Solution to Exercise 143 | 120

Key | 121
To the student

English Grammar in Use Supplementary Exercises is for intermediate and advanced students who want extra practice in grammar, without help from a teacher.

There are 200 exercises in this new edition. Each exercise relates to a unit or units in English Grammar in Use Fifth Edition, with the unit number(s) at the top of the page. All the answers are given in the Key (pages 121–138). Some exercises ask you to use your own ideas. For these, you can check the Example answers in the Key. You can use this book if you don’t have English Grammar in Use, but for an explanation of the grammar points, you need to check in English Grammar in Use.

The grammar points covered in this book are not in order of difficulty, so you can go straight to the parts where you need the most practice. Where there are several exercises on one grammar point, however, the easier ones come first. It’s a good idea to do each exercise, check your answers and then go on to the next one.

Many of the exercises are in the form of emails, notes, conversations or short articles. You can use these as models for writing or speaking practice.

To the teacher

English Grammar in Use Supplementary Exercises offers extra practice of most of the grammar points covered in English Grammar in Use Fifth Edition. Much of the language is contextualised within dialogues, emails, notes, articles etc., encouraging students to consider meaning as well as form. The book can be used as self-study material or as a basis for further practice in class or as homework.

The book is designed for students who have already worked through the exercises in English Grammar in Use (or elsewhere) which are relevant to their needs, but who need more, or more challenging, practice. It is particularly useful for revision work.

The exercises are organised in the same order as the units of English Grammar in Use, and the numbers of the relevant English Grammar in Use units are shown at the top of each page. Within each group of exercises there is a progression from easier to more challenging, including exercises where students are encouraged to use their own ideas. The contextualised exercises can be used as models or springboards for speaking and writing practice of a freer nature.

Present continuous and present simple

Put the verbs into the correct form: present continuous or present simple.

Tony Hunt, a journalist, is interviewing Leila Markham, an environmental scientist.

TONY: So tell me, Leila, why is it important to save the rainforests?

LEILA: There are so many reasons. One reason is that lots of the plants which (1) grow (grow) in the rainforest could be useful in medicine. We (2) not know (not / know) all the plants, but there are tens of thousands of them. Chemists and doctors (3) try (try) to discover their secrets before they are destroyed.

TONY: I see. What other reasons are there?

LEILA: Well, scientists (4) believe (believe) that the rainforests (5) have (have) an influence on the world’s weather systems and this (6) help (help) to slow down global warming. But, unfortunately, these days the forests (7) disappear (not / do) enough to save them. (8) not do (not / do) enough to save them.

TONY: What is the main danger of global warming, in your opinion?

LEILA: The polar regions (9) consist (consist) of millions of tons of ice. If they (10) melt (melt), the level of the sea will rise and cause terrible floods. Most scientists (11) agree (agree) that global temperatures (12) rise (already / rise). We must do everything we can to prevent global warming, and that includes preserving the rainforests!

TONY: Thank you, Leila, and good luck in your campaign.

LEILA: Thank you.

Anyway, he (15) didn’t mind (not mind) and he (16) asked (ask) her to go for a coffee. They (17) got married (get married) a month later in Bali. We (18) know (not know) anything about it! Can you believe it?

He’s really nice and they are very happy together!

Love, Ada
Here is part of the website of a rock star called Aidan Flanagan. Put the verbs into the correct form: past simple or past continuous.

Aidan Flanagan was born in 1994 in Bray near Dublin, Ireland. In 2011 he became very seriously ill. While he was recovering at home, his uncle gave him an old drumkit. He enjoyed playing and practised in a friend’s garage every evening.

One day in 2013, John Leaf, the manager of several successful musicians, passed the garage when he heard Aidan practising. He banged on the garage door and invited Aidan to appear in one of the concerts he organised that year. Aidan, however, not accept Leaf’s invitation, because at that time he was preparing for some important school exams.

Aidan passed his exams and went to university to study engineering. There he met Kim O’Malley, who studied chemistry. Kim played the saxophone. Being students, they did not have much money and they usually worked as waiters at weekends.

