100 ways to say it in business English

By Andrew D. Miles
This is an abridged version of my e-book, 250 Ways to Say It in Business English, which I started compiling when a student asked me for a list of “phrases to say” in different business situations. He had gone through a few English courses and felt that teachers had always taught him the same functions. “I’ve learnt how to ask someone to open a window several times,” he commented, “but no one has told me what to say when I have to give bad news.”

100 Ways to Say it in Business English is for people who want a quick guide on what to say in common situations. Five examples have been written for each function to give readers the opportunity to find the phrase that suits their needs best.

All in all, a choice of five hundred phrases that, I hope, can help you speak business English more effectively.

The full book can be bought at www.words300.com/books for $1.99. It includes two hundred and fifty situations, with thirty-three that refer exclusively to telephoning. In total, well over a thousand expressions to help students with their business English.

15. PRESENT EVIDENCE FORMALLY

I’d like you to see
I’d like you to see this graph.

Let me show you
Let me show you our new product line.

Please observe
Please observe how the new design is more aerodynamic.

If you watch
If you watch this video closely you’ll see it was filmed last year.

Have a look
Have a good look at this chart.

16. PRESENT EVIDENCE LESS FORMALLY

Look here
Just look over here. This is the new tractor.

Can you see?
Can you see Joe? He’s the third from the left.

Watch this

17. PRESENT DATA IN ORDER

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Firstly</th>
<th>Secondly</th>
<th>To end</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>To start with</td>
<td>Then</td>
<td>To conclude</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Initially</td>
<td>Next</td>
<td>Finally</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>In first place</td>
<td>Following on from</td>
<td>To finish</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Let us begin by</td>
<td>Afterwards</td>
<td>Last but not least</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Firstly, secondly and to end
Firstly we’ll tackle costs; secondly we’ll view the balance sheet and, to end, we’ll discuss this year’s sales.

To start with, then and to conclude
Henry will start with a presentation. Then he’ll answer questions and, to conclude, we will walk round the grounds so you can see the building.

Initially, next and finally.
We had initially planned to visit France. The next idea was to go to Spain – though we finally travelled nowhere.

In first place, following on from and to finish
In first place, we never asked her to represent us – so following on from that we decided to take her to court. Anyhow, we finished it all by reaching an agreement.

Let us begin by, afterwards and last but not least
Let us begin by setting the goals. We can talk about the budget afterwards and – last but not least – name a project coordinator.
18. PRESENT APPARENTLY CONTRASTING DATA

Although A seems fine, B is better
Although your proposal seems fine, John’s is better.

In spite of the evidence, I’d like to say
In spite of the evidence, I’d like to say that you could be wrong.

We could opt for A. On the other hand
We could opt for option A. On the other hand, option B is also interesting.

I like your idea. However, I prefer
I like your new idea. However, I prefer to continue with the same plan.

Instead of praising
Instead of praising Jim we should be worrying about his future.

19. ASK FOR INFORMATION

Could you please?
Could you please give me all the data you have?

Would you mind?
Would you mind informing me of the consequences?

I wonder if you could
I wonder if you could hand me the fact sheet on Dynacore.

What do you know about?
What do you know about Peter’s background?

Do you have?
Do you have any information on the Lambeth Square project?
20. ASK FOR EVIDENCE

Could you provide?
Could you provide us with the hard facts?

Why don’t you?
Why don’t you give us an example?

Can you illustrate that?
Can you illustrate that with a real-life case?

What evidence?
What evidence do you have?

How will you back that up?
How will you back up your proposal?

21. ASK FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

May we have?
May we have further details?

Could you elaborate on?
Could you elaborate on how you intend to make this work?

Is there any additional?
Is there any additional aspect to consider before we vote?

We need more
We need more data. One projection is just not enough.

Could you provide?
Could you provide some extra information on the touch-screen market?
22.  ASK FOR FURTHER DETAILS

Could you add?
Could you add more details to the second point, please?

Could we have more particulars?
Could we have more particulars on your experience is mechatronics?

