. (past tense hanged) to execute or kill by suspending from a rope that tightens around the neck, to be executed in this way. 6. to droop; people hung over the gate, leaned over it. 7. to remain in the air, smoke hung over the area; the threat is hanging over him, remains as something unpleasant. hang n. 1. the way something hangs. 2. (informal) a very small amount, doesn't care a hang. get the hang of (informal) to get the knack of. hang around, to loiter, not to disperse. hang back, to show reluctance to take action or to advance. hang fire, (of a gun) to be slow in going off; (of events) to be slow in developing. hang glider, a glider controlled and stabilized by movements of the operator suspended upright in it.

hanggliding, the sport of soaring through the air on a hang glider. hang in (there), (slang) to persist in spite of adversity. hang on, to hold tightly; to depend on, much hangs on this decision; to attend closely to, they hang on his words; to remain in office, to stick to one's duty etc.; (slang) to wait for a short time. hang on a minute; (informal, in telephoning) to hold the line. hang out, (slang) to frequent (a place), hang out at that bar. hang together, (of people) to help or support one another; (of statements) to fit well together, to be consistent. hang up, to end a telephone conversation by replacing the receiver; (informal) to cause delay or difficulty to. not give a hang, (informal) to not care at all.

han·gar (hang·ár) n. a building for housing aircraft.

hang·dog (hang·dawg) adj. shamefaced.

hang·er (hang·er) n. 1. a person who hangs things. 2. a loop or hook by which something is hung. 3. a shaped piece of wood, wire, or plastic for hanging a garment on.

hang·er·on (hang·er·on) n. (pl. hang·ers·on) a person who attaches himself to another in the hope of personal gain.

hang·ing (hang·ing) n. 1. a drapery hung on walls. 2. an execution by hanging.

hang·man (hang·man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) a man whose job is to hang persons condemned to death.

hang·nail (hang·nail) n. torn skin at the root of a fingernail.

hang·out (hang·out) n. (slang) a place often visited by a person or group.

hang·over (hang·over) n. 1. a severe headache or other unpleasant aftereffects from drinking too much alcohol. 2. something left from an earlier time.

hang·up (hang·up) n. (slang) a difficulty, an inhibition.

hank (hangk) n. a coil or length of wool or thread etc.

hank·er (hang·ker) v. to crave, to feel a longing. hank·er·ing n.

han·ky (hang·kee) n. (pl. -kies) (informal) a handkerchief.

han·ky·pan·ky (hang·kee·pan·kee) n. (informal) 1. trickery, dishonest dealing. 2. questionable or immoral behavior.

Ha·noi (ha·noi) the capital of Vietnam.

han·som (han·som) n. a covered two-wheeled horse-drawn carriage, with the driver mounted behind.

Ha·nuk·kah, Cha·nu·kah (hah·nú·kah) n. the Jewish festival of lights, commemorating the victory over the Syrians in the 2nd century B.C.

hao·le (how·lee) n. a person who is not a member of the native race of Hawaii, especially a white person.

hap (hap) n. (old use) 1. chance, luck. 2. a chance occurrence.

hap·ha·z·ard (hap·ha·zard) adj. done or chosen at random, without planning.

hap·ha·zard·ly adv. hap·ha·zard·ness n.

hap·less (hap·lis) adj. unlucky.

hap·lo·id (hap·loid) adj. having a single set of unpaired chromosomes. haploid n. a haploid cell, an organism having this.

hap·pen (hap·en) v. 1. to occur (by chance or otherwise). 2. to have the (good or bad) fortune to do something, we happened to see him. 3. to find by chance. I happened on this book. 4. to be the fate or experience of, what has happened to you?

hap·pen·ing (hap·pen·ing) n. something that happens, an event.

hap·pen·ing·ness (hap·pen·ing·ness) n. (informal) a thing that happens by chance.

hap·py (hap·py) adj. (hap·pl·er, hap·pl·est) 1. feeling or showing pleasure or contentment. 2. fortunate. 3. (of words or behavior) very suitable, pleasing. hap·pli·ly adv. hap·pli·ness n.

hap·py·go·lucky (hap·py·go·lucky) adj. taking events cheerfully as they happen.

ha·ra·klí·ri (ha·rak·lí·ri) n. suicide involving disembowelment, formerly practiced by Japanese army officers when in disgrace or under sentence of death.

ha·ran·guage (hah·ran·guage) n. a lengthy speech, especially a pompous or bombastic one.

ha·ran·guage·ing (hah·ran·guage·ing) to make a harangue to. ha·ran·gu·er n.

ha·ras·s (ha·ras, har·ás) v. 1. to trouble and annoy continually. 2. to make repeated attacks on (an enemy). ha·rass·ment n.

ha·ras·sed (ha·ras·sed, har·ás·sed) adj. tired and irritated by continual worry.

ha·rin·ger (ha·rin·ger) n. a person, event, or thing that announces the approach of another, a forerunner.

har·bor (har·bor) n. a place of shelter for ships. harbor v. 1. to give shelter to, to conceal (a criminal etc.). 2. to keep in one's mind, harbor a grudge.

hard (hard) adj. 1. firm, not yielding to pressure, not easily cut. 2. difficult to do or understand or answer. 3. causing unhappiness, difficult to bear. 4. severe, harsh, unsympathetic. 5. energetic, a hard worker. 6. (of weather) severe. 7. (of currency) not likely to drop suddenly in value. 8. (of drinks) strongly alcoholic.
9. (of water) containing mineral salts that prevent soap from lathering freely and cause a hard coating to form inside kettles, water tanks, etc. 10. (of colors or sounds) harsh to the eye or ear. 11. (of consonants) sounding sharp, the letter "g" is hard in "gun" and soft in "gin." hard adv. 1. with great effort, intensively, worked hard; it's raining hard. 2. with difficulty, hard-earned money. 3. so as to be hard, hard-baked. hard-ness n. □hard and fast, (of a distinction made, a rule of behavior, etc.) strict. hard and fast rules, rules that cannot be altered to fit special cases. hard bargaining, making few concessions. hard by, close by. hard cash, coins and bills, not a check or a promise to pay later. hard cider, fermented cider. hard coal, anthracite. hard copy, a legible permanent record of matter stored in a computer etc. hard core, the stubborn unyielding nucleus of a group; hard-core pornography, explicitly sexual, in a prurient way. hard court, a tennis court with a hard surface. hard drugs, drugs that are likely to cause addiction. hard hat, protective headgear worn on construction sites; (informal) a construction worker. hard labor, compulsory labor by prisoners, with loss of privileges during the first few weeks of a sentence. hard line, an unyielding adherence to a firm policy. hard of hearing, slightly deaf. hard palate, the front part of the palate. hard rock, a form of rock-'n'-roll music characterized by a very loud and strong beat. hard sauce, a sauce of butter and sugar, often with brandy etc. added. hard sell, aggressive salesmanship. hard shoulder, a strip of hardened land beside a highway for vehicles to leave the road in an emergency. hard up, (informal) short of money; hard up for ideas, short of these. hard words, words difficult to understand; angry talk.

hardback (hahrd-bak) adj. & n. hardcover.

hardball (hahrd-bawl) n. a baseball. □play hardball, (informal) to act without restraint.

hard-bit-ten (hahrd-bit-én) adj. unyielding in a fight.

hardboard (hahrd-bohrd) n. board made of compressed wood chips.

hard-boiled (hahrd-bold) adj. 1. (of eggs) boiled until the white and the yolk have become solid. 2. (of people) callous.

hard-bound (hahrd-bound) adj. bound in stiff durable binding. hardbound n. a hardbound book.

hard-en (hahrd-dên) v. 1. to make or become hard or hardy. 2. to make or become unyielding, attitudes have hardened in the dispute. hard'en-er n.

hard-hack (hahrd-hak) n. an American shrub related to roses, having rusty leaves with pink and white flowers.

hard-dli-hood (hahrd-di-huud) n. boldness, audacity.

har-ding (hahrd-deeng), War-ren G. (1865–1923) the twenty-ninth president of the U.S. 1921–23.

hard-lin'er (hahrd-lin-nér) n. a person unyielding in his adherence to a firm policy.

hard-ly (hahrd-lee) adv. 1. in a hard manner. 2. only with difficulty. 3. scarcely; one can hardly expect it, cannot reasonably expect it. □It is incorrect to say can't hardly.

hard-nosed (hahrd-nohzd) adj. (informal) uncompromising.

hard-pan (hahrd-pan) n. firm subsoil of clay etc., hard unbroken ground.

hard-shell (hahrd-shel) adj. 1. having a hard shell. 2. rigid, uncompromising.

hard-ship (hahrd-ship) n. severe discomfort or lack of the necessities of life, a circumstance causing this.

hard-stand (hahrd-stand) n. an area adjacent to an airport runway with a hard surface for aircraft to stand on.

hard-tack (hahrd-tak) n. a saltless hard biscuit formerly used on naval ships.

hard-top (hahrd-top) n. an automobile with a metal roof and no center posts separating the windows.

hard-ware (hahrd-wair) n. 1. tools and household implements etc. 2. weapons, machinery. 3. the mechanical and electronic parts of a computer.

hard-wood (hahrd-wood) n. the hard heavy wood obtained from deciduous trees, such as oak and teak.

hard-work-ing (hahrd-wur-king) adj. diligent.

har-dy (hahrd-dee) adj. (har-di'er, har-di'est) 1. capable of enduring cold or difficult conditions. 2. (of plants) able to grow in the open air all year round.

har-di-ness n. har-di-ly adv.

hare (hair) n. (pl. hares, hare) a field animal like a rabbit but larger.

hare-bell (hair-bel) n. a wild plant with blue bell-shaped flowers on a slender stalk.
hare-brained (hair-braynd) adj. wild and foolish, rash.
hare-lip (hair-lip) n. a deformed lip (usually, the upper lip) with a vertical slit in it like that of a hare. hare-lipped adj.
ha·rem (hair-em) n. 1. the women of a Muslim household. 2. their living quarters.
hark (hahrk) v. to listen. □hark back, to return to an earlier subject, to remember.
har·le·quin (hahr-lë-kwin, -kin) n. 1. (often Harlequin) a clownlike character in pantomime dressed in multicolored clothing. 2. a buffoon or clown. harlequin adj. multicolored.
har·lot (hahr-löt) n. (old use) a prostitute.
harm (hahrm) n. an injury, damage. harm v. to cause harm to.
harm·ful (hahrm-füll) adj. causing harm. harm·ful·ly adv.
harm·less (hahrm-lis) adj. 1. unlikely to cause harm. 2. inoffensive. harm·less·ly adv. harm·less·ness n.
har·mon·ic (hahr-mon-ik) n. 1. an over-tone of a primary note played on an instrument. 2. harmonics, the science of the physical characteristics of musical sound. harmonic adj. relating to harmony, having a harmonious sound. har·mon·i·cal·ly adv.
har·mon·i·ca (hahr-mon-i-kä) n. a small rectangular wind instrument played by passing it along the lips while blowing or sucking air.
har·mo·ni·ous (hahr-moh-ni-üs) adj. 1. sweet sounding, tuneful. 2. forming a pleasing or consistent whole. 3. free from disagreement or ill feeling. har·mo·ni·ous·ly adv. har·mo·ni·ous·ness n.
har·mon·i·um (hahr-moh-ni-üm) adj. a musical instrument with a keyboard, in which notes are produced by air pumped through reeds, a reed organ.
har·mo·nize (hahr-moh-nize) v. (har-moh·nized, har-moh·niz·ing) 1. to add notes to (a melody) to form chords. 2. to make or be harmonious. 3. to produce an agreeable artistic effect. har·mo·niz·er n. har·mo·ni·za·tion (hahr-moh-ni-zay-shön) n.
har·mo·ny (hahr-moh-nee) n. (pl. -nies) 1. the combination of musical notes to produce chords. 2. the study of chords and chord progressions. 3. a pleasant chord or progression of chords. 4. agreement, concord, we were in perfect harmony with each other.
har·ness (hahr-nis) n. 1. the straps and fittings by which a horse is controlled and fastened to a carriage, cart, etc. 2. fastenings resembling this (as for attaching a parachute to its wearer). harness v. 1. to put harness on (a horse), to attach by a harness. 2. to control and use (a river or other natural force) to produce electrical power etc. □harness racing, racing in which a horse pulls a two-wheeled vehicle and a driver. in·har·ness, in the routine of daily work. out of harness, retired from work.
harp (hahrp) n. a musical instrument consisting of strings stretched on a roughly triangular frame, played by plucking with the fingers. harp v. to talk repeatedly and tiresomely about a subject, is always harping on it. harp·er n. harp·ist n.
har·po·n (hahr-poon) n. a spearlike missile with a rope attached, for killing whales etc. harpoon v. to spear with a harpoon. har·po·ner n.
harp·si·chord (hahrp-si-kord) n. a keyboard instrument in which the strings are plucked rather than struck as in a piano, used especially in the 16th-18th centuries.
harp·py (hahr-py) (pl. -pies) a grasping unscrupulous person. □Named after the Harpies, creatures in Greek mythology with a woman’s head and body and a bird’s wings and claws.
har·que·bus (hahr-kwë-büs) n. (pl. -bus·es) an early type of portable gun, supported on a tripod by a hook or on a forked rest. har·que·bus·ier (hahr-kwë-bü-seer) n.
har·ri·dan (hahr-i-dän) n. a bad-tempered old woman.
har·ri·er1 (hahr-i-ër) n. 1. a hound used for hunting hares. 2. a cross-country runner.
harrier2 n. 1. a person or thing that harries. 2. a kind of falcon.
Har·ris·burg (hahr-is-burg) the capital of Pennsylvania.
Har·ri·son (hahr-i-sön), Ben·ja·min (1833–1901) the twenty-third president of the U.S. 1889–93.
Harrison, Wil·liam Hen·ry (1773–1841) the ninth president of the U.S. 1841.
har·row (hahr-oh) n. a heavy frame with metal spikes or disks for breaking up clods, covering seeds, etc. harrow v. 1. to draw a harrow over (land). 2. to distress greatly.
har·row·ing (hahr-uh-ing) adj. distressing, tormenting, a ‘harrowing night in the emergency room.
har·ry (hahr·ee) v. (har·ried, har·ry·ing) to harass.
har·sh (hahrsh) adj. 1. rough and disagreeable, especially to the senses, a harsh texture or voice. 2. severe, cruel, harsh treatment. harsh·ly adv. harsh·ness n.
hart (hahrt) n. an adult male deer.
Hart- ford (hahrt-ford) the capital of Connecticut.

harts-horn (hahrts-horn) n. a substance from horns of hart, formerly a chief source of ammonia.

har-um-scar-um (hair-üm-skair-üm) adj. (informal) wild and reckless. har-um-scarum n. (informal) a wild and reckless person. harum-scarum adv. (informal) in a harum-scarum way.

har-vest (hahr-vist) n. 1. the gathering of a crop or crops, the season when this is done. 2. the season's yield of any natural product. 3. the product of any action.
harvest v. to gather a crop, to reap.
harvest moon, the full moon nearest to the autumnal equinox (September 22 or 23).

har-vest-er (hahr-vi-stë-r) n. 1. a person who gathers a crop. 2. a machine that gathers a crop.

has (haz) see have.

has-been (haz-bin) n. (pl. has-beens) (informal) a person or thing that is no longer as famous or successful as formerly.

has-sen-pfet-fer (hahs-sen-feß-ër) n. a stew of marinated rabbit meat.

hash1 (hash) n. 1. a dish of cooked or preserved meat cut into small pieces and recooked. 2. a jumble, a mixture. hash v. to make (meat) into a hash. hash mark, (in football) a mark between a sideline and the center of the field showing where the ball may be put into play; (informal) a service stripe on the uniform of an enlisted person in the armed services.
hash over, (informal) to bring up again for discussion, especially when there is little hope of progress or resolution.
make a hash of, (slang) to make a mess of, to bungle. settle a person's hash, (informal) to make an end of or subdue him.

hash2 n. (slang) hashish.

hash-ish (hash-iss) n. the top leaves and tender parts of hemp, dried for chewing or smoking as a narcotic.

has-n't (haz-ënt) = has not.

hass (hasp) n. a hinged metal strip with a slit in it that fits over a U-shaped staple through which a pin or padlock is then passed.

has-sle (haz-ëll) n. (informal) a quarrel or struggle. hassle v. (has-sled, has-sling) (informal) 1. to quarrel. 2. to harass.

has-stock (haz-ôk) n. 1. a footstool or cushion for resting one's legs. 2. a cushion for kneeling (as in prayer).

has (hast) v. (old use) the past tense of have, used with thou.

haste (hayst) n. urgency of movement or action, hurry. In haste, quickly, hurriedly. make haste, to act quickly.

has-ten (hay-sen) v. 1. to hurry, 2. to cause (a thing) to be done earlier or to happen earlier.

hast-y (hay-stee) adj. (hast-i-er, hast-i-est) 1. hurried, acting too quickly. 2. said or made or done too quickly.
hast'-ly adv. hast'-ly ness n.

hat (hat) n. 1. a covering for the head, worn out of doors. 2. (informal) this thought of as symbolizing a person's position or job; wear two hats, to have two positions or jobs. keep it under your hat, keep it secret. pass the hat, to collect contributions of money. talk through one's hat, to talk with scanty or incomplete knowledge of one's subject matter.
toss or throw one's hat into the ring, to indicate one's intention of seeking election to office, promotion in employment, etc.

hat-band (hatch-band) n. a band of ribbon etc. around a hat just above the brim.

hat-box (hatch-box) n. a round container for the storage or transportation of a hat.

hatch' (hach) n. 1. an opening in a door or floor or ceiling, an opening in a ship's deck. 2. a movable cover over any of these.

hatch2 v. 1. (of a young bird or fish etc.) to emerge from an egg, (of an egg) to produce a young animal. 2. to cause (eggs) to produce young by incubating them. 3. to devise (a plot). hatch n. hatchling, a hatched brood.
hatch v. to mark with close parallel lines.
hatch-back (hatch-bak) n. a car with a sloping back hinged at the top so that it can be opened, the back itself.

hat-ch-er-y (hach-ë-ree) n. (pl. -er-ies) a place for hatching eggs, especially of fish, a trout hatchery.

hat-ch-et (hach-it) n. a light short-handled ax.
hatchet face, a long sharp-featured face. hatchet job, (informal) a malicious verbal attack. hatchet man, (informal) one who commits murder for pay; a person employed to make unpopular decisions or to coerce, threaten, etc.

hat-ch-ing (hach-ing) n. the drawing or engraving of closely spaced parallel lines to produce shading.

hat-ch-way (hach-way) n. a hatch, or the passageway leading to or from the hatch.

hate (hayt) v. (hat-ed, hat-ing) 1. to dislike intensely, detest, be hostile to. 2. to be reluctant, I hate to interrupt you. hate n. 1. the feeling of intense dislike or hostility. 2. (informal) the thing hated.
hateful / hay

hat'er n. □ hate letter, a communication, frequently anonymous, expressing the sender's hostility toward the recipient.

hate-ful (hayt-ful) adj. arousing hatred.

hate-ful·ly adv. hate-ful·ness n.

hat·ful (hat-fuul) n. (pl. -fuls) the amount a hat will hold.

hath (hath) v. (old use) has, music hath charms to soothe the savage breast.

hat·less (hat-lis) adj. not wearing a hat.

ha·ter (hay-trid) n. 1. the state of hating someone or something. 2. hate.

ha·tred (hayt-red) n.

hat·ful·ly adv.

haul (hau) v. 1. to pull or drag forcibly. 2. to carry by a truck etc. haul n. 1. hauling. 2. the amount gained as a result of effort, booty, made a good haul. 3. a distance to be traversed, it's only a short haul from here. haul'er n. □ over the long haul, in the long run, considering the long term.

haul·age (hau-laj) n. the transport of goods, the charge for this.

hau·ch (hau·ch) n. 1. the fleshy part of the buttock and thigh. 2. the leg and loin of deer etc. as food.

haul (hau) v. 1. (of ghosts) to be frequently in (a place) with manifestations of their presence and influence. 2. to be persistently in (a place). 3. to linger in the mind of, the memory haunts me.

haut n. a place often visited by the person(s) named, the inn is a favorite haunt of fishermen. haut'er n. haut'ing·ly adv.

haut·ed (hau·ted) adj. frequented by a ghost or ghosts.

haut·boy, haut·bois (oh-boi) n. (pl. -boys, -bois, pr. -boiz) (old use) oboe.

haute cou·ture (oht koo-toor) high fashion, including the manufacturers and the products. □ French.

haute cul·sine (oht kwee-zeen) elaborate (traditional French) cooking. □ French.

haut·eur (oh-tur) n. haughtiness of manner.

Ha·van·a (hah-van-ah) the capital of Cuba.

□ Havana (cigar), a cigar made from Cuban tobacco or one resembling such a cigar.

have (hay) v. (had, hav·ing) 1. to be in possession of (a thing or quality), to possess in a certain relationship, he has many enemies. 2. to contain, the house has six rooms. 3. to experience, to undergo, had a shock. 4. to give birth to. 5. to put into a certain condition, you had me wort.
len of certain plants, causing inflammation of mucous membranes of the eyes and nose. hit the hay, (slang) go to bed. make hay while the sun shines, to seize opportunities before they disappear.

Hayes (hayz), Ru·ther·ford B. (1822–93) the nineteenth president of the U.S. 1877–81.

hay·fork (hay-fork) n. 1. a pitchfork. 2. a machine that turns over or loads hay.

hay·loft (hay-lawft) n. a part of a barn or a stable where hay is stored.

hay·mak·er (hay-may-kär) n. (informal) a knockout punch in a fight.

hay·mow (hay-mow) n. 1. hay stored in a barn. 2. the part of the barn in which it is stored.

hay·seed (hay-seed) n. 1. grass seed gleaned from hay. 2. (slang) a country bumpkin.

hay·stack (hay-stak) n. a regularly shaped pile of hay firmly packed for storing, with a pointed or ridged top.

hay·wire (hay-wir) n. (informal) badly disorganized, out of control.

haz·ard (haz-ard) n. 1. risk, danger, a source of this. 2. an obstacle (such as a pond or bunker etc.) on a golf course.

hazard v. to risk; hazard a guess, venture to make one.

haz·ard·ous (haz-är-dūs) adj. risky.

haz·ard·ous·ly adv.

haze1 v. (hazy) n. 1. thin mist. 2. mental confusion or obscurity.

haze2 v. (hazed, haz·ing) to harass and subject to humiliation (college freshmen, fraternity initiates, etc.).

ha·zel (hay-zel) n. 1. a bush with small edible nuts (hazel nuts). 2. a light brownish color.

ha·zy (hay-zee) adj. (-zil·er, -zil·est) 1. misty. 2. vague, indistinct. 3. feeling confused or uncertain. ha·zi·ly adv. ha·zi·ness n.

Hb symbol hemoglobin.

H-bomb (aych-bomb) n. a hydrogen bomb.

hd. abbr. 1. hand. 2. head.

hdbk. abbr. handbook.

hdqrs. abbr. headquarters.

hdw., hdwe. abbr. hardware.

he (hee) pronoun 1. the male person or animal mentioned. 2. a person of unspecified sex, he who hesitates is lost. he n. a male animal; a he-goat, a male goat.

He symbol helium.

HE abbr. high explosive.

H.E. abbr. 1. high explosive. 2. His (or Her) Excellency. 3. His Eminence.

head (hed) n. 1. the part of the body containing the eyes, nose, mouth, and brain. 2. this as a measure of length, the horse won by a head. 3. the intellect, the imagination, the mind, use your head. 4. a mental ability or faculty, has a good head for figures. 5. an image or picture of a person’s head; heads, the side of a coin on which a person’s head appears. 6. a person, an individual person or animal, crowned heads; it costs ten dollars a head. 7. (informal) a headache, did I have a head this morning? 8. a number of animals, twenty head of cattle. 9. a thing like a head in form or position, such as the rounded end of a pin, the cutting or striking part of a tool etc., a rounded mass of leaves or petals etc. at the top of a stem, the flat surface of a barrel. 10. foam on top of beer etc. 11. the top of something long (such as a stair or mast) or of a list. 12. the top part of a boil or blister where it tends to break. 13. the upper end or part of a table (where the host sits) or lake (where a river enters) or bed (where a person’s head rests) etc. 14. a body of water kept at a height (to work a water mill etc.), a confined body of steam for exerting pressure. 15. the leading part in a procession or army; at the head, in a position of command. 16. (in place names) a promontory, Hilton Head. 17. the chief person of a group or organization etc. 18. a headline. head v. 1. to be at the head or top of. 2. to strike (a ball) with one’s head in soccer. 3. to move in a certain direction, we headed south; heading for disaster. head adj. 1. chief, leading, he is the head spokesman for the cause. 2. placed at the head or front. 3. coming or moving from the front, head winds. □ come to a head, reach a crisis. give him his head, let him move or act freely. go to a person’s head, (of alcohol) to make dizzy or slightly drunk; (of success) to make conceited. head and shoulders (above), clearly superior (to). head cold, a common cold generally characterized by nasal congestion. head off, to force to turn back or aside by getting in front of, they headed him off at the pass. head over heels, turning one’s body upside down in a circular movement; very much, he is head over heels in love with her. head start, an advantage in a competition etc., the child’s early training gave him a head start in life. heads up, quick to take advantage of opportunities; heads up! be alert! heads will roll, some people will be punished or dismissed. head wind, a wind blowing from directly in front. in one’s head, in one’s mind, not written down. keep one’s head, to remain calm in a crisis. laugh one’s head off, to laugh uncontrollably. lose one’s head, to act foolishly. make heads or tails of, to be able to understand. out of one's head, (informal) a usually temporary state of delirium or hysteria. over one's head, (of another's promotion etc.) when one has a prior or stronger claim; (of a book, speech, etc.) past one's ability to understand. put heads together, to pool ideas. turn a person's head, to make him vain.

headache (hed-ayk) n. 1. a pain in the head. 2. a problem causing worry.

head-band (hed-band) n. a band, usually ornamental, worn around the head.

head-board (hed-bohrd) n. an upright panel along the head of a bed.

head-cheese (hed-cheez) n. a seasoned loaf having as its base the head meat of a pig or calf.

head-dress (hed-dres) n. an ornamental covering or band worn on the head.

head-ed (hed-id) adj. 1. formed or grown into a head. 2. having a heading or head.

head-first (hed-furst) adv. 1. with the head in front of the rest of the body. 2. hastily, precipitately.

head-gear (hed-gear) n. a hat or cap.

head-hunt-er (hed-hun-tar) n. 1. a primitive tribesman who collects the heads of his enemies as trophies. 2. (slang) an employment agent or agency specializing in placement of managers and other skilled personnel. head/hunt-ing n.

head-ing (hed-ing) n. 1. a word or words put at the top of a section of printed or written matter as a title etc. 2. the compass direction in which a ship, aircraft, etc. is pointing or moving.

head-land (hed-land) n. a promontory.

head-less (hed-lis) adj. having no head.

head-light (hed-lit) n. 1. a powerful light mounted on the front of a motor vehicle or railroad engine. 2. the beam from this.

head-line (hed-lin) n. a heading in a newspaper, especially the largest one at the top of the front page; the news headlines, a brief broadcast summary of news.

head-lock (hed-lok) n. a wrestling hold in which a contestant tightens his arm around an opponent's head.

head-long (hed-lawng) adj. & adv. 1. falling or plunging with the head first. 2. in a hasty and rash way.

head-man (hed-man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) the highest ranking man in a tribe or (informal) business organization.

head-mas-ter (hed-mas-tar), head-mis-tress (hed-mis-tris) n. the director of a private school.

head-on (hed-on) adj. & adv. 1. with the head pointed directly toward something. 2. colliding head to head.

head-phone (hed-fohn) n. a radio or telephone receiver held over the ear(s) by a band fitting over the head.

head-piece (hed-pees) n. 1. a covering for the head. 2. an ornament at the beginning of the chapter of a book.

head-pin (hed-pin) n. the pin nearest the bowler as he faces the bowling alley, the number one pin.

head-quar-ters (hed-kwor-tarz) n. pl. the place from which a military or other organization is controlled. > This word can also be treated as singular.

head-rest (hed-rest) n. a head support, especially in motor vehicles.

head-room (hed-room) n. a head support, especially in motor vehicles.

head-sail (hed-sayl) n. a sail set on or forward of the foremost mast of a vessel.

head-set (hed-set) n. a pair of earphones linked by a band that fits over the user's head.

head-stall (hed-stawl) n. the part of a bridle or halter that fits around the horse's head.

head-stand (hed-stand) n. the act of standing on one's head.

head-stone (hed-stohn) n. a stone set up at the head of a grave.

head-strong (hed-strong) adj. self-willed and obstinate.

head-wait-er (hed-way-tar) n. a supervisor of other waiters in a restaurant, often responsible for reservations.

head-wa-ters (hed-waw-tarz) n. pl. streams from the sources of a river.

head-way (hed-way) n. 1. progress, the rate of progress of a ship. 2. headroom. 3. the interval between successive buses etc. on a route.

head-word (hed-wurd) n. a word forming a heading, especially of a dictionary entry.

head-work (hed-wurk) n. mental work, conscious thinking.

head-y (hed-ee) adj. (head-l-er, head-l-est) 1. (of a person, thing, or action) impetuous, violent. 2. (of liquor or triumph etc.) apt to intoxicate. head-ly adv. head-l-ness n.

heal (heel) v. 1. (of sore or wounded parts) to form healthy flesh again, to unite after being cut or broken. 2. to cause to do this. 3. (old use) to cure, healing the sick.

heal-er n.

health (helth) n. 1. the state of being well and free from illness, was restored to health. 2. the condition of the body, ill health. □ health foods, foods thought to have health-giving qualities; natural unprocessed foods.

health-ful (helth-ful) adj. producing good healthy / heart-to-heart health, beneficial. healthy ly adv. health y ness n.

healthy y (hel-thee) adj. (healthier, healthiest) 1. having or showing or producing good health. 2. beneficial. 3. (of things) functioning well. health y ly adv. health y ness n.

heap (heap) n. 1. a number of things or mass of grains etc. lying on one another. 2. heaps, (informal) a great amount, plenty, there's heaps of time. 3. (slang) a car in poor condition. heap v. 1. to pile or become piled in a heap. 2. to load with large quantities, to give large quantities of, heaped the plate with food; they heaped insults on him.

hear (heer) v. (heard, hearing) 1. to perceive (sounds) with the ear. 2. to listen or pay attention to. 3. to listen to and try (a case) in a law court. 4. to receive information or a message or letter etc. hearer n. □ hear a person out, to listen to the whole of what he has to say. hear of, to have knowledge or information about, we've never heard of this firm. will not hear of, to refuse to allow, won't hear of my paying for it.

heard (hurd) see hear.

hearing (hearing) n. 1. the ability to hear; within hearing distance, near enough to be heard; in my hearing, in my presence, where I can hear. 2. an opportunity of being heard; a session before a judge prior to trial, got a fair hearing. □ hearing aid, a small sound-amplifier worn by a deaf person to improve the hearing.

hearken (hahrken) v. (old use) to listen.

hearsay (heer-say) n. things heard in rumors or gossip.

hearse (hurs) n. a vehicle for carrying the coffin at a funeral.

heart (hahrth) n. 1. the hollow muscular organ that keeps blood circulating in the body by contracting rhythmically. 2. the part of the body where this is, the bosom. 3. the center of a person's emotions or affections or inmost thoughts, knew it in her heart. 4. the ability to feel emotion, a tender heart. 5. courage, take heart. 6. enthusiasm, his heart isn't in it. 7. a beloved person, dear heart. 8. the innermost part of a thing, the close compact head of celery etc.; the heart of the matter, the vital part of it. 9. a symmetrical figure conventionally representing a heart. 10. a red figure shaped like this on playing cards, a playing card of the suit (hearts) marked with these. heart ed adj. □ after one's own heart, exactly to one's liking. at heart, basically. by heart, memorized thoroughly. change of heart, a change of feeling toward something. have a heart, (informal) be considerate or sympathetic. have the heart to, to be hard-hearted enough to (do something). heart attack or heart failure, sudden failure of the heart to function normally. heart-lung machine, a pumping machine that enables these organs to be bypassed during a surgical operation by taking over their functions in blood circulation. his heart is in the right place, he has kindly intentions. his heart was in his mouth, he was violently alarmed. set one's heart on, to desire eagerly. take to heart, to be deeply troubled by; to consider seriously. to one's heart's content, as much as one wishes. wear one's heart on one's sleeve, to let one's feelings and emotions be obvious. with all one's heart, sincerely, with the greatest goodwill.

heartache (hahr-ayk) n. mental pain, deep sorrow.

heartbeat (hahr-beet) n. the beating of the heart.

heartbreak (hahr-brayk) n. overwhelming unhappiness. heartbreak ing adj.

heartbreak ing adj.

heartburn (hahr-burn) n. a burning sensation in the lower part of the chest.

hearten (hahrten) v. to make (a person) feel encouraged.

heartfelt (hahrfelt) adj. felt deeply or earnestly.

hearth (hahrth) n. 1. the floor of a fireplace, the area in front of this. 2. the fireside as the symbol of domestic comfort, hearth and home.

hearth rug (hahrth-rug) n. a rug laid in front of a fireplace.

hearthside (hahrth-sid) n. 1. the space around a fireplace. 2. a person's home.

hearthstone (hahrth-stohn) n. 1. a flat stone forming a hearth. 2. a person's home.

heartily (hahr-lee) adv. 1. in a hearty way. 2. very, heartily sick of it.

heartland (hahrth-land) n. the central or most important part of an area.

heartless (hahrth-less) adj. not feeling pity or sympathy. heartless ly adv.

heartless ness n. heartrend ing (hahrth-ren-ding) adj. extremely distressing.

heartsick (hahrth-sik) adj. extremely unhappy. heart sick ness n.

heartstrings (hahrth-stringz) n. pl. one's deepest feelings of love or pity.

heartthrob (hahrth-throb) n. 1. the beating of the heart. 2. (slang) the object of one's infatuation.

heart-to-heart (hahrth-tuh-hahrth) adj. & heartwarming / heavy-duty

adv. frank and personal, a heart-to-heart talk; spoke heart-to-heart.

heart-warm"ing (hahr-t wur-ming) adj. emotionally moving and encouraging.

heart-wood (hahr-t wuud) n. the dense inner part of a tree trunk, yielding the hardest timber.

heart-y (hahr-tee) adj. (heart-l er, heart-l est) 1. showing warmth of feeling, enthusiastic. 2. vigorous, strong, hale and hearty. 3. (of meals or appetites) large. hearty n. (pl. heart-les) (old use) a hearty person. heart-l ness n.

heat (heet) n. 1. a form of energy produced by movement of molecules, capable of transmission by conduction or convecion or radiation. 2. the sensation produced by this, hotness. 3. hot weather. 4. a condition of sexual excitement and readiness for mating in female animals, be in heat. 5. an intense feeling, especially of anger; take the heat out of a situation, to reduce the anger or tension. 6. one of the preliminary contests of which winners take part in further contests or the final. 7. (slang) intense pressure, as of work, a police search, etc. heat v. to make or become hot or warm. heat-l ess adj. □heat engine, a machine producing motive power from heat. heat exhaus-tion, a state of physical exhaustion marked by dizziness, weakness, nausea, and sweating, resulting from excessive activity in a hot environment. heat lightening, lightning without audible thunder, seen close to the horizon on hot summer evenings. heat pump, a reversed heat engine using mechanical energy to transfer heat to a hotter place. heat shield, a device to protect from excessive heat, especially on spacecraft during reentry into Earth's atmosphere. heat wave, a period of very hot weather.

heat-ed (hee-tid) adj. (of a person or discussion) angry. heat-ed ly adv.

heat-er (hee-ter) n. a stove or other device supplying heat.

heath (heeth) n. 1. (British) an area of flat uncultivated land with low shrubs. 2. a small shrubby plant of the heather kind.

heath-en (hee-then) n. (pl. -then, -then) 1. a person who is not a believer in any of the world's chief religions, especially one who is neither Christian, Jew, nor Muslim. 2. an unenlightened person, one regarded as lacking culture or moral principles. heath-en ish adj. heath-en ism n. heath-en-dom n.

heath-er (heth-er) n. an evergreen plant or shrub with small purple or pinkish or white bell-shaped flowers.

heat-stroke (heet-strohk) n. a severe illness caused by too much exposure to heat.

heave (heev) v. (heaved, heav ing) 1. to lift or haul (something heavy) with great effort. 2. to utter with effort, heaved a sigh. 3. (informal) to throw, heave a brick at him. 4. to rise and fall regularly like waves at sea. 5. to pant, to retch.

heave n. 1. the act of heaving. 2. heaves, a disease of horses with labored breathing, (slang) an attack of vomiting. heav'er n. □heave in sight, (past tense hove) to come into view. heave to, (past tense hove) to bring (a ship) or come to a standstill with the ship's head to the wind.

heav-en (hev-ên) n. 1. the abode of God and of the righteous after death. 2. Heaven, God, Providence, the state of the soul's union with God. 3. a place or state of supreme bliss, something delightful. □the heavens, the sky as seen from Earth, in which the sun, moon, and stars appear.

heav-en-ly (hev-ên-lee) adj. 1. of heaven, divine. 2. of the heavens or sky; heavenly bodies, the sun and stars etc. 3. (informal) very pleasing.

heav-en-sent (hev-ên-sent) adj. providen-tial, fortunate.

heav-en-ward (hev-ên-ward) adj. & adv. toward heaven, he sent his prayers heav-enward.

heav-y (hee-ve) adj. (heav-l er, heav-l est) 1. having great weight, difficult to lift or carry or move. 2. of more than average weight or amount or force, heavy artillery; heavy rain. 3. (of work) needing much physical effort. 4. severe, intense, a heavy drinker; heavy drinking, drinking much alcohol; a heavy sleeper, not easily awakened. 5. dense, a heavy mist; heavy bread, doughy from not having risen. 6. (of ground) clinging, difficult to travel over. 7. (of food) difficult to digest. 8. (of the sky) gloomy and full of clouds. 9. clumsy or ungraceful in appearance or effect or movement. 10. unhappy, with a heavy heart. 11. dull and tedious, serious in tone. 12. stern, the heavy father.

heavy n. (pl. heav-ies) (informal) the villain in a play, story, etc. heav'ly adv. heav'l ness n. □heavy going, progress made only with difficulty.

heavy industry, industry producing metal, machines, etc. heavy water, deuterium oxide, a substance with the same chemical properties as water but greater density. heavy with child, in an advanced stage of pregnancy.

heav-y-du"ty (hee-ve-doo-tee) adj. intended to withstand hard use.
heav·y-hand·ed (he·v·ee-han·did) adj. clumsy.
heav·y-heart·ed (he·v·ee-hahr·tid) adj. sad.
heav·y-set (he·v·ee-set) adj. having a solid and sturdy body.
heav·y-weight (he·v·ee-wayt) n. 1. a person of more than average weight. 2. a boxer of the heaviest weight class in boxing, weighing over 175 pounds. 3. (informal) a person of great influence.
heavyweight adj. having great weight or influence.
He·bra·ism (he·bra·iz··em) n. 1. the Hebrew character or culture. 2. the Hebrew system of thought or religion. 3. a Hebrew idiom or expression, especially in the Greek of the Bible. He·bra·ist n.
He·bra·ic (hi·bra·ik) adj.
He·brew (he·bree) n. 1. a member of a Semitic people in ancient Palestine. 2. their language, a modern form of this used in Israel. 3. Hebrews, a book of the New Testament traditionally included among the letters of St. Paul but now usually held to be of other authorship.
Hebrew adj. 1. of or in Hebrew. 2. of the Hebrews or the Jews.
heck (hek) n. (informal, in oaths) hell.
heck·le (hek·el) v. (heck·led, heck·ling) to interrupt and harass (a public speaker) with aggressive questions and abuse. heck'·ler n.
hec·tare (hek·tair) n. a unit of area, 10,000 square meters (2.471 acres).
hec·tic (hek·tic) adj. with feverish activity, a hectic day. hec·tic·al·ly adv.
hec·to·gram (hek·to·gram) n. one hundred grams (353 ounces).
hec·to·li·ter (hek·to·lee·ter) n. one hundred liters (3.53 cubic feet; 2.84 bushels).
hec·to·me·ter (hek·to·mee·ter) n. one hundred meters (109.36 yards).
hec·tor (hek·tor) v. to intimidate by bullying.
he'd (heed) = he had, he would.
hedge (hej) n. 1. a fence of closely planted bushes or shrubs. 2. a means of protecting oneself against possible loss, bought diamonds as a hedge against inflation.
hedge v. (hedged, hedgem·ing) 1. to surround or bound with a hedge. 2. to reduce the possible loss on (a bet) by another speculation. 3. to avoid giving a direct answer or commitment. hedg'·er n. ▶ hedge sparrow, a common European bird resembling a thrush.
hedge·hog (hej·hog) n. 1. a small European insect-eating animal with a piglike snout and a back covered with stiff spines, able to roll itself up into a prickly ball when attacked. 2. the porcupine.
hedge·hop (hej·hop) v. (hedged·hop·ped, hedged·hop·ping) to fly an airplane at an extremely low altitude following the contours of the land.
hedge·row (hej·roh) n. a row of bushes etc. forming a hedge.
he·do·nist (hee·doh·nist) n. a person who believes that pleasure is the chief good in life. he·do·nism n. he·do·nis·tic adj.
hee·ble·jee·bles (hee·bee·jee·beez) n. pl. (slang) nervous anxiety or depression.
heed (heed) v. to pay attention to. heed n. careful attention, take heed. heed'ful adj. heed'fu·ly adv. heed'fu·ness n.
heed·less (heed·lis) adj. not taking heed.
heed'less·ly adv. heed'less·ness n.
hee·haw (hee·haw) n. a donkey's bray. hee·haw v. to bray like a donkey.
heel (heel) n. 1. the rounded back part of the human foot. 2. the part of a stocking etc. covering this. 3. a built-up part of a boot or shoe that supports a person's heel. 4. something like a heel in shape or position; the heel of the hand, the front part next to the wrist. 5. (slang) a dishonorable man. heel v. to repair the heels of (shoes etc.). □ at or on the heels of, following closely after. down at the heel, (of a shoe) with the heel worn down by wear; (of a person) shabby. take to one's heels, to run away.
heel2 v. to tilt (a ship) or become tilted to one side, heeled over.
heel·less (heel·lis) adj. (of shoes) with no built-up part under the heel.
heft (heft) n. weight. heft v. to lift, especially to judge weight. heft·y (heft·ee) adj. (heft·i·er, heft·i·est) 1. (of a person) big and strong. 2. (of a thing) large and heavy, powerful.
he·gem·o·ny (hi·jem·oh·nee) n. (pl. -nies) dominance of leadership, especially by one nation over others.
He·gl·ra (hi·jr·ra, hej·er·a) n. 1. the flight of Muhammad from Mecca (A.D. 622), from which the Muslim era is reckoned. 2. hegira, a journey taken to escape danger.
hef·fer (hef·er) n. a young cow, especially one that has not given birth to a calf.
height (hght) n. 1. measurement from base to top, the measurement of a person etc. from head to foot as he stands. 2. the distance (of an object or position) above ground or sea level. 3. a high place or area, is afraid of heights. 4. the highest degree of something, dressed in the height of fashion; the height of the tourist season, its most active time.
height·en (ht·ten) v. to make or become higher or more intense.
Hel'mich (hel-mi-k) maneuver a first aid procedure in which the abdomen of a choking victim is pressed inward and upward by hand in order to assist in dislodging food or other obstruction from the esophagus. Named after Dr. Henry J. Heimlich (1920– ).

hel'rous (hay-ros) adj. very wicked, outrageous. hel'rous-ly adv. hel'rous-ness n.

heir (air) n. a person who inherits property or rank etc. from its former owner. □heir apparent, the legal heir (especially of a title or throne) whose claim cannot be set aside by the birth of a person with a stronger claim to inherit. heir presumptive, an heir whose claim may be set aside in this way.

heir-loom (air-loom) n. a possession that has been handed down in a family for several generations.

helst (hust) n. (slang) a burglary or robbery.

held (held) see hold.

Hel'·e·na (hel-ë-nä) the capital of Montana.

hel'·i·cal (hel-i-kal) adj. like a helix.

hel'·i·cold (hel-i-kold) hel'·i·cold·al (hel-i-kold-al) adj. arranged in or forming a spiral.

hel'·i·cop·ter (hel-i-kop-tar) n. a kind of aircraft with horizontal revolving blades or rotors.

hel'·i·o·cen·tric (hee-ë-oh-sen-trik) adj. as viewed from the center of the sun, taking the sun as center.

hel'·i·o·graph (hee-ë-oh-graf) n. a signaling device using a movable mirror to reflect the sun's rays in flashes.

hel'·i·o·trope (hee-ë-oh-trohp) n. 1. a plant with small sweet-smelling purple flowers. 2. a light purple color.

hel'·i·pad (hel-i-pad) n. a heliport, usually one that is privately owned.

hel'·i·port (hel-i-pohrt) n. an airport for helicopters.

hel'·i·um (hee-ë-üm) n. a light colorless gaseous element.

hel'·ix (hee-ëks) n. (pl. hel'·i·ces, pr. hel'·i-seez, he'·lix·es) a spiral with a diminishing circumference (like a corkscrew) or a constant circumference (like a watch spring).

hell (hel) n. 1. the place of punishment for the wicked after death, the abode of devils. 2. a place or state of supreme misery, something extremely unpleasant. 3. (informal) used in oaths, exclamations, comparisons, etc. to express anger or intensify a meaning or indicate something extreme, what the hell does he want?; ran like hell; for the hell of it, for amusement and without considering the consequence. □beat or knock hell out of, (informal) to pound heavily. catch or get hell, (slang) to receive a strong reprimand. come hell or high water, no matter what the obstacles. hellbent for leather, at full speed. hell of a, (slang) a very good or very bad (condition or situation etc.), one hell of a baseball game; that's a hell of a way to dress to go to your grandmother's house.

he'll (heel) = he will.

hell-bent (hel-bent) adj. recklessly determined.

hell·cat (hel-kat) n. (slang) a spiteful or furious woman.

hel'·le·bo·re (hel-ë-bohr) n. a poisonous plant with white or greenish flowers.

Hel'·le·ne (hel-ë-en) n. a native of modern Greece.

Hel'·le·nic (he-len-ik) adj. of ancient or modern Greece.

Hel'·le·nom·en (hel-ë-niz-em) n. 1. a Greek idiom or grammatical construction. 2. the Greek character or culture, especially in ancient times. Hel'·le·ni·st n.

Hel'·le·ni·tic (hel·ë-ni·tik) adj. of the Greek language and culture of the fourth to first centuries B.C.

hell·fire (hel-frir) n. the fire of hell.

hell·gram·mite (hel-grä-mit) n. the aquatic larva of an American fly, much used as bait, especially for bass.

hell·hole (hel-hól) n. 1. a very dirty uncomfortable place. 2. a place known for immoral or illegal practices.

hell·ion (hel-yön) n. (informal) a mischevous or troublesome person, especially a child.

hell·ish (hel-ësh) adj. very unpleasant.

hel·lo (hel-loh) interj. an exclamation used in greeting or to call attention or express surprise, generally the first word used in answering the telephone. hello n. (pl. -los) this word used as a greeting, he gave her a great big hello.

helm (helm) n. the tiller or wheel by which a ship's rudder is controlled. □ at the helm, at the head of an organization etc., in control.

hel·met (hel-mit) n. a protective head covering worn by a policeman, fireman, diver, motorcyclist, etc.

helms·man (helms-män) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mëns) a person who steers a ship by means of its helm.

hel·ot (hel·öt) n. a member of the class of serfs in ancient Sparta.

help (help) v. 1. to do part of another person's work for him. 2. to make it easier for (a person) to do something or for (a thing) to happen. 3. to do something for the benefit of (someone in need). 4. to prevent, to remedy, it can't be helped; I couldn't help it, I was unable to avoid taking a certain action. help n. 1. the action of helping or being helped. 2. a person or thing that helps. 3. a person or people employed for household or other duties; good help is hard to find, reliable household or other types of workers are scarce. help' er n. □ help oneself to, to serve oneself with (food) at a meal; to take without seeking assistance or permission. help out, to give help (especially in a crisis).

help· ful (help-ful) adj. giving help, useful.

help· ful· ly adv. help· ful· ness n.

help· less (help-less) adj. 1. unable to manage without help, dependent on others. 2. incapable of action, indicating this, helpless with laughter; gave him a helpless glance. help-less· ly adv. help· less· ness n.

help· mate (help-mayt) n. a helper, a companion or partner who helps.

Hel· sin· ki (hel-sin-kee) the capital of Finland.

hel· ter· skel· ter (hel-tar-skel-tar) adv. in disorderly haste. helter-skelter adj. disorderly, haphazard.

hel· ve (helv) n. the handle of a tool or weapon.

Hel· ve· tian (hel·ve·shyan) n. a Swiss.