One evening in April 2016, while Aidan and Kim served customers, the manager announced that there would be no live music in the restaurant that night as the regular band could not come. Aidan and Kim persuaded the manager to let them play. All the customers and staff were amazed to hear how good their music was. In the next six months Aidan and Kim earned so much money they decided to leave university and go on tour. Their success has continued ever since.

Complete the first sentence with the verb in the past continuous. Write a second sentence with the verb in the past simple to say what happened next. Use your own ideas.

1. When my phone rang, I was watching TV.
   I answered it but it was a wrong number.

Julia is being interviewed by Nicola for a job working with young children.

NICOLA: Come in, Julia. Please sit down. Would you like a coffee?

JULIA: Thank you, actually I've just had (just) one.

NICOLA: Oh good. Now, do you know this area at all?

JULIA: Quite well. I've got friends who live in this town, so I've been here for holidays since I was a child. I'm staying with them at the moment, actually.

NICOLA: Oh, that's nice. And do you have a driving licence?

JULIA: Yes. I've had one for four years now.

NICOLA: And would you say you're a careful driver?

JULIA: Yes, I think so. At least I've never had an accident.

NICOLA: Good. Now, could you tell me why you think you would be right for this job?

JULIA: Well, I'm always interested in working with small children. And I've had two holiday jobs looking after children.

NICOLA: How do you think you would cope in an emergency?

JULIA: I'm quite a calm person, I think. I've got a first-aid certificate too.

NICOLA: That's good. Now, this job isn't permanent, as you know. We need someone for about a year. How would that fit with your long-term plans?

JULIA: I'd like to work abroad eventually. But I want some full-time experience first. I'm going to do a Nursery Teacher's course this year. We finish next week, in fact.

NICOLA: When would you be able to start?

JULIA: As soon as I finish my course.

NICOLA: Excellent. And would you live with your friends?

JULIA: Well, probably not. I want to rent a small flat. I do look in the paper every day, but I haven't found anything yet.

NICOLA: Well, if you get the job, we'll try to help you. Now, would you like to come and meet some of the children?

JULIA: Oh, yes.

NICOLA: Right, if you'll just follow me then.

From: Roberto & Jan
To: Nick
Subject: Greetings from Prague

Dear Nick,

We've been having a wonderful time here in Prague. We have been staying here for three days now and we have decided to stay for the rest of the week because we have loved ourselves so much. We have visited the Charles Bridge and the Castle, and this morning we walked around other historic places, including Kafka's house. I took this photo just before lunch. We haven't bought any souvenirs yet, but we have been in some good art galleries and shops. Fortunately, the weather hasn't been too cold so far. People have been saying it can be really bad at this time of year and of course it often snows heavily here! As this is the first time we have been to Prague, we have been suprised that we're just lucky.

See you soon, Roberto and Jan

SAM: Dave, I’m worried about the team.
DAVE: But why? (1) You’ve won (You / win) every game this season.
SAM: Yeah, (2) we’re very lucky. That’s (3) what (cause) me problems now.
DAVE: How come?
SAM: Well, (4) we’ve practised twice a week since the beginning of this season and (5) that really makes a difference. Now, some of the guys say that’s not necessary because (6) we always win. The thing is, I’m afraid that if (7) we not practise so often, we may start losing matches. (8) we play Donnington on Saturday and (9) everyone agrees they’re a really strong team. I’m worried because the trouble is, (10) we not practise since Monday.
DAVE: I can see (11) you have a problem. What can you do?
SAM: I think the problem is really Callum.
DAVE: The big guy (12) who plays for you since last season?
SAM: Yeah, and (13) he usually scores most of the goals. The trouble is, since the summer (14) he arrived for training really late. And now several of the other players in the team (15) begin to do the same. When I try to talk to him, (16) he refuses to listen to what (17) I say.
DAVE: Well, you’re the captain, tell him he can’t play in the match against Donnington if (18) he not listens to you.
SAM: OK, but (19) I not like to speak to people like that. What if he gets angry and leaves the team?
DAVE: I’m sure he won’t.
SAM: Yeah, well. (20) I hope not.