Could you give us further details?
Could you give us further details on this scheme?

What else?
What else can you add to convince us better?

Any more information?
Do you have any more info or have you already shown us everything?

23.  ASK ABOUT MEALS

Is it included in the price?
Is breakfast included in the price?

What time?
What time is dinner served?

Do you have a special menu?
Do you have a vegetarian menu at the restaurant?

Jim is intolerant to gluten
Jim is intolerant to gluten. Is there anything for people with celiac disease?

I’m allergic to
I’m allergic to nuts. Do you have any nut-free ice cream?
24. ASK HOW TO CONTACT

Could I contact you?
Could I contact you at the agency later on?

How do I get in touch with you?
How do I get in touch with you if I have a problem with the system?

How can I reach you?
How can I reach you at the weekend? I don’t have your home number.

What’s your?
What’s your e-mail?

Could I have your?
Could I have your office address please?

25. CORRECT MISUNDERSTANDING

There’s a misunderstanding
I’m afraid there’s been a misunderstanding. I said Mrs Figgs, not Mrs Pigs.

This isn’t what I meant
This isn’t quite what I meant. Sales diminished but didn’t plummet.

I don’t think you’ve understood
I don’t think you’ve actually understood me. I am not against you.

It was not my intention
It was not my intention to offend you. I am sorry.

I’m sorry about the confusion
I’m sorry about the confusion. I thought Taylor was only a woman’s name.
26. CORRECT WHAT’S WRONG

That is not right
Sorry, that is not quite right. Toronto is not the capital of Canada.

It’s wrong
It’s all wrong. Can’t you see the formula’s incorrect?

You’ve made a mistake
You’ve made a mistake so it’s your turn to set matters right.

That needs correction
Those figures need correction. We need to add variable costs.

This is different to
This is different to what we had agreed. You must change it.

27. KEEP A MEETING IN ORDER

We can’t all speak at once.
We can’t all speak at once. Heather, you start.

Let’s concentrate on
Let’s concentrate on the agenda for the day.

Shall we take turns?
Shall we take turns? We can vote one by one.

Please lower your voice.
Please lower your voice. You won’t convince anyone by shouting.

Will you let Maria speak?
Jason, will you let Maria speak? She has important things to say.
28. KEEP A MEETING IN TRACK

That’s another subject
Finance is another subject altogether. Now we’ll just talk about sales.

We can’t discuss that issue
We can’t discuss that issue today. It’s not on the agenda.

That's outside the scope
That’s outside the scope of our meeting so we’ll leave it for now.

Let's get back on track
Let’s get back on track. We’re wasting too much time.

We’re digressing
We’re digressing. I want to stick to the main subject.

29. COME BACK TO A TOPIC

Now, where were we?
Now, where were we? Yes, prime time ratings.

What were we saying?
What were you saying when Carol interrupted us?

As I was explaining
As I was explaining before lunch, higher prices don’t always deter buyers.

Return to
Let’s return to point five: Clay Corporation.

This leads us back to
This leads us back to the subject we were discussing yesterday.
30. POSTPONE AN ISSUE

We’ll defer
We’ll defer the matter till we have all relevant information.

Let’s leave
Let’s leave this issue aside for the time being.

It’s too late to
It’s too late to discuss advertising today. We’ll have more time tomorrow.

Shall we leave it for?
Shall we leave the final decision for this afternoon’s session?

Let’s postpone
Let’s postpone the discussion till everyone has arrived.

31. FOCUS ON THE MAIN ISSUE

The major
The only major problem we need to solve is absenteeism.

Our primary concern is
Our primary concern isn’t only increased sales but better quality as well.

What is the real issue?
What’s the real issue? Managers are not committed to their jobs.

The most important
The most important hurdle of this negotiation is to convince Mr Lewis.

We really need
We really need to look after our workforce.
32. EMPHASISE ON A POINT

This is a key issue
Labour relations are a key issue now.

I’d like to emphasise on
I’d like to emphasise on point three of my presentation.

