Task 3. You are going to give a talk about pets. You will have to start in 1.5 minutes and speak for not more than 2 minutes (10-12 sentences).

Remember to say:

why people keep pets;
what pets are most popular in big cities;
whether having pets is a big responsibility, and why;
what your attitude to pets is.

Introduction

_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________

The main part

There are many reasons why people keep pets.
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

As far as I know, a lot of pets are popular in big cities.

urban flats (small flats);
the best environment;
exotic animals;

I think having a pet is a great responsibility.
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

I’m (not) a big fan of pets. ___________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Conclusion

In conclusion I’d like to say I’m happy that many people have pets nowadays and I’m sure pets make our life brighter, more exciting and more interesting.

Учу английский! Готовимся к ОГЭ и ЕГЭ https://vk.com/club113662018