Helvetian adj. of or relating to the Swiss.

hem1 (hem) n. the border of cloth where the edge is turned under and sewn or fixed down. hem v. (hemmed, hem· ming) 1. to turn and sew a hem on. 2. to surround and restrict the movement of, hemmed in by enemy forces. hem· mer n.

hem2 interj. calling attention or expressing hesitation by a slight cough or clearing of the throat. hem n. the utterance of this. hem v. (hemmed, hem· ming) to utter the sound "hem," to clear the throat, to hesitate in speech. □ hem and haw, to speak hesitantly.

he· man (hee-man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) a masterful or robust man.

he· ma· tite (hee-ma·tt) n. iron oxide, the principal ore of iron.

he· ma· tol· o· gy (hee-ma·tol·o·jye) n. the scientific study of the blood and blood-forming organs. he· ma· tol· o· gist n.

hem· a· to· log· ic (hem-ä-tol·o·jik) adj.

hem· a· to· log· i· cal adj.

heme (hém) n. a red compound containing iron and forming the nonprotein part of hemoglobin.

hem· i· sphere (hem-i·sheer) n. 1. half a sphere. 2. either of the halves into which Earth is divided either by the equator (the Northern and Southern hemispheres) or by a line passing through the poles (the Eastern hemisphere, including Europe, Asia, and Africa; the Western hemisphere, the Americas).

hem· i· sper· i· cal (hem-i·sfer·i·kal) adj.
circuit with a rate of change of current of one ampere per second.

hep (hep) adj. (slang) aware of the latest trends and styles. □ hepped up, (slang) enthusiastic.

hep-a-rin (hep-ä-rin) n. a substance extracted from animal livers and used to prevent blood coagulation, especially in thrombosis.

hep-a-ty (hi-pat-ik) adj. of the liver.

hep-a-ti-ca (hi-pat-i-kä) n. a plant of the buttercup family, having lobed leaves and delicate flowers.

hep-a-tis (hep-ä-tr-i-tis) n. inflammation of the liver.

hep-cat (hep-kat) n. a hep person, a jazz or swing addict.

hep-ple-white (hep-él-hwit) n. a light and graceful style of furniture, named after George Hepplewhite, an 18th-century cabinetmaker.

hep-ta-gon (hep-tä-gon) n. a geometric figure with seven sides.

hep-tam-é-ter (hep-tam-ë-tër) n. a line of verse with seven metrical feet.

her (hur) pronoun 1. the objective case of she, we saw her. 2. *(informal) = she, it’s her all right. her adj. 1. of or belonging to her. 2. used in women’s titles, Her Majesty. □ It is incorrect to write her’s (see the note under its).

her-ald (hur-ald) n. 1. an official in former times who made announcements and carried messages from a ruler. 2. a person or thing indicating the approach of something, heralds of spring. herald v. to proclaim the approach of.

her-ral-dic (hü-ral-dik) adj. of heralds or heraldry.

her-ald-ry (hü-ral-dree) n. the study of the coats of arms of old families.

herb (urb, hurb) n. 1. a soft-stemmed plant that dies down to the ground after flowering. 2. a plant with leaves or seeds etc. that are used for food or in medicine or for flavoring. □ herb doctor, a person who tries to cure people by using herbs.

her-ba-ceous (hür-bay-shüs) adj. of or like herbs.

her-bage (ur-bij, hur-) n. 1. herbs collectively. 2. the succulent parts of herbs.

her-bal *(urb-äl, hur-) adj. of herbs used in medicine or for flavoring. herbal n. a book with descriptions of these.

her-bal-ist (ur-bäl-list, hur-) n. a dealer in medicinal herbs.

her-bar-i-um *(hür-bair-i-üm, ur-) n. (pl. -bar-i-ums, -bar-i-a, pr. -bair-i-ä) 1. a systematically arranged collection of dried plants. 2. a book, case, or room containing this.

her-bi-cide (hür-bi-sid) n. a substance that is poisonous to plants, used to destroy unwanted vegetation. herb-ic-ald (hür-bi-sid-däl) adj.

her-bi-vore (hür-bi-vôr) n. a herbivorous animal.

her-biv-or-ous (hür-biv-ô-rüs) adj. feeding on plants.

her-cu-lean (hür-kyü-lé-an) adj. 1. as strong as Hercules, a hero in Greek mythology. 2. needing great strength or effort, a herculean task.

herd (hurd) n. 1. a number of cattle or other animals feeding or staying together. 2. a mob. herd v. 1. to gather or stay or drive as a group. 2. to tend (a herd of animals). □ herd instinct, the instinct to think and behave like the majority.

herds-man *(hurdz-män) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mën) a person who tends a herd of animals.

here (heer) adv. 1. in or at or to this place. 2. at this point in a process or a series of events. here interj. an exclamation calling an animal (= come here), calling attention to something (= here it is), or used as a reply (= I am here) in answer to a roll call. □ here and now, immediately. here and there, in or to various places. here goes, I am about to begin.

here’s to, I drink to the health of. neith-er here nor there,* of no importance or relevance.

here-a-bout (heer-a-bôwt) adv. somewhere near here.

here-after (heer-a-fêr) adv. in the future, from now on; the hereafter, the future, life after death.

here-by (heer-bì) adv. by this means, by this act or decree etc.

her-e-d-i-tar-y (hé-red-i-tar-e) adj. 1. inherited, able to be passed or received from one generation to another, hereditary characteristics. 2. holding a position by inheritance, hereditary ruler.

her-e-i-ty *(hë-red-i-të) n. (pl. -ties) 1. inheritance of physical or mental characteristics from parents or ancestors. 2. the characteristics inherited in this way.

her-e-ford (hür-förd, her-ë-) n. one of a breed of red and white beef cattle.

here-in (heer-in) adv. in this matter, book, letter, etc.

here-of (heer-ôf, -ôv) adv. of this.

here-on (heer-ôn) adv. on this.

her-e-ry *(heer-ë-see) n. (pl. -rees) 1. a religious opinion that is contrary to the orthodox doctrine or accepted beliefs of a specific religion. 2. an opinion contrary to generally accepted beliefs in any field. 3. the holding of such an opinion.

her-e-tic (hër-ë-tik) n. a person who holds a heresy or is guilty of heresy. her·ret·i·cal (hē-ret-i-kāl) adj.

her·eto (heer-tō) adv. to this document or subject.

her·to·fore (heer-tō-fōhr) adv. before this time.

her·un·der (heer-uhn-dər) adv. under this.

her·up·on (heer-ū-pōn) adv. after this, in consequence of this.

her·with (heer-wiθ, -wiθ) adv. with this, enclosed herewith.

her·i·tage (heer-i-tāg) n. able to be inherited.

her·i·tage (heer-i-tāj) n. 1. property that may be or has been inherited. 2. values or traditions passed from earlier generations, our democratic heritage.

her·maph·ro·dit·ite (hur-maf-rō-di-ti) n. an animal or plant that has both male and female sexual organs. hermaphrodite adj. combining the characteristics of both sexes. her·maph·ro·dit·ic (hur-maf-rō-dīt-ik) adj.

her·met·ic (hur-met-ik) adj. 1. with an airtight closure, hermetic sealing. 2. protected from outside influences. her·met·i·cal·ly adv.

her·mit (hur-mīt) n. a person who has withdrawn from human society and lives in solitude. her·mit crab, a crab that uses a castoff shell to protect its soft hinder parts.

her·mit·age (hur-mī-taj) n. a hermit's dwelling place.

her·ni·a (hur-ni-ā) n. (pl. -ni·as, -ni·ae, pr. -ni-ee) an abnormal condition in which a part or organ of the body protrudes through a wall of the cavity (especially the abdomen) that normally contains it, a rupture.

her·ni·ate (hur-nē-āt) v. (her·ni·a·ted, her·ni·a·ting) to protrude through an abnormal opening in the body. her·ni·a·tion (hur-ni-ā-shon) n.

her·o (heer-ō) n. (pl. -roes) 1. a man who is admired for his brave or noble deeds. 2. the chief male character in a story, play, or poem. her·o sandwich, a sandwich consisting of a long roll sliced lengthwise and filled with meat, cheese, onions, etc. hero worship, excessive devotion to an admired person.

her·o·ic (hē-roh-ik) adj. having the characteristics of a hero, very brave. her·o·i·cal·ly adv. her·oic couplet, two successive rhyming lines of iambic pentameters.

her·o·ics (hē-roh-iks) n. pl. 1. brave actions. 2. overdramatic talk or behavior.

her·o·ine (hē-ō-īn) n. 1. a woman who is admired for her brave or noble deeds. 2. the chief female character in a story, play, or poem.

her·o·ism (heer-ō-iz-əm) n. heroic conduct.

her·on (heer-ōn) n. (pl. -ons, -on) a long-legged, long-necked wading bird living in marshy places.

her·pes (hur-pēz) n. a virus disease causing blisters on the skin. her·pes sim·plex, a form of this, causing cold sores and other minor infections. her·pes zo·s·ter (zos-tér), shingles, a painful disease involving the nervous system.

her·pe·tol·o·g·ist (hur-pē-tol-ō-jist) n. a specialist in herpetology.

her·pe·tol·o·gy (hur-pē-tol-ō-je) n. a branch of zoology dealing with reptiles and amphibians. her·pe·to·lo·g·ic (hur-pē-tō-loj-ik) adj. her·pe·to·lo·g·i·cal adj.

Herr (her) n. (pl. Her·ren, pr. her·ēn) the title of a German man, = Mr.

her·ring (heer-ing) n. (pl. -ring, -rings) a North Atlantic fish much used for food.

her·ring·bone (heer-ing-bohn) n. 1. a pattern consisting of a zigzag arrangement of lines. 2. cloth woven in a zigzag pattern.

hers (hurz) possessive pronoun of or belonging to her, the thing(s) belonging to her, it is hers; hers are best. > It is incorrect to write her's (see the note under its).

her·self (hēr-self) pronoun the form of her used in reflexive constructions (as she pleased herself) and for emphasis (as she herself told me).

hertz (hurtz) n. (pl. hertz) a unit of frequency of electromagnetic waves, = one cycle per second.

he's (heez) = he is.

hes·i·tant (hez-i-tant) adj. hesitating. hes·i·tantly adv. hes·i·tation-cy n.

hes·i·tate (hez-i-tayt) v. (hes-i·tat·ed, hes-i·tat·ing) 1. to be slow to speak or act or move because one feels uncertain or reluctant, to pause in doubt. 2. to be reluctant, to have moral doubts, wouldn't hesitate to break the rules if it suited him. hes·i·ta·tion (hez-i-ta·shon) n.

Hesse·lan (hezh-an) adj. of Hesse in Germany. Hessian n. 1. a native or inhabitant of Hesse. 2. a mercenary used by the British army during the Revolutionary War.

het (het) adj. het up, (slang) excited, overwrought.

het·er·o·dox (het·er-o-dōks) adj. not orthodox. het·er·o·dox·y n. (pl. -dox·ies).
heterogeneous  /  hieroglyph het·er·o·ge·ne·ous (het·er·o·ge·ne·ous) adj. made up of people or things that are unlike each other. het·er·o·ge·ne·ous·ly adv. het·er·o·ge·ne·ous·ness n.

het·er·o·sex·ual (het·er·o·sex·ual) adj. feeling sexually attracted to people of the opposite sex, not homosexual. het·er·o·sex·ual·ity n. a heterosexual person.
het·er·o·sensual (het·er·o·sensual) n. a heterosexual person.
heu·ris·tic (heu·ris·tic) adj. 1. (of methods of teaching) encouraging students to discover information themselves. 2. (in solving problems by computer) proceeding by trial and error.
he·w·er (he·w·er) n.
he·w·n (he·w·n) adj. made or shaped by hewing.
hex (heks) n. a magic spell, a curse. hex v. to put a hex on, to bewitch.
hex·a·gon (he·x-a·gon) n. a geometric figure with six sides.
hex·a·gon·al (he·x-a·gon·al) adj. six-sided.
hex·a·he·ron·dron (he·x-a·he·ron·dron) n. (pl. -drons, -dra, pr. -drá) a solid figure with six faces. hex·a·he·ral·dral adj.
hex·a·me·ter (he·x-a·me·ter) n. a line of six metrical feet using dactyls and spondees.
hex·a·pod (he·x-a·pod) n. an insect with six feet.
he·y (he·y) interj. an exclamation calling attention or expressing surprise or inquiry.
he·y·day (he·y·day) n. the time of greatest success or prosperity, it was in its heyday.
Hf abbr. half.
Hf sym·bol hafnium.
HF abbr. high frequency.
hg abbr. hectogram(s).
Hg sym·bol mercury.
HG abbr. High German.
hgt. abbr. height.
hgw. abbr. highway.
H.H. abbr. 1. His (or Her) Highness. 2. His Holiness.
hhd. abbr. hoghead.
hi (ht) interj. an exclamation calling attention or expressing greeting.
HI abbr. Hawaii.
H.l. abbr. Hawaiian Islands.
hi·a·tus (hi·a·tus) n. (pl. -tus·es, -tus) a break or gap in a sequence or series.
hi·ba·ch·i (hi·ba·ch·i) n. a small Japanese-style charcoal brazier, for cooking.
hi·ber·na·tive (hi·ber·na·tive) v. (hi·ber·na·tive) adj. (certain animals) to spend the winter in a state like deep sleep.
hi·ber·na·tor n. hi·ber·na·tion (hi·ber·na·tion) n.
hi·bi·cus (hi·bi·cus) n. a cultivated shrub or tree with trumpet-shaped flowers.
hi·cup (hi·cup) n. a sudden stopping of the breath with a coughlike sound. hi·cup·v. (hi·cup·ped, hi·cup·ping) to make a hiccup.
hick (hik) n. (informal, often contemptuous) a rural person, a person of boorish manners. hick·ey (hik·ee) n. (pl. hik·eys) 1. a gadget. 2. a pimple. 3. (slang) a red mark on the skin caused by a kiss.
hick·o·ry (hik·o·ry) n. (pl. -ries) 1. an American tree related to the walnut. 2. its hard wood. hick·o·ry nut, the nut or fruit of the hickory tree.
hid (hid), hid·den (hid·den) see hide².
hi·dal·go (hi·dal·go) n. (pl. -gos) a member of the lower nobility in Spain.
hide² (hid) n. 1. an animal's skin (raw or dressed) as an article of commerce and manufacture. 2. (informal) the human skin; save one's hide, save ourselves from punishment or danger.
hide³ v. (hid, hid·den, hid·ing) 1. to put or keep out of sight, to prevent from being seen. 2. to keep secret. 3. to conceal oneself. hid·er n. hid·den·tax, an indirect tax.
hide·and·seek (hid·an·seek) n. a children's game in which some players conceal themselves and others try to find them.
hide·a·way (hid·a·way) n. (informal) a place of concealment.
hide·bound (hid·bound) adj. narrow-minded, refusing to abandon old customs and prejudices.
hid·e·ous (hid·e·ous) adj. very ugly, revolt ing to the senses or the mind. hid·e·ous·ly adv. hid·e·ous·ness n.
hide·out (hid·out) n. a safe place to hide, especially from law enforcement personnel.
hid·ing¹ (hid·ing) n. (informal) a thrashing.
hid·ing² n. the state of being or remaining hidden, went into hiding. hid·ing·place, a place where a person or thing is or could be hidden.
hie (hi) v. (hied, hid·ing or hy·ing) (old use) to go quickly.
hi·er·ar·chy (hi·er·ar·chy) n. (pl. -chies) 1. a system with grades of status or authority ranking one above another in a series. 2. the set of persons in such a system.
hi·er·oglyph (hi·er·oglyph) n. 1. one of the pictures or symbols used in ancient Egypt and elsewhere to represent sounds or words or ideas. 2. a written symbol with a secret or cryptic meaning.

hi-er-o-gliph·ic (hi-ér-o-gliff-ik) adj. of or written in hieroglyphs.

hi-er-o-gliph·ics (hi-ér-o-gliff-iks) n. pl. hieroglyphics, hieroglyphic writing.

hi-er-o-phant (hi-ér-o-fant) n. 1. a priest who initiated worshipers into secret religious rites in ancient Greece. 2. a person who expounds sacred mysteries. hi-er-o-phant·ic adj.

hi-fi (hi-fi) adj. (informal) reproducing sound with high fidelity (see high). hi-fi n. (informal) hi-fi equipment.

hi-gle·dy-pig·gle·dy (hi-gl-de-pig-gl-dee) adj & adv. completely mixed up, in utter disorder.

high (hi) adj. 1. extending far upward, extending above the normal or average level. 2. situated far above the ground or above sea level. 3. measuring a specified distance from base to top. 4. ranking above others in importance or quality; the High Court, the Supreme Court. 5. extreme, intense, greater than what is normal or average, high temperatures; high prices; a high opinion, very favorable. 6. (of time) fully reached, high noon; it's high time we left. 7. noble, virtuous, high ideals. 8. (of a sound or voice) shrill, not deep or low. 9. high gear. 10. (slang) intoxicated, under the influence of drugs. high n. 1. a high level or figure, exports reached a new high. 2. an area of high barometric pressure. high adv. 1. in or at or to a high level or position. 2. in or to a high degree; feelings ran high, were strong. high altar, the chief altar of a church.

high and dry, aground; stranded, isolated. high and low, everywhere, hunted high and low. high and mighty, arrogant. high bar, a raised bar fixed parallel to the floor for use in exercises and gymnastic competitions. high beam, a headlight with a long range. High Church, a group in the Anglican Church that stresses traditional liturgical practice and ceremony and the authority of the clergy.

high color (hi-color) adj. flushed complexion. high command, the highest authority or headquarters of a military force. high explosive, explosive with a violently shattering effect. high fashion, high-class dressmaking; leading dressmakers collectively, or their products. high fidelity, reproduction of sound with the full range of audible frequencies and little distortion. high finance, dealing with large sums of money. high flyer, a person with great ambitions or with capacity for great achievements. high frequency, (in radio) 3 to 30 megahertz.

high gear, the gear allowing a motor vehicle to run at its maximum speed.

High German, a form of German originally spoken in the south, but now in literary and cultured use throughout Germany. High Holy Day, the Jewish New Year or the Day of Atonement.

high hurdles, a series of ten barriers, each of which is 42 inches high and which must be jumped over by a person in a running race. high jump, an athletic competition involving jumping over a high horizontal bar. high life or living, a luxurious way of living. High Mass, a celebration of the Eucharist with incense, music, and the assistance of a deacon and subdeacon.

high noon, the precise moment of twelve o'clock in the daytime. high old time, (informal) a most enjoyable time. high priest, the chief priest. high school, a secondary school.

high seas or seas, the open seas, not under any country's jurisdiction.

high sign, (slang) a warning or reassuring gesture. high society, the social class consisting of well-to-do and well-connected people. high tea, (British) an evening meal with tea and meat and other cooked food. high tide, the tide at its highest level; the time when this occurs. high time, the time just before becoming late; (informal) a pleasurable time.

high treason, treason against one's country or ruler. high water, high tide. high-water mark, the level reached at high water; the highest point or value etc. recorded. high wire, a high tightrope.

high·ball (hi-bawl) n. a drink with whiskey or other liquor and soda etc. served in a tall glass. highball v. (slang) to go fast, to speed (usually referring to a train).

high·born (hi-born) adj. of noble birth.

high·boy (hi-boi) n. a tall chest of several drawers on legs.

high·bred (hi-bred) adj. of superior blood or heritage.

high·brow (hi-brow) adj. (informal) 1. very intellectual, cultured. 2. pretentious, smug. highbrow n. (informal) a highbrow person.

high·chair (hi-chair) n. an infant's chair with long legs and usually a tray, for use at meals.

high·class (hi-klas) adj. (informal) of high quality or social class.

high·er-up (hi-ér-up) n. (informal) a person of high or higher rank.

high·fa·lu·tin (hi-fa-loo-tin) adj. (informal) pompous.

high·flown (hi-flohn) adj. 1. having ex-hind / hist.

be himself, to behave in a normal manner without constraint; he is not himself today, is not in his normal good health or spirits. by himself, without companions; without help.

hind1 (hind) n. a female deer.
hind2 adj. situated at the back, hind legs.

hin·der1 (hin-dër) v. to keep (a person or thing) back by delaying progress.

hin·der2 (hin-dër) adj. hind2, the hinder part.

Hin·di (hin-dee) n. 1. one of the official languages of India, a form of Hindustani. 2. a group of spoken languages of northern India.

hind·most (hind-mohst) adj. farthest behind.

hind·quar·ters (hind-kwar-terz) n. pl. the hind legs and adjoining parts of a quadruped.

hin·drance (hin-drän스) n. 1. something that hinders. 2. hindering, being hindered, went ahead without hindrance.

hind·sight (hin-díst) n. wisdom about an event after it has occurred.

Hin·du (hin-doo) n. a person whose religion is Hinduism. Hindu adj. of the Hindus.

Hin·du·ism (hin-doo-iz-em) n. a religion and philosophy native to India.

Hin·du·sta·ni (hin-du-stah-nee) n. the language of much of northern India and Pakistan.

hinge (hinj) n. 1. a joint on which a lid, door, or gate etc. turns or swings. 2. a natural joint working similarly. 3. a small piece of gummed paper for fixing stamps in an album. hinge v. (hinged, hing·ing) 1. to attach or be attached by a hinge or hinges. 2. to depend on, everything hinges on this meeting.

hint (hint) n. 1. a slight indication, a suggestion made indirectly. 2. a small piece of practical information, household hints. hint v. to make a hint. hint at, to refer indirectly to.

hin·ter·land (hin-tër-land) n. 1. a district lying behind a coast etc. or served by a particular port or center. 2. the back country, especially regions sparsely settled and hard to reach.

hip1 (hip) n. 1. the projection formed by the pelvis and upper part of the thighbone on each side of the body; hips, the measurement around the body here. 2. the joint between the pelvis and the upper leg; broken hip, a fracture of one of the bones at this joint. hip boot, a boot that covers the entire leg up to the hip. hip flask, a small flask for liquor etc., carried in the hip pocket, just behind the hip.

hip2 n. the fruit (red when ripe) of a wild rose.

hip3 interj. used in cheering, hip, hip, hur-ray.

hip4 adj. (slang) well-informed, stylish.

hip·bone (hip-böhn) n. 1. the bone forming the hip socket. 2. the neck of the thighbone.

hip·hug·gers (hip-hug·erz) n. pl. a pair of slacks secured to the body at the hips rather than at the waist.

hitched1 (hipt) adj. having hips, especially of a certain kind, narrow-hitched.

hitched2 adj. (informal) greatly interested, obsessed, hipped on tennis.

hip·ple (hip·ce) n. (slang) a young person who joins with others in adopting an unconventional style of dress etc., rejecting conventional ideas and organized society and often using (or thought to be using) hallucinogenic drugs.

hip·po (hip·oh) n. (pl. -pos) (informal) a hippopotamus.

Hip·po·crat·ic (hip-o·krat-ik) adj. of Hippocrates, a Greek physician of the 5th century B.C. Hippocratic oath, an oath taken by those beginning medical practice, to observe the code of professional behavior.

hip·po·drome (hip-o·drohm) n. 1. (in ancient Greece and Rome) a course for chariot races etc. 2. a theater or arena for athletic events or circuses etc.

hip·po·pot·a·mus (hip-o·pot-ä·mus) n. (pl. -mus·es, -mi, pr. -mi) a large African river animal with tusks, short legs, and thick dark skin.

hip·ster (hip-stèr) adj. (slang) a person who is hip (see hip4).

hire (hir) v. (hired, hir·ing) to engage the services of (a person) or the use of (a thing) temporarily, for payment. hire n. hiring, payment for this. hire·er n.

hire·a·ble (hir·a·bèl) adj. able to be hired.

hire·ling (hir·ling) n. a person who serves for hire.

hir·sute (hur·soot) adj. hairy, shaggy. hir·sute·ness n.

his (hiz) adj. & possessive pronoun 1. of or belonging to him, the thing(s) belonging to him. 2. used in men's titles, His Honor.

His·pan·ic (hi-span-ik) adj. of Spain or Latin America. Hispanic, His·pan·o·no (hi-span-o·no) n. a Spanish-speaking person in the U.S.

hiss (his) n. a sound like that of s. hiss v. 1. to make this sound. 2. to express disapproval in this way.

hist. abbr. 1. historian. 2. historical. 3. history.
histamine / hoard

his-ta-mine (his-tä-meen) n. a chemical compound in body tissues that is involved in many allergic reactions.

his-to·gram (his-tö·gram) n. a diagram in which columns represent frequencies of various ranges of values of a quantity.

his-tol·o·glist (hi-stol-o-jist) n. a specialist in histology.

his-tol·o·gy (hi-stol-ö-jee) n. the scientific study of the minute structure of organic tissues.

his-tol·y·sis (hi-stol-ë-sis) n. the breaking down of organic tissues.

his·to·ri·an (hi-stör-i-ān) n. an expert in history, a writer of history.

his·tor·ic (hi-stör-ik) adj. 1. famous or important in history. 2. momentous, that will make history, this historic occasion.

>Do not confuse historic with historical.

his·tor·i·cal (hi-stör-i-kal) adj. 1. belonging to or dealing with history or past events (as opposed to legend or prehistory), historical novels. 2. concerned with history, a historical society. his·tor·i·cal·ly adv. >Do not confuse historical with historic.

his·to·ri·o·gra·pher (hi-stör-i-o-grä-fër) n. a writer of history, especially an official historian.

his·to·ri·o·gra·phy (hi-stör-i-o-grä-fē) n. 1. the writing of history. 2. the study of the writing of history. his·to·ri·o·gra·phic adj.

his·to·ry (hi-tör-ee) n. (pl. -ries) 1. a continuous methodical record of important or public events. 2. past events, those connected with a person or thing. 3. an interesting or eventful past, the house has a history. 4. the study of past events, especially of human affairs. >make history, to do something memorable, to be the first to do something.

his·tri·on·ic (his-tri-ō-nik) adj. 1. of acting. 2. dramatic or theatrical in manner.

his·tri·on·i·cal·ly adv.

his·tri·on·ics (his-tri-ō-niks) n. pl. dramatic behavior intended to impress people.

hit (hit) v. (hit, hit·ting) 1. to strike with a blow or missile, to aim a blow etc., to come against (a thing) with force; it hits you in the eye, is very obvious. 2. to propel (a ball etc.) with a bat or club. 3. to have an effect on (a person), to cause to suffer. 4. to get at, to come to (a thing aimed at), to find (what is sought). 5. to reach, can't hit the high notes; hit a snag, encounter a difficulty.

hit n. 1. a blow, a stroke. 2. a shot etc. that hits its target. 3. a success; make a hit, to win popularity. 4. (in baseball) a play in which a batter hits a ball and reaches base safely without an error being committed by a fielder. 5. a successful play or musical. 6. (slang) a murder, especially by a hired gunman. □ hit back, to retaliate. hit it off, to get along well (with a person). hit man, (slang) a hired assassin. hit on, to discover suddenly or by chance. hit parade, a list or program of the most popular tunes. hit the bottle, (slang) to drink alcohol heavily. hit the nail on the head, to guess right, to express the truth exactly. hit the road or trail, (slang) to depart; to take up a wandering life.

hit·and·run (hit·ān·run) adj. causing damage or injury and fleeing immediately. □ hit·and·run driver, one who does this with a motor vehicle. hit·and·run play, (in baseball) a play in which a baserunner runs for the next base as soon as the pitcher begins to pitch, and the batter swings at the pitched ball.

hitch (hich) v. 1. to move (a thing) with a slight jerk. 2. to fasten or be fastened with a loop or hook etc.; hitch one's wagon to a star, to set one's sights high, have high aspirations. 3. to hitchhike, to obtain (a ride) in this way. hitch n. 1. a slight jerk. 2. a noose or knot of various kinds. 3. a temporary stoppage, a snag. 4. (slang) a term of military service. □ get hitched, (slang) to get married.

hitch·hike (hich·hik) v. (hitch·hiked, hitch·hik·ing) to travel by signaling for free rides in passing vehicles. hitch·hik·er n.

hith·er (hith·ēr) adv. to or toward this place. □ hither and yon, hither and thither, to and fro, back and forth; in various directions.

hith·er·to (hith·ēr·too) adv. until this time.

hit·or·mis·s (hit·ōr·mis) adv. aimed or done carelessly.

hive (hiv) n. 1. a box or other container for bees to live in. 2. the bees living in this. hive v. (hived, hiv·ing) to gather or live in a hive.

hives (hivz) n. pl. a skin eruption accompanied by itching and swelling.

H.M.O. abbr. health maintenance organization.

H.M.S. abbr. His (or Her) Majesty's Ship.

ho (hoh) interj. an exclamation of triumph or scorn, or calling attention; land hol, used when land is first sighted from a ship.

Ho symbol holmium.

hoa·gle, hoa·gy (hoh·gee) n. (pl. -gies) (northeastern U.S.) a hero sandwich.

hoard (hoard) n. a carefully saved and guarded store of money or food or treasured objects. hoard v. to save and store away. hoard′er n.

hoar-frost (hoor-frawst) n. a white frost.

hoarse (hoors) adj. (hoars′er, hoars′est) 1. (of the voice) sounding rough, as if from a dry throat. 2. (of a person) having a hoarse voice. hoarsely adv. hoarseness n.

hoar-y (hoor-ee) adj. (hoar′l-er, hoar′l-est) 1. white or gray, a hoary beard. 2. with hoary hair, aged. 3. (of a joke etc.) old. hoar′l ness n.

hoax (hohks) n. 1. a plot to trick or deceive. 2. the object used in the deception, a fake or fabrication. hoax v. to deceive by trickery. hoax′er n.

hob1 (hob) n. a hobgoblin. □ to play or raise hob with, (informal) to do harm or mischief to.

hob-ble (hob-él) v. (hob-bled, hob-bling) 1. to walk lamely. 2. to fasten the legs of (a horse etc.) so as to limit but not entirely prevent movement. hob-ble n. a hobbling walk. □ hobble skirt, a woman’s skirt so narrow at the bottom that it restrains freedom of movement.

hob-ble-de-hoy (hob-él-dee-hoi) n. a clumsy or awkward youth between boyhood and manhood.

hob-by (hob-ce) n. (pl. -bles) an occupation that a person does for pleasure, not as his main business. hob′by-ist n.

hob-by-horse (hob-ce-hors) n. 1. a rocking horse. 2. a stick with a horse’s head, used as a toy. 3. a topic that a person is fond of discussing.

hob-gob-lin (hob-gob-lin) n. 1. a mischievous or evil spirit. 2. a bogey or bugbear.

hob-nail (hob-nayl) n. a heavy-headed nail for boots. hob′nalled adj.

hob-nob (hob-nob) v. (hob-nobbed, hob-nob-bled, hob-nob-bling) to spend time together in a friendly way.

ho·bo (hoh-bo) n. (pl. -boes, -bos) a migratory worker or tramp.

Hob′son′s (hob′sonz) choice a situation in which one apparently has a choice but only one possibility is offered. ▞ Thomas Hobson (17th century) of Cambridge, England, hired out horses and made people take the one nearest to the stable door.

hock1 (hok) n. the middle joint of an animal’s hind leg.

hock2 v. (slang) to pawn. □ In hock, in pawn; in prison; in debt.

hock·ey (hok-ee) n. 1. ice hockey (see ice). 2. field hockey (see field).

hock-shop (hok-shop) n. (informal) a pawnshop.

ho·cus-po·cus (hoh-kūs-poh-kūs) n. 1. a nonsensical phrase used by conjurers. 2. trickery.

hod (hod) n. 1. a trough on a pole used by bricklayers for carrying mortar or bricks. 2. a cylindrical container for shoveling and holding coal. □ hod carrier, a worker who carries mortar etc. for a bricklayer or mason.

hodge-podge (hod-.poj) n. a mixture or medley.

Hodg′kin′s (hod-kinz) disease a disease characterized by the progressive enlargement and inflammation of the lymphoid tissues, especially the spleen.

hoe (hoh) n. a tool with a blade on a long handle, used for loosening soil or weeding. hoe v. (hoed, hoe′ing) to dig or scrape with a hoe.

hoe·cake (hoh-kayk) n. a thin cornmeal cake.

hoe·down (hoh-down) n. 1. a lively party featuring square dancing. 2. the music for square dancing.

hog (hog) n. 1. a mature domestic pig. 2. (informal) a greedy person. hog v. (hogged, hog′ging) (slang) to take more than one’s fair share of, to hoard selfishly. hog′gish adj. □ eat or live high off the hog, (informal) to live luxuriously or extravagantly. go the whole hog, (slang) to do something thoroughly.

ho·gan (hoh-gan) n. a Navaho Indian dwelling built of branches and covered with sod.

hog·back (hog-bak) n. a sharply crested ridge of a hill.

hog·nose (hog-nozh) snake, hog·nosed (hog-nohzid) snake one of several small harmless North American snakes having a flat snout.

hog·s·head (hogz Hed) n. 1. a large barrel or cask. 2. a liquid or dry measure for various commodities, usually about 63 gallons.

hog·tie (hog-ti) v. (hog-tied, hog·ty·ling) 1. to secure by tying together an animal’s feet or a person’s hands and feet. 2. to hamper or frustrate.

hog·wash (hog-wosh) n. 1. swill for hogs. 2. (informal) nonsense.

hog·wild (hog-wild) adj. (informal) unrestrainedly enthusiastic or excited.

ho·hum (hoh-hum) interj. an expression of boredom.

hol·pol·lol (hol poh-loh) (contemptuous) the common people, the masses.

hol·ist (hoist) v. to raise or haul up, to lift with ropes and pulleys etc. hol·ist n. 1. an apparatus for hoisting things. 2. a pull or haul up, give a hoist.
hol·ty-tol·ty (hol-tee-tol-tee) adj. (informal) haughty.

hoke (hohk) v. (hok·ed, hok·ing) (also hoke up, slang) to treat in a falsely condescending way. hoke n. (slang) hokum.

ho·kum (hoh-küm) n. (slang) 1. nonsense. 2. stereotyped material, designed to appeal to the uncritical.

hold1 (hold) v. (held, hold·ing) 1. to take and keep in one's arms, hand(s), teeth, etc. 2. to keep in a particular position or condition, to grasp or keep so as to control, to detain in custody; hold him to his promise, insist that he keep it. 3. to be able to contain, the bottle holds two pints. 4. to have in one's possession or as something one has gained, he holds the record for the high jump. 5. to support, to bear the weight of. 6. to remain unbroken under strain, to continue, the rope failed to hold; will the fine weather hold? 7. to keep possession of (a place or position etc.) against attack. 8. to keep (a person's) attention by being interesting. 9. to have the position of, to occupy (a job etc.), held the chairmanship. 10. to cause to take place, to conduct, hold a meeting or conversation. 11. to restrain; hold your tongue, stop talking; hold it, hold everything, cease action or movement. 12. to believe, to consider, to assert. hold n. 1. the act or manner of holding something. 2. an opportunity or means of holding. 3. a means of exerting influence on a person. holder n.

• get hold of, (informal) to acquire; to make contact with (a person). get hold of oneself, (informal) to establish control over oneself. hold down, to have (a job). hold forth, to speak lengthily.

hold good, to remain valid. hold off, to wait, not to begin, the rain held off. hold on, to keep one's grasp of something; to refrain from hanging up (on the telephone); (informal) to wait. hold one's ground, to stand firm, to refuse to yield. hold one's peace or tongue, to keep silent. hold out, to offer (an inducement or hope); to last, if supplies hold out. hold out for, to refuse to accept anything other than. hold out on, (informal) to refuse the requests etc. of. hold over, to postpone; holds the threat over him, exerts influence on him by this threat. hold the fort, to act as a temporary substitute, to cope in an emergency.

hold the line, to refrain from hanging up (on the telephone); to refuse to change one's position. hold to, to adhere to. hold up, to hinder; to stop by the use of threats or force for the purpose of robbery. hold water, (of reasoning) to be sound. hold with, (informal) to approve of, we don't hold with bribery. no holds barred, all methods are permitted. take hold, to grasp; to become established.

hold2 n. a space below a ship's deck, where cargo is stored.

hold·ing (hohl·ding) n. 1. (often holdings) something held or owned, land held by an owner or tenant. 2. (in certain sports) hindering an opponent by illegal use of hands and arms. holding company, one formed to hold the stock of other companies, which it then controls. holding operation, an expedient to prevent change. holding pattern, a circular route for aircraft temporarily prevented from landing.

hold·o·ver (hohl-oh·ver) n. something that remains from a previous period of time.

hold·up (hohl-up) n. 1. a stoppage or delay. 2. a robbery by armed robbers.

hole (hohl) n. 1. an empty place in a solid body or mass, a sunken place on a surface. 2. an animal's burrow. 3. (informal) a small or dark or wretched place. 4. (slang) an awkward situation. 5. a flaw or defect. 6. a hollow or cavity into which a ball etc. must be sent in various games. 7. a unit of play in golf, we played nine holes. 8. an opening through something.

hole v. (holed, hol·ling) 1. to make a hole or holes in. 2. to put into a hole.

hole'y adj. • hole in one, (in golf) the hitting of the ball into the hole on one shot from the tee. hole in the wall, a small dingy establishment. hole out, (in golf) to get the ball into the hole. hole up, (slang) to hide oneself. in holes, worn so much that holes have formed.

hol·i·day (hol·i-day) n. 1. a day of festivity or recreation or commemoration of an event or person, when no work is done. 2. a day of special religious observance. 3. (chiefly British) a vacation. holiday adj. of or suitable for a holiday, joyful and carefree.

ho·li·er-than-thou (hol·i-er-than-thou) adj. self-righteous.

ho·li·ness (hol·i-nis) n. being holy or sacred. • His Holiness, the title of the pope.

Hol·land (hol·and) the Netherlands.

hol·lan·daise (hol·an·dayz) sauce a creamy sauce containing butter, egg yolks, and vinegar.

hol·ler (hol·er) v. (informal) to shout. hol·ler n. (informal) a shout.

hol·low (hol·oh) adj. 1. empty inside, not solid. 2. sunken, hollow cheeks. 3. (of sound) echoing, as if from something hollow. 4. empty, worthless, a hollow triumph; a hollow laugh, cynical. hollow n. a hollow or sunken place, a hole, a ho\-ly\-stone (ho\-lee-stohn) n. A soft sandstone used for scouring decks. holy\-stone v. (ho\-ly\-stoned, ho\-ly\-ston\-ing) to scour with this.

hom\-age (hom\-ij, om\-ij) n. 1. things said as a mark of respect, paid hommage to his achievements. 2. a formal expression of loyalty to a ruler etc.

hom\-burg (hom\-burg) n. A man's soft felt hat with a narrow curled brim and a lengthwise dent in the crown.

home (hohm) n. 1. the place where one lives, especially with one's family. 2. one's native land, the district where one was born or where one has lived for a long time or to which one feels attached. 3. a house, homes for sale. 4. an institution where those needing care may live, an old people's home. 5. the natural environment of an animal or plant. 6. the place to be reached by a runner in a race or in certain games. 7. home plate. home adj. 1. of or connected with one's own home or country, done or produced there, home produce, home appliances. 2. played on one's own ground, a home game. home adv. 1. to or at one's home, go home; stay home, to stay at home. 2. to the point aimed at, the thrust went home; the criticism went home, made itself felt as true; drive a nail home, right in. home v. (hom\-ed, hom\-ing) 1. (of a trained pigeon) to fly home. 2. to be guided to a target, to make for a particular destination. at home, see at. home away from home, a place (other than home) where one feels comfortable and at home. home economics, the science of household management, including nutrition, child care, etc. home free, (slang) sure to win or gain success; safe. home plate, (in baseball) the base at which the batter stands and the last of the four that a base runner must touch in scoring a run. home rule, government of a country by its own citizens. home run, (in baseball) a hit that allows the batter to make a complete circuit of the bases and score a run. home screen, (informal) television.

home\-bod\-y (hohm\-bod\-ee) n. (pl. -bod\-ies) a person who likes to stay at home. home\-bred (hohm\-bred) adj. bred at home.

home\-com\-ing (hohm\-kum\-ing) n. 1. arrival at home. 2. a festive annual event usually held by a college or university for its alumni.

home\-grown (hohm\-grohn) adj. grown at home.

home\-land (hohm\-land) n. A person's native land.

* valley. hollow adv. (informal) completely, beat them hollow. hollow v. to make or become hollow, hollow it out.

hol\-low\-ly adv. hol\-low\-ness n.

hol\-low\-ware (hol\-oh\-wair) n. hollow articles of tableware, as bowls etc., especially those made of silver.

hol\-ly (hol\-ee) n. (pl. -lies) an evergreen shrub with prickly leaves and red berries.

hol\-ly\-hock (hol\-ee-hohk) n. A plant with large showy flowers on a tall stem.

hol\-mi\-um (hol\-mi\-um) n. rare earth element.

hol\-o-caust (hol\-oh-kawst, -oh-kast) n. large-scale destruction, especially by fire. the Holocaust, the murder by the Nazis of over six million Jews.

hol\-o\-cene (hol\-oh\-seen, hol\-oh\-sien) adj. (in geology) recent, of the present geological period. Holocene n. the Holocene epoch.

hol\-o\-gram (hol\-oh\-gram, hol\-ee) n. A three-dimensional photograph produced by a reflected laser beam.

hol\-o\-graph (hol\-oh\-graf, hol\-ee) n. A document wholly written by the person named as its author. hol\-o\-graph\-ic (hol\-oh\-graf\-ik, hol\-ee-ik) adj. hol\-o\-graph\-ical adv.

ho-log\-ra-phy (ho-log\-ra-fee) n. The process or method of producing holograms.

hol\-stein (hol\-styn) n. (also Holstein\-Fries\-ian) one of a breed of large black-and-white dairy cattle originally from Friesland, a province of the Netherlands.

hol-\-ster (hol\-stir) n. A leather case for a pistol or revolver, fixed to a belt or saddle under the arm.

ho-\-ly (hoh\-lee) adj. (ho\-li\-er, ho\-li\-est) 1. of God and therefore regarded with reverence, associated with God or religion, the Holy Bible. 2. consecrated, sacred, holy water. 3. devoted to the service of God, a holy man. Holy City, a city held sacred by the adherents of a religion, especially Jerusalem; heaven. Holy Communion, see Communion. Holy Father, a title of the pope. Holy Ghost, the Holy Spirit. Holy Grail, see Grail. Holy Land, the western part of Palestine. holy of holies, a place or thing regarded as most sacred; the sacred inner chamber of a Jewish temple. holy orders, the Christian ministry; take holy orders, enter the ministry. Holy See, the position or diocese of the pope. Holy Spirit, the Third Person of the Trinity; God acting spiritually. holy terror, (informal) a troublesome child; a formidable person. Holy Week, the week before Easter Sunday. Holy Writ, the Bible. home-less (hohm-lis) adj. lacking a place to live.
home-ly (hohm-lee) adj. (-ll-er, -ll-est) 1. simple and informal, not pretentious. 2. (of a person's appearance) plain, not beautiful. home'-li-ness n.
home-made (hohm-mayd) adj. made at home.
home-mak-er (hohm-may-kér) n. a person who manages household affairs.
home-mak-ing n.
ho-me-op-a-thy (hoh-mi-op-ā-the) n. the treatment of disease by drugs, usually in minute doses, that in a healthy person would produce symptoms like those of the disease. ho-me-o-path (hoh-mi-ō-path) n. a person who is expert in homopathy. ho-me-o-path-ic (hoh-mi-ō-path-ik) adj.
ho-me-o-sta-sis (hoh-mi-ō-stay-sis) n. maintenance of relatively stable conditions in a system (such as blood temperature in the body) by internal processes that counteract any departure from the normal. ho-me-o-stat-ic (hoh-mi-ō-stat-ik) adj.
ho-mer (hoh-mër) n. (in baseball) a home run.
Ho-mer-ic (hoh-mer-ik) adj. 1. of the writing or heroes of Homer, traditional author of Greek epic poems. 2. heroic, grand.
home-room (home-room) n. a schoolroom where a class meets daily to be checked for absences, receive special announcements, etc.
home-sick (hohm-sik) adj. feeling depressed through longing for one's home when one is away from it. home'sick-ness n.
home-spun (hohm-spun) adj. 1. made of yarn spun at home. 2. homely, unsophisticated. homespun n. homespun fabric.
home-stead (hohm-sted) n. a farmhouse or similar building with the land and buildings around it. home-stead-er (hohm-sted-er) n. a settler on a homestead, especially on a tract of 160 acres as granted by the Homestead Act of Congress in 1862. home-stretch (hohm-stretch) n. 1. the straight part of a racetrack between the final bend and the finish line. 2. the final part of a job.
home-town (hohm-town) n. the town of one's birth or early life or present fixed residence.
home-ward (hohm-wārd) adj. & adv. going toward home.
home-work (hohm-wurk) n. work to be done at home, especially lessons to be done by a schoolchild at home.
home-y (hoh-mee) adj. (hom-i-er, hom-i-est) homelike, homely.
home-ic (hohm-īk) adj. the killing of one person by another. home-ic-dal (hohm-ī-dāl) adj.
home-i-ly (hohm-i-lee) n. (pl. -lies) a sermon, a moralizing lecture.
home-ing (hoh-ming) adj. returning home.
home-less (hohm-wēls) adj.

Ho-mo (hoh-moh) n. the genus of primates including man.
ho-mo-gene-ous (hoh-mō-jē-ne-us) adj. of the same kind as the others, formed of parts that are all of the same kind. ho-mo-gene-ous-ly adv. ho-mo-gene-ous-ness n.

hm-o-graph (hm-ō-graf) n. a word spelled the same as another, but of different meaning or origin, such as low (= sound made by cattle), low (= not high or tall).
ho-mol-og-ous (hoh-mō-lō-gōs) adj. 1. having the same relation or relative position. 2. corresponding. 3. (of a limb or organ) similar to another in position and structure but not necessarily in function.
ho-mo-nym (hö-mō-nīm) n. a word of the same spelling or sound as another but with a different meaning, such as grate (= fireplace), grate (= to rub), great (= large).
ho-mo-phone (hohm-o-fohn) n. a word with the same sound as another, such as son, sun.
Ho-mo sa-pi-en-s (hoh-moh sah-pi-enz) man regarded as a species.
ho-mo-sex-ual (hoh-mō-sek-shoo-əl) adj. feeling sexually attracted only to people of the same sex as oneself. homo-sex-ual n. a homosexual person. ho-mo-sex-u-al-i-ty (hoh-mō-sek-shoo-al-i-tee) n.
hon-cho (hohn-choh) n. (pl. -chos) (informal) a boss.
Hon-du-ras (hohn-door-əs) a country in Honduras.
hone (hohn) n. a fine-grained stone used for sharpening razors and tools. hone v. (honed, hon-ing) to sharpen on this.

hon*est*ly (on-ist-lee) adv. 1. in an honest way. 2. really, that's all I know, honestly.

hon*es*ty (on-is-tée) n. being honest.

hon*ey (hun-ee) n. (pl. -eys) 1. a sweet sticky yellowish substance made by bees from nectar. 2. its color. 3. sweetness, pleasantness, a sweet thing. 4. (informal) darling. □honey locust, a North American leguminous hardwood tree.

hon*ey*bee (hun-ee-bee) n. the common bee that lives in a hive.

hon*ey*bunch (hun-ee-bunch) n. (informal) darling.

hon*ey*comb (hun-ee-kohm) n. 1. a bees' wax structure of six-sided cells for holding honey and eggs. 2. a pattern or arrangement of six-sided sections. honeycomb v. to fill with holes or tunnels, the rock was honeycombed with passages.

hon*ey*de*w (hun-ee-doo) n. a sweet sticky substance found on leaves and stems, excreted by aphids. □honeydew melon, a variety of melon with a pale smooth skin and sweet green flesh.

hon*ey*moon (hun-ee-moon) n. a holiday spent together by a newly married couple. honeymoon v. to take a honeymoon. □honeymoon bridge, a variety of bridge for two players.

hon*ey*suck*le (hun-ee-suk-él) n. a climbing shrub with fragrant yellow and pink flowers.

honk (hongk) n. a loud harsh sound, the cry of the wild goose, the sound made by an old-style motor horn. honk v. to make a honk, to sound a car horn.

honk*er n.

hon*ky*tonk (hong-kee-tonk) n. 1. (informal) a cheap or disreputable nightclub or dance hall. 2. a kind of ragtime music played on a piano, often with strings that give a tinny sound.

Hon*o*lu*lu (hon-o-loo-loo) the capital of Hawaii.

hon*or (on-ør) n. 1. great respect, high public regard. 2. a mark of this, a privilege given or received. 3. a source of this, a person or thing that brings honor. 4. good personal character, a reputation for honesty and loyalty etc. 5. a title of respect given to certain judges or people of importance, your Honor. 6. (in certain card games) any of the cards of the highest value. 7. honors, a mark of academic recognition given to an outstanding student, a course of advanced study for outstanding students. honor v. 1. to feel honor for. 2. to confer honor on. 3. to acknowledge and pay (a check etc.). □do the honors, to perform the usual civilities to guests or visitors etc. honor bound or on one's honor, under a moral obligation to do something. on my honor, I swear it.

hon*or*a*ble (on-ó-rá-bél) adj. 1. deserving honor. 2. possessing or showing honor. 3. Honorable, the courtesy title of certain high officials and judges.

hon*or*a*ble (on-6-rer-i-lee) adj. 1. given as an honor, an honorary degree. 2. unpaid, honorary treasurer. □hon*or*a*ry (on-ór-ri-lee) adj.

hoof (hoo-doo) n. 1. a covering for the head and neck, either as part of a garment or separate. 2. a loose hoodlike garment forming part of academic dress. 3. something resembling a hoof in shape or use. 4. the hinged metal cover over an automobile engine.

hood (hoo-doo) 1. (huud) n. (slang) alcoholic liquor, especially inferior or illicit whiskey.

hood 2 n. (slang) a hoodlum.

-hood suffix used to form nouns and adjectives meaning condition or quality or grouping, such as childhood, falsehood, sisterhood.

hood*ed (huud-id) adj. 1. having a hood. 2. (of animals) with a hoodlike part.

hood*lum (huud-lüm) n. a thug or gangster.

hood*oo (hoo-oo) n. 1. bad luck or something that causes it. 2. vodka.

hoodoo v. to make unlucky, to bewitch.

hood*wink (huud-wingk) v. to deceive.

hood*ey (hoo-ee) interj. & n. (slang) nonsense.

hoof (huuf) n. (pl. hoofs, hooves, pr. huuvz) the horny part of the foot of a horse and other animals. hoof v. hoof it, (slang) to go on foot. hoofed adj.

hoof and mouth disease, foot and mouth disease (see foot). on the hoof, (of cattle) live, not yet slaughtered.
hoofer / Hopl hook (huuk) n. 1. a bent or curved piece of metal etc. for catching hold or for hanging things on. 2. something shaped like this; Sandy Hook, a projecting point of land on the coast of New Jersey. 3. a curved cutting tool, reaping hook. 4. (in golf) a stroke that causes the ball to follow a hooked path. 5. (in boxing) a short swinging blow with the elbow bent. hook v. 1. to grasp or catch with a hook, to fasten with a hook or hooks. 2. to hit a ball in golf so that it takes a hooked path. 3. (slang) to obtain, to steal. □ by hook or by crook, by some means no matter what happens. hook and eye, a small metal hook and loop for fastening a dress etc. hooked rug, a rug made by pulling woolen yarn through canvas with a hook. hook, line, and sinker, (informal) entirely. off the hook, (slang) freed from difficulty.

hook·ah (huuk-ə) n. an Oriental pipe for smoking with a long tube passing through a glass container of water that cools the smoke as it is drawn through.

hooked (huukt) adj. 1. hook-shaped, a hooked nose. 2. (slang) married. □ hooked on, (slang) addicted to or captivated by.

hook·er (huuk-ər) n. (slang) a prostitute.

hook·up (huuk-up) n. (informal) a connection, especially an interconnection of broadcasting equipment for special transmissions.

hook·worm (huuk-wurm) n. a worm (the male of which has hooklike spines) that can infest the intestines of men and animals.

hook·y (huuk-ee) n. (informal) play hooky, to play truant.

hoo·ll·gan (hoo-lil-gan) n. (informal) a young ruffian. hoo'ill·gan·ism n.

hoop (hoop) n. 1. a band of metal or wood etc. forming part of a framework. 2. this used as a child's toy for bowling along the ground, or swirling around the hips, or for circus riders and animals to jump through. hoop v. to bind or encircle with hoops. hoop·less adj. □ be put through the hoops, to undergo a test or ordeal. hoop skirt, a bell-shaped skirt supported by a framework of hoops.

hoop·snake, a mud snake native to the southeastern U.S.

hoop·la (hoop-lah) n. (informal) 1. a commotion, pretentious nonsense. 2. something spoken or written that is intended to confuse people.

hoop·ster (hoop-stēr) n. (slang) a basketball player.

hoo·ray (huu-ray) = hurray.

hoose·gow (hoos-gow) n. (slang) a prison. □ Mexican Spanish Jusg(a)d(o).

Hoo·sler (hoo-zler) n. a native or inhabitant of Indiana.

hoot (hoot) n. 1. the cry of an owl. 2. the sound made by a vehicle's horn or a steam whistle. 3. a cry expressing scorn or disapproval. 4. (informal) laughter, a cause of this. hoot v. 1. to make a hoot or hoots. 2. to receive or drive away with scornful hoots. 3. to sound (a horn).

hoot'er n. □ doesn't care or give a hoot or two hoots, (slang) doesn't care at all.

hoo·ten·an·ny (hoo·tē·nan·ee) n. (pl. -nies) (informal) an informal social event featuring folk music and singing.

Hoo·ver (huov-er), Her·bert Clark (1874–1964) the thirty-first president of the U.S. 1929–33.

hop1 (hop) v. 1. (of an animal) to spring from all feet at once, (of a person) to jump, especially on one foot. 2. to cross by hopping. 3. (informal) to make a short quick trip. hop n. 1. a hopping movement. 2. an informal dance. 3. a short flight or one stage in a long-distance flight. □ hop in or out, (informal) to get into or out of quickly. hopping mad, (informal) very angry.

hop2 n. a plant cultivated for its cones (hops), which are used for giving a bitter flavor to beer. □ hop up, (slang) to stimulate with a drug; to add power to.

hope (hop) n. 1. a feeling of expectation and desire combined, a desire for certain events to happen. 2. a person or thing or circumstance that gives cause for this. 3. what one hopes for. hope v. (hoped, hop·ing) to feel hope, to expect and desire, to feel fairly confident. □ hoping against hope, hoping for something that is barely possible.

hope·ful (hop·ful) adj. 1. feeling hope. 2. causing hope, seeming likely to be favorable or successful. hopeful n. a person who hopes or seems likely to succeed, young hopefuls. hope·ful·ness n.

hope·ful·ly (hop·ful·lee) adv. 1. in a hopeful way. 2. it is to be hoped, hopefully, we shall be there by one o'clock. □ Many people regard the second use as unacceptable.

hope·less (hop·lis) adj. 1. feeling no hope. 2. admitting no hope, a hopeless case. 3. inadequate, incompetent, is hopeless at tennis. hope·less·ly adv. hope·less·ness n.

hop·head (hop·hed) n. (slang) a drug addict.