Subject: Temporary manager

Dear Mr Aziz,

I would like to apply for the job of temporary manager which I see advertised on your website.

I am twenty years old. I was born in Poland, but my family moved to England when I was twelve and I am living here ever since. I left school since three years and since then I am having several jobs in tourism and marketing. For the past six months I am working for Go-Places Agency. The manager has been saying that he is willing to give me a reference.

I speak Polish and English fluently. I have also learnt Spanish since I left school, so I speak some Spanish too.

I hope you will consider my application.

Yours sincerely,

Marianna Nowak

Hi,

Thought you’d like to know that the conference was very successful. 😊 The talks (1) were / had been really interesting and all the speakers (2) had prepared / prepared their material very thoroughly. Everyone agreed we should do the same next year.

However there were some problems with the conference centre. 😞 When we (3) arrived / had arrived, we (4) discovered / had discovered that the manager (5) reserved / had reserved the wrong room for us. This meant that we (6) didn’t have / hadn’t had enough space. Unfortunately, he couldn’t let us have the larger room because he (7) gave / had given it to another group, which was even bigger than ours. 😞 😞

He (8) also misunderstood / had also misunderstood the form explaining what lunch options we (9) wanted / had wanted. In fact, we (10) suspected / had suspected that he (11) lost / had lost it. I recommend not using that venue again!

Best wishes,

Nonna

Hi Helena,

Thanks for your email.

It was good to see you last week and show you our research facilities here. Sorry to hear you lost your phone on the journey home. I’ve looked for it, but it definitely isn’t in our office. I think you (1) may have left it on the train. Why not phone the lost property office? It (2) may have fallen down the side of your seat. Someone (3) may have found it and handed it in. Anyway, as far as I remember, you (4) may be visiting it here, because you were using a map on your phone to get to the station.

And now my news. Guess what? I (5) could be coming to your part of the world next month for a conference! My professor wanted to attend it, but now he’s heard that some important scientists (6) could be coming to our laboratory at that time. So, you and I (7) may be visiting each other sooner than we expected. I’ll email as soon as I know for certain.

All the best,
Robin

From: Anna James
To: Gary Newland
Subject: Travel tips

Hey Gary,
I know you haven’t done such a long flight before so I thought I’d better give you a few tips. First, you make sure you get to the airport really early because you always spend ages getting through security. You be prepared for them to open all your hand luggage too. Your flight is an early one so, with luck, you be able to get a seat in the business lounge. You (not) pay for breakfast as it’s free there. When your flight’s called, you start moving to the gate immediately because sometimes you walk for about fifteen minutes. You (not) take very heavy hand luggage because you carry it yourself and you can’t take a trolley to the gates. Everyone agrees there be some, of course, but there aren’t. You get a meal on the flight, and even if it doesn’t taste very exciting you eat it, because there’s nowhere to eat until you reach your hotel at the other end. If you have any questions, email me.
Love, Anna x

SINGING STAR TANYA ANNOUNCES WEDDING PLANS

CHARLIE: Well, congratulations Tanya!

TANYA: Thank you. Of course, we're very excited about getting married and frantically busy too, needless to say.

CHARLIE: I'm sure all your fans are longing to know how you met your fiancé, Dr Radani.

TANYA: Well, it's a funny story really.

(1) You know I did a world tour last year? That meant I had to spend five months travelling.

(2) And I didn't have a holiday last year so I got terribly tired and stressed.

(3) My manager panicked because he had contracted me to record a new album after the tour.

(4) Anyway, the tour was such a huge success that I was able to postpone the recording for two months. I was really relieved.

(5) My manager sent me to a luxury spa hotel for a complete rest. And I met this wonderful man, Hossein. He's a scientist.

(6) He told me he should have been doing research in California, but he was recovering from a bad skiing accident.

