Exercise 1. Read the texts quickly and match them with pictures.

Exercise 2. Listen, fill in the missing words. Then complete the sentences.

Speaker A
It was late when we arrived at the hotel and we were _________ to get the last vacant room there. The room was on the second floor. It was not large but was _________ and clean. There was a little furniture there but it was ____________ and I liked the photos on the walls very much. They showed the mountain picks. In the morning I saw the ________ picks from the window. It was a _________________ view.

The room was __________________ because _______________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Speaker B
Last weekend we went to the mountains. When we got to the airport, we were told that our flight had been delayed and we had to wait there for about two hours. It was very late when at last we got to the little inn in the mountains and we felt really ________. But the next morning we forgot all about it – the weather was ______________ and we enjoyed skiing very much. We’ll probably go there again the next season.

The problem was that ________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
He enjoyed the trip because ____________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Speacker C
I have to travel a lot because of my job. Usually I fly as it’s the quickest way. But when I go for a holiday, I prefer trains. The train is not as ________ as a plane but I like it more anyway.
I like reading or looking through the window. It reminds me of my childhood when I travel to see my grandparents. Modern trains are very ________________ and they don’t pollute the environment as much as planes do.

She likes travelling by trains for some reasons. Firstly, ______________________
________________________________________________________________________
Secondly, ______________________________________________________________

She travels ____________ on business trips because ______________________

Speaker D
I travel a lot because of my job, but when I’m on holiday I don’t stay at home either. I’m curious and travelling is the best way to ____________ my curiosity. I think it’s a great way to ____________ the world, to ____________ new people and to ____________ about cultures and lifestyles. I ______________ trying new dishes and hunting for unusual souvenirs for my family and friends. I find travelling relaxing too.

He likes travelling for some reasons. Firstly, _________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________
Secondly, __________________________________________________________________

Finally, ________________________________________________________________

Speaker E
I have to know everything about tourist routes, hotels, sights and attractions as I work for a travel agency. I help people to ____________ the trip which is best for them, ____________ hotels, ____________ plane and train tickets, and ____________ their problems if something goes wrong. The first thing I do when I come to the office is check my emails and the telephone answering machine for any urgent messages.

Her job requires _________________________________________________________