This is highly significant
Norah’s attitude is highly significant. She’s certainly against us.

This is vital
Turning a profit this year is vital if we wish to survive.

It’s imperative
It’s imperative to solve this problem now.

33. PLAY DOWN A POINT

This is a minor issue
This is a minor issue. Price is the main concern.

This is of secondary importance
This is of secondary importance if we compare it with our real problem.

Who cares?
Who cares about PR when the company’s on the brink of bankruptcy?

It’s irrelevant
His view is irrelevant, completely worthless.

It’s not significant
This matter is not significant at all. Let’s move onto what is crucial.
34. SLOW DOWN A MEETING

Before we move on
Before we move on I believe we should hear Jackie’s point of view.

Wait a minute
Wait a minute. We haven’t discussed the forecast yet.

Shouldn’t we postpone?
Shouldn’t we postpone the decision till Lindsay is back from her office?

Not so fast
Not so fast. We haven’t finished our coffee yet!

Take it easy
Take it easy. What’s the hurry? We have the whole weekend ahead of us.

35. MOVE THE MEETING FORWARD

Shall we proceed onto the next point?
Shall we proceed onto the next point? There are ten items on the agenda.

We need to solve it today
We do need to solve it today. Tomorrow’s Sabbath in Israel.

Let’s move on
Let’s move one. Time is money.

I don’t have all morning
I don’t have all morning. Make up your minds now!

Hurry up
Hurry up please. We can’t waste more time on this.
Incidentally, may I mention that?
Incidentally, may I mention that Hutchinson called today?

An alternative to consider
An alternative point to consider is the effect of this decision on our image.

While we are on the subject
While we are on the subject, I’d like to inform you that Jo is ill today.

On quite another matter
On quite another matter, battery life is still a major concern.

Could we now deal with?
Could we now deal with our plans for the Geneva summit?

By the way
By the way, it rained quite a bit yesterday.

Can we move onto?
Can we move onto our plans for dinner?

To bring up something else
To bring up something else, Max came to the office yesterday.

Now is time to
Now is the right time to talk about the new site. Tomorrow will be too late.

There’s another issue we have to deal with
There’s another issue we have to deal with – losses in the chemistry area.
38. CHANGE TOPICS INFORMALLY

I don’t want to
I don’t want to talk about football anymore. What are the plans for tonight?

It has just crossed my mind
It has just crossed my mind that Billy won’t be able to come.

Changing subject
Changing subject, did you see Dudley yesterday?

Before I forget
Before I forget, how did Jack and Edith get on?

We’ve had enough
We’ve had enough of you talking about golf. What’s the next point?

39. INTERRUPT VERY POLITELY

Er
Er, I think Joan is already here.

Sorry
Sorry, I never meant that.

Actually
Actually it was Geraldine who arrived late.

Excuse me
Excuse me, that seems taking matters too far.

May I have a word?
May I have a word? Nothing will stop the Mirror from running the story.
40. INTERRUPT POLITELY

Can I make a comment?
Can I make a comment? Mike was never involved in this.

May I come in here?
May I come in here? In fact, new laptops tend to be lighter, not heavier.

May I interrupt?
May I interrupt? I do have something relevant to disclose.

Could I say something?
Could I say something? If we want lower costs we need other suppliers.

Sorry to interrupt
Sorry to interrupt, but someone’s phone is ringing.

41. INTERRUPT STRONGLY

Please listen to me
Please listen to me. It is important.

Do you mind if I jump in here?
Do you mind if I jump in here? I have to leave in five minutes.

I don't mean to intrude, but
I don’t mean to intrude, but Stephen is not exactly reliable.

Can I add something?
Can I add something here? WTR Ltd should be able to supply us.

What are you trying to say?
What are you trying to say? I never accepted that.
42. INTERRUPT VERY STRONGLY

What are you getting at?
What are you getting at? Can’t you see you’ll only cause trouble?

Will you let me speak?
Will you let me speak? You are not the only person here.

Won’t you let me give an opinion?
Won’t you let me give my own opinion? I demand the right to speak.