Ho·pl (hoh-pee) n. (pl. -plas, -pl) 1. a member of an Arizona Indian tribe. 2. the language of this tribe.
hopper / horse

taining the alphabet, Lord's prayer, etc. mounted on a wooden tablet with a handle, and protected by a thin plate of horn, formerly used as a school primer.

horn-net (hor-nit) n. a large kind of wasp inflicting a serious sting. □ stir up a hornets' nest, to cause an outburst of angry feeling.

horn-pipe (horn-pip) n. a lively dance, usually for one person, traditionally associated with sailors.

horn-rimmed (horn-rim) adj. (of eyeglasses) with frames made of a material like horn or tortoise shell.

horn-y (horn-ee) adj. (horn-i'er, horn-i'est) 1. of or like horn. 2. hardened and calloused, horny hands.

horn-rol-o-gy (horn-rol-o-gee) n. the study of measuring time or making clocks, watches, etc. horn-o-log'-ist (horn-o-log-i-st) adj.

horn-o-scope (horn-o-skohp) n. 1. an astrologer's diagram showing the relative positions of the planets and stars at a particular time. 2. a forecast of future events, based on this.

horn-rid (horn-id) adj. horrible. horn-rid-ly adv.

horn-rif-ic (haw-rif-ik) adj. horrifying.

horn-ri-ty (hor-r-i-ty) v. (horn-ri-fled, horn-ri-fy-ing) to arouse horror in, to shock.

horn-roff (hor-or) n. 1. a feeling of loathing and fear. 2. intense dislike or dismay. 3. a person or thing causing horror. □ horror movie, one full of violence presented sentimentally for entertainment.

horn-roff-stuck (hor-or-stuck), horn-roff-striek-en (hor-or-striek-en) adj. horrified, shocked.

hors de com-bat (or de kom-ba) out of the fight, disabled. □ French.

hors d'oeu-vre (or dury) (pl. hors d'oeu-vres, pr. or duryz) food served as an appetizer before or at the start of a meal.

horse (hors) n. 1. a four-legged animal with a flowing mane and tail, used for riding on or to carry loads or pull wagons etc. 2. a frame on which something is supported, a sawhorse. 3. a vaulting horse (see vault%). 4. (slang) heroin. 5. horses, (informal) horsepower, this engine has 250 horses. horse v. (horsed, hors- ing) (informal) to indulge in horseplay, horsing around. □ hold your horses! (informal) wait a minute; do not be impatient. horse chestnut, a large ornamental tree with upright conical clusters of white or pink or red flowers; its fruit. horse latitudes, the belt of calms at the northern edge of the northeast trade winds. horse of another color, a thing significantly different. horse opera, (slang) a play or motion picture etc. about the Wild West. horse sense, (informal) plain common sense. horse trade, horse trading, (informal) shrewd bargaining. horse trader, a person who trades in horses or bargains shrewdly. on one's high horse, behaving with pretentiousness or arrogance. straight from the horse's mouth, (of information) from a firsthand source.

horseback (hors-b'ak) n. the back of a horse. □ on horseback, mounted on a horse.

horse-feather (hors-feth'-er) interj. & n. (slang) nonsense.

horse-flesh (hors-flesh) n. 1. the flesh of horses, as food. 2. horses, a good judge of horseflesh.

horse-fly (hors-fl') n. (pl. -flies) a large insect troublesome to horses.

horse-hair (hors-hair) n. hair from a horse's mane or tail, used for padding furniture etc.

horse-hide (hors-hid) n. 1. the hide of a horse. 2. the leather made from the hide. 3. (informal) a baseball.

horse-laugh (hors-laf) n. a loud coarse laugh.

horse-man (hors-mân) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mên) a rider on horseback, especially a skilled one.

horse-man-ship (hors-mân-ship) n. the art and skill of riding on horseback.

horse-play (hors-play) n. boisterous play.

horse-power (hors-pow-ér) n. a unit for measuring the power of an engine (550 foot-pounds per second).

horse-radish (hors-rad-ish) n. a plant with a hot-tasting root, used to make a sauce.

horse-shoe (hors-shoo) n. 1. a U-shaped strip of metal nailed to a horse's hoof. 2. anything shaped like this. 3. horseshoes, a game in which horseshoes are thrown at a stake. □ horseshoe crab, king crab.

horse-shoe-er (hors-shoo-ér) n. a person who puts horseshoes on a horse.

horse-tail (hors-tayl) n. a rushlike plant with hollow jointed stems.

horse-whip (hors-hwip) n. a whip for horses. horsewhip v. (horse-whipped, horse-whip- ping) to beat with a horsewhip.

horse-woman (hors-wuwm-ân) n. (pl. -wom-en, pr. -wim-in) a woman rider on horseback, especially a skilled one.

horse-ys (hors-îz) adj. (hors-îr, hors-î-rest) 1. of or like a horse. 2. interested in horses and horse racing, showing this in one's dress and conversation etc.

hort. abbr. 1. horticultural. 2. horticulture.

hor-ta-tive (hor-ta-tiv) adj. tending or serving to exhort. hor-ta-tion (hor-tay-shôn) n.

hos-san-na (hoh-san'-ä) interj. & n. (pl. -nas) a cry of adoration to God.

hose (hohz) n. (pl. hose for def. 1; hos- es for def. 2) 1. stockings or socks. 2. a flexible tube for transporting water or other liquids and gases. hose v. (hosed, hos-ing) to water or spray with a hose, hose the car down.

hos-ter-y (hoh-zhe-re) n. stockings and socks in general.

hosp. abbr. hospital.

hos-pice (hos-pis) n. 1. a lodging for travelers, especially one kept by a religious order. 2. a home for troubled, destitute, or sick people.

hos-plan-ta-ble (hos-pi-ta-b'l) adj. giving and liking to give hospitality. hos-plan-ta-bly adv.

hos-plan-tal (hos-pi-tal) n. an institution where people are treated and nursed when they are ill or injured.

hos-plan-tal-ize (hos-pi-tal-iz) v. (hos-plan-tal-ized, hos-plan-tal-izing) to send or admit (a patient) to a hospital.

hos-plan-tal-iza-tion (hos-pi-tal-liz-a-shôn) n. □ hospitalization insurance, insurance to cover the cost of care and treatment in a hospital.

host! (hosht) n. a large number of people or things.

host! n. 1. a person who receives and entertains another as his guest. 2. an organism on which another organism lives as a parasite. host v. (informal) to act as host to (a person) or at (an event). □ Careful writers do not use host as a verb.

Host (hosht) n. the bread consecrated in the Christian rite of Holy Communion.

hos-ter-sage (hos-tij) n. a person held as security so that the holder's demands will be satisfied.

hos-tel (hos-tel) n. a lodging house for travelers, students, or other special groups. hos-tel-er n. hos-•tel•ry (hos-tel-ri) n. (pl. -ries) (old use) an inn.
host•ess (hohs-tis) n. 1. a woman who receives and entertains a person as her guest. 2. a woman employed to welcome people at a nightclub, restaurant, etc.
host•tile (hos-ti) adj. 1. of an enemy, hostile aircraft. 2. unfriendly, a hostile glance; they are hostile toward reform, are opposed to it. host•ile•ly adv. □ hostile witness, one who has reason to be opposed to the party calling him.
host•il•i•ties (ho-stil-i-teez) n. pl. acts of warfare.
host•il•i•ty (ho-stil-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) being hostile, enmity.
hot (hot) adj. (hot•ter, hot•test) 1. having great heat or high temperature, giving off heat, feeling heat. 2. producing a burning sensation to the taste. 3. eager, angry, excited, or excitable, in hot pursuit; a hot temper. 4. (of the scent in hunting) fresh and strong, (of news) fresh. 5. (informal, of a player) very skillful. 6. (of jazz etc.) strongly rhythmical and emotional. 7. (slang) radioactive. 8. (slang, of goods etc.) recently stolen and hence risky to handle. hot adv. hotly, in a hot state, on steep hills, the car runs hot; coffee should always be served hot. hot•ly adv. hot•ness n. □ hot air, (slang) excited or boastful talk. hot cake, a pancake. hot cross bun, a bun marked with a cross, prepared especially during Lent. hot dog, a frankfurter sandwiched in a roll of bread. hot flash, a flush, a rush of color or reddening of the face accompanied by perspiration and a sensation of extreme warmth, usually associated with the menopause. hot line, a direct line of communication, especially that between heads of governments in Washington and Moscow, and for emergency communications about potential drug and alcohol abuses, psychiatric patients, potential suicides, etc. hot pepper, a vegetable or condiment that has a hot taste. hot plate, a heated metal plate etc. for cooking food or keeping it hot. hot potato, (informal) a situation etc. likely to cause trouble to the person handling it. hot rod, (slang) a motor vehicle modified to have extra power and speed. hot rodder, (slang) a person who drives such a vehicle. hot seat, (slang) the position of someone who has difficult responsibilities or who is in trouble; the electric chair. hot spring, a hot water well. hot stuff, (slang) a person of high spirit or skill or passions; something high-powered. hot tip, secret information on a competitor sure to win a race or game, or on a good buy. hot under the collar, angry, resentful, or embarrassed. hot war, a war with active hostilities. in hot water, (informal) in trouble or disgrace. make things hot for a person, to make it uncomfortable for him, to persecute him. sell like hot cakes, to sell very readily. hot•bed (hot-bed) n. 1. a bed of earth heated by fermenting manure. 2. a place favorable to the growth of something evil. hot-blood•ed (hot-blud-id) adj. 1. ardent, passionate. 2. excitable.
hot•box (hot-boks) n. (in railroad cars) a metal bearing overheated by friction. hot•el (boh-tel) n. a building where meals and rooms are provided for travelers. hot•el•keep•er n.
hot•foot (hot-fluut) adv. in eager haste.
hotfoot n. (pl. -foots) a practical joke in which a match is placed secretly between the sole and upper of someone’s shoe and lighted. hotfoot v. (informal) to hurry eagerly, hotfooting it.
hot•head (hot-hed) n. an impetuous or excitable person. hot’head•ed adj. hot’head•ed•ly adv. hot’head•ed•ness n.
hot•house (hot-hows) n. a heated building made of glass, for growing plants in a warm temperature.
hot•shot (hot-shot) n. (slang) an aggressively successful person.
hot•tem•per•ed (hot-tem-pèrd) adj. easily becoming very angry.
hot•wa•ter (hot-waw-tér) bag or bottle a small container to be filled with hot water for warmth in bed, to relieve pain, etc.
hound (hownd) n. 1. a dog used in hunting, a foxhound. 2. an enthusiast, especially one devoted to seeking something out, an autograph hound. hound v. 1. to harass or pursue, hounded him out of society. 2. (informal) to urge, to incite, hound them on. □ hound’s tooth, hound’s-tooth check, a woven check pattern giving a notched effect.
hour (howr) n. 1. a twenty-fourth part of a day and night, 60 minutes. 2. a time of day, a point of time, always come at the same hour; seventeen hours, this time on the 24-hour clock; bus leaves on the hour, when the clock indicates a whole number of hours from midnight. 3. a short period of time, the time for action, the present time, the hour has come; ques•tion of the hour. 4. (in the Roman Catholic Church) prayers to be said at one of the seven times of day appointed for prayer, a book of hours. 5. a period for a specified activity, the lunch hour. 6. hours, a fixed period for daily work, office hours are nine to five; after hours. a late hour, a time late at night. credit hour, one unit of academic credit representing one hour of instruction a week for an entire semester. hour hand, the hand showing the hour on the clock. till all hours, till very late.

hourglass (owr-glas) n. a wasp-waisted glass container holding a quantity of fine sand that takes one hour to trickle through the small opening from the upper to the lower section.

hou'ri (hoo'r-ee) n. (pl. -ris) a young and beautiful woman of the Muslim paradise.

hourly (owr-lee) adj. 1. done or occurring once an hour, an hourly bus service. 2. continual, frequent, lives in hourly dread of discovery. hourly adv. every hour.

house (hows) n. (pl. houses, pr. howziz) 1. a building made for people (usually one family) to live in. 2. the people living in this house, a household. 3. a building used for a particular purpose, the opera house. 4. a residence hall at a school or college, the residents of this. 5. a legislative assembly, the building or chamber where it meets; the House, the U.S. House of Representatives. 6. a business firm, a banking house. 7. the audience of a theater, the theater itself, a full house. 8. a family or dynasty, the House of Windsor. 9. one of the twelve parts into which the heavens are divided in astrology. house (howsz) v. (housed, hous-ing) 1. to provide accommodations for. 2. to store (goods etc.). 3. to encase in a housing. house'less adj.

house arrest, detention in one's own house etc., not in prison. house detective, a detective employed by a hotel.

house of cards, an insecure scheme.

House of Commons, the assembly of elected representatives in the British parliament; the building where it meets.

house of correction, a confined place for persons convicted of minor offenses.

house of detention, a place for persons accused of a crime and awaiting trial.

house of God, a church, a place of worship.

house of ill repute or ill fame, (old use) a brothel.

House of Lords, the assembly of members of the nobility and bishops in the British parliament; the building where it meets. House of Representatives, the lower legislative branch of the U.S. Congress, of many states, and of some other countries.

house organ, a newspaper etc. published by a business or organization for its employees.

house party, a number of guests staying at a house.

house plant, a plant for growing indoors.

house sparrow, the English sparrow.

house trailer, a trailer with living accommodations.

house wren, an American wren that nests around houses.

like a house on fire, fast, vigorously, excellently.

on the house, at the owner's expense.

open house, an event in which an institution is open for public viewing; house party open to all friends and relatives. play house, to play at being a family in its home. put one's house in order, to make the necessary reforms.

set up house, to begin to live in a separate dwelling.

house boat (hows-boht) n. a bargelike boat fitted up as a dwelling.

house bound (hows-bownd) adj. unable to leave one's house.

house boy (hows-boi) n. a boy or a man as a servant in a house.

house break (hows-brayk) v. (house broke, house bro'-ken, house break'-ing) (of domestic animals) to train to be clean and behave well in the house. house bro'-ken (hows-broh-k'en) adj.

house break'-er (hows-bray-k'er) n. a burglar.

house break'-ing n.

house clean (hows-kleen) v. to clean a house and the furniture.

house coat (hows-coht) n. a woman's long dresslike garment for informal wear in the house.

house fly (hows-fli) n. (pl. -flies) a common fly found in houses.

house full (hows-fuul) n. (pl. -fults) all that a house can hold.

house guest (hows-gest) n. a person visiting with a household for one night or more.

house hold (hows-hohld) n. 1. all the occupants of a house. 2. a home and its affairs. household arts, home economics.

house hold effects, all the furnishings of a house; the belongings of a family.

house word, a familiar saying or name.

house hold'-er (hows-hohl-d'er) n. 1. a person owning or renting a house. 2. the head of a family or household.

house keep'-er (hows-kee-p'er) n. a person employed to look after a household.

house keep'-ing (hows-kee-ping) n. the management of household affairs.

house lights (hows-lights) n. pl. the lights in a theater auditorium.

house maid (hows-mayd) n. a woman servant in a house, especially one who cleans rooms.

housemaid's knee, inflammation of the kneecap, caused by kneeling to work.

house man (hows-mahn) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) a houseboy.

house moth'-er (hows-muth-er) n. a woman in charge of a residence for a group of people, especially a school or college dormitory or a fraternity or sorority house.

house-raising (hows-ray-zing) n. a gathering of rural families for the purpose of building a house for a member of the community.

house-to-house (hows-tó-hows) adj. calling at each house in turn.

house-top (hows-top) n. the roof of a house.

house-train (hows-trayn) v. to housebreak.

house-ware (hows-wairz) n. pl. small household equipment.

house-warming (hows-wor-ming) n. a party to celebrate the occupation of a new home.

house-wif (hows-wif) n. (pl. -wifes, pr. -wifiz) a woman managing a household. house-wif-ly adj. house-wif-er-y n. house-wif-li-ness n. From the old meaning of wife = "woman" (as in fishwife), not "married woman."

house-work (hows-wurk) n. the cleaning and cooking etc. done in housekeeping.

hous-ing (hows-zing) n. 1. accommodations. 2. provision of accommodations for people. 3. a rigid casing enclosing machinery. □ housing development, a number of houses in a residential area planned as a unit.

hove (hohv) see heave.

howl (huv-él) n. a miserable dwelling.

how (huv-ér) v. 1. (of a bird etc.) to remain in one place in the air. 2. to wait about, to linger, to wait close at hand. a howl. How ere a bird etc. to remain in one place in the air. 2. to wait about, to linger, to wait close at hand. How ere a bird etc. to remain in one place in the air. 2. to wait about, to linger, to wait close at hand.

howl (huv-ér) v. 1. the long loud wailing cry of a dog etc. 2. a loud cry of amusement or pain or scorn. 3. a similar noise made by a strong wind or in an electrical amplifier. howl v. 1. to make a howl. 2. to weep loudly. 3. to utter with a howl. □ howl down, to prevent (a speaker) from being heard by howling scorn at him. Howling success, (informal) a very great success.

howl-er (hoh-lér) n. (informal) a foolish mistake.

how-to (how-too) adj. (informal) giving basic instruction in techniques, a how-to book on insulating.

how-den (hoh-dén) n. a girl who behaves boisterously. how’den-ish adj.

hp abbr. horsepower.

HQ abbr. headquarters.

hr(s). abbr. hour(s).

H.R. abbr. House of Representatives.

H.S. abbr. High School.

HST abbr. Hawaiian standard time.

HT abbr. high-tension.

ht. abbr. height.

Hts. abbr. Heights.

hua-robe (wa-rah-chec) n. a Mexican leather sandal with thongs.

hub (hub) n. 1. the central part of a wheel, from which spokes radiate. 2. a central point of activity, the hub of the universe.

hub-bub (hub-ub) n. a loud confused noise of voices.

hub-by (hub-ee) n. (pl. -bies) (informal) husband.

hub-cap (hub-kap) n. a metal covering over the center of a car wheel.

hub-bris (hyoo-bris) n. 1. an insolent pride or presumption. 2. (in Greek tragedy) arrogant pride toward the gods, leading to nemesis. Hub-bris-tic (hyoo-bris-tik) adj.

huck-le-ber-ry (huk-elber-ee) n. (pl. -ries) a blue or black fruit of a low berry-bearing shrub common in North America.

huck-ster (huk-stér) n. 1. a peddler. 2. a high-pressure salesman or advertiser.

huckster v. to sell small articles for a living.

HUD (hud) n. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

huddling (hud-dling) v. 1. to heap or crowd together into a small space. 2. to curl one's body closely, to nestle. Huddle n. 1. a confused mass. 2. (in football) a gathering of a team to receive instructions for the next play. □ go into a huddle, to hold a private conference.

hue\(^1\) (hyoo) n. a color, a tint. hued (hyood) adj.

hue\(^2\) n. hue and cry, a general outcry of alarm or demand or protest.

huff (huf) v. a fit of annoyance; in a huff, annoyed and offended. huff v. to blow; huffing and puffing, blowing or blustering.

huge (huog) adj. extremely large, enormous. huge'ly adv. huge'ness n.

hug (hug) v. (hugged, hugging) 1. to squeeze tightly in one's arms. 2. to keep close to, the ship hugged the shore. hug n. a strong clasp with the arms.

huge (hyooj) adj. • huge 2. n. close, fused secrecy, next interrogation, the Hull.

hulk (hulk) n. 1. the body of an old ship. 2. a large clumsy-looking person or thing.

hulk-ing (hulk-ing) adj. (informal) large, clumsy.

hull (hul) n. 1. the dry outer covering of a fruit or vegetable, as the pods of peas. 2. the cluster of leaves on a strawberry. 3. the basic frame of a ship or aircraft. hull v. to remove the hulls of a vegetable etc.

hul-la-ba-loo (hul-la-ba-loo) n. (pl. -loos) an uproar.

hum (hum) v. (hummed, humming) 1. to make a low steady continuous sound like that of a spinning object. 2. to sing with closed lips. 3. (informal) to be in a state of activity, things started humming; make things hum. hum n. a humming sound. hum'mer n.

hu-man (hyoo-man) adj. 1. of or consisting of the species to which men and women belong, the human race. 2. having the qualities that distinguish mankind, not divine or animal or mechanical. human n. a human being. □ human interest, something that appeals to personal emotions (in a newspaper story etc.). human rights, those held to be claimable by any living person, such as the right of free speech, the right to worship as one chooses, etc.

hu-man-e (hyoo-mayn) adj. kindhearted, compassionate, merciful. hu-man'e-ly adv. hu-man'e-ness n. □ human-e society, an organized group concerned with the kind treatment of animals.

hu-man-ist (hyoo-ma-nist) n. 1. a person who is concerned with the study of mankind and human affairs (as opposed to theology or the physical sciences), or who seeks to promote human welfare. 2. a student (especially during the Renais-sance) of Roman and Greek literature and antiquities. hu-man'is-m n. hu-man-is'tic (hyoo-ma-nis-bik) adj. hu-man-i-tar-ian (hyoo-man-i-tair-i-an) adj. concerned with human welfare and the reduction of suffering. humanitarian n. a humanitarian person.

hu-man-i-ties (hyoo-man-i-teez) n. pl. arts subjects (especially study of the Greek and Latin classics) as opposed to the sciences.

hu-man-i-ty (hyoo-man-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. the human race, people. 2. being human. 3. being humane, kindheartedness.

hu-man-i-ze (hyoo-ma-niz) v. (hu-man-i-zed, hu-man-i-zing) 1. to make human, to give a human character to. 2. to make humane. hu-man-i-za'tion (hyoo-ma-niz-ay-shun) n.

hu-man-kind (hyoo-man-kind) n. mankind.

hu-man-ly (hyoo-man-lee) adv. 1. in a human way. 2. by human means, with human limitations, as accurate as is humanly possible.

hu-man-old (hyoo-man-old) adj. having somewhat human characteristics. humanoid n. a humanoid robot.

hum-ble (hum-bel) adj. (bler, -blest) 1. having or showing a modest estimate of one's own importance, not proud. 2. offered with such feelings, humble apologies. 3. of low social or political rank. 4. (of a thing) not large or showy or elaborate, a humble cottage. humble v. (hum-bled, hum-bl ing) to make humble, to lower the rank or self-importance of. hum'ble'ly adv. hum'ble'ness n.

□ eat humble pie, to make a humble apology. □ From humble pie, that made with "umbles," the edible organs (heart, kidney, etc.) of deer.

hum-bug (hum-bug) n. 1. misleading behavior or talk that is intended to win support or sympathy. 2. a person who behaves or talks in this way. humbug v. (hum-bugged, hum-bug-ting) to humble, to behave like an impostor. hum-bug interj. nonsense.

hum-ding-er (hum-ding-er) n. (slang) a remarkable person or thing.

hum-drum (hum-drum) adj. dull, commonplace, monotonous.

hu-mer-us (hu-oo-mé-rüs) n. the bone in the upper arm, from shoulder to elbow.

hu-mid (hu-oo-mid) adj. (of the air or climate) damp. hu-mid-ly adv. hu-mid-i-ty n.

hu-mid-i-fi-er (hu-mid-i-fi-er) n., adj. hu-mid-i-fi-ca-tion (hu-mid-i-fi-ca-tion) n.

hu-mid-i-fy (hu-oo-mid-i-fy) v. to add moisture to (a room etc.). hu-mid-i-fy-ing (hu-oo-mid-i-fy-ing) adj.

hu-mid-i-fi-er (hu-oo-mid-i-fi-er) n. a device for keeping the air moist in a room etc.

hu-mid-i-ty (hu-oo-mid-i-ty) n. the quality of being humid. hu-mid-i-ty (hu-oo-mid-i-ty) n. a small bird with narrow wings that vibrates its wings rapidly, producing a humming sound.

hummock (hum-ök) n. a hump in the ground.

hu-son-gous (hu-oo-mon-güs) adj. (slang) huge, tremendous. hu-mo-rous (hu-oo-mó-rüs) adj. full of humor.

hu-mo-rus (hu-oo-mó-rüs) adj. full of humor. hu-mo-rus-ly adv.

hump (hump) n. 1. a rounded projecting part. 2. a protuberance, especially on the back, as a deformity or (in the camel etc.) as a normal feature. hump v. 1. to form into a hump. 2. to exert oneself energetically. humped adj.

hump-back (hump-bak) n. a hunchback.

■ humpback whale, a whale with a dorsal fin forming a hump. hump-backed adj.

humpf (humf) interj. & n. an inarticulate sound expressing doubt or dissatisfaction.

hu-mus (hu-oo-müs) n. rich dark organic material, formed by the decay of dead leaves and plants etc. and essential to the fertility of soil.

Hun (hun) n. 1. a member of an Asiatic warlike nomad race who invaded and ravaged Europe in the 4th to 5th centuries. 2. an uncivilized vandal. Hun-nish adj. Hun-nish-ness n.

hunch (hunch) v. to bend into a hump. hunch n. 1. a hump, a hunk. 2. a feeling based on intuition.

hunch-back (hunch-bak) n. a person with a hump on his back. hunch'-backed' adj.

hu-ned (hu-ned) adj. & n. (pl. -dreds, -dred) ten times ten (100, C), several hundred people; hundreds of people, very many. hun-dredth (hu-ned-th) adj. & n. hundred percent, entirely, completely.

hu-ned-fold (hu-ned-fold) adj. & adv. one hundred times as much or as many.

hu-ned-weight (hu-ned-weight) n. 1. a measure of weight equaling 100 pounds (short hundredweight). 2. a measure of weight equaling 50 kilograms (metric hundredweight).

hung (hung) see hang. hung over, (slang) having a hangover. hung up on, (slang) obsessed with.

Hung.-ga-ry (hung-gá-ry) a country of central Europe. Hun-gar-i-an (hung-gair-i-an) adj. & n.

hu-ned (hu-ned) adj. & n. need for food, the uneasy sensation felt when one has not eaten for some time. 2. a strong desire for something. hu-ned v. to feel hunger. hu-ned strike, refusal of food, as a form of protest.

hu-nedry (hu-nedry) adj. (-gri-er, -gri-est) feeling hunger. hun-gri-ly adv.

hunk (hunk) n. (informal) a large or clumsy piece.

hunk (hunk) v. to squat.

hunkers (hunk-ers) n. pl. the buttocks.

hunk-y-do-ry (hunk-kee-dohr-ce) adj. (slang) excellent.

hunt (hunt) v. 1. to pursue (wild animals) for food or sport. 2. to pursue with hostility, to drive, was hunted away. 3. to make a search, hunted for it everywhere; hunt it out, seek and find it. hunt n. 1. hunting. 2. an association of people for the purpose of hunting. hu-ned down, to hunt (an animal etc.) until it is caught or killed; to hunt for and find. hu-ned ground, a place where people hunt; happy hunting grounds, life after death (especially as expected by the American hunt (hurt) v. 1. to cause pain or damage to; to distress. 2. to cause mental pain to, to distress. 3. to cause or feel pain, my leg hurts. hurt n. an injury, harm.

hurt ful (hurt ful) adj. causing hurt.

hurt ling (hurt ling) v. (hurt-ied, hurt-ling) to move or hurl rapidly.

hus band (huz-band) n. a married man in relation to his wife. husband v. to use economically, to try to save, husband one's resources.

hus band ry (huz-ban-dry) n. 1. farming. 2. the management of resources.

hush (hush) v. to make or become silent or quiet; hush a thing up, to prevent it from becoming generally known. hush interj. & n. silence. hush money, money paid to prevent something discredit able from being revealed. hush puppy, quickly fried cornmeal bread; Hush Puppies, (trademark) light soft shoes.

hush hush (hush-hush) adj. (informal) kept very secret.

husk (husk) n. the dry outer covering of certain seeds and fruits. husk v. to remove the husk(s) from. husking bee, a gathering of families in farm areas to husk corn.

husky (husk-ee) adj. (-ki er, -ki est) 1. dry like husks. 2. (of a person or his voice) dry in the throat, hoarse. 3. big and strong, burly. husk' ly adv. husk' liness n.

husky s (pl -kies) an Eskimo dog, used for pulling dogsleds.

hus sars (huz-zahrz) n. any of several European cavalry regiments.

hus sy (hus ee, huz ee) n. (pl -sies) 1. an immoral woman. 2. an impertinent young woman.

hus tings (hus tingz) n. 1. any place where political speeches are made during an election campaign. 2. the travels of a political candidate while campaigning; on the hustings, campaigning in an election. Originally a temporary platform from which candidates for the British parliament could address the electors.

hus tle (hus-ÁE) v. (hus-tied, hus-ting) 1. to jostle, to push roughly. 2. to hurry. 3. to bustle (a person), to make (a person) act quickly and without time to consider things, was hustled into a decision. 4. (slang) to earn a living by dishonest or questionable pursuits. hustle n. 1. ambition, drive. 2. an energetic popular dance. 3. (slang) a game designed to defraud participants or those who gamble on it.

hus tler (hus ler) n. 1. a person who hustles. 2. (slang) a prostitute.

hut (hut) n. a small roughly made house or shelter.

hutch (huch) n. a boxlike pen for rabbits.

huz zah (huz zah) interj. & n. (old use) an expression of exultation, encouragement, or applause.

HV abbr. 1. high velocity. 2. high voltage.

hvy abbr. heavy.
hydranth 430
hy·a·cinth (hī-a·sinth) n. 1. a plant with fragrant bell-shaped flowers, growing from a bulb. 2. purplish blue.
hy·brid (hī-brīd) n. 1. an animal or plant that is the offspring of two different species or varieties. 2. something made by combining two different elements. hy·brid adj. produced in this way. hy·brid·ism n.
hy·brid·ize (hī-brīd·iz) v. (hy·brid·ized, hy·brid·iz·ing) 1. to subject to crossbreeding. 2. to produce hybrids, to interbreed.
hy·brid·iz·er (hī-brīd·iz·ər) n. 1. a device for listening under water.
hydrant (hī-dra·hant) n. 1. a pipe from a water main (especially in a street) with a nozzle to which a hose can be attached for fighting fires or cleaning streets etc.
hydrat·ed (hī-dra·tèd) adj. 1. having many divisions or facets. 2. producing many problems.
hydrat·ing (hī-dra·tèng) v. 1. to cause or to cause to combine with hydrogen. 2. to cause to absorb water. 3. to convey water through pipes or channels. 4. hardening under water, hydraulic cement. hy·drau·lic·ally adv.
hydrat·ics (hī-dra·tiks) n. the science of the conveyance of liquids through pipes etc., especially as motive power.
hy·dro (hī-dro) adj. (informal) hydroelectric.
hy·dro·car·bon (hī-dro·kahr·bōn) n. any of a class of compounds of hydrogen and carbon that are found in oil, coal, and natural gas.
hy·dro·ceph·a·lus (hī-dro·sef·ə-lūs), hy·dro·ceph·a·ly (hī-dro·sef·ə-lee) n. a condition (especially of children) in which fluid accumulates on the brain, with resulting mental deficiency.
hy·dro·ce·phal·ic (hī-dro·sef·ə-līk) adj.
hy·dro·chlo·ric (hī-dro·klohr·ik) acid a colorless corrosive acid containing hydrogen and chlorine.
hy·dro·cya·n·ic (hī-dro·si·an·ik) acid a weak acid that is highly poisonous, prussic acid.
hy·dro·dy·nam·ic (hī-dro·di·nam·ik) adj. of the force exerted by a moving liquid, especially water.
hy·dro·dy·nam·ics (hī-dro·di·nam·iks) n. the scientific study of the force exerted by a moving liquid, especially water.
hy·dro·ele·c·tric (hī-dro·i·lek·trik) adj. using waterpower to produce electricity.
hy·dro·ele·ctr·ic·al·ly adv.
hy·dro·ele·ctr·ics (hī-dro·i·lek·triks) n. a device for listening under water.
hydrat·ing (hī-dra·tèng) v. 1. to cause or to cause to combine with hydrogen. 2. to cause to absorb water. 3. to convey water through pipes or channels. 4. hardening under water, hydraulic cement. hy·drau·lic·ally adv.
hydrat·ics (hī-dra·tiks) n. the science of the conveyance of liquids through pipes etc., especially as motive power.
hy·dro (hī-dro) adj. (informal) hydroelectric.
hy·dro·car·bon (hī-dro·kahr·bōn) n. any of a class of compounds of hydrogen and carbon that are found in oil, coal, and natural gas.
hy·dro·ceph·a·lus (hī-dro·sef·ə-lūs), hy·dro·ceph·a·ly (hī-dro·sef·ə-lee) n. a condition (especially of children) in which fluid accumulates on the brain, with resulting mental deficiency.
hy·dro·ce·phal·ic (hī-dro·sef·ə-līk) adj.
hy·dro·chlo·ric (hī-dro·klohr·ik) acid a colorless corrosive acid containing hydrogen and chlorine.
hy·dro·cya·n·ic (hī-dro·si·an·ik) acid a weak acid that is highly poisonous, prussic acid.
hy·dro·dy·nam·ic (hī-dro·di·nam·ik) adj. of the force exerted by a moving liquid, especially water.
hy·dro·dy·nam·ics (hī-dro·di·nam·iks) n. the scientific study of the force exerted by a moving liquid, especially water.
hy·dro·ele·c·tric (hī-dro·i·lek·trik) adj. using waterpower to produce electricity.
hy·dro·ele·ctr·ic·al·ly adv.
hy·dro·ele·ctr·ics (hī-dro·i·lek·triks) n. a device for listening under water.

hydroplane / hyperventilation hydr-o-plane (hīd-rō-playn) n. a light fast motorboat designed to skim over the surface of water.

hydr-o-pon-ics (hīd-rō-pōn-iks) n. the art of growing plants without soil in water to which nutrients have been added.

hydr-o-pon'ic adj.

hydr-o-sphere (hīd-rō-sfēr) n. the waters on the surface of the earth.

hydr-o-stat-ic (hīd-rō-stat-ik) adj. of the pressure and other characteristics of water or other liquid at rest.

hydr-o-stat-ics (hīd-rō-stat-iks) n. the scientific study of the pressure and equilibrium of liquids at rest.

hydr-o-ther-a-py (hīd-rō-ther-ā-pee) n. the use of water (internally and externally) in the treatment of disease and abnormal physical conditions.

hydr-o-ther-mal (hīd-rō-thur-māl) adj. of the action of heated water on the earth's crust.

hydr-ous (hīd-rōs) adj. (of substances) containing water.

hydr-o-xide (hīd-rō-iksid) n. a chemical compound of an element or a radical with hydroxyl.

hydr-o-xyl (hīd-rō-sīl) n. a chemical radical containing hydrogen and oxygen.

hydr-en-a (hī-ee-nā) n. a flesh-eating animal with a howl that sounds like wild laughter.

hydr-giene (hīd-jeen) n. the practice of cleanliness in order to maintain health and prevent disease.

hydr-glen-us (hīd-jeen-ist, ji-en-ist) n.

hydr-gi-en-ic (hīd-jeen-ik) adj. 1. according to the principles of hygiene. 2. clean and free from disease germs.

hydr-gi-en'i-cal-ly adv.

hydr-grom-e-ter (hīd-grom-ē-tēr) n. an instrument that measures humidity.

hydr-grom'e-try n.

hydr-ing (hīd-ing) see hie.

hydr-men (hī-mēn) n. a membrane partly closing the external opening of the vagina of a virgin girl or woman.

hydr-me-ne-al (hī-mē-ne-āl) adj. nuptial.

hymn (him) n. a song of praise to God or a sacred being.

hymnal (him-nāl) n. a hymn book.

hymn-o-ny (hīm-ō-dec) n. 1. the singing or composing of hymns. 2. the hymns collectively.

hym'n-o-dist n.

hype (hīp) n. (slang) misleading and exaggerated claims in advertising or publicity.

hype v. (hyped, hyp-ing) (slang) to mislead by sensational publicity.

hyped up, (slang) stimulated by or as if by an injection of drugs.

hy-per-a-clid-i-ty (hī-pēr-ā-sid-i-tee) n. excessive acidity.

hy-per-ac'id (hī-pēr-as-id) adj.

hy-per-ac-tive (hī-pēr-ak-tive) adj. (especially of children) excessively or abnormally active.

hy-per-ac-tiv'i-ty (hī-pēr-ak-tiv-i-tee) n.

hy-per-bar'ic (hī-pēr-bar-ik) adj. or utilizing oxygen at high pressure.

hy-per-bo'la (hī-pēr-bō-lā) n. (pl. -lē, pr. -lee) a plane curve of two equal infinite branches produced when a double cone is cut by a plane that makes a larger angle with the base than the side of the cone does.

hy-per-bol'ic (hī-pēr-bōl-ik) adj.

hy-per-bo'le (hī-pēr-bō-lē) n. an exaggerated statement that is not meant to be taken literally, as a stack of work a mile high.

hy-per-bol'i-cal (hī-pēr-bōl-i-kāl) adj.

hy-per-crit'i-cal (hī-pēr-krit'i-kāl) adj. excessively critical.

hy-per-crit'i-cal-ly adv.

hy-per-o-pl'a (hī-pēr-ob-plē-ā) n. farsightedness.

hy-per-op'ic (hī-pēr-opık) adj.

hy-per-sen'si-tive (hī-pēr-sen'si-tiv) adj. excessively sensitive.

hy-per-sen'si-tive-ness n.

hy-per-sen'si-tiv'i-ty (hī-pēr-sen'si-tiv-i-tee) n.

hy-per-son'ic (hī-pēr-sōnık) adj. 1. relating to speeds more than about five times that of sound. 2. relating to sound frequencies above about a billion hertz.

hy-per-son'i-cal-ly adv.

hy-per-ten'sion (hī-pēr-ten-shōn) n. 1. abnormally high blood pressure. 2. great emotional tension.

hy-per-thre-ma (hī-pēr-thēr-mā) n. the condition of having a body temperature greatly above normal.

hy-per-thry'roid'ism (hī-pēr-thēr-roi-diz-em) n. 1. increased activity of the thyroid gland. 2. the resulting condition of high metabolism in the body.

hy-per-thry'roid adj.

hy-per-tro'phy (hī-pēr-trō-fē) n. (pl. -phies) an enlargement of an organ etc.) caused by excessive nutrition.

hy-per-tro'phic (hī-pēr-trō-fik) adj.

hy-per-trophy v. (hī-pēr-tro'phied, hy-per-tro'phy-ning) to cause or suffer hypertrophy.

hy-per-ven'tila'tion (hī-pēr-ven-til-ay-shōn) n. a condition of very rapid deep breathing resulting in a decrease of carbon dioxide in the blood.

hy•phen (hr-fên) n. the sign - used to join two words together (as in house-raising) or to divide a word into parts. hyphen v. to hyphenate.

hy•phen•ate (hr-fê-nayt) v. (hy•phen• at•ed, hy•phen•at•ing) to join or divide with a hyphen. hyphen•a•tion (hr-fê-nay-shôn) n.

hy•pon•o•sis (hip-nô-sis) n. 1. the sleep-like condition produced by hypnotism. 2. hypnotism.

hy•pon•o•tic (hip-not-ik) adj. 1. of or producing hypnosis or a similar condition. 2. (of a drug) producing sleep. hypnotic n. a hypnotic drug. hy•not•i•cal•ly adv.

hy•pon•o•tism (hip-nô-tiz-êm) n. the production of a sleeplike condition in a person who is then very susceptible to suggestion and who acts only if told to do so.

hy•pon•o•tist (hip-nô-tist) n. a person who produces hypnotism in another.

hy•pon•o•tize (hip-nô-tiz) v. (hy•pon• o•tized, hy•pon•o•tiz•ing) 1. to produce hypnosis in (a person). 2. to fascinate, to dominate the mind or will of.

hy•po¹ (hr-poh) n. (pl. -pos) the fixing agent sodium thiosulphate used in photography.

hy•po² n. (pl. -pos) (informal) a hypodermic.

hy•po•cen•ter (hr-pô-sen-têr) n. the point on the earth's surface directly below the center of a nuclear bomb explosion.

hy•po•cho•n•dri•a (hr-pô-kon-dri-å) n. a mental condition in which a person constantly shows unnecessary anxiety about his health.

hy•po•cho•n•dri•ac (hr-pô-kon-dri-ak) n. a person who suffers from hypochondria.

hy•poc•ri•sy (hi-pok-ri-see) n. (pl. -sies) the simulation of virtue or goodness, insincerity.

hy•poc•rite (hip-ô-krit) n. a person who is guilty of hypocrisy. hy•poc•ri•ti•cal (hip-ô-krit-i-kal) adj. hy•poc•ri•ti•cal•ly adv.

hy•po•der•mic (hr-pô-dur-mik) adj. 1. injected beneath the skin. 2. used for such injections. hypodermic n. a hypodermic needle, a syringe fitted with a hollow needle through which a liquid can be injected beneath the skin. hy•po•der•mi•cal•ly adv.

hy•po•gly•ce•mi•a (hip-poh-gli-see-mi-å) n. an abnormally low level of glucose in the blood. hy•po•gly•ce•mic (hip-poh-gli-see-mik) adj.

hy•po•ten•si•on (hip-pô-ten-shôn) n. abnormally low blood pressure.

hy•po•th•e•sis (hip-ô-thë-sis) n. the side opposite the right angle in a right triangle.

hy•po•thet•ic (hip-thë-tik) adj. 1. of or based on a hypothesis, supposed but not necessarily true. hy•po•thet•ic•al adj.

hy•po•tho•roid•ism (hip-poh-thro-roi-diz-êm) n. 1. a decreased activity of the thyroid gland. 2. the resulting condition of low metabolism in the body. hy•po•thy•roid adj.

hy•sop (his-ôp) n. a bushy aromatic herb with small blue flowers, used medicinally.

hy•sor•ry•cous (his-tôrek-tô-mee) n. (pl. -ries) surgical removal of the uterus.

hy•sor•ry•cous (his-ter-i-ä, -ster-) n. wild uncontrollable emotion or excitement. hy•sor•ry•sphal•ic (his-ter-i-kál) adj. caused by hysteria, suffering from this. hy•sor•ry•sphal•ic•ly adv.

hy•sor•ry•sphal•ics (his-ter-i-iks) n. a hysterical outburst.

Hz abbr. hertz.
l, I (1) (pl. Is, l's, l's) 1. the ninth letter of the alphabet. 2. the Roman numeral symbol for 1.
1 (i) pronoun the person who is speaking or writing and referring to himself.
1 abbr. 1. independent. 2. interstate highway. 3. island(s). 4. isle(s).
1 symbol iodine.
1. abbr. 1. interest. 2. intransitive. 3. island(s). 4. isle(s).
IA abbr. Iowa.
Iamb (i-am, i-amb), Iambus (i-am'bus) n. a metrical foot consisting of one short followed by one long syllable, or of an unaccented followed by an accented syllable. i-am'bic adj. & n.
-ian suffix used to form adjectives that often are used as nouns, as in Bostonian, Christian.
Be-ral'an (r-beer-i-án) adj. of the peninsula in southwest Europe comprising Spain and Portugal.
I-bex (i-beks) n. (pl. I-bex-es, i-bex) a mountain goat with long curling horns.
Ibid. abbr. ibidem, = in the same book or passage etc. > Latin.
I-bis (r-bis) n. (pl. I-bis-es, i-bis) a wading bird with a long curved bill, found in warm climates.
-ible suffix used to form adjectives with the same meanings as -able, as in terri-fic, forcible.
-ic1 suffix used to form adjectives meaning having the form or character of, as in scenic; of or relating to, as in Arabic; in the manner of, as in barbaric; derived from or containing, as in alcoholic; dealing or associated with, as in atomic; characterized by, as in tragic; in a higher valence or degree of oxidation, as in ferric.
-ic2 suffix used to form nouns meaning one having the nature or character of, as in stoic; one associated with or belonging to, as in mechanic; one that produces, as in critic; one affected by, as in lunatic.
-ical suffix used to form adjectives corresponding to nouns or adjectives ending in -ic, as in classical, comical.
ICBM abbr. intercontinental ballistic missile.
ICC abbr. Interstate Commerce Commission.
Ice (is) n. 1. frozen water, a brittle transparent solid. 2. a sheet of this. 3. (also ices) a refreshment made of flavored crushed ice. Ice v. (iced, ic-ing) 1. to become covered with ice, the pond iced over. 2. to make very cold. 3. to decorate with icing. Iced adj. Ice Age, a period when much of the northern hemisphere was covered with glaciers. Ice bag, an ice-filled rubber bag for medical use. Ice cap, the permanent covering of ice in polar regions. Ice cream, a sweet creamy frozen food. Ice cube, a small block of ice made in a refrigerator. Ice field, an extensive sheet of floating ice. Ice hockey, a game resembling hockey, played on ice between teams of skaters with a flat disk (a puck) instead of a ball. Ice milk, ice cream made with greatly reduced butterfat. Ice pick, an awl for chipping ice. Ice plant, a plant with leaves that glisten as if with ice. Ice show, an entertainment by skaters on ice. Ice skate, a metal blade attached to the sole of a boot or shoe so that the wearer can glide over ice. Ice skater, a person who uses ice skates. Ice storm, a storm that leaves a coating of ice. Ice water, water chilled by ice. On thin ice, in a risky situation.
Ice. abbr. 1. Iceland. 2. Icelandic.
Iceberg (is-burg) n. a huge mass of ice floating in the sea with the greater part under water. Iceberg lettuce, a variety of lettuce with round crisp heads. Tip of the Iceberg, a small evident part of something much larger that lies concealed.
Iceboat (is-boht) n. a boat mounted on runners for traveling on ice.
Ice-bound (is-bownd) adj. hemmed in by ice.
Icebox (is-boks) n. 1. an insulated chest in which ice is put to preserve food. 2. (informal) a refrigerator.
Icebreaker (is-bray-kér) n. 1. a boat with a reinforced bow for breaking a channel through ice. 2. a means of break-ice-cold / identity

ld. abbr. idem.
I'd (id) = I had, I would.
I-da-ho (I-da-hoh) a state of the U.S.
I-de-a (i-dee-ä) n. 1. a plan etc. formed in the mind by thinking. 2. a mental impression, give him an idea of what is needed. 3. an opinion, tries to force his ideas on us. 4. a vague belief or fancy, a feeling that something is likely, I have an idea that we'll be late. □ have no idea, (informal) not to know; to be utterly incompetent. the very ideal, that is outrageous.
I-de-al (i-dee-äl, i-deel) adj. satisfying one's idea of what is perfect, ideal weather for sailing. ideal n. a person or thing or idea that is regarded as perfect or as a standard for attainment or imitation, the high ideals of the Christian religion. I-de-al-i-ty adv.
I-de-al-ist (i-dee-ä-list) n. a person who has high ideals and tries in an unrealistic way to achieve these. I-de-al-ism n. I-de-al-ist-tic (i-dee-ä-tis-tik) adj. I-de-al-ist-ti-cal-ly adv.
I-de-al-ize (i-dee-al-zay) v. (i-dee-al-ized, i-dea-al-iz-ing) to regard or represent as perfect. I-de-al-i-za-tion (i-dee-äl-li-zay-shun) n.
I-de-a-tion (i-di-ay-shun) n. the formation of ideas. I-de-a-tion-al adj. I-de-at-e (i-di-ayt) v. (i-dea-at-ed, i-dea-at-ing).
I-den (1-den) pronoun 1. the same author. 2. the same work. △ Latin.
I-den-ti-cal (i-den-ti-kal) adj. 1. the same, this is the identical place we stayed in last year. 2. similar in every detail, exactly alike, no two people have identical fingerprints. I-den-ti-cal-ly adv. □ Identical twins, twins developed from a single fertilized ovum and therefore of the same sex and very similar in appearance.
I-den-ti-fi-a-ble (i-den-ti-fi-ä-bel) adj. able to be identified.
I-den-ti-fy (i-den-ti-fï) v. (I-den-ti-ified, I-den-ti-fï-ing) 1. to establish the identity of, to recognize as being a specified person or thing. 2. to consider to be identical, to equate, one cannot identify riches with happiness. 3. to associate very closely in feeling or interest, he has identified himself with the progress of the firm. 4. to regard oneself as sharing the characteristics or fortunes of another person, people like to identify with the characters in a film. I-den-ti-fi-ca-tion (i-den-ti-fi-kay-shun) n. □ Identification bracelet, a bracelet showing the owner's name etc. identification card, a card serving to identify the bearer.
I-den-ti-ty (i-den-ti-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1.
the state of being identical, absolute sameness. 2. the condition of being a specified person or thing; established his identity, established who he was. □Identity crisis, confusion in a person's mind, especially in adolescence, concerning his or her social role and true self.

I*de*o*gram (id-i-o-gram) n. a symbol indicating the idea (not the sounds forming the name) of a thing, as numerals, Chinese characters, and symbols used in road signs.

I*de*ol*ogy (i-di-ol-o-gy) n. (pl. -gies) 1. the principal ideas or beliefs that characterize a particular class, group, or movement. 2. the ideas that form the basis of an economic or political theory etc., Marxist ideology.

I*de*es (idz) n. pl. in the ancient Roman calendar, the fifteenth of March, May, July, and October, the thirteenth of other months. □Idees of March, the date (March 15) predicted for the assassination of Julius Caesar; an inauspicious day.

I*de*st (id.est) that is. □Latin.

I*de*o*cy (id-i-0-see) n. (pl. -cies) 1. the state of being an idiot. 2. extreme stupidity. 3. stupid behavior, a stupid action.

I*de*om (id-i-0m) n. 1. a phrase that must be taken as a whole, usually having a meaning that is not clear from the meanings of the individual words, as hang around and a change of heart. 2. the use of particular words or of words in an order that is regarded as standard, the idiom is “wash up the dishes” but not “wash up your hands.” 3. the language used by a people or group, in the scientific idiom. 4. a characteristic mode of expression in art or music etc.

I*de*oma*tic*1 (id-i-0-mat-1) adj. 1. in accordance with idioms. 2. full of idioms.

I*de*o*mat*ic*2 (id-i-0-mat-2) adj. of a disease arising from an unknown cause or origin.

I*de*opath*ic*1 (id-i-0-path-1) adj. (of a disease) arising from an unknown cause or origin.

I*de*opath*ic*2 (id-i-0-path-2) adj. (of a disease) arising from an unknown cause or origin.

I*de*o*syn*cras*ic*1 (id-i-0-syn-kras-1) n. (pl. -sies) a person's own attitude of mind or way of behaving etc. that is unlike that of others.

I*de*osyn*cras*ic*2 (id-i-0-syn-kras-2) adj. having an extreme personality.

I*de*ot (id-i-0t) n. 1. a mentally deficient person who is permanently incapable of rational conduct. 2. (informal) a very stupid person. □Idiot card, (slang) a card prompting a television performer.

I*de*ot*ic*1 (id-i-0-tic) adj. (very stupid. I*de*ot*ic*2 (id-i-0-tic) adj. (very stupid.

I*die*1 (i-die) adj. (i-dier, i-diest) 1. doing no work, not employed, not active or in use. 2. (of time) spent doing nothing. 3. avoiding work, lazy, an idle fellow. 4. worthless, having no special purpose, idle gossip; idle curiosity. I*die*2 (i-die) adj. (i-ding) 1. to pass (time) without working, to be idle. 2. (of an engine) to run slowly in a neutral gear. I*die*3 (i-die) adj. (i-ding) 1. to pass (time) without working, to be idle. 2. (of an engine) to run slowly in a neutral gear. I*die*4 (i-die) adj. (i-ding) 1. to pass (time) without working, to be idle.
Ignominious / Illusive

ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
ill-natures (i-loo-chn-dr) n. underrate. ill-natured (i-loo-z/id-nist) adj. unkind.
not confuse illusive with elusive.

illusory / imitation

1. (i-loo-sö-ree) adj. based on illusion, not real.

illustr. abbr. 1. illustrated. 2. illustration. 3. illustrator.

illus·trate (i-lus·trát) v. (i-lus·trat·ed, i-lus·trat·ing) 1. to supply (a book or newspaper etc.) with drawings or pictures. 2. to make clear or explain by examples or pictures etc. 3. to serve as an example of. i-lus·tra·tor n.

illus·tra·tion (i-lus·trá·shún) n. 1. illustrating. 2. a drawing or picture in a book etc. 3. an example used to explain something.

illus·tra·tive (i-lus·trá·tiv) adj. serving as an illustration or example. i-lus·tra·tive·ly adv.

illus·tri·ous (i-lus′tri-əs) adj. famous and distinguished. i-lus′tri·ous·ly adv. i-lus·tri·ous·ness adj.

ILL abbr. International Labor Organization.

ILS abbr. instrument landing system.