(7) We were the only guests on our own, so we started talking.

(8) He didn't know who I was. He didn't treat me like a star. He made me laugh. It was such a change. And that was it really. We found we'd fallen in love.

(9) Wasn't it lucky my manager panicked? That's how I met my fiancé!

CHARLIE: And what about your wedding plans?

TANYA: Ah, they're completely secret.

Jake and Martin share a room at college. Read what they say about each other. Then write sentences beginning I wish he would/wouldn’t.

Martin says:

I wish Jake wouldn’t borrow my phone without asking.

It’s dreadful having to share a room with Jake. He borrows my phone without asking. He never washes his coffee mug and he’s so untidy! He leaves his shoes lying around the room and drops his clothes on my chair – the room’s such a mess I can’t work. And he comes in late in the evening and doesn’t remember I go to sleep early. Then he lies in bed playing computer games. I can’t stand it! I’m going to look for a room on my own.

The trouble with Martin is that he never relaxes. He works so hard. He gets angry when I just make a phone call. And he interferes with my possessions. He moves my shoes and clothes around so I can’t find them. He throws my shoes on my bed. He never plays computer games with me. He wakes me up when he goes out for a run early in the morning. He’s no fun to share a room with.

Jake says:

I wish Martin would relax sometimes.

Martin says:

... I wish Jake wouldn’t borrow my phone without asking.

... ...

Jake says:

... I wish Martin would relax sometimes.

EATING OUT with Eva Wolsey

It’s exactly midday and I’m sitting in the Beverly Restaurant. Today I’ve been finding out just how much work goes on in a restaurant before the first customers arrive.

The staff have already done six hours work. The day began with a visit to the market where vegetables and fruit were chosen. Back at the restaurant the menu were planned and then the day’s delivery of meat was unloaded. After that, breakfast was cooked for the staff. But they didn’t have long to eat it, because by 9.30 it was time for the desserts to be made. After the vegetables, the fish and the meat in the oven.

While this was happening in the kitchen, in the restaurant dining room the floor was cleaned and the tables were laid and the flowers were arranged, so the dining room looks fresh and pretty.

In the last few minutes, salads were prepared in the kitchen and in a moment the doors were opened. In the next three hours, about 200 meals were served!

From: Delia Rigby
To: Maggie Clark
Subject: Angela

Hi Maggie,

Guess what? Last week I met Angela, who we used to work with. She told me she was still living with her parents, but she wanted to move out. She explained that her sister had found a flat they could share, and they'd looked round it the week before. It had just been decorated and they'd liked it very much, but they'd been asked to pay a month's rent in advance. Unfortunately, because she was working part-time and she didn't earn much money, she hadn't saved enough for the deposit. She said she was going to get a new job. She was being interviewed the next day, so she had to buy some new clothes for the interview. I hope Angela and her sister will invite us to their new flat when they move in!

Love,
Delia

Then he asked if I (11) ________________ (bring) some work to show him and he looked at my work.

Charlie: Was that all?
Alex: I think so. He asked me when I (12) ________________ (become) interested in painting and drawing, and I said that I (13) ________________ (think) I always (14) ________________ (be). Oh, yes, and he told me my work (15) ________________ (be) very good.

Charlie: I’m not surprised. It is good. I hope he’ll like my stuff too.
Alex: Oh, I think he will.

Look back at your answers to Exercise 116. Complete the article which the journalist wrote a month after the interview with Wilma.

Last month I was lucky enough to interview Wilma Shaw when she was in this country. First of all I asked Wilma how long she (1) ________________ here and she said two months, but actually she has already gone back to the U.S. She told me it (2) ________________ her first visit to the U.K. because she (3) ________________ here five years before, for a holiday. The pop singer then told me that she (4) ________________ a tour. When I asked her how many cities she (5) ________________, she thought about twenty. She said she (6) ________________ to have a holiday after the tour. She looked tired. But when I asked her whether she (7) ________________ a message for her fans, she told them (8) ________________ to the concerts and have a wild time. Well, it looks as though Wilma has had too many wild times, because her manager said last week that she is now resting!
John had a row with his girlfriend, Julie. His friend Mark tried to help them get back together and talked to Julie for John.

