Billy will go fast.
He will go far.
He will go here.
He will go there.
He will go all around the block.
He needs a break!
A Season of Sight Words is a series of easy-to-read stories that feature the most frequently used words in the English language. And as the seasons advance from fall to winter to spring, the sight words introduced in each story progress from simple to more challenging words. Memorizing these key words “by sight” will give children an important tool on the road to reading success.

This book teaches the words:

- go
- he

This book is available for distribution only through the school market.