Will you shut up for a minute, please?
Will you shut up for a minute, please? Don’t you see everyone’s fed up?

Can’t you be quiet?
Can’t you be quiet for a moment, for goodness sake?

43. AVOID INTERRUPTION

Perhaps we could leave that for later on?
Perhaps we could leave that for some other moment.

Will you let me finish?
Will you let me finish? You can object when your turn comes up.

I’d rather go on with
I’d rather go on with the current subject as we’re a bit pressed for time.

Would you so be so kind as to let me finish?
Would you be so kind as to let me finish? I never interrupted your speech.

Would you mind not interrupting?
Would you mind not interrupting all the time?
44. ALLOW INTERRUPTION

Let’s hear
Let’s hear what Virginia has to say.

You may speak
Of course you may speak, Sylvie.

Please go ahead.
Please go ahead, Diana. What is so urgent?

We’d be delighted
We’d be delighted to hear your doubts, Paul. Please go ahead.

You’re not interrupting
You're not interrupting at all. Everyone is free to share their opinions.

45. CHECK FOR CONSENSUS

Do we agree?
Do we agree that suing Dynacore is the only solution?

Do we all share?
Do we all share the same belief?

Are you all with me?
Are you all with me? We need unanimity to approve this rule.

Is there anyone who?
Is there anyone who has a different point of view?

Shall we pass?
Shall we pass the motion? Good.
46. AGREE WITH OPINIONS

Exactly!
Exactly! You couldn’t have used better words.

That’s how I feel
That’s exactly how I feel as well.

I have to agree
I have to agree with you. There seems to be no other possibility.

I never thought about it that way before
I never thought about it that way before. It’s an excellent idea.

You’ve found
I think you’ve found the right solution.

47. DISAGREE PARTIALLY

I see your point of view, but
I can see your point of view, but winter is very cold in Montreal.

You might be right. However
You might be right. However, how can we tell for sure?

You have a good point, though
You have a good point, though Anthony is also right.

You could say that, but
You could say that, but who buys ice cream in winter?

Up to a point I agree. Nevertheless
Up to a point I agree. Nevertheless, I feel James has a sounder approach.
48. DISAGREE STRONGLY

I don’t agree
I don’t agree with you at all.

You’re not right.
You’re not right. Everything you said is wrong.

It’s not what I believe
It’s not what I believe and I will not back you.

I don’t think so
I don’t think so. Why don’t you change strategy?

That’s not such a good idea
That’s not such a good idea. Fiona tried it and it never worked.

49. DISAGREE LESS STRONGLY

I’ve got another
I’ve got another point of view.

I wouldn't do that
I wouldn’t do that. I would never sell a car to buy a motorcycle.

I'm afraid I can’t see it
I’m afraid I can’t see it that way.

Don't get me wrong
Don’t get me wrong but no one here shares your views.

I’m not so keen
I’m not so keen on your strategy. It seems too complicated.
50. DISAGREE POLITELY

I don't mean to be rude
I don’t mean to be rude but Bahia is north of Rio, not south.

This may sound
This may sound offensive but it is not my intention to hurt anyone.

Correct me if I'm wrong
Correct me if I’m wrong but I think cell phone sales have remained flat.

I hate to bring this up
I hate to bring this up, but Brigitte never studied Marketing.

There’s another way
There’s another way round this. Why not try the Beta system?

51. SOFTEN DISAGREEMENT

I’m afraid
I’m afraid your models are a bit dated.

I’m sorry
I’m sorry but I can’t agree with you.

Even though I respect your
Even though I respect your position I must dissent.

I know you’ve tried your best
I know you’ve tried your best, but your assumptions are wrong.

It’s a great idea
It’s a great idea but we there’s another way to do it.
52. EXPRESS RESERVATION

I have some reservations
I have some reservations. How much is all this going to cost?

Maybe we should reflect
Maybe we should reflect on this a bit more.

I’m worried
I’m rather worried about the rate of return.

I can’t help