MARK: Julie, John’s asked me to talk to you.
JULIE: I don’t want to speak to him.
MARK: Look Julie, John’s really upset.
JULIE: I’m upset too.
MARK: Will you just let me tell you his side of the story?
JULIE: I’m not interested. He promised to meet me at the restaurant, but he didn’t turn up. I don’t want to see him again.
MARK: But Julie, his car had broken down.
JULIE: So? I had my phone with me.
MARK: But that’s the point. He tried to phone, but he couldn’t get through.
JULIE: I don’t believe he tried.
MARK: Yes, he did. His phone wasn’t working, so he came to my flat and borrowed mine. Take a look at my recent calls.
JULIE: OK, I’ll talk to him. Listen, I’m going to be late for work. I’ll meet him at six o’clock in the square.
MARK: Thanks, Julie. He’ll be really happy. And I promise he’ll be there.

Complete the conversation Mark had later with John.

JOHN: What did Julie say?
MARK: She said she (1) didn’t want to speak to you.
JOHN: Well, what did she say when you told her I was really upset?
MARK: She said she (2) too, so I asked her to let me explain your side of the story. She said she (3) again.
You (4) to meet her at the restaurant, but you (5) . She said that she (6) again.
JOHN: Did you explain about the car?
MARK: Yes, and she said she (7) her phone with her. So I explained you couldn’t get through, but she said she (8) you (9) . Then I told her that you (10) to my flat and that you (11) my phone. I asked her if she (12) at my recent calls. She did and she said she (13) to you. Then she said she (14) late for work, so we had to stop talking.
You have to meet her in the square at six o’clock.

JOHN: Thanks, Mark. I really appreciate what you’ve done for me.
MARK: That’s OK. Just don’t be late this evening.

Anna has just met the singer Aidan Flanagan. (You may remember him from Exercise 16.) She is telling Ian about the meeting. Ian wants to know exactly what Aidan said to Anna and what she said to him.

IAN: Well, what was he like? Was he friendly? What did he say?
ANNA: He was really friendly. (1) He asked me who I was.
IAN: Then what?
ANNA: (2) He asked me where I came from.
IAN: And what did you say?
ANNA: (3) I told him I came from Bray, of course. Then (4) he said that was where he was born too. Then (5) I told him I’d been a fan of his for ages and (6) he said that was very good to hear. Then (7) he asked whether I was going to the concert tonight. So (8) I told him we wanted to, but we hadn’t been able to get tickets. (9) He asked if the tickets were sold out, and (10) I told him they’d sold all but the most expensive ones and we couldn’t afford those.
IAN: And did he give you some tickets?
ANNA: No, he didn’t. But (11) he asked the concert hall manager if we could have some at the cheaper price. And the manager said ‘Yes’!

Subject: Talk with my dad

Hello Stephanie,

I must (1) __tell__ you about the talk I had with my dad last weekend.

We talked for hours and I (2) ___________________________________ him all about the plans we've made for our business. At first, he wasn't very interested and he (3) ___________________________________ he didn't think we were old enough to run a business. But then I (4) ___________________________________ him that we had already talked to a small business adviser, and she (5) ___________________________________ that the plan seemed realistic. She agreed that all we need is a small loan at a reasonable rate.

So after that he sat down and asked me (6) ___________________________________ him exactly how much money we'd need to start with, and how long for. Eventually he (7) ___________________________________ to me, ‘OK, I think it's a good plan.

(8) ___________________________________ Stephanie that I'll lend you the money to get started.’ Honestly, I couldn't believe he (9) ___________________________________ it! Isn't it great? I'm really looking forward to seeing you next week so we can talk to him together and get things going.