I'm (Im) = I am.

im·age (im-ij) n. 1. a representation of the outward form of a person or thing, a statue. 2. the optical appearance of something produced in a mirror or through a lens etc. 3. something very like another in appearance, he's the very image of his father. 4. a mental picture. 5. the general impression of a person or firm or product etc. as perceived by the public. image v. (im·aged, im·ag·ing) 1. to make an image of, to portray. 2. to reflect, to mirror.

im·age·ry (im-ij-ree) n. (pl. -ries) 1. images. 2. the use of metaphorical language to produce pictures in the minds of readers or hearers.

im·ag·i·na·ble (i-maj·ə-nə-bəl) adj. able to be imagined. im·ag·i·na·bly adv.

im·ag·i·na·ry (i-maj·ə-nər·ē) adj. existing only in the imagination, not real. Imaginary number, a number that is assumed to exist for a special purpose, as the square root of a negative quantity. Imaginary part, the part of a complex number in which the imaginary unit is a factor. Imaginary unit, the positive square root of minus one.

im·ag·i·na·tion (i-maj·ə-nä-shən) n. imagining, the ability to imagine creatively or to use this ability in a practical way (as in dealing with difficulties).

im·ag·i·na·tive (i-maj·ə-nə-tiv) adj. having or showing imagination. im·ag·i·na·tive·ly adv.

im·ag·ine (i-maj·in) v. (i-mag·ined, im·ag·in·ed, i-mag·in·ing) 1. to form a mental image of, to picture in one's mind. 2. to think or believe, to suppose, don't imag-imitative / Immunize

a material made to look like leather.

im·i·ta·tive (im-i-tay-tiv) adj. imitating.

im·i·ta·tive·ly adv. im·i·ta·tive·ness n.

im·mac·u·late (i-mak-yu-lit) adj. 1. spotlessly clean. 2. free from moral blemish. 3. free from fault, right in every detail.

im·mac·u·late·ly adv. im·mac·u·late·ness n.

im·meas·ur·a·ble (im-meas-ur-a-ble) adj. that cannot be measured. Im·mis·cil·bil·i·ty (im-mis-i-bil-i-tee) to make or keep immobile.

im·mig·ra·tion (im-i-mgra-shun) 1. the act of moving. 2. not moving. Im·mo·bil·i·ty (im-o-bel-i-tee) to make or keep immobile.

im·mo·bil·ize (im-mo-bel-iz) v. (im-mo-bel-iz-ing) to make or keep immobile.

im·mod·er·ate (i-mod-er-it) adj. excessive, lacking moderation. Im·mod·er·a·tion (i-mod-er-a-shun) n.

im·mod·est (i-mod-ist) adj. 1. lacking in modesty, indecent. 2. conceited. Im·mod·est·ly adv. Im·mod·es·ty n.

im·mo·late (im-ol-a-te) v. (im-mo-lat-ed, im·mo·lat·ing) 1. to kill as a sacrifice, as by fire. 2. to sacrifice (one thing to another). Im·mo·la·tion (im-mo-lay-shun) n.

im·mo·ral (i-mor-al) adj. not conforming to the accepted rules of morality, morally wrong (especially in sexual matters).

im·mor·tal (i-mor-tal) adj. 1. living forever, not mortal. 2. famous for all time. Immortal n. an immortal being or person.

im·mor·tal·ty (i-mor-tal-ty) n.

im·mor·tal·ized (i-mor-tal-ized) v. (im-mor-tal·iz·ing) to make immortal.

im·mo·tile (i-moh-till) adj. without the ability to move. Im·mo·til·i·ty (im-o-tih-l-i-tee) n.

im·mov·a·ble (i-moo-vah-bell) adj. 1. unable to be moved. 2. unyielding, not changing in one's purpose. Im·mov·a·bly adv. Im·mov·a·bil·i·ty (im-moo-vah-bil-i-tee) n.

im·mun·i·ty (i-mu-mi-ty) n. (pl. -ties) 1. the ability of an animal or plant to resist infection. 2. special exemption from a tax or duty or penalty; granted immunity, pardoned in advance of testing.

im·mu·ni·ty (i-mu-ni-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. the ability of an animal or plant to resist infection. 2. special exemption from a tax or duty or penalty; granted immunity, pardoned in advance of testing.
Immunology / Imper.

immunology (im-yū-ni-zay-shōn) n.

imp-act (im-pakt) n. 1. a collision. 2. the force exerted when one body collides with another. 3. the force exerted by the influence of new ideas. Impact (im-pakt) v. 1. to pack or drive or wedge firmly together. 2. to collide. Im-pac-tion (im-pak-shōn) n.

imp-ed-ance (im-pee-dans) n. the total resistance of an electric circuit to the flow of alternating current. ▶ Do not confuse impedance with impediment.

imp-ed'i-ment (im-ped-i-ment) n. 1. a hindrance, an obstruction. 2. a defect that prevents something from functioning properly; has an impediment in his speech, has a lisp, stammer, etc. ▶ Do not confuse impediment with impedace.

imp-ed-i-ment (im-ped-i-ment) n. 1. a hindrance, an obstruction. 2. a defect that prevents something from functioning properly; has an impediment in his speech, has a lisp, stammer, etc. ▶ Do not confuse impediment with impedace.

imp-ed-i-ment (im-ped-i-ment) n. 1. a hindrance, an obstruction. 2. a defect that prevents something from functioning properly; has an impediment in his speech, has a lisp, stammer, etc. ▶ Do not confuse impediment with impedace.

imp-ed-i-ment (im-ped-i-ment) n. 1. a hindrance, an obstruction. 2. a defect that prevents something from functioning properly; has an impediment in his speech, has a lisp, stammer, etc. ▶ Do not confuse impediment with impedace.

imp-ed-i-ment (im-ped-i-ment) n. 1. a hindrance, an obstruction. 2. a defect that prevents something from functioning properly; has an impediment in his speech, has a lisp, stammer, etc. ▶ Do not confuse impediment with impedace.

imp-ed-i-ment (im-ped-i-ment) n. 1. a hindrance, an obstruction. 2. a defect that prevents something from functioning properly; has an impediment in his speech, has a lisp, stammer, etc. ▶ Do not confuse impediment with impedace.

imp-ed-i-ment (im-ped-i-ment) n. 1. a hindrance, an obstruction. 2. a defect that prevents something from functioning properly; has an impediment in his speech, has a lisp, stammer, etc. ▶ Do not confuse impediment with impedace.
imperative / implant im-per-a-tive (im-per-ə-tiv) adj. 1. expressing a command. 2. essential, obligatory, further economies are imperative.

imperative n. 1. a command, a form of a verb used in making commands (as come in come here!). 2. something essential or obligatory, survival is the first imperative.

im-per-a-tive-ly adv.

im-per-cep-ti-ble (im-pər-sep-ti-bəl) adj. not perceptible, very slight or gradual and therefore difficult to see. Im-per cep t'ī bly adv.
im-per-cep'ti-ble ness n.
im-per-cep-tive (im-pər-sep-tiv) adj. not perceptible. Im-per cep'tiv e ness n.
im-per-cip-i-ent (im-pər-sip-ə-ment) adj. lacking in perception, imperceptive.
im-perf. abbr. imperfect.
im-per-fect (im-pər-fekt) adj. 1. not fully formed or done, incomplete. 2. faulty. Imperfect n. the imperfect tense. Im-perfect' ness n. Im-per-fect' ly adv.
im-per-fec-tion (im-pər-fek-shən) n. 1. being imperfect. 2. a mark or fault or characteristic that prevents a thing from being perfect.
im-per-to-rate (im-pər-tə-rat) adj. 1. not perforated, (in anatomy) lacking the normal opening. 2. without perforations, as a sheet of postage stamps.
im-per-i-al1 (im-pər-i-əl) adj. 1. of an empire or emperor or empress. 2. majestic, imperious. 3. of superior quality or great size. Im-per'i-al'ly adv.
imperial2 n. a small pointed beard below the lower lip, as worn by Emperor Napoleon III.
im-per-i-al-ism (im-pər-e-ə-liz-əm) n. belief in the desirability of acquiring colonies and dependencies. Im-per'i-al' ism n.
im-per-i-al-ist n. Im-per'i-al-is-tic (im-pər-e-ə-lis-tik) adj.
im-per-il-ill (im-pər-il-il) v. (im-per-il-ld, im- per-il-ing) to endanger. Im-per-il' ment n.
im-per-il-ious (im-pər-il-əs) adj. commanding, bossy. Im-per'il-ious' ly adv.
im-per-il-ious' ness n.
im-per-ish-a-ble (im-pər-ish-ə-bəl) adj. that cannot perish. Im-per'ish-a-bly adv.
im-per-ma-nent (im-pər-mə-nənt) adj. not permanent. Im-per'ma-nent' ly adv. Im-per'ma-nence n. Im-per' ma-nen-cy n.
im-per-me-a-ble (im-pər-mə-ə-bəl) adj. not able to be penetrated, especially by liquid. Im-per'me-a-bly adv. Im-per me-a-bil-i-ty (im-pər-mə-ə-bil-i-te) n.
im-per-mis-si-ble (im-pər-mis-sə-bəl) adj. not permissible.
im-per-son-al (im-pər-so-nəl) adj. 1. not influenced by personal feeling, showing no emotion. 2. not referring to any particular person. 3. having no existence as a person, nature's impersonal forces. 4. (of verbs) used after "it" to make general statements such as "it is raining" or "it is hard to find one." Im-per'son'al-ly adv. Im-per'son'al-ty (im-pər-so-nəl-i-ty) n.
im-per-son-ate (im-pər-so-nət) v. (im-person-at-ed, im-per'son-at-ing) 1. to play the part of. 2. to pretend to be (another person) for entertainment or in fraud. Im-per'son-a-tor n. Im-per'son-a-tion (im-pər-so-nə-shən) n.
im-per-ti-nent (im-pər-ti-nənt) adj. insolent, not showing proper respect. Im-per'ti'ny ent'ly adv. Im-per'ti-nyence n.
im-per-vi-ous (im-pər-vi-əs) adj. 1. not able to be penetrated, imperious to water. 2. not influenced by, imperious to fear or argument. Im-per'vi-o us'ly adv.
im-pet-ty-go (im-pə-ti-goh) n. a contagious skin disease causing spots that form yellowish crusts.
im-pet-u-ous (im-pə-tə-ə-us) adj. 1. moving quickly or violently, an impetuous dash. 2. acting or done on impulse.
im-pet'u-ous'ly adv. Im-pet'u-ous'ly adv. Im-pet'us (im-pə-təs) n. (pl. -təz) 1. the force or energy with which a body moves. 2. a driving force, the treaty gave an impetus to trade.
im-pl-e'-ty (im-plə-te) n. (pl. -ties) lack of reverence.
im-plinge (im-pling) v. (im-plinged, im- pling-ing) 1. to make an impact. 2. to encroach. Im-plinge' ment n.
im-pl'-ous (im-plə-us) adj. not reverent, wicked. Im-pl'-ous'ly adv.
im-pish (im-pish) adj. of like an imp. Im-plesh'-ly adv. Imp'ish' ness n. im-plac-a-bile (im-plak-ə-bəl) adj. not able to be placated, relentless. Im-plac'a-bly adv. Im-plac'a-bil-i-ty (im-plak-ə-bil-i-te) n.
im-plant (im-plant) v. to plant, to insert or fix ideas etc. in the mind, to insert (tissue or other substance) in a living thing. Im-plant (im-plant) n. something that is implanted. Im-plan-ta'-tion (im-plant-tə-shən) n.
im•preg•na•ble (im-preg-nă-bēl) adj. safe against attack, an impregnable fortress.
im•preg•na•bil•i•ty (im-preg-nă-bil•i•tee) n. impregnable im•preg•nate (im-preg-nayt) v. 1. to introduce sperm or pollen into and fertilize a female animal or plant. 2. to penetrate all parts of a (substance), to fill or saturate, the water was impregnated with salts.
im•preg•na•tion (im-preg-nay-shŏn) n.
im•press1 (im-pres) v. 1. to make (a person) form a strong (usually favorable) opinion of something. 2. to fix firmly in the mind, impressed on them the need for haste. 3. to press a mark into, to stamp with a mark. impress (im-pres) n. a mark impressed on or into something.
impress2 (im-pres) v. 1. to force into service in an army or navy. 2. to seize (goods etc.) for public service.
im•press•ment n.
im•pres•sion (im-presh-ŏn) n. 1. an effect produced on the mind. 2. an uncertain idea or belief or remembrance. 3. an imitation of a person or sound, done for entertainment. 4. the impressing of a mark, an impressed mark. 5. a reprint of a book etc. made with few or no alterations to its contents. be under the impression, to think (that something is a fact).
im•pres•sion•a•ble (im-presh-ŏ-nă-bēl) adj. easily influenced.
im•pres•sion•ist (im-presh-ŏ-nist) n. one of the painters of the late 19th century who adopted a style giving the general impression of a subject, especially by using the effects of light, without elaborate detail.
im•pres•sion•ism n. the impressionistic school of art.
im•pres•sion•is•tic (im-presh-ŏ-nis-tik) adj.
im•pres•sive (im-pres-iv) adj. making a strong impression, arousing admiration and approval.
im•pres•sive•ly adv.
im•pres•sive•ness n.
im•pri•ma•tur (im-prī-mah-tur, -may-) n. 1. official license to print, especially works sanctioned by the Roman Catholic Church. 2. permission, approval.
im•print (im-print) n. a mark made by pressing or stamping a surface; the imprint of a foot, a footprint.
imprint (im-print) v. to impress or stamp a mark on.
im•print•er n.
im•pris•on (im-priz-ŏn) v. 1. to put into prison. 2. to keep in confinement.
im•pris•on•ment n.
im•prob•a•ble (im-prob-ă-bēl) adj. not likely to be true or to happen.
im•prob•a•bil•i•ty (im-prob-ă-bil•i•tee) n.
im•prompt•u (im-promp-too) adj. & adv. without preparation or rehearsal.
impromptu n. a musical composition that gives the impression of being composed impromptu.
im•prop•er (im-prop-ər) adj. 1. wrong, incorrect, made improper use of the blade. 2. not conforming to the rules of social or lawful conduct. 3. indecent. imp•prop•er•ly adv. improper fraction, one that is greater than unity, with the numerator greater than the denominator, as five-thirds (5/3).
im•pro•pri•e•ty (im-prō-prī-ě-tee) n. (pl. -ties) being improper, an improper act or remark etc.
im•prov•a•ble (im-proo-vă-bēl) adj. able to be improved.
im•prove (im-proov) v. (im•proved, im•prov•ing) 1. to make or become better. 2. to make (land) more valuable, as by cultivating or building on it. 3. to make good use of. improve on, to produce something better than.
im•prove•ment (im-proov-měnt) n. 1. improving, being improved. 2. an addition or alteration that improves something or adds to its value.
im•prov•i•dent (im-prov-ë-dënt) adj. not providing for future needs, wasting one's resources.
im•prov•i•dent•ly adv. improv•i•den•ce n.
im•pro•vise (im-prov•viz) v. (im•pro•vised, im•pro•vis•ing) 1. to compose (a thing) impromptu. 2. to provide, in times of need, using whatever materials are on hand, improvised a bed from cushions and rugs.
im•pro•vi•sor n.
im•prov•i•sa•tion (im-prov•i-ză-shŏn) n.
im•prov•i•sa•tion•al adj.
im•pru•dent (im-proo-dënt) adj. unwise, rash.
im•pru•dent•ly adv. imp•pru•den•ce n.
im•pu•dent (im-pyū-dënt) adj. impertinent, boldly showing lack of respect.
im•pu•dent•ly adv. imp•pu•den•ce n.
im•pug•n (im-pyōon) v. to express doubts about the truth or honesty of, to try to discredit, we do not impugn their motives.
im•pugn•er n.
im•pu•is•sance (im-pyōo-ë-sans) n. impotence, weakness. imp•uis•sant adj.
im•pulse (im-puls) n. 1. a push or thrust, impetus. 2. a stimulating force in a nerve, causing a muscle to react. 3. a sudden inclination to act, without thought for the consequences, did it on impulse.
im•pulse buying, buying of goods on impulse and not because of previous planning.

Impuls (im-pul-shôn) n. 1. an impelling push. 2. a mental impulse. 3. impulse.

Impulsive (im-pul-siv) adj. 1. (of a person) habitually acting on impulse. 2. (of an action) done on impulse. impul'sive adv. impul'sive-ness n.

Impunity (im-pyoo-nee) n. freedom from punishment or injury.

Impure (im-pyoor) adj. not pure. *im-pure*ly adv.

Impure-ly (im-pyoor-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. being impure. 2. a substance that makes another substance impure by being present in it.

Imput (im-pyoot) v. (im-put-ed, im-put-ing) to attribute, to ascribe.

In (in) prep. expressing position or state. 1. of inclusion within the limits of space or time or circumstance or surroundings etc. 2. of quantity or proportion, they are packed in tens. 3. of form or arrangement, hanging in folds. 4. of activity or occupation or membership, he is in the army. 5. wearing as dress or color etc., in a sweatshirt. 6. of method or means of expression, spoke in French. 7. with the instrument or means of, written in ink. 8. of identity, found a friend in Mary. 9. under the influence of, spoke in anger. 10. with respect to, lacking in courage. 11. as the content of; there’s not much in it, no great difference between the advantages or merits of various schemes or competitors etc. 12. after the time of, back in ten minutes. 13. (of a female animal) pregnant with, in calf. 14. into. 15. toward, ran in all directions.

In adv. 1. expressing position bounded by certain limits, or to a point enclosed by these, the window was open and the rain poured in. 2. at home, will you be in? 3. on or toward the inside, with the fur side in. 4. in fashion or season or office, elected, in effective or favorable action, my luck was in; the tide was in, was high. 5. having arrived or been gathered or received, train is in; harvest is in. In adj. 1. internal, inside, inner. 2. (informal) fashionable, it’s the in thing to do. In n. 1. a person with authority, he is one of the ins in top management. 2. influence, the lawyer has an in at the courthouse. be in for, to be about to experience, she’s in for a surprise. be in on, (informal) to be among those who know (a secret) or share in (discussions etc.). In all, in total number. In box, a desktop box or tray to hold documents or work that has been received but not yet dealt with. In camera, (of the hearing of evidence or lawsuits) in the judge’s private room; in private or in secret. Ins and outs, the details of an activity or procedure. In that, since, because. In with, on friendly terms with.

In symbol indium.

In abbr. Indiana.

In abbr. inch(es).

In- prefix in, on, into, toward, within, as in insight, incoming.

In- prefix not, as in insane, inseparable; the absence of, as in insensitivity.

In-a-bill-ty (in-ä-bil-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) being unable.

In ab-sen-tia (in-ab-sen-sha) in absence.

> Latin.

In-ac-cept-a-ble (in-ak-sep-tä-bël) adj. not acceptable.

In-ac-ces-si-bi-le (in-ak-ses-i-bël) adj. not accessible, unapproachable. in-ac-ces-si-bil-i-ty (in-ak-ses-i-bil-i-tee) n.

In-ac-tion (in-ak-sha-n) n. lack of action, doing nothing.

In-ac-tive (in-ak-tiv) adj. not active, showing no activity. in-ac’tiv-i-ty (in-ak-tiv-i-tee) n.

In-ad-e-quate (in-ad-e-kwit) adj. 1. not adequate, insufficient. 2. not sufficiently able or competent, felt inadequate. in-ad’e-quate-ly adv. in-ad’e-qua-cy n. In-ad’e-quate-ness n.

In-ad-mis-si-bi-le (in-ad-mis-i-bël) n. not allowable.

In-ad-ver-tent (in-ad-vur-tënt) adj. unintentional. in-ad-ver’ten-ly adv. in-ad-ver’ten-ce n. In-ad-ver’ten-cy n.

In-ad-vis-a-bi-le (in-ad-viz-a-bël) adj. not advisable. in-ad-vis’a-bly adv. in-ad-vis-a-bil-i-ty (in-ad-viz-a-bil-i-tee) n.

In-ad-len-a-bi-le (in-ayl-e-nä-bël) adj. not able to be given away or taken away, an inalienable right. In-al’len-a-bly adv. In-al’len-a-bil-i-ty (in-ayl-e-nä-bil-i-tee) n.

In-ane (i-nayn) adj. silly, lacking sense. in-an’e-ly adv. in-an’i-ty (i-nan-i-tee) n.

In-an-i-mate (in-an-i-mit) adj. 1. (of rocks and other objects) lifeless, (of plants) lacking animal life. 2. showing inapplicable / incense

no sign of life. In-an’i-mate-ly adv. In-an’i-mate-ness n.
In-ap’pli-ca-tion (in-ap-li-ká-béll) adj. not applicable. In-ap’pli-ca-tion-ble adv.
In-ap’po-site (in-ap-ó-zit) adj. not suitable or pertinent, out of place.
In-ap-pre-ci-a-tive (in-á-pree-shí-á-béll) adj. imperceptible, not worth reckoning. In-ap-pre-ci-a-ble adv.
In-ap-proach-a-ble (in-á-proh-chá-béll) adj. not able to be approached, not easy to approach.
In-ar-tic-u-late (in-ahr-tik-yú-lit) adj. 1. not expressed in words, an inarticulate cry. 2. unable to speak distinctly, was inarticulate with rage. 3. unable to express one’s ideas clearly. In-ar-tic-u-late-ly adv. In-ar-tic-u-late-ness n.
In-as-much (in-áz-much) as since, because.
In-at-ten-tion (in-á-tén-shun) n. lack of attention, neglect.
In-at-ten-tive (in-á-tén-tiv) adj. not attentive, not paying attention.
In-au-gu-ra-tional (in-aw-gu-rá-ti-ál) adj. of or for an inauguration, the inaugural ceremony. Inaugural n. 1. an inaugural speech, especially by a U.S. president. 2. a ceremony of inauguration.
In-au-gu-rate (in-aw-gú-rayt) v. (In-au-gu-rate-d, In-au-gu-rate-ning) 1. to admit (a person) to office with a ceremony. 2. to enter ceremonially upon (an undertaking), to open (a building or exhibition etc.) formally. 3. to be the beginning of, to introduce, cable television service was inaugurated here last year. In-au-gu-rate-ment n. In-au-gu-rate-ry (in-aw-gú-ray-shun) n.
In-au-gu-rate(d, In-au-gu-rate(ing) 1. to admit (a person) to office with a ceremony. 2. to enter ceremonially upon (an undertaking), to open (a building or exhibition etc.) formally. 3. to be the beginning of, to introduce, cable television service was inaugurated here last year. In-au-gu-rate-ment n. In-au-gu-rate-ry (in-aw-gú-ray-shun) n.
In-au-gu-rate (in-aw-gú-rate) v. (In-au-gu-rate-d, In-au-gu-rate(ing) 1. to admit (a person) to office with a ceremony. 2. to enter ceremonially upon (an undertaking), to open (a building or exhibition etc.) formally. 3. to be the beginning of, to introduce, cable television service was inaugurated here last year. In-au-gu-rate-ment n. In-au-gu-rate-ry (in-aw-gú-ray-shun) n.
In-au-gu-rate (in-aw-gú-rate) v.
In-au-gu-rate(d, In-au-gu-rate(ing) 1. to admit (a person) to office with a ceremony. 2. to enter ceremonially upon (an undertaking), to open (a building or exhibition etc.) formally. 3. to be the beginning of, to introduce, cable television service was inaugurated here last year. In-au-gu-rate-ment n. In-au-gu-rate-ry (in-aw-gú-ray-shun) n.
In-breeding (in-bree-ding) n. 1. breeding between closely related individuals. 2. (informal) restriction to a very limited range, as in selection of personnel. In-breeding (in-breed) v. (In-breeding, In-breeding) Inc. abbr. 1. incorporated. 2. increase. Inc. abbr. Incorporated.
In-ca (ing-ká) n. a member of an American Indian people in Peru etc. before the Spanish conquest.
In-can-des-cent (in-kán-des-ént) adj. glowing with heat, shining. In-can-des-cent-ly adv. In-can-des-ence n. Incandescent lamp, an electric or other lamp in which a white-hot filament gives off light.
In-can-ta-tion (in-kan-tay-shun) n. words or sounds to be uttered as a magic spell, the uttering of these.
In-cap-a-ble (in-kay-pá-béll) adj. not capable. In-cap-a-bil-i-ty (in-kay-pá-bil-i-tee) n.
In-cap-i-tate (in-ká-pas-it) v. (In-cap-i-tate-d, In-cap-i-tate-ing) 1. to disable. 2. to make ineligible. In-cap-i-ta-tion (in-ká-pas-it-ay-shun) n.
In-cap-i-tat-ed, In-cap-i-tat-ing adj. incapacitated, or unable.
In-car-ca-tion (in-kahr-ca-shun) n.
In-car-ca-tion-ary (in-kahr-ca-shér-é) adj. a prison, a carceral system.
In-car-nate (in-kahr-nit) adj. embodied, in human form, a devil incarnate.
In-car-na-tion (in-kahr-nay-shun) n. embodiment, especially in human form. The Incarnation, the embodiment of God in human form as Christ.
In-case (in-kayz) v. (In-cased, In-cas-ing) to encase.
In-cau-tious (in-kaw-shús) adj. not cautious, rash. In-cau-tious-ly adv.
In-cen-die-ry (in-sen-di-er-ee) adj. 1. (of a bomb etc.) designed to cause a fire, containing chemicals that ignite. 2. of arson, guilty of arson. 3. tending to stir up strife, inflammatory. Incendiary n. (pl.-ar-ies) 1. an incendiary bomb etc. 2. an arsonist. 3. a person who stirs up strife.
In-cense1 (in-sens) n. 1. a substance that produces a sweet smell when burning. 2. its smoke, used especially in religious ceremonies.
incense (in-sens) v. (in-censed, incensing) to make angry.

incen-tive (in-sen-tiv) n. something that rouses or encourages a person to some action or effort. Incentive adj. acting as an incentive.

in-cep-tion (in-sep-shon) n. the beginning of the existence of something. Incipient adj.

in-cen (in-sest) n. sexual intercourse between people regarded as too closely related to marry each other. Incest adj.

inch (inch) n. 1. a measure of length, one-twelfth (1/12) part of a foot (= 2.54 cm). 2. an amount of rainfall that would cover a surface to a depth of one inch. 3. a very small amount, would not yield an inch. Inch v. to move slowly and gradually, they inched forward. Every inch, entirely, looked every inch a soldier. Within an inch of, almost close to. Within an inch of one’s life, almost to death.

in-cho-ate (in-koh-it) adj. 1. just begun. 2. undeveloped. Incisate ly adv.

in-cit-ate (in-sit-ate) adj. Incitate ly adv.

inch worm (inch-wurm) n. a caterpillar that moves by arching itself into loops.

in-cli-nence (in-si-den-s) n. 1. the rate at which something occurs or affects people or things, studied the incidence of the disease. 2. the falling of something (as a ray of light) on a surface.

in-cli-nent (in-si-dent) n. 1. an event, especially a minor one. 2. a hostile activity, border incidents. 3. a public disturbance or accident, the protest march took place without incident. 4. an event that attracts general attention. Incident adj. 1. liable to happen, accompanying something, the risks incident to a pilot’s career. 2. (of rays of light etc.) falling on a surface, incident light.

in-cli-ned (in-si-den-ted) adj. 1. occurring as a minor accompaniment, incidental expenses. 2. liable to occur in consequence of or in connection with something, the incidental hazards of exploration. 3. casual, occurring by chance. Incidental n. (often incidentals) something incidental. Incidental music, music played as a background to the action of a play.

in-cli-nat-ly (in-si-den-tah-lee) adv. 1. in an incidental way. 2. as an unconnected comment, by the way.

in-clin-er-ate (in-sin-e-rayt) v. Incline to, to reduce to ashes, to destroy by fire. Incineration (in-sin-e-ray-shon) n.

incinerator (in-sin-e-ray-tor) n. a furnace or enclosed device for burning trash.

in-cli-nent (in-sip-i-ent) adj. Inclined in its early stages, beginning, incipient decay. Inclined adj.

in-cise (in-siz) v. (in-cised, incising) to make a cut in (a surface), to engrave by cutting.

incision (in-siz-on) n. 1. incising. 2. a cut, especially one made surgically into the body.

incisive (in-si-siv) adj. clear and decisive, made incisive comments. Incisive adj.

in-closure (in-seh-shoo-iss) n. a slope or slant, a leaning or bending movement. 2. a tendency. 3. a liking or preference; against my inclination, against my will.

inclose (in-kloz) v. (in-closed, inclosing) to enclose.

inclosure (in-kloz) = Enclosure.

include (in-klud) v. (included, including) to have or regard or treat as part of a whole. 2. to put into a certain category or list etc. Inclusion (in-kloo-zhon) n.

incus (in-kloo-su) adj. 1. including what is mentioned, the charge is $50 inclusive of service. 2. including much or everything, inclusive adj. including what is mentioned, pages seven to twenty-six inclusive. Inclusive adj.

Inclusion (in-klo-zhon) n.

incog. abbr. incognito.

incognit-o (in-kog-ni-toh, -kog-nee-) adj. & adv. with one’s identity kept se-coherent, she was traveling incognito. Incoherent n. the identity assumed by one who is incognito.

inc*her*ent (in-koh-her-ent) adj. rambling in speech or in reasoning. In*co*herent-ly adv. In*co*herence n.

in*com*bus*ti*ble (in-köm-bus-ti-bél) adj. not able to be burned by fire.

in*come (in-kum) n. money received during a certain period as wages or salary, interest on investments, etc. Income tax, tax payable on income.

in*com*ing (in-kum-ing) adj. 1. coming in, the incoming tide. 2. succeeding another person, the incoming president.

in*com*pe*ta*ble (in-köm-pe-ta-bél) adj. not capable of being measured, compared (with), or judged.

in*com*pe*ta*ny (in-köm-pe-ta-né) n. incomeliness.

in*com*pe*ta*cy (in-köm-pe-ta-sé) n. incompetency.

in*com*pe*test (in-köm-pe-test) adj. 1. nof qualified or able (to do). 2. not legally qualified. Incomp*etent n. an incompetent person. In*com*pe*test*ly adv. In*com*pe*test*ency n.

in*com*plet*e (in-köm-plo-ét) adj. not complete. In*com*ple*te*ly adv. In*com*ple*te*ness n.

in*com*pre*hen*sible (in-köm-pré-hen-sí-bél) adj. not able to be understood. In*com*pre*hen*sible*ly adv. In*com*pre*hen*sible*ness n.

in*com*pe*tent (in-köm-pe-tent) adj. 1. unable to be imagined. In*com*pe*tent*ly adv. In*com*pe*tent*ness n.

in*com*pe*tent (in-köm-pe-tent) adj. 1. not able to be imagined. In*com*pe*tent*ly adv. In*com*pe*tent*ness n.

in*con*ci*dent (in-köm-sén-dent) adj. not coincidental.

in*con*cis*ti*ble (in-köm-cons-ti-bél) adj. not capable of being incomparably.

in*con*com*pa*rable (in-köm-con-par-a-bél) adv. not capable of being incomparable, not comparable.

in*con*co*r*por*a*tion (in-köm-kör-por-a-tion) n. incorporation.

in*con*co*r*por*a*tor (in-köm-kör-por-a-tor) n. incorporator.

in*con*di*ti*on (in-köm-kné-shdn) n. condition.

in*con*di*ti*ony (in-köm-kné-de-ó) n. conditionality.

in*con*di*ti*on*less (in-köm-kné-de-ns) adj. not conditioned.

in*con*di*ti*on*less*ly adv. In*con*di*ti*on*less*ness n.

in*con*di*ti*on*less*ness (in-köm-kné-de-ns) n. conditionlessness.

in*con*di*ti*on*less*ly adv. In*con*di*ti*on*less*ness n.

in*con*de*ten*tion (in-köm-kné-de-ti-ó) n. conditionally.

in*con*de*ten*tly adv. In*con*de*ten*ty n.

in*con*de*ten*ty n. conditionality.

in*con*de*ten*ty*less (in-köm-kné-de-ten-ti-í) adj. not conditioned.

in*con*de*ten*ty*less*ly adv. In*con*de*ten*ty*less*ness n.

in*con*de*ten*ty*less*ness (in-köm-kné-de-tén-ti-í) n. conditionlessness.

in*con*de*ten*ty*less*ly adv. In*con*de*ten*ty*less*ness n.

in*con*de*ten*ty*less*ness (in-köm-kné-de-tén-ti-í) n. conditionlessness.

in*con*de*ten*ty*less*ly adv. In*con*de*ten*ty*less*ness n.

in*cor*po*rate (in-kör-pó-рат) v. (in-kör-pó-рат-ed, in-kör-pó-рат-ing) to incorporate.

in*cor*po*rat*ion (in-kör-pó-rá-shun) n. incorporation.

incorporation. In*cor*po*rat*e*ly adv. In*cor*po*rat*ion*less n.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less n. incorporationless.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ly adv. In*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n. incorporationlessness.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ly adv. In*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n. incorporationlessness.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ly adv. In*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n. incorporationlessness.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ly adv. In*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n. incorporationlessness.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ly adv. In*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n. incorporationlessness.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ly adv. In*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n. incorporationlessness.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ly adv. In*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n. incorporationlessness.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ly adv. In*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n. incorporationlessness.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ly adv. In*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n. incorporationlessness.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ly adv. In*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n. incorporationlessness.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ly adv. In*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n. incorporationlessness.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ly adv. In*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n. incorporationlessness.

in*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ly adv. In*cor*po*rat*ion*less*ness n. incorrigible / Indecinable cordance with fact. 2. (of style etc.) improper, faulty. In\-cor\-rect\-ly adv. In\-cor\-rect\-ness n.

in\-cor\-ri\-gl\-ble (in-kor-i-jĭ-bĕl) adj. (of a person or his faults etc.) not able to be reformed or improved, an incorrigible liar. In\-cor\-ri\-gl\-bly adv. In\-cor\-ri\-gl\-bil\-ity (in-kor-i-jĭ-bi-lĭ-te) n.

in\-cor\-rupt\-ble (in-kŏrup-tĭ-bĕl) adj. 1. not liable to decay. 2. not able to be corrupted morally, as by bribes. In\-cor\-rupt\-bly adv. In\-cor\-rupt\-bil\-ity (in-kŏrup-tĭ-bi-lĭ-te) n.

Inc. incr. aabbr. 1. increase. 2. increased. 3. increasing.

in\-crease (in-krees) v. (In\-creased, in\-creas\-ing) to make or become greater in size or amount or intensity. Increase (In-krees) n. 1. the process of increasing. 2. the amount by which something increases. In\-crea\-ser n. In\-crea\-sing\-ly adv.

in\-cred\-ible (in-kred-ĭ-bal) adj. 1. unbelievable. 2. (informal) hard to believe, very surprising. In\-cred\-i\-bly adv. In\-cred\-i\-bil\-ity (in-kred-i-bil-i-te) n. △ Do not confuse incredulous with incredulous.

in\-cred\-u\-lous (in-krē-jū-lōs) adj. unbelieving, showing disbelief. In\-cred\-u\-lous\-ly adv. In\-cred\-u\-lent (in-kred-u-lent) n. △ Do not confuse incredulous with incredu\-lous.

in\-cre\-ment (in-krück-mĕnt) n. an increase, an added amount, he received a salary increment of twenty dollars a week. In\-cre\-men\-tal (in-krück-men-tal) adj.

in\-crim\-i\-nate (in-krim-i-nayt) v. (In\-crim\-i\-nat\-ed, in\-crim\-i\-nat\-ing) to indicate as involved in wrongdoing, his statement incriminated the guard. In\-crim\-i\-na\-tion (in-krim-i-nay-shăn) n.

in\-crim\-i\-na\-tory (in-krim-i-nä-toh-see) adj. causing incrimination.

in\-crust (in-krust) = encrust.

in\-crus\-ta\-tion (in-krush-ta-shŏn) n. 1. encrusting, being encrusted. 2. a crust or deposit formed on a surface.

in\-cu\-bate (in-kyū-bate) v. (In\-cu\-bat\-ed, in\-cu\-bat\-ing) 1. to hatch (eggs) by the warmth of a bird’s body as it sits on them or by artificial heat. 2. to cause (bacteria etc.) to develop in suitable conditions. In\-cu\-bat\-ive adj.

in\-cu\-ba\-tion (in-kyū-ba-shŏn) n. incubating, the incubation period, the time it takes for symptoms of a communicable disease to become apparent in a person who has been exposed to it.

in\-cu\-ba\-tor (in-kyū-ba-tor) n. 1. an apparatus for hatching eggs by artificial warmth. 2. an apparatus in which babies born prematurely can be kept in a constant controlled heat and supplied with oxygen etc.

in\-cu\-lus (in-kyū-lūs) n. (pl. -bus-es, -bli, pr. -bli) 1. a spirit said to haunt or trouble people in their sleep. 2. a troublesome person or situation.

in\-cul\-cate (in-kyoo-kāt) v. (In\-cul\-cat\-ed, in\-cul\-cat\-ing) to implant (ideas or habits) by persistent urging, desiring to inculcate obedience in the young. In\-cul\-ca\-tion (in-kul-kā-shăn) n.

in\-cul\-pa\-ble (in-kyū-pə-bĕl) adj. blameless.

in\-cul\-pate (in-kyoo-pāt) v. (In\-cul\-pat\-ed, in\-cul\-pat\-ing) to involve in a charge of wrongdoing, to incriminate.

in\-cum\-bus\-cy (in-küm-bëns-se) n. (pl. -cles) the office or tenure of an incumbent.

in\-cum\-bent (in-küm-bënt) adj. forming an obligation or duty, it is incumbent on you to warn people of the danger. Incum\-bent n. a person who holds a particular office.

in\-cum\-ber (in-küm-bër) = encumber.

in\-cur (in-kūr) v. (In\-cured, in\-cur\-ring) to bring upon oneself, incurred great expense or hatred.

in\-cur\-a\-ble (in-kyoo-rə-bĕl) adj. unable to be cured. Incur\-able n. a person with an incurable disease. In\-cur\-a\-bly adv.

in\-cur\-ri\-ous (in-kyoo-ri-ŭs) adj. feeing or showing no curiosity about something.

in\-cur\-sion (in-kŭr-shŏn) n. a raid or brief invasion into someone else’s territory etc.

in\-cus (ing-kŭs) n. (pl. in\-cu\-des, pr. in\-kyoo-deez) the middle small anvil bone of the ear.

Ind. aabbr. 1. independent. 2. index. 3. indicative. 4. industrial. 5. industry.

Ind. aabbr. 1. India. 2. Indian. 3. Indiana.

in\-debt\-ed (in-det) adj. owing money or gratitude. In\-debt\-ed\-ness n.

in\-de\-cent (in-dee-sent) adj. 1. offending against recognized standards of decency. 2. unseemly, with indecent haste. In\-de\-cent\-ly adv. In\-de\-cent\-ness n. □ Indecent exposure, exposing one’s genitals publicly with the intention of causing offense.

in\-de\-cl\-pher\-a\-ble (in-di-sr-fē-ră-bĕl) adj. unable to be deciphered.

in\-de\-cl\-si\-on (in-di-sizh-ŏn) n. inability to make up one’s mind, hesitation.

in\-de\-cl\-si\-ve (in-di-sr-siv) adj. not decisive. In\-de\-cl\-si\-ve\-ly adv. In\-de\-cl\-si\-ve\-ness n.

in\-de\-cl\-n\-a\-ble (in-di-klă-nă-bĕl) adj. without grammatical inflections.
in·dec·o·rous (in-dek-ō-rūs) adj. improper, not in good taste. in·dec·o·rous·ly adv. in·dec·o·rous·ness n.
in·deed (in-deed) adv. 1. truly, really, it was indeed remarkable. 2. used to intensify a meaning, very nice indeed. 3. admittedly, it is, indeed, his first attempt.
indeed adv. used to express irony or contempt or surprise etc.
indef. abbr. indefinite.
in·de·fat·i·ga·ble (in-di-fat-i-gā-bēl) adj. not becoming tired. in·de·fat·i·ga·bly adv.
in·de·fen·si·ble (in-di-fen-sī-bēl) adj. unable to be defended, unable to be justified. in·de·fen·si·bly adv. in·de·fen·si·bil·i·ty (in-di-fen-sī-bil-i-tē) n.
in·de·fln·a·ble (in-di-fln-nā-bēl) adj. unable to be defined or described clearly.
in·de·fi·nite (in-def·i·nit) adj. not clearly defined or stated or decided, vague. in·de·fi·nite·ness n.
inde·fi·ni·ty adv. the word “a” or “an.”
in·de·fi·ni·ly (in-def·i·nit-lee) adv. in an indefinite way, for an unlimited period.
in·de·li·ble (in-de·li-bēl) adj. 1. (of a mark or stain or feeling) unable to be removed or washed away. 2. (of a pencil etc.) making an indelible mark. in·de·li·bly adv.
in·de·li·cate (in-de·li-kāt) adj. 1. slightly indecent. 2. tactless. in·de·li·cate·ly adv. in·de·li·ca·cy (in-de·li-kā-se) n.
in·dem·ni·fy (in-dem-nī·fī) v. (in·dem·ni·fied, in·dem·ni·fy·ing) 1. to protect or insure (a person) against penalties incurred by his actions etc. 2. to compensate (a person) for injury suffered.
in·dem·ni·ty (in-dem-nī-tē) n. (pl. -ties) 1. protection or insurance against penalties incurred by one’s actions. 2. compensation for damage done.
in·dent (in-dent) v. 1. to make recesses or toothlike notches in; an indented coastline, one with deep recesses. 2. to start (a line of print or writing) farther from the margin than the others, indent the first line of each paragraph. in·den·tion n. in·den·ta·tion (in-den·ta·shōn) n.
in·den·ture (in-den-chūr) n. 1. a written contract or agreement. 2. indentures, an agreement binding an apprentice to work for a master. indenture v. (in·den·tured, in·den·tur·ing) to bind by indenture, especially as an apprentice.
in·de·pend·ence (in-di-pen-dēns) n. being independent. □Independence Day, July 4, celebrated in the U.S. as the anniversary of the date in 1776 when the American colonies formally declared themselves free and independent of Britain; a similar festival elsewhere. in·de·pend·ent (in-di-pen-dent) adj. 1. not dependent on or controlled by another person or thing, he is now independent of his parents. 2. not depending for its validity or operation on the thing(s) involved; independent proof, from another source. 3. self-governing. 4. free of commitment to a political party. 5. having or providing a sufficient income to make it unnecessary for the possessor to earn his living, he has independent means. 6. not influenced by others in one’s ideas or conduct. 7. unwilling to be under an obligation to others. inde·pend·ent n. an independent person, especially a voter not committed to any political party. in·de·pend·ent·ly adv.
in·depth (in-depth) adj. thorough, very detailed, an in-depth survey. in·de·scrib·a·ble (in-di-skri-bā-bēl) adj. unable to be described, too great or beautiful or bad etc. to be described. in·de·scrib·a·bly adv. in·de·scrib·a·bil·i·ty (in-di-skri-bā-bil-i-tē) n.
in·de·struct·i·ble (in-di-struk-tī-bēl) adj. unable to be destroyed. in·de·struct·i·bly adv. in·de·struct·i·bil·i·ty (in-di-struk-tī-bil-i-tē) n.
in·de·ter·mi·na·ble (in-di-tur-mī-nā-bēl) adj. impossible to discover or decide. in·de·ter·mi·na·bly adv. □Do not confuse indeterminable with indeterminate.
in·de·ter·mi·nate (in-di-tur-mī-nā-tē) adj. not fixed in extent or character etc., vague, left doubtfull. in·de·ter·mi·na·te·ly adv. in·de·ter·mi·nate·ness n. in·de·ter·mi·na·tion (in-di-tur-mī-nā-shōn) n. □Do not confuse indeterminate with indeterminable.
inde·x (in-dēks) n. (pl. in·dex·es, in·di·ces, pr. in-di·se) 1. a list of names, titles, subjects, etc., especially an alphabetical list indicating where in a book etc. each can be found. 2. a figure indicating the relative level of prices or wages compared with that at a previous date. 3. (in printing) a hand-shaped symbol used to draw attention to a note etc. 4. an indication or sign of something, her work is an index of her talent. index v. 1. to make an index to (a book or collection of books etc.). 2. to enter in an index. 3. to increase (wages, pensions, etc.) according to increases in the cost of living. in·dex·er n. □Index finger, the forefinger. index of refraction, the ratio of the velocity of light in two adjacent media.
In·di·a (in-di-á) 1. a large peninsula of Asia south of the Himalayas, forming a subcontinent. 2. a country consisting of the greater part of this. □India ink, ink made with a black pigment (made organically in China and Japan). India pa·per, a soft absorbent paper used for proofs of engravings; a thin tough opaque printing paper. India rubber, natural rubber made from the juice of tropical plants.

In·di·an (in-di-an) adj. of India or Indians. Indian n. 1. a native of India. 2. one of the original inhabitants of the continent of America (other than Eskimos) or their descendants, American Indian. □Indian clubs, a pair of wooden or metal bottle-shaped clubs for swinging to exercise the arms. Indian corn, a type of primitive corn with kernels of various colors. Indian file, single file. Indian giver, a person who gives something and then takes it back. Indian meal, cornmeal. Indian Ocean, the ocean between India and Australia. Indian paintbrush, a plant common in Western America, with small flowers and brightly colored bracts. Indian pipe, a leafless plant with a single white flower, resembling a pipe. Indian summer, a period of dry sunny weather in late autumn; a period of tranquil enjoyment late in life. Indian wrestling, a contest in which two seated contestants each place a corresponding elbow on a table and, gripping hands with forearms up, attempt to force the other's hand down to the table.

In·di·an·a (in-di-an-á) a state of the U.S. In·di·an·l (in-di-an-l) adj. & n.

In·di·an·ap·o·li·s (in-di-á-nap-ō-líz) the capital of Indiana.

Indic. abbr. indicative.

In·di·cate (in-di-kát) v. (in-di·cat·ed, in-di·cat·ing) 1. to point out, to make known. 2. to be a sign of, to show the presence of. 3. to show the need of, to require. 4. to state briefly. In·di·ca·tion (in-di-ká-shon) n.

In·di·cative (in-di·ká-tiv) adj. 1. giving an indication, the style is indicative of the author's origin. 2. (of a form of a verb) used in making a statement, not in a command or wish etc., as he said or he is coming. Indicative n. this form of a verb. In·dic·a·tive·ly adv.

In·di·cat·or (in-di-ká-tór) n. 1. a thing that indicates or points to something. 2. a meter or other device giving information about the functioning of a machine etc.

In·di·cl·a (in-dish-i-á) n. pl. 1. identifying marks. 2. imprinted marks showing that postage has been paid.

In·dict (in-drt) v. to charge with a crime, especially by action of a grand jury. In·dict·a·ble adj. In·dict·ment n. □Do not confuse indict with indite.

In·dif·fer·ent (in-dif·ér-ent) adj. 1. feeling or showing no interest or sympathy, unconcerned. 2. neither good nor bad. 3. not of good quality or ability, he is an indifferent ballplayer. In·dif·fer·ent·ly adv. In·dif·fer·ence n.

In·dig·e·nous (in-di·jé·nús) adj. (of plants or animals or inhabitants) native.

In·di·gen·t (in-di-jént) adj. needy, impoverished. In·di·gence n. In·di·gen·ty adv.

In·di·gest·i·ble (in-di·jes·tí-bél) adj. difficult or impossible to digest.

In·di·ges·tion (in-di·jés·chon) n. pain caused by difficulty in digesting food.

In·dig·nant (in-dig-nánt) adj. feeling or showing indignation. In·dig·nant·ly adv.

In·di·go (in-di-go) n. (pl. -gos, -goes) a deep blue dye or color. □Indigo blue, a color between blue and violet in the spectrum. Indigo bunting, a brilliant blue songbird of the eastern U.S. Indigo snake, a large harmless snake of tropical America.

In·di·rect (in-di-rekt) adj. not direct. In·di·rect·ly adv. In·di·rect·ness n. In·di·rect·ion (in-di-rek-shon) n. □Indirect object, a person or thing affected by the action of a verb but not primarily acted on, as him in give him the book. Indirect tax, a tax paid in the form of increased prices for goods etc., not on income or capital.

In·dis·cer·n·i·ble (in-di-sur-ní-bél, -sur·zér) adj. that cannot be discerned or distinguished from another.

In·dis·creet·ed (in-di-skreet) adj. 1. not discreet, revealing secrets. 2. not cautious, unwise. In·dis·creet·ly adv.

In·dis·cre·tion (in-di-skree-shon) n. an indiscreet action or statement.

In·dis·crim·in·ate (in-di-skrim·i-nát) adj. showing no discrimination, doing or giving things without making a careful choice. In·dis·crim·i·na·tive·ly adv. In·dis·crim·i·na·tive·ness n.

In·dis·pen·sa·ble (in-di-spen·sá-bél) adj. not able to be dispensed with, essential. In·dis·pen·sa·bly adv. In·dis·pen·sa·bility n. disposed / indulge pen·sa·bil·i·ty (in-di-spen-sä-bil-i-tee) n.

in·dis·posed (in-di-spōlzd) adj. 1. slightly ill. 2. unwilling, they seem disposed to help us.

in·dis·po·si·tion (in-dis-pō-zish-ən) n. 1. slight illness. 2. unwillingness.

in·dis·pu·ta·ble (in-di-spyoo-tā-bēl) adj. not able to be disputed, undeniable.

in·dis·pu·ta·ble·ness n. in·dis·pu·ta·bly adv.

in·dis·sol·u·ble (in-di-sol-yu-bel) adj. firm and lasting, not able to be dissolved or destroyed, indissoluble bonds of friendship.

in·dis·sol·u·bly adv.

in·dis·ti·ct (in-di-stingkt) adj. not distinct. in·dis·ti·cantly adv. in·dis·ti·cency n.

in·dis·tin·guish·a·ble (in-di-sting-gwi-sha-bēl) adj. not distinguishable.

in·dite (in-dīt) v. (in·dīt·ed, in·dīt·ing) to put into words, to compose (a poem, speech, etc.). >Do Not confuse indite with indict.

in·di·um (in-di-üm) n. a rare silver-white soft metallic element occurring with zinc etc.

in·di·vid·u·al (in-di-vij-oo-äl) adj. 1. single, separate, each individual strand. 2. or for one person, baked in individual portions. 3. characteristic of one particular person or thing, has a very individual style.

individua·l n. 1. one person or plant or animal considered separately. 2. (informal) a person, a most unpleasant individual.

in·di·vid·u·al·i·ty (in-di-vij-oo-äl-i-tee) n.

> Careful writers do not use individual to mean "a person."

in·di·vid·u·al·ism (in-di-vij-oo-äl-i-zəm) n. 1. self-centered feeling or conduct. 2. independence in thought and action. 3. a social theory advocating free and independent action of the individual.

in·di·vid·u·al·ist (in-di-vij-oo-ä-list) n. a person who is very independent in thought or action.

in·di·vid·u·al·is·tic (in-di-vij-oo-äl-is-tik) adj.

in·di·vid·u·al·ize (in-di-vij-oo-äl-i-z) v. (in·di·vid·u·al·ized, in·di·vid·u·al·iz·ing) 1. to give individual character to. 2. to specify. 3. to adapt to individual tastes or needs.

in·di·vid·u·al·iza·tion (in-di-vij-oo-äl-i-zay-shən) n.

in·di·vid·u·al·ize·ate (in-di-vij-oo-äl-ı-ät) (in·di·vid·u·al·ized, in·di·vid·u·al·iz·ing) to individualize, to form into an individual.

in·di·vid·u·al·iza·tion (in-di-vij-oo-äl-i-zay-shən) n.

in·di·vid·u·al·i·ty (in-di-vij-oo-äl-i-tee) n. in·di·vid·u·al·i·ty adv. in·di·vid·u·al·i·ty n.

in·di·vid·u·al·ly (in-di-vij-oo-äl-li) adv.

in·di·vid·u·at·ion (in-di-vij-oo-ät-a-shən) n.

in·di·vid·u·at·ed (in-di-vij-oo-ät-ed) adj. not divisible.

In·di·vid·u·at·ed·ly (in-di-vij-oo-ät-ed-ly) adv. in·di·vid·u·at·ed·ly n.

in·do·chī·nese (in-do-chi-neez) (in-do-chi-neez) adj. & n.

in·doc·tri·nate (in-dōk-trī-nät) v. (in·doc·tri·nät·ed, in·doc·tri·nät·ing) to fill (a person’s mind) with particular ideas or doctrines.

in·doc·tri·na·tion (in-dōk-trī-näy-shən) n.

in·do·Eu·ro·pe·an (in-dō-er-ō-pe-ən) adj. of the family of languages spoken over most of Europe and parts of Asia.

in·do·lent (in-dō-lent) adj. lazy. in·do·lent·ly adv. in·do·lence n.

in·do·m·i·ta·ble (in-dom-i-tä-bēl) adj. having an unyielding spirit, stubbornly persistent when faced with difficulty or opposition.

in·dom·i·ta·ble·ly adv.

in·do·ne·sia (in-dō-ne-si-ə) a country in southeast Asia. in·do·ne·sian adj. & n.

in·door (in-dōr) adj. situated or used or done inside a building, indoor games; an indoor aerial.

in·dorse (in-dors) v. (in·dors·ed, in·dors·ing) to endorse.

in·drew (in-drawn) adj. of a breath drawn into the lungs, an indrawn gasp.

in·due·tal·be (in-doo-bi-tä-bēl) adj. that cannot reasonably be doubted.

in·due·ta·ble·ly adv.

in·due·d (in·due·d) v. (in·due·ed, in·due·ing) 1. to persuade. 2. to produce or cause. 3. to bring on by artificial means, induce labor. 4. to infer, to obtain by inductive reasoning.

in·due·er n.

in·due·ment (in·due·ment) n. 1. inducing, being induced. 2. an attraction or incentive.

in·due (in·dukt) v. 1. to install as an officer or member of a group. 2. to enroll into military service.

in·due·ance (in·due·tans) n. the property of producing an electric current by induction, the measure of this.

in·due·tee (in·due·tee) n. a person induced into military service.

in·due·tion (in·due·shən) n. 1. inducting. 2. inducing. 3. logical reasoning that a general law exists because particular cases that seem to be examples of it exist. 4. production of an electric or magnetic state in an object by bringing an electrified or magnetic object close to but not touching it. 5. drawing a fuel mixture into the cylinder(s) of an internal combustion engine. 6. production of an electric current in a circuit by varying the magnetic field.

in·due·tive (in·due·tiv) adj. 1. of or using induction, inductive reasoning. 2. of inductance. in·due·tive·ly adv. in·due·tive·ness n.

in·dulge (in·dulj) v. (in·dulged, in·dulging) 1. to allow (a person) to have in dul'gence (in-dul-jëns) n. 1. indulging. 2. being indulgent. 3. something allowed as a pleasure or privilege. 4. (in the R. C. Ch.) remission of temporal punishment still due for sins after sacramental absolution.

in dul'gent (in-dul-jënt) adj. indulging a person's wishes too freely, kind, and lenient.

in du'rate (in-dü-rayt) v. (in-du'rat-ed, in-du'rat-ing) 1. to make or become hard. 2. to make callous or unfeeling. 3. to accustom or become accustomed. indurate (in-du'rit) adj. 1. hardened. 2. callous or unfeeling. *in*du*ra*tion (in-du-ray-shân) n. in*du*ra*tive (in-du-ray-tiv) adj.

in dus'tri'al (in-dus-tri-əl) adj. 1. of or engaged in industries, industrial workers. 2. for use in industries. 3. having many highly developed industries, an industrial country. *in dus'tri'al*ly adv. in*du*strial arts, the technical arts of industry, especially as taught in school. industrial park, a land area zoned and planned and developed especially for industry and business. Industrial Revolution, the rapid development of industry by use of machines in the early 19th century.

in dus'tri'al*is't (in-dus-tri-ə-lis't) n. a person who owns or is engaged in managing an industrial business.

in dus'tri*ous (in-dus-tri-əs) adj. hardworking. *in dus'tri*ous*ly adv. in*du*stri*ous*ness n.

in dus'try (in-dü-stree) n. (pl. -tries) 1. the manufacture or production of goods. 2. a particular branch of this, any business activity, the tourist industry. 3. industrialists as a group. 4. the quality of being industrious.

in*de*well (in-dwel) v. (in*de*well, in*de*well-ing) to be permanently present, as a spirit or principle.

in*ed*e*ble (in-edd-i-bél) adj. not edible (because of its nature).

in*ed*u*ca*ble (in-ej'-ū-kä-bél) adj. incapable of being educated.

in*ef*fa*ble (in-ef'-ä-bél) adj. too great to be described, ineffable joy. in*ef'fa*by adv.

in*ef*face*a*ble (in-i-fay'-ä-bél) adj. that cannot be effaced.

in*ef*fe*c*tive (in-i-fek-tiv) adj. 1. not effective. 2. (of a person) inefficient. *in*ef*fe*c*tive*ly adv.

in*ef*fe*cu*tal (in-i-fek-choo-äl) adj. not effectual. *in*ef*fe*cu*tal*ly adv.

in*ef*fi*ca*ous (in-i-fi-kä-shüs) adj. not producing the desired effect. *in*ef*fi*ca*ous*ly adv.

in*ef*fi*ca*cy (in-i-fä'-sä-see) n. inability to produce the desired results.

in*ef*fi*clent (in-i-fish'-ënt) adj. not efficient. *in*ef*fi*clent*ly adv. in*ef*fi*clen*cy (in-i-fish'-ën-së) n.

in*ef*fa*tic (in-i-fa-tik) adj. 1. not elastic. 2. unadaptable, unyielding. *in*ef*fa*tic*ty (in-i-fa-tik*ti) n.

in*el*gant (in-el'-gänt) adj. not elegant. *in*el*gant*ly adv. *in*el*ga*nce (in-el'-gäns) n.

in*el*gible (in-el'-i-jä-bél) adj. not eligible, not fit or entitled to be chosen, as for office. *in*eligible n. an ineligible person. *in*el*g*ib*l*i*ty (in-el-i-jib-i-tee) n.

in*el*luc*tä*ble (in-i-luk-tä-bél) adj. that cannot be avoided or overcome.

in*ep*t (in-ept) adj. 1. lacking ability or fitness for a task. 2. unsuitable, absurd. *in*ep*ty adv. *in*ep*ty*ness n. *in*ep'ti*ude (in-ep-ti-tood) n.

in*eq*ual*ity (in-i-kwo-l-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties) lack of equality in size or standard or rank etc.

in*equ*ul*ta*ble (in-e-kwi-tä-bél) adj. unfair, unjust.

in*equ*ul*ty (in-e-kwi-ti) n. (pl. -ties) unfairness, bias.

in*ed*rad*ica*ble (in-i-rad-i-kä-bél) adj. that cannot be rooted out.

in*er*ant (in-er-ánt) adj. not liable to err.

in*ert (i-nurt) adj. 1. (of matter) without power to move or act. 2. without active chemical or other properties, incapable of reacting, an inert gas. 3. not moving, slow to move or take action. *in*ert*ly adv. *in*ert*ness n.

in*er*tila (i-nur-shä) n. 1. inertness, slowness to take action. 2. the property of matter by which it remains in a state of rest or, if it is in motion, continues moving in a straight line, unless acted upon by an external force. *in*e*rt*ial*ly adv. *in*e*rt*ial*guidance, guidance of a missile or spacecraft or aircraft by auto-mastic instruments that it carries.