All the best,
Nathan

Dear Ruth,

Thanks very much for the lovely present you sent for Laurie. It was very kind of you. You say in your note that you haven’t got used to (1) being (be) an aunt yet. I used to (2) think (think) that becoming a father wouldn’t change me. I was wrong, of course! Life will never be the same again. We never used to (3) go to bed before midnight, but now we’re asleep by ten because we’ve had to get used to (4) waking (wake) up at five o’clock. Actually, in a way, that’s good. I always used to (5) arrive (arrive) late at the office, but since Laurie was born my colleagues have got used to (6) finding (find) me hard at work by the time they arrive!

I should say, though, the change in our lives hasn’t been so easy for Jenny. At first she found it very hard on her own with Laurie. She wasn’t used to (7) spending (spend) all day alone with a baby. But now she’s got to know a neighbour who also has a young baby and that helps. She used to (8) saying (say) she’d go back to work when Laurie was six months, but now she’s used to (9) being (be) at home she’s beginning to enjoy herself, so she may wait until Laurie is a bit older.

Anyway, try to come and see us soon while Laurie is still small.

All the best,
Dennis

TOM: She’s all right. You really fancy her, don’t you?

SIDNEY: Yeah. I often dream (1) about taking (take) her out, but I’m afraid (2) to ask (ask) her.

TOM: Why?

SIDNEY: Well, I suppose I’m afraid (3) to look (look) like a fool if she refuses.

TOM: If you like her so much, you shouldn’t be afraid (4) to risk (risk) it. Anyway, I’m sure she won’t refuse.

SIDNEY: You think so?

TOM: Yeah, go on, why don’t you text her?

SIDNEY: OK, I’ll do it now.

TOM: It’s lucky for me that I’ve succeeded (5) to persuade (persuade) you.

SIDNEY: Why’s that?

TOM: I just happen to know she fancies you. I told her I’d get you to contact her and she’s looking forward (6) to hear (hear) from you!

B Brian and Phil are at work.

BRIAN: Good morning Phil, could we have a word in my office?

PHIL: Of course.

BRIAN: I’m sorry (7) to have (have) to say this, but I’m afraid you failed (8) to achieve (achieve) high enough sales to earn a bonus this month. I suppose the bad weather kept the customers away?

PHIL: Yes, I guess so. I’m very sorry (9) to let (let) you down this time.

BRIAN: OK, I’m sure you’ll make it up soon. I’m thinking (10) to send (send) one or two junior sales staff on a course next month. Would you be interested (11) to go (go)?

PHIL: Yes, I would be. Thank you.

BRIAN: Good. I’ll put your name on the list.

KATIE: Well, Mum was the only one (15) to remember (remember).

JOANNA: Well, she’s not likely (16) to forget (forget), is she?

KATIE: No, I suppose you’re right.
Put the verbs in the correct form. Can you solve this detective puzzle?

Trevor Stern was not a popular man, in spite of his wealth. He (1) lived (live) in a large house about a mile outside the village of Prenton. When he (2) was found (find) dead in his study, no one (3) cried (cry), not even his only daughter. It was soon clear that he (4) murdered (murder).

Detective Inspector Blackledge took statements from his widow Delia, his fifteen-year-old daughter Lucy, his business partner Gerald Brook, and his doctor.

Delia gave her statement first.

I (5) do not love (not / love) my husband, he was a cold and selfish man. But I (6) do not murder (not / murder) him, either. After dinner last night he said he (7) wanted (want) to check some business papers in his study. He (8) had (have) a meeting with Gerald, his business partner, the next morning. He (9) asked (ask) for some tea. That was about nine o’clock. I (10) watched (watch) a rather exciting film, so I (11) told (tell) Lucy to take it to him.

It was at quarter past nine that Doctor Emerson (12) called (call). I (13) noticed (notice) the time because we (14) expected (expect) him to come earlier. I (15) answered (answer) the front door bell. Trevor (16) shouted (shout) in his study. He and Lucy (17) obviously have (have) a serious row. So I (18) took (take) the doctor into the sitting room for a moment. Then Trevor stopped (19) shouting (shout). I guessed Lucy (20) went (go) out by the back door. Doctor Emerson went to the study. I think he wanted to persuade Trevor (21) to go (go) into hospital for some tests, but Trevor (22) did not want (not / want) to go.