In-es-cap-a-ble (in-es-kay-pa-bel) adj. incapable of making a mistake or being wrong. 2. never failing, an infallible remedy. In-fal’-li-bly adv. In-fal’-li-bly neg. In-fal’-li-bly ness. In-fal’-li-bly ty (in-fal-li-bil-i-tee) n.

In-fa-mous (in-fa-mus) adj. having or deserving a very bad reputation, detestable. In-fa-mous-ly adv.

In-fa-my (in-fa-mee) n. (pl. -mies) ill fame, notoriety caused by great evil.

In-fan-cy (in-fan-see) n. (pl. -cies) 1. early childhood, babyhood. 2. an early stage of development.

In-fant (in-fant) n. 1. a child during the earliest period of its life. 2. adj. of or for infants. 2. young and developing.

In-fan-ti-cide (in-fan-ti-sid) n. 1. murder of an infant soon after its birth. 2. a person guilty of this.

In-fan-tile (in-fan-til) adj. 1. of infants or infancy. 2. very childish. In-fantile paralysis, poliomyelitis.

In-fan-try (in-fan-tree) n. (pl. -tries) troops who fight on foot.

In-farct (in-fahrkt) n. an area of dead tissue caused by the blocking of blood circulation. In-farc-tion (in-fahrk-shon) n.

In-fa-tu-ate (in-fach-oo-my-shdn) v. (in-fa-tu-at-ed, in-fa-tu-at-ing) to inspire with a temporary intense unreasoning love for a person or thing. In-fat-u-a-tion (in-fach-oo-ayt-shon) n.

In-fe-sible (in-fach-o-sib-le) adj. not able to be totally used up, available in unlimited quantity. 2. indefatigable.

In-ex-haust-ible (in-ig-zaws-ti-bel) adj. not able to be used up, totally renewable, unable to be persuaded by request or entreaty.

In-ex-pen-sive (in-ik-spen-siv) adj. not expensive, offering good value for the price.

In-ex-sus-cap-a-ble (in-ex-sus-kap-a-bel) adj. unable to be excused or justified.

In-ex-tin-guish-a-ble (in-ik-stin-gwish-a-bel) adj. not quenchable, indestructible.

In-ex-pres-si-ble (in-ik-pres-si-bel) adj. not expressible, without expression.

In-ex-tre-mis (in-ik-stre-mis) adj. 1. at the point of death. 2. in very great difficulties. (≈ Latin.

In-ex-tre-mis (in-ik-stre-mis) adv. 1. in extremis. 2. to the edge of a precipice.

In-fal-lic-i-tous (in-fel-lic-i-tous) adj. unfortunate, inappropriate. In-fal-lic-i-ty (in-fel-lic-i-tee) n. (pl. -ties).

In-fe-r (in-fur) v. (in-furred, in-ferr-ing) 1. to reach an opinion from facts or reasoning. 2. to imply. (≈ This use should be avoided because it conceals the distinction between infer and imply.) In-fe-ren-ce (in-fer-ens) n. In-fe-ren-tial (in-fer-en-tial) adj.

In-fe-ril or (in-feer-il-or) adj. low or lower infernal / inflict

in rank or importance or quality or ability. Inferior n. a person who is inferior to another, especially in rank. Inf-er-nal-or-i-ty (in-fer-i-or-i-ty) n. (pl. -ties) □ Inferiority complex, a strong and persistent feeling of inferiority; great lack of self-confidence.

In-fer-nal (in-fur-nal) adj. 1. of hell, the infernal regions. 2. (informal) detestable, tiresome, an infernal nuisance. In-fer-nal-ly adv.

In-fer-no (in-fur-no) n. (pl. -nos) a place resembling hell, somewhere intensely hot, a raging fire.

In-fer-tile (in-fur-tile) adj. not fertile. In-fer-til-i-ty (in-fer-til-i-ty) n.

In-fest (in-fest) v. (of pets or vermin etc.) to be numerous and troublesome in (a place). In-fes-ta-tion (in-fes-tay-shon) n.

In-fi-del-i-ty (in-fi-del-i-ty) n. 1. a person with no religious beliefs. 2. a unbeliever or a person not an adherent of a particular religion, as Christianity or Islam.

In-fi-del-i-ty (in-fi-del-i-ty) n. (pl. -ties) unfaithfulness.

In-field (in-feeld) n. 1. the part of a baseball field enclosed within the base lines. 2. the first, second, and third basemen and shortstop.

In-field-er (in-feel-dër) n. a person playing in the infield.

In-fight-ing (in-fighting) n. 1. boxing with an opponent nearer than arm's length. 2. hidden conflict within an organization. In-fight-er n.

In-flate (in-flate, in-flat-er) v. (In-flat-ed, in-flat-ing) 1. to enter gradually and without being noticed, as settlers or spies. 2. to cause to do this.

In-flate (in-flate) n. (pl. -ties) to make to appear larger than it is.

In-flat-a-ble (in-flay-ta-bel) adj. able to be inflated.

In-flat-ed (in-flat-ed) adj. having been inflated. 2. a general increase of prices and fall in the purchasing value of money.

In-flat-ed (in-flat-ed) adj. causing inflation.

In-flat-ed (in-flat-ed) adj. a person who advocates inflationary monetary policies. In-flat-ed-ism n.

In-foot (in-foot) v. 1. to change the pitch of (the voice) in speaking. 2. to change the ending or form of (a word) to show its grammatical relation or number etc., as sing changes to sang or sung; child changes to children.

In-foot-ed (in-foot-ed) adj. not flexible, unable to be bent. 2. not able to be altered, an inflexible rule. 3. refusing to alter one's demands etc., unyielding. In-foot-ed-ly adv. In-foot-ed-ly adj.

In-foot-ing (in-foot-ing) n. 1. inflecting, bending. 2. modulation of voice, change in pitch or tone. 3. modification of a word to express a grammatical relationship. In-foot-ing-al adj.

In-foot-ing (in-foot-ing) n. 1. being flexible. 2. infinity.

In-foot-ing (in-foot-ing) n. (pl. -ties) an infinite number or extent or time or space.

In-foot-ing (in-foot-ing) n. adj. physically weak, especially from old age or illness; infirm of purpose, not resolute, hesitant. In-foot-ing-ly adv.

In-fla-ble (in-fla-bel) adj. 1. a hospital. 2. a room or rooms for sick people in a school or other institution.

In-fla-bly (in-fla-bly) adv. 1. being inflamable. 2. a particular physical weakness.

Infl. abbr. 1. influence. 2. influenced.

In-fla-gran-te-de-líc-to (in-fla-gran-te-de-líc-to) n. (Infla-gran-te-de-líc-to) adj. in the act of committing a crime, red-handed. □ Latin.

In-flam-ma-tion (in-fla-ma-tion) n. 1. to provoke to strong feeling or emotion, to arouse anger in. 2. to cause inflammation in.

In-flam-ma-tion (in-fla-ma-tion) n. redness and heat and pain produced in the body, especially as a reaction to injury or infection.

In-flam-ma-tion (in-fla-ma-tion) n. (Infla-ma-tion) adj. likely to arouse strong feeling or anger, inflammatory speeches.

In-flat-ed (in-flat-ed) adj. able to be inflated.

In-flat-ed (in-flat-ed) adj. to fill or become filled with air or gas and swell up, to increase artificially; at an inflated price, an excessively high price.

In-flat-ed (in-flat-ed) adj. inflating, being inflated. 2. a general increase of prices and fall in the purchasing value of money.

In-flat-ed (in-flat-ed) adj. causing inflation.

In-flat-ed (in-flat-ed) adj. a person who advocates inflationary monetary policies. In-flat-ed-ism n.

In-foot-ing (in-foot-ing) n. 1. inflecting, bending. 2. modulation of voice, change in pitch or tone. 3. modification of a word to express a grammatical relationship. In-foot-ing-al adj.

In-foot-ing (in-foot-ing) n. 1. being flexible. 2. infinity.

In-foot-ing (in-foot-ing) n. (pl. -ties) an infinite number or extent or time or space.

In-foot-ing (in-foot-ing) n. adj. physically weak, especially from old age or illness; infirm of purpose, not resolute, hesitant. In-foot-ing-ly adv.

In-flam-ma-ry (in-fla-ma-ry) n. (pl. -ries) 1. hospital. 2. a room or rooms for sick people in a school or other institution.

In-flam-ma-tion (in-fla-ma-tion) n. 1. being inflamable. 2. a particular physical weakness.

Infl. abbr. 1. influence. 2. influenced.

In-fla-gran-te-de-líc-to (in-fla-gran-te-de-líc-to) n. (Infla-gran-te-de-líc-to) adj. in the act of committing a crime, red-handed. □ Latin.

In-flam-ma-tion (in-fla-ma-tion) n. 1. to provoke to strong feeling or emotion, to arouse anger in. 2. to cause inflammation in.

In-flat-ed (in-flat-ed) adj. able to be inflated.

In-flat-ed (in-flat-ed) adj. to fill or become filled with air or gas and swell up, to increase artificially; at an inflated price, an excessively high price.

In-flat-ed (in-flat-ed) adj. inflating, being inflated. 2. a general increase of prices and fall in the purchasing value of money.

In-flat-ed (in-flat-ed) adj. causing inflation.

In-flat-ed (in-flat-ed) adj. a person who advocates inflationary monetary policies. In-flat-ed-ism n.

In-foot-ing (in-foot-ing) n. 1. inflecting, bending. 2. modulation of voice, change in pitch or tone. 3. modification of a word to express a grammatical relationship. In-foot-ing-al adj.

In-foot-ing (in-foot-ing) n. 1. being flexible. 2. infinity.

In-foot-ing (in-foot-ing) n. (pl. -ties) an infinite number or extent or time or space.

In-foot-ing (in-foot-ing) n. adj. physically weak, especially from old age or illness; infirm of purpose, not resolute, hesitant. In-foot-ing-ly adv.
al) to be suffered. In- * flic- tion (in- * flik-* shôn) n.

In-flight (in-fît) adj. (of food, movies, etc.) provided on a plane during a flight.

In-* fli- res- cence (in-flô-* res- ñs) n. 1. the opening of blossoms. 2. the head of a flower. 3. the arrangement of the flowers of a plant in relation to the axis and to each other.

In-flow (in-fôh) n. an inward flow, the amount that flows in, a large inflow of cash.

In-* flu- ence (in- * flu- ëns) n. 1. the power to produce an effect, the influence of the moon on the tides. 2. the ability to affect someone's character or beliefs or actions. 3. a person or thing with this ability. Influence v. (in-* flu- enced, in-* flu- enc-* ing) to exert influence on.

In-* flu- en- za (in- * flu- en- zâ) n. a virus disease causing fever, muscular pain, and inflammation of the respiratory system.

In- * flux (in- * fluxes) n. an inflow, especially of people or things into a place.

In-* fo (in-fôh) n. (slang) information.

In- * fold (in- * folded) v. to enfold.

In- * form (in- * form) v. 1. to give information to. 2. to reveal information to the police etc. about secret or criminal activities.

In- * form- al (in- * form-* ìl) adj. not formal, without formality or ceremony. In-* for- ma-* li-* ly adv. In- * for- ma- * li- ty (in- * for- ma- * li- tee) n. In this dictionary, words and definitions marked informal are used in everyday speech but should not be used when speaking or writing formally.

In- * form- mant (in- * form-* mant) n. a person who gives information.

In- * for- ma- * tion (in- * for- ma-* shôn) n. 1. facts told or heard or discovered. 2. facts fed into a computer etc. In- * for- ma- * tion- al adj. Information Industry, commercial activity concerned with the collection, processing, distribution, etc. of information. Information retrieval, the systematic recovery of data or information from the memory bank of a computer or from files etc.

In- * form- a- * tive (in- * for- ma- * tîv) adj. giving information.

In- * formed (in- * formed) adj. having good or sufficient knowledge of something, in- * formed opinion.

In- * for- mer (in- * for- men) n. a person who reveals information to the police etc. about secret or criminal activities.

In- * frac- tion (in- * frak- shôn) n. an infringement, a violation.

In- * fra- dig (in- * frä- dig) (informal) beneath one's dignity. From the Latin infra dignitatem.

In- * fra- red (in- * frä- red) adj. 1. (of radiation) having a wavelength that is slightly longer than that of visible light rays at the red end of the spectrum. 2. of or using this radiation.

In- * fra- son- ic (in- * frä- son- ik) adj. (of sound waves) with a pitch that is below the lower limit of normal human hearing.

In-* fra- struc- ture (in- * fra- struk- chûr) n. the subordinate parts and installations etc. that form the basis of an enterprise.

In- * fringe (in- * frinj) v. (in- * fringed, in- * fring- ing) 1. to break or act against (a rule or agreement etc.), to violate. 2. to encroach, do not infringe upon his rights. In- * fringe-* ment n.

In- * fuse (in- * fyooz) v. (in- * fused, in- * fus- ing) 1. to imbue, to instill, infused them with courage; infused courage into them. 2. to steep (tea or herbs etc.) in a liquid in order to make flavor or soluble constituents pass into the liquid, to allow (tea etc.) to undergo this process.

In- * fu- si- ble (in- * fyoo- zi- bêl) adj. that cannot be fused or melted.

In- * fu- slon (in- * fyoo- zôn) n. 1. infusing, being infused. 2. a liquid made by infusing. 3. something added or introduced into a stock, an infusion of new blood to improve the breed.

In- * fu- nus (in- * jeen- yus) adj. 1. at, in, or to. at place, in place, to place.

In- * gan (in- * gan) suffix used to form the present participle of verbs, often used as adjectives, as in charming, strapping.

In- * gen- ious (in- * gén- ius) adj. 1. clever at inventing new things or methods. 2. cleverly contrived, an ingenious machine. In- * gen- ious- ly adv. Do not confuse ingenious with ingenuous.

In- * ge- nue, In- * gé- cue (an- * jê- noo, än- * zhê-) n. (pl. -nues) an artless young woman, especially as a stage role.

In- * ge- nu- ity (in- * jeen- ooi- i- tee) n. cleverness, imagination, inventiveness.

In- * gen- u- ous (in- * jen- yoo- * ûs) adj. without artfulness, unsophisticated, an ingenuous manner. In*gen’u*ous*ly adj. In*gen’u*ous*ness n. Do not confuse ingenious with ingenionous.

In*geat (in-jest) v. to take in as food. In*gea*tion (in-je-shon) n.

In*gle’nook (ing-gel-nuuk) n. a nook forming a place for sitting beside a deeply recessed fireplace.

In*gli*ous (in-glohr-i-ūs) adj. 1. ignominious. 2. not bringing glory, obscure. In*gli*ous*ly adv.

In*got (ing-got) n. a brick-shaped piece of cast metal.

In*graft (in-graft) v. to engrat.

In*grain (in-grayn) v. 1. to firmly fix (habits or feelings or tendencies). 2. to work deeply into (a surface or texture). In*grained adj.

In*grate (in-grayt) n. an ungrateful person.

In*gra*tiate (in-gray-shay-ayt) v. (In*gra*ti*at*ed, In*gra*ti*at*ing) to bring (oneself) into a person’s favor, especially in order to gain an advantage.

In*gra*tude (in-gra-tood) n. lack of due gratitude.

In*gre*di*ent (in-gres) n. going in, the right to enter.

In*grown (in-grohn) adj. grown abnormally inward, especially into the flesh, an ingrown toenail.

In*gu*nal (in-gwul-nul) adj. of the groin.

In*hab*it (in-habit) v. to live in (a place) as one’s home or dwelling place.

In*hab*it*a*ble (in-habit-i-ta-bel) adj. able to be inhabited.

In*hab*it*ant (in-habit-i-tant) n. one who inhabits a place.

In*hal*ant (in-hay-lant) n. a medicinal substance to be inhaled.

In*hal*a*tor (in-hay-lah-tor) n. an apparatus for inhaling oxygen, medication, etc.

In*hal*e (in-hayl) v. (In*ha*led, In*hal*ing) 1. to breathe in, to draw into the lungs by breathing. 2. to take tobacco smoke into the lungs. In*ha*la*tion (in-hah-la-tyon) n.

In*hal*er (in-hayler) n. a device that produces or sends out a medicinal vapor to be inhaled.

In*har*mon*ic (in-har-mon-ik) adj. not harmonic, discordant.

In*har*mo*ni*ous (in-har-moh-ni-ūs) adj. not harmonious, conflicting.

In*her (in-heer) v. (In*her*ed, In*her*ing) 1. (of qualities etc.) to exist or abide essentially or permanently. 2. (of rights etc.) to be invested in (a person etc.).

In*her*ent (in-her-en-t) adj. existing in something as a natural or permanent characteristic or quality. In*her*ent*ly adv.

In*her*it (in-her-it) v. 1. to receive (property or a title etc.) by legal right of succession or by a will etc. when its previous owner or holder has died. 2. to receive from a predecessor, this government inherited many problems from the last one. 3. to receive (a characteristic) from one’s parents or ancestors. In*her’i*tor n. In*her’i*t*able adj. See the note under congenital.

In*her*i*tance (in-her-i-tans) n. 1. inheriting. 2. a thing that is inherited. In*her*i*tance tax, a tax on inherited property.

In*hib*it (in-hib-it) v. 1. to restrain, to prevent, this substance inhibits the growth of moss. 2. to hinder the impulses of (a person), to cause inhibitions. In*hib’i*tor n.

In*hi*bi*tion (in-i-bish-ōn) n. 1. inhibiting, being inhibited. 2. repression of or resistance to an instinct or impulse or feeling.

In*hos*pi*tal*ble (in-hos-pi-ta-bel) adj. 1. not hospitable. 2. (of a place or climate) giving no shelter or no favorable conditions. In*hos’pi*tab*ly adv.

In*hos*pi*tal*ity (in-hos-pi-ta-lit) n. (in-hospitable) (a place or climate) not hospitable.

In*hos*pi*tal*ize (in-hos-pi-ta-lize) v. to hospitalize.

In*hos*pi*tal*ize (in-hos-pi-ta-lize) v. to hospitalize.

In*house (in-hows) adj. & adv. (informal) within an organization or using its own resources; an in-house project, not subcontracted.

In*hu*man (in-hyoo-mān) adj. brutal, lacking normal human qualities of kindness, pity, etc. (Do not confuse inhuman with inhumane.) In*hu*man*i*ty (in-hyoo-man-i-ti) n.

In*hu*mane (in-hyoo-mān) n. not humane. Do not confuse inhuman with inhuman.

In*hu*me (in-hyoom) v. (In*hu*med, In*hum*ing) to bury. In*hu*ma*tion (in-hyoo-may-shon) n.

In*im*i*c (i-nim-i-kā-l) adj. 1. hostile. 2. harmful. In*im*i*cal*ly adv.

In*im*i*ca*ble (i-nim-i-tā-bēl) adj. impossible to imitate.

In*iq*cul*i*ties (i-nik-wi-tee) n. (pl. -ties) 1. great injustice. 2. wickedness, a wicked act. In*iq’ul* tous adj.

Init. abbr. initial.

In*li*al (i-nish-āl) adj. of or belonging to the beginning, the initial stages of the work. Initial n. the first letter of a word or name; a person’s initials, those of his names, often used as a signature etc. Initial v. (In*li*al*ed, In*li*aling) to sign or mark with initials.

In*li*al*ily (i-nish-ā-lee) adv. at first.

In*li*ate (i-nish-ā-ayt) v. (In*li*a*ted, In*li*a*ting) 1. to cause to begin, to start (a plan) working, he initiated certhe stone; inscribed it with their names.

2. to draw (one geometrical figure) within another so that certain points of their boundaries coincide.

In-scrip-tion (in-skrip-śōn) n. words or names inscribed on a monument or coin or stone etc.

In-scu·ta·ble (in-skroo-tā-bēl) adj. baffling, impossible to understand or interpret.

In-seam (in-seem) n. the inner seam of a trouser leg etc.

In-sect (in-sekt) n. a small animal with six legs, no backbone, and a body divided into three parts (head, thorax, abdomen).

In-sect·i·cide (in-sek-ti-sid) n. a substance for killing insects.

In-sec-tiv·o·rous (in-sek-tiv-ō-rūs) adj. feeding on insects.

In-se·cure (in-sē-kyoor) adj. not secure or safe.

In·se·cure·ly adv. In·se·cur·i·ty n. (pl. -ties).

In·sem·i·nate (in-sem·i-nayt) v. (in·sem·i·nat·ed, in·sem·i·nat·ing) to insert semen into.

In·se·minate·tion (in-sem·i-nay-shōn) n.

In·sen·sate (in-sen·sāt) adj. 1. without physical sensation. 2. without sensibility, unfeeling. 3. stupid, without sense.

In·sen·sate·ly adv.

In·sen·si·ble (in-sen·si-bēl) adj. 1. unconscious. 2. without feeling, unaware, seeming insensible of his danger. 3. callous. 4. (of changes) imperceptible.

In·sen·si·bly adv. In·sen·si·bil·i·ty (in·sen·si·bil·i·tē) n. (pl. -ties).

In·sen·si·tive (in-sen·si-tīv) adj. not sensitive.

In·sen·si·tiv·ly (in-sen·si·tiv·lē) adv. In·sen·si·tiv·i·ty (in·sen·si·tiv·i·tē) n.

In·sen·ti·ent (in-sen·shi·ēnt) adj. not sentient.

In·sen·ti·ence n.

In·sep·a·ra·ble (in-sep·ā-ra-bēl) adj. 1. unable to be separated. 2. liking to be constantly together, inseparable companions.

In·sep·a·ra·bly adv. In·sep·a·ra·bil·i·ty (in·sep·a·ra·bil·i·tē) n. In·sep·a·ra·ble·ness n.

In·set (in-surt) v. to put (a thing) in or between or among. In·set (in-surt) n. a thing inserted. In·ser·tion (in-sur·shōn) n.

In·set·ted (in-set) v. (in·set, in·set·ting) to set or place in, to decorate with an inset, the crown was inset with jewels. Inset (in-set) n. something set into a larger thing.

In·shore (in-shōr) adj. & adv. near or nearer to the shore.

In·side (in-sid) n. 1. the inner side of a surface or part. 2. a small group within an organization having authority and prestige and access to confidential information; on the inside, belonging to such a group. 3. insides, (informal) the organs in the abdomen, the stomach and intestines. In·side (in-sid) adj. on or coming from the inside; inside information, information that is not available to outsiders; an inside job, a crime committed or aided by someone living or working on the premises where it occurred. In·side (in-sid) adv. on or in or to the inside. In·side (in-sid) prep. on the inner side of, within; inside an hour, in less than an hour.

Inside left or right, (in soccer) a player on the forward line near to the center on the left or right side; his position. Inside out, with the inner surface turned to face the outside; turn a place inside out, to search it thoroughly; know a subject inside out, to know it thoroughly.

In·sid·er (in-sid·ər) n. 1. an accepted member of a certain group. 2. a person who is made aware of a secret.

In·sid·i·ous (in-sid-i-ūs) adj. spreading or developing or acting inconspicuously but with harmful effect, an insidious rumor.

In·sid·i·ous·ly adv. In·sid·i·ous·ness n. Do not confuse insidious with invidious.

In·sight (in-sīt) n. 1. the ability to perceive and understand the true nature of something. 2. knowledge obtained by this. In·sight·ful (in-sīt-fūl) adj.

In·sig·ni·a (in-sig-ni-ā) n. sing. & pl. 1. the symbols of authority or office (as the crown and scepter of a king). 2. an identifying or distinguishing badge etc.

In·sig·nis·tic·ant (in-sig-nis-ti-kant) having little or no importance or value or influence. In·sig·nis·tic·ant·ly adv. In·sig·nis·tic·ance n.

In·sin·cre (in-sin-seer) adj. not sincere.

In·sin·cere·ly adv. In·sin·cer·i·ty (in-sin-ser-i-tē) n.

In·sin·u·ate (in-sin-you-a-tē) v. (in·sin·u·at·ed, in·sin·u·at·ing) 1. to insert gradually or craftily, insinuate oneself into a person's good graces. 2. to hint artfully or unpleasantly. In·sin·u·at·ing adj. In·sin·u·a·tion (in-sin-yoo-ā-shōn) n.

In·sip·id·i·ty (in-insp-id·i-tē) adj. 1. lacking in flavor. 2. lacking in interest or liveliness.

In·sip·id·ly adv. In·sip·id·i·ty (in-insp-id·i-tē) n.

In·sist (in-sist) v. 1. to declare emphatically. 2. to demand emphatically, I insist on your being there.

In·sist·ent (in-sis-tēnt) adj. 1. insisting, declaring or demanding emphatically. 2. forcing itself on one's attention, the insist·ent throb of the engines. In·sist·ent·ly adv. In·sist·ence n.
in si·tu (in si-too) in its present or original place. △ Latin.
in·so·far (in-soh-fahr) as to the extent that.
insol. abbr. insoluble.
in·so·la·tion (in-soh-lay-shun) n. solar radiation received, the amount of this per unit of horizontal surface.
in·sole (in-sohl) n. 1. the inner sole of a boot or shoe. 2. a loose piece of material laid in the bottom of a shoe for warmth or comfort.
in·so·lent (in-so-lent) adj. behaving insubordinately, arrogant, contemptuous. in·so·lent·ly adv. in·so·lence n.
in·sol·u·ble (in-sohl-yuh-buhl) adj. 1. unable to be dissolved. 2. unable to be solved, an insoluble problem. in·sol·u·bil·i·ty n.
in·sol·u·bil·i·ty (in-sol-yuh-bil-i-tee) n.
in·sol·vent (in-sol-vent) adj. unable to pay one's debts. in·sol·ven·cy (in-sol-vuhn-si) n. insom·ni·a (in-som-ni-ah) n. habitual sleeplessness.
insom·ni·ac (in-som-ni-ak) n. a person who suffers from insomnia.
in·so·much (in-soh-much) adv. to such an extent (that), inasmuch (as).
in·sou·cl·ant (in-soo-si-lant) adj. carefree, unconcerned. in·sou·cl·ance n. insap. abbr. 1. inspected. 2. inspector.
in·spec·t (in-spekt) v. 1. to examine (a thing) carefully and critically, especially looking for flaws. 2. to examine officially, to visit in order to make sure that certain rules and standards are being observed.
in·spec·tion (in-spek-shun) n.
in·spec·tor (in-spek-tor) n. 1. a person whose job is to inspect things or supervise services etc. 2. (in some police departments) an officer above captain and below superintendent.
in·spi·ra·tion (in-spray-shun) n. 1. inspiring. 2. an inspiring influence. 3. a sudden brilliant idea. in·spi·ra·tion·al adv.
in·spire (in-spry) v. (in-spired, in·spired·ing) 1. to stimulate (a person) to creative or other activity or to express certain ideas. 2. to fill with or instill a certain feeling, he inspires confidence in us. 3. to communicate ideas etc. by a divine agency, the prophets were inspired by God.
in·spir·it (in-spir-it) v. 1. to put life into, animate. 2. to encourage.
in·stant (in·stant) v. 1. of the current month, on the 6th inst. 2. institute. 3. institution. in·sta·bil·i·ty (in-stah-bil-i-tee) n. lack of stability.
in·stall (in-stawl) v. 1. to place (a person) in office, especially with ceremonies. 2. to set (apparatus) in position and ready for use. 3. to settle in a place, he was comfortably installed in an armchair.
in·sta·la·tion (in-stah-lay-shun) n. 1. installing, being installed. 2. apparatus etc. installed.
in·stall·ment (in-stawl-ment) n. any of the parts in which something is presented or supplied, or a debt is paid, over a period of time. □ Installing buying, purchasing on the installment plan. in·stall·ment plan, an arrangement for payment in installments.
in·stance (in-stahns) n. a case or example of something. Instance v. (in·stan·ced, in·stan·cing) to mention as an instance. □ In the first instance, firstly.
in·stant (in-stahn) adj. 1. occurring immediately, there was instant relief. 2. (of food) designed to be prepared quickly and easily. Instant n. 1. an exact point of time, the present moment, come here this instant! 2. a very short space of time, a moment, not an instant too soon. □ Instant camera, a camera that develops and prints a photograph almost instantly after an exposure is made. In·stant replay, the immediate reshowning of a short section of a television broadcast, usually a sports event.
in·stan·ta·ne·ous (in-stahn-tay-nuhs) adj. occurring or done instantly, death was instantaneous. in·stan·ta·ne·ous·ly adv.
in·stan·ter (in-stahn-tuhr) adv. (old use) immediately, at once.
in·stan·ti·ate (in-stahn-shay-tuhr) v. (in·stan·ti·a·ted, in·stan·ti·a·tions) to represent by an instance. in·stan·ti·a·tion (in-stahn-shay-shun) n.
in·stan·ti·ly (in-stahn-lee) adv. immediately.
in·state (in-stayt) v. (in·stat·ed, in·stat·ing) to put in office, to install.
in·stead (in-sted) adv. as an alternative or substitute. □ Instead of, in place of.
in·step (in-step) n. 1. the upper surface of the foot between toes and ankle. 2. the part of a shoe etc. covering this.
in·sti·gate (in-stigh-gate) v. (in·sti·gat·ed, in·sti·gat·ing) to urge or incite, to bring about by persuasion, instigated them to strike; instigated an inquiry. in·sti·ga·tor n. in·sti·ga·tion (in-stigh-gay-shun) n.
in·still (in-still) v. to implant (ideas, feelings, etc.) into a person's mind gradually. in·still·ment n.
in·stinct (in-stungkt) n. 1. an inborn impulse or tendency to perform certain acts or behave in certain ways. 2. a natural ability, has an instinct for finding a good in return for a payment made in advance once or regularly. 2. the business of providing such contracts. 3. the amount payable to the company etc. providing the contract, a premium. 4. the amount payable by the company etc. in compensation. 5. anything done as a safeguard against loss or failure etc.

in·sure (in-shoor) v. (in-sured, in·sur·ing) 1. to protect by a contract of insurance. 2. to ensure.

in·sured (in-shoord) n. a person protected by insurance.

in·sur·er (in-shoor-er) n. a company offering insurance.

in·sur·gent (in-sur-jent) adj. rebellious, rising in revolt. Insurgent n. a rebel.

in·sur·gence n. in·sur·gen·cy (in-sur-jen-se) n.

in·sur·mount·a·ble (in-sûr-mown-tä-bel) adj. unable to be surmounted, insuperable. in·sur·mount·a·bly adv.

in·sur·rec·tion (in-sûr-rek-shon) n. rising in open resistance to established authority, rebellion. In·sur·rec·tion·ist n.

in·sus·cep·ti·ble (in-sûs-sep-ti-bel) adj. not susceptible.

int. abbr. 1. interest. 2. interior. 3. internal. 4. international. 5. intransitive.

in·tact (in-takt) adj. undamaged, complete.

in·ta·glio (in-tal-yoh) n. (pl. -glios) a kind of carving in which the design is sunk below the surface.

in·take (in-tayk) n. 1. the process of taking something in, the place where liquid or air etc. is channeled into something. 2. the number or quantity of people or things etc. accepted or received, a school's annual intake of pupils.

in·tan·gi·ble (in-tan-ji-bel) adj. not tangible, not material. Intangible n. something intangible. in·tan'gi·bly adv.

in·te·ger (in-te·jar) n. a whole number such as 0, 3, 19, etc., not a fraction.

in·te·gral (in-te·gral) adj. 1. (of a part) constituent, necessary to the completeness of a whole, Flatbush is an integral part of Brooklyn. 2. complete, forming a whole, an integral design.

in·te·grate (in-te·grayt) v. (in-te·grat·ed, in·te·grat·ing) 1. to combine or form (a part or parts) into a whole. 2. to bring or come into equal membership of a community. In·te·gra·tion (in-te·gray-shon) n. □Integrated circuit, a small piece of material holding a complex electronic circuit, designed to replace a conventional circuit of many components.

in·te·grit·ty (in-te·rig-tee) n. 1. honesty, incorruptibility. 2. wholeness, entirety. 3. soundness.
intensive / Interdependent intensive (in-ten-siv) adj. 1. employing much effort, concentrated, intensive study. 2. (in grammar) expressing intensity or giving force to a word or phrase. intensive n. an intensive word or prefix, as very in the very last one. intensive-ly adv. intensive-care, constant surveillance of critically ill patients in a hospital. Do not confuse intensive with intense.

in-tent (in-tent) n. intention, with intent to kill. intent adj. 1. intending, having one's mind fixed on some purpose, intent on killing. 2. with one's attention concentrated, an intent gaze. intents'ly adv. intentness n. for or to all intents and purposes, practically, virtually.

in-ten-tion (in-ten-shun) n. what one intends to do or achieve, one's purpose. in-ten-tion-al (in-ten-shun-al) adj. done on purpose, intended, not accidental. in-ten-tion-al-ly adv.

in-ter (in-tur) v. (in-terred, in-ter-ring) to bury (a dead body) in the earth or in a tomb.

in-ter- (in-tur) prefix between, among, as in inter-American, between or among the countries of North and South America.

in-ter-act (in-tur-akt) v. to have an effect upon each other. interaction (in-tur-ak-shun) n. in-ter-active adj.

in-ter-a-ll-a (in-tur ay-li-a) among other things. Latin.

in-ter-breed (in-tur-breed) v. (in-ter-bred, in-ter-bred-ing) to breed with each other, to crossbreed.

in-ter-cal-a-ry (in-tur-kal-er-ee) adj. 1. inserted in the calendar to harmonize the calendar with the solar year, as February 29 in leap year. 2. interpolated, intervening.

in-ter-cal-a-te (in-tur-kal-ayt) v. (in-ter-cal-at-ed, in-ter-cal-at-ing) 1. to insert (an intercalary day etc.). 2. to interpose or interpolate. in-ter-cal-a-tion (in-tur-kal-ay-shun) n.

in-ter-cede (in-tur-seed) v. (in-ter-ced-ed, in-ter-ced-ing) to intervene on behalf of another person or as a peacemaker.

in-ter-cel-lar (in-tur-sel-yur) adj. located between or among cells.

in-ter-cep-t (in-tur-sept) v. 1. to stop or catch (a person or thing) between his or its starting point and destination. 2. (in mathematics) to mark off (space) between two points or lines or planes. intercept (in-tur-sept) n. 1. (in mathematics) the part of a line etc. between two points of intersection with other lines. 2. the interception of an enemy, especially enemy aircraft, missiles, etc. in-ter-ccep-tion (in-tur-sep-shun) n.

in-ter-cep-tor (in-tur-sep-tor) n. a fighter plane or missile for intercepting enemy planes or missiles.

in-ter-ces-sion (in-tur-sesh-un) n. interceding.

in-ter-ces-sor (in-tur-se-sor) n. one who intercedes. in-ter-ces-sor-y adj.

in-ter-change (in-tur-chayn) v. (in-ter-changed, in-ter-chang-ing) 1. to put (each of two things) into the other's place. 2. to make an exchange of, to give and receive (one thing for another). 3. to alternate. interchange (in-tur-chayn) n. 1. interchanging. 2. a road junction designed so that streams of traffic do not intersect on the same level.

in-ter-change-a-ble (in-tur-chayn-jah-bel) adj. able to be interchanged.

in-ter-col-le-ge (in-tur-koh-lee-jit) adj. between different colleges or universities.

in-ter-com (in-tur-kom) n. (informal) an intercommunication system.

in-ter-com-mu-ni-cate (in-tur-koh-moo-ni-kayt) v. (in-ter-com-nu-mi-cat-ed, in-ter-com-nu-mi-cat-ing) 1. to communicate with each other. 2. to have free passage to each other, as rooms etc. in-ter-com-mu-ni-ca-tion (in-tur-koh-moo-ni-kay-shun) n.

intercommunication system, a system of internal-communication by telephone or radio, etc. with equipment for sending and receiving messages at each station.

in-ter-con-nec-t (in-tur-koh-nekt) v. to connect with each other. in-ter-con-nec-tion (in-tur-koh-nek-shun) n.

in-ter-con-ti-nen-tal (in-tur-kon-ti-nen-tal) adj. connecting or carried on between two continents, (of missiles) able to be fired from one continent to another.

in-ter-cos-tal (in-tur-kos-tal) adj. between the ribs.

in-ter-course (in-tur-kohrs) n. 1. any dealings or communication between people or countries. 2. sexual intercourse, copulation.

in-ter-cul-tur-al (in-tur-kul-chur-al) adj. occurring among or between or relating to different cultures.

in-ter-de-nom-i-na-tion-al (in-tur-de-nom-ee-nay-shun-al) adj. relating to more than one religious denomination.

in-ter-de-part-men-tal (in-tur-de-pahrt-men-tal) adj. relating to more than one department.

in-ter-de-pen-dent (in-tur-de-pent) adj. dependent on each other. in-ter-de-pendence n.

In-ter-dis-cl-pl-n-a-ry (in-tér-dis-i-pl-n-er-ee) adj. concerning or combining more than one branch of learning.

In-ter-est (in-tér-rist, in-trist) n. 1. a feeling of curiosity or concern about something. 2. the quality of arousing such feeling, the subject has no interest for me. 3. a thing toward which one feels it, music is one of his interests. 4. advantage, benefit, she looks after her own interests. 5. a legal right to a share in something, a financial stake in a business etc. 6. money paid for the use of money lent; return someone's kindness with interest, give back more than one received. Interest v. 1. to arouse the interest of. 2. to cause to take an interest in, interested herself in welfare work. ■ Interest group, a group acting together from common interest or purpose. In the Interest of, in behalf of, to the benefit of.

In-ter-est-ed (in-tér-ri-stid, in-tri-) adj. 1. feeling or showing interest or curiosity. 2. having a private interest in something, interested parties.

In-ter-est-ing (in-tér-ri-sting, in-tri-) adj. arousing interest.

In-ter-face (in-tér-fays) n. 1. a surface forming a common boundary between two regions. 2. a place, or piece of equipment, where interaction occurs between two systems, processes, etc.

In-ter-faith (in-tér-fayth) adj. between or among adherents of different religions.

In-ter-feer (in-tér-feer) v. (In-ter-fered, In-ter-fer-ing) 1. to take part in dealing with other people's affairs without right or invitation. 2. to obstruct wholly or partially.

In-ter-feer-ence (in-tér-feer-ens) n. 1. interfering. 2. the fading of received radio signals because of static or unwanted signals. 3. (in football) the blockers who run ahead of the ball carrier to keep tacklers away; illegal hindering of a pass receiver before he catches a pass.

In-ter-feer-on (in-tér-feer-on) n. a protein substance that prevents the development of a virus in living cells.

In-ter-fuse (in-tér-fyooz) v. (In-ter-fused, In-ter-fus-ing) 1. to interperse. 2. to blend.

In-ter-ga-lac-tic (in-tér-ga-lak-tik) adj. of or in the space between galaxies.

In-ter-im (in-tér-rim) n. an intervening period of time, in the interim. Interim adj. of or in such a period; an interim report, one made before the main report, showing what has happened so far.

In-ter-i-or (in-teer-i-ər) adj. nearer to the center, inner. Interior n. 1. an interior part or region, the central or inland part of a country. 2. the inside of a building or room. ■ Interior decoration, the art or profession of designing the layout and furnishings of the inside of buildings or rooms. Interior decorator, a person engaged in interior decoration.

Interj. abbr. interjection.

In-ter-ject (in-teer-joikt) v. to put in (a remark) when someone is speaking.

In-ter-jec-tion (in-teer-jek-shn) n. 1. interjecting. 2. an interjected remark. 3. an exclamation such as oh! or good heavens!

In-ter-lace (in-tér-lays) v. (In-ter-lacing, In-ter-lac-ing) to weave or lace together.

In-ter-lard (in-tér-lard) v. to insert contrasting remarks here and there in (a speech etc.), interlarded his speech with quotations.

In-ter-leaf (in-tér-leef) n. (pl. leaves, pr. -leevz) an extra blank leaf inserted between the leaves of a book.

In-ter-leave (in-tér-lev) v. (In-ter-leaved, In-ter-leaving) to insert blank leaves between the leaves of a book.

In-ter-lib-ra-ry (in-tér-libr-ee) adj. existing between libraries. ■ Interlibrary loan, a system by which books belonging to one library may be borrowed at another.

In-ter-line (in-tér-lin) n. (In-ter- línea, In-ter-lín-ing) to insert words between the lines of.

In-terline2 (in-tér-lin) v. to put an extra lining between the ordinary lining and the outer material (of a garment). In-ter-lin’ing n.

In-ter-lin-e-ar (in-tér-lin-e-ər) adj. written or printed between the lines of a text.

In-ter-link (in-tér-lingk) v. to link together.

In-ter-lock (in-tér-lok) v. to fit into each other, especially so that parts engage.

In-ter-lo-c-u-tor (in-tér-lok-yú-tor) n. 1. a person who takes part in dialogue or conversation. 2. the center man in a minstrel show who acts as announcer and exchanges jokes with the end men.

In-ter-loc-u-tor-ry (in-tér-lok-yú-tohr-ee) adj. (of a decree etc.) given in the course of a legal action, by the final decision.

in·ter·lope (in·ter·lop) v. (in·ter·lop·ed, in·ter·lop·ing) to intrude or interfere in the affairs of another. in·ter·lop·er (in·ter·lop·er) n.

in·ter·lude (in·ter·lood) n. 1. an interval between parts of a play etc. 2. something performed during this. 3. an intervening time or event etc. of a different kind from the main one.

in·ter·lu·nar (in·ter·loo·nahr) adj. of or relating to the period of the lunar month when the moon is invisible.

in·ter·mar·ry (in·ter·mar·ee) v. (in·ter·mar·ried, in·ter·mar·ry·ing) 1. (of tribes or nations or families etc.) to become connected by marriage. 2. to marry within one’s own family. in·ter·mar·riage (in·ter·mar·rij) n.

in·ter·me·di·ate (in·ter·me·di·at) n. (pl. -me·di·ates) a mediator, a go-between. inter·medi·ary adj. 1. acting as an intermediary. 2. intermediate in position or form.

in·ter·me·die·ate (in·ter·me·die·at) v. coming between two things in time or place or order. in·ter·medi·ate n. 1. an intermediate thing. 2. an intermediary.

intermediate school, a middle school or junior high school, for the grades between elementary school and high school.

in·ter·ment (in·ter·ment) n. burial. ▶ Do not confuse interment with internment.

in·ter·mez·zo (in·ter·mez·soh) n. (pl. -zos) a short musical composition to be played between acts of a play etc. or between sections of a larger work or independently.

in·ter·mi·na·ble (in·ter·mi·na·bal) adj. endless, long and boring. in·ter·mi·na·ble adv.

in·ter·min·gle (in·ter·min·gell) v. (in·ter·min·gled, in·ter·min·gling) to mingle.

in·ter·mis·sion (in·ter·miss·n) n. an interval, a pause in work or action.

in·ter·mit·ting (in·ter·mint·ting) adj. occurring at intervals, not continuous. in·ter·mittent rain. in·ter·mit·tent ly adv.

in·ter·mix (in·ter·mix) v. to mix.

in·tern1 (in·tern) v. to compel (an enemy alien or prisoner of war etc.) to live in a special area or camp.

in·tern2, in·terme (in·tern) n. an advanced student or recent graduate undergoing supervised training, especially a medical school graduate acting as an assistant doctor in a hospital. in·tern v. to serve as an intern. in·tern·ship n.

in·ter·nal (in·ter·nal) adj. 1. of or in the inside of a thing. 2. belonging to a thing because of its nature or structure. in·ter·nal evidence, evidence contained in the thing being discussed. 3. of or in the interior of the body, in·ter·nal organs. 4. of the domestic affairs of a country. in·ter·nal·ly adv. □ in·ter·nal-combus·tion engine, an engine that produces power by burning fuel inside the engine itself rather than externally. in·ter·nal medicine, the branch of medicine dealing with the diagnosis and nonsurgical treatment of disease. in·ter·nal revenue, the revenue of a government derived from sources within the country.

in·ter·na·tion·al (in·ter·nash·nal) adj. of or existing or agreed between two or more countries. in·ter·na·tion·al n. 1. one of several associations founded to promote socialist or communist action. 2. (often in·ter·na·tion·al) a labor union with locals in two or more countries. in·ter·na·tion·al·ly adv.

in·ter·na·tion·al·ism (in·ter·nash·nal·iz·m) n. the policy of cooperation among nations, especially in political and economic affairs. in·ter·na·tion·al·ism n.

in·ter·na·tion·al·ize (in·ter·nash·nal·iz) v. (in·ter·nash·nal·ized) in·ter·na·tion·al·iz·ing to make international, especially to bring under the combined protection etc. of different nations.

in·ter·na·tion·al·iza·tion (in·ter·nash·nal·iz·a·shun) n.

in·ter·ne·cine (in·ter·nee·senn, -nes·een) adj. 1. mutually destructive. 2. of a struggle within a nation, organization, group, etc.

in·tern·ee (in·ter·nee) n. a person who is interned.

in·tern·ist (in·ter·nist) n. a specialist in internal medicine.

in·tern·ment (in·ter·ment) n. interning, being interned. □ in·ter·ment camp, a place where internees are imprisoned. ▶ Do not confuse internment with interment.

in·ter·num·cil·o (in·ter·nu·msh-oh) n. (pl. -clos) the pope’s ambassador when or where no nuncio is employed.

in·ter·of·fice (in·ter·off·fis) adj. functioning or passing between the offices of an organization.

in·ter·per·son·al (in·ter·pur·son·al) adj. of the relations between persons. in·ter·per·son·al·ly adv.

in·ter·plan·e·tar·y (in·ter·plan·et·er·ee) adj. of or existing between planets.
in·ter·play (in-tur·play) n. interaction.

in·ter·pol (in-tur·pol) n. International Criminal Police Commission, an organization that coordinates investigations made by the police forces of member countries into crimes with an international basis.

in·ter·po·late (in-tur·pō·lat·ed, in-tur·pō·lat·ing) 1. to interject. 2. to insert (new material) misleadingly into a book etc. in·ter·po·la·tion (in-tur-pō-lā·shōn) n.

in·ter·pose (in-tur·pōz) v. (in·ter·pos·ed, in·ter·pos·ing) 1. to insert between, to interject. 2. to intervene. in·ter·po·si·tion (in-tur-pō-zish·ōn) n.

in·ter·pret (in-tur·prit) v. 1. to explain the meaning of. 2. to understand in a specified way. 3. to act as interpreter. in·ter·pre·ta·tion (in-tur·pré·ta·shōn) n. in·ter·pre·tive adj.

in·ter·pre·ter (in-tur·pré·ter) n. a person whose job is to translate a speech etc. into another language, orally in the presence of the speaker.

in·ter·ra·cial (in-tur·ray·shal) adj. for, of, among, or between races or people of different races.

in·ter·reg·num (in-tur·reg·num) n. (pl. -nums, -na, pr. -nā) 1. a period between the rule of two successive rulers. 2. a break in continuity.

in·ter·re·late (in-tur·ri·lat·ed, in·ter·re·lat·ing) v. to relate to each other. in·ter·re·la·ted·ness n. in·ter·re·la·tion n. in·ter·re·la·tion·ship n.

interrog. abbr. 1. interrogation. 2. interrogative.

in·ter·ro·gate (in-tur·ō·gat·ed, in·ter·ro·gat·ing) v. to ask questions of, especially closely or formally. in·ter·ro·ga·tor n. in·ter·ro·ga·tion (in-tur·ō·gā·shōn) n.

in·ter·ro·ga·tive (in-tur·ō·gā·tiv) adj. questioning, having the form of a question, an interrogative tone. in·ter·ro·ga·tive·ly adv. interrogative pronoun, see pronoun.

in·ter·ro·ga·to·ry (in-tur·ō·gā·to·rē) adj. questioning. in·ter·ro·ga·to·ry n. a set of questions, (in law) one formally put to an accused person.

in·ter·rupt (in-tur·rupt) v. 1. to break the continuity of. 2. to break the flow of a speech etc. by inserting a remark. 3. to obstruct (a view etc.). in·ter·rupt·ter n. in·ter·rupt·tive adj. in·ter·rupt·tion (in-tur·rupt·shōn) n.

in·ter·sec·tic (in-tur·sek·tik) adj. existing between schools.

in·ter·sec·tion (in-tur·sek·shōn) n. a place where lines or roads etc. intersect.

in·ter·ses·sion (in-tur·ses·shōn) n. a school or college semester coming between spring and summer or between summer and fall semesters.

in·ter·spere (in-tur·spör) v. (in·ter·spersed, in·ter·spers·ing) to insert contrasting material here and there in (a thing). in·ter·spes·sion (in-tur·spör·zhōn) n.

in·ter·state (in-tur·stāt) adj. existing or carried on between states. in·ter·state·highway, a road of the highway system that links states of the U.S.

in·ter·stel·lar (in-tur·stel·ăr) adj. of or existing between stars.

in·ter·stic (in-tur·stic) n. (pl. -stics, pr. -stee·zez, -siz) a small intervening space, a crevice. in·ter·sti·tal (in-tur·stish·al) adj.

in·ter·ti·al (in-tur·ti·al) v. to interrupt, to meddle with the space between low and high tide marks.

in·ter·twine (in-tur·twin) v. (in·ter·twined, in·ter·twin·ing) to twine together, to entwine.

in·ter·ur·ban (in-tur·ur·bān) adj. between or connecting cities.

in·ter·val (in-tur·vāl) n. 1. a time between two events or parts of an action. 2. a pause between two parts of a performance. 3. a space between two objects or points. 4. the difference in musical pitch between two notes. in·ter·val·wise, inter·val·ly.

in·ter·ven·tion (in-tur·ven·shōn) n. the act of intervening or interfering, especially in the affairs of nations. in·ter·ven·tion·ism n. in·ter·ven·tion·ist n.

in·ter·view (in-tur·vyoo) n. a formal meeting or conversation with a person, held in order to assess his or her merits as a candidate etc. or to obtain comments and information. in·ter·view·er n. in·ter·view·ment n.

in·ter·vo·ca·lic (in-tur·vō·kal·ik) adj. (usually of a consonant) between two vowels.
in-tone (in-ton) v. (in-toned, in-ton-ing) to recite in a chanting voice, especially on one note.

in-to-to (in toh-toh) completely. □ Latin.

in-tox-i-ca-tion (in-tox-i-kay-shun) n. something that intoxicates, especially an alcoholic beverage.

in-tox-i-cat-ed, in-tox-i-cat-ing 1. to make drunk. 2. to excite or exhilarate beyond self-control. in-tox-i-ca-tion (in-tox-i-kay-shun) n.

in-tr. abbr. intransitive.

in-tra- prefix within, as in intramural, intravenous.