I (23) heard (hear) my husband shouting again several times over the next twenty minutes. He called Emerson an ignorant country doctor and later he said something like, ‘There’s nothing you can do!’ I think Lucy (24) came (come) back into the house while the doctor (25) still talks (still / talk) to Trevor.

I (26) heard (hear) the front door bang during a moment of quiet when Trevor (27) did not shout (not / shout). I was tired and fed up, and went to my bedroom soon after that. My sister (28) phone (phone) and we (29) talked (talk) for ages. I (30) told (tell) her I (31) decide (decide) to leave Trevor.

She (97) ______________________________ (go) into her house and I (98) ______________________________ (find) the dog a few minutes afterwards. I was back home by just after quarter to ten.

Detective Inspector Blackledge showed the statements to her colleague, Sergeant Ross.

BLACKLEDGE: Well, Ross. What do you think? Who killed Stern?
ROSS: I don’t know. It (99) ______________________________ (not / be) his wife.

BLACKLEDGE: But she admits she didn’t love him. Do you think she’s in love with the doctor?
ROSS: It’s possible. And perhaps Trevor Stern (101) ______________________________ (find out). But we know the doctor was at the hospital by ten o’clock that night. And that’s at least half an hour from the Sterns’ house.

BLACKLEDGE: But that (102) ______________________________ (mean) that Doctor Emerson (103) ______________________________ (leave) the Sterns’ house before half past nine.
ROSS: Exactly. Also, Delia Stern told her sister she (104) ______________________________ (leave) her husband. She didn’t need (105) ______________________________ (murder) him.

BLACKLEDGE: Yes, and there’s something about Lucy’s story which doesn’t quite fit. Let’s see, what did Gerald Brook say?
ROSS: That’s it! Lucy (106) ______________________________ (not / walk) to the village and back if he (107) ______________________________ (meet) her at twenty to ten.

BLACKLEDGE: But look at all the statements. The times don’t fit.
ROSS: Neither do the facts. Someone (109) ______________________________ (tell) lies.

BLACKLEDGE: I think it’s time we (110) ______________________________ (make) an arrest.

Who did they arrest? See page 120.

Hi Terri,

You asked me for news of Helen in your last email. Well, you know I’m completely hopeless (1) at remembering gossip but basically the situation is this – Helen’s parents haven’t forgiven Helen (2) law and enrolling at art college. They thought she would rely (3) her own decisions. Her parents have always been very tolerant (4) but they’re really annoyed (5) because of this sudden change of plan. When she told me, I could see she was really pleased (7) . But her parents are quite upset, because they haven’t succeeded (8) . Well, it’s typical (9) . She always insists (10) what she wants. I wouldn’t dream (11) the way she does.

Anyway, that’s how it is. How are you?
Love, Susie

Hi Mel, how are you?
Fed up. Here I am working really hard at college, and my cousin Ruth has just left without finishing her course.

Really?! What did her parents say?
Her dad says he won't tolerate her bad behaviour any longer.
But I bet she won't be punished for it, as usual.
She's so spoilt – she always manages to avoid doing any work.
When we were kids, she used to invent all kinds of excuses to get out of anything hard.

What would your parents do if you behaved like her?
If I disappointed my parents like she does, I'd be in real trouble!

Want to see a movie later and take your mind off things?

Yeah, that sounds great!

36 Example answer:
Dear Ms Sparks,
I would like to apply for the job in a souvenir shop which I have seen advertised on the student jobsearch website. I am seventeen years old. My first language is Italian, but I also speak quite good German and English. I have not yet left school, but I have some experience in working in a shop as I sometimes help my uncle who runs a small supermarket. I attach the address and phone number of my teacher, Mr Pallini, who has said that he is willing to give me a reference. I hope you will consider my application.
Yours sincerely,