in-tra-ca-tive (in-trä-cat-iv) adj. managed, hard to deal with or control, an intractable difficulty, intractable children. in-tra-ca-tive (in-trä-cat-iv) adj.

in-tra-ca-tion (in-trä-ca-tayshun) n.

in-tra-ca-tive (in-trä-ca-tiv) adj. to willingness to compromise, stubborn. in-tra-ca-tive (in-trä-ca-tiv) adj.

in-tra-cal (in-trä-kal) adj. an intransigent person. in-tra-cal (in-trä-kal) adj.

in-tra-cel-lu-lar (in-trä-sel-uh-br) adj. occurring within an institution, especially a school, an intramural contest. in-tra-cel-lu-lar (in-trä-sel-uh-br) adj.

in-tra-me-diate (in-trä-med-iate) adj. occurring within the intestine, including the colon and rectum. Small intestine, the narrower and longer part.

in-ti-mate (in-ti-mate) adj. 1. having a close acquaintance or friendship with a person. 2. having a sexual relationship with a person, especially outside marriage. 3. private and personal. 4. of knowledge detailed and obtained by much study or experience. Intimate n. an intimate friend. in-ti-mate-ly adv.

in-ti-me (in-ti-me) n.

in-tri-cate (in-tri-kit) adj. very difficult; intractable. in-tri-ca-tely adv.

in-tri-ca-ke-y (in-tri-key) n.

in-tri-ca-ble (in-tri-ke-bull) adj. existing within a state.

in-tri-ca-tion (in-tri-kay-shun) n. 1. in a vein. in-tri-ca-tion (in-tri-kay-shun) n.

in-tri-ca-tion (in-tri-kay-shun) n. 2. to willingness to tolerate ideas or beliefs etc. that differ from one's own, intolerant of opposition. in-tri-ca-tion (in-tri-kay-shun) n.

in-trench (in-trench) = entrench.

in-trep-id (in-trep-id) adj. fearless, brave. in-trep-id (in-trep-id) adj.

in-trep-id-i-ty (in-trep-id-i-ty) n.

in-tri-cate (in-tri-kit) adj. very complicated. in-tri-cate-ly adv. in-tri-ca-cy (in-tri-ke-suh-ny) n.

in-trig (in-treeg) v. (in-trigued, in-triguing) 1. to plot with someone in an underhand way, to use secret influence. 2. to rouse the interest or curiosity of, the subject intrigues me. in-trig (in-treeg) n. 1. underhand plotting, an underhand plot. 2. a secret love affair.

in-trigue*ly adv.
in-trinsic (in-tris-ik) adj. belonging to the basic nature of a person or thing; the intrinsic value of a coin, the value of the metal in it as opposed to its face value. in-trin*si*cal*ly adv. ▷ Do not confuse intrinsic with extrinsic.
in*tro (in-troh) n. (pl. intros) (informal) an introduction.
textbook, introd. abbr. 1. introduction. 2. introductory.
in*troduce (in-trö-döos) v. (in*tro duct*ed, in*tro duct*ing) 1. to make (a person) known by name to others. 2. to announce (a speaker or broadcast program etc.) to listeners or viewers. 3. to bring (a bill) before a legislature. 4. to cause (a person) to become acquainted with a subject. 5. to bring (a custom or idea etc.) into use or into a system. 6. to bring or put in, introduce the needle into a vein.
in*troduc tion (in-trö duk-shən) n. 1. introducing, being introduced. 2. the formal presentation of one person to another. 3. a short explanatory section at the beginning of a book or speech etc. 4. an introductory treatise. 5. a short preliminary section leading up to the main part of a musical composition.
in*tro duct*ory (in-trö duk-tö-ri) adj. introducing a person or subject.
in*troll (in-trö-ill) 1. a psalm or antiphon sung while the priest approaches the altar to celebrate mass in the Roman Catholic Church. 2. a psalm or choral response sung at the beginning of a church service.
in*tron*mit (in-trö-mit) v. (in-trö*mit ted, in*tron*mit*ting) to let in or admit (into), to insert. in*tron*mis*tent adj. in*tron*mis*si*on (in-trö mish-ən) n.
in*tron*spec*ti*ve adj. in*tron*spec*tive ly adv.
in*tron*vert (in-trö-vurt) n. a person who is concerned more with his own thoughts and feelings than with the people and things around him, a shy person. in*tron*vert*ed adj. in*tron*ver*si*on (in-trö-vur-zhən) n.
in*true (in-trood) v. (in*trud*ed, in* trud*ing) to come or join in without being invited or wanted. in*trud*er n. in*trus*ion (in-troo-zhən) n.
in*truse (in-troo-siv) adj. intruding. in*tru*se*ness n.
in*tu*it (in-too-it) v. to know by intuition.
in*tu*lit*ion (in-too-ishən) n. the power of knowing or understanding something immediately without reasoning or being taught.
in*tu*l*tive (in-too-tə-tiv) adj. of or possessing or based on intuition. in*tu*l*tive*ly adv.
in*tu*mesce (in-tu*mes*ced, in*tu*mes*cing) to swell up.
in*tu*mes*cence n. in*tu*mes*cent adj. in*un*date (in-un-date, in-un-) v. (in*un*dat*ed, in*un*dat*ing) 1. to flood, to cover with water. 2. to overwhelm as if with a flood. in*un*da*tion (in-un-day-shən) n.
in*ure (in-yoor, i-noor) v. (in*ured, in*ur*ing) to accustom, especially to something unpleasant.
in*urn (in-urn) v. to put (the ashes of a cremated body) in an urn.
in*u*ter*o (in yoo-ter-o) in the womb, before birth. ▷ Latin.
inv. abbr. invoice.
in*vade (in-vayd) v. (in*vad*ed, in*vad*ing) 1. to enter (territory) with armed forces in order to attack or damage or occupy it. 2. to crowd into, tourists invaded the city. 3. to penetrate harmfully, the disease had invaded all parts of the body. in*vad*er n.
in*va*lid (in-vayd) n. a person who is weakened by illness or injury, one who suffers from ill health for a long time. invalid adj. 1. weakened by illness or injury. 2. of or for invalids. invalid v. 1. to disable (a person) by illness or injury. 2. to remove from active service because of ill health or injury, he was invalided out of the army.
in*val*id*ed (in-val-i-dëd) v. not valid. in*val*id*ity (in-val-i-dë-të) n.
in*val*id*ate (in-val-i-date) v. (in*val*id*ated, in*val*id*ating) to make invalid. in*val*id*a*tion (in-val-i-day-shën) n.
in*val*u*a*ble (in-val-yoo-ə-bəl) adj. having a value that is too great to be measured. in*val*u*a*ble*ly adv. ▷ Do not confuse invaluable with valuable or valueless.
in*var*i*a*ble (in-var-i-ə-bəl) adj. not variable, always the same. in*var*i*a*ble*ly adv.
in*va*sion (in-vay-zhən) n. invading. in*va*sion*ary adj. in*va*live (in-vay-siv) adj. invading; an invasive plant, one that spreads freely into areas where it is not wanted.
in*vec*ti*ve (in-vek-tiv) n. a violent attack in words, abusive language.
in*vel*ish (in-vay) v. to attack violently or bitterly in words.
in*vel*ig*le (in-vay-gəl) v. (in*vel*igled, in*vel*igling) to entice. involute / Irish in·vol·un·tar·i·ly (in-vol-ūn-ter-i-lee) adv.

in·vo·lu·te (in-vō-lōot) adj. 1. curled spirally. 2. involved or involute.

in·vo·lu·tion (in-vō-loo-shōn) n. 1. an involving, entanglement. 2. intricacy. 3. a curling inward, or a part so curled. 4. the raising of a mathematical quantity to any power.

in·volve (in-volv) v. (in-volved, involving) 1. to contain within itself, to make necessary as a condition or result, the plan involves much expense. 2. to include or affect in its operation, the safety of the nation is involved. 3. to bring (a person or thing) into difficulties, it will involve us in much expense. 4. to show (a person) to be concerned in a crime etc. 5. to take up all of one's attention. 6. to complicate (a matter). in·volve·ment n.

in·volved (in-volved) adj. 1. complicated. 2. concerned in something.

in·vul·ner·a·ble (in-vul-nēr-ā-bēl) adj. not vulnerable. in·vul·ner·a·bil·i·ty n.

in·ward·ly (in-wardz) adv. 1. toward the inside. 2. in the mind or spirit, inwardly occupied.

i·o·dle (i-ō-did) n. a compound of iodine with another element or radical.

i·o·dine (i-ō-din) n. a chemical element found in seawater and certain seaweeds, used in solution as an antiseptic.

i·o·dize (i-ō-diz) v. (i·o·dized, i·o·diz·ing) to impregnate with iodine or a compound of it.

i·on (i-on) n. one of the electrically charged particles in certain substances.

i·on·ic (i-ō-īk) adj.

i·on·ic (i-ō-īk) adj. of the Ionic order, one of the five classical orders of architecture; characterized by columns with scroll-like ornamentation at the top.

i·on·ize (i-ō-nīz) v. (i·on·ized, i·on·iz·ing) to convert or be converted into ions. i·on·iz·er n. i·on·iz·a·ble adj. i·on·iz·a·tion (i-ō-nī-zā-shōn) n.

i·on·o·sphere (i-ō-nō-spher) n. an ionized region of the upper atmosphere, able to reflect radio waves for transmission to another part of Earth.

IOOF abbr. Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

i·o·ta (i-ō-tā) n. 1. the ninth letter of the Greek alphabet (I). 2. the smallest possible amount, a jot, it doesn't make an iota of difference.

IOU (i-ō-yoo) n. (pl. IOUs) a signed paper acknowledging that one owes a sum of money to the holder (I owe you).

i·o·wa (i-ō-wā) a state of the U.S. i·o·wan adj. & n.

IP abbr. innings pitched.

IPA abbr. International Phonetic Alphabet.

ip·e·cac (ipē-kak) n. ipecacuanha, the dried root of a South American plant, used as an emetic or purgative.

IPS, ips abbr. inches per second.

ip·so·fac·to (ip-soh fak-toh) by that very fact or act. > Latin.

IQ abbr. intelligence quotient.

Ir symbol iridium.

IR abbr. 1. information retrieval. 2. internal revenue.

Ir. abbr. 1. Ireland. 2. Irish.

IRA abbr. individual retirement account.

Ir. a. abbr. Irish Republican Army.

Ir·a·nian (i-rān·i-an) (i-ray-nē-an) adj. & n.

Ir·a·q (i-rāk) a country lying between Iran and Saudi Arabia. i·ra·q·i (i-raq·ee) adj. & n. (pl. i·ra·qi·es).

Ir·a·s·cil·ble (i-ra-sil·bēl) adj. irritable, hot-tempered. i·ra·si·cil·bly adv. i·ra·si·cil·bil·i·ty (i-ra-sī-bil·i-te) n.

Ir·ate (i-rayt, i-rayt) adj. angry, enraged. i·rate·ly adv.

IRBM abbr. intermediate range ballistic missile.

Ir·ish (i·rēsh) n. anger.

Ir·e·land (i·rē-lând) an island west of Great Britain, divided into Northern Ireland (which forms part of the United Kingdom) and the Republic of Ireland.

Ir·en·ic (i·ren·ik) adj. tending toward or promoting peace.

Ir·i·des·cent (i·ri·des·sent) adj. showing rainbowlike colors, showing a change of color when its position is altered. Ir·i·des·cence n.

Ir·id·ium (i·rid·ē-um) n. a white metallic brittle element of the platinum group, used especially in hard alloys.

Ir·is·is (i·ris·is) n. (pl. Ir·is·es, i·ri·des, pr. i·ri·deez, ir-i-) 1. the flat circular colored membrane in the eye, with a circular opening (the pupil) in the center. 2. a plant with sword-shaped leaves and showy flowers with large petals.

Ir·ish (i·rish) adj. of Ireland or its people or language. Irish n. 1. the Celtic language of Ireland. 2. the Irish, people of Irish birth or descent. 3. (informal) bad temper; with his Irish up, angry. Ir·ish·man n. Ir·ish·woman n. (pl. Ir·is·men, pr. -wim-in) Irish coffee, hot coffee and Irish whiskey, with sugar and whipped cream. Irish setter, one of a breed of bird dogs with a silvery brownish red coat. Irish stew, a stew of meat, potatoes, and onions. Irish tweed, a kind of tweed made in using made suits and coats. Irish whiskey, a kind of whiskey distilled in Ireland, especially from malted barley.

Irk (urk) v. to annoy, to be tiresome to.

Irk some (urk-sôm) adj. tiresome. Irk some ly adv.

Iron (i-ôrn) n. 1. a very common hard gray metal, capable of being magnetized.
2. a tool made of this, branding iron.
3. a golf club with an iron or steel head.
4. an implement with a flat base that is heated for smoothing cloth or clothes etc.
5. something thought to be as unyielding as iron, a constitution or will of iron.
2. very strong. 3. firm, unyielding, merciless, an iron will.
3. to smooth (clothes etc.) with an iron; iron out the difficulties, deal with and remove them.

Iron Age, the period when weapons and tools were made of iron.

Iron Curtain, an invisible barrier preventing the free passage of people and information between the U.S.S.R. (and countries under its influence) and the Western world.

Ironing board, a narrow flat strip of wood etc. on which clothes etc. are ironed.

Iron lung, a rigid case fitting over a patient’s body, used for administering artificial respiration for a prolonged period by means of mechanical pumps.

Iron out, to remove (difficulties etc.).

Iron pyrite, a mineral that is a sulfide of iron, pyrite: many irons in the fire, many undertakings or resources.

Iron bound (i-ôrn-bownd) adj. 1. bound with iron.
2. (of a coast) rugged, rocky.
3. rigid, inflexible, unyielding.

Iron clad (i-ôrn-klad) adj. 1. covered with or protected by iron.
2. rigid, exacting.

Iron ic (i-ôrn-ik), Iron ic cal (i-ôrn-i-käl) adj. using or expressing irony.

Iron ic ly adv.

Iron ing (i-ôrn-nîng) n. clothing etc. ironed or to be ironed.

Iron stone (i-ôrn-stôhn) n. 1. hard iron ore.
2. a kind of hard white pottery.

Iron ware (i-ôrn-wair) n. light articles made of iron.

Iron weed (i-ôrn-weed) n. a North American weedy plant with tubular red or purple flowers.

Iron wood (i-ôrn-wuud) n. 1. a tree with very hard wood, especially the hornbeam. 2. its wood.

Iron work (i-ôrn-wôrk) n. articles such as gratings, rails, railings, etc. made of iron.

Iron works (i-ôrn-wurks) n. a place where iron is smelted or where heavy iron goods are made.

Iron work er n.

Iron ny (i-rô-nee) n. (pl. -nies) 1. the expression of one’s meaning by using words of the opposite meaning in order to make one’s remarks forceful, as that will please him (used of something that will not please him at all).
2. (of an occurrence) the quality of being so unexpected or ill timed that it appears to be deliberately perverse.

Ir o qu ois (ir-ô-ko-wi, -kwoi) n. (pl. Ir o qu ois) 1. any of several Indian tribes of a powerful confederacy formerly inhabiting New York state. 2. a member of these tribes.

Iron a t i e (i-ray-di-ayt) v. (i-ray-di-at-ed, i-ray-di-at-ing) to shine upon, to subject to radiation.

Iron a tion al (i-ray-shôn) adj. 1. not rational, not guided by reasoning, illogical, irrational fears or behavior.
2. not capable of reasoning.

Iron a tion al ly adv.

Iron a t i on al i ty (i-ray-ô-nal-i-tee) n.

Iron ra tion al number (i-ray-ô-nal) n. a number not expressible by an ordinary finite proper or improper fraction.

Iron a l claim a ble (ir-ô-klây-mâ-bêl) adj. not to be reclaimed or reformed.

Iron a l re c on ci l a ble (i-ray-ô-sî-lâ-bêl) adj. unable to be reconciled.

Iron a l re c on ci l a bil ity (i-ray-ô-sî-lâ-bil-i-tee) n.

Iron a l re co ver a ble (i-ray-ô-kuv-ê-râ-bêl) adj. unable to be recovered.

Iron a l re co ver a b l y adv.

Iron a l re de em a ble (ir-i-dee-mâ-bêl) adj. unable to be redeemed.

Iron a l re de em a bly adv.

Iron a l re de m t is m (ir-i-den-tiz-êm) n. a policy that seeks to recover a linguistically or historically related area from foreign rule.

Iron a l re de m t ist n.

Iron a l re duc t i on (ir-ô-doo-sî-ôn) adj. unable to be reduced, an irreducible minimum.

Iron a l re duc t i on ly adv.

Iron a l ra ga ble (i-ray-ô-gâ-bêl) adj. indisputable, unanswerable.

Iron a l ra te a ble (i-ray-ô-ta-bêl) adj. unable to be refuted.

Iron a l ra te a bly adv.

Iron a l reg (i-ray-yû-ta-bêl) adj. not subject to rules or to established custom.
3. (of troops) not belonging to the regular armed forces.

Iron a l reg u lar n. a member of an irregular military force.

Iron a l reg u lar ly adv.

Iron a l reg u lar i ty (i-ray-ô-yû-lar-i-tee) n.

Iron a l re le v a nt (i-ray-e-vant) adj. not rele from a compound. l*so*la*tion* (i-sô-la-shôn) n.

l*so*la*tion*ism (i-sô-la-shôn-shôm) n.

the policy of holding aloof from other countries or groups. l*so*la*tion*ist n.

l*so*mer (i-sô-mêr) n. one of two or more substances composed of molecules having the same atoms differently arranged and therefore different properties. l*so*mer*ic* (i-sô-mer-ik) adj. l*so*mer*ism (i-sô-mer-izôm) n.

l*so*met*ric (i-sô-met-rïk) adj. 1. of equal measure or dimensions. 2. of isometrics. l*isometric* exercise, one of a system of physical exercises in which the muscles act against each other or against a fixed object.

l*so*met*rïcs (i-sô-met-rïks) n. isometric exercises.

l*so*prene (i-sô-pren) n. a volatile hydrocarbon liquid used in making synthetic rubber.

l*sos*ce*les (i-sôs-êz-êz) adj. (of a triangle) having two sides equal.

l*so*therm (i-sô-thurm) n. a line, drawn on a map, connecting places that have the same temperature. l*so*thermal adj.

l*so*ton* (i-sô-ton-ik) adj. 1. having the same osmotic pressure. 2. (of muscle action) taking place with normal contraction.

l*so*tope (i-sô-tohp) n. one of two or more forms of a chemical element with different atomic weight and different nuclear properties but the same chemical properties. l*so*top*ic (i-sô-top-ik) adj.

l*so*tical*ly adv.

l*sr. abbr. 1. Israel. 2. Israeli.

l*sra*el (iz-ree-êl, -ray-) 1. a country in the Middle East at the eastern end of the Mediterranean Sea. 2. the Hebrew nation of Biblical times, said to descend from Jacob whom God called Israel.

l*sra*el i (iz-ray-lee) n. (pl. -is) a native or inhabitant of Israel. Israeli adj. of the state of Israel or its inhabitants.

l*sra*el*ite (iz-ree-ê-lît) n. a member of the ancient Hebrew nation.

l*sue (ish-oo) n. 1. an outgoing or outflow. 2. the issuing of things for use or for sale, the number or quantity issued. 3. one set of publications in a series issued regularly, the May issue. 4. a result, an outcome. 5. the point in question, an important topic for discussion, what are the real issues? 6. offspring, died without male issue. lssue v. (is-sued, is-su*ing) 1. to come or go or flow out. 2. to supply or distribute for use, campers were issued blankets. 3. to put out for sale, to publish. 4. to send out, issue orders. 5. to result, to originate. ls*su*- er n. ls*su*ance n. l*at issue, being discussed or disputed or risked. join or take issue, to proceed to argue.

l*ist suffix used to form personal nouns meaning action or production, as in copyist; specialization in a subject, as in dentist; adherence to a creed or system, as in atheist; ability to play a musical instrument, as in pianist; operation of a device, as in balloonist.

l*isth*mus (is-mûs) n. (pl. -mus*es) a narrow strip of land connecting two masses of land that would otherwise be separated by water. l*ith-mi-an (ls-mi-an) adj.

l*it (it) pronoun 1. the thing mentioned or being discussed. 2. the person in question, who is it? It is I. 3. used as the subject of a verb making a general statement about the weather (as it is raining) or about circumstances etc. (as it is 35 miles to Boston) or as an indefinite object (run for it!). 4. used as the subject or object of a verb, with reference to a following clause or phrase, as it is seldom that he fails; I take it that you agree. 5. (informal) exactly what is needed, that's exactly it! 6. (slang) the end, he put the gun to my head and said, "This is it." 7. (in children's games) the player who has to catch others. See the note under its.

l*lt., Ital. abbr. 1. Italian. 2. Italy.

l*ital. abbr. 1. italic(s). 2. italicized.

l*tal*lan (i-tal-yân) adj. of Italy or its people or language. Italian n. 1. a native of Italy. 2. the Italian language.

l*tal*ic (i-tal-ik) adj. 1. (of printed letters) sloping like this. 2. (of handwriting) compact and pointed like an early form of Italian handwriting. Italian n. italics.

l*tal*l*ize (i-tal-i-siz) v. (i-tal-l*ized) l*tal*l*izing) to print (words) in italics, usually for emphasis or distinction.

l*tal*ics (i-tal-iks) n. sloping printed letters like these.

l*a*ly (it-à-lee) a country in southern Europe.

l*tch (ich) n. 1. an itching feeling in the skin. 2. a restless desire or longing. l*tch v. 1. to have or feel a tickling sensation in the skin, causing a desire to scratch the affected part. 2. to feel a restless desire or longing.itch*ry adj. (itch*ier, itch*i-er) l*tch*ly ness n. l*have an itching palm, to be greedy for money.

l*ite suffix used to form nouns meaning a resident or native, as in Muscovite; an adherent or follower, as in Pre-Raphaelite; a fossil or mineral, as in anthracite; a commercial product, as in dynamite, vulcanite.

l*tem (i-têm) n. 1. a single thing in a list or number of things. 2. a single piece of news in a newspaper or bulletin.

-ize (i-iz) v. (i-ized, i-izing) to list, to state the individual items involved. i-ization (i-iz-a-shun) n.

-ate (it-ayt) v. (it-ated, it-ation) to repeat.

-itinerant (i-itt-er-ant) adj. traveling from place to place, an itinerant preacher. itinerant n. a person who wanders from place to place.

-itinerant n. (i-iter-ant) adj. traveling from place to place, an itinerant preacher. itinerant n. a person who wanders from place to place.

-ity, or an instance or degree of this, as in monstrosity, humidity.

IUD abbr. intrauterine device.

IV abbr. intravenous. □ IV injection, an intravenous injection.

I've (iv) = I have.

-ive suffix-used to form adjectives meaning tending to or having the nature of, as in active, evasive, and nouns, as in captive, directive.

ivory (i-iv-ree) n. (pl. -ries) 1. the hard, creamy white substance forming the tusks of elephants etc. 2. an object made of this. 3. creamy white color. 4. ivories, (slang) piano keys, dice. ivory adj. creamy white. □ ivory tower, a place or situation where people live secluded from the harsh realities of everyday life.

ivy league, an association of colleges in the northeastern U.S.

IWW abbr. Industrial Workers of the World.

ix-i-a (ik-si-ä) n. a plant of the iris family.

-ize suffix used to form verbs meaning to treat in a specified way, as in monopolize; to follow a specified practice, as in gourmandize; to bring or come into a specified state, as in vaporize, Anglicize; to treat or act according to the method of, as in pasteurize; to impregnate with or affect with or provide with, as in oxidize, magnetize.
J, | (jay) (pl. Js, J’s, J’s) the tenth letter of the alphabet.
J, | abbr. joule(s).
J, abbr. 1. (in cards) jack. 2. journal. 3. justice.
jab (jab) v. (jabbed, jabbing) 1. to poke roughly, to thrust (a thing) into. 2. (in boxing) to hit with a short quick punch.
jab n. 1. a rough blow or thrust, especially with something pointed. 2. a short quick punch.
jabber v. 1. to talk rapidly and unintelligibly. 2. to chatter like monkeys.
jabber n. jabbering talk or sound.
jabber-er n.
jab-ber-wock-y (jab-er-wok-ee) n. (pl. -wock-ies) nonsensical writing or speech, especially for comic effect.
jabot n. ornamental frilling down the front of a shirt or blouse or dress.
ja-c-a-ran-da (jak-a-ran-da) n. a tropical American tree with trumpet-shaped blue flowers.
ja-cinth (jay-sinth) n. a reddish-orange gem, a variety of zircon.
jack (jak) n. 1. a portable device for raising heavy weights off the ground, especially one for raising the axle of a motor vehicle so that a tire may be changed. 2. a ship’s flag (smaller than an ensign) flown at the bow of a ship to show its nationality.
3. a playing card ranking below a queen in card games. 4. a small white ball aimed at in lawn bowling. 5. a male donkey. 6. a socket that accepts a plug in an electrical circuit. 7. a small six-pointed metal object used in the children’s game of jacks. 8. (slang) money. jack v. to raise with a jack. □ before you can say Jack Robinson, very quickly or suddenly. every man Jack, every individual man. Jack Frost, frost personified.
jack of all trades, a person who can do many different kinds of work.
jack-al (jak-al) n. a wild flesh-eating animal of Africa and Asia, related to the dog.
jack-a-napes (jak-a-nayps) n. an imper- titant or conceited person, especially a young man.
jack-ass (jak-as) n. 1. a male donkey. 2. (informal) a stupid or foolish person.
jack-boot (jak-boot) n. a large boot coming above the knee.
jack-daw (jak-daw) n. a European bird of the crow family.
jack-et (jak-it) n. 1. a short coat, usually reaching to the hips. 2. an outer covering; book jacket, a colored paper wrapper in which a bound book is issued. 3. the skin of a potato baked without being peeled, baked in their jackets.
jack’-et-ed adj.
jack-ham-mer (jak-ham-ér) n. a pneumatic hammer that breaks pavement, drills rock, etc.
jack-in-the-box (jak-in-the-boxes) n. (pl. -box-es) a toy figure that springs out of a box when the lid is lifted.
jack-knife (jak-nif) n. (pl. -knives) 1. a large pocket knife. 2. a dive in which the body is first bent double and then straightened. jackknife v. (jack- knifed, jack-knif-ing) (of a trailer truck) to fold one part against another as in an accident.
jack-leg (jak-leg) adj. (slang) 1. not trained for one’s work, incompetent. 2. makeshift.
jack-o’-lan-tern (jak-o-lan-tern) n. a hollowed-out pumpkin lantern with a carved face.
jack-pot (jak-pot) n. the accumulated stakes in various games, increasing in value until won. □ hit the jackpot, to have sudden great success or good fortune.
jack-rab-bit (jak-rab-it) n. a large hare of western North America with very long ears and legs.
jack-screw (jak-skroo) n. a device for lifting heavy loads, operated by turning a screw.

Jackson (jak-sôn) the capital of Mississippi.

Jackson, An-drew (1767-1845) the seventh president of the U.S. 1829-37.

Jack-straw (jak-straw) n. 1. a thin splinter of wood or plastic used in the game of jackstraws. 2. jackstraws, a game in which a heap of jackstraws is to be removed one at a time without disturbing the others.

Jack tar, Jack Tar (jak-tahr) (informal) a sailor.

Jac-o-be-an (jak-10-be-an) adj. of the reign of James I of England (1603-25).

Jac-o-bit (jak-10-bit) n. a supporter of James II of England after his abdication (1688), or of his exiled heirs.

Ja-co-b's (jay-kobz) ladder 1. a blue-flowered perennial plant with leaves giving a ladderlike appearance. 2. a rope ladder with wooden rungs for ascending a ship's rigging.

Jac-quard (jak-aehr-d) n. a fabric woven with an intricate figured pattern.

Jade (jayd) n. 1. a hard, green, blue, or white stone from which ornaments are carved. 2. the green color of jade.

Jad-ed (jay-did) adj. 1. feeling or looking tired and bored. 2. (of the appetite) dulled, lacking zest for food.

Jadeite (jay-diit) n. a rare form of jade.

Jaf-a (jaf-á) n. a large oval thick-skinned variety of orange, originally grown near the port of Jaffa in Israel.

Jag1 (jag) n. a sharp projection, as a point of rock.

Jag2 n. (slang) a drinking bout, a spree.

Jag-ged (jag-id) adj. having an uneven edge or outline with sharp projections.

Jag-uar (jag-wahr) n. a large fierce flesh-eating animal of the cat family, found in tropical America.

Jai lai (hr li, hr a-li) a game in which players use a long curved basket strapped to the arm to catch a small hard ball and throw it against the wall.

Jail (jail) n. a public prison. Jail v. to put in jail, to imprison.

Jail-er, Jail-er n.

Jail-bird (jail-burd) n. a person who is or has been in prison.

Jail-break (jail-brayk) n. an escape from jail.

Jain (jin) n. a member of an Indian sect (Jainism) with doctrines like those of Buddhism. Jain adj. of this sect.

Ja-ku-ta (jä-kahrt-tä) the capital of Indonesia.

Jal-ap (jal-äp) n. 1. a purgative drug obtained especially from the tuberous roots of a Mexican climbing plant. 2. this plant.

Ja-lop-y (jä-lop-é) n. (pl. -lop-les) a battered old car.

Ja-ou-sle (jal-ö-see) n. a slatted shutter or blind designed to admit air and light but not rain.

Jam1 (jam) v. (jammed, jam-ning) 1. to squeeze or wedge into a space, to become wedged. 2. to make (part of a machine) immovable so that the machine will not work, to become unworkable in this way. 3. to crowd or block (an area) with people or things. 4. to thrust or apply forcibly, jammed the brakes on. 5. to cause interference to (a radio transmission), making it unintelligible. 6. to participate in a jam session. Jam n. 1. a squeeze or crush or stoppage caused by jamming. 2. a crowded mass making movement difficult, traffic jams. 3. (informal) a difficult situation, I'm in a jam.

Jam session, improvised playing by a group of jazz musicians.

Jam2 n. a sweet substance made by boiling fruit with sugar to a thick consistency.

Jam. abbr. Jamaica.

Ja-mal-ca (jä-mäy-kä) a country in the Caribbean Sea. Ja-mal'can adj. & n.

Jamb (jam) n. the vertical side post of a doorway or window frame.

Jam-bo-ree (jam-bo-ree) n. 1. a large party, a celebration. 2. a large rally of Boy Scouts.

James (jaymz) n. a book of the New Testament traditionally ascribed to James, one of the twelve Apostles.

Jam-packed (jam-pakt) adj. (informal) packed full and tightly.

Jan-gle (jang-gel) n. a harsh metallic sound. Jangle v. (jan-gled, jan-gling) 1. to make or cause to make this sound. 2. to cause irritation to (nerves etc.) by discord.

Jan-i-tor (jan-i-tör) n. the caretaker of a building.

Jan-i-tress (jan-i-tris) n. fem.

Jan-i-tor-al (jan-i-tohr-i-al) adj.

Jan-um-ry (jan-yoo-cr-ee) n. the first month of the year.

Ja-pan (jä-pan) n. 1. a hard black varnish originating in Japan and used to produce a glossy finish. 2. work varnished and decorated in the Japanese style. Japan v. (Ja-panned, Ja-pan-ning) to cover with Japan.

Ja-pan (jä-pan) a country in eastern Asia.

Ja-pe-ne-se (jap-ä-neez) adj. & n. (pl. -nese) □ Japanese beetle, a bronze and green beetle introduced from Japan into the U.S., where the larvae and adult insects are major plant pests.

Jape (jayp) v. (japed, jap-ing) to joke or quip. Jape n. a joke or quip.
ja•pon•i•ca (já•pon•i•ká) n. an ornamental variety of quince, with red flowers.
jar1 (jahr) n. 1. a cylindrical container made of glass or earthenware. 2. this with its contents, the amount it contains.
jar2 v. (jarred, jar•ring) 1. to make a sound that has a discordant or painful effect. 2. (of an action etc.) to be out of harmony, to have a harsh or disagreeable effect. 3. to cause an unpleasant jolt or a sudden shock. jar n. a jarring movement or effect.
jar•di•niere (jahr-di•neer) n. a large ornamental pot for holding indoor plants.
jar•gon (jahr-gon) n. words or expressions developed for use within a particular group, hard for outsiders to understand, scientists' jargon.
jas•mine (jaz•min) n. a shrub with yellow or white flowers.
jas•per (jaz•per) n. an opaque variety of quartz, usually red, yellow, or brown.
ja•to (jay-to) n. (pl. -tos) jet-assisted takeoff, auxiliary jet engine(s) to provide temporary extra thrust at takeoff.
jaun•dice (jawn•dis) n. a condition in which the skin becomes abnormally yellow as a result of excessive bile in the bloodstream.
jaun•diced (jawn•dist) adj. 1. discolored by jaundice. 2. filled with resentment or jealousy.
jaunt (jawnt) n. a short trip, especially one taken for pleasure.
jaun•ty (jawn•tee) adj. (jaun•ti•er, jaun•ti•est) 1. cheerful and self-confident in manner. 2. (of clothes) stylish and cheerful. jaun•ti•ness n. jaun•ti•ly adv.
Ja•va (jab•va) an island of Indonesia. java n. (slang) coffee. java•nese (já•vá•neez) adj. & n.
java•e•lin (jav•e•lin) n. 1. a light spear. 2. a wooden or metal shaft thrown for distance in track and field meets.
jaw (jaw) n. 1. either of the two bones that form the framework of the mouth and in which the teeth are set. 2. the lower of these, the part of the face covering it. 3. jaws, something resembling a pair of jaws, as the gripping part of a tool, the jaws of a vise. jaw v. (slang) to talk long and boringly, to gossip.
jaw•bone (jaw•bohn) n. either of the bones of the jaw. jawbone v. (jaw•boned, jaw•bon•ing) (slang) to attempt to persuade.
jaw•break•er (jaw•bray•kèr) n. 1. a word that is very long or difficult to pronounce. 2. a very hard round candy.
jay (jay) n. any of several brightly colored chattering birds related to the crow.
jay•bird (jay•burd) n. a jay. □ naked as Japonica / Jekyll and Hyde 476

a jaybird, (informal) completely naked.
Jay•cee (jay•see) n. a member of a junior chamber of commerce.
Jay•vee (jay•vee) n. (informal) a member of a junior varsity team.
Jay•walk (jay•wawk) v. to walk across a street without observing the traffic regulations.
Jazz (jaz) n. 1. a kind of music (originally native American) with strong rhythm and much syncopation, often improvised. 2. (slang) a matter, especially something regarded as pretentious or as nonsense, talked of the honor of the firm and all that jazz. jazz v. to play or arrange as jazz. □ jazz up, to enliven, to brighten.

Jazz•y (jaz•ee) adj. (jazz•i•er, jazz•i•est) 1. of or like jazz. 2. (slang) flashy, showy, a jazzy sports car.
JCC abbr. Junior Chamber of Commerce.
J.C.S., JCS abbr. Joint Chiefs of Staff.
Jct. abbr. junction.
JD abbr. 1. juvenile delinquency. 2. juvenile delinquent.
jea•lous (jel•ús) adj. 1. feeling or showing resentment toward a person whom one thinks of as a rival. 2. taking watchful care, is very jealous of his own rights. jeal•ous•ly adv. jealous•y n. □ Do not confuse jealous with zealous.
jeans (jenz) n. pl. pants made of strong twilled cotton for informal wear. jeep (jeep) n. 1. a small sturdy military motor vehicle with four-wheel drive. 2. Jeep, (trademark) a similar civilian passenger car.
jeer (jeer) v. to laugh or shout at rudely and scornfully. jeer n. a jeering remark or shout.
Jef•fer•son (jef•ér•son) City the capital of Missouri.
Jefferson, Tho•mas (1743–1826) the third president of the U.S. 1801–09.
Je•ho•vah (jè•hoh•vá) the name of God in the Old Testament. □ Jehovah's Witnesses, a Christian sect believing that the end of the world is near for all except its own adherents, and rejecting allegiance to any country.
je•june (ji•joon) adj. 1. meager, not nourishing. 2. insipid, unsatisfying to the mind. 3. childish.
je•ju•num (ji•joo•núm) n. the part of the small intestine between the duodenum and the ileum. je•ju•nal adj.

Jek•yll and Hyde (jek•il•án hir’d) a person having a dual personality, one good and the other evil. □From a story by Robert Louis Stevenson in which the hero could transform himself from the respectable Dr. Jekyll into the evil Mr. Hyde by means of a potion that he drank.

jell (jel) v. 1. to set as jelly. 2. to take definite form, our ideas began to jell.

jel-ly (jel-ee) n. (pl. -lies) 1. a soft solid food made of liquid set with gelatin or pectin, especially one made of strained fruit juice and sugar. 2. a substance of similar consistency, petroleum jelly. jelly v. (jel-ied, jel-ly-ing) = jell (definition 1). □jelly roll, a thin flat sponge cake spread with fruit jelly or jam and rolled up.

jel-ly-bean (jel-ee-been) n. a bean-shaped candy consisting of chewy filling and a hard sugar coating.

jel-ly-fish (jel-ee-fish) n. (pl. -fish-es, -fish) a sea animal with a jelly-like body and stinging tentacles.

jen-net (jen-it) n. 1. a small Spanish horse. 2. a female donkey.

jen-ny (jen-ee) n. (pl. -nies) a female donkey.

jeopard-i-ze (jep-är-di-ziz) v. (jeop-ard-ized, jeop-ard-iz-ing) to endanger.

Jer. abbr. Jeremiah.

jer-boa (jér-boh-ä) n. a small ratlike animal of the North African desert, with long hind legs used for leaping.

jer-e-mi-ad (jer-ë-mi-ad) n. a long mournful lament about one's troubles. △Named after Jeremiah, a Hebrew prophet (7th–6th centuries B.C.) and the book of the Old Testament containing his account of the troubles of the Israelites.

Jer-e-mi-ah (jer-ë-mi-ä) n. the book of the Old Testament containing the prophecies of Jeremiah (see the previous entry).

jerk (jurk) n. 1. a sudden sharp movement, an abrupt pull or push or throw. 2. (slang) a stupid or insignificant person. jerk v. to pull or throw or stop with a jerk, to move with a jerk or in short uneven movements.

jer-k-in (jur-kin) n. a sleeveless jacket.

jerk-wat-er (jerk-waw-tér) adj. (informal) rustic (town), slow (train), unimportant (person). jerkwater n.

jer-k-y (jur-ke) adj. (jerk-l-er, jerk-l-est) making abrupt starts and stops, not moving or acting smoothly. jerk'l-ly adv. jerk'l-ness n.

Jer-ry-built (jer-ee-bilt) adj. built badly and with poor materials.

jer-sey (jur-zë) n. (pl. -seys) 1. plain machine-knit fabric used for making clothes. 2. a closefitting knitted pullover with sleeves.

Jer-sey (jur-zë) n. (pl. -seys) one of a breed of light-brown dairy cattle.

Jer-ru-sa-lem (jë-ru-saw-lëm) 1. the ancient capital of Judea; the holy city of the Jews, sacred also to Christians and Muslims. 2. the capital of modern Israel.

jes (jes) n. a short strap around the legs of a hawk used in falconry.

jes-a-min (jes-ä-min) n. = jasmine.

jest (jest) n. a joke. jest v. to make jokes. □In jest, in fun, not seriously.

jet-er (jer-ë) n. 1. a person who makes jokes. 2. a professional entertainer at a king's court in the Middle Ages.

Jes-us (jee-zus) the founder of the Christian religion.

jet (jet) n. 1. a hard black mineral that can be polished, used as a gem. 2. its color, deep glossy black. jet-black adj.

jet (jet) n. 1. a stream of water, gas, or flame etc. shot out from a small opening. 2. a spout or opening from which this comes, a burner on a gas stove. 3. a jet engine, a jet-propelled aircraft. jet v. (jet-ted, jet-ting) 1. to spurt in jets. 2. (informal) to travel or convey by jet-propelled aircraft. □jet engine, an engine using jet propulsion to give forward thrust. jet lag, delayed physical effects of tiredness etc. felt after a flight across time zones in a jet-propelled aircraft. jet propulsion, propulsion by engines that give forward thrust by sending out a high-speed jet of gases etc. at the back. jet set, wealthy people who make frequent air journeys between social or business events. jet stream, a narrow current of strong westerly winds in the upper troposphere.

jet-port (jet-pohrt) n. (informal) an airport designed for jet aircraft.

jet-sam (jet-sam) n. goods thrown overboard from a ship in distress to lighten it, especially those that are washed ashore. △Do not confuse jetsam with flotsam.

jet-ti-son (jet-i-són) v. 1. to throw (goods) overboard, especially to lighten a ship in distress. 2. to discard (what is unwanted).

jet-ty (jet-ee) n. (pl. -ties) a structure extending into a body of water, used to protect a harbor or coast from the influence of currents or tides, or as a wharf.

jeu d'es-prit (zhuu des-pree) (pl. jeux d'es-prit, pr. zhuu des-pree) a piece of witty or humorous speech or writing. △French.

Jew (joo) n. 1. a person of Jewish descent, or one whose religion is Judaism. □Jew's harp, a musical instrument consisting of a small U-shaped metal frame held in the teeth while a springy metal strip joining its ends is twanged with a finger.

Jew·el (joo-éł) n. 1. a precious stone. 2. an ornament for wearing, containing one or more precious stones. 3. a person or thing that is highly valued. △Jewel v. to adorn or furnish with jewels.

Jew·eled (joo-éld) adj. ornamented or set with jewels.

Jew·el·ry (joo-é-ler-ee) n. a person who makes or deals in jewels or jewelry.

Jew·el·weed (joo-é-lee-weed) n. any of several plants having yellow flowers sometimes marked with reddish-brown spots.

Jew·ish (joo-ish) adj. of Jews.

Jew·ry (joo-ree) n. the Jewish people.

Jez·e·bel (jéz-é-béll) n. a shameless woman.

Jig, Jig·gled (jib, jib·bed, jib·bing) n. a triangular sail stretching forward from the mast. 2. the projecting arm of a crane. □Jib v. (jibbed, jib·bing) to refuse to proceed in some action; jibbed at it, showed unwillingness or dislike. □the cut of a person's jib, (informal) his general appearance.

Jibe (jib) v. (jibed, jib·ing) (informal) to fit or agree with, your information jibes with mine. △Do not confuse jibe with gib or jive.

Jid·da (jíd-á) the administrative capital of Saudi Arabia.

Ji·fy (jí-ee) n. (informal) a moment, in a jiffy.

Jig (jig) n. 1. a lively jumping dance, the music for this. 2. a device for holding a piece of work and guiding the tools working on it. □Jig v. (jigged, jig·ging) 1. to dance a jig. 2. to move up and down rapidly and jerkily. □the jig is up, (slang) success is now impossible.

Jig·ger (jig·ger) n. a measure of spirits etc., a glass holding this amount.

Jig·gle (jig·gel) v. (jig·ged, jig·ging) to rock or jerk lightly. Jiggle n. a jiggling movement. △Jig·gy adj.

Jig·saw (jig-saw) n. 1. a thin machine saw that moves vertically and is used in cutting curved or irregular lines. 2. a Jigsaw puzzle, a picture pasted on wood or cardboard and cut into irregular pieces which are then shuffled and reassembled for amusement.

Ji·had (ji-hahd) n. 1. a Muslim holy war against unbelievers. 2. a campaign against a doctrine, policy, etc.

Jilt (jilt) v. to drop or abandon (a person) after having courted or promised to marry him or her. Jilt n. a person who jilts another. Jilt·er n.

Jim Crow, Jim crow (jim kroh) the segregating of or discriminating against blacks in the U.S. Jim Crow·ism (jim kroh·iz-ém).

Jill·an·dey (jim-dan-dee) adj. (informal) of excellent quality.

Jim·my (jim-ee) n. (pl. -mies) a short crowbar with curved ends, used by burglars to pry open doors and windows etc. □Jimmy v. (jim·med, jim·my·ing) to force open with a jimmy.

Jim·son·weed (jim·sohn) a highly poisonous tall weed having large trumpet-shaped purple or white flowers.

Jin·gle (jing·gél) v. (jin·ged, jin·gling) to make or cause to make a metallic ringing or clinking sound like that of small bells or of keys struck together. □Jingle n. 1. a jingling sound. 2. verse or words with simple catchy rhymes or repetitive sounds.

Jin·goh·iz·ém (jing-goh-iz-ém) n. an aggressive attitude combining excessive patriotism and contempt for other countries.

Jin'go·list adj. & n. Jin·go·lis·tic (jing-goh·lis·tik) adj.

Jink (jink) v. to dodge by turning suddenly and sharply. □High jinks, noisy merry-making, boisterous fun.

Jinn (jin), Jin·ni (ji-nee) n. (pl. Jinn) (in Islamic mythology) a spirit lower than the angels, with supernatural power over men.

Jin·rick·sha (jin·rick·shaw) n. rickshaw.

Jinx (jingks) n. a person or thing that is thought to bring bad luck.

Jit·ney (jit·nee) n. (pl. -neys) a small bus or taxi carrying passengers at low rates.

Jitter·bug (jit·ter·bug) n. (informal) extreme nervousness.

Jitter·bug·ging (jit·ter·bug·ging) v. to dance the jitterbug.

Jiu·jitsu (jul·jitsu).

Jive (jiv) n. (slang) 1. fast lively jazz music, dancing to this. 2. the jargon of jazz musicians and jazz fans. 3. unintelligible and foolish talk. □Jive v. (jived, jiv·ing) (slang) 1. to talk jive, especially if trying to deceive. 2. to perform or dance to jive music. Do not confuse jive with jibe or gibes.

Joint a. abbr. joint.

Job n. 1. a piece of work to be done. 2. (slang) a robbery or other criminal act. 3. something completed, a product of work, did a good job. 4. a paid position of employment, got a job at the factory. 5. something one has to do, a responsibility, it’s your job to lock the gates. 6. (informal) a difficult task, you’ll have a job to move it. Job n. (jobbed, jobbling) 1. to do jobs, to hire out for a definite time or job, we jobbed out the work. 2. to act as a middleman, wholesaler, or jobber. Job action, an organized protest by employees forbidden by law to strike. Job bank, a computerized data file to help place unemployed workers in suitable jobs. Job lot, a collection of miscellaneous articles bought together.

Job (job) n. the book of the Old Testament containing the story of Job, a Hebrew patriarch who suffered great misfortunes. Job’s comforter, a person who aggravates the distress of the person he is supposed to be comforting. Patience of Job, great patience, like that of Job in the face of tribulation.

Jobber (job-er) n. 1. a businessman who purchases merchandise from a manufacturer and sells it to retailers. 2. a person who does odd jobs or works by the job, a pieceworker.

Job-hold-er (job-hohl-der) n. a person having a steady or regular job.

Job-less (job-lis) adj. unemployed, out of work. Job’less-ness n.

Jock (jok) n. (slang) an athlete.

Jockey n. (jock-ee) n. (pl. -eys) a person who rides horses in horse races, especially a professional rider. Jockey v. (jock-eyed, jock-ey-ling) to maneuver in order to gain an advantage, jockeying for position; jockeyed him into doing it, forced him by skillful or unfair methods.

Jockstrap (jok-strap) n. a support or protective covering for the male genitals, worn while taking part in sports.

Jo-cose (joh-kohs) adj. joking.

Joc-und (jok-und) adj. merry, cheerful.

Jodhpurs (jod-purrs) n. pl. riding breeches reaching to the ankle, fitting closely below the knee and loosely above it.

Jog (jog) v. (jogged, jog-ging) 1. to give a slight knock or push to, to shake with a push or jerk. 2. to rouse or stimulate, jogged his memory. 3. to move up and down with an unsteady movement. 4. (of a horse) to move at a jogtrot. 5. to run at a leisurely pace, as a form of exercise. Jog n. 1. a slight shake or push, a nudge. 2. a slow walk or trot. Jog’ger n.

Jog (jog) 2. n. 1. a section of a line or surface that juts out or recedes. 2. a change of course or direction.

Jog-gle (jog-egl) v. (jog-gled, jog-gling) to shake slightly, to move by slight jerks. Joggle n. a jogging movement, a slight shake.

Jog-trot (jog-trot) n. a slow regular trot.

John (jon) n. 1. (slang) a toilet. 2. (slang) a prostitute’s client.

John (jon) n. 1. one of the twelve apostles and traditional author of the fourth Gospel, three Epistles, and the Book of Revelation. 2. the fourth Gospel.

John Bull (jon buul) a typical Englishman, Englishmen as a whole.

John Doe (jon doh) a name used in legal proceedings for a fictitious person or an unidentified one whose real name is unknown.

John-ny (jon-ee) n. (pl. -nies) (slang) a gown worn by hospital patients.

John-ny-come-late-ly (jon-ee-kum-clay-tee) n. (pl. -late-lies) (informal) a recently arrived person, an upstart.

John-ny-jump-up (jon-ee-jump-up) n. a small type of pansy, grown especially in rock gardens.

John-son (jon-s6n), An-drew (1805–75) the seventeenth president of the U.S. 1865–69.

John-son (jon-s6n), Lyndon Balnes (1908–73) the thirty-sixth president of the U.S. 1963–69.

Jole de vi-vre (zhvah dé vee-vref) a feeling of great enjoyment of life. French = joy of living.

Join (join) v. 1. to put together, to fasten or unite or connect. 2. to come together, to become united, the Missouri joins the Mississippi near St. Louis, meets and flows into it. 3. to take part with others in doing something, joined in the chorus. 4. to come into the company of, joined us for lunch. 5. to become a member of, joined the Navy. Join battle, to begin fighting. Join forces, to combine. Join hands, to clasp each other’s hands to work cooperatively. Join up, to enlist in the armed forces.

Join (join) n. 1. a person who makes doors, interior moldings, window sashes, and other woodwork that is lighter than a carpenter’s products. 2. (informal) a person who readily joins clubs and organizations.

Joint (joint) n. 1. a place where two things are joined. 2. a structure in an animal body by which bones are fitted together, especially where the structure allows movement of the bones in relation to each other, knee joint; ball-and-socket joint. 3. a place or device at which two parts of a structure are joined. 4. one of the parts into which a butcher divides a carcass, this cooked and served. 5. (slang) a place where people meet for gambling or drinking etc. 6. (slang) a marijuana cigarette. joint adj. 1. shared or held or done by two or more people together, a joint account. 2. sharing in an activity etc., joint authors. joint v. 1. to connect by a joint or joints. 2. to divide (a carcass) into joints. □joint-stock company, a business company with stock held jointly by a number of people who may independently sell or transfer their shares. out of joint, dislocated; in disorder, the times are out of joint.

joint-ly (joint-lee) adv. so as to be shared or done by two or more people together.

jost (jost) n. one of the parallel beams, extending from wall to wall, on which floor boards or ceiling laths are fixed.

joke (johk) n. 1. something said or done to cause laughter. 2. a ridiculous person or thing or circumstance. joke v. (joked, jok-ing) to make jokes. jok-ing-ly adv. □it's no joke, it is a serious matter.

jok-er (joh-kər) n. 1. a person who jokes. 2. (slang) a fellow. 3. an extra playing card used in certain card games as the highest trump. 4. a clause unobtrusively inserted in a bill or document and affecting its operation in a way not immediately apparent.

jol-li-ty (jol-li-tee) n. (pl.-ties) being jolly, merriment, merrymaking.

jol-ly (jol-lee) adj. (jol-li-er, jol-li-est) 1. full of high spirits, cheerful, merry. 2. cheerful because slightly drunk. 3. very pleasant, delightful. jolly adv. (chiefly British informal) very, jolly good. jolly v. (jol-lied, jol-ly-ing) (in-formal) to keep (a person) in a good humor, especially in order to win his cooperation, jolly him along. □Jolly Roger, the pirates' black flag with a white skull and crossbones.

jolt (johl-t) v. 1. to shake or dislodge with a jerk. 2. to move along jerkily, as on a rough road. jolt n. 1. a jolting movement. 2. a surprise or shock. 3. (slang) a drink of whiskey.

jon-gleur (jong-glär) n. a wandering min-jon-quill (jong-kwil) n. a kind of narcissus with clusters of fragrant flowers.

Jor-dan (jor-dán) 1. a river flowing south into the Dead Sea. 2. a country in the Middle East, bordering on the east of Israel. Jor-da-ni-an (jor-day-ni-án) adj. & n.

josh (josh) v. (informal) to joke or tease.

Josh. abbr. Joshua.

Josh-u-a (josh-oo-á) n. the sixth book of the Old Testament, telling of the conquests of Joshua, the successor to Moses as leader of Israel.

Joshua tree a tree-like plant of the southwestern U.S. having branches like outstretched arms.

joss (jos) n. a Chinese idol. □joss stick, a thin stick that burns to give off a smell of incense.

jos-tle (jos-él) v. (jos-tled, jos-tling) to push roughly, especially when in a crowd.

jot (jot) n. a very small amount, not one jot or tittle. jot v. (jot-ted, jot-ting) to write briefly or hastily, jot it down.

jot-tings (jot-ingz) n. pl. jotted notes.

joule (jool) n. a unit of energy.

jounce (jouns) v. (jounced, jounc-ing) to bump, bounce, or jolt. jounce n. a jouncing motion.

jou. abbr. journal.

jour-nal (jur-nál) n. 1. a daily record of news or events or business transactions. 2. a newspaper or periodical.

jour-nal-ese (jur-nál-éez) n. a style of language used in inferior newspaper and magazine writing, full of hackneyed or artificially elaborate phrases.

jour-nal-ist (jur-nál-ist) n. a person employed in writing for a newspaper or magazine. jour-nal-ist-m (jur-nálist-m) n. jour-nal-istic (jur-nálist-tik) adj.

jour-ney (jur-nee) n. (pl. -neys) 1. a course of travel, a trip. 2. the distance traveled or the time required for this, a day's or four days' journey. journey v. (jour-neyed, jour-ney-ing) to make a journey.

jour-ney-man (jur-nee-mán) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mén) 1. a workman who has completed his apprenticeship and works for an employer. 2. a reliable workman.

joust (just, jowst) n. a formal combat or tilting match with lances between two mounted knights in armor. joust v. to participate in a joust.

Jove (johv) Jupiter, the king of the gods in Roman mythology. □by Jove, an exclamation of surprise.

jo-vi-al (joh-vi-ál) adj. full of cheerful jowl (jowl) n. the jaw or cheek.

jowl n. loose skin on a person's or animal's lower jaw or throat. jowl'y adv.

joy (joi) n. 1. a deep emotion of pleasure, gladness. 2. a thing that causes delight. joy'ful adv. joy'ful-ness n.

joy-less (joi-les) adj. without joy. joy'ous adj. joyful. joy'ous-ly adv.

joy-ride (joi-rud) n. a reckless automobile ride taken for the pleasure of speed, danger, etc.

J.P. abbr. justice of the peace.

Jr. abbr. Junior.

ju-bi-lant (joo-bi-lant) adj. showing joy, rejoicing. ju'bi-lant-ly adv.

ju-bi-la-tion (joo-bi-lay-shaun) n. rejoicing.

ju-bi-lee (joo-bi-lee) n. 1. a special anniversary, silver (25th) or golden (50th) or diamond (60th) jubilee. 2. a time of rejoicing.

ju-da-ic (joo-da-ik) adj. of Judaism or Jews.

ju-da-ic-al (joo-da-ik-ool) adj. relating to Jews or their religion, especially books and artifacts relating to Jewish history and culture.

ju-da-ism (joo-deez-izm) n. the religion of the Jewish people, with belief in one God and based on the teachings of the Old Testament and the Talmud.

ju-das (joo-das) n. a betrayer or traitor. (Named after Judas Iscariot, who betrayed Christ.) Judas tree (joodus tree) a tree with purplish-pink flowers appearing in the spring before the leaves, supposed to be the tree on which Judas hanged himself.

Jude (jood) n. the last epistle of the New Testament, ascribed to Jude, one of the twelve Apostles.

Judg. abbr. Judges.

judge (juj) n. 1. a public officer elected or appointed to hear and try cases in a court of law. 2. a person appointed to decide who has won a contest. 3. a person who is able to give an authoritative opinion on the merits of something. 4. any of the leaders of Israel between the time of Joshua and that of the kings. judge v. (judged, judg'ing) 1. to try (a case) in a court. 2. to act as judge of (a contest etc.). 3. to form and give an opinion about. 4. to estimate, judged the distance accurately.

judg'ment (juj-ment) n. 1. judging, being judged. 2. the decision of a judge etc. in a law court, the judgment was in his favor. 3. ability to judge wisely, good sense, he lacks judgment. 4. misfortune considered or jokingly said to be a punishment sent by God, it's a judgment on you! 5. an opinion, in the judgment of most people. Judgment Day or Day of Judgment, the day of the Last Judgment, when, according to Christian belief, God will judge all mankind.

ju-di-ca-to-ry (joo-di-kay-tur-ree) adj. having to do with the administration of justice.

ju-di-ca-ture (joo-di-kay-chur-ree) n. 1. the administration of justice. 2. judicial (definition 2).

ju-di-cial (joo-di-shul) adj. 1. of law courts or the administration of justice. 2. of a judge or judgment, a judicial decision. 3. able to judge things wisely, a judicial mind. ju-di-cal-ly adv.

ju-cli-ar-y (joo-di-shul-ee-ree) n. (pl. -ar-ies) 1. the judicial branch of government. 2. a system of courts of law and their judges. judiciary adj. of courts of law or judges or judicial decisions.

ju-di-cious (joo-di-shus) adj. judging wisely, showing good sense, a judicious action. ju-di-cious-ly adv.

ju-do (joo-do) n. a Japanese system of unarmed combat, based on jujitsu.

ju-do-ist (joo-do-ist) n. a student of or an expert in judo.

jug (jug) n. 1. a vessel for holding and pouring liquids, with a handle and a shaped lip. 2. (slang) prison, in the jug. jug'ful n. (pl. -fuls).

jug-ger-naut (jug-er-nawt) n. a large overwhelmingly powerful object or institution etc. Juggernaut was the title of a Hindu god whose image was drawn in procession on a huge wheeled vehicle, devotees are said to have thrown themselves under its wheels.

jug-gle (jug-egl) v. (jug-gled, jug-gling) 1. to toss and catch a number of objects skillfully for entertainment, keeping one or more in the air at one time. 2. to manipulate skillfully when handling several objects. 3. to rearrange (facts or figures) in order to achieve something or to deceive people.

jug-gler (jug-gler) n. a person who juggles, an entertainer who performs juggling tricks.

jug-u-lar (jug-yu-lar) n. a jugular vein, one of the great veins of the neck, carrying blood from the head. go for the jugular, to attack with intent to kill or to defeat decisively.

juice (joos) n. 1. the fluid content of fruits or vegetables or meat. 2. fluid secreted by an organ of the body, the digestive juices. 3. (slang) electricity. 4. (slang) gasoline used in an engine etc. □ juice up, (slang) to enliven.
juic-er (joo-sər) n. a machine that extracts juice from fruits or vegetables.
juic-y (joo-see) adj. (julc'-i-er, julc'-i-est) 1. full of juice. 2. (informal) interesting, especially because of its scandalous nature, juicy stories. julic'-i-ly adv. julic'-i-ness n.
Juls-su (joo-jilt-soo) n. a Japanese system of self-defense in which special holds or maneuvers are used to turn an opponent's strength and weight against him.
Ju·jube (joo-joob) n. 1. the fleshy edible fruit of a spiny tree. 2. a chewy fruit-flavored candy.
Juke·box (jook-boks) n. a machine that automatically plays a selected record when a coin is inserted.
Ju·lep (joo-lip) n. 1. a tall drink of liquor, sugar, shaved ice and flavoring, especially mint. 2. a sweet syrupy drink, especially one containing medicine.
Ju·lli-an (joo-li-an) Calendar the calendar introduced by Julius Caesar, since replaced by the Gregorian calendar.
Ju·lli·enne (joo-li-en) adj. (of vegetables or meats) cut into long thin strips. jullenne n. a clear meat soup containing julienne vegetables.
Ju·ly (joo-li) n. (pl. -lies) the seventh month of the year.
Jum·ble (jum-bəl) v. (jum-bled, jum·bling) to mix in a confused way. jumble n. articles jumbled together, a muddle.
Jum·bo (jum-boh) n. (pl. -bos) something very large of its kind. jumbo adj. □ jumbo jet, a very large jet aircraft able to carry several hundred passengers.
Jump (jump) v. 1. to move up off the ground etc. by bending and then extending the legs or (of fish) by a movement of the tail. 2. to move suddenly with a jump or bound, to rise suddenly from a seat etc; jump in, to get quickly into a car etc. 3. to pass over by jumping, to use (a horse) for jumping. 4. to pass over (a thing) to a point beyond, to skip (part of a book etc.) in reading or studying. 5. to give a sudden movement from shock or excitement. 6. to rise suddenly in amount or price or value. 7. to leave (rails or a track) accidentally. 8. to pounce on, to attack suddenly. Jump n. 1. a jumping movement. 2. a sudden movement caused by shock etc. 3. a sudden rise in amount or price or value. 4. a sudden change to a different condition or set of circumstances, a gap in a series etc. 5. an obstacle to be jumped over. □ have the jump on, (slang) to have an advantage over. Jump at, to accept eagerly. Jump ball, to fail to come for trial when summoned after being released on bail. Jump ball, (in basketball) a ball tossed up between two players by the referee to start or resume play. Jump down a person's throat, to reprimand him severely. Jumping bean, the seed of a Mexican plant that jumps owing to the movement of an enclosed larva.
Jumping-off point or place, a starting point. Jump on, to reprimand or criticize a person or situation. Jump rope, a children's game in which one jumps over a twirling rope; the rope used. Jump ship, (of a seaman) to desert one's ship. Jump suit, a one-piece garment for the whole body, like that worn by paratroops. Jump the gun, to start or act before the permitted time. Jump to conclusions, to reach them too hastily. Jump to it, to make an energetic start. Jump up and down, to show great happiness, eagerness, etc., they were jumping up and down for joy. one jump ahead, one stage ahead of one's rival. the jumps, (slang) extreme nervousness.
Jump·er1 (jum-pər) n. 1. a person or animal that jumps, is a good jumper. 2. a short wire used to make or break an electrical circuit. □ jumper cables, cables for conveying current from one battery to recharge another.
Jump·er2 n. a dress without sleeves or collar, worn over a blouse or sweater.
Jump·off (jump-awf) n. a deciding round between competitors with equal scores in a horse-riding contest.
Jump·y (jump-pee) adj. (jump-i-er, jump-i-est) nervous.
Junc. abbr. junction.
Jun·co (jung-koh) n. (pl. -cos, -coes) a North American finch with a slate-gray body and white tail feathers.
Junc·tion (jungk-shən) n. 1. a place where things join or cross. 2. a place where roads or railroad lines etc. meet and unite or cross.
Junc·ture (jungk-chər) n. a point of time, a critical convergence of events.
June (joon) n. the sixth month of the year.
Ju·neau (joo-noh) the capital of Alaska.
Jun·gle (jung-gəl) n. 1. land overgrown with tangled vegetation, especially in the tropics. 2. a wild tangled mass. 3. a scene of struggle, the blackboard jungle (in schools), concrete jungle (in cities).
Junior (joon-yər) adj. 1. younger in age (used to distinguish a son from a father with the same name). 2. lower in rank or authority, junior faculty. 3. for juniper / juvenile young persons, junior membership. 4. of the next-to-last year in a high school or college. junior n. 1. a junior person; he is my junior, he is younger than I am. 2. a student in the junior year of high school or college. 3. (informal) the son in a family. □ junior college, one offering courses for only the first two years of college studies. junior high school, a school generally including grades 7, 8, and 9. junior size, (of clothing) made for women of slight frame. junior varsity, an athletic team whose members do not qualify for the varsity.

juniper (joo-ni-per) n. an evergreen shrub with prickly leaves and dark purplish berries.

junk^1 (jungk) n. 1. discarded material, trash. 2. (informal) anything regarded as useless or of little value, all that junk in the trunk of the car. 3. (slang) a narcotic drug, heroin. □ junk food, food having low nutritional value and usually high in calories. junk mail, unsolicited advertising matter sent via the postal service. junk shop, a shop selling miscellaneous cheap secondhand goods.

junk^2 n. a kind of flat-bottomed ship with sails, used in the China seas.

junk^k er (jung-kär) n. an old worn-out motor vehicle useful only for scrap metal.

Jun^ker (yung-kär) n. (old use) a member of the militaristic Prussian aristocracy.

jun^ket (jung-kit) n. 1. a sweet custard-like dessert made of flavored milk curdled with rennet. 2. a trip taken by a public official at public expense. junket v. to make a trip at public expense.

junk^le (jung-kle) n. (slang) a drug addict.

junk ta (huun-tä, juun-) n. a group of people who combine to rule a country, especially having seized power after a revolution.

jup^ter (joo-pi-tér) 1. a planet in the solar system. 2. the supreme god in Roman mythology.

ju^ras sic (joo-ruaz-ik) adj. of the middle geologic period of the Mesozoic era, when dinosaurs and the earliest mammals existed. Jurassic n. the Jurassic period.

jui r^id i cal (juu-rid-i-käl) adj. 1. of judicial proceedings. 2. relating to the law.

jui r^id i cal ly adv.

ju^ris dic^tion (joor-is-dik-shön) n. 1. authority to interpret and apply the law. 2. official power exercised within a particular sphere of activity. 3. the extent or territory over which legal or other power extends.

ju^ris dic^tion al adj.

ju^ris pru^d ence (joor-is-proo-dêns) n. the study of law or of a particular part of law, medical jurisprudence.

ju^rist (joor-ist) n. a person skilled in the law, as an eminent judge or lawyer.

ju^ris tic (juu-ris-tik) adj. 1. of a jurist or jurists. 2. legal, created by law.

ju^ron (joor-ôr) n. a member of a jury.

ju^ry^1 (joor-ee) n. (pl. -ries) 1. a body of people sworn to give a verdict on a case presented to them in a court of law. 2. a body of people appointed to select the winner(s) in a competition. □ jury box, an enclosure for the jury in a court of law. ju^ry^2 man (joor-ee-män) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mën) ju^ry^ wom^an (joor-ee-wuüm-än) n. (pl. -wom^en, pr. -wim-in).

jury adj. (in nautical use) temporarily replacing something broken or lost, a jury mast; jury-rigged.

just (just) adj. 1. giving proper consideration to the claims of everyone concerned. 2. deserved, right in amount etc., a just reward. just adv. 1. exactly, just at that spot. 2. barely, no more than, by only a short distance, I just managed it; just below the knee. 3. at this moment or only a little time ago, he has just gone. 4. (informal) simply, merely, we are just good friends. 5. really, certainly, it's just splendid.

just'ly adv. just'ness n.

just about, (informal) almost exactly or completely. just in case, as a precaution. just now, at this moment; a little time ago. just so, exactly arranged, she likes everything just so; it is exactly as you say.

just^tice (jus-tis) n. 1. just treatment, fairness. 2. legal proceedings, a court of justice. 3. a magistrate. 4. a judge, the title of a judge, Mr. Justice Brandeis. □ do justice to, to show (a thing) to advantage; to show appreciation of.

just^tice of the peace, a nonprofessional magistrate.

just^ti^fl^a^ble (jus-ti-fl-at-bêl) adj. able to be justified. just'fi a^bly adv.

just^ti^fl^y (jus-ti-fi) v. (jus-ti-fl^ed, just^ti^fl^y^ing) 1. to show (a person or statement or act etc.) to be right or just or reasonable. 2. to make free from blame or guilt. 3. to be a good or sufficient reason for, increased production justifies an increase in wages. 4. to adjust (a line of type in printing) so that it fills a space neatly. just^ti^fl^a^ti^on (jus-ti-fl-kay-shön) n.

jut (jut) v. (jut^ted, jut^ting) to project, it juts out.

jute (joot) n. a fiber from the bark of certain tropical plants, used for making sacks, rope, etc.

juv. abbr. juvenile.

ju^ve^nile (joo-vë-nil) adj. 1. youthful, childish. 2. for young people. juvenile
n. a young person. juvenile delinquency, illegal behavior by a young offender, below the age when he may be held legally responsible for his actions.
juvenile delinquent, such an offender. juvenile (joo-ven-uhl) n. pl. the works produced by an author or artist in his youth.
juvenile delinquency (juk-sta-pon) n. (juxta-posed, jux-ta-posing) to put (things) side by side. juvenile delinquency (juk-sta-poh-zish-uhn) n.
JV abbr. junior varsity.
K, k (kay) (pl. Ks, K's, k's) the eleventh letter of the alphabet.
K abbr. 1. Kelvin. 2. kindergarten. 3. (in chess) king. 4. knight.
K symbol potassium.
k. abbr. 1. (in electricity) capacity. 2. karat(s). 3. kilogram(s). 4. (in chess) king. 5. kitchen.
Kaa-ba (kah-bah) n. a shrine at Mecca containing a sacred black stone.
Ka-bob (kah-bob) = kebob.
Ka-bu-kl (kah-boo-kee) n. a traditional popular Japanese drama with highly stylized song and dance, acted by males only.
Kaa-bul (kah-boot) the capital of Afghanistan.
Kad-dish (kah-dish) n. (pl. Kad-dishim, pr. kah-dish-im) a Jewish prayer in praise of God, especially a form of this recited by mourners.
Kaffee klatsch (kah-fay klahch) = coffee klatsch.
Kal-ser (kah-zehr) n. the title of the German and Austrian emperors until 1918.
Kale (kayl) n. a kind of cabbage with curly leaves that do not form a compact head.
Ka-lei-do-scope (kah-lei-do-skope) n. a toy consisting of a tube containing small brightly colored fragments of glass etc. and mirrors that reflect these to form changing patterns.
Kaf-fei klatsch (kah-fay klahch) = coffee klatsch.
Kals (kayz) n. the title of the German and Austrian emperors until 1918.
Kame (kaym) n. a short ridge of sand and gravel deposited from the water of a melted glacier.
Kam-i-ka-ze (kah-mee-kah-zee) n. 1. a World War II Japanese aircraft laden with explosives and deliberately crashed by its pilot on its target. 2. its pilot.
Kampa-la (kahm-pah-lah) the capital of Uganda.
Kam-long (kahm-long) n. an enclosure or village in parts of southeast Asia where Malay is spoken.
Kam-poo-lee-a (kahm-poo-lee-ah) a country in Asia, formerly Cambodia.
Kangaroo (kang-ga-roo) n. (pl. -roos, -roo) an Australian animal that jumps along on its strong hind legs, the female having a pouch on the front of the body in which young are carried. Kangaroo court, a court formed illegally by a group of people (such as prisoners or strikers) to settle disputes among themselves.
Kan-sas (kan-zas) a state of the U.S.
Kao-lin, ka-o-line (kay-oh-lin) n. a fine white clay used in making porcelain and in medicine.
Kap-kut (kah-poot) adj. (slang) done for, ruined, out of order.
Kar-a-kul (kah-rah-kul) 1. an Asian sheep whose young have dark curled fleece. 2. its fur.
Kar-aat (kah-rah-t) n. a measure of the purity of gold, pure gold being 24 karats.
Karate (kah-rah-tee) n. a Japanese system of unarmed combat in which the hands and feet are used as weapons.
Karma (kah-rmah) n. 1. (in Buddhism and Hinduism) the sum of a person's actions in one of his successive existences, thought to decide his fate for the next. 2. fate, destiny. Kar'mic adj.
Karst (kahrst) n. a region with underground drainage and many cavities etc. caused by dissolution of rock. From the name of such a region in Yugoslavia.
Kart (kahrt) n. a miniature racing car with a low-slung skeleton body. Kart'ing n.
Kasha (kah-shah) n. buckwheat groats, a dish prepared from these.
Katan-do (kat-man-doo) the capital of Nepal.
Kat-tid-did (kay-tid-did) n. any of several large green North American insects related to grasshoppers and crickets and producing a characteristic noise, from which they get their name.
Kaye (kay) n. 1. an Eskimo canoe with a sealskin covering closed around the waist of the occupant. 2. a small covered canoe resembling this.
kennel v. (ken-neled, ken-neled, ken-neled) to put into a kennel.

key no (kee-noh) n. a gambling game resembling bingo.

Ken-tuck-y (ken-tuk-ee) a state of the U.S. Ken-tuck’i-an adj. & n. □ Ken-tucky bluegrass, a grass found especially in Kentucky and Virginia, used as pasture and for hay. Kentucky Derby, see derby.

Ken-ya (keen-ya) a country in east Africa. Ken’yan adj. & n.

ke-pli (kee-pye) n. (pl. ke-plis) a French military cap with a visor.

kept (kept) see keep.

ker-a-tin (ker-a-tin) n. a strong protein forming the basis of horns, claws, nails, feathers, hair, etc. ke-ra-ti-nous (ke-rat-i-nus) adj.

ker-chief (kur-chief) n. a square scarf worn on the head.

kerf (kurf) n. a slit made by cutting, especially with a saw.

ker-nel (kur-nel) n. 1. the softer (usually edible) part inside the shell of a nut or stone fruit. 2. the part of a grain or seed within the husk. 3. the central or important part of a subject or plan or problem etc.

ker-o-se-nen (ker-o-seen) n. a fuel oil distilled from petroleum etc.

ketch (kech) n. a small sailing boat with two masts.

ketch-up (kech-up) n. a thick sauce made from tomatoes and vinegar etc., used as a seasoning.

ket-tie (ket-ē) n. a metal container with a spout and handle, for boiling water in.

kett-lie (ket-ē) n. a percussion instrument consisting of a hollow shaped body over which a skin is stretched.

key1 (kee) n. (pl. keys) 1. a small piece of metal shaped so that it will move the bolt of a lock and so lock or unlock something. 2. a similar instrument for winding a clock or tightening a spring etc. 3. something that provides access or control or insight, the key to the mystery: a key industry, one that is important to other industries and to a country’s economy. 4. a set of answers to problems, a word or list of symbols for interpreting a code etc. 5. a system of related notes in music, based on a particular note, the key of C major. 6. the general tone or degree of intensity of something; all in the same key, monotonous in character. 7. one of a set of levers to be pressed by the fingers in playing a musical instrument or operating a typewriter etc. key v. (keyed, key-ing) to link closely with something else, the factory is keyed to the export trade. key adj. central, all-important, the key parts to the puzzle.

key club, a private club to which each member has a personal door key. keyed up, stimulated, nervously tense. key money, payment demanded from an incoming tenant, nominally for the provision of the key to the premises. key ring, a ring on which keys are kept.

key2 n. a low offshore island or reef, especially in the West Indies or off the coast of Florida. □ keyhole, a small-bladed saw for cutting holes etc.

key-note (kee-noht) n. 1. the note on which a key in music is based. 2. the prevailing tone or idea of a speech etc. □ keynote speech or address, a speech, especially at a political convention, stating basic policies and principles.

key-punch (kee-punch) n. a machine for recording coded data by punching holes in cards for later processing by a computer. keypunch v. to punch with holes in this way. key’ punch’ er n.

key-stone (kee-stohn) n. 1. the central wedge-shaped stone at the summit of an arch, locking the others in position. 2. a central principle etc. on which all depends, the keystone of her philosophy.

key-word (kee-wurd) n. the key to a cipher etc.

kg. abbr. kilogram(s).

KGB abbr. the secret police of the U.S.S.R. since 1954.

kha-kl (kak-ee) adj. 1. dull brownish yellow. 2. made of khaki fabric. khaki n. (pl. -kis) 1. the color of khaki. 2. khaki cotton fabric used in the army for field uniforms. 3. such a uniform.

khan (kahn) n. 1. the title of rulers and officials in central Asia, Afghanistan, etc. 2. the supreme ruler of Turkish, Tartar, and Mongol tribes, and emperors of China, in the Middle Ages.

Khar-toum (kahr-toom) the capital of Sudan.

khe-dive (kē-deev) n. the title of the viceroy of Egypt under Turkish government, 1867–1914.

kHertz abbr. kilohertz.

KIA abbr. killed in action.

kib-ble (kib-ē) v. (kib-bled, kib-bling) to grind coarsely, to crush into small pieces. kibble n. the product of kibbling, especially dry pet food.
kibbutz (ki-buuts) n. (pl. kib-but-zim, pr. ki-buut-seem) a communal settlement in Israel.
kibbutznik (ki-buuts-nik) n. a member of a kibbutz.
kibitz (ki-bzts) v. (informal) 1. to watch and comment on a game of cards. 2. to give advice that is not sought or appreciated.
kibitz-er n. (informal).
kibosh (ki-bosh) n. (slang) nonsense.
put the kibosh on, (slang) to put an end to.
kick (kik) v. 1. to strike or thrust or propel with the foot. 2. (in football) to score by kicking, he kicked (for) the extra point. 3. to treat contemptuously, gets kicked around. 4. (of a gun) to recoil when fired. 5. (informal) to complain.
kick n. 1. an act of kicking, a blow from being kicked. 2. (informal) a thrill, a pleasurable effect, get a kick out of it; did it for kicks. 3. (slang) an interest or activity, the health food kick. 4. the recoil of a gun when it is fired. 5. (informal) a complaint, I'm tired of their kicks.
kicker n. 1. one alive and kicking, (informal) fully active. kick in, (slang) to contribute. kick off, to start a football game by kicking the ball; (informal) to start (proceedings). kick out, (informal) to drive out forcibly; to dismiss. kick over, (informal) to start (an engine); (of an engine) to start. kick over the traces, see trace. kick the bucket, (slang) to die. kick the habit, (slang) to give it up. kick up, (informal) to create (a fuss or noise). kick up one's heels, to show great energy or initiative. kick upstairs, to promote (a person) to a higher position, which is in fact less influential, in order to get rid of him.
kickback (kik-bak) n. 1. a sharp reaction. 2. (informal) a payment for help in making a profit etc.
kickoff (kik-off) n. 1. (in football) a kick made to start play. 2. (informal) the start of an activity, kickoff of our campaign.
kickspeed (kik-stand) n. a metal bar used to keep a two-wheeled vehicle upright when not in use.
kicky (kik-ee) adj. (kick-er, kick-y) (slang) vivacious, charming, exciting.
kid (kid) n. 1. a young goat. 2. leather made from its skin. 3. (slang) a child.
kid n. (kid-dee, kid-ding) 1. to give birth to a young goat. 2. (informal) to deceive (especially for fun), to tease. kidder n. kid-ding-ly adv. kid gloves, kidskin gloves. kid-glove treatment, tactfulness. kid stuff, (informal) something easy or childish.
kidnap (kid-nap) v. (kid-napped or kid-napped, kid-nap-ing or kid-nap-ling) to carry off (a person) by force or fraud in order to obtain a ransom.
kidnap per n.
kidney (kid-nee) n. (pl. -neys) 1. either of a pair of organs that remove waste products from the blood and secrete urine. 2. this as food. kidney bean, an oval-shaped bean, especially one that is deep red. kidney machine, an apparatus that performs the functions of a kidney. kidney stone, a small hard mass that sometimes forms in the kidney.
kidskin (kid-skin) n. the leather made from the skin of a young goat.
kiel-basa (kil-bah-sah) n. (pl. -basas, -bas-ey, pr. -bah-see) a Polish sausage.
Kigali (kee-gah-lee) the capital of Rwanda.
kil (kil) v. 1. to cause the death of (a person), to destroy the vitality of (a plant etc.). 2. to put an end to (a feeling etc.); kill a light or an engine, switch it off. 3. to make (a color) seem insipid by contrast. 4. to spend (time) unprofitably while waiting for something. 5. (slang) to cause severe pain to, my feet are killing me. 6. (slang) to consume completely, they killed a quart of Scotch. kill n. 1. the act of killing. 2. the animal(s) killed by a hunter. killer n. in at the kill, present at the time of victory. kill off, to get rid of by killing. kill two birds with one stone, to achieve two purposes with one action. kill with kindness, to harm with excessive kindness. make a killing, to have a great financial success.
killdeer (kil-deer) n. a large American ring plover.
killjoy (kil-joy) n. a person who spoils the enjoyment of others.
kiln (kiln) n. an oven for hardening or drying things such as pottery or bricks or hops, or for burning lime.
kiloliter (ki-los) n. (pl. kilos) a kilogram.
kilo- prefix one thousand.
kilo- cycle (kil-o-si-kel) n. 1. 1000 cycles as a unit of wave frequency. 2. (informal) kilohertz.
kilo-gram (kil-o-gram) n. the basic unit of mass in the International System of Units (2.205 lbs.).
kilo-hertz (kil-o-hurts) n. (pl. -hertz) a unit of frequency of electromagnetic waves, = 1000 cycles per second.
kilo-liter (kil-o-lee-tar) n. 1000 liters. kilometer (ki-lom-ee-tar) n. a distance of 1000 meters (0.62 mile). kil-o-ton (kil-ô-tun) n. 1. 1000 tons. 2. a unit of explosive powder equivalent to 1000 tons of TNT.

kil-o-volt (kil-ô-vohlit) n. 1000 volts.

kil-o-watt (kil-ô-wot) n. the power of 1000 watts.

kil-o-watt-hour (kil-ô-wot-owr) n. an amount of energy equal to one kilowatt operating for one hour.

kilt (kilt) n. a knee-length pleated skirt of tartan wool, worn as part of a Scottish Highland man's dress or by women and children.

kil-ter (kil-tër) n. (informal) good working order. □ out of kilter, not working properly.

ki-mo-no (ki-mô-no) n. (pl. -nos) 1. a long loose Japanese robe with wide sleeves, worn with a sash. 2. a dressing gown resembling this.

kin (kin) n. (pl. kins) a person's relative(s).

kind (kind) n. a class of similar things or animals, a type. □ a kind of, something that belongs approximately to the class named, he is a kind of stockbroker.

in kind, (of payment) in goods or natural produce, not in money; repaid his insolvency in kind, by being insulting in return. kind of, (informal) slightly, I felt kind of sorry for him. of a kind, similar.

It is incorrect to say these kind of cards. Say this kind when you mean one kind; these kinds, when you mean more than one kind.

kindly adj. gentle and considerate in one's manner or conduct toward others. kindliness n.

kin-der-garten, kin-der-gahr-tén (kin-dër-gahr-tén) n. a school or class for very young children.

kin-der-gar-ten, kin-der-gahr-ten-er (kin-dër-gahr-tër) n. a child in kindergarten.

kind-heart-ed (kind-hahr-tid) adj. having a kind heart, sympathetic to others.

kind-die (kin-dë) v. (kin-dëd, kin-dling) 1. to set on fire, to cause (a fire) to begin burning. 2. to arouse or stimulate, kindled our hopes. 3. to become kindled.

kindling (kin-dling) n. small pieces of wood for lighting fires.

kind-ly (kind-lee) adj. (kind-li-er, kind-li-est) kind in character or manner or appearance. kindly adv. 1. in a kind way. 2. please, kindly shut the door. kindliness n. □ not take kindly to, to be displeased by.

kindred (kin-drid) n. a person's relative(s). kindred adj. 1. related. 2. of similar kind, chemistry and kindred subjects.

□ a kindred spirit, a person whose interests or tastes are similar to one's own.

kine (kin) n. pl. (old use) cows, cattle.

kin-e-mat-i-cs (kin-e-mat-iks) n. the science of pure motion, considered abstractly without reference to force or mass. kin-e-mat-ic adj. kin-e-mat-i-cal adj. kin-e-mat-i-cal-ly adv.

kin-e-scope (kin-e-skohp) n. 1. a television picture tube. 2. a motion picture made from a picture appearing on a kinescope.

ki-ne-sics (ki-ne-siks) n. the study of body movements (shrigs etc.) contributing to communication. ki-ne-slíc adj.

ki-ne-the-sia (kin-e-the-si-ah) (kin-is-thee-zhá) n. the sensation of bodily position or of strain or movement of the muscles, tendons, etc. of one's body. kin-es-thet-ic (kin-is-thet-ik) adj.

ki-net-ic (ki-net-ik) adj. of or produced by movement, characterized by movement. □ kinetic art, art that depends for its effect on the movement of some of its parts, as in air currents. kinetic energy, see energy.

kin-folk (kin-fohk), kin-folks (kin-fohks) n. pl. a person's relative(s).

king (king) n. 1. a man who is the supreme ruler of an independent country by right of succession to the throne. 2. a person or thing regarded as supreme in some way; king of beasts, the lion. 3. a large species of animal, king penguin. 4. the piece in chess that has to be protected from capture. 5. a piece in checkers that has been crowned on reaching the opponent's end of the board. 6. a playing card bearing a picture of a king and ranking next above queen. 7. Kings, two historical books of the Old Testament covering the kingdom of Judah from the death of David to the destruction of the Temple. king'less adj. □ king crab, a large marine crab having a horseshoe-shaped shell; any of several large edible crabs.

king's pawn, knight, bishop, etc., that closest to the king's side of the chessboard at the start of the game.

king-bolt (king-bohtl) n. a main or large bolt.

king-dom (king-döm) n. 1. a country ruled by a king or queen. 2. the spiritual reign of God; thy Kingdom come, may the rule of God be established. 3. a division of the natural world, the animal or vegetable kingdom. □ kingdom come, (slang) the next world.

king-fish-er (king-fish-ér) n. a small bird with bright bluish plumage that dives to catch fish.

King (king) James (jaymz) Version an Authorized Version of the Bible, used by Protestants, prepared during the reign of James I of England.

king-ly (king-lee) adj. (king-li-er, king-kiss (kис) n. 1. a touch or caress given with the lips. 2. a small candy, especially of chocolate. kiss v. 1. to touch with the lips in affection or as a greeting or in reverence. 2. (of billiard balls etc.) to touch lightly. □kiss of death, an apparently friendly act causing ruin.

kiss·er (кис'э́р) n. (slang) the 'mouth or face.

klt (кит) n. 1. the clothing and personal equipment of a soldier etc. or a traveler. 2. the equipment needed for a particular activity or situation, a first-aid kit; a shaving kit. 3. a set of parts sold together to be assembled, in kit form. □the whole kit and caboodle, (informal) everyone and everything, the whole lot.
kitch·en (кит-э́н) n. a room in which meals are prepared. □kitchen garden, a garden for growing one's own fruit and vegetables. kitchen police, military personnel assigned to help the cooks; this work.

kitch·en·ette (кит-э́н-э́т) n. a small room or an alcove used as a kitchen.
kitch·en·ware (кит-э́н-вэ́р) n. equipment used in the kitchen.
kite (кит) n. 1. a large bird of prey of the hawk family. 2. a toy consisting of a light covered framework, to be flown in a strong wind on the end of a long string. □go fly a kite, (slang) go away, leave.
kith (кит) n. kith and kin, kinfolk, one's friends and relatives.
kitsch (китс) n. pretentiousness and lack of good taste in art, art of this type.
kitt·en (кит-э́н) n. the young of a cat or certain other small mammals. kitten v. to give birth to kittens. kitt·ten·ish adj.

have kittens, (slang) to be very agitated or nervous.
kitty (кити) n. (pl. -ties) a cat, especially a kitten.
kissy (киси) n. (pl. -ties) 1. the pool of stakes to be played for in some card games. 2. a fund of money for communal use.
k·w·i (кви-ви) n. (pl. -вис) 1. a New Zealand bird that does not fly, with a long bill, rudimentary wings, and no tail. 2. Kiwi, (informal) a New Zealander.

K.J.V. abbr. King James Version.

KKK abbr. Ku Klux Klan.
klop·per (клон-эр) n. a kippered herring. kipper v. to cure (fish) by splitting, cleaning, and drying it in the open air or in smoke.

Kl·o·wa (клон-ва) n. (pl. -ва, -вас) 1. a member of a tribe of Plains Indians of the southwestern U.S. 2. the language of this tribe.
klop·per (клон-эр) n. a kippered herring. kipper v. to cure (fish) by splitting, cleaning, and drying it in the open air or in smoke.

Kl·r·gh·z·ia (кир-геэ-зэ́) a republic of the U.S.S.R. bordering on China.
kirk (керк) n. (Scottish) a church.
kirsch (кёрш) n. a colorless brandy made from the juice of cherries.
kis·met (киз-ми́т) n. destiny, fate.
knee (nee) n. 1. the joint between the thigh and the lower part of the human leg, the corresponding joint in animals. 2. the part of a garment covering this. 3. the upper surface of the thigh of a sitting person, sit on my knee. 4. something shaped like a bent knee. knee v. (kneed, knee'ed, knee'ing) to touch or strike with the knee. □ fall on or to one's knees, to kneel. knee breeches, breeches reaching to or just below the knee. knee jerk, an involuntary jerk of the leg when a tendon below the knee is struck.

knee-cap (nee-kap) n. the small bone covering the front of the knee joint.

knee-deep (nee-deep) adj. of or in sufficient depth to cover a person up to the knees; knee-deep in work, deeply occupied.

knee-hole (nee-hohl) adj. (of a desk) with space for the knees between pedestals fitted with drawers.

kneel (neel) v. (kneelt, kneel-ed, kneel-ing) to take or be in a position where the body is supported on the knees with the lower leg bent back, especially in prayer or reverence. kneel'er n.

knee-length (nee-length) adj. reaching to the knees.

knell (nel) n. the sound of a bell tolled solemnly after a death or at a funeral.

knelt (nel't) see kneel.

knew (noo) see know.

knick'ers (nik-érz) n. pl. (formerly knick'er-ock'ers, pr. nik-ér-bok-érz) men's loose-fitting breeches gathered in at the knee.

knick-knack (nik-nak) n. a small ornamental article.

knife (nit) n. (pl. knives, pr. navz) 1. a cutting instrument or weapon consisting of a sharp blade with a handle. 2. the cutting blade of a machine. knife v. (knifed, knife-ed) to cut or stab with a knife. □ go under the knife, to have a surgical operation. knife in the back, to betray secretly, on a knife edge, in a situation involving extreme tension or anxiety about the outcome.

knight (nit) n. 1. a man of noble birth and military status in the Middle Ages. 2. (British) a man given a certain rank as an honor by the sovereign and addressed as "Sir." 3. a chess piece, usually with the form of a horse's head. knight v. to confer a knighthood on. knight'ly adv. □ knight errant, a medieval knight wandering in search of chivalrous adventures; a person of chivalrous or quixotic spirit.

knight-hood (nitz-huud) n. the rank of knight.

knish (knish) n. a dumpling of flaky dough filled with mashed potato, meat, etc. and baked or fried.

knit (nit) v. (knit-ted, or knit, knitt-ing) 1. to make (a garment or fabric etc.) from yarn formed into interlocking loops either by long needles held in the hands or on a machine. 2. to form (yarn) into fabric etc. in this way. 3. to make a plain (not purl) stitch in knitting. 4. to unite or grow together, the broken bones were knitting well; a well-knit frame, compact bodily structure. knit n. a garment or fabric made by knitting. knit'ter n. □ double knit, see double. knit one's brow, to frown.

knit-ting (nit-ing) n. work in the process of being knitted. □ knitting needle, one of the long needles used for knitting by hand. tend to one's knitting, (informal) to look after one's responsibilities.

knit-wear (nit-wair) n. knitted garments.

knob (nob) n. 1. a rounded projecting part, especially one forming the handle of a door or drawer or for controlling a radio, television, etc. knob'ed adj.

knob-by (nob-ee) adj. (-bi-er, -bi-est) with many small projecting lumps.

knock (nok) v. 1. to strike with an audible sharp blow. 2. to make a noise by striking something, as at a door to summon a person or gain admittance. 3. (of an engine) to make a thumping or rattling noise while running. 4. to drive or make by knocking, knocked a hole in it. 5. (slang) to say critical or insulting things about, stop knocking the schools. knock n. 1. an act or sound of knocking. 2. a sharp blow. 3. (in an engine) knocking. □ knock around or about, to treat roughly; to wander aimlessly. knock down, to hit (a person) with one's fists until he falls; to dispose of (an article) at auction; to take apart (furniture, displays, etc.); (slang) to earn (money), he knocks down $300 a week. knock knees, an abnormal inward curving of the legs at the knees. knock off, (informal) to cease work; to deduct (an amount) from a price; (informal) to complete (a specified amount of work), he knocked off a day's work in four hours; (slang) to steal; (slang) to kill (a person). knock out, to make unconscious by hitting on the head, to disable (a boxer) in this way so that he is unable to rise or continue in a specified time; (informal) to exhaust or disable, he felt knocked out after work. knock the spots off, to be easily superior to.

knock'er (nok-er) n. 1. a person who knocks. 2. a hinged metal flap for rapping against a door to summon a person.
knock-out (nok-owt) n. 1. a blow that knocks a boxer out. 2. a boxing match that ends when one contestant is knocked out. 3. (slang) an outstanding or irresistible person or thing. □ knockout drops, liquid added to a drink to cause unconsciousness when swallowed.

knock-wurst (nok-wurst) n. a short thick seasoned sausage.

knoll (nohl) n. a small hill, a mound.

knot (not) n. 1. an intertwining of one or more pieces of thread or rope etc. to fasten them together. 2. a tangle. 3. a hard mass in something, especially on a tree trunk where a branch joins it. 4. a round cross-grained spot in timber where a branch joined. 5. a cluster of people or things. 6. a unit of speed used by ships at sea and by aircraft, = one nautical mile per hour. knot v. (knot-ted, knotting) 1. to tie or fasten with a knot; my stomach knotted up, gave me severe pain. 2. to entangle. 3. (slang) to tie the score in a game. □ tie in knots, (informal) to make (a person) baffled or confused. tie the knot, (informal) to get married.

knot-hole (not-hohl) n. a hole in timber formed where a knot has fallen out.

knot-ty (not-ee) adj. (knot-tl-er, knot-tl-est) 1. full of knots. 2. puzzling, full of problems or difficulties. □ knotty pine, pine timber used for interior paneling in which the knots are decorative.

knout (nowt) n. a flogging whip formerly used in Russia.

know (nok) v. (knew, known, know-ling) 1. to have in one's mind or memory as a result of experience or learning or information. 2. to feel certain, I know I left it here! 3. to recognize (a person), to have had social contact with, to be familiar with (a place). 4. to recognize with certainty, knows a bargain when she sees one. 5. to understand and be able to use (a subject or language or skill), she knows how to please people; knows better than to do that, is too wise or well-mannered to do it. □ in the know, (informal) having inside information. know one's mind, to know firmly what one wants or intends. know the ropes, see rope.

know-a-ble (nok-a-bel) adj. able to be known.

know how (nok-how) n. practical knowledge or skill in a particular activity.

know-ing (nok-ing) adj. showing knowledge or awareness, showing that one has inside information. know'ing-ly adv.

know-it-all (nok-it-awl) n. a person who behaves as if he knows everything.

knowl-edge-a-ble (nol-i-jah-bel) adj. well-informed.

knuck-le (nuk-ell) n. 1. a finger joint. 2. the knob at an animal's joint. knuckle v. (knuck-led, knuck-ling) to strike or press or rub with the knuckles. □ brass knuckles, a metal device worn over the knuckles to protect them and increase the injury done by a blow. knuckle down, to begin to work earnestly. knuckle under, to yield, to submit.

knuck-le-bone (nuk-ell-bohn) n. a bone forming the knuckle.

knuck-le-dus-ter (nuk-ell-dus-ter) n. (slang) brass knuckles.

knuck-le-head (nuk-ell-hed) n. (informal) a stupid person. knuck'le-head-ed adj.

knurled (nurl) n. a small projecting knob or ridge to assist in gripping an object.

K.O., KO (kay-oh) n. (pl. K.O.'s, KO's) (slang) knockout. K.0. v. (slang) to knock out; K.O.'d, KO'd, knocked out.

ko-a-la (koh-ah-lah) n. (also koala bear) an Australian tree-climbing animal with thick gray fur and large ears, feeding on the leaves of the eucalyptus tree.

K. of C. abbr. Knights of Columbus.

kohl-ra-bi (kohl-rah-bee) n. (pl. -bies) a plant with an edible turnip-shaped stem.

ko-la (koh-lah) nut the seed of a West African tree, used as a condiment and in making soft drinks.

ko-llin-sky (koh-lin-skkee) n. (pl. -skies, pr. -skeez) the fur of a Siberian mink.

kook (kook) n. (slang) a foolish or eccentric person. kook'y adj. (kook'-i-er, kook'-i-est) kook'-i-ness n.

kook-a-bur-ra (kuuk-ah-bur-ra) n. an Australian bird of the kingfisher family whose cry sounds like wild laughter.

ko-peck, ko-pek (koh-pek) n. a Russian coin, one-hundredth part of a rouble.

ko-ran (koh-rahn) n. the sacred book of the Muslims containing the revelations of Muhammad, written in Arabic.

ko-re-a (koh-ree-uh) a country in Asia, divided between the Republic of Korea (= South Korea) and the Democratic People's Republic of Korea (= North Korea). Ko-re'an adj. & n.

ko-sher (koh-sher) adj. (of food etc.) conforming to the requirements of Jewish dietary laws.

ko-to (koh-toh) n. a Japanese musical instrument with thirteen long silk strings.

kow-tow (koh-tow, kow-tow) v. to behave with exaggerated respect toward a person. □ The kowtow was a former Chinese custom of touching the ground with one's forehead as a sign of worship or submission.

KP abbr. kitchen police.

k.p.h., kph, K.P.H., KPH abbr. kilometer(s) per hour.

Kr symbol krypton.

kraal (krahl) n. (in South Africa) 1. a village of huts enclosed by a fence. 2. an enclosure for cattle or sheep.

kraut (krowt) n. (informal) sauerkraut.

krau-lin (krem-lin) n. 1. a citadel within a Russian town, especially that of Moscow. 2. the Kremlin, the government of the U.S.S.R.

Krem-lin-o-logist (krem-li-nol-o-jist) n. an expert in the study of the government and policies of the Soviet Union.

Kremlin-ology n.

Krish-na (krish-nā) n. an incarnation of Vishnu, a popular Hindu deity.

kro-nā (kroh-nā) n. the unit of money in Sweden (pl. -nör, pr. -nör) and Iceland (pl. -nūr, pr. -nūr).

kro-ne (kroh-nē) n. (pl. -ner, pr. -nēr) the unit of money in Denmark and Norway.

Kru-ger-rand (kroo-gur-rand) n. a South African one-ounce gold coin bearing a portrait of President Kruger (1825–1904).

kryp-ton (krip-ton) n. a gaseous chemical element.

KS abbr. Kansas.

kt. abbr. 1. karat. 2. kiloton. 3. knot.

Kt. abbr. 1. Knight. 2. (in chess) knight.

Kua-la Lum-pur (kwah-lā lum-poor) the capital of Malaysia.

ku-dos (koo-dohz) n. (informal) honor and glory. • This word is always singular: all the kudos she received has made her conceited.

kud-zu (kood-zoo) n. a rapid-growing Chinese and Japanese vine, now grown in the U.S. primarily to prevent soil erosion.

Ku Klux Klan (koo klucks klān) a secret society hostile to blacks, originally formed in the southern states after the Civil War.

ku-lak (koo-lakh) n. (in the U.S.S.R.) a peasant proprietor working for his own profit.

kūm-mel (kim-ēl) n. a sweet liqueur flavored with caraway seeds.

kum-quat (kum-kwot) n. a plum-sized fruit like an orange with a sweet rind and acid pulp.

kung fu (kung foo) a Chinese form of unarmed combat, similar to karate.

Kurd (kurd) n. a member of a pastoral people of Kurdistan, a mountainous region of east Turkey, north Iraq, and northwest Iran. Kurd'ish adj. & n.

Kuwait (koo-wayt) 1. a country in the Middle East, bordering on the Persian Gulf. 2. its capital city. Ku-wat-tl (koo-way-tee) adj. & n. (pl. -tls).

kv, kV abbr. kilovolt(s).

kw, kW abbr. kilowatt(s).

kwash-ī-or-kor (kwash-ee-or-kor) n. a tropical disease of children, caused by lack of protein in the diet.

kwh, kWn abbr. kilowatt-hour(s).

Ky., KY abbr. Kentucky.

ky-pho-sis (ki-foh-sis) n. an abnormal curvature of the spine, convex backward.
L, 1 (el) (pl. La, L's, l's) 1. the twelfth letter of the English alphabet. 2. Roman numeral symbol for 50.
I abbr. 1. lake. 2. left. 3. line 4. liter(s).
L (el) n. something shaped like the letter L.
L abbr. large.
L abbr. 1. left. 2. length. 3. line 4. lire.
L abbr. 1. lake. 2. Latin. 3. left.
la (lah) n. a name for the sixth note of a scale in music.
La symbol lanthanum.
LA abbr. Louisiana.
La. abbr. Louisiana.
lab (lab) n. (informal) laboratory.
Lab. abbr. Labrador.
la-bel (lay-big) n. 1. a slip of paper or cloth or metal etc. fixed on or beside an object and showing its nature, owner, name, destination, or other information about it. 2. a descriptive word or phrase classifying people etc. label v. (la-beled, la-bel-ing) 1. to attach a label to. 2. to describe or classify, he was labeled a troublemaker.
la-bi-a see labium.
la-bi-al (lay-bi-ál) adj. of the lips.
la-bile (lay-big-1) adj. unstable, liable to displacement or change.
la-bi-um (lay-big-1m) n. (pl. la-bi-a, pr. lay-bi-á) a lip of the female genitals. □labia ma-jó-ra (má-johr-á), mi-no-ra (mi-nohr-á), the fleshy outer folds, the inner folds.
la-bor (lay-bör) n. 1. physical or mental work, exertion. 2. a task; a labor of Hércules, a herculean task. 3. the pains or contractions of the uterus at childbirth. 4. workers, working people distinguished from management or considered as a political force. labor v. 1. to exert oneself, to work hard. 2. to have to make a great effort, to operate or progress only with difficulty, the engine was laboring. 3. to treat at great length or in excessive detail, I will not labor the point. □Labor Day, a public holiday in honor of working people, celebrated in the U.S. and Canada on the first Monday of September, a similar holiday in other countries, often celebrated on May 1. labor union, an organized association of employees of an industry or group of allied industries formed to protect and promote their common interests.
lab-o-ra-to-ry (lay-ru-tor-é) n. (pl. -ries) a room or building equipped for scientific experiments or research etc.
lab-bored (lay-bord) adj. showing signs of great effort, not spontaneous, forested.
lab'er (lay-bor) n. a person employed to do unskilled manual work.
lab-in-ten-sive (lay-born-ten-siv) adj. (of an industry) needing to employ many people.
lab'o-ri'ous (lá-bör-i-ús) adj. 1. needing much effort or perseverance. 2. hardworking. lab'or-ly adv.
lab-sav-ing (lay-bör-say-ning) adj. designed to reduce the amount of work or effort needed.
Lab-ra-dor (lab-rá-dor) a region of Canada. Labrador n. (also Labrador retriever) a retriever dog of a breed with a smooth black or golden coat.
lab-ra-dor-ite (lab-rá-daw-rit) n. a feldspar with several changing colors.
la-bur-num (lá-bor-núm) n. an ornamental tree with hanging clusters of yellow flowers.
lab'y-rinth (lab-linth) n. a complicated network of paths through which it is difficult to find one's way. lab'y-rin-thine (lab-linth-in) adj.
lac-co-lith (lák-0-lith) n. a dome-shaped intrusion of igneous rock from beneath sedimentary rock.
lace (lays) n. 1. fabric or trimming made in an openwork design. 2. a cord or narrow leather strip threaded through holes or hooks for pulling opposite edges together and securing them. lace v. (laced, lac-ing) 1. to fasten with a lace or laces. 2. to pass (a cord) through, to intertwine. 3. to flavor or fortify (a drink) with liquor.
lac'er-ate (las-er-rayt) v. (lac'er-at-ed, lac'er-at-ing) 1. to injure (flesh) lace-wing (lays-wing) n. an insect having delicately veined gauzeline wings.
lachrymal (lak-ri-mal) adj. 1. of tears, secreting tears. 2. lacrimal (definition 1). lachrymose (lak-ri-mohs) adj. tearful.
lack (lak) n. the state or fact of not having something. lack v. to be without or not have (a thing) when it is needed; they lack for nothing. have plenty of everything.
lackadaisical (lack-a-da-i-si-kal) adj. lacking vigor or determination, unenthusiastic.
lackadaisically (lack-a-da-i-si-ky) adv.
lackey (lak-ee) n. (pl. -eys) 1. a person's servile follower. 2. a footman, a servant.
lackluster (lak-lus-ter) adj. without luster, attractive. lacklusterly (lak-lus-ter-ly) adv.
lacquer (lak-er) n. a hard glossy varnish. lacquer v. to coat with lacquer.
lactic (lak-tik) adj. of milk. lactic acid, a colorless liquid formed in sour milk.
lactose (lak-tohs) n. sugar present in milk, less sweet than sucrose.
lacuna (lak-yoo-nah) n. (pl. -nae, pr. -nee, -nas) a gap, a section missing from a book or argument etc.
lacy (lay-see) adj. (lac-i-er, lac-i-est) like lace.
lad (lad) n. 1. a boy, a young fellow. 2. (informal) a fellow.
ladder (lad-er) n. 1. a set of crossbars (rungs) between two uprights of wood etc., used as a means of climbing up or down something. 2. a means or series of stages by which a person may advance in his career etc., the political ladder.
ladle (lad-e) n. a lad.
ladened (lay-den) adj. loaded with a cargo or burden.
lace (lace) n. (lay-dee) 1. a large spoon with a cup-shaped bowl and a long handle, for transferring liquids. 2. a vessel for transporting molten metal in a foundry.
ladle v. (la-dled, la-dling) to transfer with a ladle. ladle n.
lady (lay-dee) n. (pl. -dies) 1. a woman of good social position, a woman of polite and kindly behavior. 2. (in polite use) a woman. 3. (old use) a wife, the colonel's lady. 4. Lady, a title used for the wives or daughters of certain noblemen. 5. a woman with authority over a household etc., the lady of the house. 6. a woman to whom a man is chivalrously devoted.
ladies' man, a man who is fond of female society.
ladies' room, a women's public lavatory.
lady beetle, a ladybug.
lady of the evening, a prostitute.
lady's slipper, a wild or garden flower of the orchid family, with a bloom shaped like a slipper or pouch.
ladybird (lay-dee-burd) n. a ladybug.
ladybug (lay-dee-bug) n. a small flying beetle, usually reddish brown with black spots.
ladyfinger (lay-dee-fing-gur) n. a finger-shaped sponge cake.
lady-in-waiting (lay-dee-in-way-ting) n. (pl. la-dies-in-wait-ing) a lady attending a queen or princess.
ladylike (lay-dee-lik) adj. polite and suitable for a lady, ladylike manners.
ladylove (lay-dee-luv) n. a man's sweetheart.
ladyship (lay-dee-ship) n. a title used in speaking to or about a woman of the rank of Lady, Your Ladyship.
ladies' (lay-ee-tril) n. a drug obtained from apricot or peach pits and claimed to cure cancer.
lag (lag) v. (lagged, lagging) to go too slowly, to fail to keep up with others.
lag n. lagging, a delay.
lager (lah-gur) n. a kind of light beer.
laggard (lag-ard) n. a person who lags behind. laggardly adj. going too slowly.
laggardly adj. & adv. laggardness n. lagnappe (lan-yap) n. a thing given as a bonus or gratuity. Originally Louisiana French, derived from Spanish la ñapa.
lagoon (lah-goon) n. 1. a shallow saltwater lake separated from the sea by a sandbank or coral reef etc. 2. a small freshwater lake near a larger lake or river.
lagos (lay-gos, -gos) the capital of Nigeria.
laid (layd) see lay1.
lain (layn) see lie2.
lampshade (lamp-shayd) n. a shade placed over a lamp to soften or screen its light.

lan-nal (læn-nal) (pl. -nals) a veranda furnished as an outdoor living room.

lance (lans) n. a weapon used for spearing fish etc., consisting of a long wooden shaft with a pointed steel head, resembling that used by mounted knights or cavalry in the Middle Ages. lance v. (lanced, lanc-ing) to prick or cut open a wound, boil, etc. □ lance corporal, an enlisted person in the U.S. Marine Corps ranking below a corporal and above a private first class.

lan-cer (lan-sør) n. a soldier of a certain cavalry regiment formerly armed with lances.

lan-cet (lan-sit) n. a pointed two-edged knife used by surgeons.

land (land) n. 1. the solid part of Earth's surface, the part not covered by water or sea. 2. the ground or soil as used for farming etc. 3. an expanse of country, forest land. 4. a country or state or nation, land of the free and the brave; in the land of the living, alive. 5. property consisting of land. land v. 1. to arrive or put on land from a ship. 2. to bring (an aircraft or its passengers etc.) down to the ground, to come down in this way. 3. to alight after a jump or fall. 4. to bring (a fish) to land, to win (a prize) or obtain (a position etc.), landed an excellent job. 5. to arrive or cause to arrive at a certain place or stage or position, landed in jail; landed us all in a mess. 6. to strike with a blow, landed him one in the eye. 7. to present with a problem etc., landed us with the job of sorting it out. land*less adj. □ land bank, a bank that supplies capital or credit for real estate transactions. land grant, a tract of public land appropriated by the government for building a highway, a state college, etc., land-grant college. land mine, an explosive mine laid in or on the ground. land office, a government office for transacting business relating to the sale and transfer of public lands. land-office business, (informal) a very active and flourishing business.

lan-dau (lan-daw) n. (old use) 1. a four-wheeled carriage having a two-part folding top. 2. an automobile with a top whose rear section was collapsible.

land-ed (lan-did) adj. 1. owning land, landed gentry. 2. consisting of land, landed estates.

land-er (lan-dør) n. a space vehicle built for landing on a celestial body.

land-fall (land-fawl) n. approach to land after a journey by sea or air.

land-fill (land-fil) n. a lowland built up with layers of trash and garbage alternating with layers of earth.

land-form (land-form) n. a natural feature of the surface of Earth.

land-hold-er (land-hohl-dør) n. an owner or tenant of land. land'hold-ing adj. & n.

land-ing (lan-ding) n. 1. the process of coming or bringing something to land or of alighting after a jump etc. 2. a place where people and goods may be landed from a boat etc. 3. a level area between flights or at the top of a flight of stairs. □ landing craft, a naval vessel designed for putting ashore troops and equipment. landing field, a flat, smooth area where planes land and take off. landing gear, the undercarriage of an aircraft. landing strip, an airstrip.

land-la-dy (land-lay-dee) n. fem. (pl. -dies) the owner of an apartment building or other rental property.

land-locked (land-lokt) adj. almost or entirely surrounded by land.

land-lord (land-lord) n. the owner of an apartment building or other rental property.

land-lub-ber (land-lub-ør) n. (informal) a person who is not accustomed to the sea and seamanship.

land-mark (land-mahrk) n. 1. a conspicuous and easily recognized feature of a landscape. 2. an event that marks a stage or change in the history of something. 3. an historic building or location.

land-mass (land-mas) n. a large area of Earth's surface, such as a continent.

land-owned (land-ownd) n. a person who owns land.

land-poor (land-poor) adj. needing money while owning unprofitable land.

land-scape (land-skayp) n. 1. the scenery of an inland area. 2. a picture of this. landscape v. (land-scape, land-scaped, land-scap-ing) to lay out (an area) attractively, with natural features. □ landscape artist, a painter or other artist whose specialty is landscapes. landscape gardening, the arrangement and planting of trees, shrubs, grass, etc. on a tract of land.

land-slide (land-slid) n. 1. the sliding down of a mass of land on a slope or mountain. 2. an overwhelming majority of votes for one side in an election.

lands-man (lahnts-man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mén) a person who is not a sailor.

lands-man (lahnts-man) n. (pl. -men, pr.-mén) a person from the same town or country, a compatriot. □ Yiddish.

land-ward (land-wärd) adj. & adv. toward the land.
lane (layn) n. 1. a narrow road or track. 2. a narrow street or alley between buildings. 3. a strip of road for a single line of traffic, a strip of track or water for a runner or rower or swimmer in a race. 4. a route prescribed for or regularly followed by ships or aircraft, shipping lanes.

lan•guage (lang-gwaj) n. 1. words and their use. 2. a system of words used in one or more countries. 3. a system of signs or symbols used for conveying information or in computer programs. 4. a particular style of wording. 5. the vocabulary of a particular group of people, medical language.

lan•guage lab•a•to•ry, a room equipped with tape recorders etc. for learning a language by repeated practice.

lan•guid (lang-gwaid) adj. lacking vigor or vitality. lan'guid•ly adv. lan'guid•ness n.

lan•guish (lang-gwish) v. 1. to lose or lack vitality. 2. to live under miserable conditions, to be neglected.

lan•guish•ing (lang-gwishing) adj. putting on a languid look in an attempt to win sympathy or affection.

lan•guor (lang-gor) n. 1. tiredness, listlessness, lack of vitality. 2. a languishing expression. 3. oppressive stillness of the air.

lan'guor•ous adj. lan'guor•ous•ly adv.

lank (langk) adj. 1. tall and lean. 2. (of plants) long and limp, (of hair) straight and limp.

lank•y (lang-kee) adj. (lank•i•er, lank•i•est) ungracefully lean and long or tall. lank•i•ness n.

lan•o•lin (lan-ō-lin) n. fat extracted from sheep's wool and used as a basis for ointments.

lan•sing (lan-sing) the capital of Michigan.

lan•ta•na (lan-tah-nä) n. a tropical shrub-like plant with bright fragrant flowers.

lan•tern (lan-tern) n. a transparent case for holding a light and shielding it against wind etc. outdoors.

lan•tern•jawed (lan-tern-jawd) adj. having long thin jaws so that the face has a hollow look.

lan•tha•num (lan-thā-num) n. a soft silvery metallic chemical element.

lan•yard (lan-yärd) n. 1. a short rope or line used on a ship to fasten something or secure it. 2. a cord worn around the neck or on the shoulder, to which a knife or whistle etc. may be attached.

La•os (lah-ohs) a country in southeast Asia. La•o•tian (lay-oh-shan) adj. & n.

lap1 (lap) n. 1. the flat area formed by the upper part of the thighs of a seated person. 2. the part of a dress etc. covering this. □In a person's lap, as his responsibility; in the lap of the gods, for fate to decide. In the lap of luxury, in great luxury. lap robe, a heavy blanket or fur robe used to keep the lap and legs warm, especially when sitting outdoors or while traveling.

lap2 n. 1. an overlapping part, the amount of overlap. 2. a single circuit of something such as a racecourse. 3. one section of a journey, the last lap. lap v. (lapped, lap•ping) 1. to fold or wrap around. 2. to overlap. 3. to be one or more laps ahead of (another competitor) in a race.

victory lap, a ceremonial circuit of a racetrack or sports field etc. by the winner(s).

La•Paz (lā paz) the capital of Bolivia.

lap•board (lap-bohrd) n. a thin smooth board held on or above the lap and used as a table or desk.

lap•dog (lap-dawg) n. a small pet dog.

la•pel (lā-pel) n. a flap at the edge of each front of a coat etc., folded back to lie against its outer surface.

lap•i•dar•y (lap-i-der-ee) adj. of stones, engraved on stone.

lap•in (lap-in) n. rabbit fur, trimmed and dyed to look like more expensive skins.

lap•is laz•u•li (lap-is laz-uu-lee) a bright blue semiprecious stone.

lap•land (lap-land) a region at the north of Scandinavia. Lap•land•er n. a native or inhabitant of Lapland.

lap•p (lap) n. 1. A Laplander. 2. the language of Lapland.

lap•s (laps) n. 1. a slight error, especially one caused by forgetfulness or weakness or inattention. 2. backsliding, a decline into an inferior state. 3. the passage of a period of time, after a lapse of six months. 4. the termination of a privilege or legal right through disuse. lap•se v. (lapsed, lap•s•ing) 1. to fail to maintain one's position or standard. 2. (of rights and privileges) to be lost or no longer valid because not used or claimed or renewed.

lap•wing (lap-wing) n. an Old World bird of the plover family.

lar•board (lahr-bohrd) n. (old use) = port. larceny / last-minute

lar·ce·ny (lahr-se-nee) n. (pl. -nies) theft of personal goods. lar·ce·nous adj.
larch (lahrch) n. a tall cone-bearing deciduous tree of the pine family.
lard (lahrd) n. a white greasy substance prepared from pig fat and used in cooking. lard v. 1. to place strips of fat bacon in or on (meat) before cooking, in order to prevent it from becoming dry while roasting. 2. to interlard.
lar·d·er (lahr-dehr) n. a room or cupboard for storing food.
large (lahrj) adj. 1. of considerable size or extent. 2. of the larger kind, the large intestine. large adv. in a large way, on a large scale, bulk or loom large.  □ at large, free to roam about, not in confinement; in a general way, at random; as a whole, in general, is popular with the country at large.
large·he·art·ed (lahrj-hahr-tid) adj. kindly.
large·ly (lahrj-lee) adv. to a great extent, his success was largely due to luck.
large·scale (lahrj-skayl) adj. 1. drawn to a large scale so that many details can be shown, a large-scale map. 2. extensive, involving large quantities etc., large-scale operations.
lar·ges·s, lar·ges·se (lahr-zhes, -jes) n. money or gifts generously given.
lar·go (lahr-go) adj. & adv. (of music) in slow time and dignified style. lar·l·at (lar-i-at) n. a lasso, a rope used to catch or tether a horse etc.
lark1 (lahrk) n. any of several small sandy-brown birds, especially the skylark.
lark2 n. 1. a plentiful adventurous action. 2. an amusing incident. lark v. to play about lightheartedly.
lark·spur (lahrk-spur) n. a plant with spur-shaped blue or pink flowers.
lar·rup (lar-rup) v. (lar·rup·ped, lar·rup·ping) (informal) to thrash.
lar·va (lahr-vah) n. (pl. -vae, pr. -vee) an insect in the first stage of its life after coming out of the egg. lar·val adj.
lar·yn·gi·tis (lar-in-ji-tis) n. inflammation of the larynx.
lar·ynx (lahr-ingks) n. (pl. la·ryn·ges, pr. lah-rihn-jees, lar-y-nxes) the part of the throat containing the vocal cords.
la·sa·gna (lah-zahn-yah) n. 1. pasta formed into ribbonlike strips. 2. a dish in which these are baked, usually with tomato sauce, cheese, and ground meat.
las·car (lahs-kahr) n. a seaman from the countries southeast of India.
las·civ·i·ous (lah-siv-i-uhz) adj. lustful.
las·civ·i·ous·ly adv. las·civ·i·ous·ness n.
las·ser (lahz-zer) n. a device that generates an intense and highly concentrated beam of light, laser beams. □ From light amplification by stimulated emission of radiation.
lash (lash) v. 1. to move in a whiplike movement, lashed its tail. 2. to strike with a whip, to beat or strike violently, rain lashed against the windows. 3. to attack violently in words. 4. to fasten or secure with cord etc., lashed them together. lash n. 1. a stroke with a whip etc. 2. the flexible part of a whip. 3. an eyelash. □ lash out, to attack with blows or words.
las·s (las) n. (also las·sie, pr. las·ce) a girl, a young woman.
las·sil·tude (las-i-tood) n. tiredness, listlessness.
las·so (las-oh) n. (pl. -sos, -soes) a rope with a running noose, used for catching cattle. lasso v. (las-soed, las-so-ing) to catch with a lasso.
las·t (last) n. a block of wood or metal shaped like a foot, used in making and repairing shoes. □ to stick to one's last, to stay with the work for which one is best fitted.
las·t adj. & adv. 1. after all others in position or time, coming at the end. □ See the note under latter. 2. latest, most recent, most recently; last night, in the night that has just passed. 3. remaining as the only one(s) left, our last hope. 4. least likely or suitable, she is the last person I'd have chosen. last n. 1. a person or thing that is last. 2. the last performance of certain actions, breathe or look one's last. 3. the last mention or sight of something, shall never hear the last of it. □ at last or at long last, in the end, after much delay. last ditch, a place of final desperate defense. last hurrah, a final unsuccessful effort to win in politics. Last Judgment, in Christian belief, the day when God will judge all men. last straw, a slight addition to one's difficulties that makes them unbearable. Last Supper, the meal eaten by Christ and his disciples on the eve of the Crucifixion. last word, the final statement in a dispute; a definitive statement; the latest fashion. on one's or its last legs, near death or the end of usefulness.
las·ter·ling (las·ting) v. 1. to continue for a period of time, to endure, the rain lasted all day. 2. to be sufficient for one's needs, enough food to last us for three days. □ last out, to be strong enough or sufficient to last.
las·ting (las-ting) adj. able to last for a long time.
las·ti·ly (last-lee) adv. in the last place, finally.
last·min·ute (last-min-uh) adj. at the latest possible time when an event can be altered or influenced, a last-minute decision.

lat. abbr. latitude.

lat. abbr. Latin.

lat-a-kí-a (lat-á-kée-á) n. a kind of Turkish tobacco chiefly used in mixtures.

latch (lach) n. 1. a small bar fastening a door or gate, lifted from its catch by a lever. 2. a spring lock that catches when the door is closed. latch v. to fasten or be fastened with a latch. latch on to, (informal) to cling to; to get possession of; to take in as an idea.

latch-et (lach-it) n. (old use) a thong for fastening a shoe.

latch-key (lach-kee) n. the key of an outer door.

latch-string (lach-string) n. a string fastened to a latch and left hanging outside the door for use in raising the latch.

late (layt) adj. & adv. (lat-er, lat-est) 1. after the proper or usual time. 2. flowering or ripening late in the season. 3. far on in the day or night or a period of time or a series etc., in the late 1920s. 4. of recent date or time, the latest news. 5. no longer alive, no longer holding a certain position, the late president. late-ness n. late in the day, at a late stage in the proceedings. of late, lately.

late-com-er (layt-kum-ér) n. a person who arrives late.

late-ly (layt-lee) adv. in recent times, not long ago.

la-tent (lay-tent) adj. existing but not yet active or developed or visible. la-ten-cy (lay-tén-se) n.

la-ter-al (lat-é-rál) adj. of or at or toward the side(s). lateral n. 1. a side part, member, or object, especially a lateral shoot or branch. 2. a short football pass thrown parallel to the goal line or in a direction somewhat backward from the passer.

la'ter-al-ly adv.

la-tex (lay-tek-s) n. 1. a milky fluid exuded from the cut surfaces of certain plants, such as the rubber plant. 2. a synthetic product resembling this, used in paints and adhesives.

lath (lath, la-th) n. a narrow thin strip of wood, used especially as a support for plaster etc.

lathe (layth) n. a machine for holding and turning pieces of wood or metal etc. against a tool that will shape them.

lath-er (lath-ér) n. 1. a froth produced by soap or detergent mixed with water. 2. frothy sweat, especially on horses. latter v. 1. to cover with latter. 2. to form a lather. In a lather, (informal) excited or upset.

Lat-in (lat-in) n. the language of the ancient Romans. Latin adj. 1. of or in Latin. 2. of the countries or peoples (such as France, Spain, Portugal, Italy) using languages developed from Latin. □ Latin America, the parts of Central and South America where Spanish or Portuguese is the main language. Latin American, a native of Latin America. Latin Church, the Roman Catholic Church.

la-ti-no (la-ti-no) n. (pl. -nos) a Latin-American inhabitant of the U.S.

lat-i-tude (lat-i-tood) n. 1. the distance of a place from the equator, measured in degrees. 2. a region, especially with reference to temperature; high latitudes, regions near the North or South Pole; low latitudes, near the equator. 3. freedom from restrictions in actions or opinions.

lat-i-tud-i-nar-i-an (lat-i-too-di-nár-i-án) n. a person allowing latitude, especially in religion, one who regards the details of particular creeds and forms of worship as unimportant.

la-ti-nism (lá-ti-nizhm) n. a communal toilet, especially one in a camp or barracks etc.

lat-ter (lat-ér) adj. 1. mentioned after another; the latter, the one mentioned second of two things. (When referring to the last of three or more, the last, not the latter, should be used.) 2. nearer to the end, the latter half of the year.

lat-ter-day (lat-ér-day) adj. modern, recent. □ Latter-day Saint, a Mormon.

la-tter-ly (lat-ér-lee) adv. of late, nowadays.

lat-tice (lat-is) n. 1. a framework of crossed laths or bars with spaces between, used as a screen or fence etc. 2. a structure resembling this. □ lattice window, one made with a lattice.

lat-tice-work (lat-ís-werk) n. a lattice or work constructed of lattices.

Lat-vi-a (lat-vi-á) a republic in the U.S.S.R., bordering on the Baltic Sea.

laud (lawd) v. (formal) to praise.

laud-a-ble (law-dá-bél) adj. praiseworthy, a laudable donation. laud-a-bly adv. □ Do not confuse laudable with laudatory.

lau-da-num (law-dá-núm) n. opium prepared for use as a sedative.

laud-a-to-ry (law-dá-thor-ee) adj. praising, laudatory words. □ Do not confuse laudatory with laudable.

laugh (laf) v. 1. to make the sounds and movements of the face and body that express lively amusement or amused scorn. 2. to have these emotions. 3. to utter or treat with a laugh; laughed him out of it, ridiculed him until he stopped a habit etc. laugh n. 1. an act or manner of laughing. 2. (informal) an amusing incident. laugh'ing-ly adv. □ laugh at, to make fun of, to ridicule; to look upon with amusement. laugh in a person's face, to show one's amused scorn for him openly. laughing gas, nitrous oxide, which can cause involuntary laughter in a person who inhales it. laugh it off, to get rid of embarrassment by making a joke about it. laugh on the other side of one's face, to change from amusement to dismay. no laughing matter, not a fit subject for laughter.

laugh·a·ble (laf-a-bəl) adj. causing people to laugh, ridiculous.

laugh·ing·stock (laf-ing-stok) n. a person or thing that is ridiculed.

laugh·ter (laf-tər) n. the action or sound of laughing.

launch1 (lawnch) v. 1. to send forth by hurling or thrusting, to send on its course, launch a rocket. 2. to cause (a ship) to move or slide from land into the water. 3. to put into action, launch an attack or a business. 4. to enter boldly or freely into a course of action. launch n. the process of launching a ship or spacecraft. □ launching pad or launch pad, a concrete platform from which spacecraft are launched. launch out or forth, to start on an ambitious enterprise. launch window, the period of time during which a spacecraft must be launched to carry out a particular mission.

launch2 n. a large motorboat.

launch·er (lawn-chər) n. 1. a device that launches grenades from a rifle. 2. a structure to hold a rocket during launching, a rocket releasing a satellite into orbit.

laun·der (lawn-dər) v. 1. to wash and iron (clothes etc.). 2. (slang) to conceal the source of (money received illegally) by sending it through foreign banks or through a legitimate business. laun·der·er n. laun·dress (lawn-dris) n. fem.

Laun·dرو·mat (lawn-dro-mat) n. (trade-mark) an establishment fitted with washing machines to be used by customers for a fee.

laun·dry (lawn-dri) n. (pl. -dries) 1. a place where clothes etc. are laundered, a business establishment that launders things for customers. 2. a batch of clothes etc. for washing, these after washing. laun·dry·man (lawn-dri-män) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mən) laun·dry·wom·an (lawn-dri-wuwm-ən) n. (pl. -wom·en, pr. -wim-in) □ laundry list, (informal) a list of miscellaneous articles.

lau·re·ate (lor-i-t) n. a person receiving highest honors; a Nobel laureate, a recipient of the Nobel Prize. laureate adj. □ poet laureate, the poet appointed to write poems for state occasions, Robert Frost was poet laureate of Vermont.

la·re·li (lor-i) n. an evergreen shrub with smooth glossy leaves. □ look to one's laurels, to beware of losing one's position of superiority. rest on one's laurels, to cease to strive for further successes. □ From the ancient use of a branch or wreath of laurel as a token of victory.

la·va (lah-və) n. flowing molten rock discharged from a volcano, the solid substance formed when this cools.

la·va·bo (lā-və-bō) n. a stone basin used for ritual washing in a monastery.

lav·age (lā-vəzh) n. the process of washing out an organ of the body.

lav·a·ller (lā-və-lər) n. a decorative pendant worn on a fine chain around the neck.

lav·a·to·ry (lā-və-to-rē) n. (pl. -ries) a room having one or more toilets and wash basins.

lave (layv) v. (laved, lav·ing) (old use) to wash or bathe.

lav·en·der (lawv·n-dər) n. 1. a shrub with fragrant purple flowers that are dried and used to scent linen etc. 2. light purple. □ lavender water, a delicate perfume made from lavender.

lav·ish (lav·ish) adj. 1. giving or producing something in large quantities. 2. plentiful, a lavish display. lavish v. to bestow lavishly. lav'ish·ly adv. lav'ish·ness n.

law (law) n. 1. a rule established among a community by authority or custom. 2. a body of such rules. 3. their controlling influence, their operation as providing a remedy against wrongs, law and order. 4. the subject or study of such rules. 5. (informal) the police. 6. something that must be obeyed or believed, his word was law. 7. a factual statement of what always happens in certain circumstances, as of regular natural occurrences, the laws of nature; the law of gravity; Murphy's Law, what can go wrong will go wrong. 8. the Law, the commandments of God in Jewish and Christian belief, especially those given to Moses. □ law of averages, the proposition that the occurrence of one extreme will be matched by that of the other extreme so as to maintain the normal average. law of the jungle, a state of ruthless competition. law unto oneself or itself, a person or thing that does not behave in the customary fashion. take the law into one's own hands, to right a wrong oneself without legal sanction.

law-a-bid-ing (law-ə-bid-ing) adj. obeying the law.

law-break-er (law-bray-kër) n. a person who violates the law.

law-ful (law-fūl) adj. permitted or recognized by law, lawful business; his lawful wife. law'ful·ly adv.

law-giv·er (law-giv-ər) n. a person who makes laws, especially a code of laws.

law-less (law-les) adj. 1. (of a country) where laws do not exist or are not applied. 2. disregarding the law, uncontrollable, lawless men. law'less·ness n.

law-mak·er (law-may-kër) n. a legislator.

law-man (law-man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) (chiefly Western U.S.) a police officer, sheriff, etc.

lawn1 (lawn) n. fine woven cotton or synthetic material.

lawn2 n. an area of closely cut grass. lawn bowling, the game of bowls (see bowls). lawn mower, a machine with revolving blades for cutting the grass of lawns. lawn tennis, (old use) tennis, especially when played on grass courts.

law-ren-ci-um (law-ren-si-üm) n. an artificially produced radioactive metallic element.

law-suit (law-soot) n. the process of bringing a problem or claim etc. before a court of law for settlement.

law·yer (law-yər) n. a person who is trained and qualified in legal matters.

lax (laks) adj. slack, not strict or severe, discipline was lax. lax·ly adv. lax·i·ty (lak-së-të) n.

lax·a·tive (lak-sä-tiv) n. a medicine that stimulates the bowels to empty. laxative adj. having this effect.

lay1 (lay) n. (old use) a poem meant to be sung, a ballad.

lay2 adj. 1. not ordained into the clergy. 2. not professionally qualified, especially in law or medicine; lay opinion, the opinion of nonprofessional people. lay analysis, a psychoanalyst lacking a medical degree.

lay3 v. (laid, laying) 1. to place or put on a surface or in a certain position. 2. to place or arrange in a horizontal position, to put in place, lay a carpet; lay the fire, put logs etc. ready for lighting. 3. to place or assign, lay emphasis on neatness; laid the blame on her. 4. to formulate, to establish, we laid our plans. 5. to cause to be in a certain condition, laid himself open to suspicion. 6. to cause to subside, laid the dust; laid the ghost, made it cease being troublesome. 7. to present or put forward for consideration, laid claim to it. 8. (of a hen bird) to produce (an egg or eggs) from the body. 9. to stake as a wager, to bet. lay n. the way in which something lies. lay about one, to hit out on all sides. lay aside, to put away, to cease to use or practice or think of; to save (money etc.) for future needs. lay away, a purchase left by a customer at the store until paid for. lay claim to, to claim as one's right. lay down, to put on the ground etc.; to give up (office); to establish as a rule or instruction. lay down the law, to talk with authority and certainty. lay figure, a jointed model of the human body, used by artists. lay hold of, to grasp. lay in, to provide oneself with a stock of. lay into, (slang) to thrash; to reprimand harshly. lay it on the line, (slang) to offer without reserve; to speak frankly. lay it on thick or with a trowel, (slang) to exaggerate greatly; to flatter a person excessively. lay low, to overthrow; to humble; to incapacitate by illness. lay off, to discharge (workers) temporarily owing to shortage of work; (informal) to cease, especially from causing trouble or annoyance. lay on, to inflict blows forcefully. lay open, to break the skin of (part of the body); to expose to criticism. lay out, to arrange according to a plan; to prepare (a body) for burial; to spend (money) for a purpose; to knock unconscious. lay to rest, to bury in a grave; to prove the falsity of (rumors, accusations, etc). lay up, to store or save; to cause (a person) to be confined to bed or unfit for work etc.; to put (a car etc.) out of service temporarily. lay waste, to destroy the crops and buildings etc. of (a district).

lay adj. 1. laid (lawd) past tense of lie; laid (laid) past participle. Correct uses are as follows: go and lie down; she went and lay down; please lay it on the floor; they laid it on the floor. Incorrect use is go and lay down.

lay-a-way (lay-ə-way) n. 1. a system of reserving an item of merchandise by making a deposit of part of the purchase price. 2. an item reserved in this way.

lay·er (lay-ər) n. 1. a person etc. that lays something; hen is a poor layer, lays few eggs. 2. a thickness of material (often one of several) laid over a surface. layer v. to arrange in layers. layer cake, cake consisting of layers with filling between.

lay·er·ing (lay-ə-rëng) n. propagation of a shrub etc. by fastening one of its stems to the earth to take root while still attached to the parent plant.
lay·ette (lay-et) n. the clothes and bedding etc. prepared for a newborn baby.

lay·man (lay-män) n. (pl. -men, pr. -mën) a person not ordained into the clergy or not professionally qualified (see lay2).

lay·wom·an (lay-wuwm-an) n. (pl. -wom-en, pr. -wim-in) lay·per·son (lay-pur-sön) n.

lay·off (lay-awf) n. a temporary discharge, the act of temporarily discharging employees.

lay·out (lay-owt) n. an arrangement of parts etc. according to a plan.

lay·o·ver (lay-oh-vër) n. a stopover.

laz·ar (lay-áz) n. (old use) a poor and diseased person, especially a leper.

laze (layz) v. (lazed, laz·ing) (informal) to spend time idly or in idle relaxation.

laze n. an act or period of lazing.

la·zy (lay-ze) adj. (la·zi·er, la·zi·est) 1. unwilling to work, doing little work.

2. showing or characterized by lack of energy, a lazy yawn. la·zi·ly adv. la·zi·ness n. □ lazy Susan, a revolving tray set in the middle of a dining table so that all can help themselves without passing serving dishes.

lazy·bones (lay-zee-bohnz) n. (informal) a lazy person.

lb. abbr. pound weight. △ From the Latin libra.

lbs. abbr. pounds weight.

l.c. abbr. lower case.

L/C, l/c abbr. letter of credit.

L.C.D. abbr. least common denominator.

LCDR abbr. lieutenant commander.

LCL abbr. less-than-carload lot.

L.C.M. abbr. least common multiple.

LCpl abbr. lance corporal.

LD abbr. lethal dose.

ld. abbr. load.

lgd. abbr. 1. landing. 2. loading.

L-do·pa (el-dön-pä) n. a drug used in treatment of Parkinson's disease.

lea (lee) n. (old use) a tract of open ground, especially grassland.

leach (leech) v. to make (liquid) percolate through soil or ore etc., to remove (soluble matter) in this way, leach it out.

lead1 (led) v. (led, lead·ing) 1. to cause to go with oneself, to guide, especially by going in front or by holding the hand or an attached rein etc. 2. to influence the actions or opinions of, what led you to believe this? 3. to be a route or means of access, the door leads into a passage.

4. to have as its result, this led to confusion. 5. to live or pass one's life, was leading a double life. 6. to be in first place or position in, to be ahead, lead the world in electronics. 7. to be the leader or head of, to control. 8. to make one's start with, Ali led with his left. 9. (in card games) to be the first player to play a card. lead n. 1. guidance given by going in front, an example. 2. a clue, it gave us a lead. 3. a leading place, leadership, the amount by which one competitor is in front, take the lead; a lead of five points. 4. an electrical conductor (usually a wire) conveying current from a source to a place of use. 5. a leash. 6. the act or right of playing one's card first in a card game, the card played. 7. the chief part in a play or other performance, one who takes this part, play the lead. lead adj. in the first or front position, the lead car (in a race), the lead singer (in a group). □ lead astray, to lead into error or wrongdoing.

lead by the nose, to control the actions of (a person) completely. lead off, to begin.

lead someone a merry chase or dance, to cause someone much trouble, especially by making him search.

lead someone on, to entice him, especially with false promises. lead story or article, the item of news given greatest prominence in a newspaper etc.

lead time, the period between starting and finishing a production process.

lead up (or down) the garden path, see garden. lead up to, to serve as an introduction to or preparation for; to direct the conversation toward (a subject).

lead2 (led) n. 1. a heavy metallic element of dull grayish color. 2. a thin stick of graphite forming the writing substance in a pencil. 3. a lump of lead used in taking soundings in water. 4. (in printing) a metal strip used to give space between lines. 5. (slang) bullets, gunfire, he went down in a hail of lead. lead v. 1. to cover, weight, frame (panes of glass) with lead. 2. to add lead or lead compound to (gasoline etc.). lead·ed adj.

□ lead poisoning, acute or chronic poisoning caused by taking lead into the body.

lead·en (led·en) adj. 1. made of lead. 2. heavy, slow as if weighted with lead. 3. lead colored, dark gray, leaden skies.

lead·er (lee·der) n. 1. a person or thing that leads. 2. one who has the principal part in something, the head of a group etc. 3. one whose example is followed, a leader of fashion. 4. a short length of transparent line to which a fishing hook or lure is attached. 5. an item advertised at a special low price to attract customers to a store. lead·er·less adj.

lead·er·ship (lee·der·ship) n. 1. being a leader. 2. ability to be a leader. 3. the leaders of a group.

lead·ing (lee·ding) adj. see lead1.

□ leading lady or man, one taking the leading / lease

chief part in a play etc. leading light, a prominent member of a group. leading question, one that is worded so that it prompts a person to give the desired answer or to reveal more than he intends (> not the same as a searching question). lead-ing2 (led-ing) n. a covering or framework of lead (metal).

lead-off (lead-awf) n. a beginning, the first. □ leadoff man, (in baseball) the first player at bat in an inning or in a line-up.

leaf (leaf) n. (pl. leaves, pr. leeves) 1. a flat organ (usually green) growing from the stem or branch of a plant or directly from the root. 2. a single thickness of the paper forming the pages of a book.

leaf v. 1. to turn over the leaves or pages of a book, leafed through it. □ In leaf, the state of having leaves out. leaf mold, soil or compost consisting chiefly of decayed leaves. take a leaf out of someone's book, to follow his example.

leaf-age (lee-fi) n. foliage.

leaf-hop-per (leaf-hop-er) n. any of various leaping insects that suck plant juices and transmit diseases among plants.

leaf-less (lee-less) adj. having no leaves.

leaf-let (lee-lit) n. 1. a small leaf or leaf-like part of a plant. 2. a printed sheet of paper (sometimes folded but not stitched) giving information, especially for distribution free of charge.

leaf-stalk (leaf-stawk) n. a petiole.

leaf-y (lee-fay) adj. (leaf-er, leaf-est) 1. covered in leaves. 2. consisting of leaves, leafy vegetables.

league1 (leeg) n. 1. a group of people or countries that combine formally for a particular purpose. 2. a group of sports teams that compete against each other for a championship. 3. a class of contestants, he is out of his league. league v. (leagued, lea-guing) to form a league. □ In league with, allied with, conspiring with. not in the same league with, much inferior to.

league2 n. a measure of distance, usually about three miles.

leak (leek) n. 1. the process of leaking, a hole or crack etc. through which liquid or gas may accidentally get in or out. 2. the liquid or gas that passes through this. 3. a similar escape of an electric charge, the charge itself. 4. a disclosure of secret information. leak v. 1. (of liquid or gas etc.) to escape accidentally through an opening. 2. (of a container) to allow such an escape, to let out (liquid or gas). 3. to disclose, leaked the news to a reporter. 4. (of a secret) to become known improperly, it leaked out.

leak-age (lee-kij) n. 1. leaking. 2. a thing or amount that has leaked out.

leak-y (lee-kee) adj. (leak-er, leak-est) liable to leak.

lean1 (leen) adj. 1. (of a person or animal) without much flesh. 2. (of meat) containing little or no fat. 3. scanty, a lean harvest. lean n. the lean part of meat. lean-ness n. □ lean years, years of scarcity.

lean2 v. (leaned, lean-ing) 1. to put or be in a sloping position. 2. to rest against or on something for support. 3. to rely or depend on for help. □ lean on, (informal) to seek to influence by intimidating.

lean-ing (lee-nig) n. a tendency or partiality, has leanings toward socialism.

lean-to (leen-too) n. 1. a building with a sloping roof resting against the side of a larger building. 2. a rough shed or hut.

leap (leep) v. (leaped or leapt, pr. leapt. leap-ing) to jump vigorously. leap n. a vigorous jump. □ by leaps and bounds, with very rapid progress.

leap year, a year with an extra day (February 29).

leap-frog (leep-frog) n. a game in which each player in turn vaults with parted legs over another who is bending down.

leapfrog v. (leap-frogged, leap-frog-ging) 1. to perform this vault. 2. to overtake alternately.

learn (lurn) v. (learned, learn-ing) 1. to gain knowledge of or skill in a subject etc. by study or experience or by being taught; learn it by heart, memorize it thoroughly so that one can repeat it. 2. to become aware by information or from observation. 3. (incorrect or humorous use) to teach, that'll learn you! □ learn the ropes, see rope.

learn-ed (lur-nid) adj. 1. having much knowledge acquired by study, learned men. 2. of or for learned people, a learned society. learn-ed-ly adv.

learn-er (lur-nér) n. a person who is learning a subject or skill. □ learner's permit, a permit to drive a motor vehicle for the purpose of learning in order to qualify for a driver's license.

learn-ing (lur-ning) n. knowledge obtained by study.

lease (lees) n. a contract by which the owner of land or a building etc. allows another person to use it for a specified time, usually in return for payment.

lease v. (leased, leas-ing) 1. to grant the use of (a property) by lease. 2. to obtain or hold (a property) by lease.

□ a new lease on life, a chance to continue living or to live more happily because of recovery from illness or anxiety, or (of things) to continue in use after repair.

leasehold (lees-hold) n. the holding of land or a house or apartment etc. by means of a lease. leasehold-er n.

leash (leesh) n. a strap or cord etc. attached to the collar of a dog etc. and held to keep the animal under restraint, especially while walking it. leash v. to hold on a leash.

least (leest) adj. 1. smallest in amount or degree. 2. lowest in rank or importance. least n. the least amount or degree. least adv. in the least degree. at least, not less than what is stated; anyway. In the least, at all; in the smallest degree. least common denominator, see denominator. least common multiple, the lowest positive whole number that is exactly divisible by each of two or more whole numbers. to say the least of it, putting the case moderately.

least-wise (leest-wiz) adv. (informal) at least.

leath-er (leth-er) n. 1. material made from animal skins by tanning or a similar process. 2. the leather part(s) of something. leather adj. made of leather. leath'ern adj.

leath'er-neck (leth-er-nek) n. (slang) a U.S. Marine. From the leather neck-band that was once part of a Marine uniform.

leath'er-y (leth-er-ree) adj. as tough as leather.

leave1 (leev) v. (left, leav-ing) 1. to go away from, to go away finally or permanently. 2. to cease to belong to (a group) or live at (a place), to cease working for an employer. 3. to cause or allow to remain, to depart without taking, left the door open; left my gloves in the bus; he leaves a wife and two children, is survived by these. 4. to give as a legacy. 5. to allow to stay or proceed without interference, leave the dog alone. 6. to refrain from consuming or dealing with, left all the fat; let's leave the dishes. 7. to entrust or commit to another person; was left with the problem, had this as a burden; leave it to me, I will deal with it. 8. to deposit for collection or transmission, leave your coat in the hall; leave a message. 9. to abandon, to desert, was left in the lurch. leave off, to cease. leave out, to omit, not include. It is incorrect to say leave me go. Say let me go.

leave2 n. 1. permission. 2. official permission to be absent from duty, the period for which this lasts; on leave, absent in this way. take leave of one's senses, to go mad.

leav-en (lev-en) n. 1. a substance (such as yeast) that produces fermentation in dough. 2. a quality or influence that lightens or enlivens something. leaven v. 1. to add leaven to. 2. to enliven.

leav-en-ing (lev-ě-ning) n. a leaven.

leaves (leevz) see leaf.

leave-taking (leev-tay-king) n. a departure, taking one's leave.

leav-ings (lee-vings) n. pl. what is left.

Leb-a-non (leb-ə-non) a country in the Middle East, at the eastern end of the Mediterranean Sea. Leb-a-nese (leb-ə-nees) adj. & n.

lech'er (lech-er) n. a man given to lechery.

lech'er-y (lech-er-ree) n. unrestrained indulgence of sexual lust. lech'er-ous adj.

lec'i-thin (les-tthin) n. a complex fatty substance containing phosphorus and found in egg yolk.

lect. abbr. 1. lecture. 2. lecturer.

lec-torn (lek-torm) n. a stand with a sloping top to hold a book or notes for a reader or speaker.

lec-tor (lek-tör) n. a reader of lessons in a church service.

lec-ture (lek-chör) n. 1. a speech giving information about a subject to an audience or class. 2. a long serious speech, especially one giving reproof or warning.

lecture v. (lec-tur-ed, lec-tur-ing) 1. to give a lecture or series of lectures. 2. to talk to (a person) seriously or reprovingly. lec'tur-er n. lec'tur-ship n.

led (led) see lead1.

LED (el-ec-dee) n. a semiconductor diode that responds to the application of voltage by giving off light. From light-emitting diode.

le-dér-ho-sen (lay-deh-hol-zén) n. leather shorts as worn by men in Bavaria etc.

ledge (lej) n. 1. a narrow horizontal projection or shelf, especially on a building or a cliff. 2. a reef in the sea.

led-gér (lej-er) n. a book used by a business firm to record income and expenses.

lee (lee) n. shelter, the sheltered side or part of something.

leech (leech) n. 1. a small bloodsucking worm usually living in water. 2. a person who drains the resources of another.

leek (leek) n. a plant related to the onion but with broader leaves and a cylindrical white bulb.

leer (leer) v. to look slyly or maliciously or lustfully. leer n. a leering look.

leer-y (leer-ee) adj. wary, suspicious.

lees (leez) n. pl. sediment that settles at the bottom of a quantity of wine etc.
leeward / legionnaire lee-ward (lee-wārd, loo-) adj. situated on the leeward side of a ship. leeward n. the leeward side or region. leeward adv.

lee-way (lee-way) n. 1. a ship's sideways drift from its course. 2. a degree of freedom of action, these instructions give us plenty of leeway.

left' (left) see leave'.

left adj. & adv. on or toward the left-hand side. left n. 1. the left-hand side or region. 2. the left hand, a blow with this. 3. (in marching) the left-foot. 4. the Left (also the left), political parties that favor radical or liberal causes. □ left hand, the hand that in most people is less used, on the same side of the body as the heart.

left-hand (left-hand) adj. of or toward the side of a person's left hand or the corresponding side of a thing.

left-hand-ed (left-hān-did) adj. 1. using the left hand usually, by preference. 2. (of a blow or tool) made with or operated by the left hand. 3. (of a screw) to be turned toward the left. 4. (of a compliment) ambiguous in meaning, back-handed.

left-hand-er (left-hān-dēr) n. a left-handed person or person.

left·ist (lef-tist) n. a supporter of the Left in politics. leftist adj. of the left wing in politics etc.

left·over (left-ōr-vār) n. something remaining when the rest is finished, especially food not finished at a meal.

left (left) wing see wing (definitions 6 and 7); those in a political party who favor or lean toward the left. left-wing adj.

left·wing' er n.

left·y (lef-tē) n. (pl. left·ies) (informal) a left-handed person.

leg (leg) n. 1. one of the projecting parts of an animal's body, on which it stands or moves. 2. this as food. 3. either of the two lower limbs of the human body, an artificial replacement of this. 4. the part of a garment covering this. 5. one of the projecting supports beneath a chair or other piece of furniture. 6. one branch of a forked object. 7. one section of a journey. leg v. (legged, leg·ging) leg it, (informal) to walk or run rapidly, to go on foot. □ give someone a leg up, help him to mount or to get over an obstacle or difficulty. has not a leg to stand on, has no facts to support his argument.

leg, abbr. 1. legal. 2. legislation. 3. legislative. 4. legislature.

leg·a·cy (leg-ā-see) n. (pl. -cies) 1. money or an article left to someone in a will. 2. something handed down by a predecessor, a legacy of distrust.

le·gal (lee-gāl) adj. 1. of or based on law; my legal adviser, a lawyer etc. 2. in accordance with the law, authorized or required by law. le·gal·ly adv. le·gal·i·ty (le·gal·i·tē) n. (pl. -ties) □ legal age, the age at which a person assumes the legal responsibilities and rights of an adult, usually eighteen or twenty-one. le·gal aid, payment from public funds toward the cost of legal advice or proceedings. legal holiday, a holiday set by law. legal tender, currency that cannot legally be refused in payment of a debt. le·gal·ism (lee-gā-liz-ēm) n. strict, literal, and often excessive adherence to the law.

le·gal·is·tic (lee-gā-lis-tik) adj.

le·gal·ize (le·gal·īz) v. (le·gal·īzed, le·gal·īz·ing) to make legal. le·gal·iz·a·tion (lee-gā-līzā-shun) n.

leg·ate (leg·it) n. a representative or ambassador, especially one representing the pope.

leg·a·tee (leg·ā-tee) n. a person who receives a legacy.

le·ga·tion (li·gā-shun) n. 1. a diplomatic minister and his staff. 2. his official residence or office.

le·ga·to (le·gā-to) adj. & adv. (in music) in a smooth even manner.

leg·end (le·jend) n. 1. a story (which may or may not be true) handed down from the past. 2. such stories collectively. 3. an inscription on a coin or medal. 4. wording on a map etc. explaining the symbols used.

leg·end·ary (le·jen·der·ē) adj. 1. of or based on legends, described in a legend. 2. (informal) famous, often talked about.

leg·er·de·main (le·jér·dē-mayn) n. sleight of hand, magic tricks.

leg·ging·s (leg·ingz) n. pl. protective outer coverings for the legs.

leg·gy (leg·gy) adj. (-gl·er, -gl·est) having noticeably long legs.

leg·horn (leg·horn) n. 1. fine plaited straw. 2. a hat made of this. 3. one of a small hardy breed of domestic fowl.

leg·i·ble (le·jī-blē) adj. (of print or handwriting) clear enough to be deciphered, readable. leg·i·bly adv. leg·i·bil·i·ty (le·jī-bil·i·tē) n.

le·gion (lee·jōn) n. 1. a division of the ancient Roman army. 2. a vast group, a multitude; they are legion or their name is legion. le·gion·ar·ies (lee·jō-nar·ēz) adj. & n. □ American Legion, an organization for former members of the U.S. armed forces. Foreign Legion, a body of foreign volunteers in an army, especially the French army.

le·gion·naire (lee·jō-nair) n. a member of a legion. □ legionnaires' disease, a severe and often fatal sickness of uncertain cause, with a high temperature and acute nausea. ▷ From an outbreak of the disease at an American Legion convention in 1976.

legis. abbr. 1. legislation. 2. legislative. 3. legislature.

leg.-is-late (lej-is-layt) v. (leg.-is-lat-ed, leg.-is-lat-ing) to make laws.

leg.-is-la-tion (lej-is-lay-shōn) n. legislation, the laws themselves.

leg.-is-la-tive (lej-is-lay-tiv) adj. making laws, a legislative assembly.

leg.-is-la-tor (lej-is-lay-tōr) n. a member of a legislative assembly.

leg.-is-la-ture (lej-is-lay-char) n. a country's or state's legislative assembly.

legit (lej-jit) adj. (slang) legitimate. legit n. (slang) the legitimate theater.

legit-l*mate (lej-jit-l-mit) adj. 1. in accordance with the law or rules. 2. logical, justifiable, a legitimate reason for absence. 3. (of a child) born of parents who are married to each other. 4. (of drama or theater) including plays but excluding musical comedies, revues, motion pictures, etc. legit-l*mate-ly adv. legit-l*ma-cy (lej-jit-l-mā-see) n.

legit-l*mize (lej-jit-l-miz) v. (legit-l*mized, legit-l*miz-ing) to make legitimate.

leg-less (leg-lis) adj. without legs.

leg-man (leg-man) n. (pl. -men, pr. -men) 1. a newspaperman assigned to gather news outside the office. 2. a salesman or other businessman who works primarily away from his office.

leg-room (leg-room) n. space for a seated person to extend his or her legs.

leg-ume (leg-yoom) n. 1. a leguminous plant. 2. a pod of this, especially when edible.

legu-mi-nous (li-gyoo-mi-nūs) adj. of the family of plants that bear their seeds in pods, such as peas and beans.

leg-work (leg-wurk) n. work that involves much walking about.

lei (lay) n. a garland of flowers worn around the neck.

lei-sur* (lee-zhūr, lezh-ūr) n. time that is free from work, time in which one can do as one chooses. leisure adj. □ at leisure, not occupied; in an unhurried way. at one's leisure, when one has time. leisure suit, a man's suit for informal wear, having a shirt-like jacket and generally worn with no necktie.

lei-sured (lee-zhūrd, lezh-ūrd) adj. having plenty of leisure.

lei-sur*ly (lee-zhūr-lee, lezh-ūr-) adj. & adv. without hurry.

left-mo-tif, left-mo-tiv (lēt-mō-teef) n. a theme associated throughout a musical piece or literary work with some person, situation, or sentiment.

LEM (lem) n. lunar excursion module.

lem-ing (lem-ing) n. a small mouselike rodent of arctic regions, one species of which periodically migrates in large numbers and is said to run into the sea and drown.

lem-on (lem-ōn) n. 1. an oval fruit with acid juice. 2. the tree that bears it. 3. its pale yellow color. 4. (slang) something disappointing or unsuccessful, *his automobile is a lemon. lem-on-y adj. □ lemon drop, a hard candy flavored with lemon.

lem-on-ade (lem-ōn-ād) n. a lemon-flavored soft drink.

le-mur (lee-mūr) n. a monkey-like animal of Madagascar.

lend (lend) v. (lent, lend-ing) 1. to give or allow the use of (a thing) temporarily on the understanding that it or its equivalent will be returned. 2. to provide (money) temporarily in return for payment of interest. 3. to contribute as a temporary help or effect etc., lend dignity to the occasion; lend a hand, help; lend an ear, listen. 4. to be of use, to be suitable, this garden lends itself to relaxation.

lend'er n. □ See the note under loan.

lend-lease (lend-les) n. an arrangement (1941) whereby the U.S. supplied equipment etc. to Great Britain and its allies, originally as a loan in return for the use of British-owned military bases.

length (lengk-thē) n. 1. measurement or extent from end to end, especially along a thing's greatest dimension. 2. the amount of time occupied by something, the length of our vacation. 3. the distance a thing extends used as a unit of measurement, the length of a horse or boat etc. as a measure of the lead in a race. 4. the degree of thoroughness in an action, went to great lengths. 5. a piece of cloth or other material from a larger piece, a length of wire. □ at length, after a long time; taking a long time, in detail.

length-en (lengk-thēn) v. to make or become longer.

length-wise (lengk-ˌwiz) adj. & adv. in the direction of the length of something.

length-y (lengk-θē) adj. (length-i-er, length-i-est) very long, long and boring. length-i-ly adv.

le-ni-ent (lee-ni-ēnt) adj. merciful, not severe (especially in giving out punishment), mild. le-ni-ent-ly adv. le-ni-ence (lee-nē-ens) n. le-ni-en-cy (lee-ni-ēn-see) n.

len-i-tive (len-i-tiv) adj. soothing or alleviating pain.
le·nient (len'-i-tee) n. mercifulness, an act of mercy.

len·s (lenz) n. (pl. lens-es) 1. a piece of glass or glasslike substance with one or both sides curved, for use in optical instrumenets. 2. a combination of lenses used in photography etc. 3. the transparent part of the eye, behind the pupil.

lent (lent) see lend.

Lent (lent) n. the period from Ash Wednesday to Easter, of which the forty weekdays are observed as a time of fasting and penitence. Lent'en adj.

len·till (len-till) n. 1. a kind of bean plant. 2. its edible seed.

Le·o (lee-oh) n. a sign of the zodiac, the Lion.

le·o·nine (lee-ō-nin) adj. of or like a lion.

lep·a·ard (lep-ärd) n. a large African and South Asian flesh-eating animal of the cat family, having a yellowish coat with dark spots. leop'ard·ess n. fem.

lep·a·tard (lee-ō-tahrd) n. a close-fitting one-piece garment worn by acrobats etc.

lep·er (lep·ér) n. 1. a person with leprosy. 2. a person who is shunned.

lep·re·chaun (lep-re-krawn) n. (in Irish folklore) an elf resembling a little old man.

lep·ro·sy (lep-ro-see) n. an infectious disease affecting skin and nerves, resulting in mutilations and deformities. lep·rous adj.

les·bi·an (lez-bi-ān) n. a homosexual woman. les·bi·an·ism n.

les·maj·es·ty, lèse ma·jes·te (lez maj-e-stee) 1. an insult to a sovereign or ruler. 2. (humorous) presumptuous behavior.

le·sion (lee-zhōn) n. a harmful change in the tissue of an organ of the body, caused by injury or disease.

Le·so·tho (le-soh-toh) a country in central southern Africa.

less (les) adj. 1. not so much of, a smaller quantity of, eat less meat. 2. smaller in amount or degree etc., of less importance. less adv. to a smaller extent. less n. a smaller amount or quantity etc., will not take less. less prep. minus, deducting, a year less three days; was paid one hundred dollars, less tax. > The word less is used of things that are measured by amount (for example in eat less butter; use less fuel). Its use with things measured by number is regarded as incorrect (for example in we need less workers; correct usage is fewer workers).

-less suffix used to form adjectives meaning not having, as in childless; free from, as in harmless; unable to be, as in tireless.

les·see (le-see) n. a person who holds a property by lease.

less·en (les·ën) v. to make or become less.

less·er (les·er) adj. not so great as the other, the lesser evil. > Do not confuse lesser with lessor.

les·son (les·ōn) n. 1. a thing to be learned by a pupil. 2. an amount of teaching given at one time; give lessons in a subject, give systematic instruction in it. 3. an example or experience by which one can learn, let this be a lesson to you! 4. a passage from the Bible read aloud during a church service.

les·sor (les·or) n. a person who leases a property to another. > Do not confuse lessor with lesser.

lest (lest) conj. 1. in order that not, to avoid the risk of, lest we forget. 2. that, were afraid lest we should be late.

let1 (let) n. 1. stoppage, without let or hindrance. 2. (in tennis etc.) an obstruction of the ball in certain ways, requiring the ball to be served again.

let2 v. (let, let·ting) 1. to allow to, not prevent or forbid, let me see it. 2. to cause to, let us know what happens; let us hear from you. 3. to allow or cause to come or go or pass, let the dog in; let me through; let the rope down. 4. to rent. 5. used as an auxiliary verb in requests or commands (let's try; let there be light), assumptions (let AB equal CD), and challenges (let him do his worst). □ let alone, to refrain from interfering with or doing; apart from, far less or more than, too tired to walk, let alone run. let be, to refrain from interfering with or doing